Revelation, 2 August 1833–B [D&C 94]

Print Sources

JSP	D3:203–207	JSR	243–244
DC	Section 94	HC	1:346–347
HDDC	1222–1231	TCHC	1:256–257

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Kirtland 2^d August 1833

And again verely I say unto you my friends a commandment I give unto you that ye shall commence a work of laying out and preparing a begining and foundation of the city of the stake of Zion here in the land of Kirtland begining at my house and behold it must be done according to the pattern which I have given unto you and let the first lot on the south <be> consecrated unto me for the building of an house for the presidency for the work of the presidency in obtaining revelations and for the work of the ministry of the presidency in all things pertaining to the Church and Kingdom verely I say unto you that it shall be built fifty five by sixty five in the width thereof and in the length thereof in the inner court and there shall be a lower court and an higher court according to the pattern which shall be given unto you hereafter and it shall be dedecated unto the Lord from the foundation thereof according to the order of the Priesthood according to the pattern which shall be given unto you hereafter and it shall be wholly dedecated unto the Lord for the work of the presedency and ye shall not suffer any unclean thing to come into it and my glory shall be there and my presence shall be there but if ther shall come into it any unclean thing my glory shall not be there and my presence shall not come into it and again verily I say unto you the second lot on the south shall be dedecated unto me for the building of an house unto me for the work of the printing of the translation of my scripturs and all things whatsoever I shall command you and it shall be fifty five by sixty five in the width therof and in the length there of— in the inne[r] court and there shall be a lower and an higher court and this house shall be wholly dedecated unto the Lord from the foundation there of for the work of the printing in all thing[s] whatsoever I shall command you to be holy and undefiled according to the pattern in all things as it shall be given unto you and on the third lot shall my servant Hyrum [Smith] receive his inheritance and on the first and second lots on the North shall my servants Reynolds [Cahoon] and Jared [Carter] receive their inheritence that they may do the work which I have appointed unto them to be a committe[e] to build mine houses according to the commandment which I the Lord God have given unto you and now I give unto you no more at this time Amen

Revelation, 6 August 1833 [D&C 98]

Print Sources

JSP	D3:221–228	JSR	244–247
DC	Section 98	HC	1:403–406
HDDC	1260–1275	TCHC	1:309–311

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Kirtland 6th of August 1833—

Verily I say unto you my friends fear not let your hearts be comforted yea rejoice ever more and in evry thing give thanks waiting patiently on the Lord for your prayers have entered into the ears of the of the Lord of sabbaoth and are recorded with this seal and testament the Lord hath sworn and decreed that they shall be granted therefore he giveth this promise unto you with an immutable covenant that they shall be fulfilled and all things wherewith you have been afflicted shall work together for your good and to my names glory saith the Lord and now verely I say unto you concerning the Laws of the land it is my will that my people should observe to do all things whatsoever I command them and that Law of the land which is constitutonal supporting the principles of freedom in maintaning rights and privealiges belonging to all mankind is justifiable before me therefore I the [Lord] justify you and your Brotheren of my Chirch in befriending that Law which

[is] the constitutoonal Law of the land and as pertaining to law of man whatsoever is more or less then this cometh of evil I the Lord your God maketh you free therefore ye are free indeed and the law also maketh you free— nevertheless when the wicked rule the people mourn wherefore honest men and wise men should be sought for dilligently and good men and wise men ye should observe to uphold otherwise whatsoever is less then these cometh of evil and I give unto you a commandment that ye shall forsake all evil and cleave unto all good that ye shall live by evry word that procedeth forth out of the mouth of God for he will give unto the faithful ~~line~~ ^{<line>} upon line precept upon precept and I will try you and prove you herewith and whoso layeth down his life in my cause for my name sake shall find it again even life eternal therefore be not afraid of your enemies for I have decreed in my heart saith the Lord that I will prove you in all things whether you will abide in my covenant even unto death that ye may be found worthy for if ye will not abide in my covenant ye are not worthy of me therefore renounce war and proclaim peace and seek dilligently to turn the hearts of the Children to their fathers and the hearts of the father to the Children ~~and the hearts of the father to the Children~~, and again the hearts of the Jews unto the prophets and the prophets unto the Jews lest I come and smite the whole earth with a curse ~~&~~ [&] all flesh be consumed before me let not your hearts be troubled for in my father[’s] house ~~is~~ ^{are} many mansions and I have prepared a place for ~~<you>~~ and where my father and I am there ye shall be also behold I the Lord am not well pleased with many who are in the church at Kirtland for they do not forsake their sins and their wicked ways the pride of their hearts and their covetousness and all their detestable things and ~~the~~ observe the words of wisdom and eternal Life which I have given unto them verily I say unto you that I the Lord will chasten them ~~verily~~ and will do whatsoever I List if they do not repent and observe all things whatsoever I have said unto ~~you~~ them and again I say unto you if ye observe to do whatsoevr I command you I the Lord will turn all wrath and indignation from you and the gates of hell shall not prevail against you, Now I speak unto you concerning your families, if men will smite you or your families once and ye bear it patiently and revile not against them neither ~~revile~~ seek revenge ye shall be rewarded but if ye bear it not patiently it shall be accounted unto them as being meeted out a just measure unto you and again if your enemies shall smite you a second time and you revile not against your ~~enemies~~ enemy & bear it patiently your reward shall be an hundred fold and again if he shall smite you a third time and ye bear it patiently your reward shall be doubled unto you four fold and these three testamonies shall stand against your enemy if he repent not and shall not be blotted out, and now verily I say unto you if that enemy shall escape my vengence that he be not brought into judgment before me then ye shall see to it that ye warn him in my name that he come no more upon you neither upon your families even your children nor your childrens Children unto the third and fourth generation and then if he shall come upon you or your Children or your childrens Children unto the third and forth generation nevertheless thine enemy is in thine hands and and if thou reward him according to his works thou art Justified if he has saugh [sought] thy life and thy life is endangered by him, thine enemy is in thine hands and thou art justified behold this is the Law I gave unto my servant Nephi and thy father Joseph and Jacob Isaac and Abraham and all mine ancients prophets and Apostles and again this is the Law that I gave unto mine ancients that they should not go out unto battle against any Nation Kindred Tongue or people save I the Lord commanded them and if any Nation Tongue or people should proclaim war against them they should first lift a standard of peace unto that people Nation or tongue and if that people did not accept the offering of peace neithr the second nor third time they should bring their testamonies before the Lord then the Lord would give unto them a commandment and justify them in going out to battle against that Nation Tongue or people and I the Lord would fight their battles and their childrens battles and their children[’s] children[’s] until they had avenged themselves of upon all their enemies unto the third and forth generation, behold this is an ensample unto all people saith the Lord your God for justification befor me and again verely I say unto you if after thine enemy has come upon thee the first time and he repent and come unto thee praying thy forgivness thou shalt forgive him and shall hold it no more as a testimony against thine enemy and so on unto the second and third time and as oft as thine enemy repenteth of the trespass wherewith he has trespassed— against thee thou shalt forgive him until seventy times seven and if he trespass against thee and repent not the first time nevertheless thou shalt forgive him and if he trespass against thee second time and repent not never theless thou shalt forgive him and if he tresspass against thee the third time and repent not thou shalt also forgive him but if he trespass against ~~him~~ the forth time thou shalt not forgive him but shall bring these testamonies [testimonies] before the Lord and they shall not be blotted out untill he repent and rewards ~~them~~ thee four fold in all things wherewith he has trespassed against them [thee] and if and if he do this thou shalt forgive him with all thine heart and if he do not this I the Lord will avenge thee of thine ~~enemies~~ enemy and [an] hundred fold and upon his children and upon his childrens children of all them that hate me unto the third and forth generation but if the children shall repent or the childrens children and turn unto the Lord their God with all their heart with all their might mind and strenght and restore four fould for all their trespasses wherewith they have trespassed or wherewith their fathers have trespassed or their fathers fathers then thine indignation shall be turned away and vengence shall no more come upon them saith the Lord your God and their trespasses shall neve[r] be brought any more as a testimony before the Lord against them Amen—

Letter to Church Leaders in Jackson County, Missouri, 10 August 1833

Print Sources

JSP	D3:238–243	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a ...I will now proceed to give you some advice concerning your business & the advice may be relied upon. It is wisdom that you look out another place to locate on; be wise in your selection, & commence in the best situation you can find, is not the land before you? & an other place of beginning will be no injury to Zion in the end, & though you may be wearied, yet count it joy, for the Lord will reward you more than a hundred fold for all your sufferings in righteousness,— Make out your bill of damages immediately, if you have not, & get the pay; do not remove any faster to your new home than you bound yourselves to, but pray for the Lord to deliver, for this is his will that you should, & fear not for his arm will be revealed, & it will fall upon the wicked & they cannot escape.
- b For the comfort of those who offered their lives & made the compromise to remove, I just say that the Lord was well pleased with that act, that is, the agreement to remove, & there was no other way to save the lives of all the church in Zion, or the most: and any who are dissatisfied with that move, are not right & have cause to repent, & call upon the Lord for grace to support them in the moment of tribulation. This great tribulation would not have come upon Zion had it not been for rebellion: Firstly there were rebellions against the one to whom were intrusted the keys, & from thence it has spread down to the lowest & least member! not this alone, but those who were void of understanding were continually telling that which was
- c not true, & putting false coloring to the things of God! I mean those whose mouths are continually open, & whose tongues cannot be stayed from tatling! & the church will never have peace while such remain in her, therefore, brethren purge them out, & have no confidence in any except such as will lay down their lives for this sacred cause for none others are worthy of it. It was necessary that these things should come upon us: not only justice demands it, but there was no other way to cleanse
- d the church. Fear not, brethren, the Lord is yet for you & though the heavens & the earth pass away, yet the elect will be saved, & Zion will be the joy of all saints & they will possess her forever & ever; & though the atmosphere looks dark yet the Son of righteousness will soon appear with healing in his wings, & he will spare his people as a man spareth his own Son who serveth him...

Letter to Church Leaders in Jackson County, Missouri, 18 August 1833

Print Sources

JSP	D3:258–269	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

Kirtland, August 18, 1833.

Brother William [W. Phelps], John [Whitmer], Edward [Partridge], Isaac [Morley], John [Corrill] and Sidney [Gilbert].

O thou disposer of all Events, thou dispencer of all good! in the name of Jesus Christ I ask thee to inspire my heart indit[ [indite] my thoughts guide my pen [pen] to note some kind word to these my Brotheren in Zion that like the rays of the sun upon the Earth wormeth [warmeth] the face thereof so let this word I write worm [warm] the hearts of my Brotheren or as the gentle rain deceneth [descendeth] upon the earth or the dews upon the mountaines refresheth the face of nature and b Causeth her to smile so give unto thy servant Joseph have a word that shall refresh the hearts and reviv[e] the spir[it]s yea souls <of> those afflicted ones who have been called to leave their homes and go to a strange land not knowing what should befall them behold this is like Abraham a strikeing <evidence> of their acceptance before the <Lord> in this thing but this is not all <they are> ~~but~~ called to contend with the beast of the wilderness for a long time whos[e] Jaws <are> were open to devour them thus did Abraham and also Paul at Ephesus b[e]hold thou art like him <them> and again the affliction of my Brotheren reminds me of Abraham offering up Isaac his only son but my Brotheen [brethren] have have been called to give c up even more than this their wives and their children yea and their own life also O Lord what more dost thou require at their hands before thou wilt come and save them may I not say thou wilt yea I will <say> Lord thou wilt save them out of the hands of their enemies thou hast tried them in the fu[r]nace of affliction a furnace of thine own choseing [choosing] and couldst thou have tried them more then thou hast O Lord then let this suffice and from henceforth <let> this <be> reco[r]ded <be> in heaven for thine angels to look upon and for a testimony against all those ungodly men who have committed those d ungodly deeds forever and ever and <yea> let thine anger <is> be enkindled against them and <let> them <and they shall> be consumed before thy face and be far removed from Zion O <they will go> let them go down to <the> pit and give pl[a]ce for thy saints for thy spirit will not always strive with man therefore I fear for all these things yet O Lord glorify thyself thy will be done and not mine but I must conclude my pray[er] my heart being full of real desire for all such are not reprobate that they cannot be saved—

e Dear Brotheren in fellowship and <love> towards you and with a broken heart and a contrite Spirit I take the pen to address you but I know not what to— say to you and the thought <that> this <of> letter will be so long coming to you my heart faints within me I feel to exclaim O Lord let the desire of my heart be felt and realized this moment <upon you hearts> and teach you all things thy servant would communicate to would you my Brotheren since the inteligence of the Calamity of f Zion has reached the ears of the wicked there is no saifty for us here but evevery man has to wa[t]ch their houses every night to keep off the Mob[b]ers Satan has Come down in Great wrath upon all the Chirch of God and the[re] is no saifty only in the arm of Jehovah none else can deliver and he will not deliver unless we do prove ourselves faithful to him in the severeest trouble for he that will have his robes washed in the blood of the Lamb must come up through great tribulation even the greatest of all affliction but know this when men thus deal with you and speak all maner of evil of you falsly for the sake of Christ that he is your friend and I verily know that he will spedily deliver Zion for I have his immutable covenant that this
g shall be the case but god is pleased to keep it hid from mine eyes the means how exactly the thing will be done the chirch in Kirtland concluded with one accord to die with you or redeem you and never at any time have I felt as I now feel that pure love and for you my Brotheren the wormth [warmth] and Zeal for you saf[e]ty that we can scarcely hold our spirits but wisdom I trust will keep us from madness and desperation and the power of the Go[s]pel will enable us to stand and and bear with patience the Great affliction that is falling upon us on all side[s] for we <are> no safer here in Kirtland then you are h in Zion the cloud is gethering arou[nd] us with great fury and all pharo[ph]s host or in other words all hell and the com[bined] pow[er]s of Earth are Marsheling their forces to overthrow us and we like the chilldrn [children] of Issarel [Israel] with the red Sea before us them and the Egyptions ready to fall upon them to distroy them and no arm could deliver but the arm of God and this is the case with us we must wait on God to be gracious and call on him with out ceasing to make bare his arm for our defence for naught but the arm of the almighty can Save us we are all well here as can be expected yea altogether so with the exception of some little ailments feavers &c.—

i Brother Oliver [Cowdery] is now Sitting before me and is faithful and true and his heart bleeds as it were for Zion yea never did the hart pant for the cooling stream as doth the heart of thy Brothe[r] Oliver for thy salvation yea and I may may say this is the Case with the whole Chirch and all the faithful Oliver will or aught rather to stay with me or in this land until I am permitted to Come with him for I know that if God shall spare my life that he will permit me to settle on an inhe[r]itance on the land of Zion <in due time> but when I do not know but this I do know that I have been kept from going <up> as yet for your sa[k]es and the day will come that Zion will be kept for our sakes therefore be of good cheer and the cloud shall j pass over and the sun shall shine as clear and as fair as heaven itself and the Event shall be Glorious Oliver can stay here to good advantage and have his wife come to him and he can be instrumental of doing great good in this pla[ce] and god will <give> Brother william [W. Phelps] more help and Grace to stand as and ensign to the people for it must be lifted up— and cursed sha[ll] every man be that lifts his arm to <hinder> this great work and god is my witness of this truth it shall be done and let all the saints say amen—

k Dear Brotheren we must wait patiently until the Lord come[s] and resto[res] unto us all things and build the waist places again for he will do it in his time and now what shall I say to cumfort your hearts well I will tell you that you have my whole confidence yea there is not one doubt in <my heart> not one place in me but what is filld with perfect confidence and love
l for you and this affliction is sent upon us not for your sins but for the sins of the chirch and that all the ends of the Earth

may know that you are not speculiting [speculating] with the~~o~~ for Lucre but you are willing to die for the cause you have espoused you know that the chิร์ch have tre[a]ted lightly the commandments of the Lord and for this cause they are not worthy to receive them yet god has suffered it not for your sins but that he might preprare you for a grateer [greater] work

m that you might be prepared for the endowment from on high we cast no reflections upon you we are of one heart and one mind on this subject which I speak in the name of the chิร์ch all seem to wax strong as th[e]y see the day <of> tribulation approcing [approaching] and if our kingdom were of this world then we would fight but our weapons are not carnal yet

n mighty and <will> bind satan ere long under our feet we shall get a press immediately in this place and print th[e] Star until you can obtain deliverence and git up again if god permit and we believe he will we think it would be wise in yo[u] to try to git influence by offering to print a paper in favor of the goverment as you know we are all friends to the Constitution yea true friends to that Country we hea for which our fathers bled in the mean time god will send Embasadors to the authorities of the government and sue for protection and redress that they may be left with out excuse that a ritious [righteous] Judgement might be upon them and thus the testimony of the Kingdom must go unto all and there are many ways that God designs to bring about his ritious purposees and in the day of Judgement he designs to make us the Judges of the whole world

o generation in which we live O how unsearchable are the depths of his mysteries and his ways past finding out Brotheren the testamony which you have given of your honesty and the truth of this work will be felt Eteaaly [eternally] by this generation for it will be proclaimed to Ends of the Earth that there are men now liveing who have offered up their lives for this as a testimony of their religion our Brotheren in the East will handle this testimony to good advantage it seems to inspire every heart to a lively sence of faith and to arm them <with> double fortitude and power and the harder the persicution the greater the gifts of God upon his chิร์ch yea all things shall work together for good to them who are willing to lay down their lives

p for Christ sake we are suffering great persicution on account of one man by the name of Docter Hurlburt [Doctor Philastus Hurlbut] who has been expeled from the chิร์ch for lude and adulterous conduct and to spite us he is lieing in a wonderful manner and the peapl [people] are running after him and giveing him mony to b[r]ake down mormanism which much endangers <our lives> at preasnt [present] but god will put a stop to his carear soon and all will be well my heart this moment <is made> glad for Zion we have just receivd you[r] letter containing the bond with which our enemies bound themselves and to distroy Zion and also the blessing <of> god in poreing out ~~upon~~ his spirit upon you and we have had the word of the Lord that you shall [be] deliverd from you[r] dainger and <shall> again flurish in spite of hell [that i]s god has communicated

q to m[e] by the gift of the holy ghost that this should be <the case> after much p[raye]r and suplication and also that an other printing office must be built the Lord knows how and also it is the will of the Lord that the Store shud [should] be kept and that <not> one foot of <land> the perchased should <be> given to the enimies of God or sold to them but if any is sold let it be sold to the chิร์ch we cannot git the consent of the Lord that we shall give the ground to the enemies yet let those who are

r bound to leave the land t~~o~~ make a show as if to do untill the Lord delivr[.] a word to the wise is sufficient therefore Jud[g]e what I say for know assuredly that every foot of ground that falls into the hands of the enimies with consent is not easy to be obtained again O be wise and not let the knowledge I give unto <you> be known abroad for your sak[e]s hold fast that which you have received trust in god considder Elijah when he prayed for rain go often to your holy plases and <look> for a s cloud of light to apper to your help O God I ask thee in the name of Jesus of nazereth to Save all things concerning Zion and build up her wait [waste] places and restore all things O god send forth Judgement unto victory O come down and cause the moutans [mountains] to flow down at thy presance and now I conclude by telling you that we w[a]it the Comand of God to do whatever we he ple[a]se and if <he> shall say go up to Zion and defend thy Brotheren by <the sword> we fly and we count not dea~~r~~ our live dear to us I am your Brother in Christ

Joseph Smith Jr

Edward Partri[d]ge Independence Jackson County
Missouri

Letter to Vienna Jaques, 4 September 1833

Print Sources

JSP	D3:288–296	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	1:407–409
HDDC	—	TCHC	1:313–315
TPJS	26–27

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

Kirtland Sept 4th 1833—

Dear Siste[r]

- Having a few Leisur moments I sit down to communicate to you a few wordes which I know I am under obligation to improve for to your Satisfaction if it should be a satisfaction for you to receive a few words from your unworthy brother in Christ, I received your Letter some time since containing a history of your Journey and your safe arival for which I bless the Lord I have often felt a whispering since I received your letter like this Joseph thou art indebted to thy God for the offering of thy Sister Viana [Vienna Jaques] which proved a Savior of life as pertaining to thy pecunary concern therefor she should not be forgotten of thee for the Lord hath done this and thou shouldst remember her in all thy prayers and also by letter for she oftentimes calleth on the Lord saying O Lord inspire thy Servant Joseph to communicate by letter some word to thine unworthy handmaid canst thou not speak peaciably unto thine handmaid and say all my sins are forgiven and art thou not content with the chastisement wherewith thou hast chastised thy handmaid yea siste[r] this seems to be the whisperings of a spirit and Judge ye what spirit it is I was sensible, when you left Kirtland that the Lord would chasten you but I pray<ed> fervantly in the name of Jesus that you might live to receive your inheritance agreeable to the commandm[e]nt which was given concerning you I am not at all astonished at what has happened to you neithe[r] to what has happened to Zion and I could tell all the why's & wherefores of all there calamities but alas it is in vain to warn and give precepts for all men are naturally disposed to walk in their own paths as they are pointed out by their own fingers and are not willing to considder and walk in the path which is pointed out by another saying this is the way walk ye in it altho he should be an uner[r]ing director and the Lord his God sent him nevertheless I do not feel disposed to cast any reflections but I feel to cry mightily unto the Lord that all things might work together for good which has happened yea I feel to say O Lord let Zion be comforted let her waste places be built up and established an hundred fold let thy saints come unto Zion out of every nation let her be exalted to the third heavens and let thy Judgments be sent forth unto victory and after this great tribulation let thy blessings fall upon thy people and let thy handmaid live till her soul shall be satisfied in beholding the glory of Zion notwithstanding her present affliction she shall yet arise and put on her beautiful garments and be the Joy and praise <glory> of the whole earth therefore let your heart be comforted live in strict obedience to the commandments of God and walk humble before him and he will exalt thee in his own due time the brethren in this place are gaining ground in spiritual things and are trying to overcome all things that is not well pleasing to their heavenly father ~~we have common~~ there has many brethren mooved to this place from different parts of the country so much so that one house is not sufficient to contain them for public worship and we have divided and hold meetings in two sepperete places namely at the school house on the flats and Uncle John Smiths who lives on brother [Joseph] Coes place we have commenced building the house of the Lord in this place and are making great progress in it so much so that I feel great hopes that by spring it will be finished so that we can have a place to worship where we shall not be molested a few days since Brothe[r] Ball and Siste[r] Elizabeth [Eaton] Chase arived here <from> boston broth[er] ball has gone about three miles from this place to work at his trade and Siste[r] Elizabeth lives with me at present Agnes [Coolbrith] & Mary [Bailey] Lives with father Smith—
- I will assure you that the Lord has respect unto the offering you made he is a God that changes not and and his word cannot fail remember what he has said in the book of mormon respecting those who should assist in bringing this work forth we frequently have inteligenc from our elder abroad that are proclaiming the word that God is working with them for they have attained to great faith insomuch that signs do follow them that believe Brothe[r] David Pettin [David W. Patten] has Just returned from his tour ~~from~~ <to> the east and gives us great satisfaction as to his ministry he has raised up a church of about Eighty <three> members in that part of the country where his friends live in the state of New York many were healed by through his instrumentality several criples were restored as many as twelve that were afflicted came at at a time from a distanc[e] to be healed he <and others> administered in the name of Jesus and they were made whole thus you see that the Laborers in the Lords vineyard are Labouring with their mights while the day lasts knowing the night soon cometh wherein no man can work I wish you to say to brothe[r] [Edward] Partridge that we received his lette[r] of the 13 August directed to Bro Frederick [G. Williams] requesting an explination on the Plan of the house which is to be built in Zion and also of the City Platt that <the> brothern whom we have recently sent to Zion will give them all the information they need about it I have but little time to write at present for I am Labouring on the house of the Lord with my own hands therefor I must bid you farewell and subscribe myself your unworthy brother in christ amen

[Joseph Smith Jr.]

Viana Jaquish
Kirtland Mills O

2◊37

Sept 11
Viana Jaquish
Independence Jackson [County]
Missou[ri]

Letter to Silas Smith, 26 September 1833

Print Sources

JSP	D3:301–308	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Kirtland Mills, Ohio, Sept 20 26th, 1833
- Respected Uncle Silas:— It is with feelings of deep interest for the welfare of mankind which fill my mind on the reflection that all were formed by the hand of Him who will call the same to give and an impartial account of all their works in that great day to which you and myself in common with them are bound, that I take up my pen and seat myself in an attitude to address a few though imperfect lines to you for your perusal.
- b I have no doubt but you will agree with me that men will be held accountable for the things they have, and not for the things they have not, or, that all the light and intelligence communicated to them from their Beneficent Creator, whether it is much or little, by the same they in justice will be judged; and that they are required to yield obedience to, and improve upon that, and that only, which is given; for man is not to live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of the Lord.
- c Seeing that the Lord has never given them to understand by anything heretofore revealed that He had ceased to speak, forever, to his creatures, when sought unto in a proper manner, why should it be thought a thing incredible that He should be pleased to speak again, in these last days for their salvation?
- Perhaps you may be surprised at this assertion. That I should say for the salvation of his creatures in these last days, since we have already in our possession a vast volume of his word, which he has previously given
- d But you will admit that the word spoken to Noah was not sufficient for Abraham, or it was not required of <him> to leave the land of his nativity, and seek an inheritance in a strange country upon the word spoken to Noah, but, for himself he obtained promises from the hand of the Lord, and walked in that perfection that he was called the friend of God.
- Isaac, the promised seed, was not required to rest his hope alone upon the promises made to his father Abraham, but was privileged with the assurance of his approbation in the sight of Heaven, by the direct voice of the Lord to him.
- e If one man can live upon the revelations to another, might I not with propriety ask, why the necessity then, of the Lord's speaking to Isaac as he did, as is recorded in the twenty sixth chapter of Genesis? For the Lord there repeats, or rather, promises again to perform the oath which he had previously sworn to Abraham, and why this repetition to Isaac? Why was not the first promise as sure for Isaac as it was for Abraham? Was not Isaac Abraham's son, and could he not place implicit confidence in the veracity of his father as <being> a man of God?
- f Perhaps you may say that he was a very peculiar man, and different from men in these last days, consequently the Lord favored him with blessings, peculiar and different, as he was different from men in this age.
- I admit that he was a peculiar man, and was not only peculiarly blessed, but greatly blessed.
- But all the peculiarity that I can discover in the man, or all the difference between him and men in this age, is, that he was more holy and more perfect before God, and came to Him with a purer heart, and more faith than men in this day.
- g The same might be said on the subject of Jacob's history. Why was it that the Lord spake to him concerning the same promise, after He had made it once to Abraham, and renewed it to Isaac? Why could not Jacob rest contented upon the word spoken to his fathers? When the time of the promise drew nigh for the deliverance of the children of Israel from the land of Egypt, why was it necessary that the Lord should begin to speak to them?
- h The promise or word to Abraham, was, that his seed should serve in bondage, and be afflicted, four hundred years, and after that they should come out with great substance. Why did they not rely upon this promise, and when they had remained in Egypt, in bondage, four hundred years, come out, without waiting for further revelations, but act entirely upon the promise given to Abraham that they should come out?
- Paul said to his Hebrew brethren, that God might more abundantly show unto the heirs of promise the immutability of His counsel, He confirmed it by an oath. He also exhorts them, who, through faith and patience inherit the promises.
- i Notwithstanding, we (said Paul) have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us, which hope we have as an anchor to the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the vail, yet he was careful to press upon them the necessity of continuing on until they, as well as those who then inherited the promises, might have the assurance of their salvation confirmed to them, by an oath from the mouth of Him who could not lie; for that seemed to be the example anciently, and Paul holds it out to his Hebrew brethren as an object attainable in his day.

j And why not? I admit that by reading the Scriptures of truth the Saints, in the days of Paul, could learn, beyond the power of contradiction, that Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, had the promise of eternal life confirmed to them by an oath of the Lord, but that promise or oath was <no> assurance to them of their salvation; but they could by walking in the footsteps and continuing in the faith of their fathers, obtain, for themselves an oath for confirmation that they were meet to be partakers of the inheritance, with the Saints in light.

k If the Saints in the days of the Apostles were privileged to take the Ancients for examples, and lay hold of the same promises, and attain to the same exalted privilege of knowing that their names were written in the Lamb's Book of Life and that they were sealed there as a perpetual memorial before the face of the Most High, will not the same faithfulness, the same purity of heart and the same Faith, bring the same assurance of eternal life, and that in the same manner, to the children of l men now in this age of the world? I have no doubt but that the holy Prophets and Apostles and Saints in ancient days, were saved in the Kingdom of God; neither do I doubt but that they held converse and communion with Him while they were in the flesh, as Paul said to his Corinthian brethren that the Lord Jesus showed Himself to above five hundred Saints at one time after His resurrection. Job said that he knew that his Redeemer lived and that he should see Him in the flesh in the latter days. I may believe that Enoch walked with God and by faith was translated. I may believe that Noah was a perfect man in his generation and also walked with God. I may believe that Abraham communed with God and conversed with angels. I may believe that Isaac obtained a renewal of the covenant made to Abraham by the direct voice of the Lord. I may believe that Jacob conversed with holy angels, and heard the voice of his Maker, that he wrestled with the angel until he prevailed and obtained the blessing. I may believe that Elijah was taken to Heaven in a chariot of fire with fiery horses. I may believe that the saints saw the Lord and conversed with Him face to face after His resurrection. I may believe that the Hebrew Church came to Mount Zion, and unto the city of the Living God the Heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels. I may believe that they looked into eternity, and saw the Judge of all, and Jesus the Mediator of the New Covenant. But will all this purchase an assurance for me, and waft me to the regions of eternal day and seat me down in the presence of the King of Kings with my garments spotless pure and white?

o Or must I not rather obtain for myself by my own faith and diligence in keeping the commandments of the Lord, an assurance of salvation for myself? And have I not an equal privilege with the ancient Saints? And will not the Lord hear my prayers and listen to my cries as soon as he ever did to theirs, if I come to him in the manner they did? Or, is he a respecter of persons?

p So I must close this subject for want of time, and I may with propriety say at the beginning

We would be glad to see you in Kirtland, we would be glad to see you embrace the New Covenant and be one with us, we sometimes think you are now one with us in heart.

I remain yours affectionately

Joseph Smith Jun

To Silas Smith

Revelation, 12 October 1833 [D&C 100]

Print Sources

JSP	D3:320–325	JSR	247–248
DC	Section 100	HC	1:420–421
HDDC	1282–1289	TCHC	1:330

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Prereysburgh [Perrysburg] Chatocqua [Chautauque] Co NY

Saturday October 12th 1833

Verily thus saith the Lord unto you my friends Sidney [Rigdon] & Joseph your families are well they <are> in mine hands and I will do with them as seemeth me good for in me there is all power therefore follow me and listen to the council which I shall give unto you behold and lo I have much people in this place in the regeons round about and an effectual door shall be opened in the regeons round about in this eastern land therefore I the Lord have suffired you to come unto this place for thus it was expedient in me for the salvation of souls therefore verely I say unto you lift up your voices unto this people speak the thoughts that I shall put into your hearts and ye shall not be confounded before men for it shall be given you in the very hour yea in the very moment what ye shall say but a commandment I give unto you that ye shall declare whatsoever things ye declare in my name in solemnity of heart in the spirit of meekness in all things and I give unto you this promise that inasmuch as ye do this the holy Ghost shall be shed forth in bearing record unto all things whatsoever ye shall say and it is expedient in me that you Sidney should be spokesman unto this people yea verily I will ordain you unto this calling even to be a spokesman unto my servant Joseph and I will give unto him power to be mighty in testimony and I will give unto the<e> power to be mighty in expounding all schriptures that thou mayest be a spokesman unto him and he shall be a revelator unto thee that thou mayest know the certanty of all things pertaining to the things of my kingdom on the earth Therefore continue your journey and let your hearts rejoice for behold and lo I am with you even unto the end ~~and~~

And now I give unto you a word concerning Zion Zion shall be redeemed altho she is chasened for a little season thy breatheren my servents Orson [Hyde] and John [Gould] are in my hands and inasmuch as they keep my commandments they shall be saved therefore let your hearts be comforted for all things shall work together for good to them that walk uprightly and to the sactification [sanctification] of the church for I will raise up unto myself a pure people that will serve me in righteousness and all that call on the name of the Lord and keep his commandments shall be saved even so Amen

Record, 27–28 October 1833

Print Sources

JSP	J1:15–16	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Sunday 26 [27] held a meeting in Mount plesent [Pleasant]. to a large congregation twelve came forward and was baptized and many more were deeply impressed appointed a meeting for this day monday the 27 [28] at the request of some who desires to be baptized at candle lighting held a meeting for confirmation we broke bread laid on hands for the gift of the holy spirit had a good meeting the spirit was given in great ~~to~~ power to some and the rest had great ~~pease~~ peace may God carry
- b on his work in this place till all shall know him Amen. Held meeting yesterday at 10 o clock after meeting two came forward and were baptized confirmed them at the watters edge held meeting last evening Ordained br E[leazer] F[reeman] Nickerson to the office of Elder had a good meeting one of the sisters got the gift of toungues which made the saints rejoice may God increse the gifts among them for his sons sake this morning we bend our course for home may the Lord prosper our journey Amen

Record, 5–13 November 1833

Print Sources

JSP	J1:16–18	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

November 13th nothing of note transpired from the 4th of Noveber u[n]til this day in the morning at 4 O^h clock I was awoke by Brother Davis knocking at <my> door saying Brother Joseph come git <up> and see the signs in the heavens and I arose and beheld to my great Joy the stars fall from heaven yea they fell like hail stones a litteral fullfillment of the word of God as recorded in the holy scriptures and a sure sign that the coming of Christ is clost at hand Oh how marvellous are thy works Oh Lord and I thank thee for thy me[r]cy unto me thy servent Oh Lord save me in thy kingdom for Christ sake Amen

Record, 14–19 November 1833

Print Sources

JSP	J1:18–19	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
TPJS	30–31

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a November 19th from the 13th u[n]till this date of nothing of note has transpired since the great sign in the heavins this day my <hart> is somewhat sorrowfull but feel to trust in the Lord the god of Jacob I have learned in my travels that man is trecheous [treacherous] and selfish but few excepted Brother <Sidney [Rigdon]> is a man whom I love but is not capab[le] of that pure and stedfast love for those who are his benefactors as should posses possess the breast of an-man a
- b Presedent of the chu[r]ch of Christ this with some other little things such as a selfish and indipendance of mind which to[o] often manifest distroys the confidence of those who would lay down their lives for him but notwithstanding these things he is  very great and good man a man of great power of words and can <gain> the friendship of his hearrers
- c very quick he is a man whom god will uphold if he will continue faithful to his calling O God grant that he may for the Lords sake Amen the man who willeth to do well we should extall his virtues and speak not of his faults behind his back a man who willfully turneth away from his friend without a cause is not lightly <easily> to-be fogiven <forgiven.> the kindness of a man <should> is never to be forgotten that person who never forsaketh his trust should ever have the highest place for regard in our hearts and our love should never fail but increase more and more and this my disposition
- d and sentiment &c Amen Brother Frederick [G. Williams] is-aman who who is one of those men in whom I place the greatest confidence and trust for I have found him ever full of love and Brotherly kindness he is not a man of many words but is ever wining because of his constant mind he shall ever have place in my heart and is ever intitled to my confidence He is perfectly honest and upright, and seeks with all his heart to magnify his presidency in the church of ch[r]ist, but fails in
- e many instances, in consequence of a laek <want> of confidence in himself: God grant that he may overcome all evil: Blessed be brother Frederick, for he shall never want a friend; and his generation after him shall flourish. The Lord hath appointed him an inheritance upon the land of Zion. Yea, and his head shall blossom<. And he shall be> as an olive branch that is bowed down with fruit: even so; Amen.
- f And again, blessed be brother Sidney, also, notwithstanding he shall be high and lifted up, yet he shall bow down under the yoke like unto an ass that coucheth beneath his burthen; that learneth his master's <will> by the stroke of the rod: thus saith the Lord. Yet the Lord will have mercy on him, and he shall bring forth much fruit; even as the vin vine of the choice
- g grape when her clusters are <is> ripe, before the time of the gleaning of the vintage: and the Lord shall make his heart merry as with sweet wine because of him who putteth forth his hand and lifteth him up from <out of> deep mire, and pointeth him out the way, and guideth his feet when he stumbles; and humbleth him in his pride. Blessed are his generations. Nevertheless, one shall hunt after them as a man hunteth after an ass that hath strayed in the wilderness, & straitway findeth him and bringeth him into the fold. Thus shall the Lord watch over his generation that they may be saved: even so; Amen.

Letter to Moses Nickerson, 19 November 1833

Print Sources

JSP	D3:355–360	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	1:441–443
HDDC	—	TCHC	1:351–353
TPJS	27–30

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a ...When I contemplate the rapidity with which the great and glorious day of the coming of the Son of Man advances, when he shall come to receive his saints unto himself where they shall dwell in his presence and be crowned with glory & immortality; when I consider that soon the heavens are to be shaken, and the earth tremble and reel to and fro; and <that> the heavens are to be unfolded as a scroll when it is ~~folded~~ <rolled> up, that every mountain and island are to flee away <away> I cry out in my heart, What manner of person ought I to be in all holy conversasion and godliness!
- b You remember the testimony which I bore in the name of the Lord Jesus, concerning the great work which he has brought forth in the last days. You know my manner of communication, how that in weakness and simpleness I declared to you what the Lord had brought forth by the ministering of his holy angels to me, for this generation. I pray that the Lord may enable you to treasure these things up in your mind; for I know that his Spirit will bear testimony to all who seek diligently after knowledge from him. I hope you will search the scriptures, to see whether these things are not also consistant with those things that the ancient prophets and apostles have written.
- c I remember brother Freeman [Eleazer Freeman Nickerson] and Wife, Ranson also, and sister Lydia [Goldthwaite Bailey], and little Charles, with all the brethren and sisters. I intreat for an interest in all your prayers before the throne of mercy in the name of Jesus. I hope that the Lord will grant that I may see you all again, and above all that we may overcome and set down together in the Kingdom of our Father...

Letter to Church Leaders in Geneseo, New York, 23 November 1833

Print Sources

JSP	D3:360–366	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Kirtland, November 23, 1833.
- An epistle from a counsel of high priests of the church of christ, organized on the 6th of April, A.D. 1830, to their brethren of the same church, residing at Geneseo, Livingston County, New York:
- Dearly beloved brethren,
- b It is with deep feelings of <deep> interest for your welfare, that we address ourselves to you by this Epistle, which we send by the hands of our worthy brethren, Orson Pratt, and Lyman Johnson, both personly known to us, whom we recommend to your fellowship, as men of good morals and of firm and unshaken integrity in the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, to which ministry they have been called and regularly ordained by the hands of this church, and set apart to this office
- c after having been received into the same by baptism according to the Articles and Covenants thereof. It is just for us, for your sakes, to say, that our brother Orson Pratt, was one of those who first embraced this gospel, and was soon set apart to the work of the ministry, and during an excessive labor of three <years> has conducted himself with that p[ro]p[ri]ety, and has made such advances in the knowledge of the doctrine of the Kingdom of Christ, that we recommend him in full confidence
- d as a man cabable of setting in order the ordinances and requisitions of the same. Our brother Lyman Johnson has labored in the ministry more than two years, during which he has showed himself worthy of the high responsibility, and is justly entitled to the confidence of all the saints with whom he has labored, and is fully qualified to assist our brother Orson Pratt in setting in order all matters of difficulty that may be among you.

e Dear brethren, we have learned with painful feelings, that divisions and strifes in a degree have made their appearance among you, which evidently is the work of the adversary of our souls, to disaffect your minds toward the truth, ~~that~~ <and grieve> the Holy Spirit <that it> withdraws, and leaves you in darkness, to be led captive down to destruction: and with great anxiety of heart we have called upon our heavenly Father in the name of Jesus for you.* We need not prove to you by argument, brethren, that where there <are> contentions, and unbelief in the sacred things communic[ated] to the saints by f revelation, that discord, hardness, jealousies, and numberless evils will inevitably insue. When we reflect upon the holiness and perfections of our great Master, who has opened a way whereby we may come unto him, even by the sacrifice of himself, our hearts melt within us for <his> condescension. And when we reflect also, that he has called us to be perfect in all things, that we may be prepared to meet him in peace when he comes in his glory with all the holy angels, we feel to exhort our brethren with boldness, to be humble and prayerful, to walk indeed as children of the light and of the day, that they may have grace to withstand every temptation, and to overcome every evil in the worthy name of our Lord Jesus Christ. For be assured brethren, that the day is truly near when the Master of the house will rise up and shut the door, and none but such as have on a wedding garment will be permitted to enjoy a se[a]t at the marriage supper!

g Therefore, dear brethren, we have sent our brethren aforementioned to you, hoping you will receive them in our name, and in the name of the church in Kirtland, and receive their teachings and instructions as from us, for they have been set apart to this work, to act in this author[i]ty, and have received the prayers of this counsel, and this church.

We conclude this short letter by earnestly desiring an interest in your prayers, and commending you to the mercy and favor of our Lord Jesus Christ.

We subscribe ourselves your brethren in the bonds of the new and everlasting Covenant,

Joseph Smith Jr Moderator of co[u]ncil

Oliver Cowdery, Clerk

h * <We have been informed that when> These two brethren visited you previously, having authority from us to teach you the doctrine of this church, and [to] expound the revelations to your understandings, <that they> learned that brother Ezra Landin [Landon] did not believe <all of> the ~~Vision given to us of~~ revelations which had been delivered to this church by inspiration by the appointment of heaven. Our brother Orson Pratt while reading the Vision to a certain brother, while in i brother Landin's house, was threatened of being turned out of at the door except he should desist. They then called a counsel of the High priests to labor with brother L. who, when on the point of being cut off from the church said that he believed the Vision and would teach it to the church. On the return of said brethren from the east this fall, they learned that brother L did not teach, neither believe the Vision. We have also learned from other brethren that he does not walk worthy of his high calling before the Lord, and without speedy repentance and deep humility will have his office and also membership in this church taken from him.

j We want you to understand, dear brethren, that the conduct of our brother L. has greatly grieved us, and this church. We want you to understand, that we hold no communion, nor have no fellowship for those who do not believe the book of Mormon, and the revelations which God has given to us in these last days. We are informed that our brother L. endeavors to excuse himself for not believing the Vision, saying, that it is not a revelation, but a Vision. We want you to understand from k us, that we pronounce such ~~to~~ ~~the~~ ~~works~~ of the devil, and are calculated to ensnare the souls of the saints. We plainly declare, and as men that expect to, and must be judged by the searcher of all hearts, that those who do not believe ~~and~~ <all> the revelations and vision given to this church, ~~by~~ that they do not believe the book of Mormon, and consequently have no fellowship with us. We write plain, for we are bound so to do, ~~and we write in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ,~~ and we hope that what we write may be heeded, for we write in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, by virtue of our calling in his church.

Letter to Edward Partridge, 5 December 1833

Print Sources

JSP	D3:366–374	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	1:448–451
HDDC	—	TCHC	1:358–362
TPJS	31–33

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a ...It appears brethren that the above statements were mostly from reports and no certainty of their being correct. therefore it is difficult for us to advise and can only say that the destenies of all people are in the hands of a Just God and he will do no injustice to any one and this one thing is sure that they who will live Godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution and before their robes are mad[e] white in the blood of the Lamb it is to be expected they will pass through great tribulation according to
- b John the Revelator, I wish when you receive this letter that you would collect every particular concerning the Mob from the begining and send us a correct statement of fact as they transpired from time to time that we may be enabled to give the public correct information on the subject and inform us also of the situation of the brethren with respect to their means of sustinance &c I would inform you that it is not the will of the Lord for you to sell your Lands in Zion if means can possibly be procured for their sustenance without, evry exertion should be to maintain the cause you have espoused and to contribute to the necessities of one another as much as possible in this your great calamity and remember not to murmur at the dealings
- c of God with his creature you are not as yet brought into as trying circumstances as were the ancient Prophets & apostles Call to mind a Daniel the three Hebrew Children, Jeremiah Paul Stephen and many more too numerous to mention who were stoned sawn asunder tempted slain with the sword and wandered about in sheep skins & goat skins being destitute afflicted tormented of whom the world was not worthy. they wandered in deserts and in mountains and in dens and caves of the earth yet they all obtained a good report through faith and amidst all their afflictions they rejoiced that they were
- d <counted> worthy to receive persecution for Christs sake we know not what we shall be called to pass through before Zion is delivered and established therefore we have great need to live near to God and always be in strict obedience to all his commandments that we may have a concience void of offense towards God and man, It is your privelege to use every lawful means in your power to seek redress for your grievances of your enemies and prosecute them to the extent of the Law but it will be impossable for us to render you any assistance in a temporal point of view as our means are already exhausted
- e and are deeply in debt and know no means whereby we shall be able to extricate ourselves; The inhabitants of this county threaten our distruction and we know not how soon they may be permitted to follow the examples of the Missourians but our trust is in God and we are determined by his grace assisting us to maintain the cause and hold out faithful to the end that
- f we may be crowned with crowns of celestial glory and enter into that rest that is prepared for the children of God, we are now distributing the tipe and calculate to commence setting to day and issue a paper the Last of this week or beginning of next, we wrote to bro Phelps some time since and also sent by bro Orson for the names of the subscribe[r]s for the star which we have not yet received and until we receive them the most of the brethren will be deprived of them and when you receive
- g this if you have not sent them I wish you to attend to it immediately as much inconvenience will attend a delay, We expect shortly to publish a political paper weekly in favour the present administration, the influential men of that party have offered a liberal patronage to us and we hope to succeed for thereby we can shew the public the purity of our intention in supporting the government under which we live—...

Letter to Edward Partridge and Others, 10 December 1833

Print Sources

JSP	D3:375–381	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	1:453–456
HDDC	—	TCHC	1:365–369
TPJS	33–37

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Kirtland Mills Ohio December 10th 1833
Beloved brethren E[dward] Partridge, W[illiam] W. Phelps J[ohn] Whitmer A S[idney] Gilbert J Corril [John Corril] I[saac] Morley, and all the saints whom it may concern.
This morning the mail brought bros Partridge & Corril's letters & also bro Williams, all mailed at Liberty Nov. 19th which gave us the melancholy inteligence of your flight from the land of your inheritance having been driven before the face of your enemies in that place
- b From previous letters we had learned that a number of our brethren have been slain, but we could not learn from those refered to above as there had been but one, that was bro [Andrew] Barber and bro [Philo] Dibble wounded in the bowels,

we were thankful to learn that no more were slain, and our daily prayers are, that the Lord will not suffer his saints who have gone up to his land to keep his commandments, to stain his holy mountain with their blood. I cannot learn from any communication by the spirit to me that Zion has forfeited her claim to a celestial crown notwithstanding the Lord has caused her to be thus afflicted; except it may ~~it may~~ be some individuals who have walked in disobedience and forsaken the new covenants; all such will be made manifest by their works in due time. I have always expected that Zion would suffer sore affliction from what I could learn from the commandments which have been given. but I would remind you of a certain clause in one which says that after much tribulation cometh the blessing. by this and also others, and also one received of late, I know that Zion, in the own due time of the Lord will be redeemed, but how many will be the days of her purification, tribulation and affliction, the Lord has kept hid from my eyes; and when I enquire concerning this subject the voice of the Lord is, Be still, and know that I am God! all those who suffer for my name shall reign with me, and he that layeth down his life for my sake shall find it again. Now there are two things of which I am ignorant and the Lord will not show me—perhaps for a wise purpose in himself. I mean in some respects, and they are these, Why God hath suffered so great calamity to come upon Zion; or what the great moving cause of this great affliction is. ~~These two things~~ and again by what means he will return her back to her inheritance with songs of everlasting Joy upon her head. These two things brethren, are in part kept back that they are not plainly <shewn unto me. but there are some things that are plainly> manifest, that has incurred <th[e]> displeasure of ~~displeasure~~ the Almighty. when I contemplate upon all things that have been manifested, I am sensible that I ought not to murmur and do not murmur only in this, ~~but~~ that those who are innocent are compelled to suffer for the iniquities of the guilty; and I cannot account for this, only on this wise, that the saying of the savior has not been strictly observed: If thy right eye offend thee pluck it out. and cast it from thee <or if thy right arm offend thee pluck it off> and cast it from thee>. Now the fact is, if any of the members of our body are disordered, the rest of our body will be effected with them and then all is brought into bondage together. And yet notwithstanding all this, it is with difficulty that I can restrain my feelings; when I know that you my brethren with whom I have had so many happy hours, sitting as it were in heavenly places in Christ Jesus. and also haveing the witness which I feel, and even have felt, of the purity of your motives— are cast out, and are as strangers and pilgrims on the earth, exposed to hunger, cold, nakedness peril, sword &c I say when I contemplate this, it is with difficulty that I can keep from complaining and murmurings against this dispensation; but I am sensible that this is not right and may God grant that notwithstanding your great afflictions and sufferings there may not any thing sepperate us from the Love of Christ. Brethren, when we learn your sufferings it awakens evry sympathy of our hearts; it weighs ~~us~~ us down; we cannot refrain from tears [illegible] yet we are not able to realize only in part your sufferings. And I often hear the brethren saying they wish they were with you that they might bear a part of your sufferings; and I myself should have been with you had not God prevented it in the order of his providence, that the yoke of affliction might be less grievous upon you; God having forewarned me concerning these things for your sakes; and also bro Oliver [Cowdery], could not lighten your afflictions by tarrying longer with you, for his presence would have so much the more enraged your enemies; therefore, God hath ~~deals~~ dealt mercifully with us. O brethren, let us be thankful that it is as well with us as it is, and we are yet alive that peradvent[u]re, God hath Laid up in store great good for us in this generation, and grant that we may yet glorify his name, I feel thankful that there have no more denied the faith; I pray God, in the name of Jesus that you all may be kept in the faith, unto the end, let your sufferings be what they may, it is better that you should die in the ey[e]s of God, then that you should give up the Land of Zion, the ~~inhabitant~~ inheritances which you have purchased with your monies; for evry man that giveth not up his inheritances, though he should die yet when the Lord shall come, he shall stand upon it, and with Job in his flesh he shall see God. Therefore this is my council that you retain your lands even unto the uttermost, and seeking <evry> lawful means to obtain redress of your enemies &c &c and pray to God day and night to return you in peace and in safety to the Lands of your inheritance and, ~~and~~ when the Judge fails you, appeal unto the Executive, and when the Executive fails you, appeal unto the President, and when the President fails you, and all Laws fail you and the humanity of the people fails you, and all things else fails you but God alone, and you continue to weary him with your importunings, as the poor woman the unjust Judge, he will not fail to excute Judgment upon your enemies and to avenge his own elect that cry unto him day and night— Behold he will not fail you! he will come with ten thousand of his saints and all his advisaries shall be destroyed by the breath of his lips! all those that keep their inheritances notwithstanding they should be pealed and driven shall be likened unto the wise virgins who took oil in their lamps, But all those who are unbelieving and fearful, will be likened unto the foolish virgins, who took no oil in their Lamps; and when they shall return, and say unto the saints, give us of your lands, behold there will be no room found for them. As respects giving deeds I would advise to give deeds as far as the brethren have legal and Just claims for ~~their~~ them and then let evry man answer to God for the disposal of them. I would suggest some Ideas to bro William P. not knowing as they will be of any real benefit, but suggest them for consideration I would be glad that he were here, but dare not advise, were it possible for him to come, not knowing what shall befall us, as we are under very heavy and serious threatening from a great many people in this place. But perhaps, the people in Liberty may feel willing, God having power to soften the hearts of all men, to have a press established there; and if not, in some other place; any place where it can be the most convenient and it is possible to get to it: God will be willing to have it in any place where it can be practicular and safe. we must be wise as serpents and harmless as doves. Again I desire that bro William would collect all the information, and give us a true history of the begining and rise of Zion, and her calamities &c Now hear the prayer of your unworthy Brothe[r] in the bonds of the new and everlasting covenant: O my God! thou who has called and chosen a few through thy weak instrument by commandment and sent them to Missouri a place which thou didst call Zion and commanded thy servants to consecrate unto thyself for a place of a refuge, and of safety for the gathering of thy saints, to be built up a holy city unto thyself and as thou hast said that none other place should be appointed like unto this therefore I ask thee in the name of Jesus Christ, to return thy people unto their homes, & there inheritances, to enjoy the fruit of their Labors; that all the waste places may be built up; that all the enemies of thy people, who will not ~~return~~ repent and ~~return~~ unto thee be destroyed from off the face of that Land; and let an house be built and established unto thy name, and let all the losses that thy people have sustained be rewarded unto them, even more than fourfold; that the borders of Zion be enlarged forever, and let her be established no more to be thrown down; and let all thy saints when they are scattered as sheep, and are persecuted, and flee unto Zion, and be established in the midst of her, and let her be organized according to thy law and let this prayer even ~~before~~ be recorded before thy face; give thy holy spirit unto my brethren: unto whom I write: send thy angels to guard them and to deliver them from all evil; and when they turn there faces towards Zion and bow down before thee and pray may their sins never com[e] up before thy face neithe[r] have place in the book of thy remembrance and may they depart from all their eniquities. provide ~~bread~~ <food> for them as thou doest for the ravens, provide clothing to cover there nakedness, and <houses that they may> ~~cause that they dwell therein~~ give unto them friends in abundance, and let their names be recorded in the Lambs book of Life eternally before thy face Amen finely [finally], brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all unto his coming and Kingdom, Amen

Joseph Smith J

Revelation, 16–17 December 1833 [D&C 101]

Print Sources

JSP	D3:386–397	JSR	248–252
DC	Section 101	HC	1:458–464
HDDC	1290–1307	TCHC	1:371–374

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Verily I say unto you concerning your brethren who have been afflicted and persecuted and cast out from the Land of their inherit[ces] I the Lord have suffered the affliction to come upon them wherewith they have been afflicted in consequence of their transgressions yet I will own them and they shall be mine in that day when I shall come to make up my jewels Therefore they must needs be chastened and tried even as Abraham who was commanded to offer up his only son for all those who will not endure chastening but deny me cannot be sanctified Behold I say unto you there were jar[r]ings and contentions envyings and strifes and lustful and covetous desires among them Therefore by these things they poluted their inheritances they were also slow to hearken unto the voice of the Lord their God Therefore the Lord their God is slow to hearken unto their prayers to answer them in the day of their trouble In the day of their peace they esteemed lightly my council but in the day of their trouble of necessity they feel after me Verely I say unto you notwithstanding their sins my bowels are filled with compassion towards them I will not utterly cast them off and in the day of wrath I will remember mercy I have sworn and the decree hath gone forth by a former commandment which I have given unto you that I would let fall the sword of mine indignation in the behalf of my people and even as I have said it shall come to pass mine indignation is soon to be poured without measure upon all nations and this will I do when the cup of their eniquity is full and in that day all who are found upon the watch tower or in other words all mine Israel shall be saved and they that have been scattered shall be gathered and all they who have mourned shall be comforted and all they who have given their lives for my name shall be crowned Therefore let your hearts be comforted concerning Zion for all flesh is in mine hands be still and know that that I am God Zion shall not be moved out of her place notwithstanding her children are scattered they that remain and are pure in heart shall return and come to their inheritances they and their children with songs of everlasting joy to build up the waste places of Zion and all these things that the prophets might ~~might~~ be fulfilled and behold there [is] none other place appointed than that which I have appointed neither shall there be any other place appointd that [than] that which I have appointed for the work of the gathering of my saints until the day cometh when there is found no more room for them and they shall be called stakes for the curtains of Zion or strength of Zion

Behold it is my will that all they who call on my name and worship me according to mine everlasting gospel should gather to gether and stand in holy places and prepare for the revelation which is to come when the veil of the covering of my

temple in my tabernacle which hideth the earth shall be taken off and all flesh shall see me together and evry coruptable thing both of man or of of the beasts of the field or of the fowls of heaven or of the fish of the sea that dwell upon all the face of of the earth shall be consumed And also that of element shall melt with fervant heat and all things shall become new that my knowledge and glory may dwell upon all the earth and in that day the enmity of man and the enmity of beasts yea the enmity of all flesh shall cease from before my face And in that day whatsoever any man ask shall ask it shall be given unto him and in that day shall satan shall not have power to tempt any man and there shall be no sorrow because there is no death In that day an infant shall not [die] until he is old and his life shall be as the age of a tree and when he dies he shall not sleep that is to say in the earth but shall be changed in the twinkling of an eye and shall be caught up and his rest shall be glorious yea verely I say unto you in that day when the Lord shall come he shall reveal all things things which have passed and hidden things which no man know things of the earth by which it was made and the purpose and the end thereof things most precious things that are above and things that are benieeth things that are in the earth and upon the earth and in heaven All they that suffer persecution for my name and endure in faith though they are called to lay down their lives for my sake yet shall they partake of all this glory wherefore fear not even unto death for in this world your joy is not full but in me your joy is full therefore care not for the body neither for the Life of the body but care for the soul and for the Life of the soul and seek the face of the Lord always that in patience ye may possess your souls and ye shall have eternal life when men are called unto mine everlasting gospel and covenant with an everlasting covenant they are accounted as the salt of the earth and the savor of men they are called to be the savor of men there fore if that salt of the earth hath Lost its savor behold it is thenceforth good for nothing only to be cast out and troden under the feet of men Behold here is wisdom concerning the children of Zion even many but not all they were found transgressors therefore they must needs be chastened he that exalteth himself shall be abased and he that abaseth himself shall be exalted And now I will shew unto you a parable that you may know my will concerning the redemption of Zion A certain noblemen had a spot of Land very choice and he said unto his servants go ye into my vineyard even upon this very choice piecce of land and plant twelve olive trees and set watchmen round about them and build a tower that one may overlook the Land round about to be a watchman upon the tower that mine olive trees may not be broken down when the enemy shall come to spoil and take unto themselves the fruit of my vineyard Now the servants of this nobleman went and did as their Lord commanded them and planted the olive trees and built a hedge round about and set watchmen and began to build the tower and while they were yet Laying the foundation thereof they began to say among themselves and what need hath my Lord of this tower and consulted for a Long time saying among themselves what need hath my Lord of this tower seeing this is a time of peace might not this money be given to the exchangers for there is no need of these things and while they were at varience one with another they become very slothful and they harkened not unto the commandment of their Lord and the enemy came by night and broke down the hedge and the servants of the nobleman arose and were affrighted and fled and the enemy distroyed their works and broke down the Olive trees

Now behold the nobleman the Lord of the vineyard called upon his servants and said unto them why what is the cause of this great evil ought ye not to have done even as I commanded you and after you had planted the vineyard and built the hedge round about and set watchmen upon the walls thereof built the tower also and set a watchman upon the tower and watched for my vineyard and not have fallen asleep lest the enemy should come upon you And behold the watchman upon the tower would have seen the enemy while he was yet afar off and then ye could have made ready and kept the enemy from breaking down the hedge thereof and saved my vineyard from the hands of the distroyer And the Lord of the vineyard said unto one of his servants, go and gather togethe[r] the residue of my servants and take all the strength of mine house which are my wariors my young men and they that are of middle age also among all my servants who are the strength of mine house save th^o only whom I have appointed to tarry and go ye straitway unto the Land of my vineyard and redeem my vineyard for it is mine I have bought it with money therefore get ye straitway unto my Land break down the walls of mine enemies th[r]ow down their tower and scatte[r] their watchmen and inasmuch as they gather to gether against you avenge me of mine enemies that by and by I may come with the residue of mine house and possess the Land And the servant said unto his Lord when shall these things be And he said unto his servant when I will go ye strait way and do all things whatsoever I have commanded you and this shall be my seal and blessing upon you a faithful and wise steward in the midst of mine house a ruler in my kingdom— And his servant went straitway and done all things whatsoever his Lord commanded him and afte[r] many days all things were fulfilled

And again verely I say unto you I will shew unto you wisdom in me concerning all the churches in asmuch as they are willing to be guided in a right and proper way for their salvation that the work of the gathering to gether of my saints may continue that I may build them up unto my name upon holy places for the time of harvist is come and my word must needs be fulfilled therefore I must gather to gether my people according to the parable of the wheat and the tares that the wheat may be secured in the garner to possess eternal life and be crowned with celestial glory when I come in the Kingdom of my fathe[r] to reward evry man according as his work shall be whilst the tares shall be bound in bundles and their bands made strong that they may be burned with unquenchable fire, therefore a commandment I give unto all the churches that they shall continue to gather to gether into the places which I have appointed, nevertheless as I have said unto you in a former commandment let not your gathering be in haste nor by flight but let all things be prepared before you and in order that all things be prepared before you observe the commandments which I have given concerning these things which saith or teacheth to purchase all the Land by mony which can be purchaced for mony in the regions round about the Land which I have appointed to be the Land of Zion for the begining of the gathering of my saints all the Land which can be purchaced in Jackson County and the counties round about and leave the residue in mine hand Now verily I say unto you let all the churches gather to gether all their monies let these things be done in their time lo not in haste and observe to have all things prepared before you and let honorable men be appointed even wise men and send them to purchase the lands and every church in the eastern countries when they are built up if they will harken unto the council they may buy Lands and gather together upon them and in this way they may establish Zion there is even now already enough in store a sufficient yea even abundance to redeem Zion and establish her waste places no more to be thrown down were the churches who call themselves after my name willing to hear harken to my voice and again I say unto you those who have been scattered by their enemies it is my will that they should continue to importune for redress and redemption by the hand of those who are placed as rulers and are in authority over you according to the Law and constitution of the people which I have suffered to be established and should be maintained for the rights and protection of all flesh according to just and holy principles, that evry man may act in doctrine and principle pertaining to futurity according to the moral agency which I have given unto them that evry man may be accountable for his own sin in sins [in] the day of judgment therefor it is not right that any man should be in bondage one to another and for this purpose have I established the constitution of this Land by the hands of wise men whom I raised up unto this very purpose and redeemed the Land by the shedding of blood, Now unto what shall I liken the children of Zion I will liken them to unto the parable of the woman and the unjust judge (for men ought always to pray and not faint) which saith there was in a city a judge which feared not God neither regarded man and there was a widow in that city and she came unto him saying avenge me of mine adver[s]ary and he would not for a while but afterward he said within himself though I fear not God nor regard man yet because this widow troubleth me I will avenge her lest by her continual coming she weary me thus will I liken the children of Zion let them impertune at the feet of the judge and if he heed them not let them impertune at the feet of the Govoner and if the Govoner heed them not let them importune at the feet of the President and if the President heed them not then will the Lord arise and come forth out of his <hiding> place & in his fury vex the nation and in his hot displeasure and in his fierce ander [anger] in his time will cut off these wicked unfaithful and unjust stewards and appoint them their portion among hypocrits and unbelievers even in outer darkness where there is weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth pray ye therefore that their ears may be opened to unto your cries that I may be merciful unto them that these things come not upon them what I have said unto you must needs be that all men may be left without excuse that wise men and rulers may hear and know that which I <they> have never considered that I may procede to bring to pass my act my strange act and perform my work my strange work that men may desern between the righteous and the wicked saith your God and again I say unto you it is conterary to my commandment and my will that my servant Alge[r]non Sidney Gilbert should sell my store house which I have appointed unto my people ~~unto~~ <into> the hands of mine enemies let not that which I have appointed be poluted by mine enemies by the consent of those who call themselves afte[r] my name for this is a very soar and grievous sin against me and against my people in consequence of those things which I have decreed and are soon to <be>fall the nations therefore it is my will that my people should claim and hold claim upon that which I have appointed unto them though they should not be permitted to dwell thereon nevertheless I do not say they shall not dwell thereon for in as much as they bring forth fruit and works meet for my kingdom they shall dwell thereon they shall build and anothe[r] shall not inherit it they shall plant vineyards and they shall eat the fruit thereof even so amen

Letter to the Church, not after 18 December 1833

Print Sources

JSP	D3:397–401	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
TPJS	42–43

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a THE ELDERS IN KIRTLAND, TO THEIR BRETHREN ABROAD.

Dear Brethren in Christ, and companions in tribulation:

It seemeth good unto us, to drop a few lines to you, giving you some instruction relative to conducting the affairs of the kingdom of God, which has been committed unto us in these later times, by the will and testament of our Mediator, whose intersessions in our behalf, are lodged in the bosom of the Eternal Father, and ere long will burst with blessings upon the heads of all the faithful:

- b We have all been children, and are too much so at the present time; but we hope in the Lord, that we may grow in grace and be prepared for all things which the bosom of futurity may disclose unto us. Time is rapidly rolling on, and the prophecies must be fulfilled. The days of tribulation are fast approaching, and the time to test the fidelity of the Saints, has come.—Rumor with her ten thousand tongues is diffusing her uncertain sounds in almost every ear: but in these times of sore trial, let the saints be patient and see the salvation of God. Those who cannot endure persecution and stand in the day of affliction, cannot stand in the day when the Son of God shall burst the veil, and appear in all the glory of his Father with the holy angels.
- c On the subject of ordination, a few words are necessary: In many instances there has been too much haste in this thing, and the admonition of Paul has been too slightly passed over, which says, "Lay hands suddenly upon no man." Some have been ordained to the ministry, and have never acted in that capacity, or magnified their calling, at all: Such may expect to lose their calling, except they awake and magnify their office. Let the elders abroad be exceedingly careful upon this subject, and when they ordain a man to the holy ministry, let it be a faithful man, who is able to teach others also; that the cause of Christ suffer not. It is not the multitude of preachers that is to bring about the glorious Millennium! but it is those who are "called, and chosen, and faithful."
- d Let the elders be exceedingly careful about unnecessarily disturbing and harrowing up the feelings of the people. Remember, that your business is, to preach the gospel in all humility and meekness, and warn sinners to repent and come to Christ. Avoid contentions and vain disputes with men of corrupt minds, who do not desire to know the truth. Remember that "it is a day of warning, and not a day of many words." If they receive not your testimony in one place, flee to another, remembering, to cast no reflections, nor throw out any bitter sayings. If you do your duty, it will be just as well with you, as though all men embraced the gospel.
- e Be careful about sending boys to preach the gospel to the world; if they go, let them be accompanied by some one who is able to guide them in the proper channel, lest they become puffed up, and fall under condemnation and into the snare of the devil: finally, in these critical times, be careful; call on the Lord day and night. Beware of pride: Beware of false brethren, who will creep in among you to spy out your liberties, &c. Awake to righteousness and sin not; let your light shine, and show yourselves workmen that need not be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. Apply yourselves diligently to study, that your minds may be stored with all necessary information.
- f We remain your brethren in Christ, anxiously praying for the day of redemption to come, when iniquity shall be swept from the earth; and everlasting righteousness brought in:
Farewell.

Record, 18 December 1833

Print Sources

JSP	J1:21–24	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
TPJS	38–41

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a 1833 Dec. 18 This day the Elders assembled togeth[er] in the printing office and then proceded to bow down before the Lord and dedicate the printing press and all that pertains thereunto to God by mine own hand and confirmed by bro Sidney Rigdon and Hyrum Smith and then proceded to take the first proof sheet of the star edited by Bro Oliv Cowdy [Oliver Cowdery] blessed of the Lord is bro Oliver nevertheless there are are two evils in him that he must needs forsake or he cannot
- b altogeth[er] escape the buffettings of the advers[ar]y if he shall forsak these evils he shall be forgiven and shall be made like unto the bow which the Lord hath set in the heavens he shall be a sign and an ensign unto the nations behold he is blessed of the Lord for his constancy and steadfastness in the work of the Lord wherefore he shall be blessed in his generation and they shall never be cut off and he shall be helped out of many troubles and if he keep the ~~command~~ ~~ment~~ <commandments> and harken unto the <council of the> Lord ~~his~~ ~~and~~ his rest shall be glorious and again blessed of the Lord is my father and also

c my mother and my brothers and my sisters for they shall yet find redemption in the house of the Lord and their off[springs shall be a blessing a Joy and a comfort unto them blessed is my mother for her soul is ever fill[ed] with benevolence and philanthropy and notwithstanding her age yet she shall receive strength and shall be comforted in the midst of her house and she shall have eternal life and blessed is my father for the hand of the Lord shall be over him for he shall see the affliction <of his children> pass away and when his head is fully ripe he shall behold himself as an olive tree whose branches are bowed down with much fruit he shall also possess a mansion on high blessed of the Lord is my brothe[r] Hiram for the integrity of his heart he shall be girt about with truth and faithfulness shall be the strength of his loins from generation to generation he shall be a shaft in the hand of his God to excute Judgment upon his enemies and he shall be hid by the hand of the Lord that d none of his secret parts shall be discovered unto his hu[r]t his name shall be accounted a blessing among men and when he is in trouble and great tribulation hath come upon him he shall remember the God of Jacob and he will shield him from the power of satan and he shall receive ~~counel~~ <counsel> in the house of the most high that he may be streng[t]hened in hope that the goings <of his feet> may be established for ever blessed of the Lord is bro Samuel [Smith] because the Lord shall say unto him Sam^l, Sam^l, therefore he shall be made a teache[r] in the hous of the Lord and the Lord shall mature his mind in Judgment and thereby he shall obtain the esteem and fellowship of his brethren and his soul shall be established and he shall e benefit th[e] house of the Lord because he shall obtain answer to prayer in his faithfulness— Bro William [Smith] is as the firc Lion who devideth not the spoil because of his strength and in the pride of his heart he will neglect the more weightier weighty matters until his soul is bowed down in sorrow and then he shall return and call on th[e] name of his God and shall f find forgivness and shall wax valient therefor he shall be saved unto the utter most and as the roaring Lion of the forest in the midst of his prey so shall the hand of his generation be lifted up against those who are set on high that fight against the God of Israel fearless and unda[u]nted shall they be in battle in avenging the rongs of th[e] innocent and relieving the oppressed
g therfor the blessings of the God of Jacob shall be in the midst of his house notwithstanding his rebellious heart and <now> O God let the residue of my fathers house ever come up in remembrance before thee that thou mayest save them from the hand of the oppressor and establish their feet upon the rock of ages that they may have place in thy house and be saved in thy Kingdom and let all these things be even as I have said for Christs sake Amen

Minutes, 26 December 1833

Print Sources

JSP	D3:401–402	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	1:469–470
HDDC	—	TCHC	1:378–379

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a This day at evening, a Bishops Court was called to take into consideration the case of Bro. Ezekiel Rider an Elder of the Church, who had ~~brought~~ said many hard things against Bro [Newel K.] Whitney, the Bishop of the church— he said that Bro. Whitney was not fit for a Bishop and that he treated the Brethren, who came into the Store, with disrespect that he was overbearing and fain would walk on the necks of the Bretheren &c——
- b Bro. Story was also in a Similar transg[r]ession. They were both rebuked sharply by bro. Sidney [Rigdon] & Bro Joseph who told them that this church must feel the wrath of God except they repent of their Sins, cast away their murmurings and complainings one of another. &c. &c. Bro. Rider & Bro. Story confessed their wrongs. and all forgave one another & closed by praying to the Lord for his blessings to rest upon us
- Kirtland Dec 26. 1833

Orson Hyde, Clk

1834

Joseph Smith

Introduction to 1834

sdf

Prayer, 11 January 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D3:403–407; J1:25–26	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:2–3
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:6–7

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a January 11, 1834. This evening Joseph Smith Jr, Frederick G. Williams, Newel K. Whitney, John Johnson, Oliver Cowdery, and Orson Hyde united in prayer and asked the Lord to grant the following petition:
- Firstly, That the Lord would grant that our lives might be precious in his sight, that he would watch over our persons and give his angels charge concerning us and our families that no evil nor unseen hand might be permitted to harm us.
- b Secondly, That the Lord would also hold the lives of all the United Firm, and not suffer that any of them shall be taken.
- Thirdly, That the Lord would grant that our brother Joseph might prevail over his enemy, even Docter P. [Doctor Philastus] Hurlbut, who has threatened his life, whom brother Joseph has <caused to be> taken with a precept; that the Lord would fill the heart of the Court with a spirit to do justice, and cause that the law of the land may be magnified in bringing him to justice.
- c Fourthly, That the Lord would provide, in the order of his Providence, the bishop of this Church with means sufficient to discharge every debt that the Firm owes, in due season, that the Church may not be braught into disrepute, and the saints be afflicted by the hands of their enemies. Fifthly, That the Lord would protect our printing press from the hands of evil men, and give us means to send forth his word, even his gospel that the ears of all may hear it, and also that we may print his scriptures; and also that he would give those who were appointed to conduct the press, wisdom sufficient that the cause may not be hindered, but that men’s eyes may thereby be opened to see the truth.
- d Sixthly, That the Lord would deliver Zion, and gather in his scattered people, to possess it in peace; and also, while in their dispersion, that he would provide for them that they perish not with hunger nor cold. And finally, that God in the name of Jesus would gather his elect speedily, and unveil his face that his saints might behold his glory and dwell with him; Amen.

Letter to the Church in Clay County, Missouri, 22 January 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D3:407–412	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a ...Inquire of Bro [Thomas B.] Marsh and find out the entire secret of mixing or compounding lead and Antimo[n]y so as to make type mettle [metal] and write us concerning it Bro Joseph tells me that he has sent another $50= note making $100, to you, write us concerning it, there is a prospect of the eastern churches doing something pretty handsome toward the
- b deliverance of Zion in the course of a year if Zion is not delivered otherwise Tho the Lord says this affliction came upon you because of your sin polluting your inheritances &c yet there is an exception of some namely the heads of Zion for the Lord said your brethren in Zion begin to repent, and the Angels rejoice over them &c you will also see an exception at the top of the 2d collum of this revelation Therefore this affliction came upon the Church to chastin those in transgression, and prepare the hearts of those who had repented for an end[o]wment from the Lord. We shall not be able to send you any more money
- c at present unless the Lord put it into our power hands unexpectedly. our calls for money are many and pressing. There is not quite so much danger of a Mob upon us as there has been. The hand of the Lord has thus far been stretched out to protect us, Doctor P[hilastus] Hurlbut an apostate Elder from this Church has been to the State of New York and gathered up all the ridiculous stories that could be invented and some affidavits respecting the character of Bro Joseph and the Smith family and he exhibeted them to numerous congregations in Chagrin Kirtland Mentor and Painesville and fired the minds of the people
- d with much indignation against Bro Joseph and the Church. Hurlbut also made many harsh threats &c that he would take the life of Bro Joseph if he could not distroy Mormonism without. Bro Joseph took him with a peace warrant and after 3 days trial and investigating the merits of our religion in the town of Painesville by able attorney[s] on both sides he was bound over to the County Court. thus his influence was pritty much distroyed, and since the trial the spirit of hostility seames to be broken down in a good degree but how long it will continue so we cannot say
- e You purchaced your inheritence with money, Therefore behold you are blessed. you have not purchaced your lands by the shedding of blood consiquently you do not come under the censure of that commandment which says "if by blood lo your enemies are upon you and ye shall be driven from city to city" give youselves no uneasiness on this account...

Letter to the Church, circa February 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D3:412–422	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:4–13
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
TPJS	47–56

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a THE ELDERS OF THE CHURCH IN KIRTLAND, TO THEIR BRETHREN ABROAD.
- Dear brethren in Christ, and companions in tribulation:*
- WHEN we call to remembrance the ties with which we are bound to those who embrace the everlasting covenant, and the fellowship and love with which the hearts of the children of our Lord's kingdom should be united, we cherish a belief, that you will bear with us, when we take this course to communicate to you some of the many thoughts which occupy our minds, and press with continued weight upon our hearts, as we reflect upon the vast importance and responsibility of your callings,
- b in the sight of the Master of the vineyard. And though our communications to you may be frequent, yet we believe they will be received on your part with brotherly feelings; and, that from us your unworthy brethren, you will suffer a word of exhortation to have place in your hearts, as you see the great extent of the power and dominion of the prince of darkness, and realize how vast the numbers are who are crowding the road to death without ever giving heed to the cheering sound of the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ!
- c Consider for a moment, brethren, the fufillment of the words of the prophet; for we behold that darkness covers the earth, and gross darkness the minds of the inhabitants thereof—that crimes of every discription are increasing among men—vices of every enormity are practiced—the rising generation growing up in the fulness of pride and arrogance—the aged losing every sense of conviction, and seemingly banishing every thought of a day of retribution—intemperence, immorality, extravagance,

d pride, blindness of heart, idolatry, the loss of natural affection, the love of this world, and indifference toward the things of eternity increasing among those who profess a belief in the religion of heaven, and infidelity spreading itself in consequence of the same—men giving themselves up to commit acts of the foulest kind, and deeds of the blackest dye; lying, blaspheming, stealing, robbing, murdering, defaming, defrauding, blasting the reputation of neighbors, advocating error and opposing the truth, forsaking the covenant of heaven, and denying the faith of Jesus—and in the midst of all this, the day of the Lord fast approaching when none except those who have on the wedding garment will be permitted to eat and drink in the presence of the Bridegroom, the Prince of peace!

e Impressed with the truth of these facts, what can be the feelings of those who have been made partakers of the heavenly gift, and have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come? Who but those who can see the awful precipice upon which the world of mankind stand in this generation, can labor in the vineyard of the Lord with a feeling f sense of their deplorable situation? Who but those who have duly considered the condescension of the Father of our spirits, in providing a sacrifice for his creatures, a plan of redemption, a power of atonement, a scheme of salvation, having as one of its great objects, to bring men back into the presence of the King of heaven, crown them in the celestial glory, and make them heirs with his Son to that inheritance which is incorruptible, undefiled, and which fadeth not away—can realize the importance of a perfect walk before all men, and a diligence in calling upon all men to partake of these blessings? How g indescribably glorious are these tidings to mankind! Of a truth they may be considered tidings of great joy to all people; and tidings too that ought to fill the earth and cheer the heart of every one when sounded in his ears.— And the reflection, that every one is to receive according to his own diligence and perseverance while in the vineyard, ought to inspire every one who is called to be a minister of these glad tidings, to so improve upon their talent that they may gain other talents, that when the Master sits down to take an account of the conduct of his servants, that it may be said, Well done, good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things; I will now make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.

h Some may presume to say, that the world in this age is fast increasing in righteousness; that the dark ages of superstition and blindness have passed over, when the faith of Christ was known and practiced only by a few, when ecclesiastic power held an almost universal control over christendom, and when the consciences of men were held bound by the strong chains
i of priestly power; but now, the gloomy cloud is burst, and the gospel is shining with all the resplendent glory of an apostolic day; and that the kingdom of the Messiah is greatly spreading, that the gospel of our Lord is carried to divers nations of the earth, the scriptures translating into different tongues, the ministers of truth crossing the vast deep to proclaim to men in darkness a risen Savior, and to erect the standard of Emmanuel where light has never shone, and that the idol is destroyed, j the temple of images forsaken; and those who but a short time previous followed the traditions of their fathers and sacrificed their own flesh to appease the wrath of some imaginary god, are now raising their voices in the worship of the Most High, and are lifting their thoughts up to him with the full expectation, that one day they will meet with a joyful reception into his everlasting kingdom!

k But, a moment's candid reflection upon the principles of these systems, the manner they are conducted, the individuals employed, the apparent object held out as an inducement to cause them to act, we think, is sufficient for every candid man to draw a conclusion in his own bosom, whether this is the order of heaven or not. We deem it a just principle, and it is one the force of which we believe ought to be duly considered by every individual, that all men are created equal, and that all have l the privilege of thinking for themselves upon all matters relative to conscience. Consequently, then, we are not disposed, had we the power, to deprive any one from exercising that free independence of mind which heaven has so graciously bestowed upon the human family as one of its choicest gifts; but we take the liberty, (and this we have a right to do,) of looking at this m order of things a few moments, and contrasting it with the order of God as we find it in the sacred scriptures. In this review, however, we shall present the points as we consider they were really designed by the great Giver to be understood, and the happy result arising from a performance of the requirements of heaven, as therein revealed, to every one who obeys them; and the consequence attending a false construction, a misrepresentation, or a forced meaning that was never designed in the mind of the Lord when he condescended to speak from the heavens to men for their salvation.

n Previous to entering upon a subject of so great a moment to the human family, there is a prominent item which suggests itself to our minds which, here, in few words we wish to discuss: All regularly organized and well established governments, have certain laws by which, more or less, the innocent are protected and the guilty punished. The fact admitted, that certain laws are good, equitable and just, ought to be binding upon the individual who admits this fact, to observe in the strictest o manner an obedience to those laws. These laws when violated, or broken by that individual, must, in justice convict his mind with a double force, if possible, of the extent and magnitude of his crime; because he could have no plea of ignorance to produce; and his act of transgression was openly committed against light and knowledge. But the individual who may be ignorant, and imperceptibly transgresses or violates these laws, though the voice of the country requires that he should suffer, yet he will never feel that remorse of conscience that the other will, and that keen-cutting reflection will never rise in his breast that otherwise would, had he done the deed, or committed the offence in full conviction that he was breaking the law of his p country, and having previously acknowledged the same to be just. It is not our intention by these remarks, to attempt to place the law of man on a parallel with the law of heaven; because we do not consider that it is formed in that wisdom and propriety; neither do we consider that it is sufficient in itself to bestow any thing in comparison to the law of heaven, even should it promise it. The law of men may guarantee to a people protection in the honorable pursuits of this life, and the temporal happiness arising from a protection against unjust insults and injuries; and when this is said, all is said, that can be in truth, of the power, extent, and influence of the law of men, exclusive of the law of God. The law of heaven is presented to man, and as such guarantees to all who obey it a reward far beyond any earthly consideration: it does not promise that the believer in every age should be exempt from the afflictions and troubles arising from different sources in consequence of wicked men on earth; though in the midst of all this there is a promise predicated upon the fact that it is the law of heaven, which transcends the law of man, as far as eternal life is preferable to temporal; and the blessings which God is able to give, greater than those which can be given by man! Then, certainly, if the law of man is binding upon man when acknowledged, much more must the law of heaven be. And as much as the law of heaven is perfect, more than the law of man, so much greater must be the reward if obeyed. The law of man promises safety in temporal life; but the law of God promises that life which is eternal, even an inheritance at his own right hand, secure from all the powers of the wicked one.

We consider that God has created man with a mind capable of instruction, and a faculty which may be enlarged in proportion to the heed and diligence given to the light communicated from heaven to the intellect; and that the nearer man approaches perfection, the more conspicuous are his views, & the greater his enjoyments, until he has overcome the evils of this life and lost every desire of sin; and like the ancients, arrives to that point of faith that he is wrapped in the glory and power of his Maker and is caught up to dwell with him. But we consider that this is a station to which no man ever arrived in a moment: he must have been instructed into the government and laws of that kingdom by proper degrees, till his mind was capable in some measure of comprehending the propriety, justice, equity, and consistency of the same. For further instruction we refer you to Deut. xxxii. where the Lord says, that Jacob is the lot of his inheritance. He found him in a desert land, and in the waste howling wilderness; he led him about, he instructed him, he kept him as the apple of his eye, &c. which will show the force of the last item advanced, that it is necessary for men to receive an understanding concerning the laws of the heavenly kingdom, before they are permitted to enter it: we mean the celestial glory. So dissimilar are the governments of men, and so divers are their laws, from the government and laws of heaven, that a man, for instance, hearing that there was a country on this globe called the United States of North America, could take his journey to this place without first learning the laws of this government; but the conditions of God's kingdom are such, that all who are made partakers of that glory, are under the necessity of first learning something respecting it previous to their entering into it. But the foreigner can come to this country without knowing a syllable of its laws, or even subscribing to obey them after he arrives. Why? Because the government of the United State does not require it: it only requires an obedience to its laws after the individual has arrived within its jurisdiction.

As we previously remarked, we do not attempt to place the law of man on a parallel with the law of heaven; but we will bring forward another item, to further urge the propriety of yielding obedience to the law of heaven, after the fact is admitted, that the laws of man are binding upon man. Were a king to extend his dominion over the habitable earth, and send forth his laws which were of the most perfect kind, and command his subjects one and all to yield obedience to the same; and annex as a reward to those who obeyed them, that at a certain period they should be called to attend the marriage of his son, who in due time was to receive the kingdom, and they should be made equal with him in the same; and annex as a penalty for disobedience that every individual should be cast out at the marriage feast, and have no part nor portion with his government; and what rational mind could for a moment accuse the king with injustice for punishing such rebellious subjects? In the first place his laws were just, easy and perfect: nothing was required in them of a tyrannical nature; but their very construction was equity and beauty; and when obeyed would produce the happiest situation possible to all who adheared to them, beside the last great benefit of sitting down with a royal robe in the presence of the king at the great grand marriage supper of his son, and be made equal with him in all the affairs of the kingdom.

When these royal laws were issued, and promulgated throughout the vast dominion, every subject, when interrogated whether he believed them to be from his sovereign answered, Yes, I know they are, I am acquainted with the signature, for it is as usual, THUS SAITH THE KING! This admitted, the subject is bound by every consideration of honor to his country, his king, and his own personal character, to observe in the strictest sense every requisition in the royal edict. Should any escape the search of the ambassadors of the king, and never hear these last laws, giving his subjects such exalted privileges, an excuse might be urged in their behalf, and they escape the censure of the king. But for those who had heard, who had admitted, and who had promised obedience to these just laws no excuse could be urged, and when brought into the presence of the king, certainly, justice would require that they should suffer a penalty! Could that king be just in admitting these rebellious individuals into the full enjoyment and privileges with his son, and those who had been obedient to his commandments? Certainly not. Because they disregarded the voice of their lawful king; they had no regard for his virtuous laws, for his dignity, nor for the honor of his name; neither for their own country's sake, nor their private virtue! They neither regarded his authority enough to obey him, neither did they regard the immediate advantages and blessings arising from these laws if kept, to observe them, so destitute were they of virtue and goodness; and above all, they regarded so little the joy and satisfaction of a legal seat in the presence of the king's only son, and to be made equal with him in all the blessings, honors, comforts, and felicities of his kingdom, that they turned away from an anticipation of them, and considered that they were beneath their present notice, though they had no doubt as to the real authenticity of the royal edict.

bb We ask, again, would the king be just in admitting these rebels to all the privileges of his kingdom, with those who had served him with the strictest integrity? We again answer, No! such individuals would be dangerous characters in any government, good & wholesome laws they despised; just and perfect principles they trampled under their feet as something beneath their notice, and disregarded those commands of their sovereign entirely which they had once acknowledged to be equitable! How could a government be conducted with harmony if its administrators were possessed with such different dispositions and different principles? Could it prosper? Could it flourish? Would harmony prevail? Would order be established, and could justice be executed in righteousness in all branches of its department? No! In it were two classes of men as dissimilar as light is from darkness, virtue from vice, justice from injustice, truth from falsehood, and holiness from sin! One class were perfectly harmless and virtuous: they knew what virtue was for they had lived in the fullest enjoyment of it, and their fidelity to truth fairly tested by a series of years of faithful obedience to all its heavenly precepts. They knew what good order was, for they had been orderly and obedient to the laws imposed on them by their wise sovereign, and had experienced the benefits arising from a life spent in his government till he had now seen proper to make them equal with his son.— Such individuals would indeed adorn any court where perfection was one of its main springs of action, and shine far more brilliant than the richest gem in the diadem of the prince.

cc The other class were a set of individuals who disregarded every principle of justice and equity, whatever: and this is demonstrated from the fact, that when just laws were issued by the king, which were perfectly equitable, they were so lost to a sense of righteousness that they disregarded those laws, notwithstanding an obedience to them would have produced the happiest result possible, at the time, as regarded their own personal comfort and advantage. They were entirely destitute of harmony and virtue, so much so that virtuous laws they despised. They had proven themselves unworthy a place in the joys of the prince, because they had for a series of years lived in open violation of his government. Certainly, then, those two classes of men could not hold the reins of the same government at the same time in peace; for internal jars, broils, and discords would rack it to the center, were such a form of government to attempt to exist under such a system. The virtuous could not enjoy peace in the constant and unceasing schemes and evil plans of the wicked; neither could the wicked have enjoyment in the constant perseverance of the righteous to do justly. And that there must be an agreement in this government, or it could not stand, must be admitted by all. Should the king convey the reins into the hands of the rebellious the government must soon fall; for every government, from the creation to the present; when it ceased to be virtuous, and failed to execute justice, sooner or later has been overthrown. And without virtuous principles to actuate a government all care for justice is soon lost, and the only motive which prompts it to act is, ambition and selfishness. Should the king admit these rebels into his house to make them equal with the others, would be condescending beneath his character; because he once issued virtuous laws which were received by a part of his subjects, and the reward annexed was a seat at the marriage feast, and an adoption into his own family as lawful heirs. So should he now offer any thing differently he would blast forever his own reputation, and destroy forever that government which he once so diligently labored to establish and preserve, and which he once had wisdom to organize. Such individuals as the last named, would be a bane to a virtuous government, and would prove its overthrow if suffered to hold a part in conducting its h[e]lm!

dd We take the sacred writings into our hands. and admit that they were given by direct inspiration for the good of man. We believe that God condescended to speak from the heavens and declare his will concerning the human family: give to them just and holy laws to regulate their conduct, and guide them in a direct way, that in due time he might take them to himself, and make them joint heirs with his Son. But when this fact is admitted, that the immediate will of heaven is here contained, are we not bound as rational creatures to live in accordance to all its precepts? Will the mere admission, that this is the will of heaven ever benefit us if we do not comply with all its teachings? Do we not offer violence to the Supreme Intelligence of heaven, when we admit the truth of its teachings, and do not obey them? Do we not condescend beneath our own character, and the better wisdom which heaven has endowed us with, by such a course of conduct? For these reasons, if we have direct revelations given us from heaven, surely, those revelations were never given to be trifled with, without the triflers incurring displeasure, and assuring vengeance upon their own heads, if there is any justice in heaven; and that there is, must be admitted by every individual who admits the truth and force of its teachings; its blessings and cursings, as contained in the sacred volume.

ee Here, then, we have this part of our subject immediately before us for consideration: God has in reserve a time, or period appointed in his own bosom, when he will bring all his subjects, who have obeyed his voice and kept his commandments, into his celestial rest. This rest is of such perfection and glory, that man has need of a preparation before he can, according to the laws of that kingdom enter it and enjoy its blessings.— This being the fact, God has given certain laws to the human family, which, if observed, are sufficient to prepare them to inherit this rest. This, then, we conclude, was the purpose of God in giving his laws to us: if not, why, or for what were they given? If the whole family of man were as well off without them as they might be with them, for what purpose or intent were they ever given? Was it that God wanted to merely show that he could talk? This would be nonsense, to suppose that he would condescend to talk in vain; for it would be in vain, and to no purpose whatever: because, all the commandments contained in the law of the Lord, have the sure promise annexed of a reward to all who obey; predicated upon the fact, that they are really the promises of a Being who cannot lie, and who is abundantly able to fulfil every tittle of his word: and if men were as well prepared, or could be as well prepared, to meet God without their ever having been given in the first instance, why were they ever given? for certainly, in that case they can now do him no good.

nn As we previously remarked, all well established and properly organized governments have certain fixed and prominent laws for the regulation and management of the same.— If man has grown to wisdom and is capable of discerning the propriety of laws to govern nations, what less can we expect from the Ruler and Upholder of the universe? Can we suppose that he has a kingdom without laws? Or do we believe that it is composed of an innumerable company of beings who oo are entirely beyond all law? Consequently have need of nothing to govern or regulate them? Would not such ideas be reproachful to our Great Parent, and an attempt to cast a stigma upon his glorious character! Would it not be asserting, that we had found out a secret beyond Deity? that we had learned that it was good to have laws, and yet He, after existing from eternity, and having power to create man, had not found out the fact, that it was proper to have laws for his government! pp We admit that God is the great source and fountain from whence proceeds all good; that he is perfect intelligence, and that his wisdom is alone sufficient to govern and regulate the mighty creations and worlds which shine and blaze with such magnificence and splendor over our heads, as though touched with his finger and moved by his Almighty word. And if so, it is done and regulated by law; for without law all must certainly fall into chaos. If, then, we admit that God is the source of all wisdom and understanding, we must admit that by his direct inspiration he has taught man that law was necessary in qq order to govern and regulate his own immediate interest and welfare: For this reason, it is beneficial to promote peace and happiness among men: And as before remarked, God is the source from whence proceeds all good; and if man is benefitted by law, then certainly, law is good; and if law is good, it, or the principle of it emanated from God: for God is the source of all good; consequently, then, he was the first Author of law, or the principle of it, to mankind.

TO BE CONTINUED.

Letter to J. G. Fosdick, 3 February 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D3:422–425	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

Kirtland Mills Feb. 3, 1834.

Dear Bro. [J. G.] Fosdick:

Your letter of the 10th. Jan. last is just recd. and this day there has been a regular Council of H. Priests & Elders in this place, and the subject spoken of in your letter was, we believe, taken into due consideration. We were very sorry to learn that Bro. [Joseph] Wood had gone so far astray and offered such violence to the pure principles of the Gospel of Christ. But, alas! Such is the depravity of man when lost to a sense of the fear of God and of the ties which bind [e]very virtuous man to the interest and happiness of his fellow man.

b

Every principle inculcated among you which is contrary [t]o virtue, to industry, to wisdom, to good order, to propriety, and in fine, to the pure principles of godliness as contained in the Scriptures of the old and new Testaments, the Book of Mormon and the revelations and commandments of Jesus Christ, which have been given to his Church in these last days, is entirely foreign from the feelings of our breasts, and is that upon which we look down with feelings of the utmost disapprobation; and as consc[i]entious men who expect to render an impartial account, before [th]e searcher of hearts, of all our transactions here, we cannot [lo]ok upon any principle contrary to the above with any degree [of] allowance.

c

After some investigation of the case of Bro. Wood, in Council, [it] was decided that he should be cut off from the Church. [Ac]cordingly the Council lifted their hands against him and [he] was excluded from the church on this 3d. day of Feb. 1834. [for] indulging an idle, partial, overbearing and lustful spirit, and [not] magnifying his holy calling whereunto he had been [ord]ained. These things were plainly manifest to the satisfaction [of] [a]ll the council, and the Spirit constrained us to separate him [fro]m the church. Should bro. Joseph Wood, after learning [th]e decision of this council, truly repent of all his sins and bring forth fruit meet to the satisfaction of that branch of the Church where he has committed the offences, he can be rebaptized and come into the church again if he desire so to do. The instructions which you desire relative to church gov. &c. the extent of the power of a high Priest over any branch of the church, are subjects which will be investigated in the next no.

- c of the Star. Time will not allow us to write the subjects at full length now; suffice it, therefore, to say that there is no office in this Church which can be placed upon the head of any man that will place him beyond the power & control of any branch of the church where he may be guilty of transgression, even if there is not another ordained member in the church, let the church appoint some brother to preside and let them do as one church did in ancient days “try them who say they are apostles and are not, but are liars,” then let them demand their license, raise their hands against them and thus they are expelled from the
- d communion of the church. It requires all the members of the church to constitute the body of Christ. One man is not the body, nor are the children of <the> Kingdom to be tantalized by men who may hold licenses and have authority to preach the gospel; such have the more need to be discreet and humble. Should the individual, after being thus dealt with be dissatisfied with the decision of the church he can appeal to a Bishop’s Court, and should he there be judged guilty, he can yet appeal to a court of high pri[ests] and this is an end of all disputes and controversies in the Church of God on earth.

