we are now ready to turn our attention to consider whether evildoing is anything other than pursuing temporal things and whatever is perceived through the body (the least valuable part of a human being), which can never be fixed, as though they were great and wonderful, having neglected eternal things, which the mind enjoys through itself and perceives through itself and which it cannot lose while loving them. for all evildoings—that is to say, all sins—seem to me to be included under this one heading (I 16.34.115, page 29 of the Cambridge edition).

I just don’t buy this denigration of the body anymore. I think one of the important parts of the restoration is to give a new view on this.

2 Nephi 4:21

He hath filled me with his love, even unto the consuming of my flesh.¹

2 Nephi 4:22

He hath confounded mine enemies, unto the causing of them to quake before me.

2 Nephi 4:23

Behold, he hath heard my cry by day, and he hath given me knowledge by visions in the nighttime.

2 Nephi 4:24

And by day have I waxed bold in mighty prayer before him. Yea, my voice have I sent up on high, and angels came down and ministered unto me.

2 Nephi 4:25

And upon the wings of his Spirit hath my body been carried away up on exceeding high mountains; and mine eyes hath beheld great things—yea, even too great for man— therefore I was bidden that I should not write them.

2 Nephi 4:26

O then if I have seen so great things, if the Lord in his condescension unto the children of men hath visited me in so much mercy, why should my heart weep and my soul linger in the valley of sorrow and my flesh waste away and my strength slacken because of mine afflictions?

2 Nephi 4:27

And why should I yield to sin because of my flesh? Yea, why should I give way to temptations, that the evil one have place in my heart to destroy my peace and afflict my soul? Why am I angry because of mine enemy?

2 Nephi 4:28

Awake, my soul! No longer droop² in sin! Rejoice, O my heart, and give place no more for the enemy of my soul.

Do not anger again because of mine enemies. Do not slacken my strength because of mine afflictions.

¹Nephi is probably referring to 1 Nephi 17:48 here, where he says “I am filled with the power of God, even unto the consuming of my flesh.” So in his earlier account he refers to the force that fills him as God’s “power,” and here he refers to it as God’s “love.” This possible equivalence (he could always be referring to distinct instances, but his language is very similar) is one of the key ideas for seeing God’s love/power/light/spirit/whatever as all the same thing, and those words just refer to different aspects of it, or call attention to different ways it works in different circumstances (or different ways we experience it in different circumstances). See also DC 95:12; DC 98:17; DC 109:37 in conjunction with John 3:8 (the idea that the glory of God is the Spirit, both spoken of as “wind” here);

²The only use in all the scriptures of “droop.” The 1828 dictionary:

- 1 To sink or hang down; to lean downwards, as a body that is weak or languishing. Plants droop for want of moisture; the human body droops in old age or infirmity.
- 2 To languish from grief or other cause.
- 3 To fail or sink; to decline; as, the courage or the spirits droop.
- 4 To faint; to grow weak; to be dispirited; as, the soldiers droop from fatigue.

Definitions #2–#4 are more metaphorical and seem like the right choices here. He’s definitely thinking of what he said in the previous verses—his soul is feeling the effects, not just his body. Something more than his body is feeling them.

2 Nephi 4:30

Rejoice, O my heart, and cry unto the Lord and say: O Lord, I will praise thee forever. Yea, my soul will rejoice in thee, my God and the rock of my salvation.

2 Nephi 4:31

O Lord, wilt thou redeem my soul! Wilt thou deliver me out of the hands of mine enemies! Wilt thou make me that I may shake at the appearance of sin!

2 Nephi 4:32

May the gates of hell be shut continually before me because that my heart is broken and my spirit is contrite. O Lord, wilt thou not shut the gates of thy righteousness before me, that I may walk in the path of the low valley, that I may be strict in the plain road.

2 Nephi 4:33

O Lord, wilt thou encircle me around in the robe of thy righteousness! O Lord, wilt thou make a way for mine escape before mine enemies! Wilt thou make my path straight before me! Wilt thou not place a stumbling block in my way, but that thou wouldst clear my way before me and hedge not up my way but the ways of mine enemy.

O Lord, I have trusted in thee, and I will trust in thee forever. I will not put my trust in the arm of flesh, for I know that cursed is he that putteth his trust in the arm of flesh. Yea, cursed is he that putteth his trust in man or maketh flesh his arm.

2 Nephi 4:35

Yea, I know that God will give liberally to him that asketh;¹ yea, my God will give me if I ask not amiss. Therefore I will lift up my voice unto thee, yea, I will cry unto thee, my God, the rock of my righteousness. Behold, my voice shall forever ascend up unto thee, my rock and mine everlasting God. Amen.

2 Nephi 5:2

But behold, their anger did increase against me, insomuch that they did seek to take away my life.

2 Nephi 5:3

Yea, they did murmur against me, saying: Our younger brother thinketh to rule over us, and we have had much trial because of him. Wherefore now let us slay him, that we may not be afflicted more because of his words. For behold, we will not that he shall be our ruler, for it belongeth unto us which are the elder brethren to rule over this people.

And I did teach my people that they should build buildings and that they should work in all manner of wood and of iron and of copper and of brass and of steel and of gold and of silver and of precious ores, which were in great abundance.

And I Nephi did build a temple. And I did construct it after the manner of the temple of Solomon, save it were not built of so many precious things—for they were not to be found upon the land— wherefore it could not be built like unto Solomon's temple. But the manner of the construction was like unto the temple of Solomon, and the workmanship thereof was exceeding fine.

Wherefore the word of the Lord was fulfilled which he spake unto me, saying that inasmuch as they will not hearken unto thy words, they shall be cut off from the presence of the Lord. And behold, they were cut off from his presence.

2 Nephi 5:21

And he had caused the cursing to come upon them, yea, even a sore cursing because of their iniquity. For behold, they had hardened their hearts against him, that they had become like unto a flint. Wherefore as they were white and exceeding fair and delightsome, that they might not be enticing unto my people, therefore the Lord God did cause a skin of blackness to come upon them.

2 Nephi 5:22

And thus saith the Lord God: I will cause that they shall be loathsome unto thy people save they shall repent of their iniquities.

2 Nephi 5:23

And cursed shall be the seed of him that mixeth with their seed, for they shall be cursed even with the same cursing. And the Lord spake it, and it was done.

2 Nephi 5:26

And it came to pass that I Nephi did consecrate³ Jacob and Joseph, that they should be priests and teachers⁴ over the land of my people.

2 Nephi 5:27

And it came to pass that we lived after the manner of happiness.⁵

2 Nephi 5:28

And thirty years had passed away from the time we left Jerusalem.

2 Nephi 5:29

And I Nephi had kept the records upon my plates which I had made of my people thus far.

2 Nephi 5:30

And it came to pass that the Lord God said unto me: Make other plates; and thou shalt engraven many things upon them which are good in my sight for the profit of thy people.

¹I don't think that "idle" means "lazy" here; it means more like "unproductive, not tending toward anything good." First of all, if they became more of a hunter-gatherer kind of people, I'm not sure how you could be lazy; your whole existence depends on going out every day and getting food (Nephi mentions this at the end of this verse). The KJV NT also uses "idle" in a few places (see here), and with only one exception all of those uses are the Greek ἀργός. ἀργός can mean "lazy" (BDAG meaning #2), but in most cases it means either "unoccupied" (you don't have a job) or "useless, worthless" (as in James 2:20 and Matthew 12:36). The use in James is helpful, because he's talking specifically about faith χωρὶς τῶν ἔργων.

So in Nephi's mind at least, his brothers' people just were not engaged on projects that he saw as good or worthwhile. Think of DC 58:26–29 here, which uses "slothful" and "slothfulness." See the definition of "mischief" below, and also the use of "profit" in 2 Nephi 5:30.

²Two uses of this word in the BOM, here and 3 Nephi 16:10. 1828:

1 Harn; hurt; injury; damage; evil, whether intended or not.

2 Intentional injury; harm or damage done by design.

3 Ill consequence; evil; vexatious affair.

Definitions #1 and #2 go toward helping us understand the meaning of "idle" in this verse.

³In accordance with the 1828 definitions, we can probably read "consecrate" as "set apart" here—that's the way we would put it now.

⁴See Jacob 1:18 and DC 18:32.

⁵This is the only instance in the scriptures of "manner" occurring like this with "happiness"; it also doesn't happen for "way," "method," or "fashion." "Happiness" does not occur in the OT or NT at all, only in the restoration scriptures.

Wherefore I Nephi, to be obedient to the commandments of the Lord, went and made these plates upon which I have engraven these things.

2 Nephi 5:32

And I engravened that which is pleasing unto God. And if my people be pleased with the things of God, they be pleased with mine engravings which are upon these plates.

2 Nephi 5:33

And if my people desire to know the more particular part of the history of my people, they must search mine other plates.

And it sufficeth me to say that forty years had passed away, and we had already had wars and contentions with our brethren.

2 Nephi 6:1

The words of Jacob the brother of Nephi which he spake unto the people of Nephi:

2 Nephi 6:2

Behold, my beloved brethren, that I Jacob having been called of God and ordained after the manner of his holy order and having been consecrated by my brother Nephi, unto whom ye look as a king or a protector and on whom ye depend for safety, behold, ye know that I have spoken unto you exceeding many things.

Nevertheless I speak unto you again, for I am desirous for the welfare of your souls. Yea, mine anxiety is great for you. And ye yourselves know that it ever has been, for I have exhorted you with all diligence. And I have taught you the words of my father, and I have spoken unto you concerning all things which are written from the creation of the world.

And now behold, I would speak unto you concerning things which are and which are to come. Wherefore I will read you the words of Isaiah, and they are the words which my brother hath desired me that I should speak unto you. And I speak them unto you for your sakes, that ye may learn and glorify the name of your God.

And now the words which I shall read are they which Isaiah spake concerning all the house of Israel. Wherefore they may be likened unto you, for ye are of the house of Israel. And there are many things which have been spoken by Isaiah which may be likened unto you because that ye are of the house of Israel.

2 Nephi 6:6

And now these are the words: Thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I will lift up mine hand to the Gentiles and set up my standard to the people. And they shall bring thy sons in their arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders.

And kings shall be thy nursing fathers, and their queens thy nursing mothers. They shall bow down to thee with their faces towards the earth and lick up the dust of thy feet. And thou shalt know that I am the Lord, for they shall not be ashamed that wait for me.

2 Nephi 6:8

And now I Jacob would speak somewhat concerning these words. For behold, the Lord hath shewn me that they which were at Jerusalem, from whence we came, have been slain and carried away captive.

Nevertheless the Lord hath shewn unto me that they should return again. And he also hath shewn unto me that the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel, should manifest himself unto them in the flesh. And after that he should manifest himself, they should scourge him and crucify him, according to the words of the angel which spake it unto me.

2 Nephi 6:10

And after that they have hardened their hearts and stiffened their necks against the Holy One of Israel, behold, the judgments of the Holy One of Israel shall come upon them. And the day cometh that they shall be smitten and afflicted.

Wherefore after they are driven to and fro—for thus saith the angel: Many shall be afflicted in the flesh and shall not be suffered to perish because of the prayers of the faithful— wherefore they shall be scattered and smitten and hated. Nevertheless the Lord will be merciful unto them, that when they shall come to the knowledge of their Redeemer, they shall be gathered together again to the lands of their inheritance.

And blessed are the Gentiles, they of whom the prophet hath written. For behold, if it so be that they shall repent and fight not against Zion and do not unite themselves to that great and abominable church, they shall be saved, for the Lord God will fulfill his covenants which he hath made unto his children. And for this cause the prophet hath written these things.

Wherefore they that fight against Zion and the covenant people of the Lord shall lick up the dust of their feet. And the people of the Lord shall not be ashamed, for the people of the Lord are they which wait for him, for they still wait for the coming of the Messiah.

And behold, according to the words of the prophet, the Messiah will set himself again the second time to recover them. Wherefore he will manifest himself unto them in power and great glory unto the destruction of their enemies, when that day cometh when they shall believe in him. And none will he destroy that believeth in him.

And they that believe not in him shall be destroyed, both by fire and by tempest and by earthquakes and by bloodsheds and by pestilence and by famine. And they shall know that the Lord is God, the Holy One of Israel.

For shall the prey be taken from the mighty or the lawful captive delivered?

2 Nephi 6:17

But thus saith the Lord: Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered, for the mighty God shall deliver his covenant people. For thus saith the Lord: I will contend with them that contendeth with thee.

2 Nephi 6:18

And I will feed them that oppress thee with their own flesh. And they shall be drunken with their own blood as with sweet wine. And all flesh shall know that I the Lord am thy Savior and thy Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

2 Nephi 7:1

Yea, for thus saith the Lord: Have I put thee away or have I cast thee off forever? For thus saith the Lord: Where is the bill of your mother's divorcement? To whom have I put thee away? Or to which of my creditors have I sold you? Yea, to whom have I sold you? Behold, for your iniquities have ye sold yourselves, and for your transgressions is your mother put away.

Wherefore when I came, there was no man; when I called, yea, there was none to answer. O house of Israel, is my hand shortened at all that it cannot redeem? Or have I no power to deliver? Behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea. I make the rivers a wilderness and their fish to stink because the waters are dried up and they dieth because of thirst.

I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering.

2 Nephi 7:4

The Lord God hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season unto thee, O house of Israel, when ye are weary. He wakeneth morning by morning; he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned.

The Lord God hath opened mine ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away back.

2 Nephi 7:6

I gave my back to the smiters and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair. I hid not my face from shame and spitting.

2 Nephi 7:7

For the Lord God will help me, therefore shall I not be confounded. Therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed.

2 Nephi 7:8

And the Lord is near and he justifieth me. Who will contend with me? Let us stand together. Who is mine adversary? Let him come near me, and I will smite him with the strength of my mouth.

For the Lord God will help me. And all they which shall condemn me, behold, all they shall wax old as a garment and the moth shall eat them up.

2 Nephi 7:10

Who is among you that feareth the Lord, that obeyeth the voice of his servant, that walketh in darkness and hath no light?

Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that compass yourselves about with sparks, walk in the light of your fire and in the sparks which ye have kindled. This shall ye have of mine hand: ye shall lie down in sorrow.

2 Nephi 8:1

Hearken to me, ye that follow after righteousness. Look unto the rock from whence ye are hewn and to the hole of the pit from whence ye are digged.

2 Nephi 8:2

Look unto Abraham, your father, and unto Sarah, she that bare you. For I called him alone and blessed him.

2 Nephi 8:3

For the Lord shall comfort Zion. He will comfort all her waste places, and he will make her wilderness like Eden and her desert like the garden of the Lord. Joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving and the voice of melody.

Hearken unto me, my people, and give ear unto me, O my nation. For a law shall proceed from me, and I will make my judgment to rest for a light of the people.

2 Nephi 8:5

My righteousness is near. My salvation is gone forth, and mine arm shall judge the people. The isles shall wait upon me, and on mine arm shall they trust.

Lift up your eyes to the heavens and look upon the earth beneath, for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke and the earth shall wax old like a garment. And they that dwell therein shall die in like manner. But my salvation shall be forever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

2 Nephi 8:7

Hearken unto me, ye that know righteousness, the people in whose heart I have written my law. Fear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye afraid of their revilings.

2 Nephi 8:8

For the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool. But my righteousness shall be forever, and my salvation from generation to generation.

2 Nephi 8:9

Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the Lord. Awake as in the ancient days. Art thou not it that hath cut Rahab and wounded the dragon?

2 Nephi 8:10

Art thou not it which hath dried the sea, the waters of the great deep, that hath made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to pass over?

2 Nephi 8:11

Therefore the redeemed of the Lord shall return and come with singing unto Zion. And everlasting joy and holiness shall be upon their heads, and they shall obtain gladness and joy. Sorrow and mourning shall flee away.

2 Nephi 8:12

I am he, yea, I am he that comforteth you. Behold, who art thou that thou shouldst be afraid of man, which shall die, and of the son of man, which shall be made like unto grass, and forgettest the Lord thy maker that hath stretched forth the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth and hast feared continually every day because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he were ready to destroy? And where is the fury of the oppressor?

The captive exile hasteneth that he may be loosed, and that he should not die in the pit, nor that his bread should fail.

2 Nephi 8:15

But I am the Lord thy God whose waves roared. The Lord of Hosts is my name.

2 Nephi 8:16

And I have put my words in thy mouth and hath covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, that I may plant the heavens and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion: Behold, thou art my people.

2 Nephi 8:17

Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which hast drunk at the hand of the Lord the cup of his fury; thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling wrung out—and none to guide her among all the sons she hath brought forth, neither that taketh her by the hand of all the sons she hath brought up.

2 Nephi 8:18

These two sons are come unto thee. Who shall be sorry for thee, thy desolation and destruction and the famine and the sword? And by whom shall I comfort thee?

2 Nephi 8:20

Thy sons have fainted save these two. They lie at the head of all the streets as a wild bull in a net. They are full of the fury of the Lord, the rebuke of thy God.

Therefore hear now this, thou afflicted and drunken, and not with wine:

2 Nephi 8:22

Thus saith thy Lord the Lord, and thy God pleadeth the cause of his people: Behold, I have taken out of thine hand the cup of trembling, the dregs of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink it again.

2 Nephi 8:23

But I will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee, which have said to thy soul: Bow down that we may go over. And thou hast laid thy body as the ground and as the street to them that went over.

2 Nephi 8:24

Awake, awake, put on thy strength, O Zion. Put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city. For henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised and the unclean.

2 Nephi 8:25

Shake thyself from the dust. Arise, sit down, O Jerusalem. Loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

2 Nephi 9:1

And now my beloved brethren, I have read these things that ye might know concerning the covenants of the Lord, that he hath covenanted with all the house of Israel, that he hath spoken unto the Jews by the mouth of his holy prophets, even from the beginning down from generation to generation until the time cometh that they shall be restored to the true church and fold of God, when they shall be gathered home to the lands of their inheritance and shall be established in all their lands of promise.

Behold, my beloved brethren, I speak unto you these things that ye may rejoice and lift up your heads forever because of the blessings which the Lord God shall bestow upon your children.

For I know that thou hast searched much, many of you, to know of things to come. Wherefore I know that ye know that our flesh must waste away and die; nevertheless in our bodies we shall see God.

Yea, and I know that ye know that in the body he shall shew himself unto them at Jerusalem, from whence we came, for it is expedient that it should be among them. For it behooveth the great Creator that he suffereth himself to become subject unto man in the flesh and die for all men, that all men might become subject unto him.

For as death hath passed upon all men to fulfill the merciful plan of the great Creator, there must needs be a power of resurrection. And the resurrection must needs come unto man by reason of the fall, and the fall came by reason of transgression. And because man became fallen, they were cut off from the presence of the Lord.

Wherefore it must needs be an infinite atonement; save it should be an infinite atonement, this corruption could not put on incorruption.¹ Wherefore the first judgment² which came upon man must needs have remained to an endless duration. And if so, this flesh must have laid down to rot and to crumble to its mother earth, to rise no more.³

2 Nephi 9:8

O the wisdom of God, his mercy and grace! For behold, if the flesh should rise no more, our spirits must become subject to that angel⁴ which fell from before the presence of the Eternal God and became the devil, to rise no more.

And our spirits must have become like unto him, and we become devils, angels to a devil—to be shut out from the presence of our God and to remain with the father of lies, in misery like unto himself—yea, to that being who beguiled our first parents, who transformeth himself nigh unto an angel of light and stirreth up the children of men unto secret combinations of murder and all manner of secret works of darkness.

We should read these verses here in 2 Nephi 9 with those verses and meanings in mind—“this corruption” is something like “this perishable thing,” or maybe “perishable nature in general”; and “put on incorruption” is something like “enter a state of imperishability.”

²That is, the first consequence of the law, which “came by reason of transgression” (verse 6). See these points about judgment and 1 Corinthians 15:56.

O how great the goodness of our God¹ who prepareth a way for our escape from the grasp of this awful monster! Yea, that monster death and hell which I call the death of the body and also the death of the spirit.

2 Nephi 9:11

And because of the way of deliverance of our God, the Holy One of Israel, this death of which I have spoken, which is the temporal, shall deliver up its dead, which death is the grave.

2 Nephi 9:12

And this death of which I have spoken, which is the spiritual death, shall deliver up its dead, which spiritual death is hell. Wherefore death and hell must deliver up its dead, and hell must deliver up its captive spirits and the grave must deliver up its captive bodies. And the bodies and the spirits of men will be restored one to the other; and it is by the power of the resurrection of the Holy One of Israel.

2 Nephi 9:13

O how great the plan of our God! For on the other hand, the paradise of God must deliver up the spirits of the righteous, and the grave deliver up the bodies of the righteous. And the spirit and the body is restored to itself again,² and all men become incorruptible and immortal; and they are living souls,³ having a perfect knowledge like unto us in the flesh, save it be that our knowledge shall be perfect.⁴

Wherefore we shall have a perfect knowledge of all our guilt and our uncleanness and our nakedness.⁵ And the righteous shall have a perfect knowledge of their enjoyment and their righteousness, being clothed with purity, yea, even with the robe of righteousness.⁶

And it shall come to pass that when all men shall have passed from this first death unto life, insomuch as they have become immortal, they must appear before the judgment seat of the Holy One of Israel. And then cometh the judgment, and then must they be judged according to the holy judgment of God.

¹This “O how great” remark begins a series of five such remarks, where Jacob marvels at the greatness of God’s goodness (here), God’s plan (verse 13), God’s greatness and his justice (verse 17), God’s mercy (verse 19), and God’s holiness (verse 20). Here they are:

Verse 10 O how great the goodness of our God

Verse 13 O how great the plan of our God!

Verse 17 O the greatness and the justice of our God!

Verse 19 O the greatness of the mercy of our God

Verse 20 O how great the holiness of our God!

In the midst of a discussion about death, which could be kind of gloomy, Jacob is consistently praising these hopeful attributes of God—at least, he’s trying to give us hope about how things are going to work in our favor. See this note at verse 20 for more discussion.

²Why “again”? Did this already happen once? Could also be a word that just emphasizes the meaning of “restored”; it doesn’t have to mean that it’s already happened.

³One of the clearest affirmations in the BOM of the point made in DC 88:15; this distinction is not always observed in the BOM. In fact I would say it’s rarely observed, though I haven’t done a systematic study.

The 1828 definitions of “knowledge” don’t help much, either. I’m inclined to read “knowledge” here as representing the set of cognitive faculties of a human being—awareness, perception, thought, memory, and so on, however you want to describe them. So Jacob is saying that after the resurrection, our cognitive faculties will be like the ones we have “in the flesh,” except that they will be perfected in some way.

The next verse, though, suggests that the “perfect knowledge” we’re talking about is about our unworthiness or worthiness, whatever it is. To what extent do we have a version of this in the flesh? We have some version, clearly. I think the gloss I gave above still can still apply but something needs to happen to the cognitive faculties that we have in order to allow us to have the “perfect knowledge” as spoken of in the next verse.

⁵Compare Alma 36:12–19.

⁶The first occurrence of “robe of righteousness” in the BOM; see the other occurrences here. The “robe of righteousness” is a gift from God.

2 Nephi 9:16

And assuredly as the Lord liveth—for the Lord God hath spoken it and it is his eternal word which cannot pass away—that they which are righteous shall be righteous still and they which are filthy shall be filthy still. Wherefore they which are filthy are the devil and his angels, and they shall go away into everlasting fire prepared for them; and their torment is a lake of fire and brimstone,¹ whose flames ascendeth up forever and ever and hath no end.

O the greatness and the justice of our God! For he executeth all his words; and they have gone forth out of his mouth, and his law must be fulfilled.

2 Nephi 9:18

But behold, the righteous, the saints of the Holy One of Israel, they which have believed in the Holy One of Israel, they which have endured the crosses of the world and despised the shame of it,² they shall inherit the kingdom of God, which was prepared for them³ from the foundation of the world; and their joy shall be full forever.

O the greatness of the mercy of our God, the Holy One of Israel! For he delivereth his saints from that awful monster, the devil and death and hell and that lake of fire and brimstone which is endless torment.⁴

2 Nephi 9:20

O how great the holiness of our God! For he knoweth all things,⁵ and there is not any thing save he know it.

2 Nephi 9:21

And he cometh into the world that he may save all men, if they will hearken unto his voice. For behold, he suffereth the pains of all men, yea, the pains of every living creature, both men women and children, which belong to the family of Adam.

2 Nephi 9:22

And he suffereth this⁶ that the resurrection might pass upon all men, that all might stand before him at the great and judgment day.

And he commandeth all men that they must repent and be baptized in his name, having perfect faith⁷ in the Holy One of Israel, or they cannot be saved in the kingdom of God.

¹Compare this description of the torment to that given in Mosiah 3:27, which Benjamin says that the torment “is as a lake of fire and brimstone” (my emphasis; see also Alma 12:17). The “lake of fire and brimstone” language comes from Revelation, specifically 19:20, 20:10, and 21:8. Revelation 20:10 says that those in this situation “shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever,” and 21:8 says that this situation “is the second death.”

The “lake of fire and brimstone” idea appears in a number of places in the BOM and in the DC; see DC 76:36, for example.

²By enduring “the crosses of the world” and “despising the shame of it,” these saints have done what Christ did, as noted in Hebrews 12:2. Note also the connection between the “joy” obtained by the saints at the end of this verse, and the “joy” spoken of in that description of Christ’s actions in Hebrews. Maybe a connection also to DC 138:13?

³Both the punishment (the “everlasting fire” in verse 16) and the reward here were “prepared for them,” or for the people who would receive it.

⁴This seems to be pretty clearly one of the instances that Christ is referring to when he speaks about the meaning of “endless torment” in DC 19.

⁶Note the dual meaning of “suffereth”—he suffers the pains, and “suffers” in the sense of allows it to happen; see 1 Nephi 19:9.

⁷This is the only occurrence of “perfect faith” anywhere in the scriptures. There are other places that talk about the idea, though:

1 Thessalonians 3:10 Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

- This is an interesting verse that can be helpful for understanding the concept of “perfect faith”; the key Greek word, translated as “might perfect” in the KJV, is καταρτίζω; here are the BDAG meanings (466a):

2 Nephi 9:24

And if they will not repent and believe in his name and be baptized in his name and endure to the end, they must be damned, for the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel, hath spoken it.

2 Nephi 9:25

Wherefore he hath given a law. And where there is no law given there is no punishment, and where there is no punishment there is no condemnation, and where there is no condemnation the mercies of the Holy One of Israel hath claim upon them because of the atonement, for they are delivered by the power of him.

2 Nephi 9:26

For the atonement satisfieth the demands of his justice upon all those who hath not the law given to them, that they are delivered from that awful monster, death and hell and the devil and the lake of fire and brimstone which is endless torment; and they are restored to that God who gave them breath, which is the Holy One of Israel.

2 Nephi 9:27

But woe unto him that hath the law given, yea, that hath all the commandments of God, like unto us, and that transgresseth them and that wasteth the days of his probation, for awful is his state.

2 Nephi 9:28

O that cunning plan of the evil one! O the vainness and the frailties and the foolishness of men! When they are learned they think they are wise, and they hearken not unto the counsel of God, for they set it aside, supposing they know of themselves. Wherefore their wisdom is foolishness and it profiteth them not; wherefore they shall perish.

2 Nephi 9:29

But to be learned is good if it so be that they hearken unto the counsels of God.

2 Nephi 9:30

But woe unto the rich which are rich as to the things of the world, for because that they are rich, they despise the poor and they persecute the meek. And their hearts are upon their treasures; wherefore their treasure is their god. And behold, their treasure shall perish with them also.

And woe unto the deaf that will not hear, for they shall perish.

1 to cause to be in a condition to function well, put in order, restore

1.a restore to a former condition, put to rights

1.b put into proper condition, adjust, complete, make complete

2 to prepare for a purpose, prepare, make, create, outfit

2.a active and passive, of God

2.b middle

- BDAG locates the use of καταρτίζω in 1 Thessalonians as under meaning #1.b, and glosses the passage as “to fix up any deficiencies in your faith or to complete what is lacking in your faith.”

James 2:22 Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

- This verse has one of the words you might have expected with “perfect”—the verb is a passive form of τελειόω.

Alma 32

- Various verses in this chapter talk about the relation between faith and “perfect knowledge.”

I would focus on the two NT verses in this list. I’m especially interested in the connection in James to ἔργον, a word which always makes me think of Aristotle, which makes me think of faith in terms of developing certain habits or internal states and patterns of behavior. I haven’t thought of faith in that way before and it looks like it could be a fruitful way of approaching it. See also Roger Johnson’s thought about this from December 2020.

2 Nephi 9:32

Woe unto the blind that will not see, for they shall perish also.

2 Nephi 9:33

Woe unto the uncircumcised of heart, for a knowledge of their iniquities shall smite them at the last day.

Woe unto the liar, for he shall be thrust down to hell.

2 Nephi 9:35

Woe unto the murderer who deliberately killeth, for he shall die.

2 Nephi 9:36

Woe unto them who commit whoredoms, for they shall be thrust down to hell.

2 Nephi 9:37

Yea, woe unto they that worship idols, for the devil of all devils delighteth in them.

2 Nephi 9:38

And in fine, woe unto all they that die in their sins, for they shall return to God and behold his face and remain in their sins.

O my beloved brethren, remember the awfulness in transgressing against that holy God, and also the awfulness of yielding to the enticings of that cunning one. Remember, to be carnally minded is death¹ and to be spiritually minded is life eternal.

2 Nephi 9:40

O my beloved brethren, give ear to my words. Remember the greatness of the Holy One of Israel. Do not say that I have spoken hard things against you; for if ye do, ye will revile against the truth; for I have spoken the words of your Maker. I know that the words of truth are hard against all uncleanness, but the righteous fear it not, for they love the truth and are not shaken.

O then, my beloved brethren, come unto the Lord, the Holy One. Remember that his paths are righteousness. Behold, the way for man is narrow, but it lieth in a straight course before him. And the keeper of the gate is the Holy One of Israel, and he employeth no servant there.² And there is none other way save it be by the gate, for he cannot be deceived, for the Lord God is his name.

¹See Romans 8:6-9 and DC 30:1-2.

²I remember that President Openshaw thought this verse was very important—that there is some kind of interview or personal experience we have to have with Christ in order to continue progressing in the plan of salvation. I'm not sure when this is supposed to happen, but it does remind me of the endowment ceremony, where we approach the veil and speak with someone who represents the Lord.

2 Nephi 9:42

And whoso knocketh to him will he open. And the wise and the learned and they that are rich which are puffed up because of their learning and their wisdom and their riches, yea, they are they whom he despiseth. And save they shall cast these things away and consider themselves fools before God and come down in the depths of humility, he will not open unto them.

But the things of the wise and the prudent shall be hid from them forever, yea, that happiness which is prepared for the saints.

O my beloved brethren, remember my words. Behold, I take off my garments and I shake them before you. I pray the God of my salvation that he view me with his all-searching eye. Wherefore ye shall know at the last day, when all men shall be judged of their works, that the God of Israel did witness that I shook your iniquities from my soul and that I stand with brightness before him and am rid of your blood.

2 Nephi 9:45

O my beloved brethren, turn away from your sins. Shake off the chains of him that would bind you fast. Come unto that God who is the rock of your salvation.

2 Nephi 9:46

Prepare your souls for that glorious day when justice shall be administered unto the righteous, even the day of judgment, that ye may not shrink with awful fear, that ye may not remember your awful guilt in perfectness, and be constrained to exclaim: Holy holy are thy judgments, O Lord God Almighty, but I know my guilt. I transgressed thy law and my transgressions are mine; and the devil hath obtained me, that I am a prey to his awful misery.

But behold, my brethren, is it expedient that I should awake you to an awful reality of these things? Would I harrow up your souls if your minds were pure? Would I be plain unto you according to the plainness of the truth if ye were freed from sin?

2 Nephi 9:48

Behold, if ye were holy, I would speak unto you of holiness. But as ye are not holy and ye look upon me as a teacher, it must needs be expedient that I teach you the consequences of sin.

2 Nephi 9:49

Behold, my soul abhorreth sin, and my heart delighteth in righteousness. And I will praise the holy name of my God.

2 Nephi 9:50

Come, my brethren, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters. And he that hath no money, come, buy and eat, yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

Wherefore do not spend money for that which is of no worth, nor your labor for that which cannot satisfy. Hearken diligently unto me and remember the words which I have spoken, and come unto the Holy One of Israel, and feast upon that which perisheth not, neither can be corrupted, and let your soul delight in fatness.

2 Nephi 9:52

Behold, my beloved brethren, remember the words of your God. Pray unto him continually by day and give thanks unto his holy name by night. Let your hearts rejoice!

2 Nephi 9:53

And behold, how great the covenants of the Lord! And how great his condescensions unto the children of men! And because of his greatness and his grace and mercy, he hath promised unto us that our seed shall not utterly be destroyed according to the flesh, but that he would preserve them. And in future generations they shall become a righteous branch unto the house of Israel.

And now my brethren, I would speak unto you more; but on the morrow I will declare unto you the remainder of my words. Amen.

2 Nephi 10:1

And now I Jacob speak unto you again, my beloved brethren, concerning this righteous branch of which I have spoken.

2 Nephi 10:2

For behold, the promises which we have obtained are promises unto us according to the flesh. Wherefore as it hath been shewn unto me that many of our children shall perish in the flesh because of unbelief, nevertheless God will be merciful unto many, and our children shall be restored, that they may come to that which will give them the true knowledge of their Redeemer.

Wherefore as I said unto you, it must needs be expedient that Christ—for in the last night the angel spake unto me that this should be his name—that he should come among the Jews, among they which are the more wicked part of the world. And they shall crucify him—for it behooveth our God—and there is none other nation on earth that would crucify their God.

For should the mighty miracles be wrought among other nations, they would repent and know that he be their God.

2 Nephi 10:5

But because of priestcrafts and iniquities they at Jerusalem will stiffen their necks against him, that he be crucified.

Wherefore because of their iniquities, destructions, famines, pestilences, and bloodsheds shall come upon them. And they which shall not be destroyed shall be scattered among all nations.

2 Nephi 10:7

But behold, thus saith the Lord God: When the day cometh that they shall believe in me, that I am Christ, then have I covenanted with their fathers that they shall be restored in the flesh upon the earth unto the lands of their inheritance.

2 Nephi 10:8

And it shall come to pass that they shall be gathered in from their long dispersion from the isles of the sea and from the four parts of the earth. And the nations of the Gentiles shall be great in the eyes of me, saith God, in carrying them forth to the lands of their inheritance.

Yea, the kings of the Gentiles shall be nursing fathers unto them, and their queens shall become nursing mothers. Wherefore the promises of the Lord is great unto the Gentiles, for he hath spoken it, and who can dispute?

2 Nephi 10:10

But behold, this land, saith God, shall be a land of thine inheritance; and the Gentiles shall be blessed upon the land.

2 Nephi 10:11

And this land shall be a land of liberty unto the Gentiles, and there shall be no kings upon the land which shall raise up unto the Gentiles.

2 Nephi 10:12

And I will fortify this land against all other nations.

2 Nephi 10:13

And he that fighteth against Zion shall perish, saith God.

2 Nephi 10:14

For he that raiseth up a king against me shall perish, for I the Lord, the king of heaven, will be their king, and I will be a light unto them forever that hear my words.

Wherefore for this cause that my covenants may be fulfilled which I have made unto the children of men that I will do unto them while they are in the flesh, I must needs destroy the secret works of darkness and of murders and of abominations.

2 Nephi 10:16

Wherefore he that fighteth against Zion,¹ both Jew and Gentile, both bond and free, both male and female, shall perish. For they are they which are the whore of all the earth, for they which are not for me are against me, saith our God.

2 Nephi 10:17

For I will fulfill my promises which I have made unto the children of men that I will do unto them while they are in the flesh.

2 Nephi 10:18

Wherefore, my beloved brethren, thus saith our God, I will afflict thy seed by the hand of the Gentiles. Nevertheless I will soften the hearts of the Gentiles, that they shall be like unto a father to them. Wherefore the Gentiles shall be blessed and numbered among the house of Israel.

Wherefore I will consecrate this land unto thy seed —and they which shall be numbered among thy seed— forever, for the land of their inheritance; for it is a choice land, saith God, unto me, above all other lands. Wherefore I will have all men that dwell thereon that they shall worship me, saith God.

And now my beloved brethren, seeing that our merciful God hath given us so great knowledge concerning these things, let us remember him and lay aside our sins and not hang down our heads, for we are not cast off. Nevertheless we have been driven out of the land of our inheritance, but we have been led to a better land, for the Lord hath made the sea our path and we are upon an isle of the sea.

2 Nephi 10:21

But great is the promises of the Lord unto they which are upon the isles of the sea. Wherefore as it saith isles, there must needs be more than this, and they are inhabited also by our brethren.

2 Nephi 10:22

For behold, the Lord God hath led away from time to time from the house of Israel according to his will and pleasure. And now behold, the Lord remembereth all they which have been broken off; wherefore he remembereth us also.

2 Nephi 10:23

Therefore cheer up your hearts and remember that ye are free to act for yourselves, to choose the way of everlasting death or the way of eternal life.

2 Nephi 10:24

Wherefore, my beloved brethren, reconcile² yourselves to the will of God and not to the will of the devil and the flesh. And remember that ³after ye are reconciled unto God that it is only in and through the grace of God that ye are saved.

¹This language echoes Galatians 3:28.

²For “reconcile,” see also Romans 5:10–11,

³The rest of this verse is helpful in understanding 2 Nephi 25:23.

2 Nephi 10:25

Wherefore may God raise you from death by the power of the resurrection, and also from everlasting death by the power of the atonement, that ye may be received into the eternal kingdom of God, that ye may praise him through grace divine. Amen.

And now Jacob spake many more things to my people at that time. Nevertheless only these things have I caused to be written, for the things which I have written sufficeth me.

2 Nephi 11:2

And now I Nephi write more of the words of Isaiah, for my soul delighteth in his words. For I will liken his words unto my people. And I will send them forth unto all my children, for he verily saw my Redeemer, even as I have seen him.

2 Nephi 11:3

And my brother Jacob also hath seen him, as I have seen him. Wherefore I will send their words forth unto my children to prove unto them that my words are true. Wherefore by the words of three, God hath said, I will establish my word. Nevertheless God sendeth more witnesses, and he proveth all his words.

Behold, my soul delighteth in proving unto my people the truth of the coming of Christ, for for this end hath the law of Moses been given. And all things which have been given of God from the beginning of the world unto man are the typifying of him.

2 Nephi 11:5

And also my soul delighteth in the covenants of the Lord which he hath made to our fathers. Yea, my soul delighteth in his grace and his justice and power and mercy, in the great and eternal plan of deliverance from death.

2 Nephi 11:6

And my soul delighteth in proving unto my people that save Christ should come all men must perish.

For if there be no Christ there be no God. And if there be no God we are not, for there could have been no creation. But there is a God and he is Christ, and he cometh in the fullness of his own time.

2 Nephi 11:8

And now I write some of the words of Isaiah, that whoso of my people which shall see these words may lift up their hearts and rejoice for all men. Now these are the words, and ye may liken them unto you and unto all men.

The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem:

2 Nephi 12:2

And it shall come to pass in the last days, when the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains and shall be exalted above the hills, and all nations shall flow unto it.

2 Nephi 12:3

And many people shall go and say: Come ye and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob, and he will teach us of his ways and we will walk in his paths. For out of Zion shall go forth the law and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

And he shall judge among the nations and shall rebuke many people. And they shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

O house of Jacob, come ye and let us walk in the light of the Lord, yea, come, for ye have all gone astray, every one to his wicked ways.

2 Nephi 12:6

Therefore, O Lord, thou hast forsaken thy people, the house of Jacob, because they be replenished from the east and hearken unto soothsayers like the Philistines, and they please themselves in the children of strangers.

2 Nephi 12:7

Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures. Their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots.

2 Nephi 12:8

Their land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made.

And the mean man boweth down and the great man humbleth himself; therefore forgive them not.

2 Nephi 12:10

O ye wicked ones, enter into the rock and hide thee in the dust, for the fear of the Lord and the glory of his majesty shall smite thee.

And it shall come to pass that the lofty looks of man shall be humbled and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down. And the Lord alone shall be exalted in that day.

2 Nephi 12:12

For the day of the Lord of Hosts soon cometh upon all nations, yea, upon every one, yea, upon the proud and lofty, and upon every one which is lifted up; and he shall be brought low.

2 Nephi 12:13

Yea, and the day of the Lord shall come upon all the cedars of Lebanon, for they are high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan, and upon all the high mountains and upon all the hills, and upon all the nations which are lifted up and upon every people, and upon every high tower and upon every fenced wall, and upon all the ships of the sea and upon all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all the pleasant pictures.

2 Nephi 12:17

And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down and the haughtiness of men shall be made low. And the Lord alone shall be exalted in that day.

And the idols he shall utterly abolish.

And they shall go into the holes of the rocks and into the caves of the earth, for the fear of the Lord shall come upon them. And the glory of his majesty shall smite them when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.

2 Nephi 12:20

In that day a man shall cast his idols of silver and his idols of gold which he hath made for himself to worship, to the moles and to the bats, to go into the clefts of the rocks and into the tops of the ragged rocks. For the fear of the Lord shall come upon them, and the majesty of his glory shall smite them when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.

2 Nephi 12:22

Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils, for wherein is he to be accounted of?

2 Nephi 13:1

For behold, the Lord, the Lord of Hosts, doth take away from Jerusalem and from Judah the stay and the staff, the whole staff of bread and the whole stay of water, the mighty man and the man of war, the judge and the prophet and the prudent and the ancient, the captain of fifty and the honorable man and the counselor and the cunning artificer and the eloquent orator.

2 Nephi 13:2

2 Nephi 13:4

And I will give children unto them to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them.

2 Nephi 13:5

And the people shall be oppressed, every one by another and every one by his neighbor. The child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, and the base against the honorable.

2 Nephi 13:6

When a man shall take hold of his brother of the house of his father and shall say: Thou hast clothing, be thou our ruler, and let not this ruin come under thy hand—in that day shall he swear, saying: I will not be a healer, for in my house there is neither bread nor clothing. Make me not a ruler of the people.

2 Nephi 13:8

For Jerusalem is ruined and Judah is fallen because their tongues and their doings have been against the Lord, to provoke the eyes of his glory.

2 Nephi 13:9

The shew of their countenance doth witness against them and doth declare their sin to be even as Sodom, and they cannot hide it. Woe unto their souls, for they have rewarded evil unto themselves.

Say unto the righteous that it is well with them, for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

Woe unto the wicked, for they shall perish. For the reward of their hands shall be upon them.

2 Nephi 13:12

And my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err and destroy the way of thy paths.

2 Nephi 13:13

The Lord standeth up to plead and standeth to judge the people.

2 Nephi 13:14

The Lord will enter into judgment with the ancients of his people and the princes thereof. For ye have eaten up the vineyard and the spoil of the poor in your houses.

2 Nephi 13:15

What mean ye? Ye beat my people to pieces and grind the faces of the poor, saith the Lord God of Hosts.

2 Nephi 13:16

Moreover the Lord saith: Because the daughters of Zion are haughty and walk with stretched forth necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet, therefore the Lord will smite with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion. And the Lord will discover their secret parts.

2 Nephi 13:18

In that day the Lord will take away the bravery of tinkling ornaments and cauls and round tires like the moon,

the chains and the bracelets and the mufflers,

2 Nephi 13:20

the bonnets and the ornaments of the legs and the headbands and the tablets and the earrings,

2 Nephi 13:21

the rings and nose jewels,

2 Nephi 13:22

the changeable suits of apparel and the mantles and the wimples and the crisping pins, the glasses and the fine linen and hoods and the veils.

2 Nephi 13:24

And it shall all come to pass: instead of sweet smell there shall be stink, and instead of a girdle a rent, and instead of well-set hair baldness, and instead of a stomacher a girding of sackcloth, burning instead of beauty.

2 Nephi 13:25

Thy men shall fall by the sword and thy mighty in the war.

And her gates shall lament and mourn, and she shall be desolate and shall sit upon the ground.

2 Nephi 14:1

And in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying: We will eat our own bread and wear our own apparel, only let us be called by thy name to take away our reproach.

2 Nephi 14:2

In that day shall the branch of the Lord be beautiful and glorious— the fruit of the earth, excellent and comely to them that are escaped of Israel.

2 Nephi 14:3

And it shall come to pass: them that are left in Zion and remaineth in Jerusalem shall be called holy, every one that is written among the living in Jerusalem, when the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by the spirit of judgment and by the spirit of burning.

2 Nephi 14:5

And the Lord will create upon every dwelling place of mount Zion and upon her assemblies a cloud and smoke by day and the shining of a flaming fire by night, for upon all the glory of Zion shall be a defense.

And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the daytime from the heat, and for a place of refuge and a covert from storm and from rain.

2 Nephi 15:1

And then will I sing to my well beloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard. My well beloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill.

2 Nephi 15:2

And he fenced it and gathered out the stones thereof and planted it with the choicest vine and built a tower in the midst of it and also made a winepress therein. And he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.

2 Nephi 15:3

And now O inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, judge I pray you betwixt me and my vineyard.

2 Nephi 15:4

What could have been done more to my vineyard that I have not done in it? Wherefore when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, it brought forth wild grapes.

And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard. I will take away the hedge thereof and it shall be eaten up. And I will break down the wall thereof and it shall be trodden down.

2 Nephi 15:6

And I will lay it waste. It shall not be pruned nor digged, but there shall come up briars and thorns. I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

2 Nephi 15:7

For the vineyard of the Lord of Hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant. And he looked for judgment and behold oppression; for righteousness but behold a cry.

2 Nephi 15:8

Woe unto them that join house to house till there can be no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth.

In mine ears saith the Lord of Hosts: Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, and great and fair cities without inhabitant.

Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and the seed of a homer shall yield an ephah.

Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning that they may follow strong drink, that continue until night and wine inflame them.

2 Nephi 15:12

And the harp and the viol, the tabret and pipe and wine are in their feasts, but they regard not the work of the Lord, neither consider the operation of his hands.

2 Nephi 15:13

Therefore my people are gone into captivity because they have no knowledge. And their honorable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst.

Therefore hell hath enlarged herself and opened her mouth without measure, and their glory and their multitude and their pomp and he that rejoiceth shall descend into it.

2 Nephi 15:15

And the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled.

2 Nephi 15:16

But the Lord of Hosts shall be exalted in judgment, and God that is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness.

Then shall the lambs feed after their manner, and the waste places of the fat ones shall strangers eat.

2 Nephi 15:18

Woe unto them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity and sin as it were with a cart rope, that say: Let him make speed, hasten his work that we may see it. And let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it.

2 Nephi 15:20

Woe unto them that call evil good and good evil, that put darkness for light and light for darkness, that put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter.

2 Nephi 15:21

Woe unto the wise in their own eyes and prudent in their own sight.

2 Nephi 15:22

Woe unto the mighty to drink wine and men of strength to mingle strong drink, which justify the wicked for reward and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him.

2 Nephi 15:24

Therefore as the fire devoureth the stubble and the flame consumeth the chaff, their root shall be rottenness and their blossom shall go up as dust because they have cast away the law of the Lord of Hosts and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

2 Nephi 15:25

Therefore is the anger of the Lord kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them and hath smitten them. And the hills did tremble and their carcasses were torn in the midst of the streets. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand stretched out still.

And he will lift up an ensign to the nations from far and will hiss unto them from the end of the earth. And behold, they shall come with speed swiftly.

2 Nephi 15:27

None shall be weary nor stumble among them. None shall slumber nor sleep, neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, nor the latchet of their shoes be broken, whose arrows shall be sharp, and all their bows bent. And their horses' hoofs shall be counted like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind, their roaring like a lion.

They shall roar like young lions; yea, they shall roar and lay hold of the prey and shall carry away safe, and none shall deliver.

2 Nephi 15:30

And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the sea. And if they look unto the land, behold, darkness and sorrow, and the light is darkened in the heavens thereof.

2 Nephi 16:1

In the year that king Uzziah died, I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple.

2 Nephi 16:2

Above it stood the seraphims; each one had six wings: with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.

2 Nephi 16:3

And one cried unto another and said: Holy holy holy is the Lord of Hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory.

2 Nephi 16:4

And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.

2 Nephi 16:5

Then said I: Woe me, for I am undone because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips. For mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of Hosts.

2 Nephi 16:6

Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar.

2 Nephi 16:7

And he laid upon my mouth and said: Lo, this hath touched thy lips, and thine iniquity is taken away and thy sin purged.

2 Nephi 16:8

Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying: Whom shall I send? And who will go for us? Then I said: Here I, send me.

And he said: Go and tell this people: Hear ye indeed, but they understand not; and see ye indeed, but they perceive not.

Make the heart of this people fat and make their ears heavy and shut their eyes, lest they see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with their heart and convert and be healed.

2 Nephi 16:11

Then said I: Lord, how long? And he said: Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate, and the Lord have removed men far away, for there shall be a great forsaking in the midst of the land.

2 Nephi 16:13

But yet in it there shall be a tenth, and they shall return and shall be eaten; as a teil tree and as an oak whose substance is in them when they cast their leaves, so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof.

2 Nephi 17:1

And it came to pass—in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham the son of Uzziah, king of Judah— Rezin, king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up towards Jerusalem to war against it but could not prevail against it.

2 Nephi 17:2

And it was told the house of David, saying: Syria is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart was moved and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind.

2 Nephi 17:3

Then said the Lord unto Isaiah: Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou and Shear-jashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field, and say unto him: Take heed and be quiet. Fear not, neither be fainthearted for the two tails of these smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria and of the son of Remaliah, because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah have taken evil counsel against thee, saying:

2 Nephi 17:4

2 Nephi 17:6

Let us go up against Judah and vex it. And let us make a breach therein for us and set a king in the midst of it, yea, the son of Tabeal.

Thus saith the Lord God: It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.

2 Nephi 17:8

For the head of Syria is Damascus and the head of Damascus Rezin, and within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, that it be not a people.

2 Nephi 17:9

And the head of Ephraim is Samaria and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established.

Moreover the Lord spake again unto Ahaz, saying:

2 Nephi 17:11

Ask thee a sign of the Lord thy God; ask either in the depths or in the heights above.

But Ahaz said: I will not ask, neither will I tempt the Lord.

2 Nephi 17:13

And he said: Hear ye now, O house of David: Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also?

2 Nephi 17:14

Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign: behold, a virgin shall conceive and shall bear a son and shall call his name Immanuel.

2 Nephi 17:15

Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil and to choose the good.

2 Nephi 17:16

For before the child shall know to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of both her kings.

2 Nephi 17:17

The Lord shall bring upon thee and upon thy people and upon thy father's house days that have not come from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah, the king of Assyria.

2 Nephi 17:18

And it shall come to pass in that day that the Lord shall hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of Egypt and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.

2 Nephi 17:19

And they shall come and shall rest, all of them, in the desolate valleys and in the holes of the rocks and upon all thorns and upon all bushes.

2 Nephi 17:20

In the same day shall the Lord shave with a razor that is hired by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head and the hair of the feet; and it shall also consume the beard.

2 Nephi 17:21

And it shall come to pass that in that day a man shall nourish a young cow and two sheep.

2 Nephi 17:22

And it shall come to pass, for the abundance of milk they shall give, he shall eat butter, for butter and honey shall every one eat that is left in the land.

And it shall come to pass in that day every place shall be where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silverlings, which shall be for briars and thorns.

2 Nephi 17:24

With arrows and with bows shall men come thither because all the land shall become briars and thorns.

2 Nephi 17:25

And all hills that shall be digged with the mattock, there shall not come thither the fear of briars and thorns, but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen and the treading of lesser cattle.

Moreover the word of the Lord said unto me: Take thee a great roll and write in it with a man's pen concerning Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

2 Nephi 18:2

And I took unto me faithful witnesses to record, Uriah the priest and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah.

2 Nephi 18:3

And I went unto the prophetess, and she conceived and bare a son. Then said the Lord to me: Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

2 Nephi 18:4

For behold, the child shall not have knowledge to cry my father and my mother before the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria.

2 Nephi 18:5

The Lord spake also unto me again, saying:

2 Nephi 18:6

Forasmuch as this people refuseth the waters of Shiloah that go softly and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son, now therefore behold, the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even the king of Assyria and all his glory. And he shall come up over all his channels and go over all his banks, and he shall pass through Judah. He shall overflow and go over; he shall reach even to the neck, and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel.

2 Nephi 18:8

2 Nephi 18:9

Associate yourselves, O ye people, and ye shall be broken in pieces. And give ear, all ye of far countries: Gird yourselves and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves and ye shall be broken in pieces.

2 Nephi 18:10

Take counsel together and it shall come to naught. Speak the word and it shall not stand, for God is with us.

2 Nephi 18:11

For the Lord spake thus to me with a strong hand and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying:

Say ye not a confederacy to all to whom this people shall say a confederacy, neither fear ye their fear nor be afraid.

2 Nephi 18:13

Sanctify the Lord of Hosts himself, and let him be your fear and let him be your dread.

2 Nephi 18:14

And he shall be for a sanctuary, but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offense to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

2 Nephi 18:15

And many among them shall stumble and fall and be broken and be snared and be taken.

Bind up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples.

2 Nephi 18:17

And I will wait upon the Lord, that hideth his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him.

2 Nephi 18:18

Behold, I and the children whom the Lord hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the Lord of Hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion.

And when they shall say unto you: Seek unto them that have familiar spirits and unto wizards that peep and mutter— Should not a people seek unto their God, for the living to hear from the dead, to the law and to the testimony? And if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.

2 Nephi 18:21

And they shall pass through it hardly bestead and hungry. And it shall come to pass that when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves and curse their king and their God and look upward.

2 Nephi 18:22

And they shall look unto the earth —and behold, trouble and darkness, dimness of anguish— and shall be driven to darkness.

2 Nephi 19:1

Nevertheless the dimness shall not be such as was in her vexation, when at the first he lightly afflicted the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, and afterward did more grievously afflict by the way of the Red Sea, beyond Jordan in Galilee of the nations.

2 Nephi 19:2

The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light. They that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

2 Nephi 19:3

Thou hast multiplied the nation and increased the joy. They joy before thee according to the joy in harvest and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

2 Nephi 19:4

For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor.

For every battle of the warrior with confused noise and garments rolled in blood— but this shall be with burning and fuel of fire.

2 Nephi 19:6

For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given. And the government shall be upon his shoulder, and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace.

Of the increase of government and peace there is no end, upon the throne of David and upon his kingdom, to order it and to establish it, with judgment and with justice from henceforth, even forever. The zeal of the Lord of Hosts will perform this.

The Lord sent his word unto Jacob, and it hath lighted upon Israel.

2 Nephi 19:9

And all the people shall know, even Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, that say in the pride and the stoutness of heart:

The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones; the sycamores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars.

Therefore the Lord shall set up the adversaries of Rezin against him and join his enemies together, the Syrians before and the Philistines behind, and they shall devour Israel with open mouth. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand stretched out still.

2 Nephi 19:13

For the people turneth not unto him that smiteth them, neither do they seek the Lord of Hosts.

2 Nephi 19:14

Therefore will the Lord cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and rush in one day.

2 Nephi 19:15

The ancient, he is the head; and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail.

2 Nephi 19:16

For the leaders of this people cause them to err, and they that are led of them are destroyed.

2 Nephi 19:17

Therefore the Lord shall have no joy in their young men, neither shall have mercy on their fatherless and widows. For every one of them is a hypocrite and an evildoer, and every mouth speaketh folly. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand stretched out still.

2 Nephi 19:18

For wickedness burneth as the fire. It shall devour the briars and thorns and shall kindle in the thickets of the forests, and they shall mount up like the lifting up of smoke.

2 Nephi 19:19

Through the wrath of the Lord of Hosts is the land darkened, and the people shall be as the fuel of the fire. No man shall spare his brother.

2 Nephi 19:20

And he shall snatch on the right hand and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied. They shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm:

2 Nephi 19:21

Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh. They together shall be against Judah. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand stretched out still.

2 Nephi 20:1

Woe unto them that decree unrighteous decrees and that write grievousness which they have prescribed, to turn aside the needy from judgment and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their prey and that they may rob the fatherless.

2 Nephi 20:3

And what will ye do in the day of visitation and in the desolation which shall come from far? To whom will ye flee for help? And where will ye leave your glory?

2 Nephi 20:4

Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand stretched out still.

2 Nephi 20:5

O Assyrian, the rod of mine anger; and the staff in their hand is their indignation.

2 Nephi 20:6

I will send him against a hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge to take the spoil and to take the prey and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

Howbeit he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but in his heart it is to destroy and cut off nations not a few.

2 Nephi 20:8

For he saith: Are not my princes altogether kings?

Is not Calno as Carchemish? Is not Hamath as Arpad? Is not Samaria as Damascus?

2 Nephi 20:10

As my hand hath found the kingdoms of the idols and whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria, shall I not as I have done unto Samaria and her idols so do to Jerusalem and to her idols?

2 Nephi 20:11

Wherefore it shall come to pass that when the Lord hath performed his whole work upon mount Zion and upon Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria and the glory of his high looks.

2 Nephi 20:13

For he saith: By the strength of my hand and by my wisdom I have done these things, for I am prudent. And I have removed the borders of the people and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man.

2 Nephi 20:14

And my hand hath found as a nest the riches of the people, and as one gathereth eggs that are left have I gathered all the earth. And there was none that moved the wing or opened the mouth or peeped.

2 Nephi 20:15

Shall the ax boast itself against him that heweth therewith? Shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? As if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up? Or as if the staff should lift up itself as if it were no wood?

Therefore shall the Lord, the Lord of Hosts, send among his fat ones leanness, and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire.

2 Nephi 20:17

And the light of Israel shall be for a fire and his Holy One for a flame, and shall burn and shall devour his thorns and his briars in one day, and shall consume the glory of his forest and of his fruitful field, both soul and body. And they shall be as when a standard-bearer fainteth.

2 Nephi 20:19

And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be few, that a child may write them.

2 Nephi 20:20

And it shall come to pass in that day that the remnant of Israel and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob shall no more again stay upon him that smote them, but shall stay upon the Lord, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.

2 Nephi 20:21

The remnant shall return, yea, even the remnant of Jacob, unto the mighty God.

2 Nephi 20:22

For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return. The consumption decreed shall overflow with righteousness; for the Lord God of Hosts shall make a consumption, even determined in all the land.

2 Nephi 20:24

Therefore thus saith the Lord God of Hosts: O my people that dwellest in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian. He shall smite thee with a rod and shall lift up his staff against thee after the manner of Egypt.

2 Nephi 20:25

For yet a very little while and the indignation shall cease and mine anger in their destruction.

2 Nephi 20:26

And the Lord of Hosts shall stir up a scourge for him according to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb. And as his rod was upon the sea, so shall he lift it up after the manner of Egypt.

2 Nephi 20:27

And it shall come to pass in that day that his burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing.

2 Nephi 20:28

He is come to Aiath. He is passed to Migron. At Michmash he hath laid up his carriages.

They are gone over the passage. They have taken up their lodging at Geba. Ramah is afraid. Gibeah of Saul is fled.

2 Nephi 20:30

Lift up the voice, O daughter of Gallim. Cause it to be heard unto Laish, O poor Anathoth.

Madmenah is removed. The inhabitants of Gebim gather themselves to flee.

2 Nephi 20:32

As yet shall he remain at Nob that day. He shall shake his hand against the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

2 Nephi 20:33

Behold, the Lord, the Lord of Hosts, shall lop the bough with terror; and the high ones of stature shall be hewn down, and the haughty shall be humbled.

And he shall cut down the thickets of the forests with iron, and Lebanon shall fall by a mighty one.

2 Nephi 21:1

And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots.

2 Nephi 21:2

And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord, and shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the Lord. And he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears, but with righteousness shall he judge the poor and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth. And he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

2 Nephi 21:3

2 Nephi 21:5

And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins.

2 Nephi 21:6

The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid, and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them.

And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together. And the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice's den.

2 Nephi 21:9

They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea.

And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek, and his rest shall be glorious.

2 Nephi 21:11

And it shall come to pass in that day that the Lord shall set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people which shall be left from Assyria and from Egypt and from Pathros and from Cush and from Elam and from Shinar and from Hamath and from the islands of the sea.

And he shall set up an ensign for the nations and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

2 Nephi 21:13

The envy of Ephraim also shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off. Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim.

2 Nephi 21:14

But they shall fly upon the shoulders of the Philistines toward the west; they shall spoil them of the east together. They shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab, and the children of Ammon shall obey them.

2 Nephi 21:15

And the Lord shall utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea. And with his mighty wind he shall shake his hand over the river and shall smite it in the seven streams and make men go over dry-shod.

And there shall be a highway for the remnant of his people which shall be left from Assyria, like as it was to Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.

2 Nephi 22:1

And in that day thou shalt say: O Lord, I will praise thee. Though thou wast angry with me, thine anger is turned away and thou comfortedst me.

2 Nephi 22:2

Behold, God is my salvation. I will trust and not be afraid, for the Lord Jehovah is my strength and my song; he also is become my salvation.

Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation.

2 Nephi 22:4

And in that day shall ye say: Praise the Lord, call upon his name, declare his doings among the people, make mention that his name is exalted.

2 Nephi 22:5

Sing unto the Lord, for he hath done excellent things. This is known in all the earth.

2 Nephi 22:6

Cry out and shout, thou inhabitant of Zion, for great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee.

2 Nephi 23:1

The burden of Babylon which Isaiah the son of Amoz did see.

2 Nephi 23:2

Lift ye up a banner upon the high mountain, exalt the voice unto them, shake the hand that they may go into the gates of the nobles.

2 Nephi 23:3

I have commanded my sanctified ones; I have also called my mighty ones. For mine anger is not upon them that rejoice in my highness.

2 Nephi 23:4

The noise of the multitude in the mountains like as of a great people, a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together— the Lord of Hosts mustereth the host of the battle.

2 Nephi 23:5

They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, yea, the Lord and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.

2 Nephi 23:6

Howl ye, for the day of the Lord is at hand. It shall come as a destruction from the Almighty.

2 Nephi 23:7

Therefore shall all hands be faint. Every man's heart shall melt, and they shall be afraid. Pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them. They shall be amazed one at another. Their faces shall be as flames.

2 Nephi 23:9

Behold, the day of the Lord cometh, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate. And he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it.

For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light. The sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine.

2 Nephi 23:11

And I will punish the world for evil and the wicked for their iniquity. I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease and will lay down the haughtiness of the terrible.

I will make a man more precious than fine gold, even a man than the golden wedge of Ophir.

2 Nephi 23:13

Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the Lord of Hosts and in the day of his fierce anger.

2 Nephi 23:14

And it shall be as the chased roe and as a sheep that no man taketh up. They shall every man turn to his own people and flee every one into his own land.

2 Nephi 23:15

Every one that is proud shall be thrust through. Yea, and every one that is joined to the wicked shall fall by the sword.

2 Nephi 23:18

Their bows shall also dash the young men to pieces. And they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eyes shall not spare children.

2 Nephi 23:19

And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.

2 Nephi 23:20

It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in, from generation to generation. Neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there, neither shall the shepherds make their fold there.

2 Nephi 23:21

But wild beasts of the desert shall lie there, and their houses shall be full of doleful creatures. And owls shall dwell there, and satyrs shall dance there.

2 Nephi 23:22

And the wild beasts of the islands shall cry in their desolate houses, and dragons in their pleasant palaces. And her time is near to come and her day shall not be prolonged, for I will destroy her speedily. Yea, for I will be merciful unto my people, but the wicked shall perish.

2 Nephi 24:1

For the Lord will have mercy on Jacob and will yet choose Israel and set them in their own land. And the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob.

2 Nephi 24:2

And the people shall take them and bring them to their place, yea, from far unto the ends of the earth. And they shall return to their lands of promise, and the house of Israel shall possess them. And the land of the Lord shall be for servants and handmaids. And they shall take them captives unto whom they were captives, and they shall rule over their oppressors.

And it shall come to pass that in that day that the Lord shall give thee rest from thy sorrow and from thy fear and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve.

And it shall come to pass in that day that thou shalt take up this proverb against the king of Babylon and say: How hath the oppressor ceased, the golden city ceased!

The Lord hath broken the staff of the wicked, the scepters of the rulers.

2 Nephi 24:6

The whole earth is at rest and is quiet. They break forth into singing.

2 Nephi 24:8

Yea, the fir trees rejoice at thee, and also the cedars of Lebanon, saying: Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up against us.

2 Nephi 24:9

Hell from beneath is moved for thee, to meet thee at thy coming. It stirreth up the dead for thee, even all the chief ones of the earth. It hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations.

2 Nephi 24:10

All they shall speak and say unto thee: Art thou also become weak as we? Art thou become like unto us?

2 Nephi 24:11

Thy pomp is brought down to the grave. The noise of thy viols is not heard. The worm is spread under thee and the worms cover thee.

2 Nephi 24:12

How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning, art thou cut down to the ground which did weaken the nations!

2 Nephi 24:13

For thou hast said in thy heart: I will ascend into heaven. I will exalt my throne above the stars of God. I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation in the sides of the north.

2 Nephi 24:14

I will ascend above the heights of the clouds. I will be like the Most High.

2 Nephi 24:15

Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit.

2 Nephi 24:16

They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee and shall consider thee and shall say: Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms and made the world as a wilderness and destroyed the cities thereof and opened not the house of his prisoners?

2 Nephi 24:18

All the kings of the nations, yea, all of them, lie in glory, every one of them in his own house.

2 Nephi 24:19

But thou art cast out of thy grave like an abominable branch and the raiment of those that are slain, thrust through with a sword, that go down to the stones of the pit, as a carcass trodden under feet.

2 Nephi 24:20

Thou shalt not be joined with them in burial because thou hast destroyed thy land and slain thy people. The seed of evildoers shall never be renowned.

2 Nephi 24:21

Prepare slaughter for his children for the iniquities of their fathers, that they do not rise nor possess the land nor fill the face of the world with cities.

2 Nephi 24:22

For I will rise up against them, saith the Lord of Hosts, and cut off from Babylon the name and remnant, and son and nephew, saith the Lord.

2 Nephi 24:23

I will also make it a possession for the bittern and pools of water. And I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the Lord of Hosts.

2 Nephi 24:24

The Lord of Hosts hath sworn, saying: Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand, that I will break the Assyrian in my land and upon my mountains tread him under foot. Then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders.

2 Nephi 24:25

2 Nephi 24:26

This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth. And this is the hand that is stretched out upon all nations.

For the Lord of Hosts hath purposed, and who shall disannul? And his hand stretched out, and who shall turn it back?

In the year that king Ahaz died was this burden.

2 Nephi 24:29

Rejoice not thou, whole Palestina, because the rod of him that smote thee is broken. For out of the serpent's root shall come forth a cockatrice, and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent.

2 Nephi 24:30

And the first born of the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie down in safety. And I will kill thy root with famine, and he shall slay thy remnant.

2 Nephi 24:31

Howl, O gate; cry, O city! Thou whole Palestina art dissolved. For there shall come from the north a smoke. And none shall be alone in his appointed times.

2 Nephi 24:32

What shall then answer the messengers of the nations? That the Lord hath founded Zion, and the poor of his people shall trust in it.

2 Nephi 25:1

Now I Nephi do speak somewhat concerning the words which I have written, which have been spoken by the mouth of Isaiah. For behold, Isaiah spake many things which were hard for many of my people to understand, for they know not concerning the manner of prophesying among the Jews.

2 Nephi 25:2

For I Nephi have not taught them many things concerning the manner of the Jews, for their works were works of darkness and their doings were doings of abomination.

2 Nephi 25:3

Wherefore I write unto my people, unto all they that shall receive hereafter these things which I write, that they may know the judgments of God, that they come upon all nations according to the word which he hath spoken.

2 Nephi 25:4

Wherefore hearken, O my people which are of the house of Israel, and give ear unto my words, for because that the words of Isaiah are not plain unto you —nevertheless they are plain unto all they that are filled with the spirit of prophecy, but I give unto you a prophecy according to the Spirit which is in me— wherefore I shall prophesy according to the plainness which hath been with me from the time that I came out from Jerusalem with my father. For behold, my soul delighteth in plainness unto my people, that they may learn.

2 Nephi 25:5

Yea, and my soul delighteth in the words of Isaiah, for I came out from Jerusalem and mine eyes hath beheld the things of the Jews. And I know that the Jews do understand the things of the prophets. And there is none other people that understand the things which were spoken unto the Jews like unto them, save it be that they are taught after the manner of the things of the Jews.

2 Nephi 25:6

But behold, I Nephi have not taught my children after the manner of the Jews; but behold, I of myself have dwelt at Jerusalem, wherefore I know concerning the regions round about. And I have made mention concerning the judgments of God which hath come to pass among the Jews unto my children according to all that which Isaiah hath spoken, and I do not write them.

2 Nephi 25:7

But behold, I proceed with mine own prophecy according to my plainness, in the which I know that no man can err. Nevertheless in the days that the prophecies of Isaiah shall be fulfilled, men shall know of a surety at the times when they shall come to pass.

Wherefore they are of worth unto the children of men. And he that supposeth that they are not, unto them will I speak particularly and confine the words unto mine own people, for I know that they shall be of great worth unto them in the last days, for in that day shall they understand them. Wherefore for their good have I written them.

2 Nephi 25:9

And as one generation hath been destroyed among the Jews because of iniquity, even so have they been destroyed from generation to generation according to their iniquities. And never hath any of them been destroyed save it were foretold them by the prophets of the Lord.

Wherefore it hath been told them concerning the destruction which should come upon them immediately after my father left Jerusalem. Nevertheless they hardened their hearts; and according to my prophecy they have been destroyed, save it be those which are carried away captive into Babylon.

2 Nephi 25:11

And now this I speak because of the Spirit which is in me. And notwithstanding that they have been carried away, they shall return again and possess the land of Jerusalem. Wherefore they shall be restored again to the lands of their inheritance.

2 Nephi 25:12

But behold, they shall have wars and rumors of wars. And when the day cometh that the Only Begotten of the Father —yea, even the Father of heaven and of earth— shall manifest himself unto them in the flesh, behold, they will reject him because of their iniquities and the hardness of their hearts and the stiffness of their necks.

2 Nephi 25:13

Behold, they will crucify him. And after that he is laid in a sepulchre for the space of three days, he shall rise from the dead with healing in his wings, and all they that shall believe on his name shall be saved in the kingdom of God. Wherefore my soul delighteth to prophesy concerning him, for I have seen his day, and my heart doth magnify his holy name.

2 Nephi 25:14

And behold, it shall come to pass that after the Messiah hath risen from the dead and hath manifested himself unto his people, unto as many as will believe on his name, behold, Jerusalem shall be destroyed again; for woe unto them that fight against God and the people of his church.

2 Nephi 25:15

Wherefore the Jews shall be scattered among all nations; yea, and also Babylon shall be destroyed. Wherefore the Jews shall be scattered by other nations.

And after that they have been scattered and the Lord God hath scourged them by other nations for the space of many generations —yea, even down from generation to generation until they shall be persuaded to believe in Christ the Son of God and the atonement, which is infinite for all mankind— and when that day shall come that they shall believe in Christ and worship the Father in his name with pure hearts and clean hands and look not forward any more for another Messiah —and then at that time the day will come that it must needs be expedient that they should believe these things—the Lord will set his hand again the second time to restore his people from their lost and fallen state. Wherefore he will proceed to do a marvelous work and a wonder among the children of men.

Wherefore he shall bring forth his words unto them, which words shall judge them at the last day; for they shall be given them for the purpose of convincing them of the true Messiah, who was rejected by them, and unto the convincing of them that they need not look forward any more for a Messiah to come; for there should not any come save it should be a false Messiah which should deceive the people. For there is save one Messiah spoken of by the prophets, and that Messiah is he which should be rejected of the Jews.

For according to the words of the prophets, the Messiah cometh in six hundred years from the time that my father left Jerusalem. And according to the words of the prophets and also the word of the angel of God, his name should be Jesus Christ the Son of God.

2 Nephi 25:20

And now my brethren, I have spoken plain that ye cannot err. And as the Lord God liveth that brought Israel up out of the land of Egypt and gave unto Moses power that he should heal the nations after that they had been bitten by the poisonous serpents, if they would cast their eyes unto the serpent which he did raise up before them, and also gave him power that he should smite the rock and the water should come forth, yea, behold I say unto you that as these things are true and as the Lord God liveth, there is none other name given under heaven save it be this Jesus Christ of which I have spoken whereby man can be saved.

Wherefore for this cause hath the Lord God promised unto me that these things which I write shall be kept and preserved and handed down unto my seed from generation to generation, that the promise may be fulfilled unto Joseph that his seed should never perish as long as the earth should stand.

2 Nephi 25:22

Wherefore these things shall go from generation to generation as long as the earth shall stand; and they shall go according to the will and pleasure of God. And the nations which shall possess them shall be judged of them according to the words which are written.

2 Nephi 25:23

For we labor diligently to write, to persuade our children and also our brethren to believe in Christ and to be reconciled to God, for we know that it is ¹by grace that we are saved after ²all that we can ³do.⁴

¹Compare Ephesians 2:5, Ephesians 2:8,

²Compare Alma 24:11, “for it was all we could do to repent sufficiently before God that he would take away our stains.”

⁴I think the key to understanding this verse is the “be reconciled” part that occurs in the middle of it. I think it’s a reference to Jacob’s remark at 2 Nephi 10:24, and so I think what Nephi means is, “after all we can do [to reconcile ourselves to God], it’s still by grace we’re saved.” See also Alma 24:10–12 (especially verse 11, which uses “all we could do” twice; see verse 15 as well).

And notwithstanding we believe in Christ, we keep the law of Moses and look forward with steadfastness unto Christ until the law shall be fulfilled, for for this end was the law given. Wherefore the law hath become dead unto us, and we are made alive in Christ because of our faith, yet we keep the law because of the commandments.

2 Nephi 25:25

And we talk of Christ, we rejoice in Christ, we preach of Christ, we prophesy of Christ; and we write according to our prophecies that our children may know to what source they may look for a remission of their sins.

Wherefore we speak concerning the law, that our children may know the deadness of the law. And they, by knowing the deadness of the law, may look forward unto that life which is in Christ and know for what end the law was given— and after that the law is fulfilled in Christ, that they need not harden their hearts against him when the law had ought to be done away.

And now behold, my people, ye are a stiffnecked people. Wherefore I have spoken plain unto you, that ye cannot misunderstand. And the words which I have spoken shall stand as a testimony against you, for they are sufficient to teach any man the right way. For the right way is to believe in Christ and deny him not, for by denying him ye also deny the prophets and the law.

And now behold, I say unto you that the right way is to believe in Christ and deny him not. And Christ is the Holy One of Israel; wherefore ye must bow down before him and worship him with all your might, mind, and strength, and your whole soul. And if ye do this, ye shall in no wise be cast out.

2 Nephi 25:30

And inasmuch as it shall be expedient, ye must keep the performances and ordinances of God until the law shall be fulfilled which was given unto Moses.

2 Nephi 26:1

And after that Christ shall have risen from the dead, he shall shew himself unto you, my children and my beloved brethren, and the words which he shall speak unto you shall be the law which ye shall do.

2 Nephi 26:2

For behold, I say unto you that I have beheld that many generations shall pass away and there shall be great wars and contentions among my people.

2 Nephi 26:3

And after that the Messiah shall come, there shall be signs given unto my people of his birth and also of his death and resurrection. And great and terrible shall that day be unto the wicked, for they shall perish; and they perish because they cast out the prophets and the saints and stone them and slay them. Wherefore the cry of the blood of the saints shall ascend up to God from the ground against them.

2 Nephi 26:4

Wherefore all they that are proud and that do wickedly, the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of Hosts, for they shall be as stubble.

2 Nephi 26:5

And they that kill the prophets and the saints, the depths of the earth shall swallow them up, saith the Lord of Hosts, and mountains shall cover them, and whirlwinds shall carry them away, and buildings shall fall upon them and crush them to pieces and grind them to powder.

2 Nephi 26:6

And they shall be visited with thunderings and lightnings and earthquakes and all manner of destructions, for the fire of the anger of the Lord shall be kindled against them, and they shall be as stubble. And the day that cometh shall consume them, saith the Lord of Hosts.

O the pain and the anguish of my soul for the loss of the slain of my people! For I Nephi hath seen it, and it well nigh consumeth me before the presence of the Lord. But I must cry unto my God: Thy ways are just!

2 Nephi 26:8

But behold, the righteous that hearken unto the words of the prophets and destroy them not but look forward unto Christ with steadfastness for the signs which are given, notwithstanding all persecutions, behold, they are they which shall not perish.

But the Sun of righteousness shall appear unto them and he shall heal them. And they shall have peace with him until three generations shall have passed away, and many of the fourth generation shall have passed away in righteousness.

And when these things shall have passed away, a speedy destruction cometh unto my people. For notwithstanding the pains of my soul, I have seen it; wherefore I know that it shall come to pass. And they sell themselves for naught, for for the reward of their pride and their foolishness they shall reap destruction; for because they yieldeth unto the devil and choose works of darkness rather than light, therefore they must go down to hell.

For the Spirit of the Lord will not always strive with man. And when the Spirit ceaseth to strive with man, then cometh speedy destruction, and this grieveth my soul.

And as I spake concerning the convincing of the Jews that Jesus is the very Christ, it must needs be that the Gentiles be convinced also that Jesus is the Christ, the Eternal God, and that he manifesteth himself unto all they that believe in him by the power of the Holy Ghost, yea, unto every nation, kindred, tongue, and people, working mighty miracles, signs, and wonders among the children of men according to their faith.

2 Nephi 26:13

2 Nephi 26:14

But behold, I prophesy unto you concerning the last days, concerning the days when the Lord God shall bring these things forth unto the children of men.

2 Nephi 26:15

After that my seed and the seed of my brethren shall have dwindled in unbelief and shall have been smitten by the Gentiles—yea, after that the Lord God shall have camped against them round about and shall have laid siege against them with a mount and raised forts against them, and after that they shall have been brought down low in the dust, even that they are not—yet the words of the righteous shall be written and the prayers of the faithful shall be heard, and all they which have dwindled in unbelief shall not be forgotten.

For they which shall be destroyed shall speak unto them out of the ground, and their speech shall be low out of the dust, and their voice shall be as one that hath a familiar spirit. For the Lord God will give unto him power that he may whisper concerning them, even as it were out of the ground; and their speech shall whisper out of the dust.

2 Nephi 26:17

For thus saith the Lord God: They shall write the things which shall be done among them, and they shall be written and sealed up in a book. And they that have dwindled in unbelief shall not have them, for they seek to destroy the things of God.

Wherefore as they which have been destroyed have been destroyed speedily and the multitude of their terrible ones shall be as chaff that passeth away, yea, thus saith the Lord God: It shall be at an instant, suddenly.

2 Nephi 26:19

And it shall come to pass that they which have dwindled in unbelief shall be smitten by the hand of the Gentiles.

2 Nephi 26:20

And the Gentiles are lifted up in the pride of their eyes and have stumbled because of the greatness of their stumbling block, that they have built up many churches. Nevertheless they put down the power and the miracles of God and preach up unto themselves their own wisdom and their own learning, that they may get gain and grind upon the face of the poor.

And there are many churches built up which causeth envyings and strifes and malice.

2 Nephi 26:22

And there are also secret combinations, even as in times of old, according to the combinations of the devil, for he is the founder of all these things—yea, the founder of murder and works of darkness— yea, and he leadeth them by the neck with a flaxen¹ cord until he bindeth them with his strong cords forever.

For behold, my beloved brethren, I say unto you that the Lord God worketh not in darkness.

2 Nephi 26:24

He doeth not any thing save it be for the benefit of the world, for he loveth the world, even that he layeth down his own life that he may draw all men unto him; wherefore he commandeth none that they shall not partake of his salvation.

2 Nephi 26:25

Behold, doth he cry unto any, saying: Depart from me! Behold, I say unto you: Nay. But he saith: Come unto me, all ye ends of the earth; buy milk and honey without money and without price.

2 Nephi 26:26

Behold, hath he commanded any that they should depart out of the synagogues or out of the houses of worship? Behold, I say unto you: Nay.

2 Nephi 26:27

Hath he commanded any that they should not partake of his salvation? Behold, I say unto you: Nay. But he hath given it free for all men. And he hath commanded his people that they should persuade all men unto repentance.

2 Nephi 26:28

Behold, hath the Lord commanded any that they should not partake of his goodness? Behold, I say unto you: Nay. But all men are privileged the one like unto the other, and none are forbidden.

2 Nephi 26:29

He commandeth that there shall be no priestcrafts. For behold, priestcrafts are that men preach and set themselves up for a light unto the world, that they may get gain and praise of the world, but they seek not the welfare of Zion.²

2 Nephi 26:30

Behold, the Lord hath forbidden this thing. Wherefore the Lord God hath given a commandment that all men should have charity, which charity is love. And except they should have charity, they were nothing. Wherefore if they should have charity, they would not suffer the laborer in Zion to perish.

¹The first definition in the 1828 dictionary for “flaxen” is: “A plant of the genus Linum, consisting of a single slender stalk, the skin or herl of which is used for making thread and cloth, called linen, cambric, lawn, lace, etc. The skin consists of fine fibers, which may be so separated as to be spun into threads as fine as silk.” So it’s a very fine material, very delicate.

²This verse gives the BOM’s definition of “priestcraft.” The 1828 dictionary gives this definition:

- The stratagems and frauds of priests; fraud or imposition in religious concerns; management of selfish and ambitious priests to gain wealth and power, or to impose on the credulity of others.

The word appears 10 times in the BOM (2 Nephi 10:5, twice here, Alma 1:12 (3), Alma 1:16, 3 Nephi 16:10, 3 Nephi 21:19, 3 Nephi 30:2), and once in the DC (DC 33:4).

But the laborer in Zion shall labor for Zion; for if they labor for money, they shall perish.

2 Nephi 26:32

And again the Lord God hath commanded that men should not murder, that they should not lie, that they should not steal, that they should not take the name of the Lord their God in vain, that they should not envy, that they should not have malice, that they should not contend one with another, that they should not commit whoredoms, and that they should not do none of these things. For whoso doeth them shall perish, for none of these iniquities come of the Lord. For he doeth that which is good among the children of men. And he doeth nothing save it be plain unto the children of men. And he inviteth them all to come unto him and partake of his goodness. And he denieth none that come unto him, black and white, bond and free, male and female; and he remembereth the heathen. And all are alike unto God, both Jew and Gentile.

But behold, in the last days or in the days of the Gentiles —yea, behold all the nations of the Gentiles and also the Jews, both they which shall come upon this land and they which shall be upon other lands, yea, even upon all the lands of the earth— behold, they will be drunken with iniquity and all manner of abominations.

2 Nephi 27:2

And when that day shall come, they shall be visited of the Lord of Hosts with thunder and with earthquake and with a great noise and with storm and tempest and with the flame of devouring fire.

2 Nephi 27:3

And all the nations that fight against Zion and that distress her shall be as a dream of a night vision. Yea, it shall be unto them even as unto a hungry man which dreameth: and behold, he eateth, but he awaketh and his soul is empty; or like unto a thirsty man which dreameth: and behold, he drinketh, but he awaketh and behold, he is faint and his soul hath appetite. Yea, even so shall the multitude of all the nations be that fight against mount Zion.

2 Nephi 27:4

For behold, all ye that do iniquity, stay yourselves and wonder, for ye shall cry out and cry. Yea, ye shall be drunken but not with wine; ye shall stagger but not with strong drink.

2 Nephi 27:5

For behold, the Lord hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep. For behold, ye have closed your eyes; and ye have rejected the prophets, and your rulers and the seers hath he covered because of your iniquity.

2 Nephi 27:6

And it shall come to pass that the Lord God shall bring forth unto you the words of a book. And they shall be the words of them which have slumbered.

2 Nephi 27:7

And behold, the book shall be sealed. And in the book shall be a revelation from God from the beginning of the world to the ending thereof.

2 Nephi 27:8

Wherefore because of the things which are sealed up, the things which are sealed shall not be delivered in the day of the wickedness and abominations of the people. Wherefore the book shall be kept from them.

But the book shall be delivered unto a man, and he shall deliver the words of the book, which are the words of they which have slumbered in the dust, and he shall deliver these words unto another.

But the words which are sealed he shall not deliver, neither shall he deliver the book, for the book shall be sealed by the power of God; and the revelation which was sealed shall be kept in the book until the own due time of the Lord, that they may come forth. For behold, they reveal all things, from the foundation of the world unto the end thereof.

And the day cometh that the words of the book which were sealed shall be read upon the housetops; and they shall be read by the power of Christ. And all things shall be revealed unto the children of men which ever hath been among the children of men and which ever will be, even unto the end of the earth.

Wherefore at that day when the book shall be delivered unto the man of whom I have spoken, the book shall be hid from the eyes of the world, that the eyes of none shall behold it save it be that three witnesses shall behold it by the power of God, besides him to whom the book shall be delivered. And they shall testify to the truth of the book and the things therein.

2 Nephi 27:13

And there is none other which shall view it, save it be a few according to the will of God, to bear testimony of his word unto the children of men. For the Lord God hath said that the words of the faithful should speak as if it were from the dead.

2 Nephi 27:14

Wherefore the Lord God will proceed to bring forth the words of the book. And in the mouth of as many witnesses as seemeth him good will he establish his word. And woe be unto him that rejecteth the word of God.

2 Nephi 27:15

But behold, it shall come to pass that the Lord God shall say unto him to whom he shall deliver the book: Take these words which are not sealed and deliver them to another, that he may shew them unto the learned, saying: Read this, I pray thee. And the learned shall say: Bring hither the book and I will read them.

And now because of the glory of the world and to get gain will they say this, and not for the glory of God.

2 Nephi 27:17

And the man shall say: I cannot bring the book, for it is sealed.

2 Nephi 27:18

Then shall the learned say: I cannot read it.

2 Nephi 27:19

Wherefore it shall come to pass that the Lord God will deliver again the book and the words thereof to him that is not learned. And the man that is not learned shall say: I am not learned.

2 Nephi 27:20

Then shall the Lord God say unto him: The learned shall not read them, for they have rejected them. And I am able to do mine own work; wherefore thou shalt read the words which I shall give unto thee.

2 Nephi 27:21

Touch not the things which are sealed, for I will bring them forth in mine own due time. For I will shew unto the children of men that I am able to do mine own work.

2 Nephi 27:22

Wherefore when thou hast read the words which I have commanded thee and obtained the witnesses which I have promised unto thee, then shalt thou seal up the book again and hide it up unto me, that I may preserve the words which thou hast not read until I shall see fit in mine own wisdom to reveal all things unto the children of men.

For behold, I am God, and I am a God of miracles. And I will shew unto the world that I am the same yesterday, today, and forever, and I work not among the children of men save it be according to their faith.

2 Nephi 27:24

And again it shall come to pass that the Lord shall say unto him that shall read the words that shall be delivered him:

2 Nephi 27:25

Forasmuch as this people draw near unto me with their mouth and with their lips do honor me but have removed their heart far from me and their fear towards me is taught by the precept of men, therefore I will proceed to do a marvelous work among this people —yea, a marvelous work and a wonder— for the wisdom of their wise and learned shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent shall be hid.

2 Nephi 27:27

And woe unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the Lord, and their works are in the dark. And they say: Who seeth us and who knoweth us? And they also say: Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay! But behold, I will shew unto them, saith the Lord of Hosts, that I know all their works. For shall the work say of him that made it: He made me not! Or shall the thing framed say of him that framed it: He had no understanding!

2 Nephi 27:28

But behold, saith the Lord of Hosts, I will shew unto the children of men that it is not yet a very little while and Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field and the fruitful field shall be esteemed as a forest.

2 Nephi 27:29

And in that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity and out of darkness.

2 Nephi 27:30

And the meek also shall increase and their joy shall be in the Lord, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

For assuredly as the Lord liveth, they shall see that the terrible one is brought to naught and the scorner is consumed. And all that watch for iniquity are cut off, and they that make a man an offender for a word and lay a snare for him that reproveth in the gate and turn aside the just for a thing of naught.

2 Nephi 27:32

Therefore thus saith the Lord, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob: Jacob shall not now be ashamed, neither shall his face now wax pale.

2 Nephi 27:34

But when he seeth his children, the work of my hands, in the midst of him, they shall sanctify my name and sanctify the Holy One of Jacob and shall fear the God of Israel.

2 Nephi 27:35

They also that erred in spirit shall come to understanding, and they that murmured shall learn doctrine.

2 Nephi 28:1

And now behold, my brethren, I have spoken unto you according as the Spirit hath constrained me; wherefore I know that they must surely come to pass.

2 Nephi 28:2

And the things which shall be written out of the book shall be of great worth unto the children of men and especially unto our seed, which are a remnant of the house of Israel.

2 Nephi 28:3

For it shall come to pass in that day that the churches which are built up and not unto the Lord, when the one shall say unto the other: Behold I, I am the Lord's! And the other shall say: I, I am the Lord's! —and thus shall every one say that hath built up churches and not unto the Lord.

2 Nephi 28:4

And they shall contend one with another, and their priests shall contend one with another. And they shall teach with their learning and deny the Holy Ghost, which giveth utterance.

2 Nephi 28:5

And they deny the power of God, the Holy One of Israel. And they say unto the people: Hearken unto us and hear ye our precept. For behold, there is no God today; for the Lord and the Redeemer hath done his work, and he hath given his power unto men.

2 Nephi 28:6

Behold, hearken ye unto my precept. If they shall say there is a miracle wrought by the hand of the Lord, believe it not! For this day he is not a God of miracles; he hath done his work.

2 Nephi 28:7

Yea, and there shall be many which shall say: Eat, drink, and be merry,¹ for tomorrow we die and it shall be well with us.

2 Nephi 28:8

And there shall also be many which shall say: Eat, drink, and be merry, nevertheless fear God. He will justify in committing a little sin. Yea, lie a little, take the advantage of one because of his words, dig a pit for thy neighbor; there is no harm in this. And do all these things, for tomorrow we die. And if it so be that we are guilty, God will beat us with a few stripes, and at last we shall be saved in the kingdom of God.

Yea, and there shall be many which shall teach after this manner false and vain and foolish doctrines and shall be puffed up in their hearts and shall seek deep to hide their counsels from the Lord, and their works shall be in the dark.

And the blood of the saints shall cry from the ground against them.

Yea, they have all gone out of the way. They have become corrupted because of pride.

¹Notice the connection here to Luke 12:19 and the parable there—important to read this in light of what Christ is teaching there.

And because of false teachers and false doctrines, their churches have become corrupted and their churches are lifted up; because of pride they are puffed up.

2 Nephi 28:13

They rob the poor because of their fine sanctuaries; they rob the poor because of their fine clothing. And they persecute the meek and the poor in heart because in their pride they are puffed up.

2 Nephi 28:14

They wear stiff necks and high heads; yea, and because of pride and wickedness and abominations and whoredoms, they have all gone astray save it be a few which are the humble followers of Christ. Nevertheless they are led that in many instances they do err because they are taught by the precepts of men.

2 Nephi 28:15

O the wise and the learned and the rich that are puffed up in the pride of their hearts, and all they that preach false doctrines, and all they that commit whoredoms and pervert the right way of the Lord, woe woe woe be unto them, saith the Lord God Almighty, for they shall be thrust down to hell.

Woe unto them that turn aside the just for a thing of naught and revile against that which is good and say that it is of no worth, for the day shall come that the Lord God will speedily visit the inhabitants of the earth. And in that day that they are fully ripe in iniquity they shall perish.

2 Nephi 28:17

But behold, if the inhabitants of the earth shall repent of their wickedness and abominations, they shall not be destroyed, saith the Lord of Hosts.

2 Nephi 28:18

But behold, that great and abominable church, the whore of all the earth, must tumble to the earth; and great must be the fall thereof.

2 Nephi 28:19

For the kingdom of the devil must shake. And they which belong to it must needs be stirred up unto repentance, or the devil will grasp them with his everlasting chains and they be stirred up to anger and perish.

2 Nephi 28:20

For behold, at that day shall he rage in the hearts of the children of men and stir them up to anger against that which is good.

2 Nephi 28:21

And others will he pacify and lull them away into carnal security, that they will say: All is well in Zion; yea, Zion prospereth. All is well! And thus the devil cheateth their souls and leadeth them away carefully down to hell.

2 Nephi 28:22

And behold, others he flattereth away and telleth them: There is no hell. And he saith unto them: I am no devil, for there is none. And thus he whispereth in their ears until he grasps them with his awful chains, from whence there is no deliverance.

Yea, they are grasped with death and hell and the devil; and all that have been seized therewith must stand before the throne of God and be judged according to their works, from whence they must go into the place prepared for them, even a lake of fire and brimstone, which is endless torment.

2 Nephi 28:24

Therefore woe be unto him that is at ease in Zion!

2 Nephi 28:25

Woe be unto him that crieth: All is well!

2 Nephi 28:26

Yea, woe be unto him that hearkeneth unto the precepts of men and denieth the power of God and the gift of the Holy Ghost.

2 Nephi 28:27

Yea, woe be unto him that saith: We have received and we need no more.

2 Nephi 28:28

And in fine, woe unto all they that tremble and are angry because of the truth of God. For behold, he that is built upon the rock receiveth it with gladness. And he that is built upon a sandy foundation trembleth lest he shall fall.

Woe be unto him that shall say: We have received the word of God, and we need no more of the word of God, for we have enough.

2 Nephi 28:30

¹ For behold, thus saith the Lord God: I will give unto the children of men line upon line and precept upon precept,² here a little and there a little.³ And blessed are they that hearken unto my precepts and lend an ear unto my counsel, for they shall learn wisdom. For unto him that receiveth I will give more;⁴ and them that shall say we have enough,⁵ from them shall be taken away even that which they have.

Cursed is he that putteth his trust in man or maketh flesh his arm, or shall hearken unto the precepts of men, save their precepts shall be given by the power of the Holy Ghost.

2 Nephi 28:32

Woe be unto the Gentiles, saith the Lord God of Hosts; for notwithstanding I shall lengthen out mine arm unto them from day to day, they will deny me. Nevertheless I will be merciful unto them, saith the Lord God, if they will repent and come unto me. For mine arm is lengthened out all the day long, saith the Lord God of Hosts.

But behold, there shall be many at that day when I shall proceed to do a marvelous work among them, that I may remember my covenants which I have made unto the children of men, that I may set my hand again the second time to recover my people which are of the house of Israel

—and also that I may remember the promises which I have made unto thee Nephi and also unto thy father, that I would remember your seed, and that the words of your seed should proceed forth out of my mouth unto your seed, and my words shall hiss forth unto the ends of the earth for a standard unto my people which are of the house of Israel—and because my words shall hiss forth, many of the Gentiles shall say: A Bible, a Bible, we have got a Bible! And there cannot be any more Bible!

But thus saith the Lord God: O fools, they shall have a Bible, and it shall proceed forth from the Jews, mine ancient covenant people. And what thank they the Jews for the Bible which they receive from them? Yea, what do the Gentiles mean? Do they remember the travails and the labors and the pains of the Jews and their diligence unto me in bringing forth salvation unto the Gentiles?

O ye Gentiles, have ye remembered the Jews, mine ancient covenant people? Nay, but ye have cursed them and have hated them and have not sought to recover them. But behold, I will return all these things upon your own heads, for I the Lord hath not forgotten my people.

2 Nephi 29:6

Thou fool that shall say: A Bible, we have got a Bible, and we need no more Bible! Have ye obtained a Bible save it were by the Jews?

Know ye not that there are more nations than one? Know ye not that I the Lord your God have created all men and that I remember they which are upon the isles of the sea and that I rule in the heavens above and in the earth beneath and I bring forth my word unto the children of men, yea, even upon all the nations of the earth?

2 Nephi 29:8

Wherefore murmur ye because that ye shall receive more of my word? Know ye not that the testimony of two nations is a witness unto you that I am God, that I remember one nation like unto another? Wherefore I speak the same words unto one nation like unto another; and when the two nations shall run together, the testimony of the two nations shall run together also.

And I do this that I may prove unto many that I am the same yesterday, today, and forever and that I speak forth my words according to mine own pleasure. And because that I have spoken one word, ye need not suppose that I cannot speak another. For my work is not yet finished, neither shall it be until the end of man, neither from that time henceforth and forever.

2 Nephi 29:10

Wherefore because that ye have a Bible, ye need not suppose that it contains all my words; neither need ye suppose that I have not caused more to be written.

For I command all men, both in the east and in the west and in the north and in the south and in the islands of the sea, that they shall write the words which I speak unto them, for out of the books which shall be written I will judge the world, every man according to their works, according to that which is written.

2 Nephi 29:12

For behold, I shall speak unto the Jews, and they shall write it; and I shall also speak unto the Nephites, and they shall write it; and I shall also speak unto the other tribes of the house of Israel which I have led away, and they shall write it; and I shall also speak unto all the nations of the earth, and they shall write it.

2 Nephi 29:13

And it shall come to pass that the Jews shall have the words of the Nephites; and the Nephites shall have the words of the Jews; and the Nephites and the Jews shall have the words of the lost tribes of Israel; and the lost tribes of Israel shall have the words of the Nephites and the Jews.

And it shall come to pass that my people which are of the house of Israel shall be gathered home unto the lands of their possessions. And my word also shall be gathered in one, and I will show unto them that fight against my word and against my people which are of the house of Israel that I am God and that I covenanted with Abraham that I would remember his seed forever.

2 Nephi 30:1

And now behold, my beloved brethren, I would speak unto you, for I Nephi would not suffer that ye should suppose that ye are more righteous than the Gentiles shall be. For behold, except ye shall keep the commandments of God, ye shall all likewise perish. And because of the words which have been spoken, ye need not suppose that the Gentiles are utterly destroyed.

2 Nephi 30:2

For behold, I say unto you: As many of the Gentiles as will repent are the covenant people of the Lord; and as many of the Jews as will not repent shall be cast off. For the Lord covenanteth with none save it be with them that repent and believe in his Son, which is the Holy One of Israel.

And now I would prophesy somewhat more concerning the Jews and the Gentiles. For after the book of which I have spoken shall come forth and be written unto the Gentiles and sealed up again unto the Lord, there shall be many which shall believe the words which are written, and they shall carry them forth unto the remnant of our seed.

2 Nephi 30:4

And then shall the remnant of our seed know concerning us, how that we came out from Jerusalem and that they are a descendant of the Jews.

And the gospel of Jesus Christ shall be declared among them; wherefore they shall be restored unto the knowledge of their fathers and also to the knowledge of Jesus Christ, which was had among their fathers.

And then shall they rejoice, for they shall know that it is a blessing unto them from the hand of God. And their scales of darkness shall begin to fall from their eyes. And many generations shall not pass away among them save they shall be a white and a delightsome people.

And it shall come to pass that the Jews which are scattered also shall begin to believe in Christ, and they shall begin to gather in upon the face of the land. And as many as shall believe in Christ shall also become a delightsome people.

2 Nephi 30:8

And it shall come to pass that the Lord God shall commence his work among all nations, kindreds, tongues, and people to bring about the restoration of his people upon the earth.

2 Nephi 30:9

And with righteousness shall the Lord God judge the poor and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth. And he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

2 Nephi 30:10

For the time speedily cometh that the Lord God shall cause a great division among the people; and the wicked will he destroy and he will spare his people, yea, even if it so be that he must destroy the wicked by fire.

And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins.

2 Nephi 30:12

And then shall the wolf dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid, and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them.

2 Nephi 30:13

And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together. And the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice's den.

They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea.

2 Nephi 30:16

Wherefore the things of all nations shall be made known; yea, all things shall be made known unto the children of men.

There is nothing which is secret save it shall be revealed; there is no work of darkness save it shall be made manifest in the light. And there is nothing which is sealed upon earth save it shall be loosed.

2 Nephi 30:18

Wherefore all things which have been revealed unto the children of men shall at that day be revealed. And Satan shall have power over the hearts of the children of men no more for a long time. And now my beloved brethren, I must make an end of my sayings.

And now I Nephi make an end of my prophesying unto you, my beloved brethren. And I cannot write but a few things which I know must surely come to pass, neither can I write but a few of the words of my brother Jacob.

2 Nephi 31:2

Wherefore the things which I have written sufficeth me, save it be a few words which I must speak concerning the doctrine of Christ.¹ Wherefore I shall speak unto you plainly according to the plainness of my prophesying.

2 Nephi 31:3

For my soul delighteth in plainness, for after this manner doth the Lord God work among the children of men. For the Lord God giveth light unto the understanding, for he speaketh unto men according to their language² unto their understanding.

¹See note on the term "doctrine of Christ" at verse 21.

²See 1 Nephi 1:2 especially, but also DC 1:24, DC 90:11, Romans 6:19,

2 Nephi 31:4

Wherefore I would that ye should remember that I have spoken unto you concerning that prophet which the Lord shewed unto me that should baptize the Lamb of God, which should take away the sin of the world.

2 Nephi 31:5

And now if the Lamb of God, he being holy, should have need to be baptized by water to fulfill all righteousness, O then how much more need have we, being unholy, to be baptized, yea, even by water!

2 Nephi 31:6

And now I would ask of you, my beloved brethren, wherein the Lamb of God did fulfill all righteousness in being baptized by water?

2 Nephi 31:7

Know ye not that he was holy? But notwithstanding he being holy, he sheweth unto the children of men that according to the flesh he humbleth himself before the Father and witnesseth unto the Father that he would be obedient unto him in keeping his commandments.

Wherefore after that he was baptized with water, the Holy Ghost descended upon him in the form of a dove.

2 Nephi 31:9

And again it sheweth unto the children of men the straitness of the path and the narrowness of the gate by which they should enter, he having set the example before them.

2 Nephi 31:10

And he saith unto the children of men: Follow thou me. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, can we follow Jesus save we shall be willing to keep the commandments of the Father?

2 Nephi 31:11

And the Father saith: Repent ye, repent ye, and be baptized in the name of my Beloved Son.

2 Nephi 31:12

And also the voice of the Son came unto me, saying: He that is baptized in my name, to him will the Father give the Holy Ghost like unto me. Wherefore follow me and do the things which ye have seen me do.

2 Nephi 31:13

Wherefore, my beloved brethren, I know that if ye shall follow the Son with full purpose of heart, acting no hypocrisy and no deception before God but with real intent, repenting of your sins, witnessing unto the Father that ye are willing to take upon you the name of Christ by baptism, yea, by following your Lord and Savior down into the water according to his word, behold, then shall ye receive the Holy Ghost. Yea, then cometh the ¹baptism of fire and of the Holy Ghost, and then can ye speak with the tongue of angels and shout praises unto the Holy One of Israel.

¹Compare Matthew 3:11 for this baptism.

But behold, my beloved brethren, thus came the voice of the Son unto me, saying: After that ye have repented of your sins and witnessed unto the Father that ye are willing to keep my commandments by the baptism of water and have received the baptism of fire and of the Holy Ghost and can speak with a new tongue —yea, even with the tongue of angels— and after this should deny me, it would have been better for you that ye had not known me.

2 Nephi 31:15

And I heard a voice from the Father, saying: Yea, the words of my Beloved are true and faithful; he that endureth to the end, the same shall be saved.

2 Nephi 31:16

And now my beloved brethren, I know by this that unless a man shall endure to the end in following the example of the Son of the living God, he cannot be saved.

2 Nephi 31:17

Wherefore do the things which I have told you that I have seen, that your Lord and your Redeemer should do. For for this cause have they been shewn unto me, that ye might know the gate by which ye should enter. For the gate by which ye should enter is repentance and baptism by water, and then cometh a remission of your sins by fire and by the Holy Ghost.

And then are ye in this straight and narrow path which leads to eternal life, yea, ye have entered in by the gate. Ye have done according to the commandments of the Father and the Son, and ye have received the Holy Ghost, which witness of the Father and the Son unto the fulfilling of the promise which he hath made, that if ye entered in by the way, ye should receive.

2 Nephi 31:19

And now my beloved brethren, after that ye have got into this straight and narrow path, I would ask if all is done. Behold, I say unto you: Nay. For ye have not come thus far save it were by the word of Christ with unshaken faith in him, relying wholly upon the merits of him who is mighty to save.

2 Nephi 31:20

Wherefore ye must press forward with a steadfastness in Christ, having a perfect brightness of hope and a love of God and of all men; wherefore if ye shall press forward, feasting upon the word of Christ and endure to the end, behold, thus saith the Father, ye shall have eternal life.

And now behold, my beloved brethren, this is the way. And there is none other way nor name given under heaven whereby man can be saved in the kingdom of God. And now behold, this is the doctrine of Christ,¹ and the only and true doctrine of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, which is one God without end. Amen.

¹"Doctrine of Christ" here seems to be synonymous with the term "gospel of Christ," spoken of elsewhere as more than just a testimony of Christ but also action in ordinances and covenants; see DC 76:82 and DC 76:51, for example.

And now behold, my beloved brethren, I suppose that ye ponder somewhat in your hearts concerning that which ye should do after that ye have entered in by the way. But behold, why do ye ponder these things in your hearts?

2 Nephi 32:2

Do ye not remember that I said unto you that after ye had received the Holy Ghost, ye could speak with the tongue of angels? And now, how could ye speak with the tongue of angels save it were by the Holy Ghost?

2 Nephi 32:3

Angels speak by the power of the Holy Ghost; wherefore they speak¹ the words of Christ. Wherefore I said unto you: Feast upon the words of Christ; for behold, the words of Christ will tell you all things what ye should do.²

Wherefore now after that I have spoken these words, if ye cannot understand them, it will be because ye ask not, neither do ye knock. Wherefore ye are not brought into the light but must perish in the dark.

2 Nephi 32:5

For behold, again I say unto you that if ye will enter in by the way and receive the Holy Ghost, it will shew³ unto you all things what ye should do.⁴

Behold, this is the doctrine of Christ. And there will be no more doctrine given until after that he shall manifest himself unto you in the flesh. And when he shall manifest himself⁵ unto you in the flesh, the things which he shall say unto you⁶ shall ye observe to do.

And now I Nephi cannot say more. The Spirit stoppeth mine utterance, and I am left to mourn because of the unbelief and the wickedness and the ignorance and the stiffneckedness of men. For they will not search knowledge nor understand great knowledge when it is given unto them in plainness, even as plain as word can be.

2 Nephi 32:8

And now my beloved brethren, I perceive that ye ponder still in your hearts. And it grieveth me that I must speak concerning this thing. For if ye would hearken unto the Spirit which teacheth a man to pray, ye would know that ye must pray; for the evil spirit teacheth not a man to pray, but teacheth him that he must not pray.

¹For speaking the words of Christ, see John 15:7,

²See John 14:26, 2 Nephi 26:1, DC 38:21–22 (note the JSP/EMS versions); DC 38:33 (“it shall be told them what they shall do”); DC 41:4, ³I wonder if some of this “show” language comes from places like John 16:25. Notice that the word there is ἀπαγγεῖλω though, a future form of ἀπαγγέλλω.

⁴Compare DC 39:6.

⁵See John 14:21, where this manifestation is promised, and all of verses 21–28 in that chapter, where it’s discussed.

⁶The things which Christ says to use are the law of Christ; see that phrase here. Compare the references also in the note at verse 3. See also DC 45:59.

But behold, I say unto you that ye must pray always and not faint, that ye must not perform any thing unto the Lord save in the first place ye shall pray unto the Father in the name of Christ that he will consecrate thy performance unto thee, that thy performance may be for the welfare of thy soul.

2 Nephi 33:1

And now I Nephi cannot write all the things which were taught among my people, neither am I mighty in writing like unto speaking. For when a man speaketh by the power of the Holy Ghost, the power of the Holy Ghost carrieth it unto the hearts¹ of the children of men.

2 Nephi 33:2

But behold, there are many that harden their hearts against the Holy Spirit, that it hath no place in them. Wherefore they cast many things away which are written and esteem them as things of naught.

2 Nephi 33:3

But I Nephi have written what I have written, and I esteem it as of great worth and especially unto my people. For I pray continually for them by day, and mine eyes water my pillow by night because of them. And I cry unto my God in faith, and I know that he will hear my cry.

And I know that the Lord God will consecrate my prayers for the gain of my people. And the things which I have written in weakness will he make strong unto them, for it persuadeth them to do good. It maketh known unto them of their fathers. And it speaketh of Jesus and persuadeth men to believe in him and to endure to the end, which is life eternal.

2 Nephi 33:5

And it speaketh harsh against sin according to the plainness of the truth. Wherefore no man will be angry at the words which I have written save he shall be of the spirit of the devil.

2 Nephi 33:6

I glory in plainness; I glory in truth; I glory in my Jesus, for he hath redeemed my soul from hell.

2 Nephi 33:7

I have charity for my people and great faith in Christ that I shall meet many souls spotless at his judgment seat;

2 Nephi 33:8

I have charity for the Jew— I say Jew because I mean them from whence I came;

¹For some ideas on how to understand this part of the verse, see Matthew 13:15 and notes there.

I also have charity for the Gentiles. But behold, for none of these I cannot hope except they shall be reconciled¹ unto Christ and enter into the narrow gate and walk in the strait path which leads to life and continue in the path until the end of the day of probation.

And now my beloved brethren and also Jew and all ye ends of the earth, hearken unto these words and believe in Christ. And if ye believe not in these words, believe in Christ; and if ye shall believe in Christ, ye will believe in these words, for they are the words of Christ. And he hath given them unto me, and they teach all men that they should do good.

2 Nephi 33:11

And if they are not the words of Christ, judge ye. For Christ will shew unto you with power and great glory that they are his words at the last day. And you and I shall stand face to face before his bar, and ye shall know that I have been commanded of him to write these things, notwithstanding my weakness.

And I pray the Father in the name of Christ that many of us, if not all, may be saved in his kingdom at that great and last day.

2 Nephi 33:13

And now my beloved brethren, all they which are of the house of Israel and all ye ends of the earth, I speak unto you as the voice of one crying from the dust. Farewell until that great day shall come.

2 Nephi 33:14

And you that will not partake of the goodness of God and respect the words of the Jews and also my words and the words which shall proceed forth out of the mouth of the Lamb of God, behold, I bid you an everlasting farewell, for these words shall condemn you at the last day.

2 Nephi 33:15

For what I seal on earth shall be brought against you at the judgment bar. For thus hath the Lord commanded me, and I must obey. Amen.

Jacob

Jacob 1

Jacob 1:1

For behold, it came to pass that fifty and five years had passed away from the time that Lehi left Jerusalem; wherefore Nephi gave me Jacob a commandment concerning these small plates upon which these things are engraven.

¹See 2 Nephi 10:24 and notes there.

Jacob 1:2

And he gave me Jacob a commandment that I should write upon these plates a few of the things which I considered to be most precious, that I should not touch save it were lightly concerning the history of this people, which are called the people of Nephi.

Jacob 1:3

For he said that the history of his people should be engraven upon his other plates and that I should preserve these plates and hand them down unto my seed from generation to generation.

Jacob 1:4

And if there were preaching which was sacred, or revelation which was great, or prophesying, that I should engraven the heads of them upon these plates and touch upon them as much as it were possible, for Christ's sake and for the sake of our people.

Jacob 1:5

For because of faith and great anxiety, it truly had been made manifest unto us concerning our people what things should happen unto them.

Jacob 1:6

And we also had many revelations and the spirit of much prophecy; wherefore we knew of Christ and his kingdom, which should come.

Jacob 1:7

Wherefore we labored diligently among our people that we might persuade them to come unto Christ and partake of the goodness of God, that they might enter into his rest, lest by any means he should swear in his wrath they should not enter in, as in the provocation in the days of temptation while the children of Israel were in the wilderness.

Wherefore we would to God that we could persuade all men not to rebel against God, to provoke him to anger, but that all men would believe in Christ and view his death and suffer his cross and bear the shame of the world. Wherefore I Jacob take it upon me to fulfill the commandment of my brother Nephi.

Jacob 1:9

Now Nephi began to be old and he saw that he must soon die. Wherefore he anointed a man to be a king and a ruler over his people.

Jacob 1:10

Now according to the reigns of the kings —the people having loved Nephi exceedingly, he having been a great protector for them, having wielded the sword of Laban in their defense and having labored in all his days for their welfare—

wherefore the people were desirous to retain in remembrance his name, and whoso should reign in his stead were called by the people second Nephi and third Nephi etc., according to the reigns of the kings; and thus they were called by the people, let them be of whatsoever name they would.

And it came to pass that Nephi died.

Jacob 1:13

Now the people which were not Lamanites were Nephites; nevertheless they were called Nephites, Jacobites, Josephites, Zoramites, Lamanites, Lemuelites, and Ishmaelites.

Jacob 1:14

But I Jacob shall not hereafter distinguish them by these names, but I shall call them Lamanites, they that seek to destroy the people of Nephi, and they which are friendly to Nephi I shall call Nephites or the people of Nephi, according to the reigns of the kings.

Jacob 1:15

And now it came to pass that the people of Nephi under the reign of the second king began to grow hard in their hearts and indulge themselves somewhat in wicked practices, such as like unto David of old, desiring many wives and concubines, and also Solomon his son.

Jacob 1:16

Yea, and they also began to search much gold and silver and began to be lifted up somewhat in pride.

Jacob 1:17

Wherefore I Jacob gave unto them these words as I taught them in the temple, having firstly obtained mine errand from the Lord, for I Jacob and my brother Joseph had been consecrated priests and teachers¹ of this people by the hand of Nephi.

Jacob 1:18

Jacob 1:19

And we did magnify our office unto the Lord, taking upon us the responsibility, answering the sins of the people upon our own heads if we did not teach them the word of God with all diligence; wherefore by laboring with our mights, their blood might not come upon our garments; otherwise their blood would come upon our garments and we would not be found spotless at the last day.

¹See 2 Nephi 5:26 and DC 18:32.

Jacob 2:1

The words which Jacob the brother of Nephi spake unto the people of Nephi after the death of Nephi:

Jacob 2:2

Now my beloved brethren, I Jacob, according to the responsibility which I am under to God to magnify mine office with soberness and that I might rid my garments of your sins, I come up into the temple this day that I might declare unto you the word of God.

Jacob 2:3

And ye yourselves know that I have hitherto been diligent in the office of my calling, but I this day am weighed down with much more desire and anxiety for the welfare of your souls than I have hitherto been.

Jacob 2:4

For behold, as yet ye have been obedient unto the word of the Lord which I have given unto you.

Jacob 2:5

But behold, hearken ye unto me and know that by the help of the all-powerful Creator of heaven and earth I can tell you concerning your thoughts, how that ye are beginning to labor in sin, which sin appeareth very abominable unto me, yea, and abominable unto God.

Jacob 2:6

Yea, and it grieveth my soul and causeth me to shrink with shame before the presence of my Maker that I must testify unto you concerning the wickedness of your hearts.

And also it grieveth me that I must use so much boldness of speech concerning you before your wives and your children, many of whose feelings are exceeding tender and chaste and delicate before God, which thing is pleasing unto God.

Jacob 2:8

And it supposeth me that they have come up hither to hear the pleasing word of God, yea, the word which healeth the wounded soul.

Wherefore it burdeneth my soul that I should be constrained because of the strict commandment which I have received from God to admonish you according to your crimes, to enlarge the wounds of those which are already wounded, instead of consoling and healing their wounds. And those which have not been wounded, instead of feasting upon the pleasing word of God, have daggers placed to pierce their souls and wound their delicate minds.

But notwithstanding the greatness of the task, I must do according to the strict commands of God and tell you concerning your wickedness and abominations in the presence of the pure in heart and the broken heart and under the glance of the piercing eye of the Almighty God.

Jacob 2:11

Wherefore I must tell you the truth according to the plainness of the word of God. For behold, as I inquired of the Lord, thus came the word unto me, saying: Jacob, get thou up into the temple on the morrow and declare the word which I shall give thee unto this people.

Jacob 2:12

And now behold, my brethren, this is the word which I declare unto you, that many of you have begun to search for gold and for silver and for all manner of precious ores in the which this land, which is a land of promise unto you and to your seed, doth abound most plentifully.

Jacob 2:13

And the hand of Providence hath smiled upon you most pleasingly, that ye have obtained many riches. And because that some of you have obtained more abundantly than that of your brethren, ye are lifted up in the pride of your hearts and wear stiff necks and high heads because of the costliness of your apparel and persecute your brethren because that ye suppose that ye are better than they.

Jacob 2:14

And now my brethren, do ye suppose that God justifieth you in this thing? Behold, I say unto you: Nay. But he condemneth you; and if ye persist in these things, his judgments must speedily come unto you.

Jacob 2:15

O that he would show you that he can pierce you and with one glance of his eye he can smite you to the dust!

Jacob 2:16

O that he would rid you from this iniquity and abomination! And O that ye would listen unto the word of his commands and let not this pride of your hearts destroy your souls!

Jacob 2:17

Think of your brethren like to yourselves, and be familiar with all and free with your substance, that they may be rich like unto you.

Jacob 2:18

But before that ye seek for riches, seek ye for the kingdom of God.

Jacob 2:19

And after that ye have obtained a hope in Christ, ye shall obtain riches if ye seek them; and ye will seek them for the intent to do good, to clothe the naked and to feed the hungry and to liberate the captive and administer relief to the sick and the afflicted.

Jacob 2:20

And now my brethren, I have spoken unto you concerning pride. And those of you which have afflicted your neighbor and persecuted him because that ye were proud in your hearts of the things which God hath given you, what say ye of it?

Jacob 2:21

Do ye not suppose that such things are abominable unto him who created all flesh? And the one being is as precious in his sight as the other. And all flesh is of the dust; and for the selfsame end hath he created them, that they should keep his commandments and glorify him forever.

Jacob 2:22

And now I make an end of speaking unto you concerning this pride. And were it not that I must speak unto you concerning a grosser crime, my heart would rejoice exceedingly because of you.

Jacob 2:23

But the word of God burthens me because of your grosser crimes. For behold, thus saith the Lord: This people beginneth to wax in iniquity; they understand not the scriptures, for they seek to excuse themselves in committing whoredoms because of the things which are written concerning David and Solomon his son.

Jacob 2:24

Behold, David and Solomon truly had many wives and concubines, which thing was abominable before me, saith the Lord.

Jacob 2:25

Wherefore thus saith the Lord: I have led this people forth out of the land of Jerusalem by the power of mine arm, that I might raise up unto me a righteous branch from the fruit of the loins of Joseph.

Jacob 2:26

Wherefore I the Lord God will not suffer that this people shall do like unto them of old.

Jacob 2:27

Wherefore, my brethren, hear me and hearken to the word of the Lord, for there shall not any man among you have save it be one wife, and concubines he shall have none.

Jacob 2:28

For I the Lord God delighteth in the chastity of women; and whoredoms is abomination before me, thus saith the Lord of Hosts.

Jacob 2:29

Wherefore this people shall keep my commandments, saith the Lord of Hosts, or cursed be the land for their sakes.

Jacob 2:30

For if I will, saith the Lord of Hosts, raise up seed unto me, I will command my people; otherwise, they shall hearken unto these things.

Jacob 2:31

For behold, I the Lord have seen the sorrow and heard the mourning of the daughters of my people in the land of Jerusalem, yea, and in all the lands of my people, because of the wickedness and abominations of their husbands.

Jacob 2:32

And I will not suffer, saith the Lord of Hosts, that the cries of the fair daughters of this people, which I have led out of the land of Jerusalem, shall come up unto me against the men of my people, saith the Lord of Hosts, for they shall not lead away captive the daughters of my people because of their tenderness, save I shall visit them with a sore curse, even unto destruction, for they shall not commit whoredoms like unto they of old, saith the Lord of Hosts.

Jacob 2:34

And now behold, my brethren, ye know that these commandments was given to our father Lehi; wherefore ye have known them before. And ye have come unto great condemnation, for ye have done these things which ye ought not to have done.

Jacob 2:35

Behold, ye have done greater iniquity than the Lamanites our brethren. Ye have broken the hearts of your tender wives and lost the confidence of your children because of your bad examples before them. And the sobbings of their hearts ascendeth up to God against you. And because of the strictness of the word of God which cometh down against you, many hearts died, pierced with deep wounds.

Jacob 3

Jacob 3:1

But behold, I Jacob would speak unto you that are pure in heart. Look unto God with firmness of mind and pray unto him with exceeding faith, and he will console you in your afflictions, and he will plead your cause and send down justice upon those who seek your destruction.

Jacob 3:2

O all ye that are pure in heart, lift up your heads and receive the pleasing word of God and feast upon his love, for ye may—if your minds are firm¹—forever.

Jacob 3:3

But woe woe unto you that are not pure in heart, that are filthy this day before God, for except ye shall repent, the land is cursed for your sakes; and the Lamanites, which are not filthy like unto you —nevertheless they are cursed with a sore cursing— shall scourge you even unto destruction.

Jacob 3:4

And the time speedily cometh that except ye repent, they shall possess the land of your inheritance and the Lord God will lead away the righteous out from among you.

¹See Alma 24:19, Alma 27:27, Alma 46:39, 3 Nephi 6:14, DC 84:61,

Jacob 3:5

Behold, the Lamanites your brethren, whom ye hate because of their filthiness and the cursing which hath come upon their skins, are more righteous than you. For they have not forgotten the commandment of the Lord which was given unto our father, that they should have save it were one wife, and concubines they should have none, and there should not be whoredoms committed among them.

Jacob 3:6

And now this commandment they observe to keep; wherefore because of this observance in keeping this commandment, the Lord God will not destroy them but will be merciful unto them, and one day they shall become a blessed people.

Behold, their husbands love their wives and their wives love their husbands, and their husbands and their wives love their children. And their unbelief and their hatred towards you is because of the iniquity of their fathers; wherefore how much better are you than they in the sight of your great Creator?

Jacob 3:8

O my brethren, I fear that unless ye shall repent of your sins that their skins will be whiter than yours when ye shall be brought with them before the throne of God.

Wherefore a commandment I give unto you, which is the word of God, that ye revile no more against them because of the darkness of their skin. Neither shall ye revile against them because of their filthiness, but ye shall remember your own filthiness and remember that their filthiness came because of their fathers.

Wherefore ye shall remember your children, how that ye have grieved their hearts because of the example that ye have set before them; and also remember that ye may because of your filthiness bring your children unto destruction and their sins be heaped upon your heads at the last day.

Jacob 3:11

O my brethren, hearken unto my words. Arouse the faculties of your souls, shake yourselves that ye may awake from the slumber of death, and loose yourselves from the pains of hell, that ye may not become angels to the devil, to be cast into that lake of fire and brimstone, which is the second death.

Jacob 3:12

And now I Jacob spake many more things unto the people of Nephi, warning them against fornication and lasciviousness and every kind of sin, telling them the awful consequences of them.

Jacob 3:13

And a hundredth part of the proceedings of this people, which now began to be numerous, cannot be written upon these plates; but many of their proceedings are written upon the larger plates, and their wars and their contentions and the reigns of their kings.

Jacob 3:14

These plates are called the plates of Jacob, and they were made by the hand of Nephi. And I make an end of speaking these words.

Jacob 4

Jacob 4:1

Now behold, it came to pass that I Jacob having ministered much unto my people in word—and I cannot write but a little of my words because of the difficulty of engraving our words upon plates—and we know that the things which we write upon plates must remain, but whatsoever things we write upon any thing save it be upon plates must perish and vanish away; but we can write a few words upon plates, which will give our children and also our beloved brethren a small degree of knowledge concerning us or concerning their fathers.

Jacob 4:3

Now in this thing we do rejoice, and we labor diligently to engraven these words upon plates, hoping that our beloved brethren and our children will receive them with thankful hearts and look upon them that they may learn with joy and not with sorrow, neither with contempt, concerning their first parents.

Jacob 4:4

For for this intent have we written these things that they may know that we knew of Christ, and we had a hope of his glory many hundred years before his coming. And not only we ourselves had a hope of his glory, but also all the holy prophets which were before us.

Behold, they believed in Christ and worshipped the Father in his name; and also we worship the Father in his name. And for this intent we keep the law of Moses, it pointing our souls to him. And for this cause it is sanctified unto us for righteousness, even as it was accounted unto Abraham in the wilderness to be obedient unto the commands of God in offering up his son Isaac, which was a similitude of God and his Only Begotten Son.

Wherefore we search the prophets, and we have many revelations and the spirit of prophecy. And having all these witnesses, we obtain a hope and our faith becometh unshaken, insomuch that we truly can command in the name of Jesus and the very trees obey us or the mountains or the waves of the sea.

Nevertheless the Lord God sheweth us our weakness that we may know that it is by his grace and his great condescensions unto the children of men that we have power to do these things.

Jacob 4:8

Behold, great and marvelous are the works of the Lord! How unsearchable¹ of the mysteries of him! And it is impossible that man should find out all his ways. And no man knoweth of his ways save it be revealed unto him; wherefore, brethren, despise not the revelations of God.

For behold, by the power of his word man came upon the face of the earth, which earth was created by the power of his word. Wherefore if God being able to speak and the world was and to speak and man was created, O then why not able to command the earth, or the workmanship of his hands upon the face of it, according to his will and pleasure?

Jacob 4:10

Wherefore, brethren, seek not to counsel the Lord, but to take counsel from his hand. For behold, ye yourselves know that he counseleth in wisdom and in justice and in great mercy over all his works.

Jacob 4:11

Wherefore, beloved, be reconciled unto him through the atonement of Christ his Only Begotten Son, that ye may obtain a resurrection according to the power of the resurrection which is in Christ and be presented as the firstfruits of Christ unto God, having faith and having obtained a good hope of glory in him before he manifesteth himself in the flesh.

Jacob 4:12

And now beloved, marvel not that I tell you these things; for why not speak of the atonement of Christ and attain² to a perfect knowledge of him as to attain to the knowledge of a resurrection and the world to come?

Jacob 4:13

Behold, my brethren, he that prophesieth, let him prophesy to the understanding of men, for the Spirit speaketh the truth and lieth not. Wherefore it speaketh of things as they really are and of things as they really will be. Wherefore these things are manifested unto us plainly for the salvation of our souls. But behold, we are not witnesses alone in these things; for God also spake them unto prophets of old.

³But behold, the Jews were a stiffnecked people, and they despised the words of plainness and killed the prophets and sought for things that they could not understand. Wherefore because of their blindness,⁴ which blindness came by looking beyond the mark,⁵ they must needs fall; for God hath taken away his plainness from them and delivered unto them many things which they cannot understand because they desired it. And because they desired it, God hath done it that they may stumble.

²For this “attain” language, see Philippians 3:11–12.

³I see Jacob 5:48 as a companion verse to this one, since it seems to say in metaphorical terms what this verse says more directly.

⁴Compare Romans 11:7–8,

⁵See 2 Corinthians 3:13–16,

Jacob 4:15

And now I Jacob am led on by the Spirit unto prophesying, for I perceive by the workings of the Spirit which is in me that by the stumbling of the Jews they will reject the stone upon which they might build and have safe foundation.

Jacob 4:16

But behold, according to the scriptures, this stone shall become the great and the last and the only sure foundation upon which the Jews can build.

Jacob 4:17

And now my beloved, how is it possible that these, after having rejected the sure foundation, can ever build upon it that it may become the head of their corner?

Jacob 4:18

Behold, my beloved brethren, I will unfold this mystery unto you if I do not by any means get shaken from my firmness in the Spirit and stumble because of my overanxiety for you.

Jacob 5

Jacob 5:1

Behold, my brethren, do ye not remember to have read the words of the prophet Zenos which he spake unto the house of Israel, saying:

Jacob 5:2

Hearken, O ye house of Israel, and hear the words of me, a prophet of the Lord.

Jacob 5:3

For behold, thus saith the Lord, I will liken thee, O house of Israel, like unto a tame olive tree which a man took and nourished in his vineyard, and it grew and waxed old and began to decay.

And it came to pass that the master of the vineyard went forth and he saw that his olive tree began to decay, and he saith: I will prune it and dig about it and nourish it, that perhaps it may shoot forth young and tender branches and it perish not.

Jacob 5:5

And it came to pass that he pruned it and digged about it and nourished it according to his word.

Jacob 5:6

And it came to pass that after many days it began to put forth somewhat a little young and tender branches, but behold the main top thereof began to perish.

And it came to pass that the master of the vineyard saw it, and he saith unto his servant: It grieveth me that I should lose this tree. Wherefore go and pluck the branches from a wild olive tree and bring them hither unto me; and we will pluck off those main branches, which are beginning to wither away, and we will cast them into the fire that they may be burned.

Jacob 5:8

And behold, saith the Lord of the vineyard, I will take away many of these young and tender branches, and I will graft them whithersoever I will—and it mattereth not—that if it so be that the root of this tree will perish, I may preserve the fruit¹ thereof unto myself. Wherefore I will take these young and tender branches, and I will graft them whithersoever I will.

Take thou the branches of the wild olive tree and graft them in in the stead thereof. And these which I have plucked off, I will cast into the fire and burn them, that they may not cumber the ground of my vineyard.

Jacob 5:10

And it came to pass that the servant of the Lord of the vineyard done according to the word of the Lord of the vineyard and grafted in the branches of the wild olive tree.

Jacob 5:11

And the Lord of the vineyard caused that it should be digged about and pruned and nourished, saying unto his servant: It grieveth me that I should lose this tree; wherefore that perhaps I might preserve the roots thereof, that they perish not, that I might preserve them unto myself, I have done this thing.

Wherefore go thy way; watch the tree and nourish it according to my words.

Jacob 5:13

And these will I place in the nithernmost parts of my vineyard, whithersoever I will, it mattereth not unto thee. And I do it that I may preserve unto myself the natural branches of the tree, and also that I may lay up fruit thereof against the season unto myself. For it grieveth me that I should lose this tree and the fruit thereof.

Jacob 5:14

And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard went his way and hid the natural branches of the tame olive tree in the nithernmost parts of the vineyard, some in one and some in another, according to his will and pleasure.

Jacob 5:15

And it came to pass that a long time passed away, and the Lord of the vineyard saith unto his servant: Come, let us go down into the vineyard that we may labor in the vineyard.

Jacob 5:16

And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard and also the servant went down into the vineyard to labor. And it came to pass that the servant saith unto his master: Behold, look here; behold the tree.

¹This is the first occurrence of “fruit” in this chapter, but I think we should be reading it in light of 4:11, where it talks about the “firstfruits of Christ.”

And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard looked and beheld the tree in the which the wild olive branches had been grafted, and it had sprang forth and began to bear fruit. And he beheld that it was good, and the fruit thereof was like unto the natural fruit.

Jacob 5:18

And he saith unto the servant: Behold, the branches of the wild tree hath taken hold of the moisture of the root thereof, that the root thereof hath brought forth much strength. And because of the much strength of the root thereof, the wild branches hath brought forth tame fruit. Now if we had not grafted in these branches, the tree thereof would have perished. And now behold, I shall lay up much fruit, which the tree thereof hath brought forth. And the fruit thereof I shall lay up against the season unto mine own self.

And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard saith unto the servant: Come, let us go to the nithermost parts of the vineyard, and behold if the natural branches of the tree hath not brought forth much fruit also, that I may lay up of the fruit thereof against the season unto mine own self.

Jacob 5:20

And it came to pass that they went forth whither the master of the vineyard had hid the natural branches of the tree, and he saith unto the servant: Behold these! And he beheld the first, that it had brought forth much fruit, and he beheld also that it was good. And he saith unto the servant: Take of the fruit thereof and lay it up against the season, that I may preserve it unto mine own self. For behold, saith he, this long time have I nourished it, and it hath brought forth much fruit.

Jacob 5:21

And it came to pass that the servant saith unto his master: How camest thou hither to plant this tree or this branch of the tree? For behold, it was the poorest spot in all the land of thy vineyard.

Jacob 5:22

And the Lord of the vineyard saith unto him: Counsel me not. I knew that it was a poor spot of ground. Wherefore I said unto thee I have nourished it this long time, and thou beholdest that it hath brought forth much fruit.

And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard saith unto his servant: Look hither! Behold, I have planted another branch of the tree also, and thou knowest that this spot of ground was poorer than the first. But behold the tree! I have nourished it this long time, and it hath brought forth much fruit. Therefore gather it and lay it up against the season, that I may preserve it unto mine own self.

Jacob 5:24

And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard saith again unto his servant: Look hither and behold another branch also which I have planted. Behold that I have nourished it also, and it hath brought forth fruit.

Jacob 5:25

And he saith unto the servant: Look hither and behold the last! Behold, this have I planted in a good spot of ground, and I have nourished it this long time. And only a part of the tree hath brought forth tame fruit, and the other part of the tree hath brought forth wild fruit. Behold, I have nourished this tree like unto the others.

Jacob 5:26

And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard saith unto the servant: Pluck off the branches that have not brought forth good fruit, and cast them into the fire.

Jacob 5:27

But behold, the servant saith unto him: Let us prune it and dig about it and nourish it a little longer, that perhaps it may bring forth good fruit unto thee, that thou canst lay it up against the season.

Jacob 5:28

And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard and the servant of the Lord of the vineyard did nourish all the fruit of the vineyard.

Jacob 5:29

And it came to pass that a long time had passed away, and the Lord of the vineyard saith unto his servant: Come, let us go down into the vineyard, that we may labor again in the vineyard. For behold, the time draweth near and the end soon cometh; wherefore I must lay up fruit against the season unto mine own self.

Jacob 5:30

And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard and the servant went down into the vineyard, and they came to the tree whose natural branches had been broken off and the wild branches had been grafted in; and behold, all sorts of fruit did cumber the tree.

Jacob 5:31

And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard did taste of the fruit, every sort according to its number. And the Lord of the vineyard saith: Behold, this long time have we nourished this tree, and I have laid up unto myself against the season much fruit.

Jacob 5:32

But behold, this time it hath brought forth much fruit, and there is none of it which is good; and behold, there are all kinds of bad fruit, and it profiteth me nothing, notwithstanding all our labor. And now it grieveth me that I should lose this tree.

Jacob 5:33

And the Lord of the vineyard saith unto the servant: What shall we do unto the tree that I may preserve again good fruit thereof unto mine own self?

Jacob 5:34

And the servant saith unto his master: Behold, because thou didst graft in the branches of the wild olive tree, they have nourished the roots, that they are alive and they have not perished; wherefore thou beholdest that they are yet good.

Jacob 5:35

And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard saith unto his servant: The tree profiteth me nothing and the roots thereof profiteth me nothing so long as it shall bring forth evil fruit.

Jacob 5:36

Nevertheless I know that the roots are good, and for mine own purpose I have preserved them. And because of their much strength they have hitherto brought forth from the wild branches good fruit.

Jacob 5:37

But behold, the wild branches have grew and have overran the roots thereof. And because that the wild branches have overcome the roots thereof, it hath brought forth much evil fruit. And because that it hath brought forth so much evil fruit, thou beholdest that it beginneth to perish. And it will soon become ripened that it may be cast into the fire except we should do something for it to preserve it.

Jacob 5:38

And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard saith unto his servant: Let us go down into the nithermost parts of the vineyard, and behold if the natural branches have also brought forth evil fruit.

Jacob 5:39

And it came to pass that they went down into the nithermost parts of the vineyard. And it came to pass that they beheld that the fruit of the natural branches had become corrupt also —yea, the first and the second and also the last— and they had all become corrupt.

Jacob 5:40

And the wild fruit of the last had overcome that part of the tree which brought forth good fruit, even that the branch had withered away and died.

Jacob 5:41

And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard wept and saith unto the servant: What could I have done more for my vineyard?

Jacob 5:42

Behold, I knew that all the fruit of the vineyard, save it were these, had become corrupted. And now these which have once brought forth good fruit have also become corrupted. And now all the trees of my vineyard are good for nothing, save it be to be hewn down and cast into the fire.

Jacob 5:43

And behold, this last whose branch hath withered away I did plant in a good spot of ground, yea, even that which was choice unto me above all other parts of the land of my vineyard.

Jacob 5:44

And thou beholdest that I also cut down that which cumbered this spot of ground that I might plant this tree in the stead thereof.

Jacob 5:45

And thou beholdest that a part thereof brought forth good fruit and the other part thereof brought forth wild fruit. And because that I plucked not the branches thereof and cast them into the fire, behold, they have overcome the good branch, that it hath withered away.

Jacob 5:46

And now behold, notwithstanding all the care which we have taken of my vineyard, the trees thereof hath become corrupted, that they bring forth no good fruit. And these I had hope to preserve, to have laid up fruit thereof against the season unto mine own self. But behold, they have become like unto the wild olive tree, and they are of no worth but to be hewn down and cast into the fire. And it grieveth me that I should lose them.

But what could I have done more in my vineyard? Have I slackened mine hand that I have not nourished it? Nay, I have nourished it and I have digged it and I have pruned it and I have dunged it, and I have stretched forth mine hand almost all the day long; and the end draweth nigh. And it grieveth me that I should hew down all the trees of my vineyard and cast them into the fire that they should be burned. Who is it that hath corrupted my vineyard?

¹And it came to pass that the servant saith unto his master: Is it not the loftiness of thy vineyard? Hath not the branches thereof overcome the roots which are good? And because that the branches have overcome the roots thereof—for behold, they grew faster than the strength of the roots thereof, taking strength unto themselves—behold, I say: Is not this the cause that the trees of thy vineyard hath become corrupted?

And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard saith unto the servant: Let us go to and hew down the trees of the vineyard and cast them into the fire, that they shall not cumber the ground of my vineyard, for I have done all. What could I have done more for my vineyard?

Jacob 5:50

But behold, the servant saith unto the Lord of the vineyard: Spare it a little longer.

Jacob 5:51

And the Lord saith: Yea, I will spare it a little longer, for it grieveth me that I should lose the trees of my vineyard.

Jacob 5:52

Wherefore let us take of the branches of these which I have planted in the nithermost parts of my vineyard and let us graft them into the tree from whence they came. And let us pluck from the tree those branches whose fruit is most bitter and graft in the natural branches of the tree in the stead thereof.

Jacob 5:53

And this will I do that the tree may not perish, that perhaps I may preserve unto myself the roots thereof for mine own purpose.

¹Compare this verse to Jacob 4:14.

Jacob 5:54

And behold, the roots of the natural branches of the tree, which I planted whithersoever I would, are yet alive; wherefore that I may preserve them also for mine own purpose, I will take of the branches of this tree and I will graft them in unto them. Yea, I will graft in unto them the branches of their mother tree, that I may preserve the roots also unto mine own self, that when they shall be sufficiently strong that perhaps they may bring forth good fruit unto me, and I may yet have glory in the fruit of my vineyard.

Jacob 5:55

And it came to pass that they took from the natural tree which had become wild and grafted in unto the natural trees which also had become wild.

Jacob 5:56

And they also took of the natural trees which had become wild and grafted into their mother tree.

Jacob 5:57

And the Lord of the vineyard saith unto the servant: Pluck not the wild branches from the trees save it be those which are most bitter. And in them ye shall graft according to that which I have said.

Jacob 5:58

And we will nourish again the trees of the vineyard. And we will trim up the branches thereof, and we will pluck from the trees those branches which are ripened, that must perish, and cast them into the fire.

Jacob 5:59

And this I do that perhaps the roots thereof may take strength because of their goodness and because of the change of the branches, that the good may overcome the evil.

Jacob 5:60

And because that I have preserved the natural branches and the roots thereof, and that I have grafted in the natural branches again into their mother tree and have preserved the roots of their mother tree, that perhaps the trees of my vineyard may bring forth again good fruit, and that I may have joy again in the fruit of my vineyard, and perhaps that I may rejoice exceedingly that I have preserved the roots and the branches of the first fruit, wherefore go to and call servants, that we may labor diligently with our mights in the vineyard, that we may prepare the way that I may bring forth again the natural fruit, which natural fruit is good and the most precious above all other fruit.

Jacob 5:62

Wherefore let us go to and labor with our mights this last time; for behold, the end draweth nigh, and this is for the last time that I shall prune my vineyard.

Jacob 5:63

Graft in the branches—begin at the last, that they may be first and that the first may be last—and dig about the trees, both old and young—the first and the last, and the last and the first—that all may be nourished once again for the last time.

Wherefore dig about them and prune them and dung them once more for the last time; for the end draweth nigh. And if it so be that these last grafts shall grow and bring forth the natural fruit, then shall ye prepare the way for them that they may grow.

Jacob 5:65

And as they begin to grow, ye shall clear away the branches which bring forth bitter fruit, according to the strength of the good and the size thereof. And ye shall not clear away the bad thereof all at once, lest the roots thereof should be too strong for the graft and the graft thereof shall perish and I lose the trees of my vineyard, for it grieveth me that I should lose the trees of my vineyard. Wherefore ye shall clear away the bad according as the good shall grow, that the root and the top may be equal in strength until the good shall overcome the bad and the bad be hewn down and cast into the fire, that they cumber not the ground of my vineyard; and thus will I sweep away the bad out of my vineyard.

Jacob 5:67

And the branches of the natural tree will I graft in again into the natural tree, and the branches of the natural tree will I graft into the natural branches of the tree. And thus will I bring them together again, that they shall bring forth the natural fruit, and they shall be one.

Jacob 5:69

And the bad shall be cast away, yea, even out of all the land of my vineyard. For behold, only this once will I prune my vineyard.

Jacob 5:70

And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard sent his servant, and the servant went and did as the Lord had commanded him and brought other servants, and they were few.

Jacob 5:71

And the Lord of the vineyard saith unto them: Go to and labor in the vineyard with your mights. For behold, this is the last time that I shall nourish my vineyard; for the end is nigh at hand and the season speedily cometh. And if ye labor with your mights with me, ye shall have joy in the fruit which I shall lay up unto myself against the time which will soon come.

Jacob 5:72

And it came to pass that the servants did go to it and labor with their mights, and the Lord of the vineyard labored also with them. And they did obey the commandments of the Lord of the vineyard in all things.

Jacob 5:73

And there began to be the natural fruit again in the vineyard, and the natural branches began to grow and thrive exceedingly; and the wild branches began to be plucked off and to be cast away. And they did keep the root and the top thereof equal according to the strength thereof.

Jacob 5:74

And thus they labored with all diligence according to the commandments of the Lord of the vineyard, even until the bad had been cast away out of the vineyard and the good the Lord had preserved unto himself, that the trees had brought again the natural fruit. And they became like unto one body and the fruit were equal; and the Lord of the vineyard had preserved unto himself the natural fruit, which was most precious unto him from the beginning.

Jacob 5:75

And it came to pass that when the Lord of the vineyard saw that his fruit was good and that his vineyard was no more corrupt, he calleth up his servants and saith unto them: Behold, for this last time have we nourished my vineyard. And thou beholdest that I have done according to my will; and I have preserved the natural fruit, that it is good even like as it was in the beginning. And blessed art thou, for because that ye have been diligent in laboring with me in my vineyard and have kept my commandments—and it hath brought unto me again the natural fruit, that my vineyard is no more corrupted and the bad is cast away—behold, ye shall have joy with me because of the fruit of my vineyard.

For behold, for a long time will I lay up of the fruit of my vineyard unto mine own self against the season, which speedily cometh. And for the last time have I nourished my vineyard and pruned it and dug about it and dunged it. Wherefore I will lay up unto mine own self of the fruit for a long time, according to that which I have spoken.

Jacob 5:77

And when the time cometh that evil fruit shall again come into my vineyard, then will I cause the good and the bad to be gathered; and the good will I preserve unto myself, and the bad will I cast away into its own place. And then cometh the season and the end, and my vineyard will I cause to be burned with fire.

Jacob 6

Jacob 6:1

And now behold, my brethren, as I said unto you that I would prophesy, behold, this is my prophecy, that the things which this prophet Zenos spake concerning the house of Israel, in the which he likened them unto a tame olive tree, must surely come to pass.

Jacob 6:2

And in the day that he shall set his hand again the second time to recover his people is the day—yea, even the last time—that the servants of the Lord shall go forth in his power to nourish and prune his vineyard; and after that the end soon cometh.

Jacob 6:3

And how blessed are they who have labored diligently in his vineyard! And how cursed are they which shall be cast out into their own place! And the world shall be burned with fire.

And how merciful is our God unto us! For he remembereth the house of Israel, both roots and branches. And he stretches forth his hands unto them all the day long. And they are a stiffnecked and a gainsaying people, but as many as will not harden their hearts shall be saved in the kingdom of God.

Wherefore, my beloved brethren, I beseech of you in words of soberness that ye would repent and come with full purpose of heart and cleave unto God as he cleaveth unto you. And while his arm of mercy is extended towards you in the light of the day, harden not your hearts; yea, today—if ye will hear his voice— harden not your hearts. For why will ye die?

Jacob 6:6

Jacob 6:7

For behold, after that ye have been nourished by the good word of God all the day long, will ye bring forth evil fruit, that ye must be hewn down and cast into the fire?

Behold, will ye reject these words? Will ye reject the words of the prophets? And will ye reject all the words which have been spoken concerning Christ after that so many have spoken concerning him, and deny the good word of Christ and the power of God and the gift of the Holy Ghost and quench the Holy Spirit and make a mock of the great plan of redemption which hath been laid for you?

Know ye not that if ye will do these things that the power of the redemption and the resurrection which is in Christ will bring you to stand with shame and awful guilt before the bar of God, and according to the power of justice—for justice cannot be denied—that ye must go away into that lake of fire and brimstone?—whose flames are unquenchable and whose smoke ascendeth up forever and ever, which lake of fire and brimstone is endless torment.

Jacob 6:11

O then, my beloved brethren, repent ye and enter ye in at the strait gate and continue in the way which is narrow until ye shall obtain eternal life.

O be wise! What can I say more?

Jacob 6:13

Finally, I bid you farewell until I shall meet you before the pleading bar of God, which bar striketh the wicked with awful dread and fear. Amen.

Jacob 7

Jacob 7:1

And now it came to pass that some years had passed away and there came a man among the people of Nephi whose name was Sherem.

Jacob 7:2

And it came to pass that he began to preach among the people and to declare unto them that there should be no Christ. And he preached many things which were flattering unto the people, and this he done that he might overthrow the doctrine of Christ.

Jacob 7:3

And he labored diligently that he might lead away the hearts of the people, insomuch that he did lead away many hearts. And he knowing that I Jacob had faith in Christ, which should come, wherefore he sought much opportunity that he might come unto me.

Jacob 7:4

And he was learned, that he had a perfect knowledge of the language of the people; wherefore he could use much flattery and much power of speech according to the power of the devil.

And he had hope to shake me from the faith, notwithstanding the many revelations and the many things which I had seen concerning these things. For I truly had seen angels and they had ministered unto me. And also I had heard the voice of the Lord speaking unto me in very word from time to time; wherefore I could not be shaken.

And it came to pass that he came unto me and on this wise did he speak unto me, saying: Brother Jacob, I have sought much opportunity that I might speak unto you, for I have heard and also know that thou goest about much, preaching ¹that which ye call the gospel or the doctrine of Christ.

And ye have led away much of this people, that they pervert the right way of God and keep not the law of Moses, which is the right way, and convert the law of Moses into the worship of a being which ye say shall come many hundred years hence. And now behold, I Sherem declare unto you that this is blasphemy, for no man knoweth of such things; for he cannot tell of things to come. And after this manner did Sherem contend against me.

But behold, the Lord God poured in his Spirit into my soul, insomuch that I did confound him in all his words.

Jacob 7:9

And I saith unto him: Deniest thou the Christ, which should come? And he saith: If there should be a Christ, I would not deny him; but I know that there is no Christ, neither hath been nor never will be.

¹Here Sherem explicitly connects the term “gospel” with the “doctrine of Christ”; see DC 76:82.

And I saith unto him: Believest thou the scriptures? And he saith: Yea.

Jacob 7:11

And I saith unto him: Then ye do not understand them, for they truly testify of Christ. Behold, I say unto you that none of the prophets have written nor prophesied save they have spoken concerning this Christ.

Jacob 7:12

And this is not all. It hath been made manifest unto me—for I have heard and seen and it also hath been made manifest unto me by the power of the Holy Ghost— wherefore I know if there should be no atonement made, all mankind must be lost.

Jacob 7:13

And it came to pass that he saith unto me: Shew me a sign by this power of the Holy Ghost, in the which ye know so much.

Jacob 7:14

And I said unto him: What am I that I should tempt God to shew unto thee a sign in the thing which thou knowest to be true? Yet thou wilt deny it because thou art of the devil. Nevertheless not my will be done; but if God shall smite thee, let that be a sign unto thee that he hath power both in heaven and in earth and also that Christ shall come. And thy will, O Lord, be done and not mine.

Jacob 7:15

And it came to pass that when I Jacob had spoken these words, the power of the Lord came upon him, insomuch that he fell to the earth. And it came to pass that he was nourished for the space of many days.

Jacob 7:16

And it came to pass that he saith unto the people: Gather together on the morrow, for I shall die; wherefore I desire to speak unto the people before that I shall die.

Jacob 7:17

And it came to pass that on the morrow that the multitude were gathered together, and he spake plainly unto them and denied the things which he had taught them, and confessed the Christ and the power of the Holy Ghost and the ministering of angels.

Jacob 7:18

And he spake plainly unto them that he had been deceived by the power of the devil. And he spake of hell and of eternity and of eternal punishment.

Jacob 7:19

And he saith: I fear lest I have committed the unpardonable sin, for I have lied unto God. For I denied the Christ and said that I believed the scriptures—and they truly testify of him. And because that I have thus lied unto God, I greatly fear lest my case shall be awful; but I confess unto God.

Jacob 7:20

And it came to pass that when he had said these words, he could say no more and he gave up the ghost.

Jacob 7:21

And when the multitude had witnessed that he spake these things as he was about to give up the ghost, they were astonished exceedingly, insomuch that the power of God came down upon them and they were overcome, that they fell to the earth.

Jacob 7:22

Now this thing was pleasing unto me Jacob, for I had requested it of my Father which was in heaven, for he had heard my cry and answered my prayer.

Jacob 7:23

And it came to pass that peace and the love of God was restored again among the people. And they searched the scriptures and hearkened no more to the words of this wicked man.

Jacob 7:24

And it came to pass that many means were devised to reclaim and restore the Lamanites to the knowledge of the truth; but it all were vain, for they delighted in wars and bloodsheds, and they had an eternal hatred against us their brethren, and they sought by the power of their arms to destroy us continually.

Jacob 7:25

Wherefore the people of Nephi did fortify against them with their arms and with all their might, trusting in the God and the rock of their salvation; wherefore they became as yet conquerors of their enemies.

Jacob 7:26

And it came to pass that I Jacob began to be old. And the record of this people being kept on the other plates of Nephi, wherefore I conclude this record, declaring that I have written according to the best of my knowledge, by saying that the time passed away with us, and also our lives passed away like as it were unto us a dream, we being a lonesome and a solemn people, wanderers cast out from Jerusalem, born in tribulation in a wild wilderness, and hated of our brethren, which caused wars and contentions; wherefore we did mourn out our days.

Jacob 7:27

And I Jacob saw that I must soon go down to my grave; wherefore I said unto my son Enos: Take these plates. And I told him the things which my brother Nephi had commanded me, and he promised obedience unto the commands. And I make an end of my writing upon these plates, which writing hath been small. And to the reader I bid farewell, hoping that many of my brethren may read my words. Brethren, adieu.

Enos

Enos 1:1

Behold, it came to pass that I Enos knowing my father that he was a just man, for he taught me in his language and also in the nurture and admonition of the Lord —and blessed be the name of my God for it—and I will tell you of the wrestle which I had before God before that I received a remission of my sins.

Enos 1:2

Enos 1:3

Behold, I went to hunt beasts in the forest, and I remembered the words which I had often heard my father speak concerning eternal life and the joy of the saints; and the words of my father sunk deep into my heart, and my soul hungered, and I kneeled down before my Maker, and I cried unto him in mighty prayer and supplication for mine own soul. And all the day long did I cry unto him; yea, and when the night came, I did still raise my voice high, that it reached the heavens.

Enos 1:5

And there came a voice unto me, saying: Enos, thy sins are forgiven thee, and thou shalt be blessed.

Enos 1:6

And I Enos knew that God could not lie; wherefore my guilt was swept away.

Enos 1:7

And I saith: Lord, how is it done?

Enos 1:8

And he saith unto me: Because of thy faith in Christ, whom thou hast not heard nor seen —and many years passeth away before that he shall manifest himself in the flesh— wherefore go to it; thy faith hath made thee whole.

Enos 1:9

Now it came to pass that when I had heard these words, I began to feel a desire for the welfare of my brethren the Nephites; wherefore I did pour out my whole soul unto God for them.

Enos 1:10

And while I was thus struggling in the spirit, behold, the voice of the Lord came into my mind again, saying: I will visit thy brethren according to their diligence in keeping my commandments. I have given unto them this land, and it is a holy land; and I curse it not save it be for the cause of iniquity. Wherefore I will visit thy brethren according as I have said, and their transgressions will I bring down with sorrow upon their own heads.

Enos 1:11

And after that I Enos had heard these words, my faith began to be unshaken in the Lord. And I prayed unto him with many long strugglings for my brethren the Lamanites.

Enos 1:12

And it came to pass that after I had prayed and labored with all diligence, the Lord said unto me: I will grant unto thee according to thy desires because of thy faith.

Enos 1:13

And now behold, this was the desire which I desired of him, that if it should so be that my people the Nephites should fall into transgression and by any means be destroyed and the Lamanites should not be destroyed that the Lord God would preserve a record of my people the Nephites, even if it so be by the power of his holy arm, that it might be brought forth some future day unto the Lamanites, that perhaps they might be brought unto salvation.

Enos 1:14

For at the present our strugglings were vain in restoring them to the true faith. And they swore in their wrath that if it were possible, they would destroy our records and us and also all the traditions of our fathers.

Enos 1:15

Wherefore I knowing that the Lord God was able to preserve our records, I cried unto him continually, for he had said unto me: Whatsoever thing ye shall ask in faith —believing that ye shall receive— in the name of Christ, ye shall receive it.

Enos 1:16

And I had faith and I did cry unto God that he would preserve the records. And he covenanted with me that he would bring them forth unto the Lamanites in his own due time.

Enos 1:17

And I Enos knew that it would be according to the covenant which he had made; wherefore my soul did rest.

Enos 1:18

And the Lord said unto me: Thy fathers have also required of me this thing. And it shall be done unto them according to their faith, for their faith was like unto thine.

Enos 1:19

And now it came to pass that I Enos went about among the people of Nephi, prophesying of things to come and testifying of the things which I had heard and seen.

Enos 1:20

And I bear record that the people of Nephi did seek diligently to restore the Lamanites unto the true faith in God, but our labors were vain. Their hatred was fixed; and they were led by their evil nature, that they became wild and ferocious and a bloodthirsty people full of idolatry and filthiness, feeding upon beasts of prey, dwelling in tents and wandering about in the wilderness, with a short skin girded about their loins and their heads shaven. And their skill was in the bow and the scimitar and the ax; and many of them did eat nothing save it was raw meat. And they were continually seeking to destroy us.

Enos 1:21

And it came to pass that the people of Nephi did till the land and raise all manner of grain and of fruit and flocks of herds and flocks of all manner of cattle of every kind and goats and wild goats and also much horses.

Enos 1:22

And there were exceeding many prophets among us; and the people were a stiffnecked people, hard to understand.

Enos 1:23

And there was nothing save it was exceeding harshness, preaching and prophesying of wars and contentions and destructions, and continually reminding them of death and of the duration of eternity and the judgments and the power of God, and all these things stirring them up continually to keep them in the fear of the Lord— I say, there was nothing short of these things and exceeding great plainness of speech would keep them from going down speedily to destruction. And after this manner do I write concerning them.

Enos 1:24

And I saw wars between the Nephites and the Lamanites in the course of my days.

Enos 1:25

And it came to pass that I began to be old. And an hundred and seventy and nine years had passed away from the time that our father Lehi left Jerusalem.

Enos 1:26

And as I saw that I must soon go down to my grave, having been wrought upon by the power of God that I must preach and prophesy unto this people and declare the word according to the truth which is in Christ— and I have declared it in all my days and have rejoiced in it above that of the world.

And I soon go to the place of my rest, which is with my Redeemer; for I know that in him I shall rest. And I rejoice in the day when my mortal shall put on immortality and shall stand before him. Then shall I see his face with pleasure, and he will say unto me: Come unto me, ye blessed; there is a place prepared for you in the mansions of my Father. Amen.

Jarom

Jarom 1:1

Now behold, I Jarom write a few words according to the commandment of my father Enos, that our genealogy may be kept.

Jarom 1:2

And as these plates are small and as these things are written for the intent of the benefit of our brethren the Lamanites, wherefore it must needs be that I write a little. But I shall not write the things of my prophesying nor of my revelations. For what could I write more than my fathers have written, for have not they revealed the plan of salvation? I say unto you: Yea; and this sufficeth me.

Jarom 1:3

Behold, it is expedient that much should be done among this people because of the hardness of their hearts and the deafness of their ears and the blindness of their minds and the stiffness of their necks. Nevertheless God is exceeding merciful unto them and hath not as yet swept them off from the face of the land.

Jarom 1:4

And there are many among us which have many revelations, for they are not all stiffnecked. And as many as are not stiffnecked and have faith have communion with the Holy Spirit, which maketh manifest unto the children of men according to their faith.

Jarom 1:5

And now behold, two hundred years had passed away, and the people of Nephi had waxed strong in the land. They observed to keep the law of Moses and the sabbath day holy unto the Lord, and they profaned not, neither did they blaspheme. And the laws of the land were exceeding strict.

Jarom 1:6

And they were scattered upon much of the face of the land, and the Lamanites also. And they were exceeding more numerous than were they of the Nephites. And they loved murder and would drink the blood of beasts.

Jarom 1:7

And it came to pass that they came many times against us the Nephites to battle. But our kings and our leaders were mighty men in the faith of the Lord, and they taught the people the ways of the Lord. Wherefore we withstood the Lamanites and swept them away out of our lands and began to fortify our cities or whatsoever place of our inheritance.

And we multiplied exceedingly and spread upon the face of the land and became exceeding rich in gold and in silver and in precious things and in fine workmanship of wood, in buildings and in machinery, and also in iron and copper and brass and steel, making all manner of tools of every kind to till the ground, and weapons of war —yea, the sharp pointed arrow and the quiver and the dart and the javelin— and all preparations for war.

Jarom 1:9

And thus being prepared to meet the Lamanites, they did not prosper against us. But the word of the Lord was verified which he spake unto our fathers, saying that inasmuch as ye will keep my commandments, ye shall prosper in the land.

Jarom 1:10

And it came to pass that the prophets of the Lord did threaten the people of Nephi according to the word of God that if they did not keep the commandments but should fall into transgression, they should be destroyed from off the face of the land.

Jarom 1:11

Wherefore the prophets and the priests and the teachers did labor diligently, exhorting with all long-suffering the people to diligence, teaching the law of Moses and the intent for which it was given, persuading them to look forward unto the Messiah and believe in him to come as though he already was. And after this manner did they teach them.

Jarom 1:12

And it came to pass that by so doing they kept them from being destroyed upon the face of the land; for they did prick their hearts with the word, continually stirring them up unto repentance.

Jarom 1:13

And it came to pass that two hundred and thirty and eight years had passed away, after the manner of wars and contentions and dissensions for the space of much of the time.

Jarom 1:14

And I Jarom do not write more, for the plates are small. But behold, my brethren, ye can go to the other plates of Nephi. For behold, upon them the record of our wars are engraven according to the writings of the kings, or that which they caused to be written.

Jarom 1:15

And I deliver these plates into the hands of my son Omni, that they may be kept according to the commandments of my fathers.

Omni

Omni 1:1

Behold, it came to pass that I Omni being commanded by my father Jarom that I should write somewhat upon these plates to preserve our genealogy, wherefore in my days I would that ye should know that I fought much with the sword to preserve my people the Nephites from falling into the hands of their enemies the Lamanites. But behold, I of myself am a wicked man, and I have not kept the statutes and the commandments of the Lord as I ought to have done.

Omni 1:2

Omni 1:3

And it came to pass that two hundred and seventy and six years had passed away; and we had many seasons of peace, and we had many seasons of serious war and bloodshed. Yea, and in fine, two hundred and eighty and two years had passed away; and I had kept these plates according to the commandments of my fathers, and I conferred them upon my son Amaron. And I make an end.

Omni 1:4

And now I Amaron write the things whatsoever I write, which are few, in the book of my father.

Omni 1:5

Behold, it came to pass that three hundred and twenty years had passed away; and the more wicked part of the Nephites were destroyed.

Omni 1:6

For the Lord would not suffer after he had led them out of the land of Jerusalem and kept and preserved them from falling into the hands of their enemies, yea, he would not suffer that the words should not be verified which he spake unto our fathers, saying that inasmuch as ye will not keep my commandments, ye shall not prosper in the land.

Omni 1:7

Wherefore the Lord did visit them in great judgment. Nevertheless he did spare the righteous, that they should not perish, but did deliver them out of the hands of their enemies.

Omni 1:8

And it came to pass that I did deliver the plates unto my brother Chemish.

Omni 1:9

Now I Chemish write what few things I write in the same book with my brother. For behold, I saw the last which he wrote, that he wrote it with his own hand; and he wrote it in the day that he delivered them unto me. And after this manner we keep the record, for it is according to the commandments of our fathers. And I make an end.

Omni 1:10

Behold, I Abinadom I am the son of Chemish. Behold, it came to pass that I saw much war and contention between my people the Nephites and the Lamanites. And I with mine own sword have taken the lives of many of the Lamanites in the defense of my brethren.

Omni 1:11

And behold, the record of this people is engraven upon plates, which is had by the kings according to the generations. And I know of no revelation save that which has been written, neither prophecy. Wherefore that which is sufficient is written. And I make an end.

Omni 1:12

Behold, I am Amaleki the son of Abinadom. Behold, I will speak unto you somewhat concerning Mosiah, which was made king over the land of Zarahemla. For behold, he being warned of the Lord that he should flee out of the land of Nephi—and as many as would hearken unto the voice of the Lord should also depart out of the land with him into the wilderness—and it came to pass that he did according as the Lord had commanded him. And they departed out of the land into the wilderness, as many as would hearken unto the voice of the Lord. And they were led by many preachings and prophesyings, and they were admonished continually by the word of God, and they were led by the power of his arm through the wilderness, until they came down into the land which is called the land of Zarahemla.

Omni 1:14

And they discovered a people which was called the people of Zarahemla. Now there was great rejoicing among the people of Zarahemla, and also Zarahemla did rejoice exceedingly because that the Lord had sent the people of Mosiah with the plates of brass, which contained the record of the Jews.

Omni 1:15

Behold, it came to pass that Mosiah discovered that the people of Zarahemla came out from Jerusalem at the time that Zedekiah, king of Judah, was carried away captive into Babylon; and they journeyed in the wilderness and was brought by the hand of the Lord across the great waters into the land where Mosiah discovered them; and they had dwelt there from that time forth.

Omni 1:16

Omni 1:17

And at the time that Mosiah discovered them, they had become exceeding numerous. Nevertheless they had had many wars and serious contentions and had fallen by the sword from time to time. And their language had become corrupted; and they had brought no records with them. And they denied the being of their Creator. And Mosiah—nor the people of Mosiah—could not understand them.

Omni 1:18

But it came to pass that Mosiah caused that they should be taught in his language. And it came to pass that after they were taught in the language of Mosiah, Zarahemla gave a genealogy of his fathers according to his memory; and they are written but not in these plates.

Omni 1:19

And it came to pass that the people of Zarahemla and of Mosiah did unite together, and Mosiah was appointed to be their king.

Omni 1:20

And it came to pass in the days of Mosiah there was a large stone brought unto him with engravings on it, and he did interpret the engravings by the gift and power of God.

Omni 1:21

And they gave an account of one Coriantumr and the slain of his people. And Coriantumr was discovered by the people of Zarahemla, and he dwelt with them ¹for the space of nine moons.

Omni 1:22

It also spake a few words concerning his fathers; and his first parents came out from the tower at the time the Lord confounded the language of the people. And the severity of the Lord fell upon them according to his judgments, which is just, and their bones lay scattered in the land northward.

Omni 1:23

Behold, I Amaleki was born in the days of Mosiah; and I have lived to see his death and Benjamin his son reigneth in his stead.

¹This thing about “nine moons” is so strange—this is the only place in the BOM where “moon” is used in this way, in the context of keeping track of time. It may be that this is language taken from the stone that Mosiah translated, which would help explain why it doesn’t appear elsewhere.

Omni 1:24

And behold, I have seen in the days of king Benjamin a serious war and much bloodshed between the Nephites and the Lamanites. But behold, the Nephites did obtain much advantage over them, yea, insomuch that king Benjamin did drive them out of the land of Zarahemla.

Omni 1:25

And it came to pass that I began to be old; and having no seed and knowing king Benjamin to be a just man before the Lord, wherefore I shall deliver up these plates unto him, exhorting all men to come unto God, the Holy One of Israel, and believe in prophesying and in revelations and in the ministering of angels and in the gift of speaking with tongues and in the gift of interpreting languages and in all things which is good, for there is nothing which is good save it comes from the Lord; and that which is evil cometh from the devil.

Omni 1:26

And now my beloved brethren, I would that ye should come unto Christ, which is the Holy One of Israel, and partake of his salvation and the power of his redemption; yea, come unto him and offer your whole souls as an offering unto him and continue in fasting and praying and endure to the end; and as the Lord liveth, ye will be saved.

And now I would speak somewhat concerning a certain number which went up into the wilderness to return to the land of Nephi, for there was a large number which were desirous to possess the land of their inheritance; wherefore they went up into the wilderness. And their leader being a strong and a mighty man and a stiff-necked man, wherefore he caused a contention among them. And they were all slain save fifty in the wilderness, and they returned again to the land of Zarahemla.

Omni 1:29

And it came to pass that they also took others to a considerable number and took their journey again into the wilderness.

Omni 1:30

And I Amaleki had a brother which also went with them; and I have not since known concerning them. And I am about to lay down in my grave; and these plates are full, and I make an end of my speaking.

Words of Mormon

Words of Mormon 1:1

And now I Mormon being about to deliver up the record which I have been making into the hands of my son Moroni, behold, I have witnessed almost all the destruction of my people the Nephites.

Words of Mormon 1:2

And it is many hundred years after the coming of Christ that I deliver these records into the hands of my son. And it supposeth me that he will witness the entire destruction of my people. But may God grant that he may survive them, that he may write somewhat concerning them and somewhat concerning Christ, that perhaps some day it may profit them.

Words of Mormon 1:3

And now I speak somewhat concerning that which I have written. For after that I had made an abridgment from the plates of Nephi down to the reign of this king Benjamin of which Amaleki spake, I searched among the records which had been delivered into my hands, and I found these plates which contained this small account of the prophets from Jacob down to the reign of this king Benjamin, and also many of the words of Nephi.

And the things which are upon these plates pleasing me because of the prophecies of the coming of Christ, and my fathers knowing that many of them have been fulfilled —yea, and I also know that as many things as have been prophesied concerning us down to this day has been fulfilled, and as many as go beyond this day must surely come to pass—wherefore I choose these things to finish my record upon them, which remainder of my record I shall take from the plates of Nephi. And I cannot write a hundredth part of the things of my people.

Words of Mormon 1:6

But behold, I shall take these plates which contain these prophesyings and revelations and put them with the remainder of my record, for they are choice unto me; and I know they will be choice unto my brethren.

And I do this for a wise purpose, for thus it whispereth me according to the workings of the Spirit of the Lord which is in me. And now I do not know all things, but the Lord knoweth all things which is to come; wherefore he worketh in me to do according to his will.

Words of Mormon 1:8

And my prayer to God is concerning my brethren, that they may once again come to the knowledge of God, yea, the redemption of Christ, that they may once again be a delightful people.

Words of Mormon 1:9

And now I Mormon proceed to finish out my record which I take from the plates of Nephi; and I make it according to the knowledge and the understanding which God hath given me.

Wherefore it came to pass that after Amaleki had delivered up these plates into the hands of king Benjamin, he took them and put them with the other plates, which contained records which had been handed down by the kings from generation to generation until the days of king Benjamin.

And they were handed down from king Benjamin from generation to generation until they have fallen into my hands. And I Mormon pray to God that they may be preserved from this time henceforth. And I know that they will be preserved, for there are great things written upon them out of which my people and their brethren shall be judged at the great and last day, according to the word of God which is written.

And now concerning this king Benjamin: he had somewhat contentions among his own people.

Words of Mormon 1:13

And it came to pass also that the armies of the Lamanites came down out of the land of Nephi to battle against his people. But behold, king Benjamin gathered together his armies, and he did stand against them, and he did fight with the strength of his own arm with the sword of Laban.

Words of Mormon 1:14

And in the strength of the Lord they did contend against their enemies until they had slain many thousands of the Lamanites. And it came to pass that they did contend against the Lamanites until they had driven them out of all the lands of their inheritance.

Words of Mormon 1:15

And it came to pass that after there had been false Christs and their mouths had been shut—and they punished according to their crimes—

and after there had been false prophets and false preachers and teachers among the people—and all these having been punished according to their crimes— and after there having been much contentions and many dissensions away unto the Lamanites, behold, it came to pass that king Benjamin with the assistance of the holy prophets which were among his people

—for behold, king Benjamin was a holy man, and he did reign over his people in righteousness; and there were many holy men in the land, and they did speak the word of God with power and with authority, and they did use much sharpness because of the stiffneckedness of the people—

wherefore with the help of these, king Benjamin by laboring with all the might of his body and the faculty of his whole soul—and also the prophets— wherefore they did once more establish peace in the land.

Mosiah

Mosiah 1

Mosiah 1:1

And now there was no more contention in all the land of Zarahemla among all the people which belonged to king Benjamin, so that king Benjamin had continual peace all the remainder of his days.

Mosiah 1:2

And it came to pass that he had three sons, and he called their names Mosiah and Helorum and Helaman. And he caused that they should be taught in all the language of his fathers, that thereby they might become men of understanding and that they might know concerning the prophecies which had been spoken by the mouths of their fathers, which was delivered them by the hand of the Lord.

Mosiah 1:3

And he also taught them concerning the records which were engraven on the plates of brass, saying: My sons, I would that ye should remember that were it not for these plates which contain these records and these commandments, we must have suffered in ignorance, even at this present time, not knowing the mysteries of God.

Mosiah 1:4

For it were not possible that our father Lehi could have remembered all these things, to have taught them to his children, except it were for the help of these plates; for he having been taught in the language of the Egyptians, therefore he could read these engravings and teach them to his children, that thereby they could teach them to their children, and so fulfilling the commandments of God, even down to this present time.

Mosiah 1:5

I say unto you my sons: Were it not for these things which have been kept and preserved by the hand of God, that we might read and understand of his mysteries and have his commandments always before our eyes, that even our fathers would have dwindled in unbelief, and we should have been like unto our brethren the Lamanites, which know nothing concerning these things, or even do not believe them when they are taught them because of the traditions of their fathers, which are not correct.

Mosiah 1:6

O my sons, I would that ye should remember that these sayings are true, and also that these records are true. And behold also the plates of Nephi which contain the records and the sayings of our fathers from the time they left Jerusalem until now, and they are true; and we can know of their surety because we have them before our eyes.

Mosiah 1:7

And now my sons, I would that ye should remember to search them diligently, that ye may profit thereby. And I would that ye should keep the commandments of God, that ye may prosper in the land according to the promises which the Lord made unto our fathers.

Mosiah 1:8

And many more things did king Benjamin teach his sons which are not written in this book.

Mosiah 1:9

And it came to pass that after king Benjamin had made an end of teaching his sons that he waxed old, and he saw that he must very soon go the way of all the earth. Therefore he thought it expedient that he should confer the kingdom upon one of his sons; therefore he had Mosiah brought before him, and these are the words which he spake unto him, saying: My son, I would that ye should make a proclamation throughout all this land among all this people, or the people of Zarahemla and the people of Mosiah which dwell in this land, that thereby they may be gathered together, for on the morrow I shall proclaim unto this my people out of mine own mouth that thou art a king and a ruler over this people, which the Lord our God hath given us.

Mosiah 1:10

Mosiah 1:11

And moreover I shall give this people a name that thereby they may be distinguished above all the people which the Lord God hath brought out of the land of Jerusalem. And this I do because they have been a diligent people in keeping the commandments of the Lord.

Mosiah 1:12

And I give unto them a name that never shall be blotted out except it be through transgression.

Mosiah 1:13

Yea, and moreover I say unto you that if this highly favored people of the Lord should fall into transgression and become a wicked and an adulterous people that the Lord will deliver them up, that thereby they become weak like unto their brethren, and he will no more preserve them by his matchless and marvelous power as he hath hitherto preserved our fathers.

Mosiah 1:14

For I say unto you that if he had not extended his arm in the preservation of our fathers, they must have fallen into the hands of the Lamanites and become victims to their hatred.

Mosiah 1:15

And it came to pass that after king Benjamin had made an end of these sayings to his son that he gave him charge concerning all the affairs of the kingdom.

Mosiah 1:16

And moreover he also gave him charge concerning the records which were engraven on the plates of brass, and also the plates of Nephi, and also the sword of Laban, and the ball or director which led our fathers through the wilderness, which was prepared by the hand of the Lord that thereby they might be led, every one, according to the heed and diligence which they gave unto him.

Mosiah 1:17

Therefore as they were unfaithful, they did not prosper nor progress in their journey, but were driven back and incurred the displeasure of God upon them; and therefore they were smitten with famine and sore afflictions, to stir them up in remembrance of their duty.

Mosiah 1:18

And now it came to pass that Mosiah went and did as his father had commanded him and proclaimed unto all the people which were in the land of Zarahemla that thereby they might gather themselves together to go up to the temple to hear the words which his father should speak unto them.

Mosiah 2

Mosiah 2:1

And it came to pass that after Mosiah had done as his father had commanded him and had made a proclamation throughout all the land that the people gathered themselves together throughout all the land, that they might go up to the temple to hear the words which king Benjamin should speak unto them.

Mosiah 2:2

And there were a great number, even so many that they did not number them, for they had multiplied exceedingly and waxed great in the land.

Mosiah 2:3

And they also took of the firstlings of their flocks, that they might offer sacrifice and burnt offerings according to the law of Moses.¹

Mosiah 2:4

And also that they might give thanks to the Lord their God, who had brought them out of the land of Jerusalem, and who had delivered them out of the hands of their enemies and had appointed just men to be their teachers and also a just man to be their king, who had established peace in the land of Zarahemla, and who had taught them to keep the commandments of God, that thereby they might rejoice and be filled with love towards God and all men.

Mosiah 2:5

And it came to pass that when they came up to the temple, they pitched their tents round about, every man according to his family, consisting of his wife and his sons and his daughters² and their sons and their daughters, from the eldest down to the youngest, every family being separate one from another.

Mosiah 2:6

And they pitched their tents round about the temple, every man having his tent with the door thereof towards the temple, that thereby they might remain in their tents and hear the words which king Benjamin should speak unto them; for the multitude being so great that king Benjamin could not teach them all within the walls of the temple, therefore he caused a tower to be erected, that thereby his people might hear the words which he should speak unto them.

Mosiah 2:7

¹ Note that the people went up ready to participate in temple ordinances as part of their worship. It was more for them than just listening to the prophet.

² Maybe “daughters” here refers to daughters-in-law? Not sure how it would work otherwise, since the text is clear that each family is separate from each other.

Mosiah 2:8

And it came to pass that he began to speak to his people from the tower, and they could not all hear his words because of the greatness of the multitude. Therefore he caused that the words which he spake should be written and sent forth among those that were not under the sound of his voice, that they might also receive his words.

Mosiah 2:9

And these are the words which he spake and caused to be written, saying: My brethren, all ye that have assembled yourselves together, you that can hear my words which I shall speak unto you this day, for I have not commanded you to come up hither to trifle¹ with the words which I shall speak, but that you should hearken unto me and open your ears that ye may hear and your hearts that ye may understand and your minds that the mysteries of God may be unfolded to your ²view.

Mosiah 2:10

I have not commanded you to come up hither that ye should fear me, or that ye should think that I of myself am more than a mortal man.

Mosiah 2:11

But I am like as yourselves, subject to all manner of infirmities in body and mind. Yet as I have been chosen by this people and was consecrated by my father and was suffered by the hand of the Lord that I should be a ruler and a king over this people and have been kept and preserved by his matchless power, to serve thee with all the might, mind, and strength which the Lord hath granted unto me—

Mosiah 2:12

I say unto you that as I have been suffered to spend my days in your service, even up to this time, and have not sought gold nor silver nor no manner of riches of you,

Mosiah 2:13

neither have I suffered that ye should be confined in dungeons nor that ye should make slaves one of another or that ye should murder or plunder or steal or commit adultery, or even I have not suffered that ye should commit any manner of wickedness, and have taught you that ye should keep the commandments of the Lord in all things which he hath commanded you—

²Here Benjamin says that the mysteries of God will be unfolded to the “view” of those listening. The word “view” then appears in three other places in this story—

1. Mosiah 3:25: “And if they [a person’s works] be evil, they are consigned to an awful view of their own guilt and abominations, which doth cause them to shrink from the presence of the Lord into a state of misery and endless torment, from whence they can no more return;”
2. Mosiah 4:2: “And they had viewed themselves in their own carnal state, even less than the dust of the earth, and they all cried aloud with one voice, saying: O have mercy and apply the atoning blood of Christ that we may receive forgiveness of our sins and our hearts may be purified, for we believe in Jesus Christ the Son of God, who created heaven and earth and all things, who shall come down among the children of men.”
3. Mosiah 5:3: “And we ourselves also through the infinite goodness of God and the manifestations of his Spirit have great views of that which is to come. And were it expedient, we could prophesy of all things.”

All three of the things that the people experience and learn here are things that are revealed to us by God, and so count as the “mysteries” that Benjamin is referring to. In Mosiah 3:25, Benjamin is talking about the time at or near the judgment at which a person remembers all their evil works (2 Nephi 9:13–16). In Mosiah 4:2, the people learn how badly off they are in their carnal state, something that wouldn’t occur to you, much less matter, unless God was revealing it. And in Mosiah 5:3, the people are looking forward to good things in the future, which have been revealed to them through the Spirit (the text explicitly states this). So in the “mysteries” that are unfolded to this group of people we see a progression, from a knowledge of their need for repentance—which they respond to by repenting—to much better things in the future. I think we will go through the same progression in seeking the new birth. Think of how the “unfolding” process occurs, where some parts that are visible are then no longer visible once a larger portion has unfolded; maybe some of those parts that aren’t visible any longer, once we are “viewing” the good things in the future, are our sins and carnal nature.

and even I myself have labored with mine own hands that I might serve you and that ye should not be laden with taxes and that there should nothing come upon you which was grievous to be borne— and of all these things which I have spoken, ye yourselves are witnesses this day.

Mosiah 2:15

Yet my brethren, I have not done these things that I might boast, neither do I tell these things that thereby I might accuse you. But I tell you these things that ye may know that I can answer a clear conscience before God this day.

Mosiah 2:16

Behold, I say unto you that because I said unto you that I had spent my days in your service, I do not desire to boast, for I have only been in the service of God.

Mosiah 2:17

And behold, I tell you these things that ye may learn wisdom, that ye may learn that when ye are in the service of your fellow beings, ye are only in the service of your God.

Mosiah 2:18

Behold, ye have called me your king. And if I, whom ye call your king, do labor to serve you, then had not ye ought to labor to serve one another?

Mosiah 2:19

And behold also, if I, who ye call your king, who has spent his days in your service and yet hath been in the service of God, doth merit any thanks from you, O how had you ought to thank your heavenly King!

Mosiah 2:20

I say unto you my brethren that if you should render all the thanks and praise which your whole souls hath power to possess to that God who hath created you and hath kept and preserved you and hath caused that ye should rejoice and hath granted that ye should live in peace one with another—

Mosiah 2:21

I say unto you that if ye should serve him who hath created you from the beginning and art preserving you from day to day by lending you breath that ye may live and move and do according to your own will, and even supporting you from one moment to another—¹ I say, if ye should serve him with all your whole soul, and yet ye would be unprofitable servants.

And behold, all that he requires of you is to keep his commandments. And he hath promised you that if ye would keep his commandments, ye should prosper in the land. And he never doth vary from that which he hath said; therefore if ye do keep his commandments, he doth bless you and prosper you.

¹This passage here, more than any other in the restoration scriptures that I've found yet, reminds me of medieval and Cartesian views about God's active role in maintaining how things are in the world. I think that later thoughts from JS and others push back against this; I think I'm inclined to explain in terms of the laws that govern things like respiration, which then fit into a larger picture of laws of the priesthood.

Mosiah 2:23

And now in the first place, he hath created you and granted unto you your lives, for which ye are indebted unto him.

Mosiah 2:24

And secondly, he doth require that ye should do as he hath commanded you, for which if ye do, he doth immediately¹ bless you, and therefore he hath paid you. And ye are still indebted unto him and are and will be forever and ever. Therefore of what have ye to boast?

Mosiah 2:25

And now I ask: Can ye say ought of yourselves? I answer you: Nay. Ye cannot say that thou art even as much as the dust of the earth, yet thou wast created of the dust of the earth; but behold, it belongeth to him who created you.

Mosiah 2:26

And I, even I, whom ye call your king, am no better than ye yourselves are, for I am also of the dust. And thou beholdest that I am old and am about to yield up this mortal frame to its mother earth.

Therefore as I said unto you that I had served you, walking with a clear conscience before God, even so I at this time have caused that ye should assemble yourselves together, that I might be found blameless and that your blood should not come upon me when I shall stand to be judged of God of the things whereof he hath commanded me concerning you.

Mosiah 2:28

I say unto you that I have caused that ye should assemble yourselves together that I might rid my garments of your blood,² at this period of time when I am about to go down to my grave, that I might go down in peace and my immortal spirit may join the choirs above in singing the praises of a just God.

Mosiah 2:29

And moreover I say unto you that I have caused that ye should assemble yourselves together that I might declare unto you that I can no longer be your teacher nor your king.

Mosiah 2:30

For even at this time my whole frame doth tremble exceedingly while attempting to speak unto you, but the Lord God doth support me and hath suffered me that I should speak unto you and hath commanded me that I should declare unto you this day that my son Mosiah is a king and a ruler over you.

Mosiah 2:31

And now my brethren, I would that ye should do as ye hath hitherto done; as ye have kept my commandments, and also the commandments of my father, and have prospered and have been kept from falling into the hands of your enemies, even so if ye shall keep the commandments of my son, or the commandments of God which shall be delivered unto you by him, ye shall prosper in the land, and your enemies shall have no power over you.

¹See here for the 1828 definitions of “immediate”; note that the third one is the one that we normally use nowadays, talking about time, but the first definition in the 1828 (and the one that was no doubt much more common during JS’s time) is that of “acting directly” or “acting without a medium.” Compare also John 3:18 and “already” in that verse, and see Mosiah 25:10, Alma 15:4–5 (where “immediately” seems to be used the way we use it),

²Am I the only one who thinks this is a weird reason to get everyone together? So that he can totally exonerate himself of all responsibility for their actions before he dies? As he notes in the next verse, he does have multiple reasons for getting people together, but this one just sounds a little strange to me.

But O my people, beware lest there shall arise contentions among you, and ye list¹ to obey the evil spirit which was spoken of by my father Mosiah.

Mosiah 2:33

For behold, there is a woe pronounced upon him who listeth to obey that spirit; for if he listeth to obey him and remaineth and dieth in his sins, the same drinketh damnation to his own soul, for he receiveth for his wages an everlasting punishment, having transgressed the law of God contrary to his own knowledge.

Mosiah 2:34

I say unto you that there are not one among you —except it be your little children— that have not been taught concerning these things but what knoweth that ye are eternally indebted to your heavenly Father, to render to him all that you have and are, and also have been taught concerning the records, which contain the prophecies which hath been spoken by the holy prophets, even down to the time our father Lehi left Jerusalem, and also all that hath been spoken by our fathers until now. And behold also, they spake that which was commanded them of the Lord; therefore they are just and true.

Mosiah 2:36

And now I say unto you my brethren that after ye have known and have been taught all these things, if ye should transgress and go contrary to that which hath been spoken, that ye do withdraw yourselves from the Spirit of the Lord,² that it may have no place in you to guide you in wisdom's paths that ye may be blessed, prospered, and preserved—

Mosiah 2:37

I say unto you that the man that doeth this, the same cometh out in open rebellion against God; therefore he listeth to obey the evil spirit and becometh an enemy to all righteousness.³ Therefore the Lord hath no place in him,⁴ for he dwelleth not in unholy temples.

Mosiah 2:38

Therefore if that man repenteth not and remaineth and dieth an enemy to God, the demands of divine justice doth awaken his immortal soul to a lively sense⁵ of his own guilt, which doth cause him to shrink from the presence of the Lord and doth fill ¹This unusual use of the word “list” is the first time we see this meaning in the BOM. The word with this meaning occurs seven times in the BOM, and three times in the DC.

²I think this verse is helpful in developing the correct way of thinking about “having” the Spirit. It isn’t like an object that you can either possess or not possess at any given time. I think a more correct way of thinking about it, and a more useful image, is that of standing closer or farther away from a source of light and warmth, like a fire or lantern. When you stand close, you feel the warmth and can see better because there is more light, but you could also stand farther away and feel less warmth and see more poorly. The Spirit (or Christ, or whatever you want to plug into this image, it doesn’t really matter) is the source of light and warmth, especially for our spirits and minds. The closer we want to approach—and how close we approach is almost entirely up to us—then the more light and warmth we will be able to receive. Or we can withdraw, as this verse suggests, and get less. But it isn’t the case that we are ever completely out of range of the light and warmth; we just sort of banish ourselves to a position very far from the source, and as a result are naturally able to receive very little of it.

Consider also DC 88:63 in connection with this.

³See Moroni 9:6 for this interesting phrase, “enemy to all righteousness.”

⁴Compare Alma 34:34–36, which also uses the term “withdraw” that we see earlier in verse 36 of this chapter. We are the ones who control what occupies this place inside ourselves; see the “give place” construction in Alma 32:27–28.

his breast with guilt and pain and anguish, which is like an unquenchable fire whose flames ascendeth up forever and ever.¹

Mosiah 2:39

And now I say unto you that mercy hath no claim on that man; therefore his final doom is to endure a never-ending torment.

Mosiah 2:40

O all ye old men and also ye young men and you little children which can understand my words—for I have spoken plain unto you that ye might understand—I pray that ye should awake to a remembrance of the awful situation of those that have fallen into transgression.

Mosiah 2:41

And moreover I would desire that ye should consider on the blessed and happy state of those that keep the commandments of God; for behold, they are blessed in all things, both temporal and spiritual. And if they hold out faithful to the end, they are received into heaven, that thereby they may dwell with God in a state of never-ending happiness. O remember, remember that these things are true, for the Lord God hath spoken it.

Mosiah 3

Mosiah 3:1

And again my brethren, I would call your attention, for I have somewhat more to speak unto you; for behold, I have things to tell you concerning that which is to come.

Mosiah 3:2

And the things which I shall tell you are made known² unto me by an angel from God. And he said unto me: Awake! And I awoke; and behold, he stood before me.³

Mosiah 3:3

And he said unto me: Awake⁴ and hear the words which I shall tell thee; for behold, I am come to declare unto thee glad tidings of great joy.

that the knowledge will be “like unto us in the flesh.” “Living” and “flesh” have either direct or indirect connections to life, and so there is something alive and powerful about this recollection that we will have at that time—depending on how we have lived.

¹The punishment is psychological, and self-inflicted in the sense that it seems to be about us turning inward to the hell of our own choices and guilt. See also DC 19:20, where the Lord talks about Martin Harris experiencing a bit of this when he (the Lord) withdrew the Spirit from him.

See also JS, 6–8 April 1843 (“There is no pain so awful as the pain of suspense. This is the condemnation of the wicked; Their doubt and anxiety and suspense causes weeping, wailing and gnashing of teeth”);

²This is an unusual way of denoting past time. It’s clearly an event or series of events that took place in the past, as we see in just a moment when Benjamin says that the angel “said” (not “is saying” or something like that). And the text refers to this past time with a present form of “to be” and then a past participle. It’s almost like a more Latin way of doing it, where the past participle really has its past force, so the meaning is something like, “the things are in a state of having been made known unto me.”

³Reminiscent of JS’s own experiences, but also of the experiences of others with heavenly messengers.

⁴Benjamin is told to “awake” again after he’s already awake. He needed to wake up physically, and then wake up mentally or spiritually in order to pay attention to what the angel was saying. At many days and at many times, we are physically awake, but spiritually and mentally asleep.

Mosiah 3:4

For the Lord hath heard thy prayers and hath judged of thy righteousness¹ and hath sent me to declare unto thee, that thou mayest rejoice, and that thou mayest declare unto thy people, that they may also be filled with joy.

Mosiah 3:5

For behold, the time cometh and is not far distant that with power the Lord Omnipotent who reigneth, which was and is from all eternity to all eternity, shall come down from heaven among the children of men and shall dwell in a tabernacle of clay and shall go forth amongst men, working mighty miracles, such as healing the sick, raising the dead, causing the lame to walk, the blind to receive their sight, and the deaf to hear, and curing all manner of diseases.

Mosiah 3:6

And he shall cast out devils, or² the evil spirits which dwelleth in the hearts of the children of men.

Mosiah 3:7

And lo, he shall suffer temptations and pain of body, hunger, thirst, and fatigue, even more than man can suffer except it be unto death;³ for behold, blood cometh from every pore, so great shall be his anguish⁴ for the wickedness and the abominations of his people.⁵

Mosiah 3:8

And he shall be called Jesus Christ the Son of God, the Father of heaven and of earth, the Creator of all things from the beginning; and his mother shall be called Mary.

Mosiah 3:9

And lo, he cometh unto his own that salvation might come unto the children of men, even through faith on his name. And even after all this, they shall consider him as a man and say that he hath a devil, and shall scourge him⁶ and shall crucify him.

And he shall rise the third day from the dead; and behold, he standeth to judge the world. And behold, all these things are done that a righteous judgment might come upon the children of men.

¹Very important point about prayer and receiving answers here—the angel specifically mentions that the Lord heard Benjamin’s prayers, then judged his level of righteousness, and only after (apparently) making a satisfactory judgment did he send the angel to share information with him. Benjamin’s righteousness was a factor in receiving an answer to his prayer. This seems like it ought to be a fairly obvious point but for some reason it’s not. If we want greater answers to prayers, or maybe answers in the first place, then we need to enhance our personal righteousness.

²Clearly an explanatory use of “or.” See here.

³See here for this meaning of “except.” The idea is that a normal person could not suffer all these things, could not experience all these things, unless they died, or without dying. What Christ experienced would have caused a normal person to die.

⁶There are at least two meanings in play with “scourge” here, and maybe three, based on the 1828 dictionary. See here for the meanings. This use of the term by Benjamin is has much in common with other important verses about the atonement and Christ’s role, including Isaiah 53:5 (see also Mosiah 14:5), 1 Nephi 19:9, and 2 Nephi 6:9, at least.

For behold, and also his blood atoneth for the sins of those who have fallen by the transgression of Adam who hath died not knowing the will of God concerning them or who have ignorantly sinned.¹

Mosiah 3:12

But woe woe unto him who knoweth that he rebelleth against God; for salvation cometh to none such except it be through repentance and faith on the Lord Jesus Christ.

Mosiah 3:13

And the Lord God hath sent his holy prophets among all the children of men to declare these things to every kindred, nation, and tongue, that thereby whosoever should believe that Christ should come, the same might receive remission of their sins and rejoice with exceeding great joy, even as though he had already come among them.²

Mosiah 3:14

Yet the Lord God saw that his people were a stiffnecked people, and he appointed unto them a law, even the law of Moses.³

Mosiah 3:15

And many signs and wonders and types and shadows shewed he unto them concerning his coming; and also holy prophets spake unto them concerning his coming. And yet they hardened their hearts and understood not that the law of Moses availeth nothing except it were through the atonement of his blood.

¹Now this is an interesting verse to try to parse. As we can see here, the original text lacks commas that would be useful in helping us grasp exactly what is meant.

I can easily see at least three different readings for this verse—here they are (for all three readings, there could be other groups of people, I think):

Reading #1 “His blood atoneth for the sins of people who belong to at least one of the following three groups: (1) those who have fallen by the transgression of Adam, (2) those who have died not knowing the will of God concerning them, or (3) those who have ignorantly sinned.”

Reading #2 “His blood atoneth for the sins of people who belong to at least one of the following two groups: (1) those who have fallen by the transgression of Adam, or (2) those who have died not knowing the will of God concerning them, or in other words, those who have ignorantly sinned” (see the explanatory or).

Reading #3 “His blood atoneth for the sins of people who have fallen by the transgression of Adam—that is, those who have died not knowing the will of God concerning them, or in other words, those who have ignorantly sinned.”

The commas added in the current edition of the BOM suggest reading #1 or #2. I think we can rule out reading #3 on the grounds that sinning ignorantly is not the same as falling by the transgression of Adam, and reading #3 says that they are basically equivalent.

So we’re deciding between readings #1 and #2. If reading #1 is right, then not knowing the will of God concerning you would be a different matter from sinning ignorantly. Knowing or not knowing the will of God concerning you is actually an important property from the perspective of the BOM; see, for example, Alma 32:16–19. Being able to equate not knowing the will of God and sinning ignorantly would be helpful in understanding both properties, and from the outset they seem similar in meaning.

I would say I’m inclined to reading #1, though, because it’s more expansive—it gives us more categories to work with, and so more ways of thinking about different people and the situations they are in.

See here for more discussion of these categories.

²This last part of the verse tells us something important about the power of the atonement: it was effective in providing a remission of sin even before Christ came to the earth. Somehow there was power in the atonement before the actual event took place. I think this is a really unusual feature of the atonement, and I’m not really sure what it compares to. I can’t really think of anything else that works the same way. Maybe part of it is in understanding what a “remission” of sin is; if that’s a purely or even mostly psychological phenomenon, then it’s easier to see how it could happen before the event that the belief or psychological states are based on. Maybe there’s the remission, which is more psychological, and the actual satisfying of the demands of the broken law, which (maybe) couldn’t happen until the atonement took place in reality.

The atonement did happen at a particular time and place, and it seems like there were real times before the atonement, yet it still had some kind of effect on people, their sins, or both.

³Is it that he gave them a law because they were stiffnecked? Or is it that he was going to give them a law anyway, and because they were stiffnecked, he decided that it would be the law of Moses? From DC 84:23–26, possibly the latter.

And even if it were possible that little children could sin, they could not be saved. But I say unto you: They are blessed; for behold, as in Adam or by nature¹ they fall,² even so the blood of Christ atoneth for their sins.

Mosiah 3:17

And moreover I say unto you that there shall be no other name given nor no other way nor means whereby salvation can come unto the children of men, only in and through the name of Christ the Lord Omnipotent.

Mosiah 3:18

For behold, he judgeth and his judgment is just. And the infant perisheth not that dieth in his infancy, but men drinketh damnation³ to their own souls⁴ except they humble themselves and become as little children⁵ and believeth that salvation was and is and is to come in and through the atoning blood of Christ the Lord Omnipotent.

Mosiah 3:19

⁶For the natural man⁷ is an enemy⁸ to God and has been from the fall of Adam and will be forever and ever but if he yieldeth to the enticings⁹ of the Holy Spirit and putteth off¹⁰ the natural man and becometh a saint through the atonement of Christ

¹For “by nature,” see Ephesians 2:3,

The meaning of “or” is extremely important in this passage as well. Is it disjunctive, or explanatory? To me this one is not as clear-cut as some others. If it’s got a disjunctive meaning then I don’t think it has exclusive force; if it’s got explanatory meaning then we learn something very important about the fall which may help support the interpretation I gave above.

See also DC 29:43–44,

³The “drink damnation” construction comes from 1 Corinthians 11:29.

Mosiah 3:16 Little children cannot sin; the blood of Christ atones for their sins.

Mosiah 3:17 No other way to salvation than through Christ for the children of men.

Mosiah 3:18 Infants don’t perish if they die; people damn themselves unless they’re humble and become like little children.

Mosiah 3:21 Only little children are blameless before God—and we can become like that through faith and repentance.

One thing we can understand about these verses that mention children, 16–18 and 21, is that if we’re supposed to become as a child, then the things said about children in the surrounding verses will then apply to us as well.

⁶I wrote a Rainbows essay on what I think is the correct way to interpret what the “natural man” is in this verse, and it’s along epistemological lines. Read it here.

⁷The biblical anchor verse for the phrase “natural man” is 1 Corinthians 2:14 (see notes there). The construction in Greek is ψυχικός ἄνθρωπος. For ψυχικός, see here; for other uses of the phrase “natural man,” see here.

“Natural” in this verse does not mean “naturally occurring,” or “as we are by ourselves or in nature.” This is how we use the word “natural” and that meaning does not apply here. Meaning 1a in BDAG is “an unspiritual person, one who merely functions bodily, without being touched by the Spirit of God.” This is not the same as just a person in their natural state of being whoever they are. For more, see this study.

Note that the term “natural” points back to 3:16, “as in Adam or by nature they fall.” Compare Ether 3:3.

⁸I now read this “enemy to God” bit as, the natural man makes himself an enemy to God, but it doesn’t say that God is his enemy. I don’t think God sees his relationship with us in “enemy” terms. See Romans 8:6–7 and 27, which are all the occurrences of φρόνημα.

⁹For the idea that the Holy Spirit can “entice” us, see John 12:32 and “draw,” along with meaning #2 of the Greek word ἐλκω, which is used there. It is also described as “striving” with us (1 Nephi 7:14). See also 2 Corinthians 2:14, Galatians 5:17, 2 Nephi 2:16, 2 Nephi 2:28–29, ¹⁰Notice how this “put off” language also appears in Alma’s description of Korihor at Alma 30:42. You can put off either one, and we’re being enticed by both.

the Lord and ¹becometh as a ²child,³ submissive, meek, humble, patient, full of love,⁴ willing to submit to all things which the Lord seeth fit to inflict upon him, even as a child doth submit⁵ to his father.⁶

Mosiah 3:20

And moreover I say unto you that the time shall come when the knowledge of a Savior shall spread throughout every nation, kindred, tongue, and people.

Mosiah 3:21

And behold, when that time cometh, none shall be found blameless before God, except it be little children, only through repentance and faith on the name of the Lord God Omnipotent.

Mosiah 3:22

And even at this time when thou shalt have taught thy people the things which the Lord thy God hath commanded thee, even then are they found no more blameless in the sight of God, only according to the words which I have spoken unto thee.

Mosiah 3:23

And now I have spoken the words which the Lord God hath commanded me.

Mosiah 3:24

And thus saith the Lord: They shall stand as a bright testimony against this people at the judgment day; whereof they shall be judged every man according to his works, whether they be good or whether they be evil.

¹I gave a talk on this verse and some of these ideas on 22 January 2023.

²See New Birth but also Matthew 18:3–6, Mark 10:14–15,

⁵This idea of “submitting” to someone is common in the NT, and the primary word is ὑποτάσσω (I haven’t checked all the uses of “submit,” but the ones I’ve seen are ὑποτάσσω). The meaning of that word which most sticks out to me is #1.b.β, “subject oneself, be subjected or subordinated...of submission involving recognition of an ordered structure, with dative of the entity to whom/which appropriate respect is shown.” Christ is going to subdue, or cause to submit, all things to himself anyway (DC 19:2); he’s just inviting us to make this submission to himself voluntary, so that we can experience the benefits of it, instead of the frustrations and fears.

⁶I’ve always more or less recognized the importance of this verse, but in the past year or so (I’m writing this note Christmas morning 2020) I’ve really come to appreciate it in a new light. The main impetus for my new thoughts on it came from MRP and from Pook’s essay on the fountain of youth. See here in my notes on the new birth.

And if they be evil, they are consigned to an awful view of their own guilt and abominations, which doth cause them to shrink from the presence of the Lord into a state of misery and endless torment, from whence they can no more return; therefore they have drunk damnation to their own souls.

Mosiah 3:26

Therefore they have drunk out of the cup of the wrath of God, which justice could no more deny unto them than it could deny that Adam should fall because of his partaking of the forbidden fruit; therefore mercy could have claim on them no more forever.

Mosiah 3:27

And their torment is as a lake of fire and brimstone whose flames are unquenchable and whose smoke ascendeth up forever and ever. Thus hath the Lord commanded me. Amen.

Mosiah 4

Mosiah 4:1

And now it came to pass that when king Benjamin had made an end of speaking the words which had been delivered unto him by the angel of the Lord that he cast his eyes round about on the multitude, and behold, they had fell to the earth, for the fear of the Lord had come upon them.

Mosiah 4:2

And they had viewed themselves in their own carnal state, even less than the dust of the earth, and they all cried aloud with one voice, saying: O have mercy and apply the atoning blood of Christ that we may receive forgiveness of our sins and our hearts may be purified, for we believe in Jesus Christ the Son of God, who created heaven and earth and all things, who shall come down among the children of men.

Mosiah 4:3

And it came to pass that after they had spoken these words, the Spirit of the Lord came upon them, and they were filled with joy, having received a remission of their sins and having peace of conscience because of the exceeding faith which they had in Jesus Christ, which should come, according to the words which king Benjamin had spoken unto them.¹

Mosiah 4:4

And king Benjamin again opened his mouth and began to speak unto them, saying: My friends and my brethren, my kindred and my people, I would again call your attention, that ye may hear and understand the remainder of my words which I shall speak unto you.

Mosiah 4:5

For behold that if the knowledge of the goodness of God at this time hath awakened you to a sense of your nothingness and your worthless and fallen state—²

I say unto you that if ye have come to a knowledge of the goodness of God and his matchless power and his wisdom and his patience and his long-suffering towards the children of men, and also the atonement which hath been prepared from the foundation of the world, that thereby salvation might come to him that should put his trust in the Lord and should be diligent in keeping his commandments and continue in the faith, even unto the end of his life—I mean the life of the mortal body—

Mosiah 4:7

I say that this is the man that receiveth salvation through the atonement which was prepared from the foundation of the world for all mankind which ever was, ever since the fall of Adam, or which is or which ever shall be, even unto the end of the world.

Mosiah 4:8

And this is the means whereby salvation cometh. And there is none other salvation save this which hath been spoken of; neither is there any conditions whereby man can be saved except the conditions¹ which I have told you.

Mosiah 4:9

Believe in God! Believe that he is and that he created all things, both in heaven and in earth; believe that he hath all wisdom and all power, both in heaven and in earth; believe that man doth not comprehend all the things which the Lord can comprehend.

Mosiah 4:10

And again, believe that ye must repent of your sins and forsake them and humble yourselves before God and ask in sincerity of heart that he would forgive you. And now if you believe all these things, see that ye do them.

Mosiah 4:11

And again I say unto you, as I have said before, that as ye have come to the knowledge of the glory of God or² if ye have known of his goodness and have tasted of his love and have received a remission of your sins, which causeth such exceeding great joy in your souls, even so I would that ye should remember and always retain in remembrance the greatness of God and your own nothingness and his goodness and long-suffering towards you unworthy creatures, and humble yourselves even in the depths of humility, calling on the name of the Lord daily and standing steadfastly in the faith of that which is to come, which was spoken by the mouth of the angel.

Mosiah 4:12

And behold, I say unto you that if ye do this, ye shall always rejoice and be filled with the love of God and always retain a remission of your sins;³ and ye shall grow in the knowledge of the glory of him that created you, or⁴ in the knowledge of that which is just and true.⁵

¹Reminds me of the “conditions” mentioned in DC 88:38–39; see Condition.

²Explanatory or disjunctive? Very interesting. See here.

³I’m wondering if we can identify this “always retain a remission” with 3 Nephi 27:16, where Christ says that “if he endureth to the end, behold, him will I hold guiltless before my Father at that day when I shall stand to judge the world.” So you could see the things here in this passage of Benjamin’s sermon as being about enduring to the end, or as involving things we need to do in order to endure.

⁴This is an even more interesting and important use of “or” which may be explanatory. See the list.

⁵A long time ago I noticed that verses 11 and 12 here contain a chiasmus, that form of apparently Hebrew poetry (?) with repeating elements in a certain pattern. I’ll just give the matching pairs in a list here, starting at the front of verse 11 and the end of verse 12:

- knowledge of the glory of God | knowledge of the glory of him that created you
- tasted of his love | filled with the love of God
- received a remission of your sins | retain a remission of your sins
- exceeding great joy in your souls | ye shall always rejoice
- I would that ye should | I say unto you

Mosiah 4:13

And ye will not have a mind to injure one another but to live peaceably, and to render to every man according to that which is his due.

Mosiah 4:14

And ye will not suffer your children that they go hungry or naked, neither will you suffer that they transgress the laws of God and fight and quarrel one with another and serve the devil, which is the master of sin, or which is the evil spirit, which hath been spoken of by our fathers, he being an enemy to all righteousness.

Mosiah 4:15

But ye will teach them to walk in the ways of truth and soberness; ye will teach them to love one another and to serve one another.

Mosiah 4:16

And also, ye yourselves will succor those that stand in need of your succor; ye will administer of your substance unto him that standeth in need, and ye will not suffer that the beggar putteth up his petition to you in vain and turn him out to perish.

Mosiah 4:17

Perhaps thou shalt say: The man hath brought upon himself his misery; therefore I will stay my hand and will not give unto him of my food, nor impart unto him of my substance that he may not suffer, for his punishments are just.

Mosiah 4:18

But I say unto you, O man: Whosoever doeth this, the same hath great cause to repent; and except he repenteth of that which he hath done, he perisheth forever and hath no interest¹ in the kingdom of God.

Mosiah 4:19

For behold, are we not all beggars? Do we not all depend upon the same Being, even God, for all the substance which we have, for both food and raiment and for gold and for silver and for all the riches which we have, of every kind?

Mosiah 4:20

And behold, even at this time ye have been calling on his name and begging for a remission of your sins. And hath he suffered that ye have begged in vain? Nay, he hath poured out his Spirit upon you and hath caused that your hearts should be filled with joy and hath caused that your mouths should be stopped, that ye could not find utterance, so exceeding great was your joy.

- remember and always retain in remembrance the greatness of God and your own nothingness and his goodness and long-suffering towards you unworthy creatures, and humble yourselves even in the depths of humility, calling on the name of the Lord daily and standing steadfastly in the faith of that which is to come

The last item, the instructions about what actually we should do, does not have a parallel, being right in the center of the chiasmus. That is the emphasis of this passage—that is what Benjamin here is trying to get us to do. It's a list of actions that will help us retain a remission of our sins. That goal is further elaborated on in the latter parts of the parallels. Instead of just experiencing joy once, we will always rejoice; instead of just tasting of God's love, we will always be filled with it; instead of receiving a remission of sin once, we will always retain that remission; instead of just coming to that single bit of knowledge about the glory of God, we will grow in knowledge. The latter parts of the parallels are all about making permanent the experiences and changes mentioned in the former parts, and about growing in those experiences and changes. It isn't just a one-time thing, it can become a permanent part of our life. The progression we go through is underscored by the form of language, and the language also emphasizes the cyclical nature of all this.

¹This is the only use of any form of "interest" in the BOM. The word has several definitions in the 1828 dictionary, making for some very fascinating readings of this verse; see here.

And now if God, who hath created you, on whom you are dependent for your lives and for all that ye have and are, doth grant unto you whatsoever ye ask that is right, in faith believing that ye shall receive, O then how had ye ought to impart of the substance that ye have one to another!

Mosiah 4:22

And if ye judge the man who putteth up his petition to you for your substance that he perish not, and condemn him, how much more just will be your condemnation for withholding your substance, which doth not belong to you but to God, to whom also your life belongeth, and yet ye put up no petition or repenteth not of the thing which thou hast done.

Mosiah 4:23

I say unto you: Woe be unto that man, for his substance shall perish with him. And now I say these things unto those which are rich as pertaining to the things of this world.

Mosiah 4:24

And again I say unto the poor, ye that have not and yet hath sufficient that ye remain from day to day—I mean all you that deny the beggar because ye have not—I would that ye say in your hearts that I give not because I have not, but if I had, I would give.

Mosiah 4:25

And now if ye say this in your hearts, ye remain guiltless; otherwise ye are condemned, and your condemnation is just, for ye covet that which ye have not received.

Mosiah 4:26

And now for the sake of these things which I have spoken unto you—that is, for the sake of retaining a remission of your sins from day to day, that ye may walk guiltless before God—I would that ye should impart of your substance to the poor, every man according to that which he hath, such as feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, visiting the sick and administering to their relief, both spiritually and temporally according to their wants.

Mosiah 4:27

And see that all these things are done in wisdom and order, for it is not requisite that a man should run faster than what he hath strength. And again, it is expedient that he should be diligent, that thereby he might win the prize. Therefore all things must be done in order.

Mosiah 4:28

And I would that ye should remember that whosoever among you that borroweth of his neighbor should return the thing that he borroweth, according as he doth agree; or else thou shalt commit sin, and perhaps thou shalt cause thy neighbor to commit sin also.

Mosiah 4:29

And finally, I cannot tell you all the things whereby ye may commit sin; for there are divers ways and means, even so many that I cannot number them.

Mosiah 4:30

But this much I can tell you, that if ye do not watch yourselves and your thoughts and your words and your deeds and observe to keep the commandments of God and continue in the faith of what ye have heard concerning the coming of our Lord, even unto the end of your lives, ye must perish. And now O man, remember and perish not!¹

Mosiah 5

Mosiah 5:1

And now it came to pass that when king Benjamin had thus spoken to his people, he sent among them, desiring to know of his people if they believed the words which he had spoken unto them.

Mosiah 5:2

And they all cried with one voice, saying: Yea, we believe all the words which thou hast spoken unto us. And also we know of their surety and truth because of the Spirit of the Lord Omnipotent, which hath wrought a mighty change in us or in our hearts, that we have no more disposition to do evil but to do good continually.

Mosiah 5:3

And we ourselves also through the infinite goodness of God and the manifestations of his Spirit have great views of that which is to come. And were it expedient, we could prophesy of all things.

Mosiah 5:4

And it is the faith which we have had on the things which our king hath spoken unto us and hath brought us to this great knowledge, whereby we do rejoice with such exceeding great joy.

Mosiah 5:5

And we are willing to enter into a covenant with our God to do his will and to be obedient to his commandments in all things that he shall command us all the remainder of our days, that we may not bring upon ourselves a never-ending torment as has been spoken by the angel, that we may not drink out of the cup of the wrath of God.

Mosiah 5:6

And now these are the words which king Benjamin desired of them. And therefore he said unto them: Ye have spoken the words that I desired, and the covenant which ye have made is a righteous covenant.²

Mosiah 5:7

And now because of the covenant which ye have made, ye shall be called the ³children of Christ, his sons and his daughters; for behold, this day he hath spiritually begotten you, for ye say that your hearts are changed through faith on his name; therefore ye are born of him and have become his sons and his daughters.

¹For the life of me I cannot understand why the current edition of the BOM weakens the text so much. Note the original version here, and compare to the current edition: "And now, O man, remember, and perish not." It isn't just removing the exclamation point, which is bad enough; the new edition also adds two commas, which significantly slows the sentence down. It really makes the passage much weaker than it was intended to be.

³See this study for more on the "children of Christ." I believe we are called the "children of Christ" because we are reborn through his power, through the priesthood, which is the priesthood "after the order of the son of God."

And under this head ye are made free, and there is no other head¹ whereby ye can be made free; there is no other name given whereby salvation cometh. Therefore I would that ye should take upon you the name of Christ, all you that have entered into the covenant with God that ye should be obedient unto the end of your lives.

Mosiah 5:9

And it shall come to pass that whosoever doeth this shall be found at the right hand of God, for he shall know the name by which he is called; for he shall be called by the name of Christ.

Mosiah 5:10

And now it shall come to pass that whosoever shall not take upon them the name of Christ must be called by some other name; therefore he findeth himself on the left hand of God.

Mosiah 5:11

And I would that ye should remember also that this is the name that I said I should give unto you that never should be blotted out except it be through transgression; therefore take heed that ye do not transgress, that the name be not blotted out of your hearts.

I say unto you: I would that ye should remember to retain the name written always in your hearts, that ye are not found on the left hand of God, but that ye hear and know the voice by which ye shall be called, and also the name by which he shall call you.²

Mosiah 5:13

For how knoweth a man the master which he hath not served and which is a stranger unto him and is far from the thoughts and intents of his heart?

Mosiah 5:14

And again, doth a man take an ass which belongeth to his neighbor and keep him? I say unto you: Nay. He will not even suffer that he shall feed among his flocks, but will drive him away and cast him out. I say unto you that even so shall it be among you if ye know not the name by which ye are called.³

Mosiah 5:15

Therefore I would that ye should be steadfast and immovable, always abounding in good works, that Christ the Lord God Omnipotent may seal you his, that you may be brought to heaven, that ye may have everlasting salvation and eternal life through the wisdom and power and justice and mercy of him who created all things in heaven and in earth, who is God above all. Amen.

¹A few possibilities for what this word means, from the OED:

III.31 "A chief or principal point or division of a discourse, subject, etc.; each of a set or succession of such points or divisions; (more generally) a point, a category, a topic, a matter."

IV.34 "A person or thing holding the senior or most important position; a chief or leader."

IV.34a "A person to whom others are subordinate; a chief, a ruler, a leader, a commander."

²According to this verse, we are supposed to hear and know two things: the voice that will call us, and the name which it will use to call us. If we know the voice we'll be aware that God is speaking, and we'll be paying attention, and if we know the particular name, then we'll be ready when the voice calls us. For what exactly, I'm not sure.

³Until today (1/17/21) I hadn't ever really thought about this verse. It's an unusual image. Is it that we as individuals are the asses? And if we're owned or sealed by the devil, then Christ won't be able to take us and have us feed with his flock; we'll be driven away and cast out. Is that it? Kind of strange.

Mosiah 6:1

And now king Benjamin thought it was expedient, after having finished speaking to the people, that he should take the names of all those who had entered into a covenant with God to keep his commandments.

Mosiah 6:2

And it came to pass that there was not one soul, except it were little children, but what had entered into the covenant and had taken upon them the name of Christ.

Mosiah 6:3

And again it came to pass that when king Benjamin had made an end of all these things and had consecrated his son Mosiah to be a ruler and a king over his people and had given him all the charges concerning the kingdom and also had appointed priests to teach the people, that thereby they might hear and know the commandments of God, and to stir them up in remembrance of the oath which they had made, he dismissed the multitude, and they returned every one according to their families to their own houses.

Mosiah 6:4

And Mosiah began to reign in his father's stead, and he began to reign in the thirtieth year of his age, making in the whole about four hundred and seventy six years from the time that Lehi left Jerusalem.

Mosiah 6:5

And king Benjamin lived three years and he died.

Mosiah 6:6

And it came to pass that king Mosiah did walk in the ways of the Lord and did observe his judgments and his statutes and did keep his commandments in all things whatsoever he commanded him.

Mosiah 6:7

And king Mosiah did cause his people that they should till the earth, and he also himself did till the earth, that thereby he might not become burthensome to his people, that he might do according to that which his father had done in all things. And there was no contention among all his people for the space of three years.

Mosiah 7

Mosiah 7:1

And now it came to pass that after king Mosiah had had continual peace for the space of three years, he was desirous to know concerning the people which went up to dwell in the land of Lehi-Nephi, or in the city of Lehi-Nephi, for his people had heard nothing from them from the time they left the land of Zarahemla; therefore they wearied him with their teasings.

Mosiah 7:2

And it came to pass that king Mosiah granted that sixteen of their strong men might go up to the land of Lehi-Nephi to inquire concerning their brethren.

Mosiah 7:3

And it came to pass that on the morrow they started to go up, having with them one Ammon, he being a strong and mighty man and a descendant of Zarahemla; and he was also their leader.

Mosiah 7:4

And now they knew not the course they should travel in the wilderness to go up to the land of Lehi-Nephi; therefore they wandered many days in the wilderness, even forty days did they wander.

Mosiah 7:5

And when they had wandered forty days, they came to a hill which is north of the land of Shilom, and there they pitched their tents.

Mosiah 7:6

And Ammon took three of his brethren —and their names were Amaleki, Helem, and Hem— and they went down into the land of Nephi.

Mosiah 7:7

And behold, they met the king of the people which was in the land of Nephi and in the land of Shilom; and they were surrounded by the king's guard and was taken and was bound and was committed to prison.

Mosiah 7:8

And it came to pass when they had been in prison two days, they were again brought before the king and their bands were loosed; and they stood before the king and was permitted—or rather commanded—that they should answer the questions which he should ask them.

Mosiah 7:9

And he saith unto them: Behold, I am Limhi the son of Noah, which was the son of Zeniff, which came up out of the land of Zarahemla to inherit this land which was the land of their fathers, which was made a king by the voice of the people.

Mosiah 7:10

And now I desire to know the cause whereby ye were so bold as to come near the walls of the city when I myself was with my guards without the gate.

Mosiah 7:11

And now for this cause have I suffered that ye should be preserved, that I might inquire of you; or else I should have caused that my guards should have put you to death. Ye are permitted to speak.

Mosiah 7:12

And now when Ammon saw that he was permitted to speak, he went forth and bowed himself before the king; and rising again, he said: O king, I am very thankful before God this day that I am yet alive and am permitted to speak. And I will endeavor to speak with boldness; for I am assured that if ye had known me, ye would not have suffered that I should have wore these bands; for I am Ammon and am a descendant of Zarahemla and have come up out of the land of Zarahemla to inquire concerning our brethren which Zeniff brought up out of that land.

Mosiah 7:13

Mosiah 7:14

And now it came to pass that after Limhi had heard the words of Ammon, he was exceeding glad and said: Now I know of a surety that my brethren which was in the land of Zarahemla are yet alive. And now I will rejoice, and on the morrow I will cause that my people shall rejoice also.

Mosiah 7:15

For behold, we are in bondage to the Lamanites and are taxed with a tax which is grievous to be borne. And now behold, our brethren will deliver us out of our bondage, or out of the hands of the Lamanites. And we will be their slaves, for it is better that we be slaves to the Nephites than to pay tribute to the king of the Lamanites.

Mosiah 7:16

And now king Limhi commanded his guards that they should no more bind Ammon nor his brethren, but caused that they should go to the hill which was north of Shilom and bring their brethren into the city, that thereby they might eat and drink and rest themselves from the labors of their journey, for they had suffered many things; they had suffered hunger, thirst, and fatigue.

Mosiah 7:17

And now it came to pass on the morrow that king Limhi sent a proclamation among all his people, that thereby they might gather themselves together to the temple to hear the words which he should speak unto them.

Mosiah 7:18

And it came to pass that when they had gathered themselves together that he spake unto them in this wise, saying: O ye my people, lift up your heads and be comforted; for behold, the time is at hand—or is not far distant— when we shall no longer be in subjection to our enemies; notwithstanding our many strugglings which have been in vain, yet I trust there remaineth an effectual struggle to be made.

Mosiah 7:19

Therefore lift up your heads and rejoice and put your trust in God, in that God who was the God of Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, and also that God who brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt and caused that they should walk through the Red Sea on dry ground and fed them with manna that they might not perish in the wilderness; and many more things did he do for them.

Mosiah 7:20

And again, that same God hath brought our fathers out of the land of Jerusalem and hath kept and preserved his people even until now. And behold, it is because of our iniquities and abominations that has brought us into bondage.

Mosiah 7:21

And ye all are witnesses this day that Zeniff, who was made king over this people, he being overzealous to inherit the land of his fathers, therefore being deceived by the cunning and craftiness of king Laman, who having entered into a treaty with king

Zeniff and having yielded up into his hands the possessions of a part of the land, or even the city of Lehi-Nephi and the city of Shilom and the land round about—and all this he done for the sole purpose of bringing this people into subjection or into bondage. And behold, we at this time do pay tribute to the king of the Lamanites to the amount of one half of our corn and our barley, and even all our grain of every kind, and one half of the increase of our flocks and our herds; and even one half of all we have or possess the king of the Lamanites doth exact of us—or our lives.

Mosiah 7:23

And now, is not this grievous to be borne? And is not this our afflictions great? Now behold, how great reason have we to mourn!

Mosiah 7:24

Yea, I say unto you: Great are the reasons which we have to mourn; for behold, how many of our brethren have been slain and their blood hath been spilt in vain— and all because of iniquity!

Mosiah 7:25

For if this people had not fallen into transgression, the Lord would not have suffered that this great evil should come upon them. But behold, they would not hearken unto his words, but there arose contentions among them, even so much that they did shed blood among themselves.

Mosiah 7:26

And a prophet of the Lord have they slain— yea, a chosen man of God who told them of their wickedness and abominations and prophesied of many things which is to come, yea, even the coming of Christ.

Mosiah 7:27

And because he saith unto them that Christ was the God the Father of all things and saith that he should take upon him the image of man and it should be the image after which man was created in the beginning —or in other words, he said that man was created after the image of God and that God should come down among the children of men and take upon him flesh and blood and go forth upon the face of the earth—and now because he said this, they did put him to death. And many more things did they do which brought down the wrath of God upon them. Therefore who wondereth that they are in bondage and that they are smitten with sore afflictions!

Mosiah 7:29

For behold, the Lord hath said: I will not succor my people in the day of their transgression, but I will hedge up their ways, that they prosper not; and their doings shall be as a stumbling block before them.

Mosiah 7:30

And again he saith: If my people shall sow filthiness, they shall reap the chaff thereof in the whirlwind; and the effects thereof is poison.

Mosiah 7:31

And again he saith: If my people shall sow filthiness, they shall reap the east wind, which bringeth immediate destruction.

Mosiah 7:32

And now behold, the promise of the Lord is fulfilled, and ye are smitten and afflicted.

Mosiah 7:33

But if ye will turn to the Lord with full purpose of heart and put your trust in him and serve him with all diligence of mind—and if ye do this, he will, according to his own will and pleasure, deliver you out of bondage.

Mosiah 8

Mosiah 8:1

And it came to pass that after king Limhi had made an end of speaking to his people—for he spake many things unto them, and only a few of them have I written in this book—he told his people all the things concerning their brethren which were in the land of Zarahemla.

Mosiah 8:2

And he caused that Ammon should stand up before the multitude and rehearse unto them all that had happened unto their brethren from the time that Zeniff went up out of the land even until the time that he himself came up out of the land.

Mosiah 8:3

And he also rehearsed unto them the last words which king Benjamin had taught them, and explained them to the people of king Limhi, so that they might understand all the words which he spake.

Mosiah 8:4

And it came to pass that after he had done all this that king Limhi dismissed the multitude and caused that they should return every one unto his own house.

Mosiah 8:5

And it came to pass that he caused that the plates which contained the record of his people from the time that they left the land of Zarahemla should be brought before Ammon, that he might read them.

Mosiah 8:6

Now as soon as Ammon had read the record, the king inquired of him to know if he could interpret languages. And Ammon told him that he could not.

And the king saith unto him: I being grieved for the afflictions of my people, I caused that forty and three of my people should take a journey into the wilderness, that thereby they might find the land of Zarahemla, that we might appeal unto our brethren to deliver us out of bondage.

Mosiah 8:8

And they were lost in the wilderness for the space of many days, yet they were diligent and found not the land of Zarahemla but returned to this land, having traveled in a land among many waters, having discovered a land which was covered with bones of men and of beasts etc., and was also covered with ruins of buildings of every kind, having discovered a land which had been peopled with a people which were as numerous as the hosts of Israel.

And for a testimony that the things that they have said is true, they have brought twenty four plates which are filled with engravings; and they are of pure gold.

Mosiah 8:10

And behold also, they have brought breastplates which are large, and they are of brass and of copper and are perfectly sound.

Mosiah 8:11

And again, they have brought swords; the hilts thereof hath perished and the blades thereof were cankered with rust. And there is no one in the land that is able to interpret the language or the engravings that are on the plates. Therefore I said unto thee: Canst thou translate?

And I say unto thee again: Knowest thou of any one that can translate? For I am desirous that these records should be translated into our language, for perhaps they will give us a knowledge of a remnant of the people which have been destroyed, from whence these records came. Or perhaps they will give us a knowledge of this very people which hath been destroyed. And I am desirous to know the cause of their destruction.

Mosiah 8:13

Now Ammon saith unto him: I can assuredly tell thee, O king, of a man that can translate the records; for he hath wherewith that he can look and translate all records that are of ancient date, and it is a gift from God. And the things are called interpreters, and no man can look in them except he be commanded, lest he should look for that he had not ought and he should perish. And whosoever is commanded to look in them, the same is called seer.

And behold, the king of the people which is in the land of Zarahemla is the man that is commanded to do these things and which hath this high gift from God.

Mosiah 8:15

And the king saith that a seer is greater than a prophet.

Mosiah 8:16

And Ammon saith that a seer is a revelator and a prophet also. And a gift which is greater can no man have except he should possess the power of God, which no man can; yet a man may have great power given him from God.

Mosiah 8:17

But a seer can know of things which has passed, and also of things which is to come; and by them shall all things be revealed—or rather shall secret things be made manifest—and hidden things shall come to light, and things which is not known shall be made known by them, and also things shall be made known by them which otherwise could not be known.

Mosiah 8:18

Thus God hath provided a means that man through faith might work mighty miracles; therefore he becometh a great benefit to his fellow beings.

Mosiah 8:19

And now when Ammon had made an end of speaking these words, the king rejoiced exceedingly and gave thanks to God, saying: Doubtless a great mystery is contained within these plates; and these interpreters was doubtless prepared for the purpose of unfolding all such mysteries to the children of men.

Mosiah 8:20

O how marvelous are the works of the Lord! And how long doth he suffer with his people! Yea, and how blind and impenetrable are the understandings of the children of men, for they will not seek wisdom, neither do they desire that she should rule over them.

Mosiah 8:21

Yea, they are as a wild flock which fleeth from the shepherd and scattereth, and are driven and are devoured by the beasts of the forest.

Mosiah 9

The Record of Zeniff

An account of his people from the time they left the land of Zarahemla until the time that they were delivered out of the hands of the Lamanites.

Mosiah 9:1

I Zeniff having been taught in all the language of the Nephites and having had a knowledge of the land of Nephi, or of the land of our fathers' first inheritance, and I having been sent as a spy among the Lamanites that I might spy out their forces, that our army might come upon them and destroy them—but when I saw that which was good among them, I was desirous that they should not be destroyed.

Mosiah 9:2

Therefore I contended with my brethren in the wilderness, for I would that our ruler should make a treaty with them, but he being an austere and a bloodthirsty man commanded that I should be slain. But I was rescued by the shedding of much blood, for father fought against father and brother against brother until the greatest number of our army was destroyed in the wilderness; and we returned—those of us that were spared—to the land of Zarahemla to relate that tale to their wives and their children.

Mosiah 9:3

And yet I being overzealous to inherit the land of our fathers collected as many as were desirous to go up to possess the land and started again on our journey into the wilderness to go up to the land; but we were smitten with famine and sore affliction, for we were slow to remember the Lord our God.

Mosiah 9:4

Nevertheless, after many days wandering in the wilderness, we pitched our tents in the place where our brethren were slain, which was near to the land of our fathers.

Mosiah 9:5

And it came to pass that I went again with four of my men into the city in unto the king that I might know of the disposition of the king and that I might know if I might go in with my people and possess the land in peace.

Mosiah 9:6

And I went in unto the king and he covenanted with me that I might possess the land of Lehi-Nephi and the land of Shilom.

Mosiah 9:7

And he also commanded that his people should depart out of that land, and I and my people went into the land that we might possess it.

Mosiah 9:8

And we began to build buildings and to repair the walls of the city, yea, even the walls of the city of Lehi-Nephi and the city of Shilom.

Mosiah 9:9

And we began to till the ground, yea, even with all manner of seeds: with seeds of corn and of wheat and of barley and with neas and with sheum and with seeds of all manner of fruits. And we did begin to multiply and prosper in the land.

Mosiah 9:10

Now it was the cunning and the craftiness of king Laman to bring my people into bondage that he yielded up the land that we might possess it.

Mosiah 9:11

Therefore it came to pass that after we had dwelt in the land for the space of twelve years that king Laman began to grow uneasy lest by any means my people should wax strong in the land and that they could not overpower them and bring them into bondage.

Mosiah 9:12

Now they were a lazy and an idolatrous people. Therefore they were desirous to bring us into bondage that they might glut themselves with the labors of our hands, yea, that they might feast themselves upon the flocks of our fields.

Mosiah 9:13

Therefore it came to pass that king Laman began to stir up his people that they should contend with my people; therefore there began to be wars and contentions in the land.

Mosiah 9:14

For in the thirteenth year of my reign in the land of Nephi, away on the south of the land of Shilom, when my people were watering and feeding their flocks and tilling their lands, a numerous host of Lamanites came upon them and began to slay them and to take of their flocks and the corn of their fields.

Mosiah 9:15

Yea, and it came to pass that they fled—all that were not overtaken—even into the city of Nephi and did call upon me for protection.

Mosiah 9:16

And it came to pass that I did arm them with bows and with arrows, with swords and with scimitars and with clubs and with slings, and with all manner of weapons which we could invent. And I and my people did go forth against the Lamanites to battle; yea, in the strength of the Lord did we go forth to battle against the Lamanites. For I and my people did cry mightily to the Lord that he would deliver us out of the hands of our enemies, for we were awakened to a remembrance of the deliverance of our fathers.

Mosiah 9:17

Mosiah 9:18

And God did hear our cries and did answer our prayers, and we did go forth in his might; yea, we did go forth against the Lamanites. And in one day and a night we did slay three thousand and forty three; we did slay them even until we had driven them out of our land.

Mosiah 9:19

And I myself with mine own hands did help bury their dead. And behold, to our great sorrow and lamentation, two hundred and seventy nine of our brethren were slain.

Mosiah 10

And it came to pass that we again began to establish the kingdom, and we again began to possess the land in peace. And I caused that there should be weapons of war made of every kind, that thereby I might have weapons for my people against the time the Lamanites should come up again to war against my people.

Mosiah 10:2

And I sat guards round about the land that the Lamanites might not come upon us again unawares and destroy us. And thus I did guard my people and my flocks and keep them from falling into the hands of our enemies.

Mosiah 10:3

And it came to pass that we did inherit the land of our fathers for many years, yea, for the space of twenty and two years.

Mosiah 10:4

And I did cause that the men should till the ground and raise all manner of grain and all manner of fruit of every kind.

Mosiah 10:5

And I did cause that the women should spin and toil and work all manner of fine linen, yea, and cloth of every kind, that we might clothe our nakedness. And thus we did prosper in the land; thus we did have continual peace in the land for the space of twenty and two years.

Mosiah 10:6

And it came to pass that king Laman died, and his son began to reign in his stead. And he began to stir his people up in rebellion against my people. Therefore they began to prepare for war and to come up to battle against my people, but I having sent my spies out round about the land of Shemlon that I might discover their preparations, that I might guard against them, that they might not come upon my people and destroy them.

Mosiah 10:8

And it came to pass that they came up upon the north of the land of Shilom with their numerous hosts, men armed with bows and with arrows and with swords and with scimitars and with stones and with slings. And they had their heads shaved that they were naked, and they were girded about with a leathern girdle about their loins.

And it came to pass that I caused that the women and children of my people should be hid in the wilderness. And I also caused that all my old men that could bear arms and also all my young men that were able to bear arms should gather themselves together to go to battle against the Lamanites, and I did place them in their ranks every man according to his age.

Mosiah 10:10

And it came to pass that we did go up to battle against the Lamanites; and I, even I in my old age, did go up to battle against the Lamanites. And it came to pass that we did go up in the strength of the Lord to battle.

Mosiah 10:11

Now the Lamanites knew nothing concerning the Lord nor the strength of the Lord; therefore they depended upon their own strength, yet they were a strong people as to the strength of men.

Mosiah 10:12

They were a wild and ferocious and a bloodthirsty people, believing in the tradition of their fathers, which is this: believing that they were driven out of the land of Jerusalem because of the iniquities of their fathers, and that they were wronged in the wilderness by their brethren, and they were also wronged while crossing the sea, and again, that they were wronged while in the land of their first inheritance after they had crossed the sea— and all this because that Nephi was more faithful in keeping the commandments of the Lord; therefore he was favored of the Lord, for the Lord heard his prayers and answered them; and he took the lead of their journey in the wilderness.

Mosiah 10:13

Mosiah 10:14

And his brethren were wroth with him because they understood not the dealings of the Lord. They were also wroth with him upon the waters because they hardened their hearts against the Lord.

Mosiah 10:15

And again, they were wroth with him when they had arrived to the promised land because they said that he had taken the ruling of the people out of their hands; and they sought to kill him.

Mosiah 10:16

And again, they were wroth with him because he departed into the wilderness as the Lord had commanded him and took the records which were engraven on the plates of brass, for they said that he robbed them.

Mosiah 10:17

And thus they have taught their children that they should hate them, and that they should murder them, and that they should rob and plunder them and do all they could to destroy them. Therefore they have an eternal hatred towards the children of Nephi.

Mosiah 10:18

For this very cause hath king Laman by his cunning and lying craftiness and his fair promises hath deceived me, that I have brought this my people up into this land, that they may destroy them; yea, and we have suffered this many years in the land.

Mosiah 10:19

And now I Zeniff, after having told all these things unto my people concerning the Lamanites, I did stimulate them to go to battle with their might, putting their trust in the Lord. Therefore we did contend with them face to face.

Mosiah 10:20

And it came to pass that we did drive them again out of our land; and we slew them with a great slaughter, even so many that we did not number them.

Mosiah 10:21

And it came to pass that we returned again to our own land, and my people again began to tend their flocks and to till their ground.

Mosiah 10:22

And now I being old did confer the kingdom upon one of my sons; therefore I say no more. And may the Lord bless my people! Amen.

Mosiah 11

Mosiah 11:1

And now it came to pass that Zeniff conferred the kingdom upon Noah, one of his sons; therefore Noah began to reign in his stead. And he did not walk in the ways of his father; for behold, he did not keep the commandments of God, but he did walk after the desires of his own heart. And he had many wives and concubines. And he did cause his people to commit sin and do that which was abominable in the sight of the Lord; yea, and they did commit whoredoms and all manner of wickedness.

Mosiah 11:3

And he laid a tax of one fifth part of all they possessed: a fifth part of their gold and of their silver, and a fifth part of their ziff and of their copper and of their brass and their iron, and a fifth part of their fatlings, and also a fifth part of all their grain.

Mosiah 11:4

And all this did he take to support himself and his wives and his concubines, and also his priests and their wives and their concubines. Thus he had changed the affairs of the kingdom, for he put down all the priests that had been consecrated by his father and consecrated new ones in their stead such as were lifted up in the pride of their hearts.

Mosiah 11:5

Mosiah 11:6

Yea, and thus were they supported in their laziness and in their idolatry and in their whoredoms by the taxes which king Noah had put upon his people. Thus did the people labor exceedingly to support iniquity.

Mosiah 11:7

Yea, and they also became idolatrous because they were deceived by the vain and flattering words of the king and priests, for they did speak flattering things unto them.

And it came to pass that king Noah built many elegant and spacious buildings, and he ornamented them with fine work of wood and of all manner of precious things, of gold and of silver and of iron and of brass and of ziff and of copper.

Mosiah 11:9

And he also built him a spacious palace and a throne in the midst thereof, all of which was of fine wood and was ornamented with gold and silver and with precious things.

Mosiah 11:10

And he also caused that his workmen should work all manner of fine work within the walls of the temple, of fine wood and of copper and of brass.

Mosiah 11:11

And the seats which was sat apart for the high priests, which was above all the other seats, he did ornament with pure gold. And he caused a breastwork to be built before them that they might rest their bodies and their arms upon while they should speak lying and vain words to his people.

Mosiah 11:12

And it came to pass that he built a tower near the temple, yea, a very high tower, even so high that he could stand upon the top thereof and overlook the land of Shilom and also the land of Shemlon, which was possessed by the Lamanites; and he could even look over all the land round about.

Mosiah 11:13

And it came to pass that he caused many buildings to be built in the land Shilom. And he caused a great tower to be built on the hill north of the land Shilom, which had been a resort for the children of Nephi at the time they fled out of the land. And thus he did do with the riches which he obtained by the taxation of his people.

Mosiah 11:14

And it came to pass that he placed his heart upon his riches, and he spent his time in riotous living with his wives and his concubines; and so did also his priests spend their time with harlots.

Mosiah 11:15

And it came to pass that he planted vineyards round about in the land, and he built winepresses and made wine in abundance; and therefore he became a winebibber, and also his people.

Mosiah 11:16

And it came to pass that the Lamanites began to come in upon his people, upon small numbers, and to slay them in their fields and while they were tending their flocks.

Mosiah 11:17

And king Noah sent guards round about the land to keep them off, but he did not send a sufficient number; and the Lamanites came upon them and killed them and drove many of their flocks out of the land. Thus the Lamanites began to destroy them and to exercise their hatred upon them.

Mosiah 11:18

And it came to pass that king Noah sent his armies against them; and they were driven back, or they drove them back for a time. Therefore they returned rejoicing in their spoil.

Mosiah 11:19

And now because of this great victory they were lifted up in the pride of their hearts; they did boast in their own strength, saying that their fifty could stand against thousands of the Lamanites. And thus they did boast and did delight in blood and the shedding of the blood of their brethren— and this because of the wickedness of their king and priests.

Mosiah 11:20

And it came to pass that there was a man among them whose name was Abinadi; and he went forth among them and began to prophesy, saying: Behold, thus saith the Lord and thus hath he commanded me, saying: Go forth and say unto this people: Thus saith the Lord: Woe be unto this people, for I have seen their abominations and their wickedness and their whoredoms; and except they repent, I will visit them in mine anger.

Mosiah 11:21

And except they repent and turn to the Lord their God, behold, I will deliver them into the hands of their enemies; yea, and they shall be brought into bondage, and they shall be afflicted by the hand of their enemies.

Mosiah 11:22

And it shall come to pass that they shall know that I am the Lord their God and am a jealous God, visiting the iniquities of my people.

Mosiah 11:23

And it shall come to pass that except this people repent and turn to the Lord their God, they shall be brought into bondage; and none shall deliver them except it be the Lord the Almighty God.

Mosiah 11:24

Yea, and it shall come to pass that when they shall cry unto me, I will be slow to hear their cries. Yea, and I will suffer them that they be smitten by their enemies.

Mosiah 11:25

And except they repent in sackcloth and ashes and cry mightily to the Lord their God, I will not hear their prayers, neither will I deliver them out of their afflictions. And thus saith the Lord and thus hath he commanded me.

Mosiah 11:26

Now it came to pass that when Abinadi had spake these words unto them, they were wroth with him and sought to take away his life; but the Lord delivered him out of their hands.

Mosiah 11:27

Now when king Noah had heard of the words which Abinadi had spake unto the people, he was also wroth and he saith: Who is Abinadi, that I and my people should be judged of him? Or who is the Lord that shall bring upon my people such great affliction?

Mosiah 11:28

I command you to bring Abinadi hither that I may slay him, for he hath said these things that he might stir up my people to anger one with another and to raise contentions among my people; therefore I will slay him.

Mosiah 11:29

Now the eyes of the people were blinded; therefore they hardened their hearts against the words of Abinadi, and they sought from that time forward to take him. And king Noah hardened his heart against the word of the Lord, and he did not repent of his evil doings.

Mosiah 12

Mosiah 12:1

And it came to pass that after the space of two years that Abinadi came among them in disguise, that they knew him not, and began again to prophesy among them, saying: Thus hath the Lord commanded me, saying: Abinadi, go and prophesy unto this my people, for they have hardened their hearts against my words; they have repented not of their evil doings. Therefore I will visit them in my anger; yea, in my fierce anger will I visit them in their iniquities and abominations; yea, woe be unto this generation. And the Lord said unto me: Stretch forth thy hand and prophesy, saying: Thus saith the Lord: It shall come to pass that this generation because of their iniquities shall be brought into bondage and shall be smitten on the cheek, yea, and shall be driven by men and shall be slain. And the vultures of the air and the dogs —yea, and the wild beasts— shall devour their flesh.

Mosiah 12:3

And it shall come to pass that the life of king Noah shall be valued even as a garment in a hot furnace, for he shall know that I am the Lord.

Mosiah 12:4

And it shall come to pass that I will smite this my people with sore afflictions, yea, with famine and with pestilence. And I will cause that they shall howl all the day long.

Mosiah 12:5

Yea, and I will cause that they shall have burdens lashed upon their backs, and they shall be driven before like a dumb ass.

Mosiah 12:6

And it shall come to pass that I will send forth hail among them, and it shall smite them; and they shall also be smitten with the east wind; and insects shall pester their land also and devour their grain; and they shall be smitten with a great pestilence. And all this will I do because of their iniquities and abominations.

Mosiah 12:7

Mosiah 12:8

And it shall come to pass that except they repent, I will utterly destroy them from off the face of the earth. Yet they shall leave a record behind them, and I will preserve them for other nations which shall possess the land. Yea, even this will I do that I may discover the abominations of this people to other nations. And many things did Abinadi prophesy against this people.

Mosiah 12:9

And it came to pass that they were angry with him; and they took him and carried him bound before the king and saith unto the king: Behold, we have brought a man before thee which has prophesied evil concerning thy people and saith that God will destroy them.

Mosiah 12:10

And he also prophesieth evil concerning thy life and saith that thy life shall be as a garment in a furnace of fire.

Mosiah 12:11

And again, he saith that thou shall be as a stalk, even as a dry stalk of the field, which is ran over by the beasts and trodden under foot.

Mosiah 12:12

And again, he saith thou shalt be as the blossoms of a thistle, which when it is fully ripe, if the wind bloweth, it is driven forth upon the face of the land. And he pretendeth the Lord hath spoken it. And he saith all this shall come upon thee except thou repent— and this because of thine iniquities.

Mosiah 12:13

And now, O king, what great evil hast thou done? Or what great sins has thy people committed that we should be condemned of God or judged of this man?

Mosiah 12:14

And now, O king, behold, we are guiltless. And thou, O king, hast not sinned. Therefore this man hath lied concerning you, and he hath prophesied in vain.

Mosiah 12:15

And behold, we are strong; we shall not come into bondage or be taken captive by our enemies. Yea, and thou hast prospered in the land, and thou shalt also prosper.

Mosiah 12:16

Behold, here is the man. We deliver him into thy hands. Thou mayest do with him as seemeth thee good.

Mosiah 12:17

And it came to pass that king Noah caused that Abinadi should be cast into prison. And he commanded that the priests should gather themselves together that he might hold a council with them what he should do with him.

Mosiah 12:18

And it came to pass that they saith unto the king: Bring him hither that we may question him. And the king commanded that he should be brought before them.

Mosiah 12:19

And they began to question him, that they might cross him, that thereby they might have wherewith to accuse him. But he answered them boldly and withstood all their questions —yea, to their astonishment— for he did withstand them in all their questions and did confound them in all their words.

Mosiah 12:20

And it came to pass that one of them saith unto him: What meaneth the words which are written and which have been taught by our fathers, saying:

Mosiah 12:21

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace, that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation, that saith unto Zion: Thy God reigneth!

Mosiah 12:22

Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing. For they shall see eye to eye when the Lord shall bring again Zion.

Mosiah 12:23

Break forth into joy! Sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem! For the Lord hath comforted his people; he hath redeemed Jerusalem.

Mosiah 12:24

The Lord hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

Mosiah 12:25

And now Abinadi saith unto them: Are you priests and pretend to teach this people and to understand the spirit of prophesying, and yet desireth to know of me what these things mean?

Mosiah 12:26

I say unto you: Woe be unto you for perverting the ways of the Lord! For if ye understand these things, ye have not taught them. Therefore ye have perverted the ways of the Lord.

Mosiah 12:27

Ye have not applied your hearts to understanding; therefore ye have not been wise. Therefore what teachest thou this people?

Mosiah 12:28

And they said: We teach the law of Moses.

Mosiah 12:29

And again he saith unto them: If ye teach the law of Moses, why do ye not keep it? Why do ye set your hearts upon riches? Why do ye commit whoredoms and spend your strength with harlots, yea, and cause this people to commit sin, that the Lord hath cause to send me to prophesy against this people? —yea, even a great evil against this people.

Mosiah 12:30

Knowest thou not that I speak the truth? Yea, thou knowest that I speak the truth; and you had ought to tremble before God.

Mosiah 12:31

And it shall come to pass that ye shall be smitten for thine iniquities, for ye have said that ye teach the law of Moses. And what knowest thou concerning the law of Moses? Doth salvation come by the law of Moses? What sayest thou?

Mosiah 12:32

And they answered and said that salvation did come by the law of Moses.

Mosiah 12:33

But now Abinadi saith unto them: I know if ye keep the commandments of God, ye shall be saved— yea, if ye keep the commandments which the Lord delivered unto Moses in the mount of Sinai, saying:

Mosiah 12:34

I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

Mosiah 12:35

Thou shalt have no other God before me.

Mosiah 12:36

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing in the heaven above, or things which is in the earth beneath.

Mosiah 12:37

Now Abinadi saith unto them: Have ye done all this? I say unto you: Nay, ye have not. And have ye taught this people that they should do all these things? I say unto you: Nay, ye have not.

Mosiah 13

Mosiah 13:1

And now when the king had heard these words, he said unto his priests: Away with this fellow and slay him! For what have we to do with him? —for he is mad!

Mosiah 13:2

And they stood forth and attempted to lay their hands on him, but he withstood them and said unto them:

Mosiah 13:3

Touch me not! For God shall smite you if ye lay your hands upon me, for I have not delivered the message which the Lord sent me to deliver, neither have I told you that which ye requested that I should tell. Therefore God will not suffer that I shall be destroyed at this time.

Mosiah 13:4

But I must fulfill the commandments wherewith God hath commanded me. And because I have told you the truth, ye are angry with me. And again, because I have spoken the word of God, ye have judged me that I am mad.

Mosiah 13:5

Now it came to pass after Abinadi had spoken these words that the people of king Noah durst not lay their hands on him, for the Spirit of the Lord was upon him. And his face shone with exceeding luster even as Moses' did while in the mount of Sinai while speaking with the Lord.

Mosiah 13:6

And he spake with power and authority from God. And he continued his words, saying:

Mosiah 13:7

Ye see that ye have not power to slay me. Therefore I finish my message. Yea, and I perceive that it cuts you to your hearts because I tell you the truth concerning your iniquities.

Mosiah 13:8

Yea, and my words fill you with wonder and amazement and with anger.

Mosiah 13:9

But I finish my message, and then it matters not whither I go, if it so be that I am saved.

Mosiah 13:10

But this much I tell you: What you do with me after this shall be as a type and a shadow of things which is to come.

Mosiah 13:11

And now I read unto you the remainder of the commandments of God, for I perceive that they are not written in your hearts. I perceive that ye have studied and taught iniquity the most part of your lives.

Mosiah 13:12

And now ye remember that I said unto you: Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of things which is in heaven above, or which is in the earth beneath, or which is in the water under the earth.

Mosiah 13:13

And again, thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them nor serve them, for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquities of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me, and shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments.

Mosiah 13:14

Mosiah 13:15

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain, for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

Mosiah 13:16

Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy.

Mosiah 13:17

Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work; but the seventh day, the sabbath of the Lord thy God, thou shalt not do any work, thou nor thy son nor thy daughter, thy manservant nor thy maidservant nor thy cattle nor thy stranger that is within thy gates.

Mosiah 13:18

Mosiah 13:19

For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth and the sea and all that in them is; wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day and hallowed it.

Mosiah 13:20

Honor thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Mosiah 13:21

Thou shalt not kill.

Mosiah 13:22

Thou shalt not commit adultery. Thou shalt not steal.

Mosiah 13:23

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

Mosiah 13:24

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house; thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant nor his maidservant nor his ox nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbor's.

Mosiah 13:25

And it came to pass that after Abinadi had made an end of these sayings that he said unto them: Have ye taught this people that they should observe to do all these things, for to keep these commandments?

Mosiah 13:26

I say unto you: Nay. For if ye had, the Lord would not have caused me to come forth and to prophesy evil concerning this people.

Mosiah 13:27

And now ye have said that salvation cometh by the law of Moses. I say unto you that it is expedient that ye should keep the law of Moses as yet; but I say unto you that the time shall come when it shall no more be expedient to keep the law of Moses.

Mosiah 13:28

And moreover I say unto you that salvation doth not come by the law alone. And were it not for the atonement which God himself shall make for the sins and iniquities of his people that they must unavoidably perish, notwithstanding the law of Moses.

Mosiah 13:29

And now I say unto you that it was expedient that there should be a law given to the children of Israel, yea, even a very strict law. For they were a stiffnecked people, quick to do iniquity and slow to remember the Lord their God.

Mosiah 13:30

Therefore there was a law given them, yea, a law of performances and of ordinances, a law which they were to observe strictly from day to day to keep them in remembrance of God and their duty towards him.

Mosiah 13:31

But behold, I say unto you that all these things were types of things to come.

Mosiah 13:32

And now, did they understand the law? I say unto you: Nay, they did not all understand the law— and this because of the hardness of their hearts. For they understood not that there could not any man be saved except it were through the redemption of God.

Mosiah 13:33

For behold, did not Moses prophesy unto them concerning the coming of the Messiah and that God should redeem his people? Yea, and even all the prophets which have prophesied ever since the world began, have they not spoken more or less concerning these things?

Mosiah 13:34

Have they not said that God himself should come down among the children of men and take upon him the form of man and go forth in mighty power upon the face of the earth?

Mosiah 13:35

Yea, and have they not said also that he should bring to pass the resurrection of the dead and that he himself should be oppressed and afflicted?

Mosiah 14

Mosiah 14:1

Yea, even doth not Isaiah say: Who hath believed our report? And to whom is the arm of the Lord revealed?

Mosiah 14:2

For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant and as a root out of dry ground. He hath no form nor comeliness. And when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

Mosiah 14:3

He is despised and rejected of men, a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief. And we hid, as it were, our faces from him. He was despised and we esteemed him not.

Mosiah 14:4

Surely he hath borne our griefs and carried our sorrows. Yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God and afflicted.

Mosiah 14:5

But he was wounded for our transgressions. He was bruised for our iniquities. The chastisement of our peace was upon him, and with his stripes we are healed.

Mosiah 14:6

All we like sheep have gone astray. We have turned every one to his own way. And the Lord hath laid on him the iniquities of us all.

Mosiah 14:7

He was oppressed and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth. He is brought as a lamb to the slaughter; and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he opened not his mouth.

Mosiah 14:8

He was taken from prison and from judgment. And who shall declare his generation? For he was cut off out of the land of the living. For the transgressions of my people was he stricken.

Mosiah 14:9

And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death— because he had done no evil, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

Mosiah 14:10

Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise him. He hath put him to grief. When thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed. He shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the Lord shall prosper in his hand.

Mosiah 14:11

He shall see of the travail of his soul and shall be satisfied. By his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many, for he shall bear their iniquities.

Mosiah 14:12

Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong— because he hath poured out his soul unto death and he was numbered with the transgressors. And he bare the sins of many and made intercession for the transgressors.

Mosiah 15

Mosiah 15:1

And now Abinadi saith unto them: I would that ye should understand that God himself shall come down among the children of men and shall redeem his people.

Mosiah 15:2

And because he dwelleth in flesh, he shall be called the Son of God; and having subjected the flesh to the will of the Father, being the Father and the Son, the Father because he was conceived by the power of God and the Son because of the flesh, thus becoming the Father and Son¹

Mosiah 15:3

Mosiah 15:4

—and they are one God, yea, the very Eternal Father of heaven and of earth—and thus the flesh becoming subject to the spirit,² or the Son to the Father, being one God, suffereth temptation and yieldeth not to the temptation, but suffereth himself to be mocked and scourged and cast out and disowned by his people.

Mosiah 15:6

And after all this and after working many mighty miracles among the children of men, he shall be led —yea, even as Isaiah said, as a sheep before the shearers is dumb, so he opened not his mouth—yea, even so he shall be led, crucified, and slain, the flesh becoming subject even ³unto death, the will of the Son being swallowed up in the will⁴ of the Father.

Mosiah 15:7

Mosiah 15:8

And thus God breaketh the bands of death, having gained the victory over death, giving the Son power to make intercession for the children of men, ¹Compare DC 93:4, which might be an explanation of the same thing. See also DC 93:12–14, especially 14.

²This word is not capitalized in the Yale version, but is in the current version of the BOM. I think this is important and that it should not be capitalized—I don't think it refers to the Holy Spirit or Holy Ghost, but instead to whatever it is that makes Christ have the powers of the Father while dwelling on Earth. It refers to whatever makes a person have a "spiritual body" after the resurrection (DC 88:27).

³For "unto death," see Philippians 2:8,

⁴See (3 Nephi 27:13).

having ascended into heaven, having the bowels of mercy, being filled with compassion toward the children of men, standing betwixt them and justice, having broken the bands of death, having taken upon himself their iniquity and their transgressions, having redeemed them and satisfied the demands of justice.

Mosiah 15:10

And now I say unto you: Who shall declare his generation? Behold, I say unto you that when his soul has been made an offering for sin, he shall see his seed. And now, what say ye? And who shall be his seed?

Mosiah 15:11

Behold, I say unto you that whosoever hath heard the words of the prophets, yea, all the holy prophets which have prophesied concerning the coming of the Lord, I say unto you that all those who hath hearkened unto their words and believed that the Lord would redeem his people and have looked forward to that day for a remission of their sins, I say unto you that these are his seed—or they are heirs of the kingdom of God.

Mosiah 15:12

For these are they whose sins he hath borne; these are they for whom he hath died, to redeem them from their transgressions. And now, are they not his seed?

Mosiah 15:13

Yea, and are not the prophets, every one that has opened his mouth to prophesy that has not fallen into transgression—I mean all the holy prophets ever since the world began—I say unto you that they are his seed.

Mosiah 15:14

And these are they which hath published peace, that hath brought good tidings of good, that hath published salvation, that saith unto Zion: Thy God reigneth!

Mosiah 15:15

And O how beautiful upon the mountains were their feet!

Mosiah 15:16

And again, how beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of those that are still publishing peace!

Mosiah 15:17

And again, how beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of those who shall hereafter publish peace, yea, from this time henceforth and forever!

Mosiah 15:18

And behold, I say unto you: This is not all, for O how beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that is the founder of peace, yea, even the Lord who hath redeemed his people, yea, him who hath granted salvation unto his people.

Mosiah 15:19

For were it not for the redemption which he hath made for his people, which was prepared from the foundation of the world, I say unto you —were it not for this— that all mankind must have perished.

Mosiah 15:20

But behold, the bands of death shall be broken. And the Son reigneth and hath power over the dead; therefore he bringeth to pass the resurrection of the dead.

Mosiah 15:21

And there cometh a resurrection, even a first resurrection, yea, even a resurrection of those that have been and which are and which shall be, even until the resurrection of Christ, for so shall he be called.

Mosiah 15:22

And now the resurrection of all the prophets and all those that have believed in their words —or all those that have kept the commandments of God— these shall come forth in the first resurrection; therefore they are the first resurrection.

Mosiah 15:23

They are raised to dwell with God, who hath redeemed them. Thus they have eternal life through Christ, who hath broken the bands of death.

Mosiah 15:24

And there are those who have part in the first resurrection, and these are they that have died before Christ came, in their ignorance, not having salvation declared unto them. And thus the Lord bringeth about the restoration of these, and they have a part in the first resurrection or hath eternal life, being redeemed by the Lord.

Mosiah 15:25

And little children also hath eternal life.

Mosiah 15:26

But behold and fear and tremble before God —for ye had ought to tremble— for the Lord redeemeth none such that rebelleth against him and dieth in their sins —yea, even all those that have perished in their sins, ever since the world began— that have willfully rebelled against God, that have known the commandments of God and would not keep them. These are they that have no part in the first resurrection.

Mosiah 15:27

Therefore had ye not ought to tremble? For salvation cometh to none such, for the Lord hath redeemed none such. Yea, neither can the Lord redeem such, for he cannot deny himself; for he cannot deny justice when it hath its claim.

Mosiah 15:28

And now I say unto you that the time shall come that the salvation of the Lord shall be declared to every nation, kindred, tongue, and people.

Mosiah 15:29

Yea, Lord, thy watchmen shall lift up their voice; with the voice together shall they sing. For they shall see eye to eye when the Lord shall bring again Zion.

Mosiah 15:30

Break forth into joy! Sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem! For the Lord hath comforted his people; he hath redeemed Jerusalem.

Mosiah 15:31

The Lord hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

Mosiah 16

Mosiah 16:1

And now it came to pass that after Abinadi had spoken these words, he stretched forth his hands and said: The time shall come when all shall see the salvation of the Lord, when every nation, kindred, tongue, and people shall see eye to eye and shall confess before God that his judgments are just.

Mosiah 16:2

And then shall the wicked be cast out, and they shall have cause to howl and weep and wail and gnash their teeth— and this because they would not hearken unto the voice of the Lord. Therefore the Lord redeemeth them not.

Mosiah 16:3

For they are carnal and devilish; and the devil hath power over them, yea, even that old serpent that did beguile our first parents, which was the cause of their fall, which was the cause of all mankind's becoming carnal, sensual, devilish, knowing evil from good, subjecting themselves to the devil.

Mosiah 16:4

Thus all mankind were lost. And behold, they would have been endlessly lost were it not that God redeemed his people from their lost and fallen state.

Mosiah 16:5

But remember that he that persists in his own carnal nature and goes on in the ways of sin and rebellion against God, he remaineth in his fallen state, and the devil hath all power over him. Therefore he is as though there was no redemption made, being an enemy to God; and also is the devil an enemy to God.

Mosiah 16:6

And now if Christ had not come into the world —speaking of things to come as though they had already come— there could have been no redemption.

Mosiah 16:7

And if Christ had not risen from the dead or broken the bands of death—that the grave should have no victory and that death should have no sting— there could have been no resurrection.

Mosiah 16:8

But there is a resurrection. Therefore the grave hath no victory, and the sting of death is swallowed up in Christ.

Mosiah 16:9

He is the light and the life of the world, yea, a light that is endless that can never be darkened; yea, and also a life which is endless, that there can be no more death.

Mosiah 16:10

Even this mortal shall put on immortality, and this corruption shall put on incorruption and shall be brought to stand before the bar of God to be judged of him according to their works, whether they be good or whether they be evil:

Mosiah 16:11

if they be good, to the resurrection of endless life and happiness; and if they be evil, to the resurrection of endless damnation, being delivered up to the devil, who hath subjected them—which is damnation—

Mosiah 16:12

having gone according to their own carnal wills and desires, having never called upon the Lord while the arms of mercy was extended towards them—for the arms of mercy was extended towards them and they would not— they being warned of their iniquities, and yet they would not depart from them. And they were commanded to repent, and yet they would not repent.

Mosiah 16:13

And now had ye not ought to tremble and repent of your sins?—and remember, only in and through Christ ye can be saved.

Mosiah 16:14

Therefore if ye teach the law of Moses, also teach that it is a shadow of those things which are to come.

Mosiah 16:15

Teach them that redemption cometh through Christ the Lord, which is the very Eternal Father. Amen.

Mosiah 17

Mosiah 17:1

And now it came to pass that when Abinadi had finished these sayings that the king commanded that the priests should take him and cause that he should be put to death.

Mosiah 17:2

But there was one among them whose name was Alma, he also being a descendant of Nephi, and he was a young man. And he believed the words which Abinadi had spoken, for he knew concerning the iniquity which Abinadi had testified against them. Therefore he began to plead with the king that he would not be angry with Abinadi but suffer that he might depart in peace.

Mosiah 17:3

But the king was more wroth and caused that Alma should be cast out from among them and sent his servants after him that they might slay him.

Mosiah 17:4

But he fled from before them and hid himself that they found him not. And he being concealed for many days did write all the words which Abinadi had spoken.

Mosiah 17:5

And it came to pass that the king caused that his guards should surround Abinadi and take him; and they bound him and cast him into prison.

Mosiah 17:6

And after three days, having counseled with his priests, he caused that he should again be brought before him.

Mosiah 17:7

And he said unto him: Abinadi, we have found an accusation against thee, and thou art worthy of death.

Mosiah 17:8

For thou hast said that God himself should come down among the children of men. And now for this cause thou shalt be put to death unless thou wilt recall all the words which thou hast spoken evil concerning me and my people.

Mosiah 17:9

Now Abinadi saith unto him: I say unto you: I will not recall the words which I have spoken unto you concerning this people, for they are true. And that ye may know of their surety, I have suffered myself that I have fallen into your hands.

Mosiah 17:10

Yea, and I will suffer even unto death. And I will not recall my words, and they shall stand as a testimony against you. And if ye slay me, ye will shed innocent blood. And this shall also stand as a testimony against you at the last day.

Mosiah 17:11

And now king Noah was about to release him, for he feared his word; for he feared that the judgments of God would come upon him.

Mosiah 17:12

But the priests lifted up their voices against him and began to accuse him, saying: He hath reviled the king! Therefore the king was stirred up in anger against him, and he delivered him up that he might be slain.

Mosiah 17:13

And it came to pass that they took him and bound him and scorched his skin with fagots, yea, even unto death.

Mosiah 17:14

And now when the flames began to scorch him, he cried unto them, saying:

Mosiah 17:15

Behold, even as ye have done unto me, so shall it come to pass that thy seed shall cause that many shall suffer the pains that I do suffer, even the pains of death by fire— and this because they believe in the salvation of the Lord their God.

Mosiah 17:16

And it will come to pass that ye shall be afflicted with all manner of diseases because of your iniquities.

Mosiah 17:17

Yea, and ye shall be smitten on every hand and shall be driven and scattered to and fro, even as a wild flock is driven by wild and ferocious beasts.

Mosiah 17:18

And in that day ye shall be hunted, and ye shall be taken by the hand of your enemies. And then ye shall suffer as I suffer the pains of death by fire.

Mosiah 17:19

Thus God executeth vengeance upon those that destroy his people. O God, receive my soul!

Mosiah 17:20

And now when Abinadi had said these words, he fell, having suffered death by fire, yea, having been put to death because he would not deny the commandments of God, having sealed the truth of his words by his death.

Mosiah 18

Mosiah 18:1

And now it came to pass that Alma, who had fled from the servants of king Noah, repented of his sins and iniquities and went about privately among the people and began to teach the words of Abinadi, yea, concerning that which was to come, and also concerning the resurrection of the dead, and the redemption of the people which was to be brought to pass through the power and sufferings and death of Christ and his resurrection and ascension into heaven.

Mosiah 18:2

Mosiah 18:3

And as many as would hear his word he did teach; and he taught them privately, that it might not come to the knowledge of the king. And many did believe his words.

Mosiah 18:4

And it came to pass that as many as did believe him did go forth to a place which was called Mormon, having received its name from the king, being in the borders of the land, having been infested by times or at seasons by wild beasts.¹

Mosiah 18:5

Now there was in Mormon a fountain of pure water; and Alma resorted thither, there being near the water a thicket of small trees where he did hide himself in the daytime from the searches of the king.

Mosiah 18:6

And it came to pass that as many as believed him went thither to hear his words.

Mosiah 18:7

And it came to pass after many days there were a goodly number gathered together to the place of Mormon to hear the words of Alma; yea, all were gathered together that believed on his word to hear him. And he did teach them and did preach unto them repentance and redemption and faith on the Lord.

And it came to pass that he said unto them: Behold, here is the waters of Mormon, for thus were they called. And now as ye are desirous to come into the fold of God and to be called his people and are willing to bear one another's burdens, that they may be light, yea, and are willing to mourn with those that mourn,² yea, and comfort those that stand in need of comfort, and to stand as witnesses of God at all times and in all things and in all places that ye may be in, even until death, that ye may be redeemed of God and be numbered with those of the first resurrection, that ye may have eternal life—

¹This is the first occurrence of the name "Mormon" in the BOM (there are three occurrences in Words of Mormon, but those happen later in time). In 1843, JS wrote a letter to the editor of the TS which argued that the name "Mormon" means "more good" (see here). His argument seems to be that the word mon in Egyptian (he doesn't say what era of Egyptian, but he mentions the "reformed Egyptian" thing from the BOM) means "good," and then you add the English "more," contracted to "mor," and you get "Mormon," for "more good." This is a bit baffling—he's combining an alleged ancient word with a contemporary English one to give the meaning of a name that appeared on the gold plates. It's a pretty suspect methodology. And there's another reason to think it's wrong. The place names in the BOM often have significance in describing the place they are names of, and we read in this verse and around here that the place of Mormon had a "fountain of pure water" but also may have had infestations of wild animals. It doesn't seem like the kind of place that would be named "more good."

There is a long discussion of the name, and of the letter and its authorship, in the onomasticon. They point out that JS may not have been the author of the letter, although it's certainly the kind of linguistic connection he loved to make.

Hinckley has an interesting conference talk from October 1990 on this topic, called "Mormon Should Mean 'More Good'." There he also discusses the difference between the nickname "Mormon" and the actual name of the church, which Nelson picked up on later.

²See DC 30:6, an item of instruction given to Peter Whitmer: "And be you afflicted in all his afflictions, ever lifting up your heart unto me in prayer and faith, for his and your deliverance." See also Romans 12:15, 2 Corinthians 1:4, now I say unto you, if this be the desires of your hearts, what have you against being baptized in the name of the Lord, as a witness before him that ye have entered into a covenant with him, that ye will serve him and keep his commandments, that he may pour out his Spirit more abundantly upon you?

Mosiah 18:11

And now when the people had heard these words, they clapped their hands for joy and exclaimed: This is the desires of our hearts!

Mosiah 18:12

And now it came to pass that Alma took Helam, he being one of the first, and went and stood forth in the water and cried, saying: O Lord, pour out thy Spirit upon thy servant, that he may do this work with holiness of heart.

Mosiah 18:13

And when he had said these words, the Spirit of the Lord was upon him and he said: Helam, I baptize thee, having authority from the Almighty God, as a testimony that ye have entered into a covenant to serve him until you are dead as to the mortal body; and may the Spirit of the Lord be poured out upon you, and may he grant unto you eternal life through the redemption of Christ, which he hath prepared from the foundation of the world.

Mosiah 18:14

And after Alma had said these words, both Alma and Helam was buried in the water. And they arose and came forth out of the water rejoicing, being filled with the Spirit.

Mosiah 18:15

And again Alma took another and went forth a second time into the water and baptized him according to the first, only he did not bury himself again in the water.

Mosiah 18:16

And after this manner he did baptize every one that went forth to the place of Mormon—and they were in number about two hundred and four souls— yea, and they were baptized in the waters of Mormon and were filled with the grace of God.

Mosiah 18:17

And they were called the church of God, or the church of Christ, from that time forward. And it came to pass that whosoever was baptized by the power and authority of God, they was added to his church.

Mosiah 18:18

And it came to pass that Alma having authority from God ordained priests, even one priest to every fifty of their number did he ordain to preach unto them and to teach them concerning the things pertaining to the kingdom of God.

Mosiah 18:19

And he commanded them that they should teach nothing save it were the things which he had taught and which had been spoken by the mouth of the holy prophets.

Mosiah 18:20

Yea, even he commanded them that they should preach nothing save it were repentance and faith on the Lord, who hath redeemed his people.

Mosiah 18:21

And he commanded them that there should be no contention one with another, but that they should look forward with one eye, having one faith and one baptism, having their hearts knit together in unity and in love one towards another.

Mosiah 18:22

And thus he commanded them to preach. And thus they became the children of God.

Mosiah 18:23

And he commanded them that they should observe the sabbath day and keep it holy, and also every day they should give thanks to the Lord their God.

Mosiah 18:24

And he also commanded them that the priests which he had ordained should labor with their own hands for their support.

Mosiah 18:25

And there was one day in every week that was set apart that they should gather themselves together to teach the people and to worship the Lord their God, and also as often as it was in their power to assemble themselves together.

Mosiah 18:26

And the priests was not to depend upon the people for their support, but for their labor they were to receive the grace of God, that they might wax strong in the Spirit, having the knowledge of God, that they might teach with power and authority from God.

Mosiah 18:27

And again Alma commanded that the people of the church should impart of their substance, every one according to that which he hath: if he have more abundantly, he should impart more abundantly; and he that hath but little, but little should be required; and to him that hath not should be given.

Mosiah 18:28

And thus they should impart of their substance of their own free will and good desires towards God to those priests that stood in need, yea, and to every needy, naked soul.

Mosiah 18:29

And this he said unto them, having been commanded of God. And they did walk uprightly before God, imparting to one another both temporally and spiritually according to their needs and their wants.

Mosiah 18:30

And now it came to pass that all this was done in Mormon, yea, by the waters of Mormon, in the forest that was near the waters of Mormon, yea, the place of Mormon, the waters of Mormon, the forest of Mormon. How beautiful are they to the eyes of them who there came to the knowledge of their Redeemer! Yea, and how blessed are they, for they shall sing to his praise forever.

Mosiah 18:31

And these things were done in the borders of the land that they might not come to the knowledge of the king.

Mosiah 18:32

But behold, it came to pass that the king having discovered a movement among the people sent his servants to watch them. Therefore on the day that they were assembling themselves together to hear the word of the Lord, they were discovered unto the king.

Mosiah 18:33

And now the king saith that Alma was a stirring up the people to a rebellion against him. Therefore he sent his army to destroy them.

Mosiah 18:34

And it came to pass that Alma and the people of the Lord were apprised of the coming of the king's army. Therefore they took their tents and their families and departed into the wilderness.

Mosiah 18:35

And they were in number about four hundred and fifty souls.

Mosiah 19

Mosiah 19:1

And it came to pass that the army of the king returned, having searched in vain for the people of the Lord.

Mosiah 19:2

And now behold, the forces of the king were small, having been reduced. And there began to be a division among the remainder of the people.

Mosiah 19:3

And the lesser part began to breathe out threatenings against the king, and there began to be a great contention among them.

Mosiah 19:4

And now there was a man among them whose name was Gideon. And he being a strong man and an enemy to the king, therefore he drew his sword and swore in his wrath that he would slay the king.

Mosiah 19:5

And it came to pass that he fought with the king. And when the king saw that he was about to overpower him, he fled and ran and got upon the tower which was near the temple.

Mosiah 19:6

And Gideon pursued after him and was about to get upon the tower to slay the king. And the king cast his eyes round about towards the land of Shemlon— and behold, the army of the Lamanites were within the borders of the land!

Mosiah 19:7

And now the king cried out in the anguish of his soul, saying: Gideon, spare me! For the Lamanites are upon us and they will destroy them— yea, they will destroy my people.

Mosiah 19:8

And now the king was not so much concerned about his people as he was about his own life. Nevertheless Gideon did spare his life.

Mosiah 19:9

And the king commanded the people that they should flee before the Lamanites, and he himself did go before them. And they did flee into the wilderness with their women and their children.

Mosiah 19:10

And it came to pass that the Lamanites did pursue them and did overtake them and began to slay them.

Mosiah 19:11

Now it came to pass that the king commanded them that all the men should leave their wives and their children and flee before the Lamanites.

Mosiah 19:12

Now there were many that would not leave them but had rather stay and perish with them. And the rest left their wives and their children and fled.

Mosiah 19:13

And it came to pass that those that tarried with their wives and their children caused that their fair daughters should stand forth and plead with the Lamanites that they would not slay them.

Mosiah 19:14

And it came to pass that the Lamanites had compassion on them, for they were charmed with the beauty of their women.

Mosiah 19:15

Therefore the Lamanites did spare their lives and took them captives and carried them back to the land of Nephi and granted unto them that they might possess the land under the conditions that they would deliver up the king Noah into the hands of the Lamanites and deliver up their property, even one half of all they possessed: one half of their gold and their silver and all their precious things. And thus they should pay tribute to the king of the Lamanites from year to year.

Mosiah 19:16

And now there was one of the sons of the king among those that was taken captive whose name was Limhi.

Mosiah 19:17

And now Limhi was desirous that his father should not be destroyed. Nevertheless Limhi was not ignorant of the iniquities of his father, he himself being a just man.

Mosiah 19:18

And it came to pass that Gideon sent men into the wilderness secretly to search for the king and those that was with him. And it came to pass that they met the people in the wilderness, all save the king and his priests.

Mosiah 19:19

Now they had sworn in their hearts that they would return to the land of Nephi; and if their wives and their children were slain, and also those that had tarried with them, that they would seek revenge and also perish with them.

Mosiah 19:20

And the king commanded them that they should not return, and they were angry with the king and caused that he should suffer even unto death by fire.

Mosiah 19:21

And they were about to take the priests also to put them to death, and they fled before them.

Mosiah 19:22

And it came to pass that they were about to return to the land of Nephi, and they met the men of Gideon. And the men of Gideon told them of all that had happened to their wives and their children and that the Lamanites had granted unto them that they might possess the land by paying a tribute to the Lamanites of one half of all they possessed.

Mosiah 19:23

And the people told the men of Gideon that they had slain the king, and his priests had fled from them farther into the wilderness.

Mosiah 19:24

And it came to pass that after they had ended the sermon that they returned to the land of Nephi, rejoicing because their wives and their children were not slain; and they told Gideon what they had done to the king.

Mosiah 19:25

And it came to pass that the king of the Lamanites made an oath unto them that his people should not slay them.

Mosiah 19:26

And also Limhi, being the son of the king, having the kingdom conferred upon him by the people, made oath unto the king of the Lamanites that his people should pay tribute unto him, even one half of all they possessed.

Mosiah 19:27

And it came to pass that Limhi began to establish the kingdom and to establish peace among his people.

Mosiah 19:28

And the king of the Lamanites set guards round about the land, that he might keep the people of Limhi in the land, that they might not depart into the wilderness. And he did support his guards out of the tribute which he did receive from the Nephites.

Mosiah 19:29

And now king Limhi did have continual peace in his kingdom for the space of two years, that the Lamanites did not molest them nor seek to destroy them.

Mosiah 20

Mosiah 20:1

Now there was a place in Shemlon where the daughters of the Lamanites did gather themselves together for to sing and to dance and to make themselves merry.

Mosiah 20:2

And it came to pass that there was one day a small number of them gathered together to sing and to dance.

Mosiah 20:3

And now the priests of king Noah being ashamed to return to the city of Nephi, yea, and also fearing that the people would slay them, therefore they durst not return to their wives and their children.

Mosiah 20:4

And having tarried in the wilderness and having discovered the daughters of the Lamanites, they laid and watched them.

Mosiah 20:5

And when there were but few of them gathered together to dance, they came forth out of their secret places and took them and carried them into the wilderness, yea, twenty and four of the daughters of the Lamanites they carried into the wilderness.

Mosiah 20:6

And it came to pass that when the Lamanites found that their daughters had been missing, they were angry with the people of Limhi; for they thought it was the people of Limhi.

Mosiah 20:7

Therefore they sent their armies forth —yea, even the king himself went before his people— and they went up to the land of Nephi to destroy the people of Limhi.

Mosiah 20:8

And now Limhi had discovered them from the tower, even all their preparations for war did he discover. Therefore he gathered his people together and laid wait for them in the fields and in the forests.

Mosiah 20:9

And it came to pass that when the Lamanites had come up that the people of Limhi began to fall upon them from their waiting places and began to slay them.

Mosiah 20:10

And it came to pass that the battle became exceeding sore, for they fought like lions for their prey.

Mosiah 20:11

And it came to pass that the people of Limhi began to drive the Lamanites before them. Yet they were not half so numerous as the Lamanites, but they fought for their lives and for their wives and for their children. Therefore they exerted themselves and like dragons did they fight.

Mosiah 20:12

And it came to pass that they found the king of the Lamanites among the number of their dead, yet he was not dead, having been wounded and left upon the ground, so speedy was the flight of his people.

Mosiah 20:13

And they took him and bound up his wounds and brought him before Limhi and said: Behold, here is the king of the Lamanites; he having received a wound hath fallen among their dead, and they have left him. And behold, we have brought him before you. And now let us slay him!

Mosiah 20:14

But Limhi saith unto them: Ye shall not slay him but bring him hither that I may see him. And they brought him, and Limhi saith unto him: What cause have ye to come up to war against my people? Behold, my people have not broken the oath that I made unto you. Therefore why should ye break the oath which ye made unto my people?

Mosiah 20:15

And now the king said: I have broken the oath because thy people did carry away the daughters of my people. Therefore in my anger I did cause my people to come up to war against thy people.

Mosiah 20:16

Now Limhi had heard nothing concerning this matter. Therefore he saith: I will search among my people; and whosoever hath done this thing shall perish. Therefore he caused a search to be made among his people.

Mosiah 20:17

Now when Gideon had heard these things, he being the king's captain, he went forth and said unto the king: I pray thee forbear and do not search this people; and lay not this thing to their charge.

Mosiah 20:18

For do ye not remember the priests of thy father, which this people sought to destroy? And are they not in the wilderness? And is it not they which have stolen the daughters of the Lamanites?

Mosiah 20:19

And now behold and tell the king of these things, that he may tell his people, that they may be pacified towards us. For behold, they are already preparing to come against us. And behold also, there are but few of us.

Mosiah 20:20

And behold, they come with their numerous hosts; and except the king doth pacify them towards us, we must perish.

Mosiah 20:21

For are not the words of Abinadi fulfilled which he prophesied against us— and all this because we would not hearken unto the word of the Lord and turn from our iniquities?

Mosiah 20:22

And now let us pacify the king, and we fulfill the oath which we have made unto him. For it is better that we should be in bondage than that we should lose our lives. Therefore let us put a stop to the shedding of so much blood.

Mosiah 20:23

And now Limhi told the king all the things concerning his father and the priests that had fled into the wilderness and attributed the carrying away of their daughters to them.

Mosiah 20:24

And it came to pass that the king was pacified towards his people, and he said unto them: Let us go forth to meet my people without arms; and I swear unto you with an oath that my people shall not slay thy people.

Mosiah 20:25

And it came to pass that they followed the king and went forth without arms to meet the Lamanites. And it came to pass that they did meet the Lamanites, and the king of the Lamanites did bow himself down before them and did plead in behalf of the people of Limhi.

Mosiah 20:26

And when the Lamanites saw the people of Limhi, that they were without arms, that they had compassion on them and were pacified towards them and returned with their king in peace to their own land.

Mosiah 21

Mosiah 21:1

And it came to pass that Limhi and his people returned to the city of Nephi and began to dwell in the land again in peace.

Mosiah 21:2

And it came to pass that after many days the Lamanites began again to be stirred up in anger against the Nephites, and they began to come into the borders of the land round about.

Mosiah 21:3

Now they durst not slay them because of the oath which their king had made unto Limhi, but they would smite them on their cheeks and exercise authority over them and began to put heavy burdens upon their backs and drive them as they would a dumb ass.

Mosiah 21:4

Yea, all this was done that the word of the Lord might be fulfilled.

Mosiah 21:5

And now the afflictions of the Nephites was great. And there was no way that they could deliver themselves out of their hands, for the Lamanites had surrounded them on every side.

Mosiah 21:6

And it came to pass that the people began to murmur with the king because of their afflictions. And they began to be desirous to go against them to battle, and they did afflict the king sorely with their complaints. Therefore he granted unto them that they should do according to their desires.

Mosiah 21:7

And they gathered themselves together again and put on their armor and went forth against the Lamanites to drive them out of their land.

Mosiah 21:8

And it came to pass that the Lamanites did beat them and drove them back and slew many of them.

Mosiah 21:9

And now there was a great mourning and lamentation among the people of Limhi, the widow a mourning for her husband, the son and the daughter a mourning for their father, and the brothers for their brethren.

Mosiah 21:10

Now there were a great many widows in the land, and they did cry mightily from day to day, for a great fear of the Lamanites had come upon them.

Mosiah 21:11

And it came to pass that their continual cries did stir up the remainder of the people of Limhi to anger against the Lamanites. And they went again to battle, but they were driven back again, suffering much loss.

Mosiah 21:12

Yea, they went again, even the third time, and suffered in the like manner. And those that were not slain returned again to the city of Nephi.

Mosiah 21:13

And they did humble themselves even to the dust, subjecting themselves to the yoke of bondage, submitting themselves to be smitten and to be driven to and fro and burdened according to the desires of their enemies.

Mosiah 21:14

And they did humble themselves even in the depths of humility. And they did cry mightily to God, yea, even all the day long did they cry unto their God that he would deliver them out of their afflictions.

Mosiah 21:15

And now the Lord was slow to hear their cry because of their iniquities. Nevertheless the Lord did hear their cries and began to soften the hearts of the Lamanites, that they began to ease their burdens. Yet the Lord did not see fit to deliver them out of bondage.

Mosiah 21:16

And it came to pass that they began to prosper by degrees in the land and began to raise grain more abundantly and flocks and herds, that they did not suffer with hunger.

Mosiah 21:17

Now there was a great number of women, more than there was of men. Therefore king Limhi commanded that every man should impart to the support of the widows and their children, that they might not perish with hunger. And this they did because of the greatness of their number that had been slain.

Mosiah 21:18

Now the people of Limhi kept together in a body as much as it was possible to secure their grain and their flocks.

Mosiah 21:19

And the king himself did not trust his person without the walls of the city unless he took his guards with him, fearing that he might by some means fall into the hands of the Lamanites.

Mosiah 21:20

And he caused that his people should watch the land round about, that by some means they might take those priests that fled into the wilderness, which had stolen the daughters of the Lamanites, and that had caused such a great destruction to come upon them.

Mosiah 21:21

For they were desirous to take them that they might punish them, for they had come into the land of Nephi by night and carried off of their grain and many of their precious things. Therefore they laid wait for them.

Mosiah 21:22

And it came to pass that there was no more disturbance between the Lamanites and the people of Limhi, even until the time that Ammon and his brethren came into the land.

Mosiah 21:23

And the king having been without the gates of the city with his guard, he discovered Ammon and his brethren; and supposing them to be priests of Noah, therefore he caused that they should be taken and bound and cast into prison. And had they been the priests of Noah, he would have caused that they should be put to death.

Mosiah 21:24

But when he found that they were not, but that they were his brethren and had come from the land of Zarahemla, he was filled with exceeding great joy.

Mosiah 21:25

Now king Limhi had sent previous to the coming of Ammon a small number of men to search for the land of Zarahemla, but they could not find it; and they were lost in the wilderness.

Mosiah 21:26

Nevertheless they did find a land which had been peopled, yea, a land which was covered with dry bones, yea, a land which had been peopled and which had been destroyed. And they having supposed it to be the land of Zarahemla returned to the land of Nephi, having arrived in the borders of the land not many days before the coming of Ammon.

Mosiah 21:27

And they brought a record with them, even a record of the people whose bones they had found; and they were engraven on plates of ore.

Mosiah 21:28

And now Limhi was again filled with joy on learning from the mouth of Ammon that king Benjamin had a gift from God whereby he could interpret such engravings yea, and Ammon also did rejoice.

Mosiah 21:29

Yet Ammon and his brethren were filled with sorrow because so many of his brethren had been slain, and also that king Noah and his priests had caused the people to commit so many sins and iniquities against God. And they also did mourn for the death of Abinadi and also for the departure of Alma and the people that went with him, who had formed a church of God through the strength and power of God and faith on the words which had been spoken by Abinadi.

Mosiah 21:31

Yea, they did mourn for their departure, for they knew not whither they had fled. Now they would have gladly joined with them, for they themselves had entered into a covenant with God to serve him and keep his commandments.

Mosiah 21:32

And now since the coming of Ammon, king Limhi had also entered into a covenant with God, and also many of his people, to serve him and keep his commandments.

Mosiah 21:33

And it came to pass that king Limhi and many of his people was desirous to be baptized, but there was none in the land that had authority from God. And Ammon declined doing this thing, considering himself an unworthy servant.

Mosiah 21:34

Therefore they did not at that time form themselves into a church, waiting upon the Spirit of the Lord. Now they were desirous to become even as Alma and his brethren, which had fled into the wilderness.

Mosiah 21:35

They were desirous to be baptized as a witness and a testimony that they were willing to serve God with all their hearts. Nevertheless they did prolong the time; and an account of their baptism shall be given hereafter.

Mosiah 21:36

And now all the study of Ammon and his people and king Limhi and his people was to deliver themselves out of the hands of the Lamanites and from bondage.

Mosiah 22

Mosiah 22:1

And now it came to pass that Ammon and king Limhi began to consult with the people how they should deliver themselves out of bondage. And even they did cause that all the people should gather themselves together; and this they did that they might have the voice of the people concerning the matter.

Mosiah 22:2

And it came to pass that they could find no way to deliver themselves out of bondage except it were to take their women and children and their flocks and their herds and their tents and depart into the wilderness, for the Lamanites being so numerous that it was impossible for the people of Limhi to contend with them, thinking to deliver themselves out of bondage by the sword.

Mosiah 22:3

Now it came to pass that Gideon went forth and stood before the king and said unto him: Now, O king, thou hast hitherto hearkened unto my words many times when we have been contending with our brethren the Lamanites.

Mosiah 22:4

And now, O king, if thou hast not found me to be an unprofitable servant, or if thou hast hitherto listened to my words in any degree and they have been of service to thee, even so I desire that thou wouldst listen to my words at this time; and I will be thy servant and deliver this people out of bondage.

Mosiah 22:5

And the king granted unto him that he might speak, and Gideon saith unto him:

Mosiah 22:6

Behold the back pass through the back wall on the back side of the city. The Lamanites, or the guards of the Lamanites, by night are drunken. Therefore let us send a proclamation among all this people that they gather together their flocks and herds, that they may drive them into the wilderness by night.

Mosiah 22:7

And I will go according to thy command and pay the last tribute of wine to the Lamanites, and they will be drunken; and we will pass through the secret pass on the left of their camp when they are drunken and asleep.

Mosiah 22:8

Thus we will depart with our women and our children, our flocks and our herds, into the wilderness; and we will travel around the land of Shilom.

Mosiah 22:9

And it came to pass that the king hearkened unto the words of Gideon.

Mosiah 22:10

And it came to pass that king Limhi caused that his people should gather their flocks together. And he sent the tribute of wine to the Lamanites; and he also sent more wine as a present unto them, and they did drink freely of the wine which king Limhi did send unto them.

Mosiah 22:11

And it came to pass that the people of king Limhi did depart by night into the wilderness with their flocks and their herds. And they went round about the land of Shilom in the wilderness and bent their course towards the land of Zarahemla, being led by Ammon and his brethren.

Mosiah 22:12

And they had taken all their gold and silver and their precious things which they could carry, and also their provisions, with them into the wilderness, and they pursued their journey.

Mosiah 22:13

And after being many days in the wilderness, they arrived in the land of Zarahemla, and joined his people and became his subjects.

Mosiah 22:14

And it came to pass that Mosiah received them with joy, and he also received their records and also the records which had been found by the people of Limhi.

Mosiah 22:15

And now it came to pass when the Lamanites had found that the people of Limhi had departed out of the land by night that they sent an army into the wilderness to pursue them.

Mosiah 22:16

And after they had pursued them two days, they could no longer follow their tracks; therefore they were lost in the wilderness.

Mosiah 23

An account of Alma and the people of the Lord, which was driven into the wilderness by the people of king Noah.

Mosiah 23:1

Now Alma having been warned of the Lord that the armies of king Noah would come upon them and had made it known to his people, therefore they gathered together their flocks and took of their grain and departed into the wilderness before the armies of king Noah.

Mosiah 23:2

And the Lord did strengthen them, that the people of king Noah could not overtake them to destroy them.

Mosiah 23:3

And it came to pass that they fled eight days' journey into the wilderness;

Mosiah 23:4

and they came to a land, yea, even a very beautiful and pleasant land, a land of pure water.

Mosiah 23:5

And it came to pass that they pitched their tents and began to till the ground and began to build buildings etc.; yea, they were industrious and did labor exceedingly.

Mosiah 23:6

And it came to pass that the people were desirous that Alma should be their king, for he was beloved by his people.

Mosiah 23:7

But he saith unto them: Behold, it is not expedient that we should have a king, for thus saith the Lord: Ye shall not esteem one flesh above another, or one man shall not think himself above another. Therefore I say unto you: It is not expedient that ye should have a king; nevertheless, if it were possible that ye could always have just men to be your kings, it would be well for you to have a king—but remember the iniquity of king Noah and his priests. And I myself was caught in a snare and did many things which was abominable in the sight of the Lord, which caused me sore repentance.

Mosiah 23:9

Mosiah 23:10

Nevertheless, after much tribulation the Lord did hear my cries and did answer my prayers and hath made me an instrument in his hands in bringing so many of you to a knowledge of his truth.

Mosiah 23:11

Nevertheless in this I do not glory, for I am unworthy to glory of myself.

Mosiah 23:12

And now I say unto you: As you have been oppressed by king Noah and have been in bondage to him and his priests and have been brought into iniquity by them, therefore ye were bound with the bands of iniquity.

Mosiah 23:13

And now as ye have been delivered by the power of God out of these bonds, yea, even out of the hands of king Noah and his people, and also from the bonds of iniquity, even so I desire that ye should stand fast in this liberty wherewith ye have been made free and that ye trust no man to be a king over you—and also trusting no one to be your teachers nor your ministers except he be a man of God, walking in his ways and keeping his commandments.

Mosiah 23:14

Mosiah 23:15

Thus did Alma teach his people, that every man should love his neighbor as himself, that there should be no contention among them.

Mosiah 23:16

And now Alma was their high priest, he being the founder of their church.

Mosiah 23:17

And it came to pass that none received authority to preach or to teach except it were by him from God; therefore he consecrated all their priests and all their teachers, and none were consecrated except it were just men.

Mosiah 23:18

Therefore they did watch over their people and did nourish them with things pertaining to righteousness.

Mosiah 23:19

And it came to pass that they began to prosper exceedingly in the land, and they called the land Helam.

Mosiah 23:20

And it came to pass that they did multiply and prosper exceedingly in the land of Helam. And they built a city which they called the city of Helam.

Mosiah 23:21

Nevertheless the Lord seeth fit to chasten his people; yea, he trieth their patience and their faith.

Mosiah 23:22

Nevertheless, whosoever putteth his trust in him, the same shall be lifted up at the last day; yea, and thus it was with this people.

Mosiah 23:23

For behold, I will shew unto you that they were brought into bondage, and none could deliver them but the Lord their God, yea, even the God of Abraham and of Isaac and of Jacob.

Mosiah 23:24

And it came to pass that he did deliver them; and he did shew forth his mighty power unto them, and great was their rejoicings.

Mosiah 23:25

For behold, it came to pass that while they were in the land of Helam, yea, in the city of Helam, while tilling the land round about, behold, an army of the Lamanites were in the borders of the land.

Mosiah 23:26

Now it came to pass that the brethren of Alma fled from their fields and gathered themselves together into the city of Helam, and they were much frightened because of the appearance of the Lamanites.

Mosiah 23:27

But Alma went forth and stood among them and exhorted them that they should not be frightened, but that they should remember the Lord their God and he would deliver them.

Mosiah 23:28

Therefore they hushed their fears and began to cry unto the Lord that he would soften the hearts of the Lamanites, that they would spare them and their wives and children.

Mosiah 23:29

And it came to pass that the Lord did soften the hearts of the Lamanites. And Alma and his brethren went forth and delivered themselves up into their hands, and the Lamanites took possession of the land of Helam.

Mosiah 23:30

Now the armies of the Lamanites, which had followed after the people of king Limhi, had been lost in the wilderness for many days.

Mosiah 23:31

And behold, they had found those priests of king Noah in a place which they called Amulon, and they had begun to possess the land of Amulon and had begun to till the ground.

Mosiah 23:32

Now the name of the leader of those priests was Amulon.

Mosiah 23:33

And it came to pass that Amulon did plead with the Lamanites, and he also sent forth their wives, which was the daughters of the Lamanites, to plead with their brethren that they should not destroy their husbands.

Mosiah 23:34

And it came to pass that the Lamanites had compassion on Amulon and his brethren and did not destroy them because of their wives.

Mosiah 23:35

And Amulon and his brethren did join the Lamanites, and they were traveling in the wilderness in search of the land of Nephi when they discovered the land of Helam, which was possessed by Alma and his brethren.

Mosiah 23:36

And it came to pass that the Lamanites promised unto Alma and his brethren that if they would shew them the way which led to the land of Nephi that they would grant unto them their lives and their liberty.

Mosiah 23:37

But it came to pass that after Alma had shewn them the way that led to the land of Nephi, the Lamanites would not keep their promise, but they set guards round about the land of Helam over Alma and his brethren.

Mosiah 23:38

And the remainder of them went to the land of Nephi; and a part of them returned to the land of Helam and also brought with them the wives and the children of the guards which had been left in the land.

Mosiah 23:39

And the king of the Lamanites had granted unto Amulon that he should be a king and a ruler over his people which was in the land of Helam; nevertheless he should have no power to do any thing contrary to the will of the king of the Lamanites.

Mosiah 24

Mosiah 24:1

And it came to pass that Amulon did gain favor in the eyes of the king of the Lamanites; therefore the king of the Lamanites granted unto him and his brethren that they should be appointed teachers over his people, yea, even over the people which was in the land of Shemlon and the land of Shilom, and in the land of Amulon.

Mosiah 24:2

For the Lamanites had taken possession of all these lands; therefore the king of the Lamanites had appointed kings over all these lands.

Mosiah 24:3

And now the name of the king of the Lamanites was Laman, being called after the name of his father; and therefore he was called king Laman. And he was king over a numerous people.

Mosiah 24:4

And he appointed teachers of the brethren of Amulon in every land which was possessed by his people. And thus the language of Nephi began to be taught among all the people of the Lamanites.

Mosiah 24:5

And they were a people friendly one with another. Nevertheless they knew not God; neither did the brethren of Amulon teach them any thing concerning the Lord their God, neither the law of Moses, nor did they teach them the words of Abinadi.

Mosiah 24:6

But they taught them that they should keep their record and that they might write one to another.

Mosiah 24:7

And thus the Lamanites began to increase in riches and began to trade one with another and wax great and began to be a cunning and a wise people as to the wisdom of the world, yea, a very cunning people, delighting in all manner of wickedness and plunder, except it were among their own brethren.

Mosiah 24:8

And now it came to pass that Amulon began to exercise authority over Alma and his brethren and began to persecute him and cause that his children should persecute their children.

Mosiah 24:9

For Amulon knew Alma, that he had been one of the king's priests and that it was he that believed the words of Abinadi and was driven out before the king, and therefore he was wroth with him; for he was subject to king Laman, yet he exercised authority over them and put tasks upon them and put taskmasters over them.

Mosiah 24:10

And it came to pass that so great was their afflictions that they began to cry mightily to God.

Mosiah 24:11

And it came to pass that Amulon commanded them that they should stop their cries and put guards over them to watch them, that whosoever should be found calling upon God should be put to death.

Mosiah 24:12

And it came to pass that Alma and his people did not raise their voices to the Lord their God but did pour out their hearts to him; and he did know the thoughts of their hearts.

Mosiah 24:13

And it came to pass that the voice of the Lord came to them in their afflictions, saying: Lift up your heads and be of good comfort, for I know of the covenant which ye have made unto me. And I will covenant with this my people and deliver them out of bondage.

Mosiah 24:14

And I will also ease the burdens which is put upon your shoulders, that even you cannot feel them upon your backs, even while you are in bondage. And this will I do that ye may stand as witnesses for me hereafter, and that ye may know of a surety that I the Lord God do visit my people in their afflictions.

Mosiah 24:15

And now it came to pass that the burdens which was laid upon Alma and his brethren were made light; yea, the Lord did strengthen them that they could bear up their burdens with ease, and they did submit cheerfully and with patience to all the will of the Lord.

Mosiah 24:16

And it came to pass that so great was their faith and their patience that the voice of the Lord came unto them again, saying: Be of good comfort, for on the morrow I will deliver thee out of bondage.

Mosiah 24:17

And he saith unto Alma: Thou shalt go before this people, and I will go with thee and deliver this people out of bondage.

Mosiah 24:18

Now it came to pass that Alma and his people in the nighttime gathered their flocks together and also of their grain, yea, even all the nighttime were they gathering their flocks together.

Mosiah 24:19

And in the morning the Lord caused a deep sleep to come upon the Lamanites; yea, and all their taskmasters were in a profound sleep.

Mosiah 24:20

And it came to pass that Alma and his people departed into the wilderness. And when they had traveled all day, they pitched their tents in a valley; and they called the name of the valley Alma because he led their way in the wilderness.

Mosiah 24:21

Yea, and in the valley of Alma they poured out their thanks to God because he had been merciful unto them and eased their burdens and had delivered them out of bondage; for they were in bondage and none could deliver them except it were the Lord their God.

Mosiah 24:22

And they gave thanks to God; yea, all their men and all their women and all their children that could speak lifted their voices in the praises of their God.

Mosiah 24:23

And now the Lord said unto Alma: Haste thee and get thou and this people out of this land, for the Lamanites have awoken and doth pursue thee. Therefore get thee out of this land; and I will stop the Lamanites in this valley, that they come no further in pursuit of this people.

Mosiah 24:24

And it came to pass that they departed out of the valley and took their journey into the wilderness.

Mosiah 24:25

And it came to pass that after they had been in the wilderness twelve days, they arrived to the land of Zarahemla; and king Mosiah did also receive them with joy.

Mosiah 25

Mosiah 25:1

And now king Mosiah caused that all the people should be gathered together.

Mosiah 25:2

Now there were not so many of the children of Nephi, or so many of those which were descendants of Nephi, as there were of the people of Zarahemla, which was a descendant of Muloch and those which came with him into the wilderness.

Mosiah 25:3

And there were not so many of the people of Nephi and of the people of Zarahemla as there was of the Lamanites; yea, they were not half so numerous.

Mosiah 25:4

And now all the people of Nephi was assembled together, and also all the people of Zarahemla; and they were gathered together in two bodies.

Mosiah 25:5

And it came to pass that Mosiah did read and caused to be read the records of Zeniff to his people; yea, he read the records of the people of Zeniff from the time they left the land of Zarahemla until the time they returned again.

Mosiah 25:6

And he also read the account of Alma and his brethren and all their afflictions. And he also read the account of Ammon and his brethren and all their afflictions from the time they left the land of Zarahemla until the time they returned again.

Mosiah 25:7

And now when Mosiah had made an end of reading the records, his people which tarried in the land was struck with wonder and amazement, for they knew not what to think. For when they beheld those that had been delivered out of bondage, they were filled with exceeding great joy.

Mosiah 25:8

Mosiah 25:9

And again, when they thought of their brethren which had been slain by the Lamanites, they were filled with sorrow and even shed many tears of sorrow.

Mosiah 25:10

And again, when they thought of the immediate¹ goodness of God and his power in delivering Alma and his brethren out of the hands of the Lamanites and of bondage, they did raise their voices and gave thanks to God.

Mosiah 25:11

And again, when they thought upon the Lamanites, which was their brethren, of their sinful and polluted state, they were filled with pain and anguish for the welfare of their souls.

Mosiah 25:12

And it came to pass that when those which were the children of Amulon and his brethren, which had taken to wife the daughters of the Lamanites—they were displeased with the conduct of their fathers and they would no longer be called by the names of their fathers—therefore they took upon themselves the name of Nephi, that they might be called the children of Nephi and be numbered among those which were called Nephites.

Mosiah 25:13

And now all the people of Zarahemla were numbered with the Nephites— and this because the kingdom had been conferred upon none but those which were descendants of Nephi.

Mosiah 25:14

And now it came to pass that when Mosiah had made an end of speaking and reading to the people, he desired that Alma should also speak to the people.

Mosiah 25:15

And it came to pass that Alma did speak unto them when they were assembled together in large bodies; and he went from one body to another, preaching unto the people repentance and faith on the Lord.

¹See also Mosiah 25:10, which looks like a use of “immediate” that’s more clearly the “acting without a medium” way of using the word. See Mosiah 2:24.

Mosiah 25:16

And he did exhort the people of Limhi and his brethren—all those that had been delivered out of bondage—that they should remember that it was the Lord that did deliver them.

Mosiah 25:17

And it came to pass that after Alma had taught the people many things and had made an end of speaking to them that king Limhi was desirous that he might be baptized. And all his people were desirous that they might be baptized also.

Mosiah 25:18

Therefore Alma did go forth into the water and did baptize them; yea, he did baptize them after the manner he did his brethren in the waters of Mormon. Yea, and as many as he did baptize did belong to the church of God—and this because of their belief on the words of Alma.

Mosiah 25:19

And it came to pass that king Mosiah granted unto Alma that he might establish churches throughout all the land of Zarahemla, and gave him power to ordain priests and teachers over every church.

Mosiah 25:20

Now this was done because there was so many people that they could not be all governed by one teacher, neither could they all hear the word of God in one assembly.

Mosiah 25:21

Therefore they did assemble themselves together in different bodies, being called churches, every church having their priests and their teachers, and every priest preaching the word according as it was delivered to him by the mouth of Alma.

Mosiah 25:22

And thus notwithstanding there being many churches, they were all one church, yea, even the church of God; for there was nothing preached in all the churches except it were repentance and faith in God.

Mosiah 25:23

And now there was seven churches in the land of Zarahemla. And it came to pass that whosoever was desirous to take upon them the name of Christ or of God, they did join the churches of God; and they were called the people of God. And the Lord did pour out his Spirit upon them, and they were blessed and prospered in the land.

Mosiah 25:24

Mosiah 26

Mosiah 26:1

Now it came to pass that there was many of the rising generation that could not understand the words of king Benjamin, being little children at the time he spake unto his people; and they did not believe the tradition of their fathers.

Mosiah 26:2

They did not believe what had been said concerning the resurrection of the dead, neither did they believe concerning the coming of Christ.

Mosiah 26:3

And now because of their unbelief they could not understand the word of God; and their hearts were hardened.

Mosiah 26:4

And they would not be baptized, neither would they join the church. And they were a separate people as to their faith and remained so ever after, even in their carnal and sinful state, for they would not call upon the Lord their God.

Mosiah 26:5

And now in the reign of Mosiah they were not half so numerous as the people of God, but because of the dissensions among the brethren they became more numerous.

Mosiah 26:6

For it came to pass that they did deceive many with their flattering words which were in the church and did cause them to commit many sins. Therefore it became expedient that those who committed sin that was in the church should be admonished by the church.

Mosiah 26:7

And it came to pass that they were brought before the priests and delivered up unto the priests by the teachers; and the priests brought them before Alma, which was the high priest

Mosiah 26:8

—now king Mosiah had given Alma the authority over the church—and it came to pass that Alma did know concerning them, for there were many witnesses against them; yea, the people stood and testified of their iniquity in abundance.

Mosiah 26:10

Now there had not any such thing happened before in the church. Therefore Alma was troubled in his spirit, and he caused that they should be brought before the king.

Mosiah 26:11

And he saith unto the king: Behold, here are many which we have brought before thee which are accused of their brethren. Yea, and they have been taken in divers iniquities, and they do not repent of their iniquities. Therefore we have brought them before thee, that thou may judge them according to their crimes.

Mosiah 26:12

But king Mosiah saith unto Alma: Behold, I judge them not. Therefore I deliver them into thy hands to be judged.

Mosiah 26:13

And now the spirit of Alma was again troubled. And he went and inquired of the Lord what he should do concerning this matter, for he feared that he should do wrong in the sight of God.

Mosiah 26:14

And it came to pass that after he had poured out his whole soul to God, the voice of the Lord came to him, saying:

Mosiah 26:15

Blessed art thou Alma. And blessed are they which were baptized in the waters of Mormon. Thou art blessed because of thy exceeding faith in the words alone of my servant Abinadi.

Mosiah 26:16

And blessed are they because of their exceeding faith in the words alone which thou hast spoken unto them.

Mosiah 26:17

And blessed art thou because thou hast established a church among this people. And they shall be established, and they shall be my people.

Mosiah 26:18

Yea, blessed is this people, which is willing to bear my name; for in my name shall they be called, and they are mine.

Mosiah 26:19

And because thou hast inquired of me concerning the transgressor, thou art blessed.

Mosiah 26:20

Thou art my servant, and I covenant with thee that thou shalt have eternal life. And thou shalt serve me and go forth in my name and shall gather together my sheep.

Mosiah 26:21

And he that will hear my voice shall be my sheep; and him shall ye receive into the church, and him will I also receive.

Mosiah 26:22

For behold, this is my church. Whosoever that is baptized shall be baptized unto repentance; and whosoever ye receive shall believe in my name, and him will I freely forgive.

Mosiah 26:23

For it is I that taketh upon me the sins of the world, for it is I that hath created them. And it is I that granteth unto him that believeth in the end a place at my right hand.

Mosiah 26:24

For behold, in my name are they called; and if they know me, they shall come forth and shall have a place eternally at my right hand.

Mosiah 26:25

And it shall come to pass that when the second trump shall sound, then shall they that never knew me come forth and shall stand before me.

Mosiah 26:26

And then shall they know that I am the Lord their God, that I am their Redeemer, but they would not be redeemed.

Mosiah 26:27

And then will I confess unto them that I never knew them, and they shall depart into everlasting fire prepared for the devil and his angels.

Mosiah 26:28

Therefore I say unto you that he that will not hear my voice, the same shall ye not receive into my church, for him I will not receive at the last day.

Mosiah 26:29

Therefore I say unto you: Go; and whosoever transgresseth against me, him shall ye judge according to the sins which he hath committed. And if he confess his sins before thee and me and repenteth in the sincerity of his heart, him shall ye forgive; and I will forgive him also.

Mosiah 26:30

Yea, and as often as my people repent will I forgive them their trespasses against me.

Mosiah 26:31

And ye shall also forgive one another your trespasses. For verily I say unto you: He that forgiveth not his neighbor's trespasses when he saith that he repenteth, the same hath brought himself under condemnation.

Mosiah 26:32

Now I say unto you: Go; and whosoever will not repent of his sins, the same shall not be numbered among my people. And this shall be observed from this time forward.

Mosiah 26:33

And it came to pass, when Alma had heard these words, he wrote them down that he might have them and that he might judge the people of that church according to the commandments of God.

Mosiah 26:34

And it came to pass that Alma went and judged those that had been taken in iniquity, according to the word of the Lord.

Mosiah 26:35

And whosoever repented of their sins and did confess them, them he did number among the people of the church.

Mosiah 26:36

And them that would not confess their sins and repent of their iniquity, the same were not numbered among the people of the church; and their names were blotted out.

Mosiah 26:37

And it came to pass that Alma did regulate all the affairs of the church. And they began again to have peace and to prosper exceedingly in the affairs of the church, walking circumspectly before God, receiving many and baptizing many.

Mosiah 26:38

And now all these things did Alma and his fellow laborers do which were over the church, walking in all diligence, teaching the word of God in all things, suffering all manner of afflictions, being persecuted by all those who did not belong to the church of God.

Mosiah 26:39

And they did admonish their brethren; and they were also admonished every one by the word of God according to his sins or to the sins which he had committed, being commanded of God to pray without ceasing and to give thanks in all things.

Mosiah 27

Mosiah 27:1

And now it came to pass that the persecutions which was inflicted on the church by the unbelievers became so great that the church began to murmur and complain to their leaders concerning the matter; and they did complain to Alma. And Alma laid the case before their king Mosiah, and Mosiah consulted with his priests.

Mosiah 27:2

And it came to pass that king Mosiah sent a proclamation throughout the land round about that there should not any unbeliever persecute any of those which belonged to the church of God.

Mosiah 27:3

And there was a strict command throughout all the churches that there should be no persecutions among them, that there should be an equality among all men, that they should let no pride nor haughtiness disturb their peace, that every man should esteem his neighbor as himself, laboring with their own hands for their support.

Mosiah 27:4

Mosiah 27:5

Yea, and all their priests and teachers should labor with their own hands for their support in all cases save it were in sickness or in much want; and doing these things, they did abound in the grace of God.

Mosiah 27:6

And there began to be much peace again in the land. And the people began to be very numerous and began to scatter abroad upon the face of the earth, yea, on the north and on the south, on the east and on the west, building large cities and villages in all quarters of the land.

Mosiah 27:7

And the Lord did visit them and prosper them, and they became a large and a wealthy people.

Mosiah 27:8

Now the sons of Mosiah was numbered among the unbelievers; and also one of the sons of Alma was numbered among them, he being called Alma after his father. Nevertheless he became a very wicked and an idolatrous man; and he was a man of many words and did speak much flattery to the people. Therefore he led many of the people to do after the manner of his iniquities.

Mosiah 27:9

And he became a great hinderment to the prosperity of the church of God, stealing away the hearts of the people, causing much dissension among the people, giving a chance for the enemy of God to exercise his power over them.

Mosiah 27:10

And now it came to pass that while he was going about to destroy¹ the church of God—for he did go about secretly with the sons of Mosiah, seeking to destroy the church and to lead astray the people of the Lord contrary to the commandments of God or even the king—and as I said unto you, as they were going about rebelling against God, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto them, and he descended as it were in a cloud. And he spake as it were with a voice of thunder, which caused the earth to shake upon which they stood.

Mosiah 27:11

Mosiah 27:12

And so great was their astonishment that they fell to the earth and understood not the words which he spake unto them.

Mosiah 27:13

Nevertheless he cried again, saying: Alma, arise and stand forth. For why persecutest thou the church of God? For the Lord hath said: This is my church and I will establish it; and nothing shall overthrow it save it is the transgression of my people.

Mosiah 27:14

And again the angel saith: Behold, the Lord hath heard the prayers of his people and also the prayers of his servant Alma, which is thy father. For he hath prayed with much faith concerning thee, that thou mightest be brought to the knowledge of the truth. Therefore for this purpose have I come to convince thee of the power and authority of God, that the prayers of his servants might be answered according to their faith.

¹Compare Paul in Galatians 1:23.

Mosiah 27:15

And now behold, can ye dispute the power of God? For behold, doth not my voice shake the earth? And can ye not also behold me before you? And I am sent from God.

Mosiah 27:16

Now I say unto thee: Go; and remember the captivity of thy fathers in the land of Helam and in the land of Nephi, and remember how great things he hath done for them. For they were in bondage and he hath delivered them. And now I say unto thee Alma: Go thy way and seek to destroy the church no more, that their prayers may be answered. And this even if thou wilt of thyself be cast off!

Mosiah 27:17

And now it came to pass that these were the last words which the angel spake unto Alma, and he departed.

Mosiah 27:18

And now Alma and those that were with him fell again to the earth, for great was their astonishment. For with their own eyes they had beheld an angel of the Lord, and his voice was as thunder which shook the earth. And they knew that there was nothing save the power of God that could shake the earth and cause it to tremble as though it would part asunder.

Mosiah 27:19

And now the astonishment of Alma was so great that he became dumb, that he could not open his mouth; yea, and he became weak, even that he could not move his hands. Therefore he was taken by those that were with him and carried helpless, even until he was laid before his father.

Mosiah 27:20

And they rehearsed unto his father all that had happened unto them. And his father rejoiced, for he knew that it was the power of God.

Mosiah 27:21

And he caused that a multitude should be gathered together, that they might witness what the Lord had done for his son, and also for those that were with him.

Mosiah 27:22

And he caused that the priests should assemble themselves together. And they began to fast and to pray to the Lord their God that he would open the mouth of Alma, that he might speak, and also that his limbs might receive their strength, that the eyes of the people might be opened, to see and know of the goodness and glory of God.

Mosiah 27:23

And it came to pass after they had fasted and prayed for the space of two days and two nights, the limbs of Alma received their strength. And he stood up and began to speak unto them, bidding them to be of good comfort; for, said he, I have repented of my sins and have been redeemed of the Lord. Behold, I am born of the Spirit.

Mosiah 27:24

Mosiah 27:25

And the Lord said unto me: Marvel not that all mankind, yea, men and women—all nations, kindreds, tongues, and people—must be born again, yea, born of God, changed from their carnal and fallen state to a state of righteousness, being redeemed of God, becoming his sons and daughters.

Mosiah 27:26

And thus they become new creatures; and unless they do this, they can in no wise inherit the kingdom of God.

Mosiah 27:27

I say unto you: Unless this be the case, they must be cast off. And this I know because I was like to be cast off.

Mosiah 27:28

Nevertheless, after wading through much tribulation, repenting ¹nigh unto death, the Lord in mercy hath seen fit to snatch me out of an everlasting burning; and I am born of God.

Mosiah 27:29

My soul hath been redeemed from the gall of bitterness and bonds of iniquity. I was in the darkest abyss, but now I behold the marvelous light of God. My soul was racked with eternal torment, but I am snatched and my soul is pained no more.

Mosiah 27:30

I rejected my Redeemer and denied that which had been spoken of by our fathers. But now I know that they may foresee that he will come and that he remembereth every creature of his creating and he will make himself manifest unto all.

Mosiah 27:31

Yea, every knee shall bow and every tongue confess before him. Yea, even at the last day when all men shall stand to be judged of him, then shall they confess that he is God; then shall they confess who live without God in the world that the judgment of an everlasting punishment is just upon them. And they shall quake and tremble and shrink beneath the glance of his all-searching eye.

Mosiah 27:32

And now it came to pass that Alma began from this time forward to teach the people, and those which were with Alma at the time the angel appeared unto them, traveling round about through all the land, publishing to all the people the things which they had heard and seen, and preaching the word of God, in much tribulation, being greatly persecuted by those which were unbelievers, being smitten by many of them.

Mosiah 27:33

But notwithstanding all this, they did impart much consolation to the church, confirming their faith and exhorting them with long-suffering and much travail to keep the commandments of God.

¹For “nigh unto death,” see Philippians 2:27 and 2:30. 2:27 also mentions mercy, the same as this verse here. Note that the Greek for “nigh unto death” differs between the two Philippians verses.

Mosiah 27:34

And four of them were the sons of Mosiah. And their names were Ammon and Aaron and Omner and Himni; these were the names of the sons of Mosiah.

Mosiah 27:35

And after they had traveled throughout all the land of Zarahemla and among all the people which was under the reign of king Mosiah, zealously striving to repair all the injuries which they had done to the church, confessing all their sins and publishing all the things which they had seen, and explaining the prophecies and the scriptures to all who desired to hear them—and thus they were instruments in the hands of God in bringing many to the knowledge of the truth, yea, to the knowledge of their Redeemer.

Mosiah 27:36

Mosiah 27:37

And how blessed are they! For they did publish peace; they did publish good tidings of good, and they did declare unto the people that the Lord reigneth.

Mosiah 28

Mosiah 28:1

Now it came to pass that after the sons of Mosiah had done all these things, they took a small number with them and returned to their father the king and desired of him that he would grant unto them that they might with those whom they had selected go up to the land of Nephi, that they might preach the things which they had heard, and that they might impart the word of God to their brethren the Lamanites, that perhaps they might bring them to the knowledge of the Lord their God and convince them of the iniquity of their fathers, and that perhaps they might cure them of their hatred towards the Nephites, that they might also be brought to rejoice in the Lord their God, that they might become friendly to one another, and that there should be no more contentions in all the land which the Lord their God hath given them.

Mosiah 28:3

Now they were desirous that salvation should be declared to every creature, for they could not bear that any human soul should perish; yea, even the very thoughts that any soul should endure endless torment did cause them to quake and tremble.

Mosiah 28:4

And thus did the Spirit of the Lord work upon them. For they were the very vilest of sinners, and the Lord saw fit in his infinite mercy to spare them. Nevertheless they suffered much anguish of soul because of their iniquities— and suffering much fearing that they should be cast off forever.

Mosiah 28:5

And it came to pass that they did plead with their father many days that they might go up to the land of Nephi.

Mosiah 28:6

And it came to pass that king Mosiah went and inquired of the Lord if he should let his sons go up among the Lamanites to preach the word.

Mosiah 28:7

And the Lord said unto Mosiah: Let them go up, for many shall believe on their words; and they shall have eternal life. And I will deliver thy sons out of the hands of the Lamanites.

Mosiah 28:8

And it came to pass that Mosiah granted that they might go and do according to their request.

Mosiah 28:9

And they took their journey into the wilderness to go up to preach the word among the Lamanites. And I shall give an account of their proceedings hereafter.

Mosiah 28:10

Now king Mosiah had no one to confer the kingdom upon, for there was not any of his sons which would accept of the kingdom.

Mosiah 28:11

Therefore he took the records which were engraven upon the plates of brass, and also the plates of Nephi, and all the things which he had kept and preserved according to the commandments of God, and after having translated and caused to be written the records which were on the plates of gold which had been found by the people of Limhi, which was delivered to him by the hand of Limhi—and this he done because of the great anxiety of his people, for they were desirous beyond measure to know concerning those people which had been destroyed.

Mosiah 28:12

Mosiah 28:13

And now he translated them by the means of those two stones which was fastened into the two rims of a bow.

Mosiah 28:14

Now these things was prepared from the beginning and was handed down from generation to generation for the purpose of interpreting languages.

Mosiah 28:15

And they have been kept and preserved by the hand of the Lord, that he should discover to every creature which should possess the land the iniquities and abominations of his people.

Mosiah 28:16

And whosoever has the things is called seer, after the manner of old times.

Mosiah 28:17

Now after Mosiah had finished translating these records, behold, it gave an account of the people which was destroyed from the time that they were destroyed back to the building of the great tower, at the time the Lord confounded the language of the people, and they were scattered abroad upon the face of all the earth, yea, and even from that time until the creation of Adam.

Mosiah 28:18

Now this account did cause the people of Mosiah to mourn exceedingly; yea, they were filled with sorrow. Nevertheless it gave them much knowledge, in the which they did rejoice.

Mosiah 28:19

And this account shall be written hereafter; for behold, it is expedient that all people should know the things which are written in this account.

Mosiah 28:20

And now as I said unto you that after king Mosiah had done these things, he took the plates of brass and all the things which he had kept and conferred them upon Alma, which was the son of Alma —yea, all the records and also the interpreters— and conferred them upon him, and commanding him that he should keep and preserve them and also keep a record of the people, handing them down from one generation to another, even as they had been handed down from the time that Lehi left Jerusalem.

Mosiah 29

Mosiah 29:1

Now when Mosiah had done this, he sent out through all the land among all the people, desiring to know their will concerning who should be their king.

Mosiah 29:2

And it came to pass that the voice of the people came, saying: We are desirous that Aaron thy son should be our king and our ruler.

Mosiah 29:3

Now Aaron had gone up to the land of Nephi; therefore the king could not confer the kingdom upon him. Neither would Aaron take upon him the kingdom, neither was any of the sons of Mosiah willing to take upon them the kingdom.

Mosiah 29:4

Therefore king Mosiah sent again among the people; yea, even a written word sent he among the people. And these were the words that were written, saying:

Mosiah 29:5

Behold, O ye my people or my brethren —for I esteem you as such— for I desire that ye should consider the cause which ye are called to consider, for ye are desirous to have a king.

Mosiah 29:6

Now I declare unto you that he to whom that the kingdom doth rightly belong hath declined and will not take upon him the kingdom.

And now if there should be another appointed in his stead, behold, I fear there would rise contentions among you. And who knoweth but what my son to whom the kingdom doth belong should turn to be angry and draw away a part of this people after him —which will cause wars and contentions among you, which would be the cause of shedding much blood and perverting the way of the Lord — yea, and destroy the souls of much people.

Mosiah 29:8

Now I say unto you: Let us be wise and consider these things. For we have no right to destroy my son, neither should we have any right to destroy another if he should be appointed in his stead.

Mosiah 29:9

And if my son should turn again to his pride and vain things, he would recall the things which he had said and claim his right to the kingdom, which would cause him and also this people to commit much sin.

Mosiah 29:10

And now let us be wise and look forward to these things and do that which will make for the peace of this people.

Mosiah 29:11

Therefore I will be your king the remainder of my days. Nevertheless let us appoint judges to judge this people according to our law, and we will newly arrange the affairs of this people. For we will appoint wise men to be judges that will judge this people according to the commandments of God.

Mosiah 29:12

Now it is better that a man should be judged of God than of man; for the judgments of God are always just, but the judgments of man are not always just.

Mosiah 29:13

Therefore if it were possible that ye could have just men to be your kings which would establish the laws of God and judge this people according to his commandments, yea, if ye could have men for your kings which would do even as my father Benjamin did for this people, I say unto you, if this could always be the case, then it would be expedient that ye should always have kings to rule over you.

Mosiah 29:14

And even I myself have labored with all the power and faculties which I have possessed to teach you the commandments of God and to establish peace throughout the land, that there should be no wars nor contentions, no stealing nor plundering nor murdering nor no manner of iniquity.

Mosiah 29:15

And whosoever hath committed iniquity, him have I punished according to the crime which he hath committed according to the law which hath been given to us by our fathers.

Mosiah 29:16

Now I say unto you that because all men are not just, it is not expedient that ye should have a king or kings to rule over you.

Mosiah 29:17

For behold, how much iniquity doth one wicked king cause to be committed! Yea, and what great destruction!

Mosiah 29:18

Yea, remember king Noah, his wickedness and his abominations, and also the wickedness and abominations of his people. Behold, what great destruction did come upon them! And also because of their iniquities they were brought into bondage.

Mosiah 29:19

And were it not for the interposition of their all-wise Creator —and this because of their sincere repentance— they must have unavoidably remained in bondage until now.

Mosiah 29:20

But behold, he did deliver them because they did humble themselves before him; and because they cried mightily unto him, he did deliver them out of bondage. And thus doth the Lord work with his power in all cases among the children of men, extending the arm of mercy towards them that put their trust in him.

Mosiah 29:21

And behold, now I say unto you: Ye cannot dethrone an iniquitous king save it be through much contention and the shedding of much blood.

Mosiah 29:22

For behold, he hath his friends in iniquity, and he keepeth his guards about him, and he teareth up the laws of those which have reigned in righteousness before him, and he trampleth under his feet the commandments of God.

Mosiah 29:23

And he enacteth laws and sendeth them forth among his people, yea, laws after the manner of his own wickedness; and whosoever doth not obey his laws, he causeth to be destroyed. And whosoever doth rebel against him, he will send his armies against them to war; and if he can, he will destroy them. And thus an unrighteous king doth pervert the ways of all righteousness.

Mosiah 29:24

And now behold, I say unto you: It is not expedient that such abominations should come upon you.

Mosiah 29:25

Therefore choose you by the voice of this people judges, that ye may be judged according to the laws which hath been given you by our fathers, which are correct and which was given them by the hand of the Lord.

Mosiah 29:26

Now it is not common that the voice of the people desireth any thing contrary to that which is right, but it is common for the lesser part of the people to desire that which is not right. Therefore this shall ye observe and make it your law, to do your business by the voice of the people.

Mosiah 29:27

And if the time cometh that the voice of the people doth choose iniquity, then is the time that the judgments of God will come upon you. Yea, then is the time he will visit you with great destruction, even as he hath hitherto visited this land.

Mosiah 29:28

And now if ye have judges and they do not judge you according to the law which has been given, ye can cause that he may be judged of a higher judge.

Mosiah 29:29

If your higher judges doth not judge righteous judgments, ye shall cause that a small number of your lower judges should be gathered together and they shall judge your higher judges according to the voice of the people.

Mosiah 29:30

And I commanded you to do these things in the fear of the Lord; and I commanded you to do these things and that ye have no king, that if these people commit sins and iniquities, they shall be answered upon their own heads.

Mosiah 29:31

For behold, I say unto you: The sins of many people have been caused by the iniquities of their kings; therefore their iniquities are answered upon the heads of their kings.

Mosiah 29:32

And now I desire that this unequality should be no more in this land, especially among this my people. But I desire that this land be a land of liberty and every man may enjoy his rights and privileges alike so long as the Lord sees fit that we may live and inherit the land, yea, even as long as any of our posterity remaineth upon the face of the land.

Mosiah 29:33

And many more things did king Mosiah write unto them, unfolding unto them all the trials and troubles of a righteous king, yea, all the travails of soul for their people, and also all the murmurings of the people to their king; and he explained it all unto them.

Mosiah 29:34

And he told them that these things had not ought to be, but that the burden should come upon all the people, that every man might bear his part.

Mosiah 29:35

And he also unfolded unto them all the disadvantages they labored under by having an unrighteous king to rule over them, yea, all his iniquities and abominations and all the wars and contentions and bloodshed and the stealing and the plundering and the committing of whoredoms and all manner of iniquities which cannot be enumerated, telling them that these things ought not to be, that they was expressly repugnant to the commandments of God.