Brethren in the new covenant, Farewell.

Signed Joseph Smith Jr. (Moderator Orson Hyde (Clerk of Coun[cil]
 Copied by direction of the Council, by Oliver Cowdery

Minutes, 9 February 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D3:425–427	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:24–25
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:12–13

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

...The work of the building of the House of the Lord in Kirtland was also taken into Consid[e]ration it was decided that the brethren in this place should assist in Erecting the house all that is in their power, that the Elders of the Church may be endowed with power from on high according to the promise of God, that the work of the father may roll forth...

Minutes, 12 February 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D3:427–431	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:25–27
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:13–14
TPJS	69–70

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Thursday Evening, February 12. 1834. This evening the high Priests and Elders of the Church in Kirtland at the house of bro. Joseph Smith Jun. in Council for Church business. The Council was ~~opened~~ organized, and opened by bro. Joseph Smith Ju[nior] in prayer. Bro. Joseph then rose and said: I shall now endeavour to set forth before this Council, the dignity of the office which has been conferred upon me by the ministering of the Angel of God, by his own voice and by the voice of this Church. I have never set before any council in all the order in which a Council ought to be conducted, which, prehaps, has deprived the Councils of some, or many blessings.

- b He said, that no man was capable of judging a matter in council without his own heart was pure; and that we frequently, are so filled with prejudice, or have a beam in our own eye, that we are not capable of passing right descissions, &c.
- But to return to the subject of the order: In ancient days councils were conducted with such strict propriety, that no one was allowed to whisper, be weary, leave the room, or get uneasy in the least, until the voice of the Lord, by revelation, or by the voice of the Council by the spirit was obtained: which has not been observed in this church to the present. It was understood in ancient days, that if one man could stay in Council another Could, and if the president could spend his time, the members could also. But in our Councils, generally, one would be uneasy, another asleep, one praying another not; one's mind on the business of the Council and another thinking on something else &c. Our acts are recorded, and at a future day they will be laid before us, and if we should fail to judge right and injure our fellow beings, they may there prehaps condemn us; then, they are of great Consequence: and to me the Consequence appears to be of force beyond any thing which I am able to express &c. Ask yourselves, brethrn, how much you have exercised yourselves in prayer since you heard of this Council;
- d and if you are now prepared to sit in judgment upon the soul of your brother.— Bro Joseph then went on to give us a relation of his situation at the time he obtained the record, the persecution he met with &c. He also told us of his transgressing at the time he was translateing the Book of Mormon. He also prophecied that he should stand and shine like the sun in the firmament when his enemies and the gainsayers of his testimony should be put down and Cut off and their names blotted out from among men. After the Council had rec[e]ived much good instruction from Bro. Joseph. The Case of Bro. Martin Harris against whom certain Charges were preferred by bro. Sidney Rigdon. One was that he told Esqr A[lpheus] C. Russell that Joseph drank too much liquor when he was translating the Book of Mormon and that he wrestled with many men and threw them &c. Another charge was, that he exalted himself above bro. Joseph, in that he said bro. Joseph knew not the contents of the book of Mormon until it was translated. Bro. Martin but that he himself knew all about it before it was translated. Bro. Martin said he did not tell Esqr Russell that bro. Joseph drank too much liquor while translateing the book of Mormon, but this thing took place before the book of Mormon was translated. He confessed that his mind was darkend and that he had said many things inadvertently calculateing calculateid to wound the feelings of his bretheren and promised to do better. The Council forgave him and gave him much good advice. Bro Rich was Called in question for transgressing the word of wisdom and for selling the revelations at an extortionary price while he was gone East with father Lions which thing Bro. Rich confessed before the Council and the Council forgave him upon his promiseing to do better and reform his life.—
- e Council then Concluded by prayer by Bro. S. Rigdon

Orson Hyde Clk

Minutes, 17 February 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D3:435–439	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:28–31
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:17–20

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a This day, Feb. 17 1834, a Conference of High Priests assembled at in Kirtla[n]d at the House of bro. Joseph Smith Jun^r. They proceeded to organize the Presidents Church Council, Consisting of twelve high priests, and this according to the law of God. The names of those who were chosen as Counsellors, were Joseph Smith Jun^r Sidney Rigdon and F[rederick] G. Williams Presidents. Joseph Smith Seigr [Sr.], John Smith, Joseph Coe, John Johnson, Martin Harris, John S Carter, Jared Corter [Carter],
- b Oliver Cowdery, Sam^l. H. Smith, Orson Hyde, Sylvester Smith, and Luke Johnson, Counsellors. Bro. Joseph opened the Council by solem prayer. He then arose and called upon the high priests, Elders, priests, teachers and deacons that were present who had not been nominated as Counsellors to pass their vote whether they were satisfied with the appointment or nomination of the twelve to Compose the Church Council. It was the unanimous voice of all present that those who had been nominated, as above, should compose a standing Council in Kirtland. It was also voted that when any one <or more> of the standing Counsellors was were absent, their vacancy should be filled by any high priests whom the majority of the Council should nominate or choose,
- c Provideing that no Council shall be held unless seven of the above named Counsellors are present, or their successors. The above named Counsellors all manifested a willingness to act according to their appointment, the Lord being their helper.

- Bro Hyrum Smith acted in the place of John Smith. There were nine high priests present and acted in the appointment of the above named Counsellors, also seventeen Elders, and four priests with thirteen private members. Bro Joseph then said he would show the order of Councils in ancient days (see 27 & 28 pages) as shown to him by vision. The law and by which to govern the Council in the Church of Christ. Jerusalem was the seat of the Church Council in ancient days. The apostle, Peter, was the president of the Council in ancient days and held the Keys of the Kingdom of God, <on the Earth> was appointed to this office by the voice of the Saviour and confirmed ~~<acknowledgement>~~ acknowledged in it by the voice of the Church. He had two men appointed as Counsellors with him, and in case Peter was absent, his Counsellors Could transact business. <or either one of them. The President could also transact business alone.> It was not the order of heaven in ancient Councils to plead for and against the guilty as in our judicial Courts (so called) but that if every Counsellor when he arose to speak, should speak precisely according to evidence and according to the teaching of the spirit of the Lord, that no Counsellor should attempt to screen the guilty when his guilt was manifest That the person acused before the high council had a right to one half the memb[e]rs of the council to plead his cause, ~~that is six~~, in order that his case might be fairly presented before the President that a descission might be rendered according to truth and righteousness. If the case was not a very difficult one to investigate, two of the Counsellors only, spoke, one for the accused and one against <on one side and one on the other> according to evidence. If the case was more difficult, according to the judgment of the Council, two were to speak on each side, and if more difficult, three might speak on each side, and three only. Those who spoke in Council were chosen by the council and that too by casting lots. Those who were thus chosen to speak, took their regular turn, in speaking. Bro Joseph said that this organization was an ensample to the high priests in their Councils abroad, and a copy of their proceedings be transmitted to the seat of the goverment of the Church to be recorded on the general record. In all cases, the accuser and the acused have a perfect right to speak for themselves before the Council. The Councils abroad, have a right and it is their duty to appoint a president for the time being for themselves. If in case the parties are not satisfied with the decission of the Council abroad, they have a right to an appeal to the Bishops Court, and from thence to the presidents Council which is and end of all strife
- The remaining six Counsellors who do not speak in Council, are to hear patiently the reasoning of the other and correct all errors which they may discover, and after decission is rendered by the president, if these remaining counsellors can throw any farther light upon the subject, so as to correct the decissin [decision] of the president, they have the liberty so to do, otherwise it stands and the majority of the Council must rule. It was then voted by all present that they desired to come under the present order of things which they all considered to be the will of God. Many questions have been asked during the time of the organization of this Council and doubtless some errors have been committed, it was, therefore, voted by all present that Bro Joseph should make all necessary corrections by the spirit of inspiration hereafter Oliver Cowdery drew no. one by lot. Joseph Coe drew No 2. Samuel H Smith drew No 3. Luke Johnson drew No 4. John S Carter drew No 5. Sylvester Smith drew No 6. Oliver Cowdery, Samuel H Smith and John S Carter speak for and on the part of the accuser. Joseph Coe, Luke Johnson and Sylvester Smith, speak for and on the part of the accused. The remaining six counsellors are to sit and hear patiently and correct errors if they discover them. ~~The Council~~ John Johnson drew No 7. Orson Hyde drew No 8, Jared Carter drew No 9, Joseph Smith Seignr drew No 10, John Smith drew No 11, Martin Harris drew No 12, The Council adjourned then, until wednesday at 10 oclck A.M.—

Orson Hyde Clk

Revised Minutes, 18–19 February 1834 [D&C 102]

Print Sources

JSP	D3:439–444	JSR	—
DC	Section 102	HC	2:28–31
HDDC	1308–1226	TCHC	2:17–20

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

The above items have been corrected according to the resolution passed <in the same>, and the following is the correction.—

Kirtland Feb 17. 1834.

This day a <general> council of <24> high Priests assembled at the house of Joseph Smith Jun^r <by revelation> and proceeded to organize the high council of the Church of Christ, which is <was> to consist of twelve high priests, and one, or three presidents, as the case may <might> require. This <high> council is <was> appointed by revelation, for the purpose of settling important difficulties which may <might> arise in the church, which ~~cannot~~ <could not> be settled by the Church, or the bishop's council to the satisfaction of the parties

Joseph Smith Jun^r

Sidney Rigdon and

Frederick G Williams were acknowledged presidents, by the voice of the council; and

Joseph Smith Seign

John Smith

Joseph Coe

John Johnson

Martin Harris

John S Carter

Jared Carter

Oliver Cowdery

Sam^l. H Smith

Orson Hyde

Sylvester Smith and

Luke Johnson,

high priests, were chosen to be a standing council for the Church, by the unanimous voice of the council.

The above named counsellors were then asked whether they accepted their appointments, and whether they would act in that office according to the law of Heaven: to which they all answered, that they accepted their several appointments, and would fill their offices according to the grace of God bestowed upon them.

The numbers composeing the council, who voted in the name, and for the church in appointing the above named counsellors, were forty three; As follows: Nine high priests, Seventeen elders, four priests, and thirteen members.

Voted, that ~~this~~ <the high> council cannot have power to act without seven of the above named counsellors, or their regularly appointed successors, are present; these seven shall have power to appoint other high priests whom they may consider worthy and capable to act in the place of absent counsellors.

Voted, that whenever any vacancy shall occur by the death, removal from office, for transgression, or removal from the bounds of this church government of any one of the above named counsellors, it shall be filled by the nomination of the president, or presidents and sanctioned by the voice of a general ~~Conference~~ <Council of high priests> convened for that purpose to act in the name of the Church.

The president of the church, who is also the president of the council, is appointed by the voice of the Saviour, and acknowledged in his administration, by the voice of the Church; and it is according to the dignity of his office that he should preside over the high Council of the Church; and it is his privilege to be assisted by two other presidents, appointed after the same manner that he himself was appointed; and in case of the absence of one or both of those who are appointed to assist him, he has power to preside over the council without an assistant: and in case that he himself is absent, the other presidents have power to preside in his stead, both or either of them.

Whenever a high council of the Church of Christ, is regularly organized according to the foregoing pattern, it shall be the duty of the twelve counsellors to cast lots by numbers and thereby ascertain who of the twelve shall speak first, commenceing with Number One, and so in succession to number twelve

Whenever this council convenes to act upon any case; ~~in the Church~~, the twelve counsellors shall consider whether it is a difficult one or not; If it is not, two <only> of the Counsellors shall speak upon it according to the form above written; but if it is thought to be ~~more~~  difficult, <one> four shall be appointed, and if ~~still~~ more difficult, six: but in no case ~~not over that number shall~~ <shall be more than six be> be appointed to speak. The accused in all cases has a right to one half of the council to prevent insult or injustice; and the counsellors appointed to speak before the council, are to present the case after the evidence is examined, in its true light before the Council, and every man is to speak according to equity and justice.

Those counsellors who draw even numbers, that is, 2, 4, 6, 8, 10 and 12, are the individuals who are to stand up <in> the behalf of the accused and prevent insult or injustice.

In all cases the accuser and the accused shall have a privilege of speaking for themselves before the council, after the evidences are heard, and the Counsellors who are appointed to speak on the case, have finished their remarks.

After the evidences are heard; the counsellors, accuser and <the> accused, have spoken, the president shall give a decision according to the understanding which he shall have of the case, and call upon the twelve Counsellors to sanction the same by their voices.

But should the remaining Counsellors who have not spoken*, or any one of them, after hearing the evidences and pleadings impartially, discover an error in the descision of the president, they can manifest it, and the case shall have a re-hearing; and if after a careful rehearing, any additional light is thrown upon the case, the descision shall be altered accordingly; but in case no additional light is given, the first decision shall stand; the majority of the Council haveing power to determine the same.

In cases of difficulty respecting doctrine, or principle; if there is not a sufficiency written to make the case clear to the mind of the Council, the president may inquire and obtain the mind of the Lord by revelation.

The high priests, when abroad, have power to call and organize a Council after the manner of the foregoing, to settle difficulties when the parties, or either of them shall request it, <and the said council of high priests shall have power to appoint one of their own number to preside over such council> by appointing or chooseing one of their number to preside over the council for the time being.

It shall be the duty of said Council to transmit, immediately, a copy of their proceedings, with a full statement of the testimony with <accompanying> their decision, to the high council at the seat of the government of the Church.

Should the parties, or either of them, be dissatisfied with the decision of said Council, they may appeal to the high Council at the seat of the general government of the Church, and have a re-hearing, which case shall there be conducted according to the former pattern written, as though no such descision had been passed <made>.

This Council of high priests abroad, is only to be called on the most difficult cases of Church matters; and no common or ordinary case is to be sufficient to call such Councils. The travelling or located high priests abroad, have the power to say whether it is necessary to call such a Council or not.

*The twelve counsellors then proceeded to cast lots or ballot, to ascertain who should speak first, and the following was the result, viz:

Oliver Cowdery	drew	No. 1	John Johnson	drew	No 7
Joseph Coe——		" " 2	Orson Hyde		" " 8
Sam ^l H Smith——		" " 3	Jared Carter		" " 9
Luke Johnson ——		" " 4	Joseph Smith sen		" 10
John S Carter——		" " 5	John Smith		" " 11
Sylvester Smith——		" " 6	Martin Harris		" " 12

Council then adjourned to meet on wednesday the 19th. Inst. at 10 Oclk A.M.

Orson Hyde Clk——

*Resolved, that the presidents or presidents at the seat of general church government, shall have power to determine whether any such case as may be appealed, is justly entitled to a re-hearing after examineing the appeal and the evidences and statements accompanying it.

Minutes, 19 February 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D3:444-448	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:31-34
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:20-23

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a

Kirtland Feb. 19. 1834,

The Council assembled pursuant to adjournment. Joseph Smith Jn^r. opened the council by reading the 3rd. Chap of of Joel’s prophecy, and prayer. After which he arose before the Council, and said, that he had laboured the day before with all the strength and wisdom that he had given him in makeing the corrections necessary in the last council minutes which he would now read before this Council. He asked the council for their attention, that they might rightly judge upon the truth and propriety of these minutes, as all were equally interested in them &c. He als[o] urged the necessity of prayer, that the spirit might be given, that the things of the spirit might be judged thereby; because the carnal mind cannot discern the things of God &c. He then proceeded to read the minutes and afterwards made some remarks, when it was decided by the members of the council present, that it might be read a second time. Sidney Ridgon then proceeded to read the minutes or Constitution of the high Council the second time, remarking at the time, that it could not be justly urged to be read at this time, as the hour was passed which was appointed for the Council to assemble. An impropriety by some was discovered in the commencement of the minutes, as it says, a council of high priests, and afterwards says, that elders, priests and private members acted in said council. Said objections were corrected, and the minutes read the third time by Oliver Cowd[e]ry. The questions were then asked, whether the present Council acknowledged the same, and receive them for a form, and constitution of the high Council of the Church of Christ hereafter: The document was received by the unanimous voice of the Council, with this provision, that, if the president should hereafter discover any lack in the same he should be privileged to fill it up.
- b

- c

The number present who received the above named document, was twenty six high priests, eighteen Elders, three priests, one teacher and fourteen private members, making in all, sixty two

- d After much good instruction, Joseph, the president, laid his [hands?] upon the heads of the two assistant presidents and pronounced a blessing upon them, that they might have wisdom to magnify their office, and power over all the power of the adversary. He also laid his hands upon the twelve counsellors and commanded a blessing to rest upon them, that they might have wisdom and power to counsel in righteousness upon all subjects that might be laid before them. He also prayed that they might be delivered from those evils to which they were most exposed, and that their lives might be prolonged on the earth.
- e Joseph Smith Sen. then laid his hands upon the head of his son, Joseph, and said: Joseph, I lay my hands upon thy head, and pronounce the blessings of thy progenitors upon thee, that thou mayest hold the keys of the mysteries of the Kingdom of heaven until the coming of the Lord, Amen. He, also, laid his hands upon the head of his son Samuel [Smith] and said. Sam^l, I lay my hands upon thy head and pronounce the blessing of thy progenitors upon thee, that thou mayest remain a priest of the most high God, and like Samuel of old, hear his voice, saying, Samuel, Samuel, Amen.
- f John Johnson, also, laid his hands upon the head of his son Luke [Johnson] and said, my Father in Heaven, I ask thee to bless this my son according to the blessings of his forefathers, that he may be strengthened in his ministry according to his holy calling, Amen.
- g The president then gave the assistant presidents a Solem charge to do their duty in righteousness and in the fear of God. He also charged the twelve Counsellors in a similar manner, all in the name of Jesus Christ. We then, all raised our hands to heaven in token of the everlasting Covenant, and the Lord blessed us with his spirit. He then said the Council was organized according to the ancient order, and also according to the mind of the Lord...

Minutes, 20 February 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D3:448–452	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:34–35
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:24–26

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Kirtland, 20 Feb^y 1834.
- High council met this evening accord[i]ng to appointment to determine concerning the Elders going out to preach &c. The presidnet opened the council by prayer.—
- At a church meeting held in Pennsylvania, Erie Co. and Springfield Township by Orson Pratt & Lyman Johnson, high priests; Some of the members of that Church refused to partak[e] of the sacrament because the Elder administering it did not observe the words of wisdom to obey them. Lyman argued that they were justified in so doing because the Elder was in transgression. Orson argued that the Church was bound to receive the supper under the administration of an Elder so long as he retained his office, or licence. Voted that six counsellors should speak upon the subject, or case.
- b The Council then proceeded to try the question, whether disobedience to the word of wisdom was a transgression sufficient to deprive an official member from holding an office in the church, after haveing it sufficiently taught him. Samuel H Smith, Luke Johnson, John S Carter, Sylvester Smith, John Johnson and Orson Hyde were called to speak upon the case then before the council. After the counsellors had spoken, the President proceeded to give a decision: “That no official member in this church is worthy to hold an office after haveing the words of wisdom properly taught to him, and he, the official member, neglecting to comply with, or obey them;[’]” after which the Counsellors voted according to the same.
- c The president then asked if there were any Elders present who would go to Canada and preach the gospel to that people; for they have written, said he, a number of letters for help; and the whole council felt as though the Spirit required brethren to go there. It was, therefore, decided by the Council that Lyman Johnson and Milton Holmes should travel together into Canada, and also that Zebedee Coultrin [Coltrin] and Henry Herriman travel together into Can[a]da. It was also decided that
- d Jared Carter and Phineas Youngs [Young] travel together if they can arrange their affairs at home so as to be liberated. It was also decided that Bro. Oliver Granger should travel eastward as soon as his circumstances will permit, and that he should travel alone on account of his age. It was also decided that bro. Martin Harris should travel alone whenever he travels. Bro's. John S Carter & Jesse Smith travel east together as soon as they can. The council also decided that bro. Brig[h]am Young should travel alone, it being his own choice. Decided also, that James Durfee and Edmund Marvin should travel together eastward. Also that Sidney Rigdon and John P Green[e] go to Strongsville. Also that bro's. Orson Pratt and Harrison Sagers travel together for the time being, and that there should be a general conference held in Saco in the State of Maine on the 13 day of [p. 40] June 1834. It was furthermore voted that bro. Orson Hyde, accompanied by bro. Orson Pratt, go east to obtain donations for Zion, and means to redeem the farm on which the house of the Lord stands. The Church and Council then prayed with uplifted hands that they might be prospered in their Mission. Conference adjourned after the usual form by Order of the Conference

Orson Hyde &)

Clks

Oliver Cowdery,)

Minutes, 24 February 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D3:453–457	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:39–40
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:31–32

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a Kirtland, Feb. ' 24, 1834.
The high council of the Church met this day at the house of Joseph Smith Jun^r for the purpose of giving an audience or hearing to Lyman Wight and Parley [P.] Pratt, representatives from Zion, to represent to us the state of the church in that place.

b Joseph, the president, opened the council by prayer. Two of the standing counsellors were absent, namely, Joseph Coe and John Smith. Hyrum Smith was chosen to act in the place of John Smith and John P Green[e] to act in the place of Joseph Coe. Thus the high council was organiz[e]d and six of the counsellors were appointed to speak. Bro's. P. Pratt and L. Wight, messengers from Zion, arose and laid their business before the council and delivered their message. the substance of which,

c was, an inquiry when, how and by what means Zion was to be redeemed from our enemies. They said that our brethern who had been driven away from their lands and scattered abroad had found so much favour in the eyes of the people that they could obtain food and raiment of them for their labour insomuch that they were comfortable. But the idea of being driven away from the land of Zion pained their very souls and they desired of God, by earnest prayer, to return with songs of everlasting joy as said Isaiah, the Prophet.

d They also said that none of their lands were sold into the hands of our enemies except a piece owned by bro. W^m. E. M^c Lellin of thirty acres which he sold into the hands of the enemy, and seven acres more which he would have sold to the enemy if a brother had not come forward & purchased it and paid him his money Bro. Joseph then arose and said that he was going to Zion to assist in redeeming it. He then called for the voice of the Council to sanction his going which was given e without a dissenting voice. He then called for volunteers to go with him, when some thirty or forty volunteered to go who were then present at the council. It was a question whether we should go by water or by land, and after a short investigation it was decided unanimously that we go by land. Joseph Smith Jun. was nominated and seconded to be the Commander in Chief of the Armies of Israel and the leader of those who volunteered to go and assist in the redemption of Zion, and carried by the vote of all present. Council then adjourned by prayer and thanksgiving.

Orson Hyde and)

C'lks.

Oliver Cowdery)

Revelation, 24 February 1834 [D&C 103]

Print Sources

JSP	D3:457–463	JSR	253–255
DC	Section 103	HC	2:36–39
HDDC	1327–1347	TCHC	2:29–31

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Verily I say unto you my Friends behold, I will give unto you a revelation & commandment, that you may know how to act in the discharge of your duties concerning the salvation & redemption of your brethren who have been scattered from the land of Zion: being driven & smitten by ther hands of mine enemies on whom I will pour out of my wrath without measure in mine own time; for I have suffered them thus far. that they might fill up the measure of their iniquities that their cup might be full, & that those who call themselves after my name might be chastened for a little season, with a sore & grievous chastisement; because they did not hearken all together unto the precepts & commandments which I gave unto them. But verily I say unto you, that I have decreed a decree which my people shall realize inasmuch as they hearken from this hour unto the counsel which <I> the Lord their God shall give unto them. Behold, they shall, for I have decreed it, begin to prevail against mine enemies; from this verry hour, & by hearkening to observe all the words which I the Lord their God shall speak unto them, they shall never cease to prevail untill the kingdoms of the world, are subdued under my feet, & the earth is given unto the saints to possess it forever, & ever. But inasmuch as they keep not my commandments & hearken not to observe all my words, the kingdoms of the world shall prevail against them; for they were set to be a light unto the world, & to be the Saviours of men: & a inasmuch as they are not the Saviours of men they are as salt that has lost its its savor, & is thenceforth good for nothing but to be cast out & to be trodden under the feet of men. But verily, I say unto you, I have decreed that your brethren who have been scattered shall return to the lands of their inheritances & build up the waste places of Zion; for after much tribulation, as I have said unto you in a former commandment, commeth the blessing: behold this is the blessing which I promised after your tribulations, & the tribulations, of your brethren; your redemption & the redemption of your brethren, even their restoration to the land of Zion, to be established no more to be thrown down. Nevertheless if they shall pollute their inheritances they shall be thrown down; for I will not spare them if they shall pollute their inheritances. Behold I say unto you, that the redemption of Zion must needs come by power; therefore, I will raise up unto my people a man who shall lead them like as Moses led the children of Israel; for ye are the children of Israel, & & of the seed of Abraham; & ye must needs be led out of bondage by power, & with a stretched out arm. And as your Fathers were led at the first even so shall the redemption of Zion be. Therefore let not your hearts be faint; for I say not unto you as I said unto your fathers, mine Angel shall go up before you, but not my presence; but I say unto you, mine Angel shall go up before you, & also my presence. And in time ye shall possess the goodly land. verily, verily, I say unto you, that my servant Joseph is the man to whom I likened the servant to whom the Lord of the vinyard spake in the parable which I have given unto you. Therefore, let my servant Joseph, say unto the strength of my house, my young men, & the middle aged, Gather ye together unto the land of Zion, upon the lands which I have bought with moneys that have been consecrated unto me; a & let all the churches send up wise men with their moneys & purchase lands, even as I have commanded them. And inasmuch as mine enemies come against you to drive you from my goodly land which I have consecrated to be the land of Zion; even from your own lands after these testimonies which ye have brought before me against them, ye shall curse them; & whomsoever ye curse I will curse, And ye shall avenge me of mine enemies; and my presence shall be with you even in avenging me of mine enemies, unto the third & fourth generation of them that hate me. Let no man be afraid to lay down his life for my sake; for whoso layeth down his life for my my sake sake shall find it again; & whoso is not willing to lay down his life for my sake is not my dissiple. It is my will that my servant Sidney [Rigdon] should lift up his voice in the congregations in the eastern countries in preparing the churches to keep the commandments which I have given unto them concerning the restoration & redemption of Zion, It is my will that my servant Parley [P. Pratt], & my servant Lyman [Wight] should not return to the land of their brethren until they have obtained companies to go up unto the land of Zion, by tens, or by twenties or by fifties, or by  hundred, until they have obtained unto the number of five hundred of the strength of my house. Behold, this is my will; ask & ye shall receive; but men do not always do my will; therefore if ye cannot obtain five hundred, seek diligently, that peradventure ye may obtain three; & if ye cannot obtain three hundred, seek diligently that peradventure ye may obtain one hundred: But verily I say unto you, a commandment I give unto you that you shall not go up unto the Land of Zion until you have obtained a hundred of the strength of my house, to go up with you unto the land of Zion. Therefore as I said unto you, ask & you shall receive; pray earnestly, that peradventure my servant Joseph may go up with you & preside in the midst of my people & organize my kingdom upon the consecrated land, & establish the children of Zion upon the laws & commandments which have been given & which shall be given unto you. All victory and glory is brought to pass unto you through your diligence, faithfulness, & prayers of faith. Let my Servant Parley journey with my servant Joseph; let my servant Lyman Journey with my servant Sidney: let my servant Hyrum [Smith] journey with my servant Frederick [G. Williams]: let my servant Orson Hyde journey with my servant Orson Pratt, whithersoever my servant Joseph shall counsel them in obtaining the fulfillment of these commandments which I have given unto you, & leave the residue in ~~in~~ my hands; even so, Amen.

Letter to the Church, circa March 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D3:472–484	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:13–22
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
TPJS	56–66

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a

THE ELDERS OF THE CHURCH IN KIRTLAND, TO THEIR BRETHREN ABROAD.
(Continued from our last.)
Dear brethren in Christ, and companions in tribulation.
- b

HAVING in a former number of the Star, written you quite lengthy on some few items connected with the religion which we profess, we deem it of importance to the cause in which all our united efforts ought, with an eye single to the glory of God, to be engaged, that we may escape the corruptions of the world, and not only show ourselves approved in his sight, but may be instruments in the order of his providence in convincing some of our fellow-travellers to eternity of the importance of turning from error to righteousness, and embracing the fulness of the everlasting gospel—to continue this letter of instruction and exhortation, believing, (as we have previously remarked,) that on your part it will be received in brotherly fellowship.
- c

We would remind you, brethren, of the fateagues, trials, privations, and persecutions, which the ancient saints endured for the only purpose of persuading men of the excellency and propriety of the faith of Christ, were it in our opinion necessary, or would serve in any respect to stimulate you to labor in the vineyard of the Lord with any more diligence; but we have reason to believe, (if you make the holy scriptures a sufficient part of your studies,) that their perseverance is known to you all; and that they were willing to sacrifice the present honors and pleasures of this world, that they might obtain an assurance of a crown of life from the hand of our Lord; and their excellent examples in labor, which manifests their zeal to us in the cause which they embraced, you are daily striving to pattern. And not only these, but the commandments of our Lord, we hope, are constantly revolving in your hearts, teaching you, not only his will in proclaiming his gospel, but his meekness and perfect walk before all, even in those times of severe persecutions and abuse which were heaped upon him by a wicked and adulterous generation. Remember, brethren, that he has called you unto holiness; and need we say, to be like him in purity? How wise; how holy; how chaste, and how perfect, then, you ought to conduct yourselves in his sight; and remember too, that his eyes are continually upon you. Viewing these facts in a proper light, you cannot be insensible, that without a strict observance of all his divine requirements, you may, at last, be found wanting; and if so, you will admit, that your lot will be cast among the unprofitable servants.— We beseech you, therefore brethren, to improve upon all things committed to your charge, that you lose not your reward!
- d

- e

- f

No doubt, the course which we pursued in our last to you, is yet familiar to your minds; that we there endeavored to show, as far as our limits would extend, the propriety, in part of adhering to the law of heaven; and also, the consistency in looking to heaven for a law or rule to serve us as a guide in this present state of existence, that we may be prepared to meet that which inevitably awaits us, as well as all mankind.— There is an importance, perhaps, attached to this subject, which the world has not as fully examined as the importance of it requires. Think for a moment, of the greatness of the Being who created the universe; and ask, Could he be so inconsistent with his own character, as to leave man without a law or rule to regulate his conduct, after placing him here, where, according to the formation of his nature he must in a short period sink into the dust? Is there nothing further; is there no existence beyond this veil of death which is so suddenly to be cast over all of us? If there is, why not that Being who had power to place us here, inform us something concerning hereafter? If we had power to place ourselves in this present existence, why not have power to know what shall follow when that dark vail is cast over our bodies? If in this life we receive our all; if when we crumble back to dust we are no more, from what source did we emanate, and what was the purpose in our existence? If this were all, we should be led to query, whether there was really any substance in existence: and we might with propriety say, "Let us eat and drink; for tomorrow we die!" If this were really so, then why this constant toiling, why this continual warfare, and why this unceasing trouble? But this is not the case, the voice of REASON, the language of INSPIRATION, and the Spirit of the living GOD, our Creator, teaches us, as we hold the record of truth in our hands, that this is not the case; that this is not so; for, the heavens declare the glory of a GOD, and the firmament shows his handy work; and a moment's reflection, is sufficient to teach every man of common intellect, that all these are not the mere production of chance, nor could they be supported by any power less than by an Almighty hand: and he that can mark the power of Omnipotence inscribed upon the heavens, can also see His own hand-writing in the sacred volume; and he who reads it oftenest will like it best, and he who is acquainted with it, will know the hand wherever he can see it; and when once discovered, it will not only receive an acknowledgment, but an obedience to all its heavenly precepts. For a moment reflect, what could have been the purpose in our Father in giving to us a law? Was it that it might be obeyed, or disobeyed? And think further too, not only the propriety, but the importance of attending to his laws in every particular. If, then, there is an importance in this respect, is there not a responsibility of great weight resting upon those who are called to declare these truths to men? Could we, or were we capable of laying any thing before you as a just comparison, we would cheerfully do it; but in this our capacity fails, and we are inclined to think, that man is unable, without an assistance beyond what has been given to those before us, of expressing in words the greatness of this important office. We can only say, that if an anticipation of the joys of the celestial glory, as witnessed to the hearts of the humble is not sufficient, we will leave with yourselves the result of your own diligence; for God ere long, will call all his servants before him, and there from His own hand they will receive a just recompense and a righteous reward for all their labors.

So much by way of introduction, and we shall now proceed to examine still further the subject of law. However little may have been heretofore thought, or said upon the subject of law, does not diminish in the least the propriety nor the design of it, since it emanated from God; and though it may have been, and may be at this day a subject untouched by the professors of christianity, that does not lessen its value, neither does it diminish its power in judging men from their actions according to it, at the last day, those who have, or may have come to a knowledge of it. It may be supposed, and we think with a degree of propriety, that man had given to him in the beginning, from the hand of his Maker, every necessary law and instruction, for his peace, happiness, and future comfort; and if not, living as he did in the immediate presence, and walking under the inspection of heaven, if he needed more, he could yet ask it, and that wise Hand which had formed him of the dust was sufficient; not only sufficient, but knowing all things, knew whether man needed more or not, and if he did, it would be bestowed. To suppose that the Maker of the universe never gave to man any law after he had formed him, would, in our opinion, be offering an insult to his glorious character, and be comparing him beneath, even an earthly parent! For where, we ask, is the kind humane father to be found, who would, for any consideration whatever, suffer his children to grow up to manhood without giving them instruction, and instruction too, which would be wisely calculated to benefit them, even in ripened years? Should he teach them virtue in their youth, (a principle too much neglected with most parents,) if observed in age it certainly would be virtue still; and the more it was observed the more honorable would be the gray hairs, until his spirit took its welcome exit to mingle with its kindred spirits, and rejoice in the salvation of that God from whom came the first principles of virtue. Should the great Author of our being, after he had made all things, and even man, and pronounced them all good, leave man without a law, we might well suppose that here was a contradiction in terms, indeed; for he had pronounced all things which he had made GOOD, and yet there was no good in man, consequently he was not worthy to receive a law whereby his conduct might be governed; but must be left without any principles or directions from the hand of his Maker to guide him in the least particular.

From these facts, in short, and the further knowledge contained in the scriptures, it is reasonable to suppose, that man departed from the first teachings, or instructions which he received from heaven in the first age, and refused by his disobedience to be governed by them. Consequently, he formed such laws as best suited his own mind, or as he supposed, best adapted to his situation. But that God has influenced man more or less since that time in the formation of law for his benefit we have no hesitancy in believing; for, as before remarked, he being the source of all good, every just and equitable law was in a greater or less degree influenced by him. And though man in his own supposed wisdom would not admit the influence of a power superior to his own, yet for wise and great purposes, for the good and happiness of his creatures, God has instructed man to form wise and wholesome laws, since he had departed from him and refused to be governed by those laws which he had given by his own voice from on high in the beginning. But notwithstanding this transgression, by which man had cut himself off from an immediate intercourse with his Maker without a Mediator, it appears that the great and glorious plan of his redemption was previously meditated; the sacrifice prepared; the atonement wrought out in the mind and purpose of God, even in the person of the Son, through whom man was now to look for acceptance, and through whose merits he was now taught that he alone could find redemption, since the word had been pronounced, Unto dust thou shalt return!

But that man was not sufficient of himself to erect a system, or plan with power sufficient to free him from a destruction which awaited him, is evident from the fact, that God, as before remarked, prepared a sacrifice in the gift of his own Son which should be sent in due time, in his own wisdom, to prepare a way, or open a door through which man might enter into his presence, from whence he had been cast for disobedience.— From time to time these glad tidings were sounded in the ears of men in different ages of the world down to the time of his coming. By faith in this atonement or plan of redemption, Abel offered to God a sacrifice that was accepted, which was the firstlings of the flock. Cain offered of the fruit of the ground, and was not accepted, because he could not do it in faith: he could have no faith, or could not exercise faith contrary to the plan of heaven. It must be the shedding of the blood of the Only Begotten to atone for man; for this was the plan of redemption; and without the shedding of blood was no remission; and as the sacrifice was instituted for a type, by which man was to discern the great Sacrifice which God had prepared; to offer a sacrifice contrary to that, no faith could be exercised, because redemption was not purchased in that way, nor the power of atonement instituted after that order; consequently, Cain could have no faith: and whatsoever is not of faith is sin. But Abel offered an acceptable sacrifice, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God himself testifying of his gifts. Certainly, the shedding of the blood of a beast could be beneficial to no man, except it was done in imitation, or as a type, or explanation of what was to be offered through the gift of God himself; and this performance done with an eye looking forward in faith on the power of that great Sacrifice for a remission of sins. But however various may have been, and may be at the present time the opinions of men respecting the conduct of Abel, and the knowledge which he had on the subject of atonement, it is evident in our minds, that he was instructed more fully into the plan than what the bible speaks; for how could he offer a sacrifice in faith, looking to God for a remission of his sins in the power of the great Atonement, without having been previously instructed into that plan? And further, if he was accepted of God, what were the ordinances performed further than the offering of the firstlings of the flock? It is said by Paul in his letter to his Hebrew brethren, that Abel obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts. To whom did God testify of the gifts of Abel, was it to Paul? We have very little on this important subject in the fore part of the bible. But it is said, that Abel himself obtained witness that he was righteous. Then certainly God spoke to him: indeed, it is said that God talked with him; and if he did, would he not, seeing he was righteous, deliver to him the whole plan of the gospel? And is not the gospel the news of redemption? How could Abel offer a sacrifice and look forward with faith on the Son of God for a remission of his sins, and not understand the gospel? The mere shedding the blood of beasts or offering any thing else in sacrifice, could not procure a remission of sins, except it were performed in faith of something to come, if it could, Cain's offering must have been as good as Abel's. And if Abel was taught of the coming of the Son of God, was he not taught of his ordinances? We all admit that the gospel has ordinances, and if so, had it not always ordinances, and were not its ordinances always the same? Perhaps, our friends will say, that the gospel and its ordinances were not known till the days of John the son of Zecharias, in the days of Herod the king of Judea. But we will here look at this point: For our own part, we cannot believe, that the ancients in all ages were so ignorant of the system of heaven as many suppose, since all that were ever saved, were saved through the power of this great plan of redemption, as much so before the coming of Christ as since; if not, God has had different plans in operation, (if we may so express it,) to bring men back to dwell with himself; and this we cannot believe, since there has been no change in the constitution of man since he fell; and the ordinance or institution of offering blood in sacrifice, was only designed to be performed till Christ was offered up and shed his blood, as said before, that man might look forward with faith to that time. It will be noticed that according to Paul, -[see Gal. III 8.]- the gospel was preached to Abraham. We would like to be informed in what name the gospel was then preached, whether it was in the name of Christ or some other name? If in any other name, was it the gospel? And if it was the gospel, and that preached in the name of Christ, had it any ordinances? If not, was it the gospel? And if it had, what were they? Our friends may say, perhaps, that there were never any ordinances except those of offering sacrifices, before the coming of Christ, and that it could not be possible for the gospel to have been administered while the sacrifices of blood were. But we will recollect, that Abraham offered sacrifice, and notwithstanding this, had the gospel preached to him. That the offering of sacrifice was only to point the mind forward to Christ, we infer from these remarkable words of his to the Jews, Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it and was glad. -[See John VIII 56.]- So, then, because the ancients offered sacrifice it did not hinder their hearing the gospel; but served, as we said before, to open their eyes, and enabled them to look forward to the time of the coming of the Savior, and to rejoice in his redemption. We find also, that when the Israelites came out of Egypt they had the gospel preached to them, according to Paul in his letter to the Hebrews, which says, For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it. -[See Heb. IV 2.]- It is said again, in Gal. III 19, that the law -[of Moses, or the Levitical law]- was added because of transgression. What, we ask, was this law added to, if it was not added to the gospel? It must be plain that it was added to the gospel, since we learn that they had the gospel preached to them. From these few facts, we conclude, that whenever the Lord revealed himself to men in ancient days, and commanded them to offer sacrifice to him, that it was done that they might look forward in faith to the time of his coming, and rely upon the power of that atonement for a remission of their sins. And this they have done, thousands who have gone before us, whose garments are spotless, and who are, like Job, waiting with an assurance like his, that they will see him in the latter day upon the earth, even in their flesh.

We may conclude, that though there were different dispensations, yet all things which God communicated to his people, were calculated to draw their minds to the great object, and to teach them to rely upon him alone as the Author of their salvation, as contained in his law. From what we can draw from the scriptures relative to the teachings of heaven we are induced to think, that much instruction has been given to man since the beginning which we have not. This may not agree with the opinions of some of our friends, who are bold to say, that we have every thing written in the bible which God ever spake to men since the world began, and that if he had ever said any thing more we should certainly have received it. But we ask, does it remain for a people who never had faith enough to call down one scrap of revelation from heaven, and for all they have now, are indebted to the faith of another people who lived hundreds and thousands of years before them, to say how much God has spoken and how much he has not spoken? We have what we have, and the bible contains what it does contain; but to say that God never said any thing more to man than is there recorded, would be saying at once, that we have at last received a revelation; for it must be one to advance thus far, because it is no where said in that volume by the mouth of God, that he would not, after giving what is there contained, speak again; and if any man has found out that for a fact, he has ascertained it by an immediate revelation, other than has been previously written by the prophets and apostles. But through the kind providence of our Father a portion of his word which he delivered to his ancient saints, has fallen into our hands, and they are presented to us with a promise of a reward if obeyed, and with a penalty if disobeyed; and that all are deeply interested in these laws, or teachings, must be admitted by all who acknowledge their divine authenticity.

It may be proper for us to notice in this place, a few of the many blessings held out in this law of heaven as a reward to those who obey its teachings. God has appointed a day in which he will judge the world, and this he has given an assurance of in that he raised up his Son Jesus Christ from the dead; the point on which the hope of all who believe the inspired record is founded for their future happiness and enjoyment: because, if Christ is not risen, said Paul to the Corinthians, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins: and those who have fallen asleep in him have perished. -[See 1 Cor. XV.]- If the resurrection from the dead is not an important point, or item in our faith, we must confess that we know nothing about it; for if there is no resurrection from the dead, then Christ has not risen; and if Christ has not risen he was not the Son of God; and if he was not the Son of God there is not nor cannot be a Son of God, if the present book called the scriptures is true; because the time has gone by when, according to that book he was to make his appearance. On this subject, however, we are reminded of the words of Peter to the Jewish Sanhedrim, when speaking of Christ, he says, that God raised him from the dead, and we -[the apostles]- are his witnesses of these things, and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him. -[See Acts V.]- So that after the testimony of the scriptures on this point, the assurance is given by the Holy Ghost, bearing witness to those who obey him, that Christ himself has assuredly risen from the dead; and if he has risen from the dead, he will, by his power, bring all men to stand before him; for if he has risen from the dead the bands of the temporal death are broken that the grave has no victory. If then, the grave has no victory, those who keep the sayings of Jesus and obey his teachings have, not only a promise of a resurrection from the dead; but an assurance of being admitted into his glorious kingdom; for, he himself says, Where I am, there shall also my servant be. -[see John XII.]- In the twenty second chapter of Luke's account of the Messiah, we find the kingdom of heaven likened unto a king who made a marriage for his son. That this son was the Messiah will not be disputed, since it was the kingdom of heaven that was represented in the parable; and that the saints, or those who are found faithful to the Lord, are the individuals who will be found worthy to inherit a seat at the marriage-supper, is evident from the sayings of John in the Revelations, where he represents the sound which he heard in heaven to be like a great multitude, or like the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, The Lord God Omnipotent reigneth. Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honor to him; for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints. -[Rev. XIX.]-

That those only are the individuals who keep the commandments of the Lord and walk in his statutes to the end, that are permitted to set at this glorious feast, is evident from the following items: In Paul's last letter to Timothy, which was written just previous to his death, he says, I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous Judge shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. No one who believes the account, will doubt for a moment this assertion of Paul which was made, as he knew, just before he was to take his leave of this world. Though he once, according to his own word, persecuted the church of God and wasted it, yet after embracing the faith, his labors were unceasing to spread the glorious news; and like a faithful soldier, when called to give his life in the cause which he had espoused, he laid it down, as he says, with an assurance of an eternal crown. Follow the labors of this apostle from the time of his conversion to the time of his death, and you will have a fair sample of industry and patience in promulgating the gospel of Christ: Whipped, stoned, and derided, the moment he escaped the hands of his persecutors, he, as zealously as ever, proclaimed the doctrine of the Savior. And all may know, that he did not embrace the faith for the honor of this life, nor for the gain of earthly goods. What then could have induced him to undergo all this toil? It was, as he said, that he might obtain that crown of righteousness from the hand of God. No one, we presume, will doubt the faithfulness of Paul to the end: None will say, that he did not keep the faith, that he did not fight the good fight, that he did not preach and persuade to the last: And what was he to receive? A crown of righteousness. And what shall others receive who do not labor faithfully, and continue to the end? We leave such to search out their own promises if any they have; and if they have any they are welcome to them, on our part, for the Lord says, that every man is to receive according to his works. Reflect for a moment, brethren, and enquire, whether you would consider yourselves worthy a seat at the marriage feast with Paul and others like him, if you had been unfaithful? Had you not fought the good fight, and kept the faith, could you expect to receive; have you a promise of receiving a crown of righteousness from the hand of the Lord, with the church of the first born? Here then, we understand, that Paul rested his hope in Christ because he had kept the faith, and loved his appearing; and from his hand he had a promise of receiving a crown of righteousness. If the saints are not to reign, for what purpose are they crowned? In an exhortation of the Lord to a certain church in Asia, which was built up in the days of the apostles, unto whom he communicated his word on that occasion by his servant John, he says, Behold I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown. And again, To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne. -[see Rev. III.]- And again, it is written, Behold, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not appear what we shall be: but we know, that when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.— And he that hath this hope in him, purifieth himself, even as he is pure. -[1 John. III, 2 & 3.]- How is it that these old apostles should say so much on the subject of the coming of Christ? He certainly had once come; but Paul says, To all who love his appearing, shall be given the crown: and John says, When he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. Can we mistake such language as this? Do we not offer violence to our own good judgment when we deny the second coming of the Messiah? When has he partook of the fruit of the vine new with his ancient apostles in his Father's kingdom, as he said, just before he was crucified? In Paul's epistle to the Philippians, III, 20 & 21, he says, For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ; who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself. We find another promise to individuals living in the church at Sardis, -[see Rev. III. 4 & 5.]- which will also show something of the blessings held out to the ancients who walked worthily before the Lord, which says, Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garments; and they shall WALK WITH ME IN WHITE; for they are worthy. He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in WHITE raiment and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life; but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels. John represents the sound which he heard from heaven, as giving thanks and glory to God, saying that the Lamb was worthy to take the book, and to open its seals; because he was slain, and had by his blood redeemed them out of every kindred and tongue, and people, and nation; and had made them kings and priests unto God: and they should reign on the earth. -[see Rev. V.]- In the twentieth chapter we find a length of time specified, during which Satan is to be confined in his own place, and the saints reign in peace. All these promises and blessings we find contained in the law of the Lord, which the righteous are to enjoy; and we might enumerate many more places where the same or similar promises are made to the faithful, but we do not deem it of importance to rehearse them here, as this letter is now lengthy; and our brethren no doubt, are familiar with them all. Most assuredly it is, however, that the ancients, though persecuted and afflicted by men, obtained from God promises of such weight and glory, that our hearts are often filled with gratitude, that we are even permitted to look upon them, while we contemplate that there is no respect of persons in HIS sight, and that in every nation, he that feareth him and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him. But from the few items previously quoted, we can draw a conclusion, that there is to be a day when all will be judged of their works, and rewarded according to the same; that those who have kept the faith will be crowned with a crown of righteousness; be clothed in white raiment; be admitted to the marriage-feast; be free from every affliction, and reign with Christ on the earth, where, according to the ancient promise, they will partake of the fruit of the vine new in the glorious kingdom with him: at least we find that such promises were made to the ancient saints. And though we cannot claim these promises which were made to the ancients, or that they are not our property merely because they were made to them, yet if we are the children of the most High, and are called with the same calling with which they were called, and embrace the same covenant that they embraced, and are faithful to the testimony of our Lord as they were, we can approach the Father in the name of Christ as they approached him, and for ourselves obtain the same promises. These promises, when obtained, if ever by us, will not be because Peter, John, and the other apostles, with the churches at Sardis, Purgamos, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, walked in the fear of God and had power and faith to prevail and obtain them; but it will be because we, ourselves, have faith and approach him in the name of his Son Jesus Christ, even as they did; and when these promises are obtained, they will be promises directly to us, or they will do us no good: communicated for our benefit; being our own property, (through the gift of God,) earned by our own diligence in keeping his commandments, and walking uprightly before him. If not, to what end serves the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, and why was it ever communicated to us?

Previous to commencing this letter we designed giving you some instruction upon the regulation of the church; but that will be given hereafter. -[TO BE CONTINUED.]-

Minutes, 17 March 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D3:484-488	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:44
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:39-40

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Avon Livingston Co. N. York.
March 17, 1834.
- This day a Conference of Elders assembled at the house Alvah Beeman [Beman]. Joseph Smith Jun. Sidney Rigdon Parley [P.] Pratt Lyman Wight John Murdock Orson Pratt and Orson Hyde, high priests, and Roger Orton, Isaac Mc. Withey [McWithy], Joseph Young, Harry Brown, Freeman Nickerson and Henry Shibly, Elders, were present. Bro. J Smith Jun. opened the conference by prayer. He then arose and introduced the object of our meeting, which was to obtain young men and middle aged to go and assist in the redemption of Zion according to the commandment, and for the church to gather up their riches and send them to purchase lands according to the commandments of the Lord. Also, to devise means, or obtain moneys for the relief of the brethren in Kirtland; say Two Thousand Dollars, which sum will deliver Kirtland from Debt for the present, and also to determine the course which the several shall pursue or journey when they leave this place. It was proposed by bro. Joseph that father [Edmund] Bosley and bro. Mc. Withey go with him to bro. Perry's and see if, by their united efforts, they could not raise Two Thousand Dollars for the relief of Kirtland. It was voted, that, bro. R. Orton, father Bosley, father Nickerson and father Mc. Withey, should exert themselves to obtain the said Two Thousand Dollars for the present relief of Kirtland. They all agreed to do all they could to obtain it; and they firmly believed that they could obtain the amount by the first of April. It was also voted that I should tarry and preach in the regions round about until the money could be obtaid, and bring it immediately to Kirtland. Voted that bro's. Joseph Sidney & Lyman Wight go to Kirtland soon. Bro's. John Murdock and Orson Pratt were appointed to journey to Kirtland and preach by the way. Bro's. Parley Pratt & Harry Brown, ~~go~~ were appointed to visit the Churches in Black River country and obtain all the means they could to help Zion.
- c Orson Hyde, Cl'k.

Record, 20 March 1834

Print Sources

JSP	J1:35	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Thursday 20th Started on <our> Journy at noon took dinner at Brother Joseph Holbrooks, and at night tried three times to git kept in the name of Deciples, and could not be kept, after night we found a man who would keep us for mony thus we see that there <is> more place for mony than for Jesus <Deciples or> the Lamb of God, the name of the man is ~~Wilson Rauben Wilson~~ Reuben Wilson that would not keep us without mony <he lived in China> &c.

Letter to Edward Partridge and Others, 30 March 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D3:488–498	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a To Edward [Partridge], Williams [William W. Phelps], and others of the [United] firm.

Kirtland, March 30, 1834.

Dear Brethren:

We have received several communications from you of late; but the most of us being absent, brother Oliver [Cowdery] laid them over till council could be had; and I now seat myself to dictate to answer them all in one. Since brothers, Parley [P. Pratt] & Lyman [Wight], arrived I have written a few lines with my own hand in letters which have already gone: one from this place, and one from Freedom N.Y. but was not able to write the more weighty matters, and did not think to say anything more than to comfort your hearts if possible, and keep you from fainting, while God, in his wisdom, and in the order of his Providence, is preparing all things before his face for the redemption of Zion. We rejoice greatly on learning that you and the brethren, so many of them, are yet spared in the midst of those who wear the form of human beings, but are less merciful than the prowling beast of the wilderness. We would inform you that with very few exceptions the Church in this place are all well; and every man, woman & child, that belongs to the Church, as far as I have any knowledge of the matter, are crying day & night to God for the deliverance and prosperity of Zion; and many are preparing with all zeal to do all that lies in their power to accomplish the great work, and it will be seen in due time, that the saints in this region are not slack towards you considering their circumstances, & their great poverty, & afflictions & persecutions with which they are called to suffer in this part as well as you in that region; for the more we try to live Godly in Christ Jesus, the more we are made to feel the weight of persecution, inflicted by those who are under the influence of the enemy of the souls of men. But let this suffice: I shall proceed first to answer some of the most important items contained in your last communications, the more part which gave us much satisfaction. We admire the confidence & love which our brethren have manifested in them, in giving us sharp, piercing, & cutting reproofs, which are calculated to wake us up & make us search about ourselves, & put a double watch over ourselves in all things that we do. And we acknowledge that it is our duty to receive all reproofs & chastisements given of the spirit of the most Holy One. And if being chastised and reproofed of what we are guilty, seems not to be joyous for the present but grievous, O, how wounding, & how poignant must it be to receive chastisements & reproofs, for things that we are not guilty of from a source we least expect them, arising from a distrustful, a fearful, & jealous spirit. However, we feel to make all allowances, & reflect seriously & consider upon all sides before we make an effort to throw off the yoke, lest we should be found in anywise blamable before God. There are some items contained in bro. William's letters by the way of reproof, that we feel to give, we think some reasonable excuses, that you may <know> how far you have reasons to give reproof, that you may not have wrong feelings concerning those to whom you are espoused in Christ Jesus who always will be found true to all confidence that shall be imposed in them.

f Firstly, you have given us to understand that there are glaring errors in the Revelation, or rather, have shown us the most glaring ones, which are not calculated to suit the refinement of the age in which we live, of the great men, &c. We would say, by way of excuse, that we did not think so much of the orthography, or the manner, as as we did of the subject matter; as the word of God means what it says; & it is the word of God, as much as Christ was God, although he was born in a stable, & was rejected by the manner of his birth, notwithstanding he was God. What a mistake! the manner of his birth, & the source from which he sprang caused him to be rejected & cast out, & to be taken & put to death.

g Whereas <had> he pleased the great men, the high priests, the lawyers, & the learned, he might have escaped. But supposing we should happen to make as great a mistake as the Lord did, & come under the censure of big men & fall in the same way, what would be the consequence? The fact was, there was no room in the Inn; & when man cannot do as they would, they must do as they can; for God set the example before them. For there was no room in the Inn! but there was room found "in the stable; & here was utterly a fault in the eyes of the laughing philosophers;" but it is not given to us to understand that he altered his course to please any man. And who was it that triumphed? was it the "laughing philosophers," or him who never deviated from the will of him who sent him? Now the fact is, if we have made any mistakes in punctuation, or spelling, it has been done in consequence of brother Oliver, having come from Zion in great afflictions, through much fatigue and anxiety, and being sent contrary to his expectations to New York, and obtain[ing] press and Types, and hauling them up in the midst of mobs, when he and I, and all the church in Kirtland had to lie every night for a long time upon our arms to keep off mobs, of forties, of eighties, & of hundreds to save our lives and the press, and that we might not be scattered

i & driven to the four winds! And all this in the midst of every kind of confusion & calamity & in the sorrowful tale of Zion, for the sake of Zion, that the word of God might be printed & sent forth by confidential brethren to the different churches; for the churches are just like you— they will not receive anything but by revelation! for when you hint they will ask a question, and if by any means in the heat of zeal you would hit them a kick it never fails to turn over the dish. Therefore, when we give them a hint, and they ask a question, we sometimes answer them plainly; but all this is a wonder and a mystery; but it wont do to kick, therefore to unfold the mystery we must of necessity send out the word of ~~the mystery we must~~ of God unto the different churches, or they could not be made to understand, that they, with their moneys, and their young men & their middle aged, must, in order to do the will of God, redeem the land which had been purchased, & the children of Zion—

k and if by chance in doing all this <we> should have to suffer peril by false brethren. For men are as liable in this generation to turn aside from the holy commandments, as were the children of Israel when Aaron bought the golden calf at the expense of all the jewelry, & riches of the children of Israel, while Moses tarried yet forty days in the mount, that he might receive the law of the everlasting gospel upon tables of stone, written by the finger of of God, while they, the children of Israel, were delivered over, & bowed down and worshiped the dumb idol, and said, These be our Gods that brought us up out of the land of Egypt. And Moses being angry destroyed the tables of Stone, and the golden calf and made the children of Isarel drink the substance of their God, which they said brought them up out of the land of Egypt. Therefore, I say, if we should suffer peril

l among false brethren, should it be accounted a strange thing? But here comes up another question, a great mystery! How did the revelation come to be garbled by the printers of the day, published and sent to Jackson Co. and elsewhere? But if all these things, upon a little reflection had been rightly considered and understood, there would have been no mystery, nor any question asked. Not a sigh— not a lingering thought— not a grief, or a single reflection cast upon the innocent, a virgin, the spouse of Zion! Suffice it to say, that the revelation went into the hands of the world by stealth, through the means of false brethren, and lest it should reach the ears of the President and Governor, with a false coloring, being misrepresented, m wisdom dictated that we should send it in its own proper light. And if truth, and the word of God will not bear off the Palms and bring us the victory, shall we, who profess to be men of God condescend to folly? Shall we turn aside from the word of God and seek to save our lives, and that we may please men? If men will seek occasion against the truth, will they not seek occasion even if we should shun the truth? The fact is, beloved brethren, we seek not gold or silver or this world's goods, nor honors nor the applause of men; but we seek to please him, and to do the will of him who hath power not only to destroy the body; but to cast the soul into hell! Ah! men should not attempt to steady the ark of God! But enough on this subject.

n Now concerning employing Mr. [Robert W.] Wells of Jefferson C'ty. as Counsellor &c. We think it would be advisable. You may consider that you have our consent: We speak to wise men! Judge ye what we say! Employ, then, Mr. Wells, and although we have neither gold nor silver, we have run into debt for the press, and also to obtain money to pay the New York debt for Zion, and have received but a very few dollars for the Star and printing as yet, no means of speculation to gain or make money, yet we think that the money can be had, and that there will be no difficulty on this subject: and this, while you are writing to us to reprove us, and telling us, that your dependence for money is on your eastern brethren, and at the same o time saying "Dont buy your gold too dear!" this is the way that we buy our gold! Now, brethren, let me tell you, that it is my disposition to give and forgive, and to bear & to forbear, with all long suffering and patience, with the foibles, follies, weaknesses, & wickedness of my brethren and all the world of mankind; and my confidence and love toward you is not slackened, nor weakened. And now, if you should be called upon to bear with us a little in any of our weaknesses and follies, and should, with us, receive a rebuke to yourselves, dont be offended, dont in anywise let it hit you, so as to turn over the dish! And when you & I meet face to face, I anticipate, without the least doubt, that all matters between us will be fairly understood, and perfect love prevail; and sacred covenant by which we are bound together, have the uppermost seat in our hearts.

p We expect that a number of our able brethren will come on soon and go to Zion; and should you have no other way of obtaining moneys, you can sell them your lands, let them go on to them, protect them on the same, till your suits are determined, and then, (if you succeed) you will have means to purchase more, and if not they will receive you into their bosoms. We see no other way now; but the Lord may open other ways in time. Brs. Parley and Lyman are both in the east; but we expect they will leave here for the west by the first of may, and go as soon as they can, so should you be organized q by the time they arrive, perhaps it would be well. You must act wisdom for yourselves in many things, as you are better prepared to judge in many things than we are. Many things are familiar with some of us, which we cannot communicate by letter; but will be brought about in their times. You ought to be prepared to go back at a moment's warning, and we are inclined to think that it was a wise step in employing the Att'y Gen. for he will investigate and learn the truth, and then Governor will investigate also.

r Once more I design coming unto [you?]; but when, it has not been revealed: whether it will be with Parley & Lyman I cannot now say; but once more I design to come mob or no mob, enemy or no enemy! There needs be no difficulty in relation to the revelations; for they show plainly from the face of them, that no blood is to be shed except in self-defense; and that the law of God as well as man gives us a privilege. If you make yourselves acquainted with the revelations, you will see that s this is the case, though we should not publish any more than we are obliged to of necessity for the Church's sake. We have nothing to fear if we are faithful: God will strike through kings in the day of his wrath but what he will deliver his people; and what do you suppose he could do with a few mobbers in Jackson County, where, ere long, he will set his feet, when earth & heaven shall tremble!

Be united, brethren, in all your moves, and stand by each other even unto death that you may prevail.
I remain your brother in the new covenant.

Joseph Smith Jun...

Record, 1 April 1834

Print Sources

JSP	J1:37	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

...<this> is ~~this~~ Aprel 1st Tusday my Soul delighteth in the Law of the Lord for he forgiveth my sins and <will> confound mine Enimies the Lord shall destroy him who has lifted his heel against me even that wicked man Docter P Hrlbert [Doctor Philastus Hurlbut] he <will> deliver him to the fowls of heaven and his bones shall be cast to the blast of the wind <for> he lifted his <arm> against the Almity therefore the Lord shall destroy him

Letter to Orson Hyde, 7 April 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D4:5–9	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:48–49
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:45–46

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

Kirtland April 7th 1834

Dear bro Orson [Hyde]

We received yours of the 31st ult in due course of Mail and were much grieved on learning that you were not like to succeed according to our expectations, Myself bro Newel [K. Whitney] Frederick [G. Williams] and Oliver [Cowdery] retired to the Translating room when prayer was wont to be made and unbosomed our feelings before God and cannot but exercise faith yet that you in the meraculus providence of God will succeed in obtaining help the fact is ~~that~~ unless we can obtain help I myself cannot go to Zion and if I do not go it will be impossable to get my brethren in Kirtland any of them to go and if we do not go it is in vain for our eastern brethren to think of going up to better themselves by obtaining so goodly a land which now can be obtained for one dollar and a quarter pr acre and stand against that wicked Mob for unless they do the will of God, God will not help them and if God does not help them all is vain. Now the fact is this is the head is of the church and the life of the body and threu able men as members of the body God has appointd to be hands to administer to the necessities of the body, Now if a mans hands refuse to administer to the necessity of his body it must perish of hunger and if the body perish all the members perish with it and if the head fails the whole body is sickened, the heart faints and the body dies the spirit takes its exit and the carcass remains to be devoured of worms

c

Now bro Orson if this Church which is assaying to be the church of Christ will not help us when they can do it without sacrifice with those blessings which God has bestowed upon them I proph[es]y I speak the truth I Lie not God shall take

- d away their tallant and give it to those who have no tallant and shall prevent them from ever obtaining a place of reffuge or an inheritance upon the Land of Zion Therefore they may tarry for they might as well be overtaken where they are as to incur the displeasur of God and fall under his wrath by the wayside or to fall into the hands of a merciless mob where there is no God to deliver as salt that has lost its savour and is thenceforth ~~god~~ good for nothing but to be troden undr feet of men I therefor beseech you to conjure [adjure] them in the name of the Lord by the Love of God to lend us a helping hand and if all
- e this will not soften their hearts to administer to our necessity for Zion sake turn your back up on them and return speedily to Kirtland and the blood of Zion be upon their heads even as upon the heads of her enimies and let their reccompence be as the reccompence of her enemes for thus shall it come to pass saith the Lord of hosts who has the cattle upon a thousand hills who has put forth his Almyhty [Almighty] hand to bring to pass his strang[e] act and what man shall put forth his hand to steady the ark of God or be found turning a deaf ear to the voice of his servant God shall speak in due time and all will be declared amen
- f Your broth[er] in the new covenant Joseph
 PS I am much disappointed on learni[n]g about my horse but if you cannot obtain him bring the mare and please do not [ride?] her very fast in a day and be very car[e]ful that I may not loose her and perhaps I may dispose of her to good advantage for the benefit of Zion— I am yours by every sacred and holy tie that can bind up souls

Joseph Smith Jr
 F G Williams
 Oliver Cowde[r]y

Record, 18–19 April 1834

Print Sources

JSP	J1:41–42	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a ...We soon retired to the wilderness where we united in prayer and suplication for the blessings of the Lord to be given unto his church: We called upon the Father in the name of Jesus to go with the breth[r]en who were going up to the land of Zion, to give brother Joseph strength, and wisdom, and understanding sufficient to lead the people of the Lord, and to gather back, and establish the saints upon the land of their inheritances, and organize them according to the will of heaven, that they
- b be no more cast down forever. We then united and laid on hands: Brothers Sidney, Oliver, and Zebedee laid hands upon bro. Joseph, and confirmed upon him all the blessings necessary to qualify him to ~~de~~ <stand> before the Lord in his high calling; and he return again in peace and triumph, to enjoy the society of his breth[r]en. Brothers Joseph, Sidney, and Zebedee then laid hands upon bro. Oliver, and confirmed upon him the blessings of wisdom and understanding sufficient for his station; that he be qualified to assist brother Sidney in arranging the church covenants which are to be soon published; and to have
- c intelligence in all things to do the work of printing. Brother Joseph, Oliver, Zebedee then laid hands upon bro. Sidney, and confirmed upon him the blessings of wisdom and knowledge to preside over the church in the absence of brother Joseph, and to have the spirit to assist bro. Oliver in conducting the Star, and to arrange the Church covenants, and the blessing of old age and peace, till Zion is built up & Kirtland established, till all his enemies are under his feet, and of a crown of
- d eternal life at the <in the> Kingdom of God with us. We, Joseph, Sidney, and Oliver then laid hands upon bro. Zebedee, and confirmed the blessing of wisdom to preach the gospel, even till is <it> spreads to the islands of the seas, and to be spared to see th[r]eescore years and ten, and see Zion built up and Kirtland established forever, and even at last to receive a crown of life. Our hearts rejoiced, and we were comforted with the Holy Spirit, Amen.

Minutes and Discourse, 21 April 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D4:13–19	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:52–54
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:57–61
TPJS	70–71

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Norton Medina Co. Ohio April 21, 1834.
- This day a conference of the elders of the church of Christ assembled at the dwelling house of bro. Carpenters at 10 o'clock A.M.
- Opened by singing, "How firm a foundation, &c." Bro. Joseph Smith Jun^r read the 2nd. chapter of the prophecy of Joel & took the lead in prayer; after which, he commenced addressing the congregation, as follows. It is very difficult for us to communicate to the churches all that God has revealed to us, in consequence of tradition; for we are differently situated from any other people that ever existed upon this earth: Consequently those former revelations cannot be suited to our condition, because they were given to other people who were before us; but in the last days, God was to call a remnant, in which was to
- b be deliverance, as well as in Jerusalem, and Zion. Now, if God should give no more revelations, where will we find Zion and this remnant? He said that the time was near when desolation was to cover the Earth, and then God would have a place of deliverance in his remnant, and in Zion, &c. He then gave a relation of obtaining and translating the Book of Mormon, the revelation of the priesthood of Aaron, the organization of the Church in the year 1830, the revelation of the high priesthood,
- c and the gift of the Holy Spirit poured out upon the church, &c. Take away the book of Mormon, and the revelations, and where is our religion? We have none; for without a Zion and a place of deliverance, we must fall, because the time is near when the sun will be darkened, the moon turn to blood, the stars fall from heaven and the earth reel to and fro; then if this is the case, if we are not sanctified and gathered to the places where God has appointed, our former professions and our great love for the bible, we must fall, we cannot stand, we cannot be saved; for God will gather out his saints from the gentiles and then comes desolation or destruction and none can escape except the pure in heart who are gathered, &c.
- d ...The time was occupied for a few minutes by two or three others upon the same subject. Bro. Joseph Smith Jun^r then delivered a short prophecy, that if Zion was not delivered the time was near when all of this church, wherever they might be found, would be persecuted and destroyed in like manner
- e Bro. Sidney Rigdon then took up the second item, viz:— The endowment of the Elders with power from on high. He gave an account of the endowment of the ancient apostles and laid before the conference the dimensions of the house to be built in Kirtland and rehearsed the promise to the elders in the last days which they were to realize after the house of the Lord was
- f built. Bro. J. Bosworth then related a few items of a vision which he gave as a testimony of those things contained in the revelations read by Bro. Sidney, and his remarks upon that part relative to the endowment of the elders with power from on high. Bro. Joseph then occupied a few minutes by way of explanation of the revelation concerning the building of the house of the Lord...
- ...Bro. Joseph then laid hands upon certain children & blessed them in the name of the Lord....

Revelation, 23 April 1834 [D&C 104]

Print Sources

JSP	D4:19–31	JSR	255–260
DC	Section 104	HC	2:54–60
HDDC	1348–1371	TCHC	2:61–64

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

April 23, 1834

Verily, I say unto you my friends, I give unto you counsel & a commandment concerning all the properties which belong to the Firm, which I commanded to be organized & established to be a a United Firm, & an everlasting Firm, for the benifit of my church, & for the salvation of men until I come, with promise immutable & unchangeable, that inasmuch as those whom I commanded were faithful, they should be blessed with multiplicity of blessings; but inasmuch as they were not faithful, they were nigh unto cursing. Therefore inasmuch as some of my servants have not kept the commandment but have broken the covenant, by coveteousness & with feigned words, I have cursed them with a verry sore & grievous curse; for I the Lord have decreed in my heart, that inasmuch as any <man> belonging to the Firm, shall be found a transgressor, or in other words, shall break brake the covenant with which ye are bound, he shall be cursed in his life & shall be trodden down by whom I will; for I the Lord am not to be mocked in these things; & all this that the inocent among you may not be condemned with the unjust, & that the guilty among you may not escape because I the Lord have promised unto you a crown of glory at my right hand. Therefore, inasmuch as ye are found transgressors, ye cannot escape my wrath in your lives; & inasmuch as ye are cut off by transgression ye cannot escape the buffetings of Satan unto the day of Redemption. And I now give unto you power from this verry hour, that if any man among you, of the Firm, is found a transgressor, & repenteth not of the evil, that ye shall deliver him over unto the buffetings of Satan, & he shall have no more power to bring evil upon you; but as long as ye hold communion with transgressors, behold, they bring evil upon you. It is wisdom in me, therefore, a commandment I give unto you, that ye shall organize yourselves, & appoint every man his stewardship, that every man may give an account unto me of the stewardship which is appointed unto him; for it is exped[i]ent, that I the Lord, should make every man accountable, as stewards over earthly Blessings, which I have made & prepared for my creatures, I the Lord stretched out the heavens, & builded the earth as a verry handy work, & all things therein are mine, & it is my business to provide for my saints, for all things are mine; but it must needs be done in mine own way: & behold, this is the way that I the Lord hath decreed to provide for my saints, that the poor shall be exalted in that the rich are made low; for the earth is full, & there is enough & to spare; yea, I have prepared all things, & have given unto the children of men to be agents unto themselves. Therefore if any man shall take of the abundance which I have made, & impart not his portion according to the law of my gospel unto the poor & the needy, he shall with Diveses lift up his eyes in hell, being in torment. And now verily, I say unto you concerning the properties of the Firm, Let my servant Sidney [Rigdon] have appointed unto him the place where he now resides, & the lot of the Tan[n]ery for his stewardship for his support while he is labouring in my vinyard, even as I will, when I shall command him; & let all things be done according to counsel of the Firm, & united consent, or voice of the Firm which dwells in the land of Kirtland. And this stewardship & blessing, I the Lord confer upon my servant Sidney for a blessing upon him, & upon his seed after him, & I will multiply blessings upon him & upon his seed after him inasmuch as he shall be humble before me. And again let my servant Martin [Harris] have appointed unto him for his stewardship the lot of land which my servant John [Johnson] obtained in exchange for his farm, for him & his seed after him; & inasmuch as he is faithful I will multiply blessings upon him & his seed after him. And let my servant Martin devote his moneys for the printing of my word, according as my servant Joseph shall direct.

And again let my servant Frederick [G. Williams] have the place upon which he now dwells; & let my servant Oliver [Cowdery] have the lot which is set off joining the house which is to be for the printing office which is lot number one; & also the lot upon which his father resides; & let my servants Frederick & Oliver have the printing office & all things that pertain unto it; & this shall be their stewardship which shall be appointed unto them; & inasmuch as they are faithful, behold, I will bless them, & multiply blessings upon them, & this is the beginning of the stewardship which I have appointed unto them, for them & their seed after them; & inasmuch as they are faithful I will multiply blessings upon them & their seed after them, even a multiplicity of blessings.

And again, let my servant John have the house in which he lives, & the farm, all, save the ground which has been reserved for the building of my houses, which pertains to that farm, & those lots which have been named for my servant Oliver; & inasmuch as he is faithful I will multiply blessings upon him. And it is my will that he should sell the lots that are laid off for the building up of the city of my saints, inasmuch as it shall be made known to him by the voice of the spirit & according to the counsel of the Firm, & by the voice of the Firm, & this is the beginning of the stewardship which I have appointed unto him, for a blessing unto him & his seed after him; & inasmuch as he is faithful I will multiply a multiplicity of blessings upon him.

And again, let my servant Newel [K. Whitney] have appointed unto him the houses & lot where he now resides, & the lot & building on which the store stands, & the lot also which is on the corner south of the store, & also the lot on which the Ashery is situated. And all this I have appointed unto my servant Newel for his stewardship, for a blessing upon him & his seed after him, for the benefit of the mercantile establishment of my Firm, which I have established for my Stake in the land of Kirtland; yea, verily, this is the stewardship which I have appointed unto my servant Newel, even this whole mercantile establishment, him & his agent, & his seed after him, & inasmuch as he is faithful in keeping the commandments which I have given unto him, I will multiply blessings upon him, & his seed after him, even a multiplicity of blessings.

And again let my servant Joseph have appointed unto him the lot which is laid off for the building of my houses, which is forty rods long and twelve wide, & also the farm upon which his father now resides, & this is the beginning of the Stewardship which I have appointed unto him, for a blessing upon him & upon his father; for behold, I have reserved an inheritance for his father, for his support; therefore he shall be reckoned in the house of my servant Joseph: & I will multiply blessings upon the house of my servant Joseph inasmuch as he is faithful, even a multiplicity of blessings.

And now a commandment I give unto you concerning Zion, that you shall no longer be bound as a United Firm, to your brethren of Zion, only on this wise: after you are organized, you shall be called, The United Firm of the Stake of Zion, the city of Kirtland, among yourselves. And your brethren, after they are organized, shall be called The United Firm of the City of Zion, & they shall be organized in their own names, & in their own name; & they shall do their business in their own name, & in their own names; & you shall do your business in your own name, & in your own names— And this I have commanded to be done for your salvation, as also for their salvation, in consequence of their being driven out, and that which is to come. The covenant being broken through transgression, by coveteousness & feigned words, therefore, you are dissolved as a United Firm with your brethren, that you are not bound only up to this hour unto them, only on this wise, as I said, By loan, as shall be agreed by this Firm in counsel as your circumstances will admit, & the voice of the council direct.

And again, a commandment I give unto you concerning your Stewardship which I have appointed unto you, behold, all these properties are mine, or else, your faith is vain, & ye are found hypocrites, & the covenants which you have made unto me are broken, & if these properties are mine, then, ye are stewards, otherwise ye are no stewards. But, verily, I say unto you, I have appointed unto you to be Stewards over mine house, even stewards indeed, & for this purpose have I commanded you to organize yourselves, even to print my word, the fulness of my scriptures, the revelations which I have given unto you, & which I shall hereafter <from> time to time give unto you, for the purpose of building up my church & kingdom on the earth, & to prepare my people for the time of my coming which is nigh at hand. Therefore a commandment I give unto you that ye shall take the books of Mormon, & also the copy-right, & also the copy-right which shall be secured of the articles & covenants, in which covenants, all my commandments, which it is my will should be printed, shall be printed, as it shall be made known unto you; & also the copy-right to the new translation of the scriptures; & this I say that others may not take the blessings away from you which I have conferred upon you. And ye shall prepare for yourselves a place for a Treasury, & consecrate it unto my name, & ye shall appoint one among you to keep the treasury & he shall be ordained unto this blessing; & there shall be a seal upon the Treasury, & all these sacred things shall be delivered into the Treasury, & no man among you shall call it his own or any part of it; for it shall belong to you all with one accord, & I give it unto you from this very hour; & now see to it, that ye go to & make use of the stewardship which I have appointed unto you, exclusive of these sacred things, for the purpose of printing these sacred things, according as I have said; & the avails of these sacred things shall be had in the Treasury, & a seal shall be upon it, & it shall not be used or taken out of the Treasury by any one, neither shall the seal be loosed which shall be placed upon it only by the voice of the Firm, or by commandment. And thus shall ye preserve all the avails of these sacred things in the Treasury, for sacred & holy purposes, & this shall be called, The Sacred Treasury of the Lord, & a seal shall be kept upon it, that it may be holy & consecrated unto the Lord.

And again, there shall be another Treasury prepared & a Treasurer appointed to keep the Treasury, & a seal shall be placed upon it, & all monies that you receive in your stewardships by improving upon the properties which I have appointed unto you, in houses, or in lands, or in cattle, & in all things save it be the holy & sacred writings, which I have reserved unto myself for holy & sacred purposes, shall be cast into the Treasury as fast as you receive monies, by hundreds, or by fifties, or by twenties, or by tens, or by fives, or in other words, if any man among you, obtain five dollars, let him cast it into the Treasury, or if he obtain ten, or twenty, or fifty or a hundred, let him do likewise; & let not any man among you say that it is his own; for it shall not be called his, nor any part of it, & there shall not any part of it be ussed, or taken out of the Treasury only by the voice & common consent of the Firm.

And this shall be the voice & common consent of the Firm. that any man among you, say unto the Treasurer, I have need of this to help me in my stewardship, if it be five dollars, or if it be ten dollars, or twenty, or fifty, or a hundred. The Treasurer shall give unto him the sum which he requires, to help him in his stewardship, until he be found a transgressor, & it is manifest before the counsel of the Firm, [p. [39]] plainly that he is an unfaithful & an unwise steward; but so long as he <is> in full fellowship & is faithful & wise in his stewardship, this shall be his token unto the Treasurer, that the Treasurer shall not withhold; but in case of transgression the Treasurer shall be subject unto the counsel & voice of the Firm, & in case the Treasurer is found an unfaithful & an unwise steward, he shall be subject to the counsel & voice of the Firm, & shall be removed out of his place & another shall be appointed in his stead. And again, verily I say unto you concerning your debts, behold, it is my will that you should pay all your debts; & it is my will that you should humble yourselves before me, & obtain this blessing by your diligence, & humility & the prayer of faith; & inasmuch as you are diligent & humble, & exercise the prayer of faith, behold, I will soften the hearts of those to whom you are in debt, until I shall send means unto you for your deliverance. Therefore, write speedily unto New York, & write according to that which shall be dictated by my Spirit, & I will soften the hearts of those to whom you are in debt, that it shall be taken away out of their minds to bring affliction upon you. And inasmuch as ye are humble & faithful & call on my name, behold, I will give you the victory; I give unto you a promise, that you shall be delivered this once, out of your bondage. Inasmuch as you obtain a chance to loan money by hundreds, or by thousands, even until you shall loan enough to deliver yourselves from bondage, it is your privilege, & pledge the properties which I have put into your hands this once by giving your names by common consent, or otherwise as it shall seem good unto you, I give unto you the privilege this once, & behold, if you proceed to do the things which I have laid before you, according to my commandment, all these things are mine, & ye are my stewards, & the Master will not suffer his house to be broken up; even so, Amen.

copied from the original by O[rson] Pratt [8 blank lines]

Revelation, 28 April 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D4:33–35	JSR	260–261
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Kirtland 28.— April 1834.

Verily thus saith the Lord concerning the division and settlement of the United Firm: Let there be reserved three Thousand Dollars for the right and claim of the Firm in Kirtland for inheritances in due time, even when the Lord will; and with this claim to be had in remembrance when the Lord shall reveal it for a right of inheritance. Ye are made free from the Firm of Zion and the Firm of in Zion is made free from the firm in Kirtland: Thus Saith the Lord. Amen

Copied from the original by Orson Hyde

Letter to the Church, circa April 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D4:35–39	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:22–24
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
TPJS	66–68

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a THE ELDERS OF THE CHURCH IN KIRTLAND, TO TEHIR [THEIR] BRETHREN ABROAD.
(Continued from our last.)

Dear brethren in Christ, and companions in tribulation.

- b IN our own country, surrounded with blessings innumerable, to which thousands of our fellow men are strangers, enjoying unspeakable benefits, and inexpressible comforts, when once our situation is compared with the ancient saints, as followers of the Lamb of God who has taken away our sins by his own blood, we are bound to rejoice and give thanks to him always. Since the organization of the church of Christ, or the church of the LATTER DAY SAINTS, which was on the 6th of April, 1830, we have had the satisfaction of witnessing the spread of the truth into various parts of our land, notwithstanding its enemies have exerted their unceasing diligence to stop its course and prevent its progress. Though evil and designing men have been combined to destroy the innocent, because their own craft was in danger, and have been assisted in raising mobs and circulating falsehoods by a miserable set of apostates, who have, for wicked and unbecoming conduct, been expelled from the body of which they were once members, yet the glorious gospel in its fulness is spreading and daily gaining converts, and our prayer to God is, that it may continue, and numbers be added of such as shall be saved.
- b The Messiah's kingdom on earth is of that kind of government, that there has always been numerous apostates, for this very fact, that it admits of no sins unrepented of without excluding the individual from its fellowship. Our Lord said,

- d Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able. And again, many are called, but few chosen. Paul said to the elders of the church at Ephesus, after he had labored three years with them, that he knew, that some of their own number would turn away from the faith, and seek to lead away disciples after them. None, we presume, in this generation will pretend that they have the experience of Paul, in building up the church of Christ; and yet, after his departure from the church at Ephesus, many, even of the elders, turned away from the truth; and what is almost always the case, sought to lead away disciples after them. Strange as it may appear, at first thought, yet it is no less so than true, that with all the professed determination to live godly, after turning from the faith of Christ, apostates have, unless they have speedily repented, sooner or later, fallen into the snares of the wicked one and been left destitute of the Spirit of God, to manifest their wickedness in the eyes of multitudes. From apostates the faithful have received the severest persecutions: Judas was rebuked, and immediately betrayed his Lord into the hands of his enemies, because satan entered into him. There is a supreme intelligence bestowed upon such as obey the gospel with full purpose of heart, which, if sinned against, the apostate is left naked and destitute of the Spirit of God, and they are in truth, nigh unto cursing, and their end is to be burned. When once that light which was in them is taken from them, they become as much darkened as they were previously enlightened. And then, no marvel, if all their power should be enlisted against the truth, and they, f Judas like, seek the destruction of those who were their greatest benefactors! What nearer friend on earth, or in heaven, had Judas, than the Savior? and his first object was to destroy him! Who, among all the saints in these last days, can consider himself as good as our Lord? Who is as perfect, who is as pure, and who as holy as he was? Are they to be found? He never transgressed or broke a commandment or law of heaven—no deceit was in his mouth, neither was guile found in his heart! and yet one that ate with him, who had often supped of the same cup, was the first to lift up his heel against him! Where is g there one like him? He cannot be found on earth. Then why should his followers complain, if from those whom they once called brethren, and considered in the nearest relation in the everlasting covenant, they should receive persecution? From what source emanated the principle which has ever been manifested by apostates from the true church, to persecute with double diligence, and seek with double perseverance, to destroy those whom they once professed to love, with whom they once communed, and with whom they once covenanted to strive, with every power, in righteousness, to obtain the rest of God? Perhaps, our brethren will say, The same that caused satan to seek to overthrow the kingdom of God, because he himself was evil, and God's kingdom is holy.
- h Being limited to a short space in this number of the Star, we have advanced these few items, though in short, in stead of pursuing our subject as in former numbers. The great plan of salvation is a theme which ought to occupy our strictest attention, and be regarded as one of heaven's best gifts to mankind. No consideration whatever ought to deter us from approving ourselves in the sight of God, according to his divine requirement. Men not unfrequently forget, that they are dependent upon heaven for every blessing which they are permitted to enjoy, and that for every opportunity, granted them, i they are to give an account. You know, brethren, that when the Master called his servants, he gave them their several benefits to improve only while he should tarry for a little season, and then he will call each to render his account; and where five tallents were bestowed, ten will be required, and he that has made no improvement will be cast out as an unprofitable servant, and the faithful are to enjoy everlasting honors.— Therefore, we earnestly emlore the grace of our Father to rest upon you, through Jesus Christ his Son, that you may not faint in the hour of temptation, nor be overcome in the time of persecution.
- TO BE CONTINUED.

Letter to Emma Smith, 4 June 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D4:52–59	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a ...The whole of our journey, in the midst of so large a company of social honest ~~men~~ and sincere men, wandering over the plains of the Nephites, recounting occasionally the history of the Book of Mormon, roving over the mounds of that once beloved people of the Lord, picking up their skulls & their bones, as a proof of its divine authenticity, and gazing upon a country the fertility, the splendour and the goodness so indescribable, all serves to pass away time unnoticed, and in short

- b were it not at every now and then our thoughts linger with inexpressible anxiety for our wives and our children our kindred according to the flesh who are entwined around our hearts; And also our brethren and friends; our whole journey would be as a dream, and this would be the happiest period of all our lives. We learn this journey how to travel, and we look with pleasing anticipation for the time to come, when we shall retrace our steps, and take this journey again in the enjoyment and embrace of that society we so much love, which society can only cause us to have any desire or lingering thoughts of that
- c which is below. We have not as yet heard any thing from Lyman [Wight] and Hyrum [Smith] and do not expect to till we get to salt river Church, which is only fifty miles from this place. Tell Father Smith [Joseph Smith Sr.] and all the family, and brother Oliver [Cowdery] to be comforted and look forward to the day when the trials and tribulations of this life will be at an end, and we all enjoy the fruits of our labour if we hold out faithful to the end which I pray may be the happy lot of us all...

Revelation, 22 June 1834 [D&C 105]

Print Sources

JSP	D4:69–77	JSR	263–266
DC	Section 105	HC	2:108–111
HDDC	1372–1391	TCHC	2:121–122

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Revelation given 22 June 22, 1834. Clay Co. Mo.

Verily I say unto you, who have assembled together that you may learn my will, concerning the redemption of mine afflicted people; behold I say unto you, were it not for the transgression of my people speaking concerning the church and not individuals, they might have been redeemed even now; but behold, they have not learned to be obedient to the things which I require at their hands, but are full of all manner of evil and do not impart of their substanc[e] as becometh saints; to the poor and afflicted among them and are not united, according to the union of required by the law of the celestial kingdom and Zion cannot be built up unless it is by the principles of the law of the Celestial kingdom otherwise, I cannot receive her unto my-self and my people must needs be chastened, until they learn obedience if it must needs be by the [things] which they suffer. I speak not concerning those who are appointed to lead my people who are the first elders of my church for they are not all under this condemnation, but I speak concerning the church abroad, there are many who will say where is their god, Behold, he will deliver in time of trouble, otherwise we will not go up unto Zion, and will keep our monies.

Therefore in consequence of the transgression of my people, it is expedient in me that mine elders should wait for a little season for the redemption of Zion, that they themselves may be prepared and that my people may be taught more perfectly, and have experience and know more perfectly concerning their duty, and the things which I require at their hands, and this cannot be brought to pass until mine elders are endowed with power from on high, for behold I have prepared a great endowment and blessing to be poured out upon them— in as much as they are faithful and continue in humility before me. Therefore it is expedient in me, that mine elders should wait for a little season for the redemption of Zion, For behold I do not require at their hands, to fight the battles of Zion. for as I have said in a former commandment even so I will fulfil. I will fight your battles, behold the destroyer I have already sent forth to destroy and lay waste mine enemies, and not many years hence they shall not be left to pollute mine heritage, to blaspheme my name. upon the land which I have ~~conseeranted~~ consecrated for the gathering together of my Saints.

Behold I have commanded my servant Joseph, to say to the strength of my house; even my warriors my young men and middle aged to gather together for the redemption of my people and throw down the tower of mine enemies, and scatter their watchmen— but the strength of my house has not hearkened unto ~~unto~~ my words, but in as much as there are those that have hearkened unto my words, I have prepared a blessing and an endowment for them, I have heard their prayers and will accept their offering, and it is expedient in me that they should be brought thus far, for a trial of their faith.

And now verily I say unto you, a commandment I give unto you, that as many as have come up hither that can stay in the region round about, Let them stay, and those who cannot stay, who have families in the east, let them tarry for a little season, in as much as my servant Joseph shall appoint unto them for I will counsel him concerning this matter, And all things whatsoever is he shall appoint unto them shall be fulfilled and let all my people who dwell in the region round about, be very faithful and prayerful and humb[ly] before me, and reveal not the things which I have revealed unto them, Talk not of Judgment boast not of faith nor of mighty works, but carefully gather together in one region as can be consistently with the feeling of the people. And Behold I will give unto you favor and grace in their eyes, that you may rest in peace and safety, whilst you are saying unto the people execute judgment Justice for us according to law, and redress us of our wrongs.

Now behold, I say unto you my friends, in this way you may find favor in the eyes of the people, until the armies of Israel become very great, and I will soften the hearts of the people as I did I the heart of Pharioh from time to time, until my servant Joseph and mine elders whom he shall appoint shall have time to gather up the strength of my house; and to have sent wise men to fulfil that which I have commanded concerning the purchasing of all the lands in Jackson County that can be purchased and in the adjoining Counties round about, for it is my will, that these lands should be purchased that my saints should possess them according to the law of consecration, which I have given. And after these lands are purchased I will hold the armies of Israel guiltless in taking possessions of their own lands and of throw[i]ng down the tower of mine enemies that may be upon them, and scattering their watchmen, and avenging me of mine enemies, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me. But firstly let my army become very great, and let it be sanctified before me, that it may become fair as the Sun and clear as the moon, and that her banners may be terrable unto all nations, that the kingdom of this world may be constrained to acknowledge that the kingdom of Zion, is in very deed the kingdom of our God, and his Christ,

Therefore let us become subject unto her laws, Verily I say unto you it is expedient in me, that the first elders of my church should receive their endowment from on high in mine house which I have commanded to be built unto my name in the land of Kirtland, and let those commandments which I have given concerning Zion, and her law be executed and fulfilled after her redemption. There has been a day of calling. but the time has come for a day of choosing, and let those be chosen that are worthy and it shall be manifest unto my servant Joseph by the voice of the Spirit, those who are chosen, and they shall be sanctified, and in as much as they, follow the counsels which they receive they shall have power after many days to accomplish all things pertaining to Zion.

<And> again I say unto you, sue for peace not only the people that have smitten you, but also to all people. and lift up an ensign of peace, and make a proclamation of for peace unto the ends of the earth and make proposals of <for> peace unto those who have smitten you, according to the voice of the spirit which is in you, and all thing shall work together for your good, and be faithful and behold and low I am with you even unto the end. even so Amen——

Minutes, 23 June 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D4:80–84	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:112–113
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:125–127

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

...A council of High Priests met according to revelation in order to choose some of the first Elders to receive their endowments.— being appointed by the voice of the Spirit through Br. Joseph Smith jr. President of the Church of Christ...¹

Minutes and Discourse, circa 7 July 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D4:90–96	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:124–126
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:136–138

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

¹Talk about what follows in this document, a bunch of times it saying that people are going to receive their endowment.

Text

- a ...After which br. Joseph Smith jun proceeded to give the Council such instruction (relative to their high calling) as would enable them to proceed and minister in their office— agreeable to the pattern given heretofore;— also read to them the Revelation speaking on the subject— He also informed them if he should now be taken away that he had accomplished the great work which the Lord had laid before him, and that which he had desired of the Lord, and that he now had done his duty in organizing the High Council, through which Council the will of the Lord might be known on all important occasions in the building up of Zion, and establishing truth in the earth.
- b A vote was then taken whether the brethren that were appointed on the 3rd of July should stand according to appointment. The vote was clear in their behalf.
- Br. Joseph Smith jr. then proceeded and ordained the three Presidents. David Whitmer as President¹ and William W. Phelps & John Whitmer assistants and their twelve Counsellors...

Minutes, 11 August 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D4:97–101	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:142–144
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:155–157

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Kirtland August 11th 1834
- This day a number of high priests and elders of the church of the Latter-Day Saints assembled in the new school-house in this place, for the purpose of investigating a matter of difficulty growing out of certain reports or statements made by brother Sylvester Smith; one of the High counsellors of this Church, accusing brother Joseph Smith Jun^r with criminal conduct during
- b his journey to and from Missouri this Spring & Summer. After coming to order, brother Joseph commenced and spake to a considerable length upon the circumstances of their journey to and from Missouri, and very minutely laid open the causes out of which those jealousies of brother Sylvesters and others had grown. He made a satisfactory statement concerning his rebukes and chastisements upon Sylvester & others, and also concerning the distribution of monies and other properties, calling on brethren present who accompanied him to attest to the same. All of which, was satisfactory to the brethren present
- c as appeared by their own remarks afterward. After brother Joseph had closed his lengthy remarks, brother Sylvester made some observations relative to the subject of their difficulties, and begun to make a partial confession for his previous conduct, asking forgiveness for accusing brother Joseph publicly on the Saturday previous, of proph[e]syng lies in the name of the Lord, and for abusing (as he had said) his (Sylvester's) character, before the brethren while journeying to the West. Brother
- d Sidney Rigdon made some remarks by way of reproof upon the conduct of brother Sylvester, J. P. Green [John P. Greene] [spoke], and others, followed by the Clerk, after which by motion of brother S. Rigdon the assembly arranged itself into a council, brother N[ewel] K. Whitney presiding, and proceeded to discuss how this difficulty should be disposed of. Brother John Smith thought that for brother Sylvester, to make a public confession in the Star would be the way to heal the wound. Brother [Reynolds] Cahoon followed with nearly the same remarks Brother Isaac Hill, thought it ought to be quashed here,
- e and go no farther. followed with the same from brother I[saac] Bishop. Brother Samuel H. Smith said that it was his opinion, that brother Sylvester ought to make a more public confession, and send by letter to those who are in the same transgression, with himself and inform them of this decision, and then if necessary make it public in the Star. Brother Orson Hyde thought that the confession ought to be as liberal as the accusation, or that it ought to be written and published Brother J. P. Green, said that if brother Sylvester would view this thing in its proper light, he would be willing to make a public confession and
- f send forth; and he advised him to do this for the salvation of the Churches abroad. Brother Isaac Story, said that it was his opinion the plaster ought to be as large as the wound, that a proper statement ought to be published abroad. The clerk then proposed that this council send a certificate or resolution, informing the churches abroad, that the conduct of brother Joseph, has been investigated, and that he has acted in a proper manner and in every respect has conducted himself to the satisfaction of the church in Kirtland, and also let brother Sylvester make a proper confession following the same minutes. Brother A[sa]

¹See historical introduction, note on David Whitmer being chosen as JS's successor?