Mosiah 29:36

Mosiah 29:37

And now it came to pass after king Mosiah had sent these things forth among the people, they were convinced of the truth of his words.

Mosiah 29:38

Therefore they relinquished their desires for a king and became exceedingly anxious that every man should have an equal chance throughout all the land; yea, and every man expressed a willingness to answer for his own sins.

Mosiah 29:39

Therefore it came to pass that they assembled themselves together in bodies throughout the land to cast in their voices concerning who should be their judges to judge them according to the law which had been given them. And they were exceedingly rejoiced because of the liberty which had been granted unto them.

Mosiah 29:40

And they did wax strong in love towards Mosiah; yea, they did esteem him more than any other man. For they did not look upon him as a tyrant who was seeking for gain, yea, for that lucre which doth corrupt the soul; for he had not exacted riches of them, neither had he delighted in the shedding of blood, but he had established peace in the land. And he had granted unto his people that they should be delivered from all manner of bondage. Therefore they did esteem him, yea, exceedingly beyond measure.

Mosiah 29:41

And it came to pass that they did appoint judges to rule over them, or to judge them according to the law; and this they done throughout all the land.

Mosiah 29:42

And it came to pass that Alma was appointed to be the chief judge, he being also the high priest, his father having conferred the office upon him and had given him the charge concerning all the affairs of the church.

Mosiah 29:43

And now it came to pass that Alma did walk in the ways of the Lord, and he did keep his commandments, and he did judge righteous judgments. And there was continual peace through the land.

Mosiah 29:44

And thus commenced the reign of the judges throughout all the land of Zarahemla among all the people which was called the Nephites; and Alma was the first and chief judge.

Mosiah 29:45

And now it came to pass that his father died, being eighty and two years old, having lived to fulfill the commandments of God.

Mosiah 29:46

And it came to pass that Mosiah died also, in the thirty and third year of his reign, being sixty and three years old, making in the whole five hundred and nine years from the time Lehi left Jerusalem.

Mosiah 29:47

And thus ended the reign of the kings over the people of Nephi; and thus ended the days of Alma, who was the founder of their church.

Alma

The Book of Alma the son of Alma The account of Alma, who was the son of Alma, the first and chief judge over the people of Nephi, and also the high priest over the church. An account of the reign of the judges and the wars and contentions among the people. And also an account of a war between the Nephites and the Lamanites according to the record of Alma, the first and chief judge.

Alma 1

Alma 1:1

Now it came to pass that in the first year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi, from this time forward, king Mosiah having gone the way of all the earth, having warred a good warfare, walking uprightly before God, leaving none to reign in his stead —nevertheless he established laws, and they were acknowledged by the people; therefore they were obliged to abide by the laws which he had made—and it came to pass that in the first year of the reign of Alma in the judgment seat, there was a man brought before him to be judged, a man which was large and was noted for his much strength.

Alma 1:3

And he had gone about among the people, preaching to them that which he termed to be the word of God, bearing down against the church, declaring unto the people that every priest and teacher had ought to become popular and they ought not to labor with their own hands, but that they had ought to be supported by the people.

Alma 1:4

And he also testified unto the people that all mankind should be saved at the last day and that they need not fear nor tremble, but that they might lift up their heads and rejoice, for the Lord had created all men and had also redeemed all men; and in the end all men should have eternal life.

Alma 1:5

And it came to pass that he did teach these things so much that many did believe on his words, even so many that they began to support him and give him money.

Alma 1:6

And he began to be lifted up in the pride of his heart and to wear very costly apparel, yea, and even began to establish a church after the manner of his preaching.

Alma 1:7

And it came to pass as he was going to preach to those who believed on his word, he met a man which belonged to the church of God, yea, even one of their teachers; and he began to contend with him sharply, that he might lead away the people of the church; but the man withstood him, admonishing him with the words of God.

Alma 1:8

Now the name of the man was Gideon, and it was him that was an instrument in the hands of God in delivering the people of Limhi out of bondage.

Alma 1:9

Now because Gideon withstood him with the words of God, he was wroth with Gideon and drew his sword and began to smite him. Now Gideon being stricken with many years, therefore he was not able to withstand his blows; therefore he was slain by the sword.

Alma 1:10

And the man who slew him was taken by the people of the church and was brought before Alma to be judged according to the crime which he had committed.

Alma 1:11

And it came to pass that he stood before Alma and pled for himself with much boldness.

Alma 1:12

But Alma said unto him: Behold, this is the first time that priestcraft has been introduced among this people. And behold, thou art not only guilty of priestcraft but hast endeavored to enforce it by the sword. And were priestcraft to be enforced among this people, it would prove their entire destruction.

Alma 1:13

And thou hast shed the blood of a righteous man, yea, a man which has done much good among this people. And were we to spare thee, his blood would come upon us for vengeance.

Alma 1:14

Therefore thou art condemned to die according to the law which has been given us by Mosiah, our last king. And they have been acknowledged by this people; therefore this people must abide by the law.

Alma 1:15

And it came to pass that they took him —and his name was Nehor— and they carried him up on the top of the hill Manti, and there he was caused or rather did acknowledge between the heavens and the earth that what he had taught to the people was contrary to the word of God; and there he suffered an ignominious¹ death.

¹Contrary to what Blake Lyman said in the MTC, this word does not mean “having to do with fire.” From the 1828 dictionary:

Nevertheless this did not put an end to the spreading of priestcraft through the land, for there was many which loved the vain things of the world. And they went forth preaching false doctrines, and this they did for the sake of riches and honor.

Alma 1:17

Nevertheless they durst not lie—if it were known—for fear of the law, for liars were punished. Therefore they pretended to preach according to their belief. And now the law could have no power on any man for their belief.

Alma 1:18

And they durst not steal for fear of the law, for such were punished. Neither durst they rob nor murder, for he that murdereth was punished unto death.

Alma 1:19

But it came to pass that whosoever did not belong to the church of God began to persecute those that did belong to the church of God and had taken upon them the name of Christ.

Alma 1:20

Yea, they did persecute them and afflict them with all manner of words— and this because of their humility, because they were not proud in their own eyes, and because they did impart the word of God one with another without money and without price.

Alma 1:21

Now there was a strict law among the people of the church that there should not any man belonging to the church arise and persecute those that did not belong to the church, and that there should be no persecution among themselves.

Alma 1:22

Nevertheless there were many among them who began to be proud and began to contend warmly with their adversaries, even unto blows; yea, they would smite one another with their fists.

Alma 1:23

Now this was in the second year of the reign of Alma, and it was a cause of much affliction to the church; yea, it was the cause of much trial with the church.

Alma 1:24

For the hearts of many were hardened, and their names were blotted out, that they were numbered no more among the people of God; and also many withdrew themselves from among them.

1 Incurring disgrace; cowardly; of mean character.

2 Very shameful; reproachful; dishonorable; infamous. To be hanged for a crime is ignominious Whipping, cropping and branding are ignominious punishments.

3 Despicable; worthy of contempt; as an ignominious projector.

Alma 1:25

Now this was a great trial to those that did stand fast in the faith; nevertheless they were steadfast and immovable in keeping the commandments of God, and they bore with patience the persecution which was heaped upon them.

Alma 1:26

And when their priests left their labor to impart the word of God unto the people, the people also left their labors to hear the word of God. And when the priest had imparted unto them the word of God, they all returned again diligently unto their labors, and the priest, not esteeming himself above his hearers, for the preacher was no better than the hearer, neither was the teacher any better than the learner. And thus they were all equal; and they did all labor, every man according to his strength.

Alma 1:27

And they did impart of their substance, every man according to that which he had, to the poor and the needy and the sick and the afflicted. And they did not wear costly apparel, yet they were neat and comely.

Alma 1:28

And thus they did establish the affairs of the church; and thus they began to have continual peace again, notwithstanding all their persecutions.

Alma 1:29

And now because of the steadiness of the church they began to be exceeding rich, having abundance of all things whatsoever they stood in need: abundance of flocks and herds and fatlings of every kind, and also abundance of grain and of gold and of silver and of precious things, and abundance of silk and fine-twined linen and all manner of good homely cloth.

Alma 1:30

And thus in their prosperous circumstances they did not send away any which was naked or that was hungry or that was athirst or that was sick or that had not been nourished. And they did not set their hearts upon riches. Therefore they were liberal to all, both old and young, both bond and free, both male and female, whether out of the church or in the church, having no respects to persons as to those who stood in need.

Alma 1:31

And thus they did prosper and become far more wealthy than those who did not belong to their church.

Alma 1:32

For those who did not belong to their church did indulge themselves in sorceries and in idolatry or idleness and in babblings and in envyings and strife and wearing costly apparel, being lifted up in the pride of their own eyes, persecuting, lying, thieving, robbing, committing whoredoms and murdering and all manner of wickedness. Nevertheless the law was put in force upon all those who did transgress it, inasmuch as it were possible.

Alma 1:33

And it came to pass that by thus exercising the law upon them, every man suffering according to that which he had done, they became more still and durst not commit any wickedness, if it were known. Therefore there was much peace among the people of Nephi until the fifth year of the reign of the judges.

Alma 2

Alma 2:1

And it came to pass in the commencement of the fifth year of their reign there began to be a contention among the people; for a certain man being called Amlici, he being a very cunning man, yea, a wise man as to the wisdom of the world, he being after the order of the man that slew Gideon by the sword, who was executed according to the law—

Alma 2:2

now this Amlici had by his cunning drawn away much people after him, even so much that they began to be very powerful; and they began to endeavor to establish Amlici to be a king over the people.

Alma 2:3

Now this was alarming to the people of the church, and also to all those who had not been drawn away after the persuasions of Amlici; for they knew that according to their law that such things must be established by the voice of the people.

Alma 2:4

Therefore, if it were possible that Amlici should gain the voice of the people, he being a wicked man would deprive them of their rights and the privileges of the church etc., for it was his intent to destroy the church of God.

Alma 2:5

And it came to pass that the people assembled themselves together throughout all the land —every man according to his mind, whether it were for or against Amlici— in separate bodies, having much dispute and wonderful contentions one with another.

Alma 2:6

And thus they did assemble themselves together to cast in their voices concerning the matter, and they were laid before the judges.

Alma 2:7

And it came to pass that the voice of the people came against Amlici, that he was not made king over the people.

Alma 2:8

Now this did cause much joy in the hearts of those which were against him, but Amlici did stir up those which were in his favor to anger against those which were not in his favor.

Alma 2:9

And it came to pass that they gathered themselves together and did consecrate Amlici to be their king.

Alma 2:10

Now when Amlici was made king over them, he commanded them that they should take up arms against their brethren; and this he done that he might subject them to him.

Alma 2:11

Now the people of Amlici were distinguished by the name of Amlici, being called Amlicites; and the remainder were called Nephites, or the people of God.

Alma 2:12

Therefore the people of the Nephites was aware of the intent of the Amlicites. And therefore they did prepare for to meet them; yea, they did arm themselves with swords and with scimitars and with bows and with arrows and with stones and with slings and with all manner of weapons of war of every kind.

Alma 2:13

And thus they were prepared to meet the Amlicites at the time of their coming. And there was appointed captains and higher captains and chief captains according to their numbers.

Alma 2:14

And it came to pass that Amlici did arm his men with all manner of weapons of war of every kind; and he also appointed rulers and leaders over his people to lead them to war against their brethren.

Alma 2:15

And it came to pass that the Amlicites came up upon the hill Amnihu, which was east of the river Sidon, which ran by the land of Zarahemla; and there they began to make war with the Nephites.

Alma 2:16

Now Alma, he being the chief judge and the governor of the people of Nephi, therefore he went up with his people, yea, with his captains and chief captains, yea, at the head of his armies, against the Amlicites to battle.

Alma 2:17

And they began to slay the Amlicites upon the hill east of Sidon; and the Amlicites did contend with the Nephites with great strength, insomuch that many of the Nephites did fall before the Amlicites.

Alma 2:18

Nevertheless the Lord did strengthen the hand of the Nephites, that they slew the Amlicites with a great slaughter, that they began to flee before them.

Alma 2:19

And it came to pass that the Nephites did pursue the Amlicites all that day and did slay them with much slaughter, insomuch that there was slain of the Amlicites twelve thousand five hundred thirty and two souls; and there was slain of the Nephites six thousand five hundred sixty and two souls.

Alma 2:20

And it came to pass that when Alma could pursue the Amlicites no longer, he caused that his people should pitch their tents in the valley of Gideon, the valley being called after that Gideon which was slain by the hand of Nehor with the sword; and in this valley the Nephites did pitch their tents for the night.

Alma 2:21

And Alma sent spies to follow the remnant of the Amlicites, that he might know of their plans and their plots, whereby he might guard himself against them, that he might preserve his people from being destroyed.

Alma 2:22

Now those which he had sent out to watch the camp of the Amlicites were called Zeram and Amnor and Manti and Limher; these were they which went out with their men to watch the camp of the Amlicites.

Alma 2:23

And it came to pass that on the morrow they returned into the camp of the Nephites in great haste, being greatly astonished and struck with much fear, saying:

Alma 2:24

Behold, we followed the camp of the Amlicites. And to our great astonishment, in the land of Minon, above the land of Zarahemla, in the course of the land of Nephi, we saw a numerous host of the Lamanites; and behold, the Amlicites have joined them.

Alma 2:25

And they are upon our brethren in that land, and they are fleeing before them, with their flocks and their wives and their children, towards our city. And except we make haste, they obtain possession of our city, and our fathers and our wives and our children be slain.

Alma 2:26

And it came to pass that the people of Nephi took their tents and departed out of the valley of Gideon towards their city, which was the city of Zarahemla.

Alma 2:27

And behold, as they were crossing the river Sidon, the Lamanites and the Amlicites, being as numerous almost, as it were, as the sands of the sea, came upon them to destroy them.

Alma 2:28

Nevertheless, the Nephites being strengthened by the hand of the Lord, having prayed mightily to him that he would deliver them out of the hands of their enemies, therefore the Lord did hear their cries and did strengthen them; and the Lamanites and the Amlicites did fall before them.

Alma 2:29

And it came to pass that Alma fought with Amlici with the sword face to face, and they did contend mightily one with another.

Alma 2:30

And it came to pass that Alma, he being a man of God, being exercised with much faith, and he cried, saying: O Lord, have mercy and spare my life that I may be an instrument in thy hands to save and protect this people!

Alma 2:31

Now when Alma had said these words, he contended again with Amlici; and he was strengthened, insomuch that he slew Amlici with the sword.

Alma 2:32

And he also contended with the king of the Lamanites, but the king of the Lamanites fled back from before Alma and sent his guards to contend with Alma.

Alma 2:33

But Alma with his guards contended with the guards of the king of the Lamanites until he slew and drave them back.

Alma 2:34

And thus he cleared the ground, or rather the bank which was on the west of the river Sidon, throwing the bodies of the Lamanites which had been slain into the waters of Sidon, that thereby his people might have room to cross and contend with the Lamanites and the Amlicites on the west side of the river Sidon.

Alma 2:35

And it came to pass that when they had all crossed the river Sidon that the Lamanites and the Amlicites began to flee before them, notwithstanding they were so numerous that they could not be numbered.

Alma 2:36

And they fled before the Nephites towards the wilderness which was west and north, away beyond the borders of the land. And the Nephites did pursue them with their might and did slay them; yea, they were met on every hand and slain and driven until they were scattered on the west and on the north, until they had reached the wilderness which was called Hermounts; and it was that part of the wilderness which was infested by wild and ravenous beasts.

Alma 2:37

Alma 2:38

And it came to pass that many died in the wilderness of their wounds and were devoured by those beasts and also the vultures of the air. And their bones have been found and have been heaped up on the earth.

Alma 3

Alma 3:1

And it came to pass that the Nephites which were not slain by the weapons of war, after having buried those which had been slain—now the number of the slain were not numbered because of the greatness of their number—and after they had finished burying their dead, they all returned to their lands and to their houses and their wives and their children.

Alma 3:2

Now many women and children had been slain with the sword, and also many of their flocks and their herds; and also many of their fields of grain were destroyed, for they were trodden down by the hosts of men.

Alma 3:3

And now as many of the Lamanites and the Amlicites which had been slain upon the bank of the river Sidon were cast into the waters of Sidon. And behold, their bones are in the depths of the sea, and they are many.

Alma 3:4

And the Amlicites were distinguished from the Nephites, for they had marked themselves with red in their foreheads after the manner of the Lamanites; nevertheless they had not shorn their heads like unto the Lamanites.

Alma 3:5

Now the heads of the Lamanites were shorn; and they were naked save it were a skin which was girded about their loins—and also their armor which was girded about them, and their bows and their arrows and their stones and their slings etc.

Alma 3:6

And the skins of the Lamanites were dark, according to the mark which was set upon their fathers, which was a curse upon them because of their transgression and their rebellion against their brethren, which consisted of Nephi, Jacob, and Joseph, and Sam, which were just and holy men; and their brethren sought to destroy them. Therefore they were cursed, and the Lord God set a mark upon them, yea, upon Laman and Lemuel, and also the sons of Ishmael and the Ishmaelitish women.

Alma 3:7

Alma 3:8

And this was done that their seed might be distinguished from the seed of their brethren, that thereby the Lord God might preserve his people, that they might not mix and believe in incorrect traditions, which would prove their destruction.

Alma 3:9

And it came to pass that whosoever did mingle his seed with that of the Lamanites did bring the same curse upon his seed.

Alma 3:10

Therefore whomsoever suffered himself to be led away by the Lamanites were called under that head, and there was a mark set upon him.

Alma 3:11

And it came to pass that whosoever would not believe in the tradition of the Lamanites, but believed those records which were brought out of the land of Jerusalem, and also in the tradition of their fathers, which were correct, which believed in the commandments of God and kept them, were called the Nephites or the people of Nephi from that time forth.

Alma 3:12

And it is they which have kept the records, which are true, of their people and also of the people of the Lamanites.

Alma 3:13

Now we will return again to the Amlicites, for they also had a mark set upon them; yea, they set the mark upon themselves, yea, even a mark of red upon their foreheads.

Alma 3:14

Thus the word of God is fulfilled, for these are the words which he saith to Nephi: Behold, the Lamanites have I cursed; and I will set a mark upon them, that they and their seed may be separated from thee and thy seed from this time henceforth and forever except they repent of their wickedness and turn to me, that I may have mercy upon them.

Alma 3:15

And again, I will set a mark upon him that minglETH his seed with thy brethren, that they may be cursed also.

Alma 3:16

And again, I will set a mark upon him that fighteth against thee and thy seed.

Alma 3:17

And again I say: He that departeth from thee shall no more be called thy seed; and I will bless thee—etc.— and whomsoever shall be called thy seed, henceforth and forever. And these were the promises of the Lord unto Nephi and to his seed.

Alma 3:18

Now the Amlicites knew not that they were fulfilling the words of God when they began to mark themselves in their foreheads. Nevertheless as they had come out in open rebellion against God, therefore it was expedient that the curse should fall upon them.

Alma 3:19

Now I would that ye should see that they brought upon themselves the curse. And even so doeth every man that is cursed bringeth upon himself his own condemnation.

Alma 3:20

Now it came to pass that not many days after the battle which was fought in the land of Zarahemla by the Lamanites and the Amlicites that there was another army of the Lamanites came in upon the people of Nephi in the same place where the first army met the Amlicites.

Alma 3:21

And it came to pass that there was an army sent to drive them out of their land.

Alma 3:22

Now Alma himself, being afflicted with a wound, did not go up to battle at this time against the Lamanites, but he sent up a numerous army against them. And they went up and slew many of the Lamanites and drove the remainder of them out of the borders of their land.

Alma 3:23

Alma 3:24

And then they returned again and began to establish peace in the land, being troubled no more for a time with their enemies.

Alma 3:25

Now all these things were done, yea, all these wars and contentions was commenced and ended in the fifth year of the reign of the judges.

Alma 3:26

And in one year was thousands and tens of thousands of souls sent to the eternal world, that they might reap their rewards according to their works, whether they were good or whether they were bad, to reap eternal happiness or eternal misery, according to the spirit which he listed to obey, whether it be a good spirit or a bad one.

Alma 3:27

For every man receiveth wages of him who he listeth to obey— and this according to the words of the spirit of prophecy; therefore let it be according to the truth. And thus ended the fifth year of the reign of the judges.

Alma 4

Alma 4:1

Now it came to pass in the sixth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi, there was no contentions nor wars in the land of Zarahemla.

Alma 4:2

And the people being afflicted, yea, greatly afflicted, for the loss of their brethren, and also for the loss of their flocks and herds, and also for the loss of their fields of grain, which was trodden under foot and destroyed by the Lamanites

Alma 4:3

—and so great was their afflictions that every soul had cause to mourn, and they believed that it was the judgments of God sent upon them because of their wickedness and their abominations— therefore they were awakened to a remembrance of their duty, and they began to establish the church more fully. Yea, and many were baptized in the waters of Sidon and were joined to the church of God; yea, they were baptized by the hand of Alma, who had been consecrated the high priest over the people of the church by the hand of his father Alma.

And it came to pass in the seventh year of the reign of the judges there was about three thousand five hundred souls that united themselves to the church of God and were baptized. And thus ended the seventh year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi; and there was continual peace in all that time.

Alma 4:6

And it came to pass in the eighth year of the reign of the judges that the people of the church began to wax proud because of their exceeding riches and their fine silks and their fine-twined linen and because of their many flocks and herds and their gold and their silver and all manner of precious things which they had obtained by their industry. And in all these things were they lifted up in the pride of their eyes, for they began to wear very costly apparel.

Alma 4:7

Now this was the cause of much affliction to Alma, yea, and to many of the people which Alma had consecrated to be teachers and priests and elders over the church. Yea, many of them were sorely grieved for the wickedness which they saw had begun to be among their people.

Alma 4:8

For they saw and beheld with great sorrow that the people of the church began to be lifted up in the pride of their eyes and to set their hearts upon riches and upon the vain things of the world, that they began to be scornful one towards another. And they began to persecute those that did not believe according to their own wills and pleasure.

And thus in this eighth year of the reign of the judges there began to be great contentions among the people of the church; yea, there was envyings and strifes and malice and persecutions and pride, even to exceed the pride of those who did not belong to the church of God.

Alma 4:10

And thus ended the eighth year of the reign of the judges. And the wickedness of the church was a great stumbling block to those who did not belong to the church; and thus the church began to fail in its progress.

Alma 4:11

And it came to pass in the commencement of the ninth year, Alma seeing the wickedness of the church and seeing also that the example of the church began to lead those who were unbelievers on from one piece of iniquity to another, thus bringing on the destruction of the people, yea, seeing great inequality among the people, some lifting themselves up with their pride, despising others, turning their backs upon the needy and the naked and those which were hungry and those which were athirst and those which were sick and afflicted

Alma 4:13

—now this was a great cause for lamentations among the people— while others were abasing themselves, succoring those who stood in need of their succor, such as imparting their substance to the poor and the needy, feeding the hungry and suffering all manner of afflictions for Christ's sake, which should come according to the spirit of prophecy, looking forward to that day, thus retaining a remission of their sins, being filled with great joy because of the resurrection of the dead, according to the will and power and deliverance of Jesus Christ from the bands of death.

Alma 4:14

Alma 4:15

And now it came to pass that Alma having seen the afflictions of the humble followers of God and the persecutions which was heaped upon them by the remainder of his people and seeing all their unequality, he began to be very sorrowful. Nevertheless the Spirit of the Lord did not fail him; and he selected a wise man which was among the elders of the church and gave him power according to the voice of the people, that he might have power to enact laws according to the laws which had been given and to put them in force according to the wickedness and the crimes of the people.

Alma 4:17

Now this man's name was Nephihah and he was appointed chief judge; and he sat in the judgment seat to judge and to govern the people.

Alma 4:18

Now Alma did not grant unto him the office of being high priest over the church, but he retained the office of high priest unto himself— but he delivered the judgment seat unto Nephihah.

Alma 4:19

And this he did that he himself might go forth among his people, or among the people of Nephi, that he might preach the word of God unto them, to stir them up in remembrance of their duty, and that he might pull down by the word of God all the pride and craftiness and all the contentions which was among his people, seeing no way that he might reclaim them save it were in bearing down in pure testimony against them.

Alma 4:20

And thus in the commencement of the ninth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi, Alma delivered up the judgment seat to Nephihah and confined himself wholly to the high priesthood of the holy order of God, to the testimony of the word according to the spirit of revelation and prophecy.

Alma 5

The words which Alma, the high priest according to the holy order of God, delivered to the people in their cities and villages throughout the land.

Alma 5:1

Now it came to pass that Alma began to declare the word of God unto the people, first in the land of Zarahemla and from thence throughout all the land.

Alma 5:2

And these are the words which he spake to the people in the church which was established in the city of Zarahemla, according to his own record, saying:

Alma 5:3

I Alma having been consecrated by my father Alma to be a high priest over the church of God, he having power and authority from God to do these things, behold, I say unto you that he began to establish a church in the land which was in the borders of Nephi —yea, the land was called the land of Mormon— yea, and he did baptize his brethren in the waters of Mormon.

Alma 5:4

And behold, I say unto you: They were delivered out of the hand of the people of king Noah by the mercy and power of God.

Alma 5:5

And behold, after that they were brought into bondage by the hands of the Lamanites in the wilderness —yea, I say unto you, they were in captivity— and again the Lord did deliver them out of bondage by the power of his word. And we were brought into this land, and here we began to establish the church of God throughout this land also.

Alma 5:6

And now behold, I say unto you my brethren, you that belong to this church: Have you sufficiently retained in remembrance the captivity of your fathers? Yea, and have you sufficiently retained in remembrance his mercy and long-suffering towards them? And moreover, have ye sufficiently retained in remembrance that he hath delivered their souls from hell?

Alma 5:7

Behold, he changed their hearts; yea, he awaked them out of a deep sleep and they awoke unto God. Behold, they were in the midst of darkness; nevertheless their souls were illuminated by the light of the everlasting word. Yea, they were encircled about by the bands of death and the chains of hell, and an everlasting destruction did await them.

Alma 5:8

And now I ask of you my brethren: Were they destroyed? Behold, I say unto you: Nay, they were not.

Alma 5:9

And again I ask: Was the bands of death broken? And the chains of hell which encircled them about, were they loosed? I say unto you: Yea, they were loosed. And their souls did expand, and they did sing redeeming love. And I say unto you that they are saved.

Alma 5:10

And now I ask of you: On what conditions are they saved? Yea, what grounds had they to hope for salvation? What is the cause of their being loosed from the bands of death, yea, and also the chains of hell?

Alma 5:11

Behold, I can tell you: Did not my father Alma believe in the words which was delivered by the mouth of Abinadi? And was he not a holy prophet? Did he not speak the word of God and my father Alma believed them?

Alma 5:12

And according to his faith there was a mighty change wrought in his heart. Behold, I say unto you that this is all true.

Alma 5:13

And behold, he preached the word unto your fathers; and a mighty change was also wrought in their hearts, and they humbled themselves and put their trust in the true and living God. And behold, they were faithful until the end; therefore they were saved.

Alma 5:14

And now behold, I ask of you, my brethren of the church: Have ye spiritually been born of God? Have ye received his image in your own countenances? Have ye experienced this mighty change in your hearts?

Alma 5:15

Do ye exercise faith in the redemption of him who created you? Do you look forward with an eye of faith and view this mortal body raised in immortality and this corruption raised in incorruption, to stand before God to be judged according to the deeds which hath been done in the mortal body?

Alma 5:16

I say unto you: Can you imagine to yourselves that ye hear the voice of the Lord saying unto you in that day: Come unto me, ye blessed; for behold, your works have been the works of righteousness upon the face of the earth;

Alma 5:17

or do ye imagine to yourselves that ye can lie unto the Lord at that day and say: Lord, our works have been righteous works upon the face of the earth— and that he will save you?

Alma 5:18

Or otherwise, can ye imagine yourselves brought before the tribunal of God with your souls filled with guilt and remorse, having a remembrance of all your guilt, yea, a perfect remembrance of all your wickedness, yea, a remembrance that ye have set at defiance the commandments of God?

Alma 5:19

I say unto you: Can ye look up to God at that day with a pure heart and clean hands? I say unto you: Can you look up, having the image of God engraven upon your countenances?

Alma 5:20

I say unto you: Can ye think of being saved when you have yielded yourselves to become subjects to the devil?

Alma 5:21

I say unto you: Ye will know at that day that ye cannot be saved; for there can no man be saved except his garments are washed white; yea, his garments must be purified until it is cleansed from all stain through the blood of him of whom it hath been spoken by our fathers which should come to redeem his people from their sins.

Alma 5:22

And now I ask of you my brethren: How will any of you feel if ye shall stand before the bar of God, having your garments stained with blood and all manner of filthiness? Behold, what will these things testify against you?

Alma 5:23

Behold, will they not testify that ye are murderers? Yea, and also that ye are guilty of all manner of wickedness?

Alma 5:24

Behold, my brethren, do ye suppose that such an one can have a place to sit down in the kingdom of God with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob, and also all the holy prophets, whose garments are cleansed and are spotless, pure, and white?

Alma 5:25

I say unto you: Nay, except ye make our Creator a liar from the beginning, or suppose that he is a liar from the beginning. Or also, ye cannot suppose that such an one can have place in the kingdom of heaven, but they shall be cast out; for they are the children of the kingdom of the devil.

Alma 5:26

And now behold, I say unto you my brethren: If ye have experienced a change of heart and if ye have felt to sing the song of redeeming love, I would ask: Can ye feel so now?

Alma 5:27

Have ye walked keeping yourselves blameless before God? Could ye say—if ye were called to die at this time—within yourselves that ye have been sufficiently humble, that your garments have been cleansed and made white through the blood of Christ? —which will come to redeem his people from their sins.

Alma 5:28

Behold, are ye stripped of pride? I say unto you: If ye are not, ye are not prepared to meet God. Behold, ye must prepare quickly; for the kingdom of heaven is soon at hand, and such an one hath not eternal life.

Alma 5:29

Behold, I say: Is there one among you who is not stripped of envy? I say unto you that such an one is not prepared. And I would that he should prepare quickly, for the hour is close at hand; and he knoweth not when the time shall come, for such an one is not found guiltless.

Alma 5:30

And again I say unto you: Is there one among you that doth make a mock of his brother or that heapeth upon him persecutions?

Alma 5:31

Woe unto such an one, for he is not prepared; and the time is at hand that he must repent or he cannot be saved.

Alma 5:32

Yea, even woe unto all ye workers of iniquity. Repent, repent, for the Lord God hath spoken it.

Alma 5:33

Behold, he sendeth an invitation unto all men; for the arms of mercy is extended towards them, and he saith: Repent and I will receive you.

Alma 5:34

Yea, he saith: Come unto me and ye shall partake of the fruit of the tree of life; yea, ye shall eat and drink of the bread and the waters of life freely.

Alma 5:35

Yea, come unto me and bring forth works of righteousness, and ye shall not be cut down and cast into the fire.

Alma 5:36

For behold, the time is at hand that whosoever bringeth forth not good fruit, or whosoever doeth not the works of righteousness, the same hath cause to wail and mourn.

Alma 5:37

O ye workers of iniquity, ye that are puffed up in the vain things of the world, ye that have professed to have known the ways of righteousness! Nevertheless ye have gone astray as sheep having no shepherd, notwithstanding a shepherd hath called after you and art still calling after you, but ye will not hearken unto his voice.

Alma 5:38

Behold, I say unto you that the good shepherd doth call you; yea, and in his own name he doth call you, which is the name of Christ. And if ye will not hearken unto the voice of the good shepherd, to the name by which ye are called, behold, ye are not the sheep of the good shepherd.

Alma 5:39

And now if ye are not the sheep of the good shepherd, of what fold are ye? Behold, I say unto you that the devil is your shepherd, and ye are of his fold. And now, who can deny this? Behold, I say unto you: Whosoever denieth this is a liar and a child of the devil.

Alma 5:40

For I say unto you that whatsoever is good cometh from God and whatsoever is evil cometh from the devil.

Alma 5:41

Therefore if a man bringeth forth good works, he hearkeneth unto the voice of the good shepherd and he doth follow him. But whosoever bringeth forth evil works, the same becometh a child of the devil, for he hearkeneth unto his voice and doth follow him.

Alma 5:42

And whosoever doeth this must receive his wages of him. Therefore for his wages he receiveth death as to things pertaining unto righteousness, being dead unto all good works.

Alma 5:43

And now my brethren, I would that ye should hear me, for I speak in the energy of my soul. For behold, I have spoken unto you plain, that ye cannot err, or have spoken according to the commandments of God.

Alma 5:44

For I am called to speak after this manner according to the holy order of God, which is in Christ Jesus. Yea, I am commanded to stand and testify unto this people the things which have been spoken by our fathers concerning the things which is to come.

Alma 5:45

And this is not all. Do ye suppose that I know not of these things myself? Behold, I testify unto you that I do know that these things whereof I have spoken are true. And how do ye suppose that I know of their surety?

Alma 5:46

Behold, I say unto you: They are made known unto me by the Holy Spirit of God. Behold, I have fasted and prayed many days that I might know these things of myself. And now I do know of myself that they are true, for the Lord God hath made them manifest unto me by his Holy Spirit; and this is the spirit of revelation which is in me.

Alma 5:47

And moreover I say unto you that as it has thus been revealed unto me that the words which have been spoken by our fathers are true, even so according to the spirit of prophecy which is in me, which is also by the manifestation of the Spirit of God,

Alma 5:48

I say unto you that I know of myself that whatsoever I shall say unto you concerning that which is to come is true. And I say unto you that I know that Jesus Christ shall come, yea, the Son, the Only Begotten of the Father, full of grace and mercy and truth. And behold, it is he that cometh to take away the sins of the world, yea, the sins of every man which steadfastly believeth on his name.

Alma 5:49

And now I say unto you that this is the order after which I am called, yea, to preach unto my beloved brethren —yea, and every one that dwelleth in the land— yea, to preach unto all, both old and young, both bond and free; yea, I say unto you, the aged and also the middle aged and the rising generation, yea, to cry unto them that they must repent and be born again.

Alma 5:50

Yea, thus saith the Spirit: Repent, all ye ends of the earth, for the kingdom of heaven is soon at hand. Yea, the Son of God cometh in his glory, in his might, majesty, power, and dominion. Yea, my beloved brethren, I say unto you that the Spirit saith: Behold, the glory of the King of all the earth and also the King of heaven shall very soon shine forth among all the children of men.

Alma 5:51

And also the Spirit saith unto me, yea, crieth unto me with a mighty voice, saying: Go forth and say unto this people: Repent! For except ye repent, ye can in no wise inherit the kingdom of heaven.

Alma 5:52

And again I say unto you: The Spirit saith: Behold, the ax is laid at the root of the tree. Therefore every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit shall be hewn down and cast into the fire, yea, a fire which cannot be consumed, even an unquenchable fire. Behold and remember, the Holy One hath spoken it!

Alma 5:53

And now my beloved brethren, I say unto you: Can ye withstand these sayings? Yea, can ye lay aside these things and trample the Holy One under your feet? Yea, can ye be puffed up in the pride of your hearts? Yea, will ye still persist in the wearing of costly apparel and setting your hearts upon the vain things of the world, upon your riches?

Alma 5:54

Yea, will ye persist in supposing that ye are better one than another? Yea, will ye persist in the persecutions of your brethren who humble themselves and do walk after the holy order of God wherewith they have been brought into this church, having been sanctified by the Holy Spirit? —and they do bring forth works which is meet for repentance.

Alma 5:55

Yea, and will you persist in turning your backs upon the poor and the needy and in withholding your substance from them?

Alma 5:56

And finally, all ye that will persist in your wickedness, I say unto you that these are they which shall be hewn down and cast into the fire except they speedily repent.

Alma 5:57

And now I say unto you, all you that are desirous to follow the voice of the good shepherd: Come ye out from the wicked¹ and ²be ye separate and touch not their unclean things. And behold, their names shall be blotted out, that the names of the wicked shall not be numbered among the names of the righteous, that the word of God may be fulfilled which saith: The names of the wicked shall not be mingled with the names of my people; for the names of the righteous shall be written in the book of life, and unto them will I grant an inheritance at my right hand. And now my brethren, what have ye to say against this? I say unto you: If ye speak against it, it matters not, for the word of God must be fulfilled.

Alma 5:59

For what shepherd is there among you, having many sheep, doth not watch over them that the wolves enter not and devour his flock? And behold, if a wolf enter his flock, doth he not drive him out? Yea, and at the last, if he can, he will destroy him.

Alma 5:60

And now I say unto you that the good shepherd doth call after you. And if you will hearken unto his voice, he will bring you into his fold and ye are his sheep. And he commandeth you that ye suffer no ravenous wolf to enter among you, that ye may not be destroyed.

Alma 5:61

And now I Alma do command you in the language of him who hath commanded me that ye observe to do the words which I have spoken unto you.

Alma 5:62

I speak by way of command unto you that belong to the church. And unto those which do not belong to the church, I speak by way of invitation, saying: Come and be baptized unto repentance, that ye also may be partakers of the fruit of the tree of life.

Alma 6

Alma 6:1

And now it came to pass that after Alma had made an end of speaking unto the people of the church which was established in the city of Zarahemla, he ordained priests and elders by laying on his hands, according to the order of God, to preside and watch over the church.

Alma 6:2

And it came to pass that whomsoever did not belong to the church who repented of their sins was baptized unto repentance and was received into the church.

Alma 6:3

And it also came to pass that whomsoever did belong to the church that did not repent of their wickedness and humble themselves before God—I mean those which were lifted up in the pride of their hearts—the same were rejected and their names were blotted out, that their names were not numbered among those of the righteous.

Alma 6:4

And thus they began to establish the order of the church in the city of Zarahemla.

Alma 6:5

Now I would that ye should understand that the word of God was liberal unto all, that no one was deprived of the privilege of assembling themselves together to hear the word of God.

Alma 6:6

Nevertheless the children of God were commanded that they should gather themselves together oft and join in fasting and mighty prayer in behalf of the welfare of the souls of those who knew not God.

Alma 6:7

And now it came to pass that when Alma had made these regulations, he departed from them, yea, from the church which was in the city of Zarahemla, and went over upon the east of the river Sidon into the valley of Gideon, there having been a city built which was called the city of Gideon, which was in the valley that was called Gideon, being called after the man which was slain by the hand of Nehor with the sword.

Alma 6:8

And Alma went and began to declare the word of God unto the church which was established in the valley of Gideon, according to the revelation of the truth of the word which had been spake by his fathers and according to the spirit of prophecy which was in him —according to the testimony of Jesus Christ the Son of God, which should come for to redeem his people from their sins— and the holy order by which he was called. And thus it is written. Amen.

Alma 7

The words of Alma which he delivered to the people in Gideon, according to his own record.

Alma 7:1

Behold, my beloved brethren, seeing that I have been permitted to come unto you, therefore I attempt to address you in my language, yea, by my own mouth, seeing that it is the first time that I have spoken unto you by the words of my mouth, I having been wholly confined to the judgment seat, having had much business that I could not come unto you.

Alma 7:2

And even I could not have come now at this time were it not that the judgment seat hath been given to another to reign in my stead. And the Lord in much mercy hath granted that I should come unto you; and behold, I have come having great hopes and much desire that I should find that ye had humbled yourselves before God and that ye had continued in the supplicating of his grace, that I should find that ye were blameless before him, that I should find that ye were not in the awful dilemma that our brethren were in at Zarahemla.

Alma 7:3

Alma 7:4

But blessed be the name of God that he hath given unto me to know, yea, hath given unto me the exceeding great joy of knowing that they are established again in the way of his righteousness.

Alma 7:5

And I trust according to the Spirit of God which is in me that I shall also have joy over you. Nevertheless I do not desire that my joy over you should come by the cause of so much afflictions and sorrow which I have had for the brethren at Zarahemla. For behold, my joy cometh over them after wading through much afflictions and sorrow.

Alma 7:6

But behold, I trust that ye are not in a state of so much unbelief as were your brethren. I trust that ye are not lifted up in the pride of your hearts. Yea, I trust that ye have not set your hearts upon riches and the vain things of the world. Yea, I trust that you do not worship idols, but that ye do worship the true and the living God and that ye look forward for the remission of your sins —with an everlasting faith— which is to come.

Alma 7:7

For behold, I say unto you, there be many things to come. And behold, there is one thing which is of more importance than they all: for behold, the time is not far distant that the Redeemer liveth and cometh among his people.

Behold, I do not say that he will come among us at the time of his dwelling in his mortal tabernacle; for behold, the Spirit hath not said unto me that this should be the case. Now as to this thing I do not know; but this much I do know, that the Lord God hath power to do all things which is according to his word.

Alma 7:9

But behold, the Spirit hath said this much unto me, saying: Cry unto this people, saying: Repent ye, repent ye, and prepare the way of the Lord and walk in his paths, which are straight; for behold, the kingdom of heaven is at hand, and the Son of God cometh upon the face of the earth.

Alma 7:10

And behold, he shall be born of Mary at Jerusalem, which is the land of our forefathers, she being a virgin, a precious and chosen vessel, who shall be overshadowed and conceive by the power of the Holy Ghost and bring forth a son, yea, even the Son of God.

Alma 7:11

And he shall go forth, suffering pains and afflictions and temptations of every kind— and this that the word might be fulfilled which saith: He will take upon him the pains and the sicknesses of his people.

Alma 7:12

And he will take upon him death, that he may loose the bands of death which binds his people. And he will take upon him their infirmities, that his bowels may be filled with mercy according to the flesh, that he may know according to the flesh how to succor¹ his people according to their infirmities.

Alma 7:13

Now the Spirit knoweth all things; nevertheless the Son of God suffereth according to the flesh, that he might take upon him the sins of his people, that he might blot out their transgressions according to the power of his deliverance. And now behold, this is the testimony which is in me.

Alma 7:14

Now I say unto you that ye must repent and be born again, for the Spirit saith: If ye are not born again, ye cannot inherit the kingdom of heaven. Therefore come and be baptized unto repentance, that ye may be washed from your sins, that ye may have faith on the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sins of the world, which is mighty to save and to cleanse from all unrighteousness.

Alma 7:15

Yea, I say unto you: Come and fear not, and lay aside every sin which easily doth beset you, which doth bind you down to destruction. Yea, come and go forth, and show unto your God that ye are willing to repent of your sins and enter into a covenant with him to keep his commandments, and witness it unto him this day by going into the waters of baptism.

Alma 7:16

And whosoever doeth this and keepeth the commandments of God from thenceforth, the same will remember that I say unto him, yea, he will remember that I have said unto him: He shall have eternal life— according to the testimony of the Holy Spirit which testifieth in me.

Alma 7:17

And now my beloved brethren, do you believe these things? Behold, I say unto you: Yea, I know that you believe them. And the way that I know that ye believe them is by the manifestations of the Spirit which is in me. And now because your faith is strong concerning that, yea, concerning the things which I have spoken, great is my joy.

Alma 7:18

For as I said unto you from the beginning, that I had much desire that ye was not in the state of dilemma like your brethren, even so I have found that my desires have been gratified.

Alma 7:19

For I perceive that ye are in the paths of righteousness. I perceive that ye are in the path which leads to the kingdom of God. Yea, I perceive that ye are making his paths straight.

Alma 7:20

I perceive that it hath been made known unto you by the testimony of his word that he cannot walk in crooked paths, neither doth he vary from that which he hath said, neither hath he a shadow of turning from the right to the left, or from that which is right to that which is wrong. Therefore his course is one ¹eternal round.

Alma 7:21

And he doth not dwell in unholy temples, neither can filthiness or any thing which is unclean be received into the kingdom of God. Therefore I say unto you: The time shall come —yea, and it shall be at the last day— that he which is filthy shall remain in his filthiness.

Alma 7:22

And now my beloved brethren, I have said these things unto you that I might awaken you to a sense of your duty to God, that ye may walk blameless before him, that ye may walk after the holy order of God after which ye have been received.

Alma 7:23

²And now I would that ye should be humble and be submissive and gentle, easy to be entreated, full of patience and long-suffering, being temperate in all things, being diligent in keeping the commandments of God at all times, asking for whatsoever things ye stand in need, both spiritual and temporal, always returning thanks unto God for whatsoever things ye do receive.

Alma 7:24

And see that ye have faith, hope, and charity, and then ye will always abound in good works.

¹For “eternal round,” see here.

²The list of qualities in this verse has some in common with that in Mosiah 3:19 and seems to be influenced by that discussion.

Alma 7:25

And may the Lord bless you and keep your garments spotless, that ye may at last be brought to sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and the holy prophets which have been ever since the world began, having your garments spotless—even as their garments are spotless—in the kingdom of heaven, to go no more out.

Alma 7:26

And now my beloved brethren, I have spoken these words unto you according to the Spirit which testifieth in me. And my soul doth exceedingly rejoice because of the exceeding diligence and heed which ye have given unto my word.

Alma 7:27

And now may the peace of God rest upon you and upon your houses and lands and upon your flocks and herds and all that you possess, your women and your children, according to your faith and good works from this time forth and forever. And thus I have spoken. Amen.

Alma 8

Alma 8:1

And now it came to pass that Alma returned from the land of Gideon, after having taught the people of Gideon many things which cannot be written, having established the order of the church according as he had before done in the land of Zarahemla, yea, he returned to his own house at Zarahemla to rest himself from the labors which he had performed.

Alma 8:2

And thus ended the ninth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi.

Alma 8:3

And it came to pass in the commencement of the tenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi that Alma departed from thence and took his journey over into the land of Melek, on the west of the river Sidon, on the west by the borders of the wilderness.

Alma 8:4

And he began to teach the people in the land of Melek according to the holy order of God by which he had been called, and he began to teach the people throughout all the land of Melek.

Alma 8:5

And it came to pass that the people came to him throughout all the borders of the land which was by the wilderness side. And it came to pass that they were baptized throughout all the land.

Alma 8:6

So that when he had finished his work at Melek, he departed thence and traveled three days' journey on the north of the land of Melek, and he came to a city which was called Ammonihah.

Alma 8:7

Now it was the custom of the people of Nephi to call their lands and their cities and their villages, yea, even all their small villages, after the name of him who first possessed them; and thus it was with the land of Ammonihah.

Alma 8:8

And it came to pass that when Alma had came to the city of Ammonihah, he began to preach the word of God unto them.

Alma 8:9

Now Satan had got great hold upon the hearts of the people of the city of Ammonihah; therefore they would not hearken unto the words of Alma.

Alma 8:10

Nevertheless Alma labored much in the spirit, wrestling with God in mighty prayer, that he would pour out his Spirit upon the people which was in the city, that he would also grant that he might baptize them unto repentance.

Alma 8:11

Nevertheless they hardened their hearts, saying unto him: Behold, we know that thou art Alma; and we know that thou art high priest over the church which thou hast established in many parts of the land according to your tradition. And we are not of thy church, and we do not believe in such foolish traditions.

Alma 8:12

And now we know that because we are not of thy church, we know that thou hast no power over us. And thou hast delivered up the judgment seat unto Nephihah; therefore thou art not the chief judge over us.

Alma 8:13

Now when the people had said this and had withstood all his words and reviled him and spit upon him and caused that he should be cast out of their city, and he departed thence and took his journey towards the city which was called Aaron.

Alma 8:14

And it came to pass that while he was journeying thither, being weighed down with sorrow, wading through much tribulation and anguish of soul because of the wickedness of the people which was in the city of Ammonihah, and it came to pass that while Alma was thus weighed down with sorrow, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared unto him, saying:

Alma 8:15

Blessed art thou Alma. Therefore lift up thy head and rejoice, for thou hast great cause to rejoice. For thou hast been faithful in keeping the commandments of God from the time which thou received thy first message from him. Behold, I am he that delivered it unto thee.

Alma 8:16

And behold, I am sent to command thee that thou return to the city of Ammonihah and preach again unto the people of the city, yea, preach unto them, yea, say unto them, except they repent the Lord God will destroy them.

Alma 8:17

For behold, they do study at this time that they may destroy the liberty of thy people—for thus saith the Lord—which is contrary to the statutes and judgments and commandments which he hath given unto his people.

Alma 8:18

Now it came to pass that after Alma had received his message from the angel of the Lord, he returned speedily to the land of Ammonihah. And it came to pass that he entered the city by another way, yea, by the way which was on the south of the city Ammonihah.

Alma 8:19

And it came to pass that as he entered the city, he was an hungered; and he saith to a man: Will ye give to an humble servant of God something to eat?

Alma 8:20

And the man saith unto him: I am a Nephite and I know that thou art a holy prophet of God, for thou art the man which an angel saith in a vision thou shalt receive. Therefore go with me into my house, and I will impart unto thee of my food. And I know that thou will be a blessing unto me and my house.

Alma 8:21

And it came to pass that the man received him into his house. And the man was called Amulek; and he brought forth bread and meat and sat before Alma.

Alma 8:22

And it came to pass that Alma ate bread and he was filled; and he blessed Amulek and his house, and he gave thanks unto God.

Alma 8:23

And after he had eat and was filled, he saith unto Amulek: I am Alma and am the high priest over the churches of God throughout the land.

Alma 8:24

And behold, I have been called to preach the word of God among all this people according to the spirit of revelation and prophecy. And I was in this land; and they would not receive me, but they cast me out. And I was about to set my back towards this land forever.

Alma 8:25

But behold, I have been commanded that I should turn again and prophesy unto this people, yea, and to testify against them concerning their iniquities.

Alma 8:26

And now Amulek, because thou hast fed me and took me in, thou art blessed, for I was an hungered, for I had fasted many days.

Alma 8:27

And it came to pass that Alma tarried many days with Amulek before he began to preach unto the people.

Alma 8:28

And it came to pass that the people did wax more gross in their iniquities.

Alma 8:29

And the word came to Alma, saying: Go. And also say unto my servant Amulek: Go forth and prophesy unto this people, saying: Repent ye, for thus saith the Lord: Except ye repent, I will visit this people in mine anger; yea, and I will not turn my fierce anger away.

Alma 8:30

And it came to pass that Alma went forth—and also Amulek—among the people to declare the words of God unto them. And they were filled with the Holy Ghost; and they had power given unto them, insomuch that they could not be confined in dungeons, neither were it possible that any man could slay them. Nevertheless they did not exercise their power until they were bound in bands and cast into prison. Now this was done that the Lord might show forth his power in them.

Alma 8:31

Alma 8:32

And it came to pass that they went forth and began to preach and to prophesy unto the people according to the spirit and power which the Lord had given them.

Alma 9

The words of Alma and also the words of Amulek which was declared unto the people which was in the land of Ammonihah. And also they are cast into prison and delivered by the miraculous power of God which was in them, according to the record of Alma.

Alma 9:1

And again, I Alma having been commanded of God that I should take Amulek and go forth and preach again unto this people—or the people which was in the city of Ammonihah—and it came to pass as I began to preach unto them, they began to contend with me, saying:

Alma 9:2

Who art thou? Suppose ye that we shall believe the testimony of one man, although he should preach unto us that the earth should pass away?

Alma 9:3

Now they understood not the words which they spake, for they knew not that the earth should pass away.

Alma 9:4

And they saith also: We will not believe thy words if thou shouldst prophesy that this great city should be destroyed in one day.

Alma 9:5

Now they knew not that God could do such marvelous works, for they were a hard-hearted and a stiffnecked people.

Alma 9:6

And they saith: Who is God that sendeth no more authority than one man among this people to declare unto them the truth of such great and marvelous things?

Alma 9:7

And they stood forth to lay their hands on me; but behold, they did not. And I stood with boldness to declare unto them; yea, I did boldly testify unto them, saying:

Alma 9:8

Behold, O ye wicked and perverse generation, how have ye forgotten the tradition of your fathers? Yea, how soon ye have forgotten the commandments of God!

Alma 9:9

Do ye not remember that our father Lehi was brought out of Jerusalem by the hand of God? Do ye not remember that they were all led by him through the wilderness?

Alma 9:10

And have ye forgotten so soon how many times he delivered our fathers out of the hands of their enemies and preserved them from being destroyed, even by the hands of their own brethren?

Alma 9:11

Yea, and if it had not been for his matchless power and his mercy and his long-suffering towards us, we should unavoidably have been cut off from the face of the earth long before this period of time, and perhaps been consigned to a state of endless misery and woe.

Alma 9:12

Behold, now I say unto you that he commandeth you to repent. And except ye repent, ye can in no wise inherit the kingdom of God. But behold, this is not all. He hath commanded you to repent, or he will utterly destroy you from off the face of the earth. Yea, he will visit you in his anger; and in his fierce anger he will not turn away.

Alma 9:13

Behold, do ye not remember the words which he spake unto Lehi, saying that inasmuch as ye shall keep my commandments, ye shall prosper in the land. And again it is said that inasmuch as ye will not keep my commandments, ye shall be cut off from the presence of the Lord.

Alma 9:14

Now I would that ye should remember that inasmuch as the Lamanites have not kept the commandments of God, they have been cut off from the presence of the Lord. Now we see that the word of the Lord hath been verified in this thing, and the Lamanites have been cut off from his presence from the beginning of their transgressions in the land.

Alma 9:15

Nevertheless I say unto you that it shall be more tolerable for them in the day of judgment than for you if ye remain in your sins, yea, and even more tolerable for them in this life than for you, except ye repent.

Alma 9:16

For there are many promises which is extended to the Lamanites, for it is because of the traditions of their fathers that causeth them to remain in their state of ignorance. Therefore the Lord will be merciful unto them and prolong their existence in the land.

Alma 9:17

And at some period of time they will be brought to believe in his word and to know of the incorrectness of the traditions of their fathers; and many of them will be saved, for the Lord will be merciful unto all who call on his name.

Alma 9:18

But behold, I say unto you that if ye persist in your wickedness that your days shall not be prolonged in the land, for the Lamanites shall be sent upon you. And if ye repent not, they shall come in a time when you know not, and ye shall be visited with utter destruction. And it shall be according to the fierce anger of the Lord, for he will not suffer you that ye shall live in your iniquities, to destroy his people. I say unto you: Nay, he would rather suffer that the Lamanites might destroy all this people, which is called the people of Nephi, if it were possible that they could fall into sins and transgressions after having had so much light and so much knowledge given unto them of the Lord their God; yea, after having been such a highly favored people of the Lord; yea, after having been favored above every other nation, kindred, tongue, or people; after having had all things made known unto them, according to their desires and their faith and prayers, of that which has been and which is and which is to come;

Alma 9:19

Alma 9:20

Alma 9:21

having been visited by the Spirit of God, having conversed with angels, and having been spoken unto by the voice of the Lord, and having the spirit of prophecy and the spirit of revelation; and also many gifts: the gift of speaking with tongues and the gift of preaching and the gift of the Holy Ghost and the gift of translation;

Alma 9:22

yea, and after having been delivered of God out of the land of Jerusalem by the hand of the Lord, having been saved from famine and from sicknesses and all manner of diseases of every kind; and they having been waxed strong in battle that they might not be destroyed; having been brought out of bondage time after time and having been kept and preserved until now; and they have been prospered until they are rich in all manner of things—and now behold, I say unto you that if this people, who have received so many blessings from the hand of the Lord, should transgress contrary to the light and knowledge which they do have, I say unto you that if this be the case, that if they should fall into transgression, that it would be far more tolerable for the Lamanites than for them.

Alma 9:24

For behold, the promises of the Lord are extended to the Lamanites, but they are not unto you if ye transgress. For hath not the Lord expressly promised and firmly decreed that if ye will rebel against him that ye shall utterly be destroyed from off the face of the earth?

Alma 9:25

And now for this cause that ye may not be destroyed, the Lord hath sent his angel to visit many of his people, declaring unto them that they must go forth and cry mightily unto this people, saying: Repent ye, repent ye, for the kingdom of heaven is nigh at hand.

Alma 9:26

And not many days hence the Son of God shall come in his glory, and his glory shall be the glory of the Only Begotten of the Father, full of grace, equity, and truth, full of patience, mercy, and long-suffering, quick to hear the cries of his people and to answer their prayers.

Alma 9:27

And behold, he cometh to redeem those who will be baptized unto repentance through faith on his name.

Alma 9:28

Therefore prepare ye the way of the Lord, for the time is at hand that every man shall reap a reward of their works according to that which they have been: if they have been righteous, they shall reap the salvation of their souls according to the power and deliverance of Jesus Christ; and if they have been evil, they shall reap the damnation of their souls according to the power and captivity of the devil.

Alma 9:29

Now behold, this is the voice of the angel crying unto the people.

Alma 9:30

And now my beloved brethren—for ye are my brethren and ye had ought to be beloved—and ye had ought to bring forth works which is meet for repentance, seeing that your hearts have been grossly hardened against the word of God and seeing that ye are a lost and a fallen people.

Alma 9:31

Now it came to pass that when I Alma had spoken these words, behold, the people were wroth with me because I said unto them that they was a hard-hearted and a stiffnecked people.

Alma 9:32

And also because I said unto them that they were a lost and a fallen people, they was angry with me and sought to lay their hands upon me, that they might cast me into prison.

Alma 9:33

But it came to pass that the Lord did not suffer them that they should take me at that time and cast me into prison.

Alma 9:34

And it came to pass that Amulek went and stood forth and began to preach unto them also. And now the words of Amulek are not all written; nevertheless a part of his words are written in this book.

Alma 10

Alma 10:1

Now these are the words which Amulek preached unto the people which was in the land of Ammonihah, saying:

Alma 10:2

I am Amulek. I am the son of Gidanah, who was the son of Ishmael, who was a descendant of Aminadi; and it was that same Aminadi which interpreted the writing which was upon the wall of the temple, which was written by the finger of God.

Alma 10:3

And Aminadi was a descendant of Nephi, who was the son of Lehi, who came out of the land of Jerusalem, who was a descendant of Manasseh, who was the son of Joseph, which was sold into Egypt by the hands of his brethren.

Alma 10:4

And behold, I am also a man of no small reputation among all those who know me; yea, and behold, I have many kindred and friends. And I have also acquired much riches by the hand of my industry.

Alma 10:5

Nevertheless, after all this, I never have known much of the ways of the Lord and his mysteries and marvelous power. I said I never had known much of these things— but behold, I mistake, for I have seen much of his mysteries and his miraculous power, yea, even in the preservation of the lives of this people.

Alma 10:6

Nevertheless I did harden my heart, for I was called many times and I would not hear. Therefore I knew concerning these things, yet I would not know. Therefore I went on rebelling against God in the wickedness of my heart, even until the fourth day of this seventh month, which is in the tenth year of the reign of our judges.

As I was a journeying to see a very near kindred, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared unto me and said: Amulek, return to thine own house, for thou shalt feed a prophet of the Lord, yea, a holy man which art a chosen man of God; for he hath fasted many days because of the sins of this people, and he is an hungered. And thou shalt receive him into thy house and feed him. And he shall bless thee and thy house, and the blessing of the Lord shall rest upon thee and thy house.

Alma 10:8

And it came to pass that I obeyed the voice of the angel and returned towards my house. And as I was a going thither, I found the man which the angel said unto me thou shalt receive into thy house; and behold, it was this same man which hath been speaking unto you concerning the things of God.

Alma 10:9

And the angel said unto me: He is a holy man. Wherefore I know he is a holy man because it was said by an angel of God.

Alma 10:10

And again I know that the things whereof he hath testified are true. For behold, I say unto you that as the Lord liveth, even so he hath sent his angel to make these things manifest unto me; and this he hath done while this Alma hath dwelt at my house.

Alma 10:11

For behold, he hath blessed mine house; he hath blessed me and my women and my children and my father and my kinsfolks—yea, even all my kindred hath he blessed—and the blessing of the Lord hath rested upon us according to the words which he spake.

Alma 10:12

And now when Amulek had spoken these words, the people began to be astonished, seeing there was more than one witness which testified of the things whereof they were accused, and also of the things which was to come, according to the spirit of prophecy which was in them.

Alma 10:13

Nevertheless there were some among them which thought to question them, that by their cunning devices they might catch them in their words, that they might find witness against them, that they might deliver them to the judges, that they might be judged according to the law, and that they might be slain or cast into prison—according to the crime which they could make appear or witness against them.

Alma 10:14

Now it was those men which sought to destroy them, which were lawyers which were hired or appointed by the people to administer the law at their times of trial, or at the trials of the crimes of the people before the judges

Alma 10:15

—now these lawyers were learned in all the arts and cunning of the people, and this was to enable them that they might be skillful in their profession—and it came to pass that they began to question Amulek, that thereby they might make him cross his words or contradict the words which he should speak.

Alma 10:17

Now they knew not that Amulek could know of their design. But it came to pass as they began to question him, he perceived their thoughts, and he saith unto them: O ye wicked and perverse generation, ye lawyers and hypocrites, for ye are laying the foundations of the devil, for ye are laying traps and snares to catch the holy ones of God.

Alma 10:18

Ye are laying plans to pervert the ways of the righteous and to bring down the wrath of God upon your heads, even to the utter destruction of this people.

Alma 10:19

Yea, well did Mosiah say, who was our last king, when he was about to deliver up the kingdom —having no one to confer it upon, causing that this people should be governed by their own voices— yea, well did he say that if the time should come that the voice of this people should choose iniquity —that is, if the time should come that this people should fall into transgression— they would be ripe for destruction.

Alma 10:20

And now I say unto you that well doth the Lord judge of your iniquities; well doth he cry unto this people by the voice of his angels: Repent ye, repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

Alma 10:21

Yea, well doth he cry by the voice of his angels that I will come down among my people with equity and justice in my hands.

Alma 10:22

Yea, and I say unto you that if it were not for the prayers of the righteous which are now in the land that ye would even now be visited with utter destruction. Yet it would not be by flood as were the people in the days of Noah, but it would be by famine and by pestilence and the sword.

Alma 10:23

But it is by the prayers of the righteous that ye are spared. Now therefore if ye will cast out the righteous from among you, then will not the Lord stay his hand, but in his fierce anger he will come out against you; then ye shall be smitten by famine and by pestilence and by the sword. And the time is soon at hand except ye repent.

Alma 10:24

And now it came to pass that the people were more angry with Amulek, and they cried out, saying: This man doth revile against our laws, which are just, and our wise lawyers, which we have selected.

Alma 10:25

But Amulek stretched forth his hand and cried the mightier unto them, saying: O ye wicked and perverse generation, why hath Satan got such great hold upon your hearts? Why will ye yield yourselves unto him, that he may have power over you to blind your eyes, that ye will not understand the words which are spoken according to their truth?

Alma 10:26

For behold, have I testified against your law? Ye do not understand. Ye say that I have spoken against your law, but I have not; but I have spoken in favor of your law, to your condemnation.

Alma 10:27

And now behold, I say unto you that the foundation of the destruction of this people is a beginning to be laid by the unrighteousness of your lawyers and your judges.

Alma 10:28

And now it came to pass that when Amulek had spoken these words, the people cried out against him: Now we know that this man is a child of the devil, for he hath lied unto us; for he hath spoken against our law. And now he saith that he hath not spoken against it.

Alma 10:29

And again, he hath reviled against our lawyers and our judges etc.

Alma 10:30

And it came to pass that the lawyers put it into their hearts that they should remember these things against him.

Alma 10:31

And it came to pass that there was one among them whose name was Zeezrom— now he being the foremost to accuse Amulek and Alma, he being one of the most expert among them, having much business to do among the people.

Alma 10:32

Now the object of these lawyers were to get gain, and they gat gain according to their employ.

Alma 11

Alma 11:1

Now it was in the law of Mosiah that every man which was a judge of the law, or which was appointed to be judges, should receive his wages according to the time which they labored to judge those which were brought before them to be judged.

Alma 11:2

Now if a man oweth another and he would not pay that which he did owe, he was complained of to the judge; and the judge executed authority and sent forth officers that the man should be brought before him. And he judgeth the man according to the law and the evidences which are brought against him; and thus the man is compelled to pay that which he oweth, or be striped or be cast out from among the people as a thief and a robber.

Alma 11:3

And the judge receiveth for his wages according to his time: a senine of gold for a day, or a senum of silver, which is equal to a senine of gold. And this is according to the law which was given.

Alma 11:4

Now these are the names of the different pieces of their gold and of their silver, according to their value; and the names are given by the Nephites. For they did not reckon after the manner of the Jews which were at Jerusalem, neither did they measure after the manner of the Jews; but they altered their reckoning and their measure according to the minds and the circumstances of the people, in every generation until the reign of the judges— they having been established by king Mosiah.

Alma 11:5

Now the reckoning is thus: a senine of gold, a seon of gold, a shum of gold, and a limnah of gold;

Alma 11:6

a senum of silver, an amnor of silver, an ezrum of silver, and an onti of silver.

Alma 11:7

A senum of silver was equal to a senine of gold, and either for a measure of barley, and also for a measure of every kind of grain.

Alma 11:8

Now the amount of a seon of gold was twice the value of a senine.

Alma 11:9

And a shum of gold was twice the value of a seon.

Alma 11:10

And a limnah of gold was the value of them all.

Alma 11:11

And an amnor of silver was as great as two senums.

Alma 11:12

And an ezrum of silver was as great as four senums.

Alma 11:13

And an onti was as great as them all.

Alma 11:14

Now this is the value of the lesser numbers of their reckoning:

Alma 11:15

a shiblon is half of a senum; therefore a shiblon for a half a measure of barley.

Alma 11:16

And a shilum is a half of a shiblon.

Alma 11:17

And a leah is the half of a shilum.

Alma 11:18

Now an antion of gold is equal to three shiblons.

Alma 11:19

Now this is their number according to their reckoning.

Alma 11:20

Now it was for the sole purpose for to get gain, because they received their wages according to their employ, therefore they did stir up the people to riotings and all manner of disturbances and wickedness, that they might have more employ, that they might get money according to the suits which was brought before them; therefore they did stir up the people against Alma and Amulek.

Alma 11:21

And thus Zeezrom began to question Amulek, saying: Will ye answer me a few questions which I shall ask you? Now Zeezrom was a man which was expert in the devices of the devil, that he might destroy that which was good; therefore he saith unto Amulek: Will ye answer the questions which I shall put unto you?

Alma 11:22

And Amulek saith unto him: Yea, I will if it be according to the Spirit of the Lord which is in me, for I shall say nothing which is contrary to the Spirit of the Lord. And Zeezrom saith unto him: Behold, here is six onties of silver; and all these will I give unto thee if thou wilt deny the existence of a Supreme Being.

Alma 11:23

Now Amulek saith: O thou child of hell, why tempt ye me? Knowest thou that the righteous yieldeth to no such temptations?

Alma 11:24

Believest thou that there is no God? I say unto you: Nay, thou knowest that there is a God; but thou lovest that lucre more than him.

Alma 11:25

And now thou hast lied before God unto me, for thou saidest unto me: Behold, these six onties—which are of great worth—I will give unto thee—when thou had it in thy heart to retain them from me. And it was only thy desires that I should deny the true and living God, that thou mightest have cause to destroy me. And now behold, for this great evil thou shalt have thy reward.

Alma 11:26

And Zeezrom saith unto him: Thou sayest there is a true and a living God?

Alma 11:27

And Amulek saith: Yea, there is a true and a living God.

Alma 11:28

Now Zeezrom saith: Is there more than one God?

Alma 11:29

And he answereth: No.

Alma 11:30

Now Zeezrom saith unto him again: How knowest thou these things?

Alma 11:31

And he saith: An angel hath made them known unto me.

Alma 11:32

And Zeezrom saith again: Who is he that shall come? Is it the Son of God?

Alma 11:33

And he saith unto him: Yea.

Alma 11:34

And Zeezrom saith again: Shall he save his people in their sins? And Amulek answered and said unto him: I say unto you, he shall not— for it is impossible for him to deny his word.

Alma 11:35

Now Zeezrom saith unto the people: See that ye remember these things, for he saith there is but one God, yet he saith that the Son of God shall come but he shall not save his people, as though he had authority to command God.

Alma 11:36

Now Amulek said again unto him: Behold, thou hast lied; for thou sayest that I speak as though I had authority to command God because I said he shall not save his people in their sins.

Alma 11:37

And I say unto you again that he cannot save them in their sins, for I cannot deny his word. And he hath said that no unclean thing can inherit the kingdom of heaven. Therefore, how can ye be saved except ye inherit the kingdom of heaven? Therefore ye cannot be saved in your sins.

Alma 11:38

Now Zeezrom saith again unto him: Is the Son of God the very Eternal Father?

Alma 11:39

And Amulek saith unto him: Yea, he is the very Eternal Father of heaven and earth and all things which in them is. He is the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

Alma 11:40

And he shall come into the world to redeem his people. And he shall take upon him the transgressions of those who believe on his name; and these are they that shall have eternal life, and salvation cometh to none else.

Alma 11:41

Therefore the wicked remain as though there had been no redemption made, except it be the loosing of the bands of death. For behold, the day cometh that all shall rise from the dead and stand before God and be judged according to his works.

Alma 11:42

Now there is a death which is called temporal death. And the death of Christ shall loose the bands of this temporal death, that all shall be raised from this temporal death.

Alma 11:43

The spirit and the body shall be reunited again in its perfect form. Both limb and joint shall be restored to its proper frame, even as we now are at this time; and we shall be brought to stand before God, knowing even as we know now, and have a bright recollection of all our guilt.

Alma 11:44

Now this restoration shall come to all, both old and young, both bond and free, both male and female, both the wicked and the righteous. And even there shall not so much as a hair of their heads be lost; but all things shall be restored to its perfect frame, as it is now, or in the body, and all shall be brought and be rained¹ before the bar of Christ the Son and God the Father and the Holy Spirit—which is one Eternal God—to be judged according to their works, whether they be good or whether they be evil.

²Now behold, I have spoken unto you concerning the death of the mortal body, and also concerning the resurrection of the mortal body. I say unto you that this mortal body is raised to an immortal body—that is, from death, even from the first death unto life—that they can die no more, their spirits uniting with their bodies, never to be divided, thus the whole becoming spiritual³ and immortal, that they can no more see corruption.

¹The OED has “raign” and says the meaning is “to arraign.” The final quotation given there is from 1603.

²Probably thinking of this verse, BY said on 6 October 1867: “I just as much expect my body these eyes this head cheeks mouth and every part of my system the body and lower limbs to receive in the resurrection which is as much as I expect to enjoy another minute without any doubt without any hesitation in my faith or a quiver in my feelings pertaining to this matter is [illegible] that is my faith I shall possess this body precisely as I now possess but it will be raised immortal incorruptible eternal a spiritual body.”

³An important insight into the nature of bodies or even matter after the resurrection; see DC 88:27.

Alma 11:46

Now when Amulek had finished these words, the people began again to be astonished; and also Zeezrom began to tremble. And thus ended the words of Amulek, or this is all that I have written.

Alma 12

Alma 12:1

Now Alma seeing that the words of Amulek had silenced Zeezrom—for he beheld that Amulek had caught him in his lying and deceiving to destroy him—and seeing that he began to tremble under a consciousness of his guilt, he opened his mouth and began to speak unto him and to establish the words of Amulek and to explain things beyond, or to unfold the scriptures beyond that which Amulek had done.

Alma 12:2

Now the words that Alma spake unto Zeezrom was heard by the people round about—for the multitude was great—and he spake on this wise:

Alma 12:3

Now Zeezrom seeing that thou hast been taken in thy lyings and craftiness—for thou hast not lied unto men only, but thou hast lied unto God, for behold, he knows all thy thoughts—and thou seest that thy thoughts are made known unto us by his Spirit.

Alma 12:4

And thou seest that we know that thy plan was a very subtle plan, as to the subtlety of the devil, for to lie and to deceive this people, that thou mightest set them against us, to revile us and to cast us out.

Alma 12:5

Now this was a plan of thine adversary, and he hath exercised his power in thee. Now I would that ye should remember that what I say unto thee I say unto all.

Alma 12:6

And behold, I say unto you all that this was a snare of the adversary which he hath laid to catch this people, that he might bring you into subjection unto him, that he might encircle you about with his chains, that he might chain you down to everlasting destruction according to the power of his captivity.

Alma 12:7

Now when Alma had spoken these words, Zeezrom began to tremble more exceedingly; for he was convinced more and more of the power of God. And he was also convinced that Alma and Amulek had a knowledge of him; for he was convinced that they knew the thoughts and intents of his heart, for power was given unto them that they might know of these things according to the spirit of prophecy.

Alma 12:8

And Zeezrom began to inquire of them diligently, that he might know more concerning the kingdom of God. And he saith unto Alma: What does this mean which Amulek hath spoken concerning the resurrection of the dead, that all shall rise from the dead, both the just and the unjust, and are brought to stand before God to be judged according to their works?

Alma 12:9

And now Alma began to expound these things unto him, saying: It is given unto many to know the mysteries of God; nevertheless they are laid under a strict command that they shall not impart, only according to the portion of his word which he doth grant unto the children of men,¹ according to the heed and diligence which they give unto him.

²And therefore he that will harden his heart, the same receiveth the lesser portion of the word. And he that will not harden his heart, to him is given the greater portion of the word until it is given unto him to know the mysteries of God, until they³ know them in full.

Alma 12:11

And he that will harden his heart, to him is given the lesser portion of the word until they know nothing concerning his mysteries; and then they are taken captive by the devil and led by his will down to destruction. Now this is what is meant by the chains of hell.

Alma 12:12

And Amulek hath spoken plainly concerning death and being raised from this mortality to a state of immortality and being brought before the bar of God to be judged according to our works.

Alma 12:13

Then if our hearts have been hardened —yea, if we have hardened our hearts against the word insomuch that it hath not been found in us— then will our state be awful, for then we shall be condemned.

Alma 12:14

For our works will condemn us, yea, all our works will condemn us; we shall not be found spotless —and our thoughts will also condemn us— and in this awful state we shall not durst look up to our God. And we would fain be glad if we could command the rocks and the mountains to fall upon us, to hide us from his presence.

Alma 12:15

But this cannot be. We must come forth and stand before him in his glory and in his power and in his might, majesty, and dominion, and acknowledge to their⁴ everlasting shame that all his judgments are just, that he is just in all his works and that he is merciful unto the children of men and that he hath all power to save every man that believeth on his name and bringeth forth fruit meet for repentance.

¹The idea seems to be that those who know the mysteries of God are instructed to share those mysteries only to the extent that the larger body of believers has faith and obedience. Compare Matthew 10:27: ὁ λέγων ὑμῖν ἐν τῇ σκοτίᾳ, εἴπατε ἐν τῷ φωτί· καὶ ὁ εἰς τὸ οὖς ἀκούετε, κηρύξατε ἐπὶ τῶν δωματίων. See also Matthew 13:11–12, DC 11:22,

²Compare this verse in the current edition of the BOM—not especially the switched pronoun at the end, which changes the meaning significantly: “And therefore, he that will harden his heart, the same receiveth the lesser portion of the word; and he that will not harden his heart, to him is given the greater portion of the word, until it is given unto him to know the mysteries of God until he know them in full.”

³As noted above, the current edition of the BOM has “he” here instead of “they.” This really changes the meaning—what Alma is actually trying to say is, I think, that a given individual goes through this process of receiving more and more of the word, until that individual “knows the mysteries of God,” and that process continues for each person over time until they, meaning “the children of men” from the previous verse, “know [the mysteries] in full.” That’s my interpretation at least.

⁴Another important pronoun change in the current edition, which was “our.” Possibly speaking of Heavenly Father/Heavenly Mother/Christ here?

And now behold, I say unto you: Then cometh a death, even a second death, which is a spiritual death. Then is a time that whosoever dieth in his sins as to the temporal death shall also die a spiritual death; yea, he shall die as to things pertaining unto righteousness.

Alma 12:17

Then is the time when their torments shall be as a lake of fire and brimstone whose flames ascendeth up forever and ever. And then is the time that they shall be chained down to an everlasting destruction according to the power and captivity of Satan, having subjected them according to his will.

Alma 12:18

Then I say unto you: They shall be as though there had been no redemption made, for they cannot be redeemed according to God's justice; and they cannot die, seeing there is no more corruption.

Alma 12:19

Now it came to pass that when Alma had made an end of speaking these words, the people began to be more astonished.

Alma 12:20

But there was one Antionah, who was a chief ruler among them, came forth and said unto him: What is this that thou hast said, that man should rise from the dead and be changed from this mortal to an immortal state, that the soul can never die?

Alma 12:21

What does this scripture mean which saith that God placed cherubims and a flaming sword on the east of the garden of Eden lest our first parents should enter and partake of the fruit of the tree of life and live forever? And thus we see that there was no possible chance that they should live forever.

Alma 12:22

Now Alma saith unto him: This is the thing which I was about to explain. Now we see that Adam did fall by partaking of the forbidden fruit, according to the word of God. And thus we see that by his fall that all mankind became a lost and a fallen people.

Alma 12:23

And now behold, I say unto you that if it had been possible for Adam for to have partaken of the fruit of the tree of life at that time that there would have been no death and the word would have been void, making God a liar, for he said: If thou eat, thou shalt surely die.

Alma 12:24

And we see that death comes upon mankind, yea, the death which has been spoken of by Amulek, which is the temporal death. Nevertheless there was a space granted unto man in which he might repent. Therefore this life became a probationary state, a time to prepare to meet God, a time to prepare for that endless state which has been spoken of by us, which is after the resurrection of the dead.

Alma 12:25

Now if it had not been for the plan of redemption which was laid from the foundation of the world, there could have been no resurrection of the dead. But there was a plan of redemption laid which shall bring to pass the resurrection of the dead, of which has been spoken.

Alma 12:26

And now behold, if it were possible that our first parents could have went forth and partaken of the tree of life, they would have been forever miserable, having no preparatory state. And thus the plan of redemption would have been frustrated, and the word of God would have been void, taking none effect.

Alma 12:27

But behold, it was not so, but it was appointed unto man that they must die. And after death they must come to judgment, even that same judgment of which we have spoken, which is the end.

Alma 12:28

And after God had appointed that these things should come unto man, behold, then he saw that it was expedient that man should know concerning the things whereof he had appointed unto them.

Alma 12:29

Therefore he sent angels to converse with them, which caused men to behold of his glory.

Alma 12:30

And they began from that time forth to call on his name; therefore God conversed with men and made known unto them the plan of redemption which had been prepared from the foundation of the world. And this he made known unto them according to their faith and repentance and their holy works.

Wherefore he gave commandments unto men, they having first transgressed the first commandments as to things which were temporal and becoming as Gods, knowing good from evil, placing themselves in a state to act, or being placed in a state to act according to their wills and pleasures, whether to do evil or to do good.

Alma 12:32

Therefore God gave unto them commandments after having made known unto them the plan of redemption, that they should not do evil, the penalty thereof being a second death, which was an everlasting death as to things pertaining unto righteousness; for on such the plan of redemption could have no power, for the works of justice could not be destroyed, according to the supreme goodness of God.

Alma 12:33

But God did call on men in the name of his Son, this being the plan of redemption which was laid, saying: If ye will repent and harden not your hearts, then will I have mercy upon you through mine Only Begotten Son.

Alma 12:34

Therefore whosoever repenteth and hardeneth not his heart, he shall have claim on mercy through mine Only Begotten Son unto a remission of their sins; and these shall enter into my rest.

Alma 12:35

And whosoever will harden his heart and will do iniquity, behold, I swear in my wrath that they shall not enter into my rest.

Alma 12:36

And now my brethren, behold, I say unto you that if ye will harden your hearts, ye shall not enter into the rest of the Lord. Therefore your iniquity provoketh him that he sendeth down his wrath upon you as in the first provocation—yea, according to his word in the last provocation as well as in the first—to the everlasting destruction of your souls, therefore according to his word unto the last death as well as the first.

Alma 12:37

And now my brethren, seeing we know these things and they are true, let us repent and harden not our hearts, that we provoke not the Lord our God to pull down his wrath upon us in these his second commandments which he hath given unto us; but let us enter into the rest of God, which is prepared according to his word.

Alma 13

Alma 13:1

And again my brethren, I would cite¹ your minds forward to the time which the Lord God gave these commandments unto his children. And I would that ye should remember that the Lord God ordained priests after his holy order, which was after the order of his Son, to teach these things unto the people.

Alma 13:2

And those priests were ordained after the order of his Son in a manner that thereby the people might know in what manner to look forward to his Son for redemption.

Alma 13:3

And this is the manner after which they were ordained: being called and prepared from the foundation of the world according to the foreknowledge² of God, on account of their exceeding faith and good works—in the first place being left to choose good or evil, therefore they having chosen good and exercising exceeding great faith are called with a holy calling, yea, with that holy calling which was prepared with and according to a preparatory³ redemption⁴ for such—

¹This is the only use of any form of “cite” in all the scriptures. The 1828 dictionary:

1 To call upon officially, or authoritatively; to summon; to give legal or official notice, as to a defendant to appear in court, to answer or defend.

2 To enjoin; to direct; to summon; to order or urge.

3 To quote; to name or repeat, as a passage or the words of another, either from a book or from verbal communication; as, to cite a passage from scripture, or to cite the very words a man utters.

4 To call or name, in support, proof or confirmation; as, to cite an authority to prove a point in law.

Some from the OED:

1.c More generally: to call, invite, summon; to prompt (a person) to some specified action; (also) to evoke (an emotion). Obsolete.

3 Simply: to make mention of or reference to; to put forward for consideration or inspection; to call to mind.

²Compare Romans 8:29–30 to these passages here.

³For “preparatory,” see DC 84:26; the temple initiatory ceremony; DC 128:5 (“preparation”);

⁴I think we should understand the “preparatory redemption” as the new birth. It’s a preparatory redemption because it isn’t the big one that will happen when we are resurrected and glorified; but it’s still a redemption, a passing from death unto life through a new birth. It’s preparatory to the real one, in the same way that temple ordinances are preparatory to actually becoming a king/queen and priest/priestess. The new birth itself is a preparatory “ordinance,” and thus they having been called to this holy calling on account of their faith, while others would reject the Spirit of God on account of the hardness of their hearts and blindness of their minds— while if it had not been for this, they might had as great privilege as their brethren—or in fine, in the first place they were on the same standing with their brethren— thus this holy calling being prepared from the foundation of the world for such as would not harden their hearts, being in and through the atonement of the Only Begotten Son which was prepared—and thus being called by this holy calling and ordained unto the high priesthood of the holy order of God to teach his commandments unto the children of men, that they also might enter into his rest—

Alma 13:5

Alma 13:6

Alma 13:7

this high priesthood being after the order of his Son, which order was from the foundation of the world, or in other words, being without beginning of days or end of years, being prepared from eternity to all eternity according to his foreknowledge of all things—

now they were ordained after this manner: being called with a holy calling and ordained with a holy ordinance and taking upon them the high priesthood of the holy order— which calling and ordinance and high priesthood is without beginning or end—thus they become high priests forever after the order of the Son, the Only Begotten of the Father, which is without beginning of days or end of years, which is full of grace, equity, and truth. And thus it is. Amen.

Alma 13:9

Alma 13:10

Now as I said concerning the holy order, or this high priesthood: there were many which were ordained and became high priests of God. And it was on account of their exceeding faith and repentance and their righteousness before God, they choosing to repent and work righteousness rather than to perish, therefore they were called after this holy order and were sanctified; and their garments were washed white through the blood of the Lamb.¹

so to speak (and maybe an actual one), that will be fulfilled and actualized when we are resurrected and sanctified. See also Alma 22:13, where the plan of redemption gets us out of the carnal state, and DC 84:26–27, where the preparatory gospel is the gospel of repentance and baptism, and remission of sins.

See also New Birth, the talk idea about Lamoni as a literal rebirth and resurrection, ¹Compare DC 29:17.

Alma 13:12

Now they, after being sanctified by the Holy Ghost, having their garments made white, being pure and spotless before God, could not look upon sin save it were with abhorrence.¹ And there were many—an exceeding great many—which were made pure and entered into the rest of the Lord their God.

Alma 13:13

And now my brethren, I would that ye should humble yourselves before God and bring forth fruit meet for repentance, that ye may also enter into that rest.

Alma 13:14

Yea, humble yourselves even as the people in the days of Melchizedek, who was also a high priest after this same order of which I have spoken, who also took upon him the high priesthood forever.

Alma 13:15

And it was this same Melchizedek to whom Abraham paid tithes; yea, even our father Abraham paid tithes of one tenth part of all he possessed.

Alma 13:16

Now these ordinances were given after this manner, that thereby the people might look forward on the Son of God, it being a type of his order or it being his order— and this that they might look forward to him for a remission of their sins, that they might enter into the rest of the Lord.

Alma 13:17

Now this Melchizedek was a king over the land of Salem. And his people had waxed strong in iniquity and abominations; yea, they had all gone astray; they were full of all manner of wickedness.

Alma 13:18

But Melchizedek, having exercised mighty faith and received the office of the high priesthood according to the holy order of God, did preach repentance unto his people. And behold, they did repent. And Melchizedek did establish peace in the land in his days; therefore he was called the prince of peace, for he was the king of Salem; and he did reign under his father.

Alma 13:19

Now there were many before him, and also there were many afterwards, but none were greater. Therefore of him they have more particularly made mention.

Alma 13:20

Now I need not rehearse the matter; what I have said may suffice. Behold, the scriptures are before you; if ye will wrest them, it shall be to your own destruction.

¹Notice that this characteristic that these individuals gain is similar to, but not the same as, God's not being able to "look upon sin with the least degree of allowance" (DC 1:31). Compare DC 36:6 and notes there.

Alma 13:21

And now it came to pass that when Alma had said these words unto them, he stretched forth his hand unto them and cried with a mighty voice, saying: Now is the time to repent, for the day of salvation draweth nigh.

Alma 13:22

Yea, and the voice of the Lord by the mouth of angels doth declare it unto all nations, yea, doth declare it that they may have glad tidings of great joy. Yea, and he doth sound these glad tidings among all his people, yea, even to them that are scattered abroad upon the face of the earth; wherefore they have come unto us.

Alma 13:23

And they are made known unto us in plain terms that we may understand, that we cannot err— and this because of our being wanderers in a strange land. Therefore we are thus highly favored, for we have these glad tidings declared unto us in all parts of our vineyard.

Alma 13:24

For behold, angels are declaring it unto many at this time in our land; and this is for the purpose of preparing the hearts of the children of men for to receive his word at the time of his coming in his glory.

Alma 13:25

And now we only wait to hear the joyful news, declared unto us by the mouth of angels, of his coming; for the time cometh, we know not how soon. Would to God that it might be in my day; but let it be sooner or later, in it I will rejoice.

Alma 13:26

And it shall be made known unto just and holy men by the mouth of angels at the time of his coming, that the words of our fathers might be fulfilled, according to that which they have spoken concerning him, which was according to the spirit of prophecy which was in them.

Alma 13:27

And now my brethren, I wish from the inmost part of my heart —yea, with great anxiety even unto pain— that ye would hearken unto my words and cast off your sins and not procrastinate the day of your repentance,

Alma 13:28

¹but that ye would humble yourselves before the Lord and call on his holy name and watch and pray continually, that ye may not be tempted above that which ye can bear;² and thus be led by the Holy Spirit, becoming humble, meek, submissive, patient, full of love and all long-suffering, having faith on the Lord, having a hope that ye shall receive eternal life, having the love of God always in your hearts, that ye may be lifted up at the last day and enter into his rest.

¹This list of qualities is very similar to that found in Mosiah 3:19.

²See 1 Corinthians 10:13; this verse here seems to clarify the scope of that idea a bit.

Alma 13:30

And may the Lord grant unto you repentance, that ye may not bring down his wrath upon you, that ye may not be bound down by the chains of hell, that ye may not suffer the second death.

Alma 13:31

And it came to pass that Alma spake many more words unto the people which are not written in this book.

Alma 14

Alma 14:1

And it came to pass that after he had made an end of speaking unto the people, many of them did believe on his words and began to repent and to search the scriptures.

Alma 14:2

But the more part of them were desirous that they might destroy Alma and Amulek, for they were angry with Alma because of the plainness of his words unto Zeezrom. And they also said that Amulek had lied unto them and had reviled against their law and also against their lawyers and judges.

Alma 14:3

And they were also angry with Alma and Amulek. And because they had testified so plainly against their wickedness, they sought to put them away privily.

Alma 14:4

But it came to pass that they did not, but they took them and bound them with strong cords and took them before the chief judge of the land.

Alma 14:5

And the people went forth and witnessed against them, testifying that they had reviled against the law and their lawyers and the judges of the land and also all the people that were in the land, and also testified that there was but one God and that he should send his Son among the people, but he should not save them; and many such things did the people testify against Alma and Amulek. And it came to pass that it was done before the chief judge of the land.

Alma 14:6

And it also came to pass that Zeezrom was astonished at the words which had been spoken. And he also knew concerning the blindness of the minds which he had caused among the people by his lying words. And his soul began to be harrowed up under a consciousness of his own guilt; yea, he began to be encircled about by the pains of hell.

And it came to pass that he began to cry unto the people, saying: Behold, I am guilty, and these men are spotless before God. And it came to pass that he began to plead for them from that time forth, but they reviled him, saying: Art thou also possessed with the devil? And it came to pass that they spit upon him and cast him out from among them and also all those who believed in the words which had been spoken by Alma and Amulek. And they cast them out and sent men to cast stones at them.

Alma 14:8

And they brought their wives and children together; and whosoever believed or had been taught to believe in the word of God, they caused that they should be cast into the fire. And they also brought forth their records, which contained the holy scriptures, and cast them into the fire also, that they might be burned and destroyed by fire.

Alma 14:9

And it came to pass that they took Alma and Amulek and carried them forth to the place of martyrdom, that they might witness the destruction of those which were consumed by fire.

Alma 14:10

And it came to pass that when Amulek saw the pains of the women and children which were consuming in the fire, he was also pained, and he saith unto Alma: How can we witness this awful scene? Therefore let us stretch forth our hands and exercise the power of God which is in us and save them from the flames.

Alma 14:11

But Alma saith unto him: The Spirit constraineth me that I must not stretch forth mine hand. For behold, the Lord receiveth them up unto himself in glory. And he doth suffer that they may do this thing—or that the people may do this thing unto them—according to the hardness of their hearts, that the judgments which he shall exercise upon them in his wrath may be just. And the blood of the innocent shall stand as a witness against them, yea, and cry mightily against them at the last day.

Alma 14:12

Now Amulek saith unto Alma: Behold, perhaps they will burn us also.

Alma 14:13

And Alma saith: Be it according to the will of the Lord. But behold, our work is not finished; therefore they burn us not.

Alma 14:14

Now it came to pass that when the bodies of those which had been cast into the fire were consumed, and also the records which were cast in with them, the chief judge of the land came and stood before Alma and Amulek as they were bound, and he smote them with his hand upon their cheeks and saith unto them: After what ye have seen, will ye preach again unto this people that they shall be cast into a lake of fire and brimstone?

Alma 14:15

Behold, ye see that ye had not power to save these which had been cast into the fire, neither hath God saved them because they were of thy faith. And the judge smote them again upon their cheeks and asked: What say ye for yourselves?

Alma 14:16

Now this judge was after the order and faith of Nehor, which slew Gideon.

Alma 14:17

And it came to pass that Alma and Amulek answered him nothing. And he smote them again and delivered them to the officers to be cast into prison.

Alma 14:18

And it came to pass that when they had been cast into prison three days, there came many lawyers and judges and priests and teachers which were of the profession of Nehor, and they came in unto the prison to see them. And they questioned them about many words, but they answered them nothing.

Alma 14:19

And it came to pass that the judge stood before them and saith: Why do ye not answer the words of this people? Know ye not that I have power to deliver ye up unto the flames? And he commanded them to speak, but they answered nothing.

Alma 14:20

And it came to pass that they departed and went their ways, but came again on the morrow. And the judge also smote them again on their cheeks; and many came forth also and smote them, saying: Will ye stand again and judge this people and condemn our law? If ye have such great power, why do ye not deliver yourselves?

Alma 14:21

And many such things did they say unto them, gnashing their teeth upon them and spitting upon them and saying: How shall we look when we are damned?

Alma 14:22

And many such things, yea, all manner of such things, did they say unto them. And thus they did mock them for many days. And they did withhold food from them that they might hunger, and water that they might thirst. And they also did take from them their clothes that they were naked, and thus they were bound with strong cords and confined in prison.

Alma 14:23

And it came to pass after they had thus suffered for many days—and it was on the twelfth day in the tenth month in the tenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi—that the chief judge over the land of Ammonihah and many of their teachers and their lawyers went in unto the prison where Alma and Amulek was bound with cords.

Alma 14:24

And the chief judge stood before them and smote them again and saith unto them: If ye have the power of God, deliver yourselves from these bands, and then we will believe that the Lord will destroy this people according to your words.

Alma 14:25

And it came to pass that they all went forth and smote them, saying the same words, even until the last. And when the last had spoken unto them, the power of God was upon Alma and Amulek, and they arose and stood upon their feet.

Alma 14:26

And Alma cried, saying: How long shall we suffer these great afflictions, O Lord? O Lord, give us strength according to our faith which is in Christ, even unto deliverance. And they brake the cords with which they were bound. And when the people saw this, they began to flee, for the fear of destruction had come upon them.

Alma 14:27

And it came to pass that so great was their fear that they fell to the earth and did not obtain the outer door of the prison. And the earth shook mightily and the walls of the prison were rent in twain, so that they fell to the earth; and the chief judge and the lawyers and priests and teachers which smote upon Alma and Amulek were slain by the fall thereof.

Alma 14:28

And Alma and Amulek came forth out of the prison and they were not hurt, for the Lord had granted unto them power according to their faith which was in Christ. And they straightway came forth out of the prison, and they were loosed from their bands; and the prison had fallen to the earth, and every soul which was within the walls thereof, save it were Alma and Amulek, were slain; and they straightway came forth into the city.

Alma 14:29

Now the people, having heard a great noise, came running together by multitudes to know the cause of it. And when they saw Alma and Amulek coming forth out of the prison and the walls thereof had fallen to the earth, they were struck with great fear and fled from the presence of Alma and Amulek, even as a goat fleeth with her young from two lions; and thus they did flee from the presence of Alma and Amulek.

Alma 15

Alma 15:1

And it came to pass that Alma and Amulek were commanded to depart out of that city. And they departed and came out even into the land of Sidom. And behold, there they found all the people which had departed out of the land of Ammonihah, who had been cast out and stoned because they believed in the words of Alma.

Alma 15:2

And they related unto them all that had happened unto their wives and children, and also concerning themselves and of their power of deliverance.

Alma 15:3

And also Zeezrom lay sick at Sidom with a burning fever which was caused by the great tribulations of his mind on account of his wickedness, for he supposed that Alma and Amulek was no more. And he supposed that they had been slain by the cause of his iniquity. And this great sin, and his many other sins, did harrow up his mind until it did become exceeding sore, having no deliverance; therefore he began to be scorched with a burning heat.

Alma 15:4

Now when he heard that Alma and Amulek was in the land of Sidom, his heart began to take courage. And he sent a message immediately unto them, desiring them to come unto him.

Alma 15:5

And it came to pass that they went immediately, obeying the message which he had sent unto them, and they went in unto the house unto Zeezrom. And they found him upon his bed, sick, being very low with a burning fever; and his mind also was exceeding sore because of his iniquities. And when he saw them, he stretched forth his hand and besought them that they would heal him.

Alma 15:6

And it came to pass that Alma said unto him, taking him by the hand: Believest thou in the power of Christ unto salvation?

Alma 15:7

And he answered and said: Yea, I believe all the words that thou hast taught.

Alma 15:8

And Alma saith: If thou believest in the redemption of Christ, thou canst be healed.

Alma 15:9

And he saith: Yea, I believe according to thy words.

Alma 15:10

And then Alma cried unto the Lord, saying: O Lord our God, have mercy on this man and heal him according to his faith which is in Christ.

Alma 15:11

And it came to pass that when Alma had said these words that Zeezrom leaped upon his feet and began to walk. And this was done to the great astonishment of all the people, and the knowledge of this went forth throughout all the land of Sidom.

Alma 15:12

And Alma baptized Zeezrom unto the Lord, and he began from that time forth to preach unto the people.

Alma 15:13

And Alma established a church in the land of Sidom and consecrated priests and teachers in the land, to baptize unto the Lord whosoever were desirous to be baptized.

Alma 15:14

And it came to pass that they were many, for they did flock in from all the region round about Sidom and were baptized.

Alma 15:15

But as to the people that were in the land of Ammonihah, they yet remained a hard-hearted and a stiffnecked people. And they repented not of their sins, ascribing all the power of Alma and Amulek to the devil, for they were of the profession of Nehor and did not believe in the repentance of their sins.

Alma 15:16

And it came to pass that Alma and Amulek— Amulek having forsaken all his gold and his silver and his precious things which was in the land of Ammonihah for the word of God, he being rejected by those which were once his friends, and also by his father and his kindred—therefore after Alma having established the church at Sidom, seeing a great check,¹ yea, seeing that the people were checked as to the pride of their hearts and began to humble themselves before God and began to assemble themselves together at their sanctuaries to worship God before the altar, watching and praying continually, that they might be delivered from Satan and from death and from destruction—

Alma 15:17

now as I said, Alma having seen all these things, therefore he took Amulek and came over to the land of Zarahemla and took him to his own house and did administer unto him in his tribulations and strengthened him in the Lord.

Alma 15:19

And thus ended the tenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi.

Alma 16

Alma 16:1

And it came to pass in the eleventh year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi on the fifth day of the second month, there having been much peace in the land of Zarahemla, there having been no wars nor contentions for a certain number of years, even until the fifth day of the second month in the eleventh year, there was a cry of war heard throughout the land.

Alma 16:2

For behold, the armies of the Lamanites had come in on the wilderness side into the borders of the land, even into the city of Ammonihah, and began to slay the people and to destroy the city.

Alma 16:3

And now it came to pass, before the Nephites could raise a sufficient army to drive them out of the land, they had destroyed the people which were in the city of Ammonihah, and also some around the borders of Noah, and taking others captive into the wilderness.

Alma 16:4

Now it came to pass that the Nephites were desirous to obtain those which had been carried away captive into the wilderness.

Alma 16:5

Therefore he that had been appointed chief captain over the armies of the Nephites —and his name was Zoram, and he had two sons, Lehi and Aha— now Zoram and his two sons knowing that Alma was high priest over the church and having heard that he had the spirit of prophecy, therefore they went unto him and desired of him to know whither the Lord would that they should go into the wilderness in search of their brethren who had been taken captive by the Lamanites.

¹The use of “check” here, along with the verb later in this verse, are two of four occurrences of the word in all of scripture. The other two are at Job 20:3 and Alma 57:18. In the 1828 dictionary, the first meaning for the transitive verb “check” is “To stop; to restrain; to hinder; to curb. It signifies to put an entire stop to motion, or to restrain its violence, and cause an abatement; to moderate,” and the first and second meanings for the noun are “A stop; hindrance; rebuff; sudden restraint, or continued restraint; curb; control; government,” and “That which stops or restrains, as reproof, reprimand, rebuke, slight or disgust, fear, apprehension, a person; any stop or obstruction.”

And it came to pass that Alma inquired of the Lord concerning the matter; and Alma returned and said unto them: Behold, the Lamanites will cross the river Sidon in the south wilderness, away up beyond the borders of the land of Manti. And behold, there shall ye meet them, on the east of the river Sidon, and there the Lord will deliver unto thee thy brethren which have been taken captive by the Lamanites.

Alma 16:7

And it came to pass that Zoram and his sons crossed over the river Sidon with their armies and marched away beyond the borders of Manti into the south wilderness, which was on the east side of the river Sidon.

Alma 16:8

And they came upon the armies of the Lamanites, and the Lamanites were scattered and driven into the wilderness. And they took their brethren which had been taken captive by the Lamanites; and there was not one soul of them which had been lost that were taken captive. And they were brought by their brethren to possess their own lands.

Alma 16:9

And thus ended the eleventh year of the judges, the Lamanites having been driven out of the land. And the people of Ammonihah were destroyed; yea, every living soul of the Ammonihahites were destroyed, and also their great city, which they said God could not destroy because of its greatness.

Alma 16:10

But behold, in one day it was left desolate, and their carcasses were mangled by dogs and by wild beasts of the wilderness.

Alma 16:11

Nevertheless after many days their dead bodies were heaped up upon the face of the earth, and they were covered with a shallow covering. And now so great was the scent thereof that the people did not go in to possess the land of Ammonihah for many years. And it was called Desolation of Nehors, for they were of the profession of Nehor which were slain; and their lands remained desolate.

Alma 16:12

And it came to pass that the Lamanites did not come again to war against the Nephites until the fourteenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. And thus for three years did the people of Nephi have continual peace in all the land.

Alma 16:13

And Alma and Amulek went forth preaching repentance unto the people in their temples and in their sanctuaries and also in their synagogues, which was built after the manner of the Jews.

Alma 16:14

And as many as would hear their words, unto them they did impart the word of God without any respects of persons, continually.

Alma 16:15

And thus did Alma and Amulek go forth, and also many more which had been chosen for the work, to preach the word throughout all the land. And the establishment of the church became general throughout the land, in all the region round about, among all the people of the Nephites.

Alma 16:16

And there was no inequality among them, for the Lord did pour out his Spirit on all the face of the land for to prepare the minds of the children of men, or to prepare their hearts to receive the word which should be taught among them at the time of his coming, that they might not be hardened against the word, that they might not be unbelieving and go on to destruction, but that they might receive the word with joy and as a branch be grafted into the true vine, that they might enter into the rest of the Lord their God.

Alma 16:17

Alma 16:18

Now those priests which did go forth among the people did preach against all lyings and deceivings and envyings and strifes and malice and revilings and stealing, robbing, plundering, murdering, committing adultery, and all manner of lasciviousness, crying that these things ought not so to be, holding forth things which must shortly come, yea, holding forth the coming of the Son of God, his sufferings and death, and the resurrection of the dead.

Alma 16:19

Alma 16:20

And many of the people did inquire concerning the place where the Son of God should come. And they were taught that he would appear unto them after his resurrection, and this the people did hear with great joy and gladness.

Alma 16:21

And now after the church having been established throughout all the land, having got the victory over the devil, and the word of God being preached in its purity in all the land, and the Lord pouring out his blessings upon the people, and thus ended the fourteenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi.

Alma 17

An account of the sons of Mosiah, which rejected their rights to the kingdom for the word of God and went up to the land of Nephi to preach to the Lamanites. Their sufferings and deliverance according to the record of Alma.

Alma 17:1

And now it came to pass that as Alma was journeying from the land of Gideon southward, away to the land of Manti, behold, to his astonishment he met the sons of Mosiah a journeying towards the land of Zarahemla.

Alma 17:2

Now these sons of Mosiah were with Alma at the time the angel first appeared unto him; therefore Alma did rejoice exceedingly to see his brethren. And what added more to his joy, they were still his brethren in the Lord. Yea, and they had waxed strong in the knowledge of the truth, for they were men of a sound understanding; and they had searched the scriptures diligently that they might know the word of God.

Alma 17:3

But this is not all. They had given themselves to much prayer and fasting; therefore they had the spirit of prophecy and the spirit of revelation; and when they taught, they taught with power and authority, even as with the power and authority of God.

Alma 17:4

And they had been teaching the word of God for the space of fourteen years among the Lamanites, having had much success in bringing many to the knowledge of the truth; yea, by the power of their words many were brought before the altar of God to call on his name and confess their sins before him.

Alma 17:5

Now these are the circumstances which attended them in their journeyings, for they had many afflictions: they did suffer much, both in body and in mind, such as hunger, thirst, and fatigue, and also much labor in the spirit.

Alma 17:6

Now these were their journeyings: having taken leave of their father Mosiah in the first year of the reign of the judges—having refused the kingdom which their father was desirous to confer upon them, and also this was the minds of the people—nevertheless they departed out of the land of Zarahemla and took their swords and their spears and their bows and their arrows and their slings; and this they done that they might provide food for themselves while in the wilderness.

Alma 17:7

Alma 17:8

And thus they departed into the wilderness with their numbers which they had selected to go up to the land of Nephi to preach the word unto the Lamanites.

Alma 17:9

And it came to pass that they journeyed many days in the wilderness. And they fasted much and prayed much that the Lord would grant unto them a portion of his Spirit to go with them and abide with them, that they might be an instrument in the hands of God to bring, if it were possible, their brethren the Lamanites to the knowledge of the truth, to the knowledge of the baseness of the traditions of their fathers, which were not correct.

Alma 17:10

And it came to pass that the Lord did visit them with his Spirit and said unto them: Be comforted. And they were comforted.

Alma 17:11

And the Lord said unto them also: Go forth among the Lamanites thy brethren and establish my word. Yet ye shall be patient in long-suffering and afflictions, that ye may shew forth good examples unto them in me. And I will make an instrument of thee in my hands unto the salvation of many souls.

Alma 17:12

And it came to pass that the hearts of the sons of Mosiah, and also those which were with them, took courage to go forth unto the Lamanites to declare unto them the word of God.

Alma 17:13

And it came to pass when they had arriven in the borders of the land of the Lamanites that they separated themselves and departed one from another, trusting in the Lord that they should meet again at the close of their harvest, for they supposed that great was the work which they had undertaken.

Alma 17:14

And assuredly it was great, for they had undertaken to preach the word of God to a wild and a hardened and a ferocious people, a people which delighted in the murdering the Nephites, and robbing and plundering them. And their hearts were set upon riches, or upon gold and silver and precious stones, yet they sought to obtain these things by murdering and plundering, that they might not labor for them with their own hands.

Alma 17:15

Thus they were a very indolent people, many of whom did worship idols. And the curse of God had fell upon them because of the traditions of their fathers, notwithstanding the promises of the Lord were extended unto them on the conditions of repentance.

Alma 17:16

Therefore this was the cause for which the sons of Mosiah had undertaken the work, that perhaps they might bring them unto repentance, that perhaps they might bring them to know of the plan of redemption.

Alma 17:17

Therefore they separated themselves one from another and went forth among them, every man alone, according to the word and power of God which was given unto him.

Alma 17:18

Now Ammon being the chief among them, or rather he did administer unto them, he departed from them, after having blessed them according to their several stations, having imparted the word of God unto them, or administered unto them before his departure. And thus they took their several journeys throughout the land.

Alma 17:19

And Ammon went to the land of Ishmael, the land being called after the sons of Ishmael, which also became Lamanites.

Alma 17:20

And as Ammon entered the land of Ishmael, the Lamanites took him and bound him, as was their custom to bind all the Nephites which fell into their hands and carry them before the king. And thus it was left to the pleasure of the king to slay them or to retain them in captivity or to cast them into prison or to cast them out of his land, according to his will and pleasure.

Alma 17:21

And thus Ammon was carried before the king which was over the land of Ishmael—and his name was Lamoni and he was a descendant of Ishmael—and the king inquired of Ammon if it were his desires to dwell in the land among the Lamanites, or among his people.

Alma 17:22

Alma 17:23

And Ammon said unto him: Yea, I desire to dwell among this people for a time, yea, and perhaps until the day I die.

Alma 17:24

And it came to pass that king Lamoni was much pleased with Ammon and caused that his bands should be loosed; and he would that Ammon should take one of his daughters to wife.

Alma 17:25

But Ammon saith unto him: Nay, but I will be thy servant. Therefore Ammon became a servant to king Lamoni. And it came to pass that he was set among other servants to watch the flocks of Lamoni, according to the custom of the Lamanites.

Alma 17:26

And it came to pass that after he had been in the service of the king three days that as he was with the Lamanitish servants a going forth with their flocks to the place of water, which was called the waters of Sebus—and all the Lamanites drive their flocks hither that they might have water—therefore as Ammon and the servants of the king were driving forth their flocks to this place of water, behold, a certain number of the Lamanites, who had been with their flocks to water, stood and scattered the flocks of Ammon and the servants of the king. And they scattered them insomuch that they fled many ways.

Alma 17:28

Now the servants of the king began to murmur, saying: Now the king will slay us as he has our brethren because their flocks were scattered by the wickedness of these men. And they began to weep exceedingly, saying: Behold, our flocks are scattered already.

Alma 17:29

Now they wept because of the fear of being slain. Now when Ammon saw this, his heart was swollen within him with joy, for, said he, I will shew forth my power unto these my fellow servants, or the power which is in me, in restoring these flocks unto the king, that I may win the hearts of these my fellow servants, that I may lead them to believe in my words.

Alma 17:30

Now these were the thoughts of Ammon when he saw the affliction of those which he termed to be his brethren.¹

Alma 17:31

And it came to pass that he flattered them by his words, saying: My brethren, be of good cheer, and let us go in search of the flocks; and we will gather them together and bring them back unto the place of water. And thus we will restore the flocks unto the king and he will not slay us.

Alma 17:32

And it came to pass that they went in search of the flocks; and they did follow Ammon, and they rushed forth with much swiftness and did head the flocks of the king and did gather them together again to the place of water.

Alma 17:33

And those men again stood to scatter their flocks, but Ammon saith unto his brethren: Encircle the flocks round about that they flee not, and I go and contend with these men which do scatter our flocks.

Alma 17:34

Therefore they did as Ammon had commanded them. And he went forth and stood to contend with those which stood by the waters of Sebus, and they were not in number a very few.

Alma 17:35

Therefore they did not fear Ammon, for they supposed that one of their men could slay him according to their pleasure, for they knew not that the Lord had promised Mosiah that he would deliver his sons out of their hands, neither did they know any thing concerning the Lord; therefore they delighted in the destruction of their brethren, and for this cause they stood to scatter the flocks of the king.

Alma 17:36

But Ammon stood forth and began to cast stones at them with his sling; yea, with mighty power he did sling stones amongst them. And thus he slew a certain number of them, insomuch that they began to be astonished at his power. Nevertheless they were angry because of the slain of their brethren, and they were determined that he should fall. Therefore seeing that they could not hit him with their stones, they came forth with clubs to slay him.

Alma 17:37

But behold, every man that lifted his club to smite Ammon, he smote off their arms with his sword, for he did withstand their blows by smiting their arms with the edge of his sword, insomuch that they began to be astonished and began to flee before him; yea, and they were not few in number. And he caused them to flee by the strength of his arm.

Alma 17:38

Now six of them had fallen by the sling, but he slew none with the sword save it were their leader. And he smote off as many of their arms as was lifted against him, and they were not a few.

¹Compare DC 38:24-25;

Alma 17:39

And when he had driven them afar off, he returned. And they watered their flocks and returned them to the pasture of the king and then went in unto the king, bearing the arms which had been smote off by the sword of Ammon of those who sought to slay him. And they were carried in unto the king for a testimony of the things which they had done.

Alma 18

Alma 18:1

And it came to pass that king Lamoni caused that his servants should stand forth and testify to all the things which they had seen concerning the matter.

Alma 18:2

And when they had all testified to the things which they had seen and he had learned of the faithfulness of Ammon in preserving his flocks and also of his great power in contending against those who sought to slay him, he was astonished exceedingly and saith: Surely this is more than a man. Behold, is not this the Great Spirit which doth send such great punishments upon this people because of their murders?

Alma 18:3

And they answered the king and said: Whether he be the Great Spirit or a man, we know not. But this much we do know, that he cannot be slain by the enemies of the king, neither can they scatter the king's flocks when he is with us because of his expertness and great strength. Therefore we know that he is a friend to the king. And now, O king, we do not believe that a man hath such great power, for we know that he cannot be slain.

Alma 18:4

And now when the king heard these words, he said unto them: Now I know that it is the Great Spirit; and he hath come down at this time to preserve your lives, that I might not slay you as I did your brethren. Now this is the Great Spirit of which our fathers have spoken.

Alma 18:5

Now this was the tradition of Lamoni which he had received from his father, that there was a Great Spirit; notwithstanding they believed in a Great Spirit, they supposed that whatsoever they did was right. Nevertheless Lamoni began to fear exceedingly, with fear lest he had done wrong in slaying his servants.

Alma 18:6

For he had slew many of them because their brethren had scattered their flocks at the place of water; and thus because they had had their flocks scattered, they were slain.

Alma 18:7

Now it was the practice of these Lamanites to stand by the waters of Sebus to scatter the flocks of the people that thereby they might drive away many that were scattered unto their own land, it being a practice of plunder among them.

Alma 18:8

And it came to pass that king Lamoni inquired of his servants, saying: Where is this man that hath such great power?

Alma 18:9

And they saith unto him: Behold, he is a feeding thy horses. Now the king had commanded his servants previous to the time of the watering of their flocks that they should prepare his horses and his chariots and conduct him forth to the land of Nephi, for there had been a great feast appointed at the land of Nephi by the father of Lamoni, who was king over all the land.

Alma 18:10

Now when king Lamoni heard that Ammon was preparing his horses and his chariots, he was more astonished because of the faithfulness of Ammon, saying: Surely there has not been any servant among all my servants that has been so faithful as this man, for even he doth remember all my commandments to execute them.

Alma 18:11

Now I surely know that this is the Great Spirit. And I would desire him that he come in unto me, but I durst not.

Alma 18:12

And it came to pass that when Ammon had made ready the horses and the chariots for the king and his servants, he went in unto the king. And he saw that the countenance of the king was changed; therefore he was about to return out of his presence.

Alma 18:13

And one of the king's servants said unto him: Rabbanah, which is being interpreted powerful or great king—considering their kings to be powerful— and thus he said unto him: Rabbanah, the king desireth thee to stay.

Alma 18:14

Therefore Ammon turned himself unto the king and saith unto him: What wilt thou that I should do for thee, O king? And the king answered him not for the space of an hour according to their time, for he knew not what he should say unto him.

Alma 18:15

And it came to pass that Ammon said unto him again: What desirest thou of me? But the king answered him not.

Alma 18:16

And it came to pass that Ammon being filled with the Spirit of God, therefore he perceived the thoughts of the king, and he saith unto him: Is it because that thou hast heard that I defended thy servants and thy flocks and slew seven of their brethren with the sling and with the sword and smote off the arms of others in order to defend thy flocks and thy servants? Behold, is it this that causeth thy marvelings?

Alma 18:17

I say unto you: What is it that thy marvelings are so great? Behold, I am a man and am thy servant. Therefore whatsoever thou desirest which is right, that will I do.

Alma 18:18

Now when the king had heard these words, he marveled again; for he beheld that Ammon could discern his thoughts. But notwithstanding this, king Lamoni did open his mouth and said unto him: Who art thou? Art thou that Great Spirit which knows all things?

Alma 18:19

Ammon answered and said unto him: I am not.

Alma 18:20

And the king saith: How knowest thou the thoughts of my heart? Thou mayest speak boldly and tell me concerning these things. And also tell me by what power ye slew and smote off the arms of my brethren that scattered my flocks.

Alma 18:21

And now if thou wilt tell me concerning these things, whatsoever thou desirest I will give unto thee. And if it were needed, I would guard thee with my armies. But I know that thou art more powerful than all they. Nevertheless, whatsoever thou desirest of me, I will grant it unto thee.

Alma 18:22

Now Ammon being wise yet harmless,¹ he saith unto Lamoni: Wilt thou hearken unto my words if I tell thee by what power I do these things? And this is the thing that I desire of thee.

Alma 18:23

And the king answered him and said: Yea, I will believe all thy words. And thus he was caught with guile.

Alma 18:24

And Ammon began to speak unto him with boldness and said unto him: Believest thou that there is a God?

Alma 18:25

And he answered unto him: I do not know what that meaneth.

Alma 18:26

And then Ammon saith: Believest thou that there is a Great Spirit?

Alma 18:27

And he saith: Yea.

Alma 18:28

And Ammon saith: This is God. And Ammon saith unto him again: Believest thou that this Great Spirit, which is God, created all things which is in heaven and in the earth?

¹This "wise yet harmless" construction has its base in Matthew 10:16, where Christ instructs his apostles to be "wise as serpents, and harmless as doves." In Greek he tells them γίνεσθε οὖν φρόνιμοι ὡς οἱ ὄφεις καὶ ἀχέραιοι ὡς αἱ περιστεραί. φρόνιμος means "sensible, prudent," so you can see where "wise" comes from there; ἀχέραιος means "unmixed" and so by extension means "without mixture of vice, sincere, blameless, innocent." That isn't really the same thing as "harmless," so there's a difference here. Christ is telling them to be innocent and without guile; it's compatible with being harmless, but not the same. I like the idea of purity of conscience better here, both in what it does for yourself, and in what it shows to other people. Note also that Christ says that their innocence or purity should be ὡς αἱ περιστεραί; a περιστερά is the bird (dove or pigeon) which descends on Christ during his baptism at Matthew 3:16.

And he saith: Yea, I believe that he created all things which is in the earth. But I do not know the heavens.

Alma 18:30

And Ammon saith unto him: The heavens is a place where God dwells and all his holy angels.

Alma 18:31

And king Lamoni saith: Is it above the earth?

Alma 18:32

And Ammon saith: Yea, and he looketh down upon all the children of men; and he knows all the thoughts and intents of the heart, for by his hand were they all created from the beginning.

Alma 18:33

And king Lamoni saith: I believe all these things which thou hast spoken. Art thou sent from God?

Alma 18:34

Ammon saith unto him: I am a man —and man in the beginning was created after the image of God— and I am called by his Holy Spirit to teach these things unto this people, that they may be brought to a knowledge of that which is just and true.

Alma 18:35

And a portion¹ of that Spirit dwelleth in me, which giveth me knowledge and also power according to my faith and desires which is in God.

Alma 18:36

Now when Ammon had said these words, he began to the creation of the world, and also to the creation of Adam, and told him all the things concerning the fall of man and rehearsed and laid before him the records and the holy scriptures of the people, which had been spoken by the prophets even down to the time that their father Lehi left Jerusalem.

Alma 18:37

And he also rehearsed unto them —for it was unto the king and to his servants— all the journeyings of their fathers in the wilderness and all their sufferings with hunger and thirst and their travail etc.

Alma 18:38

And he also rehearsed unto them concerning the rebellions of Laman and Lemuel and the sons of Ishmael; yea, all their rebellions did he relate unto them. And he expounded unto them all the records and scriptures from the time that Lehi left Jerusalem down to the present time.

¹Compare the term “measure” at John 3:34, and see the verses mentioned in the notes there.

Alma 18:39

But this is not all, for he expounded unto them the plan of redemption, which was prepared from the foundation of the world. And he also made known unto them concerning the coming of Christ. And all the works of the Lord did he make known unto them.

Alma 18:40

And it came to pass that after he had said all these things and expounded them to the king that the king believed all his words.

Alma 18:41

And he began to cry unto the Lord, saying: O Lord, have mercy! According to thy abundant mercy¹ which thou hast had upon the people of Nephi, have upon me and my people!

Alma 18:42

And now when he had said this, he fell unto the earth as if he were dead.

Alma 18:43

And it came to pass that his servants took him and carried him in unto his wife and laid him upon a bed. And he lay as if he were dead for the space of two days and two nights. And his wife and his sons and his daughters mourned over him after the manner of the Lamanites, greatly lamenting his loss.

Alma 19

Alma 19:1

And it came to pass that after two days and two nights they were about to take his body and lay it into a sepulchre which they had made for the purpose of burying their dead.

Alma 19:2

Now the queen having heard of the fame of Ammon, therefore she sent and desired that he should come in unto her.

Alma 19:3

And it came to pass that Ammon did as he was commanded and went in unto the queen and desired to know what she would that he should do.

Alma 19:4

And she saith unto him: The servants of my husband have made it known unto me that thou art a prophet of a holy God and that thou hast power to do many mighty works in his name.

¹The only other place in the scriptures you see "abundant mercy" is 1 Peter 1:3.

Alma 19:5

Therefore if this is the case, I would that ye should go in and see my husband, for he has been laid upon his bed for the space of two days and two nights. And some say that he is not dead; but others say that he is dead and that he stinketh¹ and that he ought to be placed in the sepulchre. But as for myself, to me he doth not stink.

Alma 19:6

Now this was what Ammon desired, for he knew that king Lamoni was under the power of God. He knew that the dark veil of unbelief being cast away from his mind, and the light which did light up his mind, which was the light of the glory of God, which was a marvelous light of his goodness —yea, this light had infused such joy into his soul, the cloud of darkness having been dispelled, and the light of everlasting life was lit up in his soul— yea, he knew that this had overcome his natural frame and he was carried away in God.

Alma 19:7

Therefore what the queen desired of him was his only desire. Therefore he went in to see the king according as the queen had desired him. And he saw the king, and he knew that he was not dead.

Alma 19:8

And he saith unto the queen: He is not dead, but he sleepeth in God; and on the morrow he shall rise again. Therefore bury him not.

Alma 19:9

And Ammon saith unto her: Believest thou this? And she said unto him: I have had no witness save thy word and the word of our servants. Nevertheless I believe that it shall be according as thou hast said.

Alma 19:10

And Ammon said unto her: Blessed art thou because of thy exceeding faith. I say unto thee, woman, there has not been such great faith among all the people of the Nephites.

Alma 19:11

And it came to pass that she watched over the bed of her husband from that time even until that time on the morrow which Ammon had appointed that he should rise.

Alma 19:12

And it came to pass that he arose according to the words of Ammon. And as he arose, he stretched forth his hand unto the woman and said: Blessed be the name of God! And blessed art thou!

Alma 19:13

For as sure as thou livest, behold, I have seen my Redeemer, and he shall come forth and be born of a woman, and he shall redeem all mankind who believe on his name. Now when he had said these words, his heart was swollen within him. And he sunk again with joy; and the queen also sunk down, being overpowered by the Spirit.

¹Compare John 11:39.

Alma 19:14

Now Ammon seeing the Spirit of the Lord poured out according to his prayers upon the Lamanites his brethren—which had been the cause of so much mourning among the Nephites, or among all the people of God, because of their iniquities and their traditions—and Ammon fell upon his knees and began to pour out his soul in prayer and thanksgiving to God for what he had done for his brethren; and he also was overpowered with joy. And thus they all three had sunk to the earth.

Alma 19:15

Now when the servants of the king had saw that they had fallen, they also began to cry unto God, for the fear of the Lord had come upon them also, for it was they which had stood before the king and testified unto him concerning the great power of Ammon.

Alma 19:16

And it came to pass that they did call on the name of the Lord in their might even until they had all fallen to the earth, save it were one of the Lamanitish women whose name was Abish, she having been converted unto the Lord for many years on account of a remarkable vision of her father

Alma 19:17

—thus having been converted to the Lord— never had made it known. Therefore when she saw that all the servants of Lamoni had fallen to the earth, and also her mistress the queen and the king, and Ammon lay prostrate upon the earth, she knew that it was the power of God. And supposing that this opportunity, by making known unto the people what had happened among them, that by beholding this scene it would cause them to believe in the power of God, therefore she ran forth from house to house making it known unto the people.

Alma 19:18

And they began to assemble themselves together unto the house of the king; and there came a multitude. And to their astonishment they beheld the king and the queen and their servants prostrate upon the earth; and they all lay there as though they were dead. And they also saw Ammon— and behold, he was a Nephite.

Alma 19:19

And now the people began to murmur among themselves, some saying that it was a great evil that had come upon them—or upon the king and his house— because he had suffered that the Nephite should remain in the land.

Alma 19:20

But others rebuked them, saying: The king hath brought this evil upon his house because he slew his servants who had had their flocks scattered at the waters of Sebus.

Alma 19:21

And they were also rebuked by those men which had stood at the waters of Sebus and scattered the flocks which belonged to the king, for they were angry with Ammon because of the number which he had slain of their brethren at the waters of Sebus while defending the flocks of the king.

Alma 19:22

Now one of them whose brother had been slain with the sword of Ammon, being exceeding angry with Ammon, drew his sword and went forth that he might let it fall upon Ammon to slay him. And as he lifted the sword to smite him, behold, he fell dead.

Alma 19:23

Now we see that Ammon could not be slain, for the Lord had said unto Mosiah his father: I will spare him, and it shall be unto him according to thy faith. Therefore Mosiah trusted him unto the Lord.

Alma 19:24

And it came to pass that when the multitude beheld that the man had fell dead who lifted the sword to slay Ammon, fear came upon them all. And they durst not put forth their hands to touch him or any of those which had fallen. And they began to marvel again among themselves what could be the cause of this great power or what all these things could mean.

Alma 19:25

And it came to pass that there was many among them who said that Ammon was the Great Spirit. And others said he was sent by the Great Spirit.

Alma 19:26

But others rebuked them all, saying that he was a monster which hath been sent from the Nephites to torment us.

Alma 19:27

And there were some which said that Ammon was sent by the Great Spirit to afflict them because of their iniquities and that it was the Great Spirit that had always attended the Nephites, which had ever delivered them out of their hands. And they said that it was this Great Spirit which had destroyed so many of their brethren the Lamanites.

Alma 19:28

And thus the contention began to be exceeding sharp among them. And while they were thus contending, the woman servant which had caused the multitude to be gathered together came. And when she saw the contention which was among the multitude, she was exceeding sorrowful, even unto tears.

Alma 19:29

And it came to pass that she went and took the queen by the hand, that perhaps she might raise her from the ground. And as soon as she touched her hand, she arose and stood upon her feet and cried with a loud voice, saying: O blessed Jesus who has saved me from an awful hell! O blessed God, have mercy on this people!

Alma 19:30

And when she had said this, she clapped her hands, being filled with joy, speaking many words which were not understood. And when she had done this, she took the king Lamoni by the hand; and behold, he arose and stood upon his feet.

Alma 19:31

And he immediately, seeing the contention among his people, went forth and began to rebuke them and to teach them the words which he had heard from the mouth of Ammon. And as many as heard his words believed and were converted unto the Lord.

Alma 19:32

But there was many among them who would not hear his words; therefore they went their way.

Alma 19:33

And it came to pass that when Ammon arose, he also administered unto them, and also did all the servants of Lamoni. And they did all declare unto the people the selfsame thing, that their hearts had been changed, that they had no more desire to do evil.

Alma 19:34

And behold, many did declare unto the people that they had seen angels and had conversed with them. And thus they had told them things of God and of his righteousness.

Alma 19:35

And it came to pass that there was many that did believe in their words. And as many as did believe were baptized, and they became a righteous people; and they did establish a church among them.

Alma 19:36

And thus the work of the Lord did commence among the Lamanites. Thus the Lord did begin to pour out his Spirit upon them. And we see that his arm is extended to all people who will repent and believe on his name.

Alma 20

Alma 20:1

And it came to pass that when they had established a church in that land that king Lamoni desired that Ammon should go with him to the land of Nephi, that he might shew him unto his father.

Alma 20:2

And it came to pass that the voice of the Lord came to Ammon, saying: Thou shalt not go up to the land of Nephi, for behold, the king will seek thy life; but thou shalt go to the land of Middoni, for behold, thy brother Aaron and also Muloki and Ammah are in prison.

Alma 20:3

Now it came to pass that when Ammon had heard this, he saith unto Lamoni: Behold, my brother and brethren are in prison at Middoni; and I go that I may deliver them.

Alma 20:4

Now Lamoni saith unto Ammon: I know in the strength of the Lord thou canst do all things. But behold, I will go with thee to the land of Middoni, for the king of the land of Middoni, whose name is Antiomno, is a friend unto me. Therefore I go to the land of Middoni that I may flatter the king of the land and he will cast thy brethren out of prison. Now Lamoni saith unto him: Who told thee that thy brethren were in prison?

Alma 20:5

And Ammon saith unto him: No one hath told me save it be God; and he said unto me: Go and deliver thy brethren, for they are in prison in the land of Middoni.

Alma 20:6

Now when Lamoni had heard this, he caused that his servants should make ready his horses and his chariots.

Alma 20:7

And he saith unto Ammon: Come, I will go with thee down to the land of Middoni, and there I will plead with the king that he will cast thy brethren out of prison.

Alma 20:8

And it came to pass that as Ammon and Lamoni was a journeying thither that they met the father of Lamoni, who was king over all the land.

Alma 20:9

And behold, the father of Lamoni saith unto him: Why did ye not come to the feast on that great day when I made a feast unto my sons and unto my people?

Alma 20:10

And he also saith: Whither art thou going with this Nephite, which is one of the children of a liar?

Alma 20:11

And it came to pass that Lamoni rehearsed unto him whither he was going, for he feared to offend him.

Alma 20:12

And he also told him all the cause of his tarrying in his own kingdom, that he did not go unto his father to the feast which he had prepared.

Alma 20:13

And now when Lamoni had rehearsed unto him all these things, behold, to his astonishment his father was angry with him and saith: Lamoni, thou art going to deliver these Nephites, which are sons of a liar; behold, he robbed our fathers. And now his children also are come amongst us that they may by their cunning and their lyings deceive us, that they again may rob us of our property.

Alma 20:14

Now the father of Lamoni commanded him that he should slay Ammon with the sword; and he also commanded him that he should not go to the land of Middoni, but that he should return with him to the land of Ishmael.

Alma 20:15

But Lamoni saith unto him: I will not slay Ammon, neither will I return to the land of Ishmael; but I go to the land of Middoni that I may release the brethren of Ammon, for I know that they are just men and holy prophets of the true God.

Alma 20:16

Now when his father heard these words, he was angry with him, and he drew his sword that he might smite him to the earth.

Alma 20:17

But Ammon stood forth and saith unto him: Behold, thou shalt not slay thy son. Nevertheless it were better that he should fall than thee, for behold, he hath repented of his sins; but if thou shouldst fall at this time in thine anger, thy soul could not be saved.

Alma 20:18

And again, it is expedient that thou shouldst forbear, for if thou shouldst slay thy son, he being an innocent man, his blood would cry from the ground to the Lord his God for vengeance to come upon thee, and perhaps thou wouldst lose thy soul.

Alma 20:19

Now when Ammon had said these words unto him, he answered him, saying: I know that if I should slay my son that I should shed innocent blood, for it is thou that hast sought to destroy him.

Alma 20:20

And he stretched forth his hand to slay Ammon, but Ammon withstood his blows and also smote his arm that he could not use it.

Alma 20:21

Now when the king saw that Ammon could slay him, he began to plead with Ammon that he would spare his life.

Alma 20:22

But Ammon raised his sword and said unto him: Behold, I will smite thee except thou wilt grant unto me that my brethren may be cast out of prison.

Alma 20:23

Now the king fearing that he should lose his life said: If thou wilt spare me, I will grant unto thee whatsoever thou wilt ask, even to the half of the kingdom.

Alma 20:24

Now when Ammon saw that he had wrought upon the old king according to his desire, he saith unto him: If thou wilt grant that my brethren may be cast out of prison, and also that Lamoni may retain his kingdom, and that ye be not displeased with him but grant that he may do according to his own desires in whatsoever thing he thinketh, and then will I spare thee; otherwise, I will smite thee to the earth.

Alma 20:25

Now when Ammon had said these words, the king began to rejoice because of his life.

Alma 20:26

And when he saw that Ammon had no desires to destroy him, and when he also saw the great love he had for his son Lamoni, he was astonished exceedingly and saith: Because this is all that thou hast desired, that I would release thy brethren and suffer that my son Lamoni should retain his kingdom, behold, I will grant unto you that my son may retain his kingdom from this time and forever, and I will govern him no more.

Alma 20:27

And I will also grant unto thee that thy brethren may be cast out of prison. And thou and thy brethren may come unto me in my kingdom, for I shall greatly desire to see thee. For the king was greatly astonished at the words which he had spoken, and also at the words which had been spoken by his son Lamoni, therefore he was desirous to learn them.

Alma 20:28

And it came to pass that Ammon and Lamoni proceeded on their journey towards the land of Middoni. And it came to pass that Lamoni found favor in the eyes of the king of the land; therefore the brethren of Ammon was brought forth out of prison.

Alma 20:29

And when Ammon did meet them, he was exceeding sorrowful; for behold, they were naked and their skins were worn exceedingly because of being bound with strong cords. And they also had suffered hunger, thirst, and all kind of afflictions. Nevertheless they were patient in all their sufferings.

Alma 20:30

And as it happened, it was their lot to have fallen into the hands of a more hardened and a more stiffnecked people. Therefore they would not hearken unto their words, and they had cast them out and had smote them and had driven them from house to house and from place to place even until they had arriven to the land of Middoni. And there they were taken and cast into prison and bound with strong cords and kept in prison for many days and were delivered by Lamoni and Ammon.

Alma 21

An account of the preaching of Aaron and Muloki and their brethren to the Lamanites.

Alma 21:1

Now when Ammon and his brethren separated themselves in the borders of the land of the Lamanites, behold, Aaron took his journey towards the land which was called by the Lamanites Jerusalem, calling it after the land of their fathers' nativity; and it was away joining the borders of Mormon.

Alma 21:2

Now the Lamanites and the Amlicites and the people of Amulon had built a great city which was called Jerusalem.

Alma 21:3

Now the Lamanites of themselves were sufficiently hardened, but the Amlicites and the Amulonites were still harder. Therefore they did cause the Lamanites that they should harden their hearts, that they should wax stronger in wickedness and their abominations.

Alma 21:4

And it came to pass that Aaron came to the city of Jerusalem and firstly began to preach to the Amlicites. And he began to preach to them in their synagogues, for they had built synagogues after the order of the Nehors, for many of the Amlicites and the Amulonites were after the order of the Nehors.

Alma 21:5

Therefore as Aaron entered into one of their synagogues to preach unto the people, and as he was speaking unto them, behold, there arose an Amlicite and began to contend with him, saying: What is that that thou hast testified? Hast thou seen an angel? Why do not angels appear unto us? Behold, are not this people as good as thy people?

Alma 21:6

Thou also sayest: Except we repent, we shall perish. How knowest thou the thought and intent of our heart? How knowest thou that we have cause to repent? How knowest thou that we are not a righteous people? Behold, we have built sanctuaries, and we do assemble ourselves together to worship God. We do believe that God will save all men.

Alma 21:7

Now Aaron said unto him: Believest thou that the Son of God shall come to redeem mankind from their sins?

Alma 21:8

And the man saith unto him: We do not believe that thou knowest any such thing. We do not believe in these foolish traditions. We do not believe that thou knowest of things to come, neither do we believe that thy fathers and also that our fathers did know concerning the things which they spake of, that which is to come.

Alma 21:9

Now Aaron began to open the scriptures unto them concerning the coming of Christ and also concerning the resurrection of the dead and that there could be no redemption for mankind save it were through the death and sufferings of Christ and the atonement of his blood.

Alma 21:10

And it came to pass that as he began to expound these things unto them, they were angry with him and began to mock him; and they would not hear the words which he spake.

Alma 21:11

Therefore when he saw that they would not hear his words, he departed out of the synagogue and came over to a village which was called Ani-Anti. And there he found Muloki a preaching the word unto them, and also Ammah and his brethren; and they contended with many about the word.

Alma 21:12

And it came to pass that they saw that the people would harden their hearts; therefore they departed and came over into the land of Middoni. And they did preach the word unto many, and few believed on the words which they taught.

Alma 21:13

Nevertheless Aaron and a certain number of his brethren were taken and cast into prison; and the remainder of them fled out of the land of Middoni unto the regions round about.

Alma 21:14

And those which were cast into prison suffered many things; and they were delivered by the hand of Lamoni and Ammon, and they were fed and clothed.

Alma 21:15

And they went forth again to declare the word. And thus they were delivered for the first time out of prison, and thus they had suffered.

Alma 21:16

And they went forth whithersoever they were led by the Spirit of the Lord, preaching the word of God in every synagogue of the Amlicites, or in every assembly of the Lamanites where they could be admitted.

Alma 21:17

And it came to pass that the Lord began to bless them, insomuch that they brought many to the knowledge of the truth. Yea, they did convince many of their sins and of the tradition of their fathers, which were not correct.

Alma 21:18

And it came to pass that Ammon and Lamoni returned from the land of Middoni to the land of Ishmael, which was the land of their inheritance.

Alma 21:19

And king Lamoni would not suffer that Ammon should serve him or be his servant.

Alma 21:20

But he caused that there should be synagogues built in the land of Ishmael. And he caused that his people—or the people which was under his reign— should assemble themselves together.

Alma 21:21

And he did rejoice over them, and he did teach them many things. And he did also declare unto them that they were a people which was under him and that they were a free people, that they were free from the oppressions of the king, his father, for that his father had granted unto him that he might reign over the people which were in the land of Ishmael and in all the land round about.

Alma 21:22

And he also declared unto them that they might have the liberty of worshipping the Lord their God according to their desires in whatsoever place they were in, if it were in the land which was under the reign of king Lamoni.

Alma 21:23

And Ammon did preach unto the people of king Lamoni. And it came to pass that he did teach them all things concerning things pertaining to righteousness. And he did exhort them daily with all diligence; and they gave heed unto his word, and they were zealous for keeping the commandments of God.

Alma 22

Alma 22:1

Now as Ammon was thus teaching the people of Lamoni continually, we will return to the account of Aaron and his other brethren. For after he departed from the land of Middoni, he was led by the Spirit to the land of Nephi, even to the house of the king which was over all the land save it were the land of Ishmael, and he was the father of Lamoni.

Alma 22:2

And it came to pass that he went in unto him, into the king's palace, with his brethren and bowed himself before the king and said unto him: Behold, O king, we are the brethren of Ammon whom thou hast delivered out of prison.

Alma 22:3

And now, O king, if thou wilt spare our lives, we will be thy servants. And the king saith unto them: Arise, for I will grant unto you your lives. And I will not suffer that ye shall be my servants, but I will insist that ye shall administer unto me. For I have been somewhat troubled in mind because of the generosity and the greatness of the words of thy brother Ammon. And I desire to know the cause why he has not come up out of Middoni with thee.

Alma 22:4

And Aaron saith unto the king: Behold, the Spirit of the Lord hath called him another way; he hath gone to the land of Ishmael to teach the people of Lamoni.

Alma 22:5

Now the king saith unto them: What is this that ye have said concerning the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, this is the thing which doth trouble me.

Alma 22:6

And also, what is this that Ammon said? —if ye will repent, ye shall be saved; and if ye will not repent, ye shall be cast off at the last day.

Alma 22:7

And Aaron answered him and said unto him: Believest thou that there is a God? And the king saith: I know that the Amlicites say that there is a God. And I have granted unto them that they should build sanctuaries, that they might assemble themselves together to worship him. And if now thou sayest there is a God, behold, I will believe.

Alma 22:8

And now when Aaron heard this, his heart began to rejoice and he saith: Behold, assuredly as thou livest, O king, there is a God.

Alma 22:9

And the king saith: Is God that Great Spirit that brought our fathers out of the land of Jerusalem?

Alma 22:10

And Aaron said unto him: Yea, he is that Great Spirit. And he created all things, both in heaven and in earth. Believest thou this?

Alma 22:11

And he saith: Yea, I believe that the Great Spirit created all things. And I desire that ye should tell me concerning all these things, and I will believe thy words.

Alma 22:12

And it came to pass that when Aaron saw that the king would believe his words, he began from the creation of Adam, reading the scriptures unto the king, how God created man after his own image and that God gave him commandments and that because of transgression man had fallen.

Alma 22:13

And Aaron did expound unto him the scriptures from the creation of Adam, laying the fall of man before him and their carnal state, and also the plan of redemption which was prepared from the foundation of the world through Christ for all whosoever would believe on his name.

Alma 22:14

And since man had fallen, he could not merit any thing of himself; but the sufferings and death of Christ atoneth for their sins through faith and repentance—etc.— and that he breaketh the bands of death, that the grave shall have no victory and that the sting of death should be swallowed up in the hopes of glory. And Aaron did expound all these things unto the king.

Alma 22:15

And it came to pass that after Aaron had expounded these things unto him, the king saith: What shall I do that I may have this eternal life of which thou hast spoken? Yea, what shall I do that I may be born of God, having this wicked spirit rooted out of my breast, and receive his Spirit, that I may be filled with joy, that I may not be cast off at the last day? Behold, saith he, I will give up all that I possess; yea, I will forsake my kingdom that I may receive this great joy.

Alma 22:16

But Aaron saith unto him: If thou desirest this thing, if thou will bow down before God —yea, if thou repent of all thy sins and will bow down before God and call on his name in faith, believing that ye shall receive— then shalt thou receive the hope which thou desirest.

Alma 22:17

And it came to pass that when Aaron had said these words, the king did bow down before the Lord upon his knees —yea, even he did prostrate himself upon the earth— and cried mightily, saying:

Alma 22:18

O God, Aaron hath told me that there is a God. And if there is a God and if thou art God, wilt thou make thyself known unto me? And I will give away¹ all my sins to know thee, and that I may be raised from the dead and be saved at the last day. And now when the king had said these words, he was struck as if he were dead.

¹Notice how “giving away” your sins is different from, for example, “laying them aside,” as we see in 2 Nephi 10:20.

Alma 22:19

And it came to pass that his servants ran and told the queen all that had happened unto the king, and she came in unto the king. And when she saw him lay as if he were dead, and also Aaron and his brethren standing as though they had been the cause of his fall, she was angry with them and commanded that her servants—or the servants of the king— should take them and slay them.

Alma 22:20

Now the servants had seen the cause of the king's fall. Therefore they durst not lay their hands on Aaron and his brethren; and they pled with the queen, saying: Why commandest thou that we should slay these men when, behold, one of them is mightier than us all? Therefore we shall fall before them.

Alma 22:21

Now when the queen saw the fear of the servants, she also began to fear exceedingly lest there should some evil come upon her. And she commanded her servants that they should go and call the people, that they might slay Aaron and his brethren.

Alma 22:22

Now when Aaron saw the determination of the queen —and he also knowing the hardness of the hearts of the people feared lest that a multitude should assemble themselves together and there should be a great contention and a disturbance among them— therefore he put forth his hand and raised the king from the earth and said unto him: Stand! And he stood upon his feet, receiving his strength.

Alma 22:23

Now this was done in the presence of the queen and many of his servants. And when they saw it, they greatly marveled and began to fear. And the king stood forth and began to minister unto them; and he did minister unto them insomuch that his whole household were converted unto the Lord.

Alma 22:24

Now there was a multitude gathered together because of the commandment of the queen; and there began to be great murmurings among them because of Aaron and his brethren.

Alma 22:25

But the king stood forth among them and administered unto them. And it came to pass that they were pacified towards Aaron and those which were with him.

Alma 22:26

And it came to pass that when the king saw that the people were pacified, he caused that Aaron and his brethren should stand forth in the midst of the multitude and that they should preach the word unto them.

Alma 22:27

And it came to pass that the king sent a proclamation throughout all the land amongst all his people which was in all his land, which was in all the regions round about, which was bordering even to the sea on the east and on the west, and which was divided from the land of Zarahemla by a narrow strip of wilderness which ran from the sea east even to the sea west, and round about on the borders of the seashore and the borders of the wilderness which was on the north by the land of Zarahemla through the borders of Manti, by the head of the river Sidon, running from the east towards the west; and thus were the Lamanites and the Nephites divided.

Alma 22:28

Now the more idle part of the Lamanites lived in the wilderness and lived in tents. And they were spread through the wilderness on the west in the land of Nephi, yea, and also on the west of the land of Zarahemla in the borders by the seashore, and on the west in the land of Nephi in the place of their fathers' first inheritance, and thus bordering along by the seashore.

Alma 22:29

And also there was many Lamanites on the east by the seashore whither the Nephites had driven them. And thus the Nephites were nearly surrounded by the Lamanites. Nevertheless the Nephites had taken possession of all the northern parts of the land bordering on the wilderness at the head of the river Sidon, from the east to the west, round about on the wilderness side on the north, even until they came to the land which they called Bountiful.

Alma 22:30

And it bordered upon the land which they called Desolation, it being so far northward that it came into the land which had been peopled and had been destroyed, of whose bones we have spoken, which was discovered by the people of Zarahemla, it being the place of their first landing.

Alma 22:31

And they came from there up into the south wilderness. Thus the land on the northward was called Desolation; and the land on the southward was called Bountiful, it being the wilderness which was filled with all manner of wild animals of every kind, a part of which had come from the land northward for food.

Alma 22:32

And now it was only the distance of a day and a half's journey for a Nephite on the line between the land Bountiful and the land Desolation, from the east to the west sea; and thus the land of Nephi and the land of Zarahemla was nearly surrounded by water, there being a small neck of land between the land northward and the land southward.

Alma 22:33

And it came to pass that the Nephites had inhabited the land Bountiful, even from the east unto the west sea. And thus the Nephites in their wisdom, with their guards and their armies, had hemmed in the Lamanites on the south, that thereby they should have no more possession on the north, that they might not overrun the land northward.

Alma 22:34

Therefore the Lamanites could have no more possessions, only in the land of Nephi and the wilderness round about. Now this was wisdom in the Nephites, as the Lamanites were an enemy to them; they would not suffer their afflictions on every hand— and also that they might have a country whither they might flee according to their desires.

Alma 22:35

And now I after having said this return again to the account of Ammon, and Aaron, Omner, and Himni, and their brethren.

Alma 23

Alma 23:1

Behold, now it came to pass that the king of the Lamanites sent a proclamation among all his people that they should not lay their hands on Ammon or Aaron or Omner or Himni, nor neither of their brethren which should go forth preaching the word of God, in whatsoever place they should be in, in any part of their land.

Alma 23:2

Yea, he sent a decree among them that they should not lay their hands on them to bind them or to cast them into prison, neither should they spit upon them nor smite them nor cast them out of their synagogues nor scourge them, neither should they cast stones at them, but that they should have free access to their houses and also their temples and their sanctuaries.

Alma 23:3

And thus they might go forth and preach the word according to their desires, for the king had been converted unto the Lord, and all his household. Therefore he sent this proclamation throughout the land unto his people, that the word of God might have no obstruction but that it might go forth throughout all the land, that his people might be convinced concerning the wicked traditions of their fathers, and that they might be convinced that they were all brethren and that they had not ought to murder nor to plunder nor to steal nor to commit adultery nor to commit any manner of wickedness.

Alma 23:4

And now it came to pass that when the king had sent forth this proclamation that Aaron and his brethren went forth from city to city and from one house of worship to another, establishing churches and consecrating priests and teachers throughout the land among the Lamanites to preach and to teach the word of God among them. And thus they began to have great success.

Alma 23:5

And thousands were brought to the knowledge of the Lord; yea, thousands were brought to believe in the traditions of the Nephites. And they were taught the records and the prophecies which were handed down even to the present time.

Alma 23:6

And as sure as the Lord liveth, so sure as many as believed, or as many as were brought to the knowledge of the truth through the preaching of Ammon and his brethren according to the spirit of revelation and of prophecy and the power of God working miracles in them— yea, I say unto you, as the Lord liveth, as many of the Lamanites as believed in their preaching and were converted unto the Lord never did fall away.

Alma 23:7

For they became a righteous people; they did lay down the weapons of their rebellion, that they did not fight against God no more, neither against any of their brethren.

Alma 23:8

Now these are they which were converted unto the Lord:

Alma 23:9

the people of the Lamanites which were in the land of Ishmael, and also of the people of the Lamanites which were in the land of Middoni,

Alma 23:10

Alma 23:11

and also of the people of the Lamanites which were in the city of Nephi, and also of the people of the Lamanites which were in the land of Shilom and which were in the land of Shemlon and in the city of Lemuel and in the city of Shimnilom.

Alma 23:12

Alma 23:13

And these are the names of the cities of the Lamanites which were converted unto the Lord. And these are they that laid down the weapons of their rebellion —yea, all their weapons of war— and they were all Lamanites.

Alma 23:14

And the Amlicites were not converted, save only one, neither was any of the Amulonites; but they did harden their hearts and also the hearts of the Lamanites in that part of the land whithersoever they dwelt, yea, and all their villages and all their cities.

Alma 23:15

Therefore we have named all the cities of the Lamanites in which they did repent and come to the knowledge of the truth and were converted.

Alma 23:16

And now it came to pass that the king and those people which were converted were desirous that they might have a name, that thereby they might be distinguished from their brethren. Therefore the king consulted with Aaron and many of their priests concerning the name that they should take upon them, that they might be distinguished.

Alma 23:17

And it came to pass that they called their name Anti-Nephi-Lehies, and they were called by this name and were no more called Lamanites.

Alma 23:18

And they began to be a very industrious people; yea, and they were friendly with the Nephites. Therefore they did open a correspondence with them, and the curse of God did no more follow them.

Alma 24

Alma 24:1

And it came to pass that the Amlicites and the Amulonites and the Lamanites which were in the land of Amulon and also in the land of Helam and which was in the land of Jerusalem —and, in fine, in all the land round about— which had not been converted and had not taken upon them the name of Anti-Nephi-Lehi were stirred up by the Amlicites and by the Amulonites to anger against their brethren.

Alma 24:2

And their hatred became exceeding sore against them, even insomuch that they began to rebel against their king, insomuch that they would not that he should be their king. Therefore they took up arms against the people of Anti-Nephi-Lehi.

Alma 24:3

Now the king conferred the kingdom upon his son, and he called his name Anti-Nephi-Lehi.

Alma 24:4

And the king died in that selfsame year that the Lamanites began to make preparations for war against the people of God.

Alma 24:5

Now when Ammon and his brethren and all those which had come up with them saw the preparations of the Lamanites to destroy their brethren, they came forth to the land of Middoni. And there Ammon met all his brethren; and from thence they came to the land of Ishmael that they might hold a council with Lamoni, and also with his brother Anti-Nephi-Lehi, what they should do to defend themselves against the Lamanites.

Alma 24:6

Now there was not one soul among all the people which had been converted unto the Lord that would take up arms against their brethren. Nay, they would not even make any preparations for war; yea, and also their king commanded them that they should not.

Alma 24:7

Now these are the words which he said unto the people concerning the matter: I thank my God, my beloved people, that our great God has in goodness sent these our brethren, the Nephites, unto us, to preach unto us and to convince us of the traditions of our wicked fathers.

Alma 24:8

And behold, I thank my great God that he has given us a portion of his Spirit to soften our hearts, that we have opened a correspondence with these brethren, the Nephites.

Alma 24:9

And behold, I also thank my God that by opening this correspondence we have been convinced of our sins and of the many murders which we have committed.

Alma 24:10

And I also thank my God, yea, my great God, that he hath granted unto us that we might repent of these things, and also that he hath forgiven us of these our many sins and murders which we have committed and took away the guilt from our hearts through the merits of his Son.

Alma 24:11

And now behold, my brethren, since it has been all that we could do, as we were the most lost of all mankind, to repent of all our sins and the many murders which we have committed and to get God to take them away from our hearts—for it was all we could do to repent sufficiently before God that he would take away our stains—

Alma 24:12

now my best beloved brethren, since God hath taken away our stains and our swords have become bright, then let us stain our swords no more with the blood of our brethren.

Alma 24:13

Behold, I say unto you: Nay, let us retain our swords that they be not stained with the blood of our brethren. For perhaps if we should stain our swords again, they can no more be washed bright through the blood of the Son of our great God, which shall be shed for the atonement of our sins.

Alma 24:14

And the great God has had mercy on us and made these things known unto us that we might not perish. Yea, and he hath made these things known unto us beforehand because he loveth our souls as well as he loveth our children. Therefore in his mercy he doth visit us by his angels, that the plan of salvation might be made known unto us as well as unto future generations.

Alma 24:15

O how merciful is our God! And now behold, since it has been as much as we could do to get our stains taken away from us and our swords are made bright, let us hide them away that they may be kept bright as a testimony to our God at the last day—or at the day that we shall be brought to stand before him to be judged—that we have not stained our swords in the blood of our brethren since he imparted his word unto us and has made us clean thereby.

Alma 24:16

And now my brethren, if our brethren seek to destroy us, behold, we will hide away our swords; yea, even we will bury them deep in the earth, that they may be kept bright as a testimony that we have never used them, at the last day. And if our brethren destroy us, behold, we shall go to our God and shall be saved.

Alma 24:17

¹And now it came to pass that when the king had made an end of these sayings, and all the people were assembled together, they took their swords and all the weapons which were used for the shedding of man's blood and they did bury them up deep in the earth.

Alma 24:18

And thus they did, it being in their view a testimony to God and also to men that they never would use weapons again for the shedding of man's blood. And this they did, vouching and covenanting with God that rather than to shed the blood of their brethren, they would give up their own lives; and rather than to take away from a brother, they would give unto him; and rather than to spend their days in idleness, they would labor abundantly with their hands.

Alma 24:19

And thus we see that when these Lamanites were brought to believe and to know the truth that they were firm and would suffer even unto death rather than to commit sin. And thus we see that they buried the weapons of peace—or they buried the weapons of war for peace.

¹Now this is people who are serious about repentance—making it impossible to do the things that they were doing before when they sinned.

Alma 24:20

And it came to pass that their brethren the Lamanites made preparations for war and came up to the land of Nephi for the purpose of dethroning the king and to place another in his stead, and also of destroying the people of Anti-Nephi-Lehi out of the land.

Alma 24:21

And it came to pass that when the people saw that they were coming against them, they went out to meet them and prostrated themselves before them to the earth and began to call on the name of the Lord. And thus they were in this attitude when the Lamanites began to fall upon them and began to slay them with the sword.

Alma 24:22

And thus without meeting any resistance they did slay a thousand and five of them. And we know that they are blessed, for they have gone to dwell with their God.

Alma 24:23

Now when the Lamanites saw that their brethren would not flee from the sword, neither would they turn aside to the right hand or to the left, but that they would lay down and perish and praised God even in the very act of perishing under the sword—

Alma 24:24

now when the Lamanites saw this, they did forbear from slaying them. And there were many whose hearts had swollen in them for those of their brethren who had fallen under the sword, for they repented of the thing which they had done.

Alma 24:25

And it came to pass that they threw down their weapons of war and they would not take them again, for they were stung for the murders which they had committed. And they came down, even as their brethren, relying upon the mercies of those whose arms were lifted to slay them.

Alma 24:26

And it came to pass that the people of God were joined that day by more than the number which had been slain. And those which had been slain were righteous people; therefore we have no reason to doubt but what they are saved.

Alma 24:27

And there was not a wicked man slain among them, but there were more than a thousand brought to the knowledge of the truth. Thus we see that the Lord worketh in many ways to the salvation of his people.

Alma 24:28

Now the greatest number of those of the Lamanites which slew so many of their brethren were Amlicites and Amulonites, the greatest number of whom were after the order of the Nehors.

Alma 24:29

Now among those which joined the people of the Lord, there were none which were Amlicites or Amulonites, or which were after the order of Nehor, but they were actual descendants of Laman and Lemuel.

Alma 24:30

And thus we can plainly discern that after a people has been once enlightened by the Spirit of God and hath had great knowledge of things pertaining to righteousness and then have fallen away into sin and transgression, they become more hardened; and thus their state becometh worse than as though they had never known these things.

Alma 25

Alma 25:1

And behold, now it came to pass that these Lamanites were more angry because they had slain their brethren. Therefore they swore vengeance upon the Nephites. And they did no more attempt to slay the people of Anti-Nephi-Lehi at that time, but they took their armies and went over into the borders of the land of Zarahemla and fell upon the people which were in the land of Ammonihah and destroyed them.

Alma 25:2

Alma 25:3

And after that, they had many battles with the Nephites, in the which they were driven and slain.

Alma 25:4

And among the Lamanites which were slain were almost all the seed of Amulon and his brethren, which were the priests of Noah; and they were slain by the hands of the Nephites.

Alma 25:5

And the remainder having fled into the east wilderness and having usurped the power and authority over the Lamanites caused that many of the Lamanites should perish by fire because of their belief.

Alma 25:6

For many of them, after having suffered much loss and so many afflictions, they began to be stirred up in remembrance of the words which Aaron and his brethren had preached to them in their land. Therefore they began to disbelieve the traditions of their fathers and to believe in the Lord and that he gave great power unto the Nephites; and thus there were many of them converted in the wilderness.

Alma 25:7

And it came to pass that those rulers which were the remnant of the children of Amulon caused that they should be put to death, yea, all those that believed in these things.

Alma 25:8

Now this martyrdom caused that many of their brethren should be stirred up to anger. And there began to be contention in the wilderness, and the Lamanites began to hunt the seed of Amulon and his brethren and began to slay them; and they fled into the east wilderness.

Alma 25:9

And behold, they are hunted at this day by the Lamanites. Thus the words of Abinadi was brought to pass which he said concerning the seed of the priests, which caused that he should suffer death by fire.

Alma 25:10

For he said unto them: What ye shall do unto me shall be a type of things to come.

Alma 25:11

And now Abinadi was the first that suffered death by fire because of his belief in God. Now this is what he meant, that many should suffer death by fire according as he had suffered.

Alma 25:12

And he said unto the priests of Noah that their seed should cause many to be put to death in the like manner as he was, and that they should be scattered abroad and slain, even as a sheep having no shepherd is driven and slain by wild beasts. And now behold, these words were verified, for they were driven by the Lamanites, and they were hunted and they were smitten.

Alma 25:13

And it came to pass that when the Lamanites saw that they could not overpower the Nephites, they returned again to their own land; and many of them came over to dwell in the land of Ishmael and the land of Nephi and did join themselves to the people of God, which was the people of Anti-Nephi-Lehi.

Alma 25:14

And they did also bury their weapons of war according as their brethren had. And they began to be a righteous people, and they did walk in the ways of the Lord and did observe to keep his commandments and his statutes.

Alma 25:15

Yea, and they did keep the law of Moses, for it was expedient that they should keep the law of Moses as yet, for it was not all fulfilled. But notwithstanding the law of Moses, they did look forward to the coming of Christ, considering that the law of Moses was a type of his coming and believing that they must keep those outward performances until the time that he should be revealed unto them.

Alma 25:16

Now they did not suppose that salvation came by the law of Moses, but the law of Moses did serve to strengthen their faith in Christ. And thus they did retain a hope through faith unto eternal salvation, relying upon the spirit of prophecy, which spake of those things to come.

Alma 25:17

And now behold, Ammon and Aaron and Omner and Himni and their brethren did rejoice exceedingly for the success which they had had among the Lamanites, seeing that the Lord had granted unto them according to their prayers and that he had also verified his word unto them in every particular.

Alma 26

Alma 26:1

And now these are the words of Ammon to his brethren, which saith thus: My brothers and my brethren, behold, I say unto you: How great reason have we to rejoice! For could we have supposed when we started from the land of Zarahemla that God would have granted unto us such great blessings?

Alma 26:2

And now I ask: What great blessings hath he bestowed upon us? Can ye tell?

Alma 26:3

Behold, I answer for you: For our brethren the Lamanites were in darkness, yea, even in the darkest abyss. But behold, how many of them are brought to behold the marvelous light of God! And this is the blessing which hath been bestowed upon us, that we have been made instruments in the hands of God to bring about this great work.

Alma 26:4

Behold, thousands of them do rejoice and have been brought into the fold of God.

Alma 26:5

Behold, the field was ripe. And blessed are ye, for ye did thrust in the sickle and did reap with your might; yea, all the day long did ye labor—and behold the number of your sheaves! And they shall be gathered into the garners, that they are not wasted.

Alma 26:6

Yea, they shall not be beaten down by the storm at the last day. Yea, neither shall they be harrowed up by the whirlwinds; but when the storm cometh, they shall be gathered together in their place, that the storm cannot penetrate to them. Yea, neither shall they be driven with fierce winds whithersoever the enemy listeth to carry them.

Alma 26:7

But behold, they are in the hands of the Lord of the harvest. And they are his, and he will raise them up at the last day.

Alma 26:8

Blessed be the name of our God! Let us sing to his praise; yea, let us give thanks to his holy name, for he doth work righteousness forever.

Alma 26:9

For if we had not come up out of the land of Zarahemla, these our dearly beloved brethren, which have so dearly beloved us, would still have been racked with hatred against us. Yea, and they would also have been strangers to God.

Alma 26:10

And it came to pass that when Ammon had said these words, his brother Aaron rebuked him, saying: Ammon, I fear that thy joy doth carry thee away unto boasting.

Alma 26:11

But Ammon saith unto him: I do not boast in my own strength or in my own wisdom; but behold, my joy is full. Yea, my heart is brim with joy, and I will rejoice in my God.

Alma 26:12

Yea, I know that I am nothing; as to my strength, I am weak. Therefore I will not boast of myself, but I will boast of my God; for in his strength I can do all things. Yea, behold, many mighty miracles we have wrought in this land, for which we will praise his name forever.

Alma 26:13

Behold how many thousands of our brethren hath he loosed from the pains of hell! And they are brought to sing redeeming love— and this because of the power of his word which is in us. Therefore have we not great reason to rejoice?

Alma 26:14

Yea, we have reason to praise him forever, for he is the Most High God and has loosed these our brethren from the chains of hell.

Alma 26:15

Yea, they were encircled about with everlasting darkness and destruction; but behold, he hath brought them into his everlasting light, yea, into everlasting salvation. And they are encircled about with the matchless bounty of his love. Yea, and we have been instruments in his hands of doing this great and marvelous work.

Alma 26:16

Therefore let us glory. Yea, we will glory in the Lord; yea, we will rejoice, for our joy is full; yea, we will praise our God forever. Behold, who can glory too much in the Lord?¹ Yea, who can say too much of his great power and of his mercy and of his long-suffering towards the children of men? Behold, I say unto you: I cannot say the smallest part which I feel.

Alma 26:17

Who could have supposed that our God would have been so merciful as to have snatched us from our awful, sinful, and polluted state?

Alma 26:18

Behold, we went forth even in wrath with mighty threatenings to destroy his church.

Alma 26:19

O then why did he not consign us to an awful destruction? Yea, why did he not let the sword of his justice fall upon us and doom us to eternal despair?

Alma 26:20

O my soul almost, as it were, fleeth at the thought. Behold, he did not exercise his justice upon us, but in his great mercy hath brought us over that everlasting gulf of death and misery, even to the salvation of our souls.

¹Compare 2 Corinthians 10:17.

Alma 26:21

And now behold, my brethren, what natural man is there that knoweth these things? I say unto you: There is none that knoweth these things save it be the penitent.

Alma 26:22

Yea, he that repenteth and exerciseth faith and bringeth forth good works and prayeth continually without ceasing, unto such it is given to know the mysteries of God. Yea, unto such it shall be given to reveal things which never have been revealed. Yea, and it shall be given unto such to bring thousands of souls to repentance, even as it hath been given unto us to bring these our brethren to repentance.

Alma 26:23

Now, do ye remember, my brethren, that we said unto our brethren in the land of Zarahemla: We go up to the land of Nephi to preach unto our brethren the Lamanites. And they laughed us to scorn, for they said unto us: Do ye suppose that ye can bring the Lamanites to the knowledge of the truth? Do ye suppose that ye can convince the Lamanites of the incorrectness of the traditions of their fathers, as stiffnecked a people as they are, whose hearts delighteth in the shedding of blood, whose days have been spent in the grossest iniquity, whose ways have been the ways of a transgressor from the beginning? Now my brethren, ye remember that this was their language.

Alma 26:24

Alma 26:25

And moreover they did say: Let us take up arms against them, that we destroy them and their iniquity out of the land, lest they overrun us and destroy us.

Alma 26:26

But behold, my beloved brethren, we came into the wilderness, not with the intent to destroy our brethren, but with the intent that perhaps we might save some few of their souls.

Alma 26:27

Now when our hearts were depressed and we were about to turn back, behold, the Lord comforted us and said: Go amongst thy brethren, the Lamanites, and bear with patience thine afflictions; and I will give unto thee success.

Alma 26:28

And now behold, we have come and been forth amongst them; and we have been patient in our sufferings. And we have suffered every privation; yea, we have traveled from house to house, relying upon the mercies of the world— not upon the mercies of the world alone, but upon the mercies of God.

Alma 26:29

And we have entered into their houses and taught them; and we have taught them in their streets; yea, and we have taught them upon their hills; and we have also entered into their temples and their synagogues and taught them. And we have been cast out and mocked and spit upon and smote upon our cheeks. And we have been stoned and taken and bound with strong cords and cast into prison; and through the power and wisdom of God we have been delivered again.

Alma 26:30

And we have suffered all manner of afflictions— and all this that perhaps we might be the means of saving some soul. And we supposed that our joy would be full if perhaps we could be the means of saving some.

Alma 26:31

Now behold, we can look forth and see the fruits of our labors. And are they few? I say unto you: Nay, they are many. Yea, and we can witness of their sincerity because of their love towards their brethren and also towards us.

Alma 26:32

For behold, they had rather sacrifice their lives than even to take the life of their enemy. And they have buried their weapons of war deep in the earth because of their love towards their brethren.

Alma 26:33

And now behold, I say unto you: Has there been so great love in all the land? Behold, I say unto you: Nay. There has not, even among the Nephites.

Alma 26:34

For behold, they would take up arms against their brethren; they would not suffer themselves to be slain. But behold, how many of these have laid down their lives! And we know that they have gone to their God because of their love and of their hatred to sin.

Alma 26:35

Now, have we not reason to rejoice? Yea, I say unto you: There never was men that had so great reason to rejoice as we since the world began. Yea, and my joy is carried away, even unto boasting in my God. For he has all power, all wisdom, and all understanding; he comprehendeth all things, and he is a merciful Being, even unto salvation to those who will repent and believe on his name.

Alma 26:36

Now if this is boasting, even so will I boast. For this is my life and my light, my joy and my salvation and my redemption from everlasting woe. Yea, blessed is the name of my God, who hath been mindful of this people, which are a branch of the tree of Israel and hath been lost from its body in a strange land. Yea, I say: Blessed be the name of my God, who hath been mindful of us, wanderers in a strange land.

Now my brethren, we see that God is mindful of every people in whatsoever land they may be in; yea, he numbereth his people. And his bowels of mercy is over all the earth. Now this is my joy and my great thanksgiving. Yea, and I will give thanks unto my God forever. Amen.

Alma 27

Alma 27:1

Now it came to pass that when those Lamanites which had gone to war against the Nephites had found after their many struggles for to destroy them that it was in vain to seek their destruction, they returned again to the land of Nephi.

Alma 27:2

And it came to pass that the Amlicites, because of their loss, were exceeding angry. And when they saw they could not seek revenge from the Nephites, they began to stir up the people in anger against their brethren, the people of Anti-Nephi-Lehi. Therefore they began again to destroy them.

Alma 27:3

Now this people again refused to take their arms; and they suffered themselves to be slain according to the desires of their enemy.

Alma 27:4

Now when Ammon and his brethren saw this work of destruction among those who they so dearly beloved and among those who had so dearly beloved them—for they were treated as though they were angels sent from God to save them from an everlasting destruction—therefore when Ammon and his brethren saw this great work of destruction, they were moved with compassion, and they said unto the king:

Alma 27:5

Let us gather together this people of the Lord, and let us go down to the land of Zarahemla to our brethren the Nephites and flee out of the hands of our enemies, that we be not destroyed.

Alma 27:6

But the king saith unto them: Behold, the Nephites will destroy us because of the many murders and sins we have committed against them.

Alma 27:7

And Ammon saith: I will go and inquire of the Lord. And if he saith unto us, go down unto our brethren, will ye go?

Alma 27:8

And the king saith unto him: Yea, if the Lord saith unto us, go, we will go down unto our brethren; and we will be their slaves until we repair unto them the many murders and sins which we have committed against them.

Alma 27:9

But Ammon saith unto him: It is against the law of our brethren which was established by my father that there should be any slaves among them. Therefore let us go down and rely upon the mercies of our brethren.

Alma 27:10

But the king saith unto him: Inquire of the Lord, and if he saith unto us, go, we will go. Otherwise, we will perish in the land.

Alma 27:11

And it came to pass that Ammon went and inquired of the Lord, and the Lord said unto him:

Alma 27:12

Get this people out of this land, that they perish not, for Satan hath great hold on the hearts of the Amlicites, which do stir up the Lamanites to anger against their brethren to slay them; therefore get thee out of this land. And blessed are this people in this generation, for I will preserve them.

Alma 27:13

And now it came to pass that Ammon went and told the king all the words which the Lord had said unto him.

Alma 27:14

And it came to pass that they gathered together all their people —yea, all the people of the Lord— and did gather together all their flocks and herds and departed out of the land and came into the wilderness which divided the land of Nephi from the land of Zarahemla and came over near the borders of the land.

Alma 27:15

And it came to pass that Ammon saith unto them: Behold, I and my brethren will go forth into the land of Zarahemla, and ye shall remain here until we return; and we will try the hearts of our brethren, whether they will that ye shall come into their land.

Alma 27:16

And it came to pass that as Ammon was going forth into the land that he and his brethren met Alma over in the place of which has been spoken. And behold, this was a joyful meeting.

Alma 27:17

Now the joy of Ammon was so great even that he was full. Yea, he was swallowed up in the joy of his God, even to the exhausting of his strength. And he fell again to the earth.

Alma 27:18

Now, was not this exceeding joy? Behold, this is joy which none receiveth save it be the truly penitent and humble seeker of happiness.

Alma 27:19

Now the joy of Alma in meeting his brethren was truly great, and also the joy of Aaron, of Omner and Himni; but behold, their joy was not that to exceed their strength.

Alma 27:20

And now it came to pass that Alma conducted his brethren back to the land of Zarahemla, even to his own house. And it came to pass that they went and told the chief judge all the things which had happened unto them in the land of Nephi among their brethren the Lamanites.

Alma 27:21

And it came to pass that the chief judge sent a proclamation throughout all the land, desiring the voice of the people concerning the admitting their brethren, which were the people of Anti-Nephi-Lehi.

Alma 27:22

And it came to pass that the voice of the people came, saying: Behold, we will give up the land of Jershon, which is on the east by the sea, which joins the land Bountiful, which is on the south of the land Bountiful. And this land Jershon is the land which we will give unto our brethren for an inheritance.

Alma 27:23

And behold, we will set our armies between the land Jershon and the land Nephi, that we may protect our brethren in the land of Jershon. And this we do for our brethren on account of their fear to take up arms against their brethren lest they should commit sin; and this their great fear came because of their sore repentance which they had on account of their many murders and their awful wickedness.

Alma 27:24

And now behold, this will we do unto our brethren that they may inherit the land Jershon. And we will guard them from their enemies by our armies on conditions that they will give us a portion of their substance to assist us that we may maintain our armies.

Alma 27:25

Now it came to pass that when Ammon had heard this, he returned to the people of Anti-Nephi-Lehi, and also Alma with him, into the wilderness where they had pitched their tents and made known unto them all these things. And Alma also related unto them his conversion with Ammon and Aaron and his brethren.

Alma 27:26

And it came to pass that it did cause great joy among them. And it came to pass that they went down into the land of Jershon and took possession of the land of Jershon. And they were called by the Nephites the people of Ammon; therefore they were distinguished by that name ever after.

Alma 27:27

And they were numbered among the people of Nephi, and also numbered among the people which were of the church of God. And they were also distinguished for their zeal towards God and also towards men, for they were perfectly honest and upright in all things. And they were firm in the faith of Christ, even unto the end.

Alma 27:28

And they did look upon shedding the blood of their brethren with the greatest abhorrence. And they never could be prevailed upon to take up arms against their brethren. And they never did look upon death with any degree of terror for their hope and views of Christ and the resurrection. Therefore death was swallowed up to them by the victory of Christ over it.

Alma 27:29

Therefore they would suffer death in the most aggravating and distressing manner which could be inflicted by their brethren before they would take the sword or the scimitar to smite them.

Alma 27:30

And thus they were a zealous and beloved people, a highly favored people of the Lord.

Alma 28

Alma 28:1

And now it came to pass that after the people of Ammon were established in the land of Jershon —and a church also established in the land— and the armies of the Nephites were set round about the land of Jershon —yea, in all the borders round about the land of Zarahemla— behold, the armies of the Lamanites had followed their brethren into the wilderness.

Alma 28:2

And thus there was a tremendous battle, yea, even such an one as never had been known among all the people in the land from the time Lehi left Jerusalem. Yea, and tens of thousands of the Lamanites were slain and scattered abroad.

Alma 28:3

Yea, and also there was a tremendous slaughter among the people of Nephi; nevertheless the Lamanites were driven and scattered, and the people of Nephi returned again to their lands.

Alma 28:4

And now this was a time that there was a great mourning and lamentation heard throughout all the land among all the people of Nephi—

Alma 28:5

yea, the cry of widows mourning for their husbands, and also of fathers a mourning for their sons, and the daughter for the brother, yea, and the brother for the father. And thus the cry of mourning was heard among every one of them, a mourning for their kindred which had been slain.

Alma 28:6

And now surely this was a sorrowful day, yea, a time of solemnity and a time of much fasting and prayer.

Alma 28:7

And thus ended the fifteenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi.

Alma 28:8

And this is the account of Ammon and his brethren, their journeyings into the land of Nephi, their sufferings in the land, their sorrows and their afflictions, and their incomprehensible joy, and the reception and safety of the brethren in the land of Jershon. And now may the Lord, the Redeemer of all men, bless their souls forever.

Alma 28:9

And this is the account of the wars and contentions among the Nephites, and also the wars between the Nephites and the Lamanites; and the fifteenth year of the reign of the judges is ended.

Alma 28:10

And from the first year to the fifteenth has brought to pass the destruction of many thousand lives; yea, it has brought to pass an awful scene of bloodshed.

Alma 28:11

And the bodies of many thousands are laid low in the earth, while the bodies of many thousands are moldering in heaps upon the face of the earth. Yea, and many thousands are mourning for the loss of their kindred because they have reason to fear, according to the promises of the Lord, that they are consigned to a state of endless woe, while many thousands of others truly mourn for the loss of their kindred, yet they rejoice and exult in the hope —yea, and even know according to the promises of the Lord— that they are raised to dwell at the right hand of God in a state of never-ending happiness.

Alma 28:12

Alma 28:13

And thus we see how great the inequality¹ of man is because of sin and transgression and the power of the devil, which comes by the cunning plans which he hath devised to ensnare the hearts of men.

Alma 28:14

And thus we see the great call of the diligence of men to labor in the vineyards of the Lord. And thus we see the great reason of sorrow and also of rejoicing— sorrow because of death and destruction among men, and joy because of the light of Christ unto life.

Alma 29

O that I were an angel and could have the wish of mine heart, that I might go forth and speak with the trump of God, with a voice to shake the earth and cry repentance unto every people!

Alma 29:2

Yea, I would declare unto every soul as with the voice of thunder repentance and the plan of redemption, that they should repent and come unto our God, that there might be no more sorrow upon all the face of the earth.

Alma 29:3

But behold, I am a man and do sin in my wish, for I had ought to be content with the things which the Lord hath allotted unto me.

Alma 29:4

I had not ought to harrow up in my desires the firm decree of a just God, for I know that he granteth unto men according to their desires,² whether it be unto death or unto life. Yea, I know that he allotteth unto man, yea, decreeth unto them decrees³ which are unalterable according to their wills, whether it be unto salvation or unto destruction.

¹Here at elsewhere, the Yale version of the BOM has “unequality,” while the modern version has “inequality.”

²For examples, see Romans 1:23–32,

³For “decree,” see DC 63:33 and 36.

Alma 29:5

Yea, and I know that good and evil hath come before all men—or he that knoweth not good from evil is blameless—but he that knoweth good and evil, to him it is given according to his desires, whether he desireth good or evil, life or death, joy or remorse of conscience.

Alma 29:6

Now seeing that I know these things, why should I desire more than to perform the work to which I have been called?

Alma 29:7

Why should I desire that I was an angel that I could speak unto all the ends of the earth?

Alma 29:8

For behold, the Lord doth grant unto all nations of their own nation and tongue to teach his word, yea, in wisdom all that he seeth fit that they should have. Therefore we see that the Lord doth counsel in his wisdom according to that which is just and true.

Alma 29:9

I know that which the Lord hath commanded me, and I glory in it. I do not glory of myself, but I glory in that which the Lord hath commanded me.¹ Yea, and this is my glory, that perhaps I may be an instrument in the hands of God to bring some soul to repentance; and this is my joy.

Alma 29:10

And behold, when I see many of my brethren truly penitent and coming to the Lord their God, then is my soul filled with joy; then do I remember what the Lord has done for me, yea, even that he hath heard my prayer. Yea, then do I remember his merciful arm which he extended towards me.

Alma 29:11

Yea, and I also remember the captivity of my fathers, for I surely do know that the Lord did deliver them out of bondage and by them did establish his church. Yea, the Lord God, the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob, did deliver them out of bondage.

Alma 29:12

Yea, I have always remembered the captivity of my fathers. And that same God who delivered them out of the hands of the Egyptians did deliver them out of bondage.

Alma 29:13

Yea, and that same God did establish his church among them. Yea, and that same God hath called me by a holy calling to preach the word unto this people and hath given me much success, in the which my joy is full.

Alma 29:14

But I do not joy in my own success alone, but my joy is more full because of the success of my brethren which have been up to the land of Nephi.

¹Compare 2 Corinthians 10:17.

Alma 29:15

Behold, they have labored exceedingly and have brought forth much fruit. And how great shall be their reward!

Alma 29:16

Now when I think of the success of these my brethren, my soul is carried away, even to the separation of it from the body, as it were, so great is my joy.

Alma 29:17

And now may God grant unto these my brethren that they may sit down in the kingdom of God, yea, and also all those which are the fruit of their labor, that they may go no more out but that they may praise him forever. And may God grant that it may be done according to my words, even as I have spoken. Amen.

Alma 30

Alma 30:1

Behold, now it came to pass that after the people of Ammon were established in the land of Jershon, yea, and also after the Lamanites were driven out of the land and their dead were buried by the people of the land

Alma 30:2

—now their dead were not numbered because of the greatness of their numbers, neither were the dead of the Nephites numbered— but it came to pass that after they had buried their dead and also after the days of fasting and mourning and prayer —and it was in the sixteenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi— there began to be continual peace throughout all the land.

Alma 30:3

Yea, and the people did observe to keep the commandments of the Lord; and they were strict in observing the ordinances of God according to the law of Moses, for they were taught to keep the law of Moses until it should be fulfilled.

Alma 30:4

And thus the people did have no disturbance in all the sixteenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi.

Alma 30:5

And it came to pass in the commencement of the seventeenth year of the reign of the judges, there was continual peace.

Alma 30:6

But it came to pass in the latter end of the seventeenth year there came a man into the land of Zarahemla and he was anti-Christ, for he began to preach unto the people against the prophecies which had been spoken by the prophets concerning the coming of Christ.

Alma 30:7

Now there was no law against a man's belief, for it was strictly contrary to the commandments of God that there should be a law which should bring men onto unequal grounds.

Alma 30:8

For thus saith the scripture: Choose ye this day whom ye will serve.

Alma 30:9

Now if a man desired to serve God, it was his privilege—or rather, if he believed in God, it was his privilege to serve him—but if he did not believe in him, there was no law to punish him.

Alma 30:10

But if he murdered, he was punished unto death; and if he robbed, he was also punished; and if he stole, he was also punished; and if he committed adultery, he was also punished; yea, for all this wickedness they were punished.

Alma 30:11

For there was a law that men should be judged according to their crimes. Nevertheless there was no law against a man's belief. Therefore a man was punished only for the crimes which he had done; therefore all men were on equal grounds.

Alma 30:12

And this anti-Christ, whose name was Korihor—and the law could have no hold upon him—and he began to preach unto the people that there should be no Christ. And after this manner did he preach, saying:

Alma 30:13

O ye that are bound down under a foolish and a vain hope, why do ye yoke yourselves with such foolish things? Why do ye look for a Christ? For no man can know of any thing which is to come.

Alma 30:14

Behold, these things which ye call prophecies, which ye say are handed down by holy prophets, behold, they are foolish traditions of your fathers.

Alma 30:15

How do ye know of their surety? Behold, ye cannot know of things which ye do not see; therefore ye cannot know that there shall be a Christ.

Alma 30:16

Ye look forward and say that ye see a remission of your sins, but behold, it is the effects of a frenzied mind. And this derangement of your minds comes because of the tradition of your fathers, which leads you away into a belief of things which are not so.

Alma 30:17

And many more such things did he say unto them, telling them that there could be no atonement made for the sins of men, but every man fared in this life according to the management of the creature—therefore every man prospered according to his genius—and that every man conquered according to his strength, and whatsoever a man did was no crime.

Alma 30:18

And thus he did preach unto them, leading away the hearts of many, causing them to lift up their heads in their wickedness, yea, leading away many women and also men to commit whoredoms, telling them that when a man was dead, that was the end thereof.

Alma 30:19

Now this man went over to the land of Jershon also to preach these things among the people of Ammon, which were once the people of the Lamanites.

Alma 30:20

But behold, they were more wise than many of the Nephites, for they took him and bound him and carried him before Ammon, which was a high priest over that people.

Alma 30:21

And it came to pass that he caused that he should be carried out of the land. And it came to pass that he came over into the land of Gideon and began to preach unto them also. And here he did not have much success, for he was taken and bound and carried before the high priest and also the chief judge over the land.

Alma 30:22

And it came to pass that the high priest saith unto him: Why do ye go about perverting the ways of the Lord? Why do ye teach this people that there shall be no Christ, to interrupt their rejoicings? Why do ye speak against all the prophecies of the holy prophets?

Alma 30:23

Now the high priest's name was Giddonah, and Korihor saith unto him: Because I do not teach the foolish traditions of your fathers and because I do not teach this people to bind themselves down under the foolish ordinances and performances which are laid down by ancient priests, to usurp power and authority over them, to keep them in ignorance, that they may not lift up their heads but be brought down according to thy words.

Alma 30:24

Ye say that this people is a free people. Behold, I say: These are in bondage. Ye say that those ancient prophecies are true. Behold, I say that ye do not know that they are true.

Alma 30:25

Ye say that this people is a guilty and a fallen people because of the transgression of a parent. Behold, I say that a child is not guilty because of its parents.

Alma 30:26

And ye also say that Christ shall come. But behold, I say that ye do not know that there shall be a Christ. And ye say also that he shall be slain for the sins of the world.

Alma 30:27

And thus ye lead away this people after the foolish traditions of your fathers, and according to your own desires; and ye keep them down, even as it were in bondage, that ye may glut yourselves with the labors of their hands, that they durst not look up with boldness, and that they durst not enjoy their rights and privileges.

Alma 30:28

Yea, they durst not make use of that which is their own lest they should offend their priests, which do yoke them according to their desires and hath brought them to believe by their traditions and their dreams and their whims and their visions and their pretended mysteries that they should, if they did not do according to their words, offend some unknown being, which they say is God, a being which never hath been seen nor known, which never was, nor never will be.

Alma 30:29

Now when the high priest and the chief judge saw the hardness of his heart, yea, when they saw that he would revile even against God, they would not make any reply to his words, but they caused that he should be bound; and they delivered him up into the hands of the officers and sent him to the land of Zarahemla, that he might be brought before Alma and the chief judge which was governor over all the land.

Alma 30:30

And it came to pass that when he was brought before Alma and the chief judge that he did go on in the same manner as he did in the land of Gideon; yea, he went on to blasphemy.

Alma 30:31

And he did rise up in great swelling words before Alma and did revile against the priests and teachers, accusing them of leading away the people after the silly traditions of their fathers for the sake of glutting in the labors of the people.

Alma 30:32

Now Alma saith unto him: Thou knowest that we do not glut ourselves upon the labors of this people. For behold, I have labored even from the commencement of the reign of the judges until now with mine own hands for my support, notwithstanding my many travels round about the land to declare the word of God unto my people.

Alma 30:33

And notwithstanding the many labors which I have performed in the church, I have never received so much as even one senine for my labor, neither hath any of my brethren, save it were in the judgment seat; and then we have received only according to law for our time.

Alma 30:34

And now if we do not receive any thing for our labors in the church, what doth it profit us to labor in the church? —save it were to declare the truth, that we may have rejoicings in the joy of our brethren.

Alma 30:35

Then why sayest thou that we preach unto this people to get gain when thou of thyself knowest that we receive no gain? And now, believest thou that we deceive this people and that causeth such joy in their hearts?

Alma 30:36

And Korihor answered him: Yea.

Alma 30:37

Then Alma saith unto him: Believest thou that there is a God?

Alma 30:38

And he answered: Nay.

Alma 30:39

Now Alma saith unto him: If ye deny again that there is a God and also deny the Christ— for behold, I say unto you: I know there is a God, and also that Christ shall come.

Alma 30:40

And now, what evidence have ye that there is no God or that Christ cometh not? I say unto you that ye have none save it be your word only.

Alma 30:41

But behold, I have all things as a testimony that these things are true. And ye also have all things as a testimony unto you that they are true. And will ye deny them? Believest thou that these things are true?

Alma 30:42

Behold, I know that thou believest. But thou art possessed with a lying spirit, and ye have put off the Spirit of God that it may have no place in you; but the devil hath power over you, and he doth carry you about, working devices that he may destroy the children of God.

Alma 30:43

And now Korihor saith unto Alma: If thou wilt shew me a sign that I may be convinced that there is a God, yea, shew unto me that he hath power, and then will I be convinced of the truth of thy words.

Alma 30:44

But Alma saith unto him: Thou hast had signs enough. Will ye tempt your God? Will ye say, shew unto me a sign, when ye have the testimony of all these thy brethren and also all the holy prophets? The scriptures are laid before thee. Yea, and all things denote there is a God; yea, even the earth and all things that is upon the face of it, yea, and its motion, yea, and also all the planets, which move in their regular form, doth witness that there is a Supreme Creator.

Alma 30:45

And yet do ye go about leading away the hearts of this people, testifying unto them there is no God? And yet will ye deny against all these witnesses? And he said: Yea, I will deny except ye shall shew me a sign.

Alma 30:46

And now it came to pass that Alma said unto him: Behold, I am grieved because of the hardness of your heart, yea, that ye will still resist the spirit of the truth, that thy soul may be destroyed.

Alma 30:47

But behold, it is better that thy soul should be lost than that thou shouldst be the means of bringing many souls down to destruction by thy lying and by thy flattering words. Therefore if thou shalt deny again, behold, God shall smite thee that thou shalt become dumb, that thou shalt never open thy mouth any more, that thou shalt not deceive this people any more.

Alma 30:48

Now Korihor saith unto him: I do not deny the existence of a God, but I do not believe that there is a God. And I say also that ye do not know that there is a God; and except ye shew me a sign, I will not believe.

Alma 30:49

Now Alma saith unto him: This will I give unto thee for a sign, that thou shalt be struck dumb according to my words. And I say that in the name of God that ye shall be struck dumb, that ye shall no more have utterance.

Alma 30:50

Now when Alma had said these words, Korihor was struck dumb, that he could not have utterance, according to the words of Alma.

Alma 30:51

And now when the chief judge saw this, he put forth his hand and wrote unto Korihor, saying: Art thou convinced of the power of God? In whom did ye desire that Alma should shew forth his sign? Would ye that he should afflict others to shew unto thee a sign? Now behold, he hath shewed unto you a sign. And now will ye dispute more?

Alma 30:52

And Korihor put forth his hand and wrote, saying: I know that I am dumb, for I cannot speak. And I know that nothing save it were the power of God could bring this upon me. Yea, and I always knew that there was a God.

Alma 30:53

But behold, the devil hath deceived me, for he appeared unto me in the form of an angel and said unto me: Go and reclaim this people, for they have all gone astray after an unknown God. And he saith unto me: There is no God. Yea, and he taught me that which I should say, and I have taught his words. And I taught them because they were pleasing unto the carnal mind. And I taught them even until I had much success, insomuch that I verily believed that they were true. And for this cause I withstood the truth, even until I have brought this great curse upon me.

Alma 30:54

Now when he had said this, he besought that Alma should pray unto God that the curse might be taken from him.

Alma 30:55

But Alma said unto him: If this curse should be taken from thee, thou wouldst again lead away the hearts of this people. Therefore it shall be unto thee even as the Lord will.

Alma 30:56

And it came to pass that the curse was not taken off of Korihor, but he was cast out and went about from house to house a begging for his food.

Alma 30:57

Now the knowledge of what had happened unto Korihor was immediately published throughout all the land; yea, the proclamation was sent forth by the chief judge to all the people in the land, declaring unto those who had believed in the words of Korihor that they must speedily repent lest the same judgments would come unto them.

Alma 30:58

And it came to pass that they were all convinced of the wickedness of Korihor. Therefore they were all converted again unto the Lord. And this put an end to the iniquity after the manner of Korihor. And Korihor did go about from house to house a begging food for his support.

Alma 30:59

And it came to pass that as he went forth among the people —yea, among a people which had separated themselves from the Nephites and called themselves Zoramites, being led by a man whose name was Zoram— and as he went forth amongst them, behold, he was ran upon and trodden down, even until he was dead.

Alma 30:60

And thus we see the end of him who perverteth the ways of the Lord. And thus we see that the devil will not support his children at the last day, but doth speedily drag them down to hell.

Alma 31

Alma 31:1

Now it came to pass that after the end of Korihor, Alma having received tidings that the Zoramites were perverting the ways of the Lord and that Zoram, which was their leader, was leading the hearts of the people to bow down to dumb idols etc., his heart again began to sicken because of the iniquity of the people.

Alma 31:2

For it was the cause of great sorrow to Alma to know of iniquity among his people; therefore his heart was exceeding sorrowful because of the separation of the Zoramites from the Nephites.

Alma 31:3

Now the Zoramites had gathered themselves together in a land which they called Antionum, which was east of the land of Zarahemla, which lay nearly bordering upon the seashore which was south of the land Jereshon, which also bordered upon the wilderness south, which wilderness was full of the Lamanites.

Alma 31:4

Now the Nephites greatly feared that the Zoramites would enter into a correspondence with the Lamanites and that it would be the means of great loss on the part of the Nephites.

Alma 31:5

And now as the preaching of the word had had a greater tendency to lead the people to do that which was just —yea, it had had more powerful effect upon the minds of the people than the sword or any thing else which had happened unto them— therefore Alma thought it was expedient that they should try the virtue of the word of God.

Alma 31:6

Therefore he took Ammon and Aaron and Omner —and Himni he did leave in the church in Zarahemla, but the former three he took with him— and also Amulek and Zeezrom, which were at Melek; and he also took two of his sons.

Alma 31:7

Now the eldest of his sons he took not with him, and his name was Helaman; but the names of those which he took with him were Shiblon and Corianton. And these are the names of those which went with him among the Zoramites to preach unto them the word.

Alma 31:8

Now the Zoramites were dissenters from the Nephites. Therefore they had the word of God preached unto them; but they had fell into great errors, for they would not observe to keep the commandments of God and his statutes according to the law of Moses, neither would they observe the performances of the church, to continue in prayer and supplication to God daily that they might not enter into temptation.

Alma 31:9

Alma 31:10

Alma 31:11

Yea, in fine, they did pervert the ways of the Lord in very many instances. Therefore for this cause Alma and his brethren went into the land to preach the word unto them.

Alma 31:12

Now when they had came into the land, behold, to their astonishment they found that the Zoramites had built synagogues and that they did gather themselves together on one day of the week, which day they did call the day of the Lord, and they did worship after a manner which Alma and his brethren had never beheld.

Alma 31:13

For they had a place built up in the center of their synagogue, a place of standing which was high above the head; and the top thereof would only admit one person.

Alma 31:14

Therefore whosoever desired to worship must go forth and stand upon the top thereof and stretch forth his hands towards the heavens and cry with a loud voice, saying:

Alma 31:15

Holy holy God, we believe that thou art God. And we believe that thou art holy, and that thou wast a spirit and that thou art a spirit and that thou wilt be a spirit forever.

Alma 31:16

Holy God, we believe that thou hast separated us from our brethren. And we do not believe in the tradition of our brethren which was handed down to them by the childishness of their fathers, but we believe that thou hast elected us to be thy holy children, and also thou hast made it known unto us that there shall be no Christ.

Alma 31:17

But thou art the same yesterday, today, and forever. And thou hast elected us that we shall be saved, whilst all around us are elected to be cast by thy wrath down to hell, for the which holiness, O God, we thank thee. And we also thank thee that thou hast elected us that we may not be led away after the foolish traditions of our brethren, which doth bind them down to a belief of Christ, which doth lead their hearts to wander far from thee, our God.

Alma 31:18

And again we thank thee, O God, that we are a chosen and a holy people. Amen.

Alma 31:19

Now it came to pass that after Alma and his brethren and his sons had heard these prayers, they were astonished beyond all measure; for behold, every man did go forth and offer up these same prayers.

Alma 31:20

Alma 31:21

Now the place was called by them Rameumptom, which being interpreted is the holy stand.

Alma 31:22

Now from this stand they did offer up every man the selfsame prayer unto God, thanking their God that they were chosen of him and that he had not led them away after the tradition of their brethren and that their hearts were not stolen away to believe in things to come, which they knew nothing about.

Alma 31:23

Now when the people had all offered up thanks after their manner, they returned to their homes, never speaking of their God again until they had assembled themselves together again to the holy stand to offer up thanks after their manner.

Alma 31:24

Now when Alma saw this, his heart was grieved; for he saw that they were a wicked and a perverse people. Yea, he saw that their hearts were set upon gold and upon silver and upon all manner of fine goods.

Alma 31:25

Yea, and he also saw that their hearts were lifted up unto great boasting in their pride.

Alma 31:26

And he lifted up his voice to heaven and cried, saying: O how long, O Lord, wilt thou suffer that thy servants shall dwell here below in the flesh to behold such gross wickedness among the children of men?

Alma 31:27

Behold, O God, they cry unto thee, and yet their hearts are swallowed up in their pride. Behold, O God, they cry unto thee with their mouths while they are puffed up, even to greatness, with the vain things of the world.

Alma 31:28

Behold, O my God, their costly apparel and their ringlets and their bracelets and their ornaments of gold and all their precious things which they are ornamented with— and behold, their hearts are set upon them. And yet they cry unto thee and say: We thank thee, O God, for we are a chosen people unto thee while others shall perish.

Alma 31:29

Yea, and they say that thou hast made it known unto them that there shall be no Christ.

Alma 31:30

O Lord God, how long wilt thou suffer that such wickedness and infidelity shall be among this people? O Lord, wilt thou give me strength that I may bear with mine infirmities! For I am infirm, and such wickedness among this people doth pain my soul.

Alma 31:31

O Lord, my heart is exceeding sorrowful. Wilt thou comfort my soul in Christ! O Lord, wilt thou grant unto me that I may have strength that I may suffer with patience these afflictions which shall come upon me because of the iniquity of this people!

Alma 31:32

O Lord, wilt thou comfort my soul and give unto me success! And also my fellow laborers which are with me —yea, Ammon and Aaron and Omner, and also Amulek and Zeezrom, and also my two sons— yea, even all these wilt thou comfort, O Lord! Yea, wilt thou comfort their souls in Christ!

Alma 31:33

Wilt thou grant unto them that they may have strength, that they may bear their afflictions which shall come upon them because of the iniquities of this people!

Alma 31:34

O Lord, wilt thou grant unto us that we may have success in bringing them again unto thee in Christ!

Alma 31:35

Behold, O Lord, their souls are precious; and many of them are our near brethren. Therefore give unto us, O Lord, power and wisdom that we may bring these our brethren again unto thee.

Alma 31:36

Now it came to pass that when Alma had said these words that he clapped¹ his hands upon all they which were with him. And behold, as he clapped his hands upon them, they were filled with the Holy Spirit.

Alma 31:37

And after that, they did separate themselves one from another, taking no thought for themselves what they should eat or what they should drink or what they should put on.

Alma 31:38

And the Lord provided for them that they should hunger not, neither should they thirst. Yea, and he also gave them strength that they should suffer no manner of afflictions save it were swallowed up in the joy of Christ. Now this was according to the prayer of Alma— and this because he prayed in faith.

Alma 32

²And it came to pass that they did go forth and began to preach the word of God unto the people, entering into their synagogues and into their houses; yea, and even they did preach the word in their streets.

Alma 32:2

And it came to pass that after much labor among them, they began to have success among the poorer class of the people; for behold, they were cast out of the synagogues because of the coarseness of their apparel.

Alma 32:3

Therefore they were not permitted to enter into their synagogues to worship God, being esteemed as filthiness. Therefore they were poor; yea, they were esteemed by their brethren as dross. Therefore they were poor as to things of the world; and also they were poor in heart.

Alma 32:4

Now as Alma was teaching and speaking unto the people upon the hill Onidah, there came a great multitude unto him, which were those of which we have been speaking, which were poor in heart because of their poverty as to things of the world;

¹Note definition #4 in the 1828 for the transitive verb “clap”: “To thrust; to put, place or send; followed by in, into, under, over, etc.; as, to clap one under the hatches; to clap one into Bedlam; to clap a board over a pit.”

²I wrote two Rainbows essays on different aspects of this chapter. See my PDF highlights in preparation for the essays here; see part 1 of the essays, and part 2.

and they came unto Alma. And the one which was the most foremost among them saith unto him: Behold, what shall these my brethren do?¹ For they are despised of all men because of their poverty, yea, and more especially by our priests. For they have cast us out of our synagogues, which we have labored abundantly to build with our own hands. And they have cast us out because of this our exceeding poverty, that we have no place to worship our God. And now behold, what shall we do?

Alma 32:6

And now when Alma heard this, he turned him about, his face immediately towards him. And he beheld with great joy, for he beheld that their afflictions had truly humbled them and that they were in a preparation to hear the word.

Alma 32:7

Therefore he did say no more to the other multitude, but he stretched forth his hand and cried unto those which he beheld, which were truly penitent, and saith unto them:

Alma 32:8

I behold that ye are lowly in heart; and if so, blessed are ye.

Alma 32:9

Behold, thy brother hath said: What shall we do? For we are cast out of our synagogues that we cannot worship our God.

Alma 32:10

Behold, I say unto you: Do ye suppose that ye cannot worship God save it be in your synagogues only?

Alma 32:11

And moreover, I would ask: Do ye suppose that ye must not worship God, only once in a week?

Alma 32:12

I say unto you: It is well that ye are cast out of your synagogues, that ye may be humble and that ye may learn wisdom; for it is necessary that ye should learn wisdom. For it is because that ye are cast out that ye are despised of your brethren because of your exceeding poverty, that ye are brought to a lowliness of heart; for ye are necessarily brought to be humble.

Alma 32:13

And now because ye are compelled to be humble, blessed are ye; for a man sometimes, if he is compelled to be humble, seeketh repentance.² And now surely, whosoever repenteth shall find mercy. And he that findeth mercy and endureth to the end, the same shall be saved.

Alma 32:14

And now as I said unto you that because ye were compelled to be humble ye were blessed, do ye not suppose that they are more blessed who truly humble³ themselves because of the word?⁴

¹Reminiscent of what the people ask in Luke 3:10.

²Compare DC 56:17-18.

³"Truly humble" occurs here and in the next verse; see also DC 97:1 and more on that phrase here.

⁴For the distinction between being compelled to be humble and humbling yourself, see this study.

Alma 32:15

Yea, he that truly humbleth himself and repenteth of his sins and endureth to the end, the same shall be blessed— yea, much more blessed than they who art compelled to be humble because of their exceeding poverty.

Alma 32:16

Therefore blessed are they who humbleth themselves without being compelled¹ to be humble.² Or rather, in other words, blessed is he that believeth in the word of God and is baptized³ without stubbornness of heart, yea, without being brought to know the word—or even compelled⁴ to know— before they will believe.

Alma 32:17

Yea, there are many which do say: If thou wilt show unto us a sign from heaven, then we shall know of a surety; then we shall believe.

Alma 32:18

Now I ask: Is this faith? Behold, I say unto you: Nay. For if a man knoweth a thing, he hath no cause to believe, for he knoweth it.

Alma 32:19

And now, how much more cursed is he that knoweth the will of God and doeth it not⁵ than he that only believeth, or only hath cause to believe, and falleth into transgression?

Alma 32:20

Now of this thing ye must judge. Behold, I say unto you that it is on the one hand even as it is on the other; and it shall be unto every man according to his work.

Alma 32:21

And now as I said concerning faith: faith is not to have a perfect knowledge of things; therefore if ye have faith, ⁶ye hope for things which is not seen,⁷ which are true.

Alma 32:22

And now behold, I say unto you—and I would that ye should remember— that God is merciful unto all who believe on his name. Therefore he desireth in the first place that ye should believe, yea, even on his word.

Alma 32:23

And now he imparteth his word by angels unto men, yea, not only men but women also. Now this is not all. Little children doth have words given unto them many times which doth confound the wise and the learned.

Alma 32:24

And now my beloved brethren, as ye have desired to know of me what ye shall do because ye are afflicted and cast out—now I do not desire that ye should suppose that I mean to judge you, only according to that which is true—for I do not mean that ye, all of you, have been compelled to humble yourselves. For I verily believe there are some among you which would humble themselves, let him be in whatsoever circumstances he might.

Alma 32:25

Alma 32:26

Now as I said concerning faith, that it was not a perfect knowledge, even so it is with my words. Ye cannot know of their surety at first unto perfection, any more than faith is a perfect knowledge.

Alma 32:27

But behold, if ye will awake and arouse your faculties, even to an experiment upon my words, and exercise a particle of faith—yea, even if ye can no more than desire to believe— let this desire work in you, even until ye believe in a manner that ye can give place for a portion of my words.

Alma 32:28

¹Now we will compare the word unto a seed. Now if ye give place that a seed may be planted in your heart, behold, if it be a true seed or a good seed, if ye do not cast it out by your unbelief—that ye will resist the Spirit of the Lord— behold, it will begin to swell within your breasts. And when you feel these swelling motions, ye will begin to say within yourselves: It must needs be that this is a good seed, or that the word is good, ²for it beginneth to enlarge my soul.³ Yea, it beginneth to enlighten my understanding; yea, and it beginneth to be delicious to me.

Alma 32:29

Now behold, would not this increase your faith? I say unto you: Yea. Nevertheless it hath not grown up to a perfect knowledge.

Alma 32:30

But behold, as the seed swelleth and sprouteth and beginneth to grow and then ye must needs say that the seed is good, for behold, it swelleth and sprouteth and beginneth to grow. And now behold, will not this strengthen your faith? Yea, it will strengthen your faith. For ye will say: I know that this is a good seed, for behold, it sprouteth and beginneth to grow.

Alma 32:31

And now behold, are ye sure that this is a good seed? I say unto you: Yea. For every seed bringeth forth unto its own likeness.

¹Think of these passages as a commentary on the parable of the sower at the beginning of Matthew 13.

²We make this judgment on the basis of something we personally experience and feel. See John 6:26–27, ³See DC 121:42.

Alma 32:32

Therefore if a seed groweth, it is good. But if it groweth not, behold, it is not good; therefore it is cast away.

Alma 32:33

And now behold, because ye have tried the experiment and planted the seed and it swelleth and sprouteth and beginneth to grow, ye must needs know that the seed is good.

Alma 32:34

And now behold, is your knowledge perfect? Yea, your knowledge is perfect in that thing and your faith is dormant— and this because you know. For ye know that the word hath swelled your souls. And ye also know that it hath sprouted up, that your understanding doth begin to be enlightened and your mind doth begin to expand.¹

Alma 32:35

O then is not this real? I say unto you: Yea, because it is light.² And ³whatsoever is light is good because it is discernible;⁴ therefore ye must know that it is good. And now behold, after ye have tasted this light, is your knowledge perfect?

Alma 32:36

Behold, I say unto you: Nay. Neither must ye lay aside your faith, for ye have only exercised your faith to plant the seed that ye might try the experiment to know if the seed was good.

Alma 32:37

And behold, as the tree beginneth to grow, ye will say: Let us nourish it with great care that it may get root, that it may grow up and bring forth fruit unto us. And now behold, if ye nourish it with much care, it will get root and grow up and bring forth fruit.

Alma 32:38

But if ye neglect the tree and take no thought for its nourishment, behold, it will not get any root. And when the heat of the sun cometh and scorcheth it, and because it hath no root, it withereth away; and ye pluck it up and cast it out.

Alma 32:39

Now this is not because the seed was not good, neither is it because the fruit thereof would not be desirable. But it is because your ground is barren and ye will not nourish the tree; therefore ye cannot have the fruit thereof.

Alma 32:40

And thus it is: if ye will not nourish the word, looking forward with an eye of faith to the fruit thereof, ye can never pluck of the fruit of the tree of life.

¹In a 14 May 1840 letter, JS wrote the following to Orson Hyde and John E. Page: “therefore, inasmuch as you are to be instrumental in this great work, he will endow you with power, wisdom, might, and intelligence; and every qualification necessary; while your minds will expand wider and wider, untill you can circumscribe the Earth, & the Heavens, and reach forth into eternity; contemplate the mighty acts of Jehovah, in all their variety & glory.”

²Compare Mosiah 8:17, DC 50:24, DC 84:45,

³For this “whatsoever is light” bit, see also Ephesians 5:13.

⁴For commentary on “discernible,” see this study.

Alma 32:41

But if ye will nourish the word, yea, nourish the tree as it beginneth to grow by your faith with great diligence and with patience, looking forward to the fruit thereof, and it shall take root. And behold, it shall be a tree springing up unto everlasting life.

Alma 32:42

And because of your diligence and your faith and your patience with the word in nourishing it that it may take root in you, behold, by and by ye shall pluck the fruit thereof, which is most precious, which is sweet above all that is sweet, and which is white above all that is white, yea, and pure above all that is pure; and ye shall feast upon this fruit even until ye are filled, that ye hunger not, neither shall ye thirst.

Alma 32:43

Then, my brethren, ye shall reap the rewards of your faith and your diligence and patience and long-suffering, waiting for the tree to bring forth fruit unto you.

Alma 33

Alma 33:1

Now after Alma had spoken these words, they sent forth unto him, desiring to know whether they should believe in one God, that they might obtain this fruit of which he had spoken; or how they should plant the seed, or the word of which he had spoken, which he said must be planted in their hearts; or in what manner they should begin to exercise their faith.

Alma 33:2

And Alma saith unto them: Behold, ye have said that ye could not worship your God because ye are cast out of your synagogues. But behold, I say unto you: If ye suppose that ye cannot worship your God, ye do greatly err, and ye had ought to search the scriptures; for if ye suppose that they have taught you this, ye do not understand them.

Alma 33:3

Do ye remember to have read what Zenos the prophet of old hath said concerning prayer or worship?

Alma 33:4

For he saith: Thou art merciful, O God, for thou hast heard my prayer, even when I was in the wilderness. Yea, thou wast merciful when I prayed concerning those which were mine enemies, and thou didst turn them to me.

Alma 33:5

Yea, O God, and thou wast merciful unto me when I did cry unto thee in my field, when I did cry unto thee in my prayer, and thou didst hear me.

Alma 33:6

And again, O God, when I did turn to my house, thou didst hear me in my prayer.

Alma 33:7

And when I did turn unto my closet, O Lord, and prayed unto thee, thou didst hear me.

Alma 33:8

Yea, thou art merciful unto thy children; when they cry unto thee to be heard of thee and not of men, and thou wilt hear them.

Alma 33:9

Yea, O God, thou hast been merciful unto me and heard my cries in the midst of thy congregations.

Alma 33:10

Yea, and thou hast also heard me when I have been cast out and have been despised by mine enemies. Yea, thou didst hear my cries and wast angry with mine enemies, and thou didst visit them in thine anger with speedy destruction.

Alma 33:11

And thou didst hear me because of mine afflictions and my sincerity. And it is because of thy Son that thou hast been thus merciful unto me. Therefore I will cry unto thee in all mine afflictions, for in thee is my joy; for thou hast turned thy judgments away from me because of thy Son.

Alma 33:12

And now Alma saith unto them: Do ye believe those scriptures which have been written by them of old?

Alma 33:13

Behold, if ye do, ye must believe what Zenos saith, for behold, he saith: Thou hast turned away thy judgments because of thy Son.

Alma 33:14

Now behold, my brethren, I would ask if ye have read these scriptures? If ye have, how can ye disbelieve on the Son of God?

Alma 33:15

For it is not written that Zenos alone spake of these things, but Zenoch also spake of these things, for behold, he saith: Thou art angry, O Lord, with this people because they will not understand of thy mercies which thou hast bestowed upon them because of thy Son.

Alma 33:16

Alma 33:17

And now my brethren, ye see that a second prophet of old has testified of the Son of God. And because the people would not understand his words, they stoned him to death.

Alma 33:18

But behold, this is not all. These are not the only ones which have spoken concerning the Son of God.

Alma 33:19

Behold, he was spoken of by Moses. Yea, and behold, a type was raised up in the wilderness, that whosoever would look upon it might live; and many did look and live.

Alma 33:20

But few understood the meaning of those things— and this because of the hardness of their hearts. But there were many which were so hardened that they would not look; therefore they perished. Now the reason that they would not look is because they did not believe that it would heal them.

Alma 33:21

O my brethren, if ye could be healed by merely casting about your eyes that ye might behold, would ye not behold quickly? Or would ye rather harden your hearts in unbelief and be slothful, that ye would not cast about your eyes, that ye might perish?

Alma 33:22

If so, woe shall come upon you. But if not so, then cast about your eyes and begin to believe in the Son of God, that he will come to redeem his people and that he shall suffer and die to atone for their sins and that he shall rise again from the dead, which shall bring to pass the resurrection, that all men shall stand before him to be judged at the last and judgment day according to their works.

Alma 33:23

And now my brethren, I desire that ye should plant this word in your hearts. And as it beginneth to swell, even so nourish it by your faith. And behold, it will become a tree springing up in you unto everlasting life. And then may God grant unto you that your burdens may be light through the joy of his Son. And even all this can ye do if ye will. Amen.

Alma 34

Alma 34:1

And now it came to pass that after Alma had spoken these words unto them, he sat down upon the ground. And Amulek arose and began to teach them, saying:

Alma 34:2

My brethren, I think that it is impossible that ye should be ignorant of the things which have been spoken concerning the coming of Christ, who is taught by us to be the Son of God. Yea, I know that these things were taught unto you bountifully before your dissension from among us.

Alma 34:3

And as ye have desired of my beloved brother that he should make known unto you what ye should do because of your afflictions— and he hath spoken somewhat unto you to prepare your minds, yea, and he hath exhorted you unto faith and to patience, yea, even that ye would have so much faith as even to plant the word in your heart, that ye may try the experiment of its goodness.

Alma 34:4

Alma 34:5

And we have beheld that the great question which is in your minds is whether the word be in the Son of God or whether there shall be no Christ.

Alma 34:6

And ye also behold that my brother hath proven unto you in many instances that the word is in Christ unto salvation.

Alma 34:7

My brother hath called upon the words of Zenos, that redemption cometh through the Son of God, and also upon the words of Zenoch. And also he hath appealed unto Moses to prove that these things are true.

Alma 34:8

And now behold, I will testify unto you of myself that these things are true. Behold, I say unto you that I do know that Christ shall come among the children of men to take upon him the transgressions of his people and that he shall atone for the sins of the world, for the Lord God hath spoken it.

Alma 34:9

For it is expedient that an atonement should be made, for according to the great plans of the Eternal God there must be an atonement made or else all mankind must unavoidably perish. Yea, all are hardened; yea, all are fallen and are lost and must perish except it be through the atonement, which it is expedient should be made.

Alma 34:10

For it is expedient that there should be a great and last sacrifice

Alma 34:11

Now there is not any man that can sacrifice his own blood which will atone for the sins of another. Now if a man murdereth, behold, will our law, which is just, take the life of his brother? I say unto you: Nay.

Alma 34:12

But the law requireth the life of him who hath murdered. Therefore there can be nothing which is short of an infinite atonement which will suffice for the sins of the world.

Alma 34:13

Therefore it is expedient that there should be a great and last sacrifice. And then shall there be—or it is expedient there should be—a stop to the shedding of blood; then shall the law of Moses be fulfilled. Yea, it shall all be fulfilled, every jot and tittle, and none shall have passed away.

Alma 34:14

And behold, this is the whole meaning of the law, every whit a pointing to that great and last sacrifice; and that great and last sacrifice will be the Son of God, yea, infinite and eternal.

Alma 34:15

And thus he shall bring salvation to all those who shall believe on his name, this being the intent of this last sacrifice, to bring about the bowels of mercy, which overpowereth justice and bringeth about means unto men that they may have faith unto repentance.

Alma 34:16

And thus mercy can satisfy the demands of justice and encircle them in the arms of safety, while he that exerciseth no faith unto repentance is exposed to the whole law of the demands of justice. Therefore only unto him that hath faith unto repentance is brought about the great and eternal plan of redemption.

Alma 34:17

Therefore may God grant unto you, my brethren, that ye might begin to exercise your faith unto repentance, that ye begin to call upon his holy name that he would have mercy upon you.

Alma 34:18

Yea, cry unto him for mercy, for he is mighty to save.

Alma 34:19

Yea, humble yourselves and continue in prayer unto him.

Alma 34:20

Cry unto him when ye are in your fields, yea, over all your flocks.

Alma 34:21

Cry unto him in your houses, yea, over all your household, both morning, midday, and evening.

Alma 34:22

Yea, cry unto him against the power of your enemies.

Alma 34:23

Yea, cry unto him against the devil, which is an enemy to all righteousness.

Alma 34:24

Cry unto him over the crops of your fields, that ye may prosper in them.

Alma 34:25

Cry over the flocks of your fields, that they may increase.

Alma 34:26

But this is not all. Ye must pour out your souls in your closets and your secret places and in your wilderness.

Alma 34:27

Yea, and when you do not cry unto the Lord, let your hearts be full, drawn out in prayer unto him continually for your welfare and also for the welfare of those which are around you.

Alma 34:28

And now behold, my brethren, I say unto you: Do not suppose that this is all. For after ye have done all these things, if ye turn away the needy and the naked and visit not the sick and afflicted and impart of your substance, if ye have, to those which stand in need—I say unto you, if ye do not any of these things, behold, your prayer is vain and availeth you nothing, and ye are as hypocrites which do deny the faith.

Alma 34:29

Therefore if ye do not remember to be charitable, ye are as dross which the refiners do cast out—it being of no worth—and is trodden under foot of men.

Alma 34:30

And now my brethren, I would that after ye have received so many witnesses, seeing that the holy scriptures testifies of these things, come forth and bring fruit unto repentance.

Alma 34:31

Yea, I would that ye would come forth and harden not your hearts any longer. For behold, now is the time and the day of your salvation. And therefore, if ye will repent and harden not your hearts, immediately shall the great plan of redemption be brought about unto you.

Alma 34:32

For behold, this life is the time for men to prepare to meet God. Yea, behold, the day of this life is the day for men to perform their labors.

Alma 34:33

And now as I said unto you before, as ye have had so many witnesses, therefore I beseech of you that ye do not procrastinate the day of your repentance until the end. For after this day of life which is given us to prepare for eternity, behold, if we do not improve our time while in this life, then cometh the night of darkness wherein there can be no labor performed.

Alma 34:34

Ye cannot say when ye are brought to that awful crisis that I will repent, that I will return to my God. Nay, ye cannot say this. For that same spirit which doth possess your bodies at the time that ye go out of this life, that same spirit will have power to possess your body in that eternal world.

Alma 34:35

For behold, if ye have procrastinated the day of your repentance even until death, behold, ye have become subjected to the spirit of the devil,¹ and he doth seal you his. Therefore the Spirit of the Lord hath withdrawn from you and hath no place in you, and the devil hath all power over you.² And this is the final state of the wicked.

¹See DC 93:25.

²If this verse were in the NT in Greek, would the “power” be ἐξουσία or δύναμις? I think the former, but I’m not sure; see the list of references in my notes to DC 76:30.

Alma 34:36

And this I know because the Lord hath said he dwelleth not in unholy temples, but in the hearts of the righteous doth he dwell. Yea, and he hath also said that the righteous should sit down in his kingdom to go no more out, but their garments should be made white through the blood of the Lamb.

Alma 34:37

And now my beloved brethren, I desire that ye should remember these things and that ye should work out your salvation with fear before God and that ye should no more deny the coming of Christ, that ye contend no more against the Holy Ghost, but that ye receive it and take upon you the name of Christ, that ye humble yourselves even to the dust and worship God in whatsoever place ye may be in, in spirit and in truth, and that ye live in thanksgiving daily for the many mercies and blessings which he doth bestow upon you.

Alma 34:38

Alma 34:39

Yea, and I also exhort you, my brethren, that ye be watchful unto prayer continually, that ye may not be led away by the temptations of the devil, that he may not overpower you, that ye may not become his subjects at the last day. For behold, he rewardeth you no good thing.

Alma 34:40

And now my beloved brethren, I would exhort you to have patience and that ye bear with all manner of afflictions, that ye do not revile against those who do cast you out because of your exceeding poverty, lest ye become sinners like unto them, but that ye have patience and bear with those afflictions with a firm hope that ye shall one day rest from all your afflictions.

Alma 34:41

Alma 35

Alma 35:1

Now it came to pass that after Amulek had made an end of these words, they withdrew themselves from the multitude and came over into the land of Jershon.

Alma 35:2

Yea, and the rest of the brethren, after they had preached the word unto the Zoramites, also came over into the land of Jershon.

Alma 35:3

And it came to pass that after the more popular part of the Zoramites had consulted together concerning the words which had been preached unto them, they were angry because of the word, for it did destroy their craft; therefore they would not hearken unto the words.

Alma 35:4

And they sent and gathered together throughout all the land all the people and consulted with them concerning the words which had been spoken.

Alma 35:5

Now their rulers and their priests and their teachers did not let the people know concerning their desires. Therefore they found out privily the minds of all the people.

Alma 35:6

And it came to pass that after they had found out the minds of all the people, those which were in favor of the words which had been spoken by Alma and his brethren were cast out of the land—and they were many—and they came over also into the land of Jershon.

Alma 35:7

And it came to pass that Alma and his brethren did minister unto them.

Alma 35:8

Now the people of the Zoramites were angry with the people of Ammon, which were in Jershon. And the chief ruler of the Zoramites being a very wicked man sent over unto the people of Ammon, desiring them that they should cast out of their land all those which came over from them into their land.

Alma 35:9

And he breathed out many threatenings against them. And now the people of Ammon did not fear their words. Therefore they did not cast them out, but they did receive all the poor of the Zoramites that came over unto them. And they did nourish them and did clothe them and did give unto them lands for their inheritance. And they did administer unto them according to their wants.

Alma 35:10

Now this did stir up the Zoramites to anger against the people of Ammon. And they began to mix with the Lamanites and to stir them up also to anger against them.

Alma 35:11

And thus the Zoramites and the Lamanites began to make preparations for war against the people of Ammon and also against the Nephites.

Alma 35:12

And thus ended the seventeenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi.

Alma 35:13

And the people of Ammon departed out of the land of Jershon and came over into the land of Melek and gave place in the land of Jershon for the armies of the Nephites, that they might contend with the armies of the Lamanites and the armies of the Zoramites. And thus commenced a war betwixt the Lamanites and the Nephites in the eighteenth year of the reign of the judges. And an account shall be given of their wars hereafter.

Alma 35:14

And Alma and Ammon and their brethren and also the two sons of Alma returned to the land of Zarahemla, after having been instruments in the hands of God of bringing many of the Zoramites to repentance. And as many as were brought to repentance were driven out of their land; but they have lands for their inheritance in the land of Jershon. And they have taken up arms to defend themselves and their wives and their children and their lands.

Alma 35:15

Now Alma being grieved for the iniquity of his people, yea, for the wars and the bloodsheds and the contentions which were among them, and having been to declare the word—or sent to declare the word— among all the people in every city, and seeing that the hearts of the people began to wax hard and that they began to be offended because of the strictness of the word, his heart was exceeding sorrowful.

Alma 35:16

Therefore he caused that his sons should be gathered together that he might give unto them every one his charge separately concerning the things pertaining unto righteousness. And we have an account of his commandments which he gave unto them according to his own record.

Alma 36

The commandments of Alma to his son Helaman.

Alma 36:1

My son, give ear to my words, for I swear unto you that inasmuch as ye shall keep the commandments of God, ye shall prosper in the land.

Alma 36:2

I would that ye should do as I have done in remembering the captivity of our fathers, for they were in bondage and none could deliver them except it were the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob; and he surely did deliver them in their afflictions.

Alma 36:3

And now, O my son Helaman, behold, thou art in thy youth, and therefore I beseech of thee that thou wilt hear my words and learn of me, for I do know that whomsoever shall put his trust in God shall be supported in their trials and their troubles and their afflictions and shall be lifted up at the last day.

Alma 36:4

And I would not that ye think that I know of myself— not of the temporal but of the spiritual, not of the carnal mind but of God.

Alma 36:5

Now behold, I say unto you: If I had not been born of God, I should not have known these things. But God hath by the mouth of his holy angel made these things known unto me, not of any worthiness of myself.

Alma 36:6

For I went about with the sons of Mosiah seeking to destroy the church of God. But behold, God sent his holy angel to stop us by the way.

Alma 36:7

And behold, he spake unto us as it were the voice of thunder, and the whole earth did tremble beneath our feet. And we all fell to the earth, for the fear of the Lord came upon us.

Alma 36:8

But behold, the voice said unto me: Arise. And I arose and stood up and beheld the angel.

Alma 36:9

And he said unto me: If thou wilt of thyself be destroyed, seek no more to destroy the church of God.

Alma 36:10

And it came to pass that I fell to the earth; and it was for the space of three days and three nights that I could not open my mouth, neither had I the use of my limbs.

Alma 36:11

And the angel spake more things unto me, which were heard by my brethren, but I did not hear them. For when I heard the words, if thou wilt be destroyed of thyself, seek no more to destroy the church of God, I was struck with such great fear and amazement lest perhaps that I should be destroyed that I fell to the earth and I did hear no more.

Alma 36:12

But I was racked with eternal torment, for my soul was harrowed up to the greatest degree and racked with all my sins.

Alma 36:13

Yea, I did remember all my sins and iniquities, for which I was tormented with the pains of hell. Yea, I saw that I had rebelled against my God and that I had not kept his holy commandments.

Alma 36:14

Yea, and I had murdered many of his children—or rather led them away unto destruction—yea, and in fine, so great had been my iniquities that the very thoughts of coming into the presence of my God did rack my soul with inexpressible horror.

Alma 36:15

O, thought I, that I could be banished and become extinct, both soul and body, that I might not be brought to stand in the presence of my God to be judged of my deeds.

Alma 36:16

And now for three days and for three nights was I racked, even with the pains of a damned soul.

Alma 36:17

And it came to pass that as I was thus racked with torment, while I was harrowed up by the memory of my many sins, behold, I remembered also to have heard my father prophesy unto the people concerning the coming of one Jesus Christ, a Son of God, to atone for the sins of the world.

Alma 36:18

Now as my mind caught hold upon this thought, I cried within my heart: O Jesus, thou Son of God, have mercy on me, who art in the gall of bitterness and art encircled about by the everlasting chains of death.

Alma 36:19

And now behold, when I thought this, I could remember my pains no more. Yea, I was harrowed up by the memory of my sins no more.

Alma 36:20

And O what joy and what marvelous light I did behold! Yea, my soul was filled with joy as exceeding as was my pains.

Alma 36:21

Yea, I say unto you, my son, that there can be nothing so exquisite¹ and so bitter as was my pains. Yea, and again I say unto you, my son, that on the other hand there can be nothing so exquisite and sweet as was my joy.

Alma 36:22

Yea, and methought I saw, even as our father Lehi saw, God sitting upon his throne, surrounded with numberless concourses of angels in the attitude of singing and praising their God. Yea, and my soul did long to be there.

Alma 36:23

But behold, my limbs did receive their strength again, and I stood upon my feet and did manifest unto the people that I had been born of God.

Alma 36:24

Yea, and from that time even until now I have labored without ceasing that I might bring souls unto repentance, that I might bring them to taste of the exceeding joy of which I did taste, that they might also be born of God and be filled with the Holy Ghost.

Alma 36:25

Yea, and now behold, O my son, the Lord doth give me exceeding great joy in the fruits of my labors; for because of the word which he hath imparted unto me, behold, many hath been born of God and hath tasted as I have tasted and hath seen eye to eye as I have seen. Therefore they do know of these things of which I have spoken as I do know; and the knowledge which I have is of God.

Alma 36:26

¹For “exquisite” here and later in the verse, see DC 19:15 and notes there.

Alma 36:27

And I have been supported under trials and troubles of every kind, yea, and in all manner of afflictions. Yea, God hath delivered me from prisons and from bonds and from death. Yea, and I do put my trust in him and he will still deliver me.

Alma 36:28

And I know that he will raise me up at the last day to dwell with him in glory. Yea, and I will praise him forever. For he hath brought our fathers out of Egypt, and he hath swallowed up the Egyptians in the Red Sea, and he led them by his power into the promised land; yea, and he hath delivered them out of bondage and captivity from time to time.

Alma 36:29

Yea, and he hath also brought our fathers out of the land of Jerusalem, and he hath also by his everlasting power delivered them out of bondage and captivity from time to time, even down to the present day. And I have always retained in remembrance their captivity; yea, and ye also had ought to retain in remembrance, as I have done, their captivity.

Alma 36:30

But behold, my son, this is not all. For ye had ought to know as I do know that inasmuch as ye shall keep the commandments of God ye shall prosper in the land; and ye had ought to know also that inasmuch as ye will not keep the commandments of God, ye shall be cut off from his presence. Now this is according to his word.

Alma 37

Alma 37:1

And now my son Helaman, I command you that ye take the records which have been entrusted with me.

Alma 37:2

And I also command you that ye shall keep a record of this people, according as I have done, upon the plates of Nephi and keep all these things sacred which I have kept, even as I have kept them—for it is for a wise purpose that they are kept—and these plates of brass, which contain these engravings, which have the records of the holy scriptures upon them, which have the genealogy of our forefathers, even from the beginning.

Alma 37:3

Alma 37:4

And behold, it hath been prophesied by our fathers that they should be kept and handed down from one generation to another, and be kept and preserved by the hand of the Lord until they should go forth unto every nation, kindred, tongue, and people, that they shall know of the mysteries contained thereon.

Alma 37:5

And now behold, if they are kept, they must retain their ¹brightness. Yea, and they will retain their brightness— yea, and also shall all the plates which do contain that which is holy writ.

¹Compare 2 Nephi 9:44.

Alma 37:6

Now ye may suppose that this is foolishness in me. But behold, I say unto you that by small and simple things are great things brought to pass.¹ And small means in many instances doth confound the wise.

Alma 37:7

And the Lord God doth work by means² to bring about his great and eternal purposes. And by very small means the Lord doth confound the wise and bringeth about the salvation of many souls.

Alma 37:8

And now it hath hitherto been wisdom in God that these things should be preserved. For behold, they have enlarged the memory of this people, yea, and convinced many of the error of their ways and brought them to the knowledge of their God, unto the salvation of their souls.

Alma 37:9

Yea, I say unto you: Were it not for these things that these records do contain, which are on these plates, Ammon and his brethren could not have convinced so many thousands of the Lamanites of the incorrect tradition of their fathers. Yea, these records and their words brought them unto repentance; that is, they brought them to the knowledge of the Lord their God and to rejoice in Jesus Christ their Redeemer.

Alma 37:10

And who knoweth but what they will be the means of bringing many thousands of them —yea, and also many thousands of our stiffnecked brethren, the Nephites, which are now hardening their hearts in sins and iniquities— to the knowledge of their Redeemer.

Alma 37:11

Now these mysteries are not yet fully made known unto me; therefore I shall forbear.

Alma 37:12

And it may suffice if I only say they are preserved for a wise purpose, which purpose is known unto God. For he doth counsel in wisdom over all his works, and his paths are straight, and his course is one eternal round.³

Alma 37:13

O remember, remember, my son Helaman, how strict is the commandments of God! And he saith: If ye will keep my commandments, ye shall prosper in the land. But if ye keep not his commandments, ye shall be cut off from his presence.

Alma 37:14

And now remember, my son, that God hath entrusted you with these things which are sacred, which he hath kept sacred, and also which he will keep and preserve for a wise purpose in him, that he may shew forth his power unto future generations.

¹See DC 64:33.

²I take this to mean that the Lord works by explicable, causal means to bring about his purposes; in other words, there's no magic. See DC 103:15–17;

³For this phrase, see here.

Alma 37:15

And now behold, I tell you by the spirit of prophecy that if ye transgress the commandments of God, behold, these things which are sacred shall be taken away from you by the power of God; and ye shall be delivered up unto Satan, that he may sift you as chaff before the wind.

Alma 37:16

But if ye keep the commandments of God and do with these things which are sacred according to that which the Lord doth command you—for you must appeal unto the Lord for all things whatsoever ye must do with them— behold, no power of earth or hell can take them from you, for God is powerful to the fulfilling of all his words.

Alma 37:17

For he will fulfill all his promises which he shall make unto you, for he hath fulfilled his promise which he hath made unto our fathers.

Alma 37:18

For he promised unto them that he would preserve these things for a wise purpose in him, that he might shew forth his power unto future generations.

Alma 37:19

And now behold, one purpose hath he fulfilled, even to the restoration of many thousands of the Lamanites to the knowledge of the truth. And he hath shewn forth his power in them. And he will also still shew forth his power in them unto future generations. Therefore they shall be preserved.

Alma 37:20

Therefore I command you, my son Helaman, that ye be diligent in fulfilling all my words and that ye be diligent in keeping the commandments of God as they are written.

Alma 37:21

And now I will speak unto you concerning those twenty four plates, that ye keep them, that the mysteries and the works of darkness and their secret works—or the secret works of those people which have been destroyed— may be made manifest unto this people—yea, all their murders and robberings and their plunderings and all their wickedness and abominations may be made manifest unto this people— yea, and that ye preserve these directors.

Alma 37:22

For behold, the Lord saw that his people began to work in darkness—yea, work secret murders and abominations— therefore the Lord said if they did not repent, they should be destroyed from off the face of the earth.

Alma 37:23

And the Lord said: I will prepare unto my servant Gazelem a stone which shall shine forth in darkness unto light, that I may discover unto my people which serve me— that I may discover unto them the works of their brethren, yea, their secret works, their works of darkness, and their wickedness and abominations.

Alma 37:24

And now my son, these directors were prepared that the word of God might be fulfilled which he spake, saying:

Alma 37:25

I will bring forth out of darkness unto light all their secret works and their abominations. And except they repent, I will destroy them from off the face of the earth. And I will bring to light all their secrets and abominations unto every nation which shall hereafter possess the land.

Alma 37:26

And now my son, we see that they did not repent; therefore they have been destroyed. And thus far the word of God hath been fulfilled; yea, their secret abominations have been brought out of darkness and made known unto us.

Alma 37:27

And now my son, I command you that ye retain all their oaths and their covenants and their agreements in their secret abominations; yea, and all their signs and their wonders ye shall retain from this people, that they know them not, lest peradventure they should fall into darkness also and be destroyed.

Alma 37:28

For behold, there is a curse upon all this land, that destruction shall come upon all those workers of darkness, according to the power of God, when they are fully ripe. Therefore I desire that this people might not be destroyed.

Alma 37:29

Therefore ye shall keep these secret plans of their oaths and their covenants from this people. And only their wickedness and their murders and their abominations shall ye make known unto them. And ye shall teach them to abhor such wickedness and abominations and murders. And ye shall also teach them that those people were destroyed on account of their wickedness and abominations and their murders.

Alma 37:30

For behold, they murdered all the prophets of the Lord which came among them to declare unto them concerning their iniquities. And the blood of those which they murdered did cry unto the Lord their God for vengeance upon those which were their murderers. And thus the judgments of God did come upon them workers of darkness and secret combinations.

Alma 37:31

Yea, and cursed be the land forever and ever unto those workers of darkness and secret combinations, even unto destruction, except they repent before they are fully ripe.

Alma 37:32

And now my son, remember the words which I have spoken unto you. Trust not those secret plans unto this people, but teach them an everlasting hatred against sin and iniquity.

Alma 37:33

Preach unto them repentance and faith on the Lord Jesus Christ. Teach them to humble themselves and to be meek and lowly in heart. Teach them to withstand every temptation of the devil, with their faith on the Lord Jesus Christ.

Alma 37:34

Teach them to never be weary of good works, but to be meek and lowly in heart, for such shall find rest to their souls.

Alma 37:35

O remember, my son, and learn wisdom in thy youth; yea, learn in thy youth to keep the commandments of God.

Alma 37:36

Yea, and cry unto God for all thy support. Yea, let all thy doings be unto the Lord. And whithersoever thou goest, let it be in the Lord. Yea, let all thy thoughts be directed unto the Lord. Yea, let the affections of thy heart be placed upon the Lord forever.

Alma 37:37

Counsel the Lord in all thy doings, and he will direct thee for good. Yea, when thou liest down at night, lie down unto the Lord, that he may watch over you in your sleep. And when thou risest in the morning, let thy heart be full of thanks unto God. And if ye always do these things, ye shall be lifted up at the last day.

Alma 37:38

And now my son, I have somewhat to say concerning the thing which our fathers call a ball or director —or our fathers called it Liahona, which is being interpreted a compass— and the Lord prepared it.

Alma 37:39

And behold, there cannot any man work after the manner of so curious a workmanship. And behold, it was prepared to shew unto our fathers the course which they should travel in the wilderness.

Alma 37:40

And it did work for them according to their faith in God. Therefore if they had faith to believe that God could cause that those spindles¹ should point the way they should go, behold, it was done. Therefore they had this miracle —and also many other miracles— wrought by the power of God day by day.

Alma 37:41

Nevertheless, because those miracles were worked by small means —nevertheless it did shew unto them marvelous works— they were slothful and forgot to exercise their faith and diligence. And then those marvelous works ceased, and they did not progress in their journey.

Alma 37:42

Therefore they tarried in the wilderness, or did not travel a direct course, and were afflicted with hunger and thirst because of their transgression.

Alma 37:43

And now my son, I would that ye should understand that these things are not without a shadow. For as our fathers were slothful to give heed to this compass —now these things were temporal— they did not prosper; even so it is with things which are spiritual.

¹See this note.

Alma 37:44

For behold, it is as easy to give heed to the word of Christ, which will point to you a straight course to eternal bliss, as it was for our fathers to give heed to this compass, which would point unto them a straight course to the promised land.

Alma 37:45

And now I say: Is there not a type in this thing? For just assuredly as this director did bring our fathers by following its course to the promised land, shall the word of Christ, if we follow its course, carry us beyond this vale of sorrow into a ¹far better land of promise.

Alma 37:46

O my son, do not let us be slothful because of the easiness of the way, for so was it with our fathers. For so was it prepared for them that if they would look, they might live. Even so it is with us: the way is prepared; and if we will look, we may live forever.

Alma 37:47

And now my son, see that ye take care of these sacred things. Yea, see that ye look to God and live. Go unto this people and declare the word, and be sober. My son, farewell.

Alma 38

The commandments of Alma to his son Shiblon.

Alma 38:1

My son, give ear to my words, for I say unto you, even as I said unto Helaman, that inasmuch as ye shall keep the commandments of God, ye shall prosper in the land; and inasmuch as ye will not keep the commandments of God, ye shall be cut off from his presence.

Alma 38:2

And now my son, I trust that I shall have great joy in you because of your steadiness and your faithfulness unto God; for as you have commenced in your youth to look to the Lord your God, even so I hope that you will continue in keeping his commandments, for blessed is he that endureth to the end.

Alma 38:3

I say unto you, my son, that I have had great joy in thee already because of thy faithfulness and thy diligence and thy patience and thy long-suffering among the people of the Zoramites.

Alma 38:4

For I knew that thou wast in bonds; yea, and I also knew that thou wast stoned for the word's sake. And thou didst bear all these things with patience because the Lord was with thee. And now thou knowest that the Lord did deliver thee.

Alma 38:5

And now my son Shiblon, I would that ye should remember that as much as ye shall put your trust in God, even so much ye shall be delivered out of your trials and your troubles and your afflictions, and ye shall be lifted up at the last day.

¹For "far better," see Philippians 1:23.

Alma 38:6

Now my son, I would not that ye should think that I know these things of myself, but it is the Spirit of God which is in me which maketh these things known unto me. For if I had not been born of God, I should not have known these things.

Alma 38:7

But behold, the Lord in his great mercy sent his angel to declare unto me that I must stop the work of destruction among his people. Yea, I have seen an angel face to face, and he spake with me. And his voice was as thunder, and it shook the whole earth.

Alma 38:8

And it came to pass that I was three days and three nights in the most bitter pain and anguish of soul. And never until I did cry out unto the Lord Jesus Christ for mercy did I receive a remission of my sins. But behold, I did cry unto him and I did find peace to my soul.

Alma 38:9

And now my son, I have told you this that ye might learn wisdom, that ye may learn of me, that there is no other way nor means whereby man can be saved, only in and through Christ. Behold, he is the life and the light of the world. Behold, he is the word of truth and righteousness.

Alma 38:10

And now as ye have begun to teach the word, even so I would that ye should continue to teach. And I would that ye should be diligent and temperate in all things.

Alma 38:11

See that ye are not lifted up unto pride; yea, see that ye do not boast in your own wisdom nor of your much strength.

Alma 38:12

Use boldness, but not overbearance. And also see that ye bridle all your passions, that ye may be filled with love. See that ye refrain from idleness.

Alma 38:13

Do not pray as the Zoramites do, for ye have seen that they pray to be heard of men and to be praised for their wisdom.

Alma 38:14

Do not say: O God, I thank thee that we are better than our brethren. But rather say: O Lord, forgive my unworthiness and remember my brethren in mercy. Yea, acknowledge your unworthiness before God at all times.

Alma 38:15

And may the Lord bless your soul and receive you at the last day into his kingdom to sit down in peace. Now go, my son, and teach the word unto this people; be sober. My son, farewell.

Alma 39

The commandments of Alma to his son Corianton.

Alma 39:1

And now my son, I have somewhat more to say unto thee than what I said unto thy brother. For behold, have ye not observed the steadiness of thy brother, his faithfulness and his diligence in keeping the commandments of God? Behold, has he not set a good example for thee?

Alma 39:2

For thou didst not give so much heed unto my words as did thy brother among the people of the Zoramites. Now this is what I have against thee: thou didst go on unto boasting in thy strength and thy wisdom.

Alma 39:3

And this is not all, my son. Thou didst do that which was grievous unto me, for thou didst forsake the ministry and did go over into the land of Siron among the borders of the Lamanites after the harlot Isabel.

Alma 39:4

Yea, she did steal away the hearts of many, but this was no excuse for thee, my son. Thou shouldst have tended to the ministry wherewith thou wast entrusted.

Alma 39:5

Know ye not, my son, that these things are an abomination in the sight of the Lord? Yea, most abominable above all sins save it be the shedding of innocent blood or denying the Holy Ghost.

Alma 39:6

For behold, if ye deny the Holy Ghost when it once hath had place in you —and ye know that ye deny it— behold, this is a sin which is unpardonable. Yea, and whosoever murdereth against the light and knowledge of God, it is not easy for him to obtain forgiveness. Yea, I say unto you, my son, that it is not easy for him to obtain a forgiveness.

Alma 39:7

And now my son, I would to God that ye had not been guilty of so great a crime. I would not dwell upon your crimes to harrow up your soul if it were not for your good.

Alma 39:8

But behold, ye cannot hide your crimes from God. And except ye repent, they will stand as a testimony against you at the last day.

Alma 39:9

Now my son, I would that ye should repent and forsake your sins and go no more after the lusts of your eyes, but cross yourself in all these things. For except ye do this, ye can in no wise inherit the kingdom of God. O remember, and take it upon you and cross yourself in these things.

Alma 39:10

And I command you to take it upon you to counsel your elder brothers in your undertakings—for behold, thou art in thy youth and ye stand in need to be nourished by your brothers—and give heed to their counsel.

Alma 39:11

suffer not yourself to be led away by any vain or foolish thing. suffer not that the devil lead away your heart again after those wicked harlots. Behold, O my son, how great iniquity ye brought upon the Zoramites! For when they saw your conduct, they would not believe in my words.

Alma 39:12

And now the Spirit of the Lord doth say unto me: Command thy children to do good, lest they lead away the hearts of many people to destruction. Therefore I command you, my son, in the fear of God that ye refrain from your iniquities, that ye turn to the Lord with all your mind, might, and strength, that ye lead away the hearts of no more to do wickedly, but rather return unto them and acknowledge your faults and repair that wrong which ye have done.

Alma 39:13

Alma 39:14

Seek not after riches nor the vain things of this world; for behold, you cannot carry them with you.

Alma 39:15

And now my son, I would say somewhat unto you concerning the coming of Christ. Behold, I say unto you that it is him that surely shall come to take away the sins of the world. Yea, he cometh to declare glad tidings of salvation unto his people.

Alma 39:16

And now my son, this was the ministry unto which ye were called, to declare these glad tidings unto this people, to prepare their minds—or rather that salvation might come unto them, that they may prepare the minds of their children to hear the word at the time of his coming.

Alma 39:17

And now I will ease your mind somewhat on this subject. Behold, you marvel why these things should be known so long beforehand. Behold, I say unto you: Is not a soul at this time as precious unto God as a soul will be at the time of his coming?

Alma 39:18

Is it not as necessary that the plan of redemption should be made known unto this people as well as unto their children?

Alma 39:19

Is it not as easy at this time for the Lord to send his angel to declare those glad tidings unto us as unto our children or as after the time of his coming?

Alma 40

Alma 40:1

Now my son, here is somewhat more I would say unto thee, for I perceive that thy mind is worried concerning the resurrection of the dead.

Alma 40:2

Behold, I say unto you that there is no resurrection—or I would say in other words that this mortal does not put on immortality, this corruption does not put on incorruption— until after the coming of Christ.

Alma 40:3

Behold, he bringeth to pass the resurrection of the dead. But behold, my son, the resurrection is not yet. Now I unfold unto you a mystery. Nevertheless there are many mysteries which are kept, that no one knoweth them save God himself. But I shew unto you one thing which I have inquired diligently of God that I might know—that is concerning the resurrection.

Alma 40:4

Behold, there is a time appointed that all shall come forth from the dead. Now when this time cometh, no one knows; but God knoweth the time which is appointed.

Alma 40:5

Now whether there shall be one time or a second time or a third time that men shall come forth from the dead, it mattereth not, for God knoweth all these things. And it sufficeth me to know that this is the case, that there is a time appointed when all shall rise from the dead.

Alma 40:6

And now there must needs be a space betwixt the time of death and the time of the resurrection.

Alma 40:7

And now I would inquire what becometh of the souls of men from this time of death to the time appointed for the resurrection.

Alma 40:8

Now whether there is more than one time appointed for men to rise, it mattereth not. For all do not die at once, and this mattereth not. All is as one day with God, and time only is measured unto man.

Alma 40:9

Therefore there is a time appointed unto men that they shall rise from the dead; and there is a space between the time of death and the resurrection. And now concerning this space of time, what becometh of the souls of men is the thing which I have inquired diligently of the Lord to know; and this is the thing of which I do know.

Alma 40:10

And when the time cometh when all shall rise, then shall they know that God knoweth all the times which are appointed unto man.

Alma 40:11

Now concerning the state of the soul between death and the resurrection, behold, it hath been made known unto me by an angel that the spirits of all men, as soon as they are departed from this mortal body, yea, the spirits of all men, whether they be good or evil, are taken home to that God who gave them life.

Alma 40:12

And then shall it come to pass that the spirits of those which are righteous are received into a state of happiness, which is called paradise, a state of rest, a state of peace, where they shall rest from all their troubles and from all care and sorrow etc.

Alma 40:13

And then shall it come to pass that the spirits of the wicked, yea, which are evil—for behold, they have no part nor portion of the Spirit of the Lord, for behold, they chose evil works rather than good; therefore the spirit of the devil did enter into them and take possession of their house—and these shall be cast out into outer darkness. There shall be weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth—and this because of their own iniquity, being led captive by the will of the devil.

Alma 40:14

Now this is the state of the souls of the wicked— yea, in darkness and a state of awful fearful looking for of the fiery indignation of the wrath of God upon them. Thus they remain in this state, as well as the righteous in paradise, until the time of their resurrection.

Alma 40:15

Now there are some that have understood that this state of happiness and this state of misery of the soul before the resurrection was a first resurrection. Yea, I admit it may be termed a resurrection, the raising the spirit or the soul and their consignation to happiness or misery, according to the words which have been spoken.

Alma 40:16

And behold, again it hath been spoken that there is a first resurrection—a resurrection of all those which have been or which are or which shall be, down to the resurrection of Christ— from the dead.

Alma 40:17

Now we do not suppose that this first resurrection which is spoken of in this manner can be the resurrection of the souls and their consignation to happiness or misery. Ye cannot suppose that this is what it meaneth.

Alma 40:18

Behold, I say unto you: Nay. But it meaneth the reuniting of the soul with the body of those from the days of Adam down to the resurrection of Christ.

Alma 40:19

Now whether the souls and the bodies of those of which have been spoken shall all be reunited at once, the wicked as well as the righteous, I do not say. Let it suffice that I say that they all come forth, or in other words, that their resurrection cometh to pass before the resurrection of those which die after the resurrection of Christ.

Alma 40:20

Now my son, I do not say that their resurrection cometh at the resurrection of Christ. But behold, I give it as my opinion that the souls and the bodies are reunited of the righteous at the resurrection of Christ and his ascension into heaven.

Alma 40:21

But whether it be at his resurrection or after, I do not say. But this much I say, that there is a space between death and the resurrection of the body and a state of the soul in happiness or in misery until the time which is appointed of God that the dead shall come forth and be reunited, both soul and body, and be brought to stand before God and be judged according to their works.

Alma 40:22

Yea, this bringeth about the restoration of those things of which have been spoken by the mouths of the prophets.

Alma 40:23

The soul shall be restored to the body and the body to the soul. Yea, and every limb and joint shall be restored to its body—yea, even a hair of their heads shall not be lost—but all things shall be restored to its proper and perfect frame.

Alma 40:24

And now my son, this is the restoration of which has been spoken by the mouths of the prophets.

Alma 40:25

And then shall the righteous shine forth in the kingdom of God.

Alma 40:26

But behold, an awful death cometh upon the wicked, for they die as to things pertaining to things of righteousness; for they are unclean, and no unclean thing can inherit the kingdom of God. But they are cast out and consigned to partake of the fruits of their labors—or their works which have been evil—and they drink the dregs¹ of a bitter cup.²

Alma 41

Alma 41:1

And now my son, I have somewhat to say concerning the restoration of which has been spoken. For behold, some have wrested the scriptures and have gone far astray because of this thing. And I perceive that thy mind hath been worried also concerning this thing. But behold, I will explain it unto thee.

Alma 41:2

I say unto thee, my son, that the plan of restoration is requisite with the justice of God, for it is requisite that all things should be restored to their proper order. Behold, it is requisite and just, according to the power and resurrection of Christ, that the soul of man should be restored to its body and that every part of the body should be restored to itself.

¹In the 1828 dictionary, for “dregs”:

1 The sediment of liquors; lees; grounds; feculence; any foreign matter of liquors that subsides to the bottom of a vessel.

2 Waste or worthless matter; dross; sweepings; refuse.

²See DC 19:17–18 for “bitter cup” and the suffering of the wicked—Christ says in that revelation that if they don’t repent, they must suffer “even as I.”

Alma 41:3

And it is also requisite with the justice of God that men should be judged according to their works. And if their works were good in this life and the desires of their hearts were good, that they should also at the last day be restored unto that which is good.

Alma 41:4

And if his works are evil, they shall be restored unto him for evil. Therefore all things shall be restored to its proper order, every thing to its natural frame —mortality raised to immortality, corruption to incorruption— raised to endless happiness to inherit the kingdom of God, or to endless misery to inherit the kingdom of the devil, the one on one hand, the other on the other, the one restored to happiness according to his desires of happiness —or to good according to his desires of good— and the other to evil according to his desires of evil. For as he has desired to do evil all the day long, even so shall he have his reward of evil when the night cometh.

Alma 41:6

And so it is on the other hand: if he hath repented of his sins and desired righteousness until the end of his days, even so shall he be rewarded unto righteousness.

Alma 41:7

These are they that are redeemed of the Lord. Yea, these are they that are taken out— that are delivered from that endless night of darkness; and thus they stand or fall. For behold, they are their own judges, whether to do good or do evil.

Alma 41:8

Now the decrees of God are unalterable. Therefore the way is prepared that whosoever will may walk therein and be saved.

Alma 41:9

And now behold, my son, do not risk one more offense against your God upon those points of doctrine which ye hath hitherto risked to commit sin.

Alma 41:10

Do not suppose because that it hath been spoken concerning restoration that ye shall be restored from sin to happiness. Behold, I say unto you: Wickedness never was happiness.

Alma 41:11

And now my son, all men that are in a state of nature —or I would say, in a carnal state— are in the gall of bitterness and in the bonds of iniquity. They are without God¹ in the world, and they have gone contrary to the nature of God. Therefore they are in a state contrary to the nature of happiness.

¹See Ephesians 2:12,

Alma 41:12

And now behold, is the meaning of the word restoration to take a thing of a natural state and place it in an unnatural state, or to place it in a state opposite to its nature?

Alma 41:13

O my son, this is not the case. But the meaning of the word restoration is to bring back again¹ evil for evil or carnal for carnal or devilish for devilish, good for that which is good, righteous for that which is righteous, just for that which is just, merciful for that which is merciful.²

Alma 41:14

Therefore my son, see that ye are merciful unto your brethren. Deal justly, judge righteously, and do good continually. And if ye do all these things, then shall ye receive your reward. Yea, ye shall have mercy restored unto you again; ye shall have justice restored unto you again; ye shall have a righteous judgment restored unto you again; and ye shall have good rewarded unto you again.

Alma 41:15

For that which ye doth send out shall return unto you again and be restored. Therefore the word restoration more fully condemneth the sinner and justifieth him not at all.

Alma 42

Alma 42:1

And now my son, I perceive there is somewhat more which doth worry your mind, which ye cannot understand, which is concerning the justice of God in the punishment of the sinner. For ye do try to suppose that it is injustice that the sinner should be consigned to a state of misery.

Alma 42:2

Now behold, my son, I will explain this thing unto thee. For behold, after the Lord God sent our first parents forth from the garden of Eden to till the ground from whence he was taken —yea, he drove out the man— and he placed at the east end of the garden of Eden cherubims and a flaming sword which turned every way to keep the tree of life—now we see that the man had become as God, knowing good and evil, and lest he should put forth his hand and take also of the tree of life and eat and live forever, that the Lord God placed cherubims and the flaming sword that he should not partake of the fruit.

Alma 42:4

And thus we see that there was a time granted unto man to repent, yea, a probationary time, a time to repent and serve God.

¹See DC 63:48.

²Compare DC 88:40.

Alma 42:5

For behold, if Adam had put forth his hand immediately and partook of the tree of life, he would have lived forever, according to the word of God, having no space for repentance. Yea, and also the word of God would have been void, and the great plan of salvation would have been frustrated.

Alma 42:6

But behold, it was appointed unto man to die. Therefore as they were cut off from the tree of life, therefore they should be cut off from the face of the earth. And man became lost forever; yea, they became fallen man.

Alma 42:7

And now we see by this that our first parents were cut off, both temporally and spiritually, from the presence of the Lord. And thus we see they became subjects to follow after their own will.

Alma 42:8

Now behold, it was not expedient that man should be reclaimed from this temporal death, for that would destroy the great plan of happiness.

Alma 42:9

Therefore as the soul could never die and the fall had brought upon all mankind a spiritual death as well as a temporal—that is, they were cut off from the presence of the Lord—therefore it was expedient that mankind should be reclaimed from this spiritual death.

Alma 42:10

Therefore as they had become carnal, sensual, and devilish by nature, this probationary state became a state for them to prepare; it became a preparatory state.

Alma 42:11

And now remember, my son, if it were not for the plan of redemption—laying it aside—as soon as they were dead, their souls were miserable, being cut off from the presence of the Lord.

Alma 42:12

And now there was no means to reclaim men from this fallen state, which man had brought upon himself because of his own disobedience.

Alma 42:13

Therefore according to justice the plan of redemption could not be brought about, only on conditions of repentance of men in this probationary state, yea, this preparatory state. For except it were for these conditions, mercy could not take effect except it should destroy the work of justice. Now the work of justice could not be destroyed. If so, God would cease to be God.

Alma 42:14

And thus we see that all mankind were fallen, and they were in the grasp of justice, yea, the justice of God which consigned them forever to be cut off from his presence.

Alma 42:15

And now the plan of mercy could not be brought about except an atonement should be made. Therefore God himself atoneth for the sins of the world, to bring about the plan of mercy, to appease the demands of justice, that God might be a perfect just God and a merciful God also.

Alma 42:16

Now repentance could not come unto men except there were a punishment, which also was as eternal as the life of the soul, should be affixed opposite to the plan of happiness, which was as eternal also as the life of the soul.

Alma 42:17

Now how could a man repent except he should sin? How could he sin if there was no law? How could there be a law save there was a punishment?

Alma 42:18

Now there was a punishment affixed and a just law given, which brought remorse of conscience unto man.

Alma 42:19

Now if there was no law given if a man murdered he should die, would he be afraid he should die if he should murder?

Alma 42:20

And also if there was no law given against sin, men would not be afraid to sin.

Alma 42:21

And if there was no law given if men sinned, what could justice do, or mercy either? For they would have no claim upon the creature.

Alma 42:22

But there is a law given and a punishment affixed and repentance granted, which repentance mercy claimeth. Otherwise justice claimeth the creature and executeth the law, and the law inflicteth the punishment. If not so, the works of justice would be destroyed; and God would cease to be God.

Alma 42:23

But God ceaseth not to be God; and mercy claimeth the penitent, and mercy cometh because of the atonement, and the atonement bringeth to pass the resurrection of the dead, and the resurrection of the dead bringeth back men into the presence of God. And thus they are restored into his presence, to be judged according to their works, according to the law and justice.

Alma 42:24

For behold, justice exerciseth all his demands; and also mercy claimeth all which is her own. And thus none but the truly penitent are saved.

Alma 42:25

What? Do ye suppose that mercy can rob justice? I say unto you: Nay, not one whit. If so, God would cease to be God.

Alma 42:26

And thus God bringeth about his great and eternal purposes, which was prepared from the foundation of the world. And thus cometh about the salvation and the redemption of men, and also their destruction and misery.

Alma 42:27

Therefore, O my son, whosoever will come may come and partake of the waters of life freely. And whosoever will not come, the same is not compelled to come. But in the last day it shall be restored unto him according to his deeds.

Alma 42:28

If he hath desired to do evil and hath not repented in his days, behold, evil shall be done unto him according to the restoration of God.

Alma 42:29

And now my son, I desire that ye should let these things trouble you no more. And only let your sins trouble you with that trouble which shall bring you down unto repentance.

Alma 42:30

O my son, I desire that ye should deny the justice of God no more. Do not endeavor to excuse yourself in the least point because of your sins by denying the justice of God. But do you let the justice of God and his mercy and his long-suffering have full sway in your heart, but let it bring you down to the dust in humility.

Alma 42:31

And now my son, ye are called of God to preach the word unto this people. And now my son, go thy way; declare the word with truth and soberness, that thou mayest bring souls unto repentance, that the great plan of mercy may have claim upon them. And may God grant unto you, yea, even according to my words. Amen.

Alma 43

Alma 43:1

And now it came to pass that the sons of Alma did go forth among the people to declare the word unto them. And Alma also himself could not rest, and he also went forth.

Alma 43:2

Now we shall say no more concerning their preaching except that they preached the word and the truth according to the spirit of prophecy and revelation, and they preached after the holy order of God by which they were called.

Alma 43:3

And now I return to an account of the wars between the Nephites and the Lamanites in the eighteenth year of the reign of the judges.

Alma 43:4

For behold, it came to pass that the Zoramites became Lamanites. Therefore in the commencement of the eighteenth year the people of the Nephites saw that the Lamanites were coming upon them. Therefore they made preparations for war; yea, they gathered together their armies in the land of Jershon.

Alma 43:5

And it came to pass that the Lamanites came with their thousands. And they came into the land of Antionum, which was the land of the Zoramites; and a man by the name of Zerahemnah was their leader.

Alma 43:6

And now as the Amlicites were of a more wicked and a murderous disposition than the Lamanites were, in and of themselves, therefore Zerahemnah appointed chief captains over the Lamanites, and they were all of the Amlicites and the Zoramites.

Alma 43:7

Now this he done that he might preserve their hatred towards the Nephites, that he might bring them into subjection to the accomplishment of his designs.

Alma 43:8

For behold, his designs were to stir up the Lamanites to anger against the Nephites; and this he done that he might usurp great power over them, and also that he might gain power over the Nephites by bringing them into bondage etc.

Alma 43:9

And now the design of the Nephites were to support their lands and their houses and their wives and their children, that they might preserve them from the hands of their enemies, and also that they might preserve their rights and their privileges, yea, and also their liberty, that they might worship God according to their desires.

Alma 43:10

For they knew that if they should fall into the hands of the Lamanites that whosoever should worship God in spirit and in truth, the true and the living God, the Lamanites would destroy.

Alma 43:11

Yea, and they also knew the extreme hatred of the Lamanites towards their brethren which were the people of Anti-Nephi-Lehi, which were called the people of Ammon. And they would not take up arms; yea, they had entered into a covenant and they would not break it. Therefore if they should fall into the hands of the Lamanites, they would be destroyed.

Alma 43:12

And the Nephites would not suffer that they should be destroyed; therefore they gave them lands for their inheritance.

Alma 43:13

And the people of Ammon did give unto the Nephites a large portion of their substance to support their armies. And thus the Nephites were compelled alone to withstand against the Lamanites, which were a compound of Laman and Lemuel and the sons of Ishmael and all those which had dissented from the Nephites, which were Amlicites and Zoramites and the descendants of the priests of Noah.

Alma 43:14

Now those dissenters were as numerous nearly as were the Nephites. And thus the Nephites were obliged to contend with their brethren, even unto bloodshed.

Alma 43:15

And it came to pass as the armies of the Lamanites had gathered together in the land of Antionum, behold, the armies of the Nephites were prepared to meet them in the land of Jershon.

Alma 43:16

Now the leader of the Nephites, or the man which had been appointed to be the chief captain over the Nephites—now the chief captain took the command of all the armies of the Nephites—and his name was Moroni.

Alma 43:17

And Moroni took all the command and the governments of their wars; and he was only twenty and five years old when he was appointed chief commander over the armies of the Nephites.

Alma 43:18

And it came to pass that he met the Lamanites in the borders of Jershon. And his people were armed with swords and with scimitars and all manner of weapons of war.

Alma 43:19

And it came to pass that when the armies of the Lamanites saw that the people of Nephi—or that Moroni had prepared his people with breastplates and with armshields, yea, and also shields to defend their heads, and also they were dressed with thick clothing—

Alma 43:20

now the army of Zerahemnah was not prepared with any such thing; they had only their swords and their scimitars, their bows and their arrows, their stones and their slings, but they were naked save it were a skin which was girded about their loins; yea, all were naked save it were the Zoramites and the Amlicites;

Alma 43:21

but they were not armed with breastplates nor shields—therefore they were exceeding afraid of the armies of the Nephites because of their armor, notwithstanding their number being so much greater than the Nephites.

Alma 43:22

Behold, now it came to pass that they durst not come against the Nephites in the borders of Jershon. Therefore they departed out of the land of Antionum into the wilderness and took their journey round about in the wilderness, away by the head of the river Sidon, that they might come into the land of Manti and take possession of the land, for they did not suppose that the armies of Moroni would know whither they had gone.

Alma 43:23

But it came to pass as soon as they had departed into the wilderness, Moroni sent spies into the wilderness to watch their camp. And Moroni also knowing of the prophecies of Alma sent certain men unto him, desiring him that he should inquire of the Lord whither the armies of the Nephites should go to defend themselves against the Lamanites.

Alma 43:24

And it came to pass that the word of the Lord came unto Alma. And Alma informed the messengers of Moroni that the armies of the Lamanites were marching round about in the wilderness, that they might come over into the land of Manti, that they might commence an attack upon the more weak part of the people. And those messengers went and delivered the message unto Moroni.

Alma 43:25

Now Moroni leaving a part of his army in the land of Jershon—lest by any means a part of the Lamanites should come into that land and take possession of the city— and Moroni took the remainder part of his army and marched over into the land of Manti.

Alma 43:26

And he caused that all the people in that quarter of the land should gather themselves together to battle against the Lamanites, to defend their lands and their country, their rights and their liberties. Therefore they were prepared against the time of the coming of the Lamanites.

Alma 43:27

And it came to pass that Moroni caused that his army should be secreted in the valley which was near the bank of the river Sidon, which was on the west of the river Sidon in the wilderness.

Alma 43:28

And Moroni placed spies round about that he might know when the camp of the Lamanites should come.

Alma 43:29

And now as Moroni knew the intention of the Lamanites, that it was their intention to destroy their brethren or to subject them and bring them into bondage, that they might establish a kingdom unto themselves over all the land, and he also knowing that it was the only desire of the Nephites to preserve their lands and their liberty and their church, therefore he thought it no sin that he should defend them by stratagem; therefore he found by his spies which course the Lamanites were to take.

Alma 43:30

Alma 43:31

Therefore he divided his army and brought a part over into the valley and concealed them on the east and on the south of the hill Riplah.

Alma 43:32

And the remainder he concealed in the west valley, on the west of the river Sidon, and so down into the borders of the land Manti.

Alma 43:33

And thus having placed his army according to his desire, he was prepared to meet them.

Alma 43:34

And it came to pass that the Lamanites came up on the north of the hill, where a part of the army of Moroni was concealed.

Alma 43:35

And it came to pass that as the Lamanites had passed the hill Riplah and came into the valley and began to cross the river Sidon, the army which was concealed on the south of the hill, which was led by a man whose name was Lehi— and he led his army forth and encircled the Lamanites about on the east in their rear.

Alma 43:36

And it came to pass that the Lamanites, when they saw the Nephites coming upon them in their rear, they turned them about and began to contend with the army of Lehi.

Alma 43:37

And the work of death commenced on both sides, but it was more dreadful on the part of the Lamanites. For their nakedness was exposed to the heavy blows of the Nephites, with their swords and their scimitars, which brought death almost at every stroke; while on the other hand there was now and then a man fell among the Nephites by their wounds and the loss of blood, they being shielded from the more vital parts of the body— or the more vital parts of the body being shielded from the strokes of the Lamanites by their breastplates and their armshields and their headplates. And thus the Nephites did carry on the work of death among the Lamanites.

Alma 43:38

Alma 43:39

And it came to pass that the Lamanites became frightened because of the great destruction among them, even until they began to flee towards the river Sidon.

Alma 43:40

And they were pursued by Lehi and his men. And they were driven by Lehi into the waters of Sidon, and they crossed the waters of Sidon. And Lehi retained his armies upon the bank of the river Sidon, that they should not cross.

Alma 43:41

And it came to pass that Moroni and his army met the army of the Lamanites in the valley, on the other side of the river Sidon. And it came to pass that Moroni and his army began to fall upon them and to slay them.

Alma 43:42

And it came to pass that the Lamanites did flee again before them towards the land of Manti, and they were met again by the armies of Moroni.

Alma 43:43

Now in this case the Lamanites did fight exceedingly. Yea, never had the Lamanites been known to have fought with such exceeding great strength and courage, no, not even from the beginning.

Alma 43:44

And they were inspired by the Zoramites and the Amlicites, which were their chief captains and leaders, and by Zerahemnah, who was their chief captain, or their chief leader and commander. Yea, they did fight like dragons. And many of the Nephites were slain by their hand; yea, for they did smite in two many of their headplates, and they did pierce many of their breastplates, and they did smite off many of their arms. And thus the Lamanites did smite in their fierce anger.

Nevertheless the Nephites were inspired by a better cause. For they were not fighting for monarchy nor power, but they were fighting for their homes and their liberties, their wives and their children, and their all, yea, for their rights of worship and their church.

Alma 43:46

And they were doing that which they felt it was the duty which they owed to their God; for the Lord had said unto them and also unto their fathers that inasmuch as ye are not guilty of the first offense neither the second, ye shall not suffer yourselves to be slain by the hands of your enemies.

Alma 43:47

And again the Lord hath said that ye shall defend your families even unto bloodshed. Therefore for this cause were the Nephites contending with the Lamanites, to defend themselves and their families and their lands, their country and their rights and their religion.

Alma 43:48

And it came to pass that when the men of Moroni saw the fierceness and the anger of the Lamanites, they were about to shrink and flee from them. And Moroni perceiving their intent sent forth and inspired their hearts with these thoughts, yea, the thoughts of their lands, their liberty, yea, their freedom from bondage.

Alma 43:49

And it came to pass that they turned upon the Lamanites and they cried with one voice unto the Lord their God, for their liberty and their freedom from bondage.

Alma 43:50

And they began to stand against the Lamanites with power. And in that selfsame hour that they cried unto the Lord for their freedom, the Lamanites began to flee before them; and they fled even to the waters of Sidon.

Alma 43:51

Now the Lamanites were more numerous, yea, by more than double the number of the Nephites. Nevertheless they were driven, insomuch that they were gathered together in one body in the valley, upon the bank by the river Sidon.

Alma 43:52

Therefore the armies of Moroni encircled them about, yea, even on both sides of the river; for behold, on the east were the men of Lehi.

Alma 43:53

Therefore when Zerahemnah saw the men of Lehi on the east of the river Sidon and the armies of Moroni on the west of the river Sidon, that they were encircled about by the Nephites, they were struck with terror.

Alma 43:54

Now Moroni, when he saw their terror, he commanded his men that they should stop shedding their blood.

Alma 44

Alma 44:1

And it came to pass that they did stop and withdrew a pace from them; and Moroni said unto Zerahemnah: Behold, Zerahemnah, that we do not desire to be men of blood. Ye know that ye are in our hands; yet we do not desire to slay you.

Alma 44:2

Behold, we have not come out to battle against you that we might shed your blood for power. Neither do we desire to bring any one to the yoke of bondage. But this is the very cause for which ye have come against us; yea, and ye are angry with us because of our religion.

Alma 44:3

But now ye behold that the Lord is with us. And ye behold that he hath delivered you into our hands. And now I would that ye should understand that this is done unto us because of our religion and our faith in Christ. And now ye see that ye cannot destroy this our faith.

Alma 44:4

Now ye see that this is the true faith of God. Yea, ye see that God will support and keep and preserve us so long as we are faithful unto him and unto our faith and our religion. And never will the Lord suffer that we shall be destroyed except we should fall into transgression and deny our faith.

Alma 44:5

And now Zerahemnah, I command you in the name of that all-powerful God who hath strengthened our arms that we have gained power over you by our faith, by our religion and by our rights of worship and by our church and by the sacred support which we owe to our wives and our children and by that liberty which binds us to our lands and our country, yea, and also by the maintenance of the sacred word of God to which we owe all our happiness, and by all that is most dear unto us

—yea, and this is not all— I command you by all the desires which ye have for life that ye deliver up your weapons of war unto us and we will seek not your blood, but we will spare your lives if ye will go your way and come not again to war against us.

Alma 44:7

And now if ye do not this, behold, ye are in our hands. And I will command my men that they shall fall upon you and inflict the wounds of death in your bodies, that ye may become extinct. And then we will see who shall have power over this people. Yea, we will see who shall be brought into bondage.

And now it came to pass that when Zerahemnah had heard these sayings, he came forth and delivered up his sword and his scimitar and his bow into the hands of Moroni and saith unto him: Behold, here is our weapons of war; we will deliver them up unto you. And we will not suffer ourselves to make an oath unto you which we know that we shall break, and also our children. But take our weapons of war and suffer that we may depart into the wilderness. Otherwise we will retain our swords, and we will perish or conquer.

Alma 44:9

Behold, we are not of your faith. We do not believe that it is God that hath delivered us into your hands. But we believe that it is your cunning that hath preserved you from our swords; behold, it is your breastplates and your shields that hath preserved you.¹

Alma 44:10

And now when Zerahemnah had made an end of speaking these words, Moroni returned the sword and the weapons of war which he had received unto Zerahemnah, saying: Behold, we will end the conflict.

Alma 44:11

Now I cannot retain the words which I have spoken. Therefore as the Lord liveth, ye shall not depart except ye depart with an oath that ye will not return again against us to war. Now as ye are in our hands, we will spill your blood upon the ground, or ye shall submit to the conditions which I have proposed.

Alma 44:12

And now when Moroni had said these words, Zerahemnah retained his sword. And he was angry with Moroni, and he rushed forward that he might slay Moroni. But as he raised his sword, behold, one of Moroni's soldiers smote it, even to the earth, and it brake by the hilt. And he also smote Zerahemnah, that he took off his scalp and it fell to the earth. And Zerahemnah withdrew from before them into the midst of his soldiers.

Alma 44:13

And it came to pass that the soldier which stood by which smote off the scalp of Zerahemnah took up the scalp from off the ground by the hair and laid it upon the point of his sword and stretched it forth unto them, crying unto them with a loud voice, saying:

¹It's interesting here because Zerahemnah might actually be right—the armor may actually be the reason why the Nephites won this battle. But Moroni connects the armor to God's power, and Zerahemnah refuses to make the connection.

Alma 44:14

Even as this scalp hath fallen to the earth, which is the scalp of your chief, so shall ye fall to the earth except ye will deliver up your weapons of war and depart with a covenant of peace.

Alma 44:15

Now there were many, when they heard these words and saw the scalp which was upon the sword, they were struck with fear. And many came forth and threw down their weapons of war at the feet of Moroni and entered into a covenant of peace. And as many as entered into a covenant they suffered to depart into the wilderness.

Alma 44:16

Now it came to pass that Zerahemnah was exceeding wroth. And he did stir up the remainder of his soldiers to anger, to contend more powerfully against the Nephites.

Alma 44:17

And now Moroni was angry because of the stubbornness of the Lamanites. Therefore he commanded his people that they should fall upon them and slay them. And it came to pass that they began to slay them. Yea, and the Lamanites did contend with their swords and their might.

Alma 44:18

But behold, their naked skins and their bare heads were exposed to the sharp swords of the Nephites. Yea, behold, they were pierced and smitten, yea, and did fall exceeding fast before the swords of the Nephites. And they began to be swept down, even as the soldier of Moroni had prophesied.

Alma 44:19

Now Zerahemnah, when he saw that they were all about to be destroyed, he cried mightily unto Moroni, promising that he would covenant, and also his people, with them, if they would spare the remainder of their lives, that they never would come to war again against them.

Alma 44:20

And it came to pass that Moroni caused that the work of death should cease again among the people. And it came to pass that he took the weapons of war from the Lamanites. And after they had entered into a covenant with him of peace, they were suffered to depart into the wilderness.

Alma 44:21

Now the number of their dead were not numbered because of the greatness of the number; yea, the number of their dead were exceeding great, both on the Nephites and on the Lamanites.

Alma 44:22

And it came to pass that they did cast their dead into the waters of Sidon; and they have gone forth and are buried in the depths of the sea.

Alma 44:23

And the armies of the Nephites—or of Moroni—returned and came to their houses and their lands.

Alma 44:24

And thus ended the eighteenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. And thus ended the record of Alma, which was wrote upon the plates of Nephi.

Alma 45

The account of the people of Nephi and their wars and dissensions in the days of Helaman, according to the record of Helaman, which he kept in his days.

Alma 45:1

Behold, now it came to pass that the people of Nephi were exceedingly rejoiced because the Lord had again delivered them out of the hands of their enemies. Therefore they gave thanks unto the Lord their God. Yea, and they did fast much and pray much, and they did worship God with exceeding great joy

Alma 45:2

And it came to pass in the nineteenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi that Alma came unto his son Helaman and saith unto him: Believest thou the words which I spake unto thee concerning those records which have been kept?

Alma 45:3

And Helaman saith unto him: Yea, I believe.

Alma 45:4

And Alma saith again: Believest thou in Jesus Christ, which shall come?

Alma 45:5

And he saith: Yea, I believe all the words which thou hast spoken.

Alma 45:6

And Alma saith unto him again: Will ye keep my commandments?

Alma 45:7

And he said: Yea, I will keep thy commandments with all my heart.

Alma 45:8

Then Alma saith unto him: Blessed art thou, and the Lord shall prosper thee in this land.

Alma 45:9

But behold, I have somewhat to prophesy unto thee. But what I prophesy unto thee ye shall not make known; yea, what I prophesy unto thee shall not be made known even until the prophecy is fulfilled. Therefore write the words which I shall say.

Alma 45:10

And these are the words: Behold, I perceive that this very people, the Nephites, according to the spirit of revelation which is in me, in four hundred years from the time that Jesus Christ shall manifest himself unto them, shall dwindle in unbelief.

Alma 45:11

Yea, and then shall they see wars and pestilences, yea, famine and bloodshed, even until the people of Nephi shall become extinct.

Alma 45:12

Yea, and this because they shall dwindle in unbelief and fall into the works of darkness and lasciviousness and all manner of iniquities. Yea, I say unto you that because they shall sin against so great light and knowledge, yea, I say unto you that from that day even the fourth generation shall not all pass away before this great iniquity shall come.

Alma 45:13

And when that great day cometh, behold, the time very soon cometh that those which are now— or the seed of those which are now numbered among the people of Nephi shall no more be numbered among the people of Nephi.

Alma 45:14

But whosoever remaineth and is not destroyed in that great and dreadful day shall be numbered among the Lamanites and shall become like unto them, all save it be a few which shall be called the disciples of the Lord. And them shall the Lamanites pursue, even until they shall become extinct. And now because of iniquity this prophecy shall be fulfilled.

Alma 45:15

And now it came to pass that after Alma had said these things to Helaman, he blessed him and also his other sons. And he also blessed the earth for the righteous' sake.

Alma 45:16

And he said: Thus saith the Lord God: Cursed shall be the land, yea, this land, unto every nation, kindred, tongue, and people, unto destruction, which do wickedly, when they are fully ripe. And as I have said, so shall it be. For this is the cursing and the blessing of God upon the land, for the Lord cannot look upon sin with the least degree of allowance.

Alma 45:17

And now when Alma had said these words, he blessed the church, yea, all those which should stand fast in the faith from that time henceforth.

Alma 45:18

And when Alma had done this, he departed out of the land of Zarahemla as if to go into the land of Melek. And it came to pass that he was never heard of more. As to his death or his burial, we know not of.

Alma 45:19

Behold, this we know, that he was a righteous man. And the saying went abroad in the church that he was taken up by the Spirit or buried by the hand of the Lord, even as Moses. But behold, the scripture saith the Lord took Moses unto himself. And we suppose that he hath also received Alma in the spirit unto himself. Therefore for this cause we know nothing concerning his death and burial.

Alma 45:20

And now it came to pass in the commencement of the nineteenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi that Helaman went forth among the people to declare the word unto them.

Alma 45:21

For behold, because of their wars with the Lamanites and the many little dissensions and disturbances which had been among the people, it became expedient that the word of God should be declared among them, yea, and that a regulation should be made throughout the church.

Alma 45:22

Therefore Helaman and his brethren went forth to establish the church again in all the land, yea, in every city throughout all the land which was possessed by the people of Nephi. And it came to pass that they did appoint priests and teachers throughout all the land, over all the churches.

Alma 45:23

And now it came to pass that after Helaman and his brethren had appointed priests and teachers over the churches that there arose a dissension among them, and they would not give heed to the words of Helaman and his brethren; but they grew proud, being lifted up in their hearts because of their exceeding great riches. Therefore they grew rich in their own eyes and would not give heed to their words to walk uprightly before God.

Alma 45:24

Alma 46

Alma 46:1

And it came to pass that as many as would not hearken to the words of Helaman and his brethren were gathered together against their brethren.

Alma 46:2

And now behold, they were exceeding wroth, insomuch that they were determined to slay them.

Alma 46:3

Now the leader of those which were wroth against their brethren was a large and a strong man, and his name was Amalickiah.

Alma 46:4

And Amalickiah was desirous to be a king; and those people which were wroth were also desirous that he should be their king. And they were the greater part of them the lower judges of the land, and they were seeking for power.

Alma 46:5

And they had been led by the flatteries of Amalickiah that if they would support him and establish him to be their king that he would make them rulers over the people.

Alma 46:6

Thus they were led away by Amalickiah to dissensions, notwithstanding the preaching of Helaman and his brethren, yea, notwithstanding their exceeding great care over the church, for they were high priests over the church.

Alma 46:7

And there were many in the church which believed in the flattering words of Amalickiah; therefore they dissented even from the church. And thus were the affairs of the people of Nephi exceeding precarious and dangerous, notwithstanding their great victory which they had had over the Lamanites, and their great rejoicings which they had had because of their deliverance by the hand of the Lord.

Alma 46:8

Thus we see how quick the children of men doth forget the Lord their God, yea, how quick to do iniquity and to be led away by the evil one.

Alma 46:9

Yea, and we also see the great wickedness one very wicked man can cause to take place among the children of men.

Alma 46:10

Yea, we see that Amalickiah, because he was a man of cunning devices and a man of many flattering words, that he led away the hearts of many people to do wickedly, yea, and to seek to destroy the church of God and to destroy the foundation of liberty which God had granted unto them, or which blessing God had sent upon the face of the land for the righteous' sake.

Alma 46:11

And now it came to pass that when Moroni, which was the chief commander of the armies of the Nephites, had heard of these dissensions, he was angry with Amalickiah.

Alma 46:12

And it came to pass that he rent his coat; and he took a piece thereof and wrote upon it: In memory of our God, our religion and freedom, and our peace, our wives and our children. And he fastened it upon the end of a pole thereof.

Alma 46:13

And he fastened on his headplate and his breastplate and his shields and girded on his armor about his loins. And he took the pole which had on the end thereof his rent coat, and he called it the title of liberty. And he bowed himself to the earth, and he prayed mightily unto his God for the blessings of liberty to rest upon his brethren so long as there should a band of Christians remain to possess the land.

Alma 46:14

For thus were all the true believers of Christ which belonged to the church of God called by those who did not belong to the church.

Alma 46:15

And those who did belong to the church were faithful. Yea, all those who were true believers in Christ took upon them gladly the name of Christ, or Christians, as they were called, because of their belief in Christ, which should come.

Alma 46:16

And therefore at this time Moroni prayed that the cause of the Christians and the freedom of the land might be favored.

Alma 46:17

And it came to pass that when he had poured out his soul to God, he gave all the land which was south of the land Desolation—yea, and in fine all the land, both on the north and on the south—a chosen land and the land of liberty.

Alma 46:18

And he saith: Surely God shall not suffer that we who are despised because we take upon us the name of Christ shall be trodden down and destroyed until we bring it upon us by our own transgressions.

Alma 46:19

And when Moroni had said these words, he went forth among the people, waving the rent of his garment in the air, that all might see the writing which he had wrote upon the rent, and crying with a loud voice, saying:

Alma 46:20

Behold, whosoever will maintain this title upon the land, let them come forth in the strength of the Lord and enter into a covenant that they will maintain their rights and their religion, that the Lord God may bless them.

Alma 46:21

And it came to pass that when Moroni had proclaimed these words, behold, the people came running together with their armors girded about their loins, rending their garments in token, or as a covenant, that they would not forsake the Lord their God. Or in other words, if they should transgress the commandments of God—or fall into transgression—and be ashamed to take upon them the name of Christ, the Lord should rend them, even as they had rent their garments.

Alma 46:22

Now this was the covenant which they made; and they cast their garments at the feet of Moroni, saying: We covenant with our God that we shall be destroyed, even as our brethren in the land northward, if we shall fall into transgression. Yea, he may cast us at the feet of our enemies, even as we have cast our garments at thy feet, to be trodden under foot if we should fall into transgression.

Alma 46:23

Moroni saith unto them: Behold, we are a remnant of the seed of Jacob. Yea, we are a remnant of the seed of Joseph, whose coat was rent by his brethren into many pieces. Yea, and now behold, let us remember to keep the commandments of God, or our garments shall be rent by our brethren and we be cast into prisons or be sold or be slain.

Alma 46:24

Yea, let us preserve our liberty as a remnant of Joseph. Yea, let us remember the words of Jacob before his death. For behold, he saw that a part of the remnant of the coat of Joseph was preserved and had not decayed. And he saith: Even as this remnant of garment of my son's hath been preserved, so shall a remnant of the seed of my son be preserved by the hand of God and be taken unto himself, while the remainder of the seed of Joseph shall perish, even as the remnant of his garment.

Alma 46:25

Now behold, this giveth my soul sorrow. Nevertheless my soul hath joy in my son because of that part of his seed which shall be taken unto God.

Alma 46:26

Now behold, this was the language of Jacob.

Alma 46:27

And now, who knoweth but what the remnant of the seed of Joseph which shall perish as his garment are those which have dissented from us; yea, and even it shall be us if we do not stand fast in the faith of Christ.

Alma 46:28

And now it came to pass that when Moroni had said these words, he went forth, and also sent forth, in all the parts of the land where there were dissensions and gathered together all the people which were desirous to maintain their liberty, to stand against Amalickiah and those which had dissented, which were called Amalickiahites.

Alma 46:29

And it came to pass that when Amalickiah saw that the people of Moroni were more numerous than the Amalickiahites, and he also saw that his people were doubtful concerning the justice of the cause which they had undertaken, therefore fearing that he should not gain the point, he took those of his people which would and departed into the land of Nephi.

Alma 46:30

Now Moroni thought it was not expedient that the Lamanites should have any more strength. Therefore he thought to cut off the people of Amalickiah, or to take them and bring them back and put Amalickiah to death. Yea, for he knew that they would stir up the Lamanites to anger against them and cause them to come down to battle against them. And this he knew that Amalickiah would do that he might obtain his purposes.

Alma 46:31

Therefore Moroni thought it was expedient that he should take his armies, which had gathered themselves together and armed themselves and entered into a covenant to keep the peace. And it came to pass that he took his army and marched out with his tents into the wilderness to cut off the course of Amalickiah in the wilderness.

Alma 46:32

And it came to pass that he did according to his desires and marched forth into the wilderness and headed the armies of Amalickiah.

Alma 46:33

And it came to pass that Amalickiah fled with a small number of his men, and the remainder were delivered up into the hands of Moroni and were taken back into the land of Zarahemla.

Alma 46:34

Now Moroni being a man which was appointed by the chief judges and the voice of the people, therefore he had power to do according to his will with the armies of the Nephites, to establish and to exercise authority over them.

Alma 46:35

And it came to pass that whomsoever of the Amalickiahites that would not enter into a covenant to support the cause of freedom, that they might maintain a free government, he caused to be put to death. And there was but few which denied the covenant of freedom.

Alma 46:36

And it came to pass also that he caused the title of liberty to be hoisted upon every tower which was in all the land which was possessed by the Nephites. And thus Moroni planted the standard of liberty among the Nephites.

Alma 46:37

And they began to have peace again in the land. And thus they did maintain peace in the land until nearly the end of the nineteenth year of the reign of the judges.

Alma 46:38

And Helaman and the high priests did also maintain order in the church; yea, even for the space of four years did they have much peace and rejoicing in the church.

Alma 46:39

And it came to pass that there were many who died firmly believing that their souls were redeemed by the Lord Jesus Christ. Thus they went out of the world rejoicing.

Alma 46:40

And there were some who died with fevers, which at some seasons of the year was very frequent in the land—but not so much so with fevers because of the excellent qualities of the many plants and roots which God had prepared to remove the cause of diseases which was subsequent to man by the nature of the climate—but there were many who died with old age. And those who died in the faith of Christ are happy in him, as we must needs suppose.

Alma 47

Alma 47:1

Now we will return in our record to Amalickiah and those which fled with him into the wilderness. For behold, he had took those which were with him and went up into the land of Nephi among the Lamanites and did stir up the Lamanites to anger against the people of Nephi, insomuch that the king of the Lamanites sent a proclamation throughout all his land among all his people that they should gather themselves together again to go to battle against the Nephites.

Alma 47:2

And it came to pass that when the proclamation had gone forth among them, they were exceeding afraid. Yea, they feared to displease the king; and they also feared to go to battle against the Nephites lest they should lose their lives. And it came to pass that they would not—or the more part of them would not—obey the commandment of the king.

Alma 47:3

And now it came to pass that the king was wroth because of their disobedience. Therefore he gave Amalickiah the command of that part of his army which was obedient unto his commands, and commanded him that he should go forth and compel them to arms.

Alma 47:4

Now behold, this was the desires of Amalickiah; for he being a very subtle man to do evil, therefore he laid the plan in his heart to dethrone the king of the Lamanites.

Alma 47:5

And now he had gat the command of those parts of the Lamanites which were in favor of the king; and he sought to gain favor of those which were not obedient. Therefore he went forward to the place which was called Oneidah, for thither had all the Lamanites fled. For they discovered the army coming; and supposing that they were coming to destroy them, therefore they fled to Oneidah, to the place of arms.

Alma 47:6

And they had appointed a man to be a king and a leader over them, being fixed in their minds with a determined resolution that they would not be subjected to go against the Nephites.

Alma 47:7

And it came to pass that they had gathered themselves together upon the top of the mount which was called Antipas in preparation to battle.

Alma 47:8

Now it was not Amalickiah's intention to give them battle according to the commandments of the king. But behold, it was his intention to gain favor with the armies of the Lamanites, that he might place himself at their head and dethrone the king and take possession of the kingdom.

Alma 47:9

And behold, it came to pass that he caused his army to pitch their tents in the valley which was near the mount Antipas.

Alma 47:10

And it came to pass that when it was night, he sent a secret embassy into the mount Antipas, desiring that the leader of those which were upon the mount, whose name was Lehonti, that he should come down to the foot of the mount, for he desired to speak with him.

Alma 47:11

And it came to pass that when Lehonti received the message, he durst not go down to the foot of the mount. And it came to pass that Amalickiah sent again the second time, desiring him to come down. And it came to pass that Lehonti would not. And he sent again the third time.

Alma 47:12

And it came to pass that when Amalickiah found that he could not get Lehonti to come down off from the mount, he went up into the mount, nearly to Lehonti's camp. And he sent again the fourth time his message unto Lehonti, desiring that he would come down and that he would bring his guards with him.

Alma 47:13

And it came to pass that when Lehonti had come down with his guards to Amalickiah that Amalickiah desired him to come down with his army in the nighttime and surround those men in their camps over whom the king had gave him command, and that he would deliver them up into Lehonti's hands if he would make him, Amalickiah, the second leader over the whole army.

Alma 47:14

And it came to pass that Lehonti came down with his men and surrounded the men of Amalickiah, so that before they awoke at the dawn of the day, they were surrounded by the armies of Lehonti.

Alma 47:15

And it came to pass that when they saw that they were surrounded, they pled with Amalickiah that he would suffer them to fall in with their brethren, that they might not be destroyed. Now this was the very thing which Amalickiah desired.

Alma 47:16

And it came to pass that he delivered his men, contrary to the commands of the king. Now this was the thing that Amalickiah desired, that he might accomplish his designs in dethroning the king.

Alma 47:17

Now it was the custom among the Lamanites, if their chief leader was killed, to appoint the second leader to be their chief leader.

Alma 47:18

And it came to pass that Amalickiah caused that one of his servants should administer poison by degrees to Lehonti, that he died.

Alma 47:19

Now when Lehonti was dead, the Lamanites appointed Amalickiah to be their leader and their chief commander.

Alma 47:20

And it came to pass that Amalickiah marched with his armies, for he had gained his desires, to the land of Nephi, to the city of Nephi, which was the chief city.

Alma 47:21

And the king came out to meet him with his guards, for he supposed that Amalickiah had fulfilled his commands and that Amalickiah had gathered together so great an army for to go against the Nephites to battle.

Alma 47:22

But behold, as the king came out to meet him, Amalickiah caused that his servants should go forth to meet the king. And they went forth and bowed themselves before the king, as if to reverence him because of his greatness.

Alma 47:23

And it came to pass that the king put forth his hand to raise them, as was the custom with the Lamanites—and a token of peace—which custom they had taken from the Nephites.

Alma 47:24

And it came to pass that when he had raised the first from the ground, behold, he stabbed the king to the heart and he fell to the earth.

Alma 47:25

Now the servants of the king fled. And the servants of Amalickiah raised a cry, saying:

Alma 47:26

Behold, the servants of the king have stabbed him to the heart, and he has fell and they have fled. Behold, come and see!

Alma 47:27

And it came to pass that Amalickiah commanded that his armies should march forth and see what had happened to the king. And when they had come to the spot and found the king lying in his gore, Amalickiah pretended to be wroth and said: Whosoever loved the king, let him go forth and pursue his servants, that they may be slain.

Alma 47:28

And it came to pass that all they who loved the king, when they heard these words, came forth and pursued after the servants of the king.

Alma 47:29

Now when the servants of the king saw an army pursuing after them, they were frightened again and fled into the wilderness and came over into the land of Zarahemla and joined the people of Ammon.

Alma 47:30

And the army which pursued after them returned, having pursued after them in vain. And thus Amalickiah by his fraud gained the hearts of the people.

Alma 47:31

And it came to pass on the morrow he entered the city Nephi with his armies and took possession of the city.

Alma 47:32

And now it came to pass that the queen, when she had heard that the king was slain—for Amalickiah had sent an embassy to the queen informing her that the king had been slain by his servants, that he had pursued them with his army, but it was in vain and they had made their escape—therefore when the queen had received this message, she sent unto Amalickiah, desiring him that he would spare the people of the city. And she also desired him that he should come in unto her. And she also desired him that he should bring witnesses with him to testify concerning the death of the king.

Alma 47:34

And it came to pass that Amalickiah took that same servant that slew the king, and also they which were with him, and went in unto the queen, unto the place where she sat. And they all testified unto her that the king was slain by his own servants. And they said also: They have fled. Does not this testify against them? And thus they satisfied the queen concerning the death of the king.

Alma 47:35

And it came to pass that Amalickiah sought the favor of the queen and took her unto him to wife. And thus by his fraud and by the assistance of his cunning servants, he obtained the kingdom. Yea, he was acknowledged king throughout all the land among all the people of the Lamanites, which was composed of the Lamanites and the Lemuelites and the Ishmaelites, and all the dissenters of the Nephites from the reign of Nephi down to the present time.

Alma 47:36

Now these dissenters, having the same instruction and the same information of the Nephites, yea, having been instructed in the same knowledge of the Lord, nevertheless it is strange to relate, not long after their dissensions, they became more hardened and impenitent and more wild, wicked, and ferocious than the Lamanites, drinking in with the traditions of the Lamanites, giving way to indolence and all manner of lasciviousness, yea, entirely forgetting the Lord their God.

Alma 48

Alma 48:1

And now it came to pass that as soon as Amalickiah had obtained the kingdom, he began to inspire the hearts of the Lamanites against the people of Nephi. Yea, he did appoint men to speak unto the Lamanites from their towers against the Nephites.

Alma 48:2

And thus he did inspire their hearts against the Nephites, insomuch that in the latter end of the nineteenth year of the reign of the judges, he having accomplished his designs thus far, yea, having been made king over the Lamanites, he sought also to reign over all the land, yea, and all the people which were in the land, the Nephites as well as the Lamanites.

Alma 48:3

Therefore he had accomplished his design, for he had hardened the hearts of the Lamanites and blinded their minds and stirred them up to anger, insomuch that he had gathered together a numerous host to go to battle against the Nephites.

Alma 48:4

For he was determined because of the greatness of the number of his people to overpower the Nephites and to bring them into bondage.

Alma 48:5

And thus he did appoint chief captains of the Zoramites, they being the most acquainted with the strength of the Nephites and their places of resort and the weakest parts of their cities; therefore he appointed them to be chief captains over his armies.

Alma 48:6

And it came to pass that they took their camp and moved forth towards the land of Zarahemla in the wilderness.

Alma 48:7

Now it came to pass that while Amalickiah had thus been obtaining power by fraud and deceit, Moroni, on the other hand, had been a preparing the minds of the people to be faithful unto the Lord their God.

Alma 48:8

Yea, he had been strengthening the armies of the Nephites and erecting small forts or places of resort, throwing up banks of earth round about to encircle his armies, and also building walls of stone to encircle them about, round about their cities and the borders of their lands, yea, all round about the land.

Alma 48:9

And in their weakest fortifications he did place the greater number of men. And thus he did fortify and strengthen the land which was possessed by the Nephites.

Alma 48:10

And thus he was preparing to support their liberty, their lands, their wives and their children, and their peace, and that they might live unto the Lord their God, and that they might maintain that which was called by their enemies the cause of Christians.

Alma 48:11

And Moroni was a strong and a mighty man. He was a man of a perfect understanding; yea, a man that did not delight in bloodshed, a man whose soul did joy in the liberty and the freedom of his country and his brethren from bondage and slavery, yea, a man whose heart did swell with thanksgiving to his God for the many privileges and blessings which he bestowed upon his people, a man who did labor exceedingly for the welfare and safety of his people.

Alma 48:12

Alma 48:13

Yea, and he was a man who was firm in the faith of Christ. And he had sworn with an oath to defend his people, his rights and his country and his religion, even to the loss of his blood.

Alma 48:14

Now the Nephites were taught to defend themselves against their enemies, even to the shedding of blood even if it were necessary. Yea, and they were also taught never to give an offense, yea, and never to raise the sword except it were against an enemy, except it were to preserve their lives.

Alma 48:15

And this was their faith, that by so doing God would prosper them in the land; or in other words, if they were faithful in keeping the commandments of God, that he would prosper them in the land —yea, warn them to flee or to prepare for war, according to their danger—and also that God would make it known unto them whither they should go to defend themselves against their enemies, and by so doing the Lord would deliver them. And this was the faith of Moroni. And his heart did glory in it— not in the shedding of blood, but in doing good, in preserving his people, yea, in keeping the commandments of God, yea, and resisting iniquity.

Alma 48:16

Alma 48:17

Yea, verily verily I say unto you: If all men had been and were and ever would be like unto Moroni, behold, the very powers of hell would have been shaken forever. Yea, the devil would never have no power over the hearts of the children of men.

Alma 48:18

Behold, he was a man like unto Ammon the son of Mosiah, yea, and even the other sons of Mosiah, yea, and also Alma and his sons, for they were all men of God.

Alma 48:19

Now behold, Helaman and his brethren were not less serviceable unto the people than was Moroni; for they did preach the word of God, and they did baptize unto repentance all men whosoever would hearken unto their words.

Alma 48:20

And thus they went forth; and the people did humble themselves because of their words, insomuch that they were highly favored of the Lord. And thus they were free from wars and contentions among themselves, yea, even for the space of four years.

Alma 48:21

But as I have said, in the latter end of the nineteenth year, notwithstanding their peace amongst themselves, they were compelled reluctantly to contend with their brethren the Lamanites.

Alma 48:22

Yea, and in fine, their wars never did cease for the space of many years with the Lamanites, notwithstanding their much reluctance.

Alma 48:23

Now they were sorry to take up arms against the Lamanites because they did not delight in the shedding of blood. Yea, and this was not all. They were sorry to be the means of sending so many of their brethren out of this world into an eternal world unprepared to meet their God.

Alma 48:24

Nevertheless they could not suffer to lay down their lives, that their wives and their children should be massacred by the barbarous cruelty of those who was once their brethren, yea, and had dissented from their church and had left them and had gone to destroy them by joining the Lamanites.

Alma 48:25

Yea, they could not bear that their brethren should rejoice over the blood of the Nephites, so long as there were any who should keep the commandments of God; for the promises of the Lord were if they should keep his commandments, they should prosper in the land.

Alma 49

Alma 49:1

And now it came to pass in the eleventh month of the nineteenth year, on the tenth day of the month, the armies of the Lamanites were seen approaching towards the land of Ammonihah.

Alma 49:2

And behold, the city had been rebuilt, and Moroni had stationed an army by the borders of the city. And they had cast up dirt round about to shield them from the arrows and the stones of the Lamanites. For behold, they fought with stones and with arrows.

Alma 49:3

Behold, I said that the city of Ammonihah had been rebuilt. I say unto you, yea, that it was in part rebuilt. And because the Lamanites had destroyed it once, because of the iniquity of the people, they supposed that it would again become an easy prey for them.

Alma 49:4

But behold, how great was their disappointment! For behold, the Nephites had dug up a ridge of earth round about them which was so high that the Lamanites could not cast their stones and their arrows at them that they might take effect, neither could they come upon them save it was by their place of entrance.

Alma 49:5

Now at this time the chief captains of the Lamanites were astonished exceedingly because of the wisdom of the Nephites in repairing their places of security.

Alma 49:6

Now the leaders of the Lamanites had supposed because of the greatness of their numbers— yea, they supposed that they should be privileged to come upon them as they had hitherto done; yea, and they had also prepared themselves with shields and with breastplates; and they had also prepared themselves with garments of skins, yea, very thick garments to cover their nakedness—and being thus prepared, they supposed that they should easily overpower and subject their brethren to the yoke of bondage, or slay and massacre them according to their pleasure.

Alma 49:8

But behold, to their uttermost astonishment, they were prepared for them in a manner which never had been known among all the children of Lehi; now they were prepared for the Lamanites, to battle after the manner of the instructions of Moroni.

Alma 49:9

And it came to pass that the Lamanites, or the Amalickiahites, were exceedingly astonished at their manner of preparation for war.

Alma 49:10

Now if king Amalickiah had came down out of the land of Nephi at the head of his army, perhaps he would have caused the Lamanites to have attackt the Nephites at the city of Ammonihah; for behold, he did care not for the blood of his people.

Alma 49:11

But behold, Amalickiah did not come down himself to battle. And behold, his chief captains durst not attackt the Nephites at the city of Ammonihah, for Moroni had altered the management of affairs among the Nephites, insomuch that the Lamanites were disappointed in their places of retreat and they could not come upon them.

Alma 49:12

Therefore they retreated into the wilderness and took their camp and marched towards the land of Noah, supposing that to be the next best place for them to come against the Nephites.

Alma 49:13

For they knew not that Moroni had fortified— or had built forts of security for every city in all the land round about. Therefore they marched forward to the land of Noah with a firm determination. Yea, their chief captains came forward and took an oath that they would destroy the people of that city.

Alma 49:14

But behold, to their astonishment, the city of Noah, which had hitherto been a weak place, had now by the means of Moroni became strong, yea, even to exceed the strength of the city Ammonihah.

Alma 49:15

And now behold, this was wisdom in Moroni. For he had supposed that they would be frightened at the city Ammonihah; and as the city of Noah had hitherto been the weakest part of the land, therefore they would march thither to battle. And thus it was according to his desires.

Alma 49:16

And behold, Moroni had appointed Lehi to be chief captain over the men of that city. And it was that same Lehi which fought with the Lamanites in the valley on the east of the river Sidon.

Alma 49:17

And now behold, it came to pass that when the Lamanites had found that Lehi commanded the city, they were again disappointed, for they feared Lehi exceedingly. Nevertheless their chief captains had sworn with an oath to attackt the city; therefore they brought up their armies.

Alma 49:18

Now behold, the Lamanites could not get into their forts of security by any other way save by the entrance, because of the highness of the bank which had been thrown up and the depth of the ditch which had been dug round about, save it were by the entrance.

Alma 49:19

And thus were the Nephites prepared to destroy all such as should attempt to climb up to enter the fort by any other way by casting over stones and arrows at them.

Alma 49:20

Thus they were prepared, yea, a body of their most strong men with their swords and their slings to smite down all who should attempt to come into their place of security by the place of entrance. And thus were they prepared to defend themselves against the Lamanites.

Alma 49:21

And it came to pass that the captains of the Lamanites brought up their armies before the place of entrance and began to contend with the Nephites, to get into their place of security. But behold, they were driven back from time to time, insomuch that they were slain with an immense slaughter.

Alma 49:22

Now when they found that they could not obtain power over the Nephites by the pass, they began to dig down their banks of earth that they might obtain a pass to their armies, that they might have an equal chance to fight. But behold, in these attempts they were swept off by the stones and the arrows which were thrown at them. And instead of filling up their ditches by pulling down the banks of earth, they were filled up in a measure with their dead and wounded bodies.

Alma 49:23

Thus the Nephites had all power over their enemies. And thus the Lamanites did attempt to destroy the Nephites until their chief captains were all slain —yea, and more than a thousand of the Lamanites were slain— while on the other hand there was not a single soul of the Nephites which were slain.

Alma 49:24

There were about fifty which were wounded which had been exposed to the arrows of the Lamanites through the pass. But they were shielded by their shields and their breastplates and their headplates, insomuch that their wounds were upon their legs, many of which were very severe.

Alma 49:25

And it came to pass that when the Lamanites saw that their chief captains were all slain, they fled into the wilderness. And it came to pass that they returned to the land of Nephi to inform their king Amalickiah, who was a Nephite by birth, concerning their great loss.

Alma 49:26

And it came to pass that he was exceeding angry with his people because he had not obtained his desires over the Nephites; he had not subjected them to the yoke of bondage.

Alma 49:27

Yea, he was exceeding wroth, and he did curse God, and also Moroni, and swearing with an oath that he would drink his blood— and this because Moroni had kept the commandments of God in preparing for the safety of his people.

Alma 49:28

And it came to pass that on the other hand the people of Nephi did thank the Lord their God because of his miraculous power in delivering them from the hands of their enemies.

Alma 49:29

And thus ended the nineteenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi.

Alma 49:30

Yea, and there was continual peace among them and exceeding great prosperity in the church because of their heed and diligence which they gave unto the word of God, which was declared unto them by Helaman and Shiblon and Corianton and Ammon and his brethren etc., yea, and by all those which had been ordained by the holy order of God, being baptized unto repentance and sent forth to preach among the people etc.

Alma 50

Alma 50:1

And now it came to pass that Moroni did not stop making preparations for war or to defend themselves against the Lamanites, for he caused that his armies should commence in the commencement of the twentieth year of the reign of the judges that they should commence in digging up heaps of earth round about all the cities throughout all the land which was possessed by the Nephites.

Alma 50:2

And upon the top of those ridges of earth he caused that there should be timbers, yea, works of timbers built up to the heighth of a man, round about the cities.

Alma 50:3

And he caused that upon those works of timbers that there should be a frame of pickets built upon the timbers round about; and they were strong and high.

Alma 50:4

And he caused towers to be erected that overlooked those works of pickets; and he caused places of security to be built upon those towers, that the stones and the arrows of the Lamanites could not hurt them.

Alma 50:5

And they were prepared that they could cast stones from the top thereof, according to their pleasure and their strength, and slay him which should attempt to approach near the walls of the city.

Alma 50:6

Thus Moroni did prepare strong holds against the coming of their enemies round about every city in all the land.

Alma 50:7

And it came to pass that Moroni caused that his armies should go forth into the east wilderness. Yea, and they went forth and drave all the Lamanites which were in the east wilderness into their own lands, which were south of the land of Zarahemla.

Alma 50:8

And the land of Nephi did run in a straight course from the east sea to the west.

Alma 50:9

And it came to pass that when Moroni had driven all the Lamanites out of the east wilderness, which was north of the lands of their own possessions, he caused that the inhabitants which were in the land of Zarahemla and in the land round about should go forth into the east wilderness, even to the borders by the seashore, and possess the land.

Alma 50:10

And he also placed armies on the south in the borders of their possessions and caused them to erect fortifications that they might secure their armies and their people from the hands of their enemies.

Alma 50:11

And thus he cut off all the strong holds of the Lamanites in the east wilderness, yea, and also on the west, fortifying the line between the Nephites and the Lamanites, between the land of Zarahemla and the land of Nephi, from the west sea running by the head of the river Sidon, the Nephites possessing all the land northward, yea, even all the land which was northward of the land Bountiful, according to their pleasure.

Alma 50:12

Thus Moroni with his armies—which did increase daily because of the assurance of protection which his works did bring forth unto them—therefore they did seek to cut off the strength and the power of the Lamanites from off the lands of their possessions, that they should have no power upon the lands of their possessions.

Alma 50:13

And it came to pass that the Nephites began the foundation of a city, and they called the name of the city Moroni. And it was by the east sea; and it was on the south by the line of the possessions of the Lamanites.

Alma 50:14

And they also began a foundation for a city between the city of Moroni and the city of Aaron, joining the borders of Aaron and Moroni, and they called the name of the city, or the land, Nephihah.

Alma 50:15

And they also began in that same year to build many cities on the north, one in a particular manner which they called Lehi, which was in the north by the borders of the seashore.

Alma 50:16

And thus ended the twentieth year.

Alma 50:17

And in these prosperous circumstances were the people of Nephi in the commencement of the twenty and first year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi.

Alma 50:18

And they did prosper exceedingly, and they became exceeding rich. Yea, and they did multiply and wax strong in the land.

Alma 50:19

And thus we see how merciful and just are all the dealings of the Lord, to the fulfilling of all his words unto the children of men. Yea, we can behold that his words are verified, even at this time, which he spake unto Lehi, saying:

Alma 50:20

Blessed art thou and thy children. And they shall be blessed! And inasmuch as they shall keep my commandments, they shall prosper in the land. But remember, inasmuch as they will not keep my commandments, they shall be cut off from the presence of the Lord.

Alma 50:21

And we see that these promises have been verified to the people of Nephi; for it has been their quarrelings and their contentions, yea, their murderings and their plunderings, their idolatry and their whoredoms and their abominations which were among themselves, which brought upon them their wars and their destructions.

Alma 50:22

And those who were faithful in keeping the commandments of the Lord were delivered at all times, whilst thousands of their wicked brethren have been consigned to bondage or to perish by the sword or to dwindle in unbelief and mingle with the Lamanites.

Alma 50:23

But behold, there never was a happier time among the people of Nephi since the days of Nephi than in the days of Moroni, yea, even at this time, in the twenty and first year of the reign of the judges.

Alma 50:24

And it came to pass that the twenty and second year of the reign of the judges also ended in peace, yea, and also the twenty and third year.

Alma 50:25

And it came to pass that in the commencement of the twenty and fourth year of the reign of the judges, there would also have been peace among the people of Nephi had it not been for a contention which took place among them concerning the land of Lehi and the land of Morionton, which joined upon the borders of Lehi, both of which were on the borders by the seashore.

Alma 50:26

For behold, the people which possessed the land of Morionton did claim a part of the land of Lehi. Therefore there began to be a warm contention between them, insomuch that the people of Morionton took up arms against their brethren; and they were determined by the sword to slay them.

Alma 50:27

But behold, the people which possessed the land of Lehi fled to the camp of Moroni and appealed unto him for assistance; for behold, they were not in the wrong.

Alma 50:28

And it came to pass that when the people of Morionton, which were led by a man whose name was Morionton, found that the people of Lehi had fled to the camp of Moroni, they were exceeding fearful lest the army of Moroni should come upon them and destroy them.

Alma 50:29

Therefore Morionton put it into their hearts that they should flee to the land which was northward, which was covered with large bodies of water, and take possession of the land which was northward.

Alma 50:30

And behold, they would have carried this plan into an effect—which would have been a cause to have been lamented—but behold, Morionton being a man of much passion, therefore he was angry with one of his maidservants, and he fell upon her and beat her much.

Alma 50:31

And it came to pass that she fled and came over to the camp of Moroni and told Moroni all things concerning the matter and also concerning their intentions to flee into the land northward.

Alma 50:32

Now behold, the people which were in the land of Bountiful—or rather Moroni feared that they would hearken to the words of Morionton and unite with his people, and thus he would obtain possession of those parts of the land, which would lay a foundation for serious consequences among the people of Nephi, yea, which consequences would lead to the overthrow of their liberty—therefore Moroni sent an army with their camp to head the people of Morionton, to stop their flight into the land northward.

Alma 50:34

And it came to pass that they did not head them until they had come to the borders of the land Desolation. And there they did head them by the narrow pass which led by the sea into the land northward, yea, by the sea on the west and on the east.

Alma 50:35

And it came to pass that the army which was sent by Moroni, which was led by a man whose name was Teancum, did meet the people of Morionton. And so stubborn were the people of Morionton, being inspired by his wickedness and his flattering words, that a battle commenced between them, in the which Teancum did slay Morionton and defeat his army and took them prisoners and returned to the camp of Moroni. And thus ended the twenty and fourth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi.

Alma 50:36

And thus was the people of Morionton brought back. And upon their covenanting to keep the peace, they were restored to the land of Morionton. And a union took place between them and the people of Lehi, and they were also restored to their lands.

Alma 50:37

And it came to pass that in that same year that the people of Nephi had peace restored unto them that Nephiah the second chief judge died, having filled the judgment seat with perfect uprightness before God.

Alma 50:38

Nevertheless he had refused Alma to take possession of those records and those things which were esteemed by Alma and his fathers to be most sacred. Therefore Alma had conferred them upon his son Helaman.

Alma 50:39

Behold, it came to pass that the son of Nephiah was appointed to fill the judgment seat in the stead of his father. Yea, he was appointed chief judge and governor over the people, with an oath and sacred ordinance to judge righteously, and to keep the peace and the freedom of the people, and to grant unto them their sacred privileges to worship the Lord their God, yea, to support and maintain the cause of God all his days, and to bring the wicked to justice according to their crime.

Alma 50:40

Now behold, his name was Parhoron. And Parhoron did fill the seat of his father and did commence his reign in the end of the twenty and fourth year over the people of Nephi.

Alma 51

Alma 51:1

And now it came to pass in the commencement of the twenty and fifth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi, they having established peace between the people of Lehi and the people of Morionton concerning their lands, and having commenced the twenty and fifth year in peace, nevertheless they did not long maintain an entire peace in the land. For there began to be a contention among the people concerning the chief judge Parhoron; for behold, there were a part of the people which desired that a few particular points of the law should be altered.

Alma 51:2

Alma 51:3

But behold, Parhoron would not alter nor suffer the law to be altered. Therefore he did not hearken to those who had sent in their voices with their petitions concerning the altering of the law.

Alma 51:4

Therefore those which were desirous that the law should be altered were angry with him and desired that he should no longer be chief judge over the land. Therefore there arose a warm dispute concerning the matter, but not unto bloodshed.

Alma 51:5

And it came to pass that those who were desirous that Parhoron should be dethroned from the judgment seat were called kingmen, for they were desirous that the law should be altered in a manner to overthrow the free government and to establish a king over the land.

Alma 51:6

And those who were desirous that Parhoron should remain chief judge over the land took upon them the name of freemen. And thus was the division among them, for the freemen had sworn or covenanted to maintain their rights and the privileges of their religion by a free government.

Alma 51:7

And it came to pass that this matter of their contention was settled by the voice of the people. And it came to pass that the voice of the people came in the favor of the freemen; and Parhoron retained the judgment seat, which caused much rejoicing among the brethren of Parhoron and also among the people of liberty, which also put the kingmen to silence, that they durst not oppose but were obliged to maintain the cause of freedom.

Now those which were in favor of kings were those of high birth; and they sought to be kings. And they were supported by those which sought power and authority over the people.

Alma 51:9

But behold, this was a critical time for such contentions to be among the people of Nephi. For behold, Amalickiah had again stirred up the hearts of the people of the Lamanites against the people of the Nephites; and he was gathering together soldiers from all parts of his land and arming them and preparing for war with all diligence, for he had sworn to drink the blood of Moroni.

Alma 51:10

But behold, we shall see that this promise which he made was rash. Nevertheless he did prepare himself and his armies to come to battle against the Nephites.

Alma 51:11

Now his armies were not so great as they had hitherto been because of the many thousands which had been slain by the hand of the Nephites. But notwithstanding their great loss, Amalickiah had gathered together a wonderful great army, insomuch that he feared not to come down to the land of Zarahemla.

Alma 51:12

Yea, even Amalickiah did himself come down at the head of the Lamanites. And it was in the twenty and fifth year of the reign of the judges; and it was at the same time that they had began to settle the affairs of their contentions concerning the chief judge Parhoron.

Alma 51:13

And it came to pass that when the men which were called kingmen had heard that the Lamanites were coming down to battle against them, they were glad in their hearts. And they refused to take up arms, for they were so wroth with the chief judge and also with the people of liberty that they would not take up arms to defend their country.

Alma 51:14

And it came to pass that when Moroni saw this and also saw that the Lamanites were coming into the borders of the land, he was exceeding wroth because of the stubbornness of those people of whom he had labored with so much diligence to preserve. Yea, he was exceeding wroth; his soul was filled with anger against them.

Alma 51:15

And it came to pass that he sent a petition with the voice of the people unto the governor of the land, desiring that he should heed it and give him, Moroni, power to compel those dissenters to defend their country or to put them to death.

Alma 51:16

For it was his first care to put an end to such contentions and dissensions among the people. For behold, this had been hitherto a cause of all their destructions. And it came to pass that it was granted according to the voice of the people.

Alma 51:17

And it came to pass that Moroni commanded that his army should go against those kingmen, to pull down their pride and their nobility and level them with the earth, or they should take up arms and support the cause of liberty.

Alma 51:18

And it came to pass that the armies did march forth against them, and they did pull down their pride and their nobility, insomuch that as they did lift their weapons of war to fight against the men of Moroni, they were hewn down and leveled to the earth.

Alma 51:19

And it came to pass that there were four thousand of those dissenters which were hewn down by the sword. And those of their leaders which were not slain in battle were taken and cast into prison, for there was no time for their trials at this period.

Alma 51:20

And the remainder of those dissenters, rather than to be smote down to the earth by the sword, yielded to the standard of liberty and were compelled to hoist the title of liberty upon their towers and in their cities and to take up arms in defense of their country.

Alma 51:21

And thus Moroni put an end to those kingmen, that there were not any known by the appellation of kingmen. And thus he put an end to the stubbornness and the pride of those people which professed the blood of nobility; but they were brought down to humble themselves like unto their brethren and to fight valiantly for their freedom from bondage.

Alma 51:22

Behold, it came to pass that while Moroni was thus breaking down the wars and contentions among his own people and subjecting them to peace and civilization and making regulations to prepare for war against the Lamanites, behold, the Lamanites had come into the land of Moroni, which was in the borders by the seashore.

Alma 51:23

And it came to pass that the Nephites were not sufficiently strong in the city of Moroni; therefore Amalickiah did drive them, slaying many. And it came to pass that Amalickiah took possession of the city, yea, possession of all their fortifications.

Alma 51:24

And those which fled out of the city of Moroni came to the city of Nephihah. And also the people of the city of Lehi gathered themselves together and made preparations and were ready to receive the Lamanites to battle.

Alma 51:25

But it came to pass that Amalickiah would not suffer the Lamanites to go against the city of Nephihah to battle, but he kept them down by the seashore, leaving men in every city to maintain and defend it.

Alma 51:26

And thus he went on, taking possession of many cities: the city of Moroni and the city of Lehi and the city of Morionton and the city of Omner and the city of Gid and the city of Mulek, all of which were on the east borders by the seashore.

Alma 51:27

And thus had the Lamanites obtained by the cunning of Amalickiah so many cities, by their numberless hosts, all of which were strongly fortified after the manner of the fortifications of Moroni, all of which afforded strong holds for the Lamanites.

Alma 51:28

And it came to pass that they marched to the borders of the land Bountiful, driving the Nephites before them and slaying many.

Alma 51:29

But it came to pass that they were met by Teancum, who had slain Morionton and had headed his people in his flight.

Alma 51:30

And it came to pass that he headed Amalickiah also, as he was marching forth with his numerous army that he might take possession of the land Bountiful and also the land northward.

Alma 51:31

But behold, he met with a disappointment of being repulsed by Teancum and his men, for they were great warriors. For every man of Teancum did exceed the Lamanites in their strength and in their skill of war, insomuch that they did gain advantage over the Lamanites.

Alma 51:32

And it came to pass that they did harass them, insomuch that they did slay them even until it was dark. And it came to pass that Teancum and his men did pitch their tents in the borders of the land Bountiful; and Amalickiah did pitch his tents in the borders on the beach by the seashore. And after this manner were they driven.

Alma 51:33

And it came to pass that when the night had come, Teancum and his servant stole forth and went out by night and went into the camp of Amalickiah. And behold, sleep had overpowered them because of their much fatigue, which was caused by the labors and heat of the day.

Alma 51:34

And it came to pass that Teancum stole privily into the tent of the king and put a javelin to his heart. And he did cause the death of the king immediately that he did not awake his servants.

Alma 51:35

And he returned again privily to his own camp; and behold, his men were asleep. And he awoke them and told them all the things that he had done.

Alma 51:36

And he caused that his armies should stand in readiness lest the Lamanites had awoke and should come upon them.

Alma 51:37

And thus ended the twenty and fifth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. And thus ended the days of Amalickiah.

Alma 52

Alma 52:1

And now it came to pass in the twenty and sixth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi, behold, when the Lamanites awoke on the first morning of the first month, behold, they found Amalickiah was dead in his own tent. And they also saw that Teancum was ready to give them battle on that day.

Alma 52:2

And now when the Lamanites saw this, they were affrighted; and they abandoned their design in marching into the land northward and retreated with all their army into the city of Mulek and sought protection in their fortifications.

Alma 52:3

And it came to pass that the brother of Amalickiah was appointed king over the people; and his name was Ammoron. Thus king Ammoron, the brother of king Amalickiah, was appointed to reign in his stead.

Alma 52:4

And it came to pass that he did command that his people should maintain those cities which they had taken by the shedding of blood, for they had not taken any cities save they had lost much blood.

Alma 52:5

And now Teancum saw that the Lamanites were determined to maintain those cities which they had taken and those parts of the land which they had obtained possession of. And also seeing the enormity of their number, Teancum thought it was not expedient that he should attempt to attackt them in their forts.

Alma 52:6

But he kept his men round about, as if making preparations for war. Yea, and truly he was preparing to defend himself against them by casting up walls round about and preparing places of resort.

Alma 52:7

And it came to pass that he kept thus preparing for war until Moroni had sent a large number of men to strengthen his army.

Alma 52:8

And Moroni also sent orders unto him that he should retain all the prisoners which fell into his hands, for as the Lamanites had taken many prisoners, that he should retain all the prisoners of the Lamanites as a ransom for those which the Lamanites had taken.

Alma 52:9

And he also sent orders unto him that he should fortify the land Bountiful and secure the narrow pass which led into the land northward, lest the Lamanites should obtain that point and should have power to harass them on every side.

Alma 52:10

And Moroni also sent unto him, desiring him that he would be faithful in maintaining that quarter of the land and that he would seek every opportunity to scourge the Lamanites in that quarter as much as was in his power, that perhaps he might take again by stratagem or some other way those cities which had been taken out of their hands, and that he also would fortify and strengthen the cities round about which had not fallen into the hands of the Lamanites.

Alma 52:11

And he also said unto him: I would come unto you, but behold, the Lamanites are upon us in the borders of the land by the west sea. And behold, I go against them; therefore I cannot come unto you.

Alma 52:12

Now the king Ammoron had departed out of the land of Zarahemla and had made known unto the queen concerning the death of his brother and had gathered together a large number of men and had marched forth against the Nephites on the borders by the west sea.

Alma 52:13

And thus he was endeavoring to harass the Nephites and to draw away a part of their forces to that part of the land, while he had commanded those which he had left to possess the cities which he had taken that they should also harass the Nephites on the borders by the east sea and should take possession of their lands as much as it were in their power, according to the power of their armies.

Alma 52:14

And thus were the Nephites in those dangerous circumstances in the ending of the twenty and sixth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi.

Alma 52:15

But behold, it came to pass in the twentieth and seventh year of the reign of the judges that Teancum by the command of Moroni—who had established armies to protect the south and the west borders of the land and had began his march towards the land of Bountiful, that he might assist Teancum with his men in retaking the cities which they had lost—and it came to pass that Teancum had received orders to make an attackt upon the city of Mulek and retake it if it were possible.

Alma 52:16

Alma 52:17

And it came to pass that Teancum made preparations to make an attackt upon the city of Mulek and march forth with his army against the Lamanites. But he saw that it was impossible that he could overpower them while they were in their fortifications. Therefore he abandoned his designs and returned again to the city Bountiful to wait for the coming of Moroni, that he might receive strength to his army.

Alma 52:18

And it came to pass that Moroni did arrive with his army to the land of Bountiful in the latter end of the twenty and seventh year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi.

Alma 52:19

And in the commencement of the twenty and eighth year, Moroni and Teancum and many of the chief captains held a council of war, what they should do to cause the Lamanites to come out against them to battle, or that they might by some means flatter them out of their strong holds, that they might gain advantage over them and take again the city of Mulek.

Alma 52:20

And it came to pass that they sent embassies to the army of the Lamanites which protected the city of Mulek, to their leader, whose name was Jacob, desiring him that he would come out with his armies to meet them upon the plains between the two cities. But behold, Jacob, which was a Zoramite, would not come out with his army to meet them upon the plains.

Alma 52:21

And it came to pass that Moroni having no hopes of meeting them upon fair grounds, therefore he resolved upon a plan that he might decoy the Lamanites out of their strong holds.

Alma 52:22

Therefore he caused that Teancum should take a small number of men and march down near the seashore; and Moroni and his army by night marched into the wilderness on the west of the city Mulek. And thus on the morrow, when the guards of the Lamanites had discovered Teancum, they ran and told it unto Jacob, their leader.

Alma 52:23

And it came to pass that the armies of the Lamanites did march forth against Teancum, supposing by their numbers to overpower Teancum because of the smallness of his numbers. And as Teancum saw the armies of the Lamanites coming out against him, he began a retreat down by the seashore, northward.

Alma 52:24

And it came to pass that when the Lamanites saw that he began to flee, they took courage and pursued them with vigor. And while Teancum was thus leading away the Lamanites, which were pursuing them in vain, behold, Moroni commanded that a part of his army which were with him should march forth into the city and take possession of it.

Alma 52:25

And thus they did and slew all those who had been left to protect the city, yea, all those who would not yield up their weapons of war.

Alma 52:26

And thus Moroni had obtained a possession of the city Mulek with a part of his army while he marched with the remainder to meet the Lamanites when they should return from the pursuit of Teancum.

Alma 52:27

And it came to pass that the Lamanites did pursue Teancum until they came near the city Bountiful, and then they were met by Lehi and a small army which had been left to protect the city Bountiful.

Alma 52:28

And now behold, when the chief captains of the Lamanites had beheld Lehi with his army coming against them, they fled in much confusion, lest perhaps they should not obtain the city Mulek before Lehi should overtake them; for they were wearied because of their march, and the men of Lehi were fresh.

Alma 52:29

Now the Lamanites did not know that Moroni had been in their rear with his army, and all they feared was Lehi and his men.

Alma 52:30

Now Lehi was not desirous to overtake them till they should meet Moroni and his army.

Alma 52:31

And it came to pass that before the Lamanites had retreated far, they were surrounded by the Nephites, by the men of Moroni on one hand and the men of Lehi on the other, all of whom were fresh and full of strength; but the Lamanites were wearied because of their long march.

Alma 52:32

And Moroni commanded his men that they should fall upon them until they had given up their weapons of war.

Alma 52:33

And it came to pass that Jacob being their leader, being also a Zoramite and having an unconquerable spirit, he led the Lamanites forth to battle with exceeding fury against Moroni;

Alma 52:34

Moroni being in their course of march, therefore Jacob was determined to slay them and cut his way through to the city of Mulek. But behold, Moroni and his men were more powerful; therefore they did not give way before the Lamanites.

Alma 52:35

And it came to pass that they fought on both hands with exceeding fury, and there were many slain on both sides; yea, and Moroni was wounded and Jacob was killed.

Alma 52:36

And Lehi pressed upon their rear with such fury with his strong men that the Lamanites in the rear delivered up their weapons of war. And the remainder of them, being much confused, knew not whither to go or to strike.

Alma 52:37

Moroni seeing their confusion, he said unto them: If ye will bring forth your weapons of war and deliver them up, behold, we will forbear shedding your blood.

Alma 52:38

And it came to pass that when the Lamanites had heard these words, their chief captains—all those which were not slain—came forth and threw down their weapons of war at the feet of Moroni and also commanded their men that they should do the same.

Alma 52:39

But behold, there were many that would not. And those who would not deliver up their swords were taken and bound; and their weapons of war were taken from them; and they were compelled to march with their brethren forth into the land Bountiful.

Alma 52:40

And now the number of prisoners which were taken exceeded more than the number of those which had been slain, yea, more than those which had been slain on both sides.

Alma 53

Alma 53:1

And it came to pass that they did set guards over the prisoners of the Lamanites and did compel them to go forth and bury their dead, yea, and also the dead of the Nephites which were slain. And Moroni placed men over them to guard them whilst they should perform their labors.

Alma 53:2

And Moroni went to the city of Mulek with Lehi and took command of the city and gave it unto Lehi. Now behold, this Lehi was a man who had been with Moroni in the more part of all his battles; and he was a man like unto Moroni. And they rejoiced in each other's safety; yea, they were beloved by each other and also beloved by all the people of Nephi.

Alma 53:3

And it came to pass that after the Lamanites had finished burying their dead and also the dead of the Nephites, they were marched back into the land Bountiful. And Teancum by the orders of Moroni caused that they should commence in laboring, in digging a ditch round about the land, or the city Bountiful.