Lyman, P[eter] Shirts, T[ruman] Wait, R[oswell] Evans. A[lpheus] Cutler and T[homas] Burdick, made remarks to the same effect. Brother S. Rigdon, made a few remarks upon the attitude in which, he, Sylvester now stands before the world, in endeavoring to preach the gospel.

g Brother O. Hyde moved for a decision, relative to the first question, (viz.) What is to be done to arrest the evil? The moderator then proceeded, after a few remarks, to give a decision according, to a motion previously made, (viz.) that an article be published in the Evening & the morning Star, by the direction of the council, that the church in Kirtland has investigated the conduct of brother Joseph Smith ^{Junnr.} while journeying to the West and returning, and that we find that he has acted in every respect in the an honorable and proper Manner, with all monies and other properties entrusted to his charge. After which a vote was taken and carried. A. motion was then made by brother O. Hyde and seconded by brother S. Rigdon, that a committee of three, be appointed to write the article for the Star agreeably to the decision.¹

h Brethren, The Clark [clerk], Thomas Burdick and Orson Hyde were nominated and appointed by unanimous vote.

Brother Sylvester, then ~~made~~ said that he was willing to publish a confession in the Star. A motion was then made by brother J. P. Green, and seconded by the moderator, that the above named committe, be appointed to write letters in the name of the council to bro— Z[erubbabel] Snow, C. Snelling [Cyrus Smalling] & J. P. [John D.] Parker.

Prayer by brother S. Rigdon.

Oliver Cowdery)
Clerk of Council)

Letter to Lyman Wight and Others, 16 August 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D4:102–108	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:144–146
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:157–160

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Kirtland August 16th 1834
Copy from Joseph S to the brethr[e]n in Zion
Dear Brethren Lyman Wight Edward Partri[d]ge John Carrill [Corrill] Isaac Morley and others the high council of the Church of the Latter Day Saints—
- b After so long a time I dictate a few lines to you to let you know that I am in Kirtland and that I found all well on my arival, as pertaining to health &c but ~~found~~ our common advisory had taken the advantage of our brothe[r] Sylvest[er] Smith and others who gave a false colloring to allmost every transaction from the time that we left Kirtland untill we returned, and thereby Stirred up a great difficulty in the Church against me accordingly I was met in the face and eyes as soon as I had got home with a catalogue that was as black as the author himself and the cry was Tyrant! Pope!! King!!! Usurper!!!! Abuser of men!!!! Ange!!!!!! False proph[e]t!!!!!! Prophecyng Lies in the name of the Lord!!!!!!! and taking Consecrated monies!!!!!!! and every other lie to fill up and complete the cattelogue that was necissary to perfect the Church to be meet for the devourer the shaft of the ~~devouring~~ <distroying> Angel! and in consequence of having to combat all these I have not been able to regulate my mind so as to write to give you council and the information that you needed, but that God who rules on high and thunders Judgments upon Israel when they transgress has given me power from the time that I was born (into this Kingdom) to stand and I have succeeded in putting all gainsayers and enemies to flight unto the present time and not withstanding the advisory Laid a plan which was more subtle than all others, I now swim in good clean ~~pure~~ water with my head out! as you will see by the next star
- c I shall now procede to give you such council as the spirit of the Lord may dictate you will reccollect that your business must be done by your high council: you will recollect that the first elders are to receive their endowment in Kirtland before the redemption of Zion you will recollect that your high council will have power to say who of the first Elders among the Children of Zion are accounted worthy; and you will also reccollect that you have my testamony in be half of certain ones previously to my departure you will recollect that the sooner that these ambassadors of the most high are dispatched to bear

¹Note to minutes of 23 August 1834 (not in here), where Sylvester reverses his decision. (There is more material to add in the footnotes here if I want, from other sources, including 28–29 August 1834.)

- d testimony to lift up a warning voice and to proclaim the everlasting gospel and to use every convincing proof and faculty with this generation while on their Journey. <to Kirtland*> <*The better it shall be for them and for Zion inasmuch as the indignation of the people sleepeth for a while our time should be employed to the best advantage altho it is not the will of God that any one of these ambassador should hold their peace afte[r] they have startd upon their Journey.> They should awaken <the> sympathy of the people. I would reccommend to brother [William W.] Phelps (If he is yet there) to write a petition such as will be approved of by the high council and let there be every signer obtained that can be in the State of Missouri and while they are on their Journey to this country that paradventure we may learn whithe [whether] we have friends or not in these United States,
- e This petition to be sent to the Govenor of Missouri to solicit him to call on the President of the United States for a guard to protect our brethren in Jackson County upon their own Lands from the insults and abuses of the Mob
And I would reccommend to brother Wight to enter complaints to the Govonor as of ten as he receives any insults or injury, and in case that they procede to endeavor to take life or tear down homes, and if the citizens of Clay co, do not befriend us to gather up the little army and be set over Immediately into Jackson County and trust in God and do the worst <best> he can in defending maintaining the ground, but in case the excitement continues to be allayed and peace prevails use every effort to prevail on the churches to gather to those regions and situate themselves to be in readiness to move into Jackson
- f Co. in two years from the Eleventh of September next which is the appointed time for the redemption of Zion, If Verely If I say unto you If the church with one united effort perform their duties If they do this the work shall be complete If they do not this in all humility making preperation from this time forth like Joseph in Egypt laying up store against the time of famine every man having his tent, his horses, his charrots [chariots] his armory his cattle his family and his whole substance in readiness against the time <when> it shall be said To your tents O Isreal!! and let not this be noised abroad let every heart beat in silence and every mouth be shut
- g Now my beloved brethren you will learn by this we have a great work to do, and but little time to ~~do~~ it in and if we dont exert ourselves to the utmost in gathering up the strength of the Lords house that this thing may be accomplished behold their remaineth a scorge* <*for the Church even that they shall be driven from City to City and but few shall remain to receive an inheritance if these things are not kept there remaineth a scorge> Also, Therefore be wise this once O ye children of Zion! and give heed to my council saith the Lord!...
- ...so long as unrighteousness acts are suffered in the church it cannot [be] sanctified neither Zion be redeemed...

Minutes, 8 September 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D4:164-168	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:162-163
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:176-178

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a New-Portage, Ohio Sept 8th. 1834
Minutes of a conference of the Elders of the Church of the Latter-Day Saints, held at New-Portage Ohio. September 8th 1834, After prayer by brother Joseph Smith ^{J^{unr}} he, brother Joseph and Oliver Cowdery, united in anointing with oil and laying hands upon a sick sister, who said she was healed, and requested us to pray that her faith fail not, saying, if she did not doubt, she should not be afflicted any more.
- b Brother Joseph then made a few introductory remarks upon the subject of false spirits and other items.
Brother A[mbrose] Palmer made a few observations, and proceeded to present a case which had previously occasioned some difficulty in the church. It was that a certain brother Carpenter had been tried for a fault before the church, when the Church gave him a certain time to reflect whether he would acknowledge or not. Brother Gordon at the time, spake in tongues and declared that brother Carpenter should not have any lenity. He, brother Palmer, wished instruction on this point, whether they had proceeded right or not, as brother Carpenter was dissatisfied &c.
- c Brother Joseph then proceeded to give an explanation of the gift of tongues: that it was particularly instituted for the preaching of the Gospel to other nations and languages, but it was not given for the government of the Church. He further said, if brother Gordon introduced the Gift of tongues, as a testimony against brother Carpenter, that it was contrary to the

- d rules and regulations of the Church, because, in all our decisions we must judge from actual testimony. Brother Gordon said the testimony was had and the decision given before the gift of tongues was manifested. Brother Joseph advised that <we> speak in our own language in all such matters, and then the adversary cannot lead our minds astray. Brother Palmer then gave a relation of a certain difficulty which took place in a conference. He, brother Palmer presided, when several of the brethren spake out of order, and brother J[oseph] B. Bosworth refused to submit to to order according to his (brother Palmer's) request. He now wished instruction on this point, whether he, or some one else should preside over this branch of the Church, and also whether such conduct could be approbated in conferences. Brother Gordon then made some remarks on the subject which was at the time before the council.
- e Brother Joseph said, relative to the first question, that brother Gordon's tongues in the end, did operate as testimony, as, by his remarks in tongues, the former decision was set aside, and his taken. That it was his decision that brother Gordon's manifestation was incorrect, and from a suspicious heart. He approved the first decision, but discarded the second...

Letter to Oliver Cowdery, 24 September 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D4:168–171	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Kirtland, Ohio, September 24, 1834.
DEAR BROTHER,—
- I have, of late, been perusing Mr. A[lexander] Campbell's "Millennial Harbinger." I never have rejoiced to see men of corrupt hearts step forward and assume the authority and pretend to teach the ways of God—this is, and always has been a matter of grief; therefore I cannot but be thankful, that I have been instrumental in the providence of our heavenly Father in drawing forth, before the eyes of the world, the spirits by which certain ones, who profess to be "Reformers, and Restorers of ancient principles," are actuated! I have always had the satisfaction of seeing the truth triumph over error, and darkness give way before light, when such men were provoked to expose the corruption of their own hearts, by crying delusion, deception, and false prophets, accusing the innocent, and condemning the guiltless, and exalting themselves to the stations of gods, to lead blind-fold, men to perdition!
- c I have never been blessed, (if it may be called such,) with a personal acquaintance with Mr. Campbell, neither a personal interview; but the GREAT MAN, not unfrequently condescends to notice an individual of as obscure birth as myself, if I am at liberty to interpret the language of his "Harbinger," where he says, "Joe Smith! Joe Smith! imposture! imposture!" I have
- d noticed a strange thing! I will inform you of my meaning, though I presume you have seen the same ere this. Mr. Campbell was very lavish of his expositions of the falsity and incorrectness of the book of Mormon, some time since, but of late, since the publication of the Evening and the Morning Star, has said little or nothing, except some of his back-handed cants. He did, to be sure, about the time the church of Christ was established in Ohio, come out with a lengthy article, in which he
- e undertook to prove that it was incorrect and contrary to the former revelations of the Lord. Perhaps, he is of opinion that he so completely overthrew the foundation on which it was based, that all that is now wanting to effect an utter downfall of those who have embraced its principles is, to continue to bark and howl, and cry, Joe Smith! false prophet! and ridicule every man who may be disposed to examine the evidences which God has given to the world of its truth!
- f I have never written Mr. Campbell, nor received a communication from him but a public notice in his paper:— If you will give this short note a place in the Star you will do me a kindness, as I take this course to inform the gentleman, that while he is breathing out scurrility he is effectually showing the honest, the motives and principles by which he is governed, and often causes men to investigate and embrace the book of Mormon, who might otherwise never have perused it. I am satisfied, therefore he should continue his scurrility; indeed, I am more than gratified, because his cry of Joe Smith! Joe Smith! false prophet! false prophet! must manifest to all men the spirit he is of, and serves to open the eyes of the people.
- g I wish to inform him further, that as he has, for a length of time, smitten me upon one cheek, and I have offered no resistance, I have turned the other also, to obey the commandment of our Savior; and am content to sit awhile longer in silence and see the great work of God roll on, amid the opposition of this world in the face of every scandal and falsehood which may be invented and put in circulation.

I am your brother in the testimony of the book of Mormon, and shall ever remain.

JOSEPH SMITH jr.

TO OLIVER COWDERY.

Revelation, 25 November 1834 [D&C 106]

Print Sources

JSP	D4:180–182	JSR	266
DC	Section 106	HC	2:170–171
HDDC	1392–1397	TCHC	2:185

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Kirtland, November 25; 1834

It is my will that my servant Warren [Cowdery] should receive <be ap>ointed and ordained a presiding High Priest over my Church in the land of Freedom and the regions round about; and should preach my everlasting gospel, and lift up his voice and warn the people, not only in his own place, but in the adjoining countries, and devote his whole time in this high and holy calling which I now give unto him; seeking dilligently the kingdom of heaven and its righteousness, and all things necessary shall be added thereunto; for the laborer is worthy of his hire.

And again, verily I say unto you, the coming of the Lord draweth nigh, and it overtaketh the world as a thief in the night: therefore, gird up your loins, that ye may be the children of the light, and and that day shall not overtake you as a thief.

And again, verily I say unto you, there was joy in heaven when my servant Warren bowed to my scepter and separated himself from the crafts of men. Therefore, blessed is my servant Warren, for I will have mercy on him, and notwithstanding the vanity of his heart, I will lift him up, and inasmuch as he will humble himself before me; <and> I will give <unto> him grace and assurance wherewith he may stand; and if he continues to be a faithful witness, and a light unto the Church, I have prepared a crown for him in the mansion of my Father: even so. Amen.

Covenant, 29 November 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D4:188–191; J1:46–47	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:174–175
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:189
TPJS	70

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a After conversing and rejoicing before the Lord on this occasion we agreed to enter into the following covenant with the Lord, viz:—

That if the Lord will prosper us in our business, and open the way before <us> that we may obtain means to pay our debts, that we be not troubled nor brought into disrepute before the world nor his people, that after that of all that he shall give us we will give a tenth, to be bestowed upon the poor in his church, or as he shall command, and that we will be faithful over that which he has entrusted to our care ~~and~~ that we may obtain much: and that our children after us shall remember to observe this sacred and holy covenant: ~~after us~~: And that our children and our children's may know of the same we here subscribe our names with our own hands before the Lord:

Joseph Smith Jr
Oliver Cowdery.

- b And now, O Father, as thou didst prosper our father Jacob, and bless him with protection and prosperity where ever he went from the time he made a like covenant before and with thee; and as thou didst,— even the same night, open the heavens unto him and manifest great mercy and favor, and give him promises, so wilt thou do by us his sons; and as his blessings prevailed above the blessings of his Progenitors into the utmost bounds of the everlasting hills, even so may our blessings prevail ~~above~~ <like> his; and may thy servants be preserved from the power and influence of wicked and unrighteous men; may every weapon formed against us fall upon the head of him who shall form it; may we be blessed with a name and a place among thy saints here, and thy sanctified when they shall rest. Amen.

Revelation, 5 December 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D4:197	JSR	266–267
DC	—	HC	2:176–177 ¹
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Verily, condemnation resteth upon you, who are appointed to lead my Chu[r]ch, and to be saviors of men: and also upon the church: And there must needs be a repentance and a refo[r]mation among you, in all things, in your ensamples before the Chuch, and before the world, in all your manners, habits and customs, and salutations one toward another—rendering unto every man the respect due the office, ~~and~~ calling, and priesthood, whereunto I the Lord have appointed and ordained you. Amen.

Record, 5 December 1834

Print Sources

JSP	J1:47–48	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Friday Evening, December 5, 1834. According to the directions of the Holy Spirit breth[r]en Joseph Smith jr. Sidney [Rigdon], Frederick G. Williams, and Oliver Cowdery, assembled to converse upon the welfare of the church, when brother Oliver Cowdery was ordained an assistant President of the High and Holy Priesthood under the hands of brother Joseph Smith jr. Saying, “My brother, in the name of Jesus Christ who ~~died~~ was crucified for the sins of the world, I lay my hands upon thee, and ordain thee an assistant President of the high and holy p[r]iesthood in the church of the Latter Day Saints

Account of Meetings, Revelation, and Blessing, 5–6 December 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D4:191–200	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:176
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:190
PJS	1:20–25

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Chapter 1.
- Friday Evening, December 5, 1834. According to the direction of the Holy Spirit, Pr[e]sident Smith, assistant Presidents, [Sidney] Rigdon and [Frederick G.] Williams, assembled for the purpose of ordaining <first> High Counsellor [Oliver] Cowdery to the office of assistant President of the High and Holy Priesthood in the Church of the Latter-Day Saints.
- It is necessary, for the special benefit of the reader, that he be instructed <into, or> concerning the power and authority of the above named Priesthood.
- b First. The office of the President is to preside over the whole Chu[r]ch; to be considered as at the head; to receive revelations for the Church; to be a Seer, ~~and~~ Revelator <and Prophet—> having all the gifts of God:— ~~having~~ taking <Moses> for an ensample. Which is
- Second: the office and station of the above President Smith, according to the calling of God, and the ordination which he has received.
- c Second. The office of Assistant President is to assist in presiding over the whole chu[r]ch, and to officiate in the absence of the President, according to ~~their~~ <his> rank and appointment, viz: President Cowdery, first; President Rigdon Second, and President Williams Third, as they <were> are severally called. The office of this Priesthood is also to act as Spokesman—taking Aaron for an ensample.
- d The virtue of ~~this~~ the <above> Priesthood is to hold the keys of the kingdom of heaven, or the Church militant.
- The reader may further understand, that ~~Presidents~~ <the> reason why ~~President~~ <High Counsellor> Cowdery was not previously ordained <to the Presidency,> was, in consequence of his necessary attendance in Zion, to assist Wm W. Phelps in conducting the printing business; but that this promise was made by the angel while in company with President Smith, at the time they recieved the office of the lesser priesthood. And further: The circumstances and situation of the Church requiring, Presidents Rigdon and Williams were previously ordained, to assist ~~the~~ President Smith.
- e After this short explanation, we now proceed to give an account of the acts, promises, and blessings of this memorable Evening:
- First. After assembling, we received a rebuke for our former low, uncultivated, and disrespectful manner of communication, and salutation, with, and unto each other, by the voice of the Spirit, saying unto us:
- Verily, condemnation resteth upon you, who are appointed to lead my Chu[r]ch, and to be saviors of men: and also upon the church: And there must needs be a repentance and a refor[m]ation among you, in all things, in your ensamples before the Chuch, and before the world, in all your manners, habits and customs, and salutations one toward another—rendering unto every man the respect due the office, ~~and~~ calling, and priesthood, whereunto I the Lord have appointed and ordained you. Amen.
- f It is only necessary to say, relative to the foregoing reproof and instruction, that, though it was given in sharpness, it occasioned gladness and joy, and we were willing to repent and reform, in every particular, according to the instruction given. It is also proper to remark, that after the reproof was given, we all confessed, voluntarily, that such had been the manifestations of the Spirit a long times since; in consequence of which the rebuke came with greater sharpness.
- g Not thinking to evade the truth, or excuse, in order to escape censure, but to give proper information, a few remarks relative to the situation of the chu[r]ch previous to this date, is necessary. Many, on hearing the fulness of the gospel, embraced it with eagerness; <yet,> at the same time were unwilling to forego their former opinions and notions relative to church government, and the rules and habits proper for the good order, harmony, peace, and beauty of a people destined,
- h with the protecting care of the Lord, to be an ensample and light of the world. They did not dispise government; but there was a disposition to organize that government according to their own notions, or feelings. For example: Every man must be subjected <to> wear a particular fashioned coat, hat, or other garment, or else an accusation was brought that we were fashioning after the world. Every one must be called by their given name, without respecting the office or ordinance to which they had been called: Thus, President Smith was called Joseph, or brother Joseph; President Rigdon, brother Sidney, or Sidney, &c. This manner of address gave occasion to the enemies of the truth, and was a means of bringing reproach upon the Cause of God. But in consequence of former prejudices, the church, many of them, would not submit to proper and wholesome order. This proceeded from a spirit of enthusiasm, and vain ambition—a desire to compel others to come to certain rules, not dictated by the will of the Lord; or a jealous fear, that, were men called by thier respective titles, and the ordinance of heaven honored in a proper manner, some were in a way to be exalted above others, and their form of government disregarded. In fact, the true principle of honor in the church of the saints, that the more a man is exalted, the more humble he will be, if actuated by the Spirit of the Lord, seemed to have been overlooked; and the fact, that the greatest is least and servant of all; as said our Savior, never to have been thought of, by numbers. These facts, for such they were, when viewed in their proper light, were sufficient, of themselves to cause men to humble themselves before the Lord; but when communicated by the Spirit, made an impression upon our hearts not to be forgotten.

Perhaps, an arrangement of this kind in a former day would have occasioned some unpleasant reflections, in the minds of many, and at an early <earlier> period, in this church, others to have forsaken the cause, in consequence of weakness, and unfaithfulness; but that the leaders of the church should wait so long before stepping forward according <to> the manifestation of the Spirit, deserved a reproof. And that the church should be chastened, for their uncultivated manner of salutation, is also just. But to proceed with the account of the interview.

After addressing the throne of mercy, President Smith laid hands upon High Counsellor Cowdery, and ordained him to the Presidency of the High priesthood in the Church, saying:

Brother, In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, who was crucified for the sins of the world, that we through the virtue of his blood might come to the Father, I lay my hands upon thy head, and ordain thee a President of the high and holy priesthood, to assist in presiding over the Chu[r]ch, and bearing the keys of this kingdom—which priesthood is after the order of Melchizedek—which is after the order of the Son of God— And now, O Father, wilt thou bless this thy servant with wisdom, knowledge, and understanding— give him, by the Holy Spirit, a correct understanding of thy doctrine, laws, and will— commune with him from on high— let him hear thy voice, and recieve the ~~ministries~~ ministring of the holy angels— deliver him from temptation, and the power of darkness— deliver him from evil, and from those who may seek his destruction,— be his shield, his buckler, and his great reward— endow him with power from on high, that he may write, preach, and proclaim the gospel to his fellowmen in demonstration of the Spirit and of power— may his feet never slide— may his heart never feint— may his faith never fail. Bestow upon him the blessings of his fathers Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and of Joseph— Prolong his life to a good old age, and bring him in peace to his end, and to rejoice with thy saints, even the sanctified, in the celestial kingdom; for thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Presidents Rigdon and Williams, confirmed the ordinance and blessings by the laying on of hands and prayer, after which each were blessed with the same blessings and prayer.

Much light was communicated to our minds, and we were instructed into the order of the church of the saints, and how they ought to conduct in respecting and reverencing each other. The praise of men, or the honor of this world, is of no benefit; but if a man is respected in his calling, and considered to be a man of righteousness, the truth may have an influence, many times, by which means they may teach the gospel with success, and lead men into the kingdom of heaven.

On Saturday, December 6, Presidents Smith, Cowdery, and Rigdon assembled with High Counsellors Joseph Smith, sen. Hyrum Smith, and Samuel H. Smith, in company with Reynolds Cahoon, counsellor to the Bishop, High Priest William Smith, and <Elder> Don C[arlos] Smith.

The meeting was opened by prayer, and a lengthy conversation held upon the subject of introducing a more refined order into the Church. On further reflection, the propriety of ordaining others to the office of Presidency of the high priesthood was also discussed, after which High Counsellor Hyrum Smith was ordained <to> the Presidency under the hands of President Smith, and High Counsellor Joseph Smith sen. under the hands of President Rigdon. The others present were blessed under the hands of Presidents J. Smith jr. Cowdery, and Rigdon, and the meeting closed, after a happy season, of and a social intercourse upon the great subject of the gospel and the work of the Lord in this day.

Blessing from Joseph Smith Sr., 9 December 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D4:200–208	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Joseph Smith, junior was born in Sharon, Windsor County, Vermont, December 23, 1805.
- Joseph, my son, I lay my hands upon thy head in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, to confirm upon thee a father's blessing. The Lord thy God has called thee by name out of the heavens: thou hast heard his voice from on high from time to time, even in thy youth. The hand of the angel of his presence has been extended toward thee by which thou hast been lifted up and sustained; yea, the Lord has delivered thee from the hands of thine enemies and thou hast been made to rejoice in his salvation: thou hast sought to know his ways, and from thy childhood thou hast meditated much upon the great things of his law. Thou hast suffered much in thy youth, and the poverty and afflictions of thy father's family have been a grief to thy soul. Thou hast desired to see them delivered from bondage, for thou hast lov'd them with a perfect love. Thou hast stood by thy father, and like Shem, would have covered his nakedness, rather than see him exposed to shame: when the daughters of the Gentiles laughed, thy heart has been moved with a just anger to avenge thy kindred. Thou hast been an obedient son: the commands of thy father and the reproofs of thy mother, thou hast respected and obeyed— for all these things the Lord my God will bless thee. Thou hast been called, even in thy youth to the great work of the Lord: to do a work in this generation which no other man would do as thyself, in all things according to the will of the Lo[r]d. A marvelous work and a wonder has the Lord wrought by thy hand, even that which shall prepare the way for the remnants of his people to come in among the Gentiles, with their fulness, as the tribes of Israel are restored. I bless thee with the blessings of thy fathers Abraham, Isaac and Jacob; and even the blessings of thy father Joseph, the son of Jacob. Behold, he looked after his posterity in the last days, when they should be scattered and driven by the Gentiles, and wept before the Lord: he sought diligently to know from whence the son should come who should bring forth the word of the Lord, by which they might be enlightened, and brought back to the true fold, and his eyes beheld thee, my son: his heart rejoiced and his soul was satisfied, and he said, As my blessings are to extend to the utmost bounds of the everlastings hills; as my father's blessing prevailed above the blessings of his progen[i]tors, and as my branches are to run over the wall, and my seed are to inherit the choice land whereon the Zion of God shall stand in the last days, from among my seed, scattered with the Gentiles, shall a choice Seer arise whose bowels shall be as a fountain of truth, whose loins shall be girded with the girdle of righteousness, whose hands shall be lifted with acceptance before the God of Jacob to turn away his anger from his annointed, whose heart shall meditate great wisdom, whose intelligence shall circumscribe and <and> comprehend the deep things of God, and whose mouth shall utter the law of the just: His feet shall stand upon the neck of his enemies, and he shall walk upon the ashes of those who seek his destruction: with wine and oil it shall he be sustained, and he shall feed upon the heritage of Jacob his father: the just shall desire his society, and the upright in heart shall be his companions: No weapon formed against him shall prosper, and though the wicked mar him for a little season, he shall be like one rising up in the heat of wine— he shall roar in his strength, and the Lord shall put to flight his persecutors: his he shall be blessed like the fruitful olive, and his memory shall be as sweet as the choice cluster of the first ripe grapes. Like  shief [sheaf] fully ripe, gathered into the garner, so shall he stand before the Lord, having produced a hundred fold. Thus spake my father Joseph. Therefore, my son, I know for a surety that these things will be fulfilled, and I confirm upon thee all these blessings. Thou shalt live <to> do the work which the Lord shall command thee: thou shalt hold the keys of this ministry, even the presidency of this church, both in time and in eternity. Thy heart shall be enlarged, and thou shalt be able to fill up the measure of thy days according to the will of the Lord. Thou shalt speak the word of the Lord and the earth shall tremble; the mountains shall move and the rivers shall turn out of their course. Thou shalt escape the edge of the sword, and put to flight the armies of the wicked. At thy word the lame shall walk, the deaf shall hear and the blind shall see. Thou shalt be gathered to Zion and in the goodly land thou shalt enjoy thine inheritance; thy children and thy children's children to the latest generation; for thy name and the names of thy posterity shall be recorded in the book of the Lord, even in the book of blessings an <and> genealogies, for their joy and benefit forever. And now, my son, what more shall I say? Thou art as a fruitful olive and a choice vine: thou shalt be laden with precious fruit. Thousands and tens of thousands shall come to a knowledge of the truth through thy ministry, and thou shalt rejoice with them in the Celestial Kingdom: Thou shalt stand upon the earth when it shall reel to and fro as a drunken man, and be removed out of its place: thou shalt stand when the mighty judgments go forth to the destruction of the wicked: thou shalt stand on mount Zion when the tribes of Jacob come shouting from the north, and with thy brethren, the sons of Ephraim, crown them in the name of Jesus Christ: Thou shalt see thy Redeemer Come in the clouds of heaven, and with the just receive the hallowed throng with shouts of hallalujahs, praise the Lord. Amen
- i Emma Smith, wife of Joseph Smith jr. was born in Harmony, Susqehannah County, Pennsylvania, July 10, 1804.
- Emma, my daughter-in-law, thou art blessed of the Lord, for thy faithfulness and truth: thou shalt be blessed with thy husband, and rejoice in the glory which shall come upon him: Thy soul has been afflicted because of the wickedness of men

j in seeking the destruction of thy companion, and thy whole soul has been drawn out in prayer for his deliverance: rejoice, for the Lord thy God has heard thy supplication. Thou hast grieved for the hardness of the hearts of thy father's house, and thou hast longed for their salvation. The Lord will have respect to thy cries, and by his judgments he will cause some of them to see their folly and repent of their sins; but it will be by affliction that they will be saved. Thou shalt see many days; yea, the Lord will spare thee till thou art satisfied, for thou shalt see thy Redeemer. Thy heart shall rejoice in the great work of the Lord, and no one shall take thy rejoicing from thee. Thou shalt ever remember the great condescension of thy God in permitting thee to accompany my son when the angel delivered the record of the Nephites to his care. Thou hast seen much sorrow because the Lord has taken from thee three of thy children: in this thou are not to be blamed, for he knows thy pure desires to raise up a family, that the name of my son might be blessed. And now, behold, I say unto thee, that thus says the Lord, if thou wilt believe, thou shalt yet be blessed in this thing <and> thou shalt bring forth other children, to the joy and satisfaction of thy soul, and to the rejoicing of thy friends. Thou shalt be blessed with understanding, and have power to instruct thy sex. Teach thy family righteousness, and thy little ones the way of life, and the holy angels shall watch over thee: and thou shalt be saved in the kingdom of God; even so. Amen.

Oliver Cowdery,} Clerk and Recorder.

Kirtland, December 9, 1834.

Minutes, 28 December 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D4:208–211	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

...Many excellent remarks were made relative to the order of offices and titles in the church by Presidents J. Smith ^{Junr.} & S. Rigdon when a vote was called to know whether all present were satisfied with those remarks, which was also unanimous, there being no dissenting voice...

Letter to Oliver Cowdery, December 1834

Print Sources

JSP	D4:211–215	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
PJS	1:11–14

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a BROTHER O[LIVER] COWDERY:

Having learned from the first No. of the Messenger and Advocate, that you were, not only about to “give a history of the rise and progress of the church of the Latter Day Saints;” but, that said “history would necessarily embrace my life and character,” I have been induced to give you the time and place of my birth; as I have learned that many of the opposers of those principles which I have held forth to the world, profess a personal acquaintance with me, though when in my presence, represent me to be another person in age, education, and stature, from what I am.

- b I was born, (according to the record of the same, kept by my parents,) in the town of Sharon, Windsor Co. Vt. on the 23rd of December, 1805.
- At the age of ten my father's family removed to Palmyra, N.Y. where, and in the vicinity of which, I lived, or, made it my place of residence, until I was twenty one—the latter part, in the town of Manchester.
- c During this time, as is common to most, or all youths, I fell into many vices and follies; but as my accusers are, and have been forward to accuse me of being guilty of gross and outrageous violations of the peace and good order of the community, I take the occasion to remark, that, though, as I have said above, "as is common to most, or all youths, I fell into many vices and follies," I have not, neither can it be sustained, in truth, been guilty of wronging or injuring any man or society of men; and those imperfections to which I allude, and for which I have often had occasion to lament, were a light, and too often, vain mind, exhibiting a foolish and trifling conversation.
- d This being all, and the worst, that my accusers can substantiate against my moral character, I wish to add, that it is not without a deep feeling of regret that I am thus called upon in answer to my own conscience, to fulfill a duty I owe to myself, as well as to the cause of truth, in making this public confession of my former uncircumspect walk, and unchaste conversation: and more particularly, as I often acted in violation of those holy precepts which I knew came from God. But as the "Articles and Covenants" of this church are plain upon this particular point, I do not deem it important to proceed further. I only add, that I do not, nor never have, pretended to be any other than a man "subject to passion," and liable, without the assisting grace of the Savior, to deviate from that perfect path in which all men are commanded to walk!
- e By giving the above a place in your valuable paper, you will confer a lasting favor upon myself, as an individual, and, as I humbly hope, subserve the cause of righteousness.
- I am, with feelings of esteem, your fellow laborer in the gospel of our Lord.

JOSEPH SMITH jr.

Olivery Cowdery

Introduction to 1834

sdf

Letter to John Whitmer, 1 January 1834

Original Source

The original source is the Oliver Cowdery Letterbook at the Huntington Library. I am drawing from Word document with transcriptions of some of those letters, which I got from the MPD website.

My paragraphing matches what is in the transcription.

Text

- a Kirtland, January 1, 1834.
Dear Brother John:
- This morning I take an opportunity to communicate to you a few lines, in answer to several letters received from you, which as yet remain unanswered: but I have no hesitancy in persuading myself that you will forgive this delay. When you wrote, no doubt, you supposed that all would come safe through the Post Office; but I having reason to suspect that they would be purloined, dare not communicate anything that would do you any injury, even if it should be taken out and you not receive it; in this, no doubt, you will justify me. We received the name of our former subscribers a few days since, which were mailed on the 3d. of last month, and a letter from bro. Corril to me, directed to bro. Elliott, Sunday evening. Know assuredly, bro. John, that we are anxious to receive intelligence from our brethren who have been driven from their inheritances, and we are pleased to hear that the Governor is likely to give you aid; for we pray continually that the Lord will stir up the hearts of the Rulers & men in authority, to avenge his children. The Law is sufficient, the constitution was established according to the will of Heaven: and all the lack is, for those whose duty it is to see that they are kept inviolable do their duty: pray
- c that this may be the case; for God is able to turn the hearts of all men sufficiently to bring his purposes to pass. You have requested instruction on the subject of Church Records: I have just conversed with bro. Joseph concerning the same; and he has given me instruction upon his letter published in the 8th no. of the Star; but says that we shall probably receive more on the same, and then we will communicate it. I will say, however, that it is necessary to keep the names of the Saints, & when a child is brought forward to be blessed by the Elders, it is then necessary to take their names upon the church Record. Put

- d down the name of the man, his place of birth, and when, &c. and also of his family. If he begets children after that & they do not come into the church their names are not known with their brethren in the book of remembrance. apostatis _____ write, opposite his name that he has. If he begets children after that & they do not come into the church their names are not known with their brethren in the book of remembrance. The names of the saints are to be kept in a book that contains the law of God;
- e this is what is meant in bro. Joseph's letter. In due time you will receive all these things, and all necessary information. Each family will have its record with the law of the Lord in it; each branch of the church the same in every city; and each city one general record kept by a general clerk. Brother Joseph says, that the item in his letter that says, that the man that is called &c. and puts forth his hand to steady the ark of God, does not mean that any one had at the time, but it was given for a caution to those in high standing to beware, lest they should fall by the shaft of death as the Lord had said.
- f Since I came down I have been informed from a proper source that the Angel Michael is no less than our father Adam, and Gabriel is Noah. I just drop this because I supposed that you would be pleased to know, and I have no disposition to keep back anything from my brethren that I am privileged to know. Brother Gilbert writes a few words concerning my wife, in his letter to bro. Whitney, and says that he was ready on his part to advance money for her expense when bro. Orson & John came. Please say to him that I am satisfied with him on that point, and am thankful that he was willing so to do, and am under the same obligation for his kindness, as though she had actually come. But I was greatly disappointed, and my heart is often filled with sorrow. You no doubt recollect bro. Joseph's long communication by the hand of bro. Orson and John, that it was the will of the Lord, or wisdom that I should tarry here.
- g Now then bro. John could you suppose that I could come to Zion in the spring to tarry? You request the names of the authors of that letter concerning tongues. I have written them once, but conclude you did not receive my letter. Wm. Whitney, and Rhoda Mills wrote the letter referred to; but we presume they wrote nothing that did not transpire, so we did not blame them, we only cautioned you because we saw that you would get into difficulty if you depended on the gift of tongues for revelations. I have not been able to ascertain where my wife was, although bro. Gilbert says she is well, and you say she is
- i with father & mother. I supposed of course you knew, but it would be a satisfaction to me to know also. I want you to see her & hand her the following & write me immediately, & by so doing, you will confer a lasting favor of your unworthy brother. I daily think how many hours I have spent with you and brother Wm. & I ask myself, shall I not be privileged again to enjoy your society; yea, verily I trust in the Lord that I shall, for I often see you in visions and in dreams. My love to all the family & brethren. Oliver. P.S. I enclose a fifty dollar note in this which has been donated by the churches, that is forty of it, for the relief of the needy Saints, which you will hand over to bro. Partridge and Phelps, excepting ten dollars which I send to my wife. I feel for her wants, but it is difficult for me to get much money to send.
- i My dear Elizabeth:
- Our Father in heaven only knows the feelings & anxieties of my heart toward, & for you. I consider that it is now more than one year since we commenced keeping house, and out of that time, we were only permitted to spend seven months in each other's society. I looked anxiously for you with bro. Orson H. & John G. but was disappointed! and I said, O Lord, preserve thy handmaid that thy servant may see her yet in peace, & enjoy her company here on earth in the flesh, in the name of Jesus; Amen. And what could I say more? I think of your situation daily, and my mind is filled with continual sorrow. I live at bro. Joseph's, and am treated with brotherly kindness; but that is not like living with a family of one's own, when the
- j Lord has given him one. I would say something about your coming to me, but I know not how to send, who to send nor what way to send. My time is necessarily occupied here: we are poor: we exerted every possible means to pay bro. Gilbert's debts in N. Y. and we loaned money to purchase our press and types. And notwithstanding I am separated from you, and we are in these difficulties, yet I endeavor to stay myself upon the Lord, Indeed, he is my only refuge. Be faithful, be patient, be not cast down, be not discouraged, be not terrified, for God dwells in heaven, and ere long we shall meet at his right hand,
- k where parting will not be known. I have seen a letter from Diana to Sister Nancy Richardson, which says that she had made an exchange with you of some beads &c. which she has here; but I am told she has nothing here of any value scarcely, that is not a doll's worth. When you come away, if you do not bring all of your goods with you, leave all that you do not bring with mother, or some of the family, where they can be kept safely, for we shall want them when we return. I give you this, that you may be wise and I have no doubt you will.
- l I enclose fifty dollars in this for the poor brethren, but ten of it is for you. You will take it therefore & use it for your own benefit, as you see proper. The mail starts soon, so I must close.
- My love to father & mother & all of the family.
I am, affectionately, yours, Oliver.
P.S. We have sent the Star to some of the brethren, and want bro. Wm. to send us the names of more if they want.

1835

Joseph Smith

Introduction to 1835

sdf

Minutes, 18 January 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D4:215–218	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

...President Rigdon occupieed considerable time. and laid before the council at much length, the importance of assisting the church in this place, to move forward the great work of preparing a place in which the Elders might be endowed, and of printing and sending out the word of the Lord. President Smith took up the subject still further, and occupied a long time in presenting the importance of the same thing and gave decision that Elder [John] Tanner assist with his might, to build up the cause by tarrying in Kirtland...

Minutes, Discourse, and Blessings, 14–15 February 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D4:219–234	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:180–191
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:193–199

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a Ordination Blessings

Kirtland February 14 1835

This day a meeting was called of those who journeyed to Zion for the <purpose of laying> the foundation of its redemption last season with as many more of the Brethren & Sisters as felt disposed to attend. President Joseph Smith ^{Junr} presided over the meeting. After the Congregation assembled. he arose and requested the attention and read the 15th chapter of John and said, let us endeavor to solemnize our minds that we may receive a blessing by calling on the Lord & said let us pray

After an appropriate and affecting prayer was made the Bretheren who went to Zion, were requested to take their seats together in one part of the house by themselves. President Smith arose and stated the reason why this meeting was called. It was this. God had commanded it and it was made known to him by vision and by the Holy Spirit. he then gave a relation of some of the circumstances attending us while journeying to Zion, our trials, sufferings &c &c. He said God had not designed all this for nothing, but he had it in remembrance yet, and those who went to Zion, with a determination to lay down their lives, if necessary, it was the Will of God, that they should be ordained to the ministry and go forth to prune the vineyard for the last time, or the coming of the Lord, which was nigh, even fifty six years, should wind up the scene. He said many things such as the weak things, even the smallest and weakest among us shall be powerful and mighty and great things, should be accomplished by you, even from this hour. He said, you shall begin to feel the whisperings of the Spirit of God, and the works of God, shall begin to break forth from this time. you shall be endowed with power from on high.

- b President Smith then called upon all those who went to Zion to know if they were agreed with him in the statements which he had made, he said if you are arise upon your feet, all arose upon their feet. He then called upon the balance of the congregation to know also, if they would sanction the movement. They all raised the right hand. The names of those who went to Zion are as follows...

A Hymn was then sung for dismissal (viz.) Hark listen to the trumpeters they call for volunteers. President Hyrum Smith closed by prayer and dismissed for one hour.

Met pursuant to adjournment & president Hyrum Smith opened the meeting by Prayer. President J. Smith Junr. and arose and said. The first business of the meeting was for the three witnesses of the Book of Mormon, to pray each one and then proceed to choose twelve men from the church as Apostles to go to all nations, kindred touns and people. The three Witnesses united in prayer (Viz) Oliver Cowdery, David Whitmer & Martin Harris. These three Witnesses were then blessed by the laying on of the hands of the Presidency. They then according to a former commandment, proceeded to make choice of the twelve: The names of are as follows

Lyman Johnson	1
Brigham Young	2
H. C. Kimball	3
Orson Hyde	4
David W. Patten	5
Luke Johnson	6
Wm. E. McLel[li]n	7
John F. Boynton	8
Orson Pratt	9
Wm. Smith	10
Thomas B. Marsh	11
Parley P. Pratt	12

- c Lyman Johnson, Brigham Young and H. C. Kimball came forward and the three witnesses laid their hands upon each ones head and prayed separately. The Blessing of L[yman] Johnson was in the name of Jesus Christ, that he should bear the tidings of salvation to nations, tongues and people, until the utmost corners of the earth shall hear the tidings, and that he shall be a witness of the things of God to nations & tongues, and that Holy Angels shall administer to him occasionally and that no power of the enemy shall prevent him from going forth and doing the work of the Lord. And that he shall <should> live until the gathering was accomplished, according to the Holy Prophets. And that he should be like unto Enoch. And your faith shall be like unto his, and he shall be called great among all the living, and Satan shall tremble before thee, and that he shall see the Saviour come and stand on the Earth with power and great glory.

- d The blessing of Brigham Young was as follows, That he should be strong in Body, that he may go forth and gather the Elect preparatory to the great day of the coming of the Lord, and that he might be strong and mighty declaring the tidings to nations that know not God, that he may add ten talents, that he may come to Zion with many sheaves. He shall go forth from land to land and from sea to sea. and shall behold Heavenly Messengers going forth, & his life shall be prolonged, and the Holy Priesthood is confirmed upon thee, that he may do wonders in the name of Jesus, that he may cast out Devils, heal the sick, raise the dead, open the eyes of the blind, go forth from land to land and from sea to sea, and that heathen nations shall not even call him God himself, if he did not rebuke them.

- e Heber C. Kimball, blessing was in substance as follows. That he shall be made like unto those who have <been> blessed before him and be favored with the same blessing. That he might receive visions, the ministration of angels and hear their voices & even come into the presence of God. That many millions may be converted by his instrumentality that angels may waft him from place to place and that he may stand unto the coming of our Lord and receive a crown over the kingdom of our Lord, that he be made acquainted with the day when Christ shall come, that he shall be made perfect in faith and that the deaf shall hear, the lame shall walk, the blind shall see, and greater things <than> these shall he do, that he shall have boldness of speech before the nations and great power &c.

- f A hymn was then sung Glorious things of the[e] are spoken. The congregation was then dismissed by J. Smith Junr. Sunday, Feb. 15th at 9 ° clock A.M. the congregation again assembled & President [Oliver] Cowdery arose, and made some observations upon the nature of the meeting and then prayed unto the Lord for his assistance &c &c.

After which a number of certificates were read and accepted from brethren, that recently returned from Zion. Then, President Cowdery called forward Orson Hyde. David W. Patten and Luke Johnson and proceeded to their ordination & blessing.

g Orson Hyde, blessing. Oliver Cowdery proceeded and called upon the Lord to smile upon him and that his faith shall be perfect, and that the blessings pronounced shall be realized. He shall be made mighty and be endued with power from on high, and go forth to the nations of the earth to proclaim the gospel. That he shall escape all the pollutions of the world. The Angels shall uphold him, and that he shall go forth according to the commandment, both to Jew & Gentile and shall go to all nations, kingdoms and tongues ~~and shall~~ All who hear his voice shall acknowledge him to be a servant of God. He shall be equal in holding the keys of the kingdom. He shall stand on the earth and bring souls till Christ comes. We know that he loves thee, and may this thy servant be able to walk through pestilence and not be harmed. The powers of darkness shall have no ascendancy over him. He shall have power to smite the earth with pestilence, to divide waters and lead through the Saints. He shall go from land to land and from sea to sea. He shall be like unto one of the three Nephites

h David W. Patten's blessing. O God, give this, thy servant a knowledge of thy will; May he be like one of old who bore testimony of Jesus. May he be a new man from this day forth. He shall be equal with his brethren, the twelve, and have all the qualifications of the Prophets before him. May his body be strong and never be weary. May he walk and not faint. May he have power over all diseases, and faith according to his desires. May the Heavens be opened upon him speedily, that he may bear testimony from knowledge, that he may go to nations and isles afar off. May he have a knowledge of ~~thing~~ the things of the kingdom from the beginning and be able to tear down priest-craft like a Lion May he have power to smite his enemies before him with utter destruction. May he continue till the Lord comes. O Father we seal these blessings upon him, even so Amen.

i Luke Johnson's blessing

Our Father, in Heaven, look down in mercy upon us and upon this thy servant whom we ordain to the ministry of the twelve. He shall be prepared and preserved and become like those we have blessed before him, The nations shall tremble before him. He shall hear the voice of God: he shall comfort the hearts of the saints, always. The angels shall bear him up till he shall finish his ministry. He shall be delivered and come forth with Israel. He shall bear testimony to the kings of the earth, and hold communion with the Father, with the son and with the general assembly and church of the first born. If cast into prison he shall be able to comfort the hearts of his comrades His tongue shall be loosed and he shall have power to lead many to Zion, and set down with them, and the Ancient of Days shall pronounce this blessing. That you have been faithful. He shall have strength wisdom & power. He shall go among the covenant people and speak all their tongues where he shall go. All these blessings we confirm upon him in the name of Jesus. Amen.

j Wm. E. McLe[l]in's blessing.

In the name of the Lord, Wisdom & intelligence shall be poured out upon him, to enable him to perform the great work, that is incumbent upon him. That he may be spared until the saints are gathered, that he may stand before Kings and Rulers to bear testimony and be upheld by holy Angels, and the nations of the earth shall acknowledge that God has sent him. He shall have power to overcome his enemies, and his life shall be spared in the midst of pestilence and destruction, and in the midst of his enemies. He shall be a prince and a saviour to God's people. The Tempter shall not overcome him, nor his enemies prevail against him. The Heavens shall be opened unto him as unto men in days of old. He shall be mighty in the hands of God, and shall convince thousands that God has sent him, and his days may be prolonged until the coming of the son of man. He shall be wafted as on eagles wings, from country to country and from people to people and <be able> to <do> wonders in the midst of this generation, Even so Amen.

k John F. Boynton's blessing

Thou hast prevailed, and thou shalt prevail and thou shalt declare the gospel unto many nations. Thou shalt be made mighty before God. And although thou shalt be cast out from the face of men, yet thou shalt <have> power to prevail, thou shalt lead the Elect triumphantly to the places of refuge. Thou shalt be like thy brethren who have been blessed before thee. Thou shalt stand in that day of calamity when the wicked shall be consumed, and present unto the Father, spotless, the fruit of ~~his~~ <thy> labor. Thou shalt overcome all the evils that are in the world. Thou shalt have wisdom to put to silence all the wisdom of the wise, and thou shalt see the face of thy Redeemer in the flesh. These blessings ~~were~~ <are> pronounced and sealed upon thee even so Amen.

l Williams Smith's blessing

That he may be purified in heart, that he may have communion with God. That he may be equal with his brethren in holding the keys of this ministry That he may be kept and be instrumental in leading Israel forth, that he may be delivered from the hands of those who seek to destroy him: that he may be enabled to bear testimony to the nations, that Jesus lives. That he may stand in the midst of pestilence and destruction, he shall be mighty in the hands of God, in bringing about the restoration of Israel. The nations shall rejoice at the greatness of the gifts which God has bestowed upon him, That his tongue shall be loosed, he shall have power to do great things in the name of Jesus. He shall be preserved and remain on the earth, until Christ shall come to take vengeance on the wicked. Confirmed

Preface to Doctrine and Covenants, 17 February 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D4:234–237	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

PREFACE.

To the members of the church of the Latter Day Saints—

DEAR BRETHREN:

We deem it to be unnecessary to entertain you with a lengthy preface to the following volume, but merely to say, that it contains in short, the leading items of the religion which we have professed to believe.

The first part of the book will be found to contain a series of Lectures as delivered before a Theological class in this place, and in consequence of their embracing the important doctrine of salvation, we have arranged them into the following work.

The second part contains items or principles for the regulation of the church, as taken from the revelations which have been given since its organization, as well as from former ones.

There may be an aversion in the minds of some against receiving any thing purporting to be articles of religious faith, in consequence of there being so many now extant; but if men believe a system, and profess that it was given by inspiration, certainly, the more intelligibly they can present it, the better. It does not make a principle untrue to print it, neither does it make it true not to print it.

b

The church viewing this subject to be of importance, appointed, through their servants and delegates the High Council, your servants to select and compile this work. Several reasons might be adduced in favor of this move of the Council, but we only add a few words. They knew that the church was evil spoken of in many places—its faith and belief misrepresented, and the way of truth thus subverted. By some it was represented as disbelieving the bible, by others as being an enemy to all good order and uprightness, and by others as being injurious to the peace of all governments civil and political.

We have, therefore, endeavored to present, though in few words, our belief, and when we say this, humbly trust, the faith and principles of this society as a body.

We do not present this little volume with any other expectation than that we are to be called to answer to every principle advanced, in that day when the secrets of all hearts will be revealed, and the reward of every man's labor be given him.

With sentiments of esteem and sincere respect, we subscribe ourselves your brethren in the bonds of the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

JOSEPH SMITH jr.
OLIVER COWDERY.
SIDNEY RIGDON.
F[rederick] G. WILLIAMS.

Kirtland, Ohio, February 17, 1835.

Minutes and Blessings, 21 February 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D4:237–247	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:191–198
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:199–205

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

Kirtland February 21st 1835

Pursuant to adjournment a meeting of the Church of the Latter Day Saints was held and proceeded as follows. (Viz.) Meeting opened by prayer, of President David Whitmer, President O[liver] Cowdery addressed the congregation briefly and then Elder Parley P. Pratt was called to the stand and ordained as one of the Twelve. by J. Smith^{Jur.} D. Whitmer & O. Cowdery Parley P. Pratt^s blessing, as pronounced upon him by O. Cowdery, O. Lord smile from Heaven upon this thy servant, forgive his sins, sanctify his heart and prepare him to receive the blessing. Increase his love for thee and for thy cause, increase his intelligence, communicate to him all that wisdom, that prudence, and that understanding which he needs as a minister of Righteousness, and to magnify the Apostleship whereunto he is called. May a double portion of that spirit which was communicated to the Diciples of of our Lord & Saviour, to lead them into all truth, rest down upon him, go with him where <he> goes. that nothing shall prevail against him. that he may be delivered from prisons, from the power of his enemies, and from the adversary of all righteousness. May he be able to mount up on wings as an Eagle's, to run and not be weary, to walk and not faint. May he have great wisdom & intelligence, and be able to lead thine elect through this thorny maze. Let sickness and death have no power over him. Let him be equal with his brethren in bringing many sons and daughters to glory, and many nations to a knowledge of the truth. Great blessings shall rest upon thee. Thy faith shall increase, Thou shalt have great power, to prevail, The viel of the Heavens shall be rolled up, Thou shalt be permitted to gaze within it, and receive instruction from on high. No arm that is formed and lifted against thee, shall prosper, no power shall prevail, for thou shalt have power with God. and shall proclaim his gospel, thou wilt be afflicted, but thou shalt be delivered and conquer all thy foes. Thine office shall never be taken from thee. Thou shalt be called great. Angels shall carry thee from place to place. Thy sins are forgiven, and thy name written in the lambs book of life. Even so Amen.

c

The following charge was then given Elder P. P. Pratt by President O. Cowdery.

I am aware, Dear Brother, that the mind naturally claims something new: but the same thing rehearsed, frequently profits us. You will have the same difficulties to encounter in fulfilling this ministry, that the ancient Apostles had. You have enlisted in a cause that requires your whole attention, you ought therefore to count the cost, and become a polished shaft, to become a polished shaft, you must be sensible, requires the labor of years; and your station requires a perfect polish. It is required, not merely to travel a few miles in this country, but in distant countries. You must endure much labor, much toil, and many privations to become perfectly polished. Your calling is not like that of the husbandman, to cultivate a stinted portion of the planet on which we dwell, and when heaven has given the former and the latter rain, and mellow autumn refined his fruit, gather it in and, congratulates himself for a season in the remission of his toils, while he anticipates his winter evenings of relaxation and fireside enjoyment, But. Dear Brother, it is far otherwise with you. Your labor must be incessant and your toil great. You must go forth and labor till the great work is done. It will require a series of years to accomplish it. But you will have this pleasing consolation that, your Heavenly Father requires it; the field is his, the work is his, and he will not only cheer you, animate you & buoy you up in your pilgrimage, in yours arduous toils. but, when your work is done, and your labor o[v]er, he will take you to himself. But before this consummation of your felicity. bring your mind to bear upon what will be imperiously required of you to accomplish the great work that lies before you: Count well the cost. You have read of the trials and persecutions of ancient days. Has not bitter experience taught you that they are the same now? You will be dragged before the Authorities, for the religion you profess, and it were better not to set out than to start, look back, or shrink when dangers thicken upon you, or appalling death stares you in the face. I have spoken these things, Dear Brother, because I have seen them in visions. There are strong dungeons and gloomy prisons for you. These should not appall you. You must be called good or bad man. The ancients passed through the same. They had this testimony, that they had seen the Saviour after he rose from the dead. You must bear some testimony, or your mission, your labor, your toil will be in vain. You must bear the same testimony, that there is but one God and one Mediator; he that has seen him will know, him and testify of him. Beware of Pride, beware of evil; shun the very appearance of it, for the time is coming when if you do not hear to <these> things you will have a fall. Among your many afflictions you will have many blessings also. but you must pass through many afflictions in order to receive the glory that is in reserve for you. You will see thousands who when they first see you will know nothing about salvation by Jesus Christ, You shall see a nation born in a day. A great work lies before you & the time is near, when you must bid farewell to your native land, cross the mighty deep and sound the tocsin of alarm to other nations, kindreds tongues and people. Remember that all your hopes of deliverance from danger & from death, will rest upon your faithfulness to God in his cause. You must necessarily serve him with a perfect heart and a willing mind. Avoid strife and vain glory, think not yourself better than your brethren, but pray for them, as well as for yourself, and if you are faithful, great will be your blessings, but if you are not your stewardship will be taken from you, and another appointed in your stead.

e

Elder Pratt gave his hand to President O. Cowdery and said he had received ordination and should fulfil the ministry according to the grace given him. To which the President replied, Go forth and Angels shall bear thee up and thou shalt come forth at the last day bringing many with thee.

f Thomas B. Marsh's Blessing by O. Cowdery Dear Brother, You are to be a minister of righteousness and to this ministry and Apostleship you are now to be ordained: and May all temporal and spiritual blessings attend you. Your sins are forgiven you, and you are to go forth and preach the everlasting Gospel. You shall travel from kingdom to kingdom and from nation to nation. Angels shall bear the[e] up, and thou shalt be instrumental in bringing thousands of the redeemed of the Lord to Zion. President David Whitmer sealed the above blessing upon him, even so Amen.

g Orson Pratt's blessing.

Dear Brother, You are chosen, and set apart to be ordained to this Apostleship and this ministry. You shall go forth and preach the gospel and do a mighty work. You shall be sustained. The Holy spirit shall enlighten thy mind. Thou shalt travel from nation to nation. The Lord God shall preserve thee and return thee safe, with songs of everlasting joy upon thy head. The above was confirmed, by President David Whitmer

h The following Charge was given to the Twelve by President O. Cowdery.

Dear Brethren, previously to delivering the charge I shall read a part of a revelation. It is known to you that previous to the organizing of this church in 1830 The Lord gave revelations or the Church could not have been organized. The people of this Church were weak in faith compared with the ancients. Those who embarked in this cause, were desirous to know how the work was to be conducted. They read many things in the Book of Mormon, concerning their duty and the way the great work ought to be done; but the minds of men are so constructed, that they will not believe without a testimony of seeing or hearing. The Lord gave us a revelation, that in process of time there should be Twelve chosen to preach his gospel to Jew & Gentile. Our minds have been on a constant stretch to find who these Twelve were.

i When the time should come, we could not tell, but we sought the Lord by fasting and prayer, to have our lives prolonged to see this day, to see you, and to take a retrospect of the difficulties through which we have passed. but, having seen the day, it becomes my duty to deliver to you a charge. and first, a few remarks respecting your ministry. You have many Revelations put into your hands. Revelations to make you acquainted with the nature of your Mission. You will have difficulties by reason of your visiting all the nations of the world. You will need wisdom in a tenfold proportion to what you have ever had. You will have to combat all the prejudices of all nations. He then read Revelation, and proceeded to say, Have you desired this ministry with all your hearts, If you have desired it, you are called of God not of man, to go into all the world. He read again, from the Revelation, what the Lord said to the 12 Brethren, you have your duty presented in this revelation. You have been ordained to the Holy Priesthood, You have received it from those who had their power and authority from an angel.— You are to preach the gospel to every nation. should you in the least degree, come short of your duty, great will be your j condemnation. for the greater the calling, the greater the transgression. I, therefore, warn you to cultivate great humility, for I know the pride of the human heart. Beware, lest the flatterers of the world lift you up. Beware lest your affections are captivated by worldly objects. Let your ministry be first. Remember the souls of men are committed to your charge, and if you mind your calling you shall always prosper. You have been indebted to other men in the first instance for evidence, on that you have acted. But <it> is necessary that you receive a testimony from Heaven for yourselves, so that you can bear testimony to the truth of the Book of Mormon. And that you have seen the face of God: that is more than the testimony of an Angel. When the proper time arrives, you shall be able to bear this testimony to the world. When you bear testimony that you have seen God. This testimony God will never suffer to fall, but will bear you out. although many will not give heed, yet k others will. You will, therefore, see the necessity of getting this testimony from Heaven. Never cease striving until you have seen God, face to face. Strengthen your faith, cast off your doubts, your sins and all your unbelief and nothing can prevent you from coming to God. your ordination is not full and complete till God has laid his hand upon you. We require as much to qualify us as did those who have gone before us. God is the same. If the Saviour in former days laid his hands on his disciples. Why not in the latter Days. With regard to superiority I must make a few remarks. The ancient Apostles sought to be great. but, brethren, lest the seeds of discord be sown in this matter, understand particularly the voice of the spirit on this occasion. God does not love you better or more than others. You are to contend for the faith once delivered to the saints. Jacob, you know wrestled till he obtained. It was by fervent prayer and diligent search that you have obtained the testimony you are now able to bear. You are as one, you are equal in bearing the keys of the kingdom to all nations. You are called to preach the gospel of the son of God to the nations of the earth.

l It is the will of your Heavenly Father that you proclaim his gospel to the ends of the earth. and the Islands of the sea. Be zealous to save souls. The soul of one man is as precious as the soul of another. You are to bear this message to those who consider themselves wise. and such may persecute you, they may seek your life. The adversary has always sought the life of the servants of God. You are, therefore, to be prepared at all times to make a sacrifice of your lives, should God require them in the advancement and building up of his cause. Murmur not at God. Be always prayerful, be always watchful. You will bear with me while I relieve the feelings of my heart. We shall not see another day like this. The time has fully come; The voice of the spirit has come to set these men apart. You will see the time when you will desire to see such a day as this, and you will not see it. Every heart wishes you peace & prosperity. but the scene, with you, will inevitably change. Let no man take your bishopric, and beware that you lose not your crowns. It will require your whole souls. It will require courage like Enoch's.

- m The time is near when you will be in the midst of congregations, who will gnash their teeth upon you. This gospel must roll and will roll till it fill the whole Earth. Did I say congregations would gnash upon you, yea I say nations will gnash upon you. You will be considered the worst of Men. Be not discouraged at this, When God pours out his Spirit, the enemy will rage, but, God, remember is on your right hand and on your left. A man, though he may be considered the worst, has joy who is conscious that he pleases God. The lives of those who proclaim the true gospel will be in danger; this has been the case ever since the days of righteous Abel. The same opposition has been manifest whenever men came forward to publish the gospel. The time is coming when you will be considered the worst by many & by some the best of men. The time is coming when you will be perfectly familiar with the things of God. This testimony will make those who do not believe your testimony, seek your lives. But ~~their~~ there are whole nations, who will receive your testimony. They will call you good men. Be not lifted up when you are called good men. Remember you are young men, and you shall be spared, I include the other three. Bear them in mind in your prayers carry their cases to a throne of grace. Although they are not present, yet you and they are equal. This appointment is calculated to create an affection in you, for each other, stronger than death.
- n You will travel to other Nations, Bear each other in mind. If one or more is cast into prisons, let the others pray for him, and deliver him by their prayers. Your lives shall be in great jeopardy, but the promise of God, is that you shall be delivered. Remember you are not to go to other nations, till you receive your endowment. Tarry at Kirtland until you are endowed with power from on high. You need a fountain of wisdom, knowledge, and intelligence such as you never had. Relative to the endowment, I make a remark or two, that there be no mistake. The world cannot receive the things of God. He can endow you without wor[l]dly pomp or great parade. He can give you that wisdom, that intelligence and that power which characterized the ancient Saints and now ~~characterized~~ characterizes the inhabitants of the upper world. The greatness of your commission, consists in this; you are to hold the keys of this ministry. You are to go to the nations afar off; nations that sit in darkness. The [day] is coming when the work of God must be done. Israel shall be gathered, The seed of Jacob shall be gathered from their long dispersion. There will be a feast to Israel, the elect of God. It is a sorrowful tale but, the gospel must be preached and his <God's> ministers be rejected. but where can Israel be found, and receive your testimony, and not rejoice? No where. The Prophecies are full of great things that are to take place in the last days. After the Elect is gathered out, destruction shall come on the inhabitants of the Earth; All nations shall feel the wrath of God, after they have been warned by the saints of the Most High. If you will not warn them others will and you will lose your crowns. You must prepare your minds to bid a long farewell to Kirtland. even till the great day come. You will see what you never expected to see. You will need the mind of Enoch or Elijah & the faith of the brother of Jared.
- o You must be prepared to walk by faith, however, appalling the prospect to human view. You, and each of you should feel the force of the imperious mandate, "Son go labor in my vineyard" and cheerfully receive what comes, but in the end you will stand while others will fall. You have read in the Revelation concerning ordination. Beware how you ordain, for all nations are not like this nation. They will willingly receive the ordinances at your hand to put you out of the way. There will be times, when nothing but the angels of God can deliver you out of their hand. We appeal to your intelligence, we appeal to your understanding, that we have so far discharged our duty to you. We consider it one of the greatest condescensions of our Heavenly Father in pointing you out to us. You will be stewards over this ministry.
- p We have work to do, that no other men can do. You must proclaim the Gospel in its simplicity and purity. and we commend you to God and the word of his grace. You have our best wishes, you have our most fervent prayers, that you may be able to bear this testimony, that you have seen the face of God. Therefore, call upon him in faith and mighty prayer, till you prevail, for it <is> your duty and your privelege to bear such testimony for yourselves. We now exhort you to be faithful to fulfil your calling, there must be no lack here. You must fulfil in all things, and permit is us to repeat, all nations have a claim on you. You are bound together as the three witnesses were. You, notwithstanding can part & meet & meet and part again till your heads are silvered o[v]er with age.
- He then took them separately by the hand and said, Do you with full purpose of heart take part in this ministry, to proclaim the gospel with all diligence with these your brethren, according to the tenor and intent of the charge you have received, each of which answered in the affirmative.

Minutes and Discourses, 27 February 1835, as Reported by William E. McLellin

Print Sources

JSP	D4:247–252	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:198–200
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:205–207

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a February 27th. of the same year [1835] the Twelve met in Kirtland by request of President J. Smith Jr. After the council was opened by prayer, he arose and made the following observations, (Viz) "I have something to lay before this council, an item which they will find to be of great importance to them. I have for myself learned a fact by experience which on reflection gives me deep sorrow. It is a truth that if I now had in my possession every decision which has been given ~~had~~ upon important items of doctrine and duties since the rise of this church, they would be of incalculable worth to the saints, but we have neglected to keep record of such things, thinking that prehaps that they would never benefit us afterwards, wh[i]ch had we now, would decide almost any point that might be agitated; and now we cannot bear record to the church nor unto the world of the great and glorious manifestations that have been made to us with that degree of power and authority whi[c]h we otherwise could if we had those decisions to publish abroad.

Since the twelve are now chosen, I wish to tell them a course which they may pursue and be benefitted hereafter in a point of light of which they, prehaps, are not now aware. At all times when you assemble in the capacity of a council to transact business let the oldest of your number preside, and let one or more be appointed to keep a record of your proceedings and on the decision of every important item, be it what it may, let such decision be noted down, and they will ever after remain upon record as law, covenants and doctrine. Any Questions thus decided might at the time appear unimportant, but should they be recorded and one of you lay hands upon them afterward you might find them of infinite worth not only to your brethren but a feast als[o] to your own souls.

- b Should you assemble from time to time and proceed to discuss important questions and pass decisions upon them and omit to record such decisions, by and by, you will be driven to straits from which you will not be able to extricate yourselves— not being in a ~~sufficient~~ situation to bring your faith to bare with sufficient perfection or power to obtain the desired information. Now in consequence of a neglect to write these things when God reveals them, not esteeming them of sufficient worth the spirit may withdraw and God may be angry, and here is a fountain of intelligence or knowledge of infinite importance which is lost. What was the cause of this? The answer is slothfulness or a neglect to appoint a man to occupy a few moments in writing. Here let me prophecy the time will come when if you neglect to do this, you will fall by the hands of unrighteous men. Were you to be brought before the authorities and accused of any crime or misdemeanor and be as innocent as the angels of God unless you can prove that you were somewhere else, your enemies will prevail against you: but if you can bring twelve men to testify that you were in some other place at that time you will escape their hands. Now if you will be careful to keep minutes of these things as I have said, it will be one of the most important and interesting records ever seen. I have now laid these things before you for your consideration and you are left to act according to your own judgments."

- c The council then expressed their approbation of the foregoing remarks and proceeded to nominate and appoint Elders William [E.] McLellin and Orson Hyde to serve as clerks for the 'twelve'.

The following question was then proposed by president J Smith Jun. (viz) What importance is attached to the callings of these twelve apostles differrent from the other callings and offices of the chu[r]ch. After some discussion by Elders [David W.] Patten, [Brigham] Young, M'cLellin and W[illiam] Smith, the following decision was given by President Smith, the Prophet of God.

- d "They are the twelve apostles who are called to a travelling high council to preside over all the churches of the saints among the gentiles when there is no presidency established. They are to travel and preach among the Gentiles until the Lord shall shall command them to go to the Jews. They are to hold ~~this~~ the keys of this ministry— to unlock the door of the kingdom of heaven unto all nations and preach the Gospel unto every creation. This is the virtue powr and authority of their Apostleship— Amen. It is all important that the twelve should understand the power and authority of the priesthoods, for without this knowledge they can do nothing to profit. In the first place God manifested himself to me and gave me authority to establish his church, and you have received your authority from God through me; and now it is your duty to go and unlock the kingdom of heaven to foreign nations, for no man can do that thing but yourselves. Neither has any man authority or a right to go to other nations before you; and you, twelve, stand in the same relation to those nations that I stand in to you, that is, as a minister; and you have each the same authority in other nations that I have in this nation.["] The council was closed by Elder W. E. M'cLellin.

William E. M'cLellin} Clerk

Minutes and Discourses, 27 February 1835, as Reported by Oliver Cowdery

Print Sources

JSP	D4:252–254	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:198–200
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:205–207
TPJS	72–74

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

Kirtland Ohio Feb. 27th 1835

This evening a meeting of nine of the twelve of the Apostles, who had been chosen and ordained was held at the house of President Joseph Smith ^{Junr.} with Presidents Sidney Rigdon and Frederick G. Williams and certain others (Viz.) Bishop Newel K. Whitney & Elders John Smith, John Murdock and Even [Evan] M. Greene. It may be well to give, also, the names of those nine who were present. Lyman Johnson, Brigham Young, Heber C. Kimball, Orson Hyde, David W. Patten Luke Johnson, Wm. E. McLe[l]in, John F. Boynton & Wm. Smith. Parley P. Pratt had now gone to New-Portage and Orson Pratt & Thomas B. Marsh had not yet arrived to receive their ordination After the company were assembled, and the meeting opened by prayer of President J. Smith ^{Junr.} he (President Smith) arose and said, he had something to lay before the council, and he thought if he were heard patiently, he could lay before the council an item which they would [find] to be of importance. He had for himself, learned a fact, by experience, which on reflection, always gave him a deep sorrow. It is a fact (said President Smith) that if I now had in my possession, every decision which has been had, upon important items of doctrine and duties, which have been given since the commencement of this work, I would not part with it for any sum of money, but we have neglected to take minutes of such things, thinking, perhaps, that they would never benefit us afterward, which, had we now, would decide almost any point of doctrine, which might be agitated. but, this has been neglected and now we cannot bear record to the church, and to the world, of the great and glorious manifestations which have been made to us, with that degree of power and authority, we otherwise could, if we now had these things to publish abroad. Since the Twelve are now chosen, I wish to tell them a course <which> they may pursue, and be benefitted hereafter, in a point of light of which they are not now aware. If they will, on every time they assemble, appoint a person to preside <over> of over them during the meeting and one or more to keep a record of their proceedings, and on the decision of every question or item, let it be what it may, let such decision be noted down, such decision will forever remain upon record, and appear an item of covenant or doctrine. An item thus decided may appear at the time of little or no worth, but should it be published, and one of you lay hands on it after you will find of infinite worth, not only to your brethren, but it will be a feast to your own souls.

b

c

Here is another important item. If you assemble from time to time, and proceed to discuss important questions, and pass decisions upon the same, and fail to note them down, by & by you will be driven to straits, from which, you will not be able to extricate yourselves. because you may be in a situation not to bring your faith to bear with sufficient perfection or power to obtain the desired information, or perhaps, for neglecting to write these things, when God revealed them, not esteeming them of sufficient worth the spirit may withdraw and God may be angry, and here is or was a vast knowledge of infinite importance, which is now lost. What was the cause of this? It came in consequence of Slothfulness, or a neglect to appoint a man to occupy a few moments in writing all these decisions. Here let me prophesy. The time will come, when, if you neglect to do this thing, you will fall by the hands of unrighteous men. Were you to be brought before the authorities, and, be accused of any crime or Misdemeanor, and be as innocent as the Angels of God, unless you can prove yourselves to have been somewhere else, your enemies will prevail over you: but if you can bring twelve men to testify that you were in a certain place at that time, you will escape their hands. Now, if you will be careful to keep minutes of these things, as I have said, it will be one of the most important records ever seen; for every such decision will, ever after remain as items of doctrine and covenants. I have now placed before you these items, for your consideration, and you are left to act according to your own judgements. The council then expressed their approbation, concerning the foregoing remarks of President Smith, and proceeded to appoint Elders, Orson Hyde & Wm. E. McLelin, to serve as clerks for the meeting. After which the following question was proposed by President Smith (viz.) What importance is there attached to the calling of these twelve apostles different from the other callings or officces of the Church? After some discussion by elders, Patten Young, Wm. Smith & McLelin, President Smith gave the following decision. They are the Twelve Apostles, who are called to the office of traveling high council, who are to preside over all the churches of the Saints among the Gentiles, where there is no presidency established, and they are to travel and preach among the Gentiles, until the Lord shall command them to go to the Jews. They are to hold the keys of this ministry, to unlock the door of the kingdom of heaven unto all nations, and to preach the Gospel to every creature. This is the power, authority and virtue of their Apostleship. The meeting closed by President J. Smith ^{Jun^r} in Prayer

d

Oliver Cowdery Clerk.

Minutes, Discourse, and Blessings, 1 March 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D4:264–279	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:204
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:210

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

March 1st 1835

The council met this morning (Sabbath) to proceed with the ordination of the 70,¹ There being several who had been recently baptized present, and being expedient that they should be confirmed, and also that the sacrament should be administred to the Church, the business of ordination was suspended for a short time. President Joseph Smith Jun^r addressed the Church & the council and the church upon the propriety upon the propriety of attending to this ordinance with pure hearts, and pure desirles. He touched upon the propriety of this institution in the church & urged the vast importance of doing it with acceptance to the Lord, He asked how long do you suppose a man may partake of this ordinance unworthily and the Lord not withdraw his spirit from him? How long will he thus trifle with sacred things and the Lord not give him over to the buffittings of Satan until the day of Redemption? The church should know if they are unworthy, from time to time, to partake, The servants of the Lord will be forbidden to administer it. Therefore our heart ought ~~ought~~ to humble themselves, and we to repent of our sins, and put away evil from among us. some further remarks were made and the sacrament was then administred...

Minutes and Discourses, 7–8 March 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D4:279–287	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:205–208
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:211–215

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Kirtland March 7th 1835

This day a Meeting of the Church of Latter Day Saints was called in this place, for the purpose of blessing in the name of the Lord, those who have heretofore assisted in building, by their labor & other means, the house of the Lord in this place. The forenoon was occupied by Pr. J. Smith ^{Jun^r} in remarks to the Church, upon the propriety and necessity of purifying itself. In the P.M. the names of the several, those who had assisted to build the house were taken and further remarks were made by president J. Smith ^{Jun^r}. He said that those who had distinguished themselves Thus far by consecrating to the upbuilding of said house as well as laboring were to be remembered. That those who build it should own it, and have the control of it. After further remarks he proceeded to call a vote of those who had performed this labor, whether they would still go on and perform the remaining part of the same,

Passed by unanimous voice...

¹Note about all the blessings which occur in this meeting and in the previous one as well.

Minutes, 12 March 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D4:287–289	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:209
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:217

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Evening of March 12th. the twelve assembled and the counsel was opened by president J. Smith Jun. and he proposed that we take our first mission through the eastern States to the Atlantic Ocean and hold conferences in the vicinity of the several branches of the church for the purpose of regulateing all things necessary for their welfare. It was proposed that the twelve should leave Kirtland on the 4th. May which was unanimously agreed ~~too~~ to. It was then proposed that during their present mission, Elder B[ingham] Young should open a door to the remnants of Joseph who dwelt among the Gentiles which was carrid...

Minutes, 16 March 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D4:289–293	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

...A. High Council was called for church business.

...John Smith opened the case in few words stating that the matter being so intricate that he could not bring it as a charge against any one of these brethren particularly, and the brethren severally were called upon to make their own remarks. After this the counsellors severally spoke, and the complainant and the accused made their remarks, when the case was submitted, President Williams being short, President Rigdon spoke one hour When President J. Smith Jun^r proceeded to give decision After speaking to considerable extent said: The decision is, that brother Lyman as well as brother Cutler be rebuked and stand reproved, until they openly acknowledge before the church, that they have injured Elder Cahoon by speaking evil of his character, and conduct without any just ground or occasion, and that as Elder Cutler has heretofore declared before the Church, that he has not murmured nor complained, because he has not received pay for working on the house, to his satisfaction, and it is known to the contrary, that he be as frank in acknowledging this fact, as he has been in making the declaration. The vote was then taken and passed by unanimous voice, and the council closed by prayer of President S. Rigdon...

Minutes, 26 April 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D4:293–295	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:218–219
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:225

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Kirtland April 26, 1835.

This day, pursuant to previous appointment, the Twelve Apostles and the Seventy (a part of whom had already been chosen,) assembled in the temple (altho unfinished.) with a numerous concourse of people in order to receive our charge and instructions from President Joseph Smith Jun relative to our mission and duties...

Blessing to Thomas B. Marsh, 26 April 1835

Print Sources

JSP	— ¹	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Thomas B. Marsh's Blessing by O. Cowdery Dear Brother, You are to be a minister of righteousness and to this ministry and Apostleship you are now to be ordained: and May all temporal and spiritual blessings attend you. Your sins are forgiven you, and you are to go forth and preach the everlasting Gospel. You shall travel from kingdom to kingdom and from nation to nation. Angels shall bear the[e] up, and thou shalt be instrumental in bringing thousands of the redeemed of the Lord to Zion. President David Whitmer sealed the above blessing upon him, even so Amen.²

Blessing to Orson Pratt, 26 April 1835

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Orson Pratt's blessing.

Dear Brother, You are chosen, and set apart to be ordained to this Apostleship and this ministry. You shall go forth and preach the gospel and do a mighty work. You shall be sustained. The Holy spirit shall enlighten thy mind. Thou shalt travel from nation to nation. The Lord God shall preserve thee and return thee safe, with songs of everlasting joy upon thy head. The above was confirmed, by President David Whitmer

²Connected this blessing and the next one to OP back to the others that happened earlier in the year.

Minutes and Discourse, 2 May 1835, as Reported by William E. McLellin–A

Print Sources

JSP	D4:299–306	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:219–222
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:225–228
TPJS	74–76

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Kirtland May 2^d– 1835
- According to appointment the Presidency, the Twelve a part of the Seventy, and some other Elders of the church met in conference this morning in order to consult the affairs of the church. &c. Conference was opened by Elder Brigham Young by prayer. President J. Smith Jun^r presiding. After conference was opened and the Twelve took their seats. he stated that it would be the duty of the twelve to appoint the oldest one of their number to preside in their councils, beginning at the oldest and so on until the youngest has presided and then beginning at the oldest again. &c. The Twelve took their seats regularly according to their ages as follows. T[homas] B. Marsh David W. Patten. Brigham Young, Heber C. Kimball Orson Hyde, Wm. E. M^cLel[l]in Parley P. Pratt J[ohn] F. Boynton Luke Johnson William Smith Orson Pratt John F. Boynton & Lyman Johnson. The president then stated that the Twelve will have no right to go into Zion or any of its stakes and there undertake to regulate the affairs thereof where there is a standing High Council. But it is their duty to go abroad and regulate all matters relative to the different branches of the Church. When the Twelve are together, or a quorum of them in any Church, they will have authority to act independently and make decisions, and those decisions, and those decisions are valid. But where
- b there is not a quorum they will have to do business by the voice of the Church. No standing high council has authority his to go into the churches abroad and regulate the matters thereof, for this belongs to the Twelve. No High Council will ever be established only in Zion or one of its Stakes. When the twelve pass a decision it is in the name of the church, Therefore, it is valid. No individual has a right to go into any church and ordain any minister for the Church, unless it is by the Voice of the Church. No Elder has a right to go into any branch of the church and appoint meetings or regulate the Church without the consent or advic[e] of the presiding Elder of said branch. If the first Seventy are all occupied, and there is a call for more laborers it will be the duty of the seven presidents of the first seventy to call and ordain other Seventy and send them forth to labor, in the vineyard until if need be they set a part apart seven times Seventy, even until there shall be one hundred & forty and four thousand. The Seventy are not to attend the conferences of the Twelve unless they are called upon or requested to by the Twelve. The twelve and the Seventy have particularly to depend upon their Ministry for their support and that of their families, and they have a right by virtue of their offices to call upon the Church to assist them...
- c ...The Elders of Kirtland and its vicinity were next called upon, or their circumstances were considered. Their names being enrolled. President J. Smith Jun^r arose with the list in his hands and made some very appropriate remarks, relative to the deliverance of Zion and so much of the Authority being present, he moved that we never give up the struggle for Zion, even until Death. or until Zion is Redeemed. The vote was unanimous and with apparent deep feeling. Voted that all the Elders of the Church are bound to travel in the World to preach the gospel with all their might mind & Strength when their circumstances will admit of it, and that the door is now opened. Motioned, seconded & voted that Elder Brigham Youngs, John P. Green[e] & Amos Orton are appointed to go and preach the gospel to the remnants of Joseph. <the door to be opened by> Motioned, seconded & voted Elder B. Young and this will open a door to all the house of Joseph...

Minutes and Discourse, 2 May 1835, as Reported by William E. McLellin–B

Print Sources

JSP	D4:306–308	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:219–222
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:225–228
TPJS	74–76

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a ...In the midst of this grand assemblage, President J Smith Jun arose and made many remarks, among which were the following. “It will be the duty of the twelve when in council to take their seats together according to their ages. The oldest to be seated at the head, and preside in the first council, the next oldest in the second; and so on until the youngest has presided”.

The twelve Apostles have no right to go into Zion or any of its stakes where there is a regular high council established, to regulate any matters pertaining thereunto: But it is their duty to go abroad and regulate and set in order all matters relative to the different branches of this church of the Latter Day Saints.

When the twelve are all together or a quorum of them in any church, they have authority to act independently of the church and form decisions and those decisions will be valid; but when there is not a quorum of them together, they must transact business by the common consent of the church.

- b No standing hig[h] council has authority to go into the churches abroad and regulate the matters thereof, for this belongs to the Twelve.

No standing high council will ever be established except in Zion or one of its stakes.

When the Twelve pass a decision, it is in the name of the church, therefore, it is valid.

No official member of the church has authority to go into any branch thereof and ordain any minister for the church unless it is by the voice of that branch. No elder has authority to go into any branch of the church and appoint meetings or attempt to regulate the affairs of the church without the advice and consent of the presiding Elder of that branch.

If the first seventy are all employed and there is a call for more labourers in the vineyard it will be the the duty of the seven presidents of the first seventy to call and ordain other seventy and send them forth to labour until, if need be, they set apart seven times seventy, and even until there are one hundred and forty & four thousand thus set apart to the ministry. The seventy are not to attend the conferences of the Twelve, unless they are called upon or requested so to do by the twelve.

The twelve and the seventy have particula[r]ly to depend upon their ministry for their support and that of their families, and they have a right by virtue of their offices to call upon the churches to assist them.

Resolved in this grand Council; That we never give up the struggle for Zion until it is redeemed altho’. we should die in the contest. The vote was unanimous of all that were in the house.

W. E. Mc.Lellin} Clerk

Instruction on Priesthood, between circa 1 March and circa 4 May 1835 [D&C 107]

Print Sources

JSP	D4:308–321	JSR	267–273
DC	Section 107	HC	2:210–217
HDDC	1398–1432	TCHC	2:218–222

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

SECTION III.
ON PRIESTHOOD.

1 There are, in the church, two priesthoods, namely: the Melchizedek, and the Aaronic, including the Levitical priesthood. Why the first is called the Melchizedek priesthood, is because Melchizedek was such a great high priest: before his day it was called the holy priesthood, after the order of the Son of God; but out of respect or reverence to the name of the Supreme Being, to avoid the too frequent repetition of his name, they, the church, in ancient days, called that priesthood after Melchizedek, or the Melchizedek priesthood.

2 All other authorities, or offices in the church are appendages to this priesthood; but there are two divisions, or grand heads—one is the Melchizedek priesthood, and the other is the Aaronic, or Levitical priesthood.

3 The office of an elder comes under the priesthood of Melchizedek. The Melchizedek priesthood holds the right of presidency, and has power and authority over all the offices in the church, in all ages of the world, to administer in spiritual things.

4 The presidency of the high priesthood, after the order of Melchizedek, have a right to officiate in all the offices in the church.

5 High priests, after the order of the Melchizedek priesthood, have a right to officiate in their own standing, under the direction of the presidency, in administering spiritual things, and also in the office of an elder, priest, (of the Levitical order,) teacher, deacon and member.

6 An elder has a right to officiate in his stead when the high priest is not present.

7 The high priest, and elder, are to administer in spiritual things, agreeably to the covenants and commandments of the church; and they have a right to officiate in all these offices of the church when there are no higher authorities present.

8 The second priesthood is called the priesthood of Aaron, because it was conferred upon Aaron and his seed, throughout all their generations. Why it is called the lesser priesthood, is because it is an appendage to the greater, or the Melchizedek priesthood, and has power in administering outward ordinances. The bishopric is the presidency of this priesthood and holds the keys, or authority of the same. No man has a legal right to this office, to hold the keys of this priesthood, except he be a literal descendant of Aaron. But as a high priest, of the Melchizedek priesthood, has authority to officiate in all the lesser offices, he may officiate in the office of bishop when no literal descendant of Aaron can be found; provided he is called and set apart and ordained unto this power by the hands of the presidency of the Melchizedek priesthood.

9 The power and authority of the higher or Melchizedek priesthood, is to hold the keys of all the spiritual blessings of the church—to have the privilege of receiving the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven—to have the heavens opened unto them—to commune with the general assembly and church of the first born, and to enjoy the communion and presence of God the Father, and Jesus the Mediator of the new covenant.

10 The power and authority of the lesser, or Aaronic priesthood, is, to hold the keys of the ministring of angels, and to administer in outward ordinances—the letter of the gospel—the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins, agreeably to the covenants and commandments.

11 Of necessity there are presidents, or presiding offices growing out of, or appointed of, or from among those who are ordained to the several offices in these two priesthoods. Of the Melchizedek priesthood, three presiding high priests, chosen by the body, appointed and ordained to that office, and upheld by the confidence, faith and prayer of the church, form a quorum of the presidency of the church. The twelve travelling counsellors are called to be the twelve apostles, or special witnesses of the name of Christ, in all the world: thus differing from other officers in the church in the duties of their calling. And they form a quorum equal in authority and power to the three presidents, previously mentioned. The seventy are also called to preach the gospel, and to be especial witnesses unto the Gentiles and in all the world. Thus differing from other officers in the church in the duties of their calling: and they form a quorum equal in authority to that of the twelve especial witnesses or apostles, just named. And every decision made by either of these quorums, must be by the unanimous voice of the same; that is, every member in each quorum must be agreed to its decisions in order to make their decisions of the same power or validity one with the other. -[A majority may form a quorum when circumstances render it impossible to be otherwise.]- Unless this is the case, their decisions are not entitled to the same blessings which the decisions of a quorum of three presidents were anciently, who were ordained after the order of Melchizedek, and were righteous and holy men. The decisions of these quorums, or either of them are to be made in all righteousness; in holiness and lowliness of heart; meekness and long suffering; and in faith and virtue and knowledge; temperance, patience, godliness brotherly kindness and charity, because the promise is, if these things abound in them, they shall not be unfruitful in the knowledge of the Lord. And in case that any decision, of these quorums, is made in unrighteousness, it may be brought before a general assembly of the several quorums which constitute the spiritual authorities of the church, otherwise there can be no appeal from their decision.

12 The twelve are a travelling, presiding high council, to officiate in the name of the Lord, under the direction of the presidency of the church, agreeably to the institution of heaven; to build up the church, and regulate all the affairs of the same, in all nations: first unto the Gentiles, and secondly unto the Jews.

13 The seventy are to act in the name of the Lord, under the direction of the twelve, or the travelling high council, in building up the church and regulating all the affairs of the same, in all nations: first unto the Gentiles and then to the Jews:—the twelve being sent out, holding the keys, to open the door by the proclamation of the gospel of Jesus Christ; and first unto the Gentiles and then unto the Jews.

14 The standing high councils, at the stakes of Zion, form a quorum equal in authority, in the affairs of the church, in all their decisions, to the quorum of the presidency, or to the travelling high council.

15 The high council in Zion, forms a quorum equal in authority, in the affairs of the church, in all their decisions, to the councils of the twelve at the stakes of Zion.

16 It is the duty of the travelling high council to call upon the seventy, when they need assistance, to fill the several calls for preaching and administering the gospel, in stead of any others.

17 It is the duty of the twelve in all large branches of the church, to ordain evangelical ministers, as they shall be designated unto them by revelation.

18 The order of this priesthood was confirmed to be handed down from father to son, and rightly belongs to the literal descendants of the chosen seed, to whom the promises were made. This order was instituted in the days of Adam, and came down by lineage in the following manner:

19 From Adam to Seth, who was ordained by Adam at the age of 69 years, and was blessed by him three years previous to his (Adam's) death, and received the promise of God by his father, that his posterity should be the chosen of the Lord, and that they should be preserved unto the end of the earth, because he -[Seth]- was a perfect man, and his likeness was the express likeness of his father's, insomuch that he seemed to be like unto his father in all things; and could be distinguished from him only by his age.

20 Enos was ordained at the age of 134 years, and four months, by the hand of Adam.

21 God called upon Cainan in the wilderness, in the fortieth year of his age, and he met Adam in journeying to the place Shedolamak: he was eighty seven years old when he received his ordination.

22 Mahalaeel was 496 years and seven days old when he was ordained by the hand of Adam, who also blessed him.

23 Jared was 200 years old when he was ordained under the hand of Adam, who also blessed him.

24 Enoch, was 25 years old when he was ordained under the hand of Adam, and he was 65 and Adam blessed him—and he saw the Lord: and he walked with him, and was before his face continually: and he walked with God 365 years: making him 430 years old when he was translated.

25 Methuselah was 100 years old when he was ordained under the hand of Adam.

26 Lamech was 32 years old when he was ordained under the hand of Seth.

27 Noah was 10 years old when he was ordained under the hand of Methuselah.

28 Three years previous to the death of Adam, he called Seth, Enos, Cainan, Mahalaleel, Jared, Enoch and Methuselah, who were all high priests, with the residue of his posterity, who were righteous, into the valley of Adam-ondi-ahman, and there bestowed upon them his last blessing. And the Lord appeared unto them, and they rose up and blessed Adam, and called him Michael, the Prince, the Archangel. And the Lord administered comfort unto Adam, and said unto him, I have set thee to be at the head: a multitude of nations shall come of thee; and thou art a prince over them for ever.

29 And Adam stood up in the midst of the congregation, and notwithstanding he was bowed down with age, being full of the Holy Ghost, predicted whatsoever should befall his posterity unto the latest generation. These things were all written in the book of Enoch, and are to be testified of in due time.

30 It is the duty of the twelve, also, to ordain and set in order all the other officers of the church, agreeably to the revelation which says:

31 To the church of Christ in the land of Zion, in addition to the church laws, respecting church business: Verily, I say unto you, says the Lord of hosts, There must needs be presiding elders, to preside over those who are of the office of an elder; and also priests, to preside over those who are of the office of a priest; and also teachers to preside over those who are of the office of a teacher, in like manner; and also the deacons: wherefore, from deacon to teacher, and from teacher to priest, and from priest to elder, severally as they are appointed, according to the covenants and commandments of the church; then comes the high priesthood, which is the greatest of all. Wherefore, it must needs be that one be appointed, of the high priesthood, to preside over the priesthood; and he shall be called president of the high priesthood of the church, or, in other words, the presiding high priest over the high priesthood of the church. From the same comes the administering of ordinances and blessings upon the church, by the laying on of the hands.

32 Wherefore the office of a bishop is not equal unto it; for the office of a bishop is in administering all temporal things: nevertheless, a bishop must be chosen from the high priest hood, unless he is a literal descendant of Aaron; for unless he is a literal descendant of Aaron he cannot hold the keys of that priesthood. Nevertheless, a high priest, that is after the order of Melchizedek, may be set apart unto the ministering of temporal things, having a knowledge of them by the Spirit of truth, and also to be a judge in Israel, to do the business of the church to sit in judgment upon transgressors, upon testimony, as it shall be laid before him, according to the laws, by the assistance of his counsellors, whom he has chosen, or will chose among the elders of the church. This is the duty of a bishop who is not a literal descendant of Aaron, but has been ordained to the high priesthood after the order of Melchizedek.

33 Thus shall he be a judge, even a common judge among the inhabitants of Zion, or in a stake of Zion, or in any branch of the church where he shall be set apart unto this ministry, until the borders of Zion are enlarged, and it becomes necessary to have other bishops, or judges in Zion, or elsewhere: and inasmuch as there are other bishops appointed they shall act in the same office.

34 But a literal descendant of Aaron has a legal right to the presidency of this priesthood, to the keys of this ministry, to act in the office of bishop independently, without counsellors, except in a case where a president of the high priesthood, after the order of Melchizedek, is tried; to sit as a judge in Israel.—And the decision of either of these councils, agreeably to the commandment which says;

35 Again, verily, I say unto you: The most important business of the church, and the most difficult cases of the church, inasmuch as there is not satisfaction upon the decision of the bishop, or judges, it shall be handed over and carried up unto the council of the church, before the presidency of the high priesthood; and the presidency of the council of the high priesthood shall have power to call other high priests, even twelve, to assist as counsellors; and thus the presidency of the high priesthood, and its counsellors shall have power to decide upon testimony according to the laws of the church. And after this decision it shall be had in remembrance no more before the Lord; for this is the highest council of the church of God, and a final decision upon controversies, in spiritual matters.

36 There is not any person belonging to the church, who is exempt from this council of the church.

37 And inasmuch as a president of the high priesthood shall transgress, he shall be had in remembrance before the common council of the church, who shall be assisted by twelve counsellors of the high priesthood; and their decision upon his head shall be an end of controversy concerning him. Thus, none shall be exempted from the justice and the laws of God; that all things may be done in order and in solemnity, before him, according to truth and righteousness.

38 And again, verily I say unto you, the duty of a president over the office of a deacon, is to preside over twelve deacons, to sit in council with them, and to teach them their duty—edifying one another, as it is given according to the covenants.

39 And also the duty of the president over the office of the teachers, is to preside over twenty four of the teachers, and to sit in council with them—teaching them the duties of their office, as given in the covenants.

40 Also the duty of the president over the priesthood of Aaron, is to preside over forty eight priests, and sit in council with them, to teach them the duties of their office, as is given in the covenants. This president is to be a bishop; for this is one of the duties of this priesthood.

41 Again, the duty of the president over the office of elders is to preside over ninety six elders, and to sit in council with them, and to teach them according to the covenants. This presidency is a distinct one from that of the seventy, and is designed for those who do not travel into all the world.

42 And again, the duty of the president of the office of the high priesthood is to preside over the whole church, and to be like unto Moses. Behold, here is wisdom—yea, to be a seer, a revelator, a translator and a prophet—having all the gifts of God which he bestows upon the head of the church.

43 And it is according to the vision, showing the order of the seventy, that they should have seven presidents to preside over them, chosen out of the number of the seventy, and the seventh president of these presidents is to preside over the six; and these seven presidents are to choose other seventy besides the first seventy, to whom they belong, and are to preside over them; and also other seventy until seven times seventy, if the labor in the vineyard of necessity requires it. And these seventy are to be travelling ministers unto the Gentiles, first, and also unto the Jews, whereas other offices of the church who belong not unto the twelve neither to the seventy, are not under the responsibility to travel among all nations, but are to travel as their circumstances shall allow, notwithstanding they may hold as high and responsible offices in the church.

44 Wherefore, now let every man learn his duty, and to act in the office in which he is appointed, in all diligence. He that is slothful shall not be counted worthy to stand, and he that learns not his duty and shows himself not approved, shall not be counted worthy to stand; even so. Amen.