Alma 53:4

And he caused that they should build a breastwork of timbers upon the inner bank of the ditch; and they cast up dirt out of the ditch against the breastwork of timbers. And thus they did cause the Lamanites to labor until they had encircled the city of Bountiful round about with a strong wall of timbers and earth to an exceeding heighth.

Alma 53:5

And this city became an exceeding strong hold ever after. And in this city they did guard the prisoners of the Lamanites, yea, even within a wall which they had caused them to build with their own hands. Now Moroni was compelled to cause the Lamanites to labor because it were easy to guard them while at their labor; and he desired all his forces when he should make an attackt upon the Lamanites.

Alma 53:6

And it came to pass that Moroni had thus gained a victory over one of the greatest of the armies of the Lamanites and had obtained possession of the city Mulek, which was one of the strongest holds of the Lamanites in the land of the Nephites. And thus he had also built a strong hold to retain his prisoners.

Alma 53:7

And it came to pass that he did no more attempt a battle with the Lamanites in that year, but he did employ his men in preparing for war, yea, and in making fortifications to guard against the Lamanites, yea, and also delivering their women and their children from famine and affliction, and providing food for their armies.

Alma 53:8

And now it came to pass that the armies of the Lamanites on the west sea south, while in the absence of Moroni, on account of some intrigue amongst the Nephites, which caused dissensions amongst them, had gained some ground over the Nephites, yea, insomuch that they had obtained possession of a number of their cities in that part of the land.

Alma 53:9

And thus because of iniquity amongst themselves, yea, because of dissensions and intrigue among themselves, they were placed in the most dangerous circumstances.

Alma 53:10

And now behold, I have somewhat to say concerning the people of Ammon, which in the beginning were Lamanites; but by Ammon and his brethren—or rather by the power and word of God—they had been converted unto the Lord. And they had been brought down into the land of Zarahemla and had ever since been protected by the Nephites.

Alma 53:11

And because of their oath they had been kept from taking up arms against their brethren, for they had taken an oath that they never would shed blood more. And according to their oath they would have perished—yea, they would have suffered themselves to have fallen into the hands of their brethren—had it not been for the pity and the exceeding love which Ammon and his brethren had had for them.

Alma 53:12

And for this cause they were brought down into the land of Zarahemla, and they ever had been protected by the Nephites.

Alma 53:13

But it came to pass that when they saw the danger and the many afflictions and tribulations which the Nephites bare for them, they were moved with compassion and were desirous to take up arms in the defense of their country.

Alma 53:14

But behold, as they were about to take their weapons of war, they were overpowered by the persuasions of Helaman and his brethren. For they were about to break the oath which they had made, and Helaman feared lest by so doing they should lose their souls. Therefore all those which had entered into this covenant were compelled to behold their brethren wade through their afflictions in their dangerous circumstances at this time.

Alma 53:15

Alma 53:16

But behold, it came to pass they had many sons which had not entered into a covenant that they would not take their weapons of war to defend themselves against their enemies. Therefore they did assemble themselves together at this time, as many as were able to take up arms, and they called themselves Nephites.

Alma 53:17

And they entered into a covenant to fight for the liberty of the Nephites, yea, to protect the land, unto the laying down of their lives; yea, even they covenanted that they never would give up their liberty, but they would fight in all cases to protect the Nephites and themselves from bondage.

Alma 53:18

Now behold, there were two thousand of those young men which entered into this covenant and took their weapons of war to defend their country.

Alma 53:19

And now behold, as they never had hitherto been a disadvantage to the Nephites, they became now at this period of time also a great support; for they took their weapons of war, and they would that Helaman should be their leader.

Alma 53:20

And they were all young men, and they were exceeding valiant for courage and also for strength and activity. But behold, this was not all. They were men which were true at all times in whatsoever thing they were entrusted.

Alma 53:21

Yea, they were men of truth and soberness, for they had been taught to keep the commandments of God and to walk uprightly before him.

Alma 53:22

And now it came to pass that Helaman did march at the head of his two thousand stripling soldiers to the support of the people in the borders of the land on the south by the west sea.

Alma 53:23

And thus ended the twenty and eighth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi etc.

Alma 54

Alma 54:1

And now it came to pass in the commencement of the twenty and ninth year of the judges that Ammoron sent unto Moroni, desiring that he would exchange prisoners.

Alma 54:2

And it came to pass that Moroni felt to rejoice exceedingly at this request, for he desired the provisions which was imparted for the support of the Lamanite prisoners for the support of his own people; and he also desired his own people for the strengthening of his army.

Alma 54:3

Now the Lamanites had taken many women and children; and there was not a woman nor a child among all the prisoners of Moroni, or the prisoners which Moroni had taken. Therefore Moroni resolved upon a stratagem to obtain as many prisoners of the Nephites from the Lamanites as it were possible.

Alma 54:4

Therefore he wrote an epistle and sent it by the servant of Ammoron, the same who had brought an epistle to Moroni. Now these are the words which he wrote unto Ammoron, saying:

Alma 54:5

Behold, Ammoron, I have wrote unto you somewhat concerning this war which ye have waged against my people, or rather which thy brother hath waged against them, and which ye are still determined to carry on after his death.

Alma 54:6

Behold, I would tell you something concerning the justice of God and the sword of his almighty wrath, which doth hang over you except ye repent and withdraw your armies into your own lands, or the lands of your possessions, which is the land of Nephi.

Alma 54:7

Yea, I would tell you these things if ye were capable of hearkening unto them. Yea, I would tell you concerning that awful hell that awaits to receive such murderers as thou and thy brother hath been except ye repent and withdraw your murderous purposes and return with your armies to your own lands.

Alma 54:8

But as ye have once rejected these things and have fought against the people of the Lord, even so I may expect you will do it again.

Alma 54:9

And now behold, we are prepared to receive you; yea, and except you withdraw your purposes, behold, ye will pull down the wrath of that God whom you have rejected upon you, yea, even to your utter destruction.

Alma 54:10

But as the Lord liveth, our armies shall come upon you except ye withdraw, and ye shall soon be visited with death. For we will retain our cities and our lands, yea, and we will maintain our religion and the cause of our God.

Alma 54:11

But behold, it supposeth me that I talk to you concerning these things in vain, or it supposeth me that thou art a child of hell. Therefore I will close my epistle by telling you that I will not exchange prisoners save it be on conditions that ye will deliver up a man and his wife and his children for one prisoner. If this be the case that ye will do it, I will exchange.

Alma 54:12

And behold, if ye do not this, I will come against you with my armies, yea, even I will arm my women and my children; and I will come against you, and I will follow you even into your own land, which is the land of our first inheritance. Yea, and it shall be blood for blood, yea, life for life. And I will give you battle, even until you are destroyed from off the face of the earth.

Alma 54:13

Behold, I am in my anger—and also my people. Ye have sought to murder us, and we have only sought to defend our lives. But behold, if ye seek to destroy us more, we will seek to destroy you. Yea, and we will seek our lands, the lands of our first inheritance.

Alma 54:14

Now I close my epistle. I am Moroni; I am a leader of the people of the Nephites.

Alma 54:15

Now it came to pass that Ammoron, when he had received this epistle, he was angry, and he wrote another epistle unto Moroni. And these are the words which he wrote, saying:

Alma 54:16

I am Ammoron the king of the Lamanites. I am the brother of Amalickiah, whom ye have murdered. Behold, I will avenge his blood upon you. Yea, and I will come upon you with my armies, for I fear not your threatenings.

Alma 54:17

For behold, your fathers did wrong their brethren, insomuch that they did rob them of their right to the government when it rightfully belonged unto them.

Alma 54:18

And now behold, if ye will lay down your arms and subject yourselves to be governed by those to whom the government doth rightly belong, then will I cause that my people shall lay down their weapons and shall be at war no more.

Alma 54:19

Behold, ye have breathed out many threatenings against me and my people. But behold, we fear not your threatenings.

Alma 54:20

Nevertheless I will grant to exchange prisoners according to your request gladly, that I may preserve my food for my men of war. And we will wage a war which shall be eternal, either to the subjecting the Nephites to our authority or to their eternal extinction.

Alma 54:21

And as concerning that God whom ye say we have rejected, behold, we know not such a being, neither do ye. But if it so be that there is such a being, we know not but that he hath made us as well as you.

Alma 54:22

And if it so be that there is a devil and a hell, behold, will he not send you there to dwell with my brother, which ye have murdered, which ye have hinted that he hath gone to such a place? But behold, these things matter not.

Alma 54:23

I am Ammoron and a descendant of Zoram, whom your fathers pressed and brought out of Jerusalem.

Alma 54:24

And behold, I am now a bold Lamanite. Behold, this war hath been waged to avenge their wrongs and to maintain and to obtain their rights to the government. And I close my epistle to Moroni.

Alma 55

Alma 55:1

Now it came to pass that when Moroni had received this epistle, he was more angry because he knew that Ammoron had a perfect knowledge of his fraud. Yea, he knew that Ammoron knew that it was not a just cause that had caused him to wage a war against the people of Nephi.

Alma 55:2

And he said: Behold, I will not exchange prisoners with Ammoron save he will withdraw his purpose, as I have stated in my epistle, for I will not grant unto him that he shall have any more power than what he hath gat.

Alma 55:3

Behold, I know the place where the Lamanites doth guard my people which they have taken prisoners. And as Ammoron would not grant unto me mine epistle, behold, I will give unto him according to my words; yea, I will seek death among them until they shall sue for peace.

Alma 55:4

And now it came to pass that when Moroni had said these words, he caused that a search should be made among his men that perhaps he might find a man which was a descendant of Laman's among them.

Alma 55:5

And it came to pass that they found one, whose name was Laman, and he was one of the servants of the king which was murdered by Amalickiah.

Alma 55:6

Now Moroni caused that Laman and a small number of his men should go forth unto the guards which were over the Nephites.

Alma 55:7

Now the Nephites were guarded in the city of Gid; therefore Moroni caused that Laman and a small number of men which was appointed to go with him should go to the city of Gid.

Alma 55:8

And it came to pass that when it was evening, Laman went to the guards which were over the Nephites. And behold, they saw him a coming and they hailed him, but he saith unto them: Fear not! Behold, I am a Lamanite. Behold, we have escaped from the Nephites and they sleepeth. And behold, we have took of their wine and brought with us.

Alma 55:9

Now when the Lamanites heard these words, they received him with joy. And they said unto him: Give us of your wine that we may drink. We are glad that ye have thus taken wine with you, for we are weary.

Alma 55:10

But Laman saith unto them: Let us keep of our wine till we go against the Nephites to battle. But this saying only made them more desirous to drink of the wine.

Alma 55:11

For, said they, we are weary; therefore let us take of the wine. And by and by we shall receive wine for our rations, which will strengthen us to go against the Nephites.

Alma 55:12

And Laman saith unto them: You may do according to your desires.

Alma 55:13

And it came to pass that they did take of the wine freely, and it was pleasant to their taste; therefore they took of it more freely. And it was strong, having been prepared in its strength.

Alma 55:14

And it came to pass they did drink and were merry, and by and by they were all drunken.

Alma 55:15

And now when Laman and his men saw that they were all drunken and were in a deep sleep, they returned to Moroni and told him all the things that had happened.

Alma 55:16

And now this was according to the design of Moroni. And Moroni had prepared his men with weapons of war; and he went to the city Gid while the Lamanites were in a deep sleep and drunken, and cast in the weapons of war in unto the prisoners, insomuch that they were all armed, yea, even to their women and all those of their children, as many as were able to use a weapon of war. When Moroni had armed all those prisoners—and all those things were done in a profound silence; but had they awoke the Lamanites—behold, they were drunken—and the Nephites could have slain them;

Alma 55:17

Alma 55:18

Alma 55:19

but behold, this was not the desire of Moroni; he did not delight in murder or bloodshed, but he delighted in the saving his people from destruction; and for this cause that he might not bring upon him injustice, he would not fall upon the Lamanites and destroy them in their drunkenness;

Alma 55:20

but he had obtained his desire, for he had armed those prisoners of the Nephites which were within the walls of the city and had gave them power to gain possession of those parts which were within the walls—and then he caused his men which were with him to withdraw a pace from them and surround the armies of the Lamanites.

Alma 55:21

Alma 55:22

Now behold, this was done in the nighttime, so that when the Lamanites awoke in the morning, they beheld that they were surrounded by the Nephites without and that their prisoners were armed within.

Alma 55:23

And thus they saw that the Nephites had power over them. And in these circumstances they found that it were not expedient that they should fight with the Nephites. Therefore their chief captains demanded their weapons of war; and they brought them forth and cast them at the feet of the Nephites, pleading for mercy.

Alma 55:24

Now behold, this was the desire of Moroni. He took them prisoners of war and took possession of the city and caused that all the prisoners should be liberated, which were Nephites. And they did join the army of Moroni and were a great strength to his army.

Alma 55:25

And it came to pass that he did cause the Lamanites which he had taken prisoners that they should commence a labor in strengthening the fortifications round about the city Gid.

Alma 55:26

And it came to pass that when he had fortified the city Gid according to his desires, he caused that his prisoners should be taken to the city Bountiful. And he also guarded that city with an exceeding strong force.

Alma 55:27

And it came to pass that they did, notwithstanding all the intrigues of the Lamanites, keep and protect all the prisoners which they had taken and also maintain all the ground and the advantage which they had retaken.

Alma 55:28

And it came to pass that the Nephites began again to be victorious and to reclaim their rights and their privileges.

Alma 55:29

Many times did the Lamanites attempt to encircle them about by night, but in these attempts they did lose many prisoners.

Alma 55:30

And many times did they attempt to administer of their wine to the Nephites, that they might destroy them with poison or with drunkenness.

Alma 55:31

But behold, the Nephites were not slow to remember the Lord their God in this their times of affliction. They could not be taken in their snares. Yea, they would not take of their wine; yea, they would not take of wine save they had firstly given to some of the Lamanite prisoners.

Alma 55:32

And they were thus cautious that no poison should be administered among them. For if their wine would poison a Lamanite, it would also poison a Nephite. And thus they did try all their liquors.

Alma 55:33

And now it came to pass that it was expedient for Moroni to make preparations to attack the city Morionton. For behold, the Lamanites had by their labors fortified the city Morionton until it had become an exceeding strong hold.

Alma 55:34

And they were continually bringing new forces into that city, and also new supplies of provisions.

Alma 55:35

And thus ended the twenty and ninth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi.

Alma 56

Alma 56:1

And now it came to pass in the commencement of the thirtieth year of the reign of the judges in the second day on the first month Moroni received an epistle from Helaman stating the affairs of the people in that quarter of the land.

Alma 56:2

And these are the words which he wrote, saying: My dearly beloved brother Moroni, as well in the Lord as in the tribulations of our warfare, behold, my beloved brother, I have somewhat to tell you concerning our warfare in this part of the land.

Alma 56:3

Behold, two thousand of the sons of those men which Ammon brought down out of the land of Nephi— now ye have known that these were a descendant of Laman, which was the eldest son of our father Lehi—

Alma 56:4

now I need not rehearse unto you concerning their traditions or their unbelief, for thou knowest concerning all these things—

Alma 56:5

therefore it sufficeth me that I tell you that two thousand of these young men hath taken their weapons of war and would that I should be their leader; and we have come forth to defend our country.

Alma 56:6

And now ye also know concerning the covenant which their fathers made, that they would not take up their weapons of war against their brethren to shed blood.

Alma 56:7

But in the twenty and sixth year, when they saw our afflictions and our tribulations for them, they were about to break the covenant which they had made and take up their weapons of war in our defense.

Alma 56:8

But I would not suffer them that they should break this covenant which they had made, supposing that God would strengthen us, insomuch that we should not suffer more because of the fulfilling the oath which they had taken.

Alma 56:9

But behold, here is one thing in which we may have great joy. For behold, in the twenty and sixth year I Helaman did march at the head of these two thousand young men to the city of Judea to assist Antipus, whom ye had appointed a leader over the people of that part of the land.

Alma 56:10

And I did join my two thousand sons—for they are worthy to be called sons—to the army of Antipus, in the which strength Antipus did rejoice exceedingly. For behold, his army had been reduced by the Lamanites because of the enormity of their forces, having slain a vast number of our men, for which cause we have to mourn.

Alma 56:11

Nevertheless we may console ourselves in this point, that they have died in the cause of their country and of their God; yea, and they are happy.

Alma 56:12

And the Lamanites had also retained many prisoners, all of whom are chief captains, for none other have they spared alive. And we suppose that they are now at this time in the land of Nephi; it is so if they are not slain.

Alma 56:13

And now these are the cities which the Lamanites have obtained possession of by the shedding the blood of so many of our valiant men:

Alma 56:14

the land of Manti, or the city of Manti, and the city of Zeezrom and the city of Cumeni and the city of Antiparah.

Alma 56:15

And these are the cities which they possessed when I arrived at the city of Judea. And I found Antipus and his men toiling with their mights to fortify the city.

Alma 56:16

Yea, and they were depressed in body as well as in spirit, for they had fought valiantly by day and toiled by night to maintain their cities. And thus they had suffered great afflictions of every kind.

Alma 56:17

And now they were determined to conquer in this place or die. Therefore you may well suppose that the little force which I brought with me—yea, those sons of mine—gave them great hopes and much joy.

Alma 56:18

And now it came to pass that when the Lamanites saw that Antipus had received a greater strength to his army, they were compelled by the orders of Ammoron to not come against the city of Judea or against us to battle.

Alma 56:19

And thus were we favored of the Lord. For had they come upon us in this our weakness, they might have perhaps destroyed our little army; but thus were we favored.

Alma 56:20

They were commanded by Ammoron to maintain those cities which they had taken. And thus ended the twenty and sixth year. And in the commencement of the twenty and seventh year we had prepared our city and ourselves for defense.

Alma 56:21

Now we were desirous that the Lamanites should come upon us, for we were not desirous to make an attackt upon them in their strong holds.

Alma 56:22

And it came to pass that we kept spies out round about to watch the movements of the Lamanites, that they might not pass us by night or by day to make an attackt upon our other cities, which were on the northward.

Alma 56:23

For we knew in those cities they were not sufficiently strong to meet them. Therefore we were desirous, if they should pass by us, to fall upon them in their rear; and thus bringing them up in the rear at the same time they were met in the front, we supposed that we could overpower them. But behold, we were disappointed in this our desire.

Alma 56:24

They durst not pass by us with their whole army, neither durst they with a part, lest they should not be sufficiently strong and they should fall.

Alma 56:25

Neither durst they march down against the city of Zarahemla, neither durst they cross the head of Sidon over to the city of Nephihah.

Alma 56:26

And thus with their forces they were determined to maintain those cities which they had taken.

Alma 56:27

And now it came to pass in the second month of this year there was brought unto us many provisions from the fathers of those my two thousand sons.

Alma 56:28

And also there was sent two thousand men unto us from the land of Zarahemla. And thus we were prepared with ten thousand men and provisions for them, and also for their wives and their children.

Alma 56:29

And the Lamanites thus seeing our forces increase daily and provisions arrive for our support, they began to be fearful and began to sally forth, if it were possible, to put an end to our receiving provisions and strength.

Alma 56:30

Now when we saw that the Lamanites began to grow uneasy on this wise, we were desirous to bring a stratagem into an effect upon them. Therefore Antipus ordered that I should march forth with my little sons to a neighboring city as if we were carrying provisions to a neighboring city.

Alma 56:31

And we were to march near the city Antiparah as if we were going to the city beyond on the borders by the seashore.

Alma 56:32

And it came to pass that we did march forth as if with our provisions to go to that city.

Alma 56:33

And it came to pass that Antipus did march forth with a part of his army, leaving the remainder to maintain the city. But he did not march forth until I had gone forth with my little army and came near the city Antiparah.

Alma 56:34

And now in the city Antiparah were stationed the strongest army of the Lamanites, yea, the most numerous.

Alma 56:35

And it came to pass that when they had been informed by their spies, they came forth with their army and marched against us.

Alma 56:36

And it came to pass that we did flee before them northward. And thus we did lead away the most powerful army of the Lamanites, yea, even to a considerable distance, insomuch that when they saw the army of Antipus pursuing them with their mights, they did not turn to the right nor to the left but pursued their march in a straight course after us, and as we supposed that it was their intent to slay us before Antipus should overtake them— and this that they might not be surrounded by our people.

Alma 56:38

And now Antipus beholding our danger did speed the march of his army. But behold, it was night; therefore they did not overtake us, neither did Antipus overtake them. Therefore we did camp for the night.

Alma 56:39

And it came to pass that before the dawn of the morning, behold, the Lamanites were pursuing us. Now we were not sufficiently strong to contend with them; yea, I would not suffer that my little sons should fall into their hands. Therefore we did continue our march; and we took our march into the wilderness.

Alma 56:40

Now they durst not turn to the right nor to the left lest they should be surrounded, neither would I turn to the right or to the left lest they should overtake me. And we could not stand against them but be slain and they would make their escape. And thus we did flee all that day into the wilderness, even until it was dark.

Alma 56:41

And it came to pass that again when the light of the morning came, we saw the Lamanites upon us; and we did flee before them.

Alma 56:42

But it came to pass that they did not pursue us far before they halted. And it was in the morning of the third day on the seventh month.

Alma 56:43

And now whether they were overtaken by Antipus, we knew not. But I said unto my men: Behold, we know not but they have halted for the purpose that we should come against them, that they may catch us in their snare.

Alma 56:44

Therefore what say ye, my sons? Will ye go against them to battle?

Alma 56:45

And now I say unto you, my beloved brother Moroni, that never had I seen so great courage, nay, not amongst all the Nephites.

Alma 56:46

For as I had ever called them my sons—for they were all of them very young—even so they said unto me: Father, behold, our God is with us, and he will not suffer that we shall fall; then let us go forth. We would not slay our brethren if they would let us alone. Therefore let us go lest they should overpower the army of Antipus.

Alma 56:47

Now they never had fought, yet they did not fear death. And they did think more upon the liberty of their fathers than they did upon their lives. Yea, they had been taught by their mothers that if they did not doubt that God would deliver them.

Alma 56:48

And they rehearsed unto me the words of their mothers, saying: We do not doubt; our mothers knew.

Alma 56:49

And it came to pass that I did return with my two thousand against these Lamanites which had pursued us. And now behold, the armies of Antipus had overtaken them, and a terrible battle had commenced.

Alma 56:50

The army of Antipus being weary because of their long march in so short a space of time were about to fall into the hands of the Lamanites. And had I not returned with my two thousand, they would have obtained their purpose.

Alma 56:51

For Antipus had fallen by the sword, and many of his leaders, because of their weariness which was occasioned by the speed of their march. Therefore the men of Antipus being confused because of the fall of their leaders began to give way before the Lamanites.

Alma 56:52

And it came to pass that the Lamanites took courage and began to pursue them. And thus were the Lamanites pursuing them with great vigor when Helaman came upon their rear with his two thousand and began to slay them exceedingly, insomuch that the whole army of the Lamanites halted and turned upon Helaman.

Alma 56:53

Now when the people of Antipus saw that the Lamanites had turned them about, they gathered together their men and came again upon the rear of the Lamanites.

Alma 56:54

And now it came to pass that we the people of Nephi —the people of Antipus and I with my two thousand— did surround the Lamanites and did slay them, yea, insomuch that they were compelled to deliver up their weapons of war and also themselves as prisoners of war.

Alma 56:55

And now it came to pass that when they had surrendered themselves up unto us, behold, I numbered those young men which had fought with me, fearing lest there were many of them slain.

Alma 56:56

But behold, to my great joy there had not one soul of them fallen to the earth. Yea, and they had fought as if with the strength of God; yea, never was men known to have fought with such miraculous strength. And with such mighty power did they fall upon the Lamanites that they did frighten them; and for this cause did the Lamanites deliver themselves up as prisoners of war.

Alma 56:57

And as we had no place for our prisoners, that we could guard them to keep them from the armies of the Lamanites, therefore we sent them to the land of Zarahemla, and a part of those men which were not slain of Antipus with them. And the remainder I took and joined them to my stripling Ammonites and took our march back to the city of Judea.

Alma 57

Alma 57:1

And now it came to pass that I received an epistle from Ammoron the king stating that if I would deliver up those prisoners of war which we had taken that he would deliver up the city of Antiparah unto us.

Alma 57:2

But I sent an epistle unto the king that we were sure that our forces were sufficient to take the city of Antiparah by our force, and by delivering up the prisoners for that city we should suppose ourselves unwise, and that we would only deliver up our prisoners on exchange.

Alma 57:3

And as Ammoron refused mine epistle—for he would not exchange prisoners—therefore we began to make preparations to go against the city of Antiparah.

Alma 57:4

But the people of Antiparah did leave the city and fled to their other cities which they had possession of, to fortify them. And thus the city of Antiparah fell into our hands.

Alma 57:5

And thus ended the twenty and eighth year of the reign of the judges.

Alma 57:6

And it came to pass that in the commencement of the twenty and ninth year we received a supply of provisions and also an addition to our army from the land of Zarahemla and from the land round about to the number of six thousand men, besides sixty of the sons of the Ammonites which had come to join their brethren, my little band of two thousand. And now behold, we were strong; yea, and we had also a plenty of provisions brought unto us.

Alma 57:7

And it came to pass that it was our desire to wage a battle with the army which was placed to protect the city Cumeni.

Alma 57:8

And now behold, I will shew unto you that we soon accomplished our desire. Yea, with our strong force—or with a part of our strong force—we did surround by night the city Cumeni a little before they were to receive a supply of provisions.

Alma 57:9

And it came to pass that we did camp round about the city for many nights, but we did sleep upon our swords and keep guards that the Lamanites could not come upon us by night and slay us, which they attempted many times. But as many times as they attempted this, their blood was spilt.

Alma 57:10

At length their provisions did arrive, and they were about to enter the city by night. And we, instead of being Lamanites, were Nephites; therefore we did take them and their provisions.

Alma 57:11

And notwithstanding the Lamanites being cut off from their support after this manner, they were still determined to maintain the city. Therefore it became expedient that we should take those provisions and send them to Judea and our prisoners to the land of Zarahemla.

Alma 57:12

And it came to pass that not many days had passed away before the Lamanites began to lose all hopes of succor; therefore they yielded up the city into our hands. And thus we had accomplished our designs in obtaining the city Cumeni.

Alma 57:13

But it came to pass that our prisoners were so numerous that notwithstanding the enormity of our number, we were obliged to employ all our force to keep them or put them to death.

Alma 57:14

For behold, they would break out in great numbers and would fight with stones and with clubs, or whatsoever thing they could get into their hands, insomuch that we did slay upwards of two thousand of them after they had surrendered themselves prisoners of war.

Alma 57:15

Therefore it became expedient for us that we should put an end to their lives or guard them sword in hand down to the land of Zarahemla. And also our provisions were not any more than sufficient for our own people, notwithstanding that which we had taken from the Lamanites.

Alma 57:16

And now in those critical circumstances it became a very serious matter to determine concerning those prisoners of war. Nevertheless we did resolve to send them down to the land of Zarahemla. Therefore we selected a part of our men and gave them charge over our prisoners to go down to the land of Zarahemla.

Alma 57:17

But it came to pass that on the morrow they did return. And now behold, we did not inquire of them concerning the prisoners; for behold, the Lamanites were upon us, and they returned in season to save us from falling into their hands. For behold, Ammoron had sent to their support a new supply of provision and also a numerous army of men.

Alma 57:18

And it came to pass that those men which we sent with the prisoners did arrive in season to check them as they were about to overpower us.

Alma 57:19

But behold, my little band of two thousand and sixty fought most desperately. Yea, they were firm before the Lamanites and did administer death unto all those who opposed them.

Alma 57:20

And as the remainder of our army were about to give way before the Lamanites, behold, these two thousand and sixty were firm and undaunted.

Alma 57:21

Yea, and they did obey and observe to perform every word of command with exactness. Yea, and even according to their faith it was done unto them. And I did remember the words which they said unto me that their mothers had taught them.

Alma 57:22

And now behold, it was these my sons and those men which had been selected to convey the prisoners to whom we owe this great victory, for it was they who did beat the Lamanites. Therefore they were driven back to the city of Manti.

Alma 57:23

And we retained our city Cumeni and were not all destroyed by the sword; nevertheless we had suffered great loss.

Alma 57:24

And it came to pass that after the Lamanites had fled, I immediately gave orders that my men which had been wounded should be taken from among the dead and caused that their wounds should be dressed.

Alma 57:25

And it came to pass that there were two hundred out of my two thousand and sixty which had fainted because of the loss of blood. Nevertheless, according to the goodness of God and to our great astonishment and also the joy of our whole army, there was not one soul of them which did perish. Yea, and neither was there one soul among them which had not received many wounds.

Alma 57:26

And now their preservation was astonishing to our whole army, yea, that they should be spared, while there was a thousand of our brethren which were slain. And we do justly ascribe it to the miraculous power of God because of their exceeding faith in that which they had been taught to believe, that there was a just God, and whosoever did not doubt, that they should be preserved by his marvelous power.

Alma 57:27

Now this was the faith of these of which I have spoken. They are young and their minds are firm; and they do put their trust in God continually.

Alma 57:28

And now it came to pass that after we had thus taken care of our wounded men and had buried our dead and also the dead of the Lamanites, which were many, behold, we did inquire of Gid concerning the prisoners which they had started to go down to the land of Zarahemla with.

Alma 57:29

Now Gid was the chief captain over the band which was appointed to guard them down to that land.

Alma 57:30

And now these are the words which Gid said unto me: Behold, we did start to go down to the land of Zarahemla with our prisoners. And it came to pass that we did meet the spies of our armies, which had been sent out to watch the camp of the Lamanites.

Alma 57:31

And they cried unto us, saying: Behold, the armies of the Lamanites are a marching towards the city of Cumeni. And behold, they will fall upon them, yea, and will destroy our people.

Alma 57:32

And it came to pass that our prisoners did hear their cries, which caused them to take courage, and they did raise up in rebellion against us.

Alma 57:33

And it came to pass because of their rebellion we did cause that our swords should come upon them. And it came to pass that they did in a body run upon our swords, in the which the greater number of them were slain. And the remainder of them brake through and fled from us.

Alma 57:34

And behold, when they had fled and we could not overtake them, we took our march with speed towards the city Cumeni. And behold, we did arrive in time that we might assist our brethren in preserving the city.

Alma 57:35

And behold, we are again delivered out of the hands of our enemies. And blessed is the name of our God; for behold, it is he that hath delivered us, yea, that hath done this great thing for us.

Alma 57:36

Now it came to pass that when I Helaman had heard these words of Gid, I was filled with exceeding joy because of the goodness of God in preserving us, that we might not all perish. Yea, and I trust that the souls of them which has been slain have entered into the rest of their God.

Alma 58

Alma 58:1

And behold, now it came to pass that our next object was to obtain the city of Manti. But behold, there was no way that we could lead them out of the city by our small bands. For behold, they remembered that which we had hitherto done. Therefore we could not decoy them away from their strong holds.

Alma 58:2

And they were so exceeding more numerous than was our army that we durst not go forth and attackt them in their strong holds.

Alma 58:3

Yea, and it became expedient that we should employ our men to the maintaining those parts of the land of the which we had retained of our possessions. Therefore it became expedient that we should wait, that we might receive more strength from the land of Zarahemla and also a new supply of provisions.

Alma 58:4

And it came to pass that I thus did send an embassy to the great governor of our land to acquaint him concerning the affairs of our people. And it came to pass that we did wait to receive provisions and strength from the land of Zarahemla.

Alma 58:5

But behold, this did not profit us but little, for the Lamanites were also receiving great strength from day to day and also many provisions. And thus were our circumstances at this period of time.

Alma 58:6

And the Lamanites were sallying forth against us from time to time, resolving by stratagem to destroy us. Nevertheless we could not come to battle with them because of their retreats and their strong holds.

Alma 58:7

And it came to pass that we did wait in these difficult circumstances for the space of many months, even until we were about to perish for the want of food.

Alma 58:8

But it came to pass that we did receive food which was guarded to us with an army of two thousand men to our assistance. And this is all the assistance which we did receive to defend ourselves and our country from falling into the hands of our enemies, yea, to contend with an enemy which was innumerable.

Alma 58:9

And now the cause of these our embarrassments, or the cause why they did not send more strength unto us, we knew not. Therefore we were grieved and also filled with fear, lest by any means the judgments of God should come upon our land, to our overthrow and utter destruction.

Alma 58:10

Therefore we did pour out our souls in prayer to God that he would strengthen us and deliver us out of the hands of our enemies, yea, and also give us strength, that we might retain our cities and our lands and our possessions for the support of our people.

Alma 58:11

Yea, and it came to pass that the Lord our God did visit us with assurances that he would deliver us, yea, insomuch that he did speak peace to our souls and did grant unto us great faith and did cause us that we should hope for our deliverance in him.

Alma 58:12

And we did take courage with our small force which we had received and were fixed with a determination to conquer our enemies and to maintain our lands and our possessions and our wives and our children and the cause of our liberty.

Alma 58:13

And thus we did go forth with all our might against the Lamanites which were in the city of Manti. And we did pitch our tents by the wilderness side, which was near to the city.

Alma 58:14

And it came to pass on the morrow that when the Lamanites saw that we were in the borders by the wilderness which was near the city that they sent out their spies round about us that they might discover the number and the strength of our army.

Alma 58:15

And it came to pass that when they saw that we were not strong according to our numbers, and fearing that we should cut them off from their support except they should come out to battle against us and kill us, and also supposing that they could easily destroy us with their numerous hosts, therefore they began to make preparations to come out against us to battle.

Alma 58:16

And when we saw that they were making preparations to come out against us, behold, I caused that Gid with a small number of men should secrete himself in the wilderness and also that Teomner should with a small number of men secrete himself also in the wilderness.

Alma 58:17

Now Gid and his men was on the right and the other on the left. And when they had thus secreted themselves, behold, I remained with the remainder of my army in that same place where we had first pitched our tents, against the time that the Lamanites should come out to battle.

Alma 58:18

And it came to pass that the Lamanites did come out with their numerous army against us. And when they had come and were about to fall upon us with the sword, I caused that my men—those which were with me—should retreat into the wilderness.

Alma 58:19

And it came to pass that the Lamanites did follow after us with great speed, for they were exceedingly desirous to overtake us that they might slay us. Therefore they did follow us into the wilderness. And we did pass by in the midst of Gid and Teomner, insomuch that they were not discovered by the Lamanites.

Alma 58:20

And it came to pass that when the Lamanites had passed by, or when the army had passed by, Gid and Teomner did rise up from their secret places and did cut off the spies of the Lamanites, that they should not return to the city.

Alma 58:21

And it came to pass that when they had cut them off, they ran to the city and fell upon the guards which were left to guard the city, insomuch that they did destroy them and did take possession of the city.

Alma 58:22

Now this was done because the Lamanites did suffer their whole army, save a few guards only, to be led away into the wilderness.

Alma 58:23

And it came to pass that Gid and Teomner by this means had obtained possession of their strong hold. And it came to pass that we took our course, after having traveled much in the wilderness, towards the land of Zarahemla.

Alma 58:24

And when the Lamanites saw that they were marching towards the land of Zarahemla, they were exceeding afraid lest there was a plan laid to lead them on to destruction. Therefore they began to retreat into the wilderness again, yea, even back by the same way which they had come.

Alma 58:25

And behold, it was night and they did pitch their tents. For the chief captains of the Lamanites had supposed that the Nephites were weary because of their march; and supposing that they had driven their whole army, therefore they took no thought concerning the city of Manti.

Alma 58:26

Now it came to pass that when it was night that I caused that my men should not sleep but that they should march forward by another way towards the land of Manti.

Alma 58:27

And because of this our march in the nighttime, behold, on the morrow we were beyond the Lamanites, insomuch that we did arrive before them to the city of Manti.

Alma 58:28

And thus it came to pass that by this stratagem we did take possession of the city of Manti without the shedding of blood.

Alma 58:29

And it came to pass that when the armies of the Lamanites did arrive near the city and saw that we were prepared to meet them, they were astonished exceedingly and struck with great fear, insomuch that they did flee into the wilderness.

Alma 58:30

Yea, and it came to pass that the armies of the Lamanites did flee out of all this quarter of the land. But behold, they have carried with them many women and children out of the land.

Alma 58:31

And those cities which had been taken by the Lamanites, all of them are at this period of time in our possession. And our fathers and our women and our children are returning to their homes, all save it be those which have been taken prisoners and carried off by the Lamanites.

Alma 58:32

But behold, our armies are small to maintain so great a number of cities and so great possessions.

Alma 58:33

But behold, we trust that it is our God who hath given us victory over those lands, insomuch that we have obtained those cities and those lands which were our own.

Alma 58:34

Now we do not know the cause that the government does not grant us more strength, neither does those men which came up unto us know why we have not received greater strength.

Alma 58:35

Behold, we do not know but what ye are unsuccessful and ye have drawn away the forces into that quarter of the land. If so, we do not desire to murmur.

Alma 58:36

And if it is not so, behold, we fear that there is some faction in the government, that they do not send more men to our assistance. For we know that they are more numerous than that which they have sent.

Alma 58:37

But behold, it mattereth not. We trust God will deliver us, notwithstanding the weakness of our armies, yea, and deliver us out of the hands of our enemies.

Alma 58:38

Behold, this is the twenty and ninth year, in the latter end, and we are in the possession of our lands and the Lamanites have fled to the land of Nephi.

Alma 58:39

And those sons of the people of Ammon, of which I have so highly spoken, are with me in the city of Manti. And the Lord hath supported them, yea, and kept them from falling by the sword, insomuch that even one soul hath not been slain.

Alma 58:40

But behold, they have received many wounds. Nevertheless they stand fast in that liberty wherewith God hath made them free. And they are strict to remember the Lord their God from day to day. Yea, they do observe to keep his statutes and his judgments and his commandments continually. And their faith is strong in the prophecies concerning that which is to come.

Alma 58:41

And now my beloved brother Moroni, that the Lord our God, who hath redeemed us and made us free, may keep you continually in his presence, yea, and that he may favor this people, even that ye may have success in obtaining the possession of all that which the Lamanites hath taken from us, which was for our support. And now behold, I close mine epistle. I am Helaman the son of Alma.

Alma 59

Alma 59:1

Now it came to pass in the thirtieth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi, after Moroni had received and had read Helaman's epistle, he was exceedingly rejoiced because of the welfare, yea, the exceeding success which Helaman had had in obtaining those lands which were lost.

Alma 59:2

Yea, and he did make it known unto all his people in all the land round about in that part where he was, that they might rejoice also.

Alma 59:3

And it came to pass that he immediately sent an epistle to Parhoron, desiring that he should cause men to be gathered together to strengthen Helaman, or the armies of Helaman, insomuch that he might with ease maintain that part of the land which he had been so miraculously prospered in retaining.

Alma 59:4

And it came to pass when Moroni had sent this epistle to the land of Zarahemla, he began again to lay a plan that he might obtain the remainder of those possessions and cities which the Lamanites had taken from them.

Alma 59:5

And it came to pass that while Moroni was thus making preparations to go against the Lamanites to battle, behold, the people of Nephihah, which were gathered together from the city of Moroni and the city of Lehi and the city of Morionton, were attacked by the Lamanites; yea, even those which had been compelled to flee from the land of Manti and from the land round about had come over and joined the Lamanites in this part of the land.

Alma 59:6

Alma 59:7

And thus being exceeding numerous, yea, and receiving strength from day to day by the command of Ammoron, they came forth against the people of Nephihah; and they did begin to slay them with an exceeding great slaughter.

Alma 59:8

And their armies were so numerous that the remainder of the people of Nephihah were obliged to flee before them; and they came over and joined the army of Moroni.

Alma 59:9

And now as Moroni had supposed that there should be men sent to the city of Nephihah to the assistance of the people to maintain that city—and knowing that it was easier to keep the city from falling into the hands of the Lamanites, he supposed that they would easily maintain that city—therefore he retained all his force to maintain those places which he had recovered.

Alma 59:10

Alma 59:11

And now when Moroni saw that the city of Nephihah was lost, he was exceeding sorrowful and began to doubt because of the wickedness of the people whether they should not fall into the hands of their brethren.

Alma 59:12

Now this was the case with all his chief captains. They doubted and marveled also because of the wickedness of the people—and this because of the success of the Lamanites over them.

Alma 59:13

And it came to pass that Moroni was angry with the government because of their indifference concerning the freedom of their country.

Alma 60

Alma 60:1

And it came to pass that he wrote again to the governor of the land, which was Parhoron. And these are the words which he wrote, saying: Behold, I direct mine epistle to Parhoron in the city of Zarahemla, which is the chief judge and the governor over the land, and also to all those who hath been chosen by this people to govern and manage the affairs of this war.

Alma 60:2

For behold, I have somewhat to say unto them by the way of condemnation. For behold, ye yourselves know that ye have been appointed to gather together men and arm them with swords and with scimitars and all manner of weapons of war of every kind and send forth against the Lamanites in whatsoever parts they should come into our land.

Alma 60:3

And now behold, I say unto you that myself and also my men, and also Helaman and his men, have suffered exceeding great sufferings, yea, even hunger, thirst, and fatigue, and all manner of afflictions of every kind.

Alma 60:4

But behold, were this all we had suffered, we would not murmur nor complain.

Alma 60:5

But behold, great has been the slaughter among our people—yea, thousands have fallen by the sword—while it might have otherwise been if ye had rendered unto our armies sufficient strength and succor for them. Yea, great has been your neglect towards us.

Alma 60:6

And now behold, we desire to know the cause of this exceeding great neglect. Yea, we desire to know the cause of your thoughtless state.

Alma 60:7

Can you think to sit upon your thrones in a state of thoughtless stupor while your enemies are spreading the work of death around you, yea, while they are murdering thousands of your brethren—yea, even they which have looked up to you for protection, yea, have placed you in a situation that ye might have succored them? Yea, ye might have sent armies unto them to have strengthened them and have saved thousands of them from falling by the sword.

Alma 60:8

Alma 60:9

But behold, this is not all. Ye have withheld your provisions from them, insomuch that many have fought and bled out their lives because of their great desires which they had for the welfare of this people. Yea, and this they have done when they were about to perish with hunger because of your exceeding great neglect towards them.

Alma 60:10

And now my beloved brethren—for ye had ought to be beloved— yea, and ye had ought to have stirred yourselves more diligently for the welfare and the freedom of this people. But behold, ye have neglected them, insomuch that the blood of thousands shall come upon your heads for vengeance. Yea, for known unto God were all their cries and all their sufferings.

Alma 60:11

Behold, could ye suppose that ye could sit upon your thrones, and because of the exceeding goodness of God ye could do nothing and he would deliver you? Behold, if ye have supposed this, ye have supposed in vain.

Alma 60:12

Do ye suppose that because so many of your brethren have been killed, it is because of their wickedness? I say unto you: If ye have supposed this, ye have supposed in vain. For I say unto you: There are many which have fallen by the sword; and behold, it is to your condemnation.

Alma 60:13

For the Lord suffereth the righteous to be slain that his justice and judgment may come upon the wicked. Therefore ye need not suppose that the righteous are lost because they are slain; but behold, they do enter into the rest of the Lord their God.

Alma 60:14

And now behold, I say unto you: I fear exceedingly that the judgments of God will come upon this people because of their exceeding slothfulness, yea, even the slothfulness of our government and their exceeding great neglect towards their brethren, yea, towards those which have been slain.

Alma 60:15

For were it not for the wickedness which first commenced at our head, we could have withstood our enemies, that they could have gained no power over us.

Alma 60:16

Yea, had it not been for the war which broke out among ourselves —yea, were it not for those kingmen which caused so much bloodshed among ourselves; yea, at the time we were contending among ourselves, if we had united our strength as we hitherto have done; yea, had it not been for the desire of power and authority which those kingmen had over us, had they been true to the cause of our freedom and united with us and gone forth against our enemies instead of taking up their swords against us, which was the cause of so much bloodshed among ourselves— yea, if we had gone forth against them in the strength of the Lord, we should have dispersed our enemies, for it would have been done according to the fulfilling of his word.

Alma 60:17

But behold, now the Lamanites are coming upon us; and they are murdering our people with the sword, yea, our women and our children —taking possession of our lands— and also carrying them away captive, causing them that they should suffer all manner of afflictions— and this because of the great wickedness of those who are seeking for power and authority, yea, even those kingmen.

Alma 60:18

But why should I say much concerning this matter? For we know not but what ye yourselves are a seeking for authority. We know not but what ye are also traitors to your country.

Alma 60:19

Or is it that ye have neglected us because ye are in the heart of our country and ye are surrounded by security, that ye do not cause food to be sent unto us and also men to strengthen our armies?

Alma 60:20

Have ye forgot the commandments of the Lord your God? Yea, have ye forgot the captivity of our fathers? Have ye forgot the many times we have been delivered out of the hands of our enemies?

Alma 60:21

Or do ye suppose that the Lord will still deliver us while we sit upon our thrones and do not make use of the means which the Lord hath provided for us?

Alma 60:22

Yea, will ye sit in idleness while ye are surrounded with thousands of those —yea, and tens of thousands—which do also sit in idleness while there are thousands round about in the borders of the land which are falling by the sword, yea, wounded and bleeding?

Alma 60:23

Do ye suppose that God will look upon you as guiltless while ye sit still and behold these things? Behold, I say unto you: Nay. Now I would that ye should remember that God hath said that the inward vessel shall be cleansed first, and then shall the outer vessel be cleansed also.

Alma 60:24

And now except ye do repent of that which ye have done and begin to be up and doing and send forth food and men unto us and also unto Helaman, that he may support those parts of our country which he hath retained, and that we may also recover the remainder of our possessions in these parts, behold, it will be expedient that we contend no more with the Lamanites until we have first cleansed our inward vessel, yea, even the great head of our government.

Alma 60:25

And except ye grant mine epistle and come out and shew unto me a true spirit of freedom and strive to strengthen and fortify our armies and grant unto them food for their support, behold, I will leave a part of my freemen to maintain this part of our land. And I will leave the strength and the blessings of God upon them, that none other power can operate against them —and this because of their exceeding faith and their patience in their tribulations—

Alma 60:26

Alma 60:27

and I will come unto you. And if there be any among you that hath a desire for freedom, yea, if there be even a spark of freedom remaining, behold, I will stir up insurrections among you, even until those who hath desires to usurp power and authority shall become extinct.

Alma 60:28

Yea, behold, I do not fear your power nor your authority, but it is my God whom I fear. And it is according to his commandments that I do take my sword to defend the cause of my country. And it is because of your iniquity that we have suffered so much loss.

Alma 60:29

Behold, it is time—yea, the time is now at hand— that except ye do bestir yourselves in the defense of your country and your little ones, the sword of justice doth hang over you; yea, and it shall fall upon you and visit you, even to your utter destruction.

Alma 60:30

Behold, I wait for assistance from you. And except ye do administer unto our relief, behold, I come unto you, even into the land of Zarahemla, and smite you with the sword, insomuch that ye can have no more power to impede the progress of this people in the cause of our freedom.

Alma 60:31

For behold, the Lord will not suffer that ye shall live and wax strong in your iniquities to destroy his righteous people.

Alma 60:32

Behold, can you suppose that the Lord will spare you and come out in judgment against the Lamanites when it is the tradition of their fathers that hath caused their hatred —yea, and it hath been redoubled by those which have dissented from us— while your iniquity is for the cause of your love of glory and the vain things of the world?

Alma 60:33

Ye know that ye do transgress the laws of God; and ye do know that ye do trample them under your feet. Behold, the Lord saith unto me: If those whom ye have appointed your governors do not repent of their sins and iniquities, ye shall go up to battle against them.

Alma 60:34

And now behold, I Moroni am constrained, according to the covenant which I have made, to keep the commandments of my God. Therefore I would that ye should adhere to the word of God and send speedily unto me of your provisions and of your men, and also to Helaman.

Alma 60:35

And behold, if ye will not do this, I come unto you speedily. For behold, God will not suffer that we should perish with hunger. Therefore he will give unto us of your food, even if it must be by the sword. Now see that ye fulfill the word of God.

Alma 60:36

Behold, I am Moroni your chief captain. I seek not for power but to pull it down. I seek not for honor of the world but for the glory of my God and the freedom and welfare of my country. And thus I close mine epistle.

Alma 61

Alma 61:1

Behold, now it came to pass that soon after Moroni had sent his epistle unto the chief governor, he received an epistle from Parhoron the chief governor. And these are the words which he received:

Alma 61:2

I Parhoron, which art the chief governor of this land, do send these words unto Moroni, the chief captain over the army. Behold, I say unto you Moroni that I do not joy in your great afflictions; yea, it grieves my soul.

Alma 61:3

But behold, there are those who do joy in your afflictions, yea, insomuch that they have risen up in rebellion against me and also those of my people which are freemen; yea, and those which have risen up are exceeding numerous.

Alma 61:4

And it is those who have sought to take away the judgment seat from me that have been the cause of this great iniquity. For they have used great flattery; and they have led away the hearts of many people, which will be the cause of sore affliction among us. They have withheld our provisions and have daunted our freemen that they have not come unto you.

Alma 61:5

And behold, they have driven me out before them. And I have fled to the land of Gideon with as many men as it were possible that I could get.

Alma 61:6

And behold, I have sent a proclamation throughout this part of the land. And behold, they are flocking to us daily, to their arms, in the defense of their country and their freedom, and to avenge our wrongs.

Alma 61:7

And they have come unto us, insomuch that those which have rose up in rebellion against us are set at defiance, yea, insomuch that they do fear us and durst not come out against us to battle.

Alma 61:8

They have got possession of the land, or the city of Zarahemla. They have appointed a king over them; and he hath written unto the king of the Lamanites, in the which he hath joined an alliance with him, in the which alliance he hath agreed to maintain the city of Zarahemla, which maintenance he supposeth will enable the Lamanites to conquer the remainder of the land, and he shall be placed king over this people when they shall be conquered under the Lamanites.

Alma 61:9

And now in your epistle ye hath censured me, but it mattereth not. I am not angry, but do rejoice in the greatness of your heart. I Parhoron do not seek for power, save only to retain my judgment seat that I may preserve the rights and the liberty of my people. My soul standeth fast in that liberty in the which God hath made us free.

Alma 61:10

And now behold, we will resist wickedness, even unto bloodshed. We would not shed the blood of the Lamanites if they would stay in their own land.

Alma 61:11

We would not shed the blood of our brethren if they would not rise up in rebellion and take the sword against us.

Alma 61:12

We would subject ourselves to the yoke of bondage if it were requisite with the justice of God, or if he should command us so to do.

Alma 61:13

But behold, he doth not command us that we shall subject ourselves to our enemies, but that we should put our trust in him and he will deliver us.

Alma 61:14

Therefore my beloved brother Moroni, let us resist evil. And whatsoever evil we cannot resist with our words—yea, such as rebellions and dissensions—let us resist them with our swords, that we may retain our freedom, that we may rejoice in the great privilege of our church and in the cause of our Redeemer and our God.

Alma 61:15

Therefore come unto me speedily with a few of your men and leave the remainder in the charge of Lehi and Teancum. Give unto them power to conduct the war in that part of the land according to the Spirit of God, which is also the spirit of freedom which is in them.

Alma 61:16

Behold, I have sent a few provisions unto them, that they may not perish until ye can come unto me.

Alma 61:17

Gather together whatsoever force ye can upon your march hither; and we will go speedily against those dissenters in the strength of our God, according to the faith which is in us.

Alma 61:18

And we will take possession of the city of Zarahemla that we may obtain more food to send forth unto Lehi and Teancum. Yea, we will go forth against them in the strength of the Lord, and we will put an end to this great iniquity.

Alma 61:19

And now Moroni, I do joy in receiving your epistle. For I was somewhat worried concerning what we should do, whether it should be just in us to go against our brethren.

Alma 61:20

But ye have said: Except they repent, the Lord hath commanded you that ye should go against them.

Alma 61:21

See that ye strengthen Lehi and Teancum in the Lord. Tell them to fear not, for God will deliver them, yea, and also all those who stand fast in that liberty wherewith God hath made them free. And now I close mine epistle to my beloved brother Moroni.

Alma 62

Alma 62:1

And now it came to pass that when Moroni had received this epistle, his heart did take courage and was filled with exceeding great joy because of the faithfulness of Parhoron, that he was not also a traitor to the freedom and cause of his country.

Alma 62:2

But he did also mourn exceedingly because of the iniquity of those who had driven Parhoron from the judgment seat, yea, in fine, because of those who had rebelled against their country and also their God.

Alma 62:3

And it came to pass that Moroni took a small number of men, according to the desire of Parhoron, and gave Lehi and Teancum command over the remainder of his army and took his march towards the land of Gideon.

Alma 62:4

And he did raise the standard of liberty in whatsoever place he did enter and gained whatsoever force he could in all his march towards the land of Gideon.

Alma 62:5

And it came to pass that thousands did flock unto his standard and did take up their swords in the defense of their freedom, that they might not come into bondage.

Alma 62:6

And thus when Moroni had gathered together whatsoever men he could in all his march, he came to the land of Gideon. And uniting his forces with that of Parhoron's, they became exceeding strong, even stronger than the men of Pachus, which was the king of those dissenters which had driven out the freemen out of the land of Zarahemla and had taken possession of the land.

Alma 62:7

And it came to pass that Moroni and Parhoron went down with their armies into the land of Zarahemla and went forth against the city and did meet the men of Pachus, insomuch that they did come to battle.

Alma 62:8

And behold, Pachus was slain and his men were taken prisoners; and Parhoron was restored to his judgment seat.

Alma 62:9

And the men of Pachus received their trial according to the law, and also those kingmen which had been taken and cast into prison. And they were executed according to the law; yea, those men of Pachus and those kingmen—whosoever would not take up arms in the defense of their country but would fight against it—were put to death.

Alma 62:10

And thus it became expedient that this law should be strictly observed for the safety of their country. Yea, and whosoever was found denying their freedom was speedily executed according to the law.

Alma 62:11

And thus ended the thirtieth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi, Moroni and Parhoron having restored peace to the land of Zarahemla among their own people, having inflicted death upon all those who were not true to the cause of freedom.

Alma 62:12

And it came to pass in the commencement of the thirty and first year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi, Moroni immediately caused that provisions should be sent, and also an army of six thousand men should be sent unto Helaman to assist him in preserving that part of the land.

Alma 62:13

And he also caused that an army of six thousand men with a sufficient quantity of food should be sent to the armies of Lehi and Teancum. And it came to pass that this was done to fortify the land against the Lamanites.

Alma 62:14

And it came to pass that Moroni and Parhoron, leaving a large body of men in the land of Zarahemla, took their march with a large body of men towards the land of Nephihah, being determined to overthrow the Lamanites in that city.

Alma 62:15

And it came to pass that as they were marching towards the land, they took a large body of men of the Lamanites and slew many of them and took their provisions and their weapons of war.

Alma 62:16

And it came to pass after they had took them, they caused them to enter into a covenant that they would no more take up their weapons of war against the Nephites.

Alma 62:17

And when they had entered into this covenant, they sent them to dwell with the people of Ammon. And they were in number about four thousand which had not been slain.

Alma 62:18

And it came to pass that when they had sent them away, they pursued their march towards the land of Nephihah. And it came to pass that when they had come to the city Nephihah, they did pitch their tents in the plains of Nephihah, which is near the city Nephihah.

Alma 62:19

Now Moroni was desirous that the Lamanites should come out to battle against them upon the plains. But the Lamanites knowing of their exceeding great courage and beholding the greatness of their numbers, therefore they durst not come out against them; therefore they did not come to battle in that day.

Alma 62:20

And when the night came Moroni went forth in the darkness of the night and came up on the top of the wall to spy out in what part of the city the Lamanites did camp with their army.

Alma 62:21

And it came to pass that they were on the east by the entrance, and they were all asleep. And now Moroni returned to his army and caused that they should prepare in haste strong cords and ladders to be let down from the top of the wall into the inner part of the wall.

Alma 62:22

And it came to pass that Moroni caused that his men should march forth and come up upon the top of the wall and let themselves down into that part of the city, yea, even on the west, where the Lamanites did not camp with their armies.

Alma 62:23

And it came to pass that they were all let down into the city by night by the means of their strong cords and their ladders. Thus when the morning came, they were all within the walls of the city.

Alma 62:24

And now when the Lamanites awoke and saw that the armies of Moroni were within the walls, they were affrightened exceedingly, insomuch that they did flee out by the pass.

Alma 62:25

And now when Moroni saw that they were fleeing before him, he did cause that his men should march forth against them, and they slew many and surrounded many others and took them prisoners. And the remainder of them fled into the land of Moroni, which was in the borders by the seashore.

Alma 62:26

Thus had Moroni and Parhoron obtained the possession of the city of Nephihah without the loss of one soul; and there were many of the Lamanites which were slain.

Alma 62:27

Now it came to pass that as many of the Lamanites that were prisoners were desirous to join the people of Ammon and become a free people—and it came to pass that as many as were desirous, unto them it was granted according to their desires.

Alma 62:28

Alma 62:29

Therefore all the prisoners of the Lamanites did join the people of Ammon and did begin to labor exceedingly, tilling the ground, raising all manner of grain and flocks and herds of every kind. And thus were the Nephites relieved from a great burthen, yea, insomuch that they were relieved from all the prisoners of the Lamanites.

Alma 62:30

Now it came to pass that Moroni, after he had obtained possession of the city of Nephihah, having taken many prisoners, which did reduce the armies of the Lamanites exceedingly, and having retained many of the Nephites which had been taken prisoners, which did strengthen the army of Moroni exceedingly, therefore Moroni went forth from the land of Nephihah to the land of Lehi.

Alma 62:31

And it came to pass that when the Lamanites saw that Moroni was a coming against them, they were again frightened and fled before the army of Moroni.

Alma 62:32

And it came to pass that Moroni and his army did pursue them from city to city until they were met by Lehi and Teancum. And the Lamanites fled from Lehi and Teancum, even down upon the borders by the seashore, until they came to the land of Moroni.

Alma 62:33

And the armies of the Lamanites were all gathered together, insomuch that they were all in one body in the land of Moroni. Now Ammoron the king of the Lamanites was also with them.

Alma 62:34

And it came to pass that Moroni and Lehi and Teancum did encamp with their armies round about in the borders of the land of Moroni, insomuch that the Lamanites were encircled about in the borders by the wilderness on the south and in the borders by the wilderness on the east.

Alma 62:35

And thus they did encamp for the night. For behold, the Nephites and the Lamanites also were weary because of the greatness of the march; therefore they did not resolve upon any stratagem in the nighttime— save it were Teancum, for he was exceeding angry with Ammoron, insomuch that he considered that Ammoron and Amalickiah his brother had been the cause of this great and lasting war between them and the Lamanites, which had been the cause of so much war and bloodshed, yea, and so much famine.

Alma 62:36

And it came to pass that Teancum in his anger did go forth into the camp of the Lamanites and did let himself down over the walls of the city. And he went forth with a cord from place to place, insomuch that he did find the king; and he did cast a javelin at him, which did pierce him near the heart. But behold, the king did awake his servants before he died, insomuch that they did pursue Teancum and slew him.

Alma 62:37

Now it came to pass that when Lehi and Moroni knew that Teancum was dead, they were exceeding sorrowful. For behold, he had been a man which had fought valiantly for his country —yea, a true friend to liberty— and he had suffered very many exceeding sore afflictions. But behold, he was dead and had gone the way of all the earth.

Alma 62:38

Now it came to pass that Moroni marched forth on the morrow and came upon the Lamanites, insomuch that they did slay them with a great slaughter and they did drive them out of the land. And they did flee, even that they did not return at that time against the Nephites.

Alma 62:39

And thus ended the thirty and first year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. And thus they had had wars and bloodsheds and famine and affliction for the space of many years.

Alma 62:40

And there had been murders and contentions and dissensions and all manner of iniquity among the people of Nephi. Nevertheless, for the righteous' sake —yea, because of the prayers of the righteous— they were spared.

Alma 62:41

But behold, because of the exceeding great length of the war between the Nephites and the Lamanites, many had become hardened because of the exceeding great length of the war; and many were softened because of their afflictions, insomuch that they did humble themselves before God, even in the depths of humility.

Alma 62:42

And it came to pass that after Moroni had fortified those parts of the land which were most exposed to the Lamanites until they were sufficiently strong, he returned to the city of Zarahemla. And also Helaman returned to the place of his inheritance. And there was once more peace established among the people of Nephi.

Alma 62:43

And Moroni yielded up the command of his armies into the hands of his son, whose name was Moronihah. And he retired to his own house, that he might spend the remainder of his days in peace.

Alma 62:44

And Parhoron did return to his judgment seat. And Helaman did take upon him again to preach unto the people the word of God. For because of so many wars and contentions it had become expedient that a regulation should be made again in the church.

Alma 62:45

Therefore Helaman and his brethren went forth and did declare the word of God with much power unto the convincing of many people of their wickedness, which did cause them to repent of their sins and to be baptized unto the Lord their God.

Alma 62:46

And it came to pass that they did establish again the church of God throughout all the land.

Alma 62:47

Yea, and regulations were made concerning the law; and their judges and their chief judges were chosen.

Alma 62:48

And the people of Nephi began to prosper again in the land and began to multiply and to wax exceeding strong again in the land, and they began to grow exceeding rich.

Alma 62:49

But notwithstanding their riches or their strength or their prosperity, they were not lifted up in the pride of their eyes. Neither were they slow to remember the Lord their God, but they did humble themselves exceedingly before him.

Alma 62:50

Yea, they did remember how great things the Lord had done for them, that he had delivered them from death and from bonds and from prisons and from all manner of afflictions, and he had delivered them out of the hands of their enemies.

Alma 62:51

And they did pray unto the Lord their God continually, insomuch that the Lord did bless them according to his word, so that they did wax strong and prosper in the land.

Alma 62:52

And it came to pass that all these things were done, and Helaman died in the thirty and fifth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi.

Alma 63

Alma 63:1

And it came to pass in the commencement of the thirty and sixth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi that Shiblon took possession of those sacred things which had been delivered unto Helaman by Alma.

Alma 63:2

And he was a just man, and he did walk uprightly before God; and he did observe to do good continually, to keep the commandments of the Lord his God, and also did his brother.

Alma 63:3

And it came to pass that Moroni died also. And thus ended the thirty and sixth year of the reign of the judges.

Alma 63:4

And it came to pass that in the thirtieth and seventh year of the reign of the judges there was a large company of men—even to the amount of five thousand and four hundred men, with their wives and their children— departed out of the land of Zarahemla into the land which was northward.

Alma 63:5

And it came to pass that Hagoth, he being an exceeding curious man, therefore he went forth and built him an exceeding large ship on the borders of the land Bountiful by the land Desolation and launched it forth into the west sea by the narrow neck which led into the land northward.

Alma 63:6

And behold, there were many of the Nephites which did enter therein and did sail forth with much provisions and also many women and children; and they took their course northward. And thus ended the thirty and seventh year.

Alma 63:7

And in the thirty and eighth year this man built other ships. And the first ship did also return; and many more people did enter into it, and they also took much provisions and set out again to the land northward.

Alma 63:8

And it came to pass that they never were heard of more. And we suppose that they are drowned up in the depths of the sea. And it came to pass that one other ship also did sail forth, and whither she did go we know not.

Alma 63:9

And it came to pass that in this year there were many people which went forth into the land northward. And thus ended the thirty and eighth year.

Alma 63:10

And it came to pass in the thirty and ninth year of the reign of the judges Shiblon died also. And Corianton had gone forth to the land northward in a ship, to carry forth provisions unto those people which had gone forth into that land.

Alma 63:11

Therefore it became expedient for Shiblon to confer those sacred things before his death upon the son of Helaman, who was called Helaman, being called after the name of his father.

Alma 63:12

Now behold, all those engravings which were in the possession of Helaman were written and sent forth among the children of men throughout all the land, save it were those parts which had been commanded by Alma should not go forth.

Alma 63:13

Nevertheless these things were to be kept sacred and handed down from one generation to another. Therefore in this year they had been conferred upon Helaman before the death of Shiblon.

Alma 63:14

And it came to pass also in this year that there were some dissenters which had gone forth unto the Lamanites; and they were stirred up again to anger against the Nephites.

Alma 63:15

And also in this same year they came down with a numerous army to war against the people of Moronihah, or against the army of Moronihah, in the which they were beaten and driven back again to their own lands, suffering great loss.

Alma 63:16

And thus ended the thirty and ninth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi.

Alma 63:17

And thus ended the account of Alma and Helaman his son and also Shiblon, which was his son.

Helaman

The Book of Helaman

An account of the Nephites, their wars and contentions and their dissensions, and also the prophecies of many holy prophets before the coming of Christ, according to the record of Helaman, which was the son of Helaman, and also according to the records of his sons, even down to the coming of Christ. And also many of the Lamanites are converted; an account of their conversion. An account of the righteousness of the Lamanites and the wickedness and abominations of the Nephites, according to the record of Helaman and his sons, even down to the coming of Christ, which is called the book of Helaman etc.

Helaman 1

Helaman 1:1

And now behold, it came to pass in the commencement of the fortieth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi, there began to be a serious difficulty among the people of the Nephites.

Helaman 1:2

For behold, Parhoron had died and gone the way of all the earth. Therefore there began to be a serious contention concerning who should have the judgment seat among the brethren which were the sons of Parhoron.

Helaman 1:3

Now these are their names which did contend for the judgment seat, which did also cause the people to contend: Parhoron, Paanchi, and Pacumeni.

Helaman 1:4

Now these are not all the sons of Parhoron—for he had many—but these are they which did contend for the judgment seat. Therefore they did cause three divisions among the people.

Helaman 1:5

Nevertheless it came to pass that Parhoron was appointed by the voice of the people to be a chief judge and a governor over the people of Nephi.

Helaman 1:6

And it came to pass that Pacumeni, when he saw that he could not obtain the judgment seat, he did unite with the voice of the people.

Helaman 1:7

But behold, Paanchi and that part of the people that were desirous that he should be their governor was exceeding wroth. Therefore he was about to flatter away those people to rise up in rebellion against their brethren.

Helaman 1:8

And it came to pass as he was about to do this, behold, he was taken and was tried according to the voice of the people and condemned unto death, for he had raised up in rebellion and sought to destroy the liberty of the people.

Helaman 1:9

Now when those people which were desirous that he should be their governor saw that he was condemned unto death, therefore they were angry; and behold, they sent forth one Kishcumen, even to the judgment seat of Parhoron, and murdered Parhoron as he sat upon the judgment seat.

Helaman 1:10

And he was pursued by the servants of Parhoron. But behold, so speedy was the flight of Kishcumen that no man could overtake him.

Helaman 1:11

And he went unto those that sent him; and they all entered into a covenant—yea, swearing by their everlasting Maker—that they would tell no man that Kishcumen had murdered Parhoron.

Helaman 1:12

Therefore Kishcumen was not known among the people of Nephi, for he was in disguise at the time that he murdered Parhoron. And Kishcumen and his band, which had covenanted with him, did mingle themselves among the people in a manner that they all could not be found— but as many as were found were condemned unto death.

Helaman 1:13

And now behold, Pacumeni was appointed according to the voice of the people to be a chief judge and a governor over the people to reign in the stead of his brother Parhoron; and it was according to his right. And all this was done in the fortieth year of the reign of the judges, and it had an end.

Helaman 1:14

And it came to pass in the forty and first year of the reign of the judges that the Lamanites had gathered together an innumerable army of men and armed them with swords and with scimitars and with bows and with arrows and with headplates and with breastplates and with all manner of shields of every kind.

Helaman 1:15

And they came down again that they might pitch battle against the Nephites. And they were led by a man whose name was Coriantumr, and he was a descendant of Zarahemla; and he was a dissenter from among the Nephites, and he was a large and a mighty man.

Helaman 1:16

Therefore the king of the Lamanites, whose name was Tubaloth, who was the son of Ammoron—now Tubaloth supposing that Coriantumr, he being a mighty man, could stand against the Nephites insomuch with his strength and also with his great wisdom that by sending him forth he should gain power over the Nephites—therefore he did stir them up to anger, and he did gather together his armies, and he did appoint Coriantumr to be their leader and did cause that they should march down to the land of Zarahemla to battle against the Nephites.

Helaman 1:17

Helaman 1:18

And it came to pass that because of so much contention and so much difficulty in the government that they had not kept sufficient guards in the land of Zarahemla, for they had supposed that the Lamanites durst not come into the heart of their lands and attack that great city Zarahemla.

Helaman 1:19

But it came to pass that Coriantumr did march forth at the head of his numerous host and came upon the inhabitants of the city. And their march was with such exceeding great speed that there was no time for the Nephites to gather together their armies.

Helaman 1:20

Therefore Coriantumr did cut down the watch by the entrance of the city and did march forth with his whole army into the city. And they did slay every one who did oppose them, insomuch that they did take possession of the whole city.

Helaman 1:21

And it came to pass that Pacumeni, which was the chief judge, did flee before Coriantumr, even to the walls of the city. And it came to pass that Coriantumr did smite him against the wall, insomuch that he died; and thus ended the days of Pacumeni.

Helaman 1:22

And now when Coriantumr saw that he was in possession of the city of Zarahemla and saw that the Nephites had fled before them and were slain and were taken and were cast into prison and that he had obtained the possession of the strongest hold in all the land, his heart took courage, insomuch that he was about to go forth against all the land.

Helaman 1:23

And now he did not tarry in the land of Zarahemla, but he did march forth with a large army, even towards the city of Bountiful. For it was his determination to go forth and cut his way through with the sword, that he might obtain the north parts of the land.

Helaman 1:24

And supposing that their greatest strength was in the center of the land, therefore he did march forth, giving them no time to assemble themselves together save it were in small bodies. And in this manner they did fall upon them and cut them down to the earth.

Helaman 1:25

But behold, this march of Coriantumr's through the center of the land gave Moronihah great advantage over them, notwithstanding the greatness of the number of the Nephites which were slain.

Helaman 1:26

For behold, Moronihah had supposed that the Lamanites durst not come into the center of the land, but that they would attack the cities round about in the borders, as they had hitherto done. Therefore Moronihah had caused that their strong armies should maintain those parts round about by the borders.

Helaman 1:27

But behold, the Lamanites were not frightened according to his desire, but they had come into the center of the land and had taken the capital city, which was the city of Zarahemla, and were marching through the most capital parts of the land, slaying the people with a great slaughter, both men, women, and children, taking possession of many cities and of many strong holds.

Helaman 1:28

But when Moronihah had discovered this, he immediately sent forth Lehi with an army round about to head them before they should come to the land Bountiful.

Helaman 1:29

And thus he did head them before they came to the land Bountiful and gave unto them battle, insomuch that they began to retreat back towards the land of Zarahemla.

Helaman 1:30

And it came to pass that Moronihah did head them in their retreat and did give unto them battle, insomuch that it became an exceeding bloody battle; yea, many were slain. And among the number which were slain Coriantumr was also found.

Helaman 1:31

And now behold, the Lamanites could not retreat neither way, neither on the north nor on the south nor on the east nor on the west, for they were surrounded on every hand by the Nephites.

Helaman 1:32

And thus had Coriantumr plunged the Lamanites into the midst of the Nephites, insomuch that they were in the power of the Nephites; and he himself was slain, and the Lamanites did yield themselves up into the hands of the Nephites.

Helaman 1:33

And it came to pass that Moronihah took possession of the city of Zarahemla again and caused that the Lamanites which had been taken prisoners should depart out of the land in peace.

Helaman 1:34

And thus ended the forty and first year of the reign of the judges.

Helaman 2

Helaman 2:1

And it came to pass in the forty and second year of the reign of the judges, after Moronihah had established again the peace between the Nephites and the Lamanites, behold, there was no one to fill the judgment seat. Therefore there began to be a contention again among the people concerning who should fill the judgment seat.

Helaman 2:2

And it came to pass that Helaman, which was the son of Helaman, was appointed to fill the judgment seat by the voice of the people.

Helaman 2:3

But behold, Kishcumen, who had murdered Parhoron, did lay wait to destroy Helaman also. And he was upheld by his band, which had entered into a covenant that no one should know his wickedness.

Helaman 2:4

For there was one Gaddianton who was exceeding expert in many words and also in his craft to carry on the secret work of murder and of robbery; therefore he became the leader of the band of Kishcumen.

Helaman 2:5

Therefore he did flatter them, and also Kishcumen, that if they would place him in the judgment seat, he would grant unto those which belonged to his band that they should be placed in power and authority among the people. Therefore Kishcumen sought to destroy Helaman.

Helaman 2:6

And it came to pass as he went forth towards the judgment seat to destroy Helaman, behold, one of the servants of Helaman, having been out by night and having obtained through disguise a knowledge of those plans which had been laid by this band to destroy Helaman—and it came to pass that he met Kishcumen, and he gave unto him a sign. Therefore Kishcumen made known unto him the object of his desire, desiring that he would conduct him to the judgment seat that he might murder Helaman.

Helaman 2:8

And it came to pass that when the servant of Helaman had known all the heart of Kishcumen and how that it was his object to murder and also that it was the object of all those which belonged to his band to murder and to rob and to gain power—and this was their secret plan and their combination—the servant of Helaman saith unto Kishcumen: Let us go forth unto the judgment seat.

Helaman 2:9

Now this did please Kishcumen exceedingly, for he did suppose that he should accomplish his design. But behold, the servant of Helaman, as they were going forth unto the judgment seat, did stab Kishcumen, even to the heart, that he fell dead without a groan. And he ran and told Helaman all the things which he had seen and heard and done.

Helaman 2:10

And it came to pass that Helaman did send forth to take this band of robbers and secret murderers, that they might be executed according to the law.

Helaman 2:11

But behold, when Gaddianton had found that Kishcumen did not return, he feared lest that he should be destroyed. Therefore he caused that his band should follow him, and they took their flight out of the land by a secret way into the wilderness. And thus when Helaman sent forth to take them, they could nowhere be found.

Helaman 2:12

And more of this Gaddianton shall be spoken hereafter. And thus ended the forty and second year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi.

Helaman 2:13

And behold, in the end of this book ye shall see that this Gaddianton did prove the overthrow, yea, almost the entire destruction of the people of Nephi.

Helaman 2:14

Behold, I do not mean the end of the book of Helaman, but I mean the end of the book of Nephi, from which I have taken all the account which I have written.

Helaman 3

Helaman 3:1

And now it came to pass in the forty and third year of the reign of the judges, there was no contention among the people of Nephi save it were a little pride which was in the church, which did cause some little dissension among the people, which affairs were settled in the ending of the forty and third year.

Helaman 3:2

And there was no contention among the people in the forty and fourth year, neither was there much contention in the forty and fifth year.

Helaman 3:3

And it came to pass in the forty and sixth year there were much contentions and many dissensions, in the which there were an exceeding great many which departed out of the land of Zarahemla and went forth unto the land northward to inherit the land.

Helaman 3:4

And they did travel to an exceeding great distance, insomuch that they came to large bodies of water and many rivers;

Helaman 3:5

yea, and even they did spread forth into all parts of the land in whatsoever parts it had not been rendered desolate and without timber because of the many inhabitants which had before inherited the land.

Helaman 3:6

And now no part of the land was desolate save it were for timber etc. But because of the greatness of the destruction of the people which had before inhabited the land, it was called desolate.

Helaman 3:7

And there being but little timber upon the face of the land, nevertheless the people which went forth became exceeding expert in the working of cement; therefore they did build houses of cement in the which they did dwell.

And it came to pass that they did multiply and spread and did go forth from the land southward to the land northward and did spread insomuch that they began to cover the face of the whole earth, from the sea south to the sea north, from the sea west to the sea east.

Helaman 3:9

And the people which were in the land northward did dwell in tents and in houses of cement. And they did suffer whatsoever tree should spring up upon the face of the land, that it should grow up, that in time they might have timber to build their houses, yea, their cities and their temples and their synagogues and their sanctuaries and all manner of their buildings.

Helaman 3:10

And it came to pass as timber was exceeding scarce in the land northward, they did send forth much by the way of shipping.

Helaman 3:11

And thus they did enable the people in the land northward that they might build many cities, both of wood and of cement.

Helaman 3:12

And it came to pass that there were many of the people of Ammon, which were Lamanites by birth, did also go forth into this land.

Helaman 3:13

And now there are many records kept of the proceedings of this people, by many of this people, which are particular and very large concerning them.

Helaman 3:14

But behold, a hundredth part of the proceedings of this people —yea, the account of the Lamanites and of the Nephites and their wars and contentions and dissensions and their preaching and their prophecies and their shipping and their building of ships and their building of temples and of synagogues and of sanctuaries and their righteousness and their wickedness and their murders and their robbings and their plunderings and all manner of abominations and whoredoms— cannot be contained in this work.

Helaman 3:15

But behold, there are many books and many records of every kind, and they have been kept chiefly by the Nephites.

Helaman 3:16

And they have been handed down from one generation to another by the Nephites, even until they have fallen into transgression and have been murdered, plundered, and hunted and driven forth and slain and scattered upon the face of the earth and mixed with the Lamanites until they are no more called the Nephites, becoming wicked and wild and ferocious, yea, even becoming Lamanites.

Helaman 3:17

And now I return again to mine account. Therefore what I have spoken had passed; after there had been great contentions and disturbances and wars and dissensions among the people of Nephi, the forty and sixth year of the reign of the judges ended.

Helaman 3:18

Helaman 3:19

And it came to pass that there was still great contentions in the land, yea, even in the forty and seventh year, and also in the forty and eighth year.

Helaman 3:20

Nevertheless Helaman did fill the judgment seat with justice and equity. Yea, he did observe to keep the statutes and the judgments and the commandments of God, and he did do that which was right in the sight of God continually, and he did walk after the ways of his father, insomuch that he did prosper in the land.

Helaman 3:21

And it came to pass that he had two sons. He gave unto the eldest the name of Nephi and unto the youngest the name of Lehi. And they began to grow up unto the Lord.

Helaman 3:22

And it came to pass that the wars and contentions began to cease in a small degree among the people of the Nephites in the latter end of the forty and eighth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi.

Helaman 3:23

And it came to pass in the forty and ninth year of the reign of the judges, there was continual peace established in the land, all save it were the secret combinations which Gaddianton the robber had established in the more settled parts of the land, which at that time were not known unto those which were at the head of government; therefore they were not destroyed out of the land.

Helaman 3:24

And it came to pass that in this same year there was exceeding great prosperity in the church, insomuch that there were thousands who did join themselves unto the church and were baptized unto repentance.

Helaman 3:25

And so great was the prosperity of the church and so many the blessings which were poured out upon the people that even the high priests and the teachers were themselves astonished beyond measure.

Helaman 3:26

And it came to pass that the work of the Lord did prosper unto the baptizing and uniting to the church of God many souls, yea, even tens of thousands.

Helaman 3:27

Thus we may see that the Lord is merciful unto all who will in the sincerity of their hearts call upon his holy name.

Helaman 3:28

Yea, thus we see that the gate of heaven is open unto all, even to those who will believe on the name of Jesus Christ, which is the Son of God.

Yea, we see that whosoever will lay hold upon the word of God, which is quick and powerful,¹ which shall divide asunder all the cunning and the snares and the wiles of the devil and lead the man of Christ in a straight and narrow course across that everlasting gulf² of misery, which is prepared to engulf the wicked,

¹Remember that the Bible source for “quick and powerful” is Hebrews 4:12. See my note there, but the word for “quick” is ζῶν, which is the active participle of ζάω, “to live” or “to be alive.”

²Compare Peter’s experience in walking on the water in Matthew 14:28–31.

Helaman 3:30

and land their souls—yea, their immortal souls— at the right hand of God in the kingdom of heaven, to sit down with Abraham and Isaac and with Jacob and with all our holy fathers, to go no more out.

Helaman 3:31

And in this year there were continual rejoicing in the land of Zarahemla and in all the regions round about, even in all the land which was possessed by the Nephites.

Helaman 3:32

And it came to pass that there was peace and exceeding great joy in the remainder of the forty and ninth year. Yea, and also there was continual peace and great joy in the fiftieth year of the reign of the judges.

Helaman 3:33

And in the fifty and first year of the reign of the judges, there was peace also, save it were the pride which began to enter into the church— not into the church of God, but into the hearts of the people who professed to belong to the church of God.

Helaman 3:34

And they were lifted up in pride, even to the persecution of many of their brethren. Now this was a great evil which did cause the more humble part of the people to suffer great persecutions and to wade through much affliction.

Helaman 3:35

Nevertheless they did fast and pray oft and did wax stronger and stronger in their humility and firmer and firmer in the faith of Christ unto the filling their souls with joy and consolation, yea, even to the purifying and the sanctification of their hearts, which sanctification cometh because of their yielding their hearts unto God.

Helaman 3:36

And it came to pass that the fifty and second year ended in peace also, save it were the exceeding great pride which had got into the hearts of the people—and it was because of their exceeding great riches and their prosperity in the land— and it did grow upon them from day to day.

Helaman 3:37

And it came to pass in the fifty and third year of the reign of the judges, Helaman died, and his eldest son Nephi began to reign in his stead. And it came to pass that he did fill the judgment seat with justice and equity. Yea, he did keep the commandments of God and did walk in the ways of his father.

Helaman 4

Helaman 4:1

And it came to pass in the fifty and fourth year there were many dissensions in the church. And there was also a contention among the people, insomuch that there was much bloodshed.

Helaman 4:2

And the rebellious part were slain and driven out of the land, and they did go unto the king of the Lamanites.

Helaman 4:3

And it came to pass that they did endeavor to stir up the Lamanites to war against the Nephites; but behold, the Lamanites were exceeding afraid, insomuch that they would not hearken to the words of those dissenters.

Helaman 4:4

But it came to pass in the fifty and sixth year of the reign of the judges, there were dissenters which went up from the Nephites unto the Lamanites; and they succeeded with those others in stirring them up to anger against the Nephites; and they were all that year preparing for war.

Helaman 4:5

And in the fifty and seventh year they did come down against the Nephites to battle, and they did commence the work of death; yea, insomuch that in the fifty and eighth year of the reign of the judges, they succeeded in obtaining possession of the land of Zarahemla, yea, and also all the lands, even unto the land which was near the land Bountiful.

Helaman 4:6

And the Nephites and the armies of Moronihah were driven, even into the land of Bountiful.

Helaman 4:7

And there they did fortify against the Lamanites, from the west sea even unto the east, it being a day's journey for a Nephite on the line which they had fortified and stationed their armies to defend their north country.

Helaman 4:8

And thus those dissenters of the Nephites, with the help of a numerous army of the Lamanites, had obtained all the possession of the Nephites which was in the land southward. And all this was done in the fifty and eighth and ninth years of the reign of the judges.

Helaman 4:9

And it came to pass in the sixtieth year of the reign of the judges, Moronihah did succeed with his armies in obtaining many parts of the land. Yea, they retained many cities which had fallen into the hands of the Lamanites.

Helaman 4:10

And it came to pass in the sixty and first year of the reign of the judges, they succeeded in retaining even the half of all their possessions.

Helaman 4:11

Now this great loss of the Nephites and the great slaughter which was among them would not have happened had it not been for their wickedness and their abomination which was among them. Yea, and it was among those also which professed to belong to the church of God.

Helaman 4:12

And it was because of the pride of their hearts, because of their exceeding riches; yea, it was because of their oppression to the poor, withholding their food from the hungry, withholding their clothing from the naked, and smiting their humble brethren upon the cheeks, making a mock of that which was sacred, denying the spirit of prophecy and of revelation, murdering, plundering, lying, stealing, committing adultery, raising up in great contentions, and dissenting away into the land of Nephi among the Lamanites.

Helaman 4:13

And because of this their great wickedness and their boastings in their own strength, they were left in their own strength. Therefore they did not prosper, but were afflicted and smitten and driven before the Lamanites until they had lost possession of almost all their lands.

Helaman 4:14

But behold, Moronihah did preach many things unto the people because of their iniquity. And also Nephi and Lehi, which were the sons of Helaman, did preach many things unto the people, yea, and did prophesy many things unto them concerning their iniquities and what should come unto them if they did not repent of their sins.

Helaman 4:15

And it came to pass that they did repent; and inasmuch as they did repent, they did begin to prosper.

Helaman 4:16

For when Moronihah saw that they did repent, he did venture to lead them forth from place to place and from city to city, even until they had retained the one half of their property and the one half of all their lands.

Helaman 4:17

And thus ended the sixty and first year of the reign of the judges.

Helaman 4:18

And it came to pass in the sixty and second year of the reign of the judges that Moronihah could obtain no more possessions over the Lamanites.

Helaman 4:19

Therefore they did abandon their design to obtain the remainder of their lands, for so numerous was the Lamanites that it became impossible for the Nephites to obtain more power over them. Therefore Moronihah did employ all his armies in maintaining those parts which he had taken.

Helaman 4:20

And it came to pass because of the greatness of the number of the Lamanites, the Nephites were in great fear lest they should be overpowered and trodden down and slain and destroyed.

Helaman 4:21

Yea, they began to remember the prophecies of Alma and also the words of Mosiah. And they saw that they had been a stiffnecked people and that they had set at naught the commandments of God and that they had altered and trampled under their feet the laws of Mosiah —or that which the Lord commanded him to give unto the people— and thus seeing that their laws had become corrupted and that they had become a wicked people, insomuch that they were wicked even like unto the Lamanites.

Helaman 4:22

Helaman 4:23

And because of their iniquity the church had began to dwindle. And they began to disbelieve in the spirit of prophecy and in the spirit of revelation. And the judgments of God did stare them in the face.

Helaman 4:24

And they saw they had become weak like unto their brethren the Lamanites and that the Spirit of the Lord did no more preserve them. Yea, it had withdrawn from them because the Spirit of the Lord doth not dwell in unholy temples.

Helaman 4:25

Therefore the Lord did cease to preserve them by his miraculous and matchless power, for they had fallen into a state of unbelief and awful wickedness. And they saw that the Lamanites were more exceeding numerous than they; and except they should cleave unto the Lord their God, they must unavoidably perish.

Helaman 4:26

For behold, they saw that the strength of the Lamanites was as great as their strength, even man for man. And thus had they fallen into this great transgression; yea, thus had they become weak because of their transgression in the space of not many years.

Helaman 5

Helaman 5:1

And it came to pass that in this same year, behold, Nephi delivered up the judgment seat to a man whose name was Cezoram.

Helaman 5:2

For as their laws and their governments were established by the voice of the people and they which chose evil were more numerous than they which chose good, therefore they were ripening for destruction, for the laws had become corrupted.

Helaman 5:3

Yea, and this was not all. They were a stiffnecked people, insomuch that they could not be governed by the law nor justice save it were to their destruction.

Helaman 5:4

And it came to pass that Nephi had become weary because of their iniquity; and he yielded up the judgment seat and took it upon him to preach the word of God all the remainder of his days, and his brother Lehi also all the remainder of his days.

Helaman 5:5

For they remembered the words which their father Helaman spake unto them. And these are the words which he spake:

Helaman 5:6

Behold, my sons, I desire that ye should remember to keep the commandments of God. And I would that ye should declare unto the people these words. Behold, I have given unto you the names of our first parents which came out of the land of Jerusalem. And this I have done that when you remember your names that ye may remember them. And when ye remember them, ye may remember their works. And when ye remember their works, ye may know how that it is said, and also written, that they were good.

Therefore my sons, I would that ye should do that which is good, that it may be said of you, and also written, even as it has been said and written of them.

Helaman 5:8

And now my sons, behold, I have somewhat more to desire of you, which desire is that ye may not do these things that ye may boast, but that ye may do these things to lay up for yourselves a treasure in heaven —yea, which is eternal and which fadeth not away— yea, that ye may have that precious gift of eternal life which we have reason to suppose hath been given to our fathers.

Helaman 5:9

O remember, remember, my sons, the words which king Benjamin spake unto his people. Yea, remember that there is no other way nor means whereby man can be saved, only through the atoning blood of Jesus Christ, which shall come. Yea, remember that he cometh to redeem the world.

Helaman 5:10

And remember also the words which Amulek spake unto Zeezrom in the city of Ammonihah, for he said unto him that the Lord surely should come to redeem his people, but that he should not come to redeem them in their sins but to redeem them from their sins.

Helaman 5:11

And he hath power given unto him from the Father to redeem them from their sins because of repentance. Therefore he hath sent his angels to declare the tidings of the conditions of repentance, which bringeth unto the power of the Redeemer, unto the salvation of their souls.

Helaman 5:12

And now my sons, remember, remember that it is upon the rock of our Redeemer,¹ which is Christ the Son of God, that ye must build your foundation,² that when the devil shall send forth his mighty winds —yea, his shafts³ in the whirlwind— yea, when all his hail and his mighty storm shall beat upon you, it shall have no power over you to drag you down⁴ to the gulf of misery and endless woe because of the rock upon which ye are built,⁵ which is a sure foundation, a foundation whereon if men buildeth they cannot fall.⁶

¹DC 11:24: “Build upon my rock, which is my gospel.” See also 1 Nephi 13:36, DC 11:16, and DC 18:4–5.

²See Matthew 7:24–27 and Luke 6:46–49. At DC 10:69 Christ says that he is the one who establishes us upon this rock, if we repent, come unto him, and endure. See also Ephesians 2:20.

³The first definition in the 1828 dictionary for “shaft” is “An arrow; a missile weapon.”

⁴It will have power over you to some extent, but not to the extent that it’s able to drag you down in the way described here. See also 1 Nephi 15:24,

⁵See, for example, DC 3:8,

⁶Compare my blessing from President Openshaw: “There will be moments in your life in which the temptation to leave the church behind along with the testimony you have gained and the covenants you have made will be strong, but I bless you that you will never, never fall away from what you know and the testimony you have gained” (7). See also DC 6:34;

Helaman 5:13

And it came to pass that these were the words which Helaman taught to his sons. Yea, he did teach them many things which are not written, and also many things which are written; and they did remember his words. And therefore they went forth, keeping the commandments of God, to teach the word of God among all the people of Nephi, beginning at the city Bountiful, and from thenceforth to the city of Gid, and from the city of Gid to the city of Mulek, and even from one city to another until they had gone forth among all the people of Nephi which were in the land southward, and from thence into the land of Zarahemla among the Lamanites.

Helaman 5:14

Helaman 5:15

Helaman 5:17

And it came to pass that they did preach with great power, insomuch that they did confound many of those dissenters which had gone over from the Nephites, insomuch that they came forth and did confess their sins and were baptized unto repentance and immediately returned to the Nephites to endeavor to repair unto them the wrongs which they had done.

Helaman 5:18

And it came to pass that Nephi and Lehi did preach unto the Lamanites with such great power and authority, for they had power and authority given unto them that they might speak. And they also had what they should speak given unto them.

Helaman 5:19

Therefore they did speak unto the great astonishment of the Lamanites, to the convincing them, insomuch that there were eight thousand of the Lamanites which were in the land of Zarahemla and round about baptized unto repentance and were convinced of the wickedness of the traditions of their fathers.

Helaman 5:20

And it came to pass that Nephi and Lehi did proceed from thence to go to the land of Nephi.

Helaman 5:21

And it came to pass that they were taken by an army of the Lamanites and cast into prison, yea, even in that same prison in which Ammon and his brethren were cast by the servants of Limhi.

Helaman 5:22

And after they had been cast into prison many days without food, behold, they went forth into the prison to take them, that they might slay them.

Helaman 5:23

And it came to pass that Nephi and Lehi were encircled about as if by fire, even insomuch that they durst not lay their hands upon them for fear lest they should be burned. Nevertheless Nephi and Lehi were not burned; and they were as standing in the midst of fire and were not burned.

Helaman 5:24

And when they saw that they were encircled about with a pillar of fire and that it burned them not, their hearts did take courage;

Helaman 5:25

for they saw that the Lamanites durst not lay their hands upon them, neither durst they come near unto them, but stood as if they were struck dumb with amazement.

Helaman 5:26

And it came to pass that Nephi and Lehi did stand forth and began to speak unto them, saying: Fear not! For behold, it is God that hath shown unto you this marvelous thing, in the which is shewn unto you that ye cannot lay your hands on us to slay us.

Helaman 5:27

And behold, when they had said these words, the earth shook exceedingly. And the walls of the prison did shake as if they were about to tumble to the earth; but behold, they did not fall. And behold, they that were in the prison were Lamanites and Nephites which were dissenters.

Helaman 5:28

And it came to pass that they were overshadowed with a cloud of darkness, and an awful solemn fear came upon them.

Helaman 5:29

And it came to pass that there came a voice as if it were above the cloud of darkness, saying: Repent ye, repent ye, and seek no more to destroy my servants, which I have sent unto you to declare good tidings.

Helaman 5:30

And it came to pass when they heard this voice and beheld that it was not a voice of thunder, neither was it a voice of a great tumultuous noise, but behold, it was a still voice of perfect mildness as if it had been a whisper, and it did pierce even to the very soul—and notwithstanding the mildness of the voice, behold, the earth shook exceedingly. And the walls of the prison trembled again as if it were about to tumble to the earth. And behold, the cloud of darkness which had overshadowed them did not disperse.

Helaman 5:32

And behold, the voice came again, saying: Repent ye, repent ye, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand; and seek no more to destroy my servants. And it came to pass that the earth shook again and the walls trembled.

Helaman 5:33

And also again the third time the voice came and did speak unto them marvelous words which cannot be uttered by man. And the walls did tremble again; and the earth shook as if it were about to divide asunder.

Helaman 5:34

And it came to pass that the Lamanites could not flee because of the cloud of darkness which did overshadow them; yea, and also they were immovable because of the fear which did come upon them.

Helaman 5:35

Now there was one among them who was a Nephite by birth who had once belonged to the church of God but had dissented from them.

Helaman 5:36

And it came to pass that he turned him about; and behold, he saw through the cloud of darkness the faces of Nephi and Lehi. And behold, they did shine exceedingly, even as the face of angels. And he beheld that they did lift their eyes to heaven and they were in the attitude as if talking or lifting their voices to some being which they beheld.

Helaman 5:37

And it came to pass that this man did cry unto the multitude, that they might turn and look. And behold, there was power given unto them that they did turn and look; and they did behold the faces of Nephi and Lehi.

Helaman 5:38

And they said unto the man: Behold, what doth all these things mean? And who is it with whom these men do converse?

Helaman 5:39

Now the man's name was Aminadab. And Aminadab saith unto them: They do converse with the angels of God.

Helaman 5:40

And it came to pass that the Lamanites said unto him: What shall we do that this cloud of darkness may be removed from overshadowing us?

Helaman 5:41

And Aminadab saith unto them: You must repent and cry unto the voice, even until ye shall have faith in Christ, which was taught unto you by Alma and Amulek and by Zeezrom. And when ye shall do this, the cloud of darkness shall be removed from overshadowing you.

Helaman 5:42

And it came to pass that they all did begin to cry unto the voice of him which had shook the earth. Yea, they did cry even until the cloud of darkness was dispersed.

Helaman 5:43

And it came to pass that when they cast their eyes about and saw that the cloud of darkness was dispersed from overshadowing them, and behold, they saw that they were encircled about —yea, every soul—by a pillar of fire.

Helaman 5:44

And Nephi and Lehi was in the midst of them. Yea, they were encircled about; yea, they were as if in the midst of a flaming fire. Yet it did harm them not, neither did it take hold upon the walls of the prison. And they were filled with that joy which is unspeakable and full of glory.

Helaman 5:45

And behold, the Holy Spirit of God did come down from heaven and did enter into their hearts. And they were filled as if with fire, and they could speak forth marvelous words.

Helaman 5:46

And it came to pass that there came a voice unto them, yea, a pleasant voice, as if it were a whisper, saying:

Helaman 5:47

Peace, peace be unto you because of your faith in my Well Beloved, which was from the foundation of the world.

Helaman 5:48

And now when they heard this, they cast up their eyes as if to behold from whence the voice came. And behold, they saw the heavens open, and angels came down out of heaven and ministered unto them.

Helaman 5:49

And there were about three hundred souls which saw and heard these things. And they were bid to go forth and marvel not, neither should they doubt.

Helaman 5:50

And it came to pass that they did go forth and did minister unto the people, declaring throughout all the regions round about all the things which they had heard and seen, insomuch that the more part of the Lamanites were convinced of them because of the greatness of the evidences which they had received.

Helaman 5:51

And as many as were convinced did lay down their weapons of war, and also their hatred and the tradition of their fathers.

Helaman 5:52

And it came to pass that they did yield up unto the Nephites the lands of their possession.

Helaman 6

Helaman 6:1

And it came to pass that when the sixty and second year of the reign of the judges had ended, all these things had happened; and the Lamanites had become the more part of them a righteous people, insomuch that their righteousness did exceed that of the Nephites because of their firmness and their steadiness in the faith.

Helaman 6:2

For behold, there were many of the Nephites which had become hardened and impenitent and grossly wicked, insomuch that they did reject the word of God and all the preaching and the prophesying which did come among them.

Helaman 6:3

Nevertheless the people of the church did have great joy because of the conversion of the Lamanites, yea, because of the church of God which had been established among them. And they did fellowship one with another and did rejoice one with another and did have great joy.

Helaman 6:4

And it came to pass that many of the Lamanites did come down into the land of Zarahemla and did declare unto the people of the Nephites the manner of their conversion and did exhort them to faith and repentance.

Helaman 6:5

Yea, and many did preach with exceeding great power and authority, unto the bringing down many of them into the depths of humility, to be the humble followers of God and the Lamb.

Helaman 6:6

And it came to pass that many of the Lamanites did go into the land northward. And also Nephi and Lehi went into the land northward to preach unto the people. And thus ended the sixty and third year.

Helaman 6:7

And behold, there was peace in all the land, insomuch that the Nephites did go into whatsoever part of the land they would, whether among the Nephites or the Lamanites.

And it came to pass that the Lamanites did also go whithersoever they would, whether it were among the Lamanites or among the Nephites. And thus they did have free intercourse one with another, for to buy and to sell and to get gain according to their desire.

Helaman 6:9

And it came to pass that they became exceeding rich, both the Lamanites and the Nephites. And they did have an exceeding plenty of gold and of silver and of all manner of precious metals, both in the land south and in the land north.

Helaman 6:10

Now the land south was called Lehi; and the land north was called Muloch, which was after the son of Zedekiah. For the Lord did bring Muloch into the land north and Lehi into the land south.

Helaman 6:11

And behold, there was all manner of gold in both these lands, and of silver and of precious ore of every kind. And there was also curious workmen which did work all kinds of ore and did refine it. And thus they did become rich.

Helaman 6:12

They did raise grain in abundance, both in the north and in the south. And they did flourish exceedingly, both in the north and in the south. And they did multiply and wax exceeding strong in the land; and they did raise many flocks and herds, yea, many fatlings.

Helaman 6:13

Behold, their women did toil and spin and did make all manner of cloth, of fine-twined linen and cloth of every kind, to clothe their nakedness. And thus the sixty and fourth year did pass away in peace.

Helaman 6:14

And in the sixty and fifth year they did also have great joy and peace, yea, much preaching and many prophecies concerning that which was to come. And thus passed away the sixty and fifth year.

Helaman 6:15

And it came to pass that in the sixty and sixth year of the reign of the judges, behold, Cezoram was murdered by an unknown hand as he sat upon the judgment seat. And it came to pass that in the same year that his son, which had been appointed by the people in his stead, was also murdered. And thus ended the sixty and sixth year.

Helaman 6:16

And in the commencement of the sixty and seventh year, the people began to grow exceeding wicked again.

Helaman 6:17

For behold, the Lord had blessed them so long with the riches of the world that they had not been stirred up to anger, to wars nor to bloodsheds. Therefore they began to set their hearts upon their riches. Yea, they began to seek to get gain that they might be lifted up one above another. Therefore they began to commit secret murders and to rob and to plunder that they might get gain.

Helaman 6:18

And now behold, those murderers and plunderers were a band which had been formed by Kishcumen and Gaddianton. And now it had came to pass that there were many, even among the Nephites, of Gaddianton's band. But behold, they were more numerous among the more wicked part of the Lamanites. And they were called Gaddianton's robbers and murderers.

Helaman 6:19

And it was they which did murder the chief judge Cezoram and his son while in the judgment seat. And behold, they were not found.

Helaman 6:20

And now it came to pass that when the Lamanites found that there were robbers among them, they were exceeding sorrowful. And they did use every means, whatsoever was in their power, to destroy them off the face of the earth.

Helaman 6:21

But behold, Satan did stir up the hearts of the more parts of the Nephites, insomuch that they did unite with those bands of robbers and did enter into their covenants and their oaths, that they would protect and preserve one another in whatsoever difficult circumstances they should be placed in, that they should not suffer for their murders and their plunderings and their stealings.

Helaman 6:22

And it came to pass that they did have their signs, yea, their secret signs and their secret words— and this that they might distinguish a brother who had entered into the covenant, that whatsoever wickedness his brother should do, he should not be injured by his brother, nor by those who did belong to his band who had taken this covenant.

Helaman 6:23

And thus they might murder and plunder and steal and commit whoredoms and all manner of wickedness contrary to the laws of their country and also the laws of their God.

Helaman 6:24

And whosoever of those which belonged to their band should reveal unto the world of their wickedness and their abominations should be tried, not according to the laws of their country, but according to the laws of their wickedness, which had been given by Gaddianton and Kishcumen.

Helaman 6:25

Now behold, it is these secret oaths and covenants which Alma commanded his son should not go forth unto the world lest they should be a means of bringing down the people unto destruction.

Helaman 6:26

Now behold, those secret oaths and covenants did not come forth unto Gaddianton from the records which were delivered unto Helaman; but behold, they were put into the heart of Gaddianton by that same being who did entice our first parents to partake of the forbidden fruit—yea, that same being who did plot with Cain that if he would murder his brother Abel, it should not be known unto the world. And he did plot with Cain and his followers from that time forth.

Helaman 6:28

And also it is that same being who put it into the hearts of the people to build a tower sufficiently high that they might get to heaven. And it was that same being which led on the people which came from that tower into this land which spread the works of darkness and abominations over all the face of the land until he dragged the people down to an entire destruction and to an everlasting hell.

Helaman 6:29

Yea, it is that same being who put it into the heart of Gaddianton to still carry on the work of darkness and of secret murder. And he hath brought it forth from the beginning of man, even down to this time.

Helaman 6:30

And behold, it is he which is the author of all sin. And behold, he doth carry on his works of darkness and secret murder and doth hand down their plots and their oaths and their covenants and their plans of awful wickedness from generation to generation, according as he can get hold upon the hearts of the children of men.

Helaman 6:31

And now behold, he had got great hold upon the hearts of the Nephites, yea, insomuch that they had become exceeding wicked. Yea, the more part of them had turned out of the way of righteousness and did trample under their feet the commandments of God and did turn unto their own ways and did build up unto themselves idols of their gold and their silver.

Helaman 6:32

And it came to pass that all these iniquities did come unto them in the space of not many years, insomuch that a more part of it had come unto them in the sixty and seventh year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi.

Helaman 6:33

And they did grow in their iniquities in the sixty and eighth year also, to the great sorrow and lamentation of the righteous.

Helaman 6:34

And thus we see that the Nephites did begin to dwindle in unbelief and grow in wickedness and abominations, while the Lamanites began to grow exceedingly in the knowledge of their God. Yea, they did begin to keep his statutes and commandments and to walk in truth and uprightness before him.

Helaman 6:35

And thus we see that the Spirit of the Lord began to withdraw from the Nephites because of the wickedness and the hardness of their hearts.

Helaman 6:36

And thus we see that the Lord began to pour out his Spirit upon the Lamanites because of their easiness and willingness to believe in his word.

Helaman 6:37

And it came to pass that the Lamanites did hunt the band of robbers of Gaddianton. And they did preach the word of God among the more wicked part of them, insomuch that this band of robbers was utterly destroyed from among the Lamanites.

Helaman 6:38

And it came to pass, on the other hand, that the Nephites did build them up and support them, beginning at the more wicked part of them, until they had overspread all the land of the Nephites and had seduced the more part of the righteous until they had come down to believe in their works and partake of their spoils and to join with them in their secret murders and combinations.

Helaman 6:39

And thus they did obtain the sole management of the government, insomuch that they did trample under their feet and smite and rend and turn their backs upon the poor and the meek and humble followers of God.

Helaman 6:40

And thus we see that they were in an awful state and ripening for an everlasting destruction.

Helaman 6:41

And it came to pass that thus ended the sixty and eighth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi.

Helaman 7

The Prophecy of Nephi the son of Helaman God threatens the people of Nephi that he will visit them in his anger to their utter destruction except they repent of their wickedness. God smiteth the people of Nephi with pestilence; they repent and turn unto him. Samuel, a Lamanite, prophesies unto the Nephites.

Helaman 7:1

Behold, now it came to pass in the sixty and ninth year of the reign of the judges over the people of the Nephites that Nephi the son of Helaman returned to the land of Zarahemla from the land northward.

Helaman 7:2

For he had been forth among the people which was in the land northward and did preach the word of God unto them and did prophesy many things unto them.

Helaman 7:3

And they did reject all his words, insomuch that he could not stay among them but returned again unto the land of his nativity.

Helaman 7:4

And seeing the people in a state of such awful wickedness and those Gaddianton robbers filling the judgment seats, having usurped the power and authority of the land, laying aside the commandments of God and not in the least aright before him, doing no justice unto the children of men, condemning the righteous because of their righteousness, letting the guilty and the wicked go unpunished because of their money—and moreover, to be held in office at the head of government, to rule and to do according to their wills, that they might get gain and glory of the world and moreover that they might the more easy commit adultery and steal and kill and do according to their own wills

Helaman 7:5

Helaman 7:6

—now this great iniquity had come upon the Nephites in the space of not many years— and when Nephi saw it, his heart was swollen with sorrow within his breast. And he did exclaim in the agony of his soul:

Helaman 7:7

O that I could have had my days in the days when my father Nephi first came out of the land of Jerusalem, that I could have joyed with him in the promised land. Then were his people easy to be entreated, firm to keep the commandments of God, and slow to be led to do iniquity. And they were quick to hearken unto the words of the Lord.

Yea, if my days could have been in them days, then would my soul have had joy in the righteousness of my brethren.

Helaman 7:9

But behold, I am consigned that these are my days and that my soul shall be filled with sorrow because of this the wickedness of my brethren.

Helaman 7:10

And behold, now it came to pass that it was upon a tower which was in the garden of Nephi, which was by the highway which led to the chief market which was in the city of Zarahemla. Therefore as Nephi had bowed himself upon the tower which was in his garden—which tower was also near unto the garden gate which was by the highway—and it came to pass that there was certain men passing by and saw Nephi as he was pouring out his soul unto God upon the tower; and they ran and told the people what they had seen. And the people came together in multitudes that they might know the cause of so great mourning for the wickedness of the people.

Helaman 7:11

Helaman 7:12

And now when Nephi arose, he beheld the multitudes of people which had gathered together.

Helaman 7:13

And it came to pass that he opened his mouth and said unto them: Behold, why have ye gathered yourselves together? That I may tell you of your iniquities?

Helaman 7:14

Yea, because I have got upon my tower that I might pour out my soul unto my God because of the exceeding sorrow of my heart, which is because of your iniquities?

Helaman 7:15

And because of my mourning and lamentation ye have gathered yourselves together and do marvel? Yea, and ye have great need to marvel! Yea, ye had ought to marvel because ye are given away that the devil hath got so great hold upon your hearts.

Helaman 7:16

Yea, how could ye have given away to the enticing of him who art seeking to hurl away your souls down to everlasting misery and endless woe?

Helaman 7:17

O repent ye, repent ye! Why will ye die? Turn ye, turn ye unto the Lord your God! Why hath he forsaken you?

Helaman 7:18

It is because you have hardened your hearts. Yea, ye will not hearken unto the voice of the Good Shepherd. Yea, ye have provoked him to anger against you.

Helaman 7:19

And behold, instead of gathering you, except ye will repent, behold, he shall scatter you forth that ye shall become meat for dogs and wild beasts.

Helaman 7:20

O how could you have forgotten your God in the very day that he hath delivered you?

Helaman 7:21

But behold, it is to get gain, to be praised of men, yea, and that ye might get gold and silver. And ye have set your hearts upon the riches and the vain things of this world, for the which ye do murder and plunder and steal and bear false witness against your neighbor and do all manner of iniquity.

Helaman 7:22

And for this cause woe shall come unto you except ye shall repent. For if ye will not repent, behold, this great city—and also all those great cities which are round about which are in the land of our possession— shall be taken away, that ye shall have no place in them. For behold, the Lord will not grant unto you strength, as he hath hitherto done, to withstand against your enemies.

Helaman 7:23

For behold, thus saith the Lord: I will not shew unto the wicked of my strength, to one more than the other, save it be unto those who repenteth of their sins and hearken unto my words. Now therefore I would that ye should behold, my brethren, that it shall be better for the Lamanites than for you except ye shall repent.

Helaman 7:24

For behold, they are more righteous than you, for they have not sinned against that great knowledge which ye have received. Therefore the Lord will be merciful unto them. Yea, he will lengthen out their days and increase their seed, even when thou shalt be utterly destroyed except thou shalt repent.

Helaman 7:25

Yea, woe be unto you because of that great abomination which hath come among you; and ye have united yourselves unto it, yea, to that secret band which was established by Gaddianton.

Helaman 7:26

Yea, woe shall come unto you because of that pride which ye have suffered to enter your hearts, which hath lifted you up beyond that which is good because of your exceeding great riches.

Helaman 7:27

Yea, woe be unto you because of your wickedness and abominations.

Helaman 7:28

And except ye repent, ye shall perish; yea, even your lands shall be taken from you, and ye shall be destroyed from off the face of the earth.

Helaman 7:29

Behold, now I do not say that these things shall be, of myself, because it is not of myself that I know these things. But behold, I know that these things are true because the Lord God hath made them known unto me; therefore I testify that they shall be.

Helaman 8

Helaman 8:1

And now it came to pass that when Nephi had said these words, behold, there were men which were judges which also belonged to the secret band of Gaddianton, and they were angry, and they cried out against him, saying unto the people: Why do ye not seize upon this man and bring him forth, that he may be condemned according to the crime which he hath done?

Helaman 8:2

Why seest thou this man and hearest him revile against this people and against our law?

Helaman 8:3

For behold, Nephi had spoken unto them concerning the corruptness of their law. Yea, many things did Nephi speak which cannot be written. And nothing did he speak which were contrary to the commandments of God.

Helaman 8:4

And those judges were angry with him because he spake plain unto them concerning their secret works of darkness. Nevertheless they durst not lay their own hands upon him, for they feared the people lest they should cry out against them.

Therefore they did cry unto the people, saying: Why do ye suffer this man to revile against us? For behold, he doth condemn all this people, even unto destruction— yea, and also that these our great cities shall be taken from us, that we shall have no place in them.

Helaman 8:6

And now we know that this is impossible. For behold, we are powerful and our cities great; therefore our enemies can have no power over us.

And it came to pass that thus they did stir up the people to anger against Nephi and raised contentions among them. For there were some which did cry out: Let this man alone, for he is a good man; and those things which he saith will surely come to pass except we repent.

Helaman 8:8

Yea, behold, all the judgments will come upon us which he hath testified unto us, for we know that he hath testified aright unto us concerning our iniquities; and behold, they are many. And he knoweth as well all things which shall befall us as he knoweth of our iniquities.

Yea, and behold, if he had not been a prophet, he could not have testified concerning those things.

Helaman 8:10

And it came to pass that those people which sought to destroy Nephi were compelled because of their fear that they did not lay their hands on him. Therefore he began again to speak unto them, seeing that he had gained favor in the eyes of some, insomuch that the remainder of them did fear.

Helaman 8:11

Therefore he was constrained to speak more unto them, saying: Behold, my brethren, have ye not read that God gave power unto one man, even Moses, to smite upon the waters of the Red Sea and they departed hither and thither, insomuch that the Israelites, which were our fathers, came through upon dry ground; and the waters closed upon the armies of the Egyptians and swallowed them up.

Helaman 8:12

And now behold, if God gave unto this man such power, then why should ye dispute among yourselves and say that he hath given unto me no power whereby I may know concerning the judgments that shall come upon you except ye repent?

Helaman 8:13

But behold, ye not only deny my words, but ye also deny all the words which hath been spoken by our fathers, and also the words which was spoken by this man Moses, which had such great power given unto him— yea, the words which he hath spoken concerning the coming of the Messiah.

Helaman 8:14

Yea, did he not bear record that the Son of God should come? And as he lifted up the brazen serpent in the wilderness, even so should he be lifted up which should come.

Helaman 8:15

And as many as should look upon that serpent should live, even so as many as should look upon the Son of God with faith, having a contrite spirit, might live, even unto that life which is eternal.

Helaman 8:16

And now behold, Moses did not only testify of these things, but also all the holy prophets from his day even to the days of Abraham.

Helaman 8:17

Yea, and behold, Abraham saw of his coming and was filled with gladness and did rejoice.

Helaman 8:18

Yea, and behold, I say unto you that Abraham not only knew of these things, but there were many before the days of Abraham which were called by the order of God, yea, even after the order of his Son— and this that it should be shewn unto the people a great many thousand years before his coming that even redemption should come unto them.

Helaman 8:19

And now I would that ye should know that ever since the days of Abraham there hath been many prophets that hath testified these things. Yea, behold, the prophet Zenos did testify boldly, for the which he was slain—and behold, also Zenoch and also Ezaiahs and also Isaiah and Jeremiah, Jeremiah being that same prophet which testified of the destruction of Jerusalem —and now we know that Jerusalem was destroyed according to the words of Jeremiah— O then why not the Son of God come according to his prophecy?

Helaman 8:20

Helaman 8:21

And now will ye dispute that Jerusalem was not destroyed? Will ye say that the sons of Zedekiah were not slain, all except it were Muloch? Yea, and do ye not behold that the seed of Zedekiah are with us and they were driven out of the land of Jerusalem? But behold, this is not all.

Helaman 8:22

Our father Lehi was driven out of Jerusalem because he testified of these things. Nephi also testified of these things, and also almost all of our fathers, even down to this time. Yea, they have testified of the coming of Christ and have looked forward and have rejoiced in his day, which is to come.

Helaman 8:23

And behold, he is God; and he is with them, and he did manifest himself unto them, that they were redeemed by him. And they gave unto him glory because of that which is to come.

Helaman 8:24

And now seeing ye know these things and cannot deny them except ye shall lie, therefore in this ye have sinned, for ye have rejected all these things, notwithstanding so many evidences which ye have received. Yea, even ye have received all things—both things in heaven and all things which are in earth— as a witness that they are true.

Helaman 8:25

But behold, ye have rejected the truth and rebelled against your holy God. And even at this time, instead of laying up for yourselves treasures in heaven —where nothing doth corrupt and where nothing can come which is unclean— ye are heaping up for yourselves wrath against the day of judgment.

Helaman 8:26

Yea, even at this time ye are ripening because of your murders and your fornication and wickedness for everlasting destruction. Yea, and except ye repent, it will come unto you soon.

Helaman 8:27

Yea, behold, it is now even at your doors. Yea, go ye in unto the judgment seat and search; and behold, your judge is murdered, and he lieth in his blood. And he hath been murdered by his brother, who seeketh to sit in the judgment seat.

Helaman 8:28

And behold, they both belong to your secret band whose author is Gaddianton and the evil one, which seeketh to destroy the souls of men.

Helaman 9

Helaman 9:1

Behold, now it came to pass that when Nephi had spoken these words, certain men which were among them ran to the judgment seat; yea, even there were five which went. And they said among themselves as they went:

Helaman 9:2

Behold, now we will know of a surety whether this man be a prophet and God hath commanded him to prophesy such marvelous things unto us. Behold, we do not believe that he hath; yea, we do not believe that he is a prophet. Nevertheless, if this thing which he hath said concerning the chief judge be true, that he be dead, then will we believe that the other words which he hath spoken is true.

Helaman 9:3

And it came to pass that they ran in their might and came in unto the judgment seat; and behold, the chief judge had fallen to the earth and did lie in his blood.

Helaman 9:4

And now behold, when they saw this, they were astonished exceedingly, insomuch that they fell to the earth, for they had not believed the words which Nephi had spoken concerning the chief judge.

Helaman 9:5

But now when they saw, they believed; and fear came upon them lest all the judgments which Nephi had spoken should come upon the people. Therefore they did quake and had fallen to the earth.

Helaman 9:6

Now immediately when the judge had been murdered, he being stabbed by his brother by a garb of secrecy —and he fled— and the servants ran and told the people, raising the cry of murder among them.

Helaman 9:7

And behold, the people did gather themselves together unto the place of the judgment seat. And behold, to their astonishment they saw those five men which had fallen to the earth.

Helaman 9:8

And now behold, the people knew nothing concerning the multitude which had gathered together at the garden of Nephi. Therefore they said among themselves: These men are they which have murdered the judge; and God hath smitten them that they could not flee from us.

Helaman 9:9

And it came to pass that they laid hold on them and bound them and cast them into prison. And there was a proclamation sent abroad that the judge was slain and that the murderers had been taken and was cast into prison.

Helaman 9:10

And it came to pass that on the morrow the people did assemble themselves together to mourn and to fast at the burial of the great and chief judge, which had been slain.

Helaman 9:11

And thus were also those judges which were at the garden of Nephi and heard his words were also gathered together at the burial.

And it came to pass that they inquired among the people, saying: Where are the five which was sent to inquire concerning the chief judge, whether he was dead? And they answered and said: Concerning this five which ye say ye have sent, we know not. But there are five which are the murderers, whom we have cast into prison.

Helaman 9:13

And it came to pass that the judges desired that they should be brought; and they were brought. And behold, they were the five which were sent. And behold, the judges inquired of them to know concerning the matter. And they told them all that they had done, saying:

Helaman 9:14

We ran and came to the place of the judgment seat. And when we saw all things even as Nephi had testified, we were astonished, insomuch that we fell to the earth. And when we were recovered from our astonishment, behold, they cast us into prison.

Helaman 9:15

Now as for the murder of this man, we know not who hath done it. And only this much we know: we ran and came according as ye desired; and behold, he was dead according to the words of Nephi.

Helaman 9:16

And now it came to pass that the judges did expound the matter unto the people and did cry out against Nephi, saying: Behold, we know that this Nephi must have agreed with some one to slay the judge; and then he might declare it unto us, that he might convert us unto his faith, that he might raise himself to be a great man, chosen of God and a prophet.

Helaman 9:17

And now behold, we will detect this man, and he shall confess his fault and make known unto us the true murderer of this judge.

Helaman 9:18

And it came to pass that the five were liberated on the day of the burial. Nevertheless they did rebuke the judges in the words which they had spoken against Nephi and did contend with them one by one, insomuch that they did confound them.

Helaman 9:19

Nevertheless they caused that Nephi should be taken and bound and brought before the multitude. And they began to question him in divers ways that they might cross him, that they might accuse him to death, saying unto him: Thou art confederate! Who is this man that hath done this murder? Now tell us and acknowledge thy fault! —saying— Behold, here is money! And also we will grant unto thee thy life if thou wilt tell us and acknowledge the agreement which thou hast made with him.

Helaman 9:20

Helaman 9:21

But Nephi saith unto them: O ye fools, ye uncircumcised of heart, ye blind and ye stiffnecked people, do ye know how long the Lord your God will suffer you that ye shall go on in this your ways of sin?

Helaman 9:22

O ye had ought to begin to howl and mourn because of the great destruction at this time which doth await you except ye shall repent.

Helaman 9:23

Behold, ye say that I have agreed with a man that he should murder Seezoram, our chief judge. But behold, I say unto you that this is because I have testified unto you that ye might know concerning this thing, yea, even for a witness unto you that I did know of the wickedness and abominations which is among you.

Helaman 9:24

And because I have done this, ye say that I have agreed with a man that he should do this thing. Yea, because I shewed unto you this sign, ye are angry with me and seek to destroy my life.

Helaman 9:25

And now behold, I will shew unto you another sign; and see if ye will in this thing seek to destroy me.

Helaman 9:26

Behold, I say unto you: Go to the house of Seantum, which is the brother of Seezoram, and say unto him:

Helaman 9:27

Hath Nephi the pretended prophet, which doth prophesy so much evil concerning this people, agreed with thee in the which ye have murdered Seezoram, which is your brother?

Helaman 9:28

And behold, he shall say unto you: Nay.

Helaman 9:29

And ye shall say unto him: Have ye murdered your brother?

Helaman 9:30

And he shall stand with fear and wist not what to say. And behold, he shall deny unto you; and he shall make as if he were astonished. Nevertheless he shall declare unto you that he is innocent.

Helaman 9:31

But behold, ye shall examine him, and ye shall find blood upon the skirts of his cloak.

Helaman 9:32

And when ye have seen this, ye shall say: From whence cometh this blood? Do we not know that it is the blood of your brother?

Helaman 9:33

And then shall he tremble and shall look pale, even as if death had come upon him.

Helaman 9:34

And then shall ye say: Because of this fear and this paleness which hath come upon your face, behold, we know that thou art guilty.

Helaman 9:35

And then shall greater fear come upon him; and then shall he confess unto you and deny no more that he hath done this murder.

Helaman 9:36

And then shall he say unto you that I Nephi knew nothing concerning the matter save it were given unto me by the power of God. And then shall ye know that I am an honest man and that I am sent unto you from God.

Helaman 9:37

And it came to pass that they went and did even according as Nephi had said unto them. And behold, the words which he had said were true; for according to the words he did deny, and also according to the words he did confess.

Helaman 9:38

And he was brought to prove that he himself was the very murderer, insomuch that the five were set at liberty, and also was Nephi.

Helaman 9:39

And there were some of the Nephites which believed on the words of Nephi. And there were some also which believed because of the testimony of the five, for they had been converted while they were in prison.

Helaman 9:40

And now there were some among the people which said that Nephi was a prophet.

Helaman 9:41

And there were others which said: Behold, he is a god; for except he was a god, he could not know of all things. For behold, he hath told us the thoughts of our hearts, and also hath told us things— and even he hath brought unto our knowledge the true murderer of our chief judge.

Helaman 10

Helaman 10:1

And it came to pass that there arose a division among the people, insomuch that they divided hither and thither and went their ways, leaving Nephi alone as he was standing in the midst of them.

Helaman 10:2

And it came to pass that Nephi went his way towards his own house, pondering upon the things which the Lord had shewn unto him.

Helaman 10:3

And it came to pass as he was thus pondering, being much cast down because of the wickedness of the people of the Nephites, their secret works of darkness and their murderings and their plunderings and all manner of iniquities— and it came to pass as he was thus pondering in his heart, behold, a voice came unto him, saying:

Helaman 10:4

Blessed art thou Nephi for those things which thou hast done. For I have beheld how thou hast with unwearyingness declared the word which I have given unto thee unto this people. And thou hast not feared them and hast not sought thine own life, but hath sought my will and to keep my commandments.

Helaman 10:5

And now because thou hast done this with such unwearyingness, behold, I will bless thee forever. And I will make thee mighty in word and in deed, in faith and in works, yea, even that all things shall be done unto thee according to thy word, for thou shalt not ask that which is contrary to my will.

Helaman 10:6

Behold, thou art Nephi and I am God. Behold, I declare it unto thee in the presence of mine angels that ye shall have power over this people and shall smite the earth with famine and with pestilence and destruction according to the wickedness of this people.

Helaman 10:7

Behold, I give unto you power that whatsoever ye shall seal on earth shall be sealed in heaven, and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven; and thus shall ye have power among this people.

Helaman 10:8

And thus if ye shall say unto this temple: It shall be rent in twain! —and it shall be done.

Helaman 10:9

And if ye shall say unto this mountain: Be thou cast down and become smooth! —and it shall be done.

Helaman 10:10

And behold, if ye shall say that God shall smite this people, it shall come to pass.

Helaman 10:11

And now behold, I command you that ye shall go and declare unto this people that thus saith the Lord God, who is the Almighty: Except ye repent, ye shall be smitten, even unto destruction.

Helaman 10:12

And behold, now it came to pass that when the Lord had spoken these words unto Nephi, he did stop and did not go unto his own house, but did return unto the multitudes which were scattered about upon the face of the land and began to declare unto them the word of the Lord which had been spoken unto him concerning their destruction if they did not repent.

Helaman 10:13

Now behold, notwithstanding that great miracle which Nephi had done in telling them concerning the death of the chief judge, they did harden their hearts and did not hearken unto the words of the Lord.

Helaman 10:14

Therefore Nephi did declare unto them the word of the Lord, saying: Except ye repent, thus saith the Lord, ye shall be smitten, even unto destruction.

Helaman 10:15

And it came to pass that when Nephi had declared unto them the word, behold, they did still harden their hearts and would not hearken unto his words. Therefore they did revile against him and did seek to lay their hands upon him that they might cast him into prison.

Helaman 10:16

But behold, the power of God was with him; and they could not take him to cast him into prison, for he was taken by the Spirit and conveyed away out of the midst of them.

Helaman 10:17

And it came to pass that thus he did go forth in the Spirit from multitude to multitude declaring the word of God, even until he had declared it unto them all, or sent it forth among all the people.

Helaman 10:18

And it came to pass that they would not hearken unto his words. And there began to be contentions, insomuch that they were divided against themselves and began to slay one another with the sword.

Helaman 10:19

And thus ended the seventy and first year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi.

Helaman 11

Helaman 11:1

And now it came to pass in the seventy and second year of the reign of the judges that the contentions did increase, insomuch that there were wars throughout all the land among all the people of Nephi.

Helaman 11:2

And it was this secret band of robbers which did carry on this work of destruction and wickedness. And this war did last all that year; and in the seventy and third year it did also last.

Helaman 11:3

And it came to pass that in this year Nephi did cry unto the Lord, saying:

Helaman 11:4

O Lord, do not suffer that this people shall be destroyed by the sword. But O Lord, rather let there be a famine in the land to stir them up in remembrance of the Lord their God; and perhaps they will repent and turn unto thee.

Helaman 11:5

And so it was done according to the words of Nephi, and there was a great famine upon the land among all the people of Nephi. And thus in the seventy and fourth year the famine did continue; and the work of destruction did cease by the sword but became sore by famine.

Helaman 11:6

And this work of destruction did also continue in the seventy and fifth year, for the earth was smitten that it was dry and did not yield forth grain in the season of grain. And the whole earth was smitten, even among the Lamanites as well as among the Nephites, so that they were smitten that they did perish by thousands in the more wicked parts of the land.

Helaman 11:7

And it came to pass that the people saw that they were about to perish by famine. And they began to remember the Lord their God, and they began to remember the words of Nephi.

Helaman 11:8

And the people began to plead with their chief judges and their leaders that they would say unto Nephi: Behold, we know that thou art a man of God. And therefore cry unto the Lord our God that he turn away from us this famine, lest all the words which thou hast spoken concerning our destruction be fulfilled.

Helaman 11:9

And it came to pass that the judges did say unto Nephi according to the words which had been desired. And it came to pass that when Nephi saw that the people had repented and did humble themselves in sackcloth, he cried again unto the Lord, saying:

Helaman 11:10

O Lord, behold, this people repenteth. And they have swept away the band of Gaddianton from amongst them, insomuch that they have become extinct; and they have concealed their secret plans in the earth.

Helaman 11:11

Now, O Lord, because of this their humility, wilt thou turn away thine anger and let thine anger be appeased in the destruction of those wicked men whom thou hast already destroyed?

Helaman 11:12

O Lord, wilt thou turn away thine anger—yea, thy fierce anger— and cause that this famine may cease in this land?

Helaman 11:13

O Lord, wilt thou hearken unto me and cause that it may be done according to my words and send forth rain upon the face of the earth, that she may bring forth her fruit and her grain in the season of grain?

Helaman 11:14

O Lord, thou didst hearken unto my words when I said: Let there be a famine that the pestilence of the sword might cease. And I know that thou wilt even at this time hearken unto my words, for thou saidst that if this people repent, I will spare them.

Helaman 11:15

Yea, O Lord, and thou seest that they have repented because of the famine and the pestilence and destruction which has come unto them.

Helaman 11:16

And now, O Lord, wilt thou turn away thine anger and try again if they will serve thee? And if so, O Lord, thou canst bless them according to thy word which thou hast said.

Helaman 11:17

And it came to pass that in the seventy and sixth year the Lord did turn away his anger from the people and caused that rain should fall upon the earth, insomuch that it did bring forth her fruit in the season of her fruit. And it came to pass that it did bring forth her grain in the season of her grain.

Helaman 11:18

And behold, the people did rejoice and glorify God, and the whole face of the land was filled with rejoicing. And they did no more seek to destroy Nephi, but they did esteem him as a great prophet and a man of God, having great power and authority given unto him from God.

Helaman 11:19

And behold, Lehi his brother was not a whit behind him as to things pertaining to righteousness.

Helaman 11:20

And thus it did come to pass that the people of Nephi began to prosper again in the land and began to build up their waste places and began to multiply and spread, even until they did cover the whole face of the land, both on the northward and on the southward, from the sea west to the sea east.

Helaman 11:21

And it came to pass that the seventy and sixth year did end in peace; and the seventy and seventh year began in peace. And the church did spread throughout the face of all the land. And the more part of the people, both the Nephites and the Lamanites, did belong to the church. And they did have exceeding great peace in the land. And thus ended the seventy and seventh year.

Helaman 11:22

And it came to pass that the seventy and sixth year did end in peace; and the seventy and seventh year began in peace. And the church did spread throughout the face of all the land. And the more part of the people, both the Nephites and the Lamanites, did belong to the church. And they did have exceeding great peace in the land. And thus ended the seventy and seventh year.

Helaman 11:23

And in the seventy and ninth year there began to be much strife. But it came to pass that Nephi and Lehi and many of their brethren, which knew concerning the true points of doctrine, having many revelations daily, therefore they did preach unto the people, insomuch that they did put an end to their strife in that same year.

Helaman 11:24

And it came to pass that in the eightieth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi, there were a certain number of the dissenters from the people of Nephi which had some years before gone over unto the Lamanites and took upon themselves the name of Lamanites—and also a certain number which were real descendants of the Lamanites, being stirred up to anger by them, or by those dissenters—therefore they commenced a war with their brethren.

Helaman 11:25

And they did commit murder and plunder; and then they would retreat back into the mountains and into the wilderness and secret places, hiding themselves that they could not be discovered, receiving daily an addition to their numbers, inasmuch as there were dissenters that went forth unto them.

Helaman 11:26

And thus in time—yea, even in the space of not many years— they became an exceeding great band of robbers. And they did search out all the secret plans of Gaddianton, and thus they became robbers of Gaddianton.

Helaman 11:27

Now behold, these robbers did make great havoc, yea, even great destruction among the people of Nephi and also among the people of the Lamanites.

Helaman 11:28

And it came to pass that it was expedient that there should be a stop put to this work of destruction. Therefore they sent an army of strong men into the wilderness and upon the mountains to search out this band of robbers and to destroy them.

Helaman 11:29

But behold, it came to pass that in that same year they were driven back, even into their own lands. And thus ended the eightieth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi.

Helaman 11:30

And it came to pass in the commencement of the eighty and first year they did go forth again against this band of robbers and did destroy many. And they were also visited with much destruction; and they were again obliged to return out of the wilderness and out of the mountains unto their own lands because of the exceeding greatness of the numbers of those robbers which infested the mountains and the wilderness.

Helaman 11:31

Helaman 11:32

And it came to pass that thus ended this year. And the robbers did still increase and wax strong, insomuch that they did defy the whole armies of the Nephites and also of the Lamanites. And they did cause great fear to come unto the people upon all the face of the land.

Helaman 11:33

Yea, for they did visit many parts of the land and did do great destruction unto them, yea, did kill many and did carry away others captive into the wilderness, yea, and more especially their women and their children.

Helaman 11:34

Now this great evil which came unto the people because of their iniquity did stir them up again in remembrance of the Lord their God.

Helaman 11:35

And thus ended the eighty and first year of the reign of the judges.

Helaman 11:36

And in the eighty and second year they began again to forget the Lord their God. And in the eighty and third year they began to wax strong in iniquity. And in the eighty and fourth year they did not mend their ways.

Helaman 11:37

And it came to pass in the eighty and fifth year they did wax stronger and stronger in their pride and in their wickedness. And thus they were ripening again for destruction.

Helaman 11:38

And thus ended the eighty and fifth year.

Helaman 12

Helaman 12:1

And thus we can behold how false and also the unsteadiness of the hearts of the children of men. Yea, we can see that the Lord in his great infinite goodness doth bless and prosper those who put their trust in him.

Helaman 12:2

Yea, and we may see at the very time when he doth prosper his people, yea, in the increase of their fields, their flocks and their herds, and in gold and in silver and in all manner of precious things of every kind and art, sparing their lives and delivering them out of the hands of their enemies, softening the hearts of their enemies, that they should not declare wars against them, yea, and in fine, doing all things for the welfare and happiness of his people, yea, then is the time that they do harden their hearts and do forget the Lord their God and do trample under their feet the Holy One— yea, and this because of their ease and their exceeding great prosperity.

Helaman 12:3

And thus we see that except the Lord doth chasten his people with many afflictions, yea, except he doth visit them with death and with terror and with famine and with all manner of pestilences, they will not remember him.

Helaman 12:4

O how foolish and how vain and how evil and devilish, and how quick to do iniquity and how slow to do good, are the children of men; yea, how quick to hearken unto the words of the evil one and to set their hearts upon the vain things of the world;

Helaman 12:5

yea, how quick to be lifted up in pride; yea, how quick to boast and do all manner of that which is iniquity; and how slow are they to remember the Lord their God and to give ear unto his counsels; yea, how slow to walk in wisdom's paths.

Helaman 12:6

Behold, they do not desire that the Lord their God, who hath created them, should rule and reign over them. Notwithstanding his great goodness and his mercy towards them, they do set at naught his counsels and they will not that he should be their guide.

Helaman 12:7

O how great is the nothingness of the children of men; yea, even they are less than the dust of the earth.

Helaman 12:8

For behold, the dust of the earth moveth hither and thither, to the dividing asunder at the command of our great and everlasting God.

Helaman 12:9

Yea, behold, at his voice doth the hills and the mountains tremble and quake.

Helaman 12:10

And by the power of his voice they are broken up and become smooth, yea, even like unto a valley.

Helaman 12:11

Yea, by the power of his voice doth the whole earth shake;

Helaman 12:12

yea, by the power of his voice doth the foundations rock, even to the very center.

Helaman 12:13

Yea, and if he saith unto the earth: Move! —and it is moved.

Helaman 12:14

Yea, if he say unto the earth: Thou shalt go back, that it lengthen out the day for many hours —and it is done.

Helaman 12:15

And thus according to his word the earth goeth back, and it appeareth unto man that the sun standeth still. Yea, and behold, this is so; for sure it is the earth that moveth and not the sun.

Helaman 12:16

And behold also, if he saith unto the waters of the great deep: Be thou dried up! —and it is done.

Helaman 12:17

Behold, if he saith unto this mountain: Be thou raised up and come over and fall upon that city that it be buried up! —and behold, it is done.

Helaman 12:18

And behold, if a man hideth up a treasure in the earth and the Lord shall say: Let it be accursed because of the iniquity of him that hath hid it up! —behold, it shall be accursed.

Helaman 12:19

And if the Lord shall say: Be thou accursed that no man shall find thee from this time henceforth and forever! —and behold, no man getteth it henceforth and forever.

Helaman 12:20

And behold, if the Lord shall say unto a man: Because of thine iniquities thou shalt be accursed forever —and it shall be done.

Helaman 12:21

And if the Lord shall say: Because of thine iniquities thou shalt be cut off from my presence —and he will cause that it shall be so.

Helaman 12:22

And woe unto whom he shall say this; for it shall be unto him that will do iniquity, and he cannot be saved. Therefore for this cause, that men might be saved, hath repentance been declared.

Helaman 12:23

Therefore blessed are they who will repent and hearken unto the voice of the Lord their God, for these are they that shall be saved.

Helaman 12:24

And may God grant in his great fullness that men might be brought unto repentance and good works, that they might be restored unto grace for grace according to their works.

Helaman 12:25

And I would that all men might be saved. But we read that in that great and last day there are some which shall be cast out, yea, which shall be cast off from the presence of the Lord, yea, which shall be consigned to a state of endless misery, fulfilling the words which saith: They that have done good shall have everlasting life; and they that have done evil shall have everlasting damnation. And thus it is. Amen.

Helaman 12:26

Helaman 13

The prophecy of Samuel the Lamanite to the Nephites.

Helaman 13:1

And now it came to pass in the eighty and sixth year the Nephites did still remain in wickedness—yea, in great wickedness—while the Lamanites did observe strictly to keep the commandments of God according to the law of Moses.

Helaman 13:2

And it came to pass that in this year there was one Samuel, a Lamanite, came into the land of Zarahemla and began to preach unto the people. And it came to pass that he did preach many days repentance unto the people. And they did cast him out, and he was about to return to his own land.

Helaman 13:3

But behold, the voice of the Lord came unto him, that he should return again and prophesy unto the people whatsoever things should come into his heart.

Helaman 13:4

And it came to pass that they would not suffer that he should enter into the city. Therefore he went and got upon the wall thereof and stretched forth his hand and cried with a loud voice and prophesied unto the people whatsoever things the Lord put into his heart.

Helaman 13:5

And he said unto them: Behold, I Samuel, a Lamanite, do speak the words of the Lord which he doth put into my heart. And behold, he hath put it into my heart to say unto this people that the sword of justice hangeth over this people; and four hundred years passeth not away save the sword of justice falleth upon this people.

Helaman 13:6

Yea, heavy destruction awaiteth this people. And it surely cometh unto this people; and nothing can save this people save it be repentance and faith on the Lord Jesus Christ, which surely shall come into the world and shall suffer many things and shall be slain for his people.

Helaman 13:7

And behold, an angel of the Lord hath declared it unto me; and he did bring glad tidings to my soul. And behold, I was sent unto you to declare it unto you also, that ye might have glad tidings. But behold, ye would not receive me.

Helaman 13:8

Therefore thus saith the Lord: Because of the hardness of the hearts of the people of the Nephites, except they repent, I will take away my word from them and I will withdraw my Spirit from them. And I will suffer them no longer, and I will turn the hearts of their brethren against them.

Helaman 13:9

And four hundred years shall not pass away before I will cause that they shall be smitten. Yea, I will visit them with the sword and with famine and with pestilence; yea, I will visit them in my fierce anger. And there shall be those of the fourth generation which shall live, of your enemies, to behold your utter destruction. And this shall surely come except ye repent, saith the Lord. And those of the fourth generation shall visit your destruction.

Helaman 13:10

Helaman 13:11

But if ye will repent and return unto the Lord your God, I will turn away mine anger, saith the Lord. Yea, thus saith the Lord: Blessed are they who will repent and turn unto me, but woe unto him that repenteth not.

Helaman 13:12

Yea, woe unto this great city of Zarahemla! For behold, it is because of they which are righteous that it is saved. Yea, woe unto this great city! For I perceive, saith the Lord, that there are many, yea, even the more part of this great city, that will harden their hearts against me, saith the Lord.

Helaman 13:13

But blessed are they who will repent, for them will I spare. But behold, if it were not for the righteous which are in this great city, behold, I would cause that fire should come down out of heaven and destroy it.

Helaman 13:14

But behold, it is for the righteous' sake that it is spared. But behold, the time cometh, saith the Lord, that when ye shall cast out the righteous from among you, then shall ye be ripe for destruction. Yea, woe be unto this great city because of the wickedness and abominations which is in her.

Helaman 13:15

Yea, and woe be unto the city of Gideon for the wickedness and abominations which is in her.

Helaman 13:16

Yea, and woe be unto all the cities which are in the land round about which is possessed by the Nephites because of the wickedness and the abominations which is in them.

Helaman 13:17

And behold, a curse shall come upon the land, saith the Lord of Hosts, because of the people's sake which is upon the land, yea, because of their wickedness and their abominations.

Helaman 13:18

And it shall come to pass, saith the Lord of Hosts, yea, our great and true God, that whoso shall hide up treasures in the earth shall find them again no more because of the great curse of the land, save he be a righteous man and shall hide it up unto the Lord.

Helaman 13:19

For I will, saith the Lord, that they shall hide up their treasures unto me. And cursed be they who hideth not up their treasures unto me, for none hideth up their treasures unto me save it be the righteous. And he that hideth not up his treasure unto me, cursed is he and also the treasure; and none shall redeem it because of the curse of the land.

Helaman 13:20

And the day shall come that they shall hide up their treasures because they have set their hearts upon riches. And because they have set their hearts upon their riches and will hide up their treasures when they shall flee before their enemies, because they will not hide them up unto me, cursed be they and also their treasures. And in that day shall they be smitten, saith the Lord.

Helaman 13:21

Behold, ye the people of this great city, and hearken unto my words. Yea, hearken unto the words which the Lord saith. For behold, he saith that ye are cursed because of your riches; and also are your riches cursed because ye have set your hearts upon them and hath not hearkened unto the words of him who gave them unto you.

Helaman 13:22

Ye do not remember the Lord your God in the things which he hath blessed you. But ye do always remember your riches, not to thank the Lord your God for them. Yea, your heart is not drawn out unto the Lord, but they do swell with great pride unto boasting and unto great swelling, envyings, strifes, malice, persecutions, and murders, and all manner of iniquities.

Helaman 13:23

For this cause hath the Lord God caused that a curse should come upon the land and also upon your riches— and this because of your iniquities.

Helaman 13:24

Yea, woe unto this people because of this time which has arriven that ye do cast out the prophets and do mock them and cast stones at them and do slay them and do do all manner of iniquity unto them, even as they did of old time.

Helaman 13:25

And now when ye talk, ye say: If our days had been in the days of our fathers of old, we would not have slain the prophets; we would not have stoned them and cast them out.

Helaman 13:26

Behold, ye are worse than they. For as the Lord liveth, if a prophet come among you and declareth unto you the word of the Lord, which testifieth of your sins and iniquities, ye are angry with him and cast him out and seek all manner of ways to destroy him. Yea, you will say that he is a false prophet and that he is a sinner and of the devil because he testifieth that your deeds are evil.

Helaman 13:27

But behold, if a man shall come among you and shall say: Do this and there is no iniquity! Do that and ye shall not suffer! Yea, he will say: Walk after the pride of your own hearts; yea, walk after the pride of your eyes and do whatsoever your heart desireth. And if a man shall come among you and say this, ye will receive him. And ye will say that he is a prophet; yea, ye will lift him up. And ye will give unto him of your substance; ye will give unto him of your gold and of your silver; and ye will clothe him with costly apparel. And because he speaketh flattering words unto you and he saith that all is well, and then ye will not find no fault with him.

Helaman 13:29

O ye wicked and ye perverse generation, ye hardened and ye stiffnecked people, how long will ye suppose that the Lord will suffer you? Yea, how long will ye suffer yourselves to be led by foolish and blind guides? Yea, how long will ye choose darkness rather than light?

Helaman 13:30

Yea, behold, the anger of the Lord is already kindled against you. Behold, he hath cursed the land because of your iniquity.

Helaman 13:31

And behold, the time cometh that he curseth your riches, that it becometh slippery, that ye cannot hold them; and in the days of your poverty ye cannot retain them.

Helaman 13:32

And in the days of your poverty ye shall cry unto the Lord, and in vain shall ye cry; for your desolation is already come upon you, and your destruction is made sure. And then shall ye weep and howl in that day, saith the Lord of Hosts, and then shall ye lament and say:

Helaman 13:33

O that I had repented and had not killed the prophets and stoned them and cast them out. Yea, in that day shall ye say: O that we had remembered the Lord our God in the day that he gave us our riches, and then they would not have become slippery, that we should lose them. For behold, our riches are gone from us.

Helaman 13:34

Behold, we layeth a tool here and on the morrow it is gone. And behold, our swords are taken from us in the day we have sought them for battle.

Helaman 13:35

Yea, we have hid up our treasures, and they have slipped away from us because of the curse of the land.

Helaman 13:36

O that we had repented in the day that the word of the Lord came unto us. For behold, the land is cursed; and all things are become slippery and we cannot hold them.

Helaman 13:37

Behold, we are surrounded by demons; yea, we are encircled about by the angels of him who hath sought to destroy our souls. Behold, our iniquities are great. O Lord, canst thou not turn away thine anger from us? And this shall be your language in them days.

Helaman 13:38

But behold, your days of probation is past. Ye have procrastinated the day of your salvation until it is everlastingly too late and your destruction is made sure. Yea, for ye have sought all the days of your lives for that which ye could not obtain. And ye have sought for happiness in doing iniquity, which thing is contrary to the nature of that righteousness which is in our great and eternal Head.

Helaman 13:39

O ye people of the land, that ye would hear my words! And I pray that the anger of the Lord be turned away from you and that ye would repent and be saved.

Helaman 14

Helaman 14:1

And now it came to pass that Samuel the Lamanite did prophesy a great many more things which cannot be written.

Helaman 14:2

And behold, he saith unto them: Behold, I give unto you a sign. For five years more cometh, and behold, then cometh the Son of God to redeem all those who shall believe on his name.

Helaman 14:3

And behold, this will I give unto you for a sign at the time of his coming. For behold, there shall be great lights in heaven, insomuch that in the night before he cometh there shall be no darkness, insomuch that it shall appear unto man as if it was day.

Helaman 14:4

Therefore there shall be one day and a night and a day, as if it were one day and there were no night. And this shall be unto you for a sign, for ye shall know of the rising of the sun and also of its sitting. Therefore they shall know of a surety that there shall be two days and a night; nevertheless the night shall not be darkened. And it shall be the night before he is born.

Helaman 14:5

And behold, there shall be a new star arise, such an one as ye never have beheld; and this also shall be a sign unto you.

Helaman 14:6

And behold, this is not all. There shall be many signs and wonders in heaven.

Helaman 14:7

And it shall come to pass that ye shall all be amazed and wonder, insomuch that ye shall fall to the earth.

Helaman 14:8

And it shall come to pass that whosoever shall believe on the Son of God, the same shall have everlasting life.

Helaman 14:9

And behold, thus hath the Lord commanded me by his angel that I should come and tell this thing unto you. Yea, he hath commanded that I should prophesy these things unto you; yea, he hath said unto me: Cry unto this people: Repent and prepare the way of the Lord.

Helaman 14:10

And now because I am a Lamanite and hath spoken unto you the words which the Lord hath commanded me and because it was hard against you, ye are angry with me and do seek to destroy me and have cast me out from among you.

Helaman 14:11

And ye shall hear my words, for for this intent I have come up upon the walls of this city, that ye might hear and know of the judgments of God which doth await you because of your iniquities, and also that ye might know the conditions of repentance, and also that ye might know of the coming of Jesus Christ the Son of God, the Father of heaven and of earth, the Creator of all things from the beginning, and that ye might know of the signs of his coming, to the intent that ye might believe on his name.

Helaman 14:12

Helaman 14:13

And if ye believe on his name, ye will repent of all your sins, that thereby ye may have a remission of them through his merits.

Helaman 14:14

And behold, again another sign I give unto you, yea, a sign of his death.

Helaman 14:15

For behold, he surely must die, that salvation may come. Yea, it behooveth him and becometh expedient that he dieth to bring to pass the resurrection of the dead, that thereby men may be brought into the presence of the Lord.

Helaman 14:16

Yea, behold, this death bringeth to pass the resurrection and redeemeth all mankind from the first death, that spiritual death. For all mankind, by the fall of Adam being cut off from the presence of the Lord, are considered as dead, both as to things temporal and to things spiritual.

Helaman 14:17

But behold, the resurrection of Christ redeemeth mankind, yea, even all mankind, and bringeth them back into the presence of the Lord.

Helaman 14:18

Yea, and it bringeth to pass the conditions of repentance, that whosoever repenteth, the same is not hewn down and cast into the fire. But whosoever repenteth not is hewn down and cast into the fire. And there cometh upon them again a spiritual death, yea, a second death, for they are cut off again as to things pertaining to righteousness.

Helaman 14:19

Therefore repent ye, repent ye, lest by knowing these things and not doing them, ye shall suffer yourselves to come under condemnation and ye are brought down unto this second death.

Helaman 14:20

But behold, as I said unto you concerning another sign, a sign of his death, behold, in that day that he shall suffer death, the sun shall be darkened and refuse to give his light unto you, and also the moon and the stars; and there shall be no light upon the face of this land, even from the time that he shall suffer death, for the space of three days, to the time that he shall rise again from the dead.

Helaman 14:21

Yea, at the time that he shall yield up the ghost, there shall be thunderings and lightnings for the space of many hours. And the earth shall shake and tremble. And the rocks which is upon the face of the earth, which is both above the earth and beneath, which ye know at this time is solid—or the more part of it is one solid mass— shall be broken up.

Helaman 14:22

Yea, they shall be rent in twain and shall ever after be found in seams and in cracks and in broken fragments upon the face of the whole earth, yea, both above the earth and beneath.

Helaman 14:23

And behold, there shall be great tempests. And there shall be many mountains laid low like unto a valley. And there shall be many places which are now called valleys which shall become mountains whose heighth thereof is great.

Helaman 14:24

And many highways shall be broken up; and many cities shall become desolate.

Helaman 14:25

And many graves shall be opened and shall yield up many of their dead; and many saints shall appear unto many.

Helaman 14:26

And behold, thus hath the angel spoken unto me. For he said unto me that there should be thunderings and lightnings for the space of many hours.

Helaman 14:27

And he said unto me that while the thunder and the lightning lasted, and the tempest, that these things should be and that darkness should cover the face of the whole earth for the space of three days.

Helaman 14:28

And the angel said unto me that many shall see greater things than these, to the intent that they might believe— that these signs and these wonders should come to pass upon all the face of this land, to the intent that there should be no cause for unbelief among the children of men—and this to the intent that whosoever will believe might be saved and that whosoever will not believe, a righteous judgment might come upon them; and also if they are condemned, they bring upon themselves their own condemnation.

Helaman 14:30

And now remember, remember, my brethren, that whosoever perisheth perisheth unto himself and whosoever doeth iniquity doeth it unto himself. For behold, ye are free; ye are permitted to act for yourselves. For behold, God hath given unto you a knowledge, and he hath made you free.

Helaman 14:31

He hath given unto you that ye might know good from evil. And he hath given unto you that ye might choose life or death. And ye can do good and be restored unto that which is good, or have that which is good restored unto you; or ye can do evil and have that which is evil restored unto you.

Helaman 15

Helaman 15:1

And now my beloved brethren, behold, I declare unto you that except ye shall repent, your houses shall be left unto you desolate.

Helaman 15:2

Yea, except ye repent, your women shall have great cause to mourn in the day that they shall give suck. For ye shall attempt to flee and there shall be no place for refuge. Yea, and woe unto them which are with child, for they shall be heavy and cannot flee. Therefore they shall be trodden down and shall be left to perish.

Helaman 15:3

Yea, woe unto this people which are called the people of Nephi except they shall repent when they shall see all those signs and wonders which shall be shewed unto them. For behold, they have been a chosen people of the Lord. Yea, the people of Nephi hath he loved. And also hath he chastened them; yea, in the days of their iniquities hath he chastened them because he loveth them.

Helaman 15:4

But behold, my brethren, the Lamanites hath he hated because their deeds have been evil continually— and this because of the iniquity of the tradition of their fathers. But behold, salvation hath come unto them through the preaching of the Nephites; and for this intent hath the Lord prolonged their days.

Helaman 15:5

And I would that ye should behold that the more part of them are in the path of their duty, and they do walk circumspectly before God, and they do observe to keep his commandments and his statutes and his judgments according to the law of Moses.

Helaman 15:6

Yea, I say unto you that the more part of them are doing this. And they are striving with unwearied diligence that they may bring the remainder of their brethren to the knowledge of the truth. Therefore there are many which do add to their numbers daily.

Helaman 15:7

And behold, ye do know of yourselves, for ye have witnessed it, that as many of them as are brought to the knowledge of the truth and to know of the wicked and abominable traditions of their fathers and are led to believe the holy scriptures —yea, the prophecies of the holy prophets which are written, which leadeth them to faith on the Lord and unto repentance, which faith and repentance bringeth a change of heart unto them—therefore as many as have come to this, ye know of yourselves are firm and steadfast in the faith and in the thing wherewith they have been made free.

Helaman 15:9

And ye know also that they have buried their weapons of war, and they fear to take them up lest by any means they shall sin; yea, ye can see that they fear to sin. For behold, they will suffer themselves that they be trodden down and slain by their enemies and will not lift their swords against them— and this because of their faith in Christ.

Helaman 15:10

And now because of their steadfastness when they do believe in that thing which they do believe, for because of their firmness when they are once enlightened, behold, the Lord shall bless them and prolong their days, notwithstanding their iniquity.

Helaman 15:11

Yea, even if they should dwindle in unbelief, the Lord shall prolong their days until the time shall come which hath been spoken of by our fathers, and also by the prophet Zenos and many other prophets, concerning the restoration of our brethren the Lamanites again to the knowledge of the truth.

Helaman 15:12

Yea, I say unto you that in the latter times the promises of the Lord hath been extended to our brethren the Lamanites. And notwithstanding the many afflictions which they shall have and notwithstanding they shall be driven to and fro upon the face of the earth and be hunted and shall be smitten and scattered abroad, having no place for refuge, the Lord shall be merciful unto them.

Helaman 15:13

And this is according to the prophecy that they shall again be brought to the true knowledge, which is the knowledge of their Redeemer and their great and their true shepherd, and be numbered among his sheep.

Helaman 15:14

Therefore I say unto you: It shall be better for them than for you except ye repent.

Helaman 15:15

For behold, had the mighty works been shewn unto them which have been shewn unto you —yea, unto them which have dwindled in unbelief because of the traditions of their fathers— ye can see of yourselves that they never would again have dwindled in unbelief.

Helaman 15:16

Therefore, saith the Lord, I will not utterly destroy them, but I will cause that in the day of my wisdom they shall return again unto me, saith the Lord.

Helaman 15:17

And now behold, saith the Lord concerning the people of the Nephites, if they will not repent and observe to do my will, I will utterly destroy them, saith the Lord, because of their unbelief, notwithstanding the many mighty works which I have done among them. And as surely as the Lord liveth shall these things be, saith the Lord.

Helaman 16

Helaman 16:1

And now it came to pass that there were many which heard the words of Samuel the Lamanite which he spake upon the walls of the city. And as many as believed on his words went forth and sought for Nephi. And when they had come forth and found him, they confessed unto him their sins and denied not, desiring that they might be baptized unto the Lord.

Helaman 16:2

But as many as there were which did not believe in the words of Samuel were angry with him. And they cast stones at him upon the wall, and also many shot arrows at him as he stood upon the wall. But the Spirit of the Lord was with him, insomuch that they could not hit him with their stones neither with their arrows.

Helaman 16:3

Now when they saw this, that they could not hit him, there were many more which did believe on his words, insomuch that they went away unto Nephi to be baptized.

Helaman 16:4

For behold, Nephi was baptizing and a prophesying and preaching, crying repentance unto the people, shewing signs and wonders, working miracles among the people, that they might know that the Christ must shortly come, telling them of things which must shortly come, that they might know and remember at the time of their coming that they had been made known unto them beforehand, to the intent that they might believe. Therefore as many as believed on the words of Samuel went forth unto him to be baptized, for they came repenting and confessing their sins.

Helaman 16:5

Helaman 16:6

But the more part of them did not believe in the words of Samuel. Therefore when they saw that they could not hit him with their stones and their arrows, they cried out unto their captains, saying: Take this fellow and bind him. For behold, he hath a devil; and because of the power of the devil which is in him, we cannot hit him with our stones and our arrows. Therefore take him and bind him and away with him.

Helaman 16:7

And as they went forth to lay their hands on him, behold, he did cast himself down from the wall and did flee out of their lands, yea, even unto his own country, and began to preach and to prophesy among his own people.

Helaman 16:8

And behold, he was never heard of more among the Nephites. And thus were the affairs of the people.

Helaman 16:9

And thus ended the eighty and sixth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi.

Helaman 16:10

And thus ended also the eighty and seventh year of the reign of the judges— and the more part of the people remaining in their pride and wickedness and the lesser part walking more circumspectly before God.

Helaman 16:11

And thus were the conditions also in the eighty and eighth year of the reign of the judges.

Helaman 16:12

And there were but little alteration in the affairs of the people, save it were the people began to be more hardened in iniquity and do more and more of that which was contrary to the commandments of God in the eighty and ninth year of the reign of the judges.

Helaman 16:13

But behold, it came to pass in the ninetieth year of the reign of the judges there were great signs given unto the people, and wonders. And the words of the prophets began to be fulfilled.

Helaman 16:14

And angels did appear unto men, wise men, and did declare unto them glad tidings of great joy. And thus in this year the scriptures began to be fulfilled.

Helaman 16:15

Nevertheless the people began to harden their hearts—all save it were the most believing part of them, both of the Nephites and also of the Lamanites—and began to depend upon their own strength and upon their own wisdom, saying:

Helaman 16:16

Some things they may have guessed right among so many. But behold, we know that all these great and marvelous works cannot come to pass of which hath been spoken.

Helaman 16:17

And they began to reason and to contend among themselves, saying that it is not reasonable that such a being as a Christ shall come. If so—and he be the Son of God, the Father of heaven and of earth, as it hath been spoken— why will he not shew himself unto us as well as unto they which shall be at Jerusalem?

Helaman 16:18

Helaman 16:19

Yea, why will he not shew himself in this land as well as in the land of Jerusalem?

Helaman 16:20

But behold, we know that this is a wicked tradition which has been handed down unto us by our fathers, to cause us that we should believe in some great and marvelous thing which should come to pass, but not among us, but in a land which is far distant, a land which we know not. Therefore they can keep us in ignorance, for we cannot witness with our own eyes that they are true.

Helaman 16:21

And they will by the cunning and the mysterious arts of the evil one work some great mystery which we cannot understand, which will keep us down to be servants to their words and also servants unto them—for we depend upon them for to teach us the word—and thus will they keep us in ignorance, if we will yield ourselves unto them, all the days of our lives.

Helaman 16:22

And many more things did the people imagine up in their hearts which were foolish and vain. And they were much disturbed, for Satan did stir them up to do iniquity continually. Yea, he did go about spreading rumors and contentions upon all the face of the land, that he might harden the hearts of the people against that which was good and against that which should come.

Helaman 16:23

And notwithstanding the signs and the wonders which was wrought among the people of the Lord and the many miracles which they did, Satan did get great hold upon the hearts of the people upon all the face of the land.

Helaman 16:24

And thus ended the ninetieth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi.

Helaman 16:25

And thus ended the book of Helaman, according to the record of Helaman and his sons.

3 Nephi

The Book of Nephi the son of Nephi, which was the son of Helaman And Helaman was the son of Helaman, which was the son of Alma, which was the son of Alma, being a descendant of Nephi, which was the son of Lehi, which came out of Jerusalem in the first year of the reign of Zedekiah the king of Judah.

3 Nephi 1

3 Nephi 1:1

Now it came to pass that the ninety and first year had passed away, and it was six hundred years from the time that Lehi left Jerusalem. And it was in the year that Lachoneus was the chief judge and the governor over the land.

3 Nephi 1:2

And Nephi the son of Helaman had departed out of the land of Zarahemla, giving charge unto his son Nephi, which was his eldest son, concerning the plates of brass and all the records which had been kept, and all those things which had been kept sacred, from the departure of Lehi out of Jerusalem.

3 Nephi 1:3

Then he departed out of the land; and whither he went no man knoweth. And his son Nephi did keep the record in his stead, yea, the record of this people.

3 Nephi 1:4

And it came to pass that in the commencement of the ninety and second year, behold, the prophecies of the prophets began to be fulfilled more fully, for there began to be greater signs and greater miracles wrought among the people.

3 Nephi 1:5

But there were some which began to say that the time was past for the words to be fulfilled which was spoken by Samuel the Lamanite.

3 Nephi 1:6

And they began to rejoice over their brethren, saying: Behold, the time is past, and the words of Samuel are not fulfilled. Therefore your joy and your faith concerning this thing hath been vain.

3 Nephi 1:7

And it came to pass that they did make a great uproar throughout the land. And the people which believed began to be very sorrowful lest by any means those things which had been spoken might not come to pass.

3 Nephi 1:8

But behold, they did watch steadfastly for that day and that night and that day which should be as one day, as if there were no night, that they might know that their faith had not been vain.

Now it came to pass that there was a day set apart by the unbelievers that all those who believed in those traditions should be put to death except the sign should come to pass which had been given by Samuel the prophet.

3 Nephi 1:10

Now it came to pass that when Nephi the son of Nephi saw this wickedness of his people, his heart was exceeding sorrowful.

3 Nephi 1:11

And it came to pass that he went out and bowed himself down upon the earth and cried mightily to his God in behalf of his people, yea, those which were about to be destroyed because of their faith in the tradition of their fathers.

3 Nephi 1:12

And it came to pass that he cried mightily unto the Lord all that day. And behold, the voice of the Lord came unto him, saying:

3 Nephi 1:13

Lift up your head and be of good cheer. For behold, the time is at hand, and on this night shall the sign be given. And on the morrow come I into the world, to shew unto the world that I will fulfill all that which I have caused to be spoken by the mouth of my holy prophets.

3 Nephi 1:14

Behold, I come unto my own to fulfill all things which I have made known unto the children of men from the foundation of the world, and to do the will both of the Father and of the Son— of the Father because of me, and of the Son because of my flesh. And behold, the time is at hand, and this night shall the sign be given.

3 Nephi 1:15

And it came to pass that the words which came unto Nephi was fulfilled, according as they had been spoken. For behold, at the going down of the sun there was no darkness. And the people began to be astonished because there was no darkness when the night came.

3 Nephi 1:16

And there were many which had not believed the words of the prophets fell to the earth and became as if they were dead, for they knew that the great plan of destruction which they had laid for those who believed in the words of the prophets had been frustrated, for the sign which had been given was already at hand.

3 Nephi 1:17

And they began to know that the Son of God must shortly appear. Yea, and in fine, all the people upon the face of the whole earth, from the west to the east, both in the land north and in the land south, were so exceedingly astonished that they fell to the earth.

3 Nephi 1:18

For they knew that the prophets had testified of these things for many years and that the sign which had been given was already at hand. And they began to fear because of their iniquity and their unbelief.

3 Nephi 1:19

And it came to pass that there was no darkness in all that night, but it was as light as though it was midday. And it came to pass that the sun did rise in the morning again, according to its proper order. And they knew that it was the day that the Lord should be born, because of the sign which had been given.