Letters to John Burk, Sally Waterman Phelps, and Almira Mack Scobey, 1–2 June 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D4:326–339	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:228–231
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:234
TPJS	76–78

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a According to the order of the kingdom begun in the last days, to prepare men for the rest of the Lord, the elders in Zion or <in> her immediate region have no authority, nor right to meddle [meddle] with her affairs to regulate, or even hold any courts. The high council has been organized expressly <to> administer ~~over~~ <in> all her spiritual affairs; And the bishop and his council are set over her temporal matters: so thus the elders' acts are null and void: Now the Lord wants the tares and wheat to grow to gether <while ~~and~~ in an organized states,>; Zion must be redeemed with Judgments and her Converts by righteousness: Every elder that can, after he has provided for his family (if any he has) and paid his debts must go forth and clear his skirts from the blood of this generation: while they are there, instead of holding courts to stop communion, or any thing <else,> let every one labor to bind up the broken hearted; reclaim the wanderer, and persuade back into the Kingdom, such as have been cut off. by encouraging <them> to lay to and work righteousness, and prepare with one heart and one mind to redeem Zion, that goodly land of promise, where the willing and the obedient shall be blessed. Souls are as precious in the sight of God as they ever were, and the elders were never called to drive any down to hell, but entice <invite> and persuade men every where to repent— It is the acceptable year of the Lord. The priests too, should not be <idle> their duties are plain and unless <they> do them, they can not expect to be approved. Righteousness must govern the saints in all things, and <when> the new covenants come forth the priests will learn that great <things> may be expected <at> their hands.
- b The Teachers and Deacons are the standing ministers of the church, and in the absence of other officers, they will have great things required at their hands— They must strengthen the members;— persuade such as are out of the way to repent, and meekly urge and persuade every one to forgive each other all their trespasses, offences, and sins; Bear and forbear one with another, brethren, for so God does with us. Cease to find fault and learn to do well: Pray <for> your enemies in the church, and curse not <your> foes <with>out: for vengeance belongs to God. Know you not, that “there is more Joy in heaven over One sinner that repents, than ~~over~~ there is oever <ninety> nine Just persons, that need no repentance!” Strive not about the mysteries of the kingdom; to one is given the word of wisdom; to another the power of healing difficulties: To every officer we say be merciful and you shall find mercy. Your Brethren, who leave their families and go forth to warn the present generation of the great things to <come>, expect great things of those who enjoy the society of the sain[ts] and their families— They pray that they may be very prayerful and very humble, ~~will working~~ diligently ~~for~~ spiritually <&> temporally for the redemption of Zion, when all the pure in heart can return with songs, of everlasting Joy, to enjoy the good of the land of Zion: Brethren, in the name of Jesus we entreat you to live worthy of the blessing which shall <be> heired [inherited] by the faithful after Zion is redeemed.
- c To Elder Lyman Wight: The Lord is not pleased with him because he did not come to Kirtland as is manifest to the Council: The Council fear, that in consequence of self sufficiency and self knowledge, which hertofore at times headed our worthy brother aside from the strict principles of <the gospel of> our Lord Jesus Christ, unless he goes forth into the vineyard, and magnifies his calling according to the commandment, satan will sift him as chaff. Let him be reminded that it is necessary for him to repent, and humble himself before God and go about his master's business; and let those who have been appointed, whose appointments have been sanctioned by the voice of the church regulate the affairs of Zion, Lest he that puts his hand forth to steady the ark, be made an ensample, as was Uzzah in the ~~David~~ Days of David...
- ¹...Brother W. W Phelps has left a little space for me to occupy and I gladly improve it, I would be glad to see the children of Zion and del[i]ver the <word> of Eternal <life> to them from my own mouth but cannot this year nevertheless the day will come that I shall enjoy this privilege I trust. and we all shall receive an inheritance in the land of refuge which is so much to be desired seeing it is under the direction of the Allmighty therefore let us live faithful before the Lord and it shall be well with us I feel for all the Children of Zion and pray for them in all my prayers peace be multiplied unto their redemption and favor from God Amen

Joseph Smith Jr²

Letter to Church Brethren, 15 June 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D4:345–347	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

¹In the Phelps part of this letter, note that he says, “President Smith preached last Sabbath, and I gave him the text: ‘This is my beloved Son; hear ye him!’ He preached one of the greatest sermons I ever heard— it was about 3½ hours long— and unfolded more mysteries than I can write at this time.”

²These bits written in JS's hand.

Original Source

Text

Kirtland June 15, 1835

Dear brethren in the Lord,

I send you my love and warmest wishes for your prosperity in the great cause of our Redeemer.

We are now commencing to prepare and print the New Translation, together with all the revelations which God has been pleased to give us in these last days, and as we are in want of funds to go on with so great and glorious a work, brethren <we> want you should donate and loan us all the means or money you can that we may be enable[d] to accomplish the work as a great means towards the salvation of Men.

My love to my relatives &c your brother in the bonds of the New Covenant.

Joseph Smith Jr

Ordination and Blessing of Cyrus Smalling, 30 June 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D4:349–353	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

[Cyrus Smalling] ordination blessing which he received under the hands of presidents Joseph Smith, jr. Oliver Cowdery and Sidney Rigdon, in Kirtland, Geauga County; Ohio, June 30, 1835, when he was set apart by prophecy to the apostleship of the first Seventy, in the place of Ezra Thayer, who had left the Church and the apostleship.

Brother [Smalling] in the name of the Lord Jesus we lay our hands upon you, and ordain you to be one of the first Seventy, and to stand in the office of elder Ezra Thayer, who by transgression fell, for thou, by the prayer of faith, has obtained his mission and taken his bishopric. We therefore set thee apart for this mission and ministry, to preach the gospel and testify to this generation of the things which thou hast seen and heard. In the name of the Lord, therefore, thou Shalt go forth, and his angel shall go with thee whithersoever thou goest; for thou shalt go and nothing shall stay thee. Thou shalt preach to nations that thou knowest not of at this time: thou shalt go to the islands of the seas. When thy locks shall be silvered over with age, thou shalt be renewed that thou shalt receive again the vigor of thy youth and yet stand before the Kings of the earth, if thou desirest it. Thou shalt be a witness for the Lord of the things that thou Knowest until the Lord comes in his glory, and thou shalt see him with thine eyes in the flesh;— for the desire of thy heart, in righteousness, shall be granted. Thou shalt go to Europe and preach the gospel to the Kings of the earth. Thou shalt stand before bishops, archbishops and lord bishops, and even the pope himself. Thou shalt push together thy thousands: thou shalt proclaim to Catholics, to Presbyterians and all other sects and denominations, and teach bishops, archbishops and popes. Thou shalt be changed in the twinkling of an eye,— and many other blessings that we cannot describe, which the Lord will show thee. Thou art of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. In the name of Jesus we seal these blessings upon thy head through thy diligence, faithfulness, prayer of faith and holy desires; even so. Amen.

Wm. W. Phelps,)

Clerks.

John Whitmer,)

{Recorded in this book Dec. 21,1835, Oliver Cowdery Recorder.}

Revelation, circa June 1835 [D&C 68]

Print Sources

JSP	D4:354-359	JSR	—
DC	Section 68	HC	1:227-229
HDDC	853-865	TCHC	1:158-160

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

REVELATIONS.

A Revelation, given November, 1831, to Orson Hyde, Luke Johnson, Lyman Johnson and William E. McLellin. The mind and will of the Lord, as made known by the voice of the Spirit to a conference concerning certain elders: and also certain items, as made known, in addition to the covenants and commandments:—

My servant, Orson Hyde, was called, by his ordinance, to proclaim the everlasting gospel, by the spirit of the living God, from people to people, and from land to land, in the congregations of the wicked, in their synagogues, reasoning with and expounding all scriptures unto them: And behold and lo, this is an ensample unto all those who were ordained unto this priesthood, whose mission is appointed unto them to go forth: And this is the ensample unto them, that they shall speak as they are moved upon by the Holy Ghost; and whatsoever they shall speak, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost, shall be scripture; shall be the will of the Lord; shall be the mind of the Lord; shall be the word of the Lord; shall be the voice of the Lord, and the power of God unto salvation; Behold this is the promise of the Lord unto you, O ye my servants: wherefore, be of good cheer, and do not fear, for I the Lord am with you, and will stand by you; and ye shall bear record of me even Jesus Christ, that I am the Son of the living God; that I was; that I am; and that I am to come. This is the word of the Lord unto you my servant, Orson Hyde; and also unto my servant, Luke Johnson, and unto my servant, Lyman Johnson, and unto my servant William E. McLellin; and unto all the faithful elders of my church: Go ye into all the world; preach the gospel to every creature; acting in the authority which I have given you; baptizing in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; and he that believeth, and is baptized, shall be saved, and he that believeth not shall be damned; and he that believeth shall be blessed with signs following, even as it is written: And unto you it shall be given to know the signs of the times, and the signs of the coming of the Son of man; and of as many as the Father shall bear record, to you it shall be given power to seal them up unto eternal life: Amen.

And now concerning the items in addition to the covenants and commandments, they are these; there remaineth hereafter, in the due time of the Lord, other bishops to be set apart unto the church to minister even according to the first: Wherefore they shall be high priests who are worthy, and they shall be appointed by the first presidency of the Melchisedek priesthood, except they be literal descendants of Aaron; and if they be literal descendants of Aaron, they have a legal right to the bishopric, if they are the first born among the sons of Aaron: for the first born holds the right of presidency over this priesthood, and the keys or authority of the same. No man has a legal right to this office, to hold the keys of this priesthood, except he be a literal descendant and the first born of Aaron: but as a high priest of the Melchizedek priesthood, has authority to officiate in all the lesser offices, he may officiate in the office of bishop when no literal descendant of Aaron can be found; provided he is called and set apart, and ordained unto this power under the hands of the first presidency of the Melchizedek priesthood. And a literal descendant of Aaron, also, must be designated by this presidency, and found worthy, and anointed, and ordained under the hands of this presidency, otherwise they are not legally authorized to officiate in their priesthood: but by virtue of the decree concerning their right of the priesthood descending from father to son, they may claim their anointing, if at any time they can prove their lineage, or do ascertain it by revelation from the Lord under the hands of the above named presidency.

And again, no bishop or high priest, who shall be set apart for this ministry, shall be tried or condemned for any crime save it be before the first presidency of the church; and inasmuch as he is found guilty before this presidency, by testimony that cannot be impeached, he shall be condemned, and if he repents he shall be forgiven, according to the covenants and commandments of the church.

And again, inasmuch as parents have children in Zion, or in any of her stakes which are organized, that teach them not to understand the doctrine of repentance; faith in Christ the Son of the living God; and of baptism and the gift of the Holy Ghost by the laying on of the hands, when eight years old: the sin be upon the head of the parents, for this shall be a law unto the inhabitants of Zion, or in any of her stakes which are organized, and their children shall be baptized for the remission of their sins when eight years old, and receive the laying on of the hands: and they shall also teach their children to pray, and to walk uprightly before the Lord. And the inhabitants of Zion shall also observe the Sabbath day to keep it holy. And the inhabitants of Zion, also, shall remember their labors, inasmuch as they are appointed to labor, in all faithfulness, for the idler shall be had in remembrance before the Lord. Now I the Lord am not well pleased with the inhabitants of Zion, for there are idlers among them; and their children are also growing up in wickedness: They also seek not earnestly the riches of eternity, but their eyes are full of greediness. These things ought not to be, and must be done away from among them: wherefore let my servant Oliver Cowdery, carry these sayings unto the land of Zion. And a commandment I give unto them, that he that observeth not his prayers before the Lord in the season thereof, let him be had in remembrance before the judge of my people. These sayings are true and faithful: wherefore transgress them not, neither take therefrom. Behold I am Alpha and Omega, and I come quickly: Amen.

Minutes, 14 July 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D4:365–368	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:236–237
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:240–241

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

...President J. Smith Jun^r addressed the council in points of duty such as observing covenants &c. President Smith testified to the truth of the above covenant. President O. Cowdery testified that he himself framed the above covenant...

Letter to Sally Waterman Phelps, 20 July 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D4:368–371	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Sister [Sally Waterman] phelps, as Brother [William W.] phelps has given me an oportunity in his paper letter, I gladly improve it, how far it may be to your edification I know not, but trust you will reciev[e] it in a maner that shall answer my intention in so doing— for my intention is to give you a word of consolation to streng[th]en you in the absence of your most worthy Companion; and— husband whose Merits and experiance and acquirements, but few can compete with in this generation and fewer I fear will ever appretiate the worth of such men; men upon whom God, in his wi[s]dom hath
- b bestowed gifts, that duly qualify them to lead men in the way of life and salvation. I consider in some degree how great a trial you must have in this seperation, but I think I may safely say, that you may rest with a firm reliance that God will so order it that you may not be seperated only but for a short season, and then <your joy will be full,> and if faithful <he will> return and teach you things that have been hid from the wise and prudent, hidden things of old times, as Moses said in Deut. 33^d <chap> 19th verse for they shall suck of the abundance of [the] [se]as and of the treasures hid in the sand. Some of the[se] things have begun [to] come forth therefore Lift up your heart and be glad; be comforted be faithful: pray in faith; and in fine say to all the saints in Zion as the Lord God liveth the redemption of Zion is nigh at hand, and we shall live to see it

J. Sm[i]th Jr...

Letter to Quorum of the Twelve, 4 August 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D4:371–378	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:240–241
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:245–246

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a ...We further inform the twelve, that as far as we can learn from the churches through which you have traveled, that you have set yourselves up as an independant counsel subject to no authority of the church— a kind of out laws. This impression is wrong, and will if presisted in, bring down the wrath and indignation upon your heads. The other ten are directed to proceed on and finish the conferences, and the two may act their own Judgment, whether to proceed or return...
- ...We wish you to understand, that your duty requires you to seek first the kingdom of Heaven and its righteousness, that is— attend to the first things first, and then all things will be added, and that complaint about your families will be less frequent—22 Dont preach yourselves crucified for your wives sake, but remembr that Christ was crucified, and you are sent out to be special witnesses of this thing. Men do not wish to hear these little things, for there is no salvation in them, but there is in the other.
- b Let the hands of the ten be strengthened, and let them go forth in the name of the Lord, in the power of their mission, giving diligent heed to the direction of the Holy Spirit— we say, be strong in the Lord and in the power of his might, for great things await you, and great blessings are in store for you. Let the power of the two be upon the seventy until the two make full satisfaction; for the seventy shall be blessed and are blessed. That man who presumes to speak evil of the dignities which God has set in his church, to his family, or to any body else, shall be cursed in his generation. Remember the 109 Psalm His bishopric shall be taken from him unless he speedily repents. Be it known that God is God and when he speaks let all the congregation say: Amen...

Letter to Church Officers in Clay County, Missouri, 31 August 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D4:399–407	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
TPJS	78–79

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Kirtland Aug. 31, 1835.
- The Presidency of Kirtland and Zion say that the Lord has manifested by revelation of his spirit that the high preeist, teachers, Priests and deacons, or in other words all the officers in the land of Clay Co. Mo. belonging to the church are more or less in transgression, because they have not enjoyed the Spirit of God sufficiently to be able to comprehend their duties respecting themselves, and the welfare of Zion. Thereby having been left to act, in a manner that is detrimental to the interest, and also a hindrance, to the redemption of Zion.
- b Now if they will be wise, they will humble themselves in a peculiar manner that God may open the eyes of their understanding, It will be clearly manifest that the design and purposes of the Almighty; are with regard to them and the children of Zion: that they should let the high counsel which is appointed of God and ordained for that purpose, <make and> regulate all the affairs of Zion: and that it is the will of God, that her children should stand still, and see the salvation of her redemption; and the officers of the church should go forth, inasmuch as they can leave their families in comfortable circumstances; and gather up the saints, even the strength of the Lords house. And those who cannot go forth consistently with the will of God their circumstances prev[e]nting them; remain in deep humility: and in as much, [as] th[e]y do any thing confine themselves to teaching the first principles of the Gospel: not endeavoring to institute regulations or laws for Zion, without having been appointed of God.

- c Now we say there is no need of ordaining in Zion, or appointing any more officers: but let all those that are ordained magnify themselves before the Lord: by going into the vineyard and cleansing their garments from the blood of this generation. It is one thing to be ordained to preach the gospel, and to push the people together to Zion, and it is another thing to be annointed to lay the foundation and build up the City of Zion, and execute her laws. Therefore it is certain that many of the Elders have come under great condemnation, in endeavoring to steady the ark of God, in a place where th[e]y have not been sent.

The high counsel and bishops court have been established to do the business of Zion, and her children are not bound, to acknowledge any of those who feel disposed to run to Zion and set themselves to be their rulers. Let not her children be duped in this way, but let them prove those who say they are apostles, and are not.

- d The Elders have no right to regulate Zion, but they have a right to preach the gospel. They will all do well to repent and humble themselves, and all the church, and also we, ourselves receive the admonition and so now endeavor and pray to this end. When the children of Zion are in stranger[s] in a strange land their harps must be hu[n]g upon the willows: and they cannot sing the songs of Zion: but should mourn and not dance. Therefore brethren, it remains for all such to be exercised with prayer, and continual suplication, until Zion is redeemed. We realize the situation that all the brethren and sisters must be in, being deprived of their spiritual privileges, which are enjoyed by those who sit in heavenly places in Christ Jesus; where there are no mobs to rise up and bind their consciences. Nevertheless, it is wisdom that the church should make but little or no stir in that region, and cause as little excitement as possible and endure their afflictions patiently until the time appointed— and the Governor of Mo. fulfils his promise in setting the church over upon their own lands. We would suggest an idea that it would be wisdom for all the members of the church on the return of the Bishop [Edward Partridge], to make known to him their names places of residence &c. that it may be known where they all are when the Governor shall give directions for you to be set over on your lands

- e Again it is the will of the Lord, that the church should attend to their communion on the sabbath day, and let them remember the commandment which says “talk not of Judgment” we are commanded not to give the childrens bread unto the dogs; neither cast our pearl[s] before swine, least they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you. Therefore— let us be wise in all things, and keep all the commandments of God, that our salvation may be sure: having our armour ready and prepared against the time appointed; and having on the whole armour of righteousness, we may be able to stand in that trying day. We say also that if there are any doors open for the Elders to preach the first principles of the gospel: let them not keep silence: rail not against the sects, neither talk against their tenets. But preach Christ and him crucified. love to God, and love to man, observing always to make mention of our republican principles, thereby if possible, we may allay the prejudice of the people, be meek and lowly of heart, and the Lord God of our fathers shall be with you for evermore

Amen.

Sanctioned and signed by the Presidents

Joseph Smith Jr.
Oliver Cowdery
Sidney Rigdon
F[rederick] G. Williams
W[illiam] W. Phelps
John Whitmer.

- f P.S. Br Heseekiah [Hezekiah] Peck

We remember your familly, with all the fi[r]st families of the church, who first embraced the truth, we remember your losses and sorrows our first ties are not broken, we participate with you in the evil as well as the good, in the sorrows as well as the Joys, our union we trust is stronger than death, and shall never be severed. Remember us unto all who believe in the fulness of the gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. We hereby authorize you Hezekiah Peck, our beloved brother to read this epistle and ~~communication~~ communicate it unto all the brotherhood in all that region of Country, Dictated by me your unworthy brother, and fellow laborer in the testimony of the book of Mormon. Signed by my own hand in the token of the everlasting covenant.

Joseph Smith Jr.

Declaration on Government and Law, circa August 1835 [D&C 134]

Print Sources

JSP	D4:408–412	JSR	—
DC	Section 27	HC	1:106–108
HDDC	393–403	TCHC	1:75–76

Online Access Here

Background

JS's involvement with the production of this document isn't clear, but he did later endorse it.

Original Source

Text

SECTION CII.

Of Governments and Laws in General.

That our belief, with regard to earthly governments and laws in general, may not be misinterpreted nor misunderstood, we have thought proper to present, at the close of this volume, our opinion concerning the same.

1 We believe that Governments were instituted of God for the benefit of man, and that he holds men accountable for their acts in relation to them, either in making laws or administering them, for the good and safety of society.

2 We believe that no Government can exist, in peace, except such laws are framed and held inviolate as will secure to each individual the free exercise of con[s]cience, the right and control of property and the protection of life.

3 We believe that all Governments necessarily require civil officers and magistrates to enforce the laws of the same, and that such as will administer the law in equity and justice should be sought for and upheld by the voice of the people, (if a Republic,) or the will of the Sovereign.

4 We believe that religion is instituted of God, and that men are amenable to him and to him only for the exercise of it, unless their religious opinion prompts them to infringe upon the rights and liberties of others; but we do not believe that human law has a right to interfere in prescribing rules of worship to bind the consciences of men, nor dictate forms for public or private devotion; that the civil magistrate should restrain crime, but never control conscience; should punish guilt, but never surpress the freedom of the soul.

5 We believe that all men are bound to sustain and uphold the respective Governments in which they reside, while protected in their inherent and unalienable rights by the laws of such Governments, and that sedition and rebellion are unbecoming every citizen thus protected, and should be punished accordingly; and that all Governments have a right to enact such laws as in their own judgments are best calculated to secure the public interest, at the same time, however, holding sacred the freedom of conscience.

6 We believe that every man should be honored in his station: rulers and magistrates as such—being placed for the protection of the innocent and the punishment of the guilty; and that to the laws all men owe respect and deference, as without them peace and harmony would be supplanted by anarchy and terror: human laws being instituted for the express purpose of regulating our interests as individuals and nations, between man and man, and divine laws, given of heaven, prescribing rules on spiritual concerns, for faith and worship, both to be answered by man to his Maker.

7 We believe that Rulers, States and Governments have a right, and are bound to enact laws for the protection of all citizens in the free exercise of their religious belief; but we do not believe that they have a right, in justice, to deprive citizens of this privilege, or proscribe them in their opinions, so long as a regard and reverence is shown to the laws, and such religious opinions do not justify sedition nor conspiracy.

8 We believe that the commission of crime should be punished according to the nature of the offence: that murder, treason, robbery, theft and the breach of the general peace, in all respects, should be punished according to their criminality and their tendency to evil among men, by the laws of that Government in which the offence is committed: and for the public peace and tranquility, all men should step forward and use their ability in bringing offenders, against good laws, to punishment.

9 We do not believe it just to mingle religious influence with civil Government, whereby one religious society is fostered and another proscribed in its spiritual privileges, and the individual rights of its members, as citizens, denied.

10 We believe that all religious societies have a right to deal with their members for disorderly conduct according to the rules and regulations of such societies, provided that such dealing be for fellowship and good standing; but we do not believe that any religious society has authority to try men on the right of property or life, to take from them this world's goods, or put them in jeopardy either life or limb, neither to inflict any physical punishment upon them,—they can only excommunicate them from their society and withdraw from their fellowship.

11 We believe that men should appeal to the civil law for redress of all wrongs and grievances, where personal abuse is inflicted, or the right of property or character infringed, where such laws exist as will protect the same; but we believe that all men are justified in defending themselves, their friends and property, and the Government, from the unlawful assaults and encroachments of all persons, in times of exigencies, where immediate appeal cannot be made to the laws, and relief afforded.

12 We believe it just to preach the gospel to the nations of the earth, and warn the righteous to save themselves from the corruption of the world; but we do not believe it right to interfere with bond-servants, neither preach the gospel to, nor baptize them, contrary to the will and wish of their masters, nor to meddle with, or influence them in the least to cause them to be dissatisfied with their situations in this life, thereby jeopardizing the lives of men: such interference we believe to be unlawful and unjust, and dangerous to the peace of every Government allowing human beings to be held in servitude. [remainder of page blank]

Revelation, circa August 1835 [D&C 27]

Print Sources

JSP	D4:408–412	JSR	—
DC	Section 27	HC	1:106–108
HDDC	393–403	TCHC	1:75–76

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

SECTION L.

Revelation given September, 1830.

1 Listen to the voice of Jesus Christ, your Lord, your God and your Redeemer, whose word is quick and powerful. For behold I say unto you, that it mattereth not what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, when ye partake of the sacrament, if it so be that ye do it with an eye single to my glory; remembering unto the Father my body which was laid down for you, and my blood which was shed for the remission of your sins: wherefore a commandment I give unto you, that you shall not purchase wine, neither strong drink of your enemies: wherefore you shall partake of none, except it is made new among you, yea, in this my Father's kingdom which shall be built up on the earth.

2 Behold this is wisdom in me: wherefore marvel not for the hour cometh that I will drink of the fruit of the vine with you on the earth, and with Moroni, whom I have sent unto you to reveal the book of Mormon, containing the fulness of my everlasting gospel; to whom I have committed the keys of the record of the stick of Ephraim; and also with Elias, to whom I have committed the keys of bringing to pass the restoration of all things, or the restorer of all things spoken by the mouth of all the holy prophets since the world began, concerning the last days: and also John the son of Zacharias, which Zacharias he (Elias) visited and gave promise that he should have a son, and his name should be John, and he should be filled with the spirit of Elias; which John I have sent unto you, my servants, Joseph Smith, jr. and Oliver Cowdery, to ordain you unto this first priesthood which you have received, that you might be called and ordained even as Aaron: and also Elijah, unto whom I have committed the keys of the power of turning the hearts of the fathers to the children and the hearts of the children to the fathers, that the whole earth may not be smitten with a curse: and also, with Joseph, and Jacob, and Isaac, and Abraham your fathers; by whom the promises remain; and also with Michael, or Adam, the father of all, the prince of all, the ancient of days:

3 And also with Peter, and James, and John, whom I have sent unto you, by whom I have ordained you and confirmed you to be apostles and especial witnesses of my name, and bear the keys of your ministry: and of the same things which I revealed unto them: unto whom I have committed the keys of my kingdom, and a dispensation of the gospel for the last times; and for the fulness of times, in the which I will gather together in one all things both which are in heaven and which are on earth: and also with all those whom my Father hath given me out of the world: wherefore lift up your hearts and rejoice, and gird up your loins, and take upon you my whole armor, that ye may be able to withstand the evil day, having done all ye may be able to stand. Stand, therefore, having your loins girt about with truth; having on the breastplate of righteousness; and your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace which I have sent mine angels to commit unto you, taking the shield of faith wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked; and take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of my Spirit, which I will pour out upon you, and my word which I reveal unto you, and be agreed as touching all things whatsoever ye ask of me, and be faithful until I come, and ye shall be caught up that where I am ye shall be also. Amen.

Minutes, 19 September 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D4:422–427	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:277–280
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:267–270

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a ...Object of the council stated by President J. Smith Jun^r as follows: Some weeks since Elder Jared Carter preached on the sabbath in the church, and some of the brethren found fault with his teachings, and this council was called by him (J. S. Jun^r) to decide this matter and to see who was in fault...
- ...President Joseph Smith Jun^r then arose and said that the decision of his mind is that brother Jared erred in judgement in not understanding what the brethren desired of him when they labored with him. and he erred in spirit when he taught in the church, the things testified of here. And that the hand of the destroyer was laid upon him because he had a rebellious spirit. from the beginning, and the word of the Lord, had been spoken by <my> mouth— that it should upon him and this council should see it and now that he has been seized by the destroyer comes in fulfilment of his word. and God required
- b him to bear testimony of it before the church and warn them to be careful & not do as he had done. But instead of doing this, he said he would prove the Book of Mormon, and one thing or another not being sufficiently humble to deliver just the message that was required, and so he stumbled and could not get the spirit. and the brethren were not edified, and he did not do the thing that God required. but erred in choosing words to communicate his thoughts. Such as commanding the prayers of the church instead of soliciting them: and also of making himself an example for the Church, when it, was only the things which he suffered which were to be as a check upon transgressors. His rebeling against the advice and counsel of the Presidents was the cause of his falling to the hands of the Destroyer, again as he had done before when he rebelled against the counsel that was given him by the Authorities of the church. And that in all this Elder Carter has not designed to do wickedly, but he erred in judgement and deserves reproof. And the decision is that he shall acknowledge his errors on the morrow before the congregation, and say, brethren, I am fully convinced, that I have erred in spirit in my remarks before you, when I spoke here a few sabbaths since, & now I ask your forgiveness, and if he do this in full faith and is truly humble before God. Then God will bless him abundintly as he hath not been wont to do...¹

Record, 22 September 1835

Print Sources

JSP	J1:61–62	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
PJS	1:98

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

September 22, 1835. This day Joseph Smith, jr. labored with Oliver Cowdery, in obtaining and writing blessings. We were thronged a part of the time with company, so that our labor, in this thing, was hindered; but we obtained many precious things, and our souls were blessed. O Lord, may thy Holy Spirit be with thy servants forever. Amen.

September 23.th [22nd] This day Joseph Smith, Jr. was at home writing blessings for my most beloved Brotheren <I>, have been hindered by a multitude of visitors but the Lord has blessed our Souls this day. May God grant <to> continue his mercies unto my house, this <night,> day For Christ sake. This day my Soul has desired the salvation of Brother Ezra, Thay[e]r. Also Brother Noah, Packard. Came to my house and let the Chappel Committee have one thousand dollers, by loan, for the building the house of the Lord; Oh may God bless him with an hundred fold! even of the <things of> Earth, for this ritious [righteous] act. My heart is full of desire to day, to <be> blessed of the God, of Abraham; with prosperity, untill I will be able to pay all my depts; for it is my <the> delight of my soul to <be> honest. Oh Lord that thou knowes right well! help me and I will give to the poor.

¹Note about the circumstances of these remarks.

Blessing to David Whitmer, 22 September 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D4:428–430	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:281
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:270

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Blessed of the Lord is brother David [Whitmer], for he truly is a faithful friend to mankind, and he should be beloved by all, because of the integrity of his heart. All his words are as steadfast as the pillars of heaven, because truth is his only meditation, and he delighteth in it, and shall rejoice in it forever. The Lord God of Abraham, of Isaac and of Jacob, shall be on his right hand and on his left, and shall go before his face, and shall be his rear ward, and his enemies shall become an easy pray unto him; for behold, he it is, whom the Lord hath appointed to be captain of his host, under the guidance and direction of him who is appointed to say unto the strength of the Lord's house, Go forth and build up the waste places of Zion. A mighty shaft shall he be in the quiver of the Almighty in bringing about the redemption of Zion, and in avenging the wrongs
- b of the innocent. He shall yet stand upon the land of Zion, from whence he has been driven, and shall find inheritance there; and shall be a ruler in Zion until he is old and well stricken in years. And shall enjoy an abundance of the precious things of the lasting mountains, and shall have part with his brethren in all the good things of this earth, and shall never want a friend. He shall bring down his adversaries under his feet, and shall walk upon their ashes when their names are blotted out. His name shall be a blessing among all nations, and his testimony shall shine as fair as the sun, and as a diamond it shall remain untarnished. There shall not be a spot upon his character while he lives, neither upon his seed after him unto the latest posterity: he shall not be forsaken nor his seed found begging bread. Amen.

Oliver Cowdery, Clerk and Recorder.

Given like the foregoing blessings, by vision, to Joseph Smith, jr. the Seer, September 22, 1835, and recorded Oct. 2, 1835.

Blessing to John Whitmer, 22 September 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D4:430–433	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Blessed of the Lord is brother John [Whitmer]: he shall live to a good old age, and his generations after him shall be blessed. He shall live to a good old age, and wax more and more steadfast in the work of the Lord, and he shall make a choice record of Israel unto the memory of his name. He shall truly be chastened wherein he steps aside, yet he shall escape the hand of the Destroyer, and shall never fall by the hands of his enemies: and he shall be avenged of the wrongs he has sustained by them. He shall be blessed, and a means of bringing many blessings upon his father's family. He shall be blessed with abundance of the good things of the this earth, with houses and lands, in the fruit of the field, with horses and with asses and with she asses, with gold and with silver, and with precious stones, even the things of the lasting mountains. He shall be made mighty in the hands of his God in bringing to pass the redemption of Zion. The Lord shall be on his right hand and on his left; shall go before his face and shall be his rear ward, and shall turn aside all the shafts of the <his> enemies. And he shall go down to his <in> honor and with gray hairs, to the grave, and shall be caught up in the cloud to meet the Lord, and shall ever be with him; even so. Amen.

Oliver Cowdery, Clerk and Recorder.

Given September 22, 1835, and recorded October 2, 1835.

Blessing to John Corrill, 22 September 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D4:433–434	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Blessed of the Lord is brother Corrill, John Corrill for the hand of the Lord shall be over him, and there are none that surpass him in understanding pertaining to architecture: unto this end hath the Lord raised him up, and he shall yet stand upon the land of Zion and be greatly multiplied in the midst of her: for he shall build the house of the Lord in Zion, and shall do a work that none other man understandeth to do, in building the houses of the Lord. It shall be a gift unto him: he shall be enlightened by visions and dreams, and his soul shall be satisfied with the abundance with which the Lord his God shall bless him: and his seed after him shall be blessed from generation to generation. And his name shall be had in remembrance and be known among all nations; and it shall be said of him among governors, rulers and kings: This man reared the temple
- b of God in Zion. And he shall be revered because of his great sagacity. His life shall be prolonged until he is very old. He shall be accounted among the wise counsellors of Israel, and he shall hear the voice of the Lord his God, and receive counsel by the ministering of angels; and shall be very terrible unto his enemies, and his soul shall be satisfied in seeing the wrath of God poured out upon them to the uttermost. He shall have communion with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and with the spirits of just men made perfect, and shall be caught up, whether in the body or out of the body, I cannot tell, God knoweth, he shall be caught up to the third heaven and behold unutterable things. And thus shall the hand of God be upon him all the days of his life, unto his joy and the satisfaction of his soul: and he shall have a crown of eternal life. And these are the blessings that I want should come upon my brother Corrill. Amen.

Oliver Cowdery, [C]lerk and Recorder.

Given September 22, 1835, and recorded October 3, 1835.

Blessing to William W. Phelps, 22 September 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D4:435–436	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Blessed of the Lord is brother Phelps, William W. Phelps, for he shall have the desires of his heart in the gift that pertaineth to writing the law of God, and in being an instrument in assisting to lift up an ensign to the nations. And according to the greatness of the desires of his soul, for blessings upon his friends, so shall the blessings of the Lord come upon him to the uttermost. The Lord will chasten him because he taketh honor to himself, and when his soul is greatly humbled he will forsake the evil; then shall the light of the Lord break upon him as at noon-day, and in him shall be no darkness so great is the glory that shall come upon him. And blessed is his name among all nations. He shall have part in that that coucheth beneath: and it shall be revealed unto him things by the hand of the Lord's annointed that have been kept secret from the foundation of the world, concerning the last days. And he shall be a blessing unto his posterity from generation to generation, and shall
- b be satisfied in beholding his enemies cut off out of the earth. He shall be filled with a fulness of the good things of the earth:

with houses and with lands, with the fruit of the vine and with the fat of the olive, and he shall feed on the finest of the wheat; and because of his liberal soul the Lord will make him rich; even with treachers of gold, silver, precious stones, and with all precious metals. He shall be a wise lawyer in Israel; for he shall understand the law of the Lord perfectly; and the renowned among men shall acknowledge his superior wisdom pertaining to the laws of nations and of kingdoms. Behold, he shall have understanding in all sciences and languages, and with his brother <Oliver [Cowdery]> shall write and arrange many books for the good of the church, that the young may grow up in wisdom: these shall remain for a memorial unto their names, and the generations to come shall call them blessed. His days shall be prolonged upon the land of Zion; and when he is old and bowed down with many years, behold, he shall lift up his eyes and the heavens shall be opened upon him. He shall be lifted up at the last day, and his rest shall be glorious. Amen.

Oliver Cowdery, clerk and Recorder.

Given Sept. 22, 1835, and recorded Oct. 3, 1835.

Blessing from Oliver Cowdery, 22 September 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D4:436–441	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Blessed of the Lord is my brother, for the integrity of his heart and the steadfastness of his soul. Upheld by the arm of the Almighty he shall never fall, but shall be strengthened by his right hand till he overcomes. Like Jacob of old he shall wrestle with the angel, and as a prince shall he have power with God, and shall prevail. Ever faithful to <his> friends and true to his word, the goodness of the Most High shall sustain him, and thousands shall stand up to defend him from the hand of his enemies, and put forth the hand and ward off the blow were it needful: but ere his foes are aware he shall be hid under the pavillion of the Lord Jehovah; for, with the voice of his thunder shall he strike terror to their hearts, and as with the wings of an eagle shall my brother be carried beyond all harm, by the power of the Anointed. From amid the burning bush, like Moses of old, shall he hear the voice, saying, I am the God of thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, I have seen, I have seen, the affliction of my people and am come down to deliver them: go, thou, and say to the strength of my house, To
- b your tents, O Israel: build up the wastes and raise up the foundation of desolation that this generation has made. Thus shall he be honored of the Lord, and thus shall it be recorded of him, that the generations to come may bless his name, in Israel, saying, The Lord make thee as Joseph the Seer, who was of the house of Ephraim, the brother of Manasseh: the Lord do thee good and bring peace and blessings opun [upon] thy house as he brought them upon the house of Joseph the Seer, who was raised up of a choice vine from the stem of Jacob through the root of Joseph, even that Joseph who was separated from his brethren— For, like Joseph of old shall he be: he shall save the just from desolation, by the wise counsel of the Almighty; for by his direction shall they gather into store-houses and barns, till they overflow with the richness of the fruit of harvest: and by this means shall the just be saved from famine, while the nations of the wicked are distressed and faint. In due time shall he go forth toward the north, and by the power of his word shall the deep begin to give way and the ice melt before the sun. By the keys of the Kingdom shall he lead Israel into the land of Zion while the house of Jacob shouts in the danse and in the song— Joy, O my soul, in that day, for thou shalt be with him and bear thy part in the keys which are confirmed <upon> thee for an everlasting priesthood, forever and ever— Joy, O my heart, in that day, with thanks giving and with praise, for thou shalt stand with him before the hosts of Israel— the lame shall leap as a hart, the old shall renew his strength, and the
- c virgin of Israel, with the youth, shall exalt the name of our God upon harps and instruments of tens[e] strings. He shall be a shure arrow in the bow of his God, for he shall be hid under the shadow of his wing. His loins shall be like iron, girded by the hand of the Lord, and his feet shall be swift to execute the commandment of the Most High when he shall say, Destroy. His name shall be had in everlasting remembrance, and his ~~name~~ <seed> after him, for they shall be saved to the uttermost. His fame shall be sounded in foreign lands, even to the ends of the earth, as well as nigh at home: for in this the times shall change— a prophet shall have honor in his own country. His learning and wisdom shall astonish the great, for they shall acknowledge that by his intelligence he has far surpassed their ~~learn~~g <learning> and their science. In palaces of governors, rulers and kings shall he be honored, even in his person, for God shall give him power to prevail. He shall be a lawgiver to Israel and shall teach the house of Jacob the statutes of the Most High. His testimony shall shine like the sun, and the weight of his influence shall be like the great river that rises on the east of the lasting hills, and flows into the great deep— so shall his righteousness ever abound. He shall partake of the blessings of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob: the chief things of the ancient mountains, the precious things that couch beneath, and of the treasures hid in the sand. The records of past ages and generations, and the histories of ancient days shall he bring forth: even the record of the Nephites shall he again obtain, with all those hid up by Mormon, and others who were righteous, and many others, till he is overwhelmed with knowledge. No precious thing shall slumber from his possession, for he shall be covered with the most choice of all ages, till his soul shall be satisfied and his heart shall say, Enough, Enough! In his hands shall the Urim and Thummim remain and the holy ministry, and the keys of the evangelical priesthood, also, for an everlasting priesthood forever, even the patriarchal; for, behold, he is the first patriarch in the last days. He shall sit in the great assembly and general council of patriarchs, and execute the will and commandment of God under the direction of the Ancient of Days; for he shall have his place and act in his station. Behold, my brother Joseph is blessed: blessed are all who bless him, and blessed are all those whom he blesses. Multitudes, multitudes, shall come to a knowledge of the truth through his ministry, and he shall be welcomed into the presence of kings and the great ones of the earth; for he shall claim his place among the nobles of the earth and shall be revered by them. He shall also be filled with the abundance of the fat of the earth: his flocks shall bring forth thousands and tens of thousands: his fates [vats] shall overflow with wine and oil: his cattle shall increase to a multitude: he shall have horses and mules, asses, she asses and dromedaries, camels and elephants, and all swift beasts, and when he goes forth in haste his chariots shall roar like the approach of an army: he shall have gold and silver, precious stones, diamonds, pearls, and the pure platina [platinum], with the antiquities of every kind. Thus shall God bless, and thus shall he be prospered: and he shall have peace after a little; for his enemies shall be consumed, many of them, and many shall turn and be his friends in very deed: he shall remain to a good old age, even till his head is like the pure wool. Behold, there is no end to the vision, of the multiplicity of blessings and glories which shall come upon my brother Joseph. He shall possess a mansion on high and have an inheritance in that city which is like pure gold, even like transparent glass. His rest shall be glorious and his name remain forever. Thus closes the vision, and thus it shall be; even so. Amen. Given in the evening of September 22, 1835, and recorded October 3, 1835. Oliver Cowdery.

Minutes, 28–29 September 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D4:446–455	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:284–286
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:274–277
PJS	1:101–102

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Charge preferred against Lorenzo Young, which is this that poor men ought not to raise up seed or children.

Preferred by W[illiam] W. Phelps,

President O. Cowdery testified that the above declaration fell from the lips of said Young at the home of President J. Smith Jun^r also that he believed it was right to have sexual intercourse notwithstanding. President J. Smith Jun^r corroborates the above testimony, also that he did not intend to have any more children. After hearing. The case was fairly laid open by the counsellors on both sides. The accuser made his remarks. The accused then arose and made an humble acknowledgement to the satisfaction of the Presidency & counsellors who retain him in full fellowship as an Elder in the church of the Latter. Day. Saints.

Letter to the Elders of the Church, 2 October 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D5:6–15	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:253–259
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:257–262
TPJS	79–83
PJS	1:102

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Note the spaces in between lines and block quotations here.

Text

a To the elders of the church of Latter Day Saints.

After so long a time, and after so many things having been said, I feel it my duty to drop a few hints, that, perhaps, the elders, traveling through the world to warn the inhabitants of the earth to flee the wrath to come, and save themselves from this untoward generation, may be aided in a measure, in doctrine, and in the way of their duty. I have been laboring in this cause for eight years, during which time I have traveled much, and have had much experience. I removed from Seneca county, N. Y. to Geauga county, Ohio, in February, 1831.

Having received, by an heavenly vision, a commandment, in June following, to take my journey to the western boundaries of the State of Missouri, and there designate the very spot, which was to be the central spot, for the commencement of the gathering together of those who embrace the fulness of the everlasting gospel—I accordingly undertook the journey with certain ones of my brethren, and, after a long and tedious journey, suffering many privations and hardships, I arrived in Jackson county Missouri; and, after viewing the country, seeking diligently at the hand of God, he manifested himself unto me, and designated to me and others, the very spot upon which he designed to commence the work of the gathering, and the upbuilding of an holy city, which should be called Zion:—Zion because it is to be a place of righteousness, and all who build thereon, are to worship the true and living God—and all believe in one doctrine even the doctrine of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

b “Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the Lord shall bring again Zion.”—Isaiah 52:8.

Here we pause for a moment, to make a few remarks upon the idea of gathering to this place. It is well known that there were lands belonging to the government, to be sold to individuals; and it was understood by all, at least we believed so, that we lived in a free country, a land of liberty and of laws, guaranteeing to every man, or any company of men, the right of purchasing lands, and settling, and living upon them: therefore we thought no harm in advising the Latter Day Saints, or Mormons, as they are reproachfully called, to gather to this place, inasmuch as it was their duty, (and it was well understood so to be,) to purchase, with money, lands, and live upon them—not infringing upon the civil rights of any individual, or community of people: always keeping in view the saying, “Do unto others as you would wish to have others do unto you.” Following also the good injunction: “Deal justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with thy God.”

c These were our motives in teaching the people, or Latter Day Saints, to gather together, beginning at this place. And inasmuch as there are those who have had different views from this, we feel, that it is a cause of deep regret: For, be it known unto all men, that our principles concerning this thing, have not been such as have been represented by those who, we have every reason to believe, are designing and wicked men, that have said that this was our doctrine:—to infringe upon the rights of a people who inhabit our civil and free country: such as to drive the inhabitants of Jackson county from their lands, and take possession thereof unlawfully. Far, yea, far be such a principle from our hearts: it never entered into our mind, and we only say, that God shall reward such in that day when he shall come to make up his jewels.

But to return to my subject: after having ascertained the very spot, and having the happiness of seeing quite a number of the families of my brethren, comfortably situated upon the land, I took leave of them, and journeyed back to Ohio, and used every influence and argument, that lay in my power, to get those who believe in the everlasting covenant, whose circumstances would admit, and whose families were willing to remove to the place which I now designated to be the land of Zion: And thus the sound of the gathering, and of the doctrine, went abroad into the world; and many we have reason to fear, having a zeal not according to knowledge, not understanding the pure principles of the doctrine of the church, have no doubt, in the heat of enthusiasm, taught and said many things which are derogatory to the genuine character and principles of the church, and for these things we are heartily sorry, and would apologize if an apology would do any good.

d But we pause here and offer a remark upon the saying which we learn has gone abroad, and has been handled in a manner detrimental to the cause of truth, by saying, “that in preaching the doctrine of gathering, we break up families, and give license for men to leave their families; women their husbands; children their parents, and slaves their masters, thereby deranging the order, and breaking up the harmony and peace of society." We shall here show our faith, and thereby, as we humbly trust, put an end to these faults, and wicked misrepresentations, which have caused, we have every reason to believe, thousands to think they were doing God's service, when they were persecuting the children of God: whereas, if they could have enjoyed the true light, and had a just understanding of our principles, they would have embraced them with all their hearts, and been rejoicing in the love of the truth.

And now to show our doctrine on this subject, we shall commence with the first principles of the gospel, which are repentance, and baptism for the remission of sins, and the gift of the Holy Ghost by the laying on of the hands. This we believe to be our duty, to teach to all mankind the doctrine of repentance, which we shall endeavor to show from the following quotations:

- e "Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures, and said unto them, thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead, the third day; and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem."—Luke 24:45, 46, 47.

By this we learn, that it behoved Christ to suffer, and to be crucified, and rise again on the third day, for the express purpose that repentance and remission of sins should be preached unto all nations.

"Then Peter said unto them, repent, and be baptized every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ, for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call."—Acts 2:38, 39.

- f By this we learn, that the promise of the Holy Ghost, is unto as many as the doctrine of repentance was to be preached, which was unto all nations. And we discover also, that the promise was to extend by lineage: for Peter says, "not only unto you, but unto your children, and unto all that are afar off." From this we infer that it was to continue unto their children's children, and even unto as many generations as should come after, even as many as the Lord their God should call.— We discover here that we are blending two principles together, in these quotations. The first is the principle of repentance, and the second is the principle of remission of sins. And we learn from Peter, that remission of sins is obtained by baptism in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ; and the gift of the Holy Ghost follows inevitably: for, says Peter, "you shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost." Therefore we believe in preaching the doctrine of repentance in all the world, both to old and young, rich and poor, bond and free, as we shall endeavor to show hereafter—how and in what manner, and how far it is binding upon the consciences of mankind, making proper distinctions between old and young men, women and children, and servants.

But we discover, in order to be benefitted by the doctrine of repentance, we must believe in obtaining the remission of sins. And in order to obtain the remission of sins, we must believe in the doctrine of baptism, in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. And if we believe in baptism for the remission of sins, we may expect a fulfilment of the promise of the Holy Ghost: for the promise extends to all whom the Lord our God shall call. And hath he not surely said, as you will find in the last chapter of Revelations:

- g "And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth, say, Come. And let him that is athirst, come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely." Rev. 22:17.

Again the Savior says:

"Come unto me, all ye that labor, and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."—Math. 11:28, 29, 30.

Again Isaiah says:

"Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else. I have sworn by myself, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, that unto me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear. Surely, shall one say, in the Lord have I righteousness and strength: even to him shall men come; and all that are incensed against him shall be ashamed."—Isaiah 45:22, 23, 24.

And to show further connections in proof of the doctrine above named, we quote the following scriptures:

"Him hath God exalted with his right hand, to be a Prince and a Savior, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him."—Acts 5:31, 32.

- h "But when they believed Philip, preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. Then Simon himself believed also; and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done. Now when the apostles, which were at Jerusalem, heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John; who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost. (For as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.)— Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost. . . . And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water; and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized?—And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. And, when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing. But Philip was found at Azotus: and, passing through, he preached in all the cities, till he came to Cesarea.”—Acts 8:12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17,—36, to the end.

i “While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word. And they of the circumcision, which believed, were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost: for they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we? And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.”—Acts 10:44, 45, 46, 47, 48.

“And on the Sabbath, we went out of the city, by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women that resorted thither. And a certain woman, named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul. And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us. . . . And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them. And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one’s bands were loosed. And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled. But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm; for we are all here. Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas; and brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved and thy house. And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house. And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes, and was baptized, he and all his, straightway. And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.”—Acts 16:13, 14, 15.—25, to 35.

j “And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul, having passed through the upper coasts, came to Ephesus; and finding certain disciples, he said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost. And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto John’s baptism. Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus. When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. And, when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied.”—Acts 19:1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6.

[“]And one Ananias, a devout man, according to the law, having a good report of all the Jews which dwelt there, Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him. And he said, the God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldst know his will, and see that Just One, and shouldst hear the voice of his mouth. For thou shalt be his witness unto all men, of what thou hast seen and heard. And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord.”—Acts 22:12, 13, 14, 15, 16.

k “For, when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat. For every one that useth milk, is unskilful in the word of righteousness; for he is a babe. But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use, have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.”—Heb. 5:12, 13, 14.

“Therefore, leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith towards God, of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. And this will we do, if God permit. For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost, and have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come, if they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.[”]—Heb. 6:1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6.

These quotations are so plain, in proving the doctrine of repentance and baptism for the remission of sins, I deem it unnecessary to enlarge this letter with comments upon them—but I shall continue the subject in my next.

In the bonds of the new and everlasting covenant,

JOSEPH SMITH, jr.

JOHN WHITMER, Esq.

Record, 5 October 1835

Print Sources

JSP	J1:68	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
PJS	1:104

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Monday 5th returned home being much fatigued riding in the rain spent the remainder of the day in reading and meditation &c and in the evening attend[ed] a high council of the twelve apostles, had a glorious time and gave them many instruction concerning their duties for time to come, told them that it was the will of God they should take their families to Missouri next season, also attend this fall the solemn assembly of the first Elders for the organization of the school of the prophets, and attend to the ordinance of the washing of feet and to prepare their hearts in all humility for an endowment from with power from on high to which they all agreed with one accord, and seemed to be greatly rejoiced may God spare the lives of the twelve with one accord to a good old age for christ the redeemers sake amen

Blessing to Newel K. Whitney, 7 October 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D5:18–21; J1:69–71	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:288–289
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:283–284
PJS	1:106–107

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

There is a period at the end of what I have here, and not at the end of the J1 account; check them all.

Text

- a Blessed of the lord is bro [Newel K.] Whitney even the bishop of the church of the latter day saints, for the bishoprick shall never be taken away from him while he liveth and the time cometh that he shall overcome all the narrow mindedness of his heart and all his covetous desires that so easily besetteth him and <he> shall ~~deliver~~ deal with a liberal hand to the poor and the needy the sick and the afflicted the widow and the fatherless and marviously [marvelously] and miraculously shall the Lord his God provid for him. even that he shall be blessed with a <all the ~~the~~> fullness of the good things of this earth and his seed after him from generation to generation and it shall come to pass that according to to the measure that he meeteth out with a liberal hand unto the poor so shall it be measured to him again by the hand of his God even an hundred fold Angels shall guard <his> house and shall guard the lives of his posterity, and they shall become very great and very
- b numerous on the earth, whomsoever he blesseth they shall be blessed. whomsoever he curseth they shall be cursed. and when his enemies seek him unto his hurt and distruction let him rise up and curse and the hand of God shall be upon his enemies in Judgment they shall be utterly confounded and brought to dessolation, therefor he shall be preserved unto the utmost and his <life> day shall be precious in the sight of the Lord. he shall rise up and shake himself as a lion riseth out of his nest and roareth untill he shaketh the hills and as a lion goeth forth among the Lesser beasts, so shall the goings forth of him <be> whom the Lord hath anointed to exalt the poor and to humble the rich, therefor his name shall be on high and his rest among the sanctified.

Revelation, 18 October 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D5:21–23	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Note the spaces in between lines and block quotations here.

Text

Oct 18, 1835. Sabbath

This day assembled in the house of the Lord as usual and the Spirit of the Lord decended upon J. Smith Jr—the seer and he propheced: saying the L[or]d has showd to me this day by the Spirit of Revelation that the distress, and sickness that has heretofore prevailed among the children of Zion will be mitigated from this time forth.

Prayer, 23 October 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D5:23–25; J1:111–112	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:291
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:285–286
PJS	1:147–148

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Note the spaces in between lines and block quotations here.

Text

Copy of a prayer offered up. on the 23^d day of Oct 1835, by the following individuals, at 4 oclock P.M. viz. Joseph Smith jr, Oliver Cowdery; David Whitmer, Hiram [Hyrum] Smith John Whitmer, Sidn[e]y Rigdon, Samuel H. Smith, Frederick G. Williams, and W^m. W. Phelps, assembled and united in prayer, with one voice before the Lord, for the following blessings:

That the Lord will give us means sufficient to deliver us from all our afflictions and difficulties, wherein we are placed by means of our debts; that he will open the way and deliver Zion in the appointed time and that without the shedding of blood; that he will hold our lives precious, and grant that we may live to the common age of man, and never fall into the hands nor power of the mob in Missourie nor in any other place; that he will also preserve our posterity, that none of them fall even to the end of time; that he will give us the blessings of the earth sufficient to carry us to Zion, and that we may purchase inheritances in that land, even enough to carry on <and accomplish> the work unto which he has appointed us; and also that he will assist all others who desire, accordingly to his commandments, to go up and purchase inheritances; and all this easily and without perplexity, and trouble; and finally, that in the end he will save us in his Celestial Kingdom. Amen.

Oliver Cowdery Clerk

Revelation, 27 October 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D5:25–26; J1:75–76	JSR	273
DC	—	HC	2:292–293
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:286–287

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Footnote to additional info in the J1 account.

Text

the word of the Lord came unto me saying my Servant Fredrick [Frederick G. Williams] shall come and shall have wisdom given him to deal prudently and my handmaden shall be delivered of a living child & be spared

Revelation, 1 November 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D5:29–30; J1:81	JSR	273
DC	—	HC	2:299
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:291
PJS	1:118–119

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Note the spaces in between lines and block quotations here.

Text

Verily thus Saith the Lord unto me, his servant Joseph Smith jun mine anger is kindle[d] against my servant Reynolds Cahoon because of his iniquities his covetous and dishonest principles in himself and family and he doth not purge them away and set his house in order, therefore if he repent not chastisement awaiteth him even as it seemeth good in my sight therefore go and declare unto him ~~this~~ <these> word<s>

Revelation, 2 November 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D5:30–32; J1:81	JSR	274
DC	—	HC	2:300
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:292
PJS	1:120

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Note the spaces in between lines and block quotations here.

Text

thus came the word of the Lord unto me saying it is not my will that my servant Frederick [G. Williams] should go to New York, but inasmuch as he wishes to go and visit his relatives that he may warn them to flee the wrath to come let him go and see them, for that purpose and let that be his only business, and behold in this thing he shall be blessed with power ~~while~~ to overcome their prejudices, Verily thus saith the Lord Amen.

Revelation, 3 November 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D5:32–36; J1:83	JSR	274–275
DC	—	HC	2:300–301
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:292–293
PJS	1:120–121

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Thus came the word of the Lord unto me saying concerning the, Twelve <saying> behold they are under condemnation, because they have not been sufficiently humble in my sight, and in consequence of their covetous desires, in that they have not dealt equally with each other in the division of the moneys which came into their hands, nevertheless some of them, dealt equally therefore they shall be rewarded, but Verily I say unto you they must all humble themselves before Me, before they will be accounted worthy to receive an endowment to go forth in my name unto all nations, as for my Servant William [Smith] let the Eleven humble themselves in prayer and in faith and wait on me in patience and my servant William shall return, and I will yet make him a polished shaft in my quiver, in bringing down the wickedness and abominations of men and their shall be none mightier than he in his day and generation, nevertheless if he repent not speedily he shall be brought low and shall be chastened sorely for all his iniquities he has committed against me, nevertheless the sin which he hath sin[n]ed against me is not even now more greivous than the sin with which my servant David W. Patten and my servant Orson Hyde and my servant W^m E. McLellen [McLellin] have sinded [sinned] against me,
- b and the residue are not sufficiently humble before me, behold the parable which I spake concerning a man having twelve Sons, for what man amon[g] you having twelve Sons and is no respecter to them and they serve him obediently and he saith unto the one be thou clothed in robes and sit thou here, and to the other be thou clothed in rages [rags] and sit thou there, and looketh upon his sons and saith I am just, ye will answer and say no man, and ye answer truly, therefore Verily thus saith the Lord your God I appointed these twelve that they should be equal in their ministry and in their portion and in their evangelical rights, wherefore they have sined a verry greivous sin, in asmuch as they have made themselves unequal and have not hearkned unto my voice therfor let them repent speedily and prepare their hearts for the solem assembly and for the great day which is to come Verely thus saith the Lord Amen.

Record, 3 November 1835

Print Sources

JSP	J1:84	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
PJS	1:121

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

I then went to assist in organizing the Elders School called to order and I made some remarks upon the object of this School, and the great necessity there is in <of> our rightly improving our time and reigning up our minds to the a sense of the great object that lies before us, viz, that glorious endowment that God has in store for the faithful I then dedicated the School in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. after the School was dismissed I attended a patriarchal meeting at Br Samuel Smiths, his wifeses parents were blessed also his child & named Susan[n]ah, at evening I preachd at the School-house to a crowded congregation

Record, 6 November 1835

Print Sources

JSP	J1:85	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
PJS	1:122–123	TPJS	89

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Friday morning 6th at home. attended School during the school hours returned and spent the evening at home I was this morning introduced to a man from the east, after hearing my name he ~~replied~~ remarked that I was nothing but a man: indicating by this expression that he had supposed that a person, <to> who<m> the Lord should see fit to reveal his will, must be something more than a man, he seems to have forgotten the saying that fell from the lips of St. James, that Elias was a man of like passions like unto us, yet he had such power with God that He in answer to his prayer, shut the heavens that they gave no rain for the space of three years and six months, and again in answer to his prayer the heavens gave forth rain and the earth brought forth fruit; and indeed such is the darkness & ignorance of this generation that they look upon it as incredible that a man should have any intercourse with his Maker.

Revelation, 7 November 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D5:36–37; J1:85	JSR	275
DC	—	HC	2:302–303
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:294
PJS	1:123

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

The word <of the Lord> came to me saying, behold I am well pleased with my servant Isaac Morley and my servant Edward Partridge, because of the integrity of their harts in laboring in my vinyard for the salvation of the souls of men, Verily I say unto you their sins are forgiven them, therefor say unto them in my name that it is my will that they should tarry for a little season and attend the school, and also the solem assembly for a wise purpose in me, even so amen

Revelation, 8 November 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D5:38–39; J1:86	JSR	275
DC	—	HC	2:304
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:295
PJS	1:124

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

The word of the Lord came unto me saying that President [William W.] Phelps & President J[ohn] Whitmer are under condemnation before the Lord, for their iniquities

Conversations with Robert Matthews, 9–11 November 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D5:39–47; J1:87–95	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:304–307
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:295–299
TPJS	103–105
PJS	1:124–132

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Note that the J1 account may have more information about their conversation, because it seems to include some of what Matthews said; compare them.

Text

- a while setting in my house between the hours of ~~nine~~ <ten> & 10 11 this morning a man came in, and introduced himself to me, calling <himself> self <by the name of> Joshua the Jewish minister, his appearance was some ~~what~~ <thing> singular, having a beard about 3 inches in length which is quite grey, also his hair is long and considerably silvered with age I should think he is about 50 or 55 years old, tall and strait slender built of thin visage blue eyes, and fair complexion, he wears a sea green frock coat, & pantaloons of the same, black fur hat with narrow brim, and while speaking frequently shuts his eyes, with a scowl on his countenance; I made some enquiry after his name but received no definite answer; we soon commenced talking upon the subject of religion and after I had made some remarks concerning the bible I commenced giving him a relation of the circumstances connected with the coming forth of the book of Mormon, as follows— being wrought up in my mind, respecting the subject of religion and looking ~~upon~~ <at> the different systems taught the children of men, I knew not who was right or who was wrong and considering it of the first importance that I should be right, in matters that involved eternal consequences; being thus perplexed in mind I retired to the silent grove and bowed down before the Lord, under a realising sense that he had said (if the bible be true) ask and you shall receive knock and it shall be opened seek and you shall find and again, if any man lack wisdom let him ask of God who giveth to all men liberally and upbra[i]deth not; information
- b was what I most desired at this time, and with a fixed determination I to obtain it, I called upon the Lord for the first time, in the place above stated or in other words I made a fruitless attempt to pray, my tongue seemed to be swollen in my mouth, so that I could not utter, I heard a noise behind me like some person walking towards me, <I> strove again to pray, but could not, the noise of walking seemed to draw nearer, I sprung up on my feet, ~~and~~ and looked around, but saw no person or thing that was calculated to produce the noise of walking, I kneeled again my mouth was opened and my tongue liberated, and I called on the Lord in mighty prayer, a pillar of fire appeared above my head, it presently rested down upon ~~my~~ <me> head, and filled me with joy unspeakable, a personage appeared in the midst, of this pillar of flame which was spread all around, and yet nothing consumed, another personage soon appeared like unto the first, he said unto me thy sins are forgiven thee, he testified unto me that Jesus Christ is the son of God; <and I saw many angels in this vision> I was about 14. years old when I
- c received this first communication; When I was about 17 years old I saw another vision of angels, in the night season after I had retired to bed I had not been a sleep, ~~when~~ but was meditating upon my past life and experience, I was very conscious that I had not kept the commandments, and I repented hartily for all my sins and transgression, and humbled myself before Him; <whose eyes are over all things>, all at once the room was illuminated above the brightness of the sun an angel appeared before me, his hands and feet were naked pure and white, and he stood between the floors of the room, clothed <with> in purity inexpressible, he said unto me I am a messenger sent from God, be faithful and keep his commandments in all things, he told me of a sacred record which was written on plates of gold, I saw in the vision the place where they were deposited, he said the indians, were the literal descendants of Abraham he explained many ~~things~~ of the prophecies to me, one I will mention which is ~~this~~ in Malachi 4 behold the day of the Lord cometh &c; also that the Urim and Thumim, was hid up with the record, and that God would give me power to translate it, with the assistance of this instrument he then gradually vanished out of my sight, or the vision closed, while meditating on what I had seen, the Angel appeared to me again and related the same things and much more, also the third time bearing the same tidings, and departed; during the time I was in this vision I did not realize any thing else around me except what was shown me in this communication: after the vision had
- d all passed, I found that it was nearly day-light, the family soon arose, I got up also:— on that day while in the field at work with my Father he asked me if I was sick I replied, I had but little strength, he told me to go to the house, I started and went part way and was finally deprived of my strength and fell, but how long I remained I do not know; the Angel came to me again and commanded me to go and tell my Father, what I had seen and heard, I did so, he wept and told me that it was a vision from God to attend to it I went and found the place, where the plates were, according to the direction of the Angel, also saw them, and the angel as before; the powers of darkness strove hard against me, I called on God, the Angel told me that the reason why I could not obtain the plates at this time was because I was under transgression, but to come again in one year from that time, I did so, but did not obtain them also the third and the fourth year, at which time I obtained them, and translated them into the english language; by the gift and power of God and have been preaching it ever since.

e While I was relating this brief history of the establishment of the Church of Christ in these last days, Joshua seemed to be highly entertained after I had got through I observed that, the hour of worship & time to dine had now arived and invited him to tarry, which he concented to,

After dinner the conversation was resumed and Joshua proceded to make some remarks on the prophesies, as follows:

He observed that he was aware that I could bear stronger meat than many others, therefore he should open his mind the more freely;— Daniel has told us that he is to stand in his proper lot, in the latter days according to his vision he had a right to shut it up and also to open it again after many days, or in the latter times; Daniels Image whose head was gold, and body, armes, legs and feet was composed of the different materials described in his vision represents different governments, the golden head was <to represent> Nebuchodnazer King of Babylon, the other parts other kings & forms of government, which I shall not now mention in detail, but confine my remarks, more particularly to the feet of the Image; The policy of the wicked spirit, is to separate what God has joined together and unite what He has separated, which he has succeeded in doing to admiration, in the present state of society, which is like unto Iron and clay, there is confusion in all things, both both Political and religious, and notwithstanding all the efforts that are made to bring about a union, society is remains disunited, and all attempts to <unite her> are as fruitless, as to attempt to unite Iron & Clay.

f The feet of the Image, is the government of these united States, other Nations & kingdoms are looking up to her for an example, of union fredom and equal rights, and therefore worship her, like as Daniel saw in the vision, although they are begining to loose confidence in her, seeing the broils and discord that distract, her political & religious horizon this Image is characteristic of all governments and institutions or most of them; as they begin with a head of gold and terminate in the contemp[t]ible feet of Iron & clay: making a splendid appearance at first, proposing to do much more than the[y] can perform, and finally end in degradation and sink, in infamy; we should not only start to come out of Babylon but leav it entirely lest we are overthrown in her ruins, we should keep improving and reforming, twenty-fours hours for improvement now is worth as much as a year a hundred years ago; the spirit of the Fathers that was cut down, or those that were under the altar, are now rising this is the first resurection the Elder that fall's first will rise last; we should not form any opinion only for the present, and leave the result of futurity with God: I have risen up out of obscurity, but was look^d. up to when but a youth, in temporal things: It is not necessary that God should give us all things at first or in his first commission to us, but in his second. John saw the angel deliver the gospel in the last days, which would not be necessary if it was already in the world this expression would be inconsistent, the small lights that God has given, is sufficient to lead us out of babylon, when we get out we shall have the greater light. I told Jo[s]hua that I did not understand him concerning the resurection and wishd him to be more explanitory on the subject; he replied that he did not feell impressed by the spirit to unfold it further at present, but perhaps he might at some other time.

g I then withdrew to do some buisness with another gentleman that called to see me.

He [Robert Matthews] informed my Scribe that he was born in Washington County Town of Cambridge New York. he says that all the railroads canals and other improvements are performed by spirits of the resurection.

The silence spoken of by John the Revelator which is to be in heaven for the space of half an hour, is between 1830 & 1851, during which time the judgments of God will be poured out after that time there will be peace.

Curiosity to see a man that was reputed to be a jew caused many to call during the day and more particularly at evening suspicions were entertained that said Joshua was the noted Mathias of New York, spoken so much of in the public prints on account of the trials he underwent in that place before a court of justice, for murder manslaughter comtempt of court whip[p]ing his Daughter &c for the two last crimes he was imprisoned, and came out about 4, months since, after some, equivocating he confessed that he was realy Mathias: after supper I proposed that he should deliver a lecture to us, he did so sitting in his chair; he commenced by saying God said let there be light and there was light, which he dwelt upon through his discourse, he made some verry exelent remarks but his mind was evidently filled with darkness, after he dismissed his meeting, and the congregation disperced, he conversed freely upon the circumstances that transpired in New York, h His name is Robert Mathias, he say[s] that Joshua, is his priestly name.

during all this time I did not contradict his sentiments, wishing to draw out all that I could concerning his faith; the next morning Tuesday 10th I resumed the conversation and desired him to enlighten my mind more on his views respecting the resurection, he says that he poss[ess]es the spirit of his fathers, that he is a litteral decendant of Mathias the Apostle that was chosen in the place of Judas that fell and that his spirit is resurected in him, and that this is the way or scheme of eternal life, this transmigration of soul or spirit from Father to Son: I told him that his doctrine was of the Devil that he was in reality in possession of wicked and depraved spirit, although he professed to be the spirit of truth, it self, also that he possesses the soul of Christ; he tarried until Wednesday 11.th, after breckfast I told him, that my God told me that his God is the Devil, and I could not keep him any longer, and he must depart, and so I for once cast out the Devil in bodily shape, & I believe a murderer

Discourse, 12 November 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D5:47–51; J1:96–99	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:308–310
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:300–301
TPJS	89–92
PJS	1:132–135

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a This evening viz the 12th at 6 oclock meet with the council of 12. by their request, 9 of them were present council opened by singing & prayer, and I made some remarks as follows;— I am happy in the enjoyment of this opportunity of meeting with this council on this occasion, I am satisfyed that the spirit of the Lord is here, and I am satisfied with all the breth[r]en present, and I need not say that you have my utmost confidence, and that I intend to uphold, you to the uttermost, for I am well aware that you ~~do and delight in so doing~~ have to sustain my character ~~my charater~~ against the vile calumnies and reproaches of this ungodly generation and that you delight in so doing:— darkness prevails, at this time as it was, at the time Jesus Christ was about to be crucified, the powers of darkness strove to obscure the glorious sun of righteousness that began to dawn upon the world, and was soon to burst in great blessings upon the heads of the faithful, and let me tell you brethren that great blessings awate us at this time and will soon be poured out upon us if we are faithful in all things, for we are even entitled to greater blessings than they were, because the[y] had the person of Christ with them, to instruct them in the great plan of salvation, his personal presence we have not, therefore we need great faith on account of our peculiar circumstances and I am determined to do all that I can to uphold you, although I may do many things <invertaintly [inadvertently]> that are not
- b right in the sight of God; you want to know many things that are before you, that you may know how ~~how~~ to prepare your selves for the great things that God is about to bring to pass; but there is on[e] great deficiency or obstruction, in the way that deprives us of the greater blessings, and in order to make the foundation of this church complete and permanent, we must remove this obstruction, which is to attend to certain duties that we have not as yet attended to; I supposed I had established this church on a permanent foundation when I went to the Missourie and indeed I did so, for if I had been taken away it would have been enough, but I yet live, and therefore God requires more at my hands:— The item to which I wish the more particularly to call your attention to night is the ordinance of washing of feet, this we have not done as yet but it is necessary now as much as it was in the days of the Saviour, and we must have a place prepared, that we may attend to this ordinance, aside from the world; we have not desired much from the hand of the Lord, with that faith and obediance that we ought, yet we have enjoyed great blessings, and we are not so sensible of this as we should be; When or wher has God suffered one of the witnesses or first Elders of this church <to> fall? never nor nowhere amidst all the calamities and judgments that have
- c befallen the inhabitants of the earth his almighty arm has sustained us, men and Devils have raged and spent the malice in vain. we must have all things prepared and call our solem assembly as the Lord has commanded us, that we may be able to accomplish his great work: and it must be done in Gods own way, the house of the Lord must be prepared, and the solem assembly called and organized in it according to the order of the house of God and in it we must attend to the ordinance of washing of feet; it was never intended for any but official members, it is calculated to unite our hearts, that we may be one in feeling and sentiment and that our faith may be strong, so that satan cannot over throw us, nor have any power over us,— the endowment you are so anxious about you cannot comprehend now, nor could Gabriel explain it to the understanding of your dark minds, but strive to be prepared in your hearts, be faithful in all things that when we meet in the solem assembly that is such as God shall name out of all the official members, will meet, and we must be clean evry whit, let us be faithful and silent brethren, <and> if God gives you a manifestation, keep it to yourselves, be watchful and prayerful, and you shall have a prelude of those joys that God will pour out on that day, do not watch for iniquity in each other if you do you will not
- d get an endowment for God will not bestow it on such; but if we are faithful and live by every word that procedes forth from the mouth of God I will venture to prophesy that we shall get a blessing that will be worth remembering if we should live as long as John the Revelator, our blessings will be such as we have not realized before, nor in this generation. The order of the house of God has and ever will be the same, even after Christ comes, and after the termination of the thousand years it will be the same, and we shall finally roll into the celestial kingdom of God and enjoy it forever;— you need an endowment brethren in order that you may be prepared and able to overcome all things, and those that reject your testimony will be damned the sick will be healed the lame made to walk the deaf to hear and the blind to see through your instrumentality;

e But let me tell you that you will not have power after the endowment to heal those who have not faith, nor to benefit them, for you might as well expect to benefit a devil in hell as such a one, who is possessed of his spirit and are willing to keep it for they are habitations for devils and only fit for his society but when you are endowed and prepared to preach the gospel to all nations kindred and touns in there own languages you must faithfully warn all and bind up the testimony and seal up the law and the destroying angel will follow close at your heels and execute his tremendeous mission upon the children of disobediance, and destroy the workers of iniquity, while the saints will be gathered out from among them and stand in holy places ready to meet the bride groom when he comes.—

I feel disposed to speak a few words more to you my brethren concerning the endowment, all who are prepared and are sufficiently pure to abide the presence of the Saviour will see him in the solem assembly.

Revelation, 14 November 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D5:51–53; J1:99–100	JSR	276
DC	—	HC	2:311–312
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:303–304
PJS	1:136

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Thus came the word of the Lord unto me saying:

verily thus saith the the Lord unto my servant Joseph concerning my servant Warren [Parrish], behold his sins are forgiven him because of his desires to do the works of righteousness therefore in as much as he will continue to hearken unto my voice he shall be blessed with wisdom and with a sound mind even above his fellows, behold it shall come to pass in his day that he shall <see> great things shew forth themselves unto my people, he shall see much of my ancient records, and shall know of hid[d]en things, and shall be endowed with a knowledge of hidden languages, and if he desires and shall seek it at my hand, he shall be privileged with writing much of my word, as a scribe unto me for the benefit of my people, therefore this shall be his calling until I shall order it otherwise in my wisdom and it shall be said of him in a time to come, behold Warren the Lords Scribe, for the Lords Seer whom he hath appointed in Israel; Therefore <if he will> keep my commandments he shall be lifted up at the last day, even so Amen

Record, 14 November 1835

Print Sources

JSP	J1:100	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
PJS	1:136–137

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

A Gentleman called this after noon by the name of Erastus Holmes of Newbury Clemon [Clermont] Co. Ohio, he called to make enquiry about the establishment of the Church of the latter-day Saints and to be instructed more perfectly in our doctrine &c I commenced and gave him a brief relation of my experience while in my juvenile years, say from 6, years old up to the time I received the first visitation of Angels which was when I was about 14, years old and also the the visitations that I received afterward, concerning the book of Mormon, and a short account of the rise and progress of the church, up to this, date he listened verry attentively and seemed highly gratified, and intends to unite with the Church he is a verry candid man indeed and I am much pleased with him.

Letter to the Elders of the Church, 16 November 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D5:53–60	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:259–264
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:277–282
TPJS	83–89
PJS	1:137

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a
- To the elders of the church of the Latter Day Saints.*

At the close of my letter in the September No. of the “Messenger and Advocate,” I promised to continue the subject there commenced: I do so with a hope that it may be a benefit and a means of assistance to the elders in their labors, while they are combatting the prejudices of a crooked and perverse generation, by having in their possession, the facts of my religious principles, which are misrepresented by almost all those whose crafts are in danger by the same; and also to aid those who are anxiously inquiring, and have been excited to do so from rumor, in accertaining correctly, what my principles are.

I have been drawn into this course of proceeding, by persecution, that is brought upon us from false rumor, and misrepresentations concerning my sentiments.
- b
- But to proceed, in the letter alluded to. The principles of repentance and baptism for the remission of sins, are not only set forth, but many passages of scripture, were quoted, clearly illucidating the subject; let me add, that I do positively rely upon the truth and veracity of those principles inculcated in the new testament; and then pass from the above named items, on to the item or subject of the gathering, and show my views upon this point: which is an item which I esteem to be of the greatest importance to those who are looking for salvation in this generation, or in these what may be called “the latter times,” as all the prophets that have written, from the days of righteous Abel down to the last man, that has left any testimony on record, for our consideration, in speaking of the salvation of Israel in the last days, goes directly to show, that it consists in the work of the gathering.
- c
- Firstly, I shall begin by quoting from the prophecy of Enoch, speaking of the last days: “Righteousness will I send down out of heaven, and truth will I send forth out of the earth, to bear testimony of mine Only Begotten, his resurrection from the dead, -[this resurrection I understand to be the corporeal body]- yea, and also the resurrection of all men, righteousness and truth will I cause to sweep the earth as with a flood, to gather out mine own elect from the four quarters of the earth, unto a place which I shall prepare; a holy city, that my people may gird up their loins, and be looking forth for the time of my coming: for there shall be my tabernacle; and it shall be called Zion, a New Jerusalem.”
- d
- Now I understand by this quotation, that God clearly manifested to Enoch, the redemption which he prepared, by offering the Messiah as a Lamb slain from before the foundation of the world: by virtue of the same, the glorious resurrection of the Savior, and the resurrection of all the human family,—even a resurrection of their corporeal bodies: and also righteousness and truth to sweep the earth as with a flood. Now I ask how righteousness and truth are agoing to sweep the earth as with a flood? I will answer:—Men and angels are to be co-workers in bringing to pass this great work: and a Zion is to be prepared; even a New Jerusalem, for the elect that are to be gathered from the four quarters of the earth, and to be established an holy city: for the tabernacle of the Lord shall be with them.

Now Enoch was in good company in his views upon this subject. See Revelations, 23:3.—“And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God." I discover by this quotation, that John upon the isle of Patmos, saw the same things concerning the last days, which Enoch saw. But before the tabernacle can be with men, the elect must be gathered from the four quarters of the earth.

- e And to show further upon this subject of the gathering: Moses, after having pronounced the blessing and the cursing upon the children of Israel, for their obedience or disobedience, says thus:—"And it shall come to pass, when all these things are come upon thee, the blessing and the curse which I have set before thee; and thou shalt call them to mind, among all the nations whither the Lord thy God hath driven thee, and shalt return unto the Lord thy God, and shalt obey his voice, according to all that I command thee, this day, thou and thy children, with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, that then the Lord thy God, will turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee, and will return and gather thee from all the nations whither the Lord thy God hath scattered thee; and if any of thine be driven out unto the utmost parts of heaven; from thence will the Lord thy God gather thee; and from thence will he fetch thee."

It has been said by many of the learned, and wise men, or historians, that the Indians, or aborigines of this continent, are of the scattered tribes of Israel. It has been conjectured by many others, that the aborigines of this continent, are not of the tribes of Israel; but the ten tribes have been led away into some unknown regions of the north. Let this be as it may, the prophesy I have just quoted, "will fetch them" in the last days, and place them, in the land which their fathers possessed: and you will find in the 7th verse of the 30th chap. quoted:—"And the Lord thy God will put all these curses upon thine enemies and on them that hate thee, which persecuted thee."

- f Many may say that this scripture is fulfilled, but let them mark carefully what the prophet says: "If any are driven out unto the utmost parts of heaven;" (which must mean the breadths of the earth.) Now this promise is good to any, if there should be such, that are driven out, even in the last days: therefore, the children of the fathers have claim unto this day: and if these curses are to be laid over on the heads of their enemies, wo be unto the Gentiles: See book of Mormon, page 487, Wo unto the unbelieving of the Gentiles, saith the Father. Again see book of Mormon, page 497, which says: "Behold this people will I establish in this land, unto the fulfilling of the covenant which I made with your father Jacob: and it shall be a New Jerusalem." Now we learn from the book of Mormon, the very identical continent and spot of land upon which the New Jerusalem is to stand, and it must be caught up according to the vision of John upon the isle of Patmos. Now many will be disposed to say, that this New Jerusalem spoken of, is the Jerusalem that was built by the Jews on the eastern continent: but you will see from Revelations, 21:2, there was a New Jerusalem coming down from God out of heaven, adorned as a bride for her husband. That after this the Revelator was caught away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and saw the great and holy city descending out of heaven from God. Now there are two cities spoken of here, and as every thing cannot be had in so narrow a compass as a letter, I shall say with brevity, that there is a New Jerusalem to be established on this continent.—And also the Jerusalem shall be rebuilt on the eastern continent. See book of Mormon, page 566. Behold, Ether saw the days of Christ, and he spake also concerning the house of Israel, and the Jerusalem from whence Lehi should come: after it should be destroyed it should be built up again, a holy city unto the Lord: wherefore, it could not be a New Jerusalem, for it had been in a time of old. This may suffice upon the subject of gathering until my next.

- g I now proceed, at the close of my letter, to make a few remarks on the duty of elders with regard to their teaching parents and children, husbands and wives, masters and slaves, or servants, &c. as I said I would in my former letter. And firstly, it becomes an elder when he is travelling through the world, warning the inhabitants of the earth to gather together, that they may be built up an holy city unto the Lord, instead of commencing with children, or those who look up to parents or guardians, to influence their minds, thereby drawing them from their duties, which they rightfully owe to such, they should commence their labors with parents, or guardians, and their teachings should be such as are calculated to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to the fathers. And no influence should be used, with children contrary to the consent of their parents or guardians.—But all such as can be persuaded in a lawful and righteous manner, and with common consent, we should feel it our duty to influence them to gather with the people of God. But otherwise let the responsibility rest upon the heads of parents or guardians, and all condemnation or consequences, be upon their heads, according to the dispensation which he hath committed unto us: for God has so ordained, that his work shall be cut short in righteousness, in the last days: therefore, first teach the parents, and then, with their consent, let him persuade the children to embrace the gospel also. And if children embrace the gospel, and their parents or guardians are unbelievers, teach them to stay at home and be obedient to their parents or guardians, if they require it; but if they consent to let them gather with the people of God let them do so and there shall be no wrong and let all things be done carefully, and righteously, and God will extend his guardian care to all such.

- h And secondly, it should be the duty of elders, when they enter into any house, to let their labors and warning voice, be unto the master of that house: and if he receive the gospel, then he may extend his influence to his wife also, with consent, that peradventure she may receive the gospel; but if a man receive not the gospel, but gives his consent that his wife may receive it, and she believes, then let her receive it. But if the man forbid his wife, or his children before they are of age, to receive the gospel, then it should be the duty of the elder to go his way and use no influence against him: and let the responsibility be upon his head—shake off the dust of thy feet as a testimony against him, and thy skirts shall then be clear of their souls. Their sins are not to be answered upon such as God hath sent to warn them to flee the wrath to come, and save themselves from this untoward generation. The servants of God will not have gone over the nations of the Gentiles, with a warning voice, until the destroying angel will commence to waste the inhabitants of the earth; and as the prophet hath said, "It shall be a vexation to hear the report." I speak because I feel for my fellow-men: I do it in the name of the Lord, being moved upon by the Holy Spirit. O that I could snatch them from the vortex of misery, into which I behold them plunging themselves, by their sins, that I may be enabled, by the warning voice, to be an instrument of bringing them to unfeigned repentance, that they may have faith to stand in the evil day.

i Thirdly, it should be the duty of an elder, when he enters into a house to salute the master of that house, and if he gain his consent, then he may preach to all that are in that house, but if he gain not his consent, let him go not unto his slaves or servants, but let the responsibility be upon the head of the master of that house, and the consequences thereof; and the guilt of that house is no longer upon thy skirts: Thou art free; therefore, shake off the dust of thy feet, and go thy way. But if the master of that house give consent, that thou mayest preach to his family, his wife, his children, and his servants, his man-servants, or his maid-servants, or his slaves, then it should be the duty of the elder to stand up boldly for the cause of Christ, and warn that people with one accord, to repent and be baptized for the remission of sins, and for the Holy Ghost, always commanding them in the name of the Lord, in the spirit of meekness to be kindly affected one towards another; that the fathers should be kind to their children, husbands to their wives; masters to their slaves or servants; children obedient to their parents, wives to their husbands, and slaves or servants to their masters:

j "Wives submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the Savior of the body. Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing. Husbands, love your wives even as Christ also loved the church and gave himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself. For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church: for we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.—For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh."—Ephesians, Chapt. V. from the 22d to the end of the 21st [31st] verse.

k "Wives submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord. Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them. Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord. Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged. Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh: not with eye service as menpleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God."—Colocians, Chapt. III. from the 18th to the end of the 22d verse.

But I must close this letter and resume the subject in another number.

In the bonds of the new and everlasting covenant

JOSEPH SMITH, jr.

To J[ohn] WHITMER, ESQ.

Letter and Revelation to Harvey Whitlock, 16 November 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D5:60–62	JSR	276–277
DC	—	HC	2:314–316
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:313–314
PJS	1:140–142

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a Kirtland Nov. 16th 1835

Bro Harvey Whitlock

I have received your letter of the 28th Sept. 1835, and I have read it twice, and it gave me sensations that are better imagined than discribed; let it suffice, that I say the verry flood-gates of my heart were broken up: I could not refrain from weeping, I thank God, that it has entered into your heart, to try to return to the Lord, and to his people; if it so be, that he will have mercy upon you.

- b I have inquired of the Lord concerning your case, these words came to me
 Verily thus saith the Lord unto you; let him who was my servant Harvey, return unto me;— and unto the bosom of my Church, and forsake all the sins wherewith he has offended against me and persue from hence forth a virtuous and upright life, and remain under the direction of those whom I have appointed to be pillars, and heads of my Church, and behold, saith the Lord, your God; his sins shall be blotted out from under heaven, and shall be forgotten from among men, and shall not come up in mine ears, nor be recorded as  memorial against him, but I will lift him up as out of deep mire, and he shall be exalted upon the high places, and shall be counted worthy to stand ammong princes, and shall yet be made a polished shaft in my quiver, of bringing down the strong holds of wickedness, among those who set themselves up on high, that they may take council against me, and against annointed ones in the last days.
 Therefore let him prepare himself speedily and come unto you; even to Kirtland and inasmuch as he shall harken unto all your council from henceforth he shall be restored unto his former state, and shall be saved unto the uttermost, even as the Lord your God liveth Amen.
- c Thus you see my dear Brother the willingness of our heavenly Father to forgive sins and restore to favour all those who are willing to humble themselves before him, and confess their sins and forsake them, and return to him with full purpose of heart (acting no hypocrisy) to serve him to the end.
 Marvle not that the Lord has condescended to speak from the heavens and give you instructions whereby you may learn your duty, he has heard your prayers, and witnessed your humility; and holds forth the hand of paternal affection, for your return; the angels rejoice over you, while the saints are willing to recieve you again into fellowship.
 I hope on the rec[e]ipt of this, you will ~~not loose any~~ no time in coming to Kirtland: for if you get here in season, you will have the privelege of attending the School of the prophets, which has already commenced and, also received instruction in doctrine, and principle, from those whom God has appointed whereby you may be qualified to go forth, and declare the true doctrines of the kingdom according to the ~~true doctrines of the~~ mind and, will of God. and when you come to Kirtland, it will be explained to you why God has condescended to give you a revelation according to your request.
 please give my respects to you[r] family, and bee assured I am yours in the bonds of the new and everlasting covenant
 Joseph Smith Jun

Revelation, 16 November 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D5:63–64	JSR	277
DC	—	HC	2:316
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:314
PJS	1:142

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

The same night ~~that~~ I received the word of the Lord on Mr. Hlmes [Erastus Holmes's] case, he had, desired that I would inquire at the hand of the Lord whether it was his duty to be baptised here, or wait until he returned home;— The word of the Lord came ~~to~~ unto me saying, that Mr. Holmes had better not be baptised here, and that he had better not return by water, also that there were three men that were seeking his destruction, to be ware of his eneys [enemies]

Book of Abraham Manuscript, circa July–circa November 1835–A [Abraham 1:4–2:6]

Print Sources

JSP	D5:69–80	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Background

Original Source

No attempt here to represent characters in the margins. Also, a discussion of how we aren't including this: <https://www.josephsmithsummary.com/egyptian-alphabet-circa-early-july-circa-november-1835-a/1> .

Text

<J>

- ◆ [1] sign of the fifth degree of the ~~first~~ <Seceond> part
- ◆ [2] I sought for <mine> the appointment ~~whereunto~~ unto the priesthood according to the appointment of God unto the fathers concerning the seed
- ◆ [3] my fathers having turned from their righteousness and from unto them unto the worshiping of the Gods of the hethens
- ◆ [4] utterly refused to harken to my voice for their hearts were set to do evil and were wholly turned to the God of Elk=>Kener and the God of Zibnah and the God of Mah-mackrah and the God of Pharaoh King of Egypt therefore they turned their hearts to the sacrafice of the heathens in offering up their children unto these dumb Idols and harkened not unto my voice but indeovered [endeavored] to take away my life by the hand of the priest of Elk=Kener
- ◆ [5] The priest of Elk=Keenah was also the priest of Pharaoh, now at this time it was the custom of the priest of Pharaoh the King of Egypt to offer up upon the Alter which was built in the land of Chaldea for the offering unto ~~ther~~ these strange gods both men, women, and children— and it came to pass that the priest made an offering unto the god of Pharaoh and also unto the god of Shag=reel even after the manner of the Egyptians now the god of Shag-reel was the Sun— even a thank offering of a child did the priest of Pharaoh offer upon the Alter which stood by the hill called Potipher<s> hill at the head of the plains of Olishem
- ◆ [6] Now this priest had offered off upon this alter three virgins at one time who were the daughters of Onitus Onitah— one of the ~~regular~~ royal discent directly from the loins of Ham these virgins were offered up because of their virtue they would not bow down to worship Gods of wood, or of stone therefore they were Killed upon this alter
- ◆ [7] And it was done after the manner of the Egyptians and it came to pass that the priests laid violence upon me that they might slay me also, as they did those virgins upon this alter, and that you might have a knowledge of this alter <I will refer you to the representation that is at the (commencement of this record)>
- ◆ [8] It was made after, the form of a bedsted such as was had among the Chaldeans and it stood before the Gods of Elk-keenah Zibnah Mah-Mach-rah—and als[o] a God like unto that of pharaoh King of Egypt
- [p. 1]
- <That you may have an understanding of their gods I have given you the fashion of them in the figures at the begining which manner of figures is called by the Chaldians, Ca~~ak~~-lee= Kah-lee=-nos.—>
- <K>
- ◆ [9] And as they lifted up their hands upon me that they might offer me up to ~~and~~ <an and> take away my life behold I lifted up my voice unto the Lord my ~~gøøð~~ God; and the lord harkened, and heard and he filled me with a vision of the almighty and the angel of his presence stood by my feet and immediately loosed my bands
- ◆ [10] And his voice was unto me. Abram Abram Behold my name is Jehovah. and I have heard thee and have come down to deliver thee. and to take thee away from thy fathers house, and from all thy Kinsfolks, in to a strange land which thou knowest not of, and this because ~~their hearts are turned~~ they have turned their hearts away from me to worship the god of Elk Kee-nah and the god of Zibnah- and of Mah-Mach-rah— and the god of pharaoh King of Egypt. Therefore I have come down to visit them. and to distroy him, who hath lifted up his hand against thee ~~Abraham~~ <Abram> my son to ~~distroy thy~~ take away thy life, Behold I will lead thee by my hand and I will take thee, to put upon thee my name even the priesthood of thy father, and my power shall be over thee; as it was with Noah so shall it be with thee, that through thy ministry, my name shall be known, in the earth forever, for I am thy God
- ◆ [11] Behold Potiphers hill was in the land of Ur of Chaldea and the Lord broke down the alter of Elk-Keenah and of the gods of the land, and utterly distroyed them ~~gods of the land~~ and smote the priests that he died and there was great morning in Chaldee and also in the court of Pharaoh which Pharaoh signifies King by royal blood. Now this King of Egypt was a discendent from the loins of Ham and was a partaker of the blood of the Cananitess by birth: From this decent sprang all the Egyptians and thus the blood of the cannites was preserved in the land

◆
<L>

◆ [12] The land of Egypt being first discovered by a woman, who was the daughter of Ham; and the daughter of Zep-tah. which in the Chaldea signifies Egypt, which sign[i]fies that which is forbidden. Whin this woman discovered the land it was under water, who after settled her sons in it: And thus from Ham sprang the that race which preserved the curse in the land.

◆ [13] Now the <first> government of Egypt, was established by Pharaoh the eldest sun <son> of Egyptes the daughter of Ham; and it was after the manner of the government of Ham, which was Patriarchal. Pharaoh being a righteous man established his kingdom, and Judged his people wisely and Justly all his days, seeking earnestly to imitate that order established by the fathers in the first generation in the days of the first Patriarchal reign, even in the reign of Adam. And also Noah his father. For in his days Who <who> blessed him with the blessings of the earth, and of with the blessings of wisdom, but cursed him as pertaining to the priesthood.

◆ [14] Now Pharaoh being of that leniage [lineage] by which he could not have the right of priesthood; notwithstanding the Pharaohs would fain claim it from Noah through Ham: Therefore, my father was led away by their—idolatry, <;> but I shall indeaver [endeavor] hereafter to dilliniate the chronology run[n]ing back from myself to the begining of <the> creation, for the reccords, have eame <come> into my hands which I hold unto this present time

◆ [15] Now after the priest of Elkkeenah was smitten that he died, there came a fulfilment of those things which were spoken unto me concerning the land of Chaldea, that there should be a famine in the land; and accordingly a famine prevailed throughout all the land of Chaldea: and And my father was sorely tormented because of the famine, and he repented of the evil which he had determined against me, to take away my life: But the reccords of the fathers even the patriarchs concerning the right of priesthood, the lord my god preserved in mine own hand<s:>

<M> Therefore a knowledge of the begining of creation an and also of the planets, and of the stars, as it was made known unto the fathers, have I kept even unto this day.—

◆ [16] And I shall endeavor to write some of these things, upon this reccord, for the benefit of my posterity, that shall come after me

◆ [17] Now the Lord God caused the famine to wax soar in the land of E◊ Ur insomuch that Haran my brother died: but Terah my father yet lived in the land of Ur of the chaldees. And it came to pass; that I Abram took sarai to wife, and Nahor my brother took Milcah to wife

◆ [18] Who was the daughter of Haron

◆ [19] Now the Lord had said unto me Abram get the[e] out of thy country, and from thy Kindred and from thy fathers home, unto a land that I will shew thee: Therefore I left the land of Ur of the chaldees to go into the land of canaan; and I took Lot my brothers son, and his wife, and Sarai my wife; and also my father followed after me unto the land which we denominated Haran. And the famine abated, and my father tarried in Haran and dwelt there, as there were many flocks in Haran; And my father turned again unto his idolitry: Therefore he continued in Haran

Now the Lord had said unto Abram <me> get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindr[ed] and from thy fathers home unto a land that I will shew thee. Therefore I left the land of Ur of the chaldees to go into the land of canaan, and I took Lot my bro son and his wife and sarah my wife and also my father follo[we]d me unto the land which we denominated Haran and the famine abated, and my father tarried in Haran and dwelt there as they <there> were <many> flock in Haran. and my father turned again unto his idolitry Therefore he continued in Haran but <I> Abram and and Lot my brothers son prayed unto the Lord, and the Lord appeared

Record, 18 November 1835

Print Sources

JSP	J1:106	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
PJS	1:143–144

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

...at evening Bishop [Newel K.] Whitney his wife Father and Mother, and wife Sister in law, came in and invited me and my wife to go with them & visit Father Smith & family my wife was unwell and could not go; however I and my Scribe went, when we got there, we found that some of the young Elders, were about engaging in a debate, upon the subject of miracles, the question was this; was or was it not the design of Christ to establish his gospel by miracles,

After an interesting debate of three hours or more, during which time much talent was displayed, it was decided by the presidents of the debate in the negative; which was a righteous descision I discovered in this debate, much warmth displayed, to[o] much zeal for mastery, to[o] much of that enthusiasm that characterises a lawyer at the bar, who is determined to defend his cause right or wrong. I therefore availed myself of this favorable opportunity, to drop a few words upon this subject by way of advise, that they might improve their minds and cultivate their powers of intellect in a proper manner, that they might not incur the displeasure of heaven, that they should handle sacred things verry sacredly, and with a due deference to the opinions of others and with an eye single to the glory of God

Record, 24 November 1835

Print Sources

JSP	J1:109–110	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
PJS	1:145–146

Online Access Here

Background

Useful footnotes in the J1 account; compare to 3 December 1835 (which is not in here, see J1:114); compare to 14 December 1836 (which is in here)

Original Source

Text

...I had an invitation, to attend a wedding at Br. Hiram [Hyrum] Smith's in the evening also to solemnize the matrimonial ceremony, <between Newell Knights [Newel Knight] & Lydia Goldthwaite [Bailey]> I and my wife, went, when we arrived a conciderable company, had collected, the bridegroom & bride came in, and took their seats, which gave me to understand that they were ready, I requesteded them to arise and join hands, I then remarked that marriage was an institution of h[e]aven institute [instituted] in the garden of Eden, that it was necessary that it should be Solemnized by the authority of the everlasting priesthood, before joining hands however, we attended prayers. I then made the remarks above stated; The ceremony was original <with me> it was in substance as follows, You covenant to be each others companions through life, and discharge the duties of husband & wife in every respect to which they assented, I then pronounced them husband & Wife in the name of God and also ~~pronounced~~ the blessings that the Lord confered upon adam & Eve in the garden of Eden; that is to multiply and replenish the earth, with the addition of long life and prosperity; dismissed them and returned home...

Letter to the Elders of the Church, 30 November–1 December 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D5:89–100	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:264–272
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:304–311
TPJS	94–102
PJS	1:149

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a To the Elders of the Church of the Latter Day Saints.

I have shown unto you, in my last, that there are two Jerusalems spoken of in holy writ, in a manner I think satisfactorily to your minds: At any rate I have given my views upon the subject. I shall now proceed to make some remarks from the sayings of the Savior, recorded in the 13th chapter of his gospel according to St Matthew, which in my mind affords us as clear an understanding, upon the important subject of the gathering, as any thing recorded in the bible. At the time the Savior spoke these beautiful sayings and parables, contained in the chapter above quoted, we find him seated in a ship, on the account of the multitude that pressed upon him to hear his words, and he commenced teaching them by saying: "Behold a sower went forth to sow, and when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up; some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth, and forthwith they sprang up because they had no deepness of earth, and when the sun was up, they were scorched, and because they had not root they withered away; and some fell among thorns and the thorns sprang up and choked them; but other, fell into good ground and brought forth fruit, some an hundred fold, some sixty fold, some thirty fold: who hath ears to hear let him hear. And the disciples came and said unto him, why speakest thou unto them in parables, (I would remark here, that the "them," made use of, in this interrogation, is a personal pronoun and refers to the multitude,) he answered and said unto them, (that is the disciples,) it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but unto them (that is unbelievers) it is not given, for whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance; but whosoever hath not, shall be taken away, even that he hath."

b We understand from this saying, that those who had previously been looking for a Messiah to come, according to the testimony of the Prophets, and were then, at that time, looking for a Messiah, but had not sufficient light on the account of their unbelief, to discern him to be their Savior; and he being the true Messiah, consequently they must be disappointed and lose even all the knowledge, or have taken away from them, all the light, understanding and faith, which they had upon this subject: therefore he that will not receive the greater light, must have taken away from him, all the light which he hath. And if the light which is in you, become darkness, behold how great is that darkness? Therefore says the Savior, speak I unto them in parables, because they, seeing, see not; and hearing, they hear not; neither do they understand: and in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith: by hearing ye shall hear and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see and not perceive.

Now we discover, that the very reasons assigned by this prophet, why they would not receive the Messiah, was, because they did or would not understand; and seeing they did not perceive: for this people's heart is waxed gross; their ears are dull of hearing; their eyes they have closed, lest at any time, they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their hearts, and should be converted and I should heal them.

c But what saith he to his disciples: Blessed are your eyes, for they see, and your ears, for they hear; for verily I say unto you, that many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

We again make a remark here, for we find that the very principles upon which the disciples were accounted blessed, was because they were permitted to see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and the condemnation which rested upon the multitude, which received not his saying, was because they were not willing to see with their eyes and hear with their ears; not because they could not and were not privileged to see, and hear, but because their hearts were full of iniquity and abomination: as your fathers did so do ye.— The prophet foreseeing that they would thus harden their hearts plainly declared it; and herein is the condemnation of the world, that light hath come into the world, and men choose darkness rather than light because their deeds are evil: This is so plainly taught by the Savior, that a wayfaring man need not mistake it.

d And again hear ye the parable of the sower: Men are in the habit, when the truth is exhibited by the servants of God, of saying, all is mystery, they are spoken in parables, and, therefore, are not to be understood, it is true they have eyes to see, and see not; but none are so blind as those who will not see: And although the Savior spoke this parable to such characters, yet unto his disciples he expounded it plainly; and we have reason to be truly humble before the God of our fathers, that he hath left these things on record for us, so plain, that, notwithstanding the exertions and combined influence of the priests of Baal, they have not power to blind our eyes and darken our understanding, if we will but open our eyes and read with candor, for a moment. But listen to the explanation of the parable: when any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. Now mark the expression; that which was before sown in his heart; this is he which received seed by the way side; men who have no principle of righteousness in themselves, and whose hearts are full of iniquity, and who have no desire for the principles of truth, do not understand the word of truth, when they hear it.— The devil taketh away the word of truth out of their hearts, because there is no desire for righteousness in them. But he that received the seed into stony places the same is he that heareth the word and, anon, with joy receiveth it, yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for awhile; for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended. He also that received seed among the thorns is he that receiveth the word, and the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful: but he that received seed into the good ground, is he that heareth the word and understandeth it which also beareth fruit and bringeth forth some an hundred fold, some sixty, some thirty. Thus the Savior himself explains unto his disciples the parable, which he put forth and left no mystery or darkness upon the minds of those who firmly believe on his words.

e We draw the conclusion then, that the very reason why the multitude, or the world, as they were designated by the Savior, did not receive an explanation upon his parables, was, because of unbelief. To you, he says, (speaking to his disciples) it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: and why? because of the faith and confidence which they had in him. This parable was spoken to demonstrate the effects that are produced by the preaching of the word; and we believe that it has an allusion directly, to the commencement, or the setting up of the kingdom in that age: therefore, we shall continue to trace his sayings concerning this kingdom from that time forth, even unto the end of the world.

f Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, (which parable has an allusion to the setting up of the kingdom, in that age of the world also) the kingdom of Heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field, but while men slept an enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat and went his way; but when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also; so the servants of the householder came and said unto him, sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares? He said unto them, an enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him wilt thou then that we go and gather them up; but he said nay, lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.— Let both grow together until the harvest, and in the time of the harvest, I will say to the reapers, gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles, to burn them; but gather the wheat into my barn.

g Now we learn by this parable, not only the setting up of the kingdom in the days of the Savior, which is represented by the good seed, which produced fruit, but also the corruptions of the church, which is represented by the tares, which were sown by the enemy, which his disciples would fain have plucked up, or cleansed the church of, if their views had been favored by the Savior; but he, knowing all things, says not so; as much as to say, your views are not correct, the church is in its infancy, and if you take this rash step, you will destroy the wheat or the church with the tares: therefore it is better to let them grow together until the harvest, or the end of the world, which means the destruction of the wicked; which is not yet fulfilled; as we shall show hereafter, in the Savior's explanation of the parable, which is so plain, that there is no room left for dubiety upon the mind, notwithstanding the cry of the priests, parables, parables! figures, figures! mystery, mystery! all is mystery! but we find no room for doubt here, as the parables were all plainly elucidated.

And again, another parable put he forth unto them, having an allusion to the kingdom which should be set up, just previous or at the time of harvest, which reads as follows:—The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field, which indeed is the least of all seeds, but when it is grown it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof. Now we can discover plainly, that this figure is given to represent the church as it shall come forth in the last days. Behold the kingdom of heaven is likened unto it. Now what is like unto it?

h Let us take the book of Mormon, which a man took and hid in his field; securing it by his faith, to spring up in the last days, or in due time: let us behold it coming forth out of the ground, which is indeed accounted the least of all seeds, but behold it branching forth; yea, even towering, with lofty branches, and God-like majesty, until it becomes the greatest of all herbs: and it is truth, and it has sprouted and come forth out of the earth; and righteousness begins to look down from heaven; and God is sending down his powers, gifts and angels, to lodge in the branches thereof: The kingdom of heaven is like unto a mustard seed. Behold, then, is not this the kingdom of heaven that is raising its head in the last days, in the majesty of its God; even the church of the Latter day saints,—like an impenetrable, immovable rock in the midst of the mighty deep, exposed to storms and tempests of satan, but has, thus far, remained steadfast and is still braving the mountain waves of opposition, which are driven by the tempestuous winds of sinking crafts, have and are still dashing with tremendous foam, across its triumphing brow, urged onward with redoubled fury by the enemy of righteousness, with his pitchfork of lies, as you will see fairly represented in a cut, contained in Mr. [Eber D.] Howe's "Mormonism Unveiled?"

i And we hope that this adversary of truth will continue to stir up the sink of iniquity, that people may the more readily discern between the righteous and wicked. We also would notice one of the modern sons of Sceva, who would fain have made people believe that he could cast out devils, by a certain pamphlet (viz. the "Millenial Harbinger,") that went the rounds through our country, who felt so fully authorized to brand Jo Smith, with the appellation of Elymus the sorcerer, and to say with Paul, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord! We would reply to this gentleman—Paul we know, and Christ we know, but who are ye? And with the best of feelings, we would say to him, in the language of Paul to those who said they were John's disciples, but had not so much as heard there was a Holy Ghost, to repent and be baptised for the remission of sins by those who have legal authority, and under their hands you shall receive the Holy Ghost, according to the scriptures.

Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost.—Acts: ch. 8, v. 17.

And, when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied.—Acts: ch. 19, v. 6.

Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.—Heb. ch. 6, v.2.

j How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!—Rom. ch. 10, v. 14–15.

But if this man will not take our admonition, but will persist in his wicked course, we hope that he will continue trying to cast out devils, that we may have the clearer proof that the kingdom of satan is divided against itself, and consequently cannot stand: for a kingdom divided against itself, speedily hath an end. If we were disposed to take this gentleman upon his own ground and justly heap upon him that which he so readily and unjustly heaps upon others, we might go farther; we might say that he has wickedly and maliciously lied about, vilified and traduced the characters of innocent men. We might invite the gentleman to a public investigation of these matters; yea, and we do challenge him to an investigation upon any or all principles wherein he feels opposed to us, in public or in private.

k We might farther say that, we could introduce him to "Mormonism Unveiled." Also to the right honorable Doct. P. Hurlburt [Doctor Philastus Hurlbut], who is the legitimate author of the same, who is not so much a doctor of physic, as of falsehood, or by name We could also give him an introduction to the reverend Mr. Howe, the illegitimate author of "Mormonism Unveiled," in order to give currency to the publication, as Mr. Hurlburt, about this time, was bound over to court, for threatening life. He is also an associate of the celebrated Mr. [Orris] Clapp, who has of late immortalised his name by swearing that he would not believe a Mormon under oath; and by his polite introduction to said Hurlburt's wife, which cost him (as we have been informed) a round sum. Also his son Mathew [Matthew Clapp] testified that, the book of Mormon had been proved false an hundred times, by How's book: and also, that he would not believe a Mormon under oath. And also we could mention the reverend Mr. [Adamson] Bentley, who, we believe, has been actively engaged in injuring the character of his brother-in-law, viz: Elder S[Sidney] Rigdon.

Now, the above statements are according to our best information: and we believe them to be true; and this is as fair a sample of the doctrine of Campbellism, as we ask, taking the statements of these gentlemen, and judging them by their fruits. And we might add many more to the black catalogue; even the ringleaders, not of the Nazarenes, for how can any good thing come out of Nazareth, but of the far-famed Mentor mob: all sons and legitimate heirs to the same spirit of Alexander Campbell, and "Mormonism Unveiled," according to the representation in the cut spoken of above.

l The above cloud of darkness has long been beating with mountain waves upon the immovable rock of the church of the Latter Day Saints, and notwithstanding all this, the mustard seed is still towering its lofty branches, higher and higher, and extending itself wider and wider, and the charriot wheels of the kingdom are still rolling on, impelled by the mighty arm of Jehovah; and in spite of all opposition will still roll on until his words are all fulfilled.

Our readers will excuse us for deviating from the subject, when they take into consideration the abuses, that have been heaped upon us heretofore, which we have tamely submitted to, until forbearance is no longer required at our hands, having frequently turned both the right and left cheek, we believe it our duty now to stand up in our own defence. With these remarks we shall proceed with the subject of the gathering.

And another parable spake he unto them: The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, until the whole was leavened. It may be understood that the church of the Latter Day Saints, has taken its rise from a little leaven that was put into three witnesses. Behold, how much this is like the parable: it is fast leavening the lump, and will soon leaven the whole. But let us pass on.

m All these things spake Jesus unto the multitudes, in parables, and without a parable spake he not unto them, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying: I will open my mouth in parables: I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world: Then Jesus sent the multitude away and went into the house, and his disciples came unto him, saying, declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field. He answered and said unto them, he that soweth the good seed is the son of man; the field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom, but the tares are the children of the wicked one. Now let our readers mark the expression, the field is the world; the tares are the children of the wicked one: the enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world. Let them carefully mark this expression also, the end of the world, and the reapers are the angels. Now men cannot have any possible grounds to say that this is figurative, or that it does not mean what it says; for he is now explaining what he had previously spoken in parables; and according to this language, the end of the world is the destruction of the wicked; the harvest and the end of the world have an allusion directly to the human family in the last days, instead of the earth, as many have imagined, and that which shall precede the coming of the Son of man, and the restitution of all things spoken of by the mouth of all the holy prophets since the world began; and the angels are to have something to do in this great work, for they are the reapers: as therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire, so shall it be in the end of this world; that is, as the servants of God go forth warning the nations, both priests and people, and as they harden their hearts and reject the light of the truth, these first being delivered over unto the buffetings of satan, and the law and the testimony being closed up, as it was with the Jews, they are left in darkness, and delivered over unto the day of burning: thus being bound up by their creeds and their bands made strong by their priests, are prepared for the fulfilment of the saying of the Savior: the Son of man shall send forth his angels, and gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity, and shall cast them into a furnace of fire and there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

o We understand, that the work of the gathering together of the wheat into barns, or garners, is to take place while the tares are being bound over, and preparing for the day of burning: that after the day of burnings, the righteous shall shine forth like the sun, in the kingdom of their Father: who hath ears to hear let him hear.

But to illustrate more clearly upon this gathering, we have another parable. Again the kingdom of heaven is like a treasure hid in a field, the which when a man hath found, he hideth and for joy thereof, goeth and selleth all that he hath and buyeth that field: for the work after this pattern, see the church of the Latter Day Saints, selling all that they have and gathering themselves together unto a place that they may purchase for an inheritance, that they may be together and bear each other's afflictions in the day of calamity.

Again the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man seeking goodly pearls, who when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it. For the work of this example, see men travelling to find places for Zion, and her stakes or remnants, who when they find the place for Zion, or the pearl of great price; straitway sell all that they have and buy it.

p Again the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind, which when it was full they drew to shore, and sat down and gathered the good into vessels, and cast the bad away.— For the work of this pattern, behold the seed of Joseph, spreading forth the gospel net, upon the face of the earth, gathering of every kind, that the good may be saved in vessels prepared for that purpose, and the angels will take care of the bad: so shall it be at the end of the world, the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just, and cast them into the furnace of fire, and there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

Jesus saith unto them, have you understood all these things? they say unto him yea Lord: and we say yea Lord, and well might they say yea Lord, for these things are so plain and so glorious, that every Saint in the last days must respond with a hearty amen to them.

q Then said he unto them, therefore every scribe which is instructed into the kingdom of heaven, is like unto a man that is an house holder; which bringeth forth out of his treasure things that are new and old.

For the work of this example, see the book of Mormon, coming forth out of the treasure of the heart; also the covenants given to the Latter Day Saints: also the translation of the bible: thus bringing forth out of the heart, things new and old: thus answering to three measures of meal, undergoing the purifying touch by a revelation of Jesus Christ, and the ministering of angels, who have already commenced this work in the last days, which will answer to the leaven which leavened the whole lump. Amen.

So I close but shall continue the subject in another number.

In the bonds of the new and everlasting covenant.

JOSEPH SMITH, jr.

To J[ohn] WHITMER Esq.

Record, 2 December 1835

Print Sources

JSP	J1:113–114	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
PJS	1:149–150

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

...we overtook a team with two men on the sleigh. I politely asked them to let me pass, they granted my request, and as we passed them, they bawled out, do you get any revelation lately, with an addition of blackguard that I did not understand, this is a fair sample of the character of Mentor Street inhabitants, who are ready to abuse and scandalize, men who never laid a straw in their way, and infact those whos faces they never saw, and cannot, bring an acusation, against, either of a temporal or spirtual nature; except our firm belief in the fulness of the gospel and I was led to marvle ~~that God~~ at the long suffering and condescention of our heavenly Father, in permitting, these ungodly wretches, to possess, this goodly land, which is the indeed as beautifully situated, and its soil as fertile, as any in this region of country, and its inhabitance, as wealthy even blessed, above measure, in temporal things, and fain, would God bless, them with, ~~with~~ spiritual blessings, even eternal life, were it not for their evil hearts of unbelief, and we are led to ~~ery in our hearts~~ mingle our prayers with those saints that have suffered the like treatment before us, whose souls are under the altar crying to the Lord for vengance upon those that dwell upon the earth and we rejoice that the time is at hand when, the wicked who will not repent will be swept <from the earth> with the besom of destruction and the earth become an inheritance for the poor and the meek...

Record, 9 December 1835

Print Sources

JSP	J1:118	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
PJS	1:155–156

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

...My heart swells with gratitude inexpressible when I realize the great condescension of my heavenly Fathers, in opening the hearts of these, my beloved brethren to administer so liberally, to my wants and I ask God in the name of Jesus Christ, to multiply, blessings, without number upon their heads, and bless me with much wisdom and understanding, and dispose of me, to the best advantage, for my brethren, and the advancement, of thy cause and Kingdom, and whether my days are many or few whether in life or in death I say in my heart, O Lord let me enjoy the society of such brethren...

Record, 10 December 1835

Print Sources

JSP	J1:118–119	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
PJS	1:156–157

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a ...a beautiful morning, indeed, and fine sleighing, this day my brethren, meet according, to previous arrangement, to chop and haul wood for me, and they have been verry industrious, and I think they have supplied me, with my winters wood, for which I am sincerely grateful to each and every, one of them, for this expression of their, goodness towards me
- And in the name of Jesus Christ I envoke the rich benediction of heavn to rest upon them, ~~even all~~ and their families, and I ask my heavenly Father to preserve their health's and those of their wives and children, that they may have strength. of body to perform, their, labours, in their several ocupations in life, and the use and activity of their limbs, also powers of intellect and understanding hearts, that they may treasure up, wisdom, ~~and~~ understanding, ~~until~~ and inteligence, above measure, and be preserved from plagues pestilence, and famine, and from the power of the adversary, and the hands of evil designing, men and have power over all their enemys; and the way be prepared before them, that they may journey to the land of Zion and be established, on their inheritances, to enjoy undisturbe[d], peace and happiness for ever, and ultimately, to be crowned with everlasting life in the celestial kingdom of God, which blessings I ask in the name of Jesus of Nazareth. Amen
- b I would remember Elder Leonard Rich who was the first one that proposed to the brethren, to assist me, in, obtaining wood for the use of my family, for which I pray my heavenly Father, to bless <him> with all the blessings, named above, and I shall ever remember him with much gratitude, for this testimony, of benevolence and respect, and thank the great I am, for puting into his heart, to do me this kindness, and I say in my heart, I will trust in thy goodness, and mercy, forever, for thy wisdom and benevolence <O Lord> is unbounded and beyond the comprehension; of men and all of thy ways cannot be found out...

Record, 12 December 1835

Print Sources

JSP	J1:120–121	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
PJS	1:158–159

Online Access Here

Background

See the J1 entry for 16 December.

Original Source

Text

- a ...at about 12 oclock a number of young person[s] called to see the ~~records~~ Egyptian records I requested my Scribe to exhibit them, he did so, one of the young ladies, who had been examining them, was asked if they had the appearance of Antiquity, she observed with an air of contempt that they did not, on hearing this I was surprised at the ignorance she displayed, and I observed to her that she was an anomaly in creation for all the wise and learned that had ever examined them, without hesitation pronounced them antient, I further remarked that, it was downright wickedness ignorance bigotry and superstition that caused her to make the remark, and that I would put it on record, and I have done so because it is a fair sample of the prevailing spirit of the times showing that the victims of priestcraft and superstition, would not believe though one should rise from the dead.
- b At evening attended a debate, at Br. W^m. Smiths, the question proposed to debate upon was, as follows.— was it necessary for God to reveal himself to man, in order for their happiness,— I was on the affirmative and the last One to speak on that side of the question,— but while listning, with interest to the, ingenuity displayed, on both sides of the qu[e]stion, I was called, away to visit, Sister Angeline Work[s], who was suposed to be dangerously sick...

Record, 13 December 1835

Print Sources

JSP	J1:121–122	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
PJS	1:160

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

...We then rode to Mr. [Isaac] McWithy's a distance of about 3, miles from Town, where I had been Solicited, to attend, and solemnize, the matrimonial covenant betwe[e]n Mr. E[dwin] Webb & Miss E. A. McWithy [Eliza Ann McWethy], the parents and many of the connections of both parties were present, with a large and respectable company of friends, who were invited as guests; and after making the necessary arangements the company come to order, and the Groom & bride, with the attendants politely came forward, and took their seats, and having been requested, to make some preliminary remarks upon the subject of matrimony, touching the design of the All Mighty in this institution, also the duties, of husbands & wives towards eac[h]other, and after opening our interview, with singing and prayer, I delivered a lecture of about 40, minuits in length, during this time all seemed to be interested, except~~one~~ one or two individuals, who manifested, a spirit of grovling contempt, which I was constrained to reprove and rebuke sharply, after I had ~~been~~ closed my remarks, I sealed the matrimonial ceremony in the name of God, and pronounced the blessings of heaven. upon the heads of the young married couple we then closed by returning thanks...

Record, 14 December 1835

Print Sources

JSP	J1:122	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
PJS	1:161

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

...To day Samuel Branum [Brannan] came to my house, much afflicted with a swelling on his left arm, which was occasioned by a bruise on his elbow, we had been called to pray for him and anoint him with oil, but his faith was not sufficient to effect, a cure, and my wife prepared a poultice of herbs and applied to it and he tarried with me over night...

Record, 15 December 1835

Print Sources

JSP	J1:123	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
PJS	1:161–162

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a ...This afternoon Elder Orson Hyde, handed me a Letter, the purport of which is that he is dissatisfied with the committee, in their dealings, with him in temporal affairs, that is that they do not deal as liberally ~~in~~ <with> him as they do with Elder William Smith, also requested me to reconcile the revelation, given to the 12, since their return from the East,

That unless these things and others named in the letter, could be reconciled to his mind his honour would not stand united with them,— this I believe is the amount of the contents of the letter although much was written, my feelings on this occasion, were much lacerated, knowing that I had dealt in righteousness with him in all things and endeavoured to promote

- b his happiness and well being, as much as lay in my power, and I feel that these reflections are ungrateful and founded in jealousy and that the adversary is striving with all his subtle devices and influence to destroy him by causing a division amon[g] the twelve that God has chosen to open the gospel kingdom in all nations, but I pray my Heavenly Father in the name of Jesus of Nazareth that he may be delivered from the power of the destroyer, ~~and~~ that his faith fail not in this hour of temptation, and prepare him and all the Elders to receive an endowment, in thy house, even according to ~~thy~~ <thine> own order from time to time as thou seeest them worthy to be called into thy Solemn Assembly.

Record, 16 December 1835

Print Sources

JSP	J1:123–124	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
PJS	1:163

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

...Returned home Elder McLellen [William E. McLellin] Elder B[righam] Young and Elder J[ared] Carter called and paid me a visit, with which I was much gratified, I exhibited and explained the Egyptian Records to them, and explained many things to them concerning the dealings of God with the ancient<s> and the formation of the planetary System, they seemed much pleased with the interview...

Letter to William Smith, circa 18 December 1835

Print Sources

JSP	D5:115–121; J1:131–134	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:340–343
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:334–337
PJS	1:170–175

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a Kirtland Friday Dec 17th <18th> 1835

Answer to the foregoing Letter from Br. William Smith a Copy Br. William.

having received your letter I now procede to answer it, and shall first procede, to give a brief naration of my feelings and motives, since the night I first came to the knowledge, of your having a debating school, which was at the time I happened, in with, Bishop [Newel K.] Whitney his Father and Mother &c— which was the first that I knew any thing about it, and from that time I took an interest in them, and was delighted with it, and formed a determination, to attend the school for the purpose of obtaining information, and with the idea of imparting the same, through the assistance of the spirit of the Lord, if by any means I should have faith to do so; and with this intent, I went to the school on <last> Wedensday night, not with the idea of braking up the school, neither did it enter into my heart, that there was any wrangling or jealousy's in your heart, against me;

b Notwithstanding previous to my leaving home there were feelings of solemnity, rolling across my breast, which were unaccountable to me, and also these feelings continued by spells to depress my feelings <spirit> and seemed to manifest that all was not right, even after the debate school commenced, and during the debate, yet I strove to believe that all would work together for good; I was pleased with the power of the arguments, that were aduced, and did not feel to cast any reflections, upon any one that had spoken; but I felt that it was my <the> duty of old men that set as presidents to be as grave, at least as young men, and that it was our duty to smile at solid arguments, and sound reasoning, and be impreessed, with solemnity, which should be manifest in our countenance, when folly and that which militates against truth and righteousness, rears its head

Therefore in the spirit of my calling and in view of the authority of the priesthood that has been confered upon me, it would be my duty to reprove whatever I esteemed to be wrong fondly hoping in my heart that all parties, would concider it right, and therefore humble themselves, that satan might not take the advantage of us, and hinder the progress of our School.

c Now Br. William I want you should bear with me, notwithstanding my plainness—

I would say to you that my feelings, were grieved at the interruption you made upon Elder McLellen [William E. McLellin], I thought, you should have concidered your relation, with him, in your Apostle ship, and not manifest any division of sentiment, between you, and him, for a surrounding multitude to take the advantage of you:— Therefore by way of entreaty, on the account of the anxiety I had for your influence and wellfare, I said, unto you, do not have any feelings, or something to that amount, why I am thus particular, is that if You, have misconstrued, my feelings, toward you, you may be corrected.—

But to procede— after the school was closed Br. Hyrum [Smith], requested, the privilege, of speaking, you objected, however you said if he would not abuse the school, he might speak, and that you would not allow any man to abuse the school in your house,—

Now you had no reason to suspect that Hyrum, would abuse the school, therefore my feelings were mortified, at those unnessa[r]y observations, I undertook to reason, with you but you manifested, an inconsiderate and stubborn spirit, I then dispared, of benefiting you, on the account of the spirit you manifested, which drew from, me the expression that you was as ugly as the Devil.

- d Father then commanded silence and I formed a determination, to obey his mandate, and was about to leave the house, with the impression, that You was under the influence of a wicked spirit, you replied that you, would say what you pleased in your own house, Father replied, say what you please, but let the rest hold their, touns, then a reflection, rushed through my mind, of the, anxiety, and care I had <hav> had for you and your family, in doing what I did, in finishing your house and providin flour for your family &c and also father had possession in the house, as well, as your self; and when at any time have I transgressed, the commandments of my father? or sold my birthright, that I should not have the privilege of speaking in my fathers house, or in other words in my fathers family, or in your house, (for so we will call it, and so it shall be,) that I should not have the privilege, of reprovng a younger brother, therefore I said I will speak, for I built the house, and it is as much mine as yours, or something, to that effect, (I should have said that. I helped finish the house,) I said it merely to show that it could not be, the right spirit, that would rise up for trifling matters, and undertake to put me to silence, I saw that your indignation was kindled against me, and you made towards me, I was not then to be moved, and I thought, to pull off my loose coat, least it should tangle me, and you be left to hurt me, but not with the intention, of hurting You, but you was to[o] soon for me, and having once fallen into the hands of a mob, and now been wounded in my side, and now into the hands of a brother, my side gave way, and after having been rescued, from your grasp, I left your house, with, feelings that were indiscibale [indescribable], the scenery had changed, and all those expectations, that I had cherished, when going to your house, of brotherly kindness, charity forbearance and natural, affection, that in duty binds us not to make eachothers offenders for a word. but
- e

But alas! abuse, anger, malice, hatred, and rage <with a lame side> with marks, of violence <heaped> upon my body me by a brother, were the reflections of my disapointment, and with these I returned home, not able to sit down, or rise up, without help, but through the blessings of God I am now better.—

- f I have received your letter and purused it with care, I have not entertained a feeling of malice, against you, I am, older than you and have endured, more suffering, having been mar[r]ed by mobs, the labours of my calling, a series of persecution, and injuries, continually heaped upon me, all serve to debilitate, my body, and it may <be> that I cannot boast of being stronger, than you, if I could, or could not, would this be an honor, or dishonor to me,— if I could boast like David of slaying a Goliath, who defied the armies of the living God, or like Paul, of contending with Peter face to face, with sound arguments, it might be an honor, But to mangle the flesh or seek revenge upon one who never done you any wrong, can not be a source of sweet reflection, to you, nor to me, neither to an honorable father & mother, brothers, and sisters, and when we reflect, with what care our parents and with what unremiting diligence our parents, have strove to watch over us, and how many hours, of sorrow, and anxiety, they have spent over our cradles and bedsides, in times of sickness, how careful we ought to be of their feelings in their old age, it cannot be a source of sweet reflection to us to say or do any thing that will bring their grey hairs down with sorrow to the grave,
- g

In your letter you asked my forgiveness, which I readily grant, but it seems to me, that you still retain an idea, that I have given you reasons to be angry or disaffected with me,

Grant me the privilege of saying then, that however hasty, or harsh, I may have spoken, at any time to you, it has been done for the express purpose of endeavouring, to warn exhort, admonish, and rescue you, from falling into difficulties, and sorrows which I foresaw you plunging into, by giving way to that wicked spirit, which you call your passions, which you should curbe and break down, and put under your feet, which if you do not you, never can be saved, in my view, in the kingdom of God.

God requires the will of his creatures, to be swallowed up in his will.

You desire to remain in the church, but forsake your apostleship, this is a stratagem of the evil one, when he has gained one advantage, you he lays a plan for another, by <but> by maintaining your apostleship in rising up, and making one tremendous effort, you may overcome your passions, and please God and by forsaking your apostleship, is not to be willing, to make that sacrafice that God requires at your hands and is to incur his displeasure, and without pleasing God do not think, that it will be any better for you, when a man falls one step he must regain that step again, or fall another, he has still more to gain, or eventually all is lost.

- h I desire brother William that you will humble yourself, I freely forgive you and you know, my unshaken and unshaken unchangable disposition I think know in whom I trust, I stand upon the rock, the floods cannot, no they shall not overthrow me, you know the doctrine I teach is true, and you know that God has blessed me, I brought salvation to my fathers house, as an instrument in the hand of God, when they were in a miserable situation, You know that it is my duty to admonish you when you do wrong this liberty I shall always take, and you shall have the same privelege, I take the privelege, to admonish you because of my birthright, and I grant you the privilege because it is my duty, to be humble and to receive rebuke, and instruction, from a brother or a friend.

i As it regards, what course you shall persue hereafter, I do not pretend to say, I leave you in the hands of God and his church. Make your own desision, I will do you good altho you mar me, or slay me, by so doing my garments, shall be clear of your sins, and if at any time you should concider me to be an imposter, for heavens sake leave me in the hands of God, and not think to take vengeance on me your self.

Tyrany ursurpation, and to take mens rights ever has and ever shall be banished from my heart.

David sought not to kill Saul, although he was guilty of crimes that never entered my heart.

And now may God have mercy upon my fathers house, may God take away enmity, from betwe[e]n me and thee, and may all blessings be restored, and the past be forgotten forever, may humble repentance bring us both to thee <O God> and to thy power and protection, and a crown, to enjoy the society of father mother Alvin Hyrum Sophron[i]a Samuel Catharine [Katharine] Carlross [Don Carlos] Lucy the Saints and all the sanctif[ie]d in peace forever<, is the prayer of>

This from Your brother
Joseph Smith Jun

To William Smith

Record, 19 December 1835

Print Sources

JSP	J1:135	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
PJS	1:176

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

...I have had many solemn feelings this day Concerning my Brothe[r] William and have prayed in my heart to fervently that the Lord will not him <cast him> off but <he> may return to the God of Jacob and magnify his apostleship and calling may this be his happy lot for the Lord of Glorys Sake Amen

Record, 21 December 1835

Print Sources

JSP	J1:135	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
PJS	1:176

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

...At home Spent this in indeavering to treasure up know[ll]edge for the be[n]lfit of my Calling the <day> pas[s]led of[f] very pleasantly for which I thank the Lord for his blessings to my soul his great mercy over my Family in sparingly our lives O Continue thy Care over me and mine for Christ sake

Record, 22 December 1835

Print Sources

JSP	J1:135	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
PJS	1:176–177

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

At home this Continued my studys O may God give me learning even Language and indo [endue] me with qualifycations to magnify his name while I live I also deliv[er]ed an address to the Church this Evening the Lord blessed my Soul, my scribe also is unwell O my God heal him and for his kindness to me O my soul be thou greatful to him and bless him and he shall be blessed of for ever of God forever I believe him to be a faithful friend to me therefore my soul delighteth in him Amen

Revelation, 26 December 1835 [D&C 108]

Print Sources

JSP	D5:122–123; J1:137–138	JSR	277–278
DC	Section 108	HC	2:345
HDDC	1433–1439	TCHC	2:338–339
PJS	1:178

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

The following is a revelation given to Lyman Sherman this day 26 Dec 1835

Verily thus saith the Lord unto you my servant Lyman your sins are forgiven you because you have obeyed my voice in coming up hither this morning to receive council of him whom I have appointed

Therefore let your soul be at rest concerning your spiritual standing, and resist no more my voice, and arise up, and be more careful henceforth in observing your vows which you have made and do make, and you shall be blessed with exceding great blessings. Wait patiently untill the time when the solemn assembly shall be called of my servants then you shall be numbered with the first of mine elders and receive right by ordination with the rest of mine elders whom I have chosen

Behold this is the promise of the father unto you if you continue faithful—and it shall be fulfilled upon you in that day that you shall have right to preach my gospel wheresoever I shall send you from henceforth from that time, Therefore strengthen your brethren in all your conversation in all your prayers, and in all your exhortations, and in all your doings, and behold and lo I am with you to bless you and deliver you forever Amen

1836

Joseph Smith

Introduction to 1836

Record, 1 January 1836

Print Sources

JSP	J1:140–141	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
PJS	1:181–183

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Friday morning Jan^y. 1st. 1836 this being the beginning of a new year, my heart is filled with gratitude to God, that he has preserved my life and the life <lives> of my family while another year has rolled away, we have been, sustained and upheld in the midst of a wicked and perverse generation, and exposed to all, the afflictions temptations and misery that are incident to human life, for which I feel to humble myself in dust and ashes, as it were before the Lord— but notwithstanding, the gratitude that fills my heart on retrospecting the past year, and the multiplyed blessings that have crowned our heads, my heart is pained within me because of the difficulty that ~~in~~ exists in my fathers family, the Devil has made a violent attack on Br. W^m [Smith] and Br Calvin [Stoddard] and the powers of darkness, seeme [to] lower over their minds and not only theirs but cast a gloomy shade over the minds of my ~~my~~ parents and somee of my brothers and sisters, which prevents them from seeing things as they realy are, and the powers of Earth & hell seem combined to overthrow us and the Church by causing a division in the family, and is indeed the adversary is bring[ing] into requisition all his subtlety to prevent the Saints from being endowed, by causing deivision among the 12, also among the 70, and bickerings and jealousies among the Elders and official members of the church, and so the leaven of iniquity foment and spreads among the members of the church,
- b But I am determined that nothing on my part shall be lacking to adjust and amicably dispose of and settle all family difficulties, on this day, that the ensuing year, and years, be they many or few may be spent in righteousness before God, and I know that the cloud will burst and satans kingdom be laid in ~~ruin~~, <ruins> with all his black designs, and the saints come forth like gold seven times tried in the fire, being made perfect throug[h] sufferings, and temptations, and the blessings of heaven and earth multiplyed upon our heads which may God grant for Christ sake Amen—
- c Br. William came to my house and Br. Hyrum [Smith], also, Uncle John Smith, we went into a room in company with father and Elder Martin Harris, ~~and~~ father, Smith then opened our interview by prayer after which, he expressed his feelings on the ocasion in a verry feeling and pathetic manner even with all the sympathy of a father whose feeling were wounded deeply on the account of the difficulty that was existing in the family, and while he addressed us the spirit of God rested down upon us in mighty power, and our hearts were melted Br. William made an humble confession and asked ~~our~~ my forgiveness for the abuse he had offered me and wherein I had been out of the way I asked his forgivness, and the spirit of confission and forgiveness, was mutual among us all, and we covenanted with each other in the Sight of God and the holy angels and the brethren, to strive from henceforward to build each other up in righteousness, in all things and not listen to evil reports concerning eachother, but like brethren, indeed go to eachother, with our grievances in the spirit of meekness, and be reconciled and thereby promote our own happiness and the happiness of the family and in short the happiness and well being of all.— my wife and Mother, ~~Uncle John~~ & my Scribe was then called in and we repeated the covenant to them that we had entered into, and while gratitude swelled our bosoms, tears flowed from our eys.— I was then requested to close our interview which I did with prayer, and it was truly a jubilee and time of rejoicing

Blessing to Lorenzo Barnes, 3 January 1836

Print Sources

JSP	D5:131–135	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a L[orenzo] Barnes, Zion Blessing received under the hands of Joseph Smith J^r Sidney Rigdon & Hiram [Hyrum] Smith Presidents of the church of Latter Day Saints Kirtland Ohio J^{an}. 3^d 1836
Brother Barnes
we lay our hands <up>on thy head in the name of the Lord & in his name we say unto thee thou art excepted [accepted] before him The Eyes of the Lord thy God hav been upon thee & thou hast done that which was most pleasing in his sight for thou hast in thy youth set out in his serves [service] & Thy Prayers & suplications hav been herd & thy Name is written in Heaven for Angels to gaze upon and thou shalt be a swift messenger to the Nations.
- b Thou art a desendant of Joseph & of the Tribe of Ep[h]raim & the blessings of Jacob & Joseph are thine even the choise Blessings of Heaven above & the Earth beneath & the fullness there of Because thou hast been faithful and hast not withheld thy Life from laying it down for thy breathren Thou art a chosen vessel unto the Lord to bare the fullness of the Gosples unto people & Nations a far off Be faithful & thou shalt be endowed with power from on high for the spirit of the highest shall rest upon thee & thou shalt go forth from Land to Land from Nation to Nation & from Kingdom to Kingdom Thou shalt Stand before Kings & rulers <Princes> the rich & the great & they shall be estonished at thy wisdom & tremble at thy words for the Lord thy God will unloos thy tongue hitherto thou hast been week but thou shalt be made strong Thou shalt be mighty in speaking Thy voice shall be like the voice of an Angel of God Thy faith shall be mighty in the Earth Thou shalt lift up thy voice & the hills shall tremble before the[e] & the Earth shall quake under thy feet Prison walls shall not hold thee watters shall not stay thee The sea & the wind shall obey thy command Thou shalt lay thine hands on the sick & they shall recover Thou shalt hav power to open the eyes of the blind & unstop the ears of the deaf Thou shalt cause the lame to leap as an hart [hart] & the tongue of the dumb to sing yea thou shalt bring thy thousands & thy & thy tens of thousands from the Nations to Zion with rejoicing & sit down with them in <&> with Abraham Isaac & Jacob in the Kingdom of God
- c Therefore be faithful & thy God shall lift the[e] up & thou shalt be exalted & he shall say of <thee> This is my servant <in my sight> he is highley exalted ~~in my sight~~ Therefore we say unto thee our brother let thy mind expand for it is thy privaleg to behold the Heavens opened over thy head to see & converce with the Angel of God for they shall appear unto thee in thy ministry y[e]a thou shalt behold the faze of thy Redeemer in the flesh Thou shalt hav communion with the general assembly & Church of the first born in Heaven y[e]a thou shalt behold with thine eyes the glory of ~~thy~~ the Lord untill thou shhalt be satisfied & thou shalt say it is a enough O Lord it is enough Thou shalt hav all the desires of thy heart Thou shalt hav length of days & thy years shall be many
- d When thy hairs shall be gray thou shalt be as in the vigur of youth & thy mind unimpaired Thou shalt remane untill the coming of the Son of man in the clouds of heaven y[e]a thou shalt see <view> the winding up seen of all things & stand with the hundred forty & four thousand on Mount Zion These blessings & many others which tongue cannot express & all the powers of the priesthood we seal upon thy head & upon thy sead forever in the name of Jesus Christ & by the ~~power~~ arthority of the High Priesthood even so amen
A^{pr}. 24th 1836 [1/3 page blank]

Record, 7 January 1836

Print Sources

JSP	J1:146	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
PJS	1:186–187

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Thursday 7th attended a sumptuous feast at Bishop N[ewel] K. Whitneys this feast was after the order of the Son of God the lame the halt and blind wer invited according to the intruction of the Saviour our meeting was opened by singing and prayer offered up by father Smith, after which Bishop, Whitneys father & mother were bless[ed] and a number of others, with a patriarchal blessing, we then recieved a bountiful refreshment, furnished by the liberality of the Bishop the company was large,— before we parted we had some of the Songs of Zion sung, and our hearts were made glad while partaking of an antipast of those Joys that will be poured upon the head of the Saints w[h]en they are gathered together on Mount Zion to enjoy eachothers society forever more even all the blessings of heaven and earth and where there will be none to molest nor make us afraid...

Record, 12 January 1836

Print Sources

JSP	J1:147–148	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
PJS	1:188–189

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

also a man was introduced to me by the name of Russel Wever [Russell Weaver] from Cambray Niagary [Cambria, Niagara] Co. N. Y this man is a preacher, in the church that is called Christian or Unitarian, ~~some~~ he remarked that he had but few minuits to spend with me, we entered into conversation, and had some little controversy upon the subject of prejudice, but soon come to the an understanding, he spoke of the gospel and said he believed it, adding that it was good tidings of great joy— I replyed that it was one thing, to proclaim good tidings and another to tell what those tidings are, he waived the conversation and withdrew— he was introduced by Joseph Rose—

Rules and Regulations, 14 January 1836

Print Sources

JSP	D5:143–145; J1:152–153	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:368–369
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:359
PJS	1:193–197

Online Access Here

Background

See the J1 entry for 13 January, the day before (J1:150).

Original Source

Text

- a 1st— It is according to the rules and regulations of all regular and legal organized bodies to have a president to keep order.—
 2nd— The body thus organized are under obligation to be in subjection to that authority—
 3^d— When a congregation assembles in this house they shall submit to the following rules, that due respect may be paid to the order of the worship—viz.
- b 1st— no man shall be interrupted who is appointed to speak by the presidency of the Church, by any disorderly person or persons in the congregation, by whispering by laughing by talking by menacing Jestures by getting up and running out in a disorderly manner or by offering indignity to the manner of worship or the religion or to any officer of said church while officiating in his office in any wise whatever by any display of ill manners or ill breeding from old or young rich or poor male or female bond or free black or white believer or unbeliever and if any of the above insults are offered such measures will be taken as are lawful to punish the aggressor or aggressors and eject them out of the house
 2nd— An insult offered to the ~~presidency~~ <presiding> Elder of said Church, shall be considered an insult to the whole body, also an insult offered to any of the officers of said Church while officiating shall be considered an insult to the whole body—
 3^d— All persons are prohibited from going up the stairs in times of worship
 4th— all persons are prohibited from exploring the house except waited upon by a person appointed for that purpose—
- c 5th— all persons are prohibited from going <in>to the several pulpits except the officers who are appointed to officiate in the same 6th— All persons are prohibited from cutting marking or marring the inside or outside of the house with a knife pencil or any other instrument whatever, under pain of such penalty as the law shall inflict—
 7th— All children are prohibited from assembling in the house above or below or any part of it to play or for recreation at any time, and all parents guardians or masters shall be ameneable for all damage that shall accrue in consequence of their children—
 8th— All persons whether believers or unbelievers shall be treated with due respect by the ~~authority~~ <authorities> of the Church—
 9th— no imposition shall be practiced upon any member of the church by depriving them of their <rights> in the house—council adjourned sini di [sine die]

Record, 14 January 1836

Print Sources

JSP	J1:153	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
PJS	1:197

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

...being under obligation to attend at Mrs. Wilcoxs to join Mr. John Webb and Mrs Catharine [Catherine] Wilcox in matrimony also M^r. Th^{os} Carrico [Jr.] and Miss Elizabeth Baker at the same place, I found a large company assembled, the house was filled to overflowing, we opened our interview by singing and prayer suited to the occasion after which I made some remarks in relation to the duties that are incumbent on husbands and wives, in particular the great importance there is in cultivating the pure principles of the institution, in all it's bearings, and connexions with each other and society in general

I then invited them to arise and join hands, and pronounced the ceremony according to the rules and regulations of the Church of the latterday Saints

~~Closed~~ after which I pronounced such blessings upon their heads as the Lord put into my heart ~~even~~ even the blessings of Abraham Isaac and Jacob, and dismissed by singing and prayer...

Minutes, 15 January 1836

Print Sources

JSP	D5:146–148	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:370–371
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:360–363

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Friday Morning January 15, 1836, council met pursuant to adjournment and after President J. Smith Jun^r had organized the council, he proceeded to give many good instructions in relation to the order & manner of conducting the council and also delivered a solemn charge to the counsel after which he opened by prayer and presided as before.

President J. Smith Jun^r one of the committee to draft rules for the regulation of the House of the Lord, made the report of said committee by reading the laws or rules they had drafted three times. Th[e]y were approved and unanimously adopted...
...Motioned, seconded & voted that the Presidency of the high council hold the keys of the house of the Lord except the keys of one vestry which shall be held by the Bishop of Kirtland

Motioned and seconded that the Laws regulating the house of the Lord go into effect from this time, and that Elder John Corril[l] take it upon him to see that they are enforced, giving him the privilege of calling as many as he choose to assist him...

Record, 15 January 1836

Print Sources

JSP	D5:153–154	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
PJS	1:198–200	TPJS	93–94

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a Friday the 15th at 9 oclock A.M meet in council agreeably to the adjournment, at the council room in the Chapel organized the authorities of the church agreeably to their respective offices in the same, I then made some observation respecting the order of the day, and the great responsibility we are under to transact all our buisness, in righteousness before God, inasmuch as our desisions will have a bearing upon all mankind and upon all generations to come...

b ...The above rules hav now passed through the several quorums, in their order, and passed by the unanimous vote of the whole, and are therefore received and established as a law to govern the house of the Lord in this place,— In the investigated of this subject, I found that many who had deliberated upon this subject were darkened in their minds, which drewforth, some remarks from me, respecting the privileges of the authorities of the church, that they should, each speak in his turn, and in his place, and in his time and season, that their may be perfect order in all things, and that every man, before he, makes an objection to any, item, that is thrown before them for their concideration, should be sure that they can throw light upon the subject rather than spread darkness, and that his objections be founded in righteousness which may be done by applying ourselves closely to study the, mind and will of the Lord, whose Spirit always makes manifest, and demonstrates to the understanding of all who are in possession, of his Spirit—...

Minutes, 16 January 1836

Print Sources

JSP	D5:148–154; J1:156–160	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:372–375
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:365–368
TPJS	105–106	PJS	1:201–206

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Saturday morning the 16th by request I meet with the council of the 12 in company with my colleagues F[rederick] G Williams and S[idney] Rigdon
Council organized and opened by singing and prayer offered up by Thomas B. Marsh president of the 12
He arose and requested the privilege in behalf of his colleagues of speaking, each in his turn without being interrupted; which was granted them— Elder Marsh proceeded to unbosom his feelings touching the mission of the 12, and more particularly respecting a certain letter which they recieved from the presidency of the high council in Kirtland, while attending a conference in the East State of Maine— also spoke of being plased in our council, on Friday last below the council's of Kirtland and Zion having been previously placed next [to] the presidency, in our assemblies— also observed that they were hurt on account of some remarks made by President H[yrum] Smith on the trial of Gladden Bishop who had been previously tried before the council of the 12, while on their mission in the east, who had by their request thrown his case before the high council in Kirtland for investigation, and the 12 concidered that their proceedings with him were in some degree, discountenanced—
- b The rest <remaining> Elder Marsh then gave way to his brethren and they arose and spoke in turn untill they had all spoken acquiessing in the observations of Elder Marsh and mad[e] some additions to his remarks which are as follows— That the letter in question which they received from the presidency, in which two of their numbers were suspended, and the rest severely chastened, and that too upon testimony which was unwarantable, and particularly stress was laid upon a certain letter which the presidency had received from Dr. W[arren] A. Cowdery of Freedom New York in which he prefered charges against them which were false, and upon which they <we> (the presiders) had acted in chastning them and therefore, the 12, had concluded that the presidency had lost confidence in them, and that whereas the church in this place, had carressed them, at the time of their appointment, to the appostleship they now treated them coolly and appear to have lost confidence in them also—
- c They spoke of their having been in this work from the beginning almost and had born the burden in the heat of the day and passed through many trials and that the presidency ought not to have suspect their fidelity nor loose confidence in them, neither have chastised them upon such testimony as was lying before before them— also urged the necessity of an explaniation upon the letter which they received from the presidency, and the propriety of their having information as it respects their duties, authority &c— that they might come to <an> understanding in all things, that they migh[t] act in perfect unison and harmony before the Lord and be prepared for the endument— also that they had prefered a charge against Dr [Warren A.] Cowdery for his unchristian conduct which the presidency had disregarded— also that President O[liver] Cowdery on a certain occasion had made use of language to one of the twelve that was unchristian and unbecoming any man, and that they would not submit to such treatment
- d The remarks of all the 12 were made in a verry forcible and explicit manner yet cool and deliberate; I arose
I observed that we had heard them patiently and in turn should expect to be heard patiently also; and first I remarked that it was necessary that the 12 should state whether they were determined to persevere in the work of the Lord, whether the presidency are able to satisfy them or not; vote called and carried in the affirmative unanimously; I then said to them that I had not lost confidence in them, and that they had no reason to suspect my confidence, and that I would be willing to be weighed in the scale of truth today in this matter, and risk it in the day of judgment; and as it respects the chastning contained in the letter in question which I acknowledge might have been expressed in too harsh language; which was not intentional and I ask your forgiveness in as much as I have hurt your feelings; but nevertheless, the letter that that Elder Mc.lellen [William E. McLellin] wrote back to Kirtland while the twelve were at the east was harsh also and I was willing to set the one against the other; I next proceeded to explain the subject of the duty of the twelve; and their authority which is next to the present presidency, and that the arangement of the assembly in this place on the 15^{inst} in placing the high councils of Kirtland and next [to] the presidency was because the buisness to be transacted was buisness that related to that body in particular which was to fill the several quorum's in Kirtland; not beca[u]se they were first in office, and that the arrangement was most Judicious that could be made on the occassion also the 12, are not subject to any other than the first presidency; viz. myself S. Rigdon and F. G. Williams—I also stated to the 12, that I do not ~~continue~~ countenance the harsh language of President [Oliver] Cowdery to them neither in myself nor any other man, although I have sometimes spoken to[o] harsh from the impulse of the moment and inasmuch as I have wounded your feelings brethren I ask your forgiveness, for I love you and will hold you up with all my heart in all righteousness before the Lord, and before all men, for be assured brethren I am willing to stem the torrent of all opposition; in storms in tempests in thunders and lightning by sea and by land in the wilderness or among fals brethren, or mobs or wherever God in his providence may call us and I am determined that neither highs nor depths principalities nor powers things present or to come nor any other creature shall separate me from you; and I will now covenant with you before God that I will not listen too nor credit, any derogatory report against any of you nor condemn you upon any testimony beneath the heavens, short of that testimony which is infalible, untill I can see you face to face and know of a surity and I do place unlimited confidence in your word for I believe you to be men of truth, and I ask the same of you, when I tell you any thing that you place equal confidence in my word for I will not tell you I know anything which I do not know—but I have already consumed more time than I intended to when I commenced and I will now give way to my colleagues
- e

g President Rigdon arose next and acquiesced in what I had said and acknowledged to the 12, that he had not done as he ought, in not citing Dr. Cowdery to trial on the charges that were put into his hands by the 12, that he had neglected his duty in this thing, for which he asked their forgiveness, and would now attend to it if they desired him to do so, and Elder <Presdt> Rigdon also observed to the 12 that <if he> he might have <had> spoken, or reproved too harshe, <harshly,> at any time and had injured their feelings by so doing he asked their forgiveness.—

President Williams arose and acquiesced in the above sentiment's expressed by myself and President Rigdon, in full and said many good things

h The President of the 12, then called a vote of that body to know whether they were perfectly satisfied with the explanation which we had given them and whether they would enter into the covenant we had proposed to them, which was most readily manifested in the affirmative by raising their hands to heaven, in testimony of their willingness and desire to enter into this covenant and their entire satisfaction with our explanation, upon all the difficulties that were on their minds, we then took each others by the hand in confirmation of our covenant and their was a perfect unison of feeling on this occasion, and our hearts overflowed with blessings, which we pronounced upon eachothers heads as the Spirit gave us utterance my scribe is included in this covenant with and blessings with us, for I love him, for <the> truth and integrity that dwelleth in him and may God enable us all, to perform our vows and covenants with each other in all fidelity and righteousness before Him, that our influence may be felt among the nations of the earth in mighty power, even to rend the kingdom of darkness in sunder, and triumph over priestcraft and spiritual wickedness in high places, and brake in pieces all other kingdoms that are opposed to the Kingdom of Christ, and spread the light and truth of the everlasting gospel from the rivers to the ends of the earth

Elder Beemon [Alvah Beman] call[ed] for council upon the subject of his returning home he wished to know whether it was best for him to return before the Solemn Assembly or not, after taking it into concideration the council advised him to tarry we dismissed by singing and prayer and retired

W[arren] Parrish scribe

Record, 17 January 1836

Print Sources

JSP	J1:161	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
PJS	1:207

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

...we were then invited to Elder Cahoons to a feast which was prepared on the occasion, and had a good time while partaking of the rich repast that was spread before us, and I virely [verily] realized that it was good for brethren to dwell together in unity, even like the dew upon the mountains of Israel, where the Lord command[e]d blessings, even life for ever more...

Record, 20 January 1836

Print Sources

JSP	J1:165–166	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a ...after the above arangments were made Eld^r Boynton & his Lady with their attendants, came in and were seated in front of the presidency,— a hymn was sung, after which I adressed a throne of grace,— I then arose and read aloud ~~the~~  licence granting any minister of the gospel the priviledge of solemnizing the rights of matrimony, and after calling for objection if any there were, against the anticipated alliance between Eldr. Boynton & Miss Lowell ~~to~~ and waiting sufficient time, I observed that all forever after this must hold their peace—
- b I then envited them to join hands and I pronounced the ceremony according to the rules and regulations of the church of the Latter-day-Saints, ~~and~~ <in> the name of God, and in the name of Jesus Christ, I pronounced upon them the blessings of Abraham Isaac and Jacob and such other blessings as the Lord put into my heart, and being much under the influence of a cold I then gave way and President S[idney] Rigdon arose and delivered a verry forcible address, suited to the occasion, and closed the servises of the evening by prayer— Eldr. O. Hyde Eld^r L[uke] Johnson & Eldr. W. Parrish who served on the occasion, then presented the presidency with three servers filled with glasses of wine, to bless, and it fell to my lot to attend to this duty, which I cheerfully discharged, it was then passed round in order, then the cake, in the same order, and suffise it to say our hearts were made ~~cheerful~~ and glad, while partaking of the bounty of the earth, which was presented, untill we had taken our fill, and Joy filled every bosom, and the countenances of old, and young, alike, seemed to bloom with the cheerfulness and smiles of youth and an entire unison of feeling seemed to pervade the congregation, and indeed I doubt whether the pages of history can boast of a more splendid and inocent wedding and feast than this for it was conducted after the order of heaven, who has a time for all thing and this being a time of rejoicing, we hartily embraced it, and conducted ourselves accordingly...

Visions and Records, 21 January 1836 [D&C 137]

Print Sources

JSP	D5:157–160	JSR	278–279
DC	Section 137	HC	2:380–382
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:372–373
TPJS	106–108

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a Thursday morning the 21st This morning a minister from Connecticut by the name of John W. Olived called at my house and enquired of my father if ~~Smith~~ the prophet live's here he replied that he did not understand him. Mr. Olived asked the same question again and again and recieved the same answer, he finally asked if Mr. Smith lives here, father replied O yes Sir I understand you now,— father then stept into my room, and informed me that a gentleman had called to see me, I b went into the room where he was, and the first question he asked me, after passing a compliment, was to know how many members we have in our church, I replied to him, that we hav ~~about~~ between 15 hundred and 2,000 in this branch,— He then asked me wherin we differ from other christian denomination I replied that we believe the bible, and they do not,—
c however he affirmed that he believed the bible, I told him then to be baptised,— he replied that he did not realize it to be his duty— But after <when> laying <laid> him before him the principles of the gospel, viz. faith and repentance and baptism for the remission <of sins> and the laying on of hands for the resepction of the Holy Ghost <he manifested much surprise>— I then observed that the hour for school had arived, and I must attend The man seemed astonished at our doctrine but by no means hostile

d At about 3, oclock P.M I dismissed the School and the presidency; retired to the loft of the printing office, where we attended to the ordinance of washing our bodies in pure water, we also perfumed our bodies and our heads, in the name of the Lord at early candlelight, I meet with the presidency, at the west school room in the Chapel to attend to the ordinance of e anointing our heads with holy oil— also the councils of Zion Kirtland and Zion, meet in the two adjoining rooms, who waited in prayer while we attended to the ordinance,— I took the oil in my <left> right hand, father Smith being seated before me and the rest of the presidency encircled him round about,— we then streched our right hands to heaven and f blessed the oil and concecrated it in the name of Jesus Christ— we then laid our hands on, our aged fath[er] Smith, and invoked, the blessings of heaven,— I then annointed his head with the concecrated oil, and sealed many blessings upon his <him,> head, the presidency then in turn, laid their hands upon his head, begenning at the eldest, untill they had all laid their hands on him, and pronounced such blessings, upon his head as the Lord put into their hearts— all blessing him to be our g patraark [patriarch], and <to> annoint our heads, and attend to all duties that pertain to this <that> office.— I then took the seat, and father annoint[ed] my head, and sealed upon me, the blessings, of Moses, to lead Israel in the latter days, even as moses led them <him> in days of old,— also the blessings of Abraham Isaac and Jacob,— all of the presidency laid their hands upon me and pronounced upon my head many prophesies, and blessings, many of which I shall not notice at this h time, but as Paul said, so say I, let us come to vissions and revelations, the— The heavens were opened upon us and I beheld the celestial kingdom of God, and the glory thereof, whether in the body or out I cannot tell,— I saw the transcendant beauty of the gate that enters, through which the heirs of that kingdom will enter, which was like unto circling flames of fire, also the blasing throne of God, whereon was seated the Father and the Son,— I saw the beautiful streets of that kingdom, which had i the appearance of being paved with gold— I saw father Adam, and Abraham and Michael and my father and mother, my brother Alvin that has long since slept, and marvled how it was that he had obtained this an inheritance <in> this <that> kingdom, seeing that he had departed this life, before the Lord <had> set his hand to gather Israel <the second time> and j had not been baptized for the remission of sins— Thus said came the voice <of the Lord un>to me saying all who have died with[out] a knowledge of this gospel, who would have received it, if they had been permitted to tarry, shall be heirs of the celestial kingdom of God— also all that shall die henseforth, with<out> a knowledge of it, who would have received it, with all their hearts, shall be heirs of that kingdom, for I the Lord <will> judge all men according to their works according to the k desires of their hearts— and again I also beheld the Terrestrial kingdom I also beheld that all children who die before they arive to the years of accountability, are saved in the celestial kingdom of heaven— I saw the 12, apostles of the Lamb, who are now upon the earth who hold the keys of this last ministry, in foreign lands, standing together in a circle much fatigued, with their clothes tattered and feet swollen, with their eyes cast downward, and Jesus <standing> in their midst, and they l did not behold him, he the Saviour looked upon them and wept— I also beheld Elder McLellen [William E. McLellin] in the south, standing upon a hill surrounded with a vast multitude, preaching to them, and a lame man standing before him, supported by his crutches, he threw them down at his word, and leaped as an heart [hart] by the mighty power of God

m Also Eldr Brigham Young standing in a strange land, in the far southwest, in a desert place, upon a rock in the midst of about a dozen men of colour, who, appeared hostile He was preaching to them in their own tounge, and the angel of God
n standing above his head with a drawn sword in his hand protecting him, but he did not see it,— and I finally saw the 12 in the celestial kingdom of God,— I also beheld the redemption of Zion, and many things which the tounge of man, cannot discribe in full, — Many of my brethren who received this ordinance with me, saw glorious visions also,— angels ministered unto them, as well as my self, and the power of the highest rested upon, us the house was filled with the glory of God, and we shouted Hosanah to the God and the Lamb

o I am mistaken, concerning my receiving the holy anointing first after father Smith, we received <it> in turn according to our age, (that is the presidency,)

My Scribe also recieved his anointing <with us> and saw in a vision the armies of heaven protecting the Saints in their return to Zion— <& many things that I saw>

p The Bishop of Kirtland with his counsellors and the Bishop of Zion with his counsellors, were present with us, and received their, anointing under the hands of father Smith and confirmed by the presidency and the glories of heaven was unfolded to them also—

We then invited the counsellors of Kirtland and Zion and Kirtland into our room, and President Hyrum Smith annointed the head of the president of the counsellors in Kirtland and President D[avid] Whitmer the head of the president, of the counsellors of Zion—

The president of each quorum then annointed the heads of his colleagues, each in his turn beginning, at the eldest

q The vision of heaven ~~were~~ <was> opened to these also, some of them saw the face of the Saviour, and others were ministered unto by holy angels, and the spirit of propesey and revelation was poured out in mighty power, and loud hosannahs and glory to God in the highest, saluted the heavens for we all communed with the h[e]avenly host's,— and I saw in my vision all of the presidency in the Celstial Kingdom of God, and, many others who were present

Our meeting was opened by singing and prayer offered up by the head of each quorum, and closed by singing and invoking the benediction of heaven with uplifted hands, and retired between one and 2, oclock in the morning [9 lines blank]

Record, 22 January 1836

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
TPJS	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a Friday morning the 22nd attended at the school room at the us[u]al hour,— But insted of persuing our studies we ~~commeneed~~ spent the time in rehearsing to each other the glorious scenes that transpired on the preceding evening, while attending to the ordinance of holy anointing.— At evening we met at the same place, with the council of the 12 and the presidency of the 70 who were to receive this ordinance; the high councils of Kirtland and Zion were present also: we called to order and organized; the Presidency then proceeded to consecrate the oil; we then laid our hands upon Elder Thomas B. Marsh who is the president of the 12 and ordained him to the authority of anointing his brethren, I then poured the concecrated oil upon his head in the name of Jesus Christ and sealed such blessings upon him as the Lord put into my heart; the rest of the presidency then laid their hands upon him and blessed him each in their turn beginning at the eldest; he then anointed <and blessed> his brethren from the oldest to the youngest, I also laid my hands upon them and prounounced many great and glorious upon their heads; the heavens were opened and angels ministered unto us.

b Then 12 then proceeded to anoint and bless the presidency of the 70 and seal upon their heads power and authority to anoint their brethren; the heavens were opened upon Elder Sylvester Smith and he leaping up exclaimed, The horsemen of Israel and the chariots thereof. ~~President Rigdon~~ arose Br. Carlross [Don Carlos] Smith was also, annointed and ~~ordained~~ blessed to preside over the high preisthood.— President [Sidney] Rigdon, arose to conclude the servises of the evening by invoking the benediction of heaven ~~of heaven~~ upon the Lords anointed <which he did> in an eloquent manner the congregation shouted a loud hosannah the gift of toungs, fell upon us in mighty power, angels mingled ~~themselves~~ their voices with ours, while their presence was in our midst, and unseasing prasis [praises] swelled our bosoms for the space of half an hour,— I then observed to the brethren that it was time to retire, we accordingly <closed> our interview and returned home at about 2. oclock in the morning & the spirit & visions of God attended me through the night

Record, 24 January 1836

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
TPJS	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

In the evening met the Presidency in high <the> room over the printing room & counseled on the subject of endowment & the preperation necessary for the solemn Assembly which is to be called when the House of the Lord is finished

Record, 28 January 1836

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
TPJS	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Thursday <28> attended school at the usual hours In the evening met the quorems of High Priests in the west room of the upper loft of the Lord, Lord<'s> house & in company with my council of the presidency— consecrated & anointed the coussellors of the President of the High priesthood & having instructed them & set the quorem in order I left them to perform the holy anointing— & went to the quorem of Elders in the other end of the room. I assisted in anointing the counsellors of the President of the Elders & gave them the instruction necessary for the occasion & left the President & his council to anoint the Elders while I should go to the adjoining room & attend to organizing & instructing of the quorem of the Seventy—
- b I found the Twelve Apostles assembled with this quorem & I proceeded with the quorem of the presedincy to instruct them & also the seven presidents of the seventy Elders to call upon God with uplifted hands to seal the blessings which had been promised to them by the holy anoint[in]g As I organized this quorem with the presedincy in this room, Pres. Sylvester Smith saw a pillar of fire rest down & abide upon the heads of the quorem as we stood in the midst of the Twelve.
- When the Twelve & the seven were through with their sealing prayers I called upon Pres. S[idney] Rigdon to seal them with uplifted hands & when he he had done this & cried hossannah that all congregation should join him & shout hosannah to God & the Lamb & glory to God in the highest— It was done so & Eld. Roger Orton saw a flaming <mighty> Angel riding upon a horse of fire with a flaming sword in his hand followed by five others— encircle the house & protect the saints even the Lords anointed from the power of Satan & a host of evil spirits which were striving to disturb the saints—
- c Pres. W^m Smith one of the Twelve saw the h[e]avens op[e]ned & the Lords host protecting the Lords anointed, Pres. Z. Coltrine [Zebedee Coltrin] one of the seven saw the saviour extended before him as upon the cross & little after crowned with a glory upon his head above the brightness of the sun after these things were over & I a glorious vision which I saw had passed I instructed the seven presidents to proceede & anoint the seventy & returned to the room of the High Priests & Elders & attended to the sealing of what they had done with uplifted hands, the Lord had assisted my bro. Carlloss [Don Carlos Smith] the Pres. of the High Priests to go forward with the anointing of the High priests so that he had performed it to the acceptance of the Lord, notwithstanding he was verry young & inexperienced in such duties & I felt to praise God with a loud hossannah for his goodness to me & my Fathers family & to all the children of men— praise the Lord all ye his saints— praise his holy name— after these quorems were dismissed I retired to my home filled with the spirit & my soul cried hossannah to God & the Lamb through <the> silent watches of the night & while my eyes were closed in sleep the visions of the Lord were sweet unto me & his glory was round about me
- praise the Lord—

Record, 30 January 1836

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
TPJS	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

in the evening went to the upper rooms of the Lord's house & set the different quorems in order— instructed the Presidents of the seventy concerning the order of their anointing & requested them to proceed & anoint the seventy having set all the quorems in order I re turned to my house being weary with continual anxiety & labour in puting all the Authorities in [order?] & in striving to purify them for the solemn assembly according to the commandment of the Lord

Record, 1 February 1836

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
TPJS	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

in the evening attended to <the> organizing the of the quorems of High priests— Elders— Seventy & Bishops in the uper rooms of the house of the Lord & after blessing each quorem in the name of the Lord I left them & returned home had an other interview with M^r Seixas our hebrew teacher & related to him some of the dealings of God to me— & gave him some of the evidences of the work of the latter days— he list[e]ned candidly & did not oppose

Record, 6 February 1836

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
TPJS	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Saturday 6. called the anointed together to receive the seal of all their blessings, The High Priests & Elders in the council room as usual— The Seventy with the Twelve in the second room & the Bishop in the 3— I laboured with each of these quorems for some time to bring to the order which God had shown to me which is as follows— first part to be spent in solemn prayer before god without any talking or confusion & the conclusion with a sealing prayer by Pres. Sidney Rigdon when all the quorems are to shout with one accord a solemn hosannah to God & the Lamb with an Amen— amen & amen— & then all take seats & lift up their hearts in silent prayer to God & if any obtain a prophecy or vision ~~not~~ to rise & speak that all may be edified & rejoice together I had considerable trouble to get all the quorems united in this order— I went from room to room repeatedly & charged each separately— assuring them that it was according to the mind of God yet notwithstanding all my labour— while I was in the east room with the Bishops quorems I f[e]lt by the spirit that something was wrong in the quorem of Elders in the west room— & I immediately requested Pres. O[liver] Cowdery & H[yrum] Smith to go in &
- b see what was the matter— The quorem of Elders had not observed the order which I had given them & were reminded of it by Pres. Carlross [Don Carlos] Smith & mildly requested to observe order & continue in prayer & requested— some of them replied that they had a teacher of their own & did not wish to be troubled by others this caused the spirit of the Lord to withdraw This interrupted the meeting & this quorem lost th[e]ir blessing in a great measurs— the other quorems were more careful & the quorem of the Seventy enjoyed a great flow of the holy spirit many arose & spok[e] testifying that they were filled with the holy spirit which was like fire in their bones so that they could not hold their peace but were constrained to cry hosannah to God & the Lamb & glory in the highest. Pres. W^m Smith one of the twelve saw a vision of the Twelve & Seven in council together in old England & prophecied that a great work would be done by them in the old ~~entry~~ contries & God was already beginning to work in the hearts of the p[e]ople— Prs. Z. Coltrine [Zebedee Coltrin] one of the seven saw a vision of the Lords Host— & others were filled with the spirit & spake in tongues & prophecied— This was a time of rejoicing long to be rememberd! praise the Lord—

Blessing to Alvin Winegar, 7 February 1836

Print Sources

JSP	D5:165–168	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:393
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:383

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a A blessing— Pronounced by the first Presidency upon the head of Alvin Winegar— Feby 7th 1836.
We lay our hands upon thy head in the name of Jesus and ask our Heavenly Father to bestow many blessings upon thee, both in this life— and in that which is to come— we seal many blessings in time upon thee, and in Eternity an exceeding rich reward. Thou wast willing to lay down thy life for thy brethren and the Lord shall cho[o]se thee for his own— Even as a vessel in the House of God— The Lord shall seal blesings for thee in Heaven— and look upon them and none shall fail— thy mind shall be strengthened— faith encreased— receive much wisdom— power and understanding— must offer all that thou hast a sacrifice to thy God, even all thy mind and strengt[h]— and give thy self up to him without reserve. body and spirit— go at his command and he will loose thy tongue and make thee a swift Messenger— an instrument of much good on the Earth— see great disolations come upon the wicked and glory to the righteous— and his power manifested in blessings and
- b in cureings— Shall be lifted up and shout hosannah among the heavenly hosts— see the Heavens opened. The charriots of Israel and the Horsemen thereof— and great shall be thy rejoicings— Shall receive the holy Priesthood in due time, which shall never be taken from thee in time or in Eternity— Stand upon the Earth till the son of man comes— see the end of this generation— do much good in proclaiming the gospel carried to Nations afar off— preach in all languages and tongues— power to resist the power of floods and flames— overcome the destroyer— and the pestilence shall not harm thee— power to heal the sick— open the blind eyes— unstop the deaf ears— Cause the ~~dumb~~ Tongue of the dumb to sing for joy— many shall seek to touch thy garments— and others shall send handkerchiefs, and Aprons to thee and be healed by this means.
- c Thou shalt have all the power that thou needest to fill thy Ministry[.] Angels shall minister unto thee— and thy saviour shall stand before thee, and thou shalt be able to Certify to the Nations of things which thou hast seen, and doest most assuredly know. The Heavenly Hosts shall be round about thee, to deliver thee out of all thy afflictions— and thy soul shall Shout Hosannah to God and the Lamb and nothing shall prevail against thee to harm thee— These blessings dear brother if thou art faithful Shall rest upon thy head and be <all> fulfilled— for we seal them upon the[e] in the name of Jesus by the authority of the Holy Priesthood even so Amen.— Kertland Ohio— Sylvester Smith / scribe. JW^{sr} last scribe.

Minutes, 12 February 1836

Print Sources

JSP	D5:170–173	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:394–395
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:384–385
TPJS	108

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Friday evening, February 12th. 1836
Council convened in the House of the Lord for the purpose of taking into consideration the subject of ordaining men to the office of Elder and other offices in the Church of Christ of Latter Day Saints.
Opened by singing and prayer
The following resolutions were offered by the Presidency for discussion.
1st Resolved that no one be ordained to any office in the Church in this stake of Zion at Kirtland without the unanimous voice of the several bodies that constitute this quorum, who are appointed to do church business in the name of the <said> church. (Viz) The Presidency of the Church and Council. The twelve Apostles of the Lamb. The twelve High Counsellors of Kirtland. The twelve High Counsellors— of Zion, The Bishop of Kirtland, and his counsellors The Bishop of Zion and his counsellors, and the seven Presidents of Seventies, until otherwise ordered by said quorum.
- b 2^{dly}. Resolved that none be ordained in the branches of said church abroad, unless they are recommended by the voice of the respective branches of the church to which they belong to the general conference appointed by the heads of the Church, and from that conference receive their ordination.
The foregoing were concurred in by the Presidents of the Seventies.

W[arren] Parrish Clerk.

Discourse, 12 February 1836

Print Sources

JSP	J1:184–185	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:394
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:384

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

I then arose and made some remarks upon the object of our meeting, which were as follows— first that many are desiring to be ordained to the ministry, who are not called and consequently the Lord is displeased— secondly, many already have been ordained who ought [not] to hold official stations in the church because they dishonour themselves and the church and bring persecution swiftly upon us, in consequence of their zeal without k[n]owledge— I requested the quorum's to take some measures to regulate the same, I proposed some resolutions and remarked to the brethren that the subject was now before them and open for discussion

Letter to Henrietta Raphael Seixas, between 6 and 13 February 1836

Print Sources

JSP	D5:173–178	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Kirtland Ohio Feb. 13th. 1836.

a Dear Madam

We have the privilege of addressing you a few lines through the kindness of Professor Sexias [Joshua Seixas] who we believe has been sent to this institution through the immediate directions of God to promote the cause of truth and benefit a fallen world. We are in this led to be believe thankful to our Redeemer in whose Glorious cause we are engaged as we are anxiously desiring to become acquainted with an individual of virtue & piety who understood perfectly those languages in which the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were originally written as our only object is to do good to lay aside error when we discover it forsake evil and follow righteousness and truly be the better prepared and qualified to render assistance to our fellow men and glorify the name of the Lord: in this our expectations are fully realized and we trust through the goodness of Gøød God to make a proper improvement of the blessing thus given. And we sincerely pray that on the part of your husband our acquaintance may be of that kind that we shall ever have cause to bless and adore God for thus guiding him to this place by his unseen hand.

b We have seen the possession of Mr. Seixas a very valuable Lexicon which he informs us is your individual property. We have no hesitation in saying that is highly valuable by yourself for the convenience and use of a private family; but we do believe that the wisdom and philanthropy which error inspires the heart of the pure and good will forego for a few months these special benefits which may be derived from it for a few for the pleasure of benefitting the many. As the Trustees of this institution we have by the request of others as well as expressing our own individual desires to have it the same taken the liberty to thus trespass upon your time and patience and request the privilege of purchaseing of you through Professor Seixas this Lexicon. It is unnecessary to wholly unnecessary for us to communicate or attempt to the great worth this Lexicon would be to this Institution in our present and future studies as yourself of the fact and we only say that we hope that God may direct you by his Holy Spirit to do right, and we trust the issue in his hands believing you will call to mind the flood of reproach heaped upon us as a people the few advantages we profess in comparison with others institution in consequence of the same and that all favors thus bestowed will be only appreciated and thankfully remembered.

c We are most respectfully.
Your Obt. Servants.
Joseph Smith Junr.
Sidney Rigdon
F[rederick] G. Williams
Oliver Cowdery

Kirtland Ohio, Feb. 1836
A true copy from the original.

W[arren] F. Cowdery Rec.

Record, 17 February 1836

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
TPJS	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Wednesday the 17th attend[ed] the school and read and translated with my class as usual, and my soul delights in reading the word of the Lord in the original, and I am determined to persue the study of languages untill I shall become master of them, if I am permitted to live long enough, at any rate so long as I do live I am determined to make this my object, and with the blessing of God I shall succe[e]d to my sattisfaction,—

Record, 19 February 1836

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
TPJS	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

I conversed with Mr. Seixas upon the subject of religion, at my house this afternoon, he listened with attention and appeared interested with my remarks, and I believe the Lord is striving with him, by his holy spirit, and that he will eventually embrace the new and everlasting covenant, for he is a chosen vessel unto the Lord to do his people good,— but I forbear lest I get to prophesying upon his head— this evening President Rigdon and myself called at Mr. Seixas lodgings and conversed with him upon the subject of the School, had a pleasant interview

Record, 23 February 1836

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
TPJS	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

...This afternoon the sisters met again at the chapel to work on the v[e]il toward the close of the day I met with the presidency & many of the brethren in the house of the Lord— I made some remarks from the pulpit upon the rise and progress of the church of Christ of Latter day Saints and pronounced a blessing upon the Sisters for the liberality in giving their servises so cheerfully to make the veil for the Lord's house also upon the congregation and dismissed

Record, 3 March 1836

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
TPJS	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a ...This evening the several quorums met agreeably to adjournment and were organized according to their official standing in the church.
I then arose and made some remarks on the object of our meeting which are as follows.
1st To receive or reject certain resolutions that were drafted by a committee chosen for that purpose at a preceeding meeting respecting licenses for elders and other official members.
2nd To sanction by the united voice of the quorum certain resolutions respecting ordaining members; that had passed through each quorum seperately for without any alteration or amendment except<ing> in the quorum of the twelve.
- b The council opened by singing and prayer. President O[liver] Cowdery then arose and read the resolutions respecting licenses three times, the third time he read the ~~article~~ <resolutions> he gave time and oppertunity after reading each article for objections to be made if any there were; no objections were made—I then observed that these resolutions must needs pass through each quorum seperately begining at the presidency and concequently it must first be thrown into the hands of the president of the Deacon<s> & his council as equal rights & privileges are my motto, and one man is as good as another, if he behaves as well, and that all men should be esteemed alike, without regard to distinction's of an official nature,—...
...I then made some remarks on the amendment of the 12. upon the resolutions recorded on pages 155 & 156...

Record, 12 March 1836

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
TPJS	108–109

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

I was informed to day that a man by the name of Clark froze to death, last night near this place, who was under the influenc of ardent spirits; O my God how long will this monster intemperance find it's victims on the earth, me thinks until the earth is swept with the wrath of and indignation of God, and christ's kingdom becomes universal. O come Lord Jesus and cut short thy work in rightieousness.

Record, 19 March 1836

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access None known

Background

Original Source

This is in the Kirtland EQ Record, edited by Cook and Backman, page 12.

Text

This evening the Elder[s] met at the Lord's house, with other quorums of the church. The meeting was opened by singing, and prayer. President Joseph Smith J[u]n. gave some instructions relative to the sealing power, in a short but powerful address.

President S. Rigdon sealed the blessings of the Lord on those who had been anointed, by prayer and with a shout of Hosanna to God and, the Lamb.

Some of the brethren spake of the goodness of the Lord, and President J. Smith jun made some remarks respecting the coming meeting, and gave out some appointments...

Record, 27 March 1836

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Sunday morning the 27th The congregation began to assembly <assimble> <at the chapel> at about 7 oclock one hour early <earlier> than the doors were to be opened many brethren had come in from the region's round about to witness the dedication of the Lord's House and share in his blessings and such was the anxiety on this occasion that some hundreds, (probably five or six,) assembled collected before the doors were opened—
- b The presidency entered with the door keepers and aranged them at the inner and outer doors also placed our stewards to receiv donations from those who should feel disposed to contribute something to defray the expenses of building the House of the Lord— <we also dedicated the pulpits & consecrated them to the Lord> The doors were then opened President [Sidney] Rigdon President [Oliver] Cowdery and myself seated the congregation as they came in, we received about and according to the best calculation we could make we received between 9 and 10,00 <hundred> which was is as many as can be comfortably situated we then informed the door keepers that we could receive no more, and a multitude were deprived of the benefits of the meeting on account of the house not being sufficiently capacious to receive them, and I felt to regret that any of my brethren and sisters should be deprived of the Meeting, and I recommended them to repair to the School-house and hold a meeting which they did and filled that house <also> and yet many were left out—
- c The assembly were then organized in the following manner,— viz.
President F. G. Williams Presdt. Joseph Smith<, Sen.> and Presdt W. W. Phelps occupied the first pulpit <in the west end of the house> for the Melchisedec priesthood, Presdt. S. Rigdon, Myself, and Prest. Hyrum Smith the 2^{ond}— Presdt D. Whitmer Presdt O. Cowdery and Presdt John. Whitmer the 3^d— The 4th was occupied by the president of the high priests and his counsellors, and 2 choirister's— The 12. apostles on the right, the high council of Kirtland on the left, The pulpits <in the east end of the house> for the Aaronic priesthood were occupied in the following manner— The Bishop of Kirtland and his counsellors in the first pulpit— <the> Bishop of Zion and his counsellors in the 2^{ond}— the presdt. of the priest and his counsellors in the 3^d— the presdt. of the Teachers and his counsellors in the 4th— the high council of Zion on the right, the 7. presdt of the Seventies on the left

d

West end of the. house

Presdt. F[rederick] G. Williams Presdt. Joseph Smith, Sen and Presdt. W[illiam] W. Phelps occupied the 1st pulpit for the Melchisedic priesthood— Presdt. S. Rigdon myself and Presdt Hyrum Smith in the 2nd—

Presdt. D[avid] Whitmer Presdt. O. Cowdery and Presdt. J[ohn] Whitmer in the 3^d.— The 4th was occupied by the president of the high-priests and his counsellors, and 2 choiristers— The 12. Apostles on the right in the 3. highest seats—

The presdt of the Eldrs his clerk & counsellors in the seat immediatly below the 12— The high council of Kirtland consisting of 12, on the left in the 3, first seats— the 4th seat below them was occupied by the presidency's Eldr's W[arren] A. Cowdery & W[arren] Parrish who served as scribes.—

e

The pulpits in the east end of the house for the Aaronic priesthood were occupied as follows.— The Bishop of Kirtland and his counsellors in the 1st pulpit,— The Bishop of Zion and his counsellors in the 2nd— The presdt. of the priests and his counsellors in the 3^d.— The presdt. of the Teachers in and his counsellors <& one choirister> in the 4th— The high council of Zion consisting of 12. counsellors on the right— The presdt of the Deacons and his counsellors in the seat below them.— The 7. presdts of the Seventies on the left— The choir of singers were seated in the 4 corners of the room in seats prepared for that purpose— <rec^d by contribution $960.00>

9 oclock A. M the servises of the day were opened by Presdt S. Rigdon by reading 1st the 96 Psalm secondly the 24th Psalm— the choir then sung hymn on the 29th page of Latter day Saints collection of hymn's— prayer by Presdt Rigdon choir then sung hymn on 14th page Presdt Rigdon then <read> the 18, 19, & 20, verses of the 8th chapter of Mathew and preached more particularly from the 20th verse.— his prayer and address were very forcibly <forcible> and sublime, and well adapted to the occasion.— after he closed his services <sermon>, he called upon the several quorums commenceing with the presidency, to manifest by rising up, their willingness to acknowledge me as a prophet and seer and uphold me as such by their p[r]ayers of faith, all the quorums in their turn, cheerfully complied with this request he then called upon all the congregation of Saints, also to give their assent by rising on their feet which they did unanimously

f

After an intermission of 20, minutes the servises of the day were resumed, by singing Adam ondi ahman. I then made a short address and called upon the several quorums, and all the congregation of saints to acknowledge the Presidency as Prophets and Seers, and uphold them by their prayers, they all covenanted to do so by rising; I then called upon the quorums and congregation of saints to acknowledge the 12 Apostles who were present as Prophets and Seers and special witnesses to all the nations of the earth, holding the keys of the kingdom, to unlock it or cause it to be done among all nations them; and uphold them by their prayers, which they assented to by rising,

g

I then called upon the quorums and congregation of saints to acknowledge the high council of Kirtland in all the authorities [authority] of the Melchisedec priesthood and uphold them by their prayers which they assented to by rising. I then called upon the quorums and congregation of saints to acknowledge and uphold by their prayer's the Bishops of Kirtland and Zion and their counsellors, the Presidents of the Priests in all the authority of the Aaronic priesthood, which they did by rising. I then called upon the quorums and congregation of saints to acknowledge the high-council of Zion, and uphold them by their prayers in all the authority of the high priesthood which they did by rising. I next called upon the quorums and congregation of saints to acknowledge the Presidents of the seventy's who act as their representatives as <Apostles and> special witnesses to the nations to assist the 12 in opening the gospel kingdom, among all people and to uphold them by their prayer's which they did by rising— I then called upon the quorums and all the saints to acknowledge president of the Elders and his counsellors and uphold them by their prayers which they did by rising—. The quorums and congregation of saints were then called upon to acknowledge and uphold by their prayer's the Presidents of the Priests, Teachers, and Deacons and their counsellors, which they did by rising.

N. B. The Presidents were of the seventy's were acknowledged first after the 12 Apostles

The hymn on the hundred and 14 page was then sung, after which I offered to God the following dedication prayer.

h

Prayer,

At the dedication of the Lord's House in Kirtland Ohio March 27, 1836.— by Joseph Smith, jr. President of the Church of the Latter Day Saints.

Thanks be to thy name, O Lord God of Israel, who keepest covenant and shewest mercy unto thy servants, who walk uprightly before thee with all their hearts; thou who hast commanded thy servants to build an house to thy name in this plase. (Kirtland.) And now thou beholdest, O Lord, that so thy servants have done, according to thy commandment. And now we ask the[e], holy Father, in the name of Jesus Christ, the Son of thy bosom, in in whose name alone salvation can be administered to the children of men: we ask the[e], O Lord, to accept of this house, the workmanship of the hands of us, thy servants, which thou didst command us to build; for thou knowest that we have done this work through great tribulation: and out of our poverty we have given of our substance to build a house to thy name, that the Son of Man might have a place to manifest himself to his people.

i

And as thou hast said, in a revelation given unto us, calling us thy friends, saying— "Call your solemn assembly, as I have commanded you; and as all have not faith, seek ye diligently and teach one another words of wisdom; yea, seek ye out of the best books words of wisdom: Seek learning, even by study, and also by faith.

“Organize yourselves; prepare every thing needful thing, and establish a house, even a house of prayer, a house [of] fasting, a house of faith, a house of learning a house of glory, a house of order, a house of God: that your incomings may be in the name of the Lord, that your outgoings may be in the name of the Lord: that all your salutations may be in the name of the Lord, with uplifted hands to the Most High.”

j And now, Holy Father, we ask thee to assist us, thy people with thy grace in calling our solemn assembly, that it may be done to thy honor, and to thy divine acceptance, and in a manner that we may be found worthy in thy sight, to secure a fulfilment of the promises which thou hast made unto us thy people, in the revelatio[n]s given unto us: that thy glory may rest down upon thy people, and upon this thy house, which we now dedicate to thee, that it may be sanctified and consecrated to be holy, and that thy holy presence may be continually in this house; and that all people who shall enter upon the threshold of the Lord’s house may feel thy power and be constrained to acknowledge that thou hast sanctified it, and that it is thy house, a place of thy holiness.

k And do thou grant, holy Father, that all those who shall worship in this house, may be taught words of wisdom out of the best books, and that they may seek learning, even by study, and also by faith; as thou hast said; and that they may grow up in thee and receive a fulness of the Holy Ghost, and be organized according to thy laws, and be prepared to obtain every needful thing, and that this house may be a house of prayer, a house of fasting, a house of faith, a house of glory, and of God, even thy house: that all the incomings of thy people, into this house, may be in the name of the Lord; that all their outgoings, from this house, may be in the name of the Lord; that all their salutations may be in the name of Lord, with holy hands uplifted to the Most High; and that no unclean thing shall be permitted to come into thy house to pollute it.

And when thy people transgress, any of them, they may speedily repent and return unto thee, and find favour in thy sight, and be restored to the blessings which thou hast ordained, to be poured out upon those who shall reverence thee in this thy house.

l And we ask, holy Father, that thy servants may go forth from this house, armed with thy power, and that thy name may be upon them and thy glory be round about them, and thine angels have charge over them; and from this place they may bear exceeding great and glorious tidings, in truth, unto the ends of the earth, that they may know that this is thy work, and that thou hast put forth thy hand, to fulfil that which thou hast spoken by the mouths of thy prophets concerning the last days.

We ask the[e]; holy Father; to establish the people that shall worship and honorably hold a name and standing in this thy house, to all generations, and for eternity that no weapon formed against them shall prosper; that he who diggeth a pit for them shall fall into the same himself; that no combination of wickedness shall have power to rise up and prevail over thy people, upon whom thy name shall be put in this house: and if any people shall rise against this people, that thine anger be kindled against them: and if they shall smite this people, thou wilt smite them— thou wilt fight for thy people as thou didst in the day of battle, that they may be delivered from the hands of all their enemies.

m We ask thee, holy Father, to confound, and astonish, and bring to shame, and confusion, all those who have spread lying reports abroad over the world against thy servant or servants, if they will not repent when the everlasting gospel shall be proclaimed in their ears, and that all their works may be brought to nought, and be swept away by the hail, and by the judgments, which thou wilt send upon them in thine anger, that their may be an end to lyings and slanders against thy people: for thou knowest, O Lord, that thy servants have been innocent before thee in bearing record of thy name for which they have suffered these things; therefore we plead before thee for a full and complete deliverance from under this yoke. Break it off O Lord: break it off from the necks of thy servants, by thy power, that we may rise up in the midst of this generation and do thy work!

n O Jehovah, have mercy upon this people, and as all men sin, forgive the transgressions of thy people, and let them be blotted out forever. Let the anointing of thy ministers be sealed upon them with power from on high: let it be fulfilled upon them as upon those on the day of Pentacost: let the gift of tongues be poured out upon thy people, even cloven tongues as of fire, and the interpretation thereof. And let thy house be filled, as with a rushing mighty wind, with thy glory.

Put upon thy servants the testimony of the covenant that where they go out and proclaim thy word, they may seal up the law, and prepare the hearts of thy saints for all those judgements thou art about to send, in thy wrath, upon the inhabitants of the earth because of their transgressions, that thy people may not faint in the day of trouble.

o And whatever city thy servants shall enter, and the people of that city receive their testimony, let thy peace and thy salvation be upon that city, that they may gather out from that city the righteous, that they may come forth to Zion, or to her stakes, the places of thine appointment, with songs of everlasting joy,— and until this be accomplished let not thy judgements fall upon that city.

And whatever city thy servants shall enter, and the people of that city receive not their testimony of thy servants, and thy servants warn them to save themselves from this untoward generation let it be upon that city according to that which thou hast spoken, by the mouths of thy prophets; but deliver thou, O Jehovah, we beseech thee, thy servants from their hands, and cleanse them from their blood. O Lord, we delight not in the destruction of our fellow men: their souls are precious before thee; but thy word must be fulfilled:— help thy servants to say, with thy grace assisting them, thy will be done, O Lord, and not our<s>.

p We know that thou hast spoken by the mouth of thy prophets, terrible things concerning the wicked in the last days, that thou wilt pour out thy judgements; without measure; therefore, O Lord, deliver thy people from the calamity of the wicked; enable thy servants to seal up the law and bind up the testimony, that they may be prepared against the day of burning.

We ask thee, holy Father, to remember those who have been driven by the inhabitants of Jackson county Missouri, from the lands of their inheritance, and break off, O Lord, this yoke of affliction that has been put upon them. Thou knowest, O Lord, that they have been greatly oppressed and afflicted, by wicked men, and our hearts flow out in sorrow because of their grievous burdens. O Lord, how long wilt thou suffer this people to bear this affliction, and the cries of the innocent ones to ascend up in thine ears, and their blood to come up in testimony before thee and not make a display of thy power in their behalf?

q Have mercy, O Lord, upon that wicked mob, who have driven thy people, that they may cease to spoil, that they may repent of their sins, if repentance is to be found; but if they will not, make bare thine arm, O Lord, and redeem that which thou didst appoint a Zion unto thy people.

And if it cannot be otherwise, that the cause of thy people may not fail before thee, may thine anger be kindled and thine indignation fall upon them that they may be wasted away, both root and branch from under heaven; but inasmuch as they will repent, thou art gracious and merciful, and will turn away thy wrath, when thou lookest upon the face of thine anointed.

Have mercy, O Lord, upon all the nations of the earth: have mercy upon the rulers of our land may those principles which were so honorably and nobly defended: viz, the constitution of our land, by our fathers, be established forever.

r Remember the kings, the princes, the nobles, and the great ones of the earth, and all people; and the churches: all the poor, the needy and the afflicted ones of the earth, that their hearts may be softened when thy servants shall go out from thy house, O

Jehovah, to bear testimony of thy name, <that> their prejudices may give way before the truth, and thy people may obtain favour in the sight of all, that all the ends of the earth may know that we thy servants have heard thy voice, and that thou hast sent us, that from among all these thy servants, the sons of Jacob, may gather out the righteous to build a holy city to thy name, as thou hast commanded them.

We ask thee to appoint unto Zion other stakes besides this one, which thou hast appointed, that the gathering of thy people may roll on in great power and majesty, that thy work may be cut short in righteousness.

s Now these words, O Lord, we have spoken before thee, concerning the revelations and commandments which thou hast given unto us, who are i[de]ntified with the Gentiles;— But thou knowest that we have a great love for the children of Jacob who have been scattered upon the mountains; for a long time in a cloudy and dark day.

We therefore ask thee to have mercy upon the children of Jacob, that Jerusalem, from this hour, may begin to be redeemed; and the yoke of bondage may begin to be broken off from the house of David, and the children of Judah may begin to return to the lands which thou didst give to Abraham, their father, and cause that the remnants of Jacob, who have been cursed and smitten, because of their transgression, to be converted from their wild and savage condition, to the fulness of the everlasting gospel, that they may lay down their weapons of bloodshed and cease their rebellions. And may all the scattered remnants of Israel, who have been driven to the ends of the earth, come to a knowledge of the truth, believe in the Messiah, and be redeemed from oppression, and rejoice before thee.

t O Lord, remember thy servant Joseph Smith jr. and all his afflictions and persecutions, how he has covenanted with Jehovah and vowed to thee O mighty God of Jacob, and the commandments which thou hast given unto him, and that he hath sincerely strove to do thy will.— Have mercy, O Lord, upon his wife and children, that they may be exalted in thy presence, and preserved by thy fostering hand,— Have mercy upon all their immediate connexions, that their prejudices may be broken up, and swept away as with a flood, that they may be converted and redeemed with Israel and know that thou art God.