3 Nephi 1:20

And it had come to pass—yea, all things— every whit according to the words of the prophets.

3 Nephi 1:21

And it came to pass also that a new star did appear, according to the word.

3 Nephi 1:22

And it came to pass that from this time forth there began to be lyings sent forth among the people by Satan, to harden their hearts, to the intent that they might not believe in those signs and wonders which they had seen. But notwithstanding these lyings and deceivings, the more part of the people did believe and were converted unto the Lord.

3 Nephi 1:23

And it came to pass that Nephi went forth among the people, and also many others, baptizing unto repentance, in the which there were a great remission of sins. And thus the people began again to have peace in the land.

3 Nephi 1:24

And there were no contentions save it were a few that began to preach —endeavoring to prove by the scriptures— that it was no more expedient to observe the law of Moses. Now in this thing they did err, having not understood the scriptures.

3 Nephi 1:25

But it came to pass that they soon became converted and were convinced of the error which they were in, for it was made known unto them that the law was not yet fulfilled and that it must be fulfilled in every whit. Yea, the word came unto them that it must be fulfilled— yea, that one jot nor tittle should not pass away till it should all be fulfilled. Therefore in this same year were they brought to a knowledge of their error and did confess their faults.

3 Nephi 1:26

And thus the ninety and second year did pass away, bringing glad tidings unto the people because of the signs which did come to pass according to the words of the prophecy of all the holy prophets.

3 Nephi 1:27

And it came to pass that the ninety and third year did also pass away in peace save it were for the Gaddianton robbers, which dwelt upon the mountains, which did infest the land. For so strong were their holds and their secret places that the people could not overpower them; therefore they did commit many murders and did do much slaughter among the people.

3 Nephi 1:28

And it came to pass that in the ninety and fourth year they began to increase in a great degree because there were many dissenters of the Nephites which did flee unto them, which did cause much sorrow unto those Nephites which did remain in the land.

3 Nephi 1:29

And there was also a cause of much sorrow among the Lamanites; for behold, they had many children which did grow up and began to wax strong in years, that they became for themselves, and were led away by some which were Zoramites by their lyings and their flattering words to join those Gaddianton robbers.

3 Nephi 1:30

And thus were the Lamanites afflicted also and began to decrease as to their faith and righteousness because of the wickedness of the rising generation.

3 Nephi 2

3 Nephi 2:1

And it came to pass that thus passed away the ninety and fifth year also. And the people began to forget those signs and wonders which they had heard and began to be less and less astonished at a sign or a wonder from heaven, insomuch that they began to be hard in their hearts and blind in their minds and began to disbelieve all which they had heard and seen, imagining up some vain thing in their hearts, that it was wrought by men and by the power of the devil to lead away and deceive the hearts of the people. And thus did Satan get possession of the hearts of the people again, insomuch that he did blind their eyes and lead them away to believe that the doctrine of Christ was a foolish and a vain thing.

3 Nephi 2:2

3 Nephi 2:3

And it came to pass that the people began to wax strong in wickedness and abominations. And they did not believe that there should be any more signs or wonders given. And Satan did go about leading away the hearts of the people, tempting them and causing them that they should do great wickedness in the land.

3 Nephi 2:4

And thus did pass away the ninety and sixth year, and also the ninety and seventh year, and also the ninety and eighth year, and also the ninety and ninth year.

3 Nephi 2:5

And also an hundred years had passed away since the days of Mosiah, which was king over the people of the Nephites.

3 Nephi 2:6

And six hundred and nine years had passed away since Lehi left Jerusalem.

3 Nephi 2:7

And nine years had passed away from the time which the sign was given which was spoken of by the prophets that Christ should come into the world.

3 Nephi 2:8

Now the Nephites began to reckon their time from this period which the sign was given, or from the coming of Christ; therefore nine years had passed away.

3 Nephi 2:9

And Nephi, which was the father of Nephi, which had the charge of the records, did not return to the land of Zarahemla and could nowhere be found in all the land.

3 Nephi 2:10

And it came to pass that the people did still remain in wickedness, notwithstanding the much preaching and prophesying which was sent among them. And thus passed away the tenth year also; and the eleventh year also passed away in iniquity.

3 Nephi 2:11

And it came to pass in the thirteenth year there began to be wars and contentions throughout all the land, for the Gaddianton robbers had become so numerous and did slay so many of the people and did lay waste so many cities and did spread so much death and carnage throughout the land that it became expedient that all the people, both the Nephites and the Lamanites, should take up arms against them.

3 Nephi 2:12

Therefore all the Lamanites which had become converted unto the Lord did unite with their brethren the Nephites and were compelled for the safety of their lives and their women and their children to take up arms against those Gaddianton robbers, yea, and also to maintain their rights and the privileges of their church and of their worship and their freedom and their liberty.

3 Nephi 2:13

And it came to pass that before this thirteenth year had passed away, the Nephites were threatened with utter destruction because of this war, which had become exceeding sore.

3 Nephi 2:14

And it came to pass that those Lamanites which had united with the Nephites were numbered among the Nephites.

3 Nephi 2:15

And their curse was taken from them, and their skin became white like unto the Nephites.

3 Nephi 2:16

And their young men and their daughters became exceeding fair; and they were numbered among the Nephites and were called Nephites. And thus ended the thirteenth year.

3 Nephi 2:17

And it came to pass in the commencement of the fourteenth year the war between the robbers and the people of Nephi did continue and did become exceeding sore. Nevertheless the people of Nephi did gain some advantage of the robbers, insomuch that they did drive them back out of their lands into the mountains and into their secret places.

3 Nephi 2:18

And thus ended the fourteenth year. And in the fifteenth year they did come forth again against the people of Nephi. And because of the wickedness of the people of Nephi and their many contentions and dissensions, the Gaddianton robbers did gain many advantages over them.

3 Nephi 2:19

And thus ended the fifteenth year. And thus were the people in a state of many afflictions; and the sword of destruction did hang over them, insomuch that they were about to be smitten down by it— and this because of their iniquity.

3 Nephi 3

3 Nephi 3:1

And now it came to pass that in the sixteenth year from the coming of Christ Lachoneus the governor of the land received an epistle from the leader and the governor of this band of robbers. And these are the words which were written, saying:

3 Nephi 3:2

Lachoneus, most noble and chief governor of the land, behold, I write this epistle unto you and do give unto you exceeding great praise because of your firmness, and also the firmness of your people, in maintaining that which ye suppose to be your right and liberty. Yea, ye do stand well as if ye were supported by the hand of a god in the defense of your liberty and your property and your country, or that which ye do call so.

3 Nephi 3:3

And it seemeth a pity unto me, most noble Lachoneus, that ye should be so foolish and vain as to suppose that ye can stand against so many brave men which are at my command, which do now at this time stand in their arms and do await with great anxiety for the word: Go down upon the Nephites and destroy them!

3 Nephi 3:4

And I knowing of their unconquerable spirit, having proved them in the field of battle, and knowing of their everlasting hatred towards you because of the many wrongs which ye have done unto them —therefore if they should come down against you, they would visit you with utter destruction—

therefore I have wrote this epistle, sealing it with mine own hand, feeling for your welfare because of your firmness in that which ye believe to be right and your noble spirit in the field of battle.

3 Nephi 3:6

Therefore I write unto you, desiring that ye would yield up unto this my people your cities, your lands, and your possessions, rather than that they should visit you with the sword and that destruction should come upon you.

3 Nephi 3:7

Or in other words, yield yourselves up unto us and unite with us and become acquainted with our secret works and become our brethren, that ye may be like unto us, not our slaves, but our brethren and partners of all our substance.

3 Nephi 3:8

And behold, I swear unto you: If ye will do this with an oath, ye shall not be destroyed. But if ye will not do this, I swear unto you with an oath that on the morrow month I will command that my armies shall come down against you, and they shall not stay their hand and shall spare not, but shall slay you and shall let fall the sword upon you, yea, even until ye shall become extinct.

3 Nephi 3:9

And behold, I am Giddianhi and am the governor of this the secret society of Gaddianton, which society and the works thereof I know to be good. And they are of ancient date, and they have been handed down unto us.

3 Nephi 3:10

And I write this epistle unto you Lachoneus; and I hope that ye will deliver up your lands and your possessions without the shedding of blood, that this my people may recover their rights and government, which have dissented away from you because of your wickedness in retaining from them their rights of government. And except ye do this, I will avenge their wrongs. I am Giddianhi.

3 Nephi 3:11

And now it came to pass when Lachoneus received this epistle, he was exceedingly astonished because of the boldness of Giddianhi in demanding the possession of the land of the Nephites, and also of threatening the people, and avenging the wrongs of those that had received no wrong save it were they had wronged themselves by dissenting away unto those wicked and abominable robbers.

3 Nephi 3:12

And now behold, this Lachoneus, the governor, was a just man and could not be frightened by the demands and the threatenings of a robber. Therefore he did not hearken to the epistle of Giddianhi, the governor of the robbers, but he did cause that his people should cry unto the Lord for strength against the time that the robbers should come down against them.

3 Nephi 3:13

Yea, he sent a proclamation among all the people that they should gather together their women and their children, their flocks and their herds and all their substance—save it were their land—unto one place.

3 Nephi 3:14

And he caused that fortifications should be built round about them, and the strength thereof should be exceeding great. And he caused that there should be armies both of the Nephites and of the Lamanites—or of all them which were numbered among the Nephites—should be placed as guards round about to watch them and to guard them from the robbers day and night.

3 Nephi 3:15

Yea, he said unto them: As the Lord liveth, except ye repent of all your iniquities and cry unto the Lord that they would in no wise be delivered out of the hands of those Gaddianton robbers.

3 Nephi 3:16

And so great and marvelous were the words and prophecies of Lachoneus that they did cause fear to come upon all the people. And they did exert themselves in their might to do according to the words of Lachoneus.

3 Nephi 3:17

And it came to pass that Lachoneus did appoint chief captains over all the armies of the Nephites to command them at the time that the robbers should come down out of the wilderness against them.

3 Nephi 3:18

Now the chiefest among all the chief captains and the great commander of all the armies of the Nephites was appointed, and his name was Gidgiddoni.

3 Nephi 3:19

Now it was the custom among all the Nephites to appoint for their chief captains—save it were in their times of wickedness—some one that had the spirit of revelation and also of prophecy. Therefore this Gidgiddoni was a great prophet among them, and also was the chief judge.

3 Nephi 3:20

Now the people said unto Gidgiddoni: Pray unto the Lord and let us go up upon the mountains and into the wilderness, that we may fall upon the robbers and destroy them in their own lands.

3 Nephi 3:21

But Gidgiddoni saith unto them: The Lord forbid! For if we should go up against them, the Lord would deliver us into their hands. Therefore we will prepare ourselves in the center of our lands; and we will gather all our armies together. And we will not go against them, but we will wait till they shall come against us. Therefore, as the Lord liveth, if we do this, he will deliver them into our hands.

3 Nephi 3:22

And it came to pass in the seventeenth year, in the latter end of the year, the proclamation of Lachoneus had gone forth throughout all the face of the land. And they had taken their horses and their chariots and their cattle and all their flocks and their herds and their grain and all their substance and did march forth by thousands and by tens of thousands until they had all gone forth to the place which had been appointed that they should gather themselves together to defend themselves against their enemies.

3 Nephi 3:23

And the land which was appointed was the land of Zarahemla and the land which was between the land of Zarahemla and the land Bountiful, yea, to the line which was betwixt the land Bountiful and the land Desolation.

3 Nephi 3:24

And there were a great many thousand people which were called Nephites which did gather themselves together in this land. Now Lachoneus did cause that they should gather themselves together in the land southward because of the great curse which was upon the land northward.

3 Nephi 3:25

And they did fortify themselves against their enemies; and they did dwell in one land and in one body. And they did fear the words which had been spoken by Lachoneus, insomuch that they did repent of all their sins. And they did put up their prayers unto the Lord their God that he would deliver them in the time that their enemies should come down against them to battle.

3 Nephi 3:26

And they were exceeding sorrowful because of their enemy. And Gidgiddoni did cause that they should make weapons of war of every kind, that they should be strong with armor and with shields and with bucklers, after the manner of his instructions.

3 Nephi 4

3 Nephi 4:1

And it came to pass that in the latter end of the eighteenth year those armies of robbers had prepared for battle and began to come down and to sally forth from the hills and out of the mountains and the wilderness and their strong holds and their secret places and began to take possession of the lands, both which was in the land south and which was in the land north, and began to take possession of all the lands which had been deserted by the Nephites and the cities which had been left desolate.

3 Nephi 4:2

But behold, there was no wild beasts nor game in those lands which had been deserted by the Nephites; and there was no game for the robbers save it were in the wilderness.

3 Nephi 4:3

And the robbers could not exist —save it were in the wilderness— for the want of food; for the Nephites had left their lands desolate and had gathered their flocks and their herds and all their substance, and they were in one body.

3 Nephi 4:4

Therefore there were no chance for the robbers to plunder and to obtain food save it were to come up in open battle against the Nephites. And the Nephites being in one body and having so great a number and having reserved for themselves provisions and horses and cattle and flocks of every kind that they might subsist for the space of seven years, in the which time they did hope to destroy the robbers from off the face of the land— and thus the eighteenth year did pass away.

3 Nephi 4:5

And it came to pass that in the nineteenth year Giddianhi found that it was expedient that he should go up to battle against the Nephites, for there was no way that they could subsist save it were to plunder and rob and murder.

3 Nephi 4:6

And they durst not spread themselves upon the face of the land insomuch that they could raise grain, lest the Nephites should come upon them and slay them. Therefore Giddianhi gave commandment unto his armies that in this year they should go up to battle against the Nephites.

And it came to pass that they did come up to battle, and it was in the sixth month. And behold, great and terrible was the day that they did come up to battle. And they were girded about after the manner of robbers; and they had a lambskin about their loins. And they were dyed in blood, and their heads were shorn, and they had headplates upon them. And great and terrible was the appearance of the armies of Giddianhi because of their armor and because of their being dyed in blood.

3 Nephi 4:8

And it came to pass that the armies of the Nephites, when they saw the appearance of the army of Giddianhi, had all fallen to the earth and did lift their cries to the Lord their God that he would spare them and deliver them out of the hands of their enemies.

3 Nephi 4:9

And it came to pass that when the armies of Giddianhi saw this, they began to shout with a loud voice because of their joy. For they had supposed that the Nephites had fallen with fear because of the terror of their armies.

3 Nephi 4:10

But in this thing they were disappointed; for the Nephites did not fear them, but they did fear their God and did supplicate him for protection. Therefore when the armies of Giddianhi did rush upon them, they were prepared to meet them; yea, in the strength of the Lord they did receive them.

3 Nephi 4:11

And the battle commenced in this the sixth month. And great and terrible was the battle thereof; yea, great and terrible was the slaughter thereof, insomuch that there never was known so great a slaughter among all the people of Lehi since he left Jerusalem.

3 Nephi 4:12

And notwithstanding the threatenings and the oaths which Giddianhi had made, behold, the Nephites did beat them, insomuch that they did fall back from before them.

3 Nephi 4:13

And it came to pass that Gidgiddoni commanded that his armies should pursue them as far as to the borders of the wilderness and that they should not spare any that should fall into their hands by the way. And thus they did pursue them and did slay them to the borders of the wilderness, even until they had fulfilled the commandment of Gidgiddoni.

3 Nephi 4:14

And it came to pass that Giddianhi, who had stood and fought with boldness, was pursued as he fled. And being weary because of his much fighting, he was overtaken and slain. And thus was the end of Giddianhi the robber.

3 Nephi 4:15

And it came to pass that the armies of the Nephites did return again to their place of security. And it came to pass that this nineteenth year did pass away and the robbers did not come again to battle, neither did they come again in the twentieth year.

3 Nephi 4:16

But in the twenty and first year they did not come up to battle but they came up on all sides to lay siege round about the people of Nephi. For they did suppose that if they should cut off the people of Nephi from their lands and should hem them in on every side, and if they should cut them off from all their outward privileges, that they could cause them to yield themselves up according to their wishes.

3 Nephi 4:17

Now they had appointed unto themselves another leader, whose name was Zemnarihah. Therefore it was Zemnarihah that did cause that this siege should take place.

3 Nephi 4:18

But behold, this was an advantage unto the Nephites. For it was impossible for the robbers to lay siege sufficiently long to have any effect upon the Nephites because of their much provision which they had laid up in store, and because of the scantiness of provisions among the robbers; for behold, they had nothing save it were meat for their subsistence, which meat they did obtain in the wilderness.

3 Nephi 4:19

3 Nephi 4:20

And it came to pass that the wild game became scarce in the wilderness, insomuch that the robbers were about to perish with hunger.

3 Nephi 4:21

And the Nephites were continually marching out by day and by night and falling upon their armies and cutting them off by thousands and by tens of thousands.

3 Nephi 4:22

And thus it became the desire of the people of Zemnarihah to withdraw from their design because of the great destruction which came upon them by night and by day.

3 Nephi 4:23

And it came to pass that Zemnarihah did give command unto his people that they should withdraw themselves from the siege and to march into the farthermost parts of the land northward.

3 Nephi 4:24

And now Gidgiddoni being aware of their design and knowing of their weakness because of the want of food and the great slaughter which had been made among them, therefore he did send out his armies in the nighttime and did cut off the way of their retreat and did place his armies in the way of their retreat.

3 Nephi 4:25

And this did they do in the nighttime and gat on their march beyond the robbers, so that on the morrow, when the robbers began their march, they were met by the armies of the Nephites, both in their front and in their rear.

3 Nephi 4:26

And the robbers which were on the south were also cut off in their places of retreat. And all these things were done by command of Gidgiddoni.

3 Nephi 4:27

And there were many thousands which did yield themselves up prisoners unto the Nephites, and the remainder of them were slain.

3 Nephi 4:28

And their leader Zemnarihah was taken and hanged upon a tree, yea, even upon the top thereof until he was dead. And when they had hanged him until he was dead, they did fall the tree to the earth and did cry with a loud voice, saying:

3 Nephi 4:29

May the Lord preserve his people in righteousness and in holiness of heart, that they may cause to be fell to the earth all who shall seek to slay them because of power and secret combinations, even as this man hath been fell to the earth.

3 Nephi 4:30

And they did rejoice and cry again with one voice, saying: May the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob protect this people in righteousness, so long as they shall call on the name of their God for protection.

3 Nephi 4:31

And it came to pass that they did break forth, all as one, in singing and praising their God for the great thing which he had done for them in preserving them from falling into the hands of their enemies.

3 Nephi 4:32

Yea, they did cry: Hosanna to the Most High God! And they did cry: Blessed be the name of the Lord God Almighty, the Most High God!

3 Nephi 4:33

And their hearts were swollen with joy unto the gushing out of many tears because of the great goodness of God in delivering them out of the hands of their enemies. And they knew it was because of their repentance and their humility that they had been delivered from an everlasting destruction.

3 Nephi 5

3 Nephi 5:1

And now behold, there was not a living soul among all the people of the Nephites which did doubt in the least thing in the words of all the holy prophets which had been spoken. For they knew that it must needs be that they must be fulfilled.

3 Nephi 5:2

And they knew that it must be expedient that Christ had come because of the many signs which had been given, according to the words of the prophets. And because of the things which had come to pass already, they knew it must needs be that all things should come to pass according to that which had been spoken.

Therefore they did forsake all their sins and their abominations and their whoredoms and did serve God with all diligence day and night.

And now it came to pass that when they had taken all the robbers prisoners, insomuch that none did escape which were not slain, they did cast their prisoners into prison and did cause the word of God to be preached unto them. And as many as would repent of their sins and enter into a covenant that they would murder no more were set at liberty.

But as many as there were who did not enter into a covenant and who did still continue to have those secret murders in their hearts —yea, as many as were found breathing out threatenings against their brethren— were condemned and punished according to the law.

3 Nephi 5:6

And thus they did put an end to all those wicked and secret and abominable combinations in the which there were so much wickedness and so many murders committed.

3 Nephi 5:7

And thus had the twenty and second year passed away, and the twenty and third year also, and the twenty and fourth, and the twenty and fifth. And thus had twenty and five years passed away; and there had many things transpired which in the eyes of some would be great and marvelous. Nevertheless they cannot all be written in this book. Yea, this book cannot contain even a hundredth part of what was done among so many people in the space of twenty and five years.

3 Nephi 5:8

3 Nephi 5:9

But behold, there are records which do contain all the proceedings of this people. And a more short but a true account was given by Nephi.

3 Nephi 5:10

Therefore I have made my record of these things according to the record of Nephi, which were engraven on the plates which were called the plates of Nephi.

3 Nephi 5:11

And behold, I do make the record on plates which I have made with mine own hands.

3 Nephi 5:12

And behold, I am called Mormon, being called after the land of Mormon, the land in the which Alma did establish the church among this people, yea, the first church which was established among them after their transgression.

3 Nephi 5:13

Behold, I am a disciple of Jesus Christ the Son of God. I have been called of him to declare his word among his people, that they might have everlasting life.

3 Nephi 5:14

And it hath become expedient that I, according to the will of God —that the prayers of those which have gone hence, which were the holy ones, should be fulfilled according to their faith— should make a record of these things which have been done, yea, a small record of that which hath taken place from the time that Lehi left Jerusalem even down until the present time.

3 Nephi 5:16

Therefore I do make my record from the accounts which hath been given by those which were before me until the commencement of my day.

3 Nephi 5:17

And then do I make a record of the things which I have seen with mine own eyes.

3 Nephi 5:18

And I know the record which I make to be a just and a true record. Nevertheless there are many things which according to our language we are not able to write.

3 Nephi 5:19

And now I make an end of my saying which is of myself and proceed to give my account of the things which hath been before me.

3 Nephi 5:20

I am Mormon and a pure descendant of Lehi. I have reason to bless my God and my Savior Jesus Christ, that he brought our fathers out of the land of Jerusalem —and no one knew it save it were himself and those which he brought out of that land— and that he hath given me and my people so much knowledge unto the salvation of our souls.

3 Nephi 5:21

Surely he hath blessed the house of Jacob and hath been merciful unto the seed of Joseph.

3 Nephi 5:22

And inasmuch as the children of Lehi hath kept his commandments, he hath blessed them and prospered them according to his word.

3 Nephi 5:23

Yea, and surely shall he again bring a remnant of the seed of Joseph to the knowledge of the Lord their God.

3 Nephi 5:24

And as surely as the Lord liveth will he gather in from the four quarters of the earth all the remnant of the seed of Jacob, which are scattered abroad upon all the face of the earth.

3 Nephi 5:25

And as he hath covenanted with all the house of Jacob, even so shall the covenant wherewith he hath covenanted with the house of Jacob be fulfilled in his own due time, unto the restoring all the house of Jacob unto the knowledge of the covenant that he hath covenanted with them.

3 Nephi 5:26

And then shall they know their Redeemer, which is Jesus Christ the Son of God; and then shall they be gathered in from the four quarters of the earth unto their own lands from whence they have been dispersed. Yea, as the Lord liveth, so shall it be. Amen.

3 Nephi 6

3 Nephi 6:1

And now it came to pass that the people of the Nephites did all return to their own lands in the twenty and sixth year, every man with his family, his flocks and his herds, his horses and his cattle, and all things whatsoever did belong unto them.

3 Nephi 6:2

And it came to pass that they had not eaten up all their provisions, therefore they did take with them all that they had not devoured of all their grain of every kind, and their gold and their silver and all their precious things; and they did return to their own lands and their possessions, both on the north and on the south, both on the land northward and on the land southward.

3 Nephi 6:3

And they granted unto those robbers which had entered into a covenant to keep the peace of the land, which were desirous to remain Lamanites, lands according to their numbers, that they might have with their labors wherewith to subsist upon. And thus they did establish peace in all the land; and they began again to prosper and to wax great. And the twenty and sixth and seventh years passed away. And there was great order in the land, and they had formed their laws according to equity and justice.

3 Nephi 6:4

3 Nephi 6:5

And now there was nothing in all the land to hinder the people from prospering continually except they should fall into transgression.

3 Nephi 6:6

And now it was Gidgiddoni and the judge Lachoneus and those which had been appointed leaders which had established this great peace in the land.

3 Nephi 6:7

And it came to pass that there were many cities built anew, and there were many old cities repaired.

3 Nephi 6:8

And there were many highways cast up and many roads made which led from city to city and from land to land and from place to place.

3 Nephi 6:9

And thus passed away the twenty and eighth year; and the people had continual peace.

3 Nephi 6:10

But it came to pass in the twenty and ninth year there began to be some disputings among the people. And some were lifted up unto pride and boastings because of their exceeding great riches, yea, even unto great persecutions.

3 Nephi 6:11

For there were many merchants in the land, and also many lawyers and many officers.

3 Nephi 6:12

And the people began to be distinguished by ranks according to their riches and their chance for learning. Yea, some were ignorant because of their poverty; and others did receive great learning because of their riches.

3 Nephi 6:13

Some were lifted up in pride; and others were exceeding humble. Some did return railing for railing, while others would receive railing and persecution and all manner of afflictions and would not turn and revile again, but were humble and penitent before God.

3 Nephi 6:14

And thus there became a great inequality in all the land, insomuch that the church began to be broken up, yea, insomuch that in the thirtieth year the church was broken up in all the land save it were among a few of the Lamanites which were converted unto the true faith; and they would not depart from it, for they were firm and steadfast and immovable, willing with all diligence to keep the commandments of the Lord.

3 Nephi 6:15

Now the cause of this iniquity of the people was this: Satan had great power unto the stirring up of the people to do all manner of iniquity and to the puffing them up with pride, tempting them to seek for power and authority and riches and the vain things of the world.

3 Nephi 6:16

And thus Satan did lead away the hearts of the people to do all manner of iniquity. Therefore they had not enjoyed peace but a few years.

3 Nephi 6:17

And thus in the commencement of the thirtieth year—the people having been delivered up for the space of a long time to be carried about by the temptations of the devil whithersoever he desired to carry them and to do whatsoever iniquity he desired they should—and thus in the commencement of this the thirtieth year, they were in a state of awful wickedness.

3 Nephi 6:18

Now they did not sin ignorantly; for they knew the will of God concerning them, for it had been taught unto them. Therefore they did willfully rebel against God.

3 Nephi 6:19

And now it was in the days of Lachoneus the son of Lachoneus—for Lachoneus did fill the seat of his father and did govern the people that year—and there began to be men inspired from heaven and sent forth, standing among the people in all the land, preaching and testifying boldly of the sins and iniquities of the people, and testifying unto them concerning the redemption which the Lord would make for his people—or in other words, the resurrection of Christ—and they did testify boldly of his death and sufferings.

3 Nephi 6:20

3 Nephi 6:21

Now there were many of the people which were exceeding angry because of those which testified of these things. And those which were angry were chiefly the chief judges and they which had been high priests and lawyers; yea, all they which were lawyers were angry with those which testified of these things.

3 Nephi 6:22

Now there was no lawyer nor judge nor high priest that could have power to condemn any one to death save their condemnation was signed by the governor of the land.

3 Nephi 6:23

Now there were many of those which testified of the things pertaining to Christ, which testified boldly, which were taken and put to death secretly by the judges, that the knowledge of their death came not unto the governor of the land until after their death.

3 Nephi 6:24

Now behold, this was contrary to the laws of the land, that any man should be put to death except they had power from the governor of the land.

3 Nephi 6:25

Therefore a complaint came up unto the land of Zarahemla to the governor of the land against these judges which had condemned the prophets of the Lord unto death not according to the law.

3 Nephi 6:26

Now it came to pass that they were taken and brought up before the judge to be judged of their crime which they had done, according to the law which had been given by the people.

3 Nephi 6:27

Now it came to pass that those judges had many friends and kindreds; and the remainder—yea, even almost all the lawyers and the high priests— did gather themselves together and unite with the kindreds of those judges which were to be tried according to the law.

3 Nephi 6:28

And they did enter into a covenant one with another, yea, even into that covenant which was given by them of old, which covenant was given and administered by the devil, to combine against all righteousness.

3 Nephi 6:29

Therefore they did combine against the people of the Lord and enter into a covenant to destroy them and to deliver those which were guilty of murder from the grasp of justice, which was about to be administered according to the law.

3 Nephi 6:30

And they did set at defiance the law and the rights of their country. And they did covenant one with another to destroy the governor and to establish a king over the land, that the land should no more be at liberty but should be subject unto kings.

3 Nephi 7:1

Now behold, I will shew unto you that they did not establish a king over the land. But in this same year—yea, the thirtieth year— they did destroy upon the judgment seat, yea, did murder the chief judge of the land.

3 Nephi 7:2

And the people were divided one against another. And they did separate one from another into tribes, every man according to his family and his kindred and friends. And thus they did destroy the government of the land.

3 Nephi 7:3

And every tribe did appoint a chief or a leader over them; and thus there became tribes and leaders of tribes.

3 Nephi 7:4

Now behold, there was no man among them save he had much family and many kindreds and friends; therefore their tribes became exceeding great.

3 Nephi 7:5

Now all this was done, and there was no wars as yet among them. And all this iniquity had come upon the people because they did yield themselves unto the power of Satan.

3 Nephi 7:6

And the regulations of the government was destroyed because of the secret combination of the friends and the kindreds of them which murdered the prophets.

3 Nephi 7:7

And they did cause a great contention in the land, insomuch that the more righteous part of the people— although they were nearly all become wicked; yea, there were but few righteous men among them—and thus six years had not passed away since the more part of the people had turned from their righteousness like the dog to his vomit, or like the sow to her wallowing in the mire.

3 Nephi 7:8

3 Nephi 7:9

Now this secret combination which had brought so great iniquity upon the people did gather themselves together and did place at their head a man whom they did call Jacob; and they did call him their king. Therefore he became a king over this wicked band. And he was one of the chiefest which had given his voice against the prophets which testified of Jesus.

3 Nephi 7:10

3 Nephi 7:11

And it came to pass that they were not so strong in numbers as the tribes of the people which were united together, save it were their leaders did establish their laws, every one according to his tribe; nevertheless they were enemies. Notwithstanding they were not a righteous people, yet they were united in the hatred of those who had entered into a covenant to destroy the government.

3 Nephi 7:12

Therefore Jacob seeing that their enemies were more numerous than they, he being the king of the band, therefore he commanded his people that they should take their flight into the northernmost part of the land and there build up unto themselves a kingdom until they were joined by dissenters—for he flattered them that there would be many dissenters—and they become sufficiently strong to contend with the tribes of the people; and they did so.

3 Nephi 7:13

And so speedy was their march that it could not be impeded until they had gone forth out of the reach of the people. And thus ended the thirtieth year; and thus were the affairs of the people of Nephi.

3 Nephi 7:14

And it came to pass in the thirty and first year that they were divided into tribes, every man according to his family, kindred, and friends. Nevertheless they had come to an agreement that they would not go to war one with another. But they were not united as to their laws and their manner of government, for they were established according to the minds of them which was their chiefs and their leaders. But they did establish very strict laws, that one tribe should not trespass against another, insomuch that in some degree they had peace in the land. Nevertheless their hearts were turned from the Lord their God; and they did stone the prophets and did cast them out from among them.

3 Nephi 7:15

And it came to pass that Nephi, having been visited by angels and also by the voice of the Lord, therefore having seen angels and being eyewitness, and having had power given unto him that he might know concerning the ministry of Christ, and also being eyewitness to their quick return from righteousness unto their wickedness and abominations, therefore being grieved for the hardness of their hearts and the blindness of their minds, went forth among them in that same year and began to testify boldly repentance and remission of sins through faith on the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Nephi 7:16

3 Nephi 7:17

And he did minister many things unto them. And all of them cannot be written, and a part of them would not suffice; therefore they are not written in this book. And Nephi did minister with power and with great authority.

3 Nephi 7:18

And it came to pass that they were angry with him, even because he had greater power than they. For it were not possible that they could disbelieve his words, for so great was his faith on the Lord Jesus Christ that angels did minister unto him daily.

3 Nephi 7:19

And in the name of Jesus did he cast out devils and unclean spirits; and even his brother did he raise from the dead after he had been stoned and suffered death by the people.

3 Nephi 7:20

And the people saw it and did witness of it and were angry with him because of his power. And he did also do many more miracles in the sight of the people, in the name of Jesus.

3 Nephi 7:21

And it came to pass that the thirty and first year did pass away. And there were but few which were converted unto the Lord. But as many as were converted did truly signify unto the people that they had been visited by the power and Spirit of God which was in Jesus Christ, in whom they believed.

3 Nephi 7:22

And as many as had devils cast out from them and were healed of their sicknesses and their infirmities did truly manifest unto the people that they had been wrought upon by the Spirit of God and had been healed. And they did shew forth signs also and did do some miracles among the people.

3 Nephi 7:23

And it came to pass that thus passed away the thirty and second year also. And Nephi did cry unto the people in the commencement of the thirty and third year; and he did preach unto them repentance and remission of sins.

3 Nephi 7:24

Now I would have you to remember also that there were none which were brought unto repentance who were not baptized with water.

3 Nephi 7:25

Therefore there were ordained of Nephi men unto this ministry, that all such as should come unto them should be baptized with water—and this as a witness and a testimony before God and unto the people that they had repented and received a remission of their sins.

3 Nephi 7:26

And there were many in the commencement of this year that were baptized unto repentance. And thus the more part of the year did pass away.

3 Nephi 8

3 Nephi 8:1

And now it came to pass that according to our record— and we know our record to be true, for behold, it was a just man which did keep the record; for he truly did many miracles in the name of Jesus, and there was not any man which could do a miracle in the name of Jesus save he were cleansed every whit¹ from his iniquity—and now it came to pass, if there was no mistake made by this man in the reckoning of our time, the thirty and third year had passed away.

3 Nephi 8:3

And the people began to look with great earnestness for the sign which had been given by the prophet Samuel the Lamanite, yea, for the time that there should be darkness for the space of three days over the face of the land.

3 Nephi 8:4

And there began to be great doubtings and disputations among the people, notwithstanding so many signs had been given.

3 Nephi 8:5

And it came to pass in the thirty and fourth year, in the first month, in the fourth day of the month, there arose a great storm, such an one as never had been known in all the land.

3 Nephi 8:6

And there was also a great and terrible tempest; and there was terrible thunder, insomuch that it did shake the whole earth as if it was about to divide asunder.

3 Nephi 8:7

And there was exceeding sharp lightnings such as never had been known in all the land.

3 Nephi 8:8

And the city of Zarahemla did take fire.

3 Nephi 8:9

And the city of Moroni did sink into the depths of the sea and the inhabitants thereof were drowned.

¹Compare Helaman 11:19.

3 Nephi 8:10

And the earth was carried up upon the city of Moronihah, that in the place of the city thereof there became a great mountain.

3 Nephi 8:11

And there was a great and terrible destruction in the land southward.

3 Nephi 8:12

But behold, there was a more great and terrible destruction in the land northward; for behold, the whole face of the land was changed because of the tempests and the whirlwinds and the thunderings and the lightnings and the exceeding great quaking of the whole earth.

3 Nephi 8:13

And the highways were broken up, and the level roads were spoiled, and many smooth places became rough.

3 Nephi 8:14

And many great and notable cities were sunk, and many were burned, and many were shook till the buildings thereof had fallen to the earth and the inhabitants thereof were slain and the places were left desolate.

3 Nephi 8:15

And there were some cities which remained, but the damage thereof was exceeding great; and there were many in them which were slain.

3 Nephi 8:16

And there were some which were carried away in the whirlwind; and whither they went no man knoweth, save they know that they were carried away.

3 Nephi 8:17

And thus the face of the whole earth became deformed because of the tempests and the thunderings and the lightnings and the quaking of the earth.

3 Nephi 8:18

And behold, the rocks were rent in twain; yea, they were broken up upon the face of the whole earth, insomuch that they were found in broken fragments and in seams and in cracks upon all the face of the land.

3 Nephi 8:19

And it came to pass that when the thunderings and the lightnings and the storm and the tempest and the quakings of the earth did cease— for behold, they did last for about the space of three hours; and it was said by some that the time was greater; nevertheless all these great and terrible things were done in about the space of three hours— and then behold, there was darkness upon the face of the land.

3 Nephi 8:20

And it came to pass that there was thick darkness upon the face of all the land, insomuch that the inhabitants thereof which had not fallen could feel the vapor of darkness.

3 Nephi 8:21

And there could be no light because of the darkness, neither candles, neither torches; neither could there be fire kindled with their fine and exceeding dry wood, so that there could not be any light at all.

3 Nephi 8:22

And there was not any light seen, neither fire nor glimmer, neither the sun nor the moon nor the stars, for so great were the mists of darkness which were upon the face of the land.

3 Nephi 8:23

And it came to pass that it did last for the space of three days that there was no light seen. And there was great mourning and howling and weeping among all the people continually; yea, great were the groanings of the people because of the darkness and the great destruction which had come upon them.

3 Nephi 8:24

And in one place they were heard to cry, saying: O that we had repented before this great and terrible day, and then would our brethren have been spared and they would not have been burned in that great city Zarahemla.

3 Nephi 8:25

And in another place they were heard to cry and mourn, saying: O that we had repented before this great and terrible day and had not killed and stoned the prophets and cast them out, then would our mothers and our fair daughters and our children have been spared and not have been buried up in that great city Moronihah. And thus were the howlings of the people great and terrible.

3 Nephi 9

3 Nephi 9:1

And it came to pass that there was a voice heard among all the inhabitants of the earth upon all the face of this land, crying:

3 Nephi 9:2

Woe woe woe unto this people! Woe unto the inhabitants of the whole earth except they shall repent, for the devil laugheth and his angels rejoice because of the slain of the fair sons and daughters of my people. And it is because of their iniquity and abominations that they are fallen.

3 Nephi 9:3

Behold, that great city Zarahemla have I burned with fire and the inhabitants thereof.

3 Nephi 9:4

And behold, that great city Moroni have I caused to be sunk in the depths of the sea and the inhabitants thereof to be drowned.

3 Nephi 9:5

And behold, that great city Moronihah have I covered with earth and the inhabitants thereof, to hide their iniquities and their abominations from before my face, that the blood of the prophets and of the saints shall not come up any more unto me against them.

3 Nephi 9:6

And behold, the city of Gilgal have I caused to be sunk and the inhabitants thereof to be buried up in the depths of the earth—

3 Nephi 9:7

yea, and the city of Onihah and the inhabitants thereof, and the city of Mocum and the inhabitants thereof, and the city of Jerusalem and the inhabitants thereof; and waters have I caused to come up in the stead thereof, to hide their wickedness and abominations from before my face, that the blood of the prophets and the saints shall not come up any more unto me against them.

3 Nephi 9:8

And behold, the city of Gadiandi and the city of Gadiomnah and the city of Jacob and the city of Gimgimno, all these have I caused to be sunk and made hills and valleys in the places thereof; and the inhabitants thereof have I buried up in the depths of the earth, to hide their wickedness and abominations from before my face, that the blood of the prophets and the saints should not come up any more unto me against them.

3 Nephi 9:9

And behold, that great city Jacob-Ugath, which was inhabited by the people of the king Jacob, have I caused to be burned with fire because of their sins and their wickedness, which was above all the wickedness of the whole earth because of their secret murders and combinations, for it was they that did destroy the peace of my people and the government of the land. Therefore I did cause them to be burned, to destroy them from before my face, that the blood of the prophets and the saints should not come up unto me any more against them.

3 Nephi 9:10

And behold, the city of Laman and the city of Josh and the city of Gad and the city of Kishcumen have I caused to be burned with fire, and the inhabitants thereof, because of their wickedness in casting out the prophets and stoning them which I did send to declare unto them concerning their wickedness and their abominations.

3 Nephi 9:11

And because they did cast them all out, that there were none righteous among them, I did send down fire and destroy them, that their wickedness and abominations might be hid from before my face, that the blood of the prophets and the saints which I sent among them might not cry unto me from the ground against them.

3 Nephi 9:12

And many great destructions have I caused to come upon this land and upon this people because of their wickedness and their abominations.

3 Nephi 9:13

O all ye that are spared because ye were more righteous than they, will ye not now return unto me and repent of your sins and be converted, that I may heal you?

3 Nephi 9:14

Yea, verily I say unto you: If ye will come unto me, ye shall have eternal life. Behold, mine arm of mercy is extended towards you. And whosoever will come, him will I receive. And blessed are they which cometh unto me.

3 Nephi 9:15

Behold, I am Jesus Christ the Son of God. I created the heavens and the earth and all things that in them is. I was with the Father from the beginning. I am in the Father and the Father in me; and in me hath the Father glorified his name.

3 Nephi 9:16

I came unto my own, and my own received me not; and the scriptures concerning my coming are fulfilled.

3 Nephi 9:17

And as many as have received me, to them have I given to become the sons of God. And even so will I to as many as shall believe on my name. For behold, by me redemption cometh, and in me is the law of Moses fulfilled.

3 Nephi 9:18

I am the light and the life of the world. I am Alpha and Omega,¹ the beginning and the end.

3 Nephi 9:19

And ye shall offer up unto me no more the shedding of blood; yea, your sacrifices and your burnt offerings shall be done away, for I will accept none of your sacrifices and your burnt offerings.

3 Nephi 9:20

And ye shall offer for a sacrifice² unto me a ³broken heart and a contrite⁴ spirit. And whoso cometh unto me with a broken heart and a contrite spirit, him will I baptize with fire and with the Holy Ghost, even as the Lamanites because of their faith in me at the time of their conversion were baptized with fire and with the Holy Ghost—and they knew it not.

3 Nephi 9:21

Behold, I have come into the world to bring redemption unto the world, to save the world from sin.

3 Nephi 9:22

Therefore whoso repenteth and cometh unto me as a little child, him will I receive, for of such is the kingdom of God. Behold, for such I have laid down my life and have taken it up again. Therefore repent and come unto me, ye ends of the earth, and be saved.

3 Nephi 10:1

And now behold, it came to pass that all the people of the land did hear these sayings and did witness of it. And after these sayings there was silence in the land for the space of many hours, for so great was the astonishment of the people that they did cease lamenting and howling for the loss of their kindreds which had been slain. Therefore there was silence in all the land for the space of many hours.

3 Nephi 10:2

3 Nephi 10:3

And it came to pass that there came a voice again unto the people —and all the people did hear and did witness of it— saying:

3 Nephi 10:4

O ye people of these great cities which have fallen, which are a descendant of Jacob —yea, which are of the house of Israel— O ye people of the house of Israel, how oft have I gathered you as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings and have nourished you!

3 Nephi 10:5

And again, how oft would I have gathered you as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings! Yea, O ye people of the house of Israel which have fallen —yea, O ye people of the house of Israel, ye that dwell at Jerusalem as ye that have fallen— yea, how oft would I have gathered you as a hen gathereth her chickens and ye would not!

3 Nephi 10:6

O ye house of Israel whom I have spared, how oft will I gather you as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings if ye will repent and return unto me with full purpose of heart!

3 Nephi 10:7

But if not, O house of Israel, the places of your dwellings shall become desolate until the time of the fulfilling of the covenant to your fathers.

3 Nephi 10:8

And now it came to pass that after the people had heard these words, behold, they began to weep and howl again because of the loss of their kindreds and friends.

3 Nephi 10:9

And it came to pass that thus did the three days pass away. And it was in the morning, and the darkness dispersed from off the face of the land and the earth did cease to tremble and the rocks did cease to rend and the dreadful groanings did cease and all the tumultuous noises did pass away.

3 Nephi 10:10

And the earth did cleave together again, that it stood. And the mourning and the weeping and the wailing of the people which were spared alive did cease. And their mourning was turned into joy and their lamentations into the praise and the thanksgiving unto the Lord Jesus Christ their Redeemer.

3 Nephi 10:11

And thus far were the scriptures fulfilled which had been spoken by the prophets.

3 Nephi 10:12

And it was the more righteous part of the people which were saved. And it was they which received the prophets and stoned them not; and it was they which had not shed the blood of the saints which were spared.

3 Nephi 10:13

And they were spared and were not sunk and buried up in the earth, and they were not drowned in the depths of the sea, and they were not burned by fire, neither were they fallen upon and crushed to death; and they were not carried away in the whirlwind, neither were they overpowered by the vapors of smoke and of darkness.

3 Nephi 10:14

And now whoso readeth, let him understand; he that hath the scriptures, let him search them and see and behold if all these deaths and destructions by fire and by smoke and by tempests and by whirlwinds and by the opening of the earth to receive them and all these things is not unto the fulfilling of the prophecies of many of the holy prophets.

3 Nephi 10:15

Behold, I say unto you: Yea, many have testified of these things at the coming of Christ and were slain because they testified of these things

3 Nephi 10:16

—yea, the prophet Zenos did testify of these things, and also Zenoch spake concerning these things— because they testified particular concerning us, which is the remnant of their seed.

3 Nephi 10:17

Behold, our father Jacob also testified concerning a remnant of the seed of Joseph. And behold, are not we a remnant of the seed of Joseph? And these things which testifies of us, are they not written upon the plates of brass which our father Lehi brought out of Jerusalem?

3 Nephi 10:18

And it came to pass that in the ending of the thirty and fourth year, behold, I will shew unto you that the people of Nephi which were spared, and also they which had been called Lamanites which had been spared, did have great favors shewn unto them and great blessings poured out upon their heads, insomuch that soon after the ascension of Christ into heaven he did truly manifest himself unto them, shewing his body unto them and ministering unto them. And an account of his ministry shall be given hereafter. Therefore for this time I make an end of my sayings.

3 Nephi 11

Jesus Christ sheweth himself unto the people of Nephi as the multitude were gathered together in the land Bountiful and did minister unto them. And on this wise did he shew himself unto them.

3 Nephi 11:1

And now it came to pass that there were a great multitude gathered together of the people of Nephi round about the temple which was in the land Bountiful. And they were marveling and wondering one with another and were shewing one to another the great and marvelous change which had taken place.

3 Nephi 11:2

And they were also conversing about this Jesus Christ of which the sign had been given concerning his death.

3 Nephi 11:3

And it came to pass that while they were thus conversing one with another, they heard a voice as if it came out of heaven. And they cast their eyes round about, for they understood not the voice which they heard. And it was not a harsh voice, neither was it a loud voice. Nevertheless—and notwithstanding it being a small voice—it did pierce them that did hear to the center, insomuch that there were no part of their frame that it did not cause to quake. Yea, it did pierce them to the very soul and did cause their hearts to burn.

3 Nephi 11:4

And it came to pass that again they heard the voice, and they understood it not.

3 Nephi 11:5

And again the third time they did hear the voice and did open their ears to hear it. And their eyes were towards the sound thereof, and they did look steadfastly towards heaven from whence the sound came.

3 Nephi 11:6

And behold, the third time they did understand the voice which they heard, and it saith unto them:

3 Nephi 11:7

Behold my Beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased, in whom I have glorified my name. Hear ye him!

3 Nephi 11:8

And it came to pass as they understood, they cast their eyes up again towards heaven. And behold, they saw a man descending out of heaven, and he was clothed in a white robe. And he came down and stood in the midst of them, and the eyes of the whole multitude was turned upon him. And they durst not open their mouths, even one to another, and wist not what it meant, for they thought it was an angel that had appeared unto them.

3 Nephi 11:9

And it came to pass that he stretched forth his hand and spake unto the people, saying:

3 Nephi 11:10

Behold, I am Jesus Christ —of which the prophets testified— that should come into the world.

3 Nephi 11:11

And behold, I am the light and the life of the world. And I have drank out of that bitter cup which the Father hath given me and have glorified the Father in taking upon me the sins of the world, in the which I have suffered the will of the Father in all things from the beginning.

3 Nephi 11:12

And it came to pass that when Jesus had spake these words, the whole multitude fell to the earth, for they remembered that it had been prophesied among them that Christ should shew himself unto them after his ascension into heaven.

3 Nephi 11:13

And it came to pass that the Lord spake unto them, saying:

3 Nephi 11:14

Arise and come forth unto me, that ye may thrust your hands into my side, and also that ye may feel the prints of the nails in my hands and in my feet, that ye may know that I am the God of Israel and the God of the whole earth and have been slain for the sins of the world.

3 Nephi 11:15

And it came to pass that the multitude went forth and thrust their hands into his ¹side and did feel the prints of the nails in his hands and in his feet. And this they did do, going forth one by one until they had all gone forth and did see with their eyes and did feel with their hands and did know of a surety and did bear record that it was he —of whom it was written by the prophets— that should come.

3 Nephi 11:16

And it came to pass that when they had all gone forth and had witnessed for themselves, they did cry out with one accord, saying:

3 Nephi 11:17

Hosanna! Blessed be the name of the Most High God! And they did fall down at the feet of Jesus and did worship him.

3 Nephi 11:18

And it came to pass that he spake unto Nephi —for Nephi was among the multitude— and commanded him that he should come forth.

¹Compare John 20:20 and John 20:24–29 especially. What is recorded here seems almost like a response to Thomas's experience in that chapter.

3 Nephi 11:19

And Nephi arose and went forth and bowed himself before the Lord, and he did kiss his feet.

3 Nephi 11:20

And the Lord commanded him that he should arise; and he arose and stood before him.

3 Nephi 11:21

And the Lord said unto him: I give unto you power that ye shall baptize this people when I am again ascended into heaven.

3 Nephi 11:22

And again the Lord called others and said unto them likewise; and he gave unto them power to baptize. And he saith unto them: On this wise shall ye baptize, and there shall be no disputations among you.

3 Nephi 11:23

Verily I say unto you that whoso repenteth of his sins through your words and desireth to be baptized in my name, on this wise shall ye baptize them. Behold, ye shall go down and stand in the water, and in my name shall ye baptize them.

3 Nephi 11:24

And now behold, these are the words which ye shall say, calling them by name, saying:

3 Nephi 11:25

Having authority given me of Jesus Christ, I baptize you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

3 Nephi 11:26

And then shall ye immerse them in the water and come forth again out of the water.

3 Nephi 11:27

And after this manner shall ye baptize in my name. For behold, verily I say unto you that the Father and the Son and the Holy Ghost are one; and I am in the Father and the Father in me, and the Father and I are one.

3 Nephi 11:28

And according as I have commanded you, thus shall ye baptize. And there shall be no disputations among you as there hath hitherto been, neither shall there be disputations among you concerning the points of my doctrine as there hath hitherto been.

3 Nephi 11:29

For verily verily I say unto you: He that hath the spirit of contention is not of me, but is of the devil, which is the father of contention. And he stirreth up the hearts of men to contend with anger one with another.

3 Nephi 11:30

Behold, this is not my doctrine, to stir up the hearts of men with anger one against another. But this is my doctrine, that such things should be done away.

3 Nephi 11:31

Behold, verily verily I say unto you: I will declare unto you my doctrine.

3 Nephi 11:32

And this is my doctrine, and it is the doctrine which the Father hath given unto me. And I bear record of the Father, and the Father beareth record of me, and the Holy Ghost beareth record of the Father and me. And I bear record that the Father commandeth all men everywhere to repent and believe in me.

3 Nephi 11:33

And whoso believeth in me and is baptized, the same shall be saved. And they are they which shall inherit the kingdom of God.

3 Nephi 11:34

And whoso believeth not in me and is not baptized shall be damned.

3 Nephi 11:35

Verily verily I say unto you that this is my doctrine, and I bear record of it from the Father. And whoso believeth in me believeth in the Father also. And unto him will the Father bear record of me, for he will visit him with fire and with the Holy Ghost.

3 Nephi 11:36

And thus will the Father bear record of me. And the Holy Ghost will bear record unto him of the Father and me, for the Father and I and the Holy Ghost are one.

3 Nephi 11:37

And again I say unto you: Ye must repent and become as a little child and be baptized in my name, or ye can in no wise receive these things.

3 Nephi 11:38

And again I say unto you: Ye must repent and be baptized in my name and become as a little child, or ye can in no wise inherit the kingdom of God.

3 Nephi 11:39

Verily verily I say unto you that this is my doctrine. And whoso buildeth upon this buildeth upon my rock; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against them.

3 Nephi 11:40

And whoso shall declare more or less than this and establisheth it for my doctrine, the same cometh of evil and is not built upon my rock, but he buildeth upon a sandy foundation; and the gates of hell standeth open to receive such when the floods come and the winds beat upon them.

3 Nephi 11:41

Therefore go forth unto this people and declare the words which I have spoken unto the ends of the earth.

3 Nephi 12:1

And it came to pass that when Jesus had spake these words unto Nephi and to those which had been called —now the number of them which had been called and received power and authority to baptize were twelve— and behold, he stretched forth his hand unto the multitude and cried unto them, saying: Blessed are ye if ye shall give heed unto the words of these twelve which I have chosen from among you to minister unto you and to be your servants. And unto them I have given power that they may baptize you with water. And after that ye are baptized with water, behold, I will baptize you with fire and with the Holy Ghost. Therefore blessed are ye if ye shall believe in me and be baptized after that ye have seen me and know that I am.

3 Nephi 12:2

And again, more blessed are they which shall believe in your words because that ye shall testify that ye have seen me and that ye know that I am. Yea, blessed are they which shall believe in your words and come down into the depths of humility and be baptized, for they shall be visited with fire and with the Holy Ghost and shall receive a remission of their sins.

3 Nephi 12:3

Yea, blessed are the poor in spirit which cometh unto me, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

3 Nephi 12:4

And again, blessed are all they that mourn, for they shall be comforted.

3 Nephi 12:5

And blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

3 Nephi 12:6

And blessed are all they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled with the Holy Ghost.

3 Nephi 12:7

And blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.

3 Nephi 12:8

And blessed are all the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

3 Nephi 12:9

And blessed are all the peacemakers, for they shall be called the children of God.

3 Nephi 12:10

And blessed are all they which are persecuted for my name's sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

3 Nephi 12:11

And blessed are ye when men shall revile you and persecute and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake, for ye shall have great joy and be exceeding glad, for great shall be your reward in heaven; for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

3 Nephi 12:12

3 Nephi 12:13

Verily verily I say unto you: I give unto you to be the salt of the earth. But if the salt shall lose its savor, wherewith shall the earth be salted? The salt shall be thenceforth good for nothing but to be cast out and to be trodden under foot of men.

3 Nephi 12:14

Verily verily I say unto you: I give unto you to be the light of this people. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid.

3 Nephi 12:15

Behold, do men light a candle and put it under a bushel? Nay, but on a candlestick, and it giveth light to all that are in the house.

3 Nephi 12:16

Therefore let your light so shine before this people, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

3 Nephi 12:17

Think not that I am come to destroy the law or the prophets. I am not come to destroy but to fulfill.

3 Nephi 12:18

For verily I say unto you: One jot nor one tittle hath not passed away from the law, but in me it hath all been fulfilled.

3 Nephi 12:19

And behold, I have given unto you the law and the commandments of my Father, that ye shall believe in me and that ye shall repent of your sins and come unto me with a broken heart and a contrite spirit. Behold, ye have the commandments before you, and the law is fulfilled.

3 Nephi 12:20

Therefore come unto me and be ye saved, for verily I say unto you that except ye shall keep my commandments, which I have commanded you at this time, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

3 Nephi 12:21

Ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time —and it is also written before you— that thou shalt not kill. And whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment of God.

3 Nephi 12:22

But I say unto you that whosoever is angry with his brother shall be in danger of his judgment. And whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council; and whosoever shall say, thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire.

3 Nephi 12:23

Therefore if ye shall come unto me or shall desire to come unto me and rememberest that thy brother hath aught against thee, go thy way unto thy brother and first be reconciled to thy brother and then come unto me with full purpose of heart and I will receive you.

3 Nephi 12:24

3 Nephi 12:25

Agree with thine adversary quickly while thou art in the way with him, lest at any time he shall get thee and thou shalt be cast into prison.

3 Nephi 12:26

Verily I say unto thee: Thou shalt by no means come out thence until thou hast paid the uttermost senine. And while ye are in prison, can ye pay even one senine? Verily verily I say unto you: Nay.

3 Nephi 12:27

Behold, it is written by them of old time that thou shalt not commit adultery.

3 Nephi 12:28

But I say unto you that whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery already in his heart.

3 Nephi 12:29

Behold, I give unto you a commandment that ye suffer none of these things to enter into your heart.

3 Nephi 12:30

For it is better that ye should deny yourselves of these things, wherein ye will take up your cross, than that ye should be cast into hell.

3 Nephi 12:31

It hath been written that whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement.

3 Nephi 12:32

Verily verily I say unto you that whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery; and whoso shall marry her who is divorced committeth adultery.

3 Nephi 12:33

And again it is written: Thou shalt not forswear thyself but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths.

3 Nephi 12:34

But verily verily I say unto you: Swear not at all, neither by heaven—for it is God's throne—

3 Nephi 12:35

nor by the earth—for it is his footstool—

3 Nephi 12:36

neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair black or white.

3 Nephi 12:37

But let your communication be, yea yea, nay nay; for whatsoever cometh of more than these are evil.

3 Nephi 12:38

And behold, it is written: An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.

3 Nephi 12:39

But I say unto you that ye shall not resist evil, but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.

3 Nephi 12:40

And if any man will sue thee at the law and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloak also.

3 Nephi 12:41

And whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain.

3 Nephi 12:42

Give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would borrow of thee turn thou not away.

3 Nephi 12:43

And behold, it is written also that thou shalt love thy neighbor and hate thine enemy.

3 Nephi 12:44

But behold, I say unto you: Love your enemies! Bless them that curse you! Do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you and persecute you, that ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven, for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good.

3 Nephi 12:45

3 Nephi 12:46

Therefore those things which were of old time which were under the law, in me are all fulfilled.

3 Nephi 12:47

Old things are done away, and all things have become new.

3 Nephi 12:48

Therefore I would that ye should be perfect, even as I or your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

3 Nephi 13

3 Nephi 13:1

Verily verily I say that I would that ye should do alms unto the poor. But take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them. Otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.

3 Nephi 13:2

Therefore when ye shall do your alms, do not sound a trumpet before you, as will hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you: They have their reward.

3 Nephi 13:3

But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth, that thine alms may be in secret; and thy Father, which seeth in secret, himself shall reward thee openly.

3 Nephi 13:4

3 Nephi 13:5

And when thou prayest, thou shalt not do as the hypocrites. For they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you: They have their reward.

3 Nephi 13:6

But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet. And when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father, which is in secret; and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

3 Nephi 13:7

But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions as the heathen, for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

3 Nephi 13:8

Be not ye therefore like unto them, for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of before ye ask him.

3 Nephi 13:9

After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

3 Nephi 13:10

Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven.

3 Nephi 13:11

And forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors.

3 Nephi 13:12

And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

3 Nephi 13:13

3 Nephi 13:14

For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.

3 Nephi 13:15

But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

3 Nephi 13:16

Moreover, when ye fast, be not as the hypocrites of a sad countenance, for they disfigure their faces that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you: They have their reward.

3 Nephi 13:17

But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thy head and wash thy face, that thou appear not unto men to fast but unto thy Father, which is in secret; and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

3 Nephi 13:18

3 Nephi 13:19

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt and thieves break through and steal.

3 Nephi 13:20

But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal.

3 Nephi 13:21

For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

3 Nephi 13:22

The light of the body is the eye. If therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

3 Nephi 13:23

But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

3 Nephi 13:24

No man can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will hold to the one and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

3 Nephi 13:25

And now it came to pass that when Jesus had spoken these words, he looked upon the twelve whom he had chosen and saith unto them: Remember the words which I have spoken, for behold, ye are they which I have chosen to minister unto this people. Therefore I say unto you: Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat or what ye shall drink, nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat and the body than raiment?

3 Nephi 13:26

Behold the fowls of the air, for they sow not, neither do they reap nor gather into barns, yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

3 Nephi 13:27

Which of you, by taking thought, can add one cubit unto his stature?

3 Nephi 13:28

And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow. They toil not, neither do they spin.

3 Nephi 13:29

And yet I say unto you that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

3 Nephi 13:30

Wherefore if God so clothe the grass of the field—which today is and tomorrow is cast into the oven— even so will he clothe you, if ye are not of little faith.

3 Nephi 13:31

Therefore take no thought, saying: What shall we eat or what shall we drink or wherewithal shall we be clothed?

3 Nephi 13:32

For your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

3 Nephi 13:33

But seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you.

3 Nephi 13:34

Take therefore no thought for the morrow, for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient is the day unto the evil thereof.

3 Nephi 14

3 Nephi 14:1

And now it came to pass that when Jesus had spoken these words, he turned again to the multitude and did open his mouth unto them again, saying: Verily verily I say unto you: Judge not that ye be not judged.

3 Nephi 14:2

For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged. And with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

3 Nephi 14:3

And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

3 Nephi 14:4

Or how wilt thou say to thy brother: Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye— and behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

3 Nephi 14:5

Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

3 Nephi 14:6

Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine lest they trample them under their feet and turn again and rend you.

3 Nephi 14:7

Ask and it shall be given unto you; seek and ye shall find; knock and it shall be opened unto you.

3 Nephi 14:8

For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

3 Nephi 14:9

Or what man is there of you whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

3 Nephi 14:10

Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

3 Nephi 14:11

If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

3 Nephi 14:12

Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them, for this is the law and the prophets.

3 Nephi 14:13

Enter ye in at the strait gate, for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leadeth to destruction. And many there be which go in thereat, because strait is the gate and narrow is the way which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

3 Nephi 14:14

3 Nephi 14:15

Beware of false prophets which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

3 Nephi 14:16

Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns or figs of thistles?

3 Nephi 14:17

Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit, but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

3 Nephi 14:18

A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit neither a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

3 Nephi 14:19

Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down and cast into the fire.

3 Nephi 14:20

Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

3 Nephi 14:21

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven, but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

3 Nephi 14:22

Many will say to me in that day: Lord Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name and in thy name have cast out devils and in thy name done many wonderful works?

3 Nephi 14:23

And then will I profess unto them: I never knew you. Depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

3 Nephi 14:24

Therefore whoso heareth these sayings of mine and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man which built his house upon a rock.

3 Nephi 14:25

And the rain descended and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat upon that house. And it fell not, for it was founded upon a rock.

3 Nephi 14:26

And every one that heareth these sayings of mine and doeth them not shall be likened unto a foolish man which built his house upon the sand.

3 Nephi 14:27

And the rain descended and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat upon that house. And it fell, and great was the fall of it.

3 Nephi 15

3 Nephi 15:1

And now it came to pass that when Jesus had ended these sayings, he cast his eyes round about on the multitude and saith unto them: Behold, ye have heard the things which I have taught before I ascended to my Father. Therefore whoso remembereth these sayings of mine and doeth them, him will I raise up at the last day.

3 Nephi 15:2

And it came to pass that when Jesus had said these words, he perceived that there were some among them which marveled and wondered what he would concerning the law of Moses, for they understood not the saying that old things had passed away and that all things had become new.

3 Nephi 15:3

And he saith unto them: Marvel not that I said unto you that old things had passed away and that all things had become new.

3 Nephi 15:4

Behold, I say unto you that the law is fulfilled that was given unto Moses.

3 Nephi 15:5

Behold, I am he that gave the law, and I am he which covenanted with my people Israel. Therefore the law in me is fulfilled, for I have come to fulfill the law. Therefore it hath an end.

3 Nephi 15:6

Behold, I do not destroy the prophets, for as many as have not been fulfilled in me —verily I say unto you—shall all be fulfilled.

3 Nephi 15:7

And because I said unto you that old things hath passed away, I do not destroy that which hath been spoken concerning things which is to come.

3 Nephi 15:8

For behold, the covenant which I have made with my people is not all fulfilled, but the law which was given unto Moses hath an end in me.

3 Nephi 15:9

Behold, I am the law and the light. Look unto me and endure to the end, and ye shall live; for unto him that endureth to the end will I give eternal life.

3 Nephi 15:10

Behold, I have given unto you the commandments. Therefore keep my commandments; and this is the law and the prophets, for they truly testified of me.

3 Nephi 15:11

And now it came to pass that when Jesus had spoken these words, he said unto those twelve whom he had chosen:

3 Nephi 15:12

Ye are my disciples, and ye are a light unto this people, which are a remnant of the house of Joseph.

3 Nephi 15:13

And behold, this is the land of your inheritance, and the Father hath given it unto you.

3 Nephi 15:14

And not at any time hath the Father given me commandment that I should tell it unto your brethren at Jerusalem.

3 Nephi 15:15

Neither at any time hath the Father given me commandment that I should tell unto them concerning the other tribes of the house of Israel, which the Father hath led away out of the land.

3 Nephi 15:16

This much did the Father command me that I should tell unto them, that other sheep I have which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold and one shepherd.

3 Nephi 15:17

3 Nephi 15:18

And now because of stiffneckedness and unbelief they understood not my word. Therefore I was commanded to say no more of the Father concerning this thing unto them.

3 Nephi 15:19

But verily I say unto you that the Father hath commanded me —and I tell it unto you— that ye were separated from among them because of their iniquity. Therefore it is because of their iniquity that they know not of you.

3 Nephi 15:20

And verily I say unto you again that the other tribes hath the Father separated from them. And it is because of their iniquity that they know not of them.

3 Nephi 15:21

And verily I say unto you that ye are they of which I said: Other sheep I have which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold and one shepherd.

3 Nephi 15:22

And they understood me not, for they supposed it had been the Gentiles. For they understood not that the Gentiles should be converted through their preaching.

3 Nephi 15:23

And they understood me not that I said they shall hear my voice. And they understood me not that the Gentiles should not at any time hear my voice, that I should not manifest myself unto them save it were by the Holy Ghost.

3 Nephi 15:24

But behold, ye have both heard my voice and seen me, and ye are my sheep, and ye are numbered among them which the Father hath given me.

3 Nephi 16

3 Nephi 16:1

And verily verily I say unto you that I have other sheep which are not of this land, neither of the land of Jerusalem, neither in any parts of that land round about whither I have been to minister.

3 Nephi 16:2

For they of which I speak are they which have not as yet heard my voice, neither have I at any time manifested myself unto them.

3 Nephi 16:3

But I have received a commandment of the Father that I shall go unto them and that they shall hear my voice and shall be numbered among my sheep, that there may be one fold and one shepherd. Therefore I go to shew myself unto them.

3 Nephi 16:4

And I command you that ye shall write these sayings after that I am gone, that if it so be that my people at Jerusalem —they which have seen me and been with me in my ministry— do not ask the Father in my name that they may receive a knowledge of you by the Holy Ghost, and also of the other tribes which they know not of, that these sayings which ye shall write shall be kept and shall be manifested unto the Gentiles, that through the fullness of the Gentiles the remnant of their seed, which shall be scattered forth upon the face of the earth because of their unbelief, may be brought in—or may be brought to a knowledge of me, their Redeemer.

3 Nephi 16:5

And then will I gather them in from the four quarters of the earth; and then will I fulfill the covenant which the Father hath made unto all the people of the house of Israel.

3 Nephi 16:6

And blessed are the Gentiles because of their belief in me, in and of the Holy Ghost, which witness unto them of me and of the Father.

3 Nephi 16:7

Behold, because of their belief in me, saith the Father, and because of the unbelief of you, O house of Israel, in the latter day shall the truth come unto the Gentiles, that the fullness of these things shall be made known unto them.

3 Nephi 16:8

But woe, saith the Father, unto the unbelieving of the Gentiles, for notwithstanding that they have come forth upon the face of this land and have scattered my people which are of the house of Israel —and my people which are of the house of Israel have been cast out from among them and have been trodden under feet by them—and because of the mercies of the Father unto the Gentiles and also the judgments of the Father upon my people which are of the house of Israel, verily verily I say unto you that after all this and I have caused my people which are of the house of Israel to be smitten and to be afflicted and to be slain and to be cast out from among them and to become hated by them and to become a hiss and a byword among them—and thus commandeth the Father that I should say unto you: At that day when the Gentiles shall sin against my gospel and shall reject the fullness of my gospel and shall be lifted up in the pride of their hearts above all nations and above all the people of the whole earth and shall be filled with all manner of lyings and of deceits and of mischiefs and all manner of hypocrisy and murders and priestcrafts and whoredoms and of secret abominations— and if they shall do all these things and shall reject the fullness of my gospel, behold, saith the Father, I will bring the fullness of my gospel from among them.

3 Nephi 16:11

And then will I remember my covenant which I have made unto my people, O house of Israel, and I will bring my gospel unto them.

3 Nephi 16:12

And I will shew unto thee, O house of Israel, that the Gentiles shall not have power over you, but I will remember my covenant unto you, O house of Israel, and ye shall come unto the knowledge of the fullness of my gospel.

3 Nephi 16:13

But if the Gentiles will repent and return unto me, saith the Father, behold, they shall be numbered among my people, O house of Israel.

3 Nephi 16:14

And I will not suffer my people, which are of the house of Israel, to go through among them and tread them down, saith the Father.

3 Nephi 16:15

But if they will not return unto me and hearken unto my voice, I will suffer them—yea, I will suffer my people, O house of Israel— that they shall go through among them and shall tread them down. And they shall be as salt that hath lost his savor, which is thenceforth good for nothing but to be cast out and to be trodden under foot of my people, O house of Israel.

3 Nephi 16:16

Verily verily I say unto you: Thus hath the Father commanded me that I should give unto this people this land for their inheritance.

3 Nephi 16:17

And when the words of the prophet Isaiah shall be fulfilled which saith:

3 Nephi 16:18

Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing. For they shall see eye to eye when the Lord shall bring again Zion.

3 Nephi 16:19

Break forth into joy! Sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem! For the Lord hath comforted his people; he hath redeemed Jerusalem.

3 Nephi 16:20

The Lord hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of God—

3 Nephi 17

3 Nephi 17:1

Behold, now it came to pass that when Jesus had spoken these words, he looked round about again on the multitude, and he saith unto them: Behold, my time is at hand.

3 Nephi 17:2

I perceive that ye are weak, that ye cannot understand all my words which I am commanded of the Father to speak unto you, at this time.

3 Nephi 17:3

Therefore go ye unto your homes and ponder upon the things which I have said and ask of the Father in my name that ye may understand and prepare your minds for the morrow, and I come unto you again.

3 Nephi 17:4

But now I go unto the Father, and also to shew myself unto the lost tribes of Israel— for they are not lost unto the Father, for he knoweth whither he hath taken them.

3 Nephi 17:5

And it came to pass that when Jesus had thus spoken, he cast his eyes round about again on the multitude, and behold, they were in tears and did look steadfastly upon him, as if they would ask him to tarry a little longer with them.

3 Nephi 17:6

And he saith unto them: Behold, my bowels is filled with compassion towards you.

3 Nephi 17:7

Have ye any that are sick among you? Bring them hither. Have ye any that are lame or blind or halt or maimed or leprous or that are withered or that are deaf or that are afflicted in any manner? Bring them hither and I will heal them, for I have compassion upon you; my bowels is filled with mercy.

3 Nephi 17:8

For I perceive that ye desire that I should shew unto you what I have done unto your brethren at Jerusalem, for I see that your faith is sufficient that I should heal you.

3 Nephi 17:9

And it came to pass that when he had thus spoken, all the multitude with one accord did go forth with their sick and their afflicted and their lame and with their blind and with their dumb and with all they that were afflicted in any manner; and he did heal them every one as they were brought forth unto him.

3 Nephi 17:10

And they did all—both they which had been healed and they which were whole— bow down at his feet and did worship him. And as many as could come for the multitude did kiss his feet, insomuch that they did bathe his feet with their tears.

3 Nephi 17:11

And it came to pass that he commanded that their little children should be brought.

3 Nephi 17:12

So they brought their little children and sat them down upon the ground round about him, and Jesus stood in the midst; and the multitude gave way till they had all been brought unto him.

3 Nephi 17:13

And it came to pass that when they had all been brought—and Jesus stood in the midst— he commanded the multitude that they should kneel down upon the ground.

3 Nephi 17:14

And it came to pass that when they had knelt upon the ground, Jesus groaned within himself and saith: Father, I am troubled because of the wickedness of the people of the house of Israel.

3 Nephi 17:15

And when he had said these words, he himself also knelt upon the earth. And behold, he prayed unto the Father, and the things which he prayed cannot be written. And the multitude did bear record which heard him; and after this manner do they bear record: The eye hath never seen, neither hath the ear heard before so great and marvelous things as we saw and heard Jesus speak unto the Father.

3 Nephi 17:16

3 Nephi 17:17

And no tongue cannot speak, neither can there be written by any man, neither can the hearts of men conceive so great and marvelous things as we both saw and heard Jesus speak. And no one can conceive of the joy which filled our souls at the time we heard him pray for us unto the Father.

3 Nephi 17:18

And it came to pass that when Jesus had made an end of praying unto the Father, he arose. But so great was the joy of the multitude that they were overcome.

3 Nephi 17:19

And it came to pass that Jesus spake unto them and bade them arise; and they arose from the earth. And he saith unto them: Blessed are ye because of your faith. And now behold, my joy is full.

3 Nephi 17:20

3 Nephi 17:21

And when he had said these words, he wept; and the multitude bare record of it. And he took their little children, one by one, and blessed them and prayed unto the Father for them.

3 Nephi 17:22

And when he had done this, he wept again.

3 Nephi 17:23

And he spake unto the multitude and saith unto them: Behold, your little ones.

3 Nephi 17:24

And as they looked to behold, they cast their eyes towards heaven; and they saw the heavens open, and they saw angels descending out of heaven as it were in the midst of fire. And they came down and encircled those little ones about—and they were encircled about with fire—and the angels did minister unto them.

3 Nephi 17:25

And the multitude did see and hear and bear record. And they know that their record is true, for they all of them did see and hear, every man for himself. And they were in number about two thousand and five hundred souls, and they did consist of men, women, and children.

3 Nephi 18

3 Nephi 18:1

And it came to pass that Jesus commanded his disciples that they should bring forth some bread and wine unto him.

3 Nephi 18:2

And while they were gone for bread and wine, he commanded the multitude that they should sit themselves down upon the earth.

3 Nephi 18:3

And when the disciples had come with bread and wine, he took of the bread and brake and blessed it, and he gave unto the disciples and commanded that they should eat.

3 Nephi 18:4

And when they had eat and were filled, he commanded that they should give unto the multitude.

3 Nephi 18:5

And when the multitude had eaten and were filled, he saith unto the disciples: Behold, there shall one be ordained among you, and to him will I give power that he shall break bread and bless it and give it unto the people of my church, unto all they which shall believe and be baptized in my name.

3 Nephi 18:6

And this shall ye always observe to do, even as I have done, even as I have broken bread and blessed it and gave it unto you.

3 Nephi 18:7

And this shall ye do in remembrance of my body, which I have shewn unto you. And it shall be a testimony unto the Father, that ye do always remember me. And if ye do always remember me, ye shall have my Spirit to be with you.

3 Nephi 18:8

And it came to pass that when he had said these words, he commanded his disciples that they should take of the wine of the cup and drink of it, and that they should also give unto the multitude that they might drink of it.

3 Nephi 18:9

And it came to pass that they did so and did drink of it and were filled. And they gave unto the multitude and they did drink and they were filled.

3 Nephi 18:10

And when the disciples had done this, Jesus saith unto them: Blessed are ye for this thing which ye have done, for this is fulfilling my commandments. And this doth witness unto the Father that ye are willing to do that which I have commanded you.

3 Nephi 18:11

And this shall ye always do unto those who repent and are baptized in my name. And ye shall do it in remembrance of my blood, which I have shed for you, that ye may witness unto the Father that ye do always remember me. And if ye do always remember me, ye shall have my Spirit to be with you.

3 Nephi 18:12

And I give unto you a commandment that ye shall do these things. And if ye shall always do these things, blessed are ye, for ye are built upon my rock.

3 Nephi 18:13

But whoso among you shall do more or less than these are not built upon my rock but are built upon a sandy foundation. And when the rain descends and the floods come and the winds blow and beat upon them, they shall fall; and the gates of hell is already open to receive them.

3 Nephi 18:14

Therefore blessed are ye if ye shall keep my commandments, which the Father hath commanded me that I should give unto you.

3 Nephi 18:15

Verily verily I say unto you: Ye must watch and pray always lest ye be tempted by the devil and ye are led away captive by him.

3 Nephi 18:16

And as I have prayed among you, even so shall ye pray in my church, among my people which do repent and are baptized in my name. Behold, I am the light; I have set an example before you.

3 Nephi 18:17

And it came to pass that when Jesus had spake these words unto his disciples, he turned again unto the multitude and saith unto them:

3 Nephi 18:18

Behold, verily verily I say unto you: Ye must watch and pray always lest ye enter into temptation, for Satan desireth to have you, that he may sift you as wheat.

3 Nephi 18:19

Therefore ye must always pray unto the Father in my name.

3 Nephi 18:20

And whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name which is right, believing that ye shall receive, and behold, it shall be given unto you.

3 Nephi 18:21

Pray in your families unto the Father always in my name, that your wives and your children may be blessed.

3 Nephi 18:22

And behold, ye shall meet together oft. And ye shall not forbid any man from coming unto you when ye shall meet together, but suffer them that they may come unto you and forbid them not; but ye shall pray for them and shall not cast them out. And if it so be that they come unto you oft, ye shall pray for them unto the Father in my name.

3 Nephi 18:23

3 Nephi 18:24

Therefore hold up your light, that it may shine unto the world. Behold, I am the light which ye shall hold up, that which ye have seen me do. Behold, ye see that I have prayed unto the Father, and ye all have witnessed.

3 Nephi 18:25

And ye see that I have commanded that none of you should go away, but rather have commanded that ye should come unto me, that ye might feel and see; even so shall ye do unto the world. And whosoever breaketh this commandment suffereth himself to be led into temptation.

3 Nephi 18:26

And now it came to pass that when Jesus had spoken these words, he turned his eyes again upon the disciples whom he had chosen and saith unto them:

3 Nephi 18:27

Behold, verily verily I say unto you: I give unto you another commandment; and then I must go unto my Father, that I may fulfill other commandments which he hath given me.

3 Nephi 18:28

And now behold, this is the commandment which I give unto you, that ye shall not suffer any one knowingly to partake of my flesh and blood unworthily when ye shall minister it.

3 Nephi 18:29

For whoso eateth and drinketh my flesh and blood unworthily eateth and drinketh damnation to his soul. Therefore if ye know that a man is unworthy to eat and drink of my flesh and blood, ye shall forbid him.

3 Nephi 18:30

Nevertheless ye shall not cast him out from among you, but ye shall minister unto him and shall pray for him unto the Father in my name. And if it so be that he repenteth and is baptized in my name, then shall ye receive him and shall minister unto him of my flesh and blood.

3 Nephi 18:31

But if he repenteth not, he shall not be numbered among my people, that he may not destroy my people. For behold, I know my sheep and they are numbered.

3 Nephi 18:32

Nevertheless ye shall not cast him out of your synagogues, or your places of worship, for unto such shall ye continue to minister. For ye know not but what they will return and repent and come unto me with full purpose of heart and I shall heal them, and ye shall be the means of bringing salvation unto them.

3 Nephi 18:33

Therefore keep these sayings which I have commanded you, that ye come not under condemnation. For woe unto him whom the Father condemneth.

3 Nephi 18:34

And I give you these commandments because of the disputations which hath been among you beforetimes. And blessed are ye if ye have no disputations among you.

3 Nephi 18:35

And now I go unto the Father because it is expedient that I should go unto the Father for your sakes.

3 Nephi 18:36

And it came to pass that when Jesus had made an end of these sayings, he touched with his hand the disciples whom he had chosen, one by one, even until he had touched them all and spake unto them as he touched them.

3 Nephi 18:37

And the multitude heard not the words which he spake; therefore they did not bear record. But the disciples bare record that he gave them power to give the Holy Ghost. And I will shew unto you hereafter that this record is true.

3 Nephi 18:38

And it came to pass that when Jesus had touched them all, there came a cloud and overshadowed the multitude, that they could not see Jesus.

3 Nephi 18:39

And while they were overshadowed, he departed from them and ascended into heaven. And the disciples saw and did bear record that he ascended again into heaven.

3 Nephi 19

3 Nephi 19:1

And now it came to pass that when Jesus had ascended into heaven, the multitude did disperse; and every man did take his wife and his children and did return to his own home.

3 Nephi 19:2

And it was noised abroad among the people immediately, before it was yet dark, that the multitude had seen Jesus and that he had ministered unto them and that he would also shew himself on the morrow unto the multitude.

3 Nephi 19:3

Yea, and even all the night it was noised abroad concerning Jesus. And insomuch did they send forth unto the people that there were many—yea, an exceeding great number— did labor exceedingly all that night that they might be on the morrow in the place where Jesus should shew himself unto the multitude.

3 Nephi 19:4

And it came to pass that on the morrow when the multitude was gathered together, behold, Nephi and his brother —whom he had raised from the dead, whose name was Timothy— and also his son, whose name was Jonas, and also Mathoni and Mathonihah, his brother, and Kumen and Kumenonhi and Jeremiah and Shemnon and Jonas and Zedekiah and Isaiah —now these were the names of the disciples whom Jesus had chosen— and it came to pass that they went forth and stood in the midst of the multitude.

3 Nephi 19:5

And behold, the multitude was so great that they did cause that they should be separated into twelve bodies.

3 Nephi 19:6

And the twelve did teach the multitude. And behold, they did cause that the multitude should kneel down upon the face of the earth and should pray unto the Father in the name of Jesus.

3 Nephi 19:7

And the disciples did pray unto the Father also in the name of Jesus. And it came to pass that they arose and ministered unto the people.

3 Nephi 19:8

And when they had ministered them same words which Jesus had spoken, nothing varying from the words which Jesus had spoken, behold, they knelt again and prayed to the Father in the name of Jesus.

3 Nephi 19:9

And they did pray for that which they most desired; and they desired that the Holy Ghost should be given unto them.

3 Nephi 19:10

And when they had thus prayed, they went down unto the water's edge; and the multitude followed them.

3 Nephi 19:11

And it came to pass that Nephi went down into the water and was baptized.

3 Nephi 19:12

And he came up out of the water and began to baptize, and he baptized all they whom Jesus had chosen.

3 Nephi 19:13

And it came to pass when they were all baptized and had come up out of the water, the Holy Ghost did fall upon them; and they were filled with the Holy Ghost and with fire.

3 Nephi 19:14

And behold, they were encircled about as if it were fire; and it came down from heaven. And the multitude did witness it and do bear record. And angels did come down out of heaven and did minister unto them.

3 Nephi 19:15

And it came to pass that while the angels were ministering unto the disciples, behold, Jesus came and stood in the midst and ministered unto them.

3 Nephi 19:16

And it came to pass that he spake unto the multitude and commanded them that they should kneel down again upon the earth, and also that his disciples should kneel down upon the earth.

3 Nephi 19:17

And it came to pass that when they had all knelt down upon the earth, he commanded his disciples that they should pray.

3 Nephi 19:18

And behold, they began to pray; and they did pray unto Jesus, calling him their Lord and their God.

3 Nephi 19:19

And it came to pass that Jesus departed out of the midst of them and went a little way off from them and bowed himself to the earth, and he saith:

3 Nephi 19:20

Father, I thank thee that thou hast given the Holy Ghost unto these whom I have chosen. And it is because of their belief in me that I have chosen them out of the world.

3 Nephi 19:21

Father, I pray thee that thou wilt give the Holy Ghost unto all them that shall believe in their words.

3 Nephi 19:22

Father, thou hast given them the Holy Ghost because they believe in me. And thou seest that they believe in me because thou hearest them, and they pray unto me; and they pray unto me because I am with them.

3 Nephi 19:23

And now Father, I pray unto thee for them, and also for all they which shall believe on their words, that they may believe in me, that I may be in them as thou Father art in me, that we may be one.

3 Nephi 19:24

And it came to pass that when Jesus had thus prayed unto the Father, he came unto his disciples, and behold, they did still continue without ceasing to pray unto him. And they did not multiply many words, for it was given unto them what they should pray; and they were filled with desire.

3 Nephi 19:25

And it came to pass that Jesus blessed them as they did pray unto him. And his countenance did smile upon them, and the light of his countenance did shine upon them. And behold, they were as white as the countenance and also the garments of Jesus. And behold, the whiteness thereof did exceed all whiteness; yea, even there could be nothing upon earth so white as the whiteness thereof.

3 Nephi 19:26

And Jesus saith unto them: Pray on. Nevertheless they did not cease to pray.

3 Nephi 19:27

And he turned from them again and went a little way off and bowed himself to the earth, and he prayed again unto the Father, saying:

3 Nephi 19:28

Father, I thank thee that thou hast purified these which I have chosen because of their faith. And I pray for them and also for them which shall believe on their words, that they may be purified in me through faith on their words, even as they are purified in me.

3 Nephi 19:29

Father, I pray not for the world but for them which thou hast given unto me out of the world because of their faith, that they may be purified in me, that I may be in them as thou Father art in me, that we may be one, that I may be glorified in them.

3 Nephi 19:30

And it came to pass that when Jesus had spake these words, he came again unto his disciples, and behold, they did pray steadfastly without ceasing unto him. And he did smile upon them again. And behold, they were white, even as Jesus.

3 Nephi 19:31

And it came to pass that he went again a little way off and prayed unto the Father.

3 Nephi 19:32

And tongue cannot speak the words which he prayed, neither can be written by man the words which he prayed.

3 Nephi 19:33

And the multitude did hear and do bear record. And their hearts were open, and they did understand in their hearts the words which he prayed.

3 Nephi 19:34

Nevertheless, so great and marvelous were the words which he prayed that they cannot be written, neither can they be uttered by man.

3 Nephi 19:35

And it came to pass that when Jesus had made an end of praying, he came again to the disciples and saith unto them: So great faith have I never seen among all the Jews. Wherefore I could not shew unto them so great miracles because of their unbelief.

3 Nephi 19:36

Verily I say unto you: There are none of them that have seen so great things as ye have seen, neither have they heard so great things as ye have heard.

3 Nephi 20

3 Nephi 20:1

And it came to pass that he commanded the multitude that they should cease to pray, and also his disciples. And he commanded them that they should not cease to pray in their hearts.

3 Nephi 20:2

And he commanded them that they should arise and stand up upon their feet. And they arose up and stood upon their feet.

3 Nephi 20:3

And it came to pass that he brake bread again and blessed it and gave to the disciples to eat.

3 Nephi 20:4

And when they had eat, he commanded them that they should break bread and give unto the multitude.

3 Nephi 20:5

And when they had given unto the multitude, he also gave them wine to drink and commanded them that they should give unto the multitude.

3 Nephi 20:6

Now there had been no bread neither wine brought by the disciples, neither by the multitude.

3 Nephi 20:7

But he truly gave unto them bread to eat, and also wine to drink.

3 Nephi 20:8

And he saith unto them: He that eateth this bread eateth of my body to their soul. And he that drinketh of this wine drinketh of my blood to their soul. And their soul shall never hunger nor thirst but shall be filled.

3 Nephi 20:9

Now when the multitude had all eat and drank, behold, they were filled with the Spirit. And they did cry out with one voice and gave glory to Jesus, whom they both saw and heard.

3 Nephi 20:10

And it came to pass that when they had all given glory unto Jesus, he saith unto them: Behold, now I finish the commandment which the Father hath commanded me concerning this people, which are a remnant of the house of Israel.

3 Nephi 20:11

Ye remember that I spake unto you and said that when the words of Isaiah should be fulfilled— behold, they are written; ye have them before you. Therefore search them.

3 Nephi 20:12

And verily verily I say unto you that when they shall be fulfilled, then is the fulfilling of the covenant which the Father hath made unto his people, O house of Israel.

3 Nephi 20:13

And then shall the remnants which shall be scattered abroad upon the face of the earth be gathered in from the east and from the west and from the south and from the north. And they shall be brought to the knowledge of the Lord their God who hath redeemed them.

3 Nephi 20:14

And the Father hath commanded me that I should give unto you this land for your inheritance.

3 Nephi 20:15

And I say unto you that if the Gentiles do not repent after the blessings which they shall receive, after that they have scattered my people, then shall ye which are a remnant of the house of Jacob go forth among them. And ye shall be in the midst of them, which shall be many, and ye shall be among them as a lion among the beasts of the forest. And as a young lion among the flocks of sheep who, if he goeth through, both treadeth down and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver.

3 Nephi 20:16

3 Nephi 20:17

Thy hand shall be lifted up upon thine adversaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.

3 Nephi 20:18

And I will gather my people together as a man gathereth his sheaves into the floor, for I will make my people with whom the Father hath covenanted. Yea, I will make thy horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass; and thou shalt beat in pieces many people. And I will consecrate their gain unto the Lord and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth. And behold, I am he which doeth it.

3 Nephi 20:20

And it shall come to pass, saith the Father, that the sword of my justice shall hang over them at that day. And except they repent, it shall fall upon them, saith the Father, yea, even upon all the nations of the Gentiles.

3 Nephi 20:21

And it shall come to pass that I will establish my people, O house of Israel.

3 Nephi 20:22

And behold, this people will I establish in this land unto the fulfilling of the covenant which I made with your father Jacob; and it shall be a New Jerusalem. And the powers of heaven shall be in the midst of this people; yea, even I will be in the midst of you.

3 Nephi 20:23

Behold, I am he of whom Moses spake, saying: A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you, of your brethren, like unto me. Him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you. And it shall come to pass that every soul which will not hear that prophet shall be cut off from among the people.

3 Nephi 20:24

Verily I say unto you: Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have testified of me.

3 Nephi 20:25

And behold, ye are the children of the prophets, and ye are of the house of Israel, and ye are of the covenant which the Father made with your fathers, saying unto Abraham: And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

3 Nephi 20:26

The Father having raised me up unto you first and sent me to bless you in turning away every one of you from his iniquities—and this because ye are the children of the covenant.

3 Nephi 20:27

And after that ye were blessed, then fulfilleth the Father the covenant which he made with Abraham, saying: In thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed—unto the pouring out of the Holy Ghost through me upon the Gentiles, which blessing upon the Gentiles shall make them mighty above all, unto the scattering of my people, O house of Israel.

3 Nephi 20:28

And they shall be a scourge unto the people of this land. Nevertheless, when they shall have received the fullness of my gospel, then if they shall harden their hearts against me, I will return their iniquities upon their own heads, saith the Father, and I will remember the covenant which I have made with my people. And I have covenanted with them that I would gather them together in mine own due time, that I would give unto them again the land of their fathers for their inheritance, which is the land of Jerusalem, which is the promised land unto them forever, saith the Father.

3 Nephi 20:29

3 Nephi 20:30

And it shall come to pass that the time cometh when the fullness of my gospel shall be preached unto them.

3 Nephi 20:31

And they shall believe in me, that I am Jesus Christ the Son of God, and shall pray unto the Father in my name.

3 Nephi 20:32

Then shall their watchmen lift up their voice; and with the voice together shall they sing, for they shall see eye to eye.

3 Nephi 20:33

Then will the Father gather them together again and give unto them Jerusalem for the land of their inheritance.

3 Nephi 20:34

Then shall they break forth into joy. Sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem! For the Father hath comforted his people; he hath redeemed Jerusalem.

3 Nephi 20:35

The Father hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of the Father. And the Father and I are one.

3 Nephi 20:36

And then shall be brought to pass that which is written: Awake, awake again and put on thy strength, O Zion! Put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem the holy city! For henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised and the unclean.

3 Nephi 20:37

Shake thyself from the dust! Arise! Sit down, O Jerusalem! Loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion!

3 Nephi 20:38

For thus saith the Lord: Ye have sold yourselves for naught; and ye shall be redeemed without money.

3 Nephi 20:39

Verily verily I say unto you that my people shall know my name. Yea, in that day they shall know that I am he that doth speak.

3 Nephi 20:40

And then shall they say: How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings unto them, that publisheth peace, that bringeth good tidings unto them of good, that publisheth salvation, that saith unto Zion: Thy God reigneth!

3 Nephi 20:41

And then shall a cry go forth: Depart ye, depart ye! Go ye out from thence! Touch not that which is unclean! Go ye out of the midst of her! Be ye clean that bear the vessels of the Lord!

3 Nephi 20:42

For ye shall not go out with haste nor go by flight; for the Lord will go before you, and the God of Israel shall be your rearward.

3 Nephi 20:43

Behold, my servant shall deal prudently. He shall be exalted and extolled and be very high.

3 Nephi 20:44

As many were astonished at thee —his visage was so marred, more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men—

3 Nephi 20:45

so shall he sprinkle many nations. The kings shall shut their mouths at him; for that which had not been told them shall they see, and that which they had not heard shall they consider.

3 Nephi 20:46

Verily verily I say unto you: All these things shall surely come, even as the Father hath commanded me. And then shall this covenant which the Father hath covenanted with his people be fulfilled. And then shall Jerusalem be inhabited again with my people, and it shall be the land of their inheritance.

3 Nephi 21

3 Nephi 21:1

And verily I say unto you: I give unto you a sign that ye may know the time when these things shall be about to take place, that I shall gather in from their long dispersion my people, O house of Israel, and shall establish again among them my Zion.

3 Nephi 21:2

And behold, this is the thing which I will give unto you for a sign. For verily I say unto you that when these things which I declare unto you —and which I shall declare unto you hereafter of myself and by the power of the Holy Ghost, which shall be given unto you of the Father— shall be made known unto the Gentiles, that they may know concerning this people which are a remnant of the house of Jacob and concerning this my people which shall be scattered by them—verily verily I say unto you: When these things shall be made known unto them of the Father and shall come forth of the Father from them unto you—for it is wisdom in the Father that they should be established in this land and be set up as a free people by the power of the Father, that these things might come forth from them unto a remnant of your seed, that the covenant of the Father may be fulfilled which he hath covenanted with his people, O house of Israel—

3 Nephi 21:3

3 Nephi 21:4

3 Nephi 21:5

therefore when these works, and the works which shall be wrought among you hereafter, shall come forth from the Gentiles unto your seed, which shall dwindle in unbelief because of iniquity—for thus it behooveth the Father that it should come forth from the Gentiles, that he may shew forth his power unto the Gentiles, for this cause that the Gentiles—if they will not harden their hearts— that they may repent and come unto me and be baptized in my name and know of the true points of my doctrine, that they may be numbered among my people, O house of Israel.

3 Nephi 21:6

3 Nephi 21:7

And when these things come to pass, that thy seed shall begin to know these things, it shall be a sign unto them that they may know that the work of the Father hath already commenced unto the fulfilling of the covenant which he hath made unto the people which are of the house of Israel.

3 Nephi 21:8

And when that day shall come, it shall come to pass that kings shall shut their mouths; for that which had not been told them shall they see, and that which they had not heard shall they consider.

3 Nephi 21:9

For in that day, for my sake, shall the Father work a work which shall be a great and a marvelous work among them. And there shall be many among them which will not believe it, although a man shall declare it unto them.

3 Nephi 21:10

But behold, the life of my servant shall be in my hand; therefore they shall not hurt him, although he shall be marred because of them. Yet I will heal him, for I will shew unto them that my wisdom is greater than the cunning of the devil.

3 Nephi 21:11

Therefore it shall come to pass that whosoever will not believe in my words—which am Jesus Christ— which the Father shall cause him to bring forth unto the Gentiles and shall give unto him power that he shall bring them forth unto the Gentiles, it shall be done, even as Moses said: They shall be cut off from among my people which are of the covenant.

3 Nephi 21:12

And my people which are a remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles, yea, in the midst of them as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep who, if he go through, both treadeth down and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver.

3 Nephi 21:13

Their hand shall be lifted up upon their adversaries, and all their enemies shall be cut off.

3 Nephi 21:14

Yea, woe be unto the Gentiles except they repent. For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Father, that I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots.

3 Nephi 21:15

And I will cut off the cities of thy land and throw down all thy strong holds.

3 Nephi 21:16

And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thy hand, and thou shalt have no more soothsayers.

3 Nephi 21:17

Thy graven images I will also cut off, and thy standing images out of the midst of thee. And thou shalt no more worship the works of thy hands.

3 Nephi 21:18

And I will pluck up thy groves out of the midst of thee; so will I destroy thy cities.

3 Nephi 21:19

And it shall come to pass that all lyings and deceivings and envyings and strifes and priestcrafts and whoredoms shall be done away.

3 Nephi 21:20

For it shall come to pass, saith the Father, that at that day whosoever will not repent and come unto my Beloved Son, them will I cut off from among my people, O house of Israel.

3 Nephi 21:21

And I will execute vengeance and fury upon them, even as upon the heathen, such as they have not heard.

3 Nephi 21:22

But if they will repent and hearken unto my words and harden not their hearts, I will establish my church among them. And they shall come in unto the covenant and be numbered among this the remnant of Jacob, unto whom I have given this land for their inheritance.

3 Nephi 21:23

And they shall assist my people, the remnant of Jacob, and also as many of the house of Israel as shall come, that they may build a city which shall be called the New Jerusalem.

3 Nephi 21:24

And then shall they assist my people that they may be gathered in which are scattered upon all the face of the land, in unto the New Jerusalem.

3 Nephi 21:25

And then shall the powers of heaven come down among them, and I also will be in the midst.

3 Nephi 21:26

And then shall the work of the Father commence at that day, even when this gospel shall be preached among the remnant of this people. Verily I say unto you: At that day shall the work of the Father commence among all the dispersed of my people, yea, even the tribes which have been lost, which the Father hath led away out of Jerusalem.

3 Nephi 21:27

Yea, the work shall commence among all the dispersed of my people with the Father to prepare the way whereby they may come unto me, that they may call on the Father in my name.

3 Nephi 21:28

Yea, and then shall the work commence with the Father among all nations in preparing the way whereby his people may be gathered home to the land of their inheritance.

3 Nephi 21:29

And they shall go out from all nations. And they shall not go out in haste nor go by flight, for I will go before them, saith the Father, and I will be their rearward.

3 Nephi 22

3 Nephi 22:1

And then shall that which is written come to pass: Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear. Break forth into singing and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child. For more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the Lord.

3 Nephi 22:2

Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thy habitations. Spare not! Lengthen thy cords and strengthen thy stakes!

3 Nephi 22:3

For thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left. And thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.

3 Nephi 22:4

Fear not, for thou shalt not be ashamed, neither be thou confounded, for thou shalt not be put to shame; for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more.

3 Nephi 22:5

For thy maker, thy husband, the Lord of Hosts is his name. And thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel, the God of the whole earth shall he be called.

3 Nephi 22:6

For the Lord hath called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God.

3 Nephi 22:7

For a small moment have I forsaken thee, but with great mercies will I gather thee.

3 Nephi 22:8

In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment, but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the Lord thy Redeemer.

3 Nephi 22:9

For this, the waters of Noah unto me. For as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth, so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee.

3 Nephi 22:10

For the mountains shall depart and the hills be removed, but my kindness shall not depart from thee. Neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the Lord that hath mercy on thee.

3 Nephi 22:11

O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest and not comforted! Behold, I will lay thy stones with fair colors and lay thy foundations with sapphires.

3 Nephi 22:12

And I will make thy windows of agates and thy gates of carbuncles and all thy borders of pleasant stones.

3 Nephi 22:13

And all thy children shall be taught of the Lord, and great shall be the peace of thy children.

3 Nephi 22:14

In righteousness shalt thou be established. Thou shalt be far from oppression, for thou shalt not fear, and from terror, for it shall not come near thee.

3 Nephi 22:15

Behold, they shall surely gather together against thee, not by me. Whosoever shall gather together against thee shall fall for thy sake.

3 Nephi 22:16

Behold, I have created the smith that bloweth the coals in the fire and that bringeth forth an instrument for his work. And I have created the waster to destroy.

3 Nephi 22:17

No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper. And every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment, thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord; and their righteousness is of me, saith the Lord.

3 Nephi 23

3 Nephi 23:1

And now behold, I say unto you that ye had ought to search these things. Yea, a commandment I give unto you that ye search these things diligently, for great is the words of Isaiah.

3 Nephi 23:2

For surely he spake as touching all things concerning my people which are of the house of Israel. Therefore it must needs be that he must speak also to the Gentiles.

3 Nephi 23:3

And all things that he spake hath been and shall be, even according to the words which he spake.

3 Nephi 23:4

Therefore give heed to my words. Write the things which I have told you. And according to the time and the will of the Father, they shall go forth unto the Gentiles.

3 Nephi 23:5

And whosoever will hearken unto my words and repenteth and is baptized, the same shall be saved. Search the prophets, for many there be that testify of these things.

3 Nephi 23:6

And now it came to pass that when Jesus had said these words, he saith unto them again— after he had expounded all the scriptures unto them which they had received, he saith unto them: Behold, other scriptures I would that ye should write that ye have not.

3 Nephi 23:7

And it came to pass that he saith unto Nephi: Bring forth the record which ye have kept.

3 Nephi 23:8

And when Nephi had brought forth the records and laid them before him, and he cast his eyes upon them and saith:

3 Nephi 23:9

Verily I say unto you: I commanded my servant Samuel the Lamanite that he should testify unto this people that at the day that the Father should glorify his name in me that there were many saints which should arise from the dead and should appear unto many and should minister unto them. And he saith unto them: Were it not so?

3 Nephi 23:10

And his disciples answered him and said: Yea, Lord, Samuel did prophesy according to thy words, and they were all fulfilled.

3 Nephi 23:11

And Jesus saith unto them: How be it that ye have not written this thing? —that many saints did arise and appear unto many and did minister unto them.

3 Nephi 23:12

And it came to pass that Nephi remembered that this thing had not been written.

3 Nephi 23:13

And it came to pass that Jesus commanded that it should be written. Therefore it was written according as he commanded.

3 Nephi 23:14

And now it came to pass that when Jesus had expounded all the scriptures in one which they had written, he commanded them that they should teach the things which he had expounded unto them.

3 Nephi 24

3 Nephi 24:1

And it came to pass that he commanded them that they should write the words which the Father had given unto Malachi which he should tell unto them. And it came to pass that after they were written, he expounded them. And these are the words which he did tell unto them, saying: Thus said the Father unto Malachi: Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me. And the Lord whom ye seek shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant whom ye delight in. Behold, he shall come, saith the Lord of Hosts.

3 Nephi 24:2

But who may abide the day of his coming? And who shall stand when he appeareth? For he is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap.

3 Nephi 24:3

And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver. And he shall purify the sons of Levi and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness.

3 Nephi 24:4

Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the Lord as in the days of old and as in former years.

3 Nephi 24:5

And I will come near to you to judgment. And I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers and against the adulterers and against false swearers and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger and fear not me, saith the Lord of Hosts.

3 Nephi 24:6

For I am the Lord; I change not. Therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.

3 Nephi 24:7

Even from the days of your fathers, ye are gone away from mine ordinances and have not kept them. Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the Lord of Hosts. But ye said: Wherein shall we return?

3 Nephi 24:8

Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me! But ye say: Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings!

3 Nephi 24:9

Ye are cursed with a curse, for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.

3 Nephi 24:10

Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in my house. And prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of Hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven and pour you out a blessing that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

3 Nephi 24:11

And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the Lord of Hosts.

3 Nephi 24:12

And all nations shall call you blessed, for ye shall be a delightsome land, saith the Lord of Hosts.

3 Nephi 24:13

Your words have been stout against me, saith the Lord. Yet ye say: What have we spoken against thee?

3 Nephi 24:14

Ye have said: It is vain to serve God. And what doth it profit that we have kept his ordinance and that we have walked mournfully before the Lord of Hosts?

3 Nephi 24:15

And now, we call the proud happy. Yea, they that work wickedness are set up; yea, them that tempt God are even delivered.

3 Nephi 24:16

Then they that feared the Lord spake often one to another, and the Lord hearkened and heard. And a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lord and that thought upon his name.

3 Nephi 24:17

And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of Hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels. And I will spare them as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

3 Nephi 24:18

Then shall ye return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not.

3 Nephi 25

3 Nephi 25:1

For behold, the day cometh that shall burn as an oven. And all the proud—yea, and all that do wickedly—shall be stubble. And the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of Hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

3 Nephi 25:2

But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings. And ye shall go forth and grow up as calves of the stall.

3 Nephi 25:3

And ye shall tread down the wicked, for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the Lord of Hosts.

3 Nephi 25:4

Remember ye the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel with the statutes and judgments.

3 Nephi 25:5

Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord.

3 Nephi 25:6

And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

3 Nephi 26

3 Nephi 26:1

And now it came to pass that when Jesus had told these things, he expounded them unto the multitude. And he did expound all things unto them, both great and small.

3 Nephi 26:2

And he saith: These scriptures which ye had not with you, the Father commanded that I should give unto you. For it was wisdom in him that they should be given unto future generations.

3 Nephi 26:3

And he did expound all things, even from the beginning until the time that he should come in his glory —yea, even all things which should come upon the face of the earth— even until the elements should melt with fervent heat and the earth should be wrapped together as a scroll and the heavens and the earth should pass away, and even unto the great and last day when all people and all kindreds and all nations and tongues shall stand before God to be judged of their works, whether they be good or whether they be evil—

3 Nephi 26:4

if they be good, to the resurrection of everlasting life; and if they be evil, to the resurrection of damnation —being on a parallel, the one on the one hand and the other on the other hand— according to the mercy and the justice and the holiness which is in Christ, which was before the world began.

3 Nephi 26:6

And now there cannot be written in this book even an hundredth part of the things which Jesus did truly teach unto the people.

3 Nephi 26:7

But behold, the plates of Nephi do contain the more part of the things which he taught the people.

3 Nephi 26:8

And these things have I written which are a lesser part of the things which he taught the people. And I have wrote them to the intent that they may be brought again unto this people from the Gentiles, according to the words which Jesus hath spoken.

3 Nephi 26:9

And when they shall have received this —which is expedient that they should have first, to try their faith— and if it should so be that they shall believe these things, then shall the greater things be made manifest unto them.

3 Nephi 26:10

And if it so be that they will not believe these things, then shall the greater things be withheld from them, unto their condemnation.

3 Nephi 26:11

Behold, I were about to write them all which were engraven upon the plates of Nephi, but the Lord forbid it, saying: I will try the faith of my people.

3 Nephi 26:12

Therefore I Mormon do write the things which have been commanded me of the Lord. And now I Mormon make an end of my sayings and proceed to write the things which have been commanded me.

3 Nephi 26:13

Therefore I would that ye should behold that the Lord truly did teach the people for the space of three days. And after that, he did shew himself unto them oft and did break bread oft and bless it and give it unto them.

3 Nephi 26:14

And it came to pass that he did teach and minister unto the children of the multitude, of whom hath been spoken, and he did loose their tongues. And they did speak unto their fathers great and marvelous things— even greater than he had revealed unto the people and loosed their tongues that they could utter.

3 Nephi 26:15

And it came to pass that after he had ascended into heaven —the second time that he shewed himself unto them— and gone unto the Father, after having healed all their sick and their lame and opened the eyes of the blind and unstopped the ears of the deaf —and even had done all manner of cures among them— and raised a man from the dead and had shewn forth his power unto them and had ascended unto the Father, behold, it came to pass on the morrow that the multitude gathered themselves together. And they both saw and heard these children, yea, even babes did open their mouths and utter marvelous things. And the things which they did utter were forbidden, that there should not any man write them.

3 Nephi 26:16

3 Nephi 26:17

And it came to pass that the disciples whom Jesus had chosen began from that time forth to baptize and to teach as many as did come unto them. And as many as were baptized in the name of Jesus were filled with the Holy Ghost.

3 Nephi 26:18

And many of them saw and heard unspeakable things which are not lawful to be written.

3 Nephi 26:19

And they taught and did minister one to another; and they had all things common among them, every man dealing justly one with another.

3 Nephi 26:20

And it came to pass that they did do all things even as Jesus had commanded them.

3 Nephi 26:21

And they which were baptized in the name of Jesus were called the church of Christ.

3 Nephi 27

3 Nephi 27:1

And it came to pass that as the disciples of Jesus were journeying and were preaching the things which they had both heard and seen and were baptizing in the name of Jesus, it came to pass that the disciples were gathered together and were united in mighty prayer and fasting.

3 Nephi 27:2

And Jesus again shewed himself unto them, for they were praying unto the Father in his name. And Jesus came and stood in the midst of them and saith unto them: What will ye that I shall give unto you?

3 Nephi 27:3

And they saith unto him: Lord, we will that thou wouldst tell us the name whereby we shall call this church, for there are disputations among the people concerning this matter.

3 Nephi 27:4

And the Lord said unto them: Verily verily I say unto you: Why is it that the people should murmur and dispute because of this thing?

3 Nephi 27:5

Have they not read the scriptures which saith: Ye must take upon you the name of Christ, which is my name. For by this name shall ye be called at the last day.

3 Nephi 27:6

And whoso taketh upon him my name and endureth to the end, the same shall be saved at the last day.

3 Nephi 27:7

Therefore whatsoever ye shall do, ye shall do it in my name. Therefore ye shall call the church in my name. And ye shall call upon the Father in my name, that he will bless the church for my sake.

3 Nephi 27:8

And how be it my church save it be called in my name? For if a church be called in Moses' name, then it be Moses' church. Or if it be called in the name of a man, then it be the church of a man. But if it be called in my name, then it is my church, if it so be that they are built upon my gospel.

3 Nephi 27:9

Verily I say unto you that ye are built upon my gospel; therefore ye shall call whatsoever things ye do call, in my name. Therefore if ye call upon the Father for the church, if it be in my name, the Father will hear you.

3 Nephi 27:10

And if it so be that the church is built upon my gospel, then will the Father shew forth his own works in it.

3 Nephi 27:11

But if it be not built upon my gospel and is built upon the works of men or upon the works of the devil, verily I say unto you: They have joy in their works for a season; and by and by the end cometh, and they are hewn down and cast into the fire from whence there is no return.

3 Nephi 27:12

For their works do follow them, for it is because of their works that they are hewn down. Therefore remember the things that I have told you.

3 Nephi 27:13

Behold, I have given unto you my gospel. And this is the gospel which I have given unto you, that I came into the world to do the will of my Father, because my Father sent me.

3 Nephi 27:14

And my Father sent me that I might be lifted up upon the cross —and after that I had been lifted up upon the cross, I might draw¹ all men unto me— that as I have been lifted up by men, even so should men be lifted up by the Father to stand before me to be judged of their works, whether they be good or whether they be evil.

3 Nephi 27:15

And for this cause have I been lifted up. Therefore, according to the power of the Father, I will draw² all men unto me that they may be judged according to their works.

3 Nephi 27:16

And it shall come to pass that whoso repenteth and is baptized in my name shall be filled. And if he endureth to the end, behold, him will I hold guiltless before my Father at that day when I shall stand to judge the world.

3 Nephi 27:17

And he that endureth not unto the end, the same is he that is also hewn down and cast into the fire from whence they can no more return because of the justice of the Father.

3 Nephi 27:18

And this is the word which he hath given unto the children of men. And for this cause he fulfilleth the words which he hath given; and he lieth not but fulfilleth all his words.

3 Nephi 27:19

And no unclean thing can enter into his kingdom. Therefore nothing entereth into his rest save it be those who have washed their garments in my blood because of their faith and the repentance of all their sins and their faithfulness unto the end.

3 Nephi 27:20

Now this is the commandment: repent, all ye ends of the earth, and come unto me and be baptized in my name, that ye may be sanctified by the reception of the Holy Ghost, that ye may stand spotless before me at the last day.

3 Nephi 27:21

Verily verily I say unto you: This is my gospel. And ye know the things that ye must do in my church. For the works which ye have seen me do, that shall ye also do; for that which ye have seen me do, even that shall ye do.

¹Compare John 6:44 and John 12:32; see the note at 12:32 for information about the Greek word used in those passages, ἔλκω.

²See note at “draw” in the previous verse.

3 Nephi 27:22

Therefore if ye do these things, blessed are ye, for ye shall be lifted up at the last day.

3 Nephi 27:23

Write the things which ye have seen and heard, save it be those which are forbidden.

3 Nephi 27:24

Write the works of this people which shall be, even as hath been written of that which hath been.

3 Nephi 27:25

For behold, out of the books which have been written and which shall be written shall this people be judged, for by them shall their works be known unto men.

3 Nephi 27:26

And behold, all things are written by the Father. Therefore out of the books which shall be written shall the world be judged.

3 Nephi 27:27

And know ye that ye shall be judges of this people, according to the judgment which I shall give unto you, which shall be just. Therefore what manner of men had ye ought to be? Verily I say unto you: Even as I am.

3 Nephi 27:28

And now I go unto the Father. And verily I say unto you: Whatsoever things ye shall ask the Father in my name, it shall be given unto you.

3 Nephi 27:29

Therefore ask and ye shall receive; knock and it shall be opened unto you. For he that asketh receiveth; and unto him that knocketh it shall be opened.

3 Nephi 27:30

And now behold, my joy is great, even unto fullness, because of you and also this generation. Yea, and even the Father rejoiceth, and also all the holy angels, because of you and this generation, for none of them are lost.

3 Nephi 27:31

Behold, I would that ye should understand, for I mean them which are now alive of this generation. And none of them are lost, and in them I have fullness of joy.

3 Nephi 27:32

But behold, it sorroweth me because of the fourth generation from this generation, for they are led away captive by him, even as was the son of perdition.¹ For they will sell me for silver and for gold and for that which moth doth corrupt and which thieves can break through and steal. And in that day will I visit them, even in turning their works upon their own heads.

¹This has to be a reference to John 17:12.

3 Nephi 27:33

And it came to pass that when Jesus had ended these sayings, he saith unto his disciples: Enter ye in at the strait gate. For strait is the gate and narrow is the way that leads to life, and few there be that find it. But wide is the gate and broad the way which leads to death, and many there be that traveleth therein until the night cometh wherein no man can work.

3 Nephi 28

3 Nephi 28:1

And it came to pass when Jesus had said these words, he spake unto his disciples one by one, saying unto them: What is it that ye desire of me after that I am gone to the Father?

3 Nephi 28:2

And they all spake, save it were three, saying: We desire that after we have lived unto the age of man that our ministry wherein thou hast called us may have an end, that we may speedily come unto thee in thy kingdom.

3 Nephi 28:3

And he saith unto them: Blessed are ye because ye desire this thing of me. Therefore after that ye are seventy and two years old, ye shall come unto me in my kingdom, and with me ye shall find rest.

3 Nephi 28:4

And when he had spake unto them, he turned himself unto the three and said unto them: What will ye that I should do unto you when I am gone unto the Father?

3 Nephi 28:5

And they sorrowed in their hearts, for they durst not speak unto him the thing which they desired.

3 Nephi 28:6

And he saith unto them: Behold, I know your thoughts. And ye have desired the thing which John my beloved, which was with me in my ministry before that I was lifted up by the Jews, desired of me.

3 Nephi 28:7

Therefore more blessed are ye; for ye shall never taste of death, but ye shall live to behold all the doings of the Father unto the children of men, even until all things shall be fulfilled according to the will of the Father when I shall come in my glory with the powers of heaven.

3 Nephi 28:8

And ye shall never endure the pains of death. But when I shall come in my glory, ye shall be changed in the twinkling of an eye from mortality to immortality. And then shall ye be blessed in the kingdom of my Father.

3 Nephi 28:9

And again, ye shall not have pain while ye shall dwell in the flesh, neither sorrow, save it be for the sins of the world. And all this will I do because of the thing which ye have desired of me, for ye have desired that ye might bring the souls of men unto me while the world shall stand.

3 Nephi 28:10

And for this cause ye shall have fullness of joy; and ye shall sit down in the kingdom of my Father. Yea, your joy shall be full, even as the Father hath given me fullness of joy. And ye shall be even as I am, and I am even as the Father; and the Father and I are one.

3 Nephi 28:11

And the Holy Ghost beareth record of the Father and me. And the Father giveth the Holy Ghost unto the children of men because of me.

3 Nephi 28:12

And it came to pass that when Jesus had spake these words, he touched every one of them with his finger save it were the three which were to tarry; and then he departed.

3 Nephi 28:13

And behold, the heavens were opened, and they were caught up into heaven and saw and heard unspeakable things.

3 Nephi 28:14

And it was forbidden them that they should utter, neither was it given unto them power that they could utter the things which they saw and heard.

3 Nephi 28:15

And whether they were in the body or out of the body, they could not tell. For it did seem unto them like a transfiguration of them, that they were changed from this body of flesh into an immortal state, that they could behold the things of God.

3 Nephi 28:16

But it came to pass that they did again minister upon the face of the earth. Nevertheless they did not minister of the things which they had heard and seen because of the commandment which was given them in heaven.

3 Nephi 28:17

And now whether they were mortal or immortal from the day of their transfiguration, I know not.

3 Nephi 28:18

But this much I know, according to the record which hath been given, they did go forth upon the face of the land and did minister unto all the people, uniting as many to the church as would believe in their preaching, baptizing them; and as many as were baptized did receive the Holy Ghost.

3 Nephi 28:19

And they were cast into prison by them who did not belong to the church. And the prisons could not hold them, for they were rent in twain.

3 Nephi 28:20

And they were cast down into the earth, but they did smite the earth with the word of God, insomuch that by his power they were delivered out of the depths of the earth. And therefore they could not dig pits sufficiently to hold them.

3 Nephi 28:21

And thrice they were cast into a furnace and received no harm.

3 Nephi 28:22

And twice were they cast into a den of wild beasts, and behold, they did play with the beasts as a child with a suckling lamb and received no harm.

3 Nephi 28:23

And it came to pass that thus they did go forth among all the people of Nephi and did preach the gospel of Christ unto all people upon the face of the land, and they were converted unto the Lord and were united unto the church of Christ. And thus the people of that generation were blessed according to the word of Jesus.

3 Nephi 28:24

And now I Mormon make an end of speaking concerning these things for a time.

3 Nephi 28:25

Behold, I were about to write the names of those who were never to taste of death, but the Lord forbade. Therefore I write them not, for they are hid from the world.

3 Nephi 28:26

But behold, I have seen them, and they have ministered unto me.

3 Nephi 28:27

And behold, they will be among the Gentiles, and the Gentiles knoweth them not.

3 Nephi 28:28

They will also be among the Jews, and the Jews shall know them not.

3 Nephi 28:29

And it shall come to pass, when the Lord seeth fit in his wisdom, that they shall minister unto all the scattered tribes of Israel and unto all nations, kindreds, tongues, and people and shall bring out of them unto Jesus many souls, that their desire may be fulfilled, and also because of the convincing power of God which is in them.

3 Nephi 28:30

And they are as the angels of God. And if they shall pray unto the Father in the name of Jesus, they can shew themselves unto whatsoever man it seemeth them good.

3 Nephi 28:31

Therefore great and marvelous works shall be wrought by them before the great and coming day when all people must surely stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

3 Nephi 28:32

Yea, even among the Gentiles shall there be a great and marvelous work wrought by them before that judgment day.

3 Nephi 28:33

And if ye had all the scriptures which gives an account of all the marvelous works of Christ, ye would, according to the words of Christ, know that these things must surely come.

3 Nephi 28:34

And woe be unto him that will not hearken unto the words of Jesus and also to them which he hath chosen and sent among them. For whoso receiveth not the words of Jesus and the words of them which he hath sent receiveth not him, and therefore he will not receive them at the last day.

3 Nephi 28:35

And it would be better for them if they had not been born. For do ye suppose that ye can get rid of the justice of an offended God who hath been trampled under feet of men, that thereby salvation might come?

3 Nephi 28:36

And now behold, as I spake concerning them whom the Lord had chosen —yea, even three which were caught up into the heavens— that I knew not whether they were changed from mortality to immortality—

3 Nephi 28:37

but behold, since I wrote, I have inquired of the Lord; and he hath made it manifest unto me that there must needs be a change wrought upon their bodies, or else it needs be that they must taste of death.

3 Nephi 28:38

Therefore that they might not taste of death, there was a change wrought upon their bodies that they might not suffer pain nor sorrow, save it were for the sins of the world.

3 Nephi 28:39

Now this change was not equal to that which should take place at the last day, but there was a change wrought upon them, insomuch that Satan could have no power over them,¹ that he could not tempt them. And they were sanctified in the flesh, that they were holy and that the powers of the earth could not hold them.

3 Nephi 28:40

And in this state they were to remain until the judgment day of Christ. And at that day they were to receive a greater change and to be received into the kingdom of the Father, to go no more out but to dwell with God eternally in the heavens.

¹See 2 Nephi 2:29 and notes on Satan's power and authority.

3 Nephi 29:1

And now behold, I say unto you that when the Lord shall see fit in his wisdom that these sayings shall come unto the Gentiles according to his word, then ye may know that the covenant which the Father hath made with the children of Israel concerning their restoration to the lands of their inheritance is already beginning to be fulfilled.

3 Nephi 29:2

And ye may know that the words of the Lord which have been spoken by the holy prophets shall all be fulfilled. And ye need not say that the Lord delays his coming unto the children of Israel.

3 Nephi 29:3

And ye need not imagine in your hearts that the words which have been spoken are vain; for behold, the Lord will remember his covenant which he hath made unto his people of the house of Israel.

3 Nephi 29:4

And when ye shall see these sayings coming forth among you, then ye need not any longer spurn at the doings of the Lord, for the sword of his justice is in his right hand. And behold, at that day, if ye shall spurn at his doings, he will cause it that it shall soon overtake you.

3 Nephi 29:5

Woe unto him that spurneth at the doings of the Lord. Yea, woe unto him that shall deny the Christ and his works.

3 Nephi 29:6

Yea, woe unto him that shall deny the revelations of the Lord and that shall say: The Lord no longer worketh by revelation or by prophecy or by gifts or by tongues or by healings or by the power of the Holy Ghost.

3 Nephi 29:7

Yea, and woe unto him that shall say at that day that there can be no miracle wrought by Jesus Christ, for to get gain; for he that doeth this shall become like unto the son of perdition, for whom there was no mercy, according to the words of Christ.

3 Nephi 29:8

Yea, and ye need not any longer hiss nor spurn nor make game of the Jews nor of any of the remnant of the house of Israel, for behold, the Lord remembereth his covenant unto them; and he will do unto them according to that which he hath sworn.

3 Nephi 29:9

Therefore ye need not suppose that ye can turn the right hand of the Lord unto the left, that he may not execute judgment unto the fulfilling of the covenant which he hath made unto the house of Israel.

3 Nephi 30

3 Nephi 30:1

Hearken, O ye Gentiles, and hear the words of Jesus Christ, the Son of the living God, which he hath commanded me that I should speak concerning you. For behold, he commandeth me that I should write, saying:

3 Nephi 30:2

Turn, all ye Gentiles, from your wicked ways and repent of your evil doings, of your lyings and deceivings, and of your whoredoms, and of your secret abominations and your idolatries, and of your murders and your priestcrafts and your envyings and your strifes, and from all your wickedness and abominations, and come unto me and be baptized in my name, that ye may receive a remission of your sins and be filled with the Holy Ghost, that ye may be numbered with my people which are of the house of Israel.

4 Nephi

4 Nephi 1

4 Nephi 1:1

And it came to pass that the thirty and fourth year passed away, and also the thirty and fifth, and behold, the disciples of Jesus had formed a church of Christ in all the lands round about. And as many as did come unto them and did truly repent of their sins were baptized in the name of Jesus; and they did also receive the Holy Ghost.

4 Nephi 1:2

And it came to pass in the thirty and sixth year the people were all converted unto the Lord upon all the face of the land, both Nephites and Lamanites. And there was no contentions and disputations among them. And every man did deal justly one with another.

4 Nephi 1:3

And they had all things common among them; therefore there were not rich and poor, bond and free, but they were all made free and partakers of the heavenly gift.

4 Nephi 1:4

And it came to pass that the thirty and seventh year passed away also, and there still continued to be peace in the land.

4 Nephi 1:5

And there were great and marvelous works wrought by the disciples of Jesus, insomuch that they did heal the sick and raise the dead and cause the lame to walk and the blind to receive their sight and the deaf to hear. And all manner of miracles did they work among the children of men; and in nothing did they work miracles save it were in the name of Jesus.

4 Nephi 1:6

And thus did the thirty and eighth year pass away, and also the thirty and ninth, and the forty and first, and the forty and second, yea, even until forty and nine years had passed away, and also the fifty and first, and the fifty and second, yea, and even until fifty and nine years had passed away.

4 Nephi 1:7

And the Lord did prosper them exceedingly in the land, yea, insomuch that they did build cities again where there had been cities burned; yea, even that great city Zarahemla did they cause to be built again.

4 Nephi 1:8

4 Nephi 1:9

But there were many cities which had been sunk and waters came up in the stead thereof; therefore these cities could not be renewed.

4 Nephi 1:10

And now behold, it came to pass that the people of Nephi did wax strong and did multiply exceeding fast and became an exceeding fair and delightsome people.

4 Nephi 1:11

And they were married and given in marriage, and were blessed according to the multitude of the promises which the Lord had made unto them.

4 Nephi 1:12

And they did not walk any more after the performances and ordinances of the law of Moses, but they did walk after the commandments which they had received from their Lord and their God, continuing in fasting and prayer and in meeting together oft, both to pray and to hear the word of the Lord.

4 Nephi 1:13

And it came to pass that there was no contention among all the people in all the land, but there were mighty miracles wrought among the disciples of Jesus.

4 Nephi 1:14

And it came to pass that the seventy and first year passed away, and also the seventy and second year, yea, and in fine, until the seventy and ninth year had passed away; yea, even an hundred years had passed away. And the disciples of Jesus whom he had chosen had all gone to the paradise of God, save it were the three which should tarry; and there were other disciples ordained in their stead and also many of that generation which had passed away.

4 Nephi 1:15

And it came to pass that there was no contention in the land because of the love of God which did dwell in the hearts of the people.

4 Nephi 1:16

And there were no envyings nor strifes nor tumults nor whoredoms nor lyings nor murders nor no manner of lasciviousness. And surely there could not be a happier people among all the people which had been created by the hand of God.

4 Nephi 1:17

There were no robbers nor no murderers, neither were there Lamanites nor no manner of ites, but they were in one, the children of Christ and heirs to the kingdom of God.

4 Nephi 1:18

And how blessed were they! For the Lord did bless them in all their doings; yea, even they were blessed and prospered until an hundred and ten years had passed away. And the first generation from Christ had passed away, and there was no contention in all the land.

4 Nephi 1:19

And it came to pass that Nephi, he that kept this last record —and he kept it upon the plates of Nephi— died, and his son Amos kept it in his stead. And he kept it upon the plates of Nephi also; and he kept it eighty and four years. And there was still peace in the land save it were a small part of the people which had revolted from the church and took upon them the name of Lamanites; therefore there began to be Lamanites again in the land.

4 Nephi 1:20

4 Nephi 1:21

And it came to pass that Amos died also. And it was an hundred and ninety and four years from the coming of Christ, and his son Amos kept the record in his stead. And he also kept it upon the plates of Nephi; and it was also written in the book of Nephi, which is this book.

4 Nephi 1:22

And it came to pass that two hundred years had passed away; and the second generation had all passed away save it were a few.

4 Nephi 1:23

And now I Mormon would that ye should know that the people had multiplied, insomuch that they were spread upon all the face of the land, and that they had become exceeding rich because of their prosperity in Christ.

4 Nephi 1:24

And now in this two hundred and first year there began to be among them those which were lifted up in pride, such as the wearing of costly apparel and all manner of fine pearls and of the fine things of the world.

4 Nephi 1:25

And from that time forth they did have their goods and their substance no more common among them.

4 Nephi 1:26

And they began to be divided into classes. And they began to build up churches unto themselves to get gain and began to deny the true church of Christ.

4 Nephi 1:27

And it came to pass that when two hundred and ten years had passed away, there were many churches in the land. Yea, there were churches which professed to know the Christ; and yet they did deny the more parts of his gospel, insomuch that they did receive all manner of wickedness and did administer that which was sacred unto him to whom it had been forbidden because of unworthiness.

4 Nephi 1:28

And this church did multiply exceedingly because of iniquity and because of the power of Satan, which did get hold upon their hearts.

4 Nephi 1:29

And again, there was another church which denied the Christ. And they did persecute the true church of Christ because of their humility and their belief in Christ. And they did despise them because of the many miracles which were wrought among them.

4 Nephi 1:30

Therefore they did exercise power and authority over the disciples of Jesus which did tarry with them. And they did cast them into prison; but by the power of the word of God which was in them, the prisons were rent in twain; and they went forth doing mighty miracles among them.

4 Nephi 1:31

Nevertheless—and notwithstanding all these miracles—the people did harden their hearts and did seek to kill them, even as the Jews at Jerusalem sought to kill Jesus, according to his word.

4 Nephi 1:32

And they did cast them into furnaces of fire, and they came forth receiving no harm.

4 Nephi 1:33

And they also cast them into dens of wild beasts, and they did play with the wild beasts, even as a child with a lamb; and they did come forth from among them, receiving no harm.

4 Nephi 1:34

Nevertheless the people did harden their hearts, for they were led by many priests and false prophets to build up many churches and to do all manner of iniquity. And they did smite upon the people of Jesus, but the people of Jesus did not smite again. And thus they did dwindle in unbelief and wickedness from year to year, even until two hundred and thirty years had passed away.

4 Nephi 1:35

And now it came to pass in this year—yea, in the two hundred and thirty and first year—there were a great division among the people.

4 Nephi 1:36

And it came to pass that in this year there arose a people which was called the Nephites, and they were true believers in Christ. And among them there were they which was called by the Lamanites Jacobites and Josephites and Zoramites.

4 Nephi 1:37

Therefore the true believers in Christ and the true worshippers of Christ, among whom were the three disciples of Jesus which should tarry, were called Nephites and Jacobites and Josephites and Zoramites.

4 Nephi 1:38

And it came to pass that they which rejected the gospel were called Lamanites and Lemuelites and Ishmaelites. And they did not dwindle in unbelief, but they did willfully rebel against the gospel of Christ. And they did teach their children that they should not believe, even as their fathers from the beginning did dwindle.

4 Nephi 1:39

And it was because of the wickedness and abominations of their fathers, even as it was in the beginning. And they were taught to hate the children of God, even as the Lamanites were taught to hate the children of Nephi from the beginning.

4 Nephi 1:40

And it came to pass that two hundred and forty and four years had passed away, and thus were the affairs of the people. And the more wicked part of the people did wax strong and became exceeding more numerous than were the people of God.

4 Nephi 1:41

And they did still continue to build up churches unto themselves and adorn them with all manner of precious things. And thus did two hundred and fifty years pass away, and also two hundred and sixty years.

4 Nephi 1:42

And it came to pass that the wicked part of the people began again to build up the secret oaths and combinations of Gaddianton.

4 Nephi 1:43

And also the people which were called the people of Nephi began to be proud in their hearts because of their exceeding riches and became vain like unto their brethren the Lamanites.

4 Nephi 1:44

And from this time the disciples began to sorrow for the sins of the world.

4 Nephi 1:45

And it came to pass that when three hundred years had passed away, both the people of Nephi and the Lamanites had become exceeding wicked, one like unto another.

4 Nephi 1:46

And it came to pass that the robbers of Gaddianton did spread over all the face of the land. And there were none that were righteous, save it were the disciples of Jesus. And gold and silver did they lay up in store in abundance and did traffic in all manner of traffic.

4 Nephi 1:47

And it came to pass that after three hundred and five years had passed away—and the people did still remain in wickedness—and Amos died, and his brother Ammaron did keep the record in his stead.

4 Nephi 1:48

And it came to pass that when three hundred and twenty years had passed away, Ammaron being constrained by the Holy Ghost did hide up the records which were sacred, yea, even all the sacred records which had been handed down from generation to generation, which were sacred, even until the three hundred and twentieth year from the coming of Christ.

4 Nephi 1:49

And he did hide them up unto the Lord, that they might come again unto the remnant of the house of Jacob, according to the prophecies and the promises of the Lord. And thus is the end of the record of Ammaron.

Mormon

Mormon 1

Mormon 1:1

And now I Mormon make a record of the things which I have both seen and heard and call it the book of Mormon.

Mormon 1:2

And about the time that Ammaron hid up the records unto the Lord, he came unto me, I being about ten years of age—and I began to be learned somewhat after the manner of the learning of my people—and Ammaron saith unto me: I perceive that thou art a sober child and art quick to observe.

Mormon 1:3

Therefore, when ye are about twenty and four years old, I would that ye should remember the things that ye have observed concerning this people; and when ye are of that age, go to the land of Antum unto a hill which shall be called Shim; and there have I deposited unto the Lord all the sacred engravings concerning this people.

Mormon 1:4

And behold, ye shall take the plates of Nephi unto yourself, and the remainder shall ye leave in the place where they are. And ye shall engrave upon the plates of Nephi all the things that ye have observed concerning this people.

Mormon 1:5

And I Mormon being a descendant of Nephi—and my father's name was Mormon—and I remembered the things which Ammaron commanded me.

Mormon 1:6

And it came to pass that I being eleven years old was carried by my father into the land southward, even to the land of Zarahemla,

Mormon 1:7

the whole face of the land having become covered with buildings; and the people were as numerous almost as it were the sand of the sea.

Mormon 1:8

And it came to pass in this year there began to be a war between the Nephites, which consisted of the Nephites and the Jacobites and the Josephites and the Zoramites— and this war was between the Nephites and the Lamanites and the Lemuelites and the Ishmaelites.

Mormon 1:9

Now the Lamanites and the Lemuelites and the Ishmaelites were called Lamanites; and the two parties were Nephites and Lamanites.

Mormon 1:10

And it came to pass that the war began to be among them in the borders of Zarahemla by the waters of Sidon.

Mormon 1:11

And it came to pass that the Nephites had gathered together a great number of men, even to exceed the number of thirty thousand. And it came to pass that they did have in this same year a number of battles, in the which the Nephites did beat the Lamanites and did slay many of them.

Mormon 1:12

And it came to pass that the Lamanites withdrew their design, and there was peace settled in the land. And peace did remain for the space of about four years, that there were no bloodshed.

Mormon 1:13

But wickedness did prevail upon the face of the whole land, insomuch that the Lord did take away his beloved disciples; and the work of miracles and of healing did cease because of the iniquity of the people.

Mormon 1:14

And there were no gifts from the Lord. And the Holy Ghost did not come upon any because of their wickedness and unbelief.

Mormon 1:15

And I being fifteen years of age and being somewhat of a sober mind, therefore I was visited of the Lord and tasted and knew of the goodness of Jesus.

Mormon 1:16

And I did endeavor to preach unto this people, but my mouth was shut. And I were forbidden that I should preach unto them, for behold, they had willfully rebelled against their God. And the beloved disciples were taken away out of the land because of their iniquity.

Mormon 1:17

But I did remain among them, but I were forbidden that I should preach unto them because of the hardness of their hearts. And because of the hardness of their hearts the land was cursed for their sake.

Mormon 1:18

And these Gaddianton robbers, which were among the Lamanites, did infest the land, insomuch that the inhabitants thereof began to hide up their treasures in the earth; and they became slippery because the Lord had cursed the land, that they could not hold them nor retain them again.

Mormon 1:19

And it came to pass that there were sorceries and witchcrafts and magics; and the power of the evil one was wrought upon all the face of the land, even unto the fulfilling of all the words of Abinadi and also Samuel the Lamanite.

Mormon 2

Mormon 2:1

And it came to pass that in that same year there began to be a war again between the Nephites and the Lamanites. And notwithstanding I being young was large in stature; therefore the people of Nephi appointed me that I should be their leader, or the leader of their armies.

Mormon 2:2

Therefore it came to pass that in my sixteenth year I did go forth at the head of an army of the Nephites against the Lamanites. Therefore three hundred and twenty and six years had passed away.

Mormon 2:3

And it came to pass that in the three hundred and twenty and seventh year the Lamanites did come upon us with exceeding great power, insomuch that they did frighten my armies; therefore they would not fight, and they began to retreat towards the north countries.

Mormon 2:4

And it came to pass that we did come to the city of Angolah; and we did take possession of the city and make preparations to defend ourselves against the Lamanites. And it came to pass that we did fortify the city with our mights. But notwithstanding all our fortifications, the Lamanites did come upon us and did drive us out of the city.

Mormon 2:5

And they did also drive us forth out of the land of David.

Mormon 2:6

And we marched forth and came to the land of Joshua, which was in the borders west by the seashore.

Mormon 2:7

And it came to pass that we did gather in our people as fast as it were possible, that we might get them together in one body.

Mormon 2:8

But behold, the land was filled with robbers and with Lamanites. And notwithstanding the great destruction which hung over my people, they did not repent of their evil doings. Therefore there was blood and carnage spread throughout all the face of the land, both on the part of the Nephites and also on the part of the Lamanites. And it was one complete revolution throughout all the face of the land.

Mormon 2:9

And now the Lamanites had a king, and his name was Aaron. And he came against us with an army of forty and four thousand. And behold, I withstood him with forty and two thousand. And it came to pass that I beat him with my army, that he fled before me. And behold, all this was done, and three hundred and thirty years had passed away.

Mormon 2:10

And it came to pass that the Nephites began to repent of their iniquity and began to cry, even as had been prophesied by Samuel the prophet. For behold, no man could keep that which was his own for the thieves and the robbers and the murderers and the magic art and the witchcraft which was in the land.

Mormon 2:11

Thus there began to be a mourning and a lamentation in all the land because of these things, and more especially among the people of Nephi.

Mormon 2:12

And it came to pass that when I Mormon saw their lamentation and their mourning and their sorrowing before the Lord, my heart did begin to rejoice within me, knowing the mercies and the long-suffering of the Lord, therefore supposing that he would be merciful unto them, that they would again become a righteous people.

Mormon 2:13

But behold, this my joy was vain; for their sorrowing was not unto repentance because of the goodness of God, but it was rather the sorrowing of the damned because the Lord would not always suffer them to take happiness in sin.

Mormon 2:14

And they did not come unto Jesus with broken hearts and contrite spirits, but they did curse God and wish to die. Nevertheless they would struggle with the sword for their lives.

Mormon 2:15

And it came to pass that my sorrow did return unto me again. And I saw that the day of grace was past with them, both temporally and spiritually, for I saw thousands of them hewn down in open rebellion against their God and heaped up as dung upon the face of the land. And thus three hundred and forty and four years had passed away.

Mormon 2:16

And it came to pass that in the three hundred and forty and fifth year the Nephites did begin to flee before the Lamanites. And they were pursued until they came even to the land of Jashon before it were possible to stop them in their retreat.

Mormon 2:17

And now the city of Jashon was near the land where Ammaron had deposited the records unto the Lord, that they might not be destroyed. And behold, I had gone according to the words of Ammaron and taken the plates of Nephi and did make a record, according to the words of Ammaron.

Mormon 2:18

And upon the plates of Nephi I did make a full account of all the wickedness and abominations; but upon these plates I did forbear to make a full account of their wickedness and abominations. For behold, a continual scene of wickedness and abominations has been before mine eyes ever since I have been sufficient to behold the ways of man.

Mormon 2:19

And woe is me because of their wickedness, for my heart has been filled with sorrow because of their wickedness, all my days. Nevertheless I know that I shall be lifted up at the last day.

Mormon 2:20

And it came to pass that in this year the people of Nephi again were hunted and driven. And it came to pass that we were driven forth until we had come northward to the land which was called Shem.

Mormon 2:21

And it came to pass that we did fortify the city of Shem; and we did gather in our people as much as it were possible, that perhaps we might save them from destruction.

Mormon 2:22

And it came to pass in the three hundred and forty and sixth year they began to come upon us again.

Mormon 2:23

And it came to pass that I did speak unto my people and did urge them with great energy that they would stand boldly before the Lamanites and fight for their wives and their children and their houses and their homes.

Mormon 2:24

And my words did arouse them somewhat to vigor, insomuch that they did not flee from before the Lamanites but did stand with boldness against them.

Mormon 2:25

And it came to pass that we did contend with an army of thirty thousand against an army of fifty thousand. And it came to pass that we did stand before them with such firmness that they did flee from before us.

Mormon 2:26

And it came to pass that when they had fled, we did pursue them with our armies and did meet them again and did beat them. Nevertheless the strength of the Lord was not with us. Yea, we were left to ourselves, that the Spirit of the Lord did not abide in us. Therefore we had become weak like unto our brethren.

Mormon 2:27

And my heart did sorrow because of this the great calamity of my people, because of their wickedness and their abominations. But behold, we did go forth against the Lamanites and the robbers of Gaddianton until we had again taken possession of the lands of our inheritance.

Mormon 2:28

And the three hundred and forty and ninth year had passed away. And in the three hundred and fiftieth year we made a treaty with the Lamanites and the robbers of Gaddianton, in the which we did get the lands of our inheritance divided.

Mormon 2:29

And the Lamanites did give unto us the land northward, yea, even to the narrow passage which led into the land southward. And we did give unto the Lamanites all the land southward.

Mormon 3

Mormon 3:1

And it came to pass that the Lamanites did not come to battle again until ten years more had passed away. And behold, I had employed my people the Nephites in preparing their lands and their arms against the time of battle.

Mormon 3:2

And it came to pass that the Lord did say unto me: Cry unto this people: Repent ye and come unto me and be ye baptized and build up again my church, and ye shall be spared.

Mormon 3:3

And I did cry unto this people, but it was in vain. And they did not realize that it was the Lord that had spared them and granted unto them a chance for repentance. And behold, they did harden their hearts against the Lord their God.

Mormon 3:4

And it came to pass that after this tenth year had passed away, making in the whole three hundred and sixty years from the coming of Christ, and the king of the Lamanites sent an epistle unto me which gave unto me to know that they were preparing to come again to battle against us.

Mormon 3:5

And it came to pass that I did cause my people that they should gather themselves together at the land Desolation to a city which was in the borders by the narrow pass which led into the land southward.

Mormon 3:6

And there we did place our armies, that we might stop the armies of the Lamanites, that they might not get possession of any of our lands. Therefore we did fortify against them with all our force.

Mormon 3:7

And it came to pass that in the three hundred and sixty and first year the Lamanites did come down to the city of Desolation to battle against us. And it came to pass that in that year we did beat them, insomuch that they did return to their own lands again.

Mormon 3:8

And in the three hundred and sixty and second year they did come down again to battle. And we did beat them again and did slay a great number of them, and their dead was cast into the sea.

Mormon 3:9

And now because of this great thing which my people the Nephites had done, they began to boast in their own strength and began to swear before the heavens that they would avenge themselves of the blood of their brethren which had been slain by their enemies.

Mormon 3:10

And they did swear by the heavens and also by the throne of God that they would go up to battle against their enemies and would cut them off from the face of the land.

Mormon 3:11

And it came to pass that I Mormon did utterly refuse from this time forth to be a commander and a leader of this people because of their wickedness and abomination.

Mormon 3:12

Behold, I had led them —notwithstanding their wickedness, I had led them many times to battle— and I had loved them according to the love of God which was in me with all my heart. And my soul had been poured out in prayer unto my God all the day long for them. Nevertheless it was without faith because of the hardness of their hearts.

Mormon 3:13

And thrice have I delivered them out of the hands of their enemies, and they have repented not of their sins.

Mormon 3:14

And when they had sworn by all that had been forbidden them by our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ that they would go up unto their enemies to battle and avenge themselves of the blood of their brethren, behold, the voice of the Lord came unto me, saying:

Mormon 3:15

Vengeance is mine, and I will repay. And because this people repented not after that I had delivered them, behold, they shall be cut off from the face of the earth.

Mormon 3:16

And it came to pass that I utterly refused to go up against mine enemies. And I did even as the Lord had commanded me, and I did stand as an idle witness to manifest unto the world the things which I saw and heard, according to the manifestations of the Spirit, which had testified of things to come.

Mormon 3:17

Therefore I write unto you Gentiles, and also unto you house of Israel, when the work shall commence, that ye shall be about to prepare to return to the land of your inheritance.

Mormon 3:18

Yea, behold, I write unto all the ends of the earth, yea, unto you twelve tribes of Israel, which shall be judged according to your works by the twelve whom Jesus chose to be his disciples in the land of Jerusalem.

Mormon 3:19

And I write also unto the remnant of this people, which shall also be judged by the twelve whom Jesus chose in this land; and they shall be judged by the other twelve whom Jesus chose in the land of Jerusalem.

Mormon 3:20

And these things do the Spirit manifest unto me. Therefore I write unto you all; and for this cause I write unto you, that ye may know that ye must all stand before the judgment seat of Christ, yea, every soul which belongeth to the whole human family of Adam—and ye must stand to be judged of your works, whether they be good or evil—and also that ye may believe the gospel of Jesus Christ, which ye shall have among you, and also that the Jews, the covenant people of the Lord, shall have other witness besides that which they saw and heard, that Jesus, whom they slew, was the very Christ and the very God.

Mormon 3:21

Mormon 3:22

And I would that I could persuade all ye ends of the earth to repent and prepare to stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

Mormon 4

Mormon 4:1

And now it came to pass that in the three hundred and sixty and third year the Nephites did go up with their armies to battle against the Lamanites out of the land of Desolation.

Mormon 4:2

And it came to pass that the armies of the Nephites were driven back again to the land of Desolation. And while they were yet weary, a fresh army of the Lamanites did come upon them. And they had a sore battle, insomuch that the Lamanites did take possession of the city Desolation and did slay many of the Nephites and did take many prisoners.

Mormon 4:3

And the remainder did flee and join the inhabitants of the city Teancum. Now the city Teancum lay in the borders by the seashore, and it was also near the city Desolation.

Mormon 4:4

And it was because that the armies of the Nephites went up unto the Lamanites that they began to be smitten; for were it not for that, the Lamanites could have had no power over them.

Mormon 4:5

But behold, the judgments of God will overtake the wicked. And it is by the wicked that the wicked are punished. For it is the wicked that stirreth up the hearts of the children of men unto bloodshed.

Mormon 4:6

And it came to pass that the Lamanites did make preparations to come against the city Teancum.

Mormon 4:7

And it came to pass in the three hundred and sixty and fourth year the Lamanites did come against the city Teancum, that they might take possession of the city Teancum also.

Mormon 4:8

And it came to pass that they were repulsed and driven back by the Nephites. And when the Nephites saw that they had driven the Lamanites, they did again boast of their own strength. And they went forth in their own might and took possession again of the city Desolation.

Mormon 4:9

And now all these things had been done; and there had been thousands slain on both sides, both the Nephites and the Lamanites.

Mormon 4:10

And it came to pass that the three hundred and sixty and sixth year had passed away, and the Lamanites came again upon the Nephites to battle. And yet the Nephites repented not of the evil which they had done, but persisted in their wickedness continually.

Mormon 4:11

And it is impossible for the tongue to describe— or for man to write a perfect description of the horrible scene of the blood and carnage which was among the people, both of the Nephites and of the Lamanites. And every heart was hardened, so that they delighted in the shedding of blood continually.

Mormon 4:12

And there never had been so great wickedness among all the children of Lehi, nor even among all the house of Israel, according to the words of the Lord, as were among this people.

Mormon 4:13

And it came to pass that the Lamanites did take possession of the city Desolation— and this because their number did exceed the number of the Nephites.

Mormon 4:14

And they did also march forward against the city Teancum and did drive the inhabitants forth out of her and did take many prisoners of women and of children and did offer them up as sacrifices unto their idol gods.

Mormon 4:15

And it came to pass that in the three hundred and sixty and seventh year, the Nephites being angry because the Lamanites had sacrificed their women and their children, that they did go against the Lamanites with exceeding great anger, insomuch that they did beat again the Lamanites and drive them out of their lands.

Mormon 4:16

And the Lamanites did not come again against the Nephites until the three hundred and seventy and fifth year.

Mormon 4:17

And in this year they did come down against the Nephites with all their powers, and they were not numbered because of the greatness of their number.

Mormon 4:18

And from this time forth did the Nephites gain no power over the Lamanites, but began to be swept off by them even as a dew before the sun.

Mormon 4:19

And it came to pass that the Lamanites did come down against the city Desolation. And there was an exceeding sore battle fought in the land Desolation, in the which they did beat the Nephites.

Mormon 4:20

And they fled again from before them, and they came to the city Boaz. And there they did stand against the Lamanites with exceeding boldness, insomuch that the Lamanites did not beat them until they had come again the second time.

Mormon 4:21

And when they had come the second time, the Nephites were driven and slaughtered with an exceeding great slaughter; their women and their children were again sacrificed unto idols.

Mormon 4:22

And it came to pass that the Nephites did again flee from before them, taking all the inhabitants with them, both in towns and villages.

Mormon 4:23

And now I Mormon seeing that the Lamanites were about to overthrow the land, therefore I did go to the hill Shim and did take up all the records which Ammaron had hid up unto the Lord.

Mormon 5

Mormon 5:1

And it came to pass that I did go forth among the Nephites and did repent of the oath which I had made, that I would no more assist them. And they gave me command again of their armies, for they looked upon me as though I could deliver them from their afflictions.

Mormon 5:2

But behold, I was without hopes, for I knew the judgments of the Lord which should come upon them; for they repented not of their iniquities but did struggle for their lives without calling upon that Being who had created them.

Mormon 5:3

And it came to pass that the Lamanites did come against us as we had fled to the city of Jordan. But behold, they were driven back, that they did not take the city at that time.

Mormon 5:4

And it came to pass that they came against us again, and we did maintain the city. And there were also other cities which were maintained by the Nephites, which strong holds did cut them off that they could not get into the country which lay before us to destroy the inhabitants of our land.

Mormon 5:5

But it came to pass that whatsoever lands we had passed by and the inhabitants thereof were not gathered in were destroyed by the Lamanites; and their towns and villages and cities were burned with fire. And thus three hundred and seventy and nine years passed away.

Mormon 5:6

And it came to pass that in the three hundred and eightieth year the Lamanites did come again against us to battle. And we did stand against them boldly. But it was all in vain, for so great were their numbers that they did tread the people of the Nephites under their feet.

Mormon 5:7

And it came to pass that we did again take to flight. And they whose flight were swifter than the Lamanites did escape; and they whose flight did not exceed the Lamanites were swept down and destroyed.

Mormon 5:8

And now behold, I Mormon do not desire to harrow up the souls of men in casting before them such an awful scene of blood and carnage as was laid before mine eyes. But I knowing that these things must surely be made known and that all things which are hid must be revealed upon the housetops and also that a knowledge of these things must come unto the remnant of these people and also unto the Gentiles, which the Lord hath said should scatter this people—and this people should be counted as naught among them— therefore I write a small abridgment, daring not to give a full account of the things which I have seen because of the commandment which I have received— and also that ye might not have too great sorrow because of the wickedness of this people.

Mormon 5:10

And now behold, this I speak unto their seed and also to the Gentiles which hath care for the house of Israel, that realize and know from whence their blessings come.

Mormon 5:11

For I know that such will sorrow for the calamity of the house of Israel; yea, they will sorrow for the destruction of this people. They will sorrow that this people had not repented, that they might have been clasped in the arms of Jesus.

Mormon 5:12

Now these things are written unto the remnant of the house of Jacob. And they are written after this manner because it is known of God that wickedness will not bring them forth unto them. And they are to be hid up unto the Lord, that they may come forth in his own due time.

Mormon 5:13

And this is the commandment which I have received. And behold, they shall come forth according to the commandment of the Lord when he shall see fit in his wisdom.

Mormon 5:14

And behold, they shall go unto the unbelieving of the Jews. And for this intent shall they go, that they may be persuaded that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God, that the Father may bring about through his Most Beloved his great and eternal purpose in the restoring the Jews or all the house of Israel to the land of their inheritance, which the Lord their God hath given them, unto the fulfilling of his covenant, and also that the seed of this people may more fully believe his gospel, which shall go forth unto them from the Gentiles. For this people shall be scattered and shall become a dark, a filthy, and a loathsome people, beyond the description of that which ever hath been amongst us, yea, even that which hath been among the Lamanites— and this because of their unbelief and idolatry.

Mormon 5:15

Mormon 5:16

For behold, the Spirit of the Lord hath already ceased to strive with their fathers. And they are without Christ and God in the world, and they are driven about as chaff before the wind.

Mormon 5:17

They were once a delightsome people. And they had Christ for their shepherd; yea, they were led even by God the Father.

Mormon 5:18

But now behold, they are led about by Satan, even as chaff is driven before the wind, or as a vessel is tossed about upon the waves without sail or anchor or without any thing wherewith to steer her; and even as she is, so are they.

Mormon 5:19

And behold, the Lord hath reserved their blessing which they might have received in the land for the Gentiles which shall possess the land.

Mormon 5:20

But behold, it shall come to pass that they shall be driven and scattered by the Gentiles. And after that they have been driven and scattered by the Gentiles, behold, then will the Lord remember the covenant which he made unto Abraham and unto all the house of Israel.

Mormon 5:21

And also the Lord will remember the prayers of the righteous which hath been put up unto him for them.

Mormon 5:22

And then, O ye Gentiles, how can ye stand before the power of God except ye shall repent and turn from your evil ways?

Mormon 5:23

Know ye not that ye are in the hands of God? Know ye not that he hath all power and at his great command the earth shall be rolled together as a scroll?

Mormon 5:24

Therefore repent ye and humble yourselves before him lest he shall come out in justice against you, lest a remnant of the seed of Jacob shall go forth among you as a lion and tear you in pieces, and there is none to deliver.

Mormon 6

Mormon 6:1

And now I finish my record concerning the destruction of my people the Nephites. And it came to pass that we did march forth before the Lamanites.

Mormon 6:2

And I Mormon wrote an epistle unto the king of the Lamanites and desired of him that he would grant unto us that we might gather together our people unto the land of Cumorah by a hill which was called Cumorah, and there we would give them battle.

Mormon 6:3

And it came to pass that the king of the Lamanites did grant unto me the thing which I desired.

Mormon 6:4

And it came to pass that we did march forth to the land of Cumorah, and we did pitch our tents round about the hill Cumorah. And it was in a land of many waters, rivers, and fountains. And here we had hope to gain advantage over the Lamanites.

Mormon 6:5

And when three hundred and eighty and four years had passed away, we had gathered in all the remainder of our people unto the land Cumorah.

Mormon 6:6

And it came to pass that when we had gathered in all our people in one to the land of Cumorah, behold, I Mormon began to be old. And knowing it to be the last struggle of my people and having been commanded of the Lord that I should not suffer that the records which had been handed down by our fathers, which were sacred, to fall into the hands of the Lamanites—for the Lamanites would destroy them—therefore I made this record out of the plates of Nephi and hid up in the hill Cumorah all the records which had been entrusted to me by the hand of the Lord, save it were these few plates which I gave unto my son Moroni.

Mormon 6:7

And it came to pass that my people with their wives and their children did now behold the armies of the Lamanites a marching towards them. And with that awful fear of death which fills the breasts of all the wicked did they await to receive them.

Mormon 6:8

And it came to pass that they came to battle against us, and every soul was filled with terror because of the greatness of their numbers.

Mormon 6:9

And it came to pass that they did fall upon my people with the sword and with the bow and with the arrow and with the ax and with all manner of weapons of war.

Mormon 6:10

And it came to pass that my men were hewn down, yea, or even my ten thousand which were with me, and I fell wounded in the midst. And they passed by me, that they did not put an end to my life.

Mormon 6:11

And when they had gone through and hewn down all my people save it were twenty and four of us—among whom was my son Moroni—and we having survived the dead of our people did behold on the morrow, when the Lamanites had returned unto their camps, from the top of the hill Cumorah the ten thousand of my people which were hewn down, being led in the front by me.

Mormon 6:12

And we also beheld the ten thousand of my people which were led by my son Moroni.

Mormon 6:13

And behold, the ten thousand of Gidgiddonah had fallen, and he also in the midst.

Mormon 6:14

And Lamah had fallen with his ten thousand, and Gilgal had fallen with his ten thousand, and Limhah had fallen with his ten thousand, and Joneum had fallen with his ten thousand; and Cumenihah and Moronihah and Antionum and Shiblom and Shem and Josh had fallen with their ten thousand each.

Mormon 6:15

And it came to pass that there were ten more which did fall by the sword with their ten thousand each, yea, even all my people—save it were those twenty and four which were with me and also a few which had escaped into the south countries and a few which had dissented over unto the Lamanites—had fallen. And their flesh and bones and blood lay upon the face of the earth, being left by the hands of those who slew them to molder upon the land and to crumble and to return to their mother earth.

Mormon 6:16

And my soul was rent with anguish because of the slain of my people, and I cried:

Mormon 6:17

O ye fair ones, how could ye have departed from the ways of the Lord! O ye fair ones, how could ye have rejected that Jesus who stood with open arms to receive you!

Mormon 6:18

Behold, if ye had not done this, ye would not have fallen. But behold, ye are fallen, and I mourn your loss.

Mormon 6:19

O ye fair sons and daughters, ye fathers and mothers, ye husbands and wives, ye fair ones, how is it that ye could have fallen!

Mormon 6:20

But behold, ye are gone, and my sorrows cannot bring your return.

Mormon 6:21

And the day soon cometh that your mortal must put on immortality. And these bodies which are now moldering in corruption must soon become incorruptible bodies. And then ye must stand before the judgment seat of Christ to be judged according to your works. And if it so be that ye are righteous, then are ye blessed with your fathers which have gone before you.

Mormon 6:22

O that ye had repented before that this great destruction had come upon you! But behold, ye are gone. And the Father—yea, the Eternal Father of heaven—knoweth your state, and he doeth with you according to his justice and mercy.

Mormon 7

Mormon 7:1

And now behold, I would speak somewhat unto the remnant of this people which are spared, if it so be that God may give unto them my words, that they may know of the things of their fathers. Yea, I speak unto you, ye remnant of the house of Israel. And this is the words which I speak:

Mormon 7:2

Know ye that ye are of the house of Israel.

Mormon 7:3

Know ye that ye must come unto repentance or ye cannot be saved.

Mormon 7:4

Know ye that ye must lay down your weapons of war and delight no more in the shedding of blood and take them not again, save it be that God shall command you.

Mormon 7:5

Know ye that ye must come to the knowledge of your fathers and repent of all your sins and iniquities and believe in Jesus Christ, that he is the Son of God and that he was slain by the Jews, and by the power of the Father he hath risen again, whereby he hath gained the victory over the grave. And also in him is the sting of death swallowed up.

Mormon 7:6

And he bringeth to pass the resurrection of the dead, whereby man must be raised to stand before his judgment seat.

Mormon 7:7

And he hath brought to pass the redemption of the world, whereby he that is found guiltless before him at the judgment day hath it given unto them to dwell in the presence of God in his kingdom, to sing ceaseless praises with the choirs above unto the Father and unto the Son and unto the Holy Ghost, which is one God, in a state of happiness which hath no end.

Mormon 7:8

Therefore repent and be baptized in the name of Jesus and lay hold upon the gospel of Christ, which shall be set before you, not only in this record but also in the record which shall come unto the Gentiles from the Jews, which record shall come from the Gentiles unto you.

Mormon 7:9

For behold, this is written for the intent that ye may believe that. And if ye believe that, ye will believe this also. And if ye believe this, ye will know concerning your fathers and also the marvelous works which were wrought by the power of God among them.

Mormon 7:10

And ye will also know that ye are a remnant of the seed of Jacob. Therefore ye are numbered among the people of the first covenant. And if it so be that ye believe in Christ and are baptized —first with water, then with fire and with the Holy Ghost, following the example of our Savior, according to that which he hath commanded us— it shall be well with you in the day of judgment. Amen.

Mormon 8

Mormon 8:1

Behold, I Moroni do finish the record of my father Mormon. Behold, I have but few things to write, which things I have been commanded of my father.

Mormon 8:2

And now it came to pass that after the great and tremendous battle at Cumorah, behold, the Nephites which had escaped into the country southward were hunted by the Lamanites until they were all destroyed.

Mormon 8:3

And my father also was killed by them. And I, even I, remaineth alone to write the sad tale of the destruction of my people. But behold, they are gone, and I fulfill the commandment of my father. And whether they will slay me, I know not.

Mormon 8:4

Therefore I will write and hide up the records in the earth. And whither I go, it mattereth not.

Mormon 8:5

Behold, my father hath made this record, and he hath written the intent thereof. And behold, I would write it also if I had room upon the plates, but I have not. And ore I have none, for I am alone. My father hath been slain in battle, and all my kinsfolks. And I have not friends nor whither to go. And how long that the Lord will suffer that I may live, I know not.

Mormon 8:6

Behold, four hundred years have passed away since the coming of our Lord and Savior.

Mormon 8:7

And behold, the Lamanites have hunted my people the Nephites down from city to city and from place to place, even until they are no more. And great has been their fall; yea, great and marvelous is the destruction of my people the Nephites.

Mormon 8:8

And behold, it is the hand of the Lord which hath done it. And behold also, the Lamanites are at war one with another; and the whole face of this land is one continual round of murder and bloodshed, and no one knoweth the end of the war.

Mormon 8:9

And now behold, I say no more concerning them, for there are none save it be Lamanites and robbers that do exist upon the face of the land.

Mormon 8:10

And there are none that do know the true God, save it be the disciples of Jesus which did tarry in the land until the wickedness of the people were so great that the Lord would not suffer them to remain with the people. And whither they be upon the face of the land no man knoweth.

Mormon 8:11

But behold, my father and I have seen them, and they have ministered unto us.

Mormon 8:12

And whoso receiveth this record and shall not condemn it because of the imperfections which are in it, the same shall know of greater things than these. Behold, I am Moroni. And were it possible, I would make all things known unto you.

Mormon 8:13

Behold, I make an end of speaking concerning this people. I am the son of Mormon, and my father was a descendant of Nephi.

Mormon 8:14

And I am the same which hideth up this record unto the Lord. The plates thereof are of no worth because of the commandment of the Lord, for he truly saith that no one shall have them to get gain. But the record thereof is of great worth. And whoso shall bring it to light, him will the Lord bless.

Mormon 8:15

For none can have power to bring it to light save it be given him of God, for God will that it shall be done with an eye singled¹ to his glory or the welfare of the ancient and long dispersed covenant people of the Lord.

Mormon 8:16

And blessed be him that shall bring this thing to light, for it shall be brought out of darkness unto light, according to the word of God. Yea, it shall be brought out of the earth. And it shall shine forth out of darkness and come unto the knowledge of the people. And it shall be done by the power of God.

Mormon 8:17

And if there be faults, they be the faults of a man; but behold, we know no fault. Nevertheless God knoweth all things. Therefore he that condemneth, let him be aware lest he shall be in danger of hell fire.