Remember, O Lord, the presidents, even all the presidents of thy church, that thy right hand may exalt them with all their families, and their immediate connexions, that their names may be perpetuated and had in everlasting remembrance from generation to generation.

Remember all thy church, O Lord, with all their families, and all their immediate connexions, with all their sick and afflicted ones, with all the poor and meek of the earth; that the kingdom which thou hast set up without hands, may become a great mountain and fill the whole earth, that thy church may come forth out of the wilderness of darkness, and shine forth fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners, and be adorned as a bride for that day when u thou shalt unveil the heavens, and cause the mountains to flow down at thy presence, and the valley's to be exalted, the rough places made smooth; that thy glory may fill the earth.

That when the trump shall sound for the dead, we shall be caught up in the cloud to meet thee, that we may ever be with the Lord, that our garments may be pure, that we may be clothed upon with robes of righteousness, with palms in our hands, and crowns of glory upon our heads, and reap eternal joy for all our sufferings.

O Lord, God Almighty, hear us in these our petitions, and answer us from heaven, thy holy habitation, where thou sittest enthroned, with glory, honour, power majesty, might, dominion, truth, justice judgement, mercy and an infinity of fulness, from everlasting to everlasting.

O hear, O hear, O hear us, O Lord, and answer these petitions, and accept the dedication of this house, unto thee, the work of our hands, which we have built unto thy name; and also this church to put upon it thy name. And help us by the power of thy spirit, that we may mingle our voices with those bright shining seraphs, around thy throne with acclamations of praise, singing hosanna to God and the Lamb: and let these thine anointed ones be clothed with salvation, and thy saints shout aloud for joy.

Amen and Amen.

v Sung Hosanah to God and the Lamb after which the Lords supper was administered

I then bore testimony of the administering of angels.— Presdt Williams also arose and testified that while Presdt Rigdon was making his first prayer an angel entered the window and <took his> seated himself between father Smith, and himself, and remained their during his prayer Presdt David Whitmer also saw angels in the house

We then sealed the proceedings of the day by a shouting hosanah to God and the Lamb 3 times sealing it each time with Amen, Amen, and Amen and after requesting all the official members to meet again in the evening we retired—met in the evening and instructed the quorums respecting the ordinance of washing of feet which we were to attend to on wednesday following

Prayer of Dedication, 27 March 1836 [D&C 109]

Print Sources

JSP	D5:188–209	JSR	—
DC	Section 109	HC	2:410–428
HDDC	1440–1457	TCHC	2:399–414

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

PRAYER,

At the Dedication of the Lord's House in Kirtland, Ohio, March 27, 1836,—By JOSEPH SMITH, jr.

President of the Church of the Latter Day Saints.

THANKS be to thy name, O Lord God of Israel, who keepest covenant and shewest mercy unto thy servants, who walk uprightly before thee with all their hearts: thou who hast commanded thy servants to build an house to thy name in this place. (Kirtland.) And now thou beholdest, O Lord, that so thy servants have done, according to thy commandment. And now we ask thee, holy Father, in the name of Jesus Christ, the Son of thy bosom, in whose name alone salvation can be administered to the children of men: we ask thee, O Lord, to accept of this house, the workmanship of the hands of us, thy servants, which thou didst command us to build; for thou knowest that we have done this work through great tribulation: and out of our poverty we have given of our substance to build a house to thy name, that the Son of Man might have a place to manifest himself to his people.

And as thou hast said, in a revelation given unto us, calling us thy friends, saying—“Call your solemn assembly, as I have commanded you; and as all have not faith, seek ye diligently and teach one another words of wisdom; yea, seek ye out of the best books words of wisdom: Seek learning, even by study, and also by faith.

“Organize yourselves; prepare every needful thing, and establish a house, even a house of prayer, a house of fasting, a house of faith, a house of learning, a house of glory, a house of order, a house of God: that your incomings may be in the name of the Lord; that your out goings may be in the name of the Lord: that all your salutations may be in the name of the Lord, with uplifted hands to the Most High.”

And now, holy Father, we ask thee to assist us, thy people with thy grace in calling our solemn assembly, that it may be done to thy honor, and to thy divine acceptance, and in a manner that we may be found worthy, in thy sight, to secure a fulfilment of the promises which thou hast made unto us thy people, in the revelations given unto us: that thy glory may rest down upon thy people, and upon this thy house, which we now dedicate to thee, that it may be sanctified and consecrated to be holy, and that thy holy presence may be continually in this house; and that all people who shall enter upon the threshold of the Lord's house may feel thy power and be constrained to acknowledge that thou hast sanctified it, and that it is thy house, a place of thy holiness.

And do thou grant, holy Father, that all those who shall worship in this house, may be taught words of wisdom out of the best books, and that they may seek learning, even by study, and also by faith; as thou hast said; and that they may grow up in thee and receive a fulness of the Holy Ghost, and be organized according to thy laws, and be prepared to obtain every needful thing: and that this house may be a house of prayer, a house of fasting, a house of faith, a house of glory, and of God, even thy house: that all the incomings of thy people, into this house, may be in the name of the Lord; that all their outgoings, from this house, may be in the name of the Lord; that all their salutations may be in the name of the Lord, with holy hands, uplifted to the Most High; and that no unclean thing shall be permitted to come into thy house to pollute it.

And when thy people transgress, any of them, they may speedily repent and return unto thee, and find favor in thy sight, and be restored to the blessings which thou hast ordained, to be poured out upon those who shall reverence thee in this thy house.

And we ask thee, holy Father, that thy servants may go forth from this house, armed with thy power, and that thy name may be upon them and thy glory be round about them, and thine angels have charge over them; and from this place they may bear exceeding great and glorious tidings, in truth, unto the ends of the earth, that they may know that this is thy work, and that thou hast put forth thy hand, to fulfil that which thou has spoken by the mouths of thy prophets concerning the last days.

We ask thee, holy Father, to establish the people that shall worship and honorably hold a name and standing in this thy house, to all generations, and for eternity, that no weapon formed against them shall prosper; that he who diggeth a pit for them shall fall into the same himself; that no combination of wickedness shall have power to rise up and prevail over thy people, upon whom thy name shall be put in this house: and if any people shall rise against this people, that thine anger be kindled against them: and if they shall smite this people, thou wilt smite them—thou wilt fight for thy people as thou didst in the day of battle, that they may be delivered from the hands of all their enemies.

We ask thee, holy Father, to confound, and astonish, and bring to shame, and confusion, all those who have spread lying reports abroad over the world against thy servant, or servants, if they will not repent when the everlasting gospel shall be proclaimed in their ears, and that all their works may be brought to nought, and be swept away by the hail, and by the judgments, which thou wilt send upon them in thine anger, that there may be an end to lyings and slanders against thy people: for thou knowest, O Lord, that thy servants have been innocent before thee in bearing record of thy name for which they have suffered these things; therefore we plead before thee for a full and complete deliverance from under this yoke. Break it off O Lord: break it off from the necks of thy servants, by thy power, that we may rise up in the midst of this generation and do thy work!

O Jehovah, have mercy upon this people, and as all men sin, forgive the transgressions of thy people, and let them be blotted out forever. Let the anointing of thy ministers be sealed upon them with power from on high: let it be fulfilled upon them as upon those on the day of Pentacost: let the gift of tongues be poured out upon thy people, even cloven tongues as of fire, and the interpretation thereof. And let thy house be filled, as with a rushing mighty wind, with thy glory.

Put upon thy servants the testimony of the covenant, that when they go out and proclaim thy word, they may seal up the law, and prepare the hearts of thy saints for all those judgements thou art about to send, in thy wrath, upon the inhabitants of the earth, because of their transgressions, that thy people may not faint in the day of trouble.

And whatever city thy servants shall enter, and the people of that city receive their testimony, let thy peace and thy salvation be upon that city, that they may gather out of that city the righteous, that they may come forth to Zion, or to her stakes, the places of thine appointment, with songs of everlasting joy,—and until this be accomplished let not thy judgments fall upon that city.

And whatever city thy servants shall enter, and the people of that city receive not the testimony of thy servants, and thy servants warn them to save themselves from this untoward generation, let it be upon that city according to that which thou hast spoken, by the mouths of thy prophets; but deliver thou, O Jehovah, we beseech thee, thy servants from their hands, and cleanse them from their blood. O Lord, we delight not in the destruction of our fellow men: their souls are precious before thee; but thy word must be fulfilled:—help thy servants to say, with thy grace assisting them, thy will be done, O Lord, and not ours.

We know that thou hast spoken by the mouth of thy prophets, terrible things concerning the wicked, in the last days, that thou wilt pour out thy judgments, without measure: therefore, O Lord, deliver thy people from the calamity of the wicked; enable thy servants to seal up the law and bind up the testimony, that they may be prepared against the day of burning.

We ask thee, holy Father, to remember those who have been driven by the inhabitants of Jackson county, Missouri, from the lands of their inheritance, and break off, O Lord, this yoke of affliction, that has been put upon them. Thou knowest, O Lord, that they have been greatly oppressed, and afflicted, by wicked men, and our hearts flow out in sorrow because of their grievous burdens. O Lord, how long wilt thou suffer this people to bear this affliction, and the cries of their innocent ones to ascend up in thine ears, and their blood to come up in testimony before thee, and not make a display of thy power in their behalf?

Have mercy, O Lord, upon that wicked mob, who have driven thy people, that they may cease to spoil, that they may repent of their sins, if repentance is to be found; but if they will not, make bear thine arm O Lord, and redeem that which thou didst appoint a Zion unto thy people!

And if it can not be otherwise, that the cause of thy people may not fail before thee, may thine anger be kindled and thine indignation fall upon them, that they may be wasted away, both root and branch from under heaven; but in as much as they will repent, thou art gracious and merciful, and will turn away thy wrath, when thou lookest upon the face of thine annointed.

Have mercy, O Lord, upon all the nations of the earth: have mercy upon the rulers of our land: may those principles which were so honorably and nobly defended: viz, the constitution of our land, by our fathers, be established forever. Remember the kings, the princes, the nobles, and the great ones of the earth, and all people; and the churches: all the poor, the needy and the afflicted ones of the earth, that their hearts may be softened when thy servants shall go out from thy house, O Jehovah, to bear testimony of thy name, that their prejudices may give way before the truth, and thy people may obtain favor in the sight of all, that all the ends of the earth may know that we thy servants have heard thy voice, and that thou hast sent us, that from among all these thy servants, the sons of Jacob, may gather out the righteous to build a holy city to thy name, as thou hast commanded them.

We ask thee to appoint unto Zion other stakes besides this one, which thou hast appointed, that the gathering of thy people may roll on in great power and majesty, that thy work may be cut short in righteousness.

Now these words, O Lord, we have spoken before thee, concerning the revelations and commandments which thou hast given unto us, who are identified with the Gentiles;—But thou knowest that we have a great love for the children of Jacob who have been scattered upon the mountains; for a long time in a cloudy and dark day.

We therefore ask thee to have mercy upon the children of Jacob, that Jerusalem, from this hour, may begin to be redeemed; and the yoke of bondage may begin to be broken off from the house of David, and the children of Judah may begin to return to the lands which thou didst give to Abraham, their father, and cause that the remnants of Jacob, who have been cursed and smitten, because of their transgression, to be converted from their wild and savage condition, to the fulness of the everlasting gospel, that they may lay down their weapons of bloodshed and cease their rebellions. And may all the scattered remnants of Israel, who have been driven to the ends of the earth, come to a knowledge of the truth, believe in the Messiah, and be redeemed from oppression, and rejoice before thee.

O Lord, remember thy servant Joseph Smith, jr. and all his afflictions and persecutions, how he has covenanted with Jehovah and vowed to thee, O mighty God of Jacob, and the commandments which thou hast given unto him, and that he hath sincerely strove to do thy will.—Have mercy, O Lord, upon his wife and children, that they may be exalted in thy presence, and preserved by thy fostering hand.—Have mercy upon all their immediate connexions, that their prejudices may be broken up, and swept away as with a flood, that they may be converted and redeemed with Israel and know that thou art God. Remember, O, Lord, the presidents, even all the presidents of thy church, that thy right hand may exalt them with all their families, and their immediate connexions, that their names may be perpetuated and had in everlasting remembrance from generation to generation.

Remember all thy church, O Lord, with all their families, and all their immediate connexions, with all their sick and afflicted ones, with all the poor and meek of the earth, that the kingdom which thou hast set up without hands, may become a great mountain and fill the whole earth, that thy church may come forth out of the wilderness of darkness, and shine forth fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners, and be adorned as a bride for that day when thou shalt unveil the heavens, and cause the mountains to flow down at thy presence, and the valleys to be exalted, the rough places made smooth, that thy glory may fill the earth.

That when the trump shall sound for the dead, we shall be caught up in the cloud to meet thee, that we may ever be with the Lord, that our garments may be pure, that we may be clothed upon with robes of righteousness, with palms in our hands, and crowns of glory upon our heads, and reap eternal joy for all our sufferings. O Lord, God Almighty. hear us in these our petitions, and answer us from heaven, thy holy habitation, where thou sittest enthroned, with glory, honor, power, majesty, might, dominion, truth, justice, judgement, mercy and an infinity of fulness, from everlasting to everlasting.

O hear, O hear, O hear us, O Lord, and answer these petitions, and accept the dedication of this house, unto thee, the work of our hands, which we have built unto thy name; and also this church to put upon it thy name. And help us by the power of thy Spirit, that we may mingle our voices with those bright shining seraphs, around thy throne with acclamations of praise, singing hosanna to God and the Lamb: and let these thine annointed ones be clothed with salvation, and thy saints shout aloud for joy. AMEN AND AMEN.

Minutes and Prayer of Dedication, 27 March 1836 [D&C 109]

Print Sources

JSP	D5:188–209	JSR	—
DC	Section 109	HC	2:410–428
HDDC	1440–1457	TCHC	2:399–414

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a ...President J. Smith jr. then rose, and after a few preliminary remarks, presented the several Presidents of the church, then present, to the several quorums respectively, and then to the church as being equal with himself, acknowledging them to be Prophets and Seers. The vote was unanimous in the affirmative in every instance.— Each of the different quorums was presented in its turn to all the rest, and then to the church, and received and acknowledged by all the rest, in their several stations without a manifest dissenting sentiment.
- President J. Smith jr. then addressed the congregation in a manner calculated to instruct the understanding, rather than please the ear, and at or about the close of his remarks, he prophesied to all, that inasmuch as they would uphold these men in their several stations, alluding to the different quo[r]ums in the church, the Lord would bless them; yea, in the name of Christ, the blessings of Heaven shall be yours. And when the Lord's annointed go forth to proclaim the word, bearing testimony to this generation, if they receive it, they shall be blessed, but if not, the judgments of God will follow close upon them, until that city or that house, that rejects them, shall be left desolate...
- b ...President Smith then asked the several quorums separately and then the congregation, if they accepted the prayer. The vote was, in every instance, unanimous in the affirmative.
- The Eucharist was administered.— D. C. [Don Carlos] Smith blessed the bread and wine and they were distributed by several Elders present, to the church.
- President J. Smith jr. then arose and bore record of his mission...
- ...President S. Rigdon then made a few appropriate closing remarks; and a short prayer which was ended with loud acclamations of Hosanna! Hosanna! Hosanna to God and the Lamb, Amen, Amen and Amen! Three times. Elder B[righam] Young, one of the Twelve, gave a short address in tongues; Elder D[avid] W. Patten interpreted and gave a short exhortation in tongues himself; after which, President J. Smith jr. blessed the congregation in the name of the Lord, and at a little past four P. M. the whole exercise closed and the congregation dispersed...

Record, 29 March 1836

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a ~~...After we dismissed made some arrangements for our meeting on the morrow; attended to my domestick concerns, nothing very special transpired~~
- ~~At evening I met with the presidency in the Temple of the Lord and the Lord commanded us to tarry and santify ourselves by washing our feet~~
- b At 11 oclock A. M. Presidents Joseph Smith jun Frederick G. Williams, Sidney Rigdon, Hyrum Smith, and Oliver Cowdery met in the most holy place in the Lords house and sought for a revelation from Him, to teach us concerning our going to Zion, and other important matter after uniting in prayer, the voice of the Spirit was that we should come into this place three times, and also call the other presidents, the two Bishops and their councils (each to stand in his place) and fast through the day and also the night and that during this, if we would humble ourselves, we should receive further communication from Him.
- After this word was received, we immediately sent for the other brethren who came. The presidency proceeded to ordain George Boosinger to the high priesthood and annoint him.
- This was in consequence of his having administered unto us in temporal things in our distress. And also because he left the place just previous to the dedication of the Lords house to bring us the temporal means previously named.
- c Soon after this, the word of the Lord came to us through Presdt. J. Smith jun that those who had entered the holy place must not leave the house untill morning but send for such things as were necessary, and also, that during our stay we must cleans our feet and partake of the sacrament that we might be made holy before Him, and thereby be qualified to officiate in our calling upon the morrow in washing the feet of the Elders.

Accordingly we proceeded and cleansed our faces and our feet, and then proceeded to wash each others feet.— president S. Rigdon first washed presdt J. Smith jun and then in turn was washed by him— after which president Rigdon washed presdt J. Smith Sen. and Hyrum Smith <prsd> J. Smith jun washed presdt F. G Williams, and then pres. Hyrum Smith washed president David Whitmer's feet and president Oliver Cowdery's, then pres D. Whitmer washed pres. W[illiam] W. Phelps feet and in turn pres Phelps washed pres John Whitmers feet.

The Bishops and their councils were then washed: After which we partook of the bread and wine. The Holy S[p]irit rested down upon us and we continued in the Lords house all night prophesying and giving glory to God

Revelation, 29 March 1836–A

Print Sources

JSP	J1:212	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:429
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:415

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

the voice of the Spirit was that we should come into this place three times, and also call the other presidents, the two Bishops and their councils (each to stand in his place) and fast through the day and also the night and that during this, if we would humble ourselves, we should receive further communication from Him.

Revelation, 29 March 1836–B

Print Sources

JSP	J1:212	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:430
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:415

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

the word of the Lord came to us through Presdt. J. Smith jun that those who had entered the holy place must not leave the house untill morning but send for such things as were necessary, and also, that during our stay we must cleans our feet and partake of the sacrament that we might be made holy before Him, and thereby be qualified to officiate in our calling upon the morrow in washing the feet of the Elders.

Certificate from Joshua Seixas, 30 March 1836

Print Sources

JSP	D5:214–216	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Mr Joseph Smith Jun^r has attended a full course of Hebrew lessons under my tuition; & has been indefatigable in acquiring the principles of the sacred language of the Old Testament Scriptures in their original tongue. He has so far accomplished a knowledge of it, that he is able to translate to my entire satisfaction; & by prosecuting the study he will be able to become a proficient in Hebrew. I take this opportunity of thanking him for his industry, & his marked kindness towards me

J[oshua] Seixas

Kirtland Ohio March 30th 1836 [1/3 page blank]

<J. Seixas Recommendation>

<Joseph Smith Junr.>

Minutes, 30 March 1836

Print Sources

JSP	D5:216–221; J1:213–216	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:430–433
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:416–418
TPJS	109–110

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Wednesday morning 8 o'clock March 30th 1836 According to appointment the presidency, the 12, the seventies, the high councils, the Bishops and their entire quorums, the Elders, and all the official members in this stake of Zion amounting to about 300 met in the temple of the Lord to attend to the ordinance of washing of feet, I ascended the pulpit and remarked to the congregation that we had passed through many trials and afflictions since the organization of this church and that this is a year of Jubilee to us and a time of rejoicing, and that it was expedient for us to prepare bread and wine sufficient to make our hearts glad, as we should not probably leave this house until morning; to this end we should call on the brethren to make a contribution, the stewards passed round and took up a liberal contribution and messengers were
- b dispatched for bread and wine; tubs water and towels were prepared <and> I called the house to order, and the presidency proceeded to wash the feet of the 12 pronouncing many prophecy's and blessings upon them in the name of the Lord Jesus, the brethren began to prophesy upon each others heads, and cursings upon the enemies of Christ who inhabit Jackson county Missouri[.] continued prophesying and blessing and sealing them with Hosanna and Amen until nearly 7 o'clock P.M. the bread <& wine> was then brought in, and I observed that we had fasted all the day; and lest we faint; as the Saviour did so shall we do on this occasion, we shall bless the bread and give it to the 12 and they to the multitude, after which we shall bless the wine and do likewise; while waiting for the wine I made the following remarks, that the time that we were required to tarry in Kirtland to be endued would be fulfilled in a few days, and then the Elders would go forth and each must
- c stand for himself, that it was not necessary for them to be sent out two by two as in former times; but to go in all meekness in sobriety and preach Jesus Christ & him crucified not to contend with others on the account of their faith or systems of religion but pursue a steady course, this I delivered by way of commandment, and all that observe them not will pull down persecution upon your <thier> heads, while those who do shall always be filled with the Holy Ghost, this I pronounced as a prophesy, sealed with a Hosanna & amen. Also that the seventies are not called to serve tables or preside over churches to settle difficulties, but to preach the gospel and build them up, and set others who do not belong to these quorums to preside over them who are high priests—the twelve also are not to serve tables, but to bear the keys of the kingdom to all nations, and unlock them and call upon the seventies to follow after them and assist them. The 12 are at liberty to go wheresoever they will and if one shall say, I wish to go to such a place let all the rest say Amen.

- d The seventies are at liberty to go to Zion if they please or go wheresoever they will and preach the gospel and let the redemption of Zion be our object, and strive to affect it by sending up all the strength of the Lords house wherever we find them, and I want to enter into the following covenant, that if any more of our brethren are slain or driven from their lands in Missouri by the mob that we will give ourselves no rest until we are avenged of our enimies to the uttermost, this covenant was sealed unanimously by a hosanna and Amen.— I then observed to the ~~quorums~~— quorum<s> that I had now completed their organization of the church and we had passed through all the necessary ceremonies, that I had given them all the instruction they needed and that they now were at liberty after obtaining their lisences¹ to go forth and build up the kingdom of God, and that it was expedient for me and the presidency to retire, having spent the night previous in waiting upon the Lord in his temple, and having to attend another dedication on the morrow, or conclude the one commenced on the last sabbath for the benifit of those of my brethren and sisters who could not get into the house on the former occasion but that it was expedient for the brethren to tarry all night and worship before the Lord in his house I left the meeting in the charge of
- e the 12 and retired at about 9 o clock in the evening; the brethren continued exhorting, prophesying and speaking in tongues until 5 o clock in the morning— the Saviour made his appearance to some, while angels minestered unto others, and it was a penticost and enduement indeed, long to be remembered for the sound shall go forth from this place into all the world, and the occurrences of this day shall be handed down upon the pages of sacred history to all generations, as the day of Pentecost, so shall this day be numbered and celebrated as a year of Jubilee and time of rejoicing to the saints of the most high God.

Visions, 3 April 1836 [D&C 110]

Print Sources

JSP	D5:224–229; J1:219–222	JSR	279–280
DC	Section 110	HC	2:435–436
HDDC	1458–1466	TCHC	2:420

Online Access Here

Background

Need background here—include the first paragraph of the J1:219 entry

Original Source

Text

The vail was taken from their minds and the eyes of their understandings were opened. They saw the Lord standing upon the breast work of the pulpit before them. and under his feet was a paved work of pure gold, in color like amber: his eyes were as a flame of fire; the hair of his head was like the pure snow, his countenance shone above the brightness of the sun, and his voice was as the sound of the rushing of great waters, even the Voice of Jehovah, saying, I am the first and the last. I am he who liveth. I am he who was slain. I am your Advocate with the Father. Behold your sins are forgiven you. You are clean before me, therefore, lift up your heads and rejoice, let the hearts of your brethren rejoice and let the hearts of all my brethren <people> rejoice, who have with their might, built this house to my name. For behold I have accepted this house and my name shall be here; and I will manifest myself to my people, in mercy, in this House, Yea I will appear unto my servants and speak unto them with mine own voice, if my people will keep my commandments and do not pollute this Holy House. Yea the hearts of thousands and tens of thousands shall greatly rejoice in consequence of the blessings which shall be poured out, and the endowment with which my servants have already been endowed and shall hereafter be endowed in this House. and the fame of this House shall spread to foreign lands, and this is the beginning of the blessing, which shall be poured out upon the heads of my people. even so amen. After this vision closed, the Heavens were again opened unto them and Moses appeared before them and committed unto them the Keys of the gathering of Israel from the four parts of the Eearth and the leading of the ten tribes from the Land of the North. After this Elias appeared and committed the dispensation of the gospel of Abraham, saying, that in them and their seed all generations after them should be blessed. After this vision had closed, another great and glorious vision burts [burst] upon them, for Elijah, the Prophet, who was taken to Heaven without tasting death, also stood before them, and said, behold the time has fully come which was spoken of by the mouth of Malachi, testifying, that he should be sent before the great and dreadful day of the Lord come, to turn the hearts of the Fathers to the children, and the children to the fathers, lest the whole earth be smitten with a curse. Therefore, the Keys of this dispensation are committed into your hands, and by this ye may know that the great and the dreadful day of the Lord is near, even at the doors ¹Note that many licenses were issued on this day and the following days.

Letter to Oliver Cowdery, circa 9 April 1836

Print Sources

JSP	D5:231–243	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:436–440
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:421–425

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

For the Messenger and Advocate.

BROTHER O[liver] COWDERY:

Dear Sir—This place having recently been visited by a gentleman who advocated the principles or doctrines of those who are called abolitionists; if you deem the following reflections of any service, or think they will have a tendency to correct the opinions of the southern public, relative to the views and sentiments I believe, as an individual, and am able to say, from personal knowledge, are the feelings of others, you are at liberty to give them publicity in the columns of the Advocate. I am prompted to this course in consequence, in one respect, of many elders having gone into the Southern States, besides, there now being many in that country who have already embraced the fulness of the gospel, as revealed through the book of Mormon,—having learned, by experience, that the enemy of truth does not slumber, nor cease his exertions to bias the minds of communities against the servants of the Lord, by stirring up the indignation of men upon all matters of importance or interest.

b

Thinking, perhaps, that the sound might go out, that “an abolitionist” had held forth several times to this community, and that the public feeling was not aroused to create mobs or disturbances, leaving the impression that all he said was concurred in, and received as gospel and the word of salvation. I am happy to say, that no violence or breach of the public peace was attempted, so far from this, that all except a very few, attended to their own avocations and left the gentleman to hold forth his own arguments to nearly naked walls.

c

I am aware, that many who profess to preach the gospel, complain against their brethren of the same faith, who reside in the south, and are ready to withdraw the hand of fellowship because they will not renounce the principle of slavery and raise their voice against every thing of the kind. This must be a tender point, and one which should call forth the candid reflection of all men, and especially before they advance in an opposition calculated to lay waste the fair States of the South, and set loose, upon the world a community of people who might peradventure, overrun our country and violate the most sacred principles of human society,—chastity and virtue.

No one will pretend to say, that the people of the free states are as capable of knowing the evils of slavery as those who hold them. If slavery is an evil, who, could we expect, would first learn it? Would the people of the free states, or would the slave states? All must readily admit, that th[e] latter would first learn this fact. If the fact was learned first by those immediately concerned, who would be more capable than they of prescribing a remedy?

d

And besides, are not those who hold slaves, persons of ability, discernment and candor? Do they not expect to give an account at the bar of God for their conduct in this life? It may, no doubt, with propriety be said, that many who hold slaves live without the fear of God before their eyes, and, the same may be said of many in the free states. Then who is to be the judge in this matter?

So long, then, as those of the free states are not interested in the freedom of the slaves, any other than upon the mere principles of equal rights and of the gospel, and are ready to admit that there are men of piety who reside in the South, who are immediately concerned, and until they complain, and call for assistance, why not cease their clamor, and no further urge the slave to acts of murder, and the master to vigorous discipline, rendering both miserable, and unprepared to pursue that course which might otherwise lead them both to better their condition? I do not believe that the people of the North have any more right to say that the South shall not hold slaves, than the South have to say the North shall.

e

And further, what benefit will it ever be to the slave for persons to run over the free states, and excite indignation against their masters in the minds of thousands and tens of thousands who understand nothing relative to their circumstances or conditions? I mean particularly those who have never travelled in the South, and scarcely seen a negro in all their life. How any community can ever be excited with the chatter of such persons—boys and others who are too indolent to obtain their living by honest industry, and are incapable of pursuing any occupation of a professional nature, is unaccountable to me. And when I see persons in the free states signing documents against slavery, it is no less, in my mind, than an array of influence, and a declaration of hostilities against the people of the South! What can divide our Union sooner, God only knows!

f After having expressed myself so freely upon this subject, I do not doubt but those who have been forward in raising their voice against the South, will cry out against me as being uncharitable, unfeeling and unkind—wholly unacquainted with the gospel of Christ. It is my privilege then, to name certain passages from the bible, and examine the teachings of the ancients upon this matter, as the fact is uncontrovertable, that the first mention we have of slavery is found in the holy bible, pronounced by a man who was perfect in his generation and walked with God. And so far from that prediction's being averse from the mind of God it remains as a lasting monument of the decree of Jehovah, to the shame and confusion of all who have cried out against the South, in consequence of their holding the sons of Ham in servitude!

"And he said cursed be Canaan; a servant of servants shall he be unto his brethren. And he said, Blessed be the Lord God of Shem; and Canaan shall be his servant.—God shall enlarge Japheth, and he shall dwell in the tents of Shem; and Canaan shall be his servant."—Gen, 8:25, 26, 27.

g Trace the history of the world from this notable event down to this day, and you will find the fulfilment of this singular prophecy. What could have been the design of the Almighty in this wonderful occurrence is not for me to say; but I can say, that the curse is not yet taken off the sons of Canaan, neither will be until it is affected by as great power as caused it to come; and the people who interfere the least with the decrees and purposes of God in this matter, will come under the least condemnation before him; and those who are determined to pursue a course which shows an opposition and a feverish restlessness against the designs of the Lord, will learn, when perhaps it is too late for their own good, that God can do his own work without the aid of those who are not dictated by his counsel.

h I must not pass over a notice of the history of Abraham, of whom so much is spoken in the scriptures. If we can credit the account, God conversed with him from time to time, and directed him in the way he should walk, saying, "I am the Almighty God: walk before me and be thou perfect." Paul says that the gospel was preached to this man. And it is further said, that he had sheep and oxen, men-servants and maid-servants, &c. From this I conclude, that if the principle had been an evil one, in the midst of the communications made to this holy man, he would have been instructed differently. And if he was instructed against holding men-servants and maid-servants, he never ceased to do it; consequently must have incurred the displeasure of the Lord and thereby lost his blessings—which was not the fact.

i Some may urge, that the names, man-servant and maid-servant, only mean hired persons who were at liberty to leave their masters or employers at any time. But we can easily settle this point by turning to the history of Abraham's descendants, when governed by a law given from the mouth of the Lord himself. I know that when an Israelite had been brought into servitude in consequence of debt, or otherwise, at the seventh year he went from the task of his former master or employer; but to no other people or nation was this granted in the law to Israel. And if, after a man had served six years, he did not wish to be free, then the master was to bring him unto the judges, boar his ear with an awl, and that man was "to serve him forever." The conclusion I draw from this, is that this people were led and governed by revelation and if such a law was wrong God only is to be blamed, and abolitionists are not responsible.

j Now, before proceeding any farther, I wish to ask one or two questions:—Were the apostles men of God, and did they preach the gospel? I have no doubt but those who believe the bible will admit these facts, and that they also knew the mind and will of God concerning what they wrote to the churches which they were instrumental in building up.

This being admitted, the matter can be put to rest without much argument, if we look at a few items in the New Testament. Paul says:

"Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ: Not with eye service, as men-pleasers: but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart: With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men. Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free. And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him." Eph. 6:5, 6, 7, 8, 9.

k Here is a lesson which might be profitable for all to learn, and the principle upon which the church was anciently governed, is so plainly set forth, that an eye of truth might see and understand. Here, certainly are represented the master and servant; and so far from instructions to the servant to leave his master, he is commanded to be in obedience, as unto the Lord: the master in turn is required to treat them with kindness before God, understanding at the same time that he is to give an account.—The hand of fellowship is not withdrawn from him in consequence of having servants.

l The same wri[t]er, in his first epistle to Timothy, the sixth chapter, and the five first verses, says:

"Let as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed. And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren: but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit These things teach and exhort. If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness: he is proud, knowing nothing but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself."

This is so perfectly plain, that I see no need of comment. The scripture stands for itself, and I believe that these men were better qualified to teach the will of God, than all the abolitionists in the world.

m Before closing this communication, I beg leave to drop a word to the travelling elders: You know, brethren, that great responsibility rests upon you, and that you are accountable to God for all you teach the world. In my opinion, you will do well to search the book of Covenants, in which you will see the belief of the church concerning masters and servants. All men are to be taught to repent; but we have no right to interfere with slaves contrary to the mind and will of their masters. In fact, it would be much better and more prudent, not to preach at all to slaves, until after their masters are converted: and then, teach the master to use them with kindness, remembering that they are accountable to God, and that servants are bound to serve their masters, with singleness of heart, without murmuring. I do, most sincerely hope, that no one who is authorized from this church to preach the gospel, will so far depart from the scripture as to be found stirring up strife and sedition against our brethren of the South. Having spoken frankly and freely, I leave all in the hands of God, who will direct all things for his glory and the accomplishment of his work.

Praying that God may spare you to do much good in this life, I subscribe myself your brother in the Lord.

JOSEPH SMITH, jr.

Letter to John Thornton and Others, 25 July 1836

Print Sources

JSP	D5:268–271	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:456–461
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:442–447

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a ...Another charge brought against our friends is that of being dangerous in societies “where slavery is tolerated and practiced.” Without occupying time here, we refer you to the April (1836) No. of the “Latter Day Saints’ Messenger and Advocate,” printed at this place, a copy of which we forward to each of you. From the length of time which has transpired since its publication, you can easily see, that it was put forth for no other reason than to correct the public mind generally, without a reference or expectation of an excitement of the nature of the one now in your country. Why we refer you to this publication, particularly, is because many of our friends who are now at the west, were in this place when this paper made its appearance, and from personal observation gave it their decided approbation, and expressed those sentiments to be their own, in the fullest particular...
- b ...If a people, a community, or a society, can accumulate wealth, increase in worldly fortune, improve in science and arts, rise to eminence in the eyes of the public, surmount these difficulties, so much as to bid defiance to poverty and wretchedness, it must be a new creation, a race of beings super-human. But in all their poverty and want, we have yet to learn, for the first time, that our friends are not industrious, and temperate, and wherein they have not always been the last to retaliate or resent an injury, and the first to overlook and forgive. We do not urge that there are not exceptions to be found: all communities, all societies and associations, are cumbered with disorderly and less virtuous members—members who violate in a greater or less degree the principles of the same. But this can be no just criterion by which to judge a whole society. And further still, where a people are laboring under constant fear of being dispossessed, very little inducement is held out to excite them to be industrious...
- c ...Though our religious principles are before the world, ready for the investigation of all men, yet we are aware that the sole foundation of all the persecution against our friends, has arisen in consequence of the calumnies and misconstructions, without foundation in truth, or righteousness, in common with all other religious societies, at their first commencement; and should Providence order that we rise not as others before us, to respectability and esteem, but be trodden down by the ruthless hand of extermination, posterity will do us the justice, when our persecutors are equally low in the dust, with ourselves, to hand down to succeeding generations, the virtuous acts and forbearance of a people, who sacrificed their reputation for their religion, and their earthly fortunes and happiness, to preserve peace, and save this land from being further drenched in blood.
- d We have no doubt but your very seasonable mediation, in the time of so great an excitement, will accomplish your most sanguine desire, in preventing further disorder; and we hope, gentlemen, that while you reflect upon the fact, that the citizens of Clay county are urgent for our friends to leave you, that you will also bear in mind, that by their complying with your request to leave, is surrendering some of the dearest rights and first, among those inherent principles, guaranteed in the constitution of our country; and that human nature can be driven to a certain extent, when it will yield no farther. Therefore, while our friends suffer so much, and forego so many sacred rights, we sincerely hope, and we have every reason to expect it, that a suitable forbearance may be shown by the people of Clay, which if done, the cloud that has been obscuring your horizon, will disperse, and you be left to enjoy peace, harmony and prosperity...

Revelation, 6 August 1836 [D&C 111]

Print Sources

JSP	D5:271–278	JSR	281
DC	Section 111	HC	2:465–466
HDDC	1467–1474	TCHC	2:450–451

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

A revelation
Salem (Mss.) [Massachusetts] August 6, 1836.

I the Lord your God am not displeased with your coming this Journey, notwithstanding your follies. I have much treasure in this city for you, for the benefit of Zion; and many people in this city whom I will gather out in due time for the benefit of Zion, through your instrumentality: Therefore it is expedient that you should form acquaintance with men in this city, as you shall be lead, and as it shall be be given you. And it shall come to pass, in due time, that I will give this city into your hands, that you shall have power over it, insomuch that they shall not discover your secret parts; and its wealth, pertaining to gold and silver, shall be yours. Concern not yourselves about your debts, for I will give you power to pay them. Concern not yourselves about Zion, for I will deal merciful with her. Tarry in this place and in the regions round about, and the place where it is my will that you should tarry, for the main, shall be signalized unto you by the peace and power of the my Spirit, that shall flow unto you. This place you may obtain by hire, &c . . . And inquire diligently concerning the more ancient inhabitants and founders of this city, for there are more treasures than one for you, in this city: Therefore be ye as wise as serpents and yet without sin, and I will order all things for your good as fast as ye are able to receive them. Amen.

1837

Joseph Smith

Introduction to 1837

sdf

Discourse, 6 April 1837

Print Sources

JSP	D5:352–357	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:477–479
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:461–463
TPJS	111–113

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Joseph Smith jr. rose and spoke on the subject of the Priesthood. The Melchisedec High priesthood, he said was no other then the priesthood of the Son of God. There are certain ordinances which belong to the priesthood, and certain results flow from it.
- The presidents, or presidency are over the church, and revelations of the mind and will of God to the church are to come through the presidency. This is the order of heaven and the power and privilege of this priesthood. It is also the privilege of any officer in this church, to obtain revelations so far as relates to his particular calling or duty in the church. All are bound by the principles of virtue and happiness, but one great privilege of this priesthood is to obtain revelations, as before observed, of the mind and will of God. It is also the privilege of the Melchisedec priesthood, to reprove, rebuke and admonish, as well as to receive revelations.
- b He here remarked something concerning the will of God, and said, that what God commanded, the one half of the church would condemn.— A high Priest, is a member of the same Melchisedec priesthood, with the presidency, but not of the same power or authority in the church. The seventies are also members of the same priesthood, are a sort of travelling council, or priesthood, and may preside over a church or churches until a high priest can be had. The seventies are to be taken from the quorum of elders and are not to be high priests. They are subject to the direction and dictation of the twelve, who have the keys of the ministry. All are to preach the gospel, by the power and influence of the Holy Ghost, and no man, said he, can preach the gospel without the Holy Ghost.
- c The Bishop was a high priest, and necessarily so, because he is to preside over that particular branch of the church affairs that are denominated the lesser priesthood, and because we have no direct lineal descendent of Aaron to whom it would of right belong. He remarked that this was the same, or a branch of the same priesthood; and illustrated his position by the figure of the human body, which has dfferent members, which have different offices to perform: all are necessary in their place, and the body is not complete without all the members. From a view of the requirements of the servants of God to preach the gospel, he remarked that few were qualified even to be priests, and if a priest understood his duty, his calling and ministry and preached by the Holy Ghost, his enjoyment is as great as if he were one of the presidency; and his services are necessary in the body, as are also those of teachers and deacons. Therefore in viewing the church as whole, we may strictly denominate it one priesthood.
- d He remarked that he rebuked and admonished his brethren frequently, and that because he loved them; not because he wished to incur their displeasure or mar their happiness.
- Such a course of conduct was not calculated to gain the good will of all, but rather the ill will of many, and thereby the situation in which he stood was an important one. So you see, brethren the higher the authority, the greater the difficulty of the station. But these rebukes and admonitions became nccssary from the perverseness of brethren, for their temporal as well as spiritual welfare. They actually constituted a part of the duties of his station and calling.

- e Others had other duties to perform that were important and far less enviable, and might be just as good, like the feet or hands in their relation to the human body, neither could claim priority, or say to the other I have no need of you. After all that has been said the greatest duty and the most important is, to preach the gospel.
- He then alluded to the temporal affairs of the church in this place, stating the causes of the embarrassments of a pecuniary nature that were now pressing upon the heads of the church. He observed they began poor, were needy, destitute, and were truly afflicted by their enemies; yet the Lord commanded them to go forth and preach the gospel, to sacrifice their time, their talents, their good name and jeopardize their lives, and in addition to this, they were to build a house for the Lord, and prepare for the gathering of the saints.
- f Thus it was easy to see this must involve them. They had no temporal means in the beginning commensurate with such an undertaking, but this work must be done, this place had to be built up. He further remarked that it must yet be built up, that more houses must be built. He observed that large contracts had been entered into for land on all sides where our enemies had signed away their right. We are indebted to them to be sure, but our brethren abroad have only to come with their money, take these contracts [contracts], relieve their brethren of the pecuniary embarrassments under which they now labor, and procure for themselves a peaceable place of rest among us. He then closed at about 4 P. M. by uttering a prophecy saying this place must be built up, and would be built up, and that every brother that would take hold and help secure and discharge those contracts that had been made, should be rich.

Revelation, 23 July 1837 [D&C 112]

Print Sources

JSP	D5:410–417; J1:306–309	JSR	281–283
DC	Section 112	HC	2:499–501
HDDC	1475–1494	TCHC	2:478–479

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

A Revelation given Kirtland July 23rd. 1837.

The word of the Lord unto Thomas, B. Marsh concerning the twelve Apostles of the Lamb.

Verily thus saith the Lord unto you my servant Thomas, I have heard thy prayers and thine alms have come up as a memorial before me in behalf of those thy brethren who were chosen to bear testimony of my name and to send it abroad among all nations, kindreds, tongues and people and ordained through the instrumentality of my servants.

Verily I say unto you there have been some few things in thine heart and with thee, with which I the Lord was not well pleased; nevertheless inasmuch as thou hast abased thyself thou shalt be exalted: therefore all thy sins are forgiven thee. Let thy heart be of good cheer before my face, and thou shalt bear record of my name, not only unto the Gentiles, but also unto the Jews; and thou shalt send forth my word unto the ends of the earth.

Contend thou therefore morning by morning, and day after day let thy warning voice go forth; and when the night cometh let not the inhabitants of the earth slumber because of thy speech. Let thy habitation be known in Zion, and remove not thy house, for I the Lord have a great work for you <thee> to do, in publishing my name among the children of men, therefore gird up your loins for the work. Let your feet be shod also for thou art chosen, and thy path lyeth among the mountains and among many nations, and by thy word many high ones shall be brought low; and by thy word many low ones shall be exalted, thy voice shall be a rebuke unto the transgressor, and at thy rebuke let the tongue of the slanderer cease its perverseness. Be thou humble and the Lord thy God shall lead thee by the hand and give thee an answer to thy prayers, I know thy heart and have heard thy prayers concerning thy brethren. Be not partial towards them in love above many others, but let your love be for them as for yourself, and let your love abound unto all men and unto all who love my name. And pray for your brethren of the twelve. Admonish them sharply for my name's sake, and let them be admonished for all their sins, and be ye faithful before me unto my name; and after their temptations and much tribulation behold I the Lord will feel after them, and if they harden not their hearts and stiffen not their necks against me they shall be converted and I will heal them.

Now I say unto you, and what I say unto you, I say unto all the twelve. Arise and gird up your loins, take up your cross, follow me, and feed my sheep. Exalt not yourselves; rebel not against my servant Joseph for Verily I say unto you I am with him and my hand shall be over him; and the keys which I have given him, and also to youward shall not be taken from him untill I come.

Verily I say unto you my servant Thomas, thou art the man whom I have chosen to hold the keys of my kingdom (as pertaining to the twelve) abroad among all nations, that thou mayest be ~~thy~~ my servant to unlock the door of the kingdom in all places where my servant Joseph, and my servant Sidney [Rigdon], and my servant Hyrum [Smith], cannot come, for on them have I laid the burden of all the Churches for a little season: wherefore whithersoever they shall send you, go ye, and I will be with you and in whatsoever place ye shall proclaim my name an effectual door shall be opened unto you that they may receive my word. Whosoever receiveth my word receiveth me, and whosoever receiveth me receiveth those (the first presidency) whom I have sent, whom I have made counsellors for my name's sake unto you. And again I say unto you, that whosoever ye shall send in my name, by the voice of your brethren the twelve, duly recommended and authorized by you, shall have power to open the door of my kingdom unto any nation whithersoever ye shall send them, inasmuch as they shall humble themselves before me and abide in my word, and hearken to the voice of my spirit.

Verily verily! I say unto you, darkness covereth the earth and gross darkness the ~~people~~ minds of the people, and all flesh has become corrupt before my face! Behold vengeance cometh speedily upon the inhabitants of the earth. A day of wrath! A day of burning! A day of desolation! Of weeping! Of mourning and of lamentation! And as a whirlwind it shall come upon all the face of the earth saith the Lord. And upon my house shall it begin and from my house shall it go forth saith the Lord. First among those among you saith the Lord; who have professed to know my name and have not known me and have blasphemed against me in the midst of my house saith the Lord

Therefore see to it that you trouble not yourselves concerning the affairs of my Church in this place saith the Lord, but purify your hearts before me, and then go ye into all the world and preach my gospel unto every creature who have not received it and he that believeth and is baptized shall be saved, and he that believeth not, and is not baptized shall be damned. For unto you (the twelve) and those (the first presidency) who are appointed with you to be your counsellors and your leaders, is the power of this priesthood given for the last days and for the last time, in the which is the dispensation of the fulness of times: which power you hold in connection with all those who have received a dispensation at any time from the beginning of the creation, for verily I say unto you the keys of the dispensation which ye have received have come down from the fathers; and last of all being sent down from heaven unto you. Verily I say unto you, Behold how great is your calling.

Cleanse your hearts and your garments, lest the blood of this generation be required at your hands. Be faithful untill I come for I come quickly and my reward is with me to recompense every man according as his work shall be! I am Alpha and Omega. Amen.

Minutes, 3 September 1837

Print Sources

JSP	D5:420–425	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:509–510
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:485–487

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a ...President Rigdon then arose, & made an address of considerable length, showing the starting point or cause of all the difficulty of Elders Boyngton & Johnson, he also cautioned all the Elders, concerning leaving their calling to pursue any occupation derogatory to that calling, assuring them that if pursued, God would let them run themselves into difficulties, that he may stop them in their career, that salvation may come unto them, Elder Boyngton then arose and still attributed his difficulties & conduct to the failure of the bank, stating that the bank he understood was instituted by the will & revilations of
- b God, & he had been told that it never would fail let men do what they pleased, Pres. Smith then arose, and stated that if this had been published, it was without authority, at least from him, he stated that he always said that unless the institution was conducted upon righteous principles it could not stand, The church was then called upon to know whether they were satisfied with the confession of Elder Boyngton, Voted in the negative Adjourned for one hour...

...The Pres then arose & made some remarks concerning the former presidents of the Seventies, their calling the authority of the priesthood &c...

Letter to John Corrill and the Church in Missouri, 4 September 1837

Print Sources

JSP	D5:426–431; J1:240–244	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:508–509
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:485

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a ...Joseph Smith J^E Pres^t of the Church <of Christ> of Latter Day Saints in all the world
To John Corroll [Corrill] & the whole Church in Zion [p. 18] Sendeth greeting, Blessed be the God of and father of our Lord Jesus Christ Who has blessed you with many blessings in Christ, And who has delivered you many times from the hands of your enemies And planted you many times in an heavenly or holy place, My respects & love to you all, and my blessings upon all the faithful & true harted in the new & everlasting covenant & for as much as I have desired for a long time to see your faces, & converse with you & instruct you in those things which have been revealed to Me partaining to the Kingdom of God in the last days, I now write unto you offering an appology [apology], My being bound with bonds of affliction by the workers of iniquity and by the labours of the Church endeavouring in all things to do the will of God, for the
- b salvation of the Church both in temporal as well as spiritual things. Bretheren we have waied through a scene of affliction and sorrow thus far for the will of God, that language is inadequate to describe pray yea therefore with more earnestness for our redemption, You have undoubtedly been informed by letter & otherwise of our difficulties in Kirtland which are now about being settled and that you may have a knowledge of the same I subscribe to you the following minuits of the comittee, of the whole Church of Kirtland the authorities &c. refering you to my brother Hyrum [Smith] & br. T[homas] B. Marsh for further particulars also that you may know how to proceed to set in order & regulate the affairs of the Church in zion whenever they become disorganized The minuits are as follows...
- ...Pres^t Smith then arose and stated that if this had been declared, no one had authority from him for so doing, For he had allways said unless the institution was conducted on richeous [righteous] principals it would not stand...
- ...The Pres then arose and made some remarks concerning the formers Pres^{ts} of the Seventies, the callings and authorities of their Priesthood &c. &c...
- c ...Oliver Cowdery has been in transgression, but as he is now chosen as one of the Presidents or councilors I trust that he will yet humble himself & magnify his calling but if he should not, the church will soon be under the necessaty of raising their hands against him Therefore pray for him, David Whitmer Leonard Rich & others have been in transgression but we hope that they may be humble & ere long make sattisfaction to the Church otherwise they cannot retain their standing, Therefore we say unto you beware of all disaffected Characters for they come not to build up but to destroy & scatter abroad, Though we or an Angel from Heaven preach any other Gospel or introduce [any other?] order of things <than> those things which ye have received and are authorized to received from the first Presidency let him be accursed, May God Almighty Bless you all & keep you unto the coming & kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ; Yours in the Bonds of the new <covenant>— J. Smith, Jr...

Revelation, 4 September 1837

Print Sources

JSP	D5:431–433; J1:245	JSR	283
DC	—	HC	2:511
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:488

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Revelation to Joseph Smith Jr Given in Kirtland Geauga Co. Ohio Sept 4th 1837

Making known the transgression of John Whitmer W[illiam] W. Phelps

Verily thus saith the Lord unto you my Servent Joseph. My Servents John Whitmer & William W Phelps have done those things which are not pleasing in my sight Therefore if they repent not they shall be removed out of their places Amen—

J Smith Jr

Minutes, 17 September 1837–A

Print Sources

JSP	D5:442–443	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

...After some remarks by Presidents Smith & Rigdon and others upon the discipline of Children, &c. the administration of the Lords Supper being attended to, the meeting Closed by a benediction from the Bishop...

Minutes, 17 September 1837–B

Print Sources

JSP	D5:444–446	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	2:513–514
HDDC	—	TCHC	2:491–492

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

...Minuits of a conference of Elders held in the house of the Lord this evening Pres. Joseph Smith Jr presided, the conferance was op[e]ned by prayer by Pres. <S[idney]> Rigdon after which the conferance was addressed by from the Chair, on the subject of the gathering of the Saints in the last days and the duties of the of the different quorums relations thereto, It appeared manifest to the conference that the places appointed for the gathering of the saints <were> at this time crowded to overflowing & that it was necessary that there be more Stakes of Zion appointed in order that the poor might have a place to gather to, wherefore it was moved seconded & carried by vote of the whole that Presidents J Smith Jr & S. Rigdon be requested by this conference to go & appoint other Stakes or places of gathering and that they receive a certificate of this their appointment signed by the Clerk of the Church...

Travel Account and Questions, November 1837

Print Sources

JSP	D5:478–484	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Be it known unto the Saints scattered abroad greeting:

That myself together with my beloved brother Sidney Rigdon, having been appointed by a general conference of elders held in Kirtland in the house of the Lord on the 18th of Sept. for the purpose of establishing places of gathering for the Saints &c. we therefore would inform our readers that we started from Kirtland in company with V[inson] Knight and Wm. Smith on the 27th of Sept. last, for the purpose of vislting [visiting] the Far West, and also to discover situations suitable for the location of the Saints who are gathering for a refuge and safety, in the day of the wrath of God which is soon to burst upon the head of this generation, according to the testimony of the prophets; who speak expressly concerning the last days: We had a prosperous and a speedy journey; we held one meeting in Norton township Ohio, and three in Doublin, Ia. [Dublin, Indiana] one between Doublin and Ter[r]e Haute, Ia. two in Tere Haute, one in Palmyra, Mo. 2 in Huntsville, one in Carlton; all of which were tended with good success and generally allayed the prejudice and feeling of the people, as we judge from the treatment we received, being kindly and hospitably entertained. On our arrival at the city of Far West, we found the church of Latter Day Saints in that place in as prosperous a condition as we could have expected, and as we believe enjoying a goodly portion of the Spirit of God, to the joy and satisfaction of our hearts.

- c The High council was immediately called and many difficulties adjusted, and the object of our mission was laid before them, after which the subject of the propriety of the Saints, gathering to the city of Far West, was taken into consider[a]tion, after a lengthy discussion upon the subject, it was voted, that the work of the gathering to that place be continued, and that there is a plenty of provisions in the upper counties for the support of that place, and also the emigration of the Saints; also voted that other Stakes be appointed in the regions round about, therefore a committee was appointed to locate the same; consisting of Oliver Cowdery, David Whitmer, John Corril[l], and Lyman Wight; who started on their mission before we left.

- d It was also voted that the Saints be directed to those men for instruction concerning those places; and it may be expected that all the information necessary will be had from them concerning the location of those places, roads &c. Now we would recommend to the Saints scattered abroad, that they make all possible exertions to gather themselves together unto those places; as peace, verily thus saith the Lord, peace shall soon be taken from the earth, and it has already began to be taken; for a lying spirit has gone out upon all the face of the earth and shall perplex the nations, and shall stur them up to anger against one another: for behold saith the Lord, very fierce and very terrible war is near at hand, even at your doors, therefore make haste saith the Lord O ye my people, and gather yourselves together and be at peace among yourselves, or there shall be no saf[e]ty for you.

- e We furthermore say to those who wish to stop short of the city of Far West, to call on us and get information concerning those places of gathering: We would say to the Saints it is now a day of warning and not of many words; therefore, a word to the wise is sufficent. We exhort you to remember the words of the prophet Malichi which says, bring ye all the tithes into the store house that there may be meet in mine house, and prove me herewith saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it, and I will rebuke the devourer for your sake, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground, neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the Lord of hosts, and all nations shall call you blessed for ye shall be a delightsome land sathth [saith] the Lord of hosts. We would also say to the Saints, that we were much pleased with the location of the Far West, and also the society of that place; and we purpose of locating our families in that place as soon as our circumstances will admit.

We shall be under the necessity of observing brevity in this our communication for want of room to publish it, and we shall close after naming a few questions which are daily and hourly asked by all classes of people whilst we are traveling, and will answer them in our next.

- f Firstly, Do you believe the bible?
2nd, Wherein do you differ from other denominations?
3rd, Will every body be damned but Mormons?
4th, How and where did you obtain the book of Mormon?

- 5th, Do you believe Jo Smith to be a prophet?
- 6th, Do the Mormons believe in having all things common?
- 7th, Do the Momons believe in having more wives than one?
- 8th, Can they riase the dead?
- 9th, What signs does Jo Smith give to establish his divine mission?
- g 10th, Was not Jo Smith a money digger?
- 11th, Did he not Steal his wife?
- 12th, Do the people have to give up their money when they join his church?
- 13th, Are the Mormons Abolitionists?
- 14th, Do they not stur up the Indians to war and to commit depredations?
- 15th, Do the Mormons baptize in the name of Jo Smith?
- 16th, If the Mormon doctrine is true, what have become of all that have died since the days of the apostles?
- 17th Does not Jo Smith pretend to be Jesus Christ?
- 18th, Is there any thing in the bible that liscences you to believe in revelation now days?
- 19th, Is not the canon of the scriptures full?
- 20th, What are the fundamental principles of your religion?
- The above questions are as many as we probably shall have room to answer in our next article, though many more may hereafter be asked and answered as circumstances will permit.

Discourse, Early December 1837

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Joseph then Spake as never man had Spoken before; Sho[w]ing the Love of God. Portraid the gethering to gether of Saints and Sin[n]ers. Drew a figer [figure] of the gospel net, in which the good would be with the bad; And of the tares gro[w]ing with the wheat. And of the Saints So living, that the teares seeing their good works; might be led to Glorify God. Joseph Said, "The duty of the Saints is to bind— to-gether Humanity. To throw round all the arm of Love. Not to be to zelous; fore "There is a way that seameth right unto man but the end thereof is death". Many take the influence of zeal to be the Spirit of God, but it is not. The evol Spirits often decieve; and lead man astray. They are trying to divide the Saints.
- b But we are cal[le]d-upon to hunt for the one that is mising from the fold, whether Saint or Siner. And now Bretheren I wish to Say something about the Bruster [James Brewster] and Noris [Moses Norris] Brothers and Sisters. I met with them before going to Missouri. The Spirit of Love, Joy and peace rested on us, and the Holy Ghost bore witness of their faith in God; and now I learn they are all Cut off from the Church.
- I want some one to make a motion that all of them be restord to full fellowship (with out baptism) as though no action had ben taken against them".

1838

Joseph Smith

Introduction to 1838

sdf

Letter and Revelation to Edward Partridge, 7 January 1838

Print Sources

JSP	D5:492–494	JSR	284
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Kirtland, Jan. 7th 1838

Brother [Edward] Partridge, Thus saith the Lord, my servant Edward and his house shall be numbered with the blessed and Abraham their father, and his name shall be had in sacred rem[em]brance. And again thus saith the Lord, let my people be aware of dissensions among them lest the enemy have power <over> them, Awake my shepherds and warn my people! for behold the wolf cometh to destroy them! receive him not. Now I would inform you that my health is good and also that of my family, and it is my earnest prayer to God that health, peace, and plenty may crown your board and blessings of Heaven rest upon the head of him in whom the Lord hath said there is no guile.

Revelation, 12 January 1838–A

Print Sources

JSP	D5:494–498; J1:281–283	JSR	284–285
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Kirtland Ohio Jan. 12th 1838

In the presence of Joseph Smith Jr Sidney Rigdon Vinson Knight & G[eorge] W. Robinson at the French Farm, The following inquiry was made of the Lord

A question asked of the Lord concerning the trying of the first Presidency of the Church of Latter Day Saints for transgression according to the item of Law found in third sec of the Book of covenants 37 verse Whether the decision of such an council of one stake shall be conclusive for Zion and all the Stake——

Answer} Thus saith the Lord the time has now come when a decision of such an council would not answer for Zion and all her stakes——

b What will answer for Zion and all her Stakes

Answer; Thus saith the Lord let the first presidency of my Church be held in full fellowship in Zion and all her stakes until they shall be found transgressors by such an high council—— as is named in the 3rd sec. 37 verse of the Book of Covenants, in Zion by 3 witnesses standing against Each member of said presidency and said witnesses shall be of long and faithful standing and such also as cannot be impeached by other witnesses before said council and when a desision is had by such an council in Zion it shall only be for Zion it shall not answer for her stakes but if said desision be acknowleged by the Council of her stakes then it shall answer for her stakes <But if it is not acknowleged by the Stakes then such <stakes> may have the privilege of hearing for themselves> or if said decision shall be acknowleged by a majority of her stakes then it shall <answer> for <all> her stakes And again the presidency of said Church may be tried by the <voice> of the whole body of <the Church of> Zion, and the whole body <voice of a majority> of all her stakes, And again except a majority is had by the voice of the Church of Zion, and the majority of her stakes, the charges will be considered not sustained, and in order to sustain such charge or charges before said Church <of Zion> or her stakes Such witnesses must be had as is named above, That is three witnesses ◇◇ Each president that is of long & faithfull sta[nd]ing that can[not] be impeached by other wi[tnesses] before [the] Church of Zion or her stakes, and all this saith the Lord, because of wicked and aspiring men, let all your doing be in meekness and humility before me even so Amen

[page blank]

Revelation, 12 January 1838–B

Print Sources

JSP	D5:498–499; J1:283	JSR	285
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Kirtland Jan 12th 1838

Can the first any branch of the Church of Latter Day Saints be considered a stake of Zion until [until] they have acknowleged the authority of the first Presidensy, by a vote of said Church,

Thus saith the Lord verly I say unto you nay

How then

Answer. No stake shall be appointed except by the first presidency and this Presidency be acknowleged by the voice of the same, otherwise it shall not be counted as a stake of Zion, And again except it be dedicated by this Presidency it cannot be acknowleged as a stake of Zion, For unto this end, have I appointed them, in laying the foundation of and establishing my Kingdom

Revelation, 12 January 1838–C

Print Sources

JSP	D5:500–502; J1:283–284	JSR	286
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Thus saith the Lord Let the presidency of my Church take their families as soon as it is practicable and a door is open for them and move on to the west as fast as the way is made plain before their faces and let their hearts be comforted for I will be with them

Verily I say unto you the time [has] come that your labours are finished in this place, for a season, Therefore arise and get yourselves on to a land which I shall show unto you even a land flowing with milk and honey you are clean from the blood of this people and wo unto those who have become your enemies who <have> professed my name saith the Lord, for their judgement lingereth not and their damnation slumbereth not, let all your faithful friends arise with their families also and get out of this place and gather themselves together unto Zion and be at peace among yourselves O ye inhabitants of Zion or there shall be no safety for you

[page blank]

[page blank]

Minutes, 15 March 1838

Print Sources

JSP	D6:39–43	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

President Joseph Smith j^r gave a history of the ordination of David Whitmer, which took place in July 1834, to be a leader, or a prophet to this Church, which (ordination) was on conditions that he (J. Smith jr) did not live to God himself.

President J. Smith jr approved of the proceedings of the High Council, after hearing the minutes of the former Councils.

Motto, circa 16 or 17 March 1838

Print Sources

JSP	D6:43–45; J1:237–238	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	3:9
HDDC	—	TCHC	3:11
TPJS	117

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Motto of the Church of Christ of Latterday Saints.

The Constitution of our country formed by the Fathers of Liberty.

Peace and good order in society Love to God and good will to man.

All good and wholesome Law's; And virtue and truth above all things

And Aristarchy live forever!!!

But Wo to tyrants, Mobs, Aristocracy, Anarchy and Toryism: And all those who invent or seek out unrighteous and vexatious lawsuits under the pretext or color of law or office, either religious or political.

Exalt the standard of Democracy! Down with that of Priestcraft, and let all the people say Amen! that the blood of our Fathers may not cry from the ground against us.

Sacred is the Memory of that Blood which bought for us our liberty.

Signed

Geo. W. Robinson

Joseph Smith J^r.
Thomas B. Marsh
D[avid] W. Patten
Brigham Youngs [Young]
Samuel H. Smith
George M. Hinkle
John Corrill.—

Questions and Answers, between circa 16 and circa 29 March 1838—A [D&C 113:1–6]

Print Sources

JSP	D6:50–54	JSR	286–287
DC	Section 113	HC	3:9–10
HDDC	1495–1499	TCHC	3:12

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Quest. on Scripture.

1st. Who is the stem of Jessee spoken of in the 1st. 2^d. 3^d. 4th. and 5th. verses of the 11th. Chap. of Isiah.

Ans. Verely thus saith the Lord It is Christ

Q. 2^d. What is the Rod spoken of in the 1st. verse of the 11th. ~~verse~~ Chap. that shoud come of the stem of Jessee.

Ans. Behold thus saith <the Lord> it is a servant in the hands of Christ who is partly a decendant of Jessee as well as of Ephraim or of the house of Joseph, on whome thare is Laid much power.

Qest 3^d. What is the Root of Jessee spoken of in the 10th. verse of the 11th. Chap.

Ans. Behold thus saith the Lord; it is a decendant of Jessee as well as of Joseph unto whom rightly belongs the Priesthood and the kees of the Kingdom for an ensign and for the geathering of my people in the Last day.—

Questions and Answers, between circa 16 and circa 29 March 1838—B [D&C 113:7–10]

Print Sources

JSP	D6:54–56	JSR	286–287
DC	Section 113	HC	3:9–10
HDDC	1495–1499	TCHC	3:12

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Questions by Elias Higby [Higbee]

1st. Q. What is ment by the command in Isiah 52^d. chap 1st. verse which saith Put on thy strength O Zion and what people had I[sal]iah reference to

A. He had reference to those whome God should call in the last day's who should hold the power of Priesthood to bring again zion and the redemption of Israel.

And to put on her strength is to put on the authority of the priesthood which she (zion) has a right to by lineage: Also to return to that power which she had lost

Ques. 2^d. What are we to understand by zions loosing herself from the bands of her neck 2^d. verse.

A. We are to understand that the scattered remnants are exorted to to return to the Lord from whence they have fal[l]en which if they do the promise of the Lord is that he will speak to them or give them revelation See 6th. 7th. and 8th. verses The bands of her neck are the curses of God upon her or the remnants of Israel in their scattered condition among the Gentiles.

Letter to the Presidency in Kirtland, 29 March 1838

Print Sources

JSP	D6:56–61; J1:245– 247	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	3:10–12
HDDC	—	TCHC	3:12–14

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a ...Being under the hand of wicked vexatious Lawsuits for seven years past my buisness was so dangerous that I was not able to leave it, in as good a situation as I had antispated, but if there are any wrongs, They shall all be noticed so far as the Lord gives me ability & power to do so, say to all the brotheren that I have not forgotten them, but remember them in my prayers, Say to Mother Beaman [Sarah Burt Beman] that I remembr her, Also Br Daniel Carter Br Stong & family Br [Oliver] Granger & family, Finally I cannot innumerate them all for the want of room I will just name Br Knights the Bishop &c. My best respects to them all ~~for the want of room~~ & I commend them and the Church of God in Kirtland to our Heavenly Father
- b & the word of his grace, which is able to make you wise unto Salvation I would just say to Br. [William] Marks, that I saw in a vision while on the road that whereas he was closely persued by an innumerable concourse of enimies and as they pressed upon him hard as if they were about to devour him, Ht <&> had seemingly attained some degre[e] of advantage over him But about this time a chariot of fire came and near the place and the Angel of the Lord put forth his hand unto Br. Marks & said unto him thou art my son come here, and immediately he was caught up in the Chariot and rode away triumphantly out of their midst and again the Lord said I will raise th[ee] up for a blessing unto many people Now the particulars of this whole matter cannot be written at this time but the vision was evidently given to me that I might know that the hand of the Lord would be on his behalf...

Minutes, 7–8 April 1838

Print Sources

JSP	D6:70–74	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	3:14–15
HDDC	—	TCHC	3:16–18
TPJS	117

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

...President J. Smith jr. made some remarks, also gave some instruction respecting the order of the day. The conference was then opened by singing, “O God our hope in ages past” and prayer by President B. Young.— Also a hymn was sung “how firm a foundation”. After which, President J. Smith, Jr. arose and addressed the congregation at considerable length, on some important items...

...President Joseph Smith Jr. made a few remarks respecting the Kirtland Bank— Who was followed by Brigham Young, who gave a short history of his travels to Massachusetts and New York...

...President Joseph Smith Jr, next made a few remarks on the word of wisdom, giving the reason of its coming forth, saying it should be observed. On motion, the Conference adjourned for one hour...

Revelation, 11 April 1838 [D&C 114]

Print Sources

JSP	D6:81–82; J1:257	JSR	287
DC	Section 114	HC	3:23
HDDC	1500–1505	TCHC	3:23

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Revelation to D[avid] W. Patten. given April 11th. 1838 Verily thus Saith the Lord, it is wisdom in my Servant D. W. Patten, that he settle up all his buisness, as soon as he possibly, can, and make a disposition of his merchandise, that he may perform a mission unto me next spring, in company with others even twelve including himself, to testify of my name and bear glad tidings unto all the world, for verrily thus Saith the Lord that inasmuch as there are those among you who deny my name, others shall be planted in their stead and receive their bishoprick Amen.—

Revelation, 17 April 1838

Print Sources

JSP	D6:107–108; J1:257–258	JSR	288
DC	—	HC	3:23
HDDC	—	TCHC	3:23
TPJS	118

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Revelation given to Brigham Young at Far West April 17th 1838. Verrily thus Saith the Lord, Let my Servant Brigham Young go unto the place which he has baught on Mill Creek and there provide for his family until an effectual door is op[e]ned for the suport of his family untill I shall command [him] to go hence, and not to leave his family untill they are amply provided for Amen.—

Revelation, 26 April 1838 [D&C 115]

Print Sources

JSP	D6:112–118; J1:258–260	JSR	289–291
DC	Section 115	HC	3:23–25
HDDC	1506–1516	TCHC	3:24

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Revelation given in Far West, April 26<th>, 1838, Making known the will of God, concerning the building up of this place and of the Lord's house &c.

Verrily thus Saith the Lord unto you my Servant Joseph Smith Jr. and also my Servant Sidney Rigdon, and also my Servant Hyrum Smith, and your counselors who are and who shall be hereafter appointed, and also unto my Servant Edward Partridge and his Councilors, and also unto my faithfull Servants, who are of the High Council of my Church in zion (for thus it shall be called) and unto all the Elders and people of my Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Scattered abroad in all the world, For thus shall my Church be called in the Last days even the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Verrily I say unto you all; arise and shine forth ~~forth~~ that thy light may be a standard for the nations and that thy gathering to-gether upon the land of zion and upon her stakes may be for a defence and for a reffuge from the storm and from wrath when it shall be poured out without mixture upon the whole Earth, Let the City Far West, be a holy and consecrated land unto me, and <it shall> be called <most> holy for the ground upon which thou standest is holy Therefore I command you to build an house unto me for the gathering togethering of my Saints that they may worship me, and let there be a begining of this work; and a foundation and a preparatory work, this following Summer; and let the begining be made on the 4th day of July next; and from that time forth let my people labour diligently to build an house, unto my name, and in one year from this day, let them recommence laying the foundation of my house; thus let them from that time forth laibour diligently untill it shall be finished, from the Corner Stone thereof unto the top thereof, untill there shall not any thing remain that is not finished.

Verrily I say unto you let not my servant Joseph neither my Servant Sidney, neither my Servant Hyrum, get in debt any more for the building of an house unto my name. But let my house be built unto my name according to the pattern which I will shew unto them, and if my people build it not according to the pattern which I Shall shew unto their presidency, I will not accept it at their hands, But if my people do build it according to the pattern which I shall shew unto their presidency, even my servant Joseph and his Councilors; then I will accept it at the hands of my people, And again; Verrily I say unto you it is my will, that the City Far West should be built up spedily, by the gathering of my Saints, and also that other places should be appointed for stakes in the regions round about as they shall be manifested unto my Servant Joseph from time to time. For behold I will be with him and I will Sanctify him before the people for unto him have I given the Keys of this Kingdom and ministry even so— Amen.

Record, 28 April 1838

Print Sources

JSP	J1:261–263	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Need to explain the trial.

Original Source

You cannot tell from the source whether JS said these things.

Text

- a ...After Justice had ceased to weild his <its> sword, Mercy then advanced to rescue its victom, which inspired the heart of President J. Smith Jr, & Geo W. Harris who, with profound elequence <&> with  deep & sublime thought, with clemency of feeling, spoke in faivour of ~~mercy~~ the defendant, but in length of time, while mercy appeared to be doing her utmost, in contending against justice, the latter at last gained the ascendancy, and took full ~~power over~~ <possession of> the mind of the speaker, who leveled a voley of darts, which came upon the old man, like  huricanes upon the mountain tops, which seemingly, was about to sweep the victom entirely out of the reach of mercy, but amidst the clashing of the sword of Justice,
- b mercy still claimed the victom, and saved him still in the church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, and in this last kingdom Happy is it for those whose sins (like this mans) goes before them to Judgement, that they may yet repent and be saved in the Kingdom of our God. Council desided, that inasmuch as this man, had confessed his sins, and asked for, forgiveness, and promised to mark well the path of his feet, and do, (inasmuch as lay in his power.) what God, Should required at his hand<s>. accordingly, it was decided, that he give up his license as High Priest, and stand as a member in the Church, this in consequence of his being considered not capable of dignifying that office, &c Council Adjourned

Editorial, 4 May 1838

Print Sources

JSP	D6:	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Far West, May 1838.
- Notwithstanding all the efforts of the enemies to the truth, both from without and within, to the contrary, we are enabled to present this Journal, to the patrons, with the prospect of being able to continue it in time to come, without interruption.
- Great have been the exertions of the opposers to righteousness, to prevent us from sending abroad the doctrines of the church to the world: every effort has been used by the combined influence of all classes of enemies, and of all sects and parties of religion; and of those who are opposed to it, in all its forms to prevent it.
- It is indeed somewhat unexpected to us, to be able to commence printing the Journal again so soon; but the general interest felt in it by the Saints in general, soon, in a degree, repaired the loss which was suffered in the burning of the press in Kirtland; and another establishment, by the exertions of the Saints in Far West, has been obtained, sufficiently large, to print the Journal; and soon will be greatly enlarged, so as to do all the printing necessary, for the whole church.
- b We have no doubt, but liberal minded men will continue to aid with their means until the establishment will be sufficiently supplied with means to make the largest of the kind, any where in the region of country where it is located.
- In this place, the church is as pleasantly situated as could be expected, taking into consideration their circumstances, as the settlement here is but about eighteen months old, and the first settlers had been driven from their homes, and all their property destroyed, and had to come here without any thing.—But to their honor it may be said, that few people on earth have endured the same degree of persecution, with the same patience.
- Nothing discouraged by the great afflictions and tribulations which they have had to endure for Christ's sake. They united with all their powers, to turn a solitary place into a fruitful field—we do not say a wilderness, for there is not a sufficiency of timber to make it a wilderness—and have exceeded the highest expectations of the most enthusiastic.
- Large bodies of land have been, and are now putting under cultivation.
- c We might venture an assertion on this point, and that, without the fear of contradiction by those who are acquainted with the settlements in this vicinity, and that is, no part of the world can produce a superior to Caldwell County, if an equal. Eighteen months since without scarcely an inhabitant: at this time the city of “Far West,” the county seat, has one hundred and fifty houses, and almost the whole county is taken up, or all that part of it, which can be conveniently settled for want of timber: and large bodies of it are now under cultivation.
- An enconium too high, cannot be placed upon the heads of the enterprising and industrious habits of the people of this county. They are fast making for themselves, and their posterity after them, as beautiful, interesting, and as profitable homes, as can be in any country.

In a very few years, and it will be said with propriety, “that the solitary place has become glad for them;” and we can say, that the people will be as glad for it.

- d This town “Far West” is situated in Caldwell county Missouri, in the midst of a prairie of very rich soil. It is an elevated piece of land, and has a commanding view of the surrounding country for many miles, in every direction. On the north, about one mile passes Shoal Creek, a heavy stream which has many water privileges on it. On the south, a little more than half a mile, runs Goose Creek, a tributary of Shoal. It also is large enough to admit of water-works.

To all appearance the country is healthy, and the farming interest is equal to that in any part of the world; and the means of living are very easily obtained, not even luxuries excepted.

From this to the territorial line on the north, is from eighty to one hundred miles, and to the line on the west, twenty five or upwards, or what was the territorial line, before the purchase of what is called the Platt[e] and Nodawa[y] countries, or rather Notawa, which signifies rattle snake.

It will be seen by this, that this town is situated in the north west corner of the State of Missouri, in the 40th deg. of north latitude. The land is rolling and generally dry; at least, there are no more wet lands, than are necessary for grazing purposes, when the country becomes all subdued.

- e The Saints here are at perfect peace with all the surrounding inhabitants, and persecution is not so much as once named among them: every man can attend to business without fear or excitement, or being molested in any wise. There are many of the inhabitants of this town, who own lands in the vicinity, and are at this time busily engaged in cultivating them. Hundreds of acres of corn have been planted already, in our immediate neighborhood; and hundreds of acres more are now being planted. (This is the fourth day of May).

The crops of wheat are very promising, and the prospect is that we will have an abundant harvest. The vast quantities of provision purchased, in this upper country by the United States, for the use of the Garrison, and also for the Indians, have made all kinds of provision dear, and somewhat scarce. Corn is fifty cents per bushel; wheat one dollar; pork from eight, to ten dollars per cwt.; and all kinds of provision on a par with these.

- f Perhaps it might be thought by some necessary, that we should say something about the affairs of Kirtland.—The burning of the printing office there &c. But it is now, as in former days. In former days the destroyers of the Saints’ property were of the baser sort of mankind, even so it is now. And as the Saints in former days considered a formal notice of them, beneath both their character and standing, so do the Saints in like manner now. Only say as they did; “That a gang of the baser sort, burned and wasted our property to the utmost of their power” regardless of law, justice, or humanity, and were upheld in their wickedness, by those who were like the high priest in Paul’s day, who though, he sat to judge after the law, commanded Paul to be smitten contrary to law. So it was with our persecutors in the east: for notwithstanding they sat to judge after the law, yet, commanded they our property to be destroyed contrary to law.

And as Paul and Barnabas did at Iconium. So did we at Kirtland.—“When there was an assault made, both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews, with their rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them, they were ware of it, and fled into Lystris and Derbe, cities of Lyconia, and unto the region that lieth round about. And there they preached the gospel.”

- g So we did in like manner, taking them for our example. When there was an assault being made, of liars, thieves, and religionists, with their rulers all combined, we were aware of it, and fled to “Far West,” and are here preaching the gospel whereunto we are called by the power of God. Let so much suffice for Kirtland.

We have the gratification of saying to the Elders abroad, that we hope to be able to furnish the Journal regularly, from hence forth, as long as it may be thought wisdom to continue it. And we hope on their part, they will use all their exertions to give it circulation.

The enemies have made so many attempts to destroy us, and always failed, that we now just laugh at them for fools, as the God of heaven said he would at their calamity.

Discourse, 6 May 1838

Print Sources

JSP	J1:266; D6:133–134	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	3:27
HDDC	—	TCHC	3:28
TPJS	118–119

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a This day, President Smith. delivered a discourse. to the people. Showing, or setting forth the evils that existed, and would exist, by reason of hasty Judgement or dessisions upon any subject, given by any people. or in judgeing before they hear both sides of the question, He also cautioned them against men men, who should come here whining and grouling about their money, because they had helpt the saints and bore some of the burden with others. and thus thinking that others, (who are still poorer and who have still bore greater burden than themselves) aught to make up their loss &c. And thus he cautioned them to beware of them for here and there they through [throw?] out foul insinuations, to level as it were a dart to <the>
- b best interests of the Church, & if possible to destroy the Characters of its Presidency He also instructed the Church, in the mistories of the Kingdom of God; giving them a history of the Plannets &c. and of Abrahams writings upon the Plannettary System &c. In the after part of the day Pres^t. Smith spoke upon different subjects he dwelt some upon the Subject of Wisdom, & upon the word of Wisdom. &c.

Questions and Answers, 8 May 1838

Print Sources

JSP	D6:139–145	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	3:28–30
HDDC	—	TCHC	3:29–31
TPJS	119–121

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a In obedience to our promise, we give the following answers to questions, which were asked in the last number of the Journal.
- Question 1st. Do you believe the b[i]ble?
- Answer. If we do, we are the only people under heaven that does. For there are none of the religious sects of the day that do.
- Question 2nd. Wherein do you differ from other sects?
- Answer. Because we believe the bible, and all other sects profess to believe their interpretations of the bible, and their creeds.
- Question 3rd. Will every body be damned but Mormons?
- Answer. Yes, and a great portion of them, unless they repent and work righteousness.
- Question 4th. How, and where did you obtain the book of Mormon?
- Answer. Moroni, the person who deposited the plates, from whence the book of Mormon was translated, in a hill in Manchester, Ontario County New York, being dead, and raised again therefrom, appeared unto me, and told me where they were; and gave me directions how to obtain them. I obtained them, and the Urim and Thummim with them; by the means of which, I translated the plates; and thus came the book of Mormon.
- b Question 5th. Do you believe Joseph Smith Jr. to be a prophet?
- Answer. Yes, and every other man who has the testimony of Jesus. “For the testimony of Jesus, is the spirit of prophecy.”—Rev. 19:10.
- Question 6th. Do the Mormons believe in having all things common?
- Answer. No.
- Question 7th. Do the Mormons believe in having more wives than one.
- Answer. No, not at the same time. But they believe, that if their companion dies, they have a right to marry again. But we do disapprove of the custom which has gained in the world, and has been practised among us, to our great mortification, of marrying in five or six weeks, or even in two or three months after the death of their companion.
- We believe that due respect ought to be had, to the memory of the dead, and the feelings of both friends and children.
- Question 8th. Can they raise the dead.
- Answer. No, nor any other people that now lives or ever did live. But God can raise the dead through man, as an instrument.

Question 9th. What signs do Jo Smith give of his divine mission.

Answer. The signs which God is pleased to let him give: according as his wisdom thinks best: in order that he may judge the world agreeably to his own plan.

c Question 10. Was not Jo Smith a money digger.

Answer. Yes, but it was never a very profitable job to him, as he only got fourteen dollars a month for it.

Question 11th. Did not Jo Smith steal his wife.

Answer. Ask her; she was of age, she can answer for herself.

Question 12th. Do the people have to give up their money, when they join his church.

Answer. No other requirement than to bear their proportion of the expenses of the church, and support the poor.

Question 13th. Are the Mormons abolitionists.

Answer. No, unless delivering the people from priest-craft, and the priests from the prower of satan, should be considered such.— But we do not believe in setting the Negroes free.

Question 14th. Do they not stir up the Indians to war and to commit depredations.

Answer. No, and those who reported the story, knew it was false when they put it into circulation. These and similar reports, are pawned upon the people by the priests, and this is the reason why we ever thought of answering them.

Question 15th. Do the Mormons baptize in the name of Jo Smith.

Answer. No, but if they did, it would be as valid as the baptism administered by the sectarian priests.

d Question 16th. If the Mormon doctrine is true what has become of all those who have died since the days of the apostles.

Answer. All those who have not had an opportunity of hearing the gospel, and being administered to by an inspired man in the flesh, must have it hereafter, before they can be finally judged.

Question 17th. Does not Jo Smith profess to be Jesus Christ.

Answer. No, but he professes to be his brother, as all other saints have done, and now do.— Matthew, 12:49, 50— And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples and said, Behold my mother and my brethren: For whosoever shall do the will of my father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

Question 18th. Is there any thing in the Bible which lisesces you to believe in revelation now a days.

Answer. Is there any thing that does not authorize us to believe so; if there is, we have, as yet, not been able to find it.

e Question 19th. Is not the cannon of the Scriptures full.

Answer. If it is, there is a great defect in the book, or else it would have said so.

Question 20th. What are the fundamental principles of your religion.

Answer. The fundamental principles of our religion is the testimony of the apostles and prophets concerning Jesus Christ, “that he died, was buried, and rose again the third day, and ascended up into heaven;” and all other things are only appendages to these, which pertain to our religion.

But in connection with these, we believe in the gift of the Holy Ghost, the power of faith, the enjoyment of the spiritual gifts according to the will of God, the restoration of the house of Israel, and the final triumph of truth.

Record, 9 May 1838

Print Sources

JSP	J1:267	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

This day, the Presidency, attended the funeral of James Marsh, And Pres^t Smith was requested to preach the funeral discourse, and accordingly complied, and we were greatly edified upon the occasion,

Record, 11 May 1838

Print Sources

JSP	J1:268	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

W^m. E. Mc.Lellin, also said the same. He further said he had no confidence in the heads of the Church, beleiving they had transgressed, and got out of the way, and consequently <he> left of[f] praying and keeping the commandments of God, and went his own way, and indulged himself in his lustfull desires. But when he heard, that the first presidency, had made a general settlement and acknowleged their sins, he then began to pray again, and to keep the commandments of God. Though when interogated by Pres^t smith he said he had seen nothing out of the way himself but it was heresay, and thus he judged from heresay. But we are constrained to say, O!! foolish Man! what excuse is that thou renderest, for thy sins, that because thou hast heard of some mans transgression, that thou shouldest leave thy God, and forsake thy prayers, and turn to those things that thou knowest to be contrary to the will of God, we say unto thee, and to all such, beware! beware! for God will bring the[e] into Judgement for thy sins.

Record, 19 May 1838

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—
TPJS	122

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a The next morning we struck our tents, and marched crossed Grand river at the mouth of Honey Creek at a place called Nelsons ferry, Grand River is as large beautifull deep and rapid stream and will undoubtedly admit of steam Boat and other water craft navigation, and at the mouth of honey creek is a splendid harbour for the safety of such crafts, and also for landing freight We next kept up the river mostly in the timber for ten miles, untill we came to Col. Lyman Wight's who lives at the foot of Tower Hill, a name appropriated by Pres^t smith, in consequence of the remains of an old Nephitish Alter an
- b Tower, In the after where we camped for the sabath, In the after part of the day, Prest^s smith and Rigdon and myself, went to Wights. Ferry about a half mile from this place up the river, for the purpose of selecting and laying claims to city plott near said Ferry, in Davis [Davieess] County Township 60, Range 27 & 28, and Sections 25, 36, 31, 30, which was called Spring Hill a name appropriated by the bretheren present, But after wards named by the mouth of [the] Lord and was called Adam Ondi Awmen [Adam-ondi-Ahman], because said he it is the place where Adam shall come to visit his people, or the Ancient of days shall sit as spoken of by Daniel the Prophet,

Minutes, 28 June 1838

Print Sources

JSP	D6:162–167	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	3:38–39
HDDC	—	TCHC	3:38–39

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

...A conference meeting of Elders, and members, of the church of Christ of Latter Day Saints, was held in this place, this day, for the purpose of organziing this stake of Zion, called Adam-ondi-ahman. The meeting convened at 10 o'clock A. M. in the grove near the house of elder Lyman Wight. President Joseph Smith Jr. was called. to the chair, who explained the object of the meeting, which was to organize a Presidency, and High Council, to preside over this stake of Zion, and attend to the affairs of the church in Daviess county...

...After the ordination of the counsellors, who had not previously been ordained to the high priesthood. President J. Smith Jr. made remarks by way of charge to the Presidents and counsellors, instructing them in the duty of their callings, and the responsibility of their stations; exhorting them to be cautious and deliberate, in all their councils, and to be careful to act in righteousness in all things...

Revelation, 8 July 1838–A [D&C 118]

Print Sources

JSP	D6:175–180; J1:284–285	JSR	292
DC	Section 118	HC	3:46–47
HDDC	1536–1550	TCHC	3:46–47

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Revelation given July 8th. 1838 at Far West Caldwell Co Mo

Shew unto us thy will O Lord concerning the Twelve—

Ans— Verily thus saith the Lord let a conference be held immediately let the Twelve be organized and let men be appointed to supply the place of those who are fallen let my servant Thomas remain for a little season in the Land of Zion to publish my word let the remainder continue to preach from that hour and if they will do this in all lowliness of heart in meekness and pureness and long suffering, I the Lord God give unto them a promise that I will provide for their families and an effectual door shall be opened for ~~their families~~ them from henceforth and next spring let them depart to go over the great waters and there promulge my gospel the fulness thereof and to bear record of my name let them take leave of my saints in the City Far West on the 26th. day of April next on the building spot of my house saith the Lord let my servant John Taylor and also my servant John E. Page and also my servant Wilford Woodruff and also my servant Willard Richards be appointed to fill the places of those who have fallen and be officially notified of their appointment [11 lines blank]

Revelation, 8 July 1838–B

Print Sources

JSP	D6:181–183; J1:285–288	JSR	292–293
DC	—	HC	3:44
HDDC	—	TCHC	3:44

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Revelation Given July 8. 1838 in Far West M^o.

O Lord what is thy will concerning W[illiam] W Phelps & F[rederick] G. Williams

Verily thus saith the Lord in consequence of their transgressions their former standing has been taken away from them, and now, if they will be saved, let them be ordained as Elders in my vineyard Church to Preach my gospel, and to travel abroad from land to land & from place to place to gather mine Elect unto me saith the Lord, and let this be their labours from henceforth Amen [3/4 page blank]

Revelation, 8 July 1838–C [D&C 119]

Print Sources

JSP	D6:183–189; J1:288	JSR	293
DC	Section 119	HC	3:44
HDDC	1551–1558	TCHC	3:45

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Far West July 8th 1838

A revelation

Question O Lord show unto thy servants how much thou requirest of the properties of thy people for a tithing?

Answer. Verily thus saith the Lord, I require all their surplus property, to be put into the hands of the bishop of my church of Zion for the building of mine house and for the laying the foundation of Zion and for the priesthood and for the debts of the presidency of my church and this shall be the beginning of the tithing of my people and after that those who have ~~been~~ thus been tithed shall pay one tenth of all their interest annually and this shall be a standing law unto them forever for my holy priesthood saith the Lord. Verily I say unto you it shall come to pass that all those who gather unto the land of Zion shall be tithed of their surplus properties and shall observe this law or they shall not be found worthy to abide among you and behold I say unto you if my people observe not this law to keep it holy and by this law sanctify the land of Zion unto me that my statutes and <my> judgements may be kept thereon that it may be most holy, behold verily I say unto you it shall not be a land of Zion unto you[.] And this shall be an ensample unto all the stakes of Zion even so amen

[page [2] blank]

Revelation, 8 July 1838–D [D&C 120]

Print Sources

JSP	D6:189–190; J1:289	JSR	293–294
DC	Section 120	HC	3:44
HDDC	1559–1565	TCHC	3:45

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Revelation Given the same day July 8th 1838

Making known the disposition of the properties tithed, as named in the preceeding revelation—

Verrily thus saith the Lord, the time has now come that it shall be disposed of, by a council composed of the first Presidency of my Church and of the Bishop and his council and by <my> high Council, and <by> mine own voice unto them saith the Lord, even so Amen.

Revelation, 8 July 1838–E [D&C 117]

Print Sources

JSP	D6:191–194; J1:289–290	JSR	294–295
DC	Section 117	HC	3:45–46
HDDC	1523–1535	TCHC	3:45–46

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

A revelation given at Far West July 8th A.D. 1838

verily thus saith the Lord unto my servants William Marks and N[ewel] K. Whitney, Let them settle up their businss speedily and journey from the land of Kirtland, before I the Lord sendeth snow again upon the ground. Let them awake and arise and come forth and not tarry, for I the Lord commandeth it.— therefore if they tarry, it shall not be well with them.— Let them repent of all their sins, and all their covetous desires before me saith the Lord: ~~And whatsoever remaineth, let it remain in your hands~~ for what is property unto me saith the Lord. Let the properties at Kirtland be turned out for debts saith the Lord. Let them go saith the Lord; and whatsoever remaineth, let it remain in your hands saith the Lord: for have I not the fowls of Heaven, and also the fish of the sea, and the beasts of the mountains. Have I not made the earth? Do I not hold the destinies of all the armies of the nations of the earth? Therefore will I not make the solitary places to bud and to blossom and to bring forth in abundance saith the Lord. Is there not room enough upon the mountains of Adamondi awman, or upon the plains of Olea Shinihah, or the land where Adam dwelt, that you should not covet that which is but ~~but~~ the drop, and neglect the more w[e]lghty matters.— Therefore come up hither unto the land of my people even Zion. Let my servant William Marks be faithful over a few things, and he shall be ruler over many things. Let him preside in the midst of my people in the city Far West, and let him be blessed with the blessings of my people.— Let my servant N. K. Whitney be ashamed of the Nicolitans, and of all their secret abominations, and of all his littleness of soul before me saith the Lord, and come up unto the land of Adam ondi awman and be a ~~man~~ bishop unto my people saith the Lord, not in name but in deed saith the Lord. And again verily I say unto you I remember my servant Oliver Granger. Behold verily I say unto him, that his name shall be had in sacred remembrance from generation to generation forever and ever saith the Lord. Therefore let him contend earnestly for the redemption of the first presidency of my church saith the Lord; and when he falls he shall rise again; for his sacrifice shall be more sacred to me, than his increase saith the Lord; therefore let him come up hither speedily unto the land of Zion, and in due time he shall be made a merchant unto my name saith the Lord for the benefit of my people: therefore let no man despise my servant Oliver Granger, but let the blessings of my people be upon him forever and ever. Amen.

And again I say unto you let all the saints in the land of Kirtland remember the Lord their God, and mine house to preserve it holy, and to overthrow the money changers in mine own due time said the Lord [3/4 page blank]

Discourse, 29 July 1838

Print Sources

JSP	D6:209–212	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Brother Joseph Smith then preached, and took his text in 1 Tesselonians, 5:15 to 23d verse. He preached on prophecy, and said that the Spirit of God had appeared to him, with wonderful light and mystery—in such a manner that we would not believe him, were he to tell us what he had seen; and that he could not say what God did these things for. “But,” said he, “I cannot help it. I know that all the world is threatening my life; but I regard it not, for I am willing to die at any time when God calls for me. I have been beaten, abused, stoned, persecuted, and have had to escape by day and by night. I have been sued at law, and have always proved myself innocent. I have had twenty-one law-suits. I am of age; and care not how long I live. Not my will be done, but thine, O Lord!”

Record, 6 August 1838

Print Sources

JSP	J1:298	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Pres^t. Smith spoke upon the same subject of mooving into Cities to live, according to the order of God, he spoke quite lengthy and then Pr^{est}. H[yrum] Smith spoke and endeavoured to impress it upon the ~~same~~ minds of the Saints,

Discourse, 12 August 1838

Print Sources

JSP	D6:213–215	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	3:62–63
HDDC	—	TCHC	3:66

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

The Prophet exhorted the brethren to be of good cheer, and not to be “scared at trifles,” “that he would tell them when danger was near—that at present he did not even anticipate such a thing—for us to hold ourselves in readiness at a moment’s warning, well armed and equipped, to go down to Carroll county and rescue brother [George M.] Hinkle, who is in a suffering condition; and that they must expect to endure trials there.”

Letter to Stephen Post, 17 September 1838

Print Sources

JSP	D6:240–245	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

Far West Sept 17th 1838

Stephen Post
Sir.

I proceed to answer your communication of the 1st August which I should have answered before had it not been for the press of buisness on my mind etc. The Journal is issued from this place it commenced I think in May. As to your information relative to Elders in foreign lands it is correct Elders [Orson] Hyde & Kimble [Heber C. Kimball] with several others in company have visited Great Britton, Elders Hyde & Kimbal have returned they are here you will probaly se[e] their narative, which I think they are about to publish in pamphlet form. They have been very successfull have baptized between one & two thousands, ordained some 40 Elders besides other officers necessary. Other Stakes have been appointed but not by a committee appointed as you supposed, for the Lord has said that no stake shall be concidered a stake of Zion unless appointed, dedicated, and set apart, by the first presidency, One of these is situated about 30 miles north of this place on [Gr]and river, which is nearly as large as this place at this time ~~One~~ This is called Adam Ondi Awman [Adam-ondi-Ahman], or the place where Adam dwelt. One at the mouth of Grand river called Dewitt it was a gentile city plott and named by them that is about 40 miles miles East of this place &c. &c. &c. The house of the Lord is the next question, The celler is dug the corner stones were laid July 4th 1838. Next comes the work of the gathering. As to this, there are thousands gathering this season The road is full companies of frequently 10, 20 & 30 <wagons> arrives, some almost daily One company which is the camp is close here with one hundred wagons John E Page report says is comming less than one hundred miles of this place, with 64 wagons and the road is litterly lined with wagons between here and Ohio. The work of the gathering is great. all the saints should gather as soon as possible, urge all the saints to gather immediately if they possibly can. The chance is great for purchasing lands here land is very cheap the old settlers will sell for half price yes, for quarter price they are determined to get away. Congress land is plenty and good land can be had for property other than money, such as horses wagons goods of all kinds &c, &c, Andiana [Indiana] and Illinois State Banks will buy Congress lands, Eastern money can be exchanged on the road, with ease. You next ask what is the cause of the papers stoping it was because the office was burnt down, by the decenters [dissenters] from the faith in Kirtland, As to Mechanical branches, all kinds are needed, & would do well, As to the Stick of Joseph in the hand of Ephraim, I will merely say suppose yourself to be an Ephraimite, and suppose all this church to be, of the blood of Ephraim²¹ and the book of Mormon to be a record of Manasseh which would of course [be a re]cord of Joseph, Then suppose you being an Ephraimite, Should take the record of Joseph in your hand, would not then the stick of Joseph of Joseph be in the hand of Ephraim. solve this mistery and se[e].

d

The persecutors of the saints are not asleep in Missouri but God is near as to communicate his will unto us, I can write no more at present, I would say say may the Lord bless you and all the faithful and enable you to come up to Zion with songs of everlasting joy upon your head is the prayer of your unworthy servant and brother in the Lord Even so Amen,

Joseph Smith Jr...

Letter to Emma Smith, 4 November 1838

Print Sources

JSP	D6:279–282	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a November 4th 1838
- Indipendace [Independence] Jackson Co— Mo—
- My dear and beloved companion, of my bosom, in tribulation, and affliction, I woud inform you that I am well, and I am that we are all of us in good spirits as regards our own fate, we have been protected by the Jackson County boys, in the most genteel manner, and arrived here in <the> midst of a splended perade, this a little after noon, instead <of> going to goal [jail] we have a good house provided for us and the kind[e]st treatment, I have great anxiety about you, and my lovely children, my heart morns <and> bleeds for the brotheren, and sisters, and for the slain <of the> people of God, I Colonial, [George M.] Hinkle, proved to be a trator, to the Church, he is worse than a hull who betraid the army at detroit, he decoyed <us> unawares God reward him, I Johon Carl [John Correll] told <general Willson> was a going told general, [Moses] Wilson, that he was a going to leave the Church, general Willson says he thinks much less of him now then before, why I mention this is to have you careful not to trust them, if we are permitted to be stay any time here, we <have> obtained a promice that they
- b we may have our families brought to us, what God may do do for us I do not know but I hope for the best always in all circumstances although I go unto death, I will trust in God, what outrages may be committed by the mob I know not, but expect there will be but little <or> no restraint Oh may God have mercy on us, when we arrived at the river last night an express came to gene[r]al Willson from geneal [John B.] Clark of Howard County claiming the right of command ordering us back where <or what place> God only knows, and there is some feelings betwen the offercers, I do not know where it will end, it <is> said by some that general Clark, is determined to exterminating exterminate God has spared some of us thus far perhaps he will extend mercy in some degree toward us <yet> some of the people of this place have told me that
- c some of the mormans may settle in this county as others <men> do the peg I have some hopes that something may turn out for good to the afflicted saints, I want you to stay where you are untill you here from me again, I may send for you to bring you to me, I cannot learn much for certainty in the situation that I am in, and can only pray for deliverance, untill it is meeted out, and take every thing as it comes, with patient patience and fortitude, I hope you will be faithful and true to every trust, I cant write much in my situation, conduct all matters as your circumstances and necessities require, may God give you wisdom and prudance and sobriety which <I> have every reason to believe you will, those little <childrens> are subjects of my meditation continually, tell them that Father is yet alive, God grant that he may see them again Oh Emma for God sake do not forsake me nor the truth but remember, if I do <not> meet you again in this life may God grant that we may <may we> meet in heaven, I cannot express my feelings, my heart is full, Farewell Oh my kind and affectionate Emma I am yours forever your Husband and true friend

[Joseph Smith Jr.]...

Letter to Emma Smith, 12 November 1838

Print Sources

JSP	D6:290–293	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a November 12th 1838 Richmond
My Dear Emma.

we are prisoners in chains, and under strong guards, for Christ sake and for no other causes although there has been things that were unbeknown to us, and altogether beyond our controal, that might seem, to the mob to be a pretext, for them to persacute us, but on examination, I think that the authorities, will discover our inocence, and set us free, but if this blessing cannot be ~~done~~ obtained, I have this consolation that I am an innocent man, let what will befall me, I recieved your letter which I read over and over again, it was a sweet morsal to me, Oh God grant that I may have the privaliege of seeing once more my lovely Family, in the injoyment, of the sweets of liberty, and sotiaial life, to press them to my bosam and kissing their lovely cheeks would fill my heart with unspeakable great grattitude, tell the children that I am alive and trust I shall come and see them before long, comfort their hearts all you can, and try to be comforted yourself, all you can, there is no possible dainger but what we shall be set at Liberty if Justice can be <and> done <and> that you know as well as myself, the tryal will begin today for some of us, Lawyer Rice [Amos Rees] and we expect [Alexander] Doniphan, will plead our cause, we could <git> no others in time for the tryal, they are able man and <will> do well no doubt, Brother Robison [George W. Robinson] is chained next to me he he has a true heart and a firm mind, Brother Whight [Lyman Wight], is next, Br. [Sidney] Rigdon, next, Hiram [Hyrum Smith], next, Parelly [Parley P. Pratt], next, Amasa [Lyman], next, and thus we are bound together in chains as well as the cords of everlasting love, we are in good spirits and rejoice that we are counted worthy to be persicuted for christ sake, tell little Joseph, he must be a good boy, and Father loves him <with> a perfect love, he is the Eldest must not hurt those that <are> smaller then him, but cumfort them tell little Frederick, Father, loves him, with all his heart, he is a lovely boy Julia is a lovely little girl, I love hir also She is a promising child, tell her Father wants her to remember him and be a good girl, tell all the rest that I think of them and pray for them all, Br Babbit is waitting to carry our letters, for us the colonal <price [Sterling Price]> is inspecting them therefore my time is short <the> little baby Elexander [Alexander] is on my mind continually Oh my affectionate Emma, I want you to remember that I am  true and faithful friend, to you and the children, forever, my heart is intertwined around you[r]s forever and ever, Oh may God bless you all amen yœu I am your husband and am in bonds and tribulation &c

to Emma Smith}

Joseph Smith Jr

P S write as often as you can, and if possible come and see me, and bring the children if possible, act according to your own feelings <and> best Judgement, and indeavour to be comforted, if possible, and I trust that all will turn out for the bist. yours, J.S...

Letter to the Church in Caldwell County, Missouri, 16 December 1838

Print Sources

JSP	D6:294–310	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	3:226–233
HDDC	—	TCHC	3:209–217
TPJS	122–129

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Liberty Jail Missouri. Dec 16th 1838
- To the church of latter day saints in Caldwell county and the saints scattered abroad and are persecuted and made desolate and are afflicted in divers manners for christ's sake and the gospel's, and whose perils are greatly augmented by the wickedness and corruption of false brethren. May grace, mercy, and peace, be and abide with you and notwithstanding all your sufferings we assure you that you have our prayers and fervent desires for your welfare both day and night. We believe that, that God who sees us in this solitary place will hear our prayers & reward you openly. Know assuredly dear brethren
- b that it is for the testimony of Jesus that we are in bonds and in prison. But we say unto you that we consider our condition better, (notwithstanding our suffering) than those who have persecuted us and smitten us and <borne> bear false witness against us, and we most assuredly believe that those who bear false witness against us <do> seem to have a great triumph over us for the present. But we want you to remember Haman and Mordecai you know that Haman could not be satisfied so long as he saw Mordecai at the king's gate, and he sought the life of Mordecai and the people of the jews. But the Lord so ordered that Haman was hanged upon his own gallows. So shall it come to pass with poor Haman in the last days. Those c who have sought by their unbelief and wickedness and by the principle of mobocracy to destroy us and the people of God by killing and scattering them abroad and wilfully and maliciously delivering us into the hands of murderers desiring us to be put to death thereby having us dragged about in chains and cast into prison, and for what cause; it is because we were honest men and were determined to defend the lives of the saints at the expense of our own. I say unto you that those who have thus vilely treated us like Haman shall be hanged upon their own gallows, or in other words shall fall into their own gin and trap and ditch which they have prepared for us and shall go backward and stumble and fall, and their names shall be d blotted out, and God shall reward them according to all their abominations. Dear brethren do not think that our hearts faint as though some strange thing had happened unto us for we have seen and been assured of all these things beforehand, and have an assurance of a better hope than that of our persecutors. Therefore God has made our shoulders broad that we can bear it. We glory in our tribulation because we know that God is with us, that he is our friend and that he will save our souls. We do not care for those that kill the body they cannot harm our souls; we ask no favors at the hands of mobs nor of the world, nor of the devil nor of his emissaries the dissenters. We have never dissembled nor will we for the sake of our lives. Forasmuch then as we know that we have been endeavoring with all our mights, minds, and strength to do the will of God and all things whatsoever he has commanded us. And as to our light speeches from time to time they have nothing to do

e with the fixed principle of our hearts. Therefore it sufficeth us to say that our souls were vexed from day to day. We refer you to Isaiah who considers those who make a man an offender for a word and lay a snare for them that reproveth in the gate. We believe the old prophet verily told the truth. We have no retraction to make, we have reprov'd in the gate and men have laid snares for us we have spoken words and men have made us offenders, and notwithstanding all this our minds are not darkened but feel strong in the Lord. But behold the words of the savior, if the light which is in you become darkness behold how great is that darkness. Look at the dissenters. And again if you were of the world the world would love its own Look at M^r [George M.] Hinkle. A wolf in sheep's clothing. Look at his brother John Corrill Look at the beloved brother Reed Peck who aided him in leading us, as the savior was led, into the camp as a lamb prepared for the slaughter and a sheep dumb before his shearer so we opened not our mouth But these men like Balaam being greedy for a reward sold us into f the hands of those who loved them, for the world loves his own. I would remember W[illiam] W. Phelps who comes up before us as one of Job's comforters. God suffered such kind of beings to afflict Job, but it never entered into their hearts that Job would get out of it all. This poor man who professes to be much of a prophet has no other dumb ass to ride but David Whitmer to forbid his madness when he goes up to curse Israel, and this ass not being of the same kind of Balaams therefore the angel notwithstanding appeared unto him yet he could not penetrate his understanding sufficiently so but what he brays out cursings instead of blessings. Poor ass whoever lives to see it will see him and his rider perish like those who perished in the gainsaying of Core, or after the same condemnation. Now as for these and the rest of their company we will not presume to say that the world loves them but we presume to say that they love the world and we classify them in the error Balaam

g and in the gainsaying of Core and with the company of Cora [Korah] and Dathan and Abiram. Perhaps our brethren may say because we thus write that we are offended at those characters, if we are, it is not for a word neither because they reprov'd in the gate. But because they have been the means of shedding innocent blood. Are they not murderers then at heart? Are not their consciences seared as with a hot iron? We confess that we are offended but the saviour said that offences must come but woe unto them by whom they come, and again blessed are ye when all men shall revile you and speak all manner of evil against you falsely for my sake, rejoice and be exceeding glad for great is your reward in heaven for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you. Now dear brethren if any men ever had reason to claim this promise we are the men, for we know that the world not only hates us but ~~but~~ speak all manner of evil of us falsely for no other reason than because we have been endeavoring to teach the fulness of the gospel of Jesus Christ after we were bartered away by Hinkle and were taken into the militia camp we had all the evidence we could have wished for that the world hated us and that h most cordially too. If there were priests of all the different sects they hated us, if there were Generals they hated us, if there were Colonels they hated us, and the soldiers and officers of every kind hated us, and the most profane blasphemers and drunkards & whoremongers hated us, they all hated us most cordially. And now what did they hate us for, purely because of the testimony of Jesus Christ. Was it because we were liars? We know that it has been reported by some but it has been reported falsely Was it because we have committed treason against the government in Daviess County or of burglary, or of larceny or arson, or any other unlawful act in Daviess county. We know that certain priests and certain lawyers and certain judges who are the instigators aiders and abettors of a certain gang of murderers and robbers who have been carrying on a scheme of mobocracy to uphold their priestcraft against the saints of the last days for a number of years and have tried by a well contemplated and premeditated scheme to put down by physical power a system of relig[i]on that all the world by i all their mutual attainments and by any fair means whatever were not able to resist. Hence, mobbers were encouraged by priests and Levites, by the Pharisees, Sadducees, and Essenees, and the Herodians, and the most ruthless, abandoned, and debauched, lawless inhuman and the most beastly set of men that the earth can boast of; and indeed a parallel cannot be found any where else; to gather together to steal to plunder to starve and to exterminate and burn the houses of the Mormons these are the characters that by their treasonable and avert acts have desolated and laid waste Daviess County these are the characters that would fain make all the world believe that we are guilty of the above named acts. But they represent us falsely; we say unto you that we have not committed treason, nor any other unlawful act in Daviess County was it for murder in Ray county against mob-militia who was a wolf in the first instance hide and Hair, teeth, and legs, and tail, who afterwards put on a militia sheepskin with the wool on, who can sally forth in the day time into the flock and snarl & show his teeth, and scatter and devour the flock and satiate himself upon his prey, and then sneak back into the brambles in order that he might conceal himself in his well tried skin with the wool on. We are well aware that there is a certain set of priests & satellites and mobbers that would fain make all the world believe that we are the dogs that barked at this howling wolf that made such havoc among the sheep who when he retreated howled and bleated at such a desperate rate that if one could have been there he would have thought that all the wolves whether wrapped up in sheep skins or goat skins or any other skins and in fine all the beast of the forest were awfully alarmed and catching the scent of innocent blood they sallied forth with a tremendous howl and crying of all sorts and such a howling and such a tremendous havoc never was known such a piece of inhumanity and relentless cruelty and barbarity cannot be found in all the annals of history. These are the characters that would make the world believe that we had committed murder by making an attack upon this howling wolf while we were at home and in our beds and asleep and knew nothing of that transaction any more than we know what is going on in China while we are within these walls. Therefore we say again unto you we are innocent of these things they have represented us falsely Was it for committing adultery, we are aware that false slander has gone abroad for it has been reiterated in our <ears>. These are falsehoods also. Renegadoes, mormon dissenters are running through the world and spreading various foul and libelous reports against us thinking thereby to gain the friendship of the world because they know that we are not of the world and that the world hates us; therefore they make a tool of these fellows by them they do all the injury they can and after that they hate them worse than they do us because they find them to be base traitors and sycophants. God Such characters God hates we cannot love them the world hates them and we sometimes think the devil ought to be ashamed of them. We have heard that it has been reported by some that some of us should have said that we not only dedicated our property but our families also to the Lord, and satan taking advantage of this has transfigured it into lasciviousness such as a community of wives which is an abomination in the sight of God. When we consecrate our property to the Lord it is to administer to the wants of the poor and needy for this is the law of God it is not for the purpose of the rich those who have no need and when a man consecrates or dedicates his wife and children he does not give them to his brother or to his neighbor for there is no such law for the law of God is thou shalt not commit adultery thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife. He that looketh upon a woman to lust after her has committed adultery already in his heart. Now for a man to consecrate his property and his wife & children to the Lord, is nothing more nor less than to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, visit the widow and the fatherless, the sick, and the afflicted, and do all he can to administer to their relief in their afflictions, and for him and his house to serve the Lord. In order to do this he and all his house must be virtuous and shun every appearance of evil. Now if any person has represented any thing other wise than what we now write he or she is a liar and have represented us falsely. And this is another manner of evil which is spoken against us falsely. We have learned also since we have been in prison that many false and pernicious things which were calculated to lead the saints far astray and to do great injury <have been taught by Dr. [Sampson] Avar< as coming from the Presidency taught by Dr Avar< and we have reason to fear <that> many <other things> designing and corrupt characters like unto himself <have been teaching many things> which the presidency never knew of being taught in the church by any body untill after they were made prisoners, which if they had known of, they would have spurned them and their authors from them as they would the gates of hell. Thus we find that there has been frauds and secret abominations and evil works of darkness going on leading the minds of the weak and unwary into confusion and distraction, and palming it all the time upon the presidency while mean time the presidency were ignorant as well as innocent of these things, which were practicing in the church in their name and were attending to their own family concerns, weighed down with sorrow, in debt, in poverty, in hunger assaying to be fed yet finding themselves receiving deeds of charity but inadequate to their subsistence, and because they received those deeds they were envied and hated by those who professed to be their friends But notwithstanding we thus speak we honor the church when we speak of the church, as a church, for their liberality, kindness, patience, and long suffering, and their continued kindness towards us. And now brethren we say unto you, what can we enumerate more; is not all manner of evil of every description spoken against us falsely, yea, we say unto unto you falsely; we have been misrepresented and misunderstood and belied and the purity of our hearts have not been known. And it is through ignorance, yea, the very depth of ignorance is the cause of it, and not only ignorance but gross wickedness on the part of some and hypocrisy also who by a long face and sanctified prayers and very pious sermons had power to lead the minds of the ignorant and unwary and thereby obtain such influence that when we approached their iniquities the devil gained great advantage & would bring great sorrow upon our heads and in fine we have waded through an ocean of tribulation, and mean abuse practiced upon us by the ill bred and ignorant such as Hinkle, Correll, and Phelps, Avar, Reed Peck, [John] Cleminson, and various others who are so very ignorant that they cannot appear respectable in any decent and civilized society, and whose eyes are full of adultery and cannot cease from sin. Such characters as [William E.] McLellan, John Whitmer, D. Whitmer, O[liver] Cowdery, Martin Harris, who are too

o mean to mention and we had liked to have forgotten them. [Thomas B.] Marsh & [Orson] Hyde whose hearts are full of corruption, whose cloak of hypocrisy was not sufficient to shield them or to hold them up in the hour of trouble, who after having escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of God and become again entangled and overcome the latter end is worse than the first. But it has happened unto them according to the words of the savior, the dog has returned to his vomit, and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire. Again if we sin wilfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sin, but a certain fearful looking <for> of judgement and fiery indignation to come which shall devour these adversaries. For he who despiseth Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses of how much more severe punishment suppose ye shall he be thought worthy who hath sold his brother and denied the new and everlasting covenant by which he was sanctified calling it an unholy thing and doing despite to the spirit of grace. And again we say unto you that inasmuch as there be virtue in us and the holy priesthood hath been conferred upon us, and the keys of the kingdom hath not been taken from us, for verily thus saith the Lord be of good cheer for the keys that I gave unto <you> are yet with you Therefore we say unto you dear brethren in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, we deliver these characters unto the buffetings of satan untill the day of redemption that they may be dealt with according to their works and from henceforth their works shall be made manifest. And now dear and well beloved brethren and when we say brethren we mean those who have continued faithful in christ men, women, and children, we feel to exhort you in the name of the Lord Jesus, to be strong in the faith of the new and everlasting covenant, and nothing frightened at your enemies. For what has happened unto us is an evident token to them of damnation but unto us of salvation and that of God. Therefore hold on even unto death, for he that seeks to save his life shall lose it but he that loseth his life for my sake and the gospels shall find it sayeth Jesus Christ. Brethren from henceforth let truth and righteousness prevail and abound in you and in all things be temperate, abstain from every appearance of evil, drunkenness, and profane language, and from every thing which is unrighteous or unholy; also from enmity, and hatred, and covetousness and from every unholy desires. Be honest one with another, for it seemeth that some have come short of these things, and some have been uncharitable & have manifested greediness because of their debts towards those who have been persecuted & dragged about with chains without cause and imprisoned. Such persons God hates and they shall have their turn of sorrow in the rolling of the great wheel for it rolleth and none can hinder. Zion shall yet live though she seemeth to be dead. Remember that whatsoever measure you meet out to others it shall be measured to you again. We say unto you brethren be not afraid of your adversaries contend earnestly against mobs, and the unlawful works of dissenters and of darkness. And the very God of peace shall be with you and make a way for your escape from the adversary of your souls we commend you to God and the word of his grace which is able to make us wise unto salvation. Amen.

Joseph Smith Jun.

[page [8] blank]

1839

Joseph Smith

Introduction to 1839

sdf

Letter to Heber C. Kimball and Brigham Young, 16 January 1839

Print Sources

JSP		JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

Liberty Jany 16th 1839

Bro^s H[eber] C Kimball and B[righam] Young

Joseph Smith Jr Sidney Rigdon and Hyram [Hyrum] Smith prisoners for Jesus sake sends greeting.

In obedience to your request in your letter we say to you as follows. It is not wisdom for you to go out of Caldwell with your Families yet for a little season untill we are out of Prison after which time you may act your pleasure. but though you take your Families out of the state yet it will be necessary for you to Return and leave as before designed on the 26 of April.— In as much as we are in prison and for a litt[l]e season if need be the managment of the affairs of the church devolves on you that is the twelve <the> gathering. the gathering of necessity stopt.— but the convection of the world need not stop. but under wise management can go on more rapidly than ever. wher[e] churches are built let them continue where they are until a door is open to do other wise. and let every Elder ocupy his own ground. and when he builds a church let him preside over it. and let not others run in to trouble him. and thus let every man prove himself unto God that he is worthy. If we live we live, and if we die for the testimony of Jesus we die. but whether we live or die let the work of God go on. Let the churches in England continue there, till further orders. till a door cac [can] be opened for them. except they choose to come to America. and take their chance with the saints here. if they do that, let them come, and if they choose to come the[y] would do well to send wise men before them and buy out Kirtland, and the regions round about. or they may settle whare they can till things may alter. It will be necessary for you to get the twelve together ordain such as have not ben ordained, or at least such of them as you can get. and proceed to regulate the Elders as the Lord may give you wisdom. We nominate George A Smith and Lyman Sherman to take the place of Orson Hyde and Thomas B Marsh Brethren fear not, but be strong in the Lord and in the power of his might. What is man that the servent of God should fear him. or the son of man that he should tremble at him. Neither think strang[e] concerning the firy trials with which we are tried as though some strange thing had hapened unto us. Remember that all have ben pertakers of like afflictions. Therefore rejoice in our afflictions by which you are perfected and through which the captain of our salvation was perfected also. Let your hearts and the hearts of all the saints be comforted with you, and let them rejoice exceedingly for great is our reward in heaven. for so percutied the wicked the prophets which were before us.

d

America will be a Zion to all that choose to come to it.— And if the churches in foren countries wish to come let them do so.— Say to Br P[arley] P Pratt that our feelings accord with his. he is as we are, and we as he. may peace rest upon him in life and in death.— Brethren pray for us, and cease not. till our deliverence comes. which we hope may come. we hope we say, for our famalies sake.— Let the elders preach nothing but the first principles of the Gospel. and let them publish our afflictions. the injustice and cruelty thereof upon the house tops. Let them write it and publish it in all the papers where they go. charge them perticularly on this point—

Brethren we remain yours in hope of Eternal life

N. B. Appoint the oldest of those of those twelve who were firs[t] appointed, to be the President of your Quorum.—

J S
S R
H S

<Jan 16. 39>

<Joseph, Sidney & Hyrum to Heber and Brigham>

Petition to George O. Tompkins, between 9 and 15 March 1839 [State of Missouri v. Gates et al. for Treason]

Print Sources

JSP		JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a To the honorable Judge Thompkins [George O. Tompkins] of or either of the Judges of the supream court for the state of Missouri.

Your petitioners Alanson Rippl[e]y Heber C. Kim Kimble [Kimball] Daniel Shearer <Joseph B. Noble> William Huntington ~~Jenkins Salisbury~~ [Wilkins Jenkins Salisbury] [blank] <& Joseph Smith jr> beg leave respectfully to represent to your honor that Joseph Smith Jr is now unlawfully confined and restrained of his liberty in Liberty jail Clay County (Mo) that he has been restrained of his liberty near five months your petitioners clame that the whole transaction which has been the cause of his confinement was <is> unlawfull from the first to the Last he was taken from his home by a fraude being practised upon him by a man by the name of George M Hinkle and one or two others thereby your petitioner was forced respectfully show that he was forced contrary to his wishes and without knowing the cause into the camp which was commanded by General Lucas [Samuel D. Lucas] of Jackson County and from thence to Ray County sleeping on the ground and suffering many insults and inguries and deprivations which were calculated in there natures to brake <down> the spirits and constitution of the most robust and hardy of mankind he was put in chains imediatly on his being landed in Richmund and there underwent a long and tedious expartie examination not only was it expartie but your petitioners solemnly declair that it was a mock examination that there was not the least shaddow of honor or justice or law administered to ward him but Shear prejudice and the Spirit of persecution and malice and prepossession against him on account of his religeon that the whole examination was an inquisatory examination your petitioners show that the said Joseph Smith jr was deprived of the privilage of being examined before the court as the <law> directs that the witnesses on the part of the State were taken by force of armes and thereatned [threatened] with extermination imediate Death and were brought without subpoena or warent under this awfull and glaring anticipation of being exterminated if they did not swear something against your petitioner <him> to please the mob or his pirsecuters and those persecuters witneses were compeled to swear at the musil [muzzle] of the gun and that some of them have ackno[w]ledged since which your petitio[n]ers do testify and are able to prove that they did swear fals and that they did it in order to save there their lives and your petitioners testify that all the testimony that had any tendency or bearing of criminality against said Joseph Smith Jr <is fals> we are personly acquainted with the circumstances and being with him most of the time and being presant at the times spoken by of by them therefore we know that there their testimony was fals and if he could have had a fair and impartial and lawfull examination before that Court and could have been allowed the privilidge of interducing [introducing] his witnesses <he could have disproved evry thing that was against him> but the Court suffered him to be intimidated <he could have disaproved evry thing that was against him> some of them in the presants of the Court and they were driven also and hunted and some of them intirly [entirely] driven out of the State and thus your petitioner <he was> not able to have a fair tryal that the spirit of the Court was tryranicle [tyrannical] and overbearing and the whole transaction of his treatment during his the examination was calculated to convinced your petitioners that it was a religious persecution proscribing him in the liberty of conscience which is guaranteed to him by the Constitution of the United States and the State of Missouri that a long catalogue of garbled testimony was permitted by the Court purporting to be the religious sentiment of the said Joseph Smith Jr, which testimony was false and your petitioners know that it was false and can prove also that it was false because the witnesses testified that those sentiments were promulgated on sundry days and in the presences of large Congregations and your petitioners can <prove> by those congregations that the said Joseph Smith Jr did not promulge such ridiculous and absurd sentiments for his religion as was testified of and admitted before the honorable Austin. A. King. and at the same time those things had not bearing on the case that the said Joseph Smith Junior was <pretended> said be Charged with and after the examination the said prisoner was committed to the jail for treason against the state of Missouri where as the said Joseph Smith Jr did not levy war against the state of Missouri neither did he commit any overt acts neither did he aid or abet any enemy against the State of Missouri during the time that he is charged with having done so and further your petitioners have yet to learn that the State has an enemy neither is the proof evident nor the presumption great in its most malignant form upon the face of the testimony on the part of the <State> ex parte as it is in its nature that the said prisoner <has> has not committed the slightest degree of treason or any other act of transgression against the laws of the state of the MO Missouri and yet said prisoner has been committed to Liberty jail Clay County (Mo) for treason he has continually offered bail to any amount that could be required notwithstanding your petitioners alledge that he ought to have been acquitted your petitioners also alledge that the commitment was <an> illegal commitment for the law requires that a copy of the testimony should be put in the hands of the jailor which was not done your petitioners alledge that the prisoner has been denied the privilege of the law in a writ of habeas corpus by the judges of this county whether they have prejudged the case of the prisoner or whether they are not willing to administer law and justice to the prisoner or that they are intimidated by the high office of judge King who only acted in the case of the prisoners as a committing magistrate a consurvisor of the peace or by the threats of a lawless mob your petitioners are not able to say but it is a fact that they do not come forward boldly and administer the law to the relief of the prisoner and further your petitioners alledge that immediately after the prisoner was taken his family was frightened and driven out of their house and that too by the witnesses on the part of the state your petitioners respectfully show and plundered of their goods that the prisoner was robbed of a very fine horse Saddle and bridle and other property of considerable amount that they (the witnesses) in connection with the mob have finally succeeded by vile threatening and foul abuse in driving the family of the prisoner out of the State with little or no means and without a protector and there their very subsistence depends on the liberty of the prisoner and your petitioners alledge that he is not guilty of any crime whereby he should be restrained of his liberty from a personal knowledge having been with him and being personally acquainted with the whole of the difficulties between the mormons and their persecutors and that he has never acted at any time only in his own defence and that two on his own ground property and possessions that the prisoner has never <commanded> any military company nor held any military authority neither any other office real or pretended in the state of Missouri except that of a religious teacher that he never has borne arms in the military ranks and in all such cases has acted as a private character and as an individual how then <can> your petitioners would ask can it be possible that the prisoner has committed treason the prisoner has had nothing to do in Davis County only on his own business as an individual that this council testified of that the testimony of Doctor [Sampson] Avarad concerning a council held at James Sloans [Sloan's] was false your petitioners do solemnly declare that there was no such council that your petitioners were with the prisoner and there was no such vote nor conversation as Doctor Avarad swore too that Doctor Avarad also swore false concerning a constitution as he said was introduced among the danit[els] that the prisoner had nothing to do with burning in Davis County that the prisoner made public proclamation against such things that the prisoner did oppose Doctor Avarad and George M Hinkle against vile measures with the mob but was threatened by them if he did not let them alone that the prisoner did not have any thing to do with what is called Bogarts Battle for he knew nothing to do with of it until it was all over that he was at home and in the bosom of his own family during the time of that whole transaction and in fine your petitioner alledge that he is held in confinement without cause and under an unlawful and tyrannical oppression and that his health and constitution and life depends on being liberated from his confinement your petitioners aver that they can disprove every item of testimony that has any tendency of criminality against the prisoner for they know it themselves and can bring many others also to prove the same therefore your petitioners pray your <honor> to grant to him the states writ of habeas Corpus directed to the jailor of Clay county (Mo) commanding him forthwith to bring before you the body of the prisoner so that his case may be heard before your honor and the situation of the prisoner be considered and adjusted according to law and justice as it shall be presented before your honor and as in duty bound your petitioners will ever pray. And further y[our] petitioners testify that the said Joseph Smith Jr did make a public proclamation in Far West in favor of the militia of the State of Missouri and of its laws and also of the constitution of the constitution of the United States that he has ever been a warm friend to his country and did use all his influence for peace that he is a peaceable and quiet citizen and is not worthy of death of stripes Bond, or imprisonment. the above mentioned speech was delivered on the day before the surrender at Far West.

Alanson Ripley
Heber C. Kimball
W^m Huntington

State of Missouri) & ss & County of Clay) & &

h This day personally appears before me Abraham Shafer a Justice of the peace within & for the aforesaid County Alanson Ripley Heber. C. Kimball William Huntington Joseph B. Noble and Joseph Smith J^{un} who being duly sworn doth depose & say that the matters & parts things set fourth forth in the foregoing Petition upon their own knowledge are true in substance and in fact & so far as set forth upon this information of others they believe to be true

& Alanson Riply

& Heber C Kimball

Sworn & subscribed to this 15th day of March 1839 before me) & W^m Huntington

& [Joseph B. Noble]

Abraham Shafer J. P.) & [Joseph Smith Jr.]

WE the undersigned being <many of us>, personally with acquainted with the said Joseph Smith jr and the circumstances connected with his imprisonment do concur in the <petition &> testimony of the above named individuals as most of the things transactions therein mentioned we know from personal knowldge to be correctly set forth and from information of others believe the remainder to be true

Amasa Lyman
H[enry] G Sherwood
James Newber[r]y
Cyrus Daniels
Erastus Snow
Elias Smith
Joseph Smith J^{un}

Joseph Smith jr
Petition

Letter to Presendia Huntington Buell, 15 March 1839

Print Sources

JSP		JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a Liberty Jail March 15th 1839

Dear Sister

My heart rejoiced at the friendship you manifested in requesting to have conversation with us but the Jailer is a very Jealous man for fear some one will leave tools for us to get out with he is under the eye of the Mob continually and his life is at Stake if he grants us any privileges he will not let us converse with any one alone Oh what a joy it would be to us to see our friends it would have gladdened my heart to have the privilege of conversing with you but the hand of tyranny is upon us but thanks be to God it cannot last always and he that sitteth in the heavens will laugh at their calamity and mock when their fear cometh We feel Dear Sister that our bondage is not of long duration I trust that I shall have the chance to give such instructions as are communicated to us before long I suppose you wanted some instruction for yourself and also give us some information and administer consolation to us and to find out what is best for you to do I think that many of the brethren if they will be pretty still can stay in this country until the indignation is over and past but I think it would be better
b for brother Buel [Norman Buell] to leave and go with the rest of the Brethren if he keep the faith and at any rate for thus speaketh the Spirit concerning him I want him and you to know that I am your true friend I was glad to see you no tongue can tell what inexpressible Joy it gives a man to see the face of one who has been a friend after having been inclosed in the walls of a prison for five months it seems to me that my heart will always be more tender after this than ever it was before my heart bleeds continually when I contemplate the distress of the Church Oh that I could be with them I would not shrink at toil and hardship to render them comfort and consolation I want the blessing once more to lift my voice in the midst of the Saints I would pour out my soul to God for their instruction it has been the plan of the Devil to hamper me and distress me from the beginning to keep me from explaining myself to them and I never have had opportunity to give them the plan that God has revealed to me for many have run without being sent crying tidings my Lord and have done much injury to the Church giving the Devil more power over those that walk by sight and not by faith [blank] will only give us that knowledge to understand the minds of the Ancients for my part I think I never could have felt as I now do if I had not suffered the wrongs that I have suffered all things shall work together for good to them that love God Beloved Sister we see that perilous times have truly come and the things which we have so long expected have at last began to usher in but when you see the fig tree begin to put forth its leaves you may know that the Summer is nigh at hand there will be a short work on the Earth it has now commenced I suppose there will soon be perplexity all over the Earth do not let our hearts faint when these things come upon us for they must come or the word cannot be fulfilled I know that something will soon take place to stir up this generation to see what they have been doing and that their fathers have inherited lies and they have been led captive by the Devil to no profit but they know not what they do do not have any feelings of enmity towards any Son or Daughter of Adam I believe I shall be let out of their hands some way or another and shall see good days we can not do any thing only stand still and see the Salvation of God he must do his own work or it must fall to the ground we must not take it in our hands to avenge our wrongs Vengeance is mine saith the Lord and I will repay I have no fears I shall stand unto death God being my helper I wanted to communicate something and I wrote this &c Write to us if you can

J. Smith Jr

To Mrs. Norman Buel [Presdendia Huntington Buel]
Clay Co. Mo.

Letter to the Church and Edward Partridge, 20 March 1839

Print Sources

JSP		JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Liberty Jail Clay County Mo March 20th 1839.
- To the church of Latterday saints at Quincy Illinois and scattered abroad and to Bishop [Edward] Partridge in particular. your humble servant Joseph Smith Jr prisoner for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake and for the saints taken and held by the power of mobocracy under the exterminating reign of his excelancy the Governer Lilburn W. Boggs in company with his fellow prisoners and beloved Brethren Caleb Baldwin Lymon [Lyman] Wight. Hiram [Hyrum] Smith and Alexander McRae. Send unto you all greeting. May the grace of God the father and of our Lord and savior Jesus Christ rest upon you all and abide with you for ever. May knoledge be multiplied unto you by the meorcy of God. And may faith and virtue and knoledge and temperance and patiance and Godliness and Brotherly kindness and charity be in you and abound that you may not be baron in anything nor unfrutefull. Forasmuch as we know that the most of you are well acquainted with the rongs and the high toned injustice and cruelty that is practiced upon us whereas we have been taken prisoners charged falsly with evry kind of evil and thrown into prison inclosed with strong walls surrounded with a strong guard who continually watch day and knight as indefatigable as the devil is in tempting and laying snayers for the people of God. Therefore dearly and beloved Brethren we are the more ready and willing to lay claim to your fellowship and love. For our curcumstances are calculated to awaken our spirits to a sacred remembrance of evry thing and we think that yours are also and that nothing therefore can seperate us from the love of God, and fellowship one with another and that evry species of wickedness and cruelty practised upon us will only tend to bind our harts together and seal them together in love we have no need to say to you that we are held in bonds without cause neither is it needfull that you say unto us we are driven from our homes and smitten without cause. We mutually unders[t]and that if the inhabitance of the state of Missouri had let the saints alone and had been as deserable of peace as they ware there would have been nothing but peace and quiatude [quietude] in this
- b
- c
- d

<State> unto this day we should not have been in this hell surrounded with demonds if not those who are damned, they are those who shall be damned and where we are compeled to hear nothing but blasphemous oaths and witness a seen of blasphemy and drunkenness and hypocracy and debaucheries of evry description. And again the ery cries of orphans and widdows would <not> have assended up to God. the blood of inocent women and children yea and of men also would not have cried to God against them <it> would <not> have stained the soyl of Missouri. but oh! the unrelenting hand the inhumanity and murderous disposition of this people it shocks all nature it beggers and defies all discription. it is a tail [tale] of wo a lamentable tail yea a sorrifull tail too much to tell too much for contemplation too much to think of for a moment too much for human beings it cannot be found among the hethans it cannot be found among the nations where Kings and tyrants are inthroned it cannot be found among the savages of the wilderness yea and I think it cannot be found among the wild and ferocious beasts of the forist that a man should be mangled for sport women be violated <rob[b]ed> of all that they have their last morsel for subsistance and then be violated to gratify the hells <hellish> desires of the mob and finally left to perish with their helpless of[f]spring clinging around their necks but this is not all after a man is dead he must be dug up from his grave and mangled to peaces for no other purpose than to gratify their spleen against the religeon of god. They practise <these> things upon the saints who have done them no rong who are inocent and virtuous who loved the Lord their god and were willing to forsaike all things for his <Christ> sake these things are awfull to relait [relate] but they are verily true it must needs bee that offences come, but WO! to them by whom they come. O God where art thou and where is the pavilion that covereth thy hiding place how long shall thy hand be stayed and thine eye yea thy pure eye behold from from the eteernal heavens the rongs of thy people and of thy servants and thine ear be penetrated with their cyes [cries] yea o Lord how long shall they suffer these rongs and unlawfull oppressions before thine hart shall be softened towards them and thy bowels be moved with compassion to-words them. O Lord God almyty maker of heaven earth and seas and of all things that in them is and who controleth and subjecteth the devil and the dark and benig[h]ted dominion of shayole. Streach forth thy hand let thine eye pierce let thy pavilion be taken up let thy hiding place no longer be covered let thine ear be inclined let thine hart be softened and thy bowels moved with compassion toward us let thine anger be kindle against our enem[i]e[s] and in the fury of thine hart with thy sword avenge us of our rongs remember thy suffering saint oh our God and thy servants will rejoyce in thy name for ever. Dearly and beloved Brethren we see that peralas [perilous] times have come as was testified of we may look then with most purfect assurance for the roling in of all those things that have been written and with more confidence than ever before lift up our eyes to the luminary of day and say in our harts soon thou wilt vail thy blushing face he that said let there be light, and there was light hath spoken this word, and again thou moon thou dimmer light thou luminary of night shall turn <turn> to blood we see that evry thing is fulfilling and the time shall soon come when the son of man shall descend in the clouds of <heaven,> our harts do not shrink neither are our spirits altogether broken at the grievous yoak which is put upon us We know that God will have our oppressors in derision that he laf <will laugh> at their calamity and mock when their fear comith oh that we could be with you Brethren and unbosome our feeling to you we would tell that we should have been at <liberated> the time Elder [Sidney] Rigdon was on the writ of habeas corpus had not our own lawyers interpreted the law contrary to what it reads against <us,> which prevented us from introducing our evidence before the mock court, they have done us much harm <from> the begining they have of late acknoledged that the law was misconstrewed and tantalised our feelings with it and have intirally [entirely?] forsaken us and have forfeited their oaths and their bonds and we have a come back on them for they are co-workers with the mob. As nigh as we can learn the publick mind has been for a long time turning in our favor and the majority is now friendly and the lawyers can no longer browbeat us by saying that this or that is a matter of publick oppinion for publick oppinion is not willing to brook it for it is begining to look with feelings of indignation against our oppresors and to say that the mormons were not in the fault in the least we think that truth honor and virtue and inocence will eventually come out tryumphant we should have taken a habeas corpus before the high Judge and escaped the mob in a sumerary way but unfortunately for us the timber of the wall being verry hard our auger handles gave out and hindered us longer than we expected we applied to a friend and a verry slight uncautious act gave rise to some suspition and before we could fully succeed our plan was discovered we had evry thing in readiness but the last stone and we could have made our escape in one minute and should have succeeded admirably had it not been for a little imprudence or over anxiety on the part of our friend. The sheriff and jailor did not blame us for our attempt it was a fine breach and cost the county a round sum but publick oppinion says that we ought to have been permitted to have made our escape that then the disgrace would have been on us, but now it must come on the state. that there cannot be any charge sustained against us and that the conduct of the mob, the murders committed at hawns mill, and the exterminating order of the Governer, and the one sided rascally proceedings of the Legislature has damned the state of Missouri to all eternity I would just name also that Gen^l [David R.] Atchison has proved himself to be as contemptible as any of them we have tryed for a long time to get our lawyers to draw us some petitions to the supream Judges of this state. but they uterly refused we have examined the law and drawn the petitions ourselvs and have obtained abundance of proof to counter act all the testimony that was against us, so that if the supream Judge dose [does] <not grant> us our liberty he has got to act without cause contrary to honor evidence law or justice shearly to please the devil but we hope better things and trust that before many days God will so order our case that we shall be set at liberty and take up our habitation with the saints we received some letters last evening one from Emma one from Don C[arlos] Smith and one from Bishop Partridge

n all breathing a kind and consoling spirit we were much gratified with there contence [contents] we had been a long time without information and when we read those letters they were to our soles <souls> as the gentle air, <is> refreshing but our joy was mingled with greaf because of the suffering of the poor and much injured saints and we need not say to you that the flood gates of our harts were hoisted and our eyes were a fountain of tears but those who have not been inclosed in the walls of a prison without cause or provocation can have but a little ideah how sweat [sweet] the voice of a friend is one token of friendship from any sorce whatever awakens and calles into action evry simpathectick feeling it brings up in an instant evry thing that is pas[s]ed it sesses [seizes?] the presant with a vivasity of lightning it grasps after the future with the fearsness [fierceness] of a tiger it rhetrogrades from one thing to an other untill finally all enmity malice and hatred and past diferances misunderstandings and mismanagements lie slain victoms at the feet of hope and when the hart is sufficiently contrite and <then> the voice of inspiration steals along and whispers my son pease be unto thy soul thine advirsity and thy afflictions shall be but a small moment and then if thou indure it well God shall exalts the[e] on high thou shalt tryumph over all they foes thy friends do stand by the[e] and they shall hail the[e] again with warm harts and friendly hands thou art yet not yet as Job thy friends do not contend again[st] the[e] the neither charge the[e] with transgretion as they did Job and they <who> do the charge the[e] with transgretion there hope shall be blasted and there prospects shall melt away as the hory frost melteth before the burning rays of the rising sun and also that God hath set to his hand and seal to change the times and seasons and to blind their minds that they may not understand his marvilos workings that he may prove them also and take them in there own craftiness also because their harts are corrupt and the thing which they are willing to bring upon others and love to have others suffer may come upon them<selvs> to the verry utmost that they may be disappointed also and their hopes may be cut off and not many years hence that they and their pasterity shall be swept from under heaven saith God that not one of them is left to stand by the wall cursed are all those that shall lift up the heal against mine anointed saith the Lord and cry they have sin[n]ed when they have not sined before me saith the Lord but have done that which was meat in mine eyes and which I commanded them but those who cry transgresion do it becaus they are the servants of sin and are the children of disobediance themselvs and those who swear false against my servants that they might bring them unto bondage and death. s Wo unto them because they have offended my little ones they shall be severed from the ordinances of mine house their basket shall not be full their houses and their barnes shall famish and they themselvs shall be dispised by those that flattered them they shall not have right to the priesthood nor their posterity after them from generation to generation it had been better for them that a millstone had been hanged about their necks and they having drownd in the depth of the see wo unto all those that discomfort my people and drive and murder and testify against them saith the Lord of host a generation of viper shall t not escape the damnation of hell behold mine eyes seeth and knoweth all their works and I have in reserve a swift judgement in the season thereof for them all for there is a time appointed for <to> evry man according their <as his> work shall be and now beloved Brethren we say unto [you?] that in asmuch as goød <God> hath said that he would have a tried people that he would purge them as gold now we think that this time he has chosen his own crusible wherein we have been tryed and we think if we get through with any degree of safty and shall have keepd the faith that it will be a sign to this generation all u together sufficient to leave them without excuse and we think also that it will be a tryal of our faith equal to that of Abraham and that the antions [ancients] will not have were off [whereof] to bo[a]st over us in the day of judgment as being called to pass through heavier afflictions that we may hold an even waight in the balances with them but now after having suffered so grate a sacrifis and having pased through so grate a scene of sorrow we trust that a Ram may be caught in the thicket speedily to releave the sons and daughters of Abraham from their grate <great> anxiety and to light up the lamp of salvation upon v their countinances that they may hold up <on> now after having gone so far unto everlasting life. Now brethren conserning the places for the location of the saints we cannot counsyl you as we could if we were presant with you and <as> to the things that ware written heartofore [heretofore] we did not concider them any thing verry binding therfore we now say once for all that we think it most proper that the general affairs of the church which are nessisary to be concidered while your humble servant remains in bondage s[h]ould be transacted by a general conferance of the most faithfull and the most respectible of the authorities of the church and a minute of those transactions may be kept and fowarded from time to time to your humble w servant and if there should be any corrections by the word of the word of the Lord they shall be f[r]eely transmitted and your humble servant will approve all the things what soever is acciptable unto God if any thing thing should have been sejusted [suggested] by us or any names mentioned ex[ce]pt by commandment or thus saith the Lord we do not concider it binding. therefore our harts shall not be greaved if diferant arraingments should be entered into the nevertheless we would sejest the propriety of being awar[e] of an aspiring spirit which spirit has oftentimes urged men fowards to make foul speaches and influaance the church and to reject milder councils and has eventually by <been> the means been of bringing much death x and sorrow upon the church we would say be awar of pride also for well and truly hath the wise man s[a]id that pride goeth before distruction and a haughty spirit before a fall and Again outward appearance is not always a Criterean for us to Judge our fellow man but the lips betray the haughty and over barinng immginations of the heart, by his words by <and> his deeds let him be scan[n]ed flaterly also is a deadly poison an a frank an  open Rebuke provoketh a good man to Emulation and in the hour of trouble he will be your best friend, but on the other-hand it will draw out all the corruption of a y corrupt heart And lying and the poison of asps shall be under their tongues and they do cause the pure in heart to be cast in to prison because they want them out of thare way, A fanciful and flowely and heated immagination be aware of because the things of God Are of deep import and time and expeariance and car[e]ful and pondurous and solom though[ts] can only find them out. thy mind O Man, if thou wilt lead a soul unto salvation must streach [stretch] as high as the utmost Heavens, and sink sear[c]h in to and contemplate the loest <lowest> consideatins [considerations] of the darkest abyss, and Expand z upon the broad considerations of Eternal Expanche, he must commune with God. how much more dignifide and noble are the thoughts of God, than the vane immagination of the human heart, none but fools, will triful [trifle], with the souls of men, how vane and trifling, have ben our spirits, our Conferencs our Coun[c]ils our— private Meetings our pri[v]ate as well as public Conversations to low to mean to vulgar to condecending, for the dignifide Characters of the Cald and Chosen of God, according to the purposes of his word will from befo[re] the foundation of the world. to hold the keys, of the mistres [mysteries] of those things that have ben kept hid from the foundation untill now, for <of> which som have tasted a little and which many of them are to be pored down from heaven upon the heads of babes, yea the weak, obscure and dispizable ones aa of this earth. therefore We beseath of you bretheren, that bare <you bear> with those [w]ho do not feel themselves more worthey than yourselves, while we Exort one another, to a reffermation [reformation?], with one an all. both old and young. teachers and taught both high and low rich and poor—bond and free. Male and female. let honesty and sobriety, and cander and solemnity, and virtue, and pureness, and Meekness, and simplisity, Crown our heads in every place, and in fine becom bb as little Children without mallice guile or high packrichy Hypokrisy: and now Bretheren after your tribulations if you do this— things, and exercise fervent prayer, and faith in the sight of God Always, he shall give unto you knowledge by his holy spirit yea by the unspeakable gift of the holy-Ghost that has not been revealed since the world was untill now which our fathers have wated with anxious expectation to be revealed in the last times which their minds were pointed to by the Angels as held in reserve for the fullness of their glory a time to come in the which nothing shall be with held whither there be one god or many god's they shall be manifest all thrones and dominions principalities and powers shall be revealed and set forth

 cc upon all who have indured valiently for the gospel of Jesus Christ and also if there be bounds set to the heavens or to the seas or to the dry land or to the sun moon or starrs all the times of their revolutions all their appointed days month and years and all the Days of their days, months and years and all their glories laws and set times shall be reveald in the days of the dispensation of the fullness of times according to that which was ordaind in the midst of the councyl of the eternal God of all other Gods before this world was that should be reserved unto the finishing and the end thereof where <when> evry
 dd man shall enter into his eternal presants and into his imortal rest but I beg leave to say unto you Brethren that ignorance supe[r]stition and bigotry placing itself where it ought not is often times in the way of the prosperity of this church like the torant of rain from the mountains that floods the most pure and christle stream with mire and dirt and filthyness and obscures evry thing that was clear before and all hurls along in one general deluge but time tethers <wethers> tide and notwithstanding we are roled in for the time being by the mire of the flood the next surge peradventure as time roles on may bring us to the fountain as clear as cristal and as pure as snow while all the filthiness flood wood and rubbish is left is left and ee purged out by the way. How long can rowling watters reamin impure what power shall stay the heavens as well might man streach forth his puny arm to stop the Missouri River in its decread cours or to turne it up stream as to hinder the Almighty from pooring down knoledge from <heaven> upon the heads of the Latter day saints what is Boggs or his murderous party but wimbling willows upon the shore to catch the flood wood as will might we argue that watter is not watter because the ff the mountain torants send down mire and riles the cristle stream altho afterwords ren[d]ers it more pure than before Or that fire is not fire because it is of a quenchable nature by pooing [pouring] on the flood, as to say that our cause is down because runegadoes lyers preasts theavs and murderers who are all alike tenatious of their crafts and creeds have poord down from their spiritual wickednes in hig[h] places and from their strong holds of the divin[e] a flud of dirt and mire and filthiness and vomit upon our heads no God forbid. hell may poor forth its rage like the burning lavy [lava] of mount vesuvias or of Etna or gg of the most terrible of the burning mountains and yet shall mormonism stand. watter, fire, truth, and god are all the same truth is mormonism God is the author of it he is our shield it is by him we received our birth, it was by his voice that we were called to in a dispensation of his gospel in the begining of the fullness of tim[e]s it was by him we received the book of mormon and it was by him that we remain unto this day and by him we shall remain if it shall be for our glory and in his hh almighty name we are determined to indure tribulation as good soldiers unto the end but brethren we shall continue to offer further reflections in our next epistle you will learn by the time you have read this and if you do not learn it you may learn it that walls and <iron> doors <and screaming hinges> is-only-eaten and half scard to death Guards and jailors grining like some damned spirit lest an inocent man should make his escape to bring to light the damnible deeds of a murderous mob is ii call[c]ulated in its verry nature to make the sole of an honist man feel stronger than the powers of hell. But we must bring our epistle to a close we send our respects to Fathers, Mothers, wives, and children, Brothers, and Sisters. we hold them in the most sacred remembrance I send this epistle to Emma that She may have the first parusal of it we feel to inquire after Elder Rigdon if he has not forgotten us it has not been signified to us by his pen scrawl. Brother George W Robinson also and Elder [Reynolds] Cahoon we remember him but would like to jog his memory a little on the fable of the bair and the two friends who mutually agreed to stand by each other and prehaps it would not be amis to mention Unkle John [Smith] and various others, a word of consolation and a blessing would not come amiss from any body while we are being so closly whispered jj by the Bair but we feel to excuse evry body and evry thing. Yea the more readily when we contemplate that we are in the hands of a wors than a Bair for a the Bair would not pray upon a dead carcus. Our respects and love and fellowship to all the virtuous saints we are your Brethren and fellow sufferers and prisoners of Jesus Christ for the gospels sake and for the hope of glory which is in us. Amen.

Joseph Smith Jr
Hyrum Smith
Lyman Wight
Caleb Baldwin
Alexander. M^cRae.

Epistle of Joseph Smith & Others in Liberty Jail to the Church of J. C. L. D. S. in Quincy.
March 20th 1839
E.

Letter to Emma Smith, 21 March 1839

Print Sources

JSP		JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Liberty Jail Clay Co Mo 1839 March 21st
Affectionate Wife

I have sent an Epistle to the church directed to you because I wanted you to have the first reading of it and then I want Father and Mother to have a copy of it keep the original yourself as I dictated the matter myself and shall send an other as soon as possible I want to be with you very much but the powers of mobocracy is too many for me at present I would ask if Judge Cleveland [John Cleveland] will be kind enough to let you and the children tarry there until you can learn something further concerning my lot fate I will reward him well if he will and see that you do not suffer for anything I shall have a little money left when I come my Dear Emma I very well know your toils and sympathize with you if God will spare my life once more to have the privilege of taking care of you I will ease your care and endeavour to comfort your heart I want the you to take the best care of the family you can which I believe you will do all you can I was sorry to learn that Frederick [Smith] was sick but I trust he is well again and that you are all well I want you to try to gain time and write to me a long letter and tell me all you can and even if old major is alive yet and what those little prattlers say that cling around you neck do you tell them I am in prison that that their lives might be saved I want all the church to make out a bill of damages and apply to the united states Court as soon as possible however they will find out what can be done themselves you expressed my feelings concerning the order and I believe that there is a way to get redress for such things but God ruleth all things after the council of his own will my trust is in him the salvation of my soul is of the most important to me for as much as I know for a certainty of Eternal things if the heavens linger it is nothing to me I must steer my bark safe which I intend to do I want you to do the same yours forever Joseph Smith Jr

- c Emma Smith
- d I want you to have the Epistle copied immediately and let it go to the Brethren first into the hands of Father for I want the production for my record if you lack for money or for bread do let me know it as soon as possible my nerve trembles from long confinement but if you feel as I do you don't care for the imperfections of my writings for my part a word of consolation from any source is cordially received by us me I feel like Joseph in Egypt doth my friends yet live if they live do they remember me have they regard for me if so let me know it in time of trouble my Dear Emma do you think that my being cast into prison by the mob renders me less worthy of your friendship no I do not think so but when I was in prison and ye visited me inasmuch as you have done it to the least of these you have done it to me these shall enter into life Eternal but no more

your Husband J Smith Jr

Mrs— Emma Smith
Quincy
Illinois

Letter to Isaac Galland, 22 March 1839

Print Sources

JSP		JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Liberty jail, Clay co. Mo. March 22nd, 1839.
MR. ISAAC GALLAND; Dear Sir:
- I have just been privileged with a perusal of a letter, put into my hands by Mr. D[avid] W. Rogers, which letter was directed to him, dated February 26th, 1839. and signed, Isaac Galland. The contents of said letter expresses a sympathy and a good feeling towards the people and church of the Latter Day Saints, which I have the high honor, of being their religious leader; I say high honor, more especially, because I know them to be an honorable, a virtuous, and an upright people. And that honor, virtue, and righteousness is their only aim and object in this life. They are sir, a much injured, and abused people; and are greatly belied as to their true character. They have been fallen upon by a gang of ruffians and murderers, three times, in the state of Missouri; and entirely broken up, without having committed the first offence: or without there being the least shadow in the very slightest degree of evidence, that they have done ought of any thing derogatory to the laws, or character, of the state of Missouri. And this last time of their being broken up; it is either my misfortune, or good fortune, (for I rather count it good fortune to suffer affliction with the people of God,) in connection with others of my brethren, to be made a severe sufferer, by the hands of the above mentioned rascals: they are supported by some portions of the authorities of the State, either in consequence of prejudices, excited by foul calumnies, or else they themselves, are the fathers and instigators, of the whole diabolical and murderous proceeding.
- c I am bold to say sir, that a more nefarious transaction never has existed, since the days of Yore; than that which has been practiced upon us.— Myself and those who are in prison with me, were torn from our houses, with our wives and children clinging to our garments, under the awful expectation of being exterminated. At our first examination, the mob found one or two persons, of low and worthless character, whom they compelled, at the peril of their lives, to swear some things against us: which things, if they had been even true, were nothing at all, and could not have so much as disgraced any man under heaven. Nevertheless, we could have proved, by more than five hundred witnesses, that the things were false. But the Judge employed an armed force, and compelled us to abandon the idea of introducing witnesses, upon the peril of the lives of the witnesses. Under such circumstances, sir, we were committed to this jail, on a pretended charge of treason, against the State of Missouri, without the slightest evidence to that effect. We collected our witnesses the second time, and petitioned a habeas corpus: but were thrust back again into prison, by the rage of the mob; and our families robbed, and plundered: and families, and witnesses, thrust from their homes, and hunted out of the State, and dare not return for their lives. And under this order of things, we, held in confinement, for a pretended trial: whereas we are to be tried by those very characters who have practiced those things, yea the very characters who have murdered some hundred men, women and children, and have sworn to have our lives also; and have made public proclamation that these men must and should be hung, whether they were innocent, or guilty. Such men too, sir, have made this proclamation, as general [David R.] Atchison, who is considered one of the most prominent men in the State. This is according to the information I have received, which I suppose to be true. Their plea sir, is that the State will be ruined, if the Mormon leaders are liberated, so that they can publish the real facts, of what has been practised upon them.
- d
- e We are kept under a strong guard, night and day, in a prison of double walls and doors, proscribed in our liberty of conscience, our food is scant, uniform, and coarse; we have not the privilege of cooking for ourselves, we have been compelled to sleep on the floor with straw, and not blankets sufficient to keep us warm; and when we have a fire, we are obliged to have almost a constant smoke. The Judges have gravely told us from time to time that they knew we were innocent, and ought to be liberated, but they dare not administer the law unto us, for fear of the mob. But if we will deny our religion, we can be liberated. Our lawyers have gravely told us, that we are only held now by the influence of long faced Baptists; how far this is true, we are not able to say: but we are certain that our most vehement accusers, are the highest toned professors of religion. On being interrogated what these men have done? their uniform answer is, we do not know, but they are false teachers, and ought to die. And of late boldly and frankly acknowledge, that the religion of these men, is all that they have against them.
- f Now sir, the only difference between their religion, and mine, is, that I firmly believe in the prophets and apostles, Jesus Christ, being the chief cornerstone. And speak as one having authority among them, and not as the scribes, and am liberal in my sentiments towards all men, in matters of opinion, and rights of conscience, whereas they are not. But enough of this. I feel highly gratified to learn of a man who had sympathy, and feelings of friendship towards a suffering, and an injured, and an innocent people: if you can do them any good, render them any assistance, or protection, in the name of suffering humanity, we beseech you, for God's sake, and humanity's sake, that you will do it. If you should see Gov. [Robert] Lucas, I wish you would have the kindness to state to him, the contents of this letter; as we know him from information to be a man of character and a gentleman. I would be glad therefore, if it were possible that he, and not only him, but every other patriotic, and humane man, should know the real facts of our sufferings: and of the unjust and cruel hand that is upon us. I have been in this State one year, the 12th, day of this month; I have never borne arms at any time. I have never held any office, civil or military in this State. I have only officiated as a religious teacher, in religious matters, and not in temporal matters. The only occasion I have given, was to defend my own family, in my own door yard, against the invasions of a lawless mob: and that I did not at the expense of any man's life: but risked my own in defence of an innocent family, consisting of a wife, five children, hired servants &c. My residence was in Far West. I was surrounded with a noble, generous, and enterprising society, who were friendly to the laws, and constitution of our country: they were broken up without cause, and my family now as I suppose, if living, are in Quincy, Illinois.

h We are informed that the prisoners in Richmond jail, Ray county, are much more inhumanly treated than we are; if this is the case, we will assure you, that their constitutions cannot last long, for we find ours wearing away very fast: and if we knew of any source whereby aid and assistance could be rendered unto us, we should most cordially petition for it: but where is liberty? Where is humanity? Where is patriotism? Where has the genius of the pedestal of the laws and constitution of our boasted country fled? Are they not slain victims at the feet of prejudice, to gratify the malice of a certain class of men, who have learned that their craft and creed cannot stand against the light of truth, when it comes to be investigated?— hence they resort to the vilest of the vile means, and to foul calumnies, and to physical force to do what? To deprive some fifty thousand, of the right of citizenship, and for what? because they are blasphemers? no: For this is contrary to their practice, as well as faith. Was it because they were tavern haunters, and drunkards? no. This charge cannot be substantiated against them as a people; it was contrary to their faith. And finally was it for any thing? no sir, not for any thing, only, that Mormonism is truth; and every man who embraced it felt himself at liberty to embrace every truth: consequently the shackles of superstition, bigotry, ignorance, and priestcraft, falls at once from his neck; and his eyes are opened to see the truth, and truth greatly prevails over priestcraft; hence the priests are alarmed, and they raise a hu-in-cry, down with these men! heresy! heresy! fanaticism! false prophet! false teachers! away with these men! crucify them! crucify them! And now sir, this is the sole cause of the persecution against the Mormon people, and now if they had been Mahomedans, Hottentots, or Pagans; or in fine sir, if their religion was as false as hell, what right would men have to drive them from their homes, and their country, or to exterminate them, so long as their religion did not interfere with the civil rights of men, according to the laws of our country? None at all. But the mind naturally being curious wants to know what those sentiments are, that are so at variance with the priests of the age, and I trust you will bear with me, while I offer to you a few of my reflections on this subject, and if they should not meet your mind, it may open a door for an exchange of ideas, and in the exercise of a proper liberality of spirit, it may not be unprofitable.

k In the first place, I have stated above that Mormonism is truth, in other words the doctrine of the Latter Day Saints, is truth; for the name Mormon, and Mormonism, was given to us by our enemies, but Latter Day Saints was the real name by which the church was organized. Now sir, you may think that it is a broad assertion that it is truth; but sir, the first and fundamental principle of our holy religion is, that we believe that we have a right to embrace all, and every item of truth, without limitation or without being circumscribed or prohibited by the creeds or superstitious notions of men, or by the dominations of one another, when that truth is clearly demonstrated to our minds, and we have the highest degree of evidence of the same; we feel ourselves bound by the laws of God, to observe and do strictly, with all our hearts, all things whatsoever is manifest unto us by the highest degree of testimony that God has committed us, as written in the old and new Testament, or any where else, by any manifestation, whereof we know that it has come from God: and has application to us, being adapted to our situation and circumstances; age, and generation of life; and that we have a perfect, and indefeasible right, to embrace all such commandments, and do them; knowing, that God will not command any thing, but what is peculiarly adapted in itself, to ameliorate the condition of every man under whatever circumstances it may find him, it matters not what kingdom or country he may be in. And again, we believe that it is our privilege to reject all things, whatsoever is clearly manifested to us that they do not have a bearing upon us. Such as, for instance, it is not binding on us to build an Ark, because God commanded Noah to build one.— It would not be applicable to our case; we are not looking for a flood. It is not binding on us to lead the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt, because God commanded Moses. The children of Israel are not in bondage to the Egyptians, as they were then; our circumstances are very different. I have introduced these for examples: and on the other hand, "Thou shalt not kill. Thou shalt not steal. Thou shalt not commit adultery. Thou shalt not bare false witness against thy neighbor. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor his man servant, nor his maid servant, nor any thing that is thy neighbors."

n These sentiments we most cordially embrace, and consider them binding on us because they are adapted to our cir- cumstances. We believe that we have a right to revelations, visions, and dreams from God, our heavenly Father; and light and intelligence, through the gift of the Holy Ghost, in the name of Jesus Christ, on all subjects pertaining to our spiritual welfare; if it so be that we keep his commandments, so as to render ourselves worthy in his sight. We believe that no man can administer salvation through the gospel, to the souls of men, in the name of Jesus Christ, except he is authorized from God, by revelation, or by being ordained by some one whom God hath sent by revelation, as It is written by Paul, Romans 10:14, “and how shall they believe in him, of whom, they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? and how shall they preach, except they be sent?” and I will ask, how can they be sent without a revelation, or some other visible display of the manifestation of God. And again, Hebrews, 5:4, “And no man taketh this honor unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.”— And I would ask, how was Aaron called, but by revelation?

- And again we believe in the doctrine of faith, and of repentance, and of baptism for the remission of sins, and the gift of the Holy Ghost, by the laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. We believe in the doctrine of repentance, as well as of faith; and in the doctrine of baptism for the remission of sins as well as in the doctrine of repentance; and in the doctrine of the gift of the Holy Ghost by the laying on of hands, as well as baptism for the remission of sins; and also, in like manner, of the resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. Now all these are the doctrines set forth by the appostles, and if we have any thing to do with one of them, they are all alike precious, and binding on us. And as proof, mark the following quotations. Mark 16 chap., 15–16 verses, “and he said unto them go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature, and he that believeth and is baptized shall be saved, but he that believeth not shall be damned.” Hear you will see the doctrine of faith: and again, Acts 2nd chap. 28 verse, “Then Peter said unto them repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.” Hear you see the doctrine of repentance and baptism for the remission of sins, and the gift of the Holy Ghost, connected by the promise inseperably. Now I want you to consider the high standing of Peter; he was now being endowed with power from on high and held the keys of the kingdom of heaven. Mathew 16th chap. 19th verse, [“]and I will give unto you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.” This was the character, Sir, that made the glorious promise of the gift of the Holy Ghost, predicated upon the baptism for the remission of sins: and he did not say that it was confined to that generation, but see further: Act[s] 2nd chap. 39th verse, “for the promise is unto you, and your children, and to all who are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.” Then, Sir, if the callings of God extend unto us, we come within the perview of Peter’s promise. Now where is the man who is authorized to put his finger on the spot and say, thus far shalt thou go and no farther: there is no man. Therefore let us receive the whole, or none. And again, concerning the doctrine of the laying on of hands. Act[s] 8th chap. 14th to 17th verse. Now when the apostles, which were at Jerusalem, heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John; who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost; for as yet he was fallen upon none of them, only they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.— Then laid they their hands upon them, and they received the Holy Ghost.— Acts 19th chap. 5th–6th verses.— When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.— And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues and prophesied. We discover by these, the doctrine of the laying on of the hands.— And for the doctrine of the resurrection of the dead and of eternal judgment: Hebrews 6th chap. 2nd verse, of the doctrine of baptism, and of laying on of the hands, and of reserrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. I consider these to be some of the leading items of the gospel, as taught by Christ and his apostles, and as received by those whom they taught. I wish you would look at these, carefully and closely, and you will readily perceive that the difference between me and other religious teachers, is in the bible; and the bible and them for it: and as far as they teach the gospel of Jesus Christ, as it is verily written, and are inspired, and called as was Aaron, I feel myself bound to bow with all defference to their mandates and teachings; but see Gallations, 1st chap. 6th to 10th verse. I marvel that you are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ, unto another Gospel; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, if any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed. For do I now persuade men or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ. Further, the 11–12 verses. But, I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man; for I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.
- Please Sir, to pardon me for having obtruded thus lengthy upon your feelings, as you are a stranger to me; and I know nothing of you, only what I have read in you[r] letter, and from that I have taken the liberty which I have. Be assured Sir, that I have the most liberal sentiments, and feelings of charity towards all sects, parties, and denominations; and the rights and liberties of conscience, I hold most sacred and dear, and dispise no man for differing with me in matters of opinion.
- Accept Dear Sir, my best wishes for your welfare, and desire for further acquaintance, I close my letter, by giving you some quotations which you will have the goodness to read.
- The second epistle of Paul to Timothy, 1:5–7. 2:10–14. 4:2–7. Ephesians 4:10–18. 1st Corinthians 12:1–31. 8:3–6. Ephesians 4:1–8. The 1st Epistle of John 1: Mathew, 3:13–17. St. John 3:1[–]16. 10:1–50. 28:18–20. St. Luke 24:45–53. If you wish another address on this subject, you have only to let me know, and it shall be attended to.

Yours truly,

JOSEPH SMITH, Jr.

N. B. If Bishop [Edward] Partridge, or if the church have not made a purchase of your land, and if there is not any one who feels a particular interest in making the purchase, you will hold it in reserve for us; we will purchase it of you at the proposals that you made to Mr. [Israel] Barlow. We think the church would be wise in making the contract, therefore, if it is not made before we are liberated, we will make it.⁴⁴

Yours &c.

JOSEPH SMITH, Jr.

Letter to Edward Partridge and the Church, circa 22 March 1839

Print Sources

JSP		JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Continued to the church of Latter-day-saints.
We continue to offer further reflections to Bishop [Edward] Partridge and to the church of Jesus Christ of Latter day saints whom we love with a fervent love and do always bear them in mind in all our prayers to the throne of God. It still seems to bear heavy heavily in our minds that the church would do will well to secure to themselves the contract of the Land which is proposed to them by Mr. Isaac Galland and to cultivate the friendly feelings of that gentleman in as much shall as he shall prove himself to be a man of honor humanity and a friend to humanity. We really think that his letter breaths that kind of spirit if we can judge correctly. And Isaac Van Allen Esq^r the attorney Gen^l of Iowa Territory that peradventure such men may be wrought upon by the providence of God to do good unto his people. Governor [Robert] Lucas also. We suggest the ideah of praying fervantly for all men who manifest any degree of sympathy for the suffering children of God. We think that peradventure the united States survayor of the Iowa Territory may be of grate benefeit to the church if it be the will of
- b God to this end if ritiousness shall should be manifested as the girdle of our loins. It seems to be deeply impresed upon our minds that the saints ought to lay hold of evry door shall that shall seem to be opened for unto them to obtain foot hold on the Earth and be a make making all the preparation<s> that is within the power of posibles for the terrible storms that are now gethering in the heavens with darkness and gloominess and thick darkness as spoken of by the prophets which cannot be now of a long time lingering for there seems to be a whispering that the angels of heaven who have been intrusted with the eounel counsel of these matters for the last days have taken eounel counsel together: and among the rest of the general affairs that have to be transacted in their honorable eounel counsel they have taken cognisance of the testimony of
- c those who were murdered at Hawns Mills and also those who were martered with D[avid] W. Patten. and else where and have passed some decisions peradventure in favour of the saints and those who were called to suffer without cause these decisions will be made known in there time and they will take into concideration all those things that offend. We have a fervant desire that in your general conferences that evry thing should be discused with a grate deal of care and propriety lest you grieve the Holy Spirit which shall be poured out at all times upon your heads when you are exercised with those principals of ritiousness that are agreeable to the mind of God and are properly affected one toward an other and are carefull by all means to remember those <who> are in bondage and in heaviness and in deep affliction for your sakes and if there are any among you who aspire after their own aggrandisement and seek their own oppulance while thier brethren are groaning in poverty and are under sore trials and temptations they can not be benefeit by the interseesion of the Holy Spirit <which>
- d maketh interseesion for us daily day and knight with groning that cannot be uttered. We ought at all times to be verry carefull that such high mindedness never have place in our hearts but condesend to men of low estate and with all long suffering bear the infermities of the weak. Behold there are ma[n]y called but few are chosen. And why are they not chosen? Because their hearts are set so much upon the things of this world and aspire to the honors of men that they do not learn this one lesson that the rights of priesthood are inseperably connected with the powers of heaven and that the powers of heaven
- e cannot be controled nor handled only upon the principals of rightiousness. That they may be confered upon us it is true but when we undertake to cover our sins or to gratify our pride or vain ambition or to exercise controle or dominion or compulsion upon the souls of the children of men in any degree of unritiousness behold the heavens withdraw themselves the spirit of the Lord is grieved and when it has withdrawn Amen to the priesthood or the authority of that man behold ere he is aware he is left unto himself to kicken against the pricks to persecute the saints and to fight against God. We have learned by sad experiance that it is the nature and disposition of almost all men as soon as they get a little authority as they suppose they will imediately begin to [e]xercise unritious dominion. hence ma[n]y [are] called but few are ch[osen.] [No

 f power or in[f]luence] can or ought to be maintained by <[vi]rt[ue]> of the Priesthood only by persuasion by long suffering by gentleness and meekness and by love unfained by kindness by pure knowledge which shall greatly enlarge the soul without hypocrisy and without guile reproving be-times with sharpness when moved upon by the Holy Ghost and then showing g forth afterwords an increas of love toward him whom thou hast reprov'd lest he esteem the[e] to be his enemy that he may know that thy faithfulness is stronger than the cords of death thy bowells also being full of charity towards all men and to the household of faith and virtue garnish thy thoughts unceasingly then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presants of God, and the doctrins of the Priesthood shall destill upon thy soul as the dewes from heaven the Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion and thy septer an unchanging septer of ritiousness and truth and thy dominion shall be an everlasting h dominion and without compulsory means it shall flow [un]to thee for ever and ever. The ends of the Earth shall [enq]uire after thy na[me] and fools shall have thee in deri[s]ion and hell shall rage against thee while the pure in heart and the wise and the noble and the virtious shall seek cōuncil counsel and authority and blessings constantly from under thy hand and thy people shall never be turned against thee by the testimony of traitors and although their influenace shall cast the[e] into trouble and into bars and walls thou shalt be had in honor and but for a small moment and thy voice shall be more terable in the midst of thine enemies than the fierce Lion because of thy ritiousness and thy God shall stand by the[e] for ever and i ever. If thou art called to pass through tribulation. If thou art in perals among fals brethren. If thou art in perals amongst robbers. If thou art in perals by land or by sea. If thou art accused with all maner of fals accusations. If thine enimies fall upon the[e]. If they tear the[e] from the society of thy father and mother and brethren and Sisters. And if with a drawn sword thine enimies tear the[e] from the bosome of thy Wife and of thine offsprings and thine El[d]er son although but six years of age shall cling to thy garments and shall say my Father my Father why cant you stay with us Oh my Father what j are the men going to do with you. And if then he shall be thrust from the[e] by the sword and thou be draged to prison and thine enimies prowl around the[e] like wolves for blood of the Lamb and if thou shouldest be cast into the pit or into the hands of murderers and the sentantce of death pased upon thee. If thou be cast into the deep. If the billowing surge conspire against thee. If fierce wind become thine enemy. If the heavens gether blackness and all the elements combine to hedge up the way and above all if the verry jaws of hell shall gap open her mouth wide after <thee> know thou my son that all these things shall give thee experiance and shall be for thy good. The son of man hath desended below them all art thou greater than he? Therefore hold on thy way and the priesthood shall remain with thee for their bounds are set they cannot pass. Thee Thy days are known and thy years shall not be numbered less. therefore fear not what man can do for God k shall be with you for ever and ever. Now brethren I would suggest for the concideration of the confererence of its being carefully and wisely understood by the <counsel> or conferences that our brethren scattered abroad who understand the spirit of the gethering that they fall into the places of refuge and saf[e]ty that God shall open unto them between Kirtland and Far West. Those from the East and from the West and from far cōuntry countries let them fall in some where between those two boundries in the most safe and quiet places they can find and let this be the presant understanding untill God shall open a more effectual door for us for further conciderations. And again we further suggest for the concideration of the counsel that there be no organizations of large bodies upon common stock principals in property or of large companies of firms untill the Lord shall signify it in a proper manner as it opens such a dreafull [dreadful] field for the averishous and m the indolent and corrupt hearted to pray upon the inocent and virtious and honist We have reason to believe that many things were introduced among the saints before God had signified the times and not withstanding the principles and plans may have <been> good yet aspiring men or in other word men <who> had not the substance of Godliness about them perhaps undertook to handle edg tools children you know are fond of tools while they are not yet able to use them. Time and experiance however is the only safe remidy against such evils there are many teachers but perhaps not many Fathers. There are times comming when God will signify many things which are expediant for the well being of the saints but the times have not yet come but will come as fast as there can be found place and reseptions for them. And again we would suggest for your concideration the propriety of all the saints gethering up the  knowledge of <all> the facts and suffering and abuses put upon them by the people of this state and also of all the property and amount of damages which they have sustained both of character and personal <Injuries as will as real property> property and also the names of all persons that n have had a hand in their oppressions as far as they can get hold of them and find them out. and perhaps a committe can be appointed to find out these things and to take statements and affidafets and also to gether up the libilous publications that are afloat and all that are in the magazines and in the Insiclopedias [encyclopedias] and all the libillious history histories that are published and that <are> writing and by whom and present the whole concatination of diabolical rascality and nefarious and murderous impositions that have been practised upon this people that we may not only publish to all the world but present them to the heads of the government in all there dark and hellish hugh [hue?] as the last effort which is enjoined on us by our heavenly. Father before we can fully and completely claim that promise which shall call him forth from his hiding

o place and also the whole nation may be left without excuse before he can send forth the power of his mighty arm. It is an imperious duty that we owe to God to angels with whom we shall be brought to stand and also to ourselves to our wives and our children who have been made to bow down with grief sorrow and care under the most damning hand of murder tyranny and oppression supported and urged on and upheld by the influence of that spirit which hath so strongly rivited the creeds of the fathers who have inherited lies upon the hearts of the children and filled the world with confusion and has been growing stronger and stronger and is now the verry ~~mein~~ main spring of all corruption and the whole Earth grones under the wait of its iniquity. it is an iron yoke it is a strong band they are the verry hand cuffs and chains and shackles and fetters of hell Therefore it is an imperious duty that we owe not only to our own wives and children but to the widdows and fatherless whose husbands and fathers have been murdered under its iron hand which dark and blackning deeds are enough to make hell itself shudder and to stand aghast and pale and the hands of the verry devil tremble and palsy and also it is an imperious duty that we owe to all the rising generation and to all the pure in heart which there <are> many yet on the Earth among all sects parties and de[no]minations who are blinded by the suttile craftiness of men whereby they ly in wait to decieve and only kept from the truth because they know not where to find it therefore that we should waist and ware out our lives in bringing to light all the hidden things of darkness wherein we know them and they are truly manifest from q heaven. These should then be attended to with greate earnestness let no man counts them as small things for there is much which lieth in futurity pertaining to the saint which depends upon these things you know brethren that a verry large ship is benefeited verry much by a verry small helm in the time of a storm by being kept work ways with the wind and the waves Therefore dearly beloved ~~beloved~~ brethren let us cheerfully do all things <that> lieth in our power and then may we stand still with the utmost asurance to see the salvation of God and for his arm to be revealed. And again I would further suggest the impropriety of the organization of bands or companies by covenant or oaths by penalties <or seereey secrecies> but let the time past of our experiance and sufferings by the wickedness of Doctor [Sampson] Avard suffise and let our covenant be that of the everlasting covenant as is contained in the Holy writ and the things that God hath revealed unto us. Pure

r friendship always becomes weakened the verry moment you undertake to make it stronger by penal oaths and secrecy. Your humble servant or servants intend from henceforth to disapprobate every thing that is not in accordance with the fulness of the gospel of Jesus Christ and is not of a bold and frank and an upright nature they will not hold their peace as in times past when they see iniquity begining to rear its head for fear of traitors or the concequences that shall flow <follow> by reprovng

s those who creap in unawares that they may get something to distroy the flock. We believe that the experiance of the saints in times past has been sufficient that they will from henceforth be always ready to obey the truth without having mens persons in admiration because of advantage it is expediant that we should be aware of such things. And we ~~should~~ ought always to be aware of those prejudices which sometimes so strangly presented themselves and are so congenial to human nature against our nieghbors friends and brethren of the world who choose to differ with us in opinion and in matters of faith. Our religeon is betwean us and our God. Their religeon is betwean them and their God. There is a ty from God that should be exercised towards those of our faith who walk uprightly which is peculiar to itself but it is without prejudice but gives scope to the mind which inables us to conduct ourselves with grater liberality to-wards all others that are not of our faith than what they exercise towards one another these principals approximate nearer to the mind of God because it is like God or God like.

t There is a principal also which we are bound to be exercised with that is in common with all men such as governments and laws and regulations in the civil conserns of life This principal guarentees to all parties sects and denominations and classes of religeon equal coherant and indefeasible rights they are things that pertain to this life therefore all are alike interested they make our responceibilities one towards another in matters of corruptible things while the former principals do not distroy the latter but bind us stronger and make our responceibilities not only one to another but unto God also hence we say that the constitution of the unitid States is a glorious standard it is founded in the wisdom of God. it is a heavenly banner it is to all those who are priviliged with the sweats of its liberty like the cooling shades and refreshing watters of a greate rock in a thirsty and a weary land it is like a greate tree under whose branches men from evry clime can be shielded from the burning u rays of an inclemant sun. We bretheren are deprived of the protection of this glorious principal by the cruelty of the cruel by those who only look for the time being for pasterage like the beasts of the field only to fill themselves and forget that the mormons as well as the presbitarians and those of evry other class and description have equal rights to partake of the fruite of the greate tree of our national liberty but notwithstanding we see what we see and we feel what we feel and know what we know. Yet that fruite is no less presious and delisious to our taist we cannot be weaned from the milk neither can we be drawn from the breast neither will we deny our religeon because of the hand of oppresion but we will hold on untill death

v we say say that God is true that the constitution of the united States is true that the bible is true that the book of mormon is true <that> the book <of> covenants are true that Christ is true that the ministering angels sent forth from God are true and that we know that we have an house not made with hands eternal in the heavens whose ~~building~~ builder and maker is a consolation which our oppressors cannot feel when fortune or fate shall lay its iron hand on them as it has on us. Now we ask what is man? Remember brethren that time <and> chance hapeneth to all men. We shall continue our reflections in our next. We subscribe ourselves your sinsear [sincere] friends and brethe[r]en in the bonds of the everlasting gospel prisoners of Jesus Christ for the sake of the gospel and the saints. We pronounce the blessing of heaven upon the heads of the saints who seek to serve God with an undevided hearts in the name of Jesus Christ Amen.

Joseph Smith Jr
Hyrum Smith
Lyman Wight
Caleb Baldwin
Alexander. M^cRae.

Mrs. Emma Smith
Quincy I^{ll}.

Letter to Emma Smith, 4 April 1839

Print Sources

JSP		JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a Liberty, Jail, Clay. Co., Mo, April, 4th, 1839.

Dear— and affectionate— Wife.

Thursday night I sat down just as the sun is going down, as we peak throu the greats of this lonesome prision, to write to you, that I may make known to you my situation. It is I believe <it is> now about five months and six days since I have bean under the grimace, of a guard night and day, and within the walls grates and screeking of iron dors, of a lonesome dark durty prison. With immotions known only to God, do I write this letter, the contemplations, of the mind under these circumstances, defies the pen, or tounge, or Angels, to discribe, or paint, to the human mind being, who never experiance what I we experience. This night we expect; is the last night we shall try our weary joints and bones on our dirty straw couches in these walls, let our case hereafter be as it may, as we expect to start tomorrow, for Davi[es]s Co— for our trial, We shall have a change of Venue to some of the lower counties, for the final trial, as our Lawyers generally say, if law can b be adheared to in Davis, as it grants us the privaliege. But you are aware of what we may expect, of beings that <have> conducted as they have. We lean of on the arm of Jehovah, and none else, for our deliverance, and if he dont do it, it will not be done, you may be assured, for there is great thirsting for our blood, in this state; not because we are guilty of any thing; but because they say these men <will> give an account of what has been done to them; the wrongs they have sustain if it is known, it <will> ruin the State. So the mob party have sworn, to have our lives, at all hasards, but God will disappoint them we trust, We shall be moved from this at any rate and we are glad of it let what will become of <us> we cannot <get> into a worse hole then this is, we shall not stay here but one night besides this <if that> thank <if that> God, we shall never cast a lingering wish after liberty in clay county mo. Mo. we have enough of it to last forever, may God reward fals swearers according to their works, is all I can wish them. My Dear Emma I think of you and the children continually, if I could tell you my tale, I think you would say it was altogether enough for once, to grattify the malice of c hell that I have suffered. I want <to> see little Frederick, Joseph, Julia, and Alexander, Joana, and old major. And as to yourself if you want to know how much I want to see you, examine your feelings, how much you want to see me, and judge for <you[r]self>, I would gladly go <walk> from here to you barefoot, and bareheaded, and half naked, to see you and think it great pleasure, and never count it toil, but do not think I am babyish, for I do not feel so, I bare with fortitude all my oppression, so does do those that are with me, not one of us have flinched yet, I want you <should> not let those little fellows, forgit me, tell them Father loves them with a perfect love, and he is doing all he can to git away from the mob to come to them, do teach them all you can, that they may have good minds, be tender and kind to them, dont <be> fractious to them, but listen to their wants, tell them Father says they must be good children, <and> mind their mother,

d My Dear Emma there is great respo[n]sibility resting upon you, in preserveing yourself in honor, and sobriety, before them, and teaching them right things, to form their young and tender minds, that they begin in right paths, and not git contaminated when young, by seeing ungodly examples, I soppose you see the need of my council, and help, but as  combinnation <of> things have conspired to place me where I am, and I know it <is> not my fault, and further if my voice and council, had been heeded I should not have been here, but I find no fault with you, att all I know nothing but what you have done the best you could, if there is any thing it is known to yourself, you must be your own judge, on e that subject: and if ether of ~~done~~ us have done wrong it is wise in us to repent of it, and for God sake, do not b[e] so foolish as to yield to the flattery of the Devel, faslshoods, and vainty, in this hour of trouble, that our affections be drawn, away from the right objects, those preasious things, God has given us will rise up in judgement against us in the day of judgement against us if we do not mark well our steps, and ways. My heart has often been exceeding sorrowful when I have thought of these thing[s] for many considerations, one thing let [me?] [adm]onished you by way of my duty, do not [be?] self willed, neither harber a spirit of revevenge: and again remember that he who is my enemys, is yours also, and never give up an old tried friend, who has waded through all manner of toil, for your sake, and throw him away becaus fools may tell <you> he <has> some faults; these things have accured to <me> as I have been writing, I do speak of <them> because you do not know them, but because I want to stir up your pure mind by way of remembrance: all feelings of diss[at]isfaction is far from my heart, I wish to act upon that principle of generosity, that will acquit myself in the preasance of [page cut] through the mercy of God You[rs?] [Joseph Smith Jr.]

25

Mrs. Emma Smith
Quincy Illinois
LIBERTY Mo.
APR 5

Discourse, 1 June 1839

Print Sources

JSP		JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

President Joseph Smith Jun gave the seventies much instruction about what things they should teach and the manner of communicating the gospel to the children of men and on ma[n]y other subjects especially enjoining it upon the elders to keep and render a just account of all monies put into their hands for any purpose whatever which account should be rendered to the bishop of the church, and spoke at great length on the subject of every steward being just who has any thing entrusted to his charge and be able at all times to give an account <of> his stewardship¹

Discourse, 27 June 1839

As Reported by Wilford Woodruff–A

Print Sources

JSP		JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

¹Note Woodruff's account in his journal: "ON the first of June there was a Conference held in Quincy princpily for the benefit of the Seventies. Joseph was president of the meeting, & the Seventies learned that it was not the will of God that they should appoint or have a Committy or Committies to take care of their poor &c. but that Bishops were the authorities that God had appointed for that purpose & that they Should procede according to that order & they did so & gave up the Committy which they had appointed" (WWJ 1:339). In the preface to its presentation of these remarks as a discourse, the JSP editors write: "Two brief accounts of JS's discourse are extant: Woodruff's notes in his journal and the official minutes recorded by Elias Smith, clerk for the Quorums of the Seventy. Smith's account, apparently based on notes taken during the meeting and then inscribed in a record book for the quorums, is featured here. These minutes are somewhat more complete than Woodruff's journal account, which is secondhand and does not mention Hyrum Smith's discourse or any other aspect of the meeting. According to Woodruff's journal, Woodruff was in Montrose, Iowa Territory, some fifty miles from Quincy, on 1 June, the day of the discourse.⁵ He copied notes on JS's discourse into his journal after his entry for 17 June and noted that the 1 June meeting was 'princpily for the benefit of the Seventies.'"

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

[Drawing of a key.] As there are many keys to the kingdom of God the following one will detect Satan when he transforms himself nigh unto an angel of light When Satan appears in the form of a personage unto man & reaches out his hand unto him & the man takes hold of his hand & feels no substan[c]e he may know it is Satan for an angel of God (which is an angel of light) is a Saint with his resurrected body & when he appears unto man & offers him his hand & the man feels a substance when he takes hold of it as he would in shaking hands with his neighbour he may know it is a Angel of God. & should a Saint appear unto man whose body is not resurrectd he will never offer him his hand for it would be against the law by which they are governd & by observing this key we may detect Satan that he decieve us not

As Reported by Wilford Woodruff–B

Print Sources

JSP		JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

[drawing of two keys] Among the vast number of the Keys of the Kingdom of God Joseph presented the following one to the Twelve for there benefit in there experience & travels in the flesh which is as follows. In order to detect the devel when he transforms himself nigh unto an angel of light. When an angel of God appears unto man face to face in personage & reaches out his hand unto the man <& he> takes hold of the angels hand & feels a substance the same as one man would in Shaking hands with another he may then know that it is an angel of God. & he should place all Confidence in him Such personages or angels are Saints with there resurrected Bodies, but if a personaged appears unto man & offers him his hand & the man takes hold of it & he feels nothing or does not sens any substance he may know it is the devel, for when a Saint whose body is not resurrected appears unto man in the flesh he will not offer him his hand for this is against the law given him & in keeping in mind these things we may detec[t] the devil that he decieved us not.

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP		JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

A [drawing of a key] Key to detect Satan

As there are many Keys to the Kingdom of God the following one will detect Satan when he transforms himself nigh unto an Angel of Light. When Satan appears in the form of a personage unto man &— reaches out his hand unto him & the man takes hold of his hand & feels no substance he may know it is satan. for an angel of God (which is an angel of light) is a saint with his resurrected body & when he appears unto man and offers him his hand & the man feels a substance when he takes hold of it as he would in shaking hands with his neighbor he may know it is an Angel of God, & should a Saint appear unto man whose body is not resurrected he will never offer him his hand for it would be against the law by which they are governed & by observing this Key we may detect Satan that he deceive us not

Discourse, 2 July 1839

As Reported by Wilford Woodruff–A

Print Sources

JSP		JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a The following important items & plain & preciius principles were delivered unto the Twelve from Joseph in Montrose Ioway Territory July 1st [2nd] 1839
- b Ever keep in exercise the principle of mercy & be ready to forgive our brother on the first intimations of repentance & asking forgiveness, & should we even forgive our brother or Even our Enemy before they repent or ask forgiveness our heavenly father would be equally as merciful unto us. Again let the Twelve & all Saints be willing to confess all ~~there~~ their Sins & not keep back a part & let the twelve be humble & not be exalted & beware of pride & not seek to excell one above another but act for each others good & pray for one & another & honour ~~over~~ our brother or make honourable mention of his
- c name & not backbite & devour our brother. why will not man learn wisdom by precept at this late agee of the world where we have such a cloud of witnesses & Examples before us & not be obliged to learn by sad experianc [experience] every thing we know. must the new ones that are chosen to fill the places of those that are fallen of the quorum of the Twelve begin to exalt themselves untill they exhalt themselves so high that they will soon tumble over & have a great fall & go wallowing through the mud & mire & darkness Judas like to the buffatings of Satan as several of the quorum of the Twelve have done or will they learn wisdom & be wise. (O God give them wisdom & keep them humble I pray
- d When the Twelve or any other witnesses stand before the Congragations of the Earth & they preach in the power & demonstratio[n] of the spirit of God & the people are asstonised [astonished] & confounded at the doctrin & say that that man has preached a powerful discours a great sermon then let that man or those men take care that they do not ascribe the glory unto themselves but be careful that they are humble & ascribe the praise & glory to God & the Lamb for it is by the power of the Holy Priesthood & Holy Ghost they have power thus to speak: what art thou O man but dust & from wholm dost thou receive thy power & blessing but from God Then O ye Twelve notice this [drawing of a key] key & be wise for Christ-sake & your own sols sake
- e Ye are not sent out to be taught but to teach. let every word be seasoned with grace be vigilant be sober. it is a day of warning <[[exhorting]]>¹ & not of many words. act honest before God & man beware of gentile Sophestry such as bowing & scraping unto men in whom you have no confiden[c]e be honset open & frank, in all your intercourse with mankind.
- f O ye Twelve & all Saints profit by this important Key [drawing of a key] that in all your trials troubles, temptations; afflictions, bonds, imprisonment, & death see to it that you do not betray heaven, that you do not betray Jesus Christ, that you do not betray your Brethren, that you do not betray the Revelations of God, whether in the Bible Book of Mormon or Doctrins & Covenants or any other that ever was or ever will be given & revealed unto man in this world or that which is to come, yea in all your kick[i]ng & floundering see to it that you do not this thing lest innocent Blood be found in your skirts & you go down to hell. all other sins are not to be compared to sining against the Holy Ghost & proving a traitor to thy
- g brethren (A final [drawing of a key] key delivered from Joseph in the following language.) I will give you one of the keys of the mysteries of the kingdom. It is an Eternal principle that has existed with God from all Eternity that that man who rises up to condemn others & finding fault with the Church saying that they are out of the way while he himself is righteous, then know assuredly that that man is in the high road to apostacy & if he does not repent will apostatize as God live, the principle is as correct as the one that Jesus put forth in saying that ~~that person~~ he who seeketh after a sign is an adulterous person & that principle is <Eternal> undeviating & firm as the pillars of heaven for whenever you see a man seeking after a Sign you may set it down that he is an adulterous man.

¹JSP note: "TEXT: Transliteration from Pitman shorthand: 'k-s-o-r-t,' with the beginning "e" and the ending 'ing' implied to render 'exhorting.'"