Mormon 8:18

And he that saith: Shew unto me or ye shall be smitten! —let him be aware lest he commandeth that which is forbidden of the Lord.

Mormon 8:19

For behold, the same that judgeth rashly shall be judged rashly again, for according to his works shall his wages be. Therefore he that smiteth shall be smitten again of the Lord.

¹Note the difference between this version and the current one, which changes “singled” to “single.”

Mormon 8:20

Behold what the scripture saith: Man shall not smite, neither shall he judge; for judgment is mine, saith the Lord, and vengeance is mine also, and I will repay.

Mormon 8:21

And he that shall breathe out wrath and strifes against the work of the Lord and against the covenant people of the Lord, which is the house of Israel, and shall say: We will destroy the work of the Lord, and the Lord will not remember his covenant which he hath made unto the house of Israel— the same is in danger to be hewn down and cast into the fire.

Mormon 8:22

For the eternal purposes of the Lord shall roll on until all his promises shall be fulfilled.

Mormon 8:23

Search the prophecies of Isaiah. Behold, I cannot write them. Yea, behold, I say unto you that those saints which have gone before me which have possessed this land shall cry—yea, even from the dust will they cry unto the Lord; and as the Lord liveth, he will remember the covenant which he hath made with them.

Mormon 8:24

And he knoweth their prayers, that they were in the behalf of their brethren. And he knoweth their faith, for in his name could they remove mountains; and in his name could they cause the earth to shake; and by the power of his word did they cause prisons to tumble to the earth. Yea, even the fiery furnace could not harm them, neither wild beasts nor poisonous serpents, because of the power of his word.

Mormon 8:25

And behold, their prayers were also in behalf of him that the Lord should suffer to bring these things forth.

Mormon 8:26

And no one need not say: They shall not come. For they surely shall, for the Lord hath spoken it; for out of the earth shall they come by the hand of the Lord, and none can stay it. And it shall come in a day when it shall be said that miracles are done away. And it shall come even as if one should speak from the dead.

Mormon 8:27

And it shall come in a day when the blood of saints shall cry unto the Lord because of secret combinations and the works of darkness.

Mormon 8:28

Yea, it shall come in a day when the power of God shall be denied and churches become defiled and shall be lifted up in the pride of their hearts, yea, even in a day when leaders of churches and teachers shall be lifted up in the pride of their hearts, even to the envying of them who belong to their churches.

Mormon 8:29

Yea, it shall come in a day when there shall be heard of fires and tempests and vapors of smoke in foreign lands.

Mormon 8:30

And there shall also be heard of wars and rumors of wars and earthquakes in divers places.

Mormon 8:31

Yea, it shall come in a day when there shall be great pollutions upon the face of the earth: there shall be murders and robbing and lying and deceivings and whoredoms and all manner of abominations, when there shall be many which will say: Do this or do that, and it mattereth not, for the Lord will uphold such at the last day. But woe unto such, for they are in the gall of bitterness and in the bonds of iniquity.

Mormon 8:32

Yea, it shall come in a day when there shall be churches built up that shall say: Come unto me, and for your money you shall be forgiven of your sins.

Mormon 8:33

O ye wicked and perverse and stiffnecked people, why have ye built up churches unto yourselves to get gain? Why have ye transfigured the holy word of God that ye might bring damnation upon your souls? Behold, look ye unto the revelations of God, for behold, the time cometh at that day when all these things must be fulfilled.

Mormon 8:34

Behold, the Lord hath shewn unto me great and marvelous things concerning that which must shortly come, at that day when these things shall come forth among you.

Mormon 8:35

Behold, I speak unto you as if ye were present—and yet ye are not—but behold, Jesus Christ hath shewn you unto me, and I know your doing.

Mormon 8:36

And I know that ye do walk in the pride of your hearts. And there are none, save a few only, which do not lift themselves up in the pride of their hearts unto the wearing of very fine apparel, unto envying and strifes and malice and persecutions and all manner of iniquity. And your churches—yea, even every one—have become polluted because of the pride of your hearts.

Mormon 8:37

For behold, ye do love money and your substance and your fine apparel and the adorning of your churches more than ye love the poor and the needy, the sick and the afflicted.

Mormon 8:38

O ye pollutions, ye hypocrites, ye teachers which sell yourselves for that which will canker, why have ye polluted the holy church of God? Why are ye ashamed to take upon you the name of Christ? Why do ye not think that greater is the value of an endless happiness than that misery which never dies? Because of the praise of the world?

Mormon 8:39

Why do ye adorn yourselves with that which hath no life, and yet suffer the hungry and the needy and the naked and the sick and the afflicted to pass by you and notice them not?

Mormon 8:40

Yea, why do ye build up your secret abominations to get gain and cause that widows should mourn before the Lord, and also orphans to mourn before the Lord, and also the blood of their fathers and their husbands to cry unto the Lord from the ground for vengeance upon your heads?

Mormon 8:41

Behold, the sword of vengeance hangeth over you; and the time soon cometh that he avengeth the blood of the saints upon you, for he will not suffer their cries any longer.

Mormon 9

Mormon 9:1

And now I speak also concerning those who do not believe in Christ.

Mormon 9:2

Behold, will ye believe in the day of your visitation? Behold, when the Lord shall come —yea, even that great day when the earth shall be rolled together as a scroll and the elements shall melt with fervent heat— yea, in that great day when ye shall be brought to stand before the Lamb of God, then will ye say that there is no God?

Mormon 9:3

Then will ye longer deny the Christ? Or can ye behold the Lamb of God? Do ye suppose that ye shall dwell with him under a consciousness of your guilt? Do ye suppose that ye could be happy to dwell with that holy Being when your souls are racked with a consciousness of your guilt, that ye have ever abused his laws?

Mormon 9:4

Behold, I say unto you that ye would be more miserable to dwell with a holy and a just God under a consciousness of your filthiness before him than ye would to dwell with the damned souls in hell.

Mormon 9:5

For behold, when ye shall be brought to see your nakedness before God and also the glory of God and the holiness of Jesus Christ, it will kindle a flame of unquenchable fire upon you.

Mormon 9:6

O then, ye unbelieving, turn ye unto the Lord. Cry mightily unto the Father in the name of Jesus, that perhaps ye may be found spotless, pure, fair, and white —having been cleansed by the blood of the Lamb— at that great and last day.

Mormon 9:7

And again I speak unto you who deny the revelations of God and say that they are done away, that there is no revelations nor prophecies nor gifts nor healing nor speaking with tongues and the interpretation of tongues; behold, I say unto you: He that denieth these things knoweth not the gospel of Christ. Yea, they have not read the scriptures; if so, they do not understand them.

Mormon 9:8

Mormon 9:9

For do we not read that God is the same yesterday, today, and forever, and in him there is no variableness, neither shadow of changing?

Mormon 9:10

And now if ye have imagined up unto yourselves a god which doth vary and in him there is shadow of changing, then have ye imagined up unto yourselves a god which is not a God of miracles.

Mormon 9:11

But behold, I will shew unto you a God of miracles, even the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob. And it is that same God which created the heavens and the earth and all things that in them is.

Mormon 9:12

Behold, he created Adam; and by Adam came the fall of man; and because of the fall of man came Jesus Christ, even the Father and the Son; and because of Jesus Christ came the redemption of man; and because of the redemption of man which came by Jesus Christ they are brought back into the presence of the Lord. Yea, this is wherein all men are redeemed, because the death of Christ bringeth to pass the resurrection, which bringeth to pass a redemption from an endless sleep, from which sleep all men shall be awoke by the power of God when the trump shall sound. And they shall come forth, both small and great, and all shall stand before his bar, being redeemed and loosed from this eternal band of death, which death is a temporal death.

Mormon 9:13

Mormon 9:14

And then cometh the judgment of the Holy One upon them. And then cometh the time that he that is filthy shall be filthy still, and he that is righteous shall be righteous still; he that is happy shall be happy still, and he that is unhappy shall be unhappy still.

Mormon 9:15

And now, O all ye that have imagined up unto yourselves a god which can do no miracles, I would ask of you: Have all these things passed of which I have spoken? Has the end come yet? Behold, I say unto you: Nay. And God has not ceased to be a God of miracles.

Mormon 9:16

Behold, are not the things that God hath wrought marvelous in our eyes? Yea, and who can comprehend the marvelous works of God?

Mormon 9:17

Who shall say that it was not a miracle that by his word the heaven and the earth should be and by the power of his word man was created of the dust of the earth and by the power of his word hath miracles been wrought?

Mormon 9:18

And who shall say that Jesus Christ did not do many mighty miracles? And there was many mighty miracles wrought by the hands of the apostles.

Mormon 9:19

And if there was miracles wrought, then why has God ceased to be a God of miracles and yet be an unchangeable Being? And behold, I say unto you: He changeth not; if so, he would cease to be God. And he ceaseth not to be God and is a God of miracles.

Mormon 9:20

And the reason why he ceaseth to do miracles among the children of men is because that they dwindle in unbelief and depart from the right way and know not the God in whom they should trust.

Mormon 9:21

Behold, I say unto you that whoso believeth in Christ, doubting nothing, whatsoever he shall ask the Father in the name of Christ, it shall be granted them. And this promise is unto all, even unto the ends of the earth.

Mormon 9:22

For behold, thus saith Jesus Christ the Son of God unto his disciples which should tarry, yea, and also to all his disciples, in the hearing of the multitude: Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature.

Mormon 9:23

And he that believeth and is baptized shall be saved, but he that believeth not shall be damned.

Mormon 9:24

And these signs shall follow them that believe: in my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; they shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick and they shall recover.

Mormon 9:25

And whosoever shall believe in my name, doubting nothing, unto him will I confirm all my words, even unto the ends of the earth.

Mormon 9:26

And now behold, who can stand against the works of the Lord? Who can deny his sayings? Who will rise up against the almighty power of the Lord? Who will despise the works of the Lord? Who will despise the children of Christ? Behold, all ye that are despisers of the works of the Lord— for ye shall wonder and perish.

Mormon 9:27

O then despise not and wonder not, but hearken unto the words of the Lord and ask the Father in the name of Jesus for what things soever ye shall stand in need. Doubt not, but be believing. And begin as in times of old and come unto the Lord with all your heart and work out your own salvation with fear and trembling before him.

Mormon 9:28

Be wise in the days of your probation. Strip yourselves of all uncleanness. Ask not that ye may consume it on your lusts, but ask with a firmness unshaken, that ye will yield to no temptation, but that ye will serve the true and living God.

Mormon 9:29

See that ye are not baptized unworthily. See that ye partake not of the sacrament of Christ unworthily. But see that ye do all things in worthiness and do it in the name of Jesus Christ, the Son of the living God. And if ye do this and endure to the end, ye will in no wise be cast out.

Mormon 9:30

Behold, I speak unto you as though I spake from the dead, for I know that ye shall have my words.

Mormon 9:31

Condemn me not because of mine imperfection, neither my father because of his imperfection, neither them which have written before him, but rather give thanks unto God that he hath made manifest unto you our imperfections, that ye may learn to be more wise than that which we have been.

Mormon 9:32

And now behold, we have written this record, according to our knowledge, in the characters which are called among us the reformed Egyptian, being handed down and altered by us according to our manner of speech.

Mormon 9:33

And if our plates had been sufficiently large, we should have written in the Hebrew; but the Hebrew hath been altered by us also. And if we could have written in the Hebrew, behold, ye would have had none imperfection in our record.

Mormon 9:34

But the Lord knoweth the things which we have written and also that none other people knoweth our language. And because that none other people knoweth our language, therefore he hath prepared means for the interpretation thereof.

Mormon 9:35

And these things are written that we may rid our garments of the blood of our brethren, which have dwindled in unbelief.

Mormon 9:36

And behold, these things which we have desired concerning our brethren, yea, even their restoration to the knowledge of Christ, is according to the prayers of all the saints which have dwelt in the land.

Mormon 9:37

And may the Lord Jesus Christ grant that their prayers may be answered according to their faith; and may God the Father remember the covenant which he hath made with the house of Israel; and may he bless them forever through faith on the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Ether

Ether 1

Ether 1:1

And now I Moroni proceed to give an account of those ancient inhabitants which were destroyed by the hand of the Lord upon the face of this north country.

Ether 1:2

And I take mine account from the twenty and four plates which were found by the people of Limhi, which is called the book of Ether.

Ether 1:3

And as I suppose that the first part of this record—which speaketh concerning the creation of the world and also of Adam, and an account from that time even to the great tower, and whatsoever things transpired among the children of men until that time—is had among the Jews, therefore I do not write those things which transpired from the days of Adam until that time. But they are had upon the plates; and whoso findeth them, the same will have power that he may get the full account.

Ether 1:4

Ether 1:5

But behold, I give not the full account, but a part of the account I give, from the tower down until they were destroyed.

Ether 1:6

And on this wise do I give the account. He that wrote this record was Ether, and he was a descendant of Coriantor.

Ether 1:7

And Coriantor was the son of Moron,

Ether 1:8

and Moron was the son of Ethem,

Ether 1:9

and Ethem was the son of Ahah,

Ether 1:10

and Ahah was the son of Seth,

Ether 1:11

and Seth was the son of Shiblon,

Ether 1:12

and Shiblon was the son of Com,

Ether 1:13

and Com was the son of Coriantum,

Ether 1:14

and Coriantum was the son of Amnigaddah, and Amnigaddah was the son of Aaron.

Ether 1:15

Ether 1:16

And Aaron was a descendant of Heth, who was the son of Hearthom.

Ether 1:17

And Hearthom was the son of Lib,

Ether 1:18

and Lib was the son of Kish,

Ether 1:19

and Kish was the son of Corom,

Ether 1:20

and Corom was the son of Levi,

Ether 1:21

and Levi was the son of Kim,

Ether 1:22

and Kim was the son of Morianton.

Ether 1:23

And Morianton was a descendant of Riplakish,

Ether 1:24

and Riplakish was the son of Shez,

Ether 1:25

and Shez was the son of Heth,

Ether 1:26

and Heth was the son of Com,

Ether 1:27

and Com was the son of Coriantum,

Ether 1:28

and Coriantum was the son of Emer,

Ether 1:29

and Emer was the son of Omer,

Ether 1:30

and Omer was the son of Shule, and Emer was the son of Omer,

Ether 1:31

and Shule was the son of Kib,

Ether 1:32

and Kib was the son of Orihah, which was the son of Jared, which Jared came forth with his brother and their families, with some others and their families, from the great tower at the time the Lord confounded the language of the people and sware in his wrath that they should be scattered upon all the face of the earth; and according to the word of the Lord the people were scattered.

Ether 1:33

Ether 1:34

And the brother of Jared being a large and a mighty man and being a man highly favored of the Lord, therefore Jared his brother said unto him: Cry unto the Lord that he will not confound us that we may not understand our words.

Ether 1:35

And it came to pass that the brother of Jared did cry unto the Lord, and the Lord had compassion upon Jared. Therefore he did not confound the language of Jared, and Jared and his brother were not confounded.

Ether 1:36

Then Jared said unto his brother: Cry again unto the Lord, and it may be that he will turn away his anger from them which are our friends, that he confound not their language.

Ether 1:37

And it came to pass that the brother of Jared did cry unto the Lord, and the Lord had compassion upon their friends and their families also, that they were not confounded.

Ether 1:38

And it came to pass that Jared spake again unto his brother, saying: Go and inquire of the Lord whether he will drive us out of the land. And if he will drive us out of the land, cry unto him: Whither shall we go? And who knoweth but the Lord will carry us forth into a land which is choice above all the earth. And if it so be, let us be faithful unto the Lord, that we may receive it for our inheritance.

Ether 1:39

And it came to pass that the brother of Jared did cry unto the Lord, according to that which had been spoken by the mouth of Jared.

Ether 1:40

And it came to pass that the Lord did hear the brother of Jared and had compassion upon him and said unto him:

Ether 1:41

Go to and gather together thy flocks, both male and female, of every kind, and also of the seed of the earth, of every kind, and thy family, and also Jared thy brother and his family, and also thy friends and their families, and the friends of Jared and their families.

Ether 1:42

And when thou hast done this, thou shalt go at the head of them down into the valley which is northward. And there will I meet thee, and I will go before thee into a land which is choice above all the land of the earth.

Ether 1:43

And there will I bless thee and thy seed and raise up unto me of thy seed, and the seed of thy brother and they which shall go with thee, a great nation. And there shall be none greater than the nation which I will raise up unto me of thy seed upon all the face of the earth. And this I will do unto thee because of this long time which ye have cried unto me.

Ether 2

Ether 2:1

And it came to pass that Jared and his brother and their families, and also the friends of Jared and his brother and their families, went down into the valley which was northward—and the name of the valley was Nimrod, being called after the mighty hunter—with their flocks which they had gathered together, male and female, of every kind.

Ether 2:2

And they did also lay snares and catch fowls of the air. And they did also prepare a vessel, in the which they did carry with them the fish of the waters.

Ether 2:3

And they did also carry with them deseret, which by interpretation is a honey bee. And thus they did carry with them swarms of bees and all manner of that which was upon the face of the land, seeds of every kind.

Ether 2:4

And it came to pass that when they had come down into the valley of Nimrod, the Lord came down and talked with the brother of Jared. And he was in a cloud and the brother of Jared saw him not.

Ether 2:5

And it came to pass that the Lord commanded them that they should go forth into the wilderness, yea, into that quarter where there never had man been. And it came to pass that the Lord did go before them and did talk with them as he stood in a cloud and gave directions whither they should travel.

Ether 2:6

And it came to pass that they did travel in the wilderness and did build barges, in the which they did cross many waters, being directed continually by the hand of the Lord.

Ether 2:7

And the Lord would not suffer that they should stop beyond the sea in the wilderness, but he would that they should come forth, even unto the land of promise, which was choice above all other lands, which the Lord God had preserved for a righteous people.

Ether 2:8

And he had sworn in his wrath unto the brother of Jared that whoso should possess this land of promise, from that time henceforth and forever, should serve him, the true and only God, or they should be swept off when the fullness of his wrath should come upon them.

Ether 2:9

And now we can behold the decrees of God concerning this land, that it is a land of promise, and whatsoever nation shall possess it shall serve God or they shall be swept off when the fullness of his wrath shall come upon them. And the fullness of his wrath cometh upon them when they are ripened in iniquity.

Ether 2:10

For behold, this is a land which is choice above all other lands. Wherefore he that doth possess it shall serve God or shall be swept off, for it is the everlasting decrees of God. And it is not until the fullness of iniquity among the children of the land that they are swept off.

Ether 2:11

And this cometh unto you, O ye Gentiles, that ye may know the decrees of God, that ye may repent and not continue in your iniquities until the fullness be come, that ye may not bring down the fullness of the wrath of God upon you as the inhabitants of the land hath hitherto done.

Ether 2:12

Behold, this is a choice land; and whatsoever nation shall possess it shall be free from bondage and from captivity and from all other nations under heaven if they will but serve the God of the land, which is Jesus Christ, which hath been manifested by the things which we have written.

Ether 2:13

And now I proceed with my record. For behold, it came to pass that the Lord did bring Jared and his brethren forth, even to that great sea which divideth the lands. And as they came to the sea, they pitched their tents; and they called the name of the place Moriancumer. And they dwelt in tents upon the seashore for the space of four years.

Ether 2:14

And it came to pass at the end of the four years that the Lord came again unto the brother of Jared and stood in a cloud and talked with him. And for the space of three hours did the Lord talk with the brother of Jared and chastened him because he remembered not to call upon the name of the Lord.

Ether 2:15

And the brother of Jared repented him of the evil which he had done and did call upon the name of the Lord for his brethren which were with him. And the Lord said unto him: I will forgive thee and thy brethren of their sins, but thou shalt not sin any more. For ye shall remember that my Spirit will not always strive with man. Wherefore if ye will sin until ye are fully ripe, ye shall be cut off from the presence of the Lord. And this is my thoughts upon the land which I shall give you for your inheritance, for it shall be a land choice above all other lands.

Ether 2:16

And the Lord said: Go to work and build after the manner of barges which ye have hitherto built. And it came to pass that the brother of Jared did go to work and also his brethren and built barges after the manner which they had built, according to the instructions of the Lord. And they were small and they were light upon the water, even like unto the lightness of a fowl upon the water.

Ether 2:17

And they were built after a manner that they were exceeding tight, even that they would hold water like unto a dish; and the bottom thereof was tight like unto a dish, and the sides thereof was tight like unto a dish, and the ends thereof were peaked, and the top thereof was tight like unto a dish, and the length thereof was the length of a tree, and the door thereof—when it was shut—was tight like unto a dish.

Ether 2:18

And it came to pass that the brother of Jared cried unto the Lord, saying: O Lord, I have performed the work which thou hast commanded me, and I have made the barges according as thou hast directed me.

Ether 2:19

And behold, O Lord, in them there is no light. Whither shall we steer? And also we shall perish, for in them we cannot breathe save it is the air which is in them; therefore we shall perish.

Ether 2:20

And the Lord said unto the brother of Jared: Behold, thou shalt make a hole in the top thereof and also in the bottom thereof. And when thou shalt suffer for air, thou shalt unstop the hole thereof and receive air. And if it so be that the water come in upon thee, behold, ye shall stop the hole thereof, that ye may not perish in the flood.

Ether 2:21

And it came to pass that the brother of Jared did so, according as the Lord had commanded.

Ether 2:22

And he cried again unto the Lord, saying: O Lord, behold, I have done even as thou hast commanded me, and I have prepared the vessels for my people. And behold, there is no light in them. Behold, O Lord, wilt thou suffer that we shall cross this great water in darkness?

Ether 2:23

And the Lord said unto the brother of Jared: What will ye that I should do that ye may have light in your vessels? For behold, ye cannot have windows, for they will be dashed in pieces. Neither shall ye take fire with you, for ye shall not go by the light of fire.

Ether 2:24

For behold, ye shall be as a whale in the midst of the sea, for the mountain waves shall dash upon you. Nevertheless I will bring you up again out of the depths of the sea; for the winds have gone forth out of my mouth, and also the rains and the floods have I sent forth.

Ether 2:25

And behold, I prepare you against these things; for how be it, ye cannot cross this great deep save I prepare you against the waves of the sea and the winds which have gone forth and the floods which shall come. Therefore what will ye that I should prepare for you that ye may have light when ye are swallowed up in the depths of the sea?

Ether 3

Ether 3:1

And it came to pass that the brother of Jared —now the number of the vessels which had been prepared was eight— therefore the brother of Jared went forth unto the mount, which they called the mount Shelem because of its exceeding heighth, and did molten out of a rock sixteen small stones; and they were white and clear, even as transparent glass. And he did carry them in his hands up on the top of the mount and cried again unto the Lord, saying:

Ether 3:2

O Lord, thou hast said that we must be encompassed about by the floods. Now behold, O Lord, and do not be angry with thy servant because of his weakness before thee, for we know that thou art holy and dwellest in the heavens and that we are unworthy before thee; because of the fall our natures have become evil continually. Nevertheless, O Lord, thou hast given us a commandment that we must call upon thee, that from thee we may receive according to our desires.

Ether 3:3

Behold, O Lord, thou hast smitten us because of our iniquity and hath driven us forth, and for this many years we have been in the wilderness; nevertheless thou hast been merciful unto us. O Lord, look upon me in pity and turn away thine anger from this thy people and suffer not that they shall go forth across this raging deep in darkness, but behold these things which I have molten out of the rock.

Ether 3:4

And I know, O Lord, that thou hast all power and can do whatsoever thou wilt for the benefit of man. Therefore touch these stones, O Lord, with thy finger and prepare them that they may shine forth in darkness; and they shall shine forth unto us in the vessels which we have prepared, that we may have light while we shall cross the sea.

Ether 3:5

Behold, O Lord, thou canst do this. We know that thou art able to shew forth great power which looks small unto the understanding of men.

Ether 3:6

And it came to pass that when the brother of Jared had said these words, behold, the Lord stretched forth his hand and touched the stones one by one with his finger. And the veil was taken from off the eyes of the brother of Jared, and he saw the finger of the Lord. And it was as the finger of a man, like unto flesh and blood; and the brother of Jared fell down before the Lord, for he was struck with fear.

Ether 3:7

And the Lord saw that the brother of Jared had fallen to the earth, and the Lord said unto him: Arise. Why hast thou fallen?

Ether 3:8

And he saith unto the Lord: I saw the finger of the Lord; and I feared lest he should smite me, for I knew not that the Lord had flesh and blood.

Ether 3:9

And the Lord said unto him: Because of thy faith thou hast seen that I shall take upon me flesh and blood. And never has man come before me with such exceeding faith as thou hast; for were it not so, ye could not have seen my finger. Sawest thou more than this?

Ether 3:10

And he answered: Nay, Lord. Shew thyself unto me.

Ether 3:11

And the Lord said unto him: Believest thou the words which I shall speak?

Ether 3:12

And he answered: Yea, Lord. I know that thou speakest the truth, for thou art a God of truth and canst not lie.

Ether 3:13

And when he had said these words, behold, the Lord shewed himself unto him and said: Because thou knowest these things, ye are redeemed from the fall. Therefore ye are brought back into my presence; therefore I shew myself unto you.

Ether 3:14

Behold, I am he which was prepared from the foundation of the world to redeem my people. Behold, I am Jesus Christ. I am the Father and the Son. In me shall all mankind have life—and that eternally— even they which shall believe on my name; and they shall become my sons and my daughters.

Ether 3:15

And never hath I shewed myself unto man, whom I have created, for never hath man believed in me as thou hast. Seest thou that ye are created after mine own image? Yea, even all men were created in the beginning after mine own image.

Ether 3:16

Behold, this body which ye now behold is the body of my spirit. And man have I created after the body of my spirit. And even as I appear unto thee to be in the spirit will I appear unto my people in the flesh.

Ether 3:17

And now as I Moroni said I could not make a full account of these things which are written, therefore it sufficeth me to say that Jesus shewed himself unto this man in the spirit, even after the manner and in the likeness of the same body even as he shewed himself unto the Nephites.

Ether 3:18

And he ministered unto him even as he ministered unto the Nephites— and all this because that this man knew that he was God because of the many great works which the Lord had shewed unto him.

Ether 3:19

And because of the knowledge of this man, he could not be kept from beholding within the veil. And he saw the finger of Jesus, which when he saw, he fell with fear, for he knew that it was the finger of the Lord. And he had faith no longer, for he knew, nothing doubting.

Ether 3:20

Wherefore having this perfect knowledge of God, he could not be kept from within the veil. Therefore he saw Jesus, and he did minister unto him.

Ether 3:21

And it came to pass that the Lord said unto the brother of Jared: Behold, thou shalt not suffer these things which ye have seen and heard to go forth unto the world until the time cometh that I shall glorify my name in the flesh. Wherefore ye shall treasure up the things which ye have seen and heard and shew it to no man.

Ether 3:22

And behold, when ye shall come unto me, ye shall write them and shall seal them up, that no one can interpret them; for ye shall write them in a language that they cannot be read.

Ether 3:23

And behold, these two stones will I give unto thee; and ye shall seal them up also with the things which ye shall write.

Ether 3:24

For behold, the language which ye shall write I have confounded. Wherefore I will cause in mine own due time that these stones shall magnify to the eyes of men these things which ye shall write.

Ether 3:25

And when the Lord had said these words, the Lord shewed unto the brother of Jared all the inhabitants of the earth which had been and also all that would be. And the Lord withheld them not from his sight, even unto the ends of the earth.

Ether 3:26

For the Lord had said unto him in times before that if he would believe in him that he could shew unto him all things, it should be shewn unto him. Therefore the Lord could not withhold any thing from him, for he knew that the Lord could shew him all things.

Ether 3:27

And the Lord said unto him: Write these things and seal them up, and I will shew them in mine own due time unto the children of men.

Ether 3:28

And it came to pass that the Lord commanded him that he should seal up the two stones which he had received and shew them not until the Lord should shew them unto the children of men.

Ether 4

Ether 4:1

And the Lord commanded the brother of Jared to go down out of the mount from the presence of the Lord and write the things which he had seen. And they were forbidden to come unto the children of men until after that he should be lifted up upon the cross. And for this cause did king Benjamin keep them, that they should not come unto the world until after Christ should shew himself unto his people.

Ether 4:2

And after that Christ truly had shewed himself unto his people, he commanded that they should be made manifest.

Ether 4:3

And now after that they have all dwindled in unbelief and there is none save it be the Lamanites —and they have rejected the gospel of Christ— therefore I am commanded that I should hide them up again in the earth.

Ether 4:4

Behold, I have written upon these plates the very things which the brother of Jared saw. And there never was greater things made manifest than that which was made manifest unto the brother of Jared.

Ether 4:5

Wherefore the Lord hath commanded me to write them and I have wrote them. And he commanded me that I should seal them up. And he also hath commanded that I should seal up the interpretation thereof; wherefore I have sealed up the interpreters according to the commandment of the Lord.

Ether 4:6

For the Lord saith unto me: They shall not go forth unto the Gentiles until the day that they shall repent of their iniquity and become clean before the Lord.

Ether 4:7

And in that day that they shall exercise faith in me, saith the Lord, even as the brother of Jared did, that they may become sanctified in me, then will I manifest unto them the things which the brother of Jared saw, even to the unfolding unto them all my revelations, saith Jesus Christ the Son of God, the Father of the heavens and of the earth and all things that in them is.

Ether 4:8

And he that will contend against the word of the Lord, let him be accursed. And he that shall deny these things, let him be accursed. For unto them will I shew no greater things, saith Jesus Christ, for I am he which speaketh.

Ether 4:9

And at my command the heavens are opened and are shut. And at my word the earth shall shake. And at my command the inhabitants thereof shall pass away, even so as by fire.

Ether 4:10

And he that believeth not my words believeth not my disciples. And if it so be that I do not speak, judge ye; for ye shall know that it is I that speaketh, at the last day.

Ether 4:11

But he that believeth these things which I have spoken, him will I visit with the manifestations of my Spirit. And he shall know and bear record; for because of my Spirit he shall know that these things are true, for it persuadeth men to do good.

Ether 4:12

And whatsoever thing persuadeth men to do good is of me, for good cometh of none save it be of me. I am the same that leadeth men to all good. He that will not believe my words will not believe me, that I am. And he that will not believe me will not believe the Father, which sent me. For behold, I am the Father. I am the light and the life and the truth of the world.

Ether 4:13

Come unto me, O ye Gentiles, and I will shew unto you the greater things, the knowledge which is hid up because of unbelief.

Ether 4:14

Come unto me, O ye house of Israel, and it shall be made manifest unto you how great things the Father hath laid up for you from the foundation of the world; and it hath not come unto you, because of unbelief.

Ether 4:15

Behold, when ye shall rend that veil of unbelief which doth cause you to remain in your awful state of wickedness and hardness of heart and blindness of mind, then shall the great and marvelous things which have been hid up from the foundation of the world from you —yea, when ye shall call upon the Father in my name with a broken heart and a contrite spirit— then shall ye know that the Father hath remembered the covenant which he made unto your fathers, O house of Israel.

Ether 4:16

And then shall my revelations which I have caused to be written by my servant John be unfolded in the eyes of all the people. Remember, when ye see these things, ye shall know that the time is at hand that they shall be made manifest in very deed.

Ether 4:17

Therefore when ye shall receive this record, ye may know that the work of the Father has commenced upon all the face of the land.

Ether 4:18

Therefore repent, all ye ends of the earth, and come unto me and believe in my gospel and be baptized in my name. For he that believeth and is baptized shall be saved, but he that believeth not shall be damned. And signs shall follow them that believe in my name.

Ether 4:19

And blessed is he that is found faithful unto my name at the last day, for they shall be lifted up to dwell in the kingdom prepared for them from the foundation of the world. And behold, it is I that hath spoken it. Amen.

Ether 5

Ether 5:1

And now I Moroni have written the words which was commanded me, according to my memory. And I have told you the things which I have sealed up. Therefore touch them not, in order that ye may translate; for that thing is forbidden you except by and by it shall be wisdom in God.

Ether 5:2

And behold, ye may be privileged that ye may shew the plates unto those who shall assist to bring forth this work.

Ether 5:3

And unto three shall they be shewn by the power of God; wherefore they shall know of a surety that these things are true.

Ether 5:4

And in the mouth of three witnesses shall these things be established; and the testimony of three and this work—in the which shall be shewn forth the power of God and also his word, of which the Father and the Son and the Holy Ghost beareth record—and all this shall stand as a testimony against the world at the last day.

Ether 5:5

And if it so be that they repent and come unto the Father in the name of Jesus, they shall be received into the kingdom of God.

Ether 5:6

And now if I have no authority for these things, judge ye; for ye shall know that I have authority when ye shall see me, and we shall stand before God at the last day. Amen.

Ether 6

Ether 6:1

And now I Moroni proceed to give the record of Jared and his brother.

Ether 6:2

For it came to pass after that the Lord had prepared the stones which the brother of Jared had carried up into the mount, the brother of Jared came down out of the mount; and he did put forth the stones into the vessels which were prepared, one in each end thereof. And behold, they did give light unto the vessels thereof.

Ether 6:3

And thus the Lord caused stones to shine in darkness, to give light unto men, women, and children, that they might not cross the great waters in darkness.

Ether 6:4

And it came to pass that when they had prepared all manner of food, that thereby they might subsist upon the water—and also food for their flocks and herds and whatsoever beast or animal or fowl that they should carry with them—and it came to pass that when they had done all these things, they got aboard of their vessels or barges and set forth into the sea, commending themselves unto the Lord their God.

Ether 6:5

And it came to pass that the Lord God caused that there should a furious wind blow upon the face of the waters towards the promised land; and thus they were tossed upon the waves of the sea before the wind.

Ether 6:6

And it came to pass that they were many times buried in the depths of the sea because of the mountain waves which broke upon them, and also the great and terrible tempests which were caused by the fierceness of the wind.

Ether 6:7

And it came to pass that when they were buried in the deep, there was no water that could hurt them, their vessels being tight like unto a dish; and also they were tight like unto the ark of Noah. Therefore when they were encompassed about by many waters, they did cry unto the Lord, and he did bring them forth again upon the top of the waters.

Ether 6:8

And it came to pass that the wind did never cease to blow towards the promised land while they were upon the waters; and thus they were driven forth before the wind.

Ether 6:9

And they did sing praises unto the Lord; yea, the brother of Jared did sing praises unto the Lord, and he did thank and praise the Lord all the day long. And when the night came, they did not cease to praise the Lord.

Ether 6:10

And thus they were driven forth; and no monster of the sea could break them, neither whale that could mar them. And they did have light continually, whether it was above the water or under the water.

Ether 6:11

And thus they were driven forth three hundred and forty and four days upon the water; and they did land upon the shore of the promised land. And when they had set their feet upon the shores of the promised land, they bowed themselves down upon the face of the land and did humble themselves before the Lord and did shed tears of joy before the Lord because of the multitude of his tender mercies over them.

Ether 6:12

Ether 6:13

And it came to pass that they went forth upon the face of the land and began to till the earth.

Ether 6:14

And Jared had four sons, and they were called Jacom and Gilgah and Mahah and Orihah.

Ether 6:15

And the brother of Jared also begat sons and daughters.

Ether 6:16

And the friends of Jared and his brother were in number about twenty and two souls. And they also begat sons and daughters before they came to the promised land; and therefore they began to be many.

Ether 6:17

And they were taught to walk humbly before the Lord; and they were also taught from on high.

Ether 6:18

And it came to pass that they began to spread upon the face of the land and to multiply and to till the earth, and they did wax strong in the land.

Ether 6:19

And the brother of Jared began to be old and saw that he must soon go down to the grave; wherefore he saith unto Jared: Let us gather together our people that we may number them, that we may know of them what they will desire of us before we go down to our graves.

Ether 6:20

And accordingly the people were gathered together. Now the number of the sons and the daughters of the brother of Jared were twenty and two souls; and the number of the sons and daughters of Jared were twelve, he having four sons.

Ether 6:21

And it came to pass that they did number their people. And after that they had numbered them, they did desire of them the things which they would that they should do before they went down to their graves.

Ether 6:22

And it came to pass that the people desired of them that they should anoint one of their sons to be a king over them

Ether 6:23

—and now behold, this was grievous unto them— but the brother of Jared said unto them: Surely this thing leadeth into captivity.

Ether 6:24

But Jared said unto his brother: suffer them that they may have a king. And therefore he said unto them: Choose ye out from among our sons a king, even whom ye will.

Ether 6:25

And it came to pass that they chose even the first born of the brother of Jared, and his name was Pagag. And it came to pass that he refused and would not be their king. And the people would that his father should constrain him, but his father would not. And he commanded them that they should constrain no man to be their king.

Ether 6:26

And it came to pass that they chose all the brothers of Pagag, and they would not.

Ether 6:27

And it came to pass that neither would the sons of Jared, even all save it were one; and Orihah, he was anointed to be king over the people.

Ether 6:28

And he began to reign, and the people began to prosper; and they became exceeding rich.

Ether 6:29

And it came to pass that Jared died and his brother also.

Ether 6:30

And it came to pass that Orihah did walk humbly before the Lord and did remember how great things the Lord had done for his father, and also taught his people how great things the Lord had done for their fathers.

Ether 7

Ether 7:1

And it came to pass that Orihah did execute judgment upon the land in righteousness all his days, whose days were exceeding many.

Ether 7:2

And he begat sons and daughters; yea, he begat thirty and one, among whom were twenty and three sons.

Ether 7:3

And it came to pass that he also begat Kib in his old age. And it came to pass that Kib reigned in his stead; and Kib begat Corihor.

Ether 7:4

And when Corihor was thirty and two years old, he rebelled against his father and went over and dwelt in the land of Nehor; and he begat sons and daughters. And they became exceeding fair; wherefore Corihor drew away many people after him.

Ether 7:5

And when he had gathered together an army, he came up unto the land of Moron, where the king dwelt, and took him captive, which brought to pass the saying of the brother of Jared that they would be brought into captivity.

Ether 7:6

Now the land of Moron, where the king dwelt, was near the land which is called Desolation by the Nephites.

Ether 7:7

And it came to pass that Kib dwelt in captivity, and his people under Corihor his son, until he became exceeding old. Nevertheless Kib begat Shule in his old age, while he was yet in captivity.

Ether 7:8

And it came to pass that Shule was angry with his brother. And Shule waxed strong and became mighty as to the strength of a man; and he was also mighty in judgment.

Ether 7:9

Wherefore he came to the hill Ephraim, and he did molten out of the hill and made swords out of steel for those which he had drew away with him. And after that he had armed them with swords, he returned to the city Nehor and gave battle unto his brother Corihor, by which means he obtained the kingdom and restored it unto his father Kib.

Ether 7:10

And now because of the thing which Shule had done, his father bestowed upon him the kingdom; therefore he began to reign in the stead of his father.

Ether 7:11

And it came to pass that he did execute judgment in righteousness. And he did spread his kingdom upon all the face of the land, for the people had become exceeding numerous.

Ether 7:12

And it came to pass that Shule also begat many sons and daughters.

Ether 7:13

And Corihor repented of the many evils which he had done; wherefore Shule gave him power in his kingdom.

Ether 7:14

And it came to pass that Corihor had many sons and daughters. And among the sons of Corihor there was one whose name was Noah.

Ether 7:15

And it came to pass that Noah rebelled against Shule the king and also his father Corihor and drew away Cohor his brother and also all his brethren and many of the people.

Ether 7:16

And he gave battle unto Shule the king, in the which he did obtain the land of their first inheritance; and he became a king over that part of the land.

Ether 7:17

And it came to pass that he gave battle again unto Shule the king; and he took Shule the king and carried him away captive into Moron.

Ether 7:18

And it came to pass as he was about to put him to death, the sons of Shule crept into the house of Noah by night and slew him and broke down the door of the prison and brought out their father and placed him upon his throne in his own kingdom.

Ether 7:19

Wherefore the son of Noah did build up his kingdom in his stead. Nevertheless they did not gain power any more over Shule the king. And the people which were under the reign of Shule the king did prosper exceedingly and wax great.

Ether 7:20

And the country was divided and there was two kingdoms: the kingdom of Shule and the kingdom of Cohor the son of Noah.

Ether 7:21

And Cohor the son of Noah caused that his people should give battle unto Shule, in the which Shule did beat them and did slay Cohor.

Ether 7:22

And now Cohor had a son which was called Nimrod; and Nimrod gave up the kingdom of Cohor unto Shule, and he did gain favor in the eyes of Shule; wherefore Shule did bestow great favors upon him, in the which he did do in the kingdom of Shule according to his desires.

Ether 7:23

And also in the reign of Shule there came prophets among the people, which were sent from the Lord, prophesying that the wickedness and idolatry of the people was bringing a curse upon the land, in the which they should be destroyed if they did not repent.

Ether 7:24

And it came to pass that the people did revile against the prophets and did mock them. And it came to pass that king Shule did execute judgment against all those who did revile against the prophets.

Ether 7:25

And he did execute a law throughout all the land which gave power unto the prophets that they should go whithersoever they would. And by this cause the people were brought unto repentance.

Ether 7:26

And because the people did repent of their iniquities and idolatries, the Lord did spare them; and they began to prosper again in the land. And it came to pass that Shule begat sons and daughters in his old age.

Ether 7:27

And there was no more wars in the days of Shule. And he remembered the great things that the Lord had done for his fathers in bringing them across the great deep into the promised land; wherefore he did execute judgment in righteousness all his days.

Ether 8

Ether 8:1

And it came to pass that he begat Omer, and Omer reigned in his stead. And Omer begat Jared; and Jared begat sons and daughters.

Ether 8:2

And Jared rebelled against his father and came and dwelt in the land of Heth. And it came to pass that he did flatter much people because of his cunning words until he had gained the half of the kingdom.

Ether 8:3

And when he had gained the half of the kingdom, he gave battle unto his father; and he did carry away his father into captivity and did make him serve in captivity.

Ether 8:4

And now in the days of the reign of Omer he was in captivity the half of his days. And it came to pass that he begat sons and daughters, among whom were Esrom and Coriantumr.

Ether 8:5

And they were exceeding angry because of the doings of Jared their brother, insomuch that they did raise an army and gave battle unto Jared. And it came to pass that they did give battle unto him by night.

Ether 8:6

And it came to pass that when they had slew the army of Jared, they were about to slay him also; and he pled with them that they would not slay him and he would give up the kingdom unto his father. And it came to pass that they did grant unto him his life.

Ether 8:7

And now Jared became exceeding sorrowful because of the loss of the kingdom, for he had set his heart upon the kingdom and upon the glory of the world.

Ether 8:8

Now the daughter of Jared being exceeding expert, and seeing the sorrow of her father, thought to devise a plan whereby she could redeem the kingdom unto her father.

Ether 8:9

Now the daughter of Jared was exceeding fair. And it came to pass that she did talk with her father and saith unto him: Whereby hath my father so much sorrow? Hath he not read the record which our fathers brought across the great deep? Behold, is there not an account concerning them of old, that they by their secret plans did obtain kingdoms and great glory?

Ether 8:10

And now therefore let my father send for Akish the son of Kimnor. And behold, I am fair and I will dance before him. And I will please him, that he will desire me to wife. Wherefore if he shall desire of thee that ye shall give unto him me to wife, then shall ye say: I will give her if ye will bring unto me the head of my father the king.

Ether 8:11

And now Omer was a friend to Akish. Wherefore when Jared had sent for Akish, the daughter of Jared danced before him, that she pleased him, insomuch that he desired her to wife. And it came to pass that he said unto Jared: Give her unto me to wife.

Ether 8:12

And Jared said unto him: I will give her unto you if ye will bring unto me the head of my father the king.

Ether 8:13

And it came to pass that Akish gathered in unto the house of Jared all his kinsfolks and saith unto them: Will ye swear unto me that ye will be faithful unto me in the thing which I shall desire of you?

Ether 8:14

And it came to pass that they all sware unto him by the God of heaven and also by the heavens and also by the earth and by their heads that whoso should vary from the assistance which Akish desired should lose his head; and whoso should divulge whatsoever thing Akish made known unto them, the same should lose his life.

Ether 8:15

And it came to pass that thus they did agree with Akish. And Akish did administer unto them the oaths which was given by them of old, who also sought power, which had been handed down even from Cain, who was a murderer from the beginning.

Ether 8:16

And they were kept up by the power of the devil, to administer these oaths unto the people, to keep them in darkness, to help such as sought power to gain power and to murder and to plunder and to lie and to commit all manner of wickedness and whoredoms.

Ether 8:17

And it was the daughter of Jared which put it into his heart to search up these things of old; and Jared put it into the heart of Akish. Wherefore Akish administered it unto his kindreds and friends, leading them away by fair promises to do whatsoever thing he desired.

Ether 8:18

And it came to pass that they formed a secret combination, even as they of old, which combination is most abominable and wicked above all in the sight of God.

Ether 8:19

For the Lord worketh not in secret combinations, neither doth he will that man should shed blood; but in all things hath forbidden it from the beginning of man.

Ether 8:20

And now I Moroni do not write the manner of their oaths and combinations, for it hath been made known unto me that they are had among all people; and they are had among the Lamanites.

Ether 8:21

And they have caused the destruction of this people of which I am now speaking, and also the destruction of the people of Nephi.

Ether 8:22

And whatsoever nation shall uphold such secret combinations, to get power and gain, until they shall spread over the nation, behold, they shall be destroyed; for the Lord will not suffer that the blood of his saints which shall be shed by them shall always cry unto him from the ground for vengeance upon them and yet he avengeth them not.

Ether 8:23

Wherefore, O ye Gentiles, it is wisdom in God that these things should be shewn unto you, that thereby ye may repent of your sins and suffer not that these murderous combinations shall get above you, which are built up to get power and gain, and the work—yea, even the work of destruction—come upon you; yea, even the sword of the justice of the Eternal God shall fall upon you, to your overthrow and destruction, if ye shall suffer these things to be.

Ether 8:24

Wherefore the Lord commandeth you, when ye shall see these things come among you, that ye shall awake to a sense of your awful situation because of this secret combination which shall be among you; for woe be unto it because of the blood of them which have been slain, for they cry from the dust for vengeance upon it, and also upon those who build it up.

Ether 8:25

For it cometh to pass that whoso buildeth it up seeketh to overthrow the freedom of all lands, nations, and countries. And it bringeth to pass the destruction of all people, for it is built up by the devil, which is the father of all lies, even that same liar which beguiled our first parents, yea, even that same liar which hath caused man to commit murder from the beginning, which hath hardened the hearts of men that they have murdered the prophets and stoned them and cast them out from the beginning.

Ether 8:26

Wherefore I Moroni am commanded to write these things, that evil may be done away and that the time may come that Satan may have no power upon the hearts of the children of men, but that they may be persuaded to do good continually, that they may come unto the fountain of all righteousness and be saved.

Ether 9

Ether 9:1

And now I Moroni proceed with my record. Therefore, behold, it came to pass that because of the secret combinations of Akish and his friends, behold, they did overthrow the kingdom of Omer.

Ether 9:2

Nevertheless the Lord was merciful unto Omer, and also to his sons and to his daughters which were not—or which did not seek his destruction.

Ether 9:3

And the Lord warned Omer in a dream that he should depart out of the land. Wherefore Omer departed out of the land with his family and traveled many days and came over and passed by the hill of Shim and came over by the place where the Nephites were destroyed, and from thence eastward and came to a place which was called Ablom, by the seashore. And there he pitched his tent, and also his sons and his daughters and all his household, save it were Jared and his family.

Ether 9:4

And it came to pass that Jared was anointed king over the people by the hand of wickedness, and he gave unto Akish his daughter to wife.

Ether 9:5

And it came to pass that Akish sought the life of his father-in-law, and he applied unto those whom he had sworn by the oath of the ancients. And they obtained the head of his father-in-law as he sat upon his throne giving audience to his people.

Ether 9:6

For so great had been the spreading of this wicked and secret society that it had corrupted the hearts of all the people. Therefore Jared was murdered upon his throne, and Akish reigned in his stead.

Ether 9:7

And it came to pass that Akish began to be jealous of his son. Therefore he shut him up in prison and kept him upon a little or no food until he had suffered death.

Ether 9:8

And now the brother of him that suffered death—and his name was Nimrah—and he was angry with his father because of that which his father had done unto his brother.

Ether 9:9

And it came to pass that Nimrah gathered together a small number of men and fled out of the land and came over and dwelt with Omer.

Ether 9:10

And it came to pass that Akish begat other sons; and they won the hearts of the people, notwithstanding they had sworn unto him to do all manner of iniquity according to that which he desired.

Ether 9:11

Now the people of Akish were desirous for gain, even as Akish was desirous for power. Wherefore the sons of Akish did offer them money, by the which means they drew away the more part of the people after them.

Ether 9:12

And there began to be a war between the sons of Akish and Akish, which lasted for the space of many years, yea, unto the destruction of nearly all the people of the kingdom, yea, even all save it were thirty souls and they which fled with the house of Omer.

Ether 9:13

Wherefore Omer was restored again to the land of his inheritance.

Ether 9:14

And it came to pass that Omer began to be old. Nevertheless in his old age he begat Emer; and he anointed Emer to be king to reign in his stead.

Ether 9:15

For it clearly testifies how willingly he laid down his life for us, since he had it in his power to take it up again. What great confidence do believers have to buttress their hopes, when they consider the mighty things that such a mighty one suffered for those who did not yet believe!"

Ether 12:24

And thou hast made us that we could write but little because of the awkwardness of our hands. Behold, thou hast not made us mighty in writing like unto the brother of Jared, for thou madest him that the things which he wrote were mighty, even as thou art, unto the overpowering of man to read them.

Behold, Ether saw the days of Christ. And he spake concerning a New Jerusalem upon this land.

Ether 13:5

And he spake also concerning the house of Israel and the Jerusalem from whence Lehi should come— after that it should be destroyed, it should be built up again an holy city unto the Lord; wherefore it could not be a New Jerusalem, for it had been in a time of old, but it should be built up again and become a holy city of the Lord; and it should be built up unto the house of Israel—

Ether 13:8

Ether 13:11

And then also cometh the Jerusalem of old; and the inhabitants thereof, blessed are they, for they have been washed in the blood of the Lamb; and they are they which were scattered and gathered in from the four quarters of the earth and from the north countries and are partakers of the fulfilling of the covenant which God made with their father Abraham.

Ether 13:12

And when these things come bringeth to pass the scripture which saith: There are they which were first which shall be last; and there are they which were last which shall be first.

Ether 13:13

And I was about to write more, but I am forbidden; but great and marvelous were the prophecies of Ether. But they esteemed him as naught and cast him out. And he hid himself in the cavity of a rock by day, and by night he went forth, viewing the things which should come upon the people.

Ether 13:14

And as he dwelt in the cavity of a rock, he made the remainder of this record, viewing the destructions which came upon the people, by night.

Ether 13:17

Ether 13:21

Otherwise, they should be destroyed, and all his household, save it were himself. And he should only live to see the fulfilling of the prophecies which had been spoken concerning another people receiving the land for their inheritance, and Coriantumr should receive a burial by them, and every soul should be destroyed save it were Coriantumr.

Ether 13:22

And it came to pass that Coriantumr repented not, neither his household neither the people; and the wars did cease not. And they sought to kill Ether, but he fled from before them and hid again in the cavity of the rock.

Ether 13:23

And it came to pass that there arose up Shared, and he also gave battle unto Coriantumr; and he did beat him, insomuch that in the third year he did bring him into captivity.

Ether 13:24

And the sons of Coriantumr in the fourth year did beat Shared and did obtain the kingdom again unto their father.

Ether 13:25

Now there began to be a war upon all the face of the land, every man with his band fighting for that which he desired.

Ether 13:26

And there was robbers, and in fine, all manner of wickedness upon all the face of the land.

Ether 13:27

And it came to pass that Coriantumr was exceeding angry with Shared, and he went against him with his armies to battle. And they did meet in great anger; and they did meet in the valley of Gilgal, and the battle became exceeding sore.

Ether 13:28

And it came to pass that Shared fought against him for the space of three days. And it came to pass that Coriantumr beat him and did pursue him until he came to the plains of Heshlon.

Ether 13:29

And it came to pass that Shared gave him battle again upon the plains. And behold, he did beat Coriantumr and drove him back again to the valley of Gilgal.

Ether 13:30

And Coriantumr gave Shared battle again in the valley of Gilgal, in the which he beat Shared and slew him.

Ether 13:31

And Shared wounded Coriantumr in his thigh, that he did not go to battle again for the space of two years, in the which time all the people upon all the face of the land were a shedding blood and there was none to constrain them.

Ether 14

Ether 14:1

And now there began to be a great curse upon the land because of the iniquity of the people, in the which if a man should lay his tool or his sword upon the shelf, or upon the place whither he would keep it, and behold, upon the morrow he could not find it, so great was the curse upon the land.

Ether 14:2

Wherefore every man did cleave unto that which was his own with his hands and would not borrow, neither would he lend. And every man kept the hilt of his sword thereof in his right hand, in the defense of his property and his own life and they of his wife and children.

Ether 14:3

And now after the space of two years and after the death of Shared, behold, there arose the brother of Shared, and he gave battle unto Coriantumr, in the which Coriantumr did beat him and did pursue him to the wilderness of Akish.

Ether 14:4

And it came to pass that the brother of Shared did give battle unto him in the wilderness of Akish, and the battle became exceeding sore; and many thousands fell by the sword.

Ether 14:5

And it came to pass that Coriantumr did lay siege to the wilderness. And the brother of Shared did march forth out of the wilderness by night and slew a part of the army of Coriantumr as they were drunken.

Ether 14:6

And he came forth to the land of Moron and placed himself upon the throne of Coriantumr.

Ether 14:7

And it came to pass that Coriantumr dwelt with his army in the wilderness for the space of two years, in the which he did receive great strength to his army.

Ether 14:8

Now the brother of Shared, whose name was Gilead, also received great strength to his army because of secret combinations.

Ether 14:9

And it came to pass that his high priest murdered him as he sat upon his throne.

Ether 14:10

And it came to pass that one of the secret combinations murdered him in a secret pass and obtained unto himself the kingdom, and his name was Lib. And Lib was a man of great stature, more than any other man among all the people.

Ether 14:11

And it came to pass that in the first year of Lib, Coriantumr came up unto the land of Moron and gave battle unto Lib.

Ether 14:12

And it came to pass that he fought with Lib, in the which Lib did smite upon his arm, that he was wounded. Nevertheless the army of Coriantumr did press forward upon Lib, that he fled to the borders by the seashore.

Ether 14:13

And it came to pass that Coriantumr pursued him; and Lib gave battle unto him upon the seashore.

Ether 14:14

And it came to pass that Lib did smite the army of Coriantumr, that they fled again to the wilderness of Akish.

Ether 14:15

And it came to pass that Lib did pursue him until he came to the plains of Agosh. And Coriantumr had taken all the people with him as he fled before Lib, in that quarter of the land whither he fled.

Ether 14:16

And when he had came to the plains of Agosh, he gave battle unto Lib; and he smote upon him until he died. Nevertheless the brother of Lib did come against Coriantumr in the stead thereof; and the battle became exceeding sore, in the which Coriantumr fled again before the army of the brother of Lib.

Ether 14:17

Now the name of the brother of Lib was called Shiz. And it came to pass that Shiz pursued after Coriantumr; and he did overthrow many cities, and he did slay both men, women, and children, and he did burn the cities thereof.

Ether 14:18

And there went a fear of Shiz throughout all the land; yea, a cry went forth throughout the land: Who can stand before the army of Shiz? Behold, he sweepeth the earth before him!

Ether 14:19

And it came to pass that the people began to flock together in armies throughout all the face of the land.

Ether 14:20

And they were divided; and a part of them fled to the army of Shiz, and a part of them fled to the army of Coriantumr.

Ether 14:21

And so great and lasting had been the war and so long had been the scene of bloodshed and carnage that the whole face of the land was covered with the bodies of the dead.

Ether 14:22

And so swift and speedy was the war that there was none left to bury the dead, but they did march forth from the shedding of blood to the shedding of blood, leaving the bodies of both men, women, and children strewed upon the face of the land, to become a prey to the worms of the flesh.

Ether 14:23

And the scent thereof went forth upon the face of the land, even upon all the face of the land. Wherefore the people became troubled by day and by night because of the scent thereof.

Ether 14:24

Nevertheless Shiz did not cease to pursue Coriantumr, for he had sworn to avenge himself upon Coriantumr of the blood of his brother, which had been slain, and the word of the Lord which came to Ether that Coriantumr should not fall by the sword.

Ether 14:25

And thus we see that the Lord did visit them in the fullness of his wrath. And their wickedness and abominations had prepared a way for their everlasting destruction.

Ether 14:26

And it came to pass that Shiz did pursue Coriantumr eastward, even to the borders by the seashore. And there he gave battle unto Shiz for the space of three days.

Ether 14:27

And so terrible was the destruction among the armies of Shiz that the people began to be frightened and began to flee before the armies of Coriantumr. And they fled to the land of Corihor and swept off the inhabitants before them, all they that would not join them.

Ether 14:28

And they pitched their tents in the valley of Corihor; and Coriantumr pitched his tents in the valley of Shurr —now the valley of Shurr was near the hill Comron— wherefore Coriantumr did gather his armies together upon the hill Comron and did sound a trumpet unto the armies of Shiz to invite them forth to battle.

Ether 14:29

And it came to pass that they came forth but were driven again. And they came the second time, and they were driven again the second time. And it came to pass that they came again the third time, and the battle became exceeding sore.

Ether 14:30

And it came to pass that Shiz smote upon Coriantumr, that he gave him many deep wounds. And Coriantumr having lost his blood fainted and was carried away, as though he were dead.

Ether 14:31

Now the loss of men, women, and children on both sides were so great that Shiz commanded his people that they should not pursue the armies of Coriantumr; wherefore they returned to their camp.

Ether 15

Ether 15:1

And it came to pass that when Coriantumr had recovered of his wounds, he began to remember the words which Ether had spoken unto him.

Ether 15:2

He saw that there had been slain by the sword already nearly two millions of his people. And he began to sorrow in his heart; yea, there had been slain two millions of mighty men, and also their wives and their children.

Ether 15:3

He began to repent of the evil which he had done. He began to remember the words which had been spoken by the mouth of all the prophets; and he saw them that they were fulfilled thus far, every whit. And his soul mourned and refused to be comforted.

Ether 15:4

And it came to pass that he wrote an epistle unto Shiz, desiring him that he would spare the people and he would give up the kingdom for the sake of the lives of the people.

Ether 15:5

And it came to pass that when Shiz had received his epistle, he wrote an epistle unto Coriantumr that if he would give himself up that he might slay him with his own sword that he would spare the lives of the people.

Ether 15:6

And it came to pass that the people repented not of their iniquity. And the people of Coriantumr were stirred up to anger against the people of Shiz, and the people of Shiz were stirred up to anger against the people of Coriantumr; wherefore the people of Shiz did give battle unto the people of Coriantumr.

Ether 15:7

And when Coriantumr saw that he was about to fall, he fled again before the people of Shiz.

Ether 15:8

And it came to pass that he came to the waters of Ripliancum, which by interpretation is large or to exceed all; wherefore when they came to these waters, they pitched their tents; and Shiz also pitched his tents near unto them. And therefore on the morrow they did come to battle.

Ether 15:9

And it came to pass that they fought an exceeding sore battle, in the which Coriantumr was wounded again; and he fainted with the loss of blood.

Ether 15:10

And it came to pass that the armies of Coriantumr did press upon the armies of Shiz, that they beat them, that they caused them to flee before them. And they did flee southward and did pitch their tents in a place which was called Ogath.

Ether 15:11

And it came to pass that the army of Coriantumr did pitch their tents by the hill Ramah, and it was that same hill where my father Mormon did hide up the records unto the Lord which were sacred.

Ether 15:12

And it came to pass that they did gather together all the people upon all the face of the land which had not been slain, save it were Ether.

Ether 15:13

And it came to pass that Ether did behold all the doings of the people. And he beheld that the people which were for Coriantumr were gathered together to the army of Coriantumr; and the people which were for Shiz were gathered together to the army of Shiz.

Ether 15:14

Wherefore they were for the space of four years gathering together the people, that they might get all which were upon the face of the land and that they might receive all the strength which it were possible that they could receive.

Ether 15:15

And it came to pass that when they were all gathered together, every one to the army which he would, with their wives and their children—both men, women, and children being armed with weapons of war, having shields and breastplates and headplates, and being clothed after the manner of war—and they did march forth one against another to battle; and they fought all that day and conquered not.

Ether 15:16

And it came to pass that when it was night, they were weary and retired to their camps. And after that they had retired to their camps, they took up a howling and a lamentation for the loss of the slain of their people. And so great were their cries, their howlings and lamentations that it did rend the air exceedingly.

Ether 15:17

And it came to pass that on the morrow they did go again to battle. And great and terrible was that day; nevertheless they conquered not. And when the night came, again they did rend the air with their cries and their howlings and their mournings for the loss of the slain of their people.

Ether 15:18

And it came to pass that Coriantumr wrote again an epistle unto Shiz, desiring that he would not come again to battle, but that he would take the kingdom and spare the lives of the people.

Ether 15:19

But behold, the Spirit of the Lord had ceased striving with them. And Satan had full power over the hearts of the people, for they were given up unto the hardness of their hearts and the blindness of their minds, that they might be destroyed; wherefore they went again to battle.

Ether 15:20

And it came to pass that they fought all that day. And when the night came, they slept upon their swords.

Ether 15:21

And on the morrow they fought even until the night came.

Ether 15:22

And when the night came, they were drunken with anger, even as a man which is drunken with wine. And they slept again upon their swords.

Ether 15:23

And on the morrow they fought again. And when the night came, they had all fallen by the sword save it were fifty and two of the people of Coriantumr and sixty and nine of the people of Shiz.

Ether 15:24

And it came to pass that they slept upon their swords that night. And on the morrow they fought again; and they contended in their mights with their swords and with their shields all that day.

Ether 15:25

And when the night came, there was thirty and two of the people of Shiz and twenty and seven of the people of Coriantumr.

Ether 15:26

And it came to pass that they ate and slept and prepared for death on the morrow. And they were large and mighty men as to the strength of men.

Ether 15:27

And it came to pass that they fought for the space of three hours, and they fainted with the loss of blood.

Ether 15:28

And it came to pass that when the men of Coriantumr had received sufficient strength that they could walk, they were about to flee for their lives. But behold, Shiz arose, and also his men, and he swore in his wrath that he would slay Coriantumr or he would perish by the sword; wherefore he did pursue them. And on the morrow he did overtake them, and they fought again with the sword. And it came to pass that when they had all fallen by the sword, save it were Coriantumr and Shiz, behold, Shiz had fainted with loss of blood.

Ether 15:29

Ether 15:30

And it came to pass that when Coriantumr had leaned upon his sword, that he rested a little, and he smote off the head of Shiz.

Ether 15:31

And it came to pass that after he had smote off the head of Shiz that Shiz raised upon his hands and fell. And after that he had struggled for breath, he died.

Ether 15:32

And it came to pass that Coriantumr fell to the earth and became as if he had no life.

Ether 15:33

And the Lord spake unto Ether and said unto him: Go forth. And he went forth and beheld that the words of the Lord had all been fulfilled. And he finished his record —and the hundredth part I have not written— and he hid them in a manner that the people of Limhi did find them.

Ether 15:34

Now the last words which are written by Ether are these: Whether the Lord will that I be translated or that I suffer the will of the Lord in the flesh, it mattereth not if it so be that I am saved in the kingdom of God. Amen.

Moroni

Moroni 1

Moroni 1:1

Now I Moroni after having made an end of abridging the account of the people of Jared, I had supposed to not have written more, but I have not as yet perished. And I make not myself known to the Lamanites lest they should destroy me.

Moroni 1:2

For behold, their wars are exceeding fierce among themselves. And because of their hatred they put to death every Nephite that will not deny the Christ.

Moroni 1:3

And I Moroni will not deny the Christ; wherefore I wander whithersoever I can for the safety of mine own life.

Moroni 1:4

Wherefore I write a few more things, contrary to that which I had supposed, for I had supposed not to have written any more. But I write a few more things, that perhaps they may be of worth unto my brethren the Lamanites in some future day, according to the will of the Lord.

Moroni 2

Moroni 2:1

The words of Christ which he spake unto his disciples, the twelve whom he had chosen, as he laid his hands upon them.

Moroni 2:2

And he called them by name, saying: Ye shall call on the Father in my name in mighty prayer. And after that ye have done this, ye shall have power that on him whom ye shall lay your hands ye shall give the Holy Ghost. And in my name shall ye give it, for thus do mine apostles.

Moroni 2:3

Now Christ spake these words unto them at the time of his first appearing. And the multitude heard it not, but the disciples heard it. And on as many as they laid their hands fell the Holy Ghost.

Moroni 3

Moroni 3:1

The manner which the disciples, which were called the elders of the church, ordained priests and teachers.

Moroni 3:2

After they had prayed unto the Father in the name of Christ, they laid their hands upon them and said:

Moroni 3:3

In the name of Jesus Christ, I ordain you to be a priest—or if he be a teacher, I ordain you to be a teacher—to preach repentance and remission of sins through Jesus Christ by the endurance of faith on his name to the end. Amen.

Moroni 3:4

And after this manner did they ordain priests and teachers, according to the gifts and callings of God unto men. And they ordained them by the power of the Holy Ghost which was in them.

Moroni 4

Moroni 4:1

The manner of their elders and priests administering the flesh and blood of Christ unto the church. And they administered it according to the commandments of Christ; wherefore we know that the manner to be true. And the elder or priest did minister it; and they did kneel down with the church and pray to the Father in the name of Christ, saying:

Moroni 4:2

Moroni 4:3

O God the Eternal Father, we ask thee in the name of thy Son Jesus Christ to bless and sanctify this bread to the souls of all those who partake of it, that they may eat in remembrance of the body of thy Son, and witness unto thee, O God the Eternal Father, that they are willing to take upon them the name of thy Son and always remember him and keep his commandments which he hath given them, that they may always have his Spirit to be with them. Amen.

Moroni 5

Moroni 5:1

The manner of administering the wine. Behold, they took the cup and said:

Moroni 5:2

O God the Eternal Father, we ask thee in the name of thy Son Jesus Christ to bless and sanctify this wine to the souls of all those who drink of it, that they may do it in remembrance of the blood of thy Son, which was shed for them, that they may witness unto thee, O God the Eternal Father, that they do always remember him, that they may have his Spirit to be with them. Amen.

Moroni 6

Moroni 6:1

And now I speak concerning baptism. Behold, elders, priests, and teachers were baptized; and they were not baptized save they brought forth fruit meet that they were worthy of it.

Moroni 6:2

Neither did they receive any unto baptism save they came forth with a broken heart and a contrite spirit and witnessed unto the church that they truly repented of all their sins.

Moroni 6:3

And none were received unto baptism save they took upon them the name of Christ, having a determination to serve him unto the end.

Moroni 6:4

And after that they had been received unto baptism and were wrought upon and cleansed by the power of the Holy Ghost, they were numbered among the people of the church of Christ and their names were taken, that they might be remembered and nourished by the good word of God, to keep them in the right way, to keep them continually watchful unto prayer, relying alone upon the merits of Christ, who was the author and the finisher of their faith.

Moroni 6:5

And the church did meet together oft to fast and to pray and to speak one with another concerning the welfare of their souls.

Moroni 6:6

And they did meet together oft to partake of bread and wine in remembrance of the Lord Jesus.

Moroni 6:7

And they were strict to observe that there should be no iniquity among them. And whoso was found to commit iniquity—and three witnesses of the church did condemn them before the elders—and if they repented not and confessed not, their names were blotted out and they were not numbered among the people of Christ.

Moroni 6:8

But as oft as they repented and sought forgiveness, with real intent, they were forgiven.

Moroni 6:9

And their meetings were conducted by the church after the manner of the workings of the Spirit and by the power of the Holy Ghost, for as the power of the Holy Ghost led them whether to preach or exhort or to pray or to supplicate or to sing, even so it was done.

Moroni 7

Moroni 7:1

¹ And now I Moroni write a few of the words of my father Mormon which he spake concerning faith, hope, and charity, for after this manner did he speak unto the people as he taught them in the synagogue which they had built for the place of worship.

Moroni 7:2

And now I Mormon speak unto you, my beloved brethren. And it is by the grace of God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ and his holy will, because of the gift of his calling unto me, that I am permitted to speak unto you at this time.

Moroni 7:3

Wherefore I would speak unto you that are of the church, that are the peaceable followers of Christ, and that have obtained a sufficient hope by which ye can enter into the rest of the Lord, from this time henceforth until ye shall rest with him in heaven.

¹I wrote a Rainbows essay on the first half of this chapter, specifically on good, evil, and the nature of goodness. See the essay here; see my notes and highlights on the verses here.

Moroni 7:4

And now my brethren, I judge these things of you because of your peaceable walk with the children of men.

Moroni 7:5

For I remember the word of God which saith: By their works ye shall know them. ¹For if their works be good, then they are good also.

Moroni 7:6

For behold, God hath said: A man being evil cannot do that which is good. For if he offereth a gift or prayeth unto God, except he shall do it with real intent, it profiteth him nothing; for behold, it is not counted² unto him for righteousness.

Moroni 7:7

Moroni 7:8

For behold, if a man being evil giveth a gift, he doeth it grudgingly;³ wherefore it is counted unto him the same as if he had retained the gift. Wherefore he is counted evil before God.

Moroni 7:9

And likewise also is it counted evil unto a man if he shall pray and not with real intent of heart.⁴ Yea, and it profiteth him nothing, for God receiveth none such.

Moroni 7:10

Wherefore a man being evil cannot do that which is good, neither will he give a good gift.

Moroni 7:11

For behold, a bitter fountain cannot bring forth good water, neither can a good fountain bring forth bitter water. Wherefore a man being the servant of the devil cannot follow Christ; and if he follow Christ, he cannot be a servant of the devil.

Moroni 7:12

Wherefore all things which are good cometh of God; and that which is evil cometh of the devil. For the devil is an enemy unto God and fighteth against him continually and inviteth and enticeth to sin and to do that which is evil continually.

Moroni 7:13

But behold, that which is of God inviteth and enticeth to do good continually. Wherefore every thing which inviteth and enticeth to do good and to love God and to serve him is inspired of God.

¹You can view this whole discussion of the “good” in light of Matthew 7:7–12.

²This construction, about something “counting unto” someone “for righteousness,” is used in the NT in various places, including Romans 4:3, 5 (note that it’s used below in verses 8 and 9 here in Moroni 7 as well). The Greek word in Romans 4 is various forms of λογίζομαι. Note that the KJV translation also translates λογίζομαι as forms of “impute” in Romans 4, which makes it less clear in that translation that the same thing is being spoken of elsewhere. See discussion in the notes in Romans—all of chapter 4 is relevant, and there’s some important lessons that Paul draws for us in verse 23ff.

³Compare 2 Corinthians 9:7, 1 Peter 4:9, 1 Nephi 3:6, DC 70:14,

⁴Compare DC 58:29.

Moroni 7:14

Wherefore take heed, my beloved brethren, that ye do not judge that which is evil to be of God, or that which is good and of God to be of the devil.

Moroni 7:15

For behold, my brethren, it is given unto you to judge, that ye may know good from evil. And the way to judge is as plain, that ye may know with a perfect knowledge, as the daylight is from the dark night.¹

Moroni 7:16

For behold, the Spirit of Christ is given to every man that they may know good from evil. Wherefore I shew unto you the way to judge. For every thing which inviteth to do good and persuadeth to believe in Christ is sent forth by the power and gift of Christ. Wherefore ye may know with a perfect knowledge it is of God.

Moroni 7:17

But whatsoever thing persuadeth men to do evil and believe not in Christ and deny him and serve not God, then ye may know with a perfect knowledge it is of the devil. For after this manner doth the devil work, for he persuadeth no man to do good—no, not one—neither doth his angels, neither doth they which subject themselves unto him.

Moroni 7:18

And now my brethren, seeing that ye know the light by which ye may judge, which light is the light of Christ, see that ye do not judge wrongfully; for with that same judgment which ye judge, ye shall also be judged.

Moroni 7:19

Wherefore I beseech of you, brethren, that ye should search diligently in the light of Christ that ye may know good from evil. And if ye will ²lay hold upon every good thing and condemn it not, ye certainly will be a child of Christ.

Moroni 7:20

And now my brethren, how is it possible that ye can lay hold upon every good thing?

Moroni 7:21

And now I come to that faith of which I said I would speak. And I will tell you the way whereby ye may lay hold on every good thing.

Moroni 7:22

For behold, God knowing all things, being from everlasting to everlasting, behold, he sent angels to minister unto the children of men, to make manifest concerning the coming of Christ; and in Christ there should come every good thing.

¹The order of the parts of this verse is a little confusing and obscures the comparison that Mormon is making. You could re-write the second half of this verse in this way to make it clearer: “And the way to judge is as plain as the daylight is from the dark night, that ye may know with a perfect knowledge.” The comparison is important—we’re supposed to learn that the way to judge good from evil is as plain as the daylight is from the “dark night.”

The phrase “dark night” only occurs twice in the scriptures, and the other use is at Proverbs 7:9, discussing a story of a kid visiting a harlot. I’m not sure how relevant that is for understanding this verse in Moroni, but it is interesting that you get “dark night” instead of just “night,” emphasizing the contrast in the judgment you make.

²This discussion of laying hold on every good thing continues a little at (roughly) Moroni 10:18; see also 10:30.

Moroni 7:23

And God also declared unto prophets by his own mouth that Christ should come.

Moroni 7:24

And behold, there were divers ways that he did manifest things unto the children of men which were good; and all things which are good cometh of Christ. Otherwise, men were fallen and there could no good thing come unto them.

Moroni 7:25

Wherefore by the ministering of angels and by every word which proceeded forth out of the mouth of God, men began to exercise faith in Christ. And thus by faith they did lay hold upon every good thing; and thus it was until the coming of Christ.

Moroni 7:26

And after that he came, men also were saved by faith in his name, and by faith they became the sons of God. And assuredly as Christ liveth, he spake these words unto our fathers, saying: Whatsoever thing ye shall ask the Father in my name which is good, in faith believing that ye shall receive, behold, it shall be done unto you.

Moroni 7:27

Wherefore, my beloved brethren, hath miracles ceased because that Christ hath ascended into heaven and hath sit down on the right hand of God, to claim of the Father his rights of mercy which he hath upon the children of men?

Moroni 7:28

For he hath answered the ends of the law, and he claimeth all those that hath faith in him. And they that have faith in him will cleave unto every good thing. Wherefore he advocateth the cause of the children of men, and he dwelleth eternally in the heavens.

Moroni 7:29

And because that he hath done this, my beloved brethren, hath miracles ceased? Behold, I say unto you: Nay. Neither hath angels ceased to minister unto the children of men.

Moroni 7:30

For behold, they are subject unto him, to minister according to the word of his command, shewing themselves unto them of strong faith and a firm mind in every form of godliness.

Moroni 7:31

And the office of their ministry¹ is to call men unto repentance and to fulfill and to do the work of the covenants of the Father which he hath made unto the children of men, to prepare the way among the children of men by declaring the word of Christ unto the chosen vessels of the Lord, that they may bear testimony of him.

Moroni 7:32

And by so doing the Lord God prepareth the way that the residue of men may have faith in Christ, that the Holy Ghost may have place in their hearts according to the power thereof. And after this manner bringeth to pass the Father the covenants which he hath made unto the children of men.

¹See this study. See also Galatians 4:14,

Moroni 7:33

And Christ hath said: If ye will have faith in me, ye shall have power to do whatsoever thing is expedient in me.¹

Moroni 7:34

And he hath said: Repent, all ye ends of the earth, and come unto me and be baptized in my name and have faith in me, that ye may be saved.

Moroni 7:35

And now my beloved brethren, if this be the case that these things are true which I have spoken unto you—and God will shew unto you with power and great glory at the last day that they are true—and if they are true, hath the day of miracles ceased?

Moroni 7:36

Or hath angels ceased to appear unto the children of men? Or hath he withheld the power of the Holy Ghost from them? Or will he so long as time shall last or the earth shall stand or there shall be one man upon the face thereof to be saved?

Moroni 7:37

Behold, I say unto you: Nay. For it is by faith that miracles are wrought. And it is by faith that angels appear and minister unto men. Wherefore if these things have ceased, woe be unto the children of men, for it is because of unbelief; and all is vain, for no man can be saved, according to the words of Christ, save they shall have faith in his name. Wherefore if these things have ceased, then has faith ceased also; and awful is the state of man, for they are as though there had been no redemption made.

Moroni 7:38

Moroni 7:39

But behold, my beloved brethren, I judge better things of you. For I judge that ye have faith in Christ because of your meekness; for if ye have not faith in him, then ye are not fit to be numbered among the people of his church.

Moroni 7:40

And again, my beloved brethren, I would speak unto you concerning hope. How is it that ye can attain unto faith save ye shall have hope?

Moroni 7:41

And what is it that ye shall hope for? Behold, I say unto you that ye shall have hope through the atonement of Christ and the power of his resurrection, to be raised unto life eternal—and this because of your faith in him, according to the promise.

Moroni 7:42

Wherefore if a man have faith, he must needs have hope; for without faith there cannot be any hope.

¹This is one of the most interesting versions of this promise, and it's one that President Opendshaw used to talk about a lot. See also 1 Nephi 7:12, DC 95:11, DC 96:5, 6, 8;

Moroni 7:43

And again, behold, I say unto you that he cannot have faith and hope save he shall be meek and lowly of heart.

Moroni 7:44

If so, his faith and hope is vain, for none is acceptable before God save the meek and lowly of heart. And if a man be meek and lowly in heart and confesses by the power of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, he must needs have charity. For if he have not charity, he is nothing; wherefore he must needs have charity.

Moroni 7:45

And charity suffereth long and is kind and envieth not and is not puffed up, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, and rejoiceth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth, beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

Moroni 7:46

Wherefore, my beloved brethren, if ye have not charity, ye are nothing; for charity never faileth. Wherefore cleave unto charity, which is the greatest of all. For all things must fail; but charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever. And whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with them.

Moroni 7:47

Moroni 7:48

Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart that ye may be filled with this love which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son Jesus Christ,¹ that ye may become the sons of God, that when he shall appear, we shall be like him—for we shall see him as he is—² that we may have this hope, that we may be purified even as he is pure. Amen.

Moroni 8

Moroni 8:1

An epistle of my father Mormon, written to me Moroni; and it was written unto me soon after my calling to the ministry. And on this wise did he write unto me, saying:

Moroni 8:2

My beloved son Moroni, I rejoice exceedingly that your Lord Jesus Christ hath been mindful of you and hath called you to his ministry and to his holy work.

Moroni 8:3

I am mindful of you always in my prayers, continually praying unto God the Father in the name of his Holy Child Jesus that he through his infinite goodness and grace will keep you through the endurance of faith on his name to the end.

¹We are supposed to pray “with all the energy of heart” in order for Heavenly Father to give us this love; the instruction reminds me of Luke 11:13, where we read that the Father will give us the Holy Ghost if we keep asking. The instruction from Matthew and Luke—Αἰτεῖτε, καὶ δοθήσεται ὑμῖν· ζητεῖτε, καὶ εὕρήσετε· κρούετε, καὶ ἀνοίγησεται ὑμῖν—is very relevant here. See also this note.

²Compare DC 130:1.

And now my son, I speak unto you concerning that which grieveth me exceedingly, for it grieveth me that there should disputations rise among you.

Moroni 8:5

For if I have learned the truth, there has been disputations among you concerning the baptism of your little children.

Moroni 8:6

And now my son, I desire that ye should labor diligently that this gross error should be removed from among you, for for this intent I have written this epistle.

Moroni 8:7

For immediately after I had learned these things of you, I inquired of the Lord concerning the matter. And the word of the Lord came to me by the power of the Holy Ghost, saying:

Moroni 8:8

Listen to the words of Christ your Redeemer, your Lord and your God. Behold, I came into the world not to call the righteous but sinners to repentance. The whole need no physician, but they that are sick. Wherefore little children are whole, for they are not capable of committing sin. Wherefore the curse of Adam is taken from them in me, that it hath no power over them. And the law of circumcision is done away in me.

Moroni 8:9

And after this manner did the Holy Ghost manifest the word of God unto me. Wherefore, my beloved son, I know that it is solemn mockery before God that ye should baptize little children.

Moroni 8:10

Behold, I say unto you that this thing shall ye teach: repentance and baptism unto they which are accountable and capable of committing sin. Yea, teach parents that they must repent and be baptized and humble themselves as their little children, and they shall all be saved with their little children.

Moroni 8:11

And their little children need no repentance, neither baptism. Behold, baptism is unto repentance, to the fulfilling the commandments unto the remission of sins.

Moroni 8:12

But little children are alive in Christ, even from the foundation of the world. If not so, God is a partial God, and also a changeable God and a respecter to persons. For how many little children have died without baptism!

Moroni 8:13

Wherefore if little children could not be saved without baptism, these must have gone to an endless hell.

Moroni 8:14

Behold, I say unto you that he that supposeth that little children needeth baptism is in the gall of bitterness and in the bonds of iniquity, for he hath neither faith, hope, nor charity. Wherefore should he be cut off while in the thought, he must go down to hell.

Moroni 8:15

For awful is the wickedness to suppose that God saveth one child because of baptism and the other must perish because he hath no baptism.

Moroni 8:16

Woe be unto him that shall pervert the ways of the Lord after this manner, for they shall perish except they repent. Behold, I speak with boldness, having authority from God. And I fear not what man can do, for perfect love casteth out all fear.

Moroni 8:17

And I am filled with charity, which is everlasting love. Wherefore all children are alike unto me; wherefore I love little children with a perfect love, and they are all alike and partakers of salvation.

Moroni 8:18

For I know that God is not a partial God, neither a changeable being, but he is unchangeable from all eternity to all eternity.

Moroni 8:19

Little children cannot repent. Wherefore it is awful wickedness to deny the pure mercies of God unto them, for they are all alive in him because of his mercy.

Moroni 8:20

And he that saith that little children needeth baptism denieth the mercies of Christ and setteth at naught the atonement of him and the power of his redemption.

Moroni 8:21

Woe unto such, for they are in danger of death, hell, and an endless torment. I speak it boldly; God hath commanded me. Listen unto them and give heed, or they stand against you at the judgment seat of Christ.

Moroni 8:22

For behold that all little children are alive in Christ, and also all they that are without the law, for the power of redemption cometh on all they that have no law. Wherefore he that is not condemned—or he that is under no condemnation—cannot repent, and unto such baptism availeth nothing; but it is mockery before God, denying the mercies of Christ and the power of his Holy Spirit and putting trust in dead works.

Moroni 8:23

Moroni 8:24

Behold, my son, this thing had not ought to be. For repentance is unto them that are under condemnation and under the curse of a broken law.

Moroni 8:25

And the firstfruits of repentance is baptism. And baptism cometh by faith unto the fulfilling the commandments; and the fulfilling the commandments bringeth remission of sins; and the remission of sins bringeth meekness and lowliness of heart. And because of meekness and lowliness of heart cometh the visitation¹ of the Holy Ghost, which Comforter filleth with hope and perfect love, which love endureth by diligence unto prayer until the end shall come, when all the saints shall dwell with God.

Moroni 8:26

Moroni 8:27

Behold, my son, I will write unto you again if I go not out soon against the Lamanites. Behold, the pride of this nation—or the people of the Nephites—hath proved their destruction except they should repent.

Moroni 8:28

Pray for them, my son, that repentance may come unto them. But behold, I fear lest the Spirit hath ceased striving with them. And in this part of the land they are also seeking to put down all power and authority which cometh from God, and they are denying the Holy Ghost.

Moroni 8:29

And after rejecting so great a knowledge, my son, they must perish soon, unto the fulfilling of the prophecies which was spoken by the prophets as well as the words of our Savior himself.

Moroni 8:30

Farewell, my son, until I shall write unto you or shall meet you again. Amen.

Moroni 9

The second epistle of Mormon to his son Moroni.

Moroni 9:1

My beloved son, I write unto you again, that ye may know that I am yet alive, but I write somewhat that which is grievous.

Moroni 9:2

For behold, I have had a sore battle with the Lamanites, in the which we did not conquer. And Archeantus has fallen by the sword, and also Luram and Emron; yea, and we have lost a great number of our choice men.

¹For “visitation,” see 2 Nephi 1:12.

Moroni 9:3

And now behold, my son, I fear lest the Lamanites shall destroy this people, for they do not repent. And Satan stirreth them up continually to anger one with another.

Moroni 9:4

Behold, I am laboring with them continually. And when I speak the word of God with sharpness, they tremble and anger against me. And when I use no sharpness, they harden their hearts against it. Wherefore I fear lest the Spirit of the Lord hath ceased striving with them.

Moroni 9:5

For so exceedingly do they anger that it seemeth me that they have no fear of death. And they have lost their love one towards another; and they thirst after blood and revenge continually.

Moroni 9:6

And now my beloved son, notwithstanding their hardness, let us labor diligently. For if we should cease to labor, we should be brought under condemnation. For we have a labor to perform whilst in this tabernacle of clay, that we may conquer the enemy of all righteousness¹ and rest our souls in the kingdom of God.

Moroni 9:7

And now I write somewhat concerning the sufferings of this people. For according to the knowledge which I have received from Amoron, behold, the Lamanites have many prisoners which they took from the tower of Sherrizah, and there were men, women, and children.

Moroni 9:8

And the husbands and fathers of those women and children they have slain. And they feed the women upon the flesh of their husbands, and the children upon the flesh of their fathers. And no water, save a little, do they give unto them.

Moroni 9:9

And notwithstanding this great abomination of the Lamanites, it doth not exceed that of our people in Moriantum. For behold, many of the daughters of the Lamanites have they taken prisoners. And after depriving them of that which was most dear and precious above all things—which is chastity and virtue—and after that they had done this thing, they did murder them in a most cruel manner, torturing their bodies even unto death. And after that they have done this, they devour their flesh like unto wild beasts because of the hardness of their hearts; and they do it for a token of bravery.

Moroni 9:10

Moroni 9:11

O my beloved son, how can a people like this, that are without civilization

¹See here for other uses of this interesting phrase “enemy of all righteousness.” Of the four total occurrences of this phrase in the BOM, only this one in Moroni 9:6 refers to “the” enemy of all righteousness; the rest are “an.” I think this may be significant—there are many possible enemies of righteousness, but what is the enemy of righteousness, the one that we must ultimately overcome, the only one with any true power over us in the end? It is not Satan, or the devil, or anything like that; it is ourselves. We ourselves are the only real enemy of all righteousness in our own lives; only we stop ourselves from reaching toward and arriving at wherever we want to go in righteousness. Everyone and everything else only has power over us if we choose to give them that power, so the only enemy of all righteousness that concerns us in the end is ourselves.

—and only a few years have passed away and they were a civil and a delightful people—

Moroni 9:13

but O my son, how can a people like this, whose delight is in so much abomination, how can we expect that God will stay his hand in judgment against us?

Moroni 9:14

Moroni 9:15

Behold, my heart cries: Woe unto this people! Come out in judgment, O God, and hide their sins and wickedness and abominations from before thy face!

Moroni 9:16

And again, my son, there are many widows and their daughters which remain in Sherrizah. And that part of the provisions which the Lamanites did not carry away, behold, the army of Zenephi has carried away and left them to wander whithersoever they can for food. And many old women do faint by the way and die.

Moroni 9:17

And the army which is with me is weak. And the armies of the Lamanites are betwixt Sherrizah and me. And as many as have fled to the army of Aaron have fallen victims to their awful brutality.

Moroni 9:18

O the depravity of my people! They are without order and without mercy. Behold, I am but a man, and I have but the strength of a man. And I cannot any longer enforce my commands.

Moroni 9:19

And they have become strong in their perversion. And they are alike brutal, sparing none, neither old nor young. And they delight in every thing save that which is good. And the sufferings of our women and our children upon all the face of this land doth exceed every thing. Yea, tongue cannot tell, neither can it be written.

Moroni 9:20

And now my son, I dwell no longer upon this horrible scene. Behold, thou knowest the wickedness of this people. Thou knowest that they are without principle and past feeling, and their wickedness doth exceed that of the Lamanites.

Moroni 9:21

Behold, my son, I cannot recommend them unto God lest he should smite me.

Moroni 9:22

But behold, my son, I recommend thee unto God. And I trust in Christ that thou wilt be saved. And I pray unto God that he would spare thy life to witness the return of his people unto him or their utter destruction; for I know that they must perish except they repent and return unto him.

Moroni 9:23

And if they perish, it will be like unto the Jaredites, because of the willfulness of their hearts, seeking for blood and revenge.

Moroni 9:24

And if it so be that they perish, we know that many of our brethren have dissented over unto the Lamanites, and many more will also dissent over unto them. Wherefore write somewhat a few things if thou art spared and I should perish and not see thee. But I trust that I may see thee soon, for I have sacred records that I would deliver up unto thee.

Moroni 9:25

My son, be faithful in Christ. And may not the things which I have written grieve thee, to weigh thee down unto death; but may Christ lift thee up. And may his sufferings and death and the shewing his body unto our fathers and his mercy and long-suffering and the hope of his glory and of eternal life rest in your mind forever.

Moroni 9:26

And may the grace of God the Father, whose throne is high in the heavens, and our Lord Jesus Christ, who sitteth on the right hand of his power until all things shall become subject unto him, be and abide with you forever. Amen.

Moroni 10

Moroni 10:1

Now I Moroni write somewhat as seemeth me good. And I write unto my brethren the Lamanites. And I would that they should know that more than four hundred and twenty years has passed away since the sign was given of the coming of Christ.

Moroni 10:2

And I seal up these records after that I have spoken a few words by way of exhortation unto you.

Moroni 10:3

Behold, I would exhort you that when ye shall read these things, if it be wisdom in God that ye should read them, that ye would remember how merciful the Lord hath been unto the children of men from the creation of Adam even down until the time that ye shall receive these things and ponder it in your hearts.

Moroni 10:4

And when ye shall receive these things, I would exhort you that ye would ask God the Eternal Father, in the name of Christ, if these things are not true. And if ye shall ask with a sincere heart, with real intent, having faith in Christ, and he will manifest the truth of it unto you by the power of the Holy Ghost.

Moroni 10:5

And by the power of the Holy Ghost ye may know the truth of all things.

Moroni 10:6

And whatsoever thing is good is just and true. Wherefore nothing that is good denieth the Christ, but acknowledgeth that he is.

Moroni 10:7

And ye may know that he is by the power of the Holy Ghost. Wherefore I would exhort you that ye deny not the power of God, for he worketh by power according to the faith of the children of men, the same today and tomorrow and forever.

Moroni 10:8

And again I exhort you, my brethren, that ye deny not the gifts of God, for they are many and they come from the same God. And there are different ways that these gifts are administered, but it is the same God which worketh all in all. And they are given by the manifestations of the Spirit of God unto men to profit them.

Moroni 10:9

For behold, to one is given by the Spirit of God that he may teach the word of wisdom, and to another that he may teach the word of knowledge by the same Spirit, and to another exceeding great faith, and to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit, and again, to another that he may work mighty miracles,

Moroni 10:10

Moroni 10:11

Moroni 10:12

Moroni 10:13

and again, to another that he may prophesy concerning all things,

Moroni 10:14

and again, to another the beholding of angels and ministering spirits,

Moroni 10:15

and again, to another all kinds of tongues,

Moroni 10:16

and again, to another the interpretation of languages and of divers kinds of tongues.

Moroni 10:17

And all these gifts comes by the Spirit of Christ, and they come unto every man severally according as he will.

Moroni 10:18

And I would exhort you, my beloved brethren, that ye remember that every good gift cometh of Christ.

Moroni 10:19

And I would exhort you, my beloved brethren, that ye remember that he is the same yesterday, today, and forever, and that all these gifts of which I have spoken, which are spiritual, never will be done away even as long as the world shall stand, only according to the unbelief of the children of men.

Moroni 10:20

Wherefore there must be faith; and if there must be faith, there must also be hope; and if there must be hope, there must also be charity.

Moroni 10:21

And except ye have charity, ye can in no wise be saved in the kingdom of God; neither can ye be saved in the kingdom of God if ye have not faith; neither can ye if ye have no hope.

Moroni 10:22

And if ye have no hope, ye must needs be in despair; and despair cometh because of iniquity.

Moroni 10:23

And Christ truly said unto our fathers: If ye have faith, ye can do all things which is expedient unto me.

Moroni 10:24

And now I speak unto all the ends of the earth that if the day cometh that the power and gifts of God shall be done away among you, it shall be because of unbelief.

Moroni 10:25

And woe be unto the children of men if this be the case, for there shall be none that doeth good among you—no, not one—for if there be one among you that doeth good, he shall work by the power and gifts of God.

Moroni 10:26

And woe unto them which shall do these things away and die, for they die in their sins and they cannot be saved in the kingdom of God. And I speak it according to the words of Christ, and I lie not.

Moroni 10:27

And I exhort you to remember these things, for the time speedily cometh that ye shall know that I lie not, for ye shall see me at the bar of God. And the Lord God will say unto you: Did I not declare my words unto you, which was written by this man like as one crying from the dead, yea, even as one speaking out of the dust?

Moroni 10:28

I declare these things unto the fulfilling of the prophecies. And behold, they shall proceed forth out of the mouth of the everlasting God, and his word shall hiss forth from generation to generation.

Moroni 10:29

And God shall shew unto you that that which I have written is true.

Moroni 10:30

And again I would exhort you that ye would come unto Christ and lay hold upon every good gift, and touch not the evil gift nor the unclean thing.

Moroni 10:31

And awake and arise from the dust, O Jerusalem! Yea, and put on thy beautiful garments, O daughter of Zion, and strengthen thy stakes and enlarge thy borders forever, that thou mayest no more be confounded, that the covenants of the Eternal Father which he hath made unto thee, O house of Israel, may be fulfilled.

Moroni 10:32

Yea, come unto Christ and be perfected in him, and deny yourselves of all ungodliness. And if ye shall deny yourselves of all ungodliness and love God with all your might, mind, and strength, then is his grace sufficient for you, that by his grace ye may be perfect in Christ. And if by the grace of God ye are perfect in Christ, ye can in no wise deny the power of God.

Moroni 10:33

And again, if ye by the grace of God are perfect in Christ and deny not his power, then are ye sanctified in Christ by the grace of God through the shedding of the blood of Christ, which is in the covenant of the Father, unto the remission of your sins, that ye become holy, without spot.

Moroni 10:34

And now I bid unto all farewell. I soon go to rest in the paradise of God until my spirit and body shall again reunite and I am brought forth triumphant through the air to meet you before the pleading bar of the great Jehovah, the Eternal Judge of both quick and dead. Amen.

DOCTRINE AND COVENANTS

Section 1 (1 November 1831)

Relation to section 67

Section 1 was given at the same conference during which JS received section 67.

Historical Background

JSP D2

“At a conference of elders in Hiram, Ohio, on 1 November 1831, JS dictated a revelation designated as a preface for the Book of Commandments, a proposed compilation of JS’s revelations. According to the minutes of the 1 November conference, this revelatory preface was ‘received by inspiration’ during a recess between the morning and afternoon sessions. William E. McLellin, one of the conference participants, gave a more detailed account of the production of the preface fifty years later to William Kelley, an elder in the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. According to Kelley’s account of the conversation, McLellin said that he, Sidney Rigdon, and Oliver Cowdery had been given the assignment to write the preface to the Book of Commandments, but when they presented their draft to the conference, the ‘Conference picked it all to pieces’ and requested that JS petition the Lord for a preface. After JS and the elders bowed in prayer, JS, who was ‘sitting by a window,’ dictated the preface ‘by the Spirit,’ while Rigdon served as scribe. ‘Joseph would deliver a few sentences and Sydney would write them down,’ McLellin told Kelley, ‘then read them aloud, and if correct, then Joseph would proceed and deliver more.’ In this way, ‘the preface was given.’¹

“As with prefaces to other published works, this revelation informed readers of the subject and purpose of the volume. Speaking in the voice of Deity, it told both the church and the world why God revealed these commandments to JS and painted an apocalyptic picture of the wrath that God would unleash against the wicked unless they responded to the new revelations by repenting. The revelations were thus a ‘voice of warning’ to the world to prepare them for Jesus Christ’s second coming.

“The original manuscript of the preface is no longer extant. John Whitmer copied the revelation into Revelation Book 1 likely between 12 November 1831, the date of the revelation that precedes it in the revelation book, and 20 November, the date that he and Cowdery left for Missouri with the revelation book. The revelation was printed as the preface to the Book of Commandments about a year later” (JSP D2:103–104).

Far West Record

“Br Sidney Rigdon appointed moderator & Oliver Cowdery Clerk br Oliver Cowdery made a request desiring the mind of the Lord through this conference of Elders to know how many copies of the Book of commandments it was the will of the Lord should be published in the first edition of that work. Voted that there be ten thousand ~~struck~~ copies struck. ...

“Preface received by inspiration...

“Br. Joseph Smith jr. said that inasmuch as the Lord had bestowed a great blessing upon us in giving commandments and revelations, asked the conference what testimony they were willing to attach to these commandments which should shortly be sent to the world. A number of the brethren arose and said, that they were willing to testify to the world that they knew that they were of the Lord.

“Revelation received relative to the same...

“The Revelation of last evening read by the moderator the brethren then arose in turn and bore witness to the truth of the Book of Commandments. After which br. Joseph Smith jr. arose & expressed his feelings & gratitude concerning the commandment & Preface recieved yesterday...(Far West Record, 15–16).

¹See below for the source for this account from McLellin and Kelley.

Letter From Elder W. H. Kelley (Saints' Herald)

"In August last I left home to attend the Semi-Annual Conference, appointed to convene near Council Bluffs, Iowa...In Chicago I was joined by our excellent brother, George A. Blakeslee...

"In company with Bro. Warnky and Dr. Wm. E. McLellin, we visited the temple lot' lying west of the [Independence] Court House. The doctor was able to point of the identical spot where Joseph stood when he first visited it, and which is the place of the corner stone....I gleaned from him and the records in his possession, the following items: He was present when the preface to the Book of Commandments was given, and says that Sidney Rigdon wrote it down as it was dictated by Joseph. A committee had been appointed to draft a preface, consisting of himself, O. Cowdery and, I think, Sidney Rigdon, but when they made their report, the 'Conference picked it all to pieces.' The Conference then requested Joseph to enquire of the Lord about it, and he said that he would if the people would bow in prayer with him. This they did and Joseph prayed.

"When they arose, Joseph dictated by the Spirit the preface found in the Book of Doctrine and Covenants while sitting by a window of the room in which the conference was sitting; and Sidney Rigdon wrote it down. Joseph would deliver a few sentences and Sidney would write them down, then read them aloud, and if correct, then Joseph would proceed and deliver more, and by this process the preface was given.

"In reply to the question, 'did Joseph seem to be inspired at the time? that is, did any thing of unusual character appear to be moving him?' he said, 'There was something a hold of him'..." (Saints' Herald, 1 March 1882).¹

¹The “fear and tremble” combination is common both in the OT/NT and in the BOM.

²We ourselves become the standard against which we are judged, in a way. It reminds me of Plato, quoting Protagoras, in the Theaetetus: “Man is the measure of all things: of the things which are, that they are, and of the things which are not, that they are not” (152a). The most important scriptural connection here is Matthew 7:2 (see also Mark 4:24 and Luke 6:38).

³The “bathed in heaven” part, and the bit about the sword falling, is a reference to Isaiah 34:5.

Section 1:14

And the arm of the Lord shall be revealed; and the day cometh that they who will not hear the voice of the Lord, neither the voice of his servants, neither give heed to the words of the prophets and apostles, shall be cut off from among the people;

Section 1:15

For they have strayed from mine ordinances, and have broken mine everlasting covenant;¹

Section 1:16

They seek not the Lord to establish his righteousness, but every man walketh in his own way, and after the image of his own god, whose image is in the likeness of the world, and whose substance is that of an idol, which waxeth old and shall perish in Babylon, even Babylon the great, which shall fall.

Section 1:17

Wherefore, I the Lord, knowing the calamity which should come upon the inhabitants of the earth, called upon my servant Joseph Smith, Jun., and spake unto him from heaven, and gave him commandments;

Section 1:18

And also gave commandments to others, that they should proclaim these things unto the world; and all this that it might be fulfilled, which was written by the prophets—

Section 1:19

The weak things of the world shall come forth and break down the mighty and strong ones, that man should not counsel his fellow man, neither trust in the arm of flesh—

Section 1:20

But that every man might speak in the name of God the Lord, even the Savior of the world;

Section 1:21

That faith also might increase in the earth;

Section 1:22

That mine everlasting covenant might be established;

Section 1:23

That the fulness of my gospel might be proclaimed by the weak and the simple unto the ends of the world, and before kings and rulers.

¹The language here seems to come from Isaiah 24:5, where people have “transgressed the laws” and “changed the ordinance” and “broken the everlasting covenant.” “Everlasting covenant” appears 35 times in the scriptures (see occurrences here); 14 in the OT, 1 in the NT (Hebrews 13:20), and 20 in the DC. It appears in significant places in the OT as well, including when God makes a covenant with Noah, when God makes a covenant with Abraham, and so on.

Section 1:29

And after having received the record of the Nephites, yea, even my servant Joseph Smith, Jun., might have power to translate through the mercy of God, by the power of God, the Book of Mormon.

Section 1:30

And also those to whom these commandments were given, might have power to lay the foundation of this church, and to bring it forth out of obscurity and out of darkness, the only true and living church upon the face of the whole earth, with which I, the Lord, am well pleased, speaking unto the church collectively and not individually—

Section 1:31

For I the Lord cannot look upon sin with the least degree of allowance;⁴

¹The BOM has many uses of the word “weakness” which are relevant here, I think; Nephi uses the term several times in talking about what he is writing, for example. We can make the connection to JS—as a servant he had this “weakness,” which we should expect to result in an imperfect process of communication with God.

²This part of the verse is very close to 2 Nephi 31:3.

³Actually reaching a level of understanding is key; see DC 68:25 for example.

Section 1:33

Section 1:34

Section 1:35

For I am no respecter of persons,² and will that all men shall know that the day speedily cometh; the hour is not yet, but is nigh at hand, when peace shall be taken from the earth, and the devil shall have power over his own dominion.

¹In my mind the central place for this idea is 2 Nephi 28:30, though the principle there is a little different (or maybe more general—there are many ways of saying “we’ve had enough,” and unrighteousness is just one of them) from the one here.

²This is a construction that actually appears in both the OT and NT; it’s a very ancient idea. For example, see Deuteronomy 1:17 and 16:19, 2 Samuel 14:14 (this one specifically mentions God), Acts 10:34, Romans 2:11, 1 Peter 1:17, and so on.

³I read this injunction as being like John 5:39, where the imperative verb is a form of ἐραυνάω. Not just look through them—examine, investigate, seek knowledge of.

⁴See DC 68:34, given at the same conference as this section.

⁵Check out meaning #6 for “excuse” from the 1828 dictionary: “to throw off an imputation by apology.”

⁶See Matthew 24:35 and notes there.

⁷I think I used to take this verse as saying that it didn’t matter whether it was the servants of God speaking, or God himself, it’s the same thing. I don’t think it actually says that, though. At least, the “whether by mine own voice” part at the end seems to fall just within the scope of the fulfillment of God’s word spoken about immediately before that. It doesn’t seem like it’s supposed to have a more general scope than that.

Section 1:39

Section 2 (1838/21 September 1823)

Historical Background

Section 2 is an extract from JS's personal history, and was composed in 1838. There is no record contemporaneous to this event which states what Moroni said, or how he quoted these scriptures.

Here is a more complete extract from volume 1-A of the history:

After telling me these things he commenced quoting the prophecies of the Old testament, he first quoted part of the third chapter of Malachi and he quoted also the fourth or last chapter of the same prophecy though with a little variation from the way it reads in our Bibles. Instead of quoting the first verse as reads in our books he quoted it thus, "For behold the day cometh that shall burn as an oven, and all the proud <yea> and all that do wickedly shall burn as stubble, for <they day> that cometh shall burn them saith the Lord of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch." And again he quoted the fifth verse thus, "Behold I will reveal unto you the Priesthood by the hand of Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord." He also quoted the next verse differently, "And he shall plant in the hearts of the Children the promises made to the fathers, and the hearts of the children shall turn to their fathers, if it were not so the whole earth would be utterly wasted at his coming."

HDDC

"Section 2 was not published as part of the D&C until 1876 when Elder Orson Pratt, under the direction of President Brigham Young, included it in that edition...

"Since Moroni's visit to Joseph Smith is part of the Prophet's history, Section 2 was widely published in early periodicals of the Church...the earliest one is found in the Manuscript History of the Church, which is the complete hand-written history of the Prophet" (126–127).

Section 3 (July 1828)

Historical Background

JSP

“This is the first JS revelation for which a text has survived. According to JS’s history, it was obtained using the Urim and Thummim after Martin Harris lost the earliest Book of Mormon manuscript. Working in Harmony, Pennsylvania, from mid-April to mid-June 1828, JS dictated and Harris wrote what JS later called ‘the Book of Lehi,’ translated from the gold plates. Facing ongoing opposition from his wife, Harris pressed JS to ‘enquire of the Lord through the Urim and Thummin’ whether Harris could take the translation to his home in Palmyra, New York, to ‘read to his friends that peradventur he might convince them of the truth.’ JS’s history said that he ‘inquired of the Lord and the Lord said unto me that he [Harris] must not take’ the manuscript. Dissatisfied with the answer, Harris made a second request, resulting in a similar inquiry and answer. Finally, ‘after much solicitation’ from Harris, JS ‘again enquired of the Lord, and permission was granted him [Harris] to have the writings on certain conditions,’ which included showing them only to specified family members.

“With the manuscript in hand, Harris left for New York, apparently on 14 June. On 15 June, Emma Smith gave birth to a son who was either stillborn or died shortly after birth. For nearly three weeks JS cared for Emma, who in Lucy Mack Smith’s words felt ‘to tremble upon the verge of the silent home of her infant.’ As Emma began to recover in early July, she encouraged JS to ‘repair to Palmira, for the purpose of learning the cause of Mr. Harris absence, as well as silence.’ Shortly after JS arrived at his parents’ home near Palmyra, he learned that Harris had lost the manuscript. Lucy Mack Smith wrote that ‘sobs and groans...filled the house,’ with JS ‘weeping and grieving like a tender infant.’ He and his family soon ‘parted with heavy hearts,’ and JS returned to Pennsylvania.

¹Both the 1835 and 1844 DC insert a large heading over this section that reads, “ON PRIESTHOOD AND CALLING.”

²All of these statements here suggest that the Lord takes the most efficient route to accomplish something. From our perspective, his route might look really circuitous, but that will only be because we don’t see all the factors that go into his decision. Human factors, among others, affect what the most efficient route is for God.

³For more on the phrase “one eternal round,” see here.

⁴For here and below, “set at naught” is glossed in the 1828 dictionary as “to slight, to disregard or despise.” The phrase also appears at Proverbs 1:25, 1 Nephi 19:7 (twice), and Helaman 12:6, besides three times in this section of the DC. The verse in Helaman is particularly helpful here: “Notwithstanding his great goodness and his mercy towards them, they do set at naught his counsels and they will not that he should be their guide.” People who “set at naught” the counsel do not want the Lord to be their guide; they want to do things on their own, or follow after their own way (Harris “depended upon his own judgment and boasted in his own wisdom,” which directly violates the principle given in this verse). Another very helpful example comes from this section of the DC, where the phrase appears three times (here, verse 7, and verse 13). The Lord says that Martin Harris did this, so we can look to his actions for another example. It’s also possible that JS did it as well, since, according to the story, he received a “no” answer twice before receiving the “yes.” This story helps us understand why the heading “ON PRIESTHOOD AND CALLING” was included in early versions of the DC.

When I think of “setting at naught the counsel,” I also think of what that guy said at BYU so many years ago, about how, if you want to be successful, you need to study righteousness.

Earlier in the section, in verse 6, the Lord does tell JS that he has transgressed the “laws of God.” It also makes me think about how we can see JS’s translation as an exercise of priesthood power in the broad sense, the one outlined by BY.

Section 4 (February 1829)

Historical Background

JSP

“JS dictated this revelation for his father, Joseph Smith Sr., one of his earliest and staunchest supporters. When John Whitmer copied this text into Revelation Book 1, he included this heading: ‘A Revelation to Joseph the Father of the Seer he desired to know what the Lord had for him to do & this is what he Received as follows.’ Revelation Book 1 initially gave the date of 1828. An unidentified scribe wrote a ‘9’ over the ‘8,’ thus changing the date from 1828 to 1829, apparently correcting a scribal error. The index to Revelation Book 1 also lists 1829 as the date of the revelation. Sidney Rigdon, likely in late 1831, added ‘Feb¹’ to the heading in Revelation Book 1 to further specify the date. The copy featured below is a more complete and probably an earlier version than that inscribed in Revelation Book 1, which is missing the page that includes the final portion of this revelation. The version below is in the handwriting of Edward Partridge and was kept by him. Partridge dated the document to 1829, a date also used in JS’s history.

“Joseph Knight Sr., another early supporter of JS, wrote that Joseph Sr. and Samuel Smith stopped at his home in Colesville, New York, in January 1829 before going on to visit JS and Emma Smith. ‘I told him [Joseph Smith Sr.] they had traveled far enough,’ Knight wrote, ‘[and] I would go with my sley and take them Down [to Harmony] to morrow[.] I went Down and found them well and the[y] were glad to see us[.] we conversed about many things. in the morning I gave the old man a half a Dollar and Joseph a little money to Buoy [buy] paper to translate.’ JS had apparently not translated since June 1828, and Knight’s provision of paper may have allowed him to resume translation. Within weeks of Knight’s visit, JS began translating again, with Emma, Samuel, and Martin Harris each acting briefly as scribe.

“Dictated shortly before the translation work resumed, this revelation spoke of a ‘marvelous work’ about to come forth and added that the ‘field is white already to harvest.’ These phrases, also used in several JS revelations in the spring of 1829, invoked a sense of urgency and an impending spiritual harvest. Though addressed to Joseph Smith Sr., this revelation was written as if it could apply to all who read it.

“The degree to which Joseph Smith Sr. acted upon this revelation is unknown, but his call ‘to the work’ may have had a significant immediate impact when he returned to Palmyra, New York, where Oliver Cowdery was boarding at his house. Joseph Sr. and Lucy Mack Smith had met Cowdery when he began teaching school in the Manchester, New York, district late in the fall of 1828. Lucy wrote that although Cowdery had questioned Joseph Sr. about the gold plates, he ‘did not succeed in eliciting any information’ for ‘a long time.’ This revelation may have prompted Joseph Sr. to share a ‘sketch of the facts which related to the plates’ with Cowdery, who became convinced that he had been called by God to assist JS as his scribe” (D1:10–13).

¹This combination of four things only appears two other times in the scriptures—at DC 59:5 and DC 98:47. There is a bit of biblical precursor at Mark 12:30 and Luke 10:27.

See also DC 64:22 and 34;

²The way this is given here, it's given as a general principle, not restricted to people who are involved in a restoration faith. I think you see this born out among other people who have desires to serve God and so feel "called" to the work. Compare DC 6:4, which says that those who are already working are "called of God."

³See DC 61:33–34.

⁴Note that "charity" and "love" are mentioned separately here. This is pretty unusual—"charity" is just identified with "love" elsewhere, including 2 Nephi 26:30, Ether 12:34, Moroni 7:47, and Moroni 8:17. You do get the pair occurring together (and not identified with each other) again at DC 12:8, which is dated to May 1829. You might think of "love" here as φιλία, though that word only occurs a single time in the NT, at James 4:4. Of course that word is very important outside the NT.

⁵Here is "qualify" in the 1828 dictionary:

- 1 To fit for any place, office, occupation or character; to furnish with the knowledge, skill or other accomplishment necessary for a purpose.
- 2 To make capable of any employment or privilege; to furnish with legal power or capacity.
- 3 To abate; to soften; to diminish.
- 4 To ease; to assuage.
- 5 To modify; to restrain; to limit by exceptions.
- 6 To modify; to regulate; to vary.

So the first two definitions are the ones you want, I think.

⁶If you go with "constitute," which is a bit unusual here, you might go with meaning #3 from the 1828, "To appoint, depute or elect to an office or employment; to make and empower."

⁷Compare 2 Peter 1:4–8.

Section 4:7

Ask, and ye shall receive; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. Amen.

Important note regarding the original text

There are very many important differences between the oldest manuscript available for this revelation, as given in the JSP, and the published version that we use now. Beware.

Historical Background

JSP

“This revelation, which promised Martin Harris he would see the gold plates if he humbled himself, was ‘given to Joseph and Martin, in Harmony, Pennsylvania, March, 1829.’ JS had last seen Harris in the summer of 1828 when he traveled to New York and found that Harris had lost the portion of the translation later referred to as ‘the Book of Lehi.’ JS returned to Harmony disheartened and without Harris, his scribe. He did not ‘go immediately to translating, but went to laboring’ on the small farm he had purchased from his father-in-law, Isaac Hale. There is no indication that JS and Harris met again until March 1829, when Harris traveled to Harmony to see him.

“Addressing Harris’s concerns, the revelation spoke of his desiring ‘a witness that my Servant Joseph hath got the things which he hath testified,’ but stated that JS could not show them to anyone. Harris was then told that God would show the plates to three witnesses who would publicly testify of what they saw, and he was promised he would be one of those witnesses, ‘if he will go out & bow down before me & humble himself in mighty prayer & faith in the sincerity of his heart.’ The revelation also warned JS that ‘there are many that lie in wait to destroy thee,’ perhaps an allusion to those preparing a lawsuit against JS, and declared that ‘the Swoard of Justice’ hung above the people of that generation and that if they would ‘persist in the hardness of ther hearts the time cometh that it must fall upon them.’ The revelation asserted that the book’s authenticity would be evidenced primarily by its message, not by the plates. If the people would not believe the translation, they also would not believe even if JS ‘could show them all things.’

“Though Harris was not allowed to view the plates during his March 1829 visit to Harmony, the revelation allayed his doubts. William S. Sayre, a fellow traveler with Harris on the stagecoach back to Palmyra, recalled that one of the other passengers ‘did not believe that Joe [JS] was capable of composing any thing, but that Joe’s father was a man of some education & cunning & shr[e]wd...& was duping others through Joe, & that they were cheating’ Harris out of his money. Harris, however, told his fellow passengers that JS ‘had found a gold bible & stone in which he look’d & was thereby enabled to translate the very ancient chara[c]ters.’ He further explained that JS had ‘read to him a good deal of the bible & he [Harris] repeated to those in the stage verse after verse of what Smith had read to him.’ Harris also defended JS at the hearing in Lyons, New York. Although no contemporary account of this trial has been located, Lucy Mack Smith remembered a report that three witnesses each claimed JS had admitted to fabricating the story of the plates to deceive Martin Harris. But Harris, taking the stand, testified that JS had not defrauded him and that Harris had put only ‘$50 into his hands...for the purpose of doing the work of the Lord.’

“Isaac Hale reported that he saw JS and Harris comparing two manuscript copies of this revelation shortly after it was dictated. Though it is unknown what happened to those copies, this text is the earliest extant copy of any of JS’s revelations. Oliver Cowdery possibly created it in April 1829, copying from an earlier manuscript. Another early version of this revelation was copied into Revelation Book 1, but the pages that contained it are missing. The editors of the 1833 Book of Commandments used Revelation Book 1 as their source, but it is unknown what editing to this revelation was done prior to its publication. The differences between the text featured here and the version in the Book of Commandments demonstrate that Revelation Book 1 may not consistently represent the earliest text of JS's revelations."¹

¹Emphasis added.

²It's interesting that this "agreement" between Joseph Smith and the Lord is called a "covenant" here; it looks more like the Lord is just commanding him to do it, and JS is agreeing.

³Hard to say what the NT parallel is for this use of "gift"; John 4:10 maybe? There it's δῶρεά. There's also uses of "the gift of the Holy Ghost," like at Acts 10:45, also δῶρεά there. That word also appears in discussions in Romans 5.

Historical Background

JSP

Section 6:1

A GREAT and marvelous work¹ is about to come forth unto the children of men.

Section 6:2

Behold, I am God; give heed unto my word, which is quick and powerful,² sharper than a two-edged sword, to the dividing asunder of both joints and marrow; therefore give heed unto my words.

Section 6:3

Behold, the field is white already to harvest; therefore, whoso desireth to reap, let him thrust in his sickle with his might, and reap while the day lasts, that he may treasure up for his soul everlasting salvation in the kingdom of God.

Section 6:4

Yea, whosoever will thrust in his sickle and reap, the same is called of God.³

Section 6:5

Therefore, if you will ask of me you shall receive; if you will knock it shall be opened unto you.⁴

Section 6:6

Now, as you have asked, behold, I say unto you, keep my commandments, and seek to bring forth and establish the cause of Zion;

Section 6:7

Seek not for riches but for wisdom,⁵ and behold, the mysteries of God shall be unfolded unto you, and then shall you be made rich. Behold, he that hath eternal life is rich.

Section 6:8

Verily, verily, I say unto you, even as you desire of me so it shall be unto you; and if you desire, you shall be the means of doing much good in this generation.

Section 6:9

Say nothing but repentance unto this generation; keep my commandments, and assist to bring forth my work, according to my commandments, and you shall be blessed.

¹See note at DC 76:2.

²The biblical location for this stuff about the word being “quick” and “powerful” is Hebrews 4:12. Note that the “quick” in Greek is a participle of ζῶ. It does not mean “fast,” it means “living.”

³Compare DC 4:3; the principle is a little different here.

⁴See Matthew 7:7.

Section 6:10

Behold thou hast a gift, and blessed art thou because of thy gift. Remember it is sacred and cometh from above—

Section 6:11

And if thou wilt inquire, thou shalt know mysteries which are great and marvelous; therefore thou shalt exercise thy gift, that thou mayest find out mysteries, that thou mayest bring many to the knowledge of the truth, yea, convince them of the error of their ways.

Section 6:12

Make not thy gift known unto any save it be those who are of thy faith. Trifle not¹ with sacred things.

Section 6:13

If thou wilt do good, yea, and hold out faithful to the end, thou shalt be saved in the kingdom of God, which is the greatest of all the gifts of God; for there is no gift greater than the gift of salvation.²

Section 6:14

Verily, verily, I say unto thee, blessed art thou for what thou hast done; for thou hast inquired of me, and behold, as often as thou hast inquired thou hast received instruction of my Spirit.³ If it had not been so, thou wouldst not have come to the place where thou art at this time.

Section 6:15

Behold, thou knowest that thou hast inquired of me and I did enlighten thy mind; and now I tell thee these things that thou mayest know that thou hast been enlightened by the Spirit of truth;

Section 6:16

Yea, I tell thee, that thou mayest know that there is none else save God that knowest thy thoughts and the intents of thy heart.

Section 6:17

I tell thee these things as a witness unto thee—that the words or the work which thou hast been writing are true.

Section 6:18

Therefore be diligent; stand by my servant Joseph, faithfully, in whatsoever difficult circumstances he may be for the word's sake.

¹For “trifle,” see DC 32:5 and notes there.

²Compare DC 14:7.

³This is a good example of being in the flow of the Spirit—whenever Oliver asked, he received the next bit of instruction, and was led step by step to the place where he needed to be. This is a good model for our own lives: receiving instruction step by step to eventually get us to the place where we need to do our most important work. Makes me think of DC 84:44.

Section 6:19

Admonish him in his faults, and also receive admonition of him. Be patient; be sober; be temperate; have patience, faith, hope and charity.

Section 6:20

Behold, thou art Oliver, and I have spoken unto thee because of thy desires; therefore treasure up these words in thy heart. Be faithful and diligent in keeping the commandments of God, and I will encircle¹ thee in the arms of my love.

Section 6:21

Behold, I am Jesus Christ, the Son of God. I am the same that came unto mine own, and mine own received me not. I am the light which shineth in darkness, and the darkness comprehendeth it not.

Section 6:22

Verily, verily, I say unto you, if you desire a further witness, cast your mind upon the night that you cried unto me in your heart, that you might know concerning the truth of these things.

Section 6:23

Did I not speak peace to your mind concerning the matter? What greater witness can you have than from God?

Section 6:24

And now, behold, you have received a witness; for if I have told you things which no man knoweth have you not received a witness?

Section 6:25

And, behold, I grant unto you a gift, if you desire of me, to translate, even as my servant Joseph.

Section 6:26

Verily, verily, I say unto you, that there are records which contain much of my gospel, which have been kept back because of the wickedness of the people;

Section 6:27

And now I command you, that if you have good desires—a desire to lay up treasures for yourself in heaven—then shall you assist in bringing to light, with your gift, those parts of my scriptures which have been hidden because of iniquity.

Section 6:28

And now, behold, I give unto you, and also unto my servant Joseph, the keys of this gift, which shall bring to light this ministry; and in the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

¹This word appears 26 times in the BOM, but this is its only occurrence outside of the BOM. It isn't in the Bible.

Section 6:29

Verily, verily, I say unto you, if they reject my words, and this part of my gospel and ministry, blessed are ye, for they can do no more unto you than unto me.

Section 6:30

And even if they do unto you even as they have done unto me, blessed are ye, for you shall dwell with me in glory.

Section 6:31

But if they reject not my words, which shall be established by the testimony which shall be given, blessed are they, and then shall ye have joy in the fruit of your labors.

Section 6:32

Verily, verily, I say unto you, as I said unto my disciples, where two or three are gathered together in my name, as touching one thing, behold, there will I be in the midst of them¹—even so am I in the midst of you.

Section 6:33

Fear not to do good, my sons, for whatsoever ye sow, that shall ye also reap; therefore, if ye sow good ye shall also reap good for your reward.

Section 6:34

Therefore, fear not, little flock; do good; let earth and hell combine against you, for if ye are built upon my rock, they cannot prevail.

Section 6:35

Behold, I do not condemn you; go your ways and sin no more; perform with soberness the work which I have commanded you.

Section 6:36

Look unto me in every thought; doubt not, fear not.

Section 6:37

Behold the wounds which pierced my side, and also the prints of the nails in my hands and feet;² be faithful, keep my commandments, and ye shall inherit the kingdom of heaven. Amen.

¹See Matthew 18:20.

²Why is Christ telling Cowdery to “behold” these things? Is he having a vision of the Lord? In the BC version, verses 34–37 all make up paragraph 16, so maybe we should take the “behold” instruction here as related to the instruction in verse 36 to “look unto me in every thought”—so “behold” would be more like “keep in mind, remember the Atonement.”

Section 7 (April 1829)

Historical Background

Commentary on this document as a “translation”

HDDC says that the manuscript versions of this item do not describe it as a “translation”; they instead describe it as a “revelation.” This is true for the account in the JSP, which comes from Revelation Book 1, but HDDC (page 177) also mentions two other manuscript versions of this section, both of which (apparently) describe it as a “revelation.” I haven’t yet been able to get access to these manuscript versions, but I will email the CHL sometime about it.

The important thing here is that, as far as I can tell based on the evidence I have seen, this document was called a “translation” for the first time in the BC version in 1833; before that, if they called it a “translation,” no one had made a note of that.

Although, if you see DC 8 as coming before this revelation, then there is stuff in 8 (including in the original version) that could be some slight evidence that they were thinking about section 7 as a translation from the beginning. In 8 I’m thinking of verse 11 in particular.

JSP

“In April 1829, JS dictated the following revelation, which in its first publication was described as the translation of an ancient parchment written by the apostle John.¹ Ancient writings besides the Book of Mormon began to interest JS and Oliver Cowdery not long after they started their translation of the gold plates. The Book of Mormon manuscript itself mentioned several ancient texts, and additionally, JS had dictated a revelation promising Cowdery the privilege, if he so desired, of translating ‘records which contain much of my gospel, which have been kept back because of the wickedness of the people.’ Then, as JS and Cowdery continued the Book of Mormon translation, a ‘difference of opinion’ arose between them regarding a question left unanswered in the New Testament: whether ‘John the Apostle...died, or whether he continued’ on earth until the second coming of Christ. The source of this disagreement was the final chapter of the Gospel of John, in which Jesus prophesied of the apostle Peter’s death. When Peter asked what would happen to his fellow apostle John, Jesus responded, ‘If I will that he should tarry till I come, what is that to thee?’⁵ Questions about the fate of John were common in JS’s time. For example, Adam Clarke, a noted Bible commentator, wrote, ‘For nearly eighteen hundred years, the greatest men in the world have been puzzled with this passage [John 21:22].’ JS and Cowdery’s discussion of this issue possibly arose when they encountered a passage in the translation of the plates describing the biblical prophet Moses and the Book of Mormon prophet Alma as having been ‘taken up by the spirit, or buried by the hand of the Lord.’

“JS’s history reports that he and Cowdery ‘mutually agreed to settle it [their question] by the Urim and Thummin, and the following is the word which we received.’ As noted, this revelation was said to be ‘translated from parchment, written and hid up’ by John himself, and the text begins in the first person, with John stating, ‘And the Lord said unto me,’ followed by an account in which Jesus declares the respective fates of John and Peter.”

HDDC

“The Times and Seasons is the earliest account that indicates this revelation was a translation of an ancient parchment.² Joseph Smith was the editor of the Times and Seasons when this revelation was published as part of his history; therefore, this additional item concerning the revelation is an authentic description of its origin. The earlier versions, all manuscripts, contain no mention of the parchment” (176).

¹In the BC version, the end of the heading to this section reads, “Translated from parchment, written and hid up by himself” (meaning by John). HDDC makes a somewhat glaring error about this, which is pretty surprising—on 176 it says “the Times and Seasons is the earliest account that indicates this revelation was a translation of an ancient parchment.” But this is obviously wrong, because the BC version says it, and so does the 1835 DC.

²Note that this part about the “power over death” is not in the manuscript version nor in the BC. It apparently first appears in the 1835 DC. So you have to think, what happens between 1833 and 1835 such that JS would include something about the “over death” part in particular? Not sure how relevant it is, but Oliver Cowdery gave a blessing to Parley Pratt, when Pratt was being ordained one of the twelve by Cowdery, JS, and David Whitmer, on 21 February 1835, which includes the remark, “Let sickness and death have no power over him.”

Historical Background

JSP

“As JS dictated the translation of the Book of Mormon to Cowdery, even the words that Cowdery recorded described the gift of translation. Soon after translation work began, JS dictated several passages describing other ancient records and the divine means of translating them. A king by the name of Limhi, for example, told a man named Ammon that he possessed ‘twenty-four plates...filled with engravings’ that he could not decipher, nor did he know anyone who could. Ammon told Limhi that he knew of a man who could translate the plates: ‘for he hath wherewith that he can look, and translate all records that are of ancient date; and it is a gift from God. And the things are called interpreters....And whosoever is commanded to look in them, the same is called seer[,]...a revelator, and a prophet.’⁴

contemporaries, Cowdery probably used divining rods to find water or minerals,¹ and though this gift may have been a ‘thing of Nature,’ the revelation confirmed it was also a gift from God.²

“According to Revelation Book 1, JS dictated four revelations in April 1829, all of them associated with translation. While these texts have a closely related historical context, the precise order of their dictation is unknown. One of the four, a revelation that declared itself the translation of an ancient Johannine parchment, was arranged before this revelation in the Book of Commandments and in all editions of the Doctrine and Covenants. JS’s history follows the order of the Doctrine and Covenants by suggesting that the translation of the parchment may have come before this second revelation to Cowdery. Nevertheless, John Whitmer’s ordering in Revelation Book 1, the earliest extant compilation of revelations, places the revelation featured here before the parchment. In the absence of more definitive information, Whitmer’s ordering is followed here [in the JSP].”³

¹Very interesting to think about the possible meanings of “spirit” in this phrase; see commentary on the phrase “spirit of revelation” here.

²Commentary from Jeffrey Holland, 2 March 1999, in the “Cast Not Away Therefore Your Confidence” talk at BYU (more of the talk is relevant too, but this is a good selection): “Face your doubts. Master your fears. “Cast not away therefore your confidence.” Stay the course and see the beauty of life unfold for you. To help us make our way through these experiences, these important junctures in our lives, let me draw from another scriptural reference to Moses. It was given in the early days of this dispensation when revelation was needed, when a true course was being set and had to be continued. Virtually everyone in the room knows the formula for revelation given in section 9 of the Doctrine and Covenants—you know, the verses about studying it out in your mind and the Lord promising to confirm or deny. What most of us don’t read in conjunction with this is the section that precedes it—section 8. In that revelation the Lord defined revelation: I will tell you in your mind and in your heart, by the Holy Ghost, which shall come upon you and which shall dwell in your heart. [I love the combination there of both mind and heart. God will teach us in a reasonable way and in a revelatory way—mind and heart combined, by the Holy Ghost.] Now, behold, this is the spirit of revelation; behold, this is the spirit by which Moses brought the children of Israel through the Red Sea on dry ground. [D&C 8:2–3; emphasis added] Question: Why would the Lord use the example of crossing the Red Sea as the classic example of “the spirit of revelation”? Why didn’t he use the First Vision? Or the example from the book of Moses we just used? Or the vision of the brother of Jared? Well, he could have used any of these, but he didn’t. Here he had another purpose in mind. Usually we think of revelation as information. Just open the books to us, Lord, like: What was the political significance of the Louisiana Purchase or the essence of the second law of thermodynamics? It is obvious that when you see those kinds of questions on a test paper, you need revelation. Someone said prayer will never be eliminated from the schools so long as there are final examinations. But aside from the fact that you probably aren’t going to get that kind of revelation—because in this Church we do not believe in ex nihilo creation, especially in exams—this is too narrow a concept of revelation. May I suggest how section 8 broadens our understanding of section 9, particularly in light of these “fights of affliction” that Paul spoke of and that I have been discussing. First of all, revelation almost always comes in response to a question, usually an urgent question—not always, but usually. In that sense it does provide information, but it is urgently needed information, special information. Moses’ challenge was how to get himself and the children of Israel out of this horrible predicament they were in. There were chariots behind them, sand dunes on every side, and just a lot of water immediately ahead. He needed information all right—what to do—but it wasn’t a casual thing he was asking. In this case it was literally a matter of life and death. You will need information, too, but in matters of great consequence it is not likely to come unless you want it urgently, faithfully, humbly. Moroni calls it seeking “with real intent” (Moroni 10:4). If you can seek that way, and stay in that mode, not much that the adversary can counter with will dissuade you from a righteous path. You can hang on, whatever the assault and affliction, because you have paid the price to—figuratively, at least—see the face of God and live.”

³Clearly there are very important differences between this modern version and the original manuscript version in the JSP and the original published version in the BC. See below for a note about the word “sprout” in the JSP version; by the 1835 DC, the text of this verse had taken basically the form we know now. You can think about it at least two ways: that they were trying to sanitize the text, or remove some references to things that were part of frontier mystery culture or that were otherwise going to be unacceptable in a published version of the text; or, you can see it as an evolving understanding of Cowdery’s role in relation to JS and the work as a whole, such that he has assumed the role of Aaron in certain ways in his life. I think the latter explanation is better and more interesting, and leads to more interesting possibilities; it’s also a possible way of connecting to the Aaronic priesthood, and things like the ministering of angels (DC 107:20), which is an important aspect of the epistemology of revelation.

JSP now this is not all for thou hast another gift which is the gift of working with the sprout¹ Behold it hath told you things
BC Now this is not all, for you have another gift, which is the gift of working with the rod: behold it has told you things:

Section 8:10

Remember that without faith you can do nothing; therefore ask in faith. Trifle not² with these things; do not ask for that which you ought not.

To add to this, here is HDDC 185–189: “There is one major variation in the text of this revelation as it appears in the Book of Commandments. Verse 3 (verses 6–8 in the current edition of the D&C) is more explicit about the additional gift given to Oliver Cowdery. This verse reads as follows: [BC text “O remember, these words...that you shall know.”] In the current text of this verse, the gift is called the gift of Aaron. One of the gifts given Aaron was that of performing miracles through the use of a staff or rod (See Exodus 4:2–4; 7:9–13, 19–21; 8:5, 6, 16, 17; 9:23; 10:13; Numbers 17:1–10 as examples). The rod mentioned in this revelation is not necessarily Aaron’s rod, but one that can be used in a similar way. The Book of Mormon prophesied that a rod would be available to a modern Joseph of this day (2 Nephi 3:17), and there is some evidence that a rod has been used (reference to an Andrus commentary on the PGP). Evidently, not only did Oliver Cowdery have access to it, but also Orson Hyde (TS [1 April 1842], 741). It may even be that there was more than one of these rods, as is testified to by Solomon F. Kimball: ‘Under the date of June 21, 1892, Sister Sarah M. Kimball signed her name to the following statements: “At a Relief Society Meeting held April 28, 1842, I heard the Prophet Joseph make this statement. ‘While other leading men of the Church have been unrighteously aspiring, Heber C. Kimball has been true and is to me what John was to Jesus, my beloved disciple.’ Bro. Kimball showed me a rod that the Lord through the Prophet Joseph had given to him. He said that when he wanted to find out anything that was his right to know, all he had to do was to knell down with the rod in his hand, and that sometimes the Lord would answer his questions before he had time to ask them.” My mother, and my sister, Helen Mar, told me the same thing and added to it, that Pres. Young received a similar rod from the Lord at the same time. They claimed that these rods were given to them because they were the only ones of the original Twelve who had not lifted up their ~~hearts~~ heels against the Prophet’ (Statement of Solomon F. Kimball, undated, located in the HDC).”

I haven’t yet been able to find the original Solomon Kimball source. In any case, we now know much more about the use of “rods” anyway, so the source isn’t that important.

¹From the 1828 dictionary, meanings #1 and #2: “The shoot of a plant; a shoot from the seed or from the stump or from the root of a plant or tree”; “A shoot from the end of a branch.” Then from the same dictionary, meaning #3: “A young branch.” Part of a JSP note here: “In preparing the text of Revelation Book 1 for publication, Sidney Rigdon replaced ‘sprout’ with ‘rod.’ Green, flexible shoots or rods cut from hazel, peach, or cherry trees were sometimes used as divining rods.”

Historical Background

JSP

“Earlier in April 1829, JS had dictated one revelation granting Oliver Cowdery the gift to translate ancient records and another instructing him to rely on the Holy Ghost as he translated. When Cowdery attempted to translate, however, he was unsuccessful. The revelation featured here explained Cowdery’s failure and promised that he would translate at another time. Likely dictated in the second half of April, this revelation informed Cowdery that he ‘could have translated’ if he had proceeded correctly. He had apparently begun well but did not continue in the same manner, having ‘not understood’ the process: ‘You have supposed that I would give it unto you, when you took no thought, save it was to ask me.’ While suspending for the present Cowdery’s gift to translate, the revelation underscored his ongoing current responsibility: ‘Behold the work which you are called to do, is to write for my servant Joseph.’”

JSP Behold you have not understood, you have supposed that I would give it unto you, when you took no thought, save it was to ask me;

¹The JSP/BC version has “which I have intrusted unto you” here. It’s a pretty minor difference that seems easy to explain.

²This construction here with “save” can be confusing. Definition #10 of “save” from the 1828 says: “To except; to reserve from a general admission or account.” It then gives examples from Joshua 11:13 and 2 Corinthians 11:24: “Israel burned none of them, save Hazer only,” and “Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes, save one.” The dictionary then has this note: “Save is here a verb followed by an object. It is the imperative used without a specific nominative; but it is now less frequently used than except.” So this dictionary takes the use of “save” like we see in verse 7 here not as a conjunction or something like that but an imperative verb which ends up having the same meaning as “except.” So plugging that into the verse gives you this: “You have supposed that I would give it unto you, when you took no thought except to ask me.” Changing the verse even more to bring out the meaning:

You haven’t understood. You’ve supposed that I would give it to you even though all you did was ask.

So the Lord is trying to communicate here that, although Oliver did ask, asking was not enough. He was required to do more than ask—and apparently, as we read in verse 5, he did this extra at the beginning, but then didn’t keep going that way, and so his effort kind of fell apart. In the next verse the Lord explains what more was required than asking.

DC 10 in Revelation Book 1

Speaking of the source for this revelation, JSP says, “John Whitmer copied this revelation [ca. Mar. 1831] into Revelation Book 1, but the pages on which the first part of the revelation was copied were removed at some point from that volume and are no longer extant. The version found in the Book of Commandments...is the earliest complete, extant version.” RB1 does have a good portion of this revelation, however; see that portion here. The RB1 account picks up after the first few words in verse 42.

Historical Background

JSP

“Early in 1828, JS, then living in Harmony, Pennsylvania, began translating the gold plates with the assistance of various scribes, principally Martin Harris. Working from mid-April to mid-June, JS and Harris prepared a manuscript, which JS referred to as “the Book of Lehi.” At Harris’s insistent pleading, JS allowed him to take the manuscript to show to selected family members in Palmyra, New York. After Harris displayed the manuscript, however, it was taken from its hiding place and never found. JS’s history recounted that an angel took the plates in consequence and that JS lost his gift to translate, but after a season of repentance, he once again obtained the plates. By March 1829, JS had resumed the translation, which proceeded quickly after Oliver Cowdery arrived on 5 April to serve as a scribe.

“JS and Cowdery apparently picked up the translation where JS and Harris had left off—in the book of Mosiah. As JS and Cowdery approached what would become the end of the Book of Mormon, they grew concerned about whether to go back and retranslate the lost portion. The revelation featured below stated that wicked men had changed the lost manuscript to discredit JS and commanded him not to retranslate the lost pages but to substitute another record in their place. This substitute record, described as being “engraven upon the plates of Nephi,” covered the same period as the lost manuscript.

“Assigning a date to this revelation is problematic, both because the earliest extant versions of the text are dated inconsistently and because the content fits multiple historical contexts. In Revelation Book 1, which contains the earliest extant copy of this revelation, the page or pages containing the revelation heading are missing, so the date presumably listed by John Whitmer has been lost. The index to the revelation book locates this text between two April 1829 revelations, suggesting that Whitmer assigned an April date, but the editors of the 1833 Book of Commandments gave it a date of May 1829, a date retained in later publications. JS and James Mulholland, the clerk assisting him with his history in 1839, created additional confusion by dating this revelation to “a few days” after the July 1828 revelation. Yet Mulholland also preserved the heading (with its May 1829 date) from the 1835 Doctrine and Covenants when he copied it into JS’s history.

“Certain parts of the text seem to fit an 1828 setting, others 1829, and some both. The beginning of the featured text, for example, reprimands JS, saying, “You delivered up so many writings, which you had power to translate, into the hands of a wicked man”—language strikingly similar to the July 1828 admonition to JS that “thou deliveredst up...that which God had given thee right to Translate...into the hands of a wicked man.” At the same time, another verse from the first part of the featured text instructs JS not to “translate again those words which have gone forth out of your hands [the lost manuscript],” a commandment that applied to both JS and Harris in 1828 and to JS and Cowdery in 1829. Several phrases in the featured text are common to 1829 documents. For example, the text alludes to an earlier manifestation to JS: “And for this cause have I said, if this generation harden not their hearts, I will establish my church among them.” The only identifiable antecedents to this statement appear in a March 1829 revelation—“if the People of this Generation harden not their hearts...I will establish my Church”—and in a Book of Mormon passage likely dictated in May 1829—“if they will repent and hearken unto my words, and harden not their hearts, I will establish my church among them.” Moreover, a series of close textual parallels between the featured text and Christ’s teachings in the Book of Mormon also support a spring 1829 date. These texts share lengthy phrases, including some not found in the Bible, and suggest a relationship between this revelation and the third book of Nephi in the Book of Mormon, likely dictated in May 1829.

“A potential solution to these complexities is to consider the featured text a composite of two revelations, one from 1828 and the other 1829. The stylistic features of this revelation, however, strongly suggest that although JS may have received the first portion of the revelation in the summer of 1828, it was not actually written down until April or May 1829, along with the rest of the text. This revelation, written in the first-person voice of Jesus Christ, more closely resembles JS’s April 1829 texts, which include such proclamations as “behold I am God,” than it does the July 1828 revelation, which speaks of God in the second person. The text featured below also lacks the typical signs of a composite revelation, such as an amen marking the end of a particular revelation within a larger text.”

HDDC

“The historical background of this revelation is in question because two different times have been given as the date of reception. Table 10 shows the date to be May 1829 in all copies except those in the History of the Church, the Journal History of the Church, and all printings of the D&C published after 1920. The date of Section 10 in the History of the Church, first edition, and the Journal History is recorded as August or September 1829, and in the D&C as Summer, 1828.

“There is no doubt that May 1829 was the accepted date of this revelation for many years. Elder Orson Pratt placed the revelations in their chronological order in the 1876 edition of the D&C, and Section 10 was inserted as though May 1829 were the correct date. Even though in later editions the date has been changed, the position of this revelation in the text of the book has not.

“The complete Manuscript History of the Church, as edited by Elder B.H. Roberts, was first published under the title, History of the Church, in 1902–1912. It was in this publication that the date was first changed to the year 1828; however, it was not altered in any of the printings of the D&C until 1921. The D&C committee that was responsible for the publication of the 1921 edition did not keep an accurate record to explain why they changed the date, but it seems probable that they accepted B.H. Roberts’ reasons for doing so in the History of the Church.¹ Elder Roberts felt the date was in error because of the introductory statement to Section 10 as found in the Manuscript History of the Church. It is as follows:

After I had obtained the above revelation, both the plates, and the Urim and Thummin were taken from me again, but in a few days they were returned to me,<> <when I enquired of the Lord, and the Lord said thus unto me.>

I did not however go immediately to translating, but went to laboring with my hands upon a small farm which I had purchased of my wife’s father,...²

“The [asterisks direct] the reader to four unnumbered pages inserted between pages 10 and 11 in book A-1 of the Manuscript History of the Church. Section 10 is written on these four pages and fills them up. As can be seen, the note in the Manuscript History of the Church concerning Section 10 is a later addition. Indeed, even a different color ink was used and this suggests a later insertion. But it was not much later, for these pages were written by James Mulholland sometime between June 11 and November 3, 1839, the date of Elder Mulholland’s death. The addition is also in his handwriting, and so the text was corrected shortly after it had originally been written.

“If May 1829 is the correct date for this revelation, then it was inserted in the Manuscript History of the Church in the wrong place, for Sections 4 through 9 were given prior to May 1829, and they all follow Section 10 in the Manuscript History of the Church. However, if Section 10 were given a few days after Section 3, then the date, May 1829, is in error.

“Several facts exist which give evidence that May 1829 is the correct date. First, the revelation was given at a time when Joseph Smith was actively translating the Book of Mormon. From late summer 1828 until Oliver Cowdery arrived in April 1829, Joseph Smith did little translating, but labored for the support of his family. The times of greatest accomplishment in the work of translation are April through June 1829; therefore, May 1829 better fits the message of Section 10.

“Secondly, Section 10:53 states:

And for this cause have I said: If this generation harden not their hearts, I will establish my church among them.

In no other revelation predating May 1829 is the statement in verse 53 found except in what is now Section 5 as it appeared in the Book of Commandments:

¹HDDC footnote: “At about the same time the date of Section 10 was changed in our D&C, the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints changed the date in their D&C. I wrote to Richard P. Howard, Church Historian of the Reorganized Church, and asked him why they changed. In a letter dated July 29, 1971, Mr. Howard wrote: ‘If I am not mistaken, the date of this section was changed in the Reorganized Church after the 1921 Talmage edition appeared. It may be that we were encouraged in this direction by the work of Talmage. I find no documentary evidence which would support this entirely however, or which would suggest any other reason.’”

²I took this transcription from the JSP website because I believe the one in HDDC is wrong.

And if the people of this generation harden not their hearts...I will establish my church, like unto the church which was taught by my disciples in the days of old.¹

"It is important to note at this point that this verse from the Book of Commandments has been edited in the D&C² so that the reading is variant from the above. Logically, if Section 10 refers to a verse in Section 5, Section 10 must have been given at a later date. Since section 5 was received in March 1829, the date of May 1829 would be appropriate.

"A third consideration also involves a statement made in section 10. Verse 3 reads:

Nevertheless, it [the gift to translate] is now restored unto you again; therefore see that you are faithful and continue on unto the finishing of the remainder of the work of translation as you have begun.

"It appears from this verse that Joseph Smith was to finish the Large Plates of Nephi before he translated the Small Plates. Oliver Cowdery furnished some evidence that this is true. According to him, by May 15, 1829, Joseph had translated to that part of III Nephi wherein the Savior instructed the Nephites concerning baptism. It was this scripture that caused Joseph and Oliver to inquire of the Lord about their own baptisms, which prayer was answered by the appearance of John the Baptist.³ Had they translated the Small Plates prior to finishing the Large, about four-fifths of the Book of Mormon would have been translated by May fifteenth. Since they commenced on April seventh and didn't finish until late June or early July, this would mean a disproportionate amount of the translation would have been completed in the first month. On the other hand, if the Small Plates were translated last, the work load would have taken on a more even distribution.

"If it is true that the Small Plates were translated last, then Section 10, which explains to the Prophet what he should do about the Small Plates, need not have been given until May 1829. (However, if the Small Plates were translated when Joseph and Oliver commenced writing, Section 10 must have been given prior to April 7, 1829.)

"Fourth, the Prophet's mother wrote that the Urim and Thummim was not returned to Joseph until September 1828, much too late for the Prophet to have received Section 10 according to the date now attached to it.

"Finally, the Prophet Joseph never saw fit to correct the date, if indeed it was in error.

"A compelling reason to believe the summer of 1828 is the correct date for Section 10 is found in the introductory statement of the revelation in the Manuscript History of the Church as already discussed. The way it appears there was sufficient reason for Elder B.H. Roberts to change the date of Section 10 in the History of the Church. He wrote:

This revelation, which appears as section 10 in the Doctrine and Covenants is there dated May, 1829. This is clearly an error. The Prophet's words in the text above can lead to but one conclusion, namely, that this was the first revelation he received after the plates and the Urim and Thummim were finally restored to him and this, he says, was only "a few days" after he had received the previous revelation, which, indeed, refers to the same subject as this one.⁴ The latter was, therefore, in all probability, received in August or September, 1828.⁵

"(This footnote only appeared in the first edition of the History of the Church, and all later editions have it deleted.)⁶"

RB1 —
DC 1835 Now, behold I say unto you, that because you delivered up those writings which you had power given unto you to translate, by the means of the Urim and Thummim, into the hands of a wicked man, you have lost them;

Section 10:2

And you also lost your gift at the same time, and your mind became darkened.

Section 10:3

Nevertheless, it is now restored unto you again; therefore see that you are faithful and continue on unto the finishing of the remainder of the work of translation as you have begun.

Section 10:4

Do not run faster or labor more than you have strength and means provided to enable you to translate; but be diligent unto the end.

Section 10:5

Pray always, that you may come off conqueror; yea, that you may conquer Satan, and that you may escape the hands of the servants of Satan that do uphold his work.

Section 10:6

Behold, they have sought to destroy you; yea, even the man in whom you have trusted has sought to destroy you.

Section 10:7

And for this cause I said that he is a wicked man, for he has sought to take away the things wherewith you have been entrusted; and he has also sought to destroy your gift.

Section 10:8

And because you have delivered the writings into his hands, behold, wicked men have taken them from you.

Section 10:9

Therefore, you have delivered them up, yea, that which was sacred, unto wickedness.

Section 10:10

And, behold, Satan hath put it into their hearts to alter the words which you have caused to be written, or which you have translated, which have gone out of your hands.

Section 10:11

And behold, I say unto you, that because they have altered the words, they read contrary from that which you translated and caused to be written;

Section 10:12

And, on this wise, the devil has sought to lay a cunning plan, that he may destroy this work;

Section 10:13

For he hath put into their hearts to do this, that by lying they may say they have caught you in the words which you have pretended to translate.

Section 10:14

Verily, I say unto you, that I will not suffer that Satan shall accomplish his evil design in this thing.

Section 10:15

For behold, he has put it into their hearts to get thee to tempt¹ the Lord thy God, in asking to translate it over again.

Section 10:16

And then, behold, they say and think in their hearts—We will see if God has given him power to translate; if so, he will also give him power again;

Section 10:17

And if God giveth him power again, or if he translates again, or, in other words, if he bringeth forth the same words, behold, we have the same with us, and we have altered them;

Section 10:18

Therefore they will not agree, and we will say that he has lied in his words, and that he has no gift, and that he has no power;

Section 10:19

Therefore we will destroy him, and also the work; and we will do this that we may not be ashamed in the end, and that we may get glory of the world.

Section 10:20

Verily, verily, I say unto you, that Satan has great hold upon their hearts; he stirreth them up to iniquity against that which is good;

¹Meaning #5 from the 1828: "In Scripture, to try; to prove; to put to trial for proof."

Section 10:21

And their hearts are corrupt, and full of wickedness and abominations; and they love darkness rather than light, because their deeds are evil; therefore they will not ask of me.¹

Section 10:22

Satan stirreth them up, that he may lead their souls to destruction.

Section 10:23

And thus he has laid a cunning plan, thinking to destroy the work of God; but I will require this at their hands, and it shall turn to their shame and condemnation in the day of judgment.

Section 10:24

Yea, he stirreth up their hearts to anger against this work.

Section 10:25

Yea, he saith unto them: Deceive and lie in wait to catch, that ye may destroy; behold, this is no harm.² And thus he flattereth them, and telleth them that it is no sin to lie that they may catch a man in a lie,³ that they may destroy him.

Section 10:26

And thus he flattereth them, and leadeth them along until he draggeth their souls down to hell;⁴ and thus he causeth them to catch themselves in their own snare.

Section 10:27

And thus he goeth up and down, to and fro in the earth, seeking to destroy the souls of men.

Section 10:28

Verily, verily, I say unto you, wo be unto him that lieth to deceive because he supposeth that another lieth to deceive, for such are not exempt from the justice of God.

Section 10:29

Now, behold, they have altered these words, because Satan saith unto them: He hath deceived you—and thus he flattereth them away to do iniquity, to get thee to tempt the Lord thy God.

Section 10:30

Behold, I say unto you, that you shall not translate again those words which have gone forth out of your hands;

Section 10:31

For, behold, they shall not accomplish their evil designs in lying against those words. For, behold, if you should bring forth the same words they will say that you have lied and that you have pretended to translate, but that you have contradicted yourself.

Section 10:32

And, behold, they will publish this, and Satan will harden the hearts of the people to stir them up to anger against you, that they will not believe my words.

Section 10:33

Thus Satan thinketh to overpower your testimony in this generation, that the work may not come forth in this generation.

Section 10:34

But behold, here is wisdom, and because I show unto you wisdom, and give you commandments concerning these things, what you shall do, show it not unto the world until you have accomplished the work of translation.

Section 10:35

Marvel not that I said unto you: Here is wisdom, show it not unto the world—for I said, show it not unto the world, that you may be preserved.

Section 10:36

Behold, I do not say that you shall not show it unto the righteous;

Section 10:37

But as you cannot always judge the righteous, or as you cannot always tell the wicked from the righteous, therefore I say unto you, hold your peace until I shall see fit to make all things known unto the world concerning the matter.

Section 10:38

And now, verily I say unto you, that an account of those things that you have written, which have gone out of your hands, is engraven upon the plates of Nephi;

Section 10:39

Yea, and you remember it was said in those writings that a more particular account was given of these things upon the plates of Nephi.

Section 10:40

And now, because the account which is engraven upon the plates of Nephi is more particular concerning the things which, in my wisdom, I would bring to the knowledge of the people in this account—

Section 10:41

Therefore, you shall translate the engravings which are on the plates of Nephi, down even till you come to the reign of king Benjamin, or until you come to that which you have translated, which you have retained;

JSP
RB1 Shall publish it as the Record of Nephi & thus I will confound those which have altered my words

Section 10:43

I will not suffer that they shall destroy my work; yea, I will show unto them that my wisdom is greater than the cunning of the devil.

Section 10:44

Behold, they have only got a part, or an abridgment of the account of Nephi.

Section 10:45

Behold, there are many things engraven upon the plates of Nephi which do throw greater views upon my gospel; therefore, it is wisdom in me that you should translate this first part of the engravings of Nephi, and send forth in this work.

Section 10:46

And, behold, all the remainder of this work does contain all those parts of my gospel which my holy prophets, yea, and also my disciples, desired in their prayers should come forth unto this people.

Section 10:47

And I said unto them, that it should be granted unto them according to their faith in their prayers;

Section 10:48

Yea, and this was their faith—that my gospel, which I gave unto them that they might preach in their days, might come unto their brethren the Lamanites, and also all that had become Lamanites because of their dissensions.

Section 10:49

Now, this is not all—their faith in their prayers was that this gospel should be made known also, if it were possible that other nations should possess this land;

¹Beginning exactly at this point, with the word “shall,” the rest of this revelation is found in RB1. See that version here.

Section 10:50

And thus they did leave a blessing upon this land in their prayers, that whosoever should believe in this gospel in this land might have eternal life;

Section 10:51

Yea, that it might be free unto all of whatsoever nation, kindred, tongue, or people they may be.

Section 10:52

And now, behold, according to their faith in their prayers will I bring this part of my gospel to the knowledge of my people. Behold, I do not bring it to destroy that which they have received, but to build it up.

Section 10:53

And for this cause have I said: If this generation harden not their hearts, I will establish my church among them.¹

Section 10:54

Now I do not say this to destroy my church, but I say this to build up my church;

Section 10:55

Therefore, whosoever belongeth to my church need not fear, for such shall inherit the kingdom of heaven.

Section 10:56

But it is they who do not fear me, neither keep my commandments but build up churches unto themselves to get gain, yea, and all those that do wickedly and build up the kingdom of the devil—yea, verily, verily, I say unto you, that it is they that I will disturb, and cause to tremble and shake to the center.

Section 10:57

Behold, I am Jesus Christ, the Son of God. I came unto mine own, and mine own received me not.

Section 10:58

I am the light which shineth in darkness, and the darkness comprehendeth it not.

Section 10:59

I am he who said—Other sheep have I which are not of this fold—unto my disciples, and many there were that understood me not.²

¹See discussion of this reference at the HDDC historical background.

²See John 10:16.

Section 10:60

And I will show unto this people that I had other sheep, and that they were a branch of the house of Jacob;

Section 10:61

And I will bring to light their marvelous works, which they did in my name;

Section 10:62

Yea, and I will also bring to light my gospel which was ministered unto them, and, behold, they shall not deny that which you have received, but they shall build it up, and shall bring to light the true points of my doctrine, yea, and the only doctrine which is in me.¹

Section 10:63

And this I do that I may establish my gospel, that there may not be so much contention; yea, Satan doth stir up the hearts of the people to contention concerning the points of my doctrine; and in these things they do err, for they do wrest² the scriptures and do not understand them.

Section 10:64

Therefore, I will unfold unto them this great mystery;

Section 10:65

For, behold, I will gather them as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, if they will not harden their hearts;

Section 10:66

Yea, if they will come, they may, and partake of the waters of life freely.³

Section 10:67

Behold, this is my doctrine—whosoever repenteth and cometh unto me, the same is my church.

Section 10:68

Whosoever declareth more or less than this,⁴ the same is not of me, but is against me; therefore he is not of my church.

Section 10:69

And now, behold, whosoever is of my church, and endureth of my church to the end, him will I establish upon my rock, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against them.

¹This verse and the next discuss the issue of doctrine in a way similar to 3 Nephi 11:28–32.

Historical Background

HDCC

“Joseph Smith and Oliver Cowdery received the Aaronic Priesthood from John the Baptist prior to the events that led to this revelation and also to Section 12. Therefore, these two sections should follow Section 13, which records their ordination” (note 1, 218).

JSP

“In May 1829, JS’s older brother, Hyrum Smith, arrived in Harmony, Pennsylvania, to visit JS and Oliver Cowdery, who were engaged in translating the Book of Mormon. At Hyrum’s “earnest request,” JS “enquired of the Lord through the Urim and Thummin, and received for him” the revelation featured here.

“Hyrum and other members of JS’s family had long supported JS’s efforts to obtain and translate the plates. After JS and his wife Emma moved from Manchester, New York, to Harmony in 1827, the Smith family continued to stay in touch and provide assistance. Early in 1829, Joseph Smith Sr. and Samuel Smith traveled from Manchester to visit JS and Emma in Harmony. During that visit JS dictated a revelation for his father that declared the urgency of the work in which JS was engaged and encouraged others to participate. In mid-May, not long after JS and Oliver Cowdery baptized each other, Samuel made another visit to Harmony, during which he was convinced of the truthfulness of the work and was baptized by Cowdery. JS’s history states that Samuel then “returned to his father’s house greatly glorifying and praising God, being filled with the Holy Spirit. Not many days afterwards, my brother Hyrum Smith came to us to enquire concerning these things.” This revelation followed.

“Although the exact date JS dictated this revelation is unknown, the heading given in the Book of Commandments placed it in May 1829. The time frame can be further narrowed because the revelation originated sometime between 15 May, when JS and Cowdery baptized each other, and the end of May, when David Whitmer arrived in Harmony to help move JS and Cowdery to Fayette, New York. Further, JS’s history states that Hyrum arrived “not many days” after Samuel’s departure and that Samuel was baptized at least “a few days” after 15 May. Given this sequence of events, the revelation was likely dictated in late May but before JS, Cowdery, and Whitmer departed for New York around 29 May. Hyrum’s arrival late in the month, and JS and Cowdery’s prompt move thereafter, probably account for his not being baptized until after the relocation to Fayette.”

Keep my commandments; hold your peace; appeal unto my Spirit;

¹There are two possible antecedents for “which” here: “Spirit,” or the experience of having our minds enlightened by the Spirit. If it’s “Spirit,” then “filling our souls with joy” would be a function of the Holy Ghost; if it’s the second, then experiencing this joy would be the result of having our minds enlightened by the Spirit.

Section 11:19

Yea, cleave¹ unto me with all your heart, that you may assist in bringing to light those things of which has been spoken—yea, the translation of my work; be patient until you shall accomplish it.

Section 11:21

Seek not to declare my word, but first seek to obtain my word, and then shall your tongue be loosed; then, if you desire, you shall have my Spirit and my word, yea, the power of God unto the convincing of men.

"Joseph Smith and Oliver Cowdery received the Aaronic Priesthood from John the Baptist prior to the events that led to this revelation [Section 11] and also to Section 12. Therefore, these two sections should follow Section 13, which records their ordination" (note 1, 218).

JSP

"This revelation addressed Joseph Knight Sr., a Colesville, New York, resident and early supporter of JS. In late 1826, Knight began employing JS as a day laborer, and JS soon gained enough favor with Knight that he loaned JS his 'horse and Cutter to go and see his girl,' Emma Hale, whom JS soon married. In September 1827, Knight was at the Joseph Smith Sr. home the night JS obtained the plates, and he later reported that JS gave him a detailed description of the plates and the Urim and Thummim. That winter JS and Emma, who had returned to Harmony, Pennsylvania, fell on hard times and asked Knight for assistance. 'I let him have some little provisions and some few things out of the store a pair of shoes and three Dollars in money to help him a little,' wrote Knight.

"Knight provided support that helped JS recommence the translation after Martin Harris lost the initial manuscript in July 1828. In January 1829, Joseph Smith Sr. and Samuel Smith stopped at Knight's home on their way from Manchester, New York, to visit JS in Harmony. Knight took them the rest of the way in his sleigh, and once they arrived in Harmony he gave Joseph Sr. a half-dollar and also gave JS money to buy paper for the translation. Knight may have also returned to Harmony to aid JS at other times between January and May 1829: Joseph Knight Jr. wrote, 'Father and I often went to see him [JS] and carry him something to live upon.' In April 1829, the Knight family may have supplied all or part of the fifty-dollar payment that JS made on a thirteen-and-a-half-acre lot and small house purchased from his father-in-law, Isaac Hale.

"When JS and Oliver Cowdery were running low on provisions in May 1829, they temporarily stopped translating and journeyed to Colesville to see Knight. Although absent at the time, Knight soon traveled to Harmony with more paper and with 'provisions enough to Last till the translation was Done.' JS may have dictated this revelation during that visit. Introducing the revelation, JS's history stated that Knight was 'very anxious to know his duty as to this work. I enquired of the Lord for him, and obtained as follows.'

¹For becoming the sons or children of God, see this study at New Birth.

“This text addresses the same themes, largely in the same wording, as earlier revelations directed to Joseph Smith Sr. and Cowdery, alerting them to the emerging ‘great and marvelous work’ and commanding them to ‘bring forth and establish the cause of Zion.’ The revelation for Knight also broadened its potential audience by stating that it applied to ‘all those who have desires to bring forth and establish this work.’ That the text itself does not specify Knight as its recipient also suggests that the call to work could have been to all who were willing to accept the responsibility.

“The Book of Commandments contains the earliest copy of this revelation. John Whitmer did not include a copy in Revelation Book 1, indicating that JS may not have kept a copy or may have lost his copy. The editors of the Book of Commandments included the revelation, however, perhaps relying on a personal copy of the text kept by an early believer. When in May 1829 this revelation was dictated is unknown, in part because it is unclear how many times and when Knight traveled to Harmony to assist JS. The revelation dates from the same general period as the revelation for Hyrum Smith and may have preceded it. It is possible that Knight gave Hyrum a ride to Harmony, as he had done for Joseph Sr. and Samuel a few months earlier, and that the two revelations came during this trip. Neither Knight’s history nor other accounts give exact dates as to when Knight arrived.”

Section 13 (1838/15 May 1829)

Historical Background

Section 13 is an extract from JS's personal history, and was composed in 1838. There is no record contemporaneous to this event which states what happened.

This description of the priesthood restoration first appeared in the DC in 1876 (HDDC 235).

Here is a more complete extract from volume 1-A of the history:

We still continued the <work of> translation, when in the ensuing month (May, Eighteen hundred and twenty nine) we on a certain day went into the woods to pray and inquire of the Lord respecting baptism for the remission of sins as we found mentioned in the translation of the plates. While we were thus employed praying and calling upon the Lord, a Messenger from heaven, descended in a cloud of light, and having laid his hands upon us, he ordained us, saying unto us; "Upon you my fellow servants in the name of Messiah I confer the priesthood of Aaron, which holds the keys of the ministring of angels and of the gospel of repentance, and of baptism by immersion for the remission of sins, and this shall never be taken again from the earth, untill the sons of Levi do offer again an offering unto the Lord in righteousness." He said this Aaronic priesthood had not the power of laying on of hands, for the gift of the Holy Ghost, but that this should be conferred on <us> hereafter and he commanded us to go and be baptized, and gave us directions that I should baptize Oliver Cowdery, and afterward that he should baptize me. ~~and that I should be called the first elder of the Church and he the second.~~ Accordingly we went and were baptized, I baptized him first, and afterwards he baptized me, after which I laid my hands upon his head and ordained him to the Aaronick priesthood, and afterward he laid his hands on me and ordained me to the same priesthood, for so we were commanded.

The messenger who visited us on this occasion and conferred this priesthood upon us said that his name was John, the same that is called John the Baptist in the new Testament, and that he acted under the direction <of> Peter, James, and John, who held the keys of the priesthood of Melchisedeck, which priesthood he said should in due time be conferred on us. And that I should be called the first Elder of the Church and he the second. It was on the fifteenth day of May, Eighteen hundred and twenty-nine that we were baptized; ~~under~~ and ordained under the hand of ~~that~~ <the> Messenger.

Immediately upon our coming up out of the water after we had been baptized we experienced great and glorious blessings from our Heavenly Father. No sooner had I baptized Oliver Cowdery than the Holy Ghost fell upon him and he stood up and prophesied many things which should shortly come to pass: And again so soon as I had been baptized by him, I also had the Spirit of Prophecy, when standing up I prophesied concerning the rise of this church, and many other things connected with the Church and this generation of the children of men. We were filled with the Holy Ghost, and rejoiced in the God of our Salvation.

Our minds being now enlightened, we began to have the Scriptures laid open to our understandings, and the true meaning and intention of their more mysterious passages revealed unto us, in a manner which we never could attain to previously, nor ever before <had> thought of. In the meantime we were forced to keep secret the circumstances of our having been baptized, and having received this priesthood; owing to a spirit of persecution which had already manifested itself in the neighborhood. We had been threatened with being mobbed, from time to time, and this too by professors of religion, and their intentions of mobbing us, were only counteracted by the influence of my wife's father's family (under Divine Providence) who had become very friendly to me and were opposed to mobs; and were willing that I should be allowed to continue the work of translation without interruption: And therefore offered and promised us protection from all unlawful proceedings as far as in them lay.

HDDC

"Joseph Smith and Oliver Cowdery received the Aaronic Priesthood from John the Baptist prior to the events that led to this revelation [Section 11] and also to Section 12. Therefore, these two sections should follow Section 13, which records their ordination" (note 1, 218).

"According to the Prophet Joseph Smith, his ordination under the hands of John the Baptist preceded the revelation given Hyrum Smith, which revelation is now section 11 of the D&C. Therefore, this section should be placed between sections 10 and 11 in order for it to be in its proper chronological order.

"Over ten years after John the Baptist performed the ordinance contained in this revelation, Joseph Smith caused a record of it to be written in his history with this introduction:

"We still continued the work of translation, when in the ensuing month (May, 1829) we on a certain day went into the woods to pray and inquire of the Lord respecting baptism for the remission of sins, that we found mentioned in the translation of the plates. While we were thus employed, praying and calling upon the Lord, a messenger from heaven descended in a cloud of light, and having laid his hands upon us, he ordained us, saying: [Section 13 follows.]

"However, Oliver Cowdery, who was with the Prophet on this occasion, wrote his account of this ordination five years earlier. This was the first time he had seen an angel, and his statement is filled with awe and wonder. His account is found, as follows, in the Messenger and Advocate:

"On a sudden, as from the midst of eternity, the voice of the Redeemer spake peace to us, while the vail was parted and the angel of God came down clothed with glory, and delivered the anxiously looked for message, and the keys of the gospel of repentance!—What joy! what wonder! what amazement! While the world were racked and distracted—while millions were grouping [sic] as the blind for the fall, and while all men were resting upon uncertainty, as a general mass, our eyes beheld—our ears heard. As in the 'blaze of day;' yes, more—above the glitter of the May Sun beam, which then shed its brilliancy over the face of nature! Then his voice, though mild, pierced to the center, and his words, 'I am thy fellow servant,' dispelled every fear. We listened—we gazed—we admired! 'Twas the voice of the angel from glory—'twas a message from the Most High! and as we heard we rejoiced, while his love enkindled upon our souls, and we were rapt in the vision of the Almighty! Where was room for doubt? No where: uncertainty had fled, doubt had sunk, no more to rise, while fiction and deception had fled forever!

"But, dear brother think, further think for a moment, what joy filled our hearts and with what surprise we must have bowed, (for who would not have bowed the knee for such a blessing?) when we received under his hand the holy priesthood, as he said, 'upon you my fellow servants, in the name of Messiah I confer this priesthood and this authority, which shall remain upon earth, that the sons of Levi may yet offer an offering unto the Lord in righteousness!'¹

"The Prophet's mother also told how this revelation was given, but her account does not agree with that of these two men who were participants. The main thrust of what she wrote is as follows:

¹HDDC note: "Messenger and Advocate [Kirtland, Ohio], October, 1834, pp. 15, 16."

“One morning they sat down to work, as usual, and the first thing which presented itself through the Urim and Thummim was a commandment for Joseph and Oliver to repair to the water and attend to the ordinance of baptism. They did so, and as they were returning to the house...”¹(233–234)

Historical Background

JSP

“JS dictated this revelation for David Whitmer after Whitmer traveled to Harmony, Pennsylvania, and helped JS and Oliver Cowdery move to Peter Whitmer Sr.’s house in Fayette, New York. The move was undertaken to facilitate completion of the Book of Mormon translation, which had caused JS trouble with both Isaac Hale and other residents in Harmony. David Whitmer had heard about JS in the fall of 1828 when rumors about JS’s retrieval of the plates circulated widely in the Palmyra, New York, region. While in Palmyra, Whitmer discussed the story of JS and the plates with Cowdery and others but initially supposed it was a rumor. Cowdery, who was acquainted with the Joseph Smith Sr. family, told Whitmer that “there must be some truth in the story of the plates, and that he intended to investigate the matter.” Several months later, Cowdery informed

¹HDDC note: “Lucy Mack Smith, History of Joseph Smith by His Mother (Salt Lake City: Bookcraft, Inc., 1958), p. 142.”

³Compare DC 84:26–27 and 107:20.

⁴So the Aaronic priesthood will be taken again from the earth, after the sons of Levi make their offering. That’s the most natural way of reading this passage.

It is significant that John the Baptist is the one who appears and delivers this priesthood to JS and Cowdery. John was the son of Zechariah or Zacharias, a priest who himself officiated in temple ordinances; John’s mother was Elizabeth, noted as being “of the daughters of Aaron” (Luke 1:5).

Whitmer that he intended to go to Harmony to see JS about the plates. On his journey, Cowdery stopped in Fayette to visit Whitmer and promised to write to him regarding what he learned. Cowdery sent at least three letters to Whitmer from Harmony, the last of which directed Whitmer to bring his wagon to Harmony and move JS and Cowdery to Fayette.

“Aided by what they considered divine manifestations, the Whitmers quickly became followers of JS. David Whitmer later recounted that during their journey to Fayette, he, Cowdery, and JS briefly encountered a “pleasant, nice looking old man” whom JS identified by revelation as a heavenly messenger transporting the plates. Whitmer also recalled that soon after their arrival in Fayette, his mother, Mary Musselman Whitmer, was met “by the same old man,” who showed her the plates.¹ JS’s history recorded that “David, John, and Peter Whitmer Jr became our zealous friends and assistants in the work; And being anxious to know their respective duties, and having desired with much earnestness that I should enquire of the Lord concerning them, I did so, through the means of the Urim and Thummin and obtained for them in succession the following Revelations,” referring to this revelation and the June 1829 revelations directed to John Whitmer and Peter Whitmer Jr.⁶ The five revelations dated June 1829 are presented herein in the order found in the index to Revelation Book 1.”²

Section 17 (June 1829)

Order of this section relative to others around the same time

Based on the evidence available, the JSP puts the sections from around June 1829 in the following order: DC 14, DC 18, DC 15, DC 16, and DC 17.

Note on the JSP version

The version featured in the JSP comes from RB2: “Featured version copied [not before 25 Nov. 1834]² in Revelation Book 2, pp. 119–120; handwriting of Frederick G. Williams; Revelations Collection, CHL. Includes redactions. For more complete source information, see the source note for Revelation Book 2.

“John Whitmer copied this revelation circa March 1831 into Revelation Book 1, but the page on which it was copied was removed at some point from that volume and is no longer extant. For unknown reasons, printers of the Book of Commandments chose not to include this revelation text in that volume. Some language used in the version copied into Revelation Book 2 does not fit an 1829 context, suggesting that version was modified from the original, although the degree of modification cannot be known.”

¹Besides the names of the people these revelations were directed to, this “unto” is the one difference between this section and DC 15. Verse 5 in that section doesn’t have the “unto.”

²It is interesting to note from the table that the revelation was received in June 1829, and yet did not appear in the Book of Commandments. This revelation is, however, in the Kirtland Revelation Book, but is inserted as the last revelation, and therefore, recorded at least five years after the revelation was received” (HDDC 255, 258).

Historical Background

JSP

“After both a passage in the Book of Mormon and a JS revelation promised that three witnesses would testify of the gold plates, Oliver Cowdery, David Whitmer, and Martin Harris requested that they be given the opportunity. In response, JS dictated this revelation in Fayette, New York, in June 1829. The text of the revelation implies that it was dictated after the translation was finished. JS later said that it was ‘not many days’ after the revelation was given, that he, Cowdery, Whitmer, and Harris ‘agreed to retire into the woods, and try to obtain by fervent and humble prayer, the fulfilment of the promises given in this revelation; that they should have a view of the pl[a]t[es].’

“According to JS’s history, the ‘heavenly messenger’ who delivered the plates to him in 1827 had commanded him not to show them to anyone. By March 1829, Emma Smith, Martin Harris, Reuben Hale, and possibly others had served as scribes for JS as he dictated the translation, yet none of them had seen the plates. That same month Harris, whose wife strongly objected to his involvement with JS, traveled to Harmony, Pennsylvania, to obtain, in the words of a revelation, ‘a witness that my Servant Joseph hath got the things which he hath testified that he hath got.’ That same revelation, which JS dictated after Harris’s arrival in Harmony, spoke of ‘a covenant with me [God] that he [JS] should not show them except I Command him,’ but also promised that three people would see the plates by God’s power and thereafter testify to the world of their existence. Harris was then informed that if he was sufficiently humble he would be one of the three witnesses.¹

“Oliver Cowdery also had reason to hope that he might be one of the promised witnesses. In April 1829, he became JS’s primary scribe and recorded almost all of the Book of Mormon manuscript produced after Harris’s loss of the ‘Book of Lehi,’ so he was familiar with the passage prophesying that three persons would see and stand as witnesses of the plates. About this same time JS dictated a revelation for Cowdery declaring that ‘in the mouth of two or three witnesses, shall every word be established’ and that God’s words would ‘be established by the testimony which shall be given.’ The revelation commanded Cowdery to ‘assist to bring forth my work,’ language similar to that in the Book of Mormon passage that envisioned the book’s future translator showing the plates to three witnesses who would testify of them ‘by the power of God’ and ‘assist to bring forth this work.’

“In late May or early June, David Whitmer helped JS and Cowdery move to Fayette, New York, where they could more securely finish the translation. Whitmer was an important supporter of the translation effort from that time forward. Though he did not become a witness of the plates for weeks, he reported years later that soon after their arrival, his mother was shown the plates by a heavenly messenger. Shortly after Whitmer was baptized in early June, JS dictated a revelation for him that again echoed the Book of Mormon passage about witnesses, calling Whitmer ‘to assist’ in bringing forth the fulness of the gospel. He was also told that he might ‘stand as a witness of the things of which you shall both hear and see.’

¹There is a lot going on in this verse, as a record of what the witnesses were going to see. Let's take them one at a time.

Plates The gold plates that JS found in the hillside.

Breastplate I assume that this is referring to the "breastplate" or "breastpiece" (in other sources) that is mentioned as part of the priest's clothing in places like Exodus 28:4. I think this is the יָרֵחַ, which in ancient times served as a pouch to put the Urim and Thummim.

Sword of Laban The sword that Nephi took from Laban to kill him. Originally mentioned in 1 Nephi 4, it also shows up later on, including 2 Nephi 5:14, Jacob 1:10, and Mosiah 1:16.

Urim and Thummim See Urim and Thummim. For JS, I think these terms are just a general way of referring to seer stones, or objects external to the body that help someone to receive revelation. It says, though, that these were the Urim and Thummim "given to the brother of Jared upon the mount, when he talked with the Lord face to face." This passage apparently refers to Ether 3:21–28, where the Lord gives "two stones" to the brother of Jared, and these stones are separate (again, apparently) from the sixteen that the Lord touches in order to light the ships. Compare also DC 130:8–11.

Directors (Liahona) The "ball" that Lehi and his family find (1 Nephi 16:10).

Note that Benjamin gives his son Mosiah a collection of items which includes the plates, the sword, and the ball (Mosiah 1:16). What I really need to do, and won't do right now but will sometime in the future, is figure out at what point JS began discussing things like the Urim and Thummim or the breastplate. I'm guessing that is something that they talk about retroactively but I'm not sure yet. The testimony of the three witnesses does not mention anything other than the plates (though it also mentions an angel, and hearing a voice).

²See 2 Corinthians 12:9.

Section 17:9

And I, Jesus Christ, your Lord and your God, have spoken it unto you, that I might bring about my righteous purposes unto the children of men. Amen.

Section 18 (June 1829)

Order of this section relative to others around the same time

Based on the evidence available, the JSP puts the sections from around June 1829 in the following order: DC 14, DC 18, DC 15, DC 16, and DC 17.

Note on the JSP and BC versions

The version featured in the JSP comes from BC, so for this section they are the same; the BC is therefore not included in the alternate versions below. This section doesn't appear at all in RB1.

Historical Background

JSP

"JS dictated this revelation in Fayette, New York, within the first few days of June 1829. Although the first portion of the revelation is addressed to Oliver Cowdery, the remainder provides direction for Cowdery and David Whitmer jointly, including a call for them to find twelve disciples. The revelation then speaks to an intended future audience for JS's revelation, addressing these unidentified twelve disciples. Previous revelations had always addressed the individuals directly involved as they or a scribe recorded the words JS dictated.

"This revelation opens with an admonition that Cowdery 'rely upon the things which are written,' especially the finished portion of the manuscript of the Book of Mormon. Just weeks earlier Cowdery had recorded from JS's translation of the plates an account of Jesus Christ choosing twelve Nephite disciples and calling them to lead the church that he established. The revelation featured here then describes the duties of twelve leaders yet to be selected, using terminology similar to the Book of Mormon manuscript, including the responsibilities to preach, baptize, and 'ordain priests and teachers to declare my gospel, according to the power of the Holy Ghost which is in you, and according to the callings and gifts of God unto men.' While the Book of Mormon uses both disciples and apostles, distinguishing between the twelve 'disciples' in America and the twelve 'apostles' in Jerusalem, the terms seem to refer to comparable offices. This revelation uses the term disciple to describe the calling of the twelve, but it is unclear whether in 1829 JS and Cowdery thought of the terms disciple and apostle as interchangeable, as they did later.

"It is also not known when Cowdery and Whitmer began to search for the twelve disciples or apostles. At a conference of the church on 26 October 1831, Cowdery informed those in attendance that he had recently been told that the twelve 'would be ordained & sent forth from the Land of Zion.' In February 1835, when twelve apostles were called, Cowdery stated that since the time of this revelation in 1829, 'our minds have been on a constant stretch to find who these Twelve were.'"

HDDC

"Shortly after the Aaronic Priesthood was conferred upon Joseph Smith and Oliver Cowdery by John the Baptist, these two men called upon the Lord to fulfill the promise he made to bestow upon them the Melchizedek Priesthood. While engaged in prayer about the subject, in the home of Peter Whitmer Sr., the voice of the Lord came to them, and they were commanded to ordain each other.¹ They were also told to ordain others as the Lord directed, but were to defer these ordinations, including their own, until a later date" (263).

"The text of this revelation concerns the choosing of twelve apostles in this dispensation. Oliver Cowdery and David Whitmer were directed by this revelation to make the choice. In actuality, however, all three of the witnesses to the Book of ¹HDDC note: "Section 128:21."

Mormon were called upon in February 1835 to fast and pray and choose out of the elders of the church twelve men who could serve in that capacity.

“An interesting sidelight concerning this revelation is found in a letter addressed to Hyrum Smith and written by Oliver Cowdery. He wrote:

Here follows the text of the letter; read that letter [here.]

“Many of the principles set forth in Section 18 are found in this letter. It, therefore, serves as a good example of how newsworthy the contents of these revelations were to the people of the time.

“This letter also narrows down the time of the reception of Section 18 to the first two weeks of June 1829” (264, 267).

For all men must repent and be baptized, and not only men, but women, and children who have arrived at the years of accountability.

¹Very interesting ideas in this set of verses, from 33–36. I'm sure there are other ways of interpreting them, but here are some ideas from my epistemology of revelation notes: "This is an interesting discussion of the voice of Christ, and its relation to the Spirit. Verse 35 in particular seems to suggest that, because the revelations have been given by the voice of Christ, the people who read them can then testify (verse 36) that they have heard the voice of Christ. Pretty interesting. Also makes me think of 2 Nephi 32, especially verse 6, and how to take the bit at the end of that verse about the things which Christ will "say" unto us. If we go with this way of understanding these verses in DC 18, then you can see us as receiving the revelations and through them hearing the voice of Christ and finding out what he is saying to us."

Section 18:43

And now, after that you have received this, you must keep my commandments in all things;

Section 18:44

Section 18:46

And after that you have received this, if you keep not my commandments you cannot be saved in the kingdom of my Father.¹

Section 18:47

Behold, I, Jesus Christ, your Lord and your God, and your Redeemer, by the power of my Spirit have spoken it. Amen.

Note on the JSP and BC versions

The version featured in the JSP comes from BC, so for this section they are the same; the BC is therefore not included in the alternate versions below. Some of this section does appear in RB1; there is a spot for it below each verse, and you can read the entire thing here. The RB1 account picks up in the middle of verse 20 below, and continues until the end of the section.

Historical Background

JSP

“This revelation, directed to Martin Harris, clarified doctrines regarding the nature of God, Christ’s atonement, repentance, and the afterlife, and it counseled Harris on a variety of matters. Its immediate purpose was to assure payment to printer E. B. Grandin by commanding Harris to ‘not covet thine own property, but impart it freely to the printing of the book of Mormon.’

“Although the first two published versions date this revelation to March 1830, the earliest extant manuscript and the context for the revelation better support a summer 1829 date.² The earliest manuscript version, found in Revelation Book 1, is only partially extant. It includes only the final portion of the revelation and does not bear a date. But when John Whitmer inscribed it in Revelation Book 1, he placed it within a series of 1829 revelations and listed it in the book’s index as an 1829 revelation. When the revelation was first printed, in the 1833 Book of Commandments, it was dated March 1830, with the location and date in parentheses. The Book of Commandments used parentheses frequently to supply information not included in manuscript sources, while the 1835 edition of the Doctrine and Covenants eliminated all such parentheses, with one exception: it retained the parentheses around the dating of this revelation, suggesting that the 1830 date was not certain.

¹But before you received it, if you hadn’t kept the commandments, there would still be a chance?

Although a recollection by Joseph Knight Sr. seems to provide evidence for a March 1830 date, Knight's placement of the revelation in the later time frame is likely explained by his reliance on the 1835 Doctrine and Covenants.¹

"In June 1829, before this revelation was dictated, Harris and JS talked with several printers in Palmyra and Rochester, New York, about printing the Book of Mormon, finally settling on E. B. Grandin of Palmyra. John H. Gilbert, the compositor who assisted Grandin in estimating the cost of the project and later typeset the Book of Mormon, recalled that Harris initiated the negotiations and planned to pay for the printing. Gilbert also remembered that Grandin would not begin work or purchase the needed type from the foundry until 'after Harris had promised to insure the payment for the printing.' Grandin's price to print five thousand copies was $3,000, which would require Harris to impart essentially all of the property to which he had legal right. Printing began in September 1829.

"JS likely dictated the text of this revelation sometime after the negotiations in June and before 25 August 1829, when Harris mortgaged his property to Grandin as payment for the publication, thus apparently fulfilling the revelation's injunction to 'pay the printer's debt.' The language of the revelation suggests that Harris had already agreed to Grandin's terms but had not yet arranged payment. Grandin's brother-in-law later recalled that 'Harris became for a time in some degree staggered in his confidence; but nothing could be done in the way of printing without his aid.' Once Harris mortgaged his property, however, Grandin considered himself paid in full. According to Gilbert, printing then proceeded: 'As quick as Mr. Grandin got his type and got things all ready to commence the work, Hyrum Smith brought to the office 24 pages of manuscript on foolscap paper.'"

HDDC

"It is unfortunate that a revelation of the magnitude of Section 19 received no introduction by the Prophet Joseph Smith in the History of the Church. This revelation, which explains the doctrine of the atonement as it applies to the individual, was directed to Martin Harris...

"Elder Orson Hyde...felt that it [this revelation] was a stinging rebuke to Martin Harris to be called a wicked man. Elder Hyde wrote an article about Martin Harris in the Millennial Star at a time when Martin had received a mission call from the James J. Strang church, of which he was then a member, to come to England as a missionary. Elder Hyde printed Section 19 with this article, and warned the Latter-day Saints in England of the unstable character of this man. In his scathing remarks, Elder Hyde suggests that since this revelation was the last Martin Harris was to receive (see verse 32), he would have to walk through the rest of his life without any inspiration from God.²

"The date of reception of this section is not known. In Table 19, all the entries that contain a date, agree it was given sometime in March 1830. It is interesting that this revelation follows Section 20 in the History of the Church.

"There are three places within Section 19 in which major revisions have been made to the text as it is found in the Book of Commandments. These revisions are verses 13–15, 20, and 23–25. All other variations appear inconsequential" (275–276).

¹JSP note: "In March 1830, Knight traveled with JS to Manchester, New York. As they arrived, they met Martin Harris, who was distraught because no one wanted to buy the Book of Mormon. According to Knight's later narrative, Harris told JS, 'I want a Commandment why says Joseph fulfill what you have got But says he I must have a Commandment.' That night Harris and Knight stayed at the Smith home, and when Harris departed the next morning, Knight heard him again tell JS that 'he must have a Commandment.' When reconstructing this episode in his narrative, Knight consulted the 1835 Doctrine and Covenants to find the revelation that Harris had demanded and found the printed text of this revelation with the expected date. He then wrote, 'And along in the after part of the Day Joseph and Oliver [Cowdery] Received a Commandmant whi[c]h is in Book of Covenants Page 174,' thus associating this revelation, dated '(March 1830)' in the Doctrine and Covenants, with his remembered experience. This passage from Knight's narrative may be viewed as corroborating the March 1830 date. More likely, however, Knight's recollection of the conversation was accurate but he was mistaken in assuming that JS received a new revelation for Harris. By this line of reasoning, when JS told Harris in March 1830 to 'fulfill what you have got,' he was referring to the revelation featured here, which Harris had received the previous summer. The March 1830 date requires interpreting the revelation as chastising Harris for delay in selling off enough of his mortgaged property to come up with some or all of the $3,000 owed to Grandin by the terms of the 25 August 1829 agreement. Given the actual terms of the agreement and the use Grandin made of it, this scenario seems unlikely. This revelation more closely fits a summer 1829 context, and it likely motivated Harris to complete the 25 August 1829 agreement with Grandin soon after."

Section 19:5

Wherefore, I revoke not the judgments which I shall pass, but woes shall go forth, weeping, wailing and gnashing of teeth, yea, to those who are found on my left hand.

¹See Revelation 1:8 and notes there.

²I think this is the only place in the scriptures where “accomplish” occurs with “will” as an object. In the NT, “accomplish” appears most often in Luke, but it seems to mostly mean “fulfill,” though see Luke 9:31.

³Likewise with “finish” here, this is the only place where it occurs with “will” as an object, though see John 4:34, which is close. The Greek word we should probably be looking to here is τελειόω.

⁴See 1 Corinthians 15:28 and Philippians 3:21. There is a family of English words in the NT, such as “subdue,” “submit,” “put under,” and so on, which all translate the Greek ὑποτάσσω. See my note on “submit” at Mosiah 3:19.

⁵For “works” and “deeds” together, see Psalms 28:4, Jeremiah 25:14, James 1:25, and Helaman 10:5.

⁶This verse here begins an extremely important passage, ending with verse 12, about how to understand a certain concept in the scriptures. The principles here extend far beyond this passage. See my notes on the epistemology of revelation, including more notes on these verses in the DC notes.

⁷This “for” acts like a “because” here, and if you think of this verse in terms of an inference, it’s really weird: “I, God, am endless, and therefore every person must repent or suffer.” Difficult to see the connection. You have to add in the next verse at least to get some sense out of it, but even then it’s not that clear.

⁸For “endless” here and elsewhere, see Moses 1:3, which is clearly influenced by this section. Moses 1 is around June 1830, and this section is around March 1830 (I’m not sure when I wrote this note, but this section is from the middle of 1829; there still could be an influence of this section on Moses, but they are not as close as I was assuming in time.)

Section 19:9

I speak unto you that are chosen in this thing, even as one, that you may enter into my rest.⁸

¹Compare DC 76:44–49, especially verse 45, “And the end thereof, neither the place thereof, nor their torment, no man knows,” and 48, “the end, the width, the height, the depth, and the misery thereof, they understand not, neither any man except those who are ordained unto this condemnation.”

³For important commentary on this verse, see my notes on it at the DC section of the epistemology of revelation stuff.

⁴To me, this word here is the Lord saying, “Here's another example of what I'm talking about.”

⁵This phrase, “eternal damnation,” occurs twice in the scriptures outside of this spot—Mark 3:29 and DC 29:44. See my notes on the phrase here.

⁶1828 dictionary for the adjective “express”:

- Plain; clear; expressed; direct not ambiguous. We are informed in express terms or words. The terms of the contract are express.
 - 1 Given in direct terms; not implied or left to inference. This is the express covenant or agreement. We have his express consent. We have an express law on the subject. express warranty; express malice.
 - 2 Copied; resembling; bearing an exact representation. His face express.
 - 3 Intended or sent for a particular purpose, or on a particular errand; as, to send a messenger express.

I think here we have the general meaning of “plain, clear,” but also meaning #3, the pragmatic one, where the Lord is trying to accomplish a specific purpose—to get people to act—and so chooses these words for that purpose, even though they may not be exactly accurate. The adjectival use of “express” isn't common in the scriptures, but it does happen; see 1 Samuel 20:21 (adverb), Ezekiel 1:3 (adverb), 1 Timothy 4:1 (adverb), Hebrews 1:3, Mosiah 29:36 (adverb), Alma 9:24 (adverb), DC 107:43, 134:6, and 138:40.

⁷Woof—this is an occasion where you really wish that English nouns were declined, so we could see the case of “apostles.” The reason is that there are two options here: the “apostles” could refer to the ancient apostles, and so the verse would say, “it is meet unto you to know even as my apostles in ancient times knew.” But it could also be that “apostles” refers to JS and the other receivers of this revelation, so “mine apostles” would be like an explanation in the predicate of the identity of the people unto whom it's meet that they know. If we had declensions like Latin or Greek then we could tell which of these is right. The BC version, listed as the JSP here, doesn't really help much. The next verse, verse 9, might suggest that the “apostles” here are JS and the others.

²Here begins the explanation of the phrases "endless torment," "eternal damnation," "eternal punishment," and "endless punishment." Their true meaning is that they refer to God's punishment. They draw the "endless"/"eternal" adjectives from designations for God, or from God's attributes, according to this explanation.

³Later, at verse 20, the Lord says that Martin Harris has experienced a very small taste of these punishments when the Lord withdrew the Spirit from him. That tells you something important about the nature of these punishments and what it would feel like to actually undergo them.

Section 19:15

Which suffering caused myself, even God, the greatest of all, to tremble because of pain, and to bleed⁵ at every pore,⁶ and to suffer both body and spirit—and would that I might not drink the bitter cup, and shrink—⁷

¹This “rod of my mouth” bit comes from Isaiah 11:4, and it also shows up at 2 Nephi 21:4 and 2 Nephi 30:9. The Isaiah verse is talking about smiting the Earth, not an individual person.

²Notice here, in the JSP/BC version, the exclamation points, really underscoring what the Lord is saying here. It’s very powerful. This passage, very unfortunately, does not appear in RB1; based on the patterns I’ve noticed there, though, my hypothesis would be that there were no exclamation points in that version, and that they were added when they went to print the BC. It is kind of interesting that we can’t check though.

³A rare word in the scriptures, appearing only four times—here, twice at Alma 36:21, and once at JS-H 1:31. I’m willing to ignore the JS-H one because it would have been written so much later, and so the only real scriptural occurrences of “exquisite” are in the Alma verse. It reads: “Yea, I say unto you, my son, that there can be nothing so exquisite and so bitter as was my pains. Yea, and again I say unto you, my son, that on the other hand there can be nothing so exquisite and sweet as was my joy.” So Alma uses the word to describe both his pain and his joy. The 1828 dictionary has these entries for “exquisite”:

- Literally, sought out or searched for with care; whence, choice; select. Hence,
 - 1 Nice; exact; very excellent; complete; as a vase of exquisite workmanship.
 - 2 Nice; accurate; capable of nice perception; as exquisite sensibility.
 - 3 Nice; accurate; capable of nice discrimination; as exquisite judgment, taste or discernment.
 - 4 Being in the highest degree; extreme; as, to relish pleasure in an exquisite degree. So we say, exquisite pleasure or pain.
 - 5 Very sensibly felt; as a painful and exquisite impression on the nerves.

The two meanings most relevant here seem to be #4 and #5. We do not understand the extreme nature of the suffering Christ endured during the events connected with the atonement.

⁵See Luke 22:44 and Mosiah 3:7.

⁶Notice the important difference between this version and the JSP/BC version: “to bleed at every pore, both body and spirit,” making it seem as though the bleeding was physical blood from the body as well as some kind of spiritual bleeding. If you think of spirit as a certain kind of matter then this is comprehensible and possibly even evidence for it.

⁷See 1 Nephi 4:10 for the language here.

RB1 for they cannot bear meat but milk they must receive. Wherefore, they must not know these things lest they perish ¹See DC 76:69 and my notes there.

²I connected this word “preparations” with the “preparation” for the passover, spoken of in various places (John 19:14 for example). The Greek word is παρασκευή. For that word, see BDAG 685a: “primary sense ‘preparation’...in our literature only of a definite day, as the day of preparation for a festival; according to Israel’s usage...it was Friday, on which day everything had to be prepared for the Sabbath, when no work was permitted (Matthew 27:62).” Whatever Christ is talking about here—the prayer in the garden or something else—in this revelation he describes that as a series of “preparations,” connecting to the “preparations” that people made for the special festivals they celebrated, and most important of all the Passover.

Cowdery's "Articles"

Around June 1829, Oliver Cowdery produced a document called the "Articles of the Church of Christ." It's worth comparing that document, here, to section 20, which came a bit later though has some things in common with what Cowdery produced.

Historical Background

JSP

"The 'articles and covenants of the Church of Christ' set forth the offices, ordinances, and procedures that were to be part of the newly formed church. On 9 June 1830, at the first conference of the church following its organization, this document was presented to the membership for approval. The minutes of that meeting recorded, 'Articles and Covenants read by Joseph Smith jr. and recieved by unanimous voice of the whole congregation, which consisted of most of the male members of the Church.' The importance of Articles and Covenants to the church is suggested by the fact that it was the first revelatory document selected for printing in the church's earliest periodical, The Evening and the Morning Star, and the only one published there twice. In the 1835 edition of the Doctrine and Covenants, the compilers placed Articles and Covenants as the second section, preceded only by the revelatory 'preface.'

"In many ways, Articles and Covenants is unique. No other early revelatory text produced by JS was presented to a conference of the church for the approbation of the membership. The format and style of Articles and Covenants also differed from other revelations. Rather than the first-person voice of God declaring his will to a specific recipient, as in most of JS's ¹So Harris is the blind guide? Guiding who?

²So there are two options: be blind, or be humble and meek and conduct yourself wisely—if you do all of that, you won't be blind.

early revelations, Articles and Covenants instead begins with a third-person historical account of the founding of the church and a brief history of JS. In subsequent paragraphs, the document makes several declarations of belief using the first-person plural statement 'we know.' As with some of JS's other revelatory texts, Articles and Covenants was amended from time to time; the most substantive revisions appear to have been made in preparation for its publication in the 1835 Doctrine and Covenants.¹

"The dating of the first completed draft of Articles and Covenants is uncertain. JS may have begun working on the document as early as the summer of 1829 (the same time that Oliver Cowdery prepared his 'Articles of the Church of Christ'), but the copy of Articles and Covenants that John Whitmer copied into Revelation Book 1, likely in the spring or summer of 1831, bears the date of 10 April 1830, suggesting that the document may not have been finalized until sometime after the formal organization of the church on 6 April 1830. Whitmer, however, positioned it between two early January 1831 revelations, months out of the chronological order he had faithfully kept up to that point. When Articles and Covenants was published in The Evening and the Morning Star in 1832, it was left undated. In the Book of Commandments in 1833, it was dated June 1830, likely reflecting the date of the conference at which it was accepted by the church. And when it was published in the 1835 edition of the Doctrine and Covenants, the date previously published in the Book of Commandments was dropped and it was again left undated. No other revelations in the Book of Commandments had dates similarly discarded by the editors of the Doctrine and Covenants without a different date being inserted.

"Further complicating the dating question, JS's history places the reception of Articles and Covenants in an 1829 context, immediately following the discussion of the heavenly communications in the home of Peter Whitmer Sr. in June 1829. Referring to these experiences, JS's history recounts: 'In this manner did the Lord continue to give us instructions from time to time, concerning the duties which now devolved upon us, and among many other things of the kind, we obtained of him the following [that is, Articles and Covenants], by the Spirit of Prophecy and revelation; which not only gave us much information, but also pointed out to us the precise day upon which, according to his will and commandment, we should proceed to organize his Church once again, here upon the earth.' In this account, the date on which the Church of Christ was to be organized was received by revelation in June 1829. However, if Articles and Covenants was in fact first drafted in 1829, then there were revisions to the text following the organization of the church, because the earliest extant versions all speak of the formation of the church on 6 April 1830 as an accomplished fact, not a pending event. Without an extant 1829 version of the text, it is impossible to determine how much of the document may have been written before April 1830. While it is possible that the text was only revised following the organization to reflect the establishment of the church as a past event, it is also possible that much of the content reflecting the history and the duties of church officers was added after the formation of the church.

"Notwithstanding the unusual aspects of Articles and Covenants, early church members seemed to view it as they did other JS revelations. In Revelation Book 1, John Whitmer's heading described it as 'given to Joseph the seer by the gift & power of God'; Oliver Cowdery later inserted '& Oliver an Apostle' after 'seer.' According to JS's history, in summer 1830 JS responded to an angry letter from Cowdery, disputing a passage about baptism from Articles and Covenants, by asking Cowdery 'by what authority he took upon him to command me to alter, or erase, to add or diminish to or from a revelation or commandment from Almighty God.' This report in his history indicates that JS considered Articles and Covenants to be a revelation at least as early as July 1830.

"The version presented here is from the Painesville Telegraph. While this text and the copy in Revelation Book 1 (the two earliest extant copies) are very similar, certain clarifications and the greater specificity found in Revelation Book 1 indicate that it represents a later iteration of Articles and Covenants. For instance, the text in Revelation Book 1 specifically states how often the elders were to meet in conference: 'The several elders composing this Church of Christ are to meet in conference once in three Month to [do] Church business whatsoever is nessessary &c.' This precision is lacking in the Telegraph version, which simply reads, 'The several elders composing the church of Christ are to meet at each of its meetings to do church business, whatsoever is necessary, &c.,' suggesting that this copy is related to an earlier version of the text that had not yet delineated the frequency of conferences. Other significant differences between the Telegraph version and other early versions of the revelation are identified in annotation to the text.¹³ Differences in punctuation have not been noted. Much of the punctuation in the version below was probably introduced by Telegraph editor Eber D. Howe rather than being copied from a prior manuscript version.

"The Telegraph claimed it had obtained its copy of Articles and Covenants 'from the hand of Martin Harris, one of the original proprietors of the "Gold Bible" speculation.' While this story cannot be corroborated, many years later a Kirtland resident claimed in a letter reflecting on the events of early 1831 that 'Martin Harris one of the three witnesses to the Book of Mormon in the course of the winter came to this place with a revelation from Joseph to the saints & they were commanded not to let the Gentiles see it or know anything of its purport. One evening he was in a large social circle in deep conversation when I discovered the revelation in his hat[,] pocketed it & with a young man by the name of Taneur withdrew unobserved from the company copied it & returned it to his hat before the company broke up & in a few days copies of it were circulating among the Gentiles verry much to their consternation & mystification.'

¹See JSP R2:291–299 for a comparison between the EMS version and the 1835 version.

“The Telegraph included two other revelations at the end of the text of Articles and Covenants as though they were part of the same document. The texts of Revelation, 16 April 1830 [D&C 22], concerning the requirement of rebaptism for those baptized previously, and Revelation, circa August 1830 [D&C 27], concerning the sacrament, sequentially follow the text of Articles and Covenants without any clear break or heading to designate the beginning of a new document. The editor of the Telegraph probably presented these three revelations as a single document because the text he copied also ran the three texts together. This connection was not unique to the version published in the Telegraph—two other early versions of Articles and Covenants, including the first version published in a church-owned newspaper, also appended the 16 April 1830 revelation. Since three of the earliest four versions of Articles and Covenants include the 16 April 1830 revelation, it is possible that the text presented to the 9 June 1830 conference also included it. Early church members may have seen the 16 April 1830 revelation as clarifying the topic of baptism in Articles and Covenants and thus may have appended this revelation to their copies for convenience. Here, the Telegraph version of Articles and Covenants is presented without the text of the other two revelations because the official register of the revelations, Revelation Book 1, separated them.

“The historical background of Section 20 is somewhat clouded by the inability of anyone to attach a date to it. Most of the entries in Table 20 omit the date, and those three that have it are anywhere up to three months in disagreement. The Manuscript History of the Church has the general date of 1830 for this section, the D&C has April 1830, and the Book of Commandments has June 1830. In the History of the Church, Section 20 (undated) precedes Section 19 (March 1830). Since all the revelations in the History of the Church are supposed to be in chronological order, this arrangement suggests Section 20 was received sometime prior to March 1830...

“In actuality, Joseph Smith and Oliver Cowdery may have received some of the information in this section in 1829, as they were making preparations to organize the Church. Many of the churches of that time had confessions, creeds, platforms, or articles of faith wherein they gave a brief statement about their church. Such a document included something about their basic beliefs, doctrine, expectations of the members of the church, and other such items that would be useful to the investigator or non-member. Section 20, which became known as the Articles and Covenants of the Church, has many parallels to the confessions of the Christian churches of the day. Section 20 is composed of short statements about basic doctrines, ordinances, duties of members and priesthood bearers, and finally, the baptismal and sacrament prayers.

“What appears to be an early draft of the Articles and Covenants of the Church, in Oliver Cowdery’s handwriting, and housed in the Historical Department of the Church, is given in toto at this point because of its importance to the discussion: [Here follows the “Articles of the Church of Christ” written by Cowdery in June 1829.]

“There are some items in this document that should be emphasized. First of all, it was a commandment from God for Oliver Cowdery to write these articles of the Church. If it was a commandment, how that commandment was received is important. If the procedure was the same then as now, such a commandment would have come through the Prophet. Secondly, most of this holograph consists of quotations taken from earlier revelations and the Book of Mormon. Most of these same Book of Mormon quotes are retained in the current form of Section 20. Finally, this document was called the Articles of the Church of Christ. This is just about the same name given Section 20 during the first decade of the Church.

“If this document really is a forerunner to Section 20, two problems concerning this section are, in part, answered. First, this section has had numerous additions and deletions. In the Kirtland reprint of the Evening and Morning Star, this section, basically as it appears in the D&C, is entitled: ‘The Articles and Covenants of the Church [With a few items from other revelations.]’ At one time Section 22 was part of this section, and then later deleted. Also, verses 66 and 67 are later additions. Therefore, if Section 20 is a composite, then these additions and deletions would be a natural part of the process of such a compilation.

“The second item involves an angry letter that Oliver Cowdery wrote to the Prophet Joseph Smith in July or August of 1830 demanding that part of verse 37, which he considered to be in error, be taken out of the record of the revelation. A portion of this early document is similar to verse 37 in Section 20, but does not contain that part of the verse Oliver Cowdery wanted removed. He may have felt that this addition was an unwarranted intrusion on what he had written by assignment. Later, however, he recanted when the Prophet explained to his satisfaction the need to include this addition.

“If these bits and pieces of evidence really do fall into the pattern suggested here, then this is a classic example of what Latter-day Saints had revealed to them in Sections 67 and 68 of the D&C. In Section 67, we are informed that the revelations were given in the language of the Prophet Joseph Smith with all of the imperfections he had in expressing himself.¹ And in Section 68, we are told that when a servant of the Lord is moved upon by the Holy Ghost, what he says is the mind and will of the Lord, and is scripture. The historical background of Section 20, therefore, appears to be the struggle of Joseph Smith and Oliver Cowdery to put into words the basic beliefs and tenets of the Church, and to organize their thoughts, under the inspiration of the Holy Ghost, into a document that is not a word-for-word dictation from the Lord, but one that was inspired by his Spirit, and therefore, scripture.

“On June 9, 1830, the first conference of the Church was held as directed by the Articles and Covenants of the Church. The complete Articles and Covenants were read in this conference by Joseph Smith as one of the first items of business. This document was then received by then, ‘unanimous voice of the whole congregation.’ Thus Section 20 became the first revelation of this dispensation canonized by the Church. From that point on, many of the basic practices of the Church have been conducted in accordance with this revelation. In succeeding conferences the Articles and Covenants were read in order that the Latter-day Saints, both old and new, might remember the policies and procedures they were to follow...

“No other revelation in the D&C is plagued with as many variations in text as is Section 20. A quick check into the Text Analysis will show the origin of many of these variations to be centered in the several manuscript copies. Since there were so many copies of Section 20 being circulated, and since care was not always taken in copying, it is understandable why this condition exists. Those copies used to publish the revelations were not altogether correct either, and so the variations flowed over into the periodicals of the Church. Such a situation called forth the following apology from William W. Phelps at the time he reprinted Section 20 in the Evening and Morning Star:

We have again inserted the articles and covenants according to our promise in a previous number, for the benefit of our brethren abroad who have not the first number of this volume. As there were, some errors which had got into them by transcribing, we have since obtained the original copy and made the necessary connections.²

By the time Section 20 was printed in the 1835 edition of the D&C, the text became stabilized and has varied little since then.

“Of all the variations, eight seem to be the most significant. Seven of these are major additions to the manuscripts and early published copies of the revelation. They are identified...as...

[Here follows a list of the eight variations. I’ve given them below, with the verses they correspond to:

- G’ (page 30; verse 13)
- H’ (page 30; verse 14)
- Q’ (page 31; verse 19)

- O (page 33; verse 61)
- V (page 33; verse 64)
- K’ (page 33; verse 62)

HDDC then continues.]

“The eighth variation is found in verse 73. Until 1835 the baptismal prayer was just as it is given in the Book of Mormon (3 Nephi 11:25), and from the Kirtland reprint of the Evening and Morning Star on, the prayer is in the form found in the current edition of the D&C” (286–301).

¹What “things” are we talking about here? I assume it’s the “inspiration” of verse 10, the fact that the Lord has spoken and people have heard his voice from verse 16, and so on. These are experiential things that have given them knowledge of God. The restoration tradition is pretty clear about this, that knowledge of God comes by personal experience, and not by argument or some philosophical reasoning. I’m not sure how this compares to the time period of the early 1800’s but it’s definitely unusual from the perspective of early modern philosophy.

²The 1828 dictionary says that “everlasting,” as a noun, means “Eternity; eternal duration, past and future.” The construction “everlasting to everlasting” appears four times in Psalms (41:13, 90:2, 103:17, 106:48), at Moroni 7:22, here, DC 61:1, DC 109:77, and DC 132:20.

³This is the only occurrence of “unchangeable God” in the scriptures.

⁵See Genesis 1:27, though this verse here adds “and in his own likeness.”

⁶I think we should be applying this point not only to Adam and Eve, whoever they are, but to ourselves—that’s the important part. We become “fallen” ourselves when we transgress the laws, at any point. See Mosiah 3:16.

⁷For the phrase “sensual and devilish,” see James 3:15.

Section 21 (6 April 1830)

Historical Background

JSP

“JS dictated this revelation at the home of Peter Whitmer Sr. in Fayette Township, New York, after the meeting at which the Church of Christ was organized. Such a meeting had been anticipated by JS and his followers for over a year, in part because JS’s revelations had foretold the establishment of a church. A March 1829 revelation to Martin Harris, for example, prophesied that a church would be established after three witnesses testified that they had seen the gold plates and after the words found on the plates were ‘sent forth.’ Another JS revelation in spring 1829 confirmed that a church would be established, even as the texts translated from the gold plates prompted JS and Oliver Cowdery to consider questions foundational to a church organization and described how Christ established his church in ancient America. By June, a revelation commanded Cowdery to ‘build up my church,’ and he subsequently drafted a text, which he titled ‘A commandment from God unto Oliver how he should build up his Church & the manner thereof.’ The document read as though it was intended for immediate implementation.

“JS, however, later reported that he was directed to delay the establishment of the Church of Christ. His history explained that a revelation ‘pointed out to us the precise day upon which, according to his will and commandment, we should proceed to organize his Church once again, here upon the earth.’ Apparently once a separate June 1829 text, it was incorporated as part of ‘Articles and Covenants,’ a foundational document outlining the governing beliefs, principles, and offices of the church. JS’s history described another divine communication, received that June at the home of Peter Whitmer Sr. in Fayette, New York, when the ‘word of the Lord’ instructed JS and Cowdery to wait to ordain each other elders ‘untill, such times, as it should be practicable’ to meet with all the believers who would vote ‘to accept us as spiritual teachers, or not.’ JS and Cowdery were instructed that when the time came they should ‘then call out such men as the Spirit should dictate, and ordain them, and then attend to the laying on of hands for the gift of the Holy Ghost.’

“Describing the fulfillment of those instructions, JS’s history explained that JS and his associates ‘met together for that purpose, at the house of...M^r Whitmer [Peter Whitmer Sr.]’ on 6 April 1830. Those who attended the meeting, the history further explained, ‘consented by an unanimous vote. I then laid my hands upon Oliver Cowdery and ordained him an Elder...after which he ordained me also to the office of an Elder of said Church.’ They then partook of the sacramental bread and wine and ‘then laid...hands on each individual member of the Church present that they might receive the gift of the Holy Ghost, and be confirmed members of the Church of Christ.’ Then, while the group was ‘yet together,’ JS dictated the revelation featured below.¹

“Eyewitness accounts affirm the date and place this document was dictated; nevertheless, early documents indicate some confusion about both. In the heading to the text itself in Revelation Book 1, the earliest extant copy, and in the table of contents to that volume, John Whitmer dated the revelation to 1829. Later, that date was crossed out multiple times by Oliver Cowdery, who subsequently inserted ‘April 1830,’ after which John Whitmer inserted the number ‘6’ to specify the date as 6 April. Whitmer may have originally written ‘1829’ because the revelation was situated in Revelation Book 1 next to a revelation that does date from 1829. In any case, the text of the revelation supports Cowdery’s redaction by referring to the establishment of the church in the past tense.

“Even though this, the earliest extant version of the revelation, gives Fayette, New York, as the place of dictation, the earliest printed version changed the location to Manchester. The mistake seems to have been the result of confusion on the part of typesetter and printer William W. Phelps in Independence, Missouri, as he prepared this and other revelations for publication in the 1833 Book of Commandments. Phelps, who joined the church in June 1831 and therefore had no firsthand knowledge of the date or place of organization, added ‘6’ to five short April 1830 revelations from Manchester and then followed them with this 6 April text—but he ignored the statement ‘given at Fayette Seneca County’ on the manuscript and instead inserted Manchester to match the others for which he had supplied the same date. Although Phelps and others elsewhere repeated that the church was organized in Manchester, the earliest manuscript and later eyewitness accounts, as well as early financial and legal documents, confirm the correct location as Fayette Township.”

"Both the Painesville Telegraph version and the one found in Revelation Book 1 appear to have been created about the same time, but differences between the two versions indicate that the former was based on an earlier copy; therefore, the Telegraph version is featured here."

Historical Background

JSP

"JS dictated this revelation shortly after the formal organization of the church on 6 April 1830. While the version featured here does not include a specific date, a manuscript copy in the handwriting of William E. McLellin dates the revelation to 16 April 1830. When John Whitmer copied the revelation into Revelation Book 1, he likely wrote the heading found there: 'A Revelation given to Joseph the Seer Some were anxious to Join the Church without Rebaptism & Joseph enquired of the Lord & he received as follows.'

"Although several passages in the Book of Mormon emphasized the necessity of baptism by proper authority, no revelation prior to 16 April 1830 explicitly addressed the question of rebaptism for those who had been baptized in other faiths. Oliver Cowdery's June 1829 'Articles of the Church of Christ' prescribed the method of baptism and the wording of the baptismal prayer, declaring that 'whosoever repenteth & humbleth himself before me & desireth to be baptized in my name shall ye baptize them,' but it did not address the question of rebaptism. The revelatory document on church government known as 'Articles and Covenants,' which superseded Cowdery's earlier document, clarified that baptism was necessary for entry into the church but did not explicitly address rebaptism either.

¹See above, in the historical background, for what JS is ordained to.

“The version of the 16 April revelation featured [in the JSP] was published in the Painesville Telegraph and reportedly obtained from Martin Harris. The newspaper appended the revelation to its publication of Articles and Covenants, as though it were part of that text. Sidney Gilbert’s early revelation notebook also appended the 16 April revelation to the end of Articles and Covenants, again without a separate heading or title. The first version of Articles and Covenants published in a church newspaper, in June 1832, likewise combined the two documents. The combining of these two texts in so many early versions suggests that the 16 April revelation was seen as an extension of the instructions on baptism contained in Articles and Covenants. The 16 April revelation is presented separately herein because the official version, found in Revelation Book 1, records it as a discrete text.

“Despite the clarity this revelation may have provided church members, the requirement of rebaptism became a point of contention for many outside the church. Opponents criticized followers of JS for teaching ‘that their book contained a new covenant, to come under which the disciple must be re-immersed,’ and when Thomas Campbell, father of Disciples of Christ founder Alexander Campbell, set forth his objections to JS’s teachings, he argued that ‘re-baptizing believers is making void the ordinance of Christ.’”

Historical Background

To Oliver Cowdery, verses 1–2

JSP

“Each of the following five revelations, which were dictated soon after the organization of the Church of Christ on 6 April 1830, addressed one of JS’s family members or a close associate who desired to know the Lord’s will concerning himself. All five texts include similar content and phrasing, and JS likely dictated them one after the other. John Whitmer recorded them separately in Revelation Book 1 and assigned the date ‘AD 1830’ to each one. Though the editors of the Book of Commandments printed the revelations separately and gave each the date of 6 April 1830, that date appears to be in error and was dropped two years later, in 1835, when the Doctrine and Covenants combined the texts into a single document with a general ‘April, 1830’ date. JS’s history and other sources suggest that the revelations date between the 6 April organization and an 11 April meeting, both of which took place in Fayette Township, New York.”

To Hyrum Smith, verse 3

JSP

“Soon after the 6 April 1830 organizational meeting, JS dictated revelations to five individuals who were ‘anxious to know of the Lord what might be their respective duties’ now that the church was formally established. This revelation was directed to one of the five, JS’s older brother Hyrum Smith. Almost a year earlier, Hyrum visited Harmony, Pennsylvania, while JS was translating the Book of Mormon. During that visit JS announced a revelation that instructed Hyrum, ‘Seek not to declare my word, but first seek to obtain my word, and then shall your tongues be loosed; then, if you desire you shall have my Spirit, and my word: Yea, the power of God unto the convincing of men: but now hold your peace.’ During the next year, Hyrum testified as one of the Eight Witnesses to the gold plates, safeguarded the Book of Mormon manuscript during printing, and proofread the printer’s copy of the Book of Mormon.”

To Samuel Smith, verse 4

JSP

“JS dictated this revelation for his brother Samuel Harrison Smith shortly after the formal organization of the Church of Christ on 6 April 1830. It was one of five revelations that came after Samuel Smith, Hyrum Smith, Oliver Cowdery, Joseph Smith Sr., and Joseph Knight Sr. showed an eagerness to learn their respective responsibilities as members of the newly founded church. In May 1829, Samuel was the third believer to be baptized, and he later held and examined the plates and testified of their existence.”

To Joseph Smith Sr., verse 5

JSP

“Joseph Smith Sr. was one of JS’s earliest supporters and confidants. He was the first person JS told about the visitation of Moroni and later became one of the witnesses of the gold plates. As early as February 1829, Joseph Sr. asked JS what the Lord required of him and subsequently became one of the first recipients of JS’s recorded revelations. This, then, was the second revelation directed to Joseph Sr. It was one of five similarly worded revelations directed to individuals who desired to know the Lord’s will.

“JS’s history states that Joseph Smith Sr. ‘came forward shortly after’ the 6 April 1830 meeting and was baptized. Lucy Mack Smith recalled, ‘Joseph stood on the shore when his father came out of the water and as he took him by the hand he cried out Oh! my God I have lived to see my father baptized into the true church of Jesus Christ and he covered his face in his father’s bosom and wept aloud for joy.’”

To Joseph Knight Sr., verses 6–7

JSP

“Joseph Knight Sr., of Colesville, New York, probably met JS in 1826, when he hired JS as a laborer. Knight proved to be a loyal friend to JS, frequently providing money, food, supplies, and other assistance. He was particularly helpful during April and May of 1829, when JS and Oliver Cowdery were translating the gold plates in Harmony, Pennsylvania. Though an early supporter and believer, Knight was not baptized a member of the Church of Christ until June 1830. Knight was among those anxiously seeking to know their duty in light of the organization of the new church on 6 April 1830; JS subsequently dictated this revelation. Implying that Knight was hesitant to pray publicly, the revelation included the admonition to ‘pray vocally before the World.’”

Historical Background

JSP

“During the two months after the Church of Christ was organized, JS met with believers in three New York locations: the areas of Manchester, Fayette, and Colesville. Several people were baptized and the first church conference was convened before JS returned home to his wife Emma in Harmony, Pennsylvania, around mid-June. About 26 June, JS, Emma, Oliver Cowdery, David Whitmer, and John Whitmer traveled to Colesville, where Emma and a number of others were baptized, even though several Colesville residents destroyed a previously constructed dam in the stream in an attempt to prevent the baptisms. Before these believers could be confirmed, however, JS was twice arrested and charged, as his history recounted, with ‘being a disorderly person; of setting the country in an uproar by preaching the Book of Mormon.’ He was released in both instances, but he needed the help of a constable to escape from his antagonists and make his way to the house of Emma’s sister, Elizabeth Hale Wasson, in Harpursville, where he and Emma were reunited. They returned to Harmony the next day, quite likely 3 July, and a few days later JS and Cowdery came back to Colesville to confirm the recently baptized converts. Before they could do so, a mob assembled, and JS and Cowdery quickly left again. Sometime between their return to Harmony and Cowdery’s departure for Fayette around mid-July, JS dictated this and the following two revelations. This text instructed JS and Cowdery ‘concerning their Calls’; JS had earlier been identified as prophet, seer, and translator, as well as an apostle and first elder, and Cowdery as second elder.

“The revelation specifically commanded JS to continue confirming baptized believers, dictating revelations, and expounding the scriptures, and commanded Cowdery (and perhaps JS with him) to go forth and preach. Although the word apostle is not used in this passage, the language describing Cowdery’s calling closely parallels Jesus’s instructions to his apostles. For Cowdery, it may have reinforced the June 1829 revelation describing him as having the same calling as ‘Paul mine apostle’¹ and the 6 April 1830 revelation that referred to him as ‘mine Apostle.’”²

JSP

¹See the “casting/shaking dust” phrase here.

²See Luke 10:4, among other places.

“The 1833 Book of Commandments placed the revelation directed to Emma Smith between the other two July 1830 texts, but when John Whitmer, who was in Harmony in July and was the recipient of one of these revelations, originally copied all three into Revelation Book 1, he placed this one last, the order accepted here. In addition to the Revelation Book 1 copy, private copies also were made, such as Ezra Booth’s. This was also one of the few revelations reproduced in Eber D. Howe’s Mormonism Unveiled in 1834.

“By July 1830, JS had dictated almost thirty revelations for individuals or small groups, but no women are known to have been included among the recipients. This revelation reflected the vital role that Emma Smith played in JS’s life and also foreshadowed a larger role for her in his work. The revelation called her ‘an Elect Lady’ and charged her to comfort JS in his afflictions, select hymns for the church, preach to church members, and write for JS so that Oliver Cowdery could serve elsewhere.

When Whitmer copied this text into Revelation Book 1, he described it as a commandment to Emma Smith ‘to select Hymns.’ In 1835, she, along with William W. Phelps, compiled the church’s first hymnal, A Collection of Sacred Hymns, for the Church of the Latter Day Saints, one of the few church publications at the time and a book that played an important part in the church’s worship practices. The revelation also explained to Emma, ‘Thou shalt be ordained under his hand to expound Scriptures & exhort the Church.’ When the Female Relief Society of Nauvoo was founded in 1842 and the members selected Emma as the president, JS read this revelation to those who were present and explained that Emma had been ‘ordain’d at the time, the Revelation was given, to expound the scriptures to all; and to teach the female part of community.’”¹

JSP

“From the time that JS took possession of the gold plates in September 1827, his days were increasingly filled with work relating to the translation. After the publication of the Book of Mormon in March 1830, he spent much of his time building up the church and ministering to its members. He traveled back and forth between Harmony, Pennsylvania, and the three branches of the church in New York, leaving him less time to work on his farm and care for his material needs. Around mid-July 1830, a revelation addressed these matters, instructing him to ‘magnify thy office & after that thou hast sowed thy fields & Secured them then go speedily unto the Church which is in Colesvill Fayette & Manchester & they shall support thee.’¹ Shortly thereafter, this revelation called JS, Oliver Cowdery, and John Whitmer to study the scriptures, preach, confirm the Colesville believers, and work on JS’s farm until the next conference.”

Changes to this section and versions of it

The current version of this section is 18 verses long. The original version, found in the JSP and originating in RB1, is about a third of that length; it has verses 1–4, part of 5, 14, part of 15, and part of 18.

¹See DC 24:3.

²This is an interesting idea but also an unusual one, since it’s pretty clear that very little in the church is actually done by common consent.

BC is basically identical to JSP/RB1.

The additions which make the section into what we know now first appear in the 1835 DC.

Note that this revelation also appeared in EMS, March 1833. That version is basically identical to JSP/RB1 as well, and so it's basically identical to the BC version, but the paragraph breaks are slightly different between the BC and EMS versions.

Parts of this revelation also appeared in early versions of the PGP. See HDDC 395–397 for more.

There is an early version of this revelation in the handwriting of Edward Partridge (mentioned at HDDC 395), and it was also published in the Painesville Telegraph at one point. JSP has this to say: “Two other versions, one copied by Edward Partridge (with minor gaps in the text of the manuscript) and the other published in the Painesville (OH) Telegraph, are contemporaneous to the featured text below.¹ No significant variant reading distinguishes any of the three texts as being clearly produced earlier than the other two. But because one of the other versions is missing text and the other includes added punctuation, the text below [from RB1] is likely the best representation of the earliest text” (D1:164).

Historical Background

JSR

JSR has an extended commentary on the background of this section, the changes, and the title “Elias,” among other things. See that commentary here.

JSP

“This revelation announced guidelines for what members of the Church of Christ should use in the sacrament of the Lord’s Supper to represent the blood of Christ. JS’s history explained that he dictated the revelation during a visit from Newel and Sally Knight to his home in Harmony in August 1830: ‘As neither his wife nor mine had been as yet confirmed, it was proposed that we should confirm them, and partake together of the sacrament, before he and his wife should leave us.— In order to prepare for this; I set out to go to procure some wine for the occasion, but had gone only a short distance when I was met by a heavenly messenger, and received the following revelation.’¹ The revelation told JS to use only new wine made by members of the church.

“Both the dating and the text of this revelation present challenges. The earliest extant copy, in Revelation Book 1 (the version featured here), dated it broadly to the year 1830, and John Whitmer placed it between revelations dated July and September 1830. Despite Whitmer’s placement, however, the versions published in 1833 in The Evening and the Morning Star and the Book of Commandments specified 4 September 1830 as the date. The versions published in the 1835 Evening and Morning Star reprint and in the 1835 edition of the Doctrine and Covenants included two additional paragraphs and dated the entire revelation to September 1830, removing the precise date mentioned in the earlier publications. In his later history, however, JS said that the first paragraph of the 1835 text ‘was written at this time [early August 1830], and the remainder in the September following.’² JS, then, affirmed that the first part should be dated August 1830 and the remainder September 1830, in which case the date of 4 September 1830 found in the earlier printed versions may have reflected the date of dictation of the second portion.

“Early manuscripts, including the copy featured here, contain only the first portion of the combined revelation as published in 1835. Although an earlier manuscript may have existed for the September portion, the earliest extant text for the expanded version of the revelation is the 1835 edition of the Doctrine and Covenants. For the annotated treatment of the expanded version, see the volume of the Documents series that covers 1835”³ (D1:165).

“In August and September 1830, JS dictated a revelation providing guidelines about the food and drink that were to be used in the administration of the sacrament. The revelation was recorded in Revelation Book 1, likely in 1831, and published, with minor edits, in the March 1833 issue of The Evening and the Morning Star and the 1833 Book of Commandments. The revelation was published again in the 1835 Doctrine and Covenants. The 1835 version, featured here, contains information not present in the earlier versions; in fact, less than one third of the 1835 text appears in the 1831 or 1833 texts. The additional information contains considerable detail about Jesus Christ one day partaking of sacramental wine with JS and various prophets and apostles from the Bible and the Book of Mormon. Also included is material emphasizing the transmission of priesthood keys—or the authority to govern and lead the church—to JS by biblical prophets, apostles, and patriarchs. In particular, the revelation outlines specific keys held by Elias and Elijah and references a visit by Peter, James, and John to ¹This is from volume A-1 of the history.

ordain JS and Oliver Cowdery as apostles. This is the first clear documentary reference to angelic visitations by Peter, James, and John and the first clear reference to their conferral of priesthood keys.¹

“The historical record is silent as to when or how the additional information in the 1835 version was originally recorded, though JS was undoubtedly involved. The absence of the content in the extant 1831 or 1833 versions suggests the extra information may have originated sometime thereafter. In addition, the 1835 version of the revelation identifies the archangel Michael as Adam and equates Adam with the ancient of days referred to in the Book of Daniel. Not until at least 1833 did church members appear to have identified Adam with Michael and the ancient of days.² However, it is possible that JS dictated all of this information in 1830. JS’s history indicates that the ‘first paragraph’ of the revelation, which represents most of the original revelation, was written down immediately in early August 1830 and the ‘remainder in the September following.’ But if all of what appears in the 1835 version was originally dictated in 1830, it is unclear why the additional material was not included in the extant 1831 and 1833 versions.

“As published in the 1835 edition of the Doctrine and Covenants, the revelation contains much information about the conferral of keys, or authority, upon JS. Although some 1829 and 1830 revelations spoke of JS holding keys, they referred specifically to the keys to bring forth the Book of Mormon and other ancient records. In 1831 and 1832, revelations referred frequently to JS and others holding keys that allowed them to administer the church. For example, revelations indicated that JS held ‘the keys of the mysteries of the kingdom’ and ‘the keys of the kingdom of God,’ similar to ‘the keys of the kingdom of heaven’ held by Peter in the New Testament. This 1835 version of the revelation expands on these concepts, specifying what keys had been given to JS and others, who had provided those keys, and, by inference, why the keys were necessary.

“The additions published in the 1835 Doctrine and Covenants consist of three intertextual insertions to the second paragraph of the original text” (D4:408–410).

HDDC

“Section 27 is either a composite of two revelations, or one revelation written in two parts. The uncertainty concerning its origin can be traced to two contemporary accounts. The first is given in the History of the Church, wherein one introduction has been written for both parts as follows:

Early in the month of August Newel Knight and his wife paid us a visit at my place in Harmony, Pennsylvania; and as neither his wife nor mine had been yet confirmed, it was proposed that we should confirm them, and partake together of the Sacrament, before he and his wife should leave us. In order to prepare for this I set out to procure some wine for the occasion, but had gone only a short distance when I was met by a heavenly messenger, and received the following revelation, the first four paragraphs of which were written at this time, and the remainder in the September following.

“Newel Knight was aware that this revelation was given during his visit, and wrote the following account in his diary:

In the beginning of August I, in company with my wife, went to make a visit to Brother Joseph Smith, Jr., who then resided at Harmony Penn. We found him and his wife well, and in good spirits. We had a happy meeting. It truly gave me joy to again behold his face. As neither Emma, the wife of Joseph Smith, nor my wife had been confirmed, we concluded to attend to that holy ordinance at this time, and also to partake of the sacrament, ¹JSP note: “The date of Peter, James, and John’s visit is unknown, but sources indicate it occurred sometime after John the Baptist’s May 1829 visit to confer the lesser priesthood on JS and Oliver Cowdery. A later JS history indicates that John the Baptist acted under the direction of Peter, James, and John and promised they would later provide a higher, or additional, authority. In the preface to his 1832 history, JS indicated his intention to record his ‘reception’ of both ‘the holy Priesthood’ and ‘the high Priesthood,’ neither of which the unfinished 1832 history addressed. Cowdery also noted receiving the Melchizedek, or ‘high and holy,’ Priesthood in Patriarchal Blessing Book 1, but the featured text predates that entry by a month” (D4:408–409). For the reference to Cowdery and the Patriarchal Blessing Book, see EPB 3, which records Cowdery’s introductory comments to some early blessings; these comments were apparently written in September 1835: “But before baptism, our souls were drawn out in mighty prayer to know how we might obtain the blessings of baptism and of the Holy Spirit, according to the order of God, and we diligently sought for the right of the fathers and the authority of the holy priesthood, and the power to admin[ister] in the same: for we desired to be followers of righteousness and the possessors of greater knowledge, even the knowledge of the mysteries of the kingdom of God. Therefore, we repaired to the woods, even as our father Joseph said we should, that is to the bush, and called upon the name of the Lord, and he answered us out of the heavens, and while we were in the heavenly vision the angel came down and bestowed upon us this priesthood; and then, as I have said, we repaired to the water and were baptized. After this we received the high and holy priesthood: but an account of this will be given elsewhere, or in another place.” Note how some of Cowdery’s language here is similar to the Book of Abraham, which they were working on at this same time; the bits about “sought for the right of the fathers and the authority of the holy priesthood,” and other parts. See, for example, the Book of Abraham manuscript from the second half of 1835.

before we should leave for home. In order to prepare for this, Brother Joseph set out to procure some wine for the occasion, but he had gone only a short distance, when he was met by a heavenly messenger, and received the first four verses of the revelation given on page 138, of the Doctrine and Covenants (new Edition), the remainder being given in the September following at, Fayette, New York.¹

“Newel Knight’s statement that there were two revelations stands in sharp contrast to the Prophet’s that there was only one. Newel Knight further separated these two when he said the first was given in Harmony, Pennsylvania, and the second in Fayette, New York. The difference between these two accounts may be the reason why there is such a variety of dates suggested for this revelation” (393–394).

²This verse is a pretty clear reference to Matthew 26:29. You could take it as fulfilling the prophecy that Christ makes in that verse, but he seems to say that he himself will be drinking the new wine, and I'm not sure that this verse or some other event in the restoration would really be a fulfillment of that part of the prophecy. Christ does address that part of his prophecy in the next verse, when he promises to drink "of the fruit of the vine with you on the earth." He says that time is coming.

Historical Background

JSP

“This revelation was a response to actions by Oliver Cowdery and Hiram Page that raised the question of whether JS was the only one authorized to deliver revelation to the church. The question first arose in summer 1830 when Oliver Cowdery ‘commanded’ JS to change a passage in ‘Articles and Covenants,’ a document outlining the basic beliefs and practices of the Church of Christ. When the church was organized on 6 April 1830, Cowdery was ordained second elder while JS was ordained first elder, and the two worked closely together to oversee the newly formed organization. Presumably Cowdery worked with JS in preparing Articles and Covenants and was part of the ‘unanimous voice of the whole congregation’ that approved Articles and Covenants at the first conference of the church on 9 June, yet weeks later he sent a letter ordering JS to make a correction to the document. According to JS’s history, Cowdery objected to the requirement that candidates for baptism ‘truly manifest by their works that they have received the gift of Christ unto the remission of their sins,’ and he wrote to JS, ‘I command you in the name of God to erase those words, that no priestcraft be amongst us.’² In response, JS traveled from Harmony, Pennsylvania, to Fayette, New York, to persuade Cowdery and the Whitmers that they were ¹For this verse and below, see Ephesians 6:11–18.

²The source here is HC, and TCHC doesn’t point to any other source for this remark of Cowdery.

mistaken. According to JS's later account, it was 'not without both labor and perseverance' that he 'could prevail with any of them to reason calmly on the subject.' Finally, with support from Christian Whitmer, JS convinced Cowdery and the Whitmer family 'that they had been in error, and that the sentence in dispute was in accordance of the rest of the commandment.'

"The second challenge to JS's authority came in early September, when JS and Emma Smith moved from Harmony to Fayette and found to their 'great grief' that 'Brother Hyrum [Hiram] Page had got in his possession, a certain stone, by which he had obtained to certain revelations...all of which were entirely at variance with the order of Gods house, as laid down in the new Testament, as well as in our late revelations.'¹ With another conference of the church approaching, JS initially 'thought it wisdom not to do much more than to converse with the brethren on the subject, untill the conference should meet.' But upon finding that many, including Cowdery and the Whitmer family, supported Page, JS (apparently with Cowdery's encouragement) decided it would be 'best to enquire of the Lord concerning so important a matter.' Before the conference convened, JS dictated the revelation featured here, which addressed the issues surrounding both Cowdery's role and 'the things set forth by this [Page's] stone.'

"While affirming that Cowdery was called to teach and would receive revelation, the text stated that he was not to write revelation to the church by commandment and added, 'Thou shalt not command him which is at thy head & at the head of the Church for I have given him the keys of the mysteries of the Revelations which are sealed until I shall appoint unto him another in his stead.' The revelation also directed Cowdery to explain to Hiram Page privately that the latter's revelations were from Satan. The role for JS described herein was ratified at the subsequent conference, convened 26 September, at which JS was appointed 'by the voice of the Conference to receive and write Revelations & Commandments for this Church.' Cowdery then read aloud Articles and Covenants, which he had previously criticized, and JS delivered comments on that document.

"This revelation also called Cowdery to preach to the 'Lamanites,' or American Indians, giving specificity to a July revelation for Cowdery that commanded him in general terms to preach the gospel. In addition, the text featured here commanded JS to establish a church among the Lamanites, where 'the City [the New Jerusalem] shall be built.' Although the revelation declared that 'no man' yet knew the location for the New Jerusalem, Cowdery signed a statement on 17 October declaring that he would preach and 'rear up a pillar as a witness where the Temple of God shall be built, in the glorious New-Jerusalem.' A revelation earlier that month had affirmed that church elders would establish the New Jerusalem in America as an apocalyptic fulfillment of both biblical and Book of Mormon prophecy. After other men were called to accompany Cowdery, the group of missionaries left in late October 1830."

HDDC

"Since Newel Knight was an eye-witness to these events, the entry in his diary is valuable:

After arranging my affairs at home, I again set out for Fayette, to attend our second conference, which had been appointed to be held at Father Whitmer's where Joseph then resided. On my arrival I found Brother Joseph in great distress of mind on account of Hyrum Page, who had managed to get up some dissention of feeling among the brethren by giving revelations concerning the government of the Church and other matters, which he claimed to have received through the medium of a stone he possessed. He had quite a roll of papers full of these revelations, and many in the Church were led astray by them. Even Oliver Cowdery and the Whitmer family had given heed to them, although they were in contradiction to the New Testament and the revelations of these last days. Here was a chance for Satan to work among the little flock, and he sought by this means to accomplish what persecution failed to do. Joseph was perplexed and scarcely knew how to meet this new exigency. That night I occupied the same room that he did and the greater part of the night was spent in prayer and supplication. After much labor with these brethren they were convinced of their error, and confessed the same, renouncing the revelations as not being of God, but acknowledged that Satan had conspired to overthrow their belief in the true plan of salvation. In consequence of these things Joseph enquired of the Lord before conference commenced and received the revelation published on page 140 of the Doctrine and Covenants, wherein God explicitly states His mind and will concerning the receiving of revelations.

¹JSP note: "JS History, vol. A-1, 53-54. Newel Knight recalled that Page 'had quite a roll of papers full of these revelations, and many in the church were led astray by them.' Ezra Booth, who wrote a series of antagonistic letters denouncing JS after leaving the church in the fall of 1831, explained his understanding of Page's seer stone: '[He] found a smooth stone, upon which there appeared to be writing, which when transcribed upon paper, disappeared from the stone, and another impression appeared in its place. This when copied, vanished as the former had done, and so it continued alternately appearing and disappearing; in the meanwhile, he continued to write, until he had written over considerable paper. It bore most striking marks of a Mormonite revelation, and was received as an authentic document by most of the Mormonites, till Smith, by his superior sagacity, discovered it to be a Satanic fraud.' George A. Smith later stated that the stone was black and explained that on it Page saw 'certain characters' that he copied down as revelations. Emer Harris also recalled that Page's stone was black; he added that it was destroyed. (Knight, History, 146; 'Letters from David and John C. Whitmer,' Saints' Herald, 5 Feb. 1887, 90; Ezra Booth, 'Mormonism—Nos. VIII-IX,' Ohio Star [Ravenna], 8 Dec. 1831, [1]; George A. Smith, in Journal of Discourses, 15 Nov. 1864, 11:2; Provo, UT, Central Stake, General Minutes, 6 Apr. 1856, vol. 10, p. 273.)"

Conference having assembled, the first thing done was to consider the subject of the stone in connection with Hyrum Page, and after considerable investigation and discussion, Brother Page and all the members of the Church present renounced the stone, and the revelations connected with it, much to our joy and satisfaction.¹

“...Even though Hiram Page’s stone was renounced by its owner and the membership of the Church, it was kept as a souvenir. It eventually was placed in the hands of the leaders of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, and is now housed in their Department of History. Elder Cecil McGavin has had the privilege of examining [sic] this stone, and wrote the following description of it:

It is a flat stone about seven inches long, four wide, and one-quarter inch in thickness. It is dark gray in color with waves of brown and purple gracefully interwoven across the surface. A small hole has been drilled through one end of it as if a string had been threaded through it.²

“An interesting sidelight concerning this stone and the revelations received through it is found in a statement made by David Whitmer fifty-seven years later. He wrote:

As to the revelations which came through Hiram Page’s stone, I will state that Oliver and I never thought much about them. We talked of them, and thought they might be from God, or might be from Satan.”³

Connection to the book of Moses

Beginning around verse 29, there are some interesting connections between this section and the first few books of Moses, and in particular, Moses 4.

Historical Background

JSP

“This revelation addressed the interest of some early church members in a Book of Mormon prophecy that described the physical gathering of God’s chosen people in America. The Book of Mormon explained that during Christ’s ministry in the Americas he prophesied that his chosen people would establish a sacred city, the New Jerusalem. According to the prophecies, “the remnant of Jacob,” which early church members identified as the American Indians, “and also, as many of the house of Israel as shall come” were to build this sacred city and gather to it, assisted by Gentiles who embraced the book’s message. Christ further prophesied that when the progeny of the people described in the Book of Mormon were taught “this Gospel” again, Zion would be established among them.

“The revelation affirmed the imminent advent of the Millennium and declared that members of the Church of Christ were called to help gather God’s people before the great event. It then turned to the creation of the world and the nature of Adam’s fall, subjects JS had recently taken up in his Bible revision. According to the heading, the small group had differing views about “the death of Adam (that is his transgression).” Near the end of the text, the revelation addressed the question of whether God’s commandment to Adam to not partake of the forbidden fruit was spiritual or temporal by declaring, “All things unto me are Spiritual & not at any time have I given unto you a law which was temporal neither any man nor the children of men Neither Adam your father whom I created.” Thus Adam’s “temporal” act of eating the forbidden fruit rendered him “spiritually dead.”

“This revelation called for the gathering of God’s people at the same time that a significant controversy had emerged among the membership of the Church of Christ. In September 1830, JS was attempting to address the problems arising from Hiram Page announcing his own revelations, the authenticity of which was accepted by a number of prominent church members, including Oliver Cowdery and the Whitmer family. Page’s revelations, which concerned “the upbuilding of Zion, the order of the Church &c &c,” and this revelation’s call to gather God’s chosen people prompted another September revelation that clarified JS’s prophetic role as the sole revelator for the church, required Cowdery to correct Hiram Page, and called Cowdery to preach to American Indians in the West.”¹

But remember that all my judgments are not given unto men; and as the words have gone forth out of my mouth even so shall they be fulfilled, that the first shall be last, and that the last shall be first in all things whatsoever I have created by the word of my power,² which is the power of my Spirit.³

JSP but remember that all my judgments are not given unto men & as the words have gone forth out of my mouth even so shall they be fulfilled that the first shall be last & that the last shall be first in all things Whatsoever I have created by the word of my Power which is the Power of my spirit
HSN but remember that all my judgments are not given unto man, and as the words have gone forth out of my mouth even so shall they be fulfilled that the first should be last and that the last should be first in all things, whatsoever I have created by the word of my power which is the power of my spirit

For by the power of my Spirit created I them; yea, all things both spiritual and temporal—⁴

¹What “power” is the Lord speaking of here? Some kind of priesthood power. Could just be referring to the power of resurrection, or maybe the power of atonement, since in 2 Nephi 10:25 that power is spoken of as the power that will allow a person to “be received into the eternal kingdom of God.”

²For occurrences of “word of my power” or very similar phrases, see here.

³For more occurrences of phrases similar to “power of my Spirit,” see here. Note the very important connection to DC 88:7–13. Those verses do not use the word “spirit,” but they talk about the “light of Christ” (verse 7), which is then described as “the power of God who sitteth upon his throne.” I think the key is recognizing that the “light of Christ” is the same as the “spirit of Christ,” and that that “spirit” is what this verse in DC 29:30 is speaking of. See this study for more.

⁴The spiritual/temporal distinction which appears here and in the next few verses reminds me of the “spiritual creation” described in Moses 3:4–7.

JSP for by the Power of my Spirit created I them yea all things both Spiritual & Temperally
HSN for by the power of my spirit created I them, yea all things both spiritual and temporal

Section 29:32

First spiritual, secondly temporal, which is the beginning of my work; and again, first temporal, and secondly spiritual, which is the last of my work—

JSP firstly spiritual secondly temporally which is the Begining of my work & again firstly temporal & secondly spiritual which is the last of my work
HSN firstly spiritual secondly temporal which is the beginning of my work, and again firstly temporal and secondly spiritual which is the last of my work

Section 29:33

JSP Wherefore Verily I say unto you that all things unto me are Spiritual & not at any time have I given unto you a law which was temporal neither any man nor the children of men Neither Adam your father whom I created
HSN wherefore verily I say unto you that all things unto me are spiritual and not at any time have I given unto you a law which was temporal neither any man neither the children of men neither adam your father whom I have created

Section 29:35

Behold, I gave unto him² that he should be an agent unto himself;³ and I gave unto him commandment,⁴ but no temporal commandment gave I unto him, for my commandments are spiritual; they are not natural nor temporal, neither carnal nor sensual.⁵

JSP Behold I give <gave> unto him that he should be an agent unto himself & I gave unto him a commandment but no temporal Commandment gave I unto him for my commandments are spiritual they are not Natural nor temporal neither carnal nor sensual
HSN behold I gave unto him but no carnal commandments for my commandments are spiritual th[e]y are not natural nor temporal neither carnal nor sensual

²I take the "I gave unto him" part to be something like, "I prepared the conditions in which he could be an agent unto himself."

³This whole first part of the verse seems equivalent to the first part of 2 Nephi 2:16: "Wherefore the Lord God gave unto man that he should act for himself."

⁴Note that the JSP version has an indefinite article here, "a commandment."

⁵See James 3:15 and notes there.

Section 29:36

And it came to pass that Adam, being tempted of the devil—for, behold, the devil was before Adam,¹ for he rebelled against me,² saying, Give me thine honor, which is my power;³ and also a third part⁴ of the hosts of heaven turned he away from me because of their agency;⁵

And it must needs be that the devil should tempt the children of men, or they could not be agents unto themselves;⁶ for if they never should have bitter they could not know the sweet—⁷

¹Existed before, or was standing in front of, or both (or some other meaning).

²See DC 76:25 and 28, but especially Moses 4:3, which is a very important parallel to this verse.

³I think the “honor” spoken of here is God’s priesthood. Compare Hebrews 5:4, where you get τιμή; see definition #2.d in BDAG for that word, and also meanings #2 and #3 in CGL. The relative clause which immediately follows the statement tells us that the “honor” is God’s power, and his power is the priesthood. Some people, like Cleon Skousen in an essay somewhere, understand this passage as saying that the honor God receives is his power, but I think that is wrong. The word “honor” is just calling attention to a particular aspect of God’s power, but I think the term still refers here to the priesthood; compare Moses 4:1 and 4:3. Satan wanted the privilege, honor, and glory that God possesses in virtue of having that priesthood power.

⁴I heard Hyrum Andrus once say in a lecture that the phrase “a third part” refers not to a fraction of the total amount, $\frac{1}{3}$, but to the third part out of three different parts, so “third” isn’t a fraction but an ordinal number. This is the only occurrence of “third part” in the restoration scriptures; the phrase occurs 35 times in the Bible, including 14 times in Revelation (the only NT occurrences), and 21 times in the OT. Revelation 8:7–12 uses the phrase 11 times; it occurs once each at Revelation 9:15 and Revelation 9:18; and then at Revelation 12:4. The most relevant parallel to this verse in DC 29 is Revelation 12:4 I think. The Greek for “third part” is τὸ τρίτον (that phrase is also all over Revelation 8). τρίτος is at BDAG 903, where the first meaning is “third in a series, third,” but this is when the word is used as an adjective, which is not the Revelation uses. Used substantively as a noun phrase, as it is in Revelation, BDAG meaning #2 says “as a substantive, a third part of something, third, third part.” Later in the entry it clarifies that this is the fraction use: “the third part, one-third followed by partitive genitive,” after which it lists all the Revelation uses I mentioned above, including 12:4. Note that you get a partitive genitive in 12:4: τὸ τρίτον τῶν ἀστέρων. So the key seems to be whether the word is used as an adjective, frequently in attributive position (Revelation 8:10, ὁ τρίτος ἄγγελος), where it means “third in a series,” (the ordinal meaning), or is used as a substantive, where it’s a way of saying the fraction “one-third.” Compare the alternate translations at 12:4. Given this evidence, the strongest claim you can make against Andrus is that, if DC 29:36 is intended to be a parallel to Revelation 12:4, then it can’t mean “the third part of a group of three items.” I don’t see any reason to think that this is a restoration innovation; it would be simpler to think that roughly $\frac{1}{3}$ of the individuals in the overall group were drawn away. (Compare CGL 1396a, meaning #1, “(of persons or things) third (in a list or sequence, often as last item),” with meaning #5, “(phrase) τρίτον μέρος third part, one third (of an object, country, group of persons, or similar).”) ”

⁶Given what it says here and after this, there’s a knowledge component to agency, among whatever other requirements there might be.

⁷It doesn’t say that people couldn’t experience the sweet; of course they could. What it means is that, without having the bitter, they couldn’t know the sweet as the sweet, or couldn’t know that what they were experiencing was something to be sought after and valued, because of how different it is from

Section 30 as separate revelations

From the JSP historical background, below: “Although these three texts were treated as separate revelations in Revelation Book 1 and the 1833 Book of Commandments, they were combined into a single revelation in the 1835 Doctrine and Covenants.”

These revelations appear as section 52 of the 1835 DC. That section is divided into three verses, where each verse is one of the separate revelations.

Historical Background

JSP

Verses 1–4

“The revelation to David Whitmer featured here, as well as the two that follow (directed to Peter Whitmer Jr. and John Whitmer, respectively), originated during the second conference of the Church of Christ, held in Fayette, New York, in late September 1830. In describing that conference, JS’s history stated that ‘peace, and faith, and hope, and charity abounded in our midst’ and then added, ‘Before we separated we obtained the following, Revelation to David Whitmer, Peter Whitmer Jr. and John Whitmer.’ Although these three texts were treated as separate revelations in Revelation Book 1 and the 1833 Book of Commandments, they were combined into a single revelation in the 1835 Doctrine and Covenants.

Verses 5–8

“In June 1829, Peter Whitmer Jr. was baptized and told in a revelation that ‘the thing which will be of the most worth unto you, will be to declare repentance unto this people.’ Just weeks later, Whitmer became one of the formal witnesses of the Book of Mormon when he saw and handled the gold plates, and by June 1830 he became one of the first elders of the church. The revelation featured here (like those that precede and follow it) originated at the second conference of the church, which was held in Fayette, New York, in late September 1830. It commanded Whitmer to accompany and support Oliver Cowdery, who had been called ‘to build my Church among thy Brethren the Lamanites.’ According to the conference minutes, those present sang and prayed ‘in behalf of Br. Oliver Cowdery & Peter Whitmer jr.’”

Verses 9–11

“This revelation for John Whitmer originated, like the two that precede it, at the second conference of the Church of Christ, which was held in Fayette, New York, in late September 1830. It commanded John Whitmer, who was one of the six founding elders of the church and who had received a license as an elder and an apostle, to preach the gospel. After the church's first conference in June, Whitmer traveled with JS, Oliver Cowdery, and David Whitmer to Harmony, Pennsylvania, and they later traveled to Colesville, New York, to baptize believers. In July, after they returned to Harmony, JS dictated a revelation that instructed Whitmer, along with JS himself and Cowdery, to study the scriptures, preach, confirm the Colesville believers, and help on JS's farm. The revelation featured here called Whitmer to 'proclaim my Gospel as with the voice of a Trump' in Seneca Falls, New York, near his boyhood home.

"Parley P. Pratt, who was baptized and ordained an elder on 1 September 1830, had preached successfully in Seneca Falls shortly after his conversion; he gave a sermon at Philip Burroughs's home, a few miles northeast of the Whitmer farm, where he 'spoke the word of God with power, reasoning out of the Scriptures and the Book of Mormon. The people were convinced, overwhelmed in tears, and four heads of families came forward, expressing their faith, and were baptized.'¹ This revelation informed John Whitmer, "Thy Labour shall be at thy Brother Philips. [Philip Burroughs's]' and in the surrounding area."

Section 31 (September 1830)

Historical Background

JSP

“According to his history, JS dictated this revelation for Thomas B. Marsh during the 26 September 1830 conference. Marsh, a resident of Charlestown, Massachusetts, who had earlier been affiliated with the Methodist church, first learned of JS and his activities when he visited Palmyra, New York, in 1829. He later recounted that in the summer of that year, ‘I thought the Spirit required me to make a journey West. I started in co[mpan]y. with on[e] Benj. Hall, who was also led by the Spirit. We went to Lima Livingston Co N. Y. where we stayed some 3 mos. and then left for home.’ Before returning home, however, he stopped in Lyons, just fifteen miles east of Palmyra, where he learned of the printing of the Book of Mormon. He then traveled on to Palmyra, where he met Martin Harris, saw proof sheets of the first pages of the Book of Mormon, and spoke with Oliver Cowdery, who, according to Marsh, ‘gave me all the information concer[n]ing the Book I wanted.’ Marsh returned to his home interested in what he had learned and carrying the first sixteen printed pages of the book.² On 25 October, Marsh wrote to Cowdery to express his interest in the little band of believers and to inquire about their welfare. Cowdery reported to JS that although Marsh had found some unwilling to listen, he had talked ‘to Some respecting our work.’ The correspondence continued, but the letters are no longer extant. After learning by letter of the April organization of the Church of Christ, Marsh and his family moved to Palmyra in September 1830. Shortly before the second conference of the church in late September, David Whitmer baptized Marsh and Oliver Cowdery ordained him an elder, most likely shortly before JS dictated this revelation.

“Echoing revelations from April and June of 1829 that called for the formation of a church and the gathering of believers, this text emphasized the urgency of the work and admonished Marsh to ‘thrust in thy Sickle with all thy Soul.’ Like Oliver

Cowdery, Hyrum Smith, and others before him, as well as Ezra Thayer and Northrop Sweet soon after, Marsh was reminded that the ‘harvest’ was near; in vivid apocalyptic language, the revelation warned that the field was ‘already to be burned.’

“The revelation also addressed Marsh’s understandable concerns about his family’s welfare as he traveled and preached, promising him that his family would be blessed during his absence. Though the revelation does not indicate where he was to preach, he remained in New York until the spring of 1831 and corresponded with relatives in Massachusetts, urging them to join the believers. In June 1831 he was called to travel to Missouri and preach along the way.”

Historical Background

JSP

“After Oliver Cowdery and Peter Whitmer Jr. were called on a mission to preach to the American Indians in September 1830, several other elders expressed a desire to see the fulfillment of God’s purposes among ‘the remnants of the house of Joseph—the Lamanites residing in the west.’ JS inquired ‘of the Lord respecting the propriety of sending som[e] of the Elders among them,’ resulting in the following revelation for Parley P. Pratt and Ziba Peterson.

“With his longstanding interest in the American Indians, Pratt no doubt welcomed the call. He had set out for Ohio from New York in the fall of 1826, when he was nineteen, with plans to preach to the Indians. He later recalled his youthful thoughts: ‘I will win the confidence of the red man; I will learn his language; I will tell him of Jesus; I will read to him the Scriptures; I will teach him the arts of peace; to hate war, to love his neighbor, to fear and love God.’³ However, Pratt did not then follow through with his plan. Instead, he built a small log hut some thirty miles west of Cleveland, Ohio, and spent the winter in reading and study, especially of the Bible. The following summer he returned to New York, married Thankful Halsey, and went back to Ohio with his new bride. In 1829, Pratt, who was a Baptist, was influenced by Sidney Rigdon, a restorationist preacher affiliated with Alexander Campbell. Attracted by the Campbellites’ efforts to recreate the primitive church of the New Testament and by their expectation of Christ’s second coming, Pratt decided to become an itinerant preacher of their message. In the summer of 1830, Pratt and his wife left Ohio for their ‘native place,’ Columbia County, New York, where he planned to preach. En route by canal boat, Pratt responded to what he felt were spiritual promptings and disembarked at Newark, near Palmyra, leaving his wife to travel on alone. Pratt encountered a Baptist deacon who loaned him a copy of the Book of Mormon; he soon ‘knew and comprehended that the book was true.’ Pratt then traveled to the Palmyra area, where he met Hyrum Smith. Shortly after, the two traveled to Fayette, where Pratt was baptized into the Church of Christ and ordained an elder. He then continued on to Columbia County to rejoin his wife and proselytize friends and family.

“Pratt soon learned of the call Cowdery and Whitmer had received to preach to the Lamanites. Not long after, the revelation featured here called Pratt, along with Ziba Peterson, to accompany them. Peterson, a resident of Macedon, New York, was a founding elder of the Church of Christ and received an elder’s license on 9 June 1830.

“Unlike other revelations from this period, this revelation was not recorded in Revelation Book 1. It is possible that Pratt took the only copy with him when he left on his mission, making it unavailable for inclusion when John Whitmer was compiling the relevant portion of the book. When this revelation was later recorded in Revelation Book 2 (the source for the text presented here), it included the notation ‘Manchester Oct 1830.’ Though the precise date of the revelation was not recorded, it was likely dictated shortly before 17 October, when Pratt and the other missionaries assigned to preach to the Lamanites signed a covenant to follow Cowdery as he led them in their missionary labors.”

Historical Background

JSP

"JS dictated this revelation for Ezra Thayer and Northrop Sweet in early October 1830, within a month of their baptisms in the Church of Christ. The revelation appointed them to the ministry and provided instruction regarding their preaching. Later in his life, Thayer wrote that he was prepared for the revelation by a vision in which 'a man came and brought me a roll of paper and presented it to me, and also a trumpet and told me to blow it. I told him that I never blowed any in my life. He said you can blow it, try it. I put it in my mouth and blowed on it, and it made the most beautiful sound that I ever heard.

¹1828 definition #5 for "pretend" is "to claim," with the note that "in this we generally use pretend to."

²"Trifle" appears four times in the scriptures: here, Mosiah 2:9, DC 6:12, and DC 8:10. From the 1828 dictionary for "trifle" as intransitive verb:

- To act or talk without seriousness, gravity, weight or dignity; to act or talk with levity.
- 1 To indulge in light amusements.
- To trifle with, to mock; to play the fool with; to treat without respect or seriousness.
- To trifle with, to spend in vanity; to waste.
- To trifle away, to no good purpose; as, to trifle with time, or to trifle away time; to trifle with advantages.

The roll of paper was the revelation on me and Northrop Sweet. Oliver [Cowdery] was the man that brought the roll and trumpet. When he brought the revelation on me and Northrop Sweet, he said, here is a revelation from God for you.¹

“Thayer also recalled that, following this revelation, Sweet ‘soon left the church.’ George A. Smith, JS’s cousin and later a church apostle, explained that Sweet and five others left the church and ‘organized the “Pure Church of Christ,” as they called it, composed of six members, and commenced having meetings, and preaching, but that was the extent of the growth of this early schism.’² Thayer, on the other hand, gathered ‘a large congregation’ to hear JS preach. According to his own account, Thayer filled his barn—‘and some could not get in’—where JS, Hyrum Smith, Oliver Cowdery, David Whitmer, John Whitmer, Peter Whitmer Jr., Parley P. Pratt, and Ziba Peterson preached ‘with great power.’”

“Orson Pratt was baptized by his older brother Parley on 19 September 1830, Orson’s nineteenth birthday, in Canaan, New York. In October he traveled over two hundred miles to Fayette Township, New York, to meet JS. He arrived just after Parley and several others had been called by revelation ‘to go forth unto the Lamanites, to proclaim glad tidings of great joy unto them, by presenting unto them the fulness of the Gospel.’ Orson Pratt later explained that he too wanted to know his duty and requested that JS ‘inquire of the Lord’ for him. The result, according to Pratt’s account, was the following 4 November 1830 revelation, dictated by JS in his presence and written down by John Whitmer.

“James Van Cleave preserved a lengthier secondhand account of the reception of this revelation by reporting in a letter a later interview he had with Orson Pratt. According to Van Cleave, Pratt recounted that ‘after he was ordained an Elder in the Church of Christ, he was anxious to know what his mission was and would be, and at Peter Whitmer Sr’s residence he asked Joseph whether he could not ascertain what his mission was, and Joseph answered him that he would see, & asked Pratt and John Whitmer to go upstairs with him, and on arriving there Joseph produced a small stone called a seer stone, and putting it into a Hat soon commenced speaking and asked Elder P[ratt] to write as he would speak, but being too young and timid and feeling his unworthiness he asked whether Bro. John W[hitmer] could not write it, and the Prophet said that he could: Then came the revelation.¹

“Though the revelation itself does not specify the area where Pratt was to preach, he later explained that his ‘mission was to Colesville, Broome County, N.Y.’ The revelation left a deep impression on Pratt: ‘I thought that was a very great and important calling...I felt, therefore, the importance of those sayings; and truly, when I looked at the magnitude and importance of the command given to me to prophesy by the power of the Holy Ghost, I felt oftentimes to tremble and shrink, for fear I never should be able to fulfill and accomplish so great a work.’ Despite such trepidations, Pratt had by 2 December 1830 been ordained an elder and was on his way to Colesville to begin his mission.”

The JSP version of this section comes from RB1. But there is another early version, as noted by the JSP: “A portion of another early copy of this revelation in the handwriting of David Whitmer survived through the Symonds Rider family, coming into the Church Historian’s Office in the 1960s. Symonds Rider supplied the text to the editor of the Ohio Star (Ravenna), which published it in the 5 January 1832 issue. Rider claimed that he received his version from David Whitmer. The text featured here, the Star version, and the existing portion of the Whitmer version from the Rider family are all similar, with no significant variants.”

Historical Background

JSP

“The conversion of Sidney Rigdon and others in northeastern Ohio in fall 1830 transformed the new Church of Christ geographically and demographically. Within a few weeks after missionaries arrived in Ohio, more than one hundred individuals were baptized, and by the end of December church members in New York were commanded to move to Ohio. Kirtland, where the first baptisms in Ohio took place, became an important gathering place for church members for the next seven years. The visit of Sidney Rigdon and Edward Partridge to New York only a few weeks after Rigdon’s baptism helped bring about this transition. According to John Whitmer’s history, Rigdon made the trip because he had ‘much anxiety to see Joseph Smith Jr. the Seer whom the Lord had raised up in these last days.’ Rigdon and Partridge arrived in early December 1830, and shortly thereafter JS dictated a revelation for each of them. This revelation, for Rigdon, praised his previous ministerial labors and positioned him as JS’s scribe for JS’s inspired translation of the Bible. Rigdon remained in New York with JS for the next two months until they both moved to Ohio.”

Historical Background

JSP

“This revelation was dictated for Edward Partridge, an Ohioan who had come to New York to meet JS. Partridge, a hatter living in Painesville, Ohio, and his wife, Lydia, were members of Sidney Rigdon’s reformed Baptist congregation. In early November 1830 they became interested in the Church of Christ when Oliver Cowdery, Parley P. Pratt, Ziba Peterson, and Peter Whitmer Jr. began preaching to and baptizing many individuals from Rigdon’s congregation. Lydia soon converted, but her husband remained skeptical and insisted on visiting JS in New York before becoming a member. Partridge and Rigdon traveled to the Palmyra area and then went on to Waterloo in Seneca County. They arrived at the home of Joseph Smith Sr. while JS was giving a sermon. When JS finished speaking, ‘a request was made that any who felt to speak should,’ and Partridge stood and stated that he and Rigdon had visited the Smith family's Manchester farm and had spoken with their neighbors about the character of the Smith family. Based on those conversations, Partridge declared that the Smiths 'had sacrificed for the truth's sake' and that he was ready to be baptized. After Partridge asked JS to baptize him, JS replied, 'You have traveled a long way this morning and you are much fatigued and I think you had better rest and take some refreshment and tomorrow morning be baptized.' Soon thereafter, JS dictated this revelation for Partridge. Two days later, on 11 December, JS baptized Partridge, and on 15 December, Sidney Rigdon ordained him an elder.

³See DC 21:6.

"This revelation included language similar to several revelations dictated in 1829 and 1830 that called members of the church to preach. The earliest revelation expressing these sentiments, in February 1829, stated, 'If ye have desires to serve God ye are called to the work.' Like the revelations given to missionaries in September and October of 1830, this revelation also declared with an eschatological urgency that the second coming of Jesus Christ was imminent."

Historical Background

JSP

“A September 1830 revelation declared that all members of the Church of Christ should gather together into one place. A second revelation decreed that a ‘City’ (the New Jerusalem) would be located ‘among the Lamanites.’ Within a month, JS sent missionaries to search out the location for the New Jerusalem—understood to be the future gathering place—and to preach to American Indians. Traveling first to northeastern Ohio, these missionaries preached in the areas around Kirtland and Mentor. They remained in Ohio a few weeks and baptized several dozen individuals, many of whom were members of Sidney Rigdon’s restorationist congregation, before continuing west. After passing through Independence, Missouri, the group attempted to preach to the Indians who had been relocated by the United States government to territory just beyond the western border of Missouri.

“In late 1830, two of the Ohio converts, Sidney Rigdon and Edward Partridge, visited JS in New York, where opposition to the church was intensifying. Rigdon stayed for two months and became JS’s close confidant, serving as scribe for his revision of the Bible.³ In late December, JS and Rigdon traveled from Fayette to Canandaigua, New York, and there continued work on JS’s inspired translation of the Bible. Shortly after their arrival, JS dictated this revelation, which formally designated Ohio as a gathering place for the Church of Christ. Three days later, on 2 January 1831, the third conference of the church convened in Fayette, and there JS announced the plan to gather in Ohio.

“This revelation also directed JS and Rigdon to temporarily stop their revision of the Bible so they could preach to and strengthen the existing congregations in New York before the move to Ohio. They preached in public venues and believers’ homes in Canandaigua, Palmyra, Fayette, and Colesville.”

Connections to Moses 7

There are many parallels between this section and Moses 7 in the JST. They were received around the same time; this is a very important point to make with the principles of revelation.

Historical Background

JSP

“This revelation, dictated at a church conference in Fayette, New York, came three days after a 30 December 1830 revelation commanded the church to ‘assemble together at the Ohio.’ The 2 January 1831 revelation elaborated on the earlier commandment by reiterating the call to gather and promising the members they would be thereafter endowed with ‘power from on high.’

“In his later history, John Whitmer wrote that as JS addressed the conference on 2 January and discussed the commandment to move to Ohio as a group, those present ‘desired to know somewhat more concerning this matter.’ In response, ‘the Seer enquired of the Lord in the presence of the whole congregation, and thus came the word of the Lord.’ Recalling the conference later, Newel Knight noted that ‘we were instructed as a people, to begin the gathering of Israel, and a revelation was given to the Prophet on this subject.’

“Some church members were reticent to leave their homes and relocate to Ohio, and a few, according to Whitmer, even wondered if ‘Joseph had invented it [the revelation] himself to deceive the people that in the end he might get gain.’ Several weeks later, a resident of Waterloo, New York, wrote that ‘this command was at first resisted by such as had property, (the brethren from the neighboring counties being all assembled by special summons,) but after a night of fasting, prayer and trial, they all consented to obey the holy messenger.’ JS’s mother saw the revelation in a positive light. She wrote to her brother Solomon Mack to explain that after they gathered together, God would ‘come and reign on ea[r]th with them a thousand years.’ She also indicated, ‘We expect to go away to the Ohio early in the spring.’”

²See Revelation 1:8 and notes there.

³This is the only place in the scriptures where a phrase anything like “expanse of eternity” occurs. It reminds me of Moses 7:41 and in general of Enoch’s experience recorded there. According to the JST timeline, those verses in Moses would have been translated “circa 10 December 1830 to 7 March 1831,” which corresponds to when this revelation was received, on 2 January 1831. Here I think you see a pretty clear relationship between the bible translation and the DC. Notice that “Enoch” comes up in verse 4 below; that verse uses some exact language from Moses 7:69.

⁴This is the only occurrence of “seraphic” anywhere in the scriptures. Given the information at Seraph, and the possible Hebrew roots, it may be (emphasis on “may”) that the word means “burning” or “fiery.” If it did mean that, you could connect to things like Exodus 3:2, Deuteronomy 4:24, Hebrews 12:29, and Helaman 5:43–45.

²See Malachi 3:2 and DC 35:21 and notes there.

³Could be “Some of you are clean, but others aren’t,” or “You’re pretty clean, but not completely clean yet.” Seems like the latter to me. Compare 3 Nephi 8:1, but for the former reading, see verse 14.

⁴This “well pleased” thing is the same language that Heavenly Father uses to describe Christ in places like Matthew 3:17 and Matthew 17:5. See also Isaiah 42:21. This is the second time “well pleased” occurs in the DC, but the first time chronologically, since the first occurrence is DC 1:30, which was given 1 November 1831.

²The phrase “respecter of persons” actually only occurs three times in the scriptures—here, Acts 10:34, and DC 1:35. Historical Background

JSP

“JS dictated this revelation in Fayette, New York, for James Covell, a Protestant minister, three days after the Church of Christ’s third conference. When John Whitmer recorded this text in Revelation Book 1 a few months later, he wrote that Covell ‘covenanted with the Lord that he would obey any commandment that the Lord would give through his servant Joseph.’

“The identity of the revelation’s recipient is not known with certainty. Two individuals living in New York at the time fit the general description, and no source definitively identifies either man as the recipient. The earliest extant manuscript copy of the revelation, featured below, provides only a given name. The first printed version in 1833 expanded ‘James’ to ‘James (C.,)’ with no additional information, and in 1835 the name was given as ‘James Covill’ in the Doctrine and Covenants. JS’s history also uses this spelling because its editors relied on the 1835 edition of the Doctrine and Covenants for the revelation text. The history adds that Covill ‘had been a baptist minister for about forty years.’ James Covill, a Baptist minister from Ellery, New York, who in 181 was over seventy years old, fits this description, but he lived on the far western edge of the state, more than one hundred fifty miles away. JS and Sidney Rigdon could have met Covill on their way to Ohio at the end of January, but according to this earliest copy of the revelation, it was ‘given at Fayette’ on 5 January 1831.

The recipient of the revelation was much more likely James Covell, a Methodist elder from Canadice, New York. The index to Revelation Book 1 describes the recipient as ‘a Methodist Priest,’ not a Baptist. James Covell lived about twenty miles southwest of Canandaigua, New York, and had been associated with the Methodist church for nearly forty years. He may have heard JS or Sidney Rigdon preaching in the Canandaigua area. After JS and several others preached ‘with great power’ in Ezra Thayer’s barn near Canandaigua in October 1830, they were invited to preach in Canandaigua. ‘They had promised that we should meet in the Methodist Meeting house,’ Thayer later wrote, ‘but the Trustees could not agree.’ As president of the regional Methodist conference, Covell was likely aware of the request. In December a Mormon preacher, probably JS or Rigdon, ‘delivered a discourse in the Town House [in Canandaigua] to an assembly of two or three hundred people.’ Covell may have attended the December meeting and then traveled to Fayette, where the revelation was dictated.

Within a day after JS dictated this revelation, Covell departed from Fayette without explanation, leaving JS and Rigdon to wonder why he did not follow the commandment. A revelation on 6 January explained ‘why he obeyed not the word.’”⁵

JSP

“By 6 January 1831, the day after a revelation called him to preach the gospel,¹ Methodist minister James Covell had departed Fayette, New York, leaving JS and Sidney Rigdon searching for an explanation. As JS later recalled, after Covell ‘rejected the word of the Lord, and returned to his former principles and people,’ the Lord gave JS and Sidney Rigdon this 6 January 1831 revelation, ‘explaining why he obeyed not the word.’”

Historical Background

JSP

“This revelation was dictated the same day JS arrived in Kirtland, Ohio, from New York. According to John Whitmer’s headnote, inscribed a few months later in spring 1831, the revelation was a response to JS’s prayer regarding an offer made by new convert Leman Copley to provide JS and Sidney Rigdon ‘houses & provisions’ on his farm in Thompson Township, Ohio, about twenty miles east of Kirtland. JS and his family were in need of housing because of their recent move, and Sidney and Phebe Rigdon had lost a house apparently being built for them by his former Campbellite congregation in nearby Mentor, Ohio, when he converted to the Church of Christ. Early published versions of this revelation did not include Whitmer’s headnote, and in their later histories neither JS nor Whitmer connected Copley’s offer to this revelation. Both histories instead place the revelation in the context of concerns about religious excesses among the new church members in Ohio. The revelation, however, does not explicitly address this matter.

“In setting the scene for the revelation, John Whitmer wrote in his history: ‘About these days Joseph the Prophet and Sidney [Rigdon] arrived at Kirtland to the joy and satisfaction of the Saints. The disciples had all things common, and were going to destruction very fast as to temporal things: for they considered from reading the scripture that what belonged to a brother belonged to any of the brethren, therefore they would take each others clothes and other property and use it without leave: which brought on confusion and disappointments: for they did not understand the scripture. After Joseph lived here a few days the word of the Lord came.’ JS’s history gave a similar introduction: ‘The branch of the church in this part of the Lord’s vineyard, which had increased to nearly one hundred members, were striving to do the will of God, so far as they knew it; though some strange notions and false spirits had crept in among them. With a little caution, and some wisdom, I soon assisted the brethren and sisters to overcome them. The plan of “common stock,” which had existed in what was called “the family,” whose members generally had embraced the ever lasting gospel, was readily abandoned for the more perfect law of the Lord: and the false spirits were easily discerned and rejected by the light of revelation.’

“The revelation instructed church members that JS ‘should have a house built in which to live & translate’ and that Sidney Rigdon ‘should have a comfortable Room to live in.’ Though silent about Copley’s offer of assistance, JS’s history explained that upon their arrival in Kirtland JS and Emma Smith ‘were kindly received and welcomed into the house of brother N[jewel] K. Whitney.’ The history continues, ‘I and my wife lived in the family of Brother Whitney several weeks, and received every kindness and attention, which could be expected, and especially from Sister [Elizabeth Ann] Whitney.’ Although neither JS nor Sidney Rigdon accepted Copley’s offer to live in Thompson, Copley made a similar offer a few months later to the group of church members migrating to Ohio from Colesville, New York.

“John Whitmer’s headnote in Revelation Book 1 listed another purpose for this revelation: ‘pointing at [out] the office of Edward [Partridge],’ who the revelation commanded to be ordained as the church’s first bishop. This is the first extant document that uses bishop as an office in the church. JS first met Ohio businessman and hatter Edward Partridge in December 1830 in Fayette, New York. Partridge had accompanied recent convert Sidney Rigdon on a trip to New York to meet JS. On 9 December, JS dictated a revelation calling Partridge to ‘preach my Gospel as with the voice of a Trump,’ and Partridge was baptized by JS two days later. Partridge spent the next month and a half sharing his new faith with relatives and friends in Pittsfield, Massachusetts, an effort that his daughter Emily later characterized as unsuccessful. He returned to New York from Massachusetts in time to join JS, Emma, and Sidney Rigdon in their move to Ohio during the last week of January 1831.”

Historical Background

JSP

Verses 1–72

“A late December 1830 revelation first directed members of the Church of Christ to migrate from New York to Ohio, and at a church conference a few days later, another revelation declared, ‘There [in Ohio] I will give unto you my law.’ Within a month, JS himself relocated to Ohio, and immediately after his arrival in Kirtland, the church received on 4 February 1831 the revelatory promise, ‘By the prayer of your faith ye shall receive my law that ye may know how to govern my Church.’ Less than a week later, on 9 February, JS dictated the revelation featured here during the course of a meeting of twelve elders who were ‘called together, and united in mighty prayer.’ John Whitmer titled it ‘The Laws of the Church of Christ.’

“Outside of Revelation Book 1, there are few extant manuscript copies of most of JS’s early revelations. The 9 February 1831 revelation, however, is an exception: five early manuscript copies survive.¹ This was one of the earliest revelations to be published; it was printed in part by two Ohio newspapers only a few months after its dictation.² The most complete version of the revelation (presented here) is in the handwriting of early church member Symonds Rider and was possibly created 23 May 1831, the date Rider inscribed on the manuscript. This is likely the earliest of the five early surviving manuscripts, although it is possible that the partial copy found in Revelation Book 1 was recorded first.

“The earliest extant copies of this revelation suggest that ‘the Law’ may have originally been a compilation of five distinct revelatory commandments, each given in response to a practical question posed by the twelve elders present at the 9 February 1831 meeting. The elders apparently asked questions of JS, who then dictated revelatory answers, closing each answer with the words ‘even so Amen.’ The Rider document featured here collates the revelations into a single document divided into five sections. Although it is unknown whether the initial writing captured the texts as a single document, early manuscripts confirm that the individual answers were originally understood as separate commandments. For example, when John Whitmer copied what he titled ‘The Church Law’ into Zebedee Coltrin’s diary, he included only the second section, and in September 1831 local newspapers published the first and second sections as ‘the Law.’ Further, although only the second of the five sections was titled ‘the Law’ in the early manuscripts, the composite document, including all five sections, also came to be known as ‘the Law.’ When the revelation was published in the Book of Commandments, it was introduced as ‘A Revelation given to twelve elders assembled in Kirtland, Ohio; and also the law for the government of the church, given in the presence of the same.’ By describing the revelation in two parts, the heading suggests that the second through fifth sections of the text were considered together as ‘the Law.’

“On 23 February, two weeks after the initial dictation of this text, JS and seven elders met to determine ‘How the Elders of the church of Christ are to act upon the points of the Law,’ and JS dictated several additional paragraphs of instruction.³ Analysis of the early manuscripts of the 9 February revelation and the 23 February revelation suggests that ‘the Law’ was a working document, meant to be revised or expanded as new circumstances raised new questions. In three of the five early manuscripts, the 23 February revelation was included at the end of the 9 February text.

“The historical context for the 9 February revelation included the recent conversion of a significant number of Ohio members and the imminent arrival of church members from New York, a migration the Ohio converts first learned of from John Whitmer when he arrived in Ohio in mid-January. The elders’ first question was whether the various communities should gather ‘into one place or continue in separate establishments.’ This question was answered in conjunction with a commandment that called the elders to preach ‘to the regions westward’ and ‘build up my Church in every region.’

“Second, the elders inquired about the ‘Law regulating the Church in her present situation till the time of her gathering.’ The revelatory response codified basic matters of authority, moral conduct, and economic organization, addressing specific concerns among the membership. In the first six months after the organization of the Church of Christ, questions had

¹JSP note: “In addition to the Rider manuscript featured here, four other early handwritten versions of this revelation are extant. The versions are in Revelation Book 1, pp. 62–67; Gilbert, Notebook, [13]–[23]; Coltrin, Diary, [11]–[18]; and Hyde and Smith, Notebook, [12]–[22].” See the full text of most of these versions at this extended study. See this part of the historical background for verses 74–93: “Of the earliest extant copies of the Law, only the Symonds Rider copy, the version featured here, includes all eight sections; it separates the 9 February revelation from the 23 February revelation by including the date and an introductory heading between the fifth and sixth sections. The version found in Revelation Book 1 includes the first five sections, dictated 9 February, as well as a loose leaf containing only the eighth section, or final paragraph, of the 23 February dictation,” and see also this JSP note, corresponding to that historical background: “Revelation Book 1, pp. 62–67. A manuscript in Sidney Gilbert’s handwriting and one in Zebedee Coltrin’s both include only the first five parts. An early newspaper version includes only the first two parts. A manuscript in Orson Hyde’s hand includes parts two through four as well as parts seven and eight. (Gilbert, Notebook, [13]–[23]; Coltrin, Diary, [11]–[18]; ‘Secret Bye Laws of the Mormonites,’ Western Courier [Ravenna, OH], 1 Sept. 1831, [1]; Hyde and Smith, Notebook, [12]–[22]; see also Revelation, 9 Feb. 1831 [D&C 42:1–72].)”

³This refers to verses 74–93. JSP note: “The 9 February and 23 February revelations appeared separately in the Book of Commandments in 1833, but the two revelations were combined when published in the 1835 edition of the Doctrine and Covenants. (Book of Commandments 44, 47; Doctrine and Covenants 13, 1835 ed.).”

arisen in New York about authority and also about who could receive revelation for the church. Converts in Ohio asked similar questions. Many had been baptized by Cowdery and his companions, but the missionaries' departure for Missouri at the same time Sidney Rigdon left Kirtland to meet JS in New York left the new converts without experienced leaders. In the absence of such leadership, several charismatic individuals offered their own revelations to bolster their self-declared authority.

"In addition, the second section responded to the form of communalism that many Ohio converts had previously embraced. In their effort to strictly apply the New Testament passage calling for believers to have 'all things common,' they formed a communal group called 'the Family,' with several families sharing Isaac and Lucy Morley's home and farm. However, 'the Law' modified the Ohio members' communal ownership of property. It commanded members to 'consecrate all [their] propertys,' which in the religious terminology of the day meant to 'set apart, dedicate, or devote, to the service and worship of God' one's possessions. This vision of consecration shared similarities with practices of other utopian communities, such as the Shakers and the Owenites. This revelation not only provided a guideline for economic organization directed by the church but also outlined a code of conduct to which members of the church were expected to adhere, as well as procedures for casting out those who did not.

"Third, knowing that many members of the church would leave their homes to preach, the elders then inquired about the welfare of their families while they were 'proclaiming repentance or are otherwise engaged in the Service of the Church.' This concern was initially raised in New York in late September and early October 1830, when several members were called to proselytizing missions. This revelation answered that they should 'go forth in the power of my spirit preaching my Gospel two by two in my name' and that their families would be supported by the consecrated properties held by the church.

"While the first three questions addressed in the 9 February revelation involved relationships within the church, the fourth question asked, perhaps with some urgency given the previous commandment to consecrate their property, 'How far it is the will of the Lord that we Should have dealings with the wo[r]ld & how we Should conduct our dealings with them?' The brief answer was to avoid becoming indebted to the world but to counsel together and seek the Spirit in whatever dealings were necessary.

"The elders' final question addressed the concerns of Ohio members about the expected influx of members gathering from New York: 'What preperations we shall make for our Brethren from the East & when & how?' The revelation called for single residences for each family, located as close together as possible, and instructed the bishop, Edward Partridge, to appoint individuals who would assist him in procuring and distributing the land.

"The text of this revelation, together with the church's founding 'Articles and Covenants,' may have served to unify the Ohio and New York membership into a single community of believers by organizing them under the same laws and regulations. The New York members had been promised such a commandment as soon as they united with the Ohio members, and the questions asked at the 9 February meeting were followed by revelations that brought the two groups together under one law."

Verses 74–93

"On 22 February 1831, JS wrote to Martin Harris referencing the 'Laws of the Church of Christ' that JS had dictated 9 February: 'We have received the laws of the Kingdom since we came here and the Disciples in these parts have received them gladly.' The next day, 23 February, JS and seven elders met to determine 'how the Elders of the church of Christ are to act upon the points of the Law,' and the following revelation was recorded. In providing detailed guidance on how to discipline serious transgressors of the moral law, the revelation significantly elaborated on the few lines offered on the subject in the church's earlier 'Articles and Covenants.'

"Early members evidently saw the 23 February revelation as building upon the 9 February revelation, also known as 'the Law,' by expanding on the guidelines it provided. After this revelation was dictated, 'the Law' comprised eight sections in all, five received on 9 February and three on 23 February. Of the earliest extant copies of the Law, only the Symonds Rider copy, the version featured here, includes all eight sections; it separates the 9 February revelation from the 23 February revelation by including the date and an introductory heading between the fifth and sixth sections. The version found in Revelation Book 1 includes the first five sections, dictated 9 February, as well as a loose leaf containing only the eighth section, or final paragraph, of the 23 February dictation. Some later published versions also exclude the first two paragraphs of the 23 February revelation, possibly because those sections seem to summarize content found in the first five sections. Textually, only the eighth and final paragraph in this document employs the divine first-person, which is possibly the reason it was the only portion of the 23 February revelation to be copied into Revelation Book 1."

JSP & the residue shall be kept to administer to him that hath not that every man may receive according as he stands in need

Section 42:34

Therefore, the residue shall be kept in my storehouse, to administer to the poor and the needy, as shall be appointed by the high council of the church, and the bishop and his council;

¹Probably referring to the ten commandments, given at Exodus 20:2–17 and Deuteronomy 5:6–21. the section returns to similar material starting at verse 74.

²Compare a similar command at John 14:15 and 21; see also DC 124:87 and a similar idea in conjunction with the ten commandments at Exodus 20:6, Deuteronomy 5:10, and Deuteronomy 7:9.

³See Matthew 25:40.

⁴Kind of an unusual ending—why not “needs”? Notice the difference in the JSP version.

Section 42:35

And for the purpose of purchasing lands for the public benefit of the church, and building houses of worship, and building up of the New Jerusalem which is hereafter to be revealed—

Section 42:36

That my covenant people may be gathered in one in that day when I shall come to my temple. And this I do for the salvation of my people.

Section 42:37

And it shall come to pass, that he that sinneth and repenteth not shall be cast out of the church, and shall not receive again that which he has consecrated unto the poor and the needy of my church, or in other words, unto me—

Section 42:38

For inasmuch as ye do it unto the least of these, ye do it unto me.¹

Section 42:39

For it shall come to pass, that which I spake by the mouths of my prophets shall be fulfilled; for I will consecrate of the riches of those who embrace my gospel among the Gentiles unto the poor of my people who are of the house of Israel.

Section 42:40

And again, thou shalt not be proud in thy heart; let all thy garments be plain, and their beauty the beauty of the work of thine own hands;

Section 42:41

And let all things be done in cleanliness² before me.

Section 42:42

Thou shalt not be idle; for he that is idle shall not eat the bread nor wear the garments of the laborer.

¹Again, a repeat of the principle at Matthew 25:40.

²This is the only occurrence of “cleanliness” in all the scriptures (“cleanly” does not appear). From the 1828 dictionary, for “cleanliness”:

1 Freedom from dirt, filth, or any foul, extraneous matter.

2 Neatness of person or dress; purity.

Section 42:43

And whosoever among you are sick, and have not faith to be healed, but believe,¹ shall be nourished with all tenderness, with herbs and mild food, and that not by the hand of an enemy.

Section 42:44

And the elders of the church, two or more, shall be called, and shall pray for and lay their hands upon them in my name; and if they die they shall die unto me, and if they live they shall live unto me.

Section 42:45

Thou shalt live together in love, insomuch that thou shalt weep for the loss of them that die,² and more especially for those that have not hope of a glorious resurrection.

Section 42:46

And it shall come to pass that those that die in me shall not taste of death, for it shall be sweet unto them;

Section 42:47

And they that die not in me, wo unto them, for their death is bitter.

Section 42:48

And again, it shall come to pass that he that hath faith in me to be healed, and is not appointed unto death,³ shall be healed.

Section 42:49

He who hath faith to see shall see.

Section 42:50

He who hath faith to hear shall hear.

Section 42:51

The lame who hath faith to leap shall leap.

Section 42:52

And they who have not faith to do these things, but believe in me, have power to become my sons; and inasmuch as they break not my laws thou shalt bear their infirmities.

¹Possibly a reference to Mark 9:23–24?

²A bit of Mosiah 18:9 here maybe.

³For the phrase “appointed unto death,” see here.

Section 42:53

Thou shalt stand in the place of thy stewardship.

Section 42:54

Thou shalt not take thy brother's garment; thou shalt pay for that which thou shalt receive of thy brother.

Section 42:55

And if thou obtainest more than that which would be for thy support, thou shalt give it into my storehouse, that all things may be done according to that which I have said.

Section 42:56

Thou shalt ask, and my scriptures shall be given as I have appointed, and they shall be preserved in safety;

Section 42:57

And it is expedient that thou shouldst hold thy peace concerning them, and not teach them until ye have received them in full.

Section 42:58

And I give unto you a commandment that then ye shall teach them unto all men; for they shall be taught unto all nations, kindreds, tongues and people.

Section 42:59

Thou shalt take the things which thou hast received, which have been given unto thee in my scriptures for a law, to be my law to govern my church;

Section 42:60

And he that doeth according to these things shall be saved, and he that doeth them not shall be damned if he so continue.

Section 42:61

If thou shalt ask, thou shalt receive revelation upon revelation, knowledge upon knowledge, that thou mayest know the mysteries and peaceable things—that which bringeth joy, that which bringeth life eternal.

Section 42:62

Thou shalt ask, and it shall be revealed unto you in mine own due time where the New Jerusalem shall be built.

Section 42:63

And behold, it shall come to pass that my servants shall be sent forth to the east and to the west, to the north and to the south.

Section 42:64

And even now, let him that goeth to the east teach them that shall be converted to flee to the west, and this in consequence of that which is coming on the earth, and of secret combinations.

Section 42:65

Behold, thou shalt observe all these things, and great shall be thy reward; for unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom, but unto the world it is not given to know them.¹

Section 42:66

Ye shall observe the laws which ye have received and be faithful.

Section 42:67

And ye shall hereafter receive church covenants, such as shall be sufficient to establish you, both here and in the New Jerusalem.

Section 42:68

Therefore, he that lacketh wisdom, let him ask of me, and I will give him liberally and upbraid him not.²

Section 42:69

Lift up your hearts and rejoice, for unto you the kingdom, or in other words, the keys of the church have been given. Even so. Amen.

Section 42:70

The priests and teachers shall have their stewardships, even as the members.

Section 42:71

And the elders or high priests who are appointed to assist the bishop as counselors in all things, are to have their families supported out of the property which is consecrated to the bishop, for the good of the poor, and for other purposes, as before mentioned;

¹This is a clear statement of the principle at Alma 12:9–11.

²See James 1:5.

Section 42:72

Or they are to receive a just remuneration for all their services, either a stewardship or otherwise, as may be thought best or decided by the counselors and bishop.

Section 42:73

And the bishop, also, shall receive his support, or a just remuneration for all his services in the church.

Section 42:74

Behold, verily I say unto you, that whatever persons among you, having put away their companions for the cause of fornication, or in other words, if they shall testify before you in all lowliness of heart that this is the case, ye shall not cast them out from among you;

Section 42:75

But if ye shall find that any persons have left their companions for the sake of adultery, and they themselves are the offenders, and their companions are living, they shall be cast out from among you.

Section 42:76

And again, I say unto you, that ye shall be watchful and careful, with all inquiry, that ye receive none such among you if they are married;

Section 42:77

And if they are not married, they shall repent of all their sins or ye shall not receive them.

Section 42:78

And again, every person who belongeth to this church of Christ, shall observe to keep all the commandments and covenants of the church.

Section 42:79

And it shall come to pass, that if any persons among you shall kill they shall be delivered up and dealt with according to the laws of the land; for remember that he hath no forgiveness; and it shall be proved according to the laws of the land.

Section 42:80

And if any man or woman shall commit adultery, he or she shall be tried before two elders of the church, or more, and every word shall be established against him or her by two witnesses of the church, and not of the enemy; but if there are more than two witnesses it is better.

Section 42:81

But he or she shall be condemned by the mouth of two witnesses; and the elders shall lay the case before the church, and the church shall lift up their hands against him or her, that they may be dealt with according to the law of God.

Section 42:82

And if it can be, it is necessary that the bishop be present also.

Section 42:83

And thus ye shall do in all cases which shall come before you.

Section 42:84

And if a man or woman shall rob, he or she shall be delivered up unto the law of the land.

Section 42:85

And if he or she shall steal, he or she shall be delivered up unto the law of the land.

Section 42:86

And if he or she shall lie, he or she shall be delivered up unto the law of the land.

Section 42:87

And if he or she do any manner of iniquity, he or she shall be delivered up unto the law, even that of God.

Section 42:88

And if thy brother or sister offend thee, thou shalt take him or her between him or her and thee alone; and if he or she confess thou shalt be reconciled.

Section 42:89

And if he or she confess not thou shalt deliver him or her up unto the church, not to the members, but to the elders. And it shall be done in a meeting, and that not before the world.

Section 42:90

And if thy brother or sister offend many, he or she shall be chastened before many.

Section 42:91

And if any one offend openly, he or she shall be rebuked openly, that he or she may be ashamed. And if he or she confess not, he or she shall be delivered up unto the law of God.

Section 42:92

If any shall offend in secret, he or she shall be rebuked in secret, that he or she may have opportunity to confess in secret to him or her whom he or she has offended, and to God, that the church may not speak reproachfully of him or her.

Section 42:93

And thus shall ye conduct in all things.

Section 43 (February 1831)

Historical Background

JSP

“JS dictated this revelation following his arrival in Kirtland, Ohio. It clarified JS’s position as the only person authorized to ‘receive commandments & Revelations’ for the Church of Christ. Before JS’s arrival in Kirtland, the converts in the area were left for several months without any experienced leadership. Sidney Rigdon and many of his followers in Ohio had been baptized into the church in November 1830, and Rigdon then left Ohio to meet JS in New York while Oliver Cowdery and other missionaries who had baptized the Ohio believers left for the western borders of the United States. Concerned about the lack of leadership, JS sent John Whitmer to Ohio with copies of the revelations ‘to comfort and strengthen my brethren in that land.’ When Whitmer arrived in mid-January, the conduct of the Ohio members surprised and concerned him. He wrote, ‘The enemy of all righteous had...made them think that an angel of God appeared to them, and showed them writings on the outside cover of the Bible, and on parchment, which flew through the air, and on the back of their hands, and many such foolish and vain things, others lost their strength, and some slid on the floor, and such like maneuvers, which proved greatly to th[e] injury of the cause.’ Whitmer concluded that it was ‘ne[ce]ssary that this people should have instruction, and learn to discern between the things of God and the works of Satan.’

“In this atmosphere of religious excess came a specific challenge to JS’s authority. In February 1831, the same month that JS and other members arrived from New York, a woman referred to as Mrs. ‘Hubble’ claimed to receive revelations, which she shared publicly with other members.¹ As John Whitmer explained in his later history: ‘About these days there was a woman by the name of Hubble who professed to be a prophetess of the Lord. and professed to have many revelations, and knew that the Book of mormon was true; and that she should become a teacher in the Church of Christ. She appeared very sanctimonious and deceived some, who were not able to detect her in her hypocrisy.’ According to Whitmer, ‘The Lord gave [this] Revelation that the saints might not be decived.’ Similarly, the introduction to this revelation in JS’s history notes that ‘a woman came with great pretentions to revealing commandments, laws and other curious matters’ and that JS felt it was ‘necessary to inquire of the Lord.’

“This revelation appears to have been dictated between 9 February and the end of the month. John Whitmer copied it into Revelation Book 1 directly after a 9 February 1831 revelation and before a revelation dated ‘Febru. 1831.’ Sometime later a revelation dated 23 February was inserted on a loose sheet immediately following the 9 February 1831 revelation and before the revelation featured here.”

Section 44 (February 1831)

Historical Background

JSP

“Shortly after JS and Emma Smith relocated to Kirtland, Ohio, in early February 1831, a revelation established laws to govern the church. The ‘first Commandment’ declared on that occasion was for the elders to go two by two ‘in to the regions westward’ to preach the gospel and build up the church. A short time later JS dictated the revelation featured here, which commanded the elders to assemble together so that the Lord could ‘pour out’ his Spirit in preparation for more missionary work. When John Whitmer copied this text into Revelation Book 1, likely during summer 1831, he dated it simply February 1831. JS’s history dates the revelation to the ‘latter part of February’ but likewise provides no specific date. However, JS implied a date prior to 22 February when he apparently alluded to this revelation in a letter to Martin Harris, whom he instructed to ‘inform the Elders which are there that all of them who can be spared will come here without delay if possible this by Commandment of the Lord.’ Similarly, John Whitmer explained in the heading to this document that the revelation was ‘a call to the Eldrs of this Church &c.,’ and he later recorded that ‘the elders were sent for according to the...Revelation.’ JS wrote to his brother Hyrum shortly after the revelation was written and told him that ‘the work is brakeing forth on the right hand and on the left and there is a great Call for Elders in this place.’

“There is some uncertainty as to when the proposed meeting of the elders, the ‘day that they assemble themselves together,’ occurred. Minute Book 2 records a ‘special meeting of the Elders of the Church of Christ held at Kirtland Geauga Co. Ohio, April 9. 1831. to do Church business &c.,’ but little else is said about the content of that meeting. However, JS’s history explains that this revelation ‘caused the church to appoint a conference to be held on the 6th of June ensuing.’ The records relating to the June 1831 conference include an extensive list of elders as well as accounts of ordinations to the ‘High Priesthood.’ The June conference, rather than the 9 April meeting, is therefore more likely the meeting to which the elders were called to gather.

Early versions of this section

As discussed below in the historical background to this section, there are three early copies: the one in RB1, one in Edward Partridge's handwriting, and one made by William E. McLellin later in 1831. As of 16 May 2022, the JSP website does not have digital transcriptions of these other versions—they just note the differences in footnotes, and I've noted any important ones below.

Historical Background

JSP

"JS dictated this revelation, which Revelation Book 1 titles a 'prophecy,' sometime around 7 March 1831, during a period when, according to JS's history, 'many false reports, lies, and fo[o]lish stories were published in the newspapers, and circulated in every direction, to prevent people from investigating the work, or embracing the faith.' JS's history reported that the revelation was the 'joy of the saints who had to struggle against every thing that prejudice and wickedness could invent.'

"The revelation describes the New Jerusalem and Christ's second coming, both of which had been prophesied in JS's translation of the Book of Mormon, his previous revelations, and his revision of the Old Testament. In particular, it connects the text of Matthew 24, in which Jesus prophesied concerning the last days and the Second Coming, with JS's 9 February

¹See DC 88:34, and note that this verse here is also talking about "laws."

1831 revelation about the New Jerusalem;¹ as the revelation featured here states, ‘I will shew it plainly as I shewed it unto my Deciples as I stood before them in the flesh.’ The revelation also uses Jesus’s New Testament prophecies to explain and reinforce the command to gather to Ohio: ‘Not many years hence ye Shall hear of wars in your own lands wherefore I the Lord have said gether ye out from the Eastern lands [and] assemble ye yourselves together.’

“Parts of this text also found in Matthew 24 were among those included in JS’s later work of revising the New Testament, a project that began the day after JS dictated this revelation. Though JS’s inspired Bible revision had focused only on the Old Testament before this time, the revelation instructed him to shift his immediate efforts to the New Testament: ‘Now behold I say unto you it shall not be given unto you to know any farther then this until the New Testament be translated & in it all things shall be made known Wherefore I give unto you that ye may now Translate it that ye may be prepared for the things to come.’

“Three early copies of this revelation are extant. The version in Revelation Book 1 (featured here) and a copy in Edward Partridge’s handwriting were created around the same time, likely in spring 1831, and there are no significant differences to indicate which is earlier. An additional copy created by William E. McLellin later in 1831 largely corresponds with the other two versions. Differences between all three versions are noted in the footnotes.”²

HEARKEN, O ye people of my church, to whom the kingdom has been given;³ hearken ye and give ear to him who laid the foundation of the earth, who made the heavens and all the hosts thereof, and by whom all things were made which live, and move, and have a being.⁴

Section 45:2

And again I say, hearken unto my voice, lest death shall overtake you; in an hour when ye think not the summer shall be past, and the harvest ended, and your souls not saved.⁵

Section 45:3

Listen to him who is the advocate⁶ with the Father, who is pleading⁷ your cause⁸ before him—⁹

¹See DC 42:8–9.

²I’ve noted differences below.

³Once again, remember DC 42:69 here.

⁴This verse reminds me of DC 88:5–13.

⁵See Jeremiah 8:20.

⁶Christ is called our “advocate” here and at 1 John 2:1, Moroni 7:28 (which also has the word “cause,” as does this verse here, though see below for the older versions, which have “case”), DC 29:5, DC 32:3, DC 62:1, and DC 110:4. Note that the Greek at 1 John is παράκλητος, which you might not expect; see that verse for discussion of the Greek word.

⁷Possibly compare to Matthew 10:32–33? See also Luke 12:8, 2 Nephi 8:22, ⁸See the older versions—most have “case.” The “case” bit reminds me of du Châtelet’s Institutions, in the avant-propos §6: “ci est de vous mettre sous les yeux l’autre partie de ce grand procès, de vous faire connoître le système de Monsieur Newton...” A “procès” is a legal proceeding, and the term “case” makes it sound like a legal proceeding as well, and the term “advocate” strengthens that image; I mean you even have places where the legalistic language is even stronger, like Alma 11:44.

⁹As I read this, I don’t see a direct indication that the person being spoken of, the one who’s doing the “advocating,” is Christ. But when you look at the scriptures in the other footnote and see the other places where this term is used, it refers to Christ a lot. So it could be someone else, but it seems to be Christ.

²For the parts about “reason” and “reasoning,” see Reason, but see especially the OT uses, including the ones in Isaiah 1:18 and Isaiah 41:2.

³According to the JST timeline, JS is doing Moses 7:2–8:30 from around 10 December 1830 to 7 March 1831, so he would have been doing the Enoch city material at around this time or just before the time of this revelation. Start at about Moses 6:26 for Enoch.

⁴See Moses 7:21.

⁵Right around here is where you want to start comparing Matthew 24. There’s a question here about who Christ is speaking to—see the next verse.

⁶Compare Matthew 24:3 in particular.

⁷This is a really strange part of the verse, because it makes it seem as though Christ is reporting a conversation that he had with people who were already dead. From Matthew 24 it looks like he is speaking to his disciples while they were all still alive, and the conversation that Christ is reporting here in

Section 45:21

And this I have told you concerning Jerusalem; and when that day shall come, shall a remnant be scattered among all nations;

Section 45:25

But they shall be gathered again; but they shall remain until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

Section 45:26

And in that day shall be heard of wars and rumors of wars, and the whole earth shall be in commotion, and men's hearts shall fail them, and they shall say that Christ delayeth his coming until the end of the earth.

Section 45:27

And the love of men shall wax cold, and iniquity shall abound.

this section seems to be the on in Matthew 24. So maybe he is saying to them something like, "You're alive right now, but you look at the death that you will eventually experience and you see the long absence of your spirits from your bodies as a bondage." That could make sense.

²Compare DC 1:38—remember that section 1 is from 1 November 1831, so about eight months after section 45.

Section 45:29

But they receive it not; for they perceive not the light,¹ and they turn their hearts from me because of the precepts of men.²

Section 45:30

And in that generation shall the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

Section 45:31

And there shall be men standing in that generation, that shall not pass until they shall see an overflowing scourge; for a desolating sickness shall cover the land.

Section 45:32

But my disciples shall stand in holy places, and shall not be moved; but among the wicked, men shall lift up their voices and curse God and die.³

Section 45:33

And there shall be earthquakes also in divers places, and many desolations; yet men will harden their hearts against me, and they will take up the sword, one against another, and they will kill one another.

Section 45:34

And now, when I the Lord had spoken these words unto my disciples, they were troubled.

Section 45:35

And I said unto them: Be not troubled, for, when all these things shall come to pass, ye may know that the promises which have been made unto you shall be fulfilled.

And it shall come to pass that he that feareth me shall be looking forth for the great day of the Lord to come, even for the signs of the coming of the Son of Man.

Section 45:40

And they shall see signs and wonders, for they shall be shown forth in the heavens above, and in the earth beneath.

Section 45:41

And they shall behold blood, and fire, and vapors of smoke.

Section 45:42

And before the day of the Lord shall come, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon be turned into blood, and the stars fall from heaven.

Section 45:43

And the remnant shall be gathered unto this place;

Section 45:44

And then they shall look for me, and, behold, I will come; and they shall see me in the clouds of heaven, clothed with power and great glory; with all the holy angels; and he that watches not for me shall be cut off.

Section 45:45

But before the arm of the Lord shall fall, an angel shall sound his trump, and the saints that have slept shall come forth to meet me in the cloud.

Section 45:46

Wherefore, if ye have slept in peace blessed are you; for as you now behold me and know that I am, even so shall ye come unto me and your souls shall live, and your redemption shall be perfected; and the saints shall come forth from the four quarters of the earth.

Section 45:47

Then shall the arm of the Lord fall upon the nations.

Section 45:48

And then shall the Lord set his foot upon this mount, and it shall cleave in twain, and the earth shall tremble, and reel to and fro, and the heavens also shall shake.

Section 45:49

And the Lord shall utter his voice, and all the ends of the earth shall hear it; and the nations of the earth shall mourn, and they that have laughed shall see their folly.

Section 45:50

And calamity shall cover the mocker, and the scorner shall be consumed; and they that have watched for iniquity shall be hewn down and cast into the fire.

Section 45:51

And then shall the Jews look upon me and say: What are these wounds in thine hands and in thy feet?

Section 45:52

Then shall they know that I am the Lord; for I will say unto them: These wounds are the wounds with which I was wounded in the house of my friends. I am he who was lifted up. I am Jesus that was crucified. I am the Son of God.

Section 45:53

And then shall they weep because of their iniquities; then shall they lament because they persecuted their king.

Section 45:54

And then shall the heathen nations be redeemed, and they that knew no law shall have part in the first resurrection;¹ and it shall be tolerable for them.

Section 45:55

And Satan shall be bound, that he shall have no place in the hearts of the children of men.

Section 45:56

And at that day, when I shall come in my glory, shall the parable be fulfilled which I spake concerning the ten virgins.

Section 45:57

For they that are wise and have received the truth, and have taken the Holy Spirit for their guide, and have not been deceived—verily I say unto you, they shall not be hewn down and cast into the fire, but shall abide the day.

¹This is an incredible statement about accountability that I just really noticed for the first time today (20 May 2022).

Section 45:59

For the Lord shall be in their midst, and his glory shall be upon them, and he will be their king and their lawgiver.¹

Section 45:60

And now, behold, I say unto you, it shall not be given unto you to know any further concerning this chapter, until the New Testament be translated, and in it all these things shall be made known;

Section 45:61

Wherefore I give unto you that ye may now translate it, that ye may be prepared for the things to come.

Section 45:62

For verily I say unto you, that great things await you;

Section 45:63

Ye hear of wars in foreign lands; but, behold, I say unto you, they are nigh, even at your doors, and not many years hence ye shall hear of wars in your own lands.

Section 45:64

Wherefore I, the Lord, have said, gather ye out from the eastern lands, assemble ye yourselves together ye elders of my church; go ye forth into the western countries, call upon the inhabitants to repent, and inasmuch as they do repent, build up churches unto me.

Section 45:65

And with one heart and with one mind,² gather up your riches that ye may purchase an inheritance which shall hereafter be appointed unto you.

Section 45:66

And it shall be called the New Jerusalem, a land of peace, a city of refuge, a place of safety for the saints of the Most High God;

Section 45:67

And the glory of the Lord shall be there, and the terror of the Lord also shall be there, insomuch that the wicked will not come unto it, and it shall be called Zion.

Section 45:75

And all nations shall be afraid because of the terror of the Lord, and the power of his might. Even so. Amen.

Historical Background

JSP

“In the heading to this text in Revelation Book 1, John Whitmer wrote that it was directed ‘to the Church concerning conformation & sacrament meetings &c.’ JS’s revelations and the Book of Mormon addressed these topics even before the founding of the Church of Christ in 1830. In May 1829 JS dictated a passage as part of his translation of the gold plates which stated, 'And behold, ye shall meet together oft, and ye shall not forbid any man from coming unto you when ye shall meet together, but suffer them that they may come unto you, and forbid them not.' Just weeks later Oliver Cowdery drew upon these instructions in his 'Articles of the Church of Christ,' which directed, 'And the church shall meet together oft for prayer & supplication casting out none from your places of worship but rather invite them to come.' The JS document 'Articles and Covenants,' unanimously approved at the 9 June 1830 conference of the church, stated the following concerning 'church members after they are received by baptism': 'The elders or priests are to have a sufficient time to expound all things concerning this church of Christ to their understanding previous to their partaking of the sacrament, and being confirmed by the laying on of the hands of the elders, so that all things shall be done in order.'

"When John Whitmer introduced this revelation in his history he explained: 'In the beginning of the church, while yet in her infancy, the disciples used to exclude unbelievers, which caused some to marvel, and converse about this matter because of the things that were written in the Book of Mormon. Therefore the Lord deigned to speak on this subject, that his people might come to understanding.' The revelation made clear that none were to be excluded from public worship meetings.

"Besides clarifying matters related to church meetings, this revelation also addressed spiritual gifts, which were described in both the New Testament and the Book of Mormon. After JS's arrival in Ohio, he encountered spiritual expressions that he deemed unacceptable. In a letter to his brother Hyrum, JS reported that on 4 March, less than a week before dictating this revelation, he aided a woman who 'had an awful struggle with satan but being armed with the power of God he was cast out and the woman is clothed in his right mind.' In the same letter, JS noted that since his arrival in Ohio, 'I hav[e] been engaged in regulating the Churches here as the disciples are numerous and the devil had made many attempts to overthrow them it has been a serious job but the Lord is with us and we have overcome and have all things regular.' This revelation lists some acceptable spiritual gifts and warns that others are of the devil."

Section 46:1

HEARKEN, O ye people of my church; for verily I say unto you that these things were spoken unto you for your profit and learning.¹

Section 46:2

But notwithstanding those things which are written, it always has been given to the elders of my church from the beginning, and ever shall be, to conduct all meetings as they are directed and guided by the Holy Spirit.

Section 46:3

Nevertheless ye are commanded never to cast any one out from your public meetings, which are held before the world.

Section 46:4

Ye are also commanded not to cast any one who belongeth to the church out of your sacrament meetings; nevertheless, if any have trespassed, let him not partake until he makes reconciliation.

¹For "profit and learning," see 1 Nephi 19:23.

Section 46:5

And again I say unto you, ye shall not cast any out of your sacrament meetings who are earnestly seeking the kingdom—I speak this concerning those who are not of the church.

Section 46:6

And again I say unto you, concerning your confirmation meetings, that if there be any that are not of the church, that are earnestly seeking after the kingdom, ye shall not cast them out.

Section 46:7

But ye are commanded in all things to ask of God, who giveth liberally; and that which the Spirit testifies unto you even so I would that ye should do in all holiness of heart, walking uprightly before me, considering the end of your salvation, doing all things with prayer and thanksgiving, that ye may not be seduced by evil spirits, or doctrines of devils, or the commandments of men; for some are of men, and others of devils.

Section 46:8

Wherefore, beware lest ye are deceived; and that ye may not be deceived seek ye earnestly the best gifts,¹ always remembering for what they are given;

Section 46:9

For verily I say unto you, they are given for the benefit of those who love me and keep all my commandments, and him that seeketh so to do; that all may be benefited that seek or that ask of me, that ask and not for a sign that they may consume it upon their lusts.²

Section 46:10

And again, verily I say unto you, I would that ye should always remember, and always retain in your minds what those gifts are, that are given unto the church.

Section 46:11

For all have not every gift given unto them; for there are many gifts, and to every man is given a gift by the Spirit of God.

Section 46:12

To some is given one, and to some is given another, that all may be profited thereby.³

¹The phrase “best gift” occurs twice in the scriptures—here and at 1 Corinthians 12:31.

See Spiritual Gifts; remember that the primary discussions of spiritual gifts in the scriptures are here, 1 Corinthians 12–14, and Moroni 10:8–25.

²For “consume it upon their lusts,” see James 4:3 and notes there.

³It’s pretty clear that the Lord is telling us that we need to work together and work with other people who have distinct spiritual gifts in order to best accomplish what we want to do.

Section 46:13

¹To some it is given by the Holy Ghost to know² that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, and that he was crucified for the sins of the world.

Section 46:14

To others³ it is given to believe⁴ on their words,⁵ that they also might have eternal life if they continue faithful.⁶

Section 46:15

And again, to some it is given by the Holy Ghost to know the differences of administration,⁷ as it will be pleasing unto the same Lord, according as the Lord will, suiting his mercies according to the conditions of the children of men.

Section 46:16

And again, it is given by the Holy Ghost to some to know the diversities of operations,⁸ whether they be of God, that the manifestations of the Spirit may be given to every man to profit withal.

Section 46:17

And again, verily I say unto you, to some is given, by the Spirit of God, the word of wisdom.⁹

Section 46:18

To another is given the word of knowledge,¹⁰ that all may be taught to be wise and to have knowledge.

Section 46:19

And again, to some it is given to have faith to be healed;¹¹

³Compare Ibn Rushd in the Decisive Treatise: “Since all of this has been determined and we, the Muslim community, believe that this divine Law of ours is true and is the one alerting to and calling for this happiness—which is cognizance of God (Mighty and Magnificent) and of His creation—therefore, that is determined for every Muslim in accordance with the method of assent [which] his temperament and nature require. That is because people’s natures vary in excellence with respect to assent. Thus, some assent by means of demonstration; some assent by means of dialectical statements in the same way the one adhering to demonstration assents by means of demonstration, there being nothing greater in their natures; and some assent by means of rhetorical statements, just as the one adhering to demonstration assents by means of demonstrative statements. That is because, when this divine Law of ours called to people by means of these three methods, assent to it was extended to every human being” (passage 11 of the Butterworth translation).

Notice, though, how different Ibn Rushd’s ways of knowing are, compared to the ways outlined by Joseph Smith, both here and elsewhere.

⁴Compare Philippians 1:29,

⁵Compare Ibn Rushd in the Decisive Treatise again: “For assent to something due to an indication arising in the soul is compulsory, not voluntary—I mean that it is not up to us not to assent or to assent as it is up to us to stand up or not to stand up” (passage 23 of the Butterworth translation).

Section 46:23

Section 46:24

And again, it is given to some to speak with tongues;

Section 46:25

And to another is given the interpretation of tongues.

Section 46:26

And all these gifts come from God,² for the benefit of the children of God.

Section 46:27

And unto the bishop of the church, and unto such as God shall appoint and ordain to watch over the church and to be elders unto the church, are to have it given unto them to discern all those gifts lest there shall be any among you professing and yet be not of God.

Section 46:28

And it shall come to pass that he that asketh in Spirit shall receive in Spirit;

Section 46:29

That unto some it may be given to have all those gifts, that there may be a head, in order that every member may be profited thereby.

Section 46:30

He that asketh in the Spirit asketh according to the will of God; wherefore it is done even as he asketh.

Historical Background

“This revelation appointed John Whitmer to take up the work formerly done by Oliver Cowdery as scribe and recorder—and added a new responsibility. Cowdery, who was ‘called...to write for’ JS by April 1829, was the principal scribe for the Book of Mormon and JS’s early revelations and, once the Church of Christ was organized in April 1830, kept minutes at meetings. He also served as scribe for early portions of JS’s inspired revision of the Bible. By the time of this revelation, however, Cowdery was away on a mission, and Whitmer had assumed some of Cowdery’s formal duties. He succeeded Cowdery as scribe for JS’s Bible revision and also assisted JS in gathering and copying revelations, a work that culminated in the creation of a manuscript book of revelations. The following revelation not only formalized Whitmer’s assignment to ‘assist my servant Joseph’ in such writing duties but added that he should also ‘write & keep a regulal [regular] history.’ The revelation then reiterated this dual appointment, directing that Whitmer ‘Keep the Church Record & History continually for Oliver I have appointed to an other office.’

“Before the establishment of the church, JS’s primary need for scribal assistance was for recording revelatory texts, as demonstrated by Cowdery’s work on the translation of the Book of Mormon as well as his careful recording of at least sixteen revelations. The need for other kinds of record keeping increased once the Church of Christ was organized. The first lines of a revelation recorded on 6 April 1830, the day of organization, proclaimed that ‘there Shall a Record be kept among you,’ and the church’s foundational ‘Articles and Covenants’ commanded that a record of members be kept and that members be provided with certificates of good standing that could be presented to the various branches of the church. Cowdery responded by keeping these records until he departed in October 1830 for a mission to the American Indians. David Whitmer was temporarily appointed to record conference minutes, and in March 1831, John Whitmer was appointed to replace Cowdery. About the time this revelation was dictated, John Whitmer began inscribing Revelation Book 1.

“John Whitmer was a willing scribe but a reluctant historian. At the 9 April 1831 conference he responded affirmatively by keeping the minutes when ‘appointed to keep the Church record & history by the voice of ten Elders.’ But according to Whitmer’s own history, when JS told him that in addition to keeping church records ‘you must also keep the Church history,’ he initially declined: ‘I would rather not do it but observed that the will of the Lord be done, and if he desires it, I desire that he would manifest it through Joseph the Seer.’ As a result of this conversation, JS dictated the revelation presented here. Whitmer likely composed its heading when copying it into Revelation Book 1, acknowledging that the text was dictated ‘in consequenc[e] of not feeling reconciled to write at the request of Joseph with[o]ut a commandment.’

“Prior to the dictation of this revelation, record keeping in the church was often sporadic and incomplete. After Whitmer was appointed church historian and recorder, the number of documents recording church history increased substantially. Minutes of church conferences generally contained more detail than they had previously, and Whitmer’s creation of Revelation Book 1 preserved most of JS’s early revelations. Whitmer also wrote a ninety-six-page narrative history that primarily described events from fall 1830 through the mid-1830s.”

Historical Background

“This revelation addressed the concern about where the believers emigrating from New York to Ohio would settle when they arrived. During the fall and winter of 1830–1831, revelations directed the New York believers to gather to Ohio, declared that a holy city known as Zion or the New Jerusalem was to be built ‘among the Lamanites,’ and appointed Edward Partridge as bishop to the Church of Christ, all matters relevant to this question. Because ‘the Law,’ an extensive revelation dated 9 February, declared that the bishop had the responsibility to oversee ‘the properties of my church’ and ‘administer to the poor and needy,’ the question was especially relevant to Partridge.

“The immediate context for both this revelation and key parts of the 9 February revelation a month earlier was the anticipated arrival of more than one hundred church members from New York. In response to a question from Ohio believers, ‘What preparations we shall make for our Brethren from the East & when & how?’ the 9 February revelation stated that individuals should be appointed to assist the bishop in ‘obtaining places’ for the New York believers and advised that members cluster together, with ‘every Church...organized in as close bodies as they can be.’ JS also requested that New York church member Martin Harris aid in the efforts to organize the settlement, telling Harris in a 22 February letter, ‘It is nec[essary] for you to come here as soon as you can in order to choose a place which may be best adapted to the circumstances of yourself and breatheren in the east to settle on.’ By 10 March, Harris had not yet arrived and, according to John Whitmer, there had been ‘no preparation made for the reception of the Saints,’ making Edward Partridge ‘anxious to know something’ about how places were to be obtained for the anticipated newcomers. Whitmer further explained that another purpose of the revelation was to provide clarification because ‘some had supposed that it [Ohio] was the place of gathering even the place of the New Jerusalem spoken of in the Book of Mormon. according to the visions and revelations received in the last days.’”

Historical Background

“This revelation directed Sidney Rigdon, Parley P. Pratt, and Leman Copley to visit a community of the United Society of Believers in Christ’s Second Appearing (popularly called Shakers) in North Union, Ohio. Copley, a recent convert to the Church of Christ and a former Shaker himself, ‘was anxious that some of the elders should go to his former brethren and preach the gospel.’ JS’s history characterized Copley as one who was ‘apparently honest hearted, but still retained ideas that the Shakers were right in some particulars of their faith.’ Copley’s retention of some Shaker beliefs was apparently the catalyst for discussions that prompted this revelation. JS’s history explained, ‘In order to have more perfect understanding on the subject, I [JS] inquired of the Lord and received the following revelation.’

“The visit mandated by this revelation was not the first contact between the two religious societies. The previous fall, Oliver Cowdery and his missionary companions made initial contact with the community of Shakers living in North Union. That interaction had unsettled the Shaker presiding elder, Ashbel Kitchell, who was uncertain what to make of the new faith. Despite his uneasiness, Kitchell reported that the Shakers ‘continued on friendly terms’ with the Mormons ‘in the way of trade and other acts of good neighborhood until the spring of 1831.’

“Sidney Rigdon and Leman Copley apparently responded to the revelation by immediately departing for the Shaker settlement at North Union, approximately eighteen miles from Kirtland, Ohio. It appears Parley P. Pratt departed Kirtland the next day. The revelation is dated 7 May, a Saturday, and Kitchell recorded that the Mormon company arrived ‘on Saturday evening.’ Mormon sources report only briefly the Shakers’ reaction to this revelation and other teachings by the missionaries. John Whitmer, for instance, later wrote that the assigned elders ‘went and proclaimed according to the rev[e]lation given to them, but the shakers hearkened not to their words, and received not the gospel at that time.’ Kitchell, by contrast, recorded a detailed account of the visit. He reported that the group ‘tarried all night, and in the course of the evening, the doctrines of the cross and the Mormon faith were both investigated.’ The next day, 8 May, Pratt arrived from Kirtland, and the Mormon delegation spoke to congregated Shakers after their morning Sabbath meeting. Rigdon reportedly declared to the congregation that ‘he had a message from the Lord Jesus Christ to this people’ and explained to his hearers that it was a written message. When he obtained leave of the Shakers, he commenced to read aloud, apparently verbatim, this revelation. According to Kitchell, the Mormon preachers—Rigdon, Pratt, and Copley—asked permission to hear how the congregated Shakers felt about their message. Kitchell wrote that his people indicated ‘they were fully satisfied with what they had, and wished to have nothing to do with either them or their Christ.— On hearing this Rigdon professed to be satisfied, and put his paper by; but Parley Pratt arose and commenced shakeing his coattail; he said he shook the dust from his garments as a testimony against us, that we had rejected the word of the Lord Jesus.’ After this contentious exchange, Pratt departed immediately for Kirtland, while Rigdon stayed for supper before departing and Copley spent the night in North Union. This encounter apparently fulfilled Pratt’s commission to preach to the Shakers because a revelation dated the following Monday assigned Pratt a different missionary companion and directed him to ‘go forth among the Churches & strengthen them by the word of exhortation.’

“Copley returned shortly thereafter to North Union and asked to be readmitted into the Shaker society. Kitchell and Copley then went to Copley’s farm in Thompson and confronted the Mormons who had recently settled there from Colesville, New York, at Copley’s invitation. Copley reportedly ordered the Mormons off of his land. Following the failed attempt to convert the Shakers at North Union, Mormon missionary interactions with Shakers were apparently rare.

“The 1833 Book of Commandments and the 1835 edition of the Doctrine and Covenants both erroneously date this revelation to March 1831. When John Whitmer copied it into Revelation Book 1, likely in May or June 1831, he dated it to 7 May 1831. Ashbel Kitchell copied the revelation into his pocket journal and also listed its date as 7 May 1831, so his copy likely originated from the same text that was copied into Revelation Book 1. Kitchell probably either asked to copy the revelation after Rigdon recited it to the congregation or obtained a copy prepared for and left with the Shakers by the missionaries. The first published version of the revelation, in The Evening and the Morning Star, listed only May 1831 as the date.”

Historical Background

JSP

"In late fall 1830, Oliver Cowdery and his missionary companions left Kirtland, Ohio, on their way to preach to the American Indians in the territory just west of Missouri after having baptized more than one hundred persons into the church. In addition, several leaders among the Ohio converts departed as well. Frederick G. Williams, who accompanied Cowdery on the mission to the Indians, departed in November, and Edward Partridge and Sidney Rigdon traveled to New York soon afterward to meet with JS. The new church members in Ohio were left without an experienced leader until John Whitmer arrived in January 1831. Upon his arrival, Whitmer noted with dismay that 'the enemy of all righteous had got hold of some of those who professed to be his followers, because they had not sufficient knowledge to detect him in all his devices.' When Parley P. Pratt, one of the missionaries who introduced the teachings of the church to Ohio residents, returned to Kirtland from Missouri in spring 1831, he too was concerned with 'new and strange' behaviors he saw in the church: 'As I went forth among the different branches, some very strange spiritual operations were manifested, which were disgusting, rather than edifying. Some persons would seem to swoon away, and make unseemly gestures, and be drawn or disfigured in their countenances. Others would fall into ecstasies, and be drawn into contortions, cramp, fits, etc. Others would seem to have visions and revelations, which were not edifying, and which were not congenial to the doctrine and spirit of the gospel. In short, a false and lying spirit seemed to be creeping into the Church.'

"Such ostentatious displays did not go unnoticed in the surrounding community. The Painesville Telegraph reported, 'Immediately after Mr. R[igdon] and the four pretended prophets left Kirtland, a scene of the wildest enthusiasm was exhibited, chiefly, however, among the young people; they would fall, as without strength, roll upon the floor, and, so mad were they that even the females were seen in a cold winter day, lying under the bare canopy of heaven, with no couch or pillow but the fleecy snow.'

"After JS arrived in Ohio in February 1831, he worked to curtail what he perceived to be excessive and ostentatious spiritual behaviors among the believers. In early March he wrote to his brother Hyrum that he had been 'ingaged in regulating the Churches here as the disciples are numerous and the devil had made many attempts to overthrow them it has been a serious job but the Lord is with us and we have overcome and have all things regular.' A revelation a few days later urged church members to walk 'uprightly before me...that ye may not be seduced by evil spirits or doctrines of Devils or the commandments of men for some are of men & others of Devils Wherefore beware lest ye are deceived.'

"The problem of discerning between appropriate and inappropriate behaviors apparently continued for several months. When John Whitmer described the 9 May revelation featured here in his later history, he provided this setting for it:

Some had visions and could not tell what they saw, Some would fancy to themselves that they had the sword of Laban, and would wield it as expert as a light dragoon, some would act like an Indian in the act of scalping, some would slide or scoot and [on] the floor, with the rapidity of a serpent, which the[y] termed sailing in the boat to the Lamanites, preaching the gospel. And many other vain and foolish manoeuvres that are unseemly, and unprofitable to mention. Thus the devil blinded the eyes of some good and honest disciples...These things grieved the servants of the Lord, and some conversed together on this subject, and others came in and we were at Joseph Smith Jr. the seers, and made it a matter of consultation, for many would not turn from their folly, unless God would give a revelation, therefore the Lord spake to Joseph.

"Surviving accounts demonstrate that in the months following this revelation, the elders of the church employed the revelation's guidelines instructing them what to do 'if ye behold a spirit manifested that ye cannot understand.' JS was involved in one such situation a few weeks after this revelation, when he determined that a manifestation involving Harvey Whitlock was of the devil.¹ A short time later, Jared Carter recounted another attempt to follow the specific directions given in the revelation when he encountered a woman possessed with a spirit during a church meeting.”¹

¹JSP note: "According to Levi Hancock, during a conference held in early June 1831, 'Joseph put his hands upon Harvey Whitlock and ordained him to the high Priesthood he [Whitlock] turned as black as Lyman [Lyman Wight] was white his fingers were set like Claws he went round the Room and showed his hands and tried to speak his eyes were in the shape of Oval Oes [oval o's] Hyram Smith said Joseph that is not God Joseph said do not speak against this[.]

¹Note that the JSP (RB1) and Hyde and Smith versions do not have “in,” making “the Spirit of truth” in apposition to “the Comforter.” This would put the verse in line with places like John 14:17 and John 15:26. The phrase also appears in DC 93; see all the occurrences of “spirit of truth” here.

¹This might be the most inexplicable and unjustifiable comma in all of the DC. None of the older versions have it; its only purpose is to make this passage more difficult to understand. I think they might have included it because the first part of the verse says “it shall be given” instead of the expected “there shall be given,” but I really don’t know.

²See 2 Peter 2:11 and Jude 1:9.

³Tough to parse the connection between this verse and the previous.