As Reported by Wilford Woodruff–B

Print Sources

JSP		JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Joseph arose & presented some precious things of the kingdom unto us in the power of the Holy Ghost, yea precious principles that ought to be engraven upon our hearts & practiced in our lives, some of which are as follows. Ever keep in exercise the principles of mercy & be ready to forgive our brother on the first intimations of repentance & asking forgiveness & should we even forgive our brother or our enemy before they ask it our heavenly father would be equally as merciful unto us, & also we ought to be willing to repent of & confess all of our own sins & keep nothing back, & let the Twelve be humble & not be exalted & beware of pride & not seek to excell one above another but act for each others good & honorably make mention of each others name in our prayers before the Lord & before our fellow men, & not backbite & devour our brother. Why will not man learn wisdom by precept & example at this late age of the world & not be obliged to learn every thing
- b we know by sad experiance. Must the new ones that are chosen to fill the places of those that are fallen of the quorum of the Twelve, begin to exhalt themselves untill they get so high that they will tumble over & have a great fall & go wallowing through the mud, mire, & darkness Judas like to the buffatings of Satan as several of the Twelve have done, or will they learn wisdom & be wise (O God give them wisd[o]m & keep them humble I pray) When the Twelve or any other witness of Jesus Christ stands befor the congregations of the earth & they preach in the power & demonstration of the Holy Ghost & the people are asstonished & confounded at the doctrin & say that that man has preached a powerful discours a great sermon then let that man or those men take care that they do not ascribe the glory unto themselves but be careful that they are humble & ascribe the praise & glory to God & the Lamb for it is by the power of the Holy Priesthood & the Holy Ghost that
- c they have power thus to speak. What art thou O man but dust & from wholm dost thou received thy power & blessings but from God, then O ye Twelve notice this [drawing of a key] key & be wise for Christ sake & your own souls sake. Ye are not sent out to be taught but to teach let every man be Sober be vigilant & let all his words be seasoned with grace & keep in mind that it is a day of warning & not of many words. Act honest before God & man beware of gentile sophestry such as bowing & scraping unto men in wholm you have no confidence, be honest open & frank in all your intercourse with mankind
- d O ye Twelve and all saints, profit by this important Key [drawing of a key] that in all your trials, troubles &, temptations, afflictions bonds imprisonment & death see to it that you do not betray heaven, that you do not betray Jesus Christ. that you do not betray your Brethren, & that you do not betray the revelations of God whether in the bible, Book of Mormon, or Doctrine & Covenants or any of the word of God. yea in all your kicking, & floundering see to it that you do not this thing lest innocent blood be found in your skirts & you go down to hell. We may ever know by this sign that there is danger of our being led to a fall & aposticy, when we give way to the devil so as to neglect the first known duty but whatever you do do not betray your Friend

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP		JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Items from Joseph to the Twelve
The following important items and plain & precious principles were delivered unto the Twelve from Joseph in Montrose, Iowa. Territory July 1 1839

Mercy &c.

- Ever keep in exercise the prin[c]iple of mercy and be ready to forgive our brother on the first intimations of repentance & asking forgiveness & should we even forgive our brother or even our enemy before they repent or ask forgiveness our heavenly father would be equally as merciful unto us. Again let the twelve & all saints be willing to confess all their sins & not keep back a part & let the Twelve be humble & not be exalted & beware of pride & not seek to excell one above another but act for each others good & pray for one & another & honor our brother or make honorable mention of his name. and not
- b backbite & devour our brother. Why will not man learn wisdom by precept at this late age of the world when we have such a cloud of witnesses and examples before us and not be obliged to learn by sad experience every thing we know. Must the new ones that are chosen to fill the places of those that are fallen of the Quorum of the Twelve begin to exalt themselves until they exalt themselves so high that they will soon tumble over and have a great fall. & go wallowing through the mud & mire & darkness Judas like to the buffetings of Satan as several of the Quorum have done or will they learn wisdom & be wise. (O god give them wisdom & keep them humble I pray)
- c (Great Sermons) when the Twelve or any other witnesses stand before the congregations of the earth & they preach in the power & demonstration of the Spirit of God & the people are astonished & confounded at the doctrine & say that man has preached a powerful discourse, a great Sermon. then let that man or those men take care that they do not ascribe the glory [glory] unto themselves. but be careful that they are humble & ascribe the praise & glory to God & the Lamb for it is by the power of the Holy Priesthood & Holy Ghost. they have power thus to speak. What art thou O man but dust & from whom dost thou receive thy power & blessings but from God. Then O. ye Twelve notice this [drawing of a key] Key & be wise for christs sake & your own souls sake——
- d Gentile Sophistry Ye are not sent out to be taught but to teach. let every word be seasoned with grace, be vigilant be sober. It is a day of warning & not of many words, Act honest before God & man. Beware of Gentile Sophistry such as bowing & scraping unto men in whom you have no confidence. Be honest open and frank in all your intercourse with man kind
- e [drawing of a key] Key. Betray not
O. ye Twelve & all saints profit by this important Key, that in all your trials, troubles, temptations: afflictions, bonds imprisonments & death se[e] to it that you do not betray heaven, that you do not betray Jesus Christ, that you do not betray your Brethren, that you do not betray the Revelations of God. whether in the Bible, Book of Mormon or Doctrines & Covenant or any other that ever was or ever will be given & revealed unto man in this world or that which is to come. Yea in all your kicking & flounderings see to it that you do not this thing lest innocent blood be found in your skirts & you go down to Hell, All other sins are not to be compared to sinning against the Holy Ghost. & proving a traitor to thy brethren.
- f A [drawing of a key] Key. Finding fault with the church
(A final key deliverd by Joseph in the following Language)
I will give you one of the keys of the mysteries of the kingdom. It is an eternal principle that has existed with God from all Eternity that that man who rises up to condemn others. finding fault with the Church. saying that they are out of the way while he himself is righteous. then know assuredly that that man is in the high road to apostacy and if he does not repent will apostatize as God lives The principle is as correct, as the one that Jesus put forth in saying that he who seeketh a sign is an adulterous person. & that principle is Eternal undeviating & firm as the pillars of heaven. for whenever you see a man seeking after a sign you may set it down that he is an adulterous man.

As Reported by William Clayton

Print Sources

JSP		JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

Keys.

O ye Twelve and all saints profit by this important key [image of a key] that in all your trials, troubles, temptations, afflictions, bonds, imprisonments, and death, see to it that you do not betray heaven, that you do not betray Jesus Christ, that you do not betray your brethren, that you do not betray the revelations of God, neither in the Bible, Book of Mormon or Doctrine & Covenants or any other that ever was or ever will be given and revealed unto men in this world, or in the world to come, yea in all your kickings and floundering see to it that you do not this thing, lest innocent blood be found in your skirts, and you go down to hell. All other sins are not to be compared to sins against the Holy Ghost and proving a traitor to thy brethren.

b

A final [image of a key] key delivered by Joseph Smith in the following language:

I will give you one of the keys of the mysteries of the kingdom, it is an eternal principle that has existed with God from all eternity: that, that man who rises up to condemn others, finding fault with the church, saying that they are out of the way, while he himself is righteous, then know assuredly that that man is in the high road to apostacy and if he does not repent will apostatize as God lives. The principle is as correct as the one that Jesus put forth in saying that he who seeketh after a sign is an adulterous person; and that principle is eternal, undeviating and firm as the pillars of heaven; for whenever you see a man seeking after a sign, you may set it down that he is an adulterous man.

Discourse, between circa 26 June and circa 2 July 1839

As Reported by Wilford Woodruff

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

Other important items of doctrins from Joseph given in Commerce Ill.

~~The pure testimony of the servnts of God in all ages of the world is attended with the spirit of Revelation & prophecy, or in other words faith comes by hearing the word of God & the~~¹

On the doctrins of faith

Faith comes by hearing the word of God through the testimony of the Servants of God that Testimony is always attended by the spirit of prophecy & Revelation.

Repentance

Is a thing that cannot be trifled with every Day. Daily transgression & daily repentance is not that which is pleasing in the sight of God

Baptism

Is a Holy ordinance preparatory to the reception of the Holy Ghost; It is the Channel & Key by which the Holy Ghost will be administered. The gift of the Holy Ghost by the laying of on of hands cannot be received through the medium of any other principle than the principle of righteousness for if the proposals are not complied with it is of no use but withdraws

b

Tongues

Were given for the purpose of preaching among those whose language is not undertstood as on the day of Pentecost &c. & it is not necessary for tongues to be taught to the Church particularly, for any man that has the Holy Ghost can speak of the things of God in his own tongue as well as to speak in another. for faith comes not by signs but by hearing the word of God The doctrin of the Resurrection of the Dead and Eternal judgment are necisary to preach among the first principles of the gospel of Jesus Christ

c

The Doctrin of Election

¹JSP note: "Woodruff canceled this section with an X after apparently deciding to organize his notes by topic."

St Paul exhorts us to make our calling & Election shure. This is that Sealing Power spoken of by Paul in other places See Ephe 1st 13–14. vs that we may be sealed up unto the day of redemption, this principle ought (in its proper place) to be taught for God hath not revealed any thing to Joseph but what he will make known unto the Twelve & even the least saint may know all things as fast as he is able to hear them for the day must come when no man need say to his neighbour know ye the Son for all shall know him (who remain) from the least to the greatest How is this to be done. it is to be done by this sealing power & the other Comforter spoken of which will be manifest by Revelation. There is two comforters spoken of, the first Comforter is the Holy Ghost the same as given on the day of Pentecost & that all Saints recieve after faith, Repentance, & Baptism. This first Comforter or Holy Ghost has no other affect than pure intelligence It is more powerful in expanding the mind enlightening the understanding & storing the intellect with present Knowledge of a man who is of the litteral Seed of Abram that than one that is a gentile though it may not have half as much visible affect upon the body for as the Holy Ghost falls upon one of the literal seed of Abram it is caml [calm] & serene & his Whole soul & body are only exercised by the Pure spirit of Intelligence. While the affect of the Holy Ghost upon a gentile is to purge out the old blood & make him actually of the seed of Abram That man that has none of the Blood of Abram (naturally) must have a new creation by the Holy Ghost in such a case there may be more of a powerful affect upon the body & visible to the eye than upon an Israelite while the Israelite at first might be far before the gentile in pure intelligence. The other Comforter spoken off is a subject of great interest & perhaps understood by few of this generation. After a person hath faith in Christ, repents of his Sins & is baptized for the remission of his Sins & recieves the Holy Ghost (by the laying on of hands,) which is the first Comforter then let him continue to humble himself before God hungering & thirsting after righteousness & living by every word of God, & the Lord will soon say unto him Son thou shalt be exalted, &c. When the Lord has thoroughly proved him & find that the man is determind to serve him at all hazard then the man will find his calling & Election made sure then it will be his privilege to recieve the other Comforter which the Lord hath promised the Saints as is recorded in the testimony of St. John in the XIV ch from the 12 to the 27 vers note the 16-17-18-21:23 verses Now what is this other Comforter is it is no more or less than the Lord Jesus Christ himself & this is the sum & substance of the whole matter that when any man obtains this last Comforter he will have the personage of Jesus Christ to attend him or appear unto him from time to time Even he will manifest the Father unto him & they will take up there abode with him & the visions of the heavens will be opened unto him & the Lord will teach him face to face & he may have a perfect knowledg of the mysteries of the kingdom of God. & this is the state & place where the ancient Saints arived at when they had such glorious visions. Isaiah Ezekiel, John upon the Isle of Patmos, St Paul in the third heavens & all the Saints, who held communion with the general assembly & Church of the first born &c. The spirit of Revelation is in connexion with those blessings. A person may profit by noticeing the first intimations of the spirit of revelation for Instance when you feel pure intelligence flowing unto you it may give you sudden stoks [strokes] of Ideas that by noticing it you may find it fulfilled the same day or soon ie those things that were presented unto your mind by the spirit of God will come to pass & thus by learning the Spirit of God & understanding it you may grow into the principle of Revelation untill you become perfe[c]ted in Christ Jesus.

i An Evangelist

Is a patriarch even the oldest man of the Blood of Joseph or of the seed of Abram whare ever the Church of Christ is established in the Earth there should be a Patriarch for the benefit of the posterity of the Saints, as it was with Jacob in given his patriarchal bles[s]ing unto his Sons &c.

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a Other important items of doctrines from Joseph given in Commerce III^s

On the Doctrines of Faith

Faith comes by hearing the word of God through the testimony of the servants of God, that Testimony is always attended by the Spirit of prophecy & Revelation.

Repentance

Repentance is a thing that cannot be trifled with every day. Daily transgression & daily repentance is not that which is pleasing in the sight of God—

Baptism

Is a holy ordinance preparatory to the reception of the Holy Ghost. It is the channel & Key by which the Holy Ghost will be administer[e]d

The gift of the Holy Ghost by the laying on of hands cannot be recived through the medium of any other principle, than the prin[ci]ple of Righteousness, for if the proposals are not complied with. it is of no use but withdraws.

b

Tongues.

were given for the purpose of preaching among those whose language is not understood as on the day of Pentecost &c, & it is not necessary for tongues to be taught to the church particularly, for any man that has the Holy Ghost, can speak of the things of God in his own tongue, as well as to speak in another, for faith comes not by signs but by hearing the word of God,

The doctrine of the Resurrection of the Dead & Eternal Judgment are necessary to preach among the first principles of the gospel of Jesus Christ.—

c

The Doctrine of Election

St Paul exhorts us to make our calling & Election shure. This is that sealing power spoken of by Paul in other places (See Eph I.13.14. In whom ye also trusted, that after ye heard the word of truth; the gospel of your salvation, in whom also after that ye believed. ye were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise. Which is the earnest of our inheritance, until the redemption of the purchased possession unto the praise of his glory.) That we may be sealed up unto the day of redemption, this principle ought, (in its proper place) to be taught, for God hath not revealed any thing to Joseph, but what he will make known unto the Twelve & even the least Saint may know all things as fast as he is able to.— bear them.¹ for the day must come when no man need say to his neighbor know ye the Lord for all shall know him (who Remain) from the least to the greatest, How is this to be done? It is to be done by this sealing power & the other comforter spoken of which will be manifest by Revelation.

d

There is two Comforters spoken of [one] is the Holy Ghost the same as given on the day of pentecost and that all saints receive ~~often~~ after faith, Repentance & Baptism. This first comforter or Holy Ghost has no other effect than pure inteligence, It is more powerful in expanding the mind enlightening the Understanding & storeing the intellect with present Knowledge of a man who is of the literal seed of Abraham than one that is a gentile though it may not have half as much visible effect upon the body for as the Holy ghost falls upon one of the Literal Seed of Abraham it is calm & serene & his whole soul & body are only exercised by the pure spirit of Inteligence; while the effect <of the Holy Ghost> upon a gentile is to purge out the old blood & make him actually of the seed of Abraham. That man that has none of the blood of Abraham (naturally) must have a new creation by the Holy Ghost, in such a case there may be more of a powerful effect upon the body & visible to the eye than upon an Israelite, while the Israelite at first might be far before the Gentile in pure Inteligence

e

f

The other Comforter spoken of is a subject of great interest & perhaps understood by few of this generation, After a person hath faith in Christ, repents of his sins, & is Baptized for the remission of his sins & receives the Holy Ghost (by the laying on of hands) which is the first Comforter. then let him continue to humble himself before God, hungering & thirsting after Righteousness. & living by every word of God & the Lord will soon say unto him Son thou shalt be exalted, &c When the Lord has thoroughly proved him & finds that the man is determined to serve him at all hazard. then the man will find his calling & Election made sure then it will be his privilege to receive the other Comforter which the Lord hath promised the saints as is recorded in the testimony of St John in the XIV ch from the 12th to the 27 verses Note the 16.17.18.21.23. verses. (16. vs) & I will pray the father & he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever; (17) Even the Spirit of Truth; whom the world cannot receive because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him; but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you & shall be with <in> you, (18) I will not leave you comfortless. I will come to you (21) He that hath my commandments & keepeth them, he it is that loveth me, & he that loveth me shall be loved of my father. & I will love him & will manifest myself to him (23) If a man love me he will keep my words, & my Father will love him, & we will come unto him, & make our abode with him.

g

Now what is this other Comforter? It is no more or less than the Lord Jesus Christ himself & this is the sum & substance of the whole matter, that when any man obtains this last Comforter he will have the personage of Jesus Christ to attend him or appear unto him from time to time. & even he will manifest the Father unto him & they will take up their abode with him, & the visions of the heavens will be opened unto him & the Lord will teach him face to face & he may have a perfect knowledge of the mysteries of the kingdom of God. & this is the state & place the Ancient Saints arrived at when they had such glorious vision Isaiah, Ezekiel, John upon the Isle of patmos, St Paul in the third heavens, & all the saints who held communion with the general Assembly & church of the First Born &c.

¹Note there is a page break in Richards's record after the m-dash.

h The Spirit of Revelation is in connection with these blessings. A person may profit by noticing the first intimation of the Spirit of Revelation for instance when you feel pure Intelligence flowing unto you it may give you sudden strokes of ideas that by noticing it you may find it fulfilled the same day or soon. (I.E,) those things that were presented unto your minds by the Spirit of God will come to pass and thus by learning the Spirit of God. & understanding it you may grow into the principle of Revelation. until you become perfect in Christ Jesus.

i An Evangelist

Is a patriarch even the oldest man of the Blood of Joseph or of the seed of Abraham, wherever the Church of Christ is established in the earth, there should be a patriarch for the benefit of the posterity of the Saints as it was with Jacob. in giving his patriarchal blessing unto his Sons &c.—

Discourse, 7 July 1839

As Reported by Wilford Woodruff

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Joseph addressed us in few words & says remember brethren that if you are imprisoned Brother Joseph has been imprisoned before you, if you are placed where you can only see your Brethren through the grates of a window while in Irons because of the gospel of Jesus Christ remember Brother Joseph has been in like circumstances also after other similar remarks the meeting closed

Discourse, 28 July 1839

As Reported by James Mulholland

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

I spoke & admonished the church individually to set his house in order, to make clean the insid[e of] the platter, and to meet on the next sabbath to partake of sacrament in order that by our obedience to the ordinances, we might be enabled to prevail with God against the destroyer, and that the sick may be healed.

Discourse, between circa 26 June and circa 4 August 1839–A

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a first given To Adam: he obtained to the first Presidency & held the Keys of it, from generation to Generation; he obtained it in the creation before the world was formed as in Gen. 1, 26:28,— he had dominion given him over every living Creature. He is Michael, the Archangel, spoken of in the Scriptures,— Then to Noah who is Gabriel, he stands next in authority to Adam in the Priesthood; he was called of God to this office & was the Father of all living in his day, & To him was Given the Dominion. These men held keys. first on earth, & then in Heaven.— The Priesthood is an everlasting principle & Existed with God from Eternity & will to Eternity, without beginning of days or end of years. The Keys have to be brought from heaven whenever the Gospel is sent.— When they are revealed from Heaven it is by Adams Authority.

b Dan VII Speaks of the Ancient of days, he means the oldest man, our Father Adam, Michael; he will call his children together. & hold a council with them. to prepare them for the coming of the Son of Man. He, (Adam) is the Father of the human family & presides over the Spirits of all men, & all that have had the Keys must Stand before him in this grand Council. This may take place before some of us leave this stage of action, The Son of Man Stands before him & there is given him glory & dominion.— Adam delivers up his stewardship to Christ, that which was delivered to him as holding the Keys of the Universe, but retains his standing as head of the human family.

c The Spirit of Man is not a created being; it existed from Eternity & will exist to Eternity. Any thing created cannot be Eternal & earth, water &c— all these had their existence in an elementary state from Eternity. Our Savior Speaks of Children & Says their angels always stand before my father.

d The father called all spirits before him at the creation of Man & organized them. He (Adam) is the head. & was told to multiply. The Keys were <first> given to him, <& by him to others> he will have to give an account of his Stewardship, & they to him. The Priesthood is everlasting. The Savior. Moses. & Elias— gave the Keys to Peter, James & John on the Mount when they were transfigured before him. The Priesthood is everlasting. without bginning of days or end of years, without Father. Mother &c.—

e If there is no change of ordinances there is no change of Priesthood. Wherever the ordinances of the Gospel are adminesterd there is the priesthood. How have we come at the Priesthood in the last days? They <It> came down, down in regular succession— Peter James & John had it given to them & they gave it up.— Christ is the Great High priest;17 Adam next.— Paul speaks of an the Church coming to an innumerable company of Angels, to God the Judge of all, the spirits of Just men made perfect, to Jesus the mediator of the New Covenant. &c Heb XII, 2 3. I saw Adam in the valley of Ah-dam ondi-ahman— he called together his children & blessed them with a Patriarchal blessing. The Lord appeared in their midst. & he (Adam) blessed them all & foretold what should befall them to the latest generation— See D.C. Sec III 28. 29 par.— This is why Abraham blessed his posterity; he wanted to bring them into the presence of God. They looked for a city, &c,— Moses Sought to bring the children of Israel into the presence of God. through the power of the Priesthood, but he could not. In the first ages of the world they tried to establish the same thing— & there were Elias's raised up who tried to restore these very glories but did not obtain them. <but> (Enoch did for himself & those that were with them Him, but not for the world. J. T.) They prophecied of a day when this Glory would be revealed.— Paul spoke of the Dispensation of the fulness of times. when God would gather together all things in one &c <&>, Those men to whom these Keys have been given will have to be there (I.E. when Adam shall again assemble his children of the Priesthood, & christ be in their midst) the Ancient of Days come &c &c J. T.) And they without us could <cannot> not be made perfect. These men are in heaven, but their children are on Earth. Their bowels yearn over us. God sends down men for this reason, Mat. 13.41. & the Son of man shall send forth his angels &c— All these authoritative characters will come down & join hands in hand in bringing about this work— The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed. the mustard seed is Small but brings forth a large tree. <and the fowls lodge in the branches>

f

g

- The fowls are the Angels. the Book of Mormon perhaps. these thus Angels come down combine together to gather their children, & gather them. We cannot be made perfect without them. nor they without us when these <things> are done the
- h Son of man will descend. the ancient of Days sit.— We may come to an innumerable compa[n]y of Angels have communion with & rece[i]ve instruction from. <them.>— Paul told about Moses's proceedings. Spoke of the Children of Israel being baptized. & he knew this. & that all the ordinances & blessings were in the church. Paul had these things; <&> we may have the fowls of heaven Lodge in the branches &c. The horn made war with the saints, <&> overcame them &c, until the Ancient of Days came, judgment was given to the Saints of the Most High, from the Ancient of Days— the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom— this not only makes us ministers here but in Eternity. Salvation cannot come without Revelation, it is in vain for any one to minister without it.
- i No man is a minister of Jesus Christ. without being a Prophet. No man can be the minister of Jesus Christ, except he has the testimony of Jesus & this is the Spirit of Prophecy. Whenever Sa[l]vation has been administered it has been by Testimony, Men of the present time testify of Heaven & of Hell, & have never Seen either & I will say that no man knows these things without this. Men profess to prophecy. I will prophecy that the signs of the coming of the Son of man are already commencd, one pestilence will dessolate after another. we shall soon have war & bloodshed. The Moon will be turned into blood, I testify
- j of these things. & that the coming of the Son of Man is nigh even at your doors,— If our souls & our bodies are not looking forth for the coming of the Son of Man. & after we are dead if we are not looking forth. &c We shall be among those who are calling for the rocks to fall upon us &c— The hearts of the children of men will have to be turned to the fathers. & the fathers to the children, living or dead, to prepare them for the coming of the Son of Man. If Elijah did not come the whole earth would be Smitten. There will be here & there a stake &c. <for the gathering of the saints> Some may have cried peace. but the Saints & the world will have little peace from henceforth. Let this not hinder us from going to the Stakes, for God has told us to flee not dallying. or we shall be scattered. one here, another there, There your children shall be blessed & you in the
- k midst of friends where you may be blessed. &c The gospel net gathers of every kind, I prophecy that that man who tarries after he has an opportunity of going will be afflicted by the Devil. Wars are at hand we must not delay, but are not required to sacrifice. We ought to have the building up of Zion as our greatest object.— when wars come we shall have to flee to Zion. The cry is to make haste. The last revelation says ye shall not have time to have gone over the Earth until these things come. It will come as did the Cholera. war. & fires burning Earthquake one pestilence after another &c until until the Ancient of Days come then judgment will be given to the Saints.
- l Whatsoever you may hear about me or Kirtland, take no notice of. for if it be a place of refuge the Devil will use his greatest efforts to trap the Saints. You must make yourselves acquainted with those men, who, like Daniel, pray three times a day to the house of the Lord.— Look to the Presidency &c < & rece[i]ve instruction>.— Every man who is afraid. covetous &c will be taken in a snare— The time is soon coming when no man will have any peace but in Zion & her Stakes.
- m I saw men hunting the lives of their own sons, & brother murdering brother, women killing their own daughters & daughters seeking the lives of their mothers. I saw armies arrayed against armies I saw blood. desolations, & fires &c,— The Son of Man has said that the mother Shall be against the daughter, & the daughter against the mother &c, &c.— These things are at our doors. They will follow the Saints of God from City To City— Satan will rage & The Spirit of the Devil is now enraged. &c I know not how soon these things will take place, and with a view of them shall I cry peace? NO! I will lift up my voice & testify of them. How long you will have good crops. & the famin be kept. <off> I do not know. when the fig tree leaves, know then that the summer is night at hand. we may look for Angel[s] &c. < & receive their ministreting> but we are to try the Spirits & prove them <for> it is often the case that men. make a mistake in regard to these things.
- n God has so ordained that when he has communicated, <by vision> no vision is to be taken but what you see by the seeing of the eye or what you hear by the hearing of the ear— When you see a vision &c pray for the interpretation if you get not this, shut it up— There must be certainty. <in this matter> An open vision will manifest that which is more important. Lying spirits are going forth in the Earth.
- o There will be great manifestation of Spirit both false & true. &c. Being born again comes by the Spirit of God through ordinances. An angel of God never has wings. Some will Say that they have seen a Spirit. that he offered them his hand. but they did not touch it. This is a lie. First it is contrary to the plan of God A spirit can not come but in glory. An angel has flesh and bones. we see not their glory. The devil may appear as an angel of light. Ask God to reveal it. if it be of the Devil. he ~~it~~ will ~~of~~ flee from you. if of God he will manifest himself or make it manifest. we may come to Jesus < & ask him> he will know all about it.— If he comes to a little child, he will adapt himself to the <Language &> capacity of a little child— There is no
- p Gold nor silver &c, it is false, all is plain in heaven; every Spirit or vision or singing is not of God. The Devil is an orator, &c: he is powerful: he took our Savior onto a pinnacle of the temple; <&> kept him in the Wilderness for forty days. The gift of discerning Spirits will be given to the presiding Elder. pray for him &c. <that he may have this gift> Speak not in the gift of Tongues without understanding it, or without interpretation, The Devil can speak in Tongues. The Adversary will come with his work, he can tempt all classes Can speak in English or Dutch.— Let no one speak in tongues unless he interpret except by the consent of the one who is placed to preside, then he may discern or interpret or another may. Let us seek for the Glory of Abraham. Noah. Adam. the Apostles have communion with these things and then we shall be among that number when Christ comes.

As Reported by Unidentified Scribe

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Priasthood.—
- The priasthood was first given to Adam, he obtained the first presidency & held the keys of it from generation to generation. He obtained it in th[e] creation, before the world was formed as in Gen <c> 1 <v> 26, 28 he had dominion given him over every living creature; he is Michael the Archangel spoken of in the scriptures— Then to Noah who is Gabriel he stands next in athourity authority to Adam, in the preasthood, he was called of God to this office. & was the father of all living, in this day, & to him was given the dominion, These men held keys first on earth & then in heaven; The priesthood is an everlasting principle & existed with God from eternity & will to eternity, without begining of days or end of years; The keys have to be brought from heaven whenever the gospel is sent.— when they are revealed from heaven it is by adams
- b authority.— Dan^l 7 speaks of the ancient of days he means the oldest man our Father Adam Michael, he will call his children, together & hold a council with them to prepare them for the coming of the son of man, he. (Adam) is the father of the human familey & presides over the spirits of all men. & all that have had the keys must stand before him in this grand council. This may take place before some of us leave this stage of action. The son of man stands before him, and there is given him glory & dominion— Adam delivers up his stewardship to Christ, that which was delivered to him as the keys of the universe but
- c retains his standing as head of the human family.— The spirit of man is not a created being, it existed from eternity & will exist to eternity, anything created cannot be eternal. Air. Earth, water, all these, had their existance in an elementary state from eternity. Our Saviour speaks of children & says their angels allways stand before my Father.—
- d The father called all spirits before him at the creation of man & organized them he (Adam) is the head & was told to multiply—
- The keys were given to him. he will have to give an account of his stewardship & they to him— The priesthood is everlasting. The Saviour, Moses, & Elias gave the keys to Peter. James. & John. on the mount, when they were transfigured
- e before him. The priesthood is everlasting, without beginning of days or end of years without Father Mother &c. If there is no change of odanances, their is no change of priesthood, whenever the ordanances of the gospel are administered there is the priesthood. How have we come at the priesthood, in the last days— they came down in regular suscession. Peter James & John had it given to them, & they gave it up. Christ is the great High Priest. Adam next. Paul speaks of the church coming to an innumarable company of Angels to God the Judge of all <the> spirits of just men made perfect, to Jesus the Mediator of the new covenant &c Heb 12 23 I saw Adam in the valley of Adam Ondi Ahman, he called together his children & blessed, them, with a patriarchal blessing, The Lord appeared in their midst. he (Adam) blessed them all & foretold what should befall them to the latest generation. see DC. sec 3 P 28. 29.— this is why Abraham blessed his posterity. He wanted to bring
- f them, into the presance of God. They looked for a City &c. Mosses sought to bring the children of Israel into the presence of God, through the power of the preasthood but he could not. In the first ages of the world, they tried to establish the same thing, & then was Elias raised up who tried to restore these very Glories, but did not obtain them (Enoch did for himself & those that were with him, but not for the world J T) They prophesied of a day when this glory, would be revealed. Paul spoke of the dispensation of of the fullness of times; when God would gather together all things in one &c. Those men to whom these keys have been given will have to be there (I E When Adam shall again assemble his children of the preasthood
- g & Christ be in their midst the ancient of days come &c &c J T) & they without us could not be made perfect. These men are in heaven, but there children are on Earth their bowels yearn over illegible us. God sends men down for this reason Matt 13— 41 & the sons of man shall send forth his angels &c All these authoritative characters will come down & join hand in hand, in bringing about this work. The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed: The mustard seed is small but brings forth a large tree. The fowls are the angels the Book of Morman perhaps thus Angels come down combine together to gather their children & gather them, we cannot be made perfect without them, nor they without us, when these are done the son of man
- h will desend, the ancient of days sit. We may come to an innumerable company of angels have communion with & recieve instruction from— Paul had these things, we may, & have the fowls of the heaven lodge in the branches.— The horse made war with the saints overcome them &c untill the ancient of days, and judgement was given to saints of the most high from

- the ancient of days the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom It not only makes us ministers here but in eternity—
- i Salvation cannot come without revelation; it is in vain for any one to minister without it. no man is a minister of Jesus Christ without being a prophet. no man be the minister of Jesus Christ except he has the testimony of Jesus, & this is the spirit of prophecy. Whenever salvation has been administered, it has been by testimony. Men at the present time testify of heaven & hell & have never seen either & I will say that no man knows these things without this, men profess to prophecy I will prophecy that the signs of the coming of the son of man are allready commenced one pestilence will desolate after another We shall soon have war & bloodshed, the moon will be turned to blood. I testify of these things & that the coming of the son
 - j of man is nigh, even at your doors.— if our souls & our bodies are not looking forth for the comming of the son of man & after we are dead if we are not looking forth we shall be among those who are calling for the rocks to fall upon us &c. The hearts of the children¹

As Reported by William Clayton

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Priesthood.
The priesthood was first given to Adam, he obtained the first presidency and held the keys of it from generation to generation; he obtained it in the creation before the world was formed as in Gen. 1— 26, 28, he had dominion given him over every living creature. He is Michael the Archangel spoken of in the scriptures. Then to Noah who is Gabriel, he stands next in authority to Adam in the priesthood. He was called of God to this office, and was the father of all living in his day and to him was given the dominion. These men held keys first on earth and then in heaven. The priesthood is an everlasting principle and existed with God from eternity, and will to eternity, without beginning of days or end of years. The keys have to be brought from heaven whenever the gospel is sent. When they are revealed from heaven it is by Adam's authority. Daniel 7. speaks of the Ancient of Days, he means the oldest man our Father Adam, Michael. He will call his children together and hold a council with them to prepare them for the coming of the Son of man. He (Adam) is the father of the human family and presides over the spirits of all men, and all that have had the keys must stand before him in this great council. This may take place before some of us leave this stage of action. The Son of man stands before him and there is given him glory and dominion. Adam delivers up his stewardship to Christ, that which was delivered to him as holding the keys of the Universe, but retains his standing as head of the human family.
- b
- c The spirit of man is not a created being, it existed from eternity and will exist to eternity. Anything created cannot be eternal. Air, earth, water, all these had their existence in an elementary state from eternity. Our Savior speaks of children and says "their angels always stand before my father."
- d The Father called all spirits before him at the creation of man and organized them— he (Adam) is the head and was told to multiply. The keys were given to him;— he will have to give an account of his stewardship and they to him. The priesthood is everlasting. The Savior, Moses and Elias, gave the keys to Peter, James and John on the mount, when they were transfigured before him. The priesthood is everlasting without beginning of days or end of years, without Father, Mother, &c^c
- e If there is no change of ordinances, there is no change of priesthood. Whenever the ordinances of the Gospel are administered there is the priesthood. How have we come at priesthood in the last days— they come down in regular succession. Peter, James and John had it given to them and they gave it up. Christ is the great High Priest. Adam next. Paul speaks of the church coming "to an innumerable company of angels, to God the judge of all: the spirits of just men made perfect, to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant" &c^c Heb. 12— 23. I saw Adam in the valley of Adam-ondi-ahman, he called together his children and blessed them with a Patriarchal blessing. The Lord appeared in their midst and he (Adam) blessed them all and foretold what should befall them to the latest generation See D. C. Sec. 3— 28, 29. This is why Abraham blessed his posterity. He wanted to bring them into the presence of God; they looked for a city &c. Moses sought to bring the children of Israel into the presence of God through the power of the priesthood; but he could not. In the first ages of the world they tried to establish the same thing, and then were Elias raised up who tried to restore these very glories but did not obtain them. (Enoch did for himself and those that were with him but not for the world, J. T.) They prophesied of a day when this glory would be revealed. Paul spoke of the dispensation of the fulness of times when God would gather together all things in one &^c. Those men to whom these keys have been given will have to be there (I. E. when Adam shall again assemble his children of the priesthood and Christ be in their midst the ancient of days come &^c &^c J. T.) and they without us could not be made perfect. These men are in heaven but their children are on earth, their bowels yearn over us. God sends down men for this reason Matt. 13— 41 and the Son of man shall send forth his Angels &^c. All these authoritative characters will come down and join hand in hand in bringing about this work. The Kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed; the mustard seed is small but brings forth a large tree. The fowls are the Angels, the Book of Mormon perhaps. Thus Angels come down combined together to gather their children and gather them. We cannot be made perfect without them nor they without us; when these are done, the Son of man will descend, the Ancient of Days sit. We may come to an innumerable company of angels, have communion with and receive instruction from. Paul had these things, we may and have the fowls of the heaven lodge in the branches. The horn made war with the Saints, overcame them &^c, until the Ancient of Days come and judgment was given to the Saints of the Most High from the Ancient of Days; the time came that the Saints possessed the kingdom. It not only makes us ministers here but in eternity. Salvation cannot come without revelation; it is in vain for any one to minister without it. No man is a minister of Jesus <Christ without being a prophet. No man> can be the minister of Jesus Christ <except he has kept every> except he has the testimony of Jesus, and this is the spirit of prophecy. Whenever salvation has been administered it has been by testimony. Men at the present time testify of heaven and hell and have never seen either, and I will say that no man knows these things without this. Men profess to prophecy. I will prophecy that the signs of the coming of the Son of man are already commenced, one pestilence will desolate after another. We shall soon have war and bloodshed, the moon will be turned to blood. I testify of these things and that the coming of the Son of man is nigh, even at your very doors. If our souls and <our> bodies are not looking forth for the coming of the Son of man and after we are dead if we are not looking forth we shall be among those who are calling for the rocks to fall upon us &^c. The hearts of the children will have to be turned to the fathers and the fathers to the children living or dead to prepare them for the coming of the Son of Man. If Elijah did not come the whole earth would be smitten. There will be here and there a Stake &^c. Some may have cried peace but the saints and the world will have little peace from henceforth. Let this not hinder us from going to the Stake; for God has told us to flee not or we shall be scattered, one here another there.
- f

¹JSP note: "This is the end of the extant pages in this collection of discourses."

There your children shall <be> blessed and you in the midst of friends where you may be blessed &^c. The Gospel net gathers in of every kind. I prophesy that the man who tarries after he has had an opportunity of going will be affected by the Devil. Wars are at hand— we must not delay but we are not required to sacrifice. We ought to have the building up of Zion as our greatest object. When wars come we shall have to flee to Zion, the cry is to make haste. The last revelation says ye shall not have time to have gone over the earth until these things come. I will come as did the cholera, war and fires, burning, earthquakes, one pestilence after another &^c until the Ancient of Days come, then judgment will be given to the Saints.

Whatever you may hear about me or Kirtland take no notice of, for if it be a place of refuge the Devil will use his greatest efforts to trap the Saints. You must make yourselves acquainted with those men who like Daniel pray three times a day to the hour of the Lord. Look to the Presidency &^c Every man who is afraid, covetous &^c will be taken in a snare. The time is soon coming when no man will have any peace but in Zion and her Stakes. I saw men hunting the lives of their own sons and brother murdering brother, women killing their daughters and daughters seeking the lives of their mothers. I saw armies arrayed against armies. I saw blood, desolation and fires &^c. The Son of Man has said that the mother shall be arrayed against the daughter and the daughter against the mother &^c, &^c; these things are at our doors, they will follow the Saints of God from city to city. Satan will rage; the spirit of the Devil is now enraged &^c. I know not how soon these things will take place, and with a view of them shall I cry peace, No! I will lift up my voice and testify of them. How long you will have good crops and the famine be kept I do not know. When the fig trees lean know then that the summer is nigh at hand. We may look for angels &^c, but we are to try the spirits and prove them. It is often the case that men make a mistake in regard to these things. God has so ordained that when he has communicated no vision to be taken but what you see by the seeing of the eye, or what you hear by the hearing of the ear. When you see a vision &^c pray for the interpretation, if you get not this shut it up. There must be certainty. An open vision will manifest which is more important. Lying spirits are going forth in the earth. There will be great manifestations of spirits both false and true &^c. Being born again comes by the Spirit of God through ordinances. An Angel of God never has wings. Some will say that they have seen a spirit, that he offered them his hand but they did not touch it; this is a lie for it is contrary to the plan of God. A spirit cannot come but in glory. An Angel has flesh and bones, we see not their glory. The Devil may appear as an angel of light. Ask God to reveal it; if it be of the Devil he will flee from you, if of God he will manifest himself or make it manifest. We may come to Jesus, he will know all about it. If he comes to a little child he will adopt himself to the language and capacity of a little child. There is no gold nor silver &^c it is false all is plain in heaven. Every spirit and vision or singing is not of God. The Devil is an orator &^c; he is powerful, he took our Savior to a pinnacle of the Temple and kept him in the wilderness for forty days. The gift of discerning spirits will be given to the presiding Elder, pray for him &^c. Speak not in the gift of tongues without understanding it, or without interpretation. The Devil can speak in tongues. The adversary will come with his work, he can tempt all classes, can speak in English or Dutch. Let no one speak in tongues unless he interpret except by the consent of one who is placed to preside, then he may discern or interpret, or another may. Let us seek for the glory of Abraham, Noah, Adam, the apostles, have communion with these things and then we shall be among that number when Christ comes.

Discourse, between circa 26 June and circa 4 August 1839–B

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

Parables.

Behold a sower went forth to Sow &c Our Savior is the sower; the people are the world; the harvest is the end of the world; the reapers are the angels The end of the world is not come, consequently the Harvest. The harvest cannot come without Angels; The Son of man is to send forth his Angels. The Son of Man Said that the Saints shall Judge the world & Angels.— God has revealed himself. when they come up before God they will be asked did this Angel perform this or that. that he was sent to do. if not they will be judged— The world judgd—

b

Some fell among thorns &c— God sows— The enemy comes & Sows parties divisions. heresies; Shall we kill them? NO. not till harvest— The end of the world. The Son of God will do as he ever has done from the beginning. Send forth his Angels. If the reapers do not come, the wheat cannot be Saved. Nothing but the Kingdom being restored, can save the world. Like unto a treasure hid in a field. This figure is a representation of the [kingdom]¹ in the last days.

c

Michael = Adam. Noah. I am Gabriel— Well says I. Who are you? I am Peter, the Angel flying through the midst of heaven Moroni delivered the book of Mormon. The pearl of great price is the inheritance prepared for the Saints. Sell all you have got, purchase &c. What is the end of the world? the destruction of the wicked. The Angels have begun to be revealed. They shall bind up the testimony Like unto a merchantman buying goodly Pearls A net that gathers of every kind. The wheat gathered into barns; the tares left on the field to be burned. The Net gathers in of every kind. Those who held Keys were more concerned about their children than themselves. It happens to be our Lot to live in a day when this takes place.

As Reported by William Clayton

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

Behold a sower went forth to sow &c.

¹JSP note: "Missing text supplied from a version of this discourse in Nuttall, 'Extracts,' 27." (They are referring to the William Clayton account of this discourse.)

Our Savior is the sower— the people are the world— the harvest is the end of the world— the reapers are the angels. The end of the world is not come consequently the harvest cannot come without angels. The Son of man is to send forth his angels. The Son of man says that the Saints shall judge the world and angels. God has revealed himself. When they come up before God they will be asked, did this angel perform this or that, that he was sent to do, if not they will be judged— the world judged.

- b Some fell among thorns, &c. God sows— the enemy comes and sows parties, division, heresies,— shall we kill them— No, not till harvest, the end of the world. The Son of God will do as he ever has done from the beginning— send forth his angels. If the reapers do not come the wheat cannot be saved. Nothing but kingdom being restored can save the world. Like unto a treasure hid in a field— this figure is a representation of the kingdom in the last days. Michael, Adam, Noah— I am Gabriel,— well says I who are you, I am Peter the angel flying through the midst of heaven. Moroni delivered the Book of Mormon.
- c The Pearl of great price is the inheritance prepared for the Saints — sell all you have get purchase &c. What is the end of the world— the destruction of the wicked, the angels have begun to be revealed, they shall bind up the testimony. Like unto a Merchant man buying goodly pearls; a net that gathers of every kind; the wheat gathered into the barn; the tares left on the field to be burned. The net gathers in of every kind. Those who hold keys were more concerned about their children than themselves it happens to be our lot to live in a day when this [takes] place.

Discourse, between circa 26 June and circa 4 August 1839–C

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a It is the privilege of the children of God to come to God & get Revelation. XIV John Let not your heart be troubled &c, There are a great many Mansions in my Father's house. I am going to prepare one for you rather Better than common. It is the privilege of the sons of God to inherit the same Mansion &c. When any person receives a vision of Heaven, he Sees things that he never thought of before. if we should tell of different glories as Paul did. in my fathers house are many Mansions.
- b every man that receives the Gospel receives that inheritance that the Apostles did. Every one that hath seen me hath Seen the Father. He that believeth, any person that believes the works that I do shall he do also & greater works. The Father could not be glorified in the Son on any other principle than we coming to God. asking. receiving. heavens open visions &c.— they are done away because of unbelief— I will pray the Father & he shall send you another Comforter. There is one Comforter & another Comforter to abide with you forever, reach to things within the vail. know that you are Sealed. If you get it, it will
- c stand by you forever. How is it to be obtained? Keep my commandme[n]ts & I will pray &c.— It is a privilege to view the son of man himself, he dwelleth with you & Shall be in you. his Spirit shall be in you. I will not leave you comfortless, I will come to you, abide with you forever, Seal you up to Eternal life. yet a little while & ye shall see me no more, but ye see me.— He that hath my commandments & keepeth them. he it is that loveth me &c— I will manifest myself to him. If
- d he does not he has not told the truth. I will put promises in your heart. that will not leave you ~~but~~ that will ~~not~~ Seal you up. we may come to the general assembly & church of the first born, Spirits of Just men made perfect, unto Christ. The innumerable company of Angels are those that have been ressurected from the dead. the Spirits of Just men made perfect are those without bodies. It is our privilege to pray for & obtain these things.
- e How wilt thou manifest thyself to us & not to the world? evidently knowing that it would be so that he would manifest himself.
- f There was no cholera, no mobs before this came. I told them that rejoiced in Mobs that they Should have them, they have since come in torrents. they did not receive the testimony of the Servants of God. If a man love me he will keep my words. & my father will love him. & we both me & my father will take our abode with him. There are certain characters that walked with God. saw him, conversed about heaven &c But the comforter that I will send. (not the other Comforter) shall teach you all things.— Who?— He that loveth me &c— This shall bring all things to remembrance whatsoever things I have said unto g you. he shall teach you until ye come to me & my father. God is not a respecter of persons. we all have the Same privilege. Come to God weary him until he blesses you &c— we are entitled to the Same blessings. Jesus, Revelations, Just men, &c— Angels &c. &c. not Laying again the doctrine of Christ go on to perfection. Obtain that holy Spirit of promise— Then you can be sealed to Eternal Life.— [2/3 page blank]

As Reported by William Clayton

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a It is the privilege of the children of God to come to God and get revelation. John 14 ch. 1. Let not your hearts be troubled &c There are a great many mansions in my father's house, I am going to prepare one for you rather better than common. It is the privilege of the sons of God to inherit the same mansion &c When any person receives a vision of heaven he sees things that he never thought of before. If we should tell of different glories as Paul did— in my father's house there are many
- b mansions— every man that receives the gospel receives that inheritance that the Apostles did. Everyone that hath seen me hath seen my Father. He that believeth— any person that believes the works I do shall he do also, and greater works. The Father could not be glorified in the Son on any other principle than we coming to God— asking, receiving, heavens open, visions &c They are done away because of unbelief. I will pray the Father and he shall send you another comforter to abide
- c with you forever reach to things within the vail. Know that you are sealed if you get it it will stand by you forever; how is it to be obtained? Keep my commandments and I will pray &c

It is a privilege to receive the Son of Man himself, he dwelleth with you and shall be in you. I will not have you comfortless. <His spirit shall be in you.> I will come to you, abide with you forever, seal you up to eternal life. Yet little while and you shall see me no more but ye see me. He that hath my commandments and keepeth them he it is that loveth me

- d &c I will manifest myself to him; if he does not he has not told the truth. I will put promise in your hearts that will not leave you, that will seal you up.

- We may come to the general assembly and church of the first-born— spirits of just men made perfect; unto Christ. The innumerable company of Angels are those that have been resurrected from the dead. The spirits of just men made perfect are
- e those without bodies. It is our privilege to pray for and obtain these things. How will thou manifest thyself unto us and not to the world evidently knowing that it would be so that he would manifest himself. There was no cholera, no mobs, before this came. I told them that rejoice in mobs that they should have them. They have since come in torrents, they did not receive
- f the testimony of <the son of> God. If a man love me he will keep my words and my Father will love him, and we both me and my Father will take our abode with him. There are certain characters that walked with God— saw him, conversed about heaven &c; but the comforter that I will send (not the other comforter) shall teach you all thing— who? he that loveth me &c This shall bring all things to your remembrance whatsoever thing I have said unto you; he shall teach you until you come to
- g me and my Father. God is not a respecter of persons; we all have the same privilege— come to God, weary him until he blesses you &c— all are entitled to the same blessings— Jesus, revelations just men, Angels &c, &c, not laying again the doctrine of Christ go on unto perfection. Obtain that holy Spirit of promise when you can be sealed to eternal life.

Letter to Isaac Galland, 11 September 1839

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Commerce III, 11th Sept^r 1839
- Dear Brother [Isaac] Galland
- We have had the great pleasure of recieving your favour of 24th July, and learning thereby that you and your family had arrived at Chillicothe in safety and in health. We percieve that you have had rather a narrow escape from serious accident, and doubtless the hand of the Lord is to be acknowledged in the matter, although unpercieved by mortal eye.
- b Time and experience will teach us more and more, how easily falsehood gains credence with mankind in general, rather than the truth— but especially in taking into consideration the plan of salvation; the plain simple order of the gospel of Jesus Christ— never has been discerned nor acknowledged as the truth except by a few, among whom were “not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble”— whilst the majority have contented themselves with their own private opinions, or have adopted those of others according as their address their philosophy, their formula, their policy or their finesse may have attracted their attention or pleased their taste.
- c But Sir of all the other criterions whereby we may judge of the vanity of these things, one will be always found true, viz: that we will always find such characters glorying in their own wisdom, and their own works, whilst the humble saint, gives all the glory to God the Father and to his son Jesus Christ, whose yoke is easy and whose burthen is light— and who told his disciples that unless they became like little children— they could not enter the Kingdom of Heaven.
- d As to the situation of the Church here, matters go with us as well as can <reasonably> be expected, we have had considerable sickness amongst us, but very few deaths, and as the greater part are now recovering, we yet hope to have shelters provided before the winter shall set in.
- Since you left here we have purchased out all M^r Hotchkiss [Horace Hotchkiss’s] interest hereabouts— his farm we have laid out additional to our Town Nauvoo— and the Town of Commerce we hope also to build up.
- e Some of the “Twelve” And others have already started for Europe, and the remainder of that mission we expect will go now in a few days.— According to intelligence recieved since you left, the work of the Lord rolls on in a very pleasing manner, both in this and in the old country.— In England many hundreds have of late been added to our numbers; but so—even so it must be, for, “Ephraim he hath mixed himself with the among the people”. And the Saviour hath said “my sheep hear my voice” and also “he that heareth you heareth me”. And, “Behold I will bring them <again> from the north country and gather them from the coasts of the earth[”] &c &c And as John heard the voice saying “come out of her my people”, even so must all be fulfilled, that the people of the Lord may live when “Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen”.
- f There has quite a number of families gathered up here a gathered up here already and we anticipate a continuance, especially as upon enquiry we have found that we have not had more than a ratio of sickness here, notwithstanding the trials we have had, and the hardships to which we have been exposed.
- Calculating as we do upon the mercy and power of God in our behalf we hope to persevere on in every good and useful work even unto the end that when we come to be tried in the balance, we may not be found [p. 72] wanting.—
- With all possible good wishes and prayers for the temporal and eternal salvation of yourself and <your> family—as well as of all the honest in heart over the face of the earth— we remain Sir with sincerity— Your friends and brethren.—

Joseph Smith Jr

Isaac Galland Esqr
Kirtland
Geauga Co— Ohio

Discourse, 29 September 1839

As Reported by James Mulholland

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Spoke and explained concerning uselessness of preaching to the world about great judgements but rather to preach the simple gospel— Explained concerning the coming of the son of Man &c that all will be raised to meet him but the righteous will remain with him in the cloud whilst all the proud and all that do wickedly will have to return to the earth, and suffer his vengeance which he will take upon them this is the second death &c &c
- b Also that it is a false idea that the saints will escape all the judgements whilst the wicked suffer— for all flesh is subject to suffer— and “the righteous shall hardly escape” still many of the saints will escape— for the just shall live by faith— yet many of the righteous shall fall a prey to disease to pestilence &c and yet &c by reason of the weakness of the flesh and yet be saved in the kingdom of God So that it is an unhallowed principle to say that such and such have transgressed because they have been preyed upon by disease or death for all flesh is subject to death and the Saviour has said, “Judge not “lest ye be judged”.

Minutes and Discourses, 5–7 October 1839

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

TS December 1839

Text

- a The President then spoke at some length upon the situation of the Church, the difficulties they had had to contend with, and the manner in which they had been led to this place; and wished to know the views of the brethren, whether they wished to appoint this a stake or not, stating that he believed it to be a good place and suited for the saints.
It was then unanimously agreed upon, that it should be appointed a stake and a place of gathering for the saints...
After some remarks from the President respecting observing order and decorum during conference, Elder Lyman Wight, spoke as to the duties of Priests, Teachers, [e]tc.
- b President J. Smith, Jr. then spoke as to appointing a Patriarch and other matters connected with the well being of the church. Having now got through the business matters, the President proceeded to give instructions to the Elders respecting preaching the gospel, and pressed upon them the necessity of getting the spirit, so that they might preach with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven, to be careful in speaking on those subjects which are not clearly pointed out in the word of God, which lead to speculation and strife...¹
The President spoke at some length to the Elders, and explained many passages of scripture...
After having referred the business not gone into, to the high council; the president then returned thanks to the conference for their good attention and liberality; and having blessed them in the name of the Lord, the conference was dismissed...

¹JSP note: “Apparently, this topic was weighing on the minds of church leaders at the time. JS had given a sermon just a few days prior in which he ‘explained concerning uselessness of preaching to the world about great judgements but rather to preach the simple gospel.’ Similarly, a letter from six of the church’s Twelve Apostles, written by July 1839 and published in the November 1839 issue of the Times and Seasons, counseled elders against preaching their own opinions or on speculative subjects: ‘The horns of the beast, the toes of the image, the frogs and the beast mentioned by John, are not going to save this generation.’ Elizabeth Haven, a church member in Quincy, Illinois, stated that some of the elders who attended the conference told her that JS addressed other topics as well, including ‘the kingdom before the foundation of the world.’ According to Haven, ‘he also related some very interesting facts which he has lately translated from the records which came with the Mummies,’ referring to papyri JS obtained when he and others purchased several Egyptian mummies in 1835. (Discourse, 29 Sept. 1839; Brigham Young et al., ‘To the Elders of the Church,’ Times and Seasons, Nov. 1839, 1:13–14; Elizabeth Haven, Quincy, IL, to Elizabeth Howe Bullard, Holliston, MA, 21, 28, and 30 Sept. 1839; 6–9 Oct. 1839, Barlow Family Collection, 1816–1969, CHL; Historical Introduction to Certificate from Michael Chandler, 6 July 1835.)” I have looked for these letters and only one is available in a digital copy (as of 4/14/22).

Letter to Emma Smith, 9 November 1839

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Springfi[e]ld <Ill> November 9th 1839
My Dear Wife
perhaps you may thing [think] strange That we are not further on our Jouny [journey] at this date but I will say that we have done all that we could for the saf[e]ty of Elder [Sidney] Rigdon on account of his week state of hea[l]th and this morning we are under the neeces nesesity of leaveing him at Brother Snyders [John Snider's] and pesueing [pursuing] our Journy without him we think he will soon recover his health as he is not dangerously sick we regret that he cannot go on with us very ~~much~~ much but cannot help ourselves but must commit him into the hands of God and go on being fil[le]d with constant anxiety for our Families and friends behind I shall be filled <with> constant anxiety about you and the
- b children until I hear from you and in a particular maner litle Frederick it was so painful to leave him sick I hope you will wa[t]ch over those tender of[f]springs in a maner that <is> <is> becoming a mother and  saint and try to cutivete [cultivate] their minds and learn <them> to read and be sober do not let <them> be exposed to the wether to take cold and try to git all the rest you can it will be a long and lonesome time and dureing my absence from you and nothing but a sense of humanity could have urged me on to a so great a sacrafice but shall I see so many perish and <not> seek redress no I will try this once in the <name> of the Lord therefore be patient untill I come and do the best you can I cannot write what I want but believe me <my> feelings are of the best kind towards you all my hand cramps so I must close I am
- [Joseph Smith Jr.]
- To Emma Smith

Mrs Emma Smith
Commerce
Hancock
Co
Ill—

Letter to Hyrum Smith and Nauvoo High Council, 5 December 1839

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Washington City Corner of Missouri & 3^d. Street,
Dec 5th 1839.

Dear Brother Hiram [Hyrum Smith]. President and to the Honorable High Council of the Church of Jesus Christ, of latter day Saints. To whom be fellowship, love and the peace of Almighty God extended and the prayer of faith forever and <ever> Amen, Your fellow labourers, Joseph Smith Jr, Elias Higbee and Agents, as well as the servants that are sent by you, to perform one of the most arduous and responsible duties, and also to labour in the most honorable cause that <ever> graced the pages of human existence; and respectfully show by these lines, that we have taken up our cross thus far— and that we arrived in this City on the morning of the 28th. of November, and spent the most of that day in looking up a boarding house which we succeeded in in finding. We found as cheap boarding as can be had in this city.

b On friday morning 29th we proceeded <to> the house of the President— We found a very large and splendid palace, surrounded with a splendid enclosure decorated with all the fineries and elegancies of this world we went to the door and requested to see the President; when we were immediately introduced into an upper apartment where we met the President and were introduced into his parlor, where we presented him with our Letters of introductions;— as soon as he had read one of them, he looked upon us with a kind of half frown and said, what can I do? I can do nothing for you,— if I do any thing, I shall come in contact with the whole State of Missouri— But we were not to be intimidated, and demanded a hearing and constitutional rights— Before we left him he promised to reconsider what he had said, and observed that he felt to sympathise with us on account of our sufferings,— Now we shall endeavor to express our feelings and views concerning the President, as we have been eye witnesses of his Majesty— He is a small man, sandy complexion, and ordinary features; with frowning brow and considerable body but not well proportioned, as his arms and legs— and to use his own words is quite fat— On the whole we think his he is without boddy or parts, as no one part seems to be proportioned to another— therefore instead of saying boddy and parts we say boddy and part, or partyism if you please to call it, and in fine to come directly to the point, he so much a fop or a fool, (for he judged our cause before he knew it,) we could find no place to put truth into him— We do not <say> the Saints shall not vote for him, but we do say boldly, (though it need not be published in the streets of Nauvoo, neither among the daughters of the Gentiles,) That we do not intend he shall have our votes—

d We have spent the remainder of our time in hunting up the Representatives, in order to get our case brought before the house; in giving them Letters of introductions &c, and in getting acquainted— Meeting, of the delegation of the State of Illinois, was appointed to day, to consult for bringing our case before Congress. The Gentlemen from Illinois, are worthy men, and have treated <us> and have with the greatest kindness, and are ready to do all that is in their power— but you are aware brethren that they with us have all the prejudices, superstition and bigotry of an ignorant generation to contend with, nevertheless we believe our case will be brought before the house, and we will leave the event with God— he is our Judge and the avenger of our wrongs— For a general thing there is but little solidity and honorable deportment among those who are sent here to represent the people; but a great deal of pomposity and show— We left Pres^t. [Sidney] Rigdon <and others> on the road and rec^d. a Letter this day from them— They were, at the date of a Letter on the 29th. Nov., near Washington of Pa^a.— expecting to stop a day or two at his brothers, on account of his ill health— He has <occasionally> a chill yet but is not dangerous— We expect him here soon, and and stand in need of his talents here very much.

f We have already commenced forming some very honorable acquaintances— and have thus far been prospered as much as we had anticipated if not more— We have had a pleasing interview with Judge [Richard M.] Young, who proposed to furnish us with expense money—

We can draw on him for funds to publish our book and we want you to raise some more money for us and deposit it in the branch Bank on in Quincy to be drawn to the order of Judge Young.

g Send us the amount of the order your deposit, taking a receipt of the same— You need not be afraid to do this, as <We> think from the proceeds of the sales of books— We can make it all strait: do therefore be punctual, and attend to this matter; as much depends upon it. We cannot accomplish the things for which we were sent without some funds— You very well know brethren we were contented to start, trusting in God with little or nothing— We have met with but one accident since we started— The lock of our trunk was broken off and Bro. Lyman Wight^s. petition is missing, but we presume there is a copy of it preserved; if there is you will please forward it immediately, with the name and affidavit affixed to it. For God^s. sake Bretheren be wide awake, and arm us with all the power possible, for now is the time or never— We want you should get all the influential men you can of that section of country of Iowa and every other quarter to write letters to the members of Congress, using their influence in our behalf, and to keep their minds constantly upon the subject. Please to forward this to our wives in the bonds of the everlasting covenant,

Yours

Joseph Smith J^r
Elias Higbee

P.S.

h Congress has been in session four days and the house of Representatives is not yet organized on account of some seats being contested, in the New Jers[e]y Delegation. They have this day succeeded in electing John Q. Adams to their chair protem; but whether they will git their speaker and clerk chosen is yet unknown, as there is a great deal of wind blown off on the occasion each day— There is such an itching disposition to display their oratory on the most trivial occasions and so i much etiquett, bowing and scraping, twisting and turning to, make a display of their witticism that it seems to us rather a display of folly and show more than substance & gravity, such as becomes a great nation like ours. (however there are some exceptions) A warm feeling has been manifested in the discussion of the house to day, and it seems as much confusion as though the nation had already began to be vexed— We came with one of the Missouri members from Wheeling to this place, who was drunk but once and that however was all <most of> the time; there was but one day but what he could navigate and that day he was keel^d. over so he could eat no dinner— The horses ran away with the stage, they ran about 3 miles; several pasengers jumped out and were hurt, bro.^t Jo^s. clum out of the stage— got the lines and stoped the horses, and also saved the life of a lady & child. He was highly commended by the whole company for his great exertions and presence of mind through the whole affair.— E. Higbee jumped out of the stage at a favourable moment, just before they stoped with a j view to assist in stop[p]ing them and was but slightly injured— We were not known to the stage company until after our arrival, In our interview with the President, He interogated us wherein we differed in our religion from the other religions of the day. Bro, Joseph said we differed in mode of baptism and the gift of the Holy Ghost by the laying on of hands— We considered that all other considerations were contained in the gift of the Holy Ghost, and we deemed it unnecessary to make many words in preaching the Gospel to him— Suffice it to say he has got our testimony— We watch the Post Office like a Turkey Buzzard <watches for> carcase, but have rec^d no letters from our sections of the Country— Write instantly

Yours with respect
J. S J^r
E H

Letter to Seymour Brunson and Nauvoo High Council, 7 December 1839

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a Washington City, Corner of Missouri & 3^d. Street
Dec. 7th. 1839

To Seymour Brunson, and the honorable high Council of the Church of Jesus Christ of latter day Saints, Your humble servant Joseph Smith J^r. and Elias Higbee again address you for the purpose of informing you of our proceedings here in relation to our business and prospects of success. We deem it unimportant to say any thing in relation to our journey, arrival & and interview with his Excellency the President of these United States; as they were mentioned in a Letter lately addressed to Pres^t. Hyrum Smith and the high Council. We mentioned in that letter the appointment of a meeting to <be> held by the Illinois Delegation to consult upon the best measures of getting our business brot before Congress They met yesterday in one of the committee rooms of the Capitol. All the Delegation except the Ex Govener [John] Reynolds were present, who is now one of the Representatives in Congress and on account of whose absence the meeting was adjourned untill to day at 11 o'clock: however the subject was partially introduced,— and M^r. [John M.] Robinson took a stand against us so far as concerned our presenting claims to be liquidated by the United States—

b We took a stand against him, asserting our constitutional rights— Bro. Joseph maintained the ground in argument against him firmly, and respectfully setting forth the injuries that we have received and the appeals that we have made to the Judiciary of Missouri and also the Govenor: their refusals from time [to] time to do us justice: also the impracticability of doing any thing in the Judiciary Courts of Missouri— which tribunal M^r. Robinson thought was the only proper place for our claims, but he finally said, it was his first impression on the subject; not having considered the matter, but would take it into further consideration,

Judge [Richard M.] Young of the Senate made some remarks in our favor, saying he would get the opinion of some of the prominent members of the Senate, who were also Lawyers, and would report to us at the next meeting.

We met this day according to appointment & very friendly feelings were manifested, on the occasion.

- c Our business were taken up, and Judge Young stated that he had asked the opinion of Judge [Hugh L.] White Tennessee. of Mr Wright, and several other members; whose names we do not recollect, but were prominent members of the Senate— They all declined going giving an opinion at present, as it was a matter that they had not considered sufficiently to decide upon at this time, The meeting then after some deliberation decided in our favor, which decision was that a memorial and petition be drawn up in a concise manner, (our Representatives promising so to do,) and Judge Young present them to the Senate, that they might thereby refer it to the proper committee, with all the accompanying documents, and order the same to be printed,—
- d We want you to assist us now by your prayers; and also to forward us your certificates, that you hold for lands in Missouri; your <claims to> preemption claims rights, and affidavits to prove that soldiers were quartered on us and in our houses without our consent, or any special act of law for the purpose: contrary to the constitution of the United States. We think bro, [Alanson] Ripley, & others, will recollect the circumstances and facts relative to this matter— You will also recollect the circumstance of Bro, Joseph & others being refused the privilege of habeas corpus by the authorities of Missouri,
- e These facts must be authenticated by affidavits— Let any particular transaction of the outrages in Missouri that can be sworn to by the sufferers, or those who were eye witnesses to the facts, be sent; specifying the particulars: Have the evidence bonafide to the point, The house of Representatives, is not yet organized: much feeling and confusion have prevailed in the House for a few days past: the house succeeded in electing John Q Adams chairman protem on 5th inst. They have not yet elected their speaker or clerk— The Senate can do nothing of consequence until the House is organized; neither can the President's <Message> until then be received— We design taking a paper and forwarding it to you.

Your Brethren in the bonds of the everlasting covenant
 Jos. Smith Jr
 Elias Higbee

Letter to Saints Scattered Abroad, 8 December 1839

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Commerce November, 1839.
- To the Saints scattered abroad, in the region westward from Kirtland Ohio.*
- Beloved Brethren, feeling that it is our duty, as the servants of God, to instruct the saints from time to time, in those things which to us appear to be wise and proper: therefore we freely give you, a few words of advice at this time.
- We have heard it rumoured abroad, that some at least, and probably many, are making their calculations to remove back to Kirtland next season.
- b Now brethren, this being the case, we advise you to abandon such an idea; yea we warn you, in the name of the Lord, not to remove back there, unless you are counseled so to do by the first Presidency, and the high council of Nauvoo. We do not wish by this to take your agency from you; but we feel to be plain, and pointed in our advice for we wish to do our duty, that your sins may not be found in our skirts. All persons are entitled to their agency for God has so ordained it.— He has constituted mankind moral agents, and given them power to cho[o]se good or evil; to seek after that which is good, by pursuing the pathway of holiness in this life, which brings peace of mind, and joy in the Holy Ghost here, and a fullness of
- c joy and happiness at his right hand hereafter; or to pursue an evil course, going on in sin and rebellion against God, thereby bringing condemnation to their souls in this world, and an eternal loss in the world to come. Since the God of heaven has left these things optional with every individual, we do not wish to deprive them of it. We only wish to act the part of faithful watchmen, agreeably to the word of the Lord to Ezekiel the prophet, Ezekiel 33 chap. 2 3 4 5 and 6 verses, and leave it for others to do as seemeth them good.— Now for persons to do things, merely because they are advised to do them, and yet murmur all the time they are doing them, is of no use at all; they might as well not do them.
- d There are those who profess to be saints who are too apt to murmur, and find fault, when any advice is given, which comes in opposition to their feelings, even when they, themselves, ask for counsel; much more so when council is given unasked for, which does not agree with their notion of things; but brethren, we hope for better things from the most of you;

we trust that you desire counsel, from time to time, and that you will cheerfully conform to it, whenever you receive it from a proper source.

It is very probable, that it may be considered wisdom for some of us, and perhaps others, to move back to Kirtland, to attend to important business there: but notwithstanding that, after what we have written, should any be so unwise as to move back there, without being first counselled so to do, their conduct will be highly disapproved.

Done by order and vote of the first Presidency and high council for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, at Nauvoo Dec. 8th 1830 [1839].

H[enry] G. SHERWOOD, Clerk.

Letter to Robert D. Foster, 30 December 1839

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

JERSEY CHURCH, NEAR WARRENTON [Warrington Township],
December 30th, 1839.

DEAR BROTHER: I received a letter from you and one from President [Sidney] Rigdon which gave me much satisfaction. I have had a very good visit in this place and enjoyed myself very agreeably. I have preached and bore testimony several times in this city. The church in Philadelphia number about forty-five members, and there were four or five more candidates this morning when I left the city. We came away this morning before the postoffice was open and probably missed of hearing further from you. I was glad to hear that Pres. Rigdon is gaining further in health, and trust that it will please God to restore him again speedily to health, so that he may be able to attend to the duties which necessarily devolve on him in that place, and also that his voice may be once more heard among the congregations of the saints, and also among those that are not yet saints. He would be a very welcome visitor in Philadelphia and the rest of the churches in this region. I think a great work will yet be done in Philadelphia. Our meeting house is very much crowded with attentive hearers and there are no doubt many believers from the favorable expressions, friendly treatment and good feelings which they manifest towards myself and the brethren. I have many invitations to visit private families in almost every part of the city, many more than I can possibly attend to. I am at this time surrounded by a good circle of brethren, sisters and friends. I hope you will by the help of God be able to succeed in Washington to the utmost of your expectations in bringing many from darkness to light, and that the deaf may hear the words of the book, that they who erred in judgment may come to understanding, and they that murmured may learn doctrine, and that the fear of God may not be taught by the precepts of men but accorded to the will of God. I expect you will write to us as usual. I have been laboring here so constant that I have not been able to write to you, and Judge [Elias Higbee] has been here but a short time. He has been engaged in writing the affidavit that President Rigdon has called for. We have our wagon and horses in Jersey. We found no sale for them in Philadelphia, hence we have brought them here. P[arley] P. Pratt has arrived in this city. He has brought some books here. He has got a new work published of some poems, with a treatise on the eternity of matter. etc., etc. Brother O[rson] Pratt is also here, and is on his way to New York. Judge says that he is glad you have remembered him and is obliged for the advice you gave, and that you have such compassionate feelings toward him. Brother [Benjamin] Winchester is here in New Jersey with us. He has stemmed the torrent like a good soldier for the cause. In New York there are about 160 members. We expect to hold ourselves in readiness to go before the committee. Also P. P. Pratt. You will therefore write concerning the time when you expect the business will be before the committee. We have just received an account going the rounds of the newspapers concerning my person, etc., which perhaps you have seen. They have a good opinion of my sincerity, and upon the whole the piece is not so bad as might be expected. Some of the twelve are on their way to England Brother [Wilford] Woodruff, Brother Tailor [John Taylor] and Brother Furley [Theodore Turley]. You may send me letters to Philadelphia, and we will take them out in masses, and when we get it I am in hopes the blockade will be raised in the west, so that we may get a shower of letters. It seems the trouble still continues between the Iowa and Missouri. The priests in Philadelphia are very mute. We understand they have advised the people to search the scriptures, which, if they do, will be to our advantage. I pray God that you may have wisdom given you to conduct wisely in all things pertaining to your operations in the ministry. We are going to hold a couple of meetings here, and then expect to return to Philadelphia Saturday or Monday. Mr. Bangor, a clergyman in the city, has manifested great friendship towards and has invited me to make his house my home while I remain in the city, and he thinks he will get the Universalist church, a large building, for me to preach in. Be assured of our love to yourself and President Rigdon, as ever.—Seattle (W. T.) Chronicle.

e

1840

Joseph Smith

Introduction to 1840

sdf

Blessing to James Ivins, 7 January 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Patria[r]chal Blessing of James Ivins
- Dear Brother, I lay my hands upon thy head in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. and bless thee with a Patriarchal Blessing: in virtue of the Authority of the Holy Priesthood invested in me; and thou shall be blessed. Thy children also shall be blessed in the earth, and they shall min[i]ster to the children of men with power and Great glory, and thine eyes shall see it, thou shall be blessed with long life, and live to a good old age; and <thou> shall see thy childrens children unto the (second or third) generation for thou hast a blessed family and they shall be blessed in the earth, unto the latest generation
- b and thou shalt hear the voice of the Son of Man saying unto thee, Son they sins are forgiven thee And Angles Shalt minister unto thee, because of the honesty of thy heart, before the Lord; and it shall come to pass, that in after time the holy Preisthood shall be sealed upon thine head; and thou shall be blessed in thy basket and in thy store, and in thy soul, and in thy body, in thy goings out and in thy comings in. and the Lord will bless thee in the Land and thou shall be found at the right hand of God. the Ancient of days shall stretch forth his hand to receive thee and thou shall minister before him, I now bless thee with ~~the blessing~~ the blessing of Abraham & Isaac and of Jacob——
- and now I seal thee up ~~into~~ <unto> eternal life; and pronounce these blessing upon thy head in the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, even so Amen——
- Jan 7th 1840
- By Joseph Smith Jr, First President of the Church of Jesus Christ, of Latter Day Saints——

Discourse, 13 January 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Brother Joseph Smith Jr dilated at some length on the offices of the Priesthood and on the duties of Elders Bishops. Priests. &c and directed it should be entered on the minutes as the injunction of the Presidency that travelling Elders should be especially cautious of incroaching on the ground of stationed & presiding Elders and rather direct their efforts to breaking up and occupying new ground and that the Churc[h]es generally refuse to be burthened with the support of unprofitable and dilatory labourers. It was unanimously resolved that this be received as the will and wish of the Conference.

Letter to Editor, 22 January 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Brandywine Chester Co Pa Jan. 22^d 1840
- Faith of the Latter Day Saints on Governments and Laws in general
Mr Editor Sir
- For as much as many false rumors are a broad in the world concerning my self and the faith which I profess and that my belief with regard to Earthly governments and laws in general may not be miss interpreted nor miss understood I have thought proper to present for your consideration and for the consideration of the public (if you will do me the favour.) through your valuable and interesting paper my opinions concerning the same
- b First I believe that governments were instituted of God for the benefit of man and that he holds men accountable for ~~their~~ their acts in relation to them Either in making laws or administering them for the good and Safety of Society
- <Secondly> I believe that no goverment can exist in peace except such laws are framed and held inviolate as will secure to each individual the free exercise of conscince the right and controll of property and the protection of life
- <Third> <I> We believe that all governments necessarily require civel officers and magistrates to inforce the Laws of the Same and that such as will administer the Law <of the Same> in equity and justice should be sought for and upheld by the voice of the people (if a republick) or the will of the Sovreign
- c <Fourth> I believe that a religion is ~~instiuted~~ instituted of God and that men are amenable to him <and to him onley> onley for the exercise of it unless their religious opinion prompts them to infringe upon the rights and <liberty> ~~privalegs~~ <privaleges> of others But I do not believe that human Law has a right to interfear in prescribing rules of worship to bind the conciences of men nor dictate forms for public or private devotion That the civel magistrate should restrane crime but never controll conscience should punish guilt but never supress the freedom of the <soul>
- d <5> I believe that all men are bound to sustane and uphold the respective Governments in which they reside while protected in their inherent and in alienable rights by the Laws of such Governments and that Sedition and rebellion are unbecoming every Citizen thus prote[c]ted and should be punished accordingly and that all Governments have a right to enact such laws ass in their own judgements are best calculated to secure the public interest at the same time <however> holding sacred the freedom of conscience
- e <6> I believe that every man should be honoured in his station Rulers and magistrates as such being plalaced [placed] for the protection of the inocent and the punishment of the guilty and that to the Laws all men owe respect and deference as with out them peace and harmony would be supplanted by anarchy and ~~confusion~~ terror human Laws being instituted for the express purpuss of regulating our interests as individuals and Nations between— man and man and divine laws given of heaven prescribing rules on spiritual concerns for— faith and worship both to be answered by man to his maker
- f <7> I believe that rulers states and ~~and~~ governments have a right and are bound to enact Laws for the protection of all Citizen in the free exercise of their religious belief But I do not believe that they have a right in justice to deprive Citizens of this privilege or proscribe them in their opinions so long as a regard and reverence ~~are is~~ is Shown to the Laws and such religious opinions do not justify Sedition nor conspiracy
- g <8> I ~~do not~~ believe that the commission of crime should be punished according to the nature of the offence that murder treason Robbery theft and the breach of the general peace in all respects should be punished according to their criminalty and their tendancy to evil among men by the Laws of that Government in which the offence is committed and for the public

peace and tranquility all men should step forward and use their ability in bringing the offenders aggainst good laws to justice punishment

<9> I do not believe it just to mingle religious influence with civel government whereby one religious Society is fostered and an other proscribed in its spiritual privileges and the individual rights of its members as citizens denied

h <10> I believe that all religious Societ Society Societies have a right to deal with its <their> members for disorderly conduct according to the rules and regulations of such societies provided that such dealing be for fellowship and good Standing but we <I> doo not believe that any religious Society has authority to try men for <on> the right of property or life to take away <from them> this world's goods or put them in Jopardy either life or limb neither to inflict any fisical [physical] punishment upon them They can onley excommunicate them from their society and with their with draw their <from their> fellowship

i <11> I believe that men should appeal to the Civel law for redress of all wrongs and grievences where personal abuse is inflicted or the right of propperty or character infringed where such laws exist as will protect the Same but we <I> believe that all men are Justified in defending thems Selves their friends and property and the government from <the> unlawful assaults and encroachments of all persons in times of exigincies where immediate appeal cannot be— made to the Laws and relief afforded

j <12> I believe it just to preach the Gospel to the Nations of the Earth and warn the Righteous to Save themselves from the corruptions of the world But I do not believe it right to interfear with bond Servants neither preach the gospel to nor baptize them contrary to the will and wish of their masters nor to meddle with or influence them in the least contrary to the wish to cause them to be dissatisfied with their Sittuations in this life theirby jeopardiseing the lives of men Such interfearence we I believe to be unlawful and unjust and dangerous to the peace of every government allowing human beings to be held in Servitude

k <13> It has been reported by some vicious or de[s]igning characters that the church of Latter Day Saints believe in having their pro[p]erty in common and also the leaders of sade church controlls Said propperty— This is a base fabrication without the least the least shadow or collering of any thing to make it out of but on the contrary no persons feelings can be more repugnant to such a principle than mine6 Every person in this Church has a right to controll his own propperty and is not required to do any thing except by his own free voluntary act That he may impart to the poor according to the requirement of the gospel. "Give to him that asketh thee and from him that would borrow of thee turn <not> thou not away" I Math 5 chap 42. v.

l I believe in liveing a virtuous upright and holy life before God and feel it my duty <to> perswad [persuade] all men in my power to do the same: That they may ciase [cease] to do evil and learn to do well and brake off from their Sins by Rigteousness

I close this by subscribing my self yours mo[st] obedient Servent

Joseph Smith Jr—

Letter to Emma Smith, 20–25 January 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Pheadelpha <Chester Co Pa> [January] 20th 1840

My Dear and beloved Wife

I recieved a letter from Hiram [Hyrum Smith] which cheared my heart to learn that my Family was all alive yet my heart mourns for those who have been taken from us but not without hope for I shall see them again and be with them therefore we can be more reconciled to the dealings of God I am now makeing all hast[e] to arange my business to start for home I feel very anxious to see you all once more in this world the time seems long that I am deprived of your sosiety but the <lord> being my helper I will not be much longer I am determind to st[art] for home in a few dayes our [bus]iness I expect is before the house of congress now <and> I shall shall start for Washington in a few days and from there home as soon as posible I am filled with constant anxiety and shall be until I git home I pray God to spare you all untill I git home my dear Emma my heart is intertwined around you and those little ones I want <you> to remember me tell all the children that I love them and will come home as soon as soon as I can yours in the bonds of love your Husband until [until] Death &c—

Joseph Smith Jr

Emma Smith

<25>

Emma Smith
Commerce
Hancock Co
County
Ill—<◇◇◇ Han
Jany 29th>

Discourse, 5 February 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

(Note that I have added the first and last paragraphs, which are not in the JSP entry.)

Text

- a I went last Evening, to hear Joe Smith, the celebrated Mormon, expound his doctrine. I, with several others, had a desire to understand his tenets, as explained by himself. He is not an educated man; but he is a plain, sensible, strong minded man. Every thing he says is said in a manner to leave an impression that he is sincere. There is no levity—no fanaticism—no want of dignity in his deportment. He is apparently from 40 to 45 years of age; rather above the middle stature, and what you ladies would call a good looking man. In his garb there are no peculiarities; his dress being that of a plain, unpretending citizen. He is by profession, a farmer; but is evidently well read.
- b He commenced, by saying, that he knew the prejudices which were abroad in the world against him; but requested us to pay ~~to~~ <no> respect to the rumors which were in circulation respecting him and his doctrines. He was accompanied by three or four of his followers. He said—“I will state to you our belief, so far as time will permit.”
- I believe, said he, that there is a God, possessing all the attributes ascribed to him by Christians of all denominations. That he reigns over all things in Heaven and on Earth; and that all are subject to his power. He then spoke, rationally, of the attributes of Divinity, such as foreknowledge; mercy, &c &c
- c He then took up the Bible. I believe, said he, in this sacred volume— In it the Mormon faith is to be found. We teach nothing but what the Bible teaches. We believe nothing but what is to be found in this Book
- I believe in the fall of man, as recorded in the Bible. I believe that God fore-knew every thing; but did not fore-ordain every <thing>. I deny that fore-ordain and fore-know is the same thing. He fore-ordained the fall of man: But all merciful as he is, he fore-ordained, at the same time, a plan of redemption for all mankind. I believe in the Divinity of Jesus Christ, and that he died for the sins of all men, who in Adam had fallen
- d He then entered into some details, the result of which tended to shew his total unbelief of what is termed Original Sin. He believes that it is washed away by the blood of Christ, and that it no longer Exists. As a necessary consequence, he believes that we are all born pure and undefiled. That all children dying at an Early [age] (say eight years) not knowing good from ill, ~~from~~ were incapable of sinning; and that all such assuredly go to Heaven.
- e I believe, said he, that a man is a moral, responsible, free agent, that although it was fore-ordained he should fall and be redeemed; yet after the redemption it was not fore-ordained that he should again sin. In the Bible a rule of conduct is laid down for <him>. In the Old and New testaments the law by which he is to be governed may be found. If he violates that law, he is to be punished for the deeds done in the body

- f I believe that God is Eternal. That he had no beginning and can have no End. Eternity means that which is without beginning or End. I believe that the Soul is Eternal. It had no beginning; it can have no End. Here he entered into some Explanations, which were so brief that I could not perfectly comprehend him. But the idea seemed to be that the Soul of man—the Spirit, had Existed from Eternity in the bosom of Divinity, and so far as he was intelligible to me, must ultimately return from whence it came
- g He said very little of rewards and punishments. But one conclusion, from what he did say, was irresistible. He contended throughout, that every thing which had a beginning must have an Ending; and consequently, if the punishment of man commences in the next world, it must, according to his logic and belief have an End
- h During the whole of his address, and it occupied more than two hours, there was no opinion or belief that he Expressed, that was calculated, in the slightest degree, to impair the morals of Society, or in any manner to degrade and brutalize the human species. There was much in his precepts, if they were followed, that would soften the asperities of man towards man, and that would tend to make him a more rational being than he is generally found to be. There was no violence; no fury; no denunciation. His religion appears to be the religion of meekness; lowliness, and mild persuasion.
- i To <Towards> the close of his address, he remarked that he had been represented as pretending to be a Saviour, a Worker of Miracles, &c. All this was false. He made no such pretensions. He was but a man, he said— a plain untutored <man>; seeking what he should do to be saved. He performed no miracles. He did not pretend to possess any such power
- j He closed by referring to the Mormon Bible, which, he said, contained nothing inconsistent or conflicting with the Christian Bible. And he again repeated,
- that all who would follow the precepts of the Bible whether Mormon or not, would assuredly be saved. Throughout his whole address, he displayed, strongly, a spirit of Charity and Forbearance
- The Mormon Bible, he said, was communicated to him, direct from Heaven. If there was such a thing on Earth, as the Author of it, then he (Smith) was the Author; but the idea that he wished to impress was, that he had penned it as dictated by God.
- k I have taken some pains to explain this man’s belief, as he himself explained it. I have done so, because, I thought it might satisfy your curiosity, & might be interesting to you and some of your friends. I have changed my opinion of the Mormons. They are an injured and much abused people. Of matters of Faith, you know I express no opinion.
- I have only room to add—let William, if you cannot do it acknowledge the receipt of this, with the inclosure. Remember me to Sarah and the Boys. Kiss the dear Baby for me. Affectionately, your Husband
- M. L. Davis
- l I omitted to say, he does not believe in infant baptism, sprinkling but in immersion, after eight years of age

Discourse, 1 March 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a After engaging in prayer to the Most High, and reading a chapter of sacred writ, he commenced his discourse. He told his people he was their servant; that they had a right to know all the incidents of his journey; he would therefore endeavor to give them a minute account. He did not like to preach politics on the Sabbath; but he must free his mind,—must tell the whole story.
- b The object of his visit at Washington, you well know, was to make application to Congress for relief, touching their troubles in Missouri. But to the discourse. He said, on his arrival in Washington, he, with two of his Elders, ([Sidney] Rigdon and [Elias] Higbee,) called on Mr. [Martin] Van Buren at the “White House” with a letter of introduction, and after making known to him the object of their visit, and soliciting him to help them, Mr. Van Buren replied; “Help you! how can I help you? All Missouri would turn against me.” But they demanded of Mr. Van Buren a hearing, and he, after listening a few moments to their tale of injured innocence, abruptly left the room. After waiting some time for his return, they were under the necessity of departing, disappointed, and chagrined.

c He thought Mr. Van Buren treated them with great disrespect and neglect. He said while they were with Mr. Van Buren, a member of Congress waited upon him, and in conversation, among other things, told the President that he (the President) was getting fat. The President replied that he was aware of the fact; that he had to go every few days to the tailor's to get his clothes let out, or purchase a new coat. The "Prophet" here added, at the top of his voice,— he hoped he would continue to grow fat, and swell, and, before the next election, burst!

d He felt at home in the White House, and, while there, thought he began to swell a little himself. He felt that he had a perfect right there, as much right as Van Buren, because it belonged to the people, and he was one of the people.

He spoke of the success attending his preaching in the Eastern cities; that the people en masse in many places were converted to the Mormon faith. That the striplings which they had sent from this wilderness to preach to the wise men and priests of the great cities, were accomplishing mighty things for the church, by confounding the learned priests.

e On one occasion, he said, six ministers attended a meeting where a little Mormon fellow was preaching, and undertook to put him down by ridicule: but he stood his ground, and whipped them all out, by fair argument; and the congregation acknowledged en masse that he whipped them all.

Here this spiritual discourse was brought to a close, by a violent shower of rain. After making an appointment to deliver the conclusion, the Prophet dismissed the meeting.

Minutes and Discourse, 6 March 1840

As Reported by Elias Smith

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a ...President Joseph Smith Jun. then addressed the Council on various subjects, &, in particular, the Consecration Law; Stating, that the affair now before Congress was the only thing that ought to interest the saints at present. & till it was ascertained how it would terminate no person ought to be brought to account before the constituted authorities of the Church for any offence whatever, & was determined that no man should be brought before the Council in Nauvoo till that time &c. &c.

b He said that the Law of consecration could not be kept here, & that it was the will of the Lord that we should desist from trying to keep it, & if persisted in it would produce a perfect abortion, & that he assumed the whole responsibility of not keeping it untill proposed by himself. He requested every exertion to be made to forward affidavits to Washington, & also letters to members of Congress.

The following votes were then passed.

1st. that this Council will coincide with Pr. Joseph Smith jr. decision concerning the consecration Law, on the principle of its being the will of the Lord, & of Pr. Smith's taking the responsibility on himself...

As Reported by John Smith

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

March 6th 1843 1840

Met to in Council Joseph & Hyrum [Smith] present who informed us that thus Saith the <Lord> you need not observe the Law of Consecration untill our case was Decided in Congress also to be very mild in our Difficulties with each other not have any trials in council if it could be avoided would to Lord that we could be at peace among ourselves

Letter to Elias Higbee, 7 March 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Letter written by Elias Smith, with postscript of approval by JS.

Text

- a ...I am instructed by the unanimous voice of the Church here to request you not to give an inch in any position that has been taken; especially in relation to our damages, the amount of which we think has been estimated full low, and if an offer should be made to remunerate us for our Lands at entry price, or any thing short of the full amount claimed in any particular— to treat such offer with proper contempt. Our rights we ask for; our rights we want, and must have of the
- b Government of the United States: And nothing short of that can be received. We demand them upon constitutional premises, and expect to [be] heard in our appeal to the General Government, and answered in a manner which shall be honorable to the guardians, of the rights and privileges of American citizens; who compose that honorable body, and acceptable to those who have been persecuted, Smitten, and driven from their peaceful habitations, in violation of the Constitution, and of the natural and unalienable rights of man—
- c Our cause will unquestionably be strongly opposed by such, relentless, unfeeling and unprincipled demagogues as, [Thomas Hart] Benton, and others of the “Golden humbug”, firm of Vanburen [Martin Van Buren] & co. who have disgraced the American character, by their subserviency to a s[c]heme of [s]peculations and political fraud, The sole aim of whom has been, to aggrandize themselves, at the expence of the labouring class of community, and to enrich the few at expence of the many. As regardless of honor, honesty; or the rights of man, as Bonapart, Nero, or Caligula— I sincerely hope that every such unprincipled character, will take a decided stand in favor of Bogg’s [Lilburn W. Boggs’s] exterminating decree; as such a course would speak volumes in our favor, and expose them to the just indignation of an abused and injured publick, who will not fail to meet ~~oars~~ out to them a just recompence of reward without distinctions of name, sect or party by applying that peaceable and constitutional corrective, guarenteed to every American citizen, the right of suffrage, if there is virtue enough left in the sons of the revolutionary Fathers, to transmit to their posterity, those inestimable blessings purchased by
- d Fathers at the expense of so much blood and Treasure. With these feelings, and desires, and believing that, that Being, who holds the destinies of nations of the earth in his hands, will overrule all things for the furtherance of the work, which he has set his hands to perform in these days, till the throne shall be cast down, The Ancient of days sit and the Kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the Kingdom under the whole heavens shall be given to the people of the Saints of the most high— Whose kingdom is an everlasting Kingdom, and dominions shall serve and obey him,
- I subscribe myself Yours &c

Elias Smith

Hon E[lia]s Higbee

P.S.

Dear Brother

I heartily concur in the above sentiment

Yours with sentiments

And feelings of the kind best kind
Josiph Smith Jr

Letter to Robert D. Foster, 11 March 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

See Minutes, 20 December 1840

Original Source

Text

- a Nauvoo March 11, 1840.
- Sir,
- After I left you, I came to my bro's house in Plymouth the same day; and there I learned that my father was sick, and that he was not expected to live— had called his children together &c. my Bro. William [Smith] had left home for this place the day before I arrived there. But when I arrived here I found him a little better, but was quite low yet. Since that time, he has been much afflicted with the ague, but is now recovering. With that exception we are all well at present; and it is a general time of health here now.
- b I have delivered two discourses in this place since my return—giving a brief history of our journey the reception we met with by the president &c. and the general feeling towards us in Washington and other places.¹ The effect has been to turn the entire mass of the people, even to an individual, so far as I have learned on the other side of the great political question—
- I find that we have lost nothing by our change; but have gained friends and influence. The fact is, we were compelled to change in consequence of seeing a disposition manifest to turn a deaf ear to the cries of suffering innocence. When we can see a disposition in our chief magistrate to sacrifice the rights of the poor at the shrine of popularity, it is high time to cast off such an individual.
- c After haveing formed an acquaintance with you, and a very intimate one too, for the last 4 months, and I need not say an agreeable one too, I feel quite anxious to see you after a short separation, I hope you can make it convenient to come up and see us soon. I want to get hold of your journal very much.²
- Our Church here is prospering, and many are comeing into it. Our Town is improveing very fast. It is almost incredible to see what amt. of labor has been performed here during the winter past. There is now every prospect of our haveing a good society, a peaceable habitation and a desirable residence here.
- May the Lord prosper our righteous cause, and save us in the day of his comeing!
- As ever,
- I am Your friend And Brother in the New and evelasting Cov't.
- Joseph Smith Jun.
- d Robt. D Foster M. D.
Beverley
Adams Co
Illinois
- P.S. Our Business in Washington has gone before the  committee on <the> judiciary without a dissenting voice. We have recently received two letters from Judge [Elias] Higbee to this effect. He is well, But pres't. [Sidney] Rigdon yet has the chills and fever.

¹JSP note: "JS delivered one of these two discourses in the Commerce area on 1 March 1840. In that discourse, JS stated he felt that President Martin Van Buren had 'treated them with great disrespect and neglect' and that missionaries in the eastern United States were having great success. It is unknown when JS delivered the other discourse. In letters home in late 1839, JS reported that the church's delegates to the federal government were well received by many in Congress and that Washington residents listened to them with great interest. (Discourse, 1 Mar. 1840; Letter to Hyrum Smith and Nauvoo High Council, 5 Dec. 1839; Letter to Seymour Brunson and Nauvoo High Council, 7 Dec. 1839.)"

²JSP note: "JS either had tasked Foster with keeping his journal during their travels throughout the eastern United States or desired to access Foster's journal in order to record the details of the trip in his own personal record. Years later, the compilers of the manuscript history of the church reported JS declaring, 'I depended on Dr Foster to keep my daily journal during this journey but he has failed me.' (Historian's Office, JS History, Draft Notes, 4 Mar. 1840, 5.)"

[page [3] blank]

<11>

Robert D. Foster M. D.

Beverley Post Office
Adams County
Illinois

Commerce Ills
March 13

Minutes and Discourse, 6–8 April 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a ...The president rose and made some observations on the business of the conference; exhorted the brethren who had charges to bring against any individual to be charitable; and made some very appropriate remarks respecting “pulling out the beam in their own eyes, that they might see clearly the mote which was in their brothers eye...
- The President called upon the Clerk to read the report of the Presidency and High council, with regard to their proceedings in purchasing lands and securing a place of gathering for the saints. The report having been read, the President made some observations respecting the pecuniary affairs of the church, and requested the brethren to step forward and assist in liquidating the debts on the town plot, so that the poor might have inheritances.
- b He then gave some account of his mission to Washington city, in company with President [Sidney] Rigdon and Judge [Elias] Higbee, the treatment they received and the action of the Senate on the memorial which was presented to them...
- Conference met pursuant to adjournment, after singing the President arose and read the 3d chap. of John’s Gospel after which prayer was offered by elder Erastus Snow.
- The President commenced making observations on the different subjects embraced in the chapter particularly on the 3d, 4th, 5th verses illustrating it with a very beautiful and striking figure, and throwing a flood of light on the subjects which were brought up to review.
- c He then spoke to the elders respecting their mission, and advised those who went into the world, to preach the gospel, to leave their families provided for, with the necessities of life; and to teach the gathering as set forth in the Holy scriptures.
- That it had been wisdom to, for the greater body of the church to keep on this side of the river, in order that a foundation might be established in this place, but that now, it was the priviledge of the saints to occupy the lands in the Iowa, or wherever the spirit might lead them.
- That he did not wish to have any political influence, but wished the saints to use their political franchise to the best of their knowledge.
- He then stated that since Elder Hyde had been appointed to visit the Jewish people, he had felt an impression that it would be well for Elder John E. Page to accompany him on his mission...

Discourse, 7 April 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a He said that soon after reaching Washington, he called on Mr. [Martin] Van Buren, and asked permission to leave with him the memorial with which he had been entrusted, at the same time briefly stating its contents. Mr. Van Buren's manner was very repulsive, and it was only after his (Smith's) urgent request that he consented to receive the paper and to give an answer on the morrow. The next day Smith again called, when Mr. Van Buren cut short the interview by saying, "I can do nothing for you, gentlemen. If I were to, I should go against the whole state of Missouri, and that state would go against me at the next election." Mr. Smith said he was thunderstruck at this avowal. He had always believed Mr. Van Buren to be a high-minded statesman, and had uniformly supported him as such; but he now saw that he was only a huckstering politician, who would sacrifice any and every thing to promote his re-election. He left him abruptly, and rejoiced, when without the walls of the palace, that he could once more breathe the air of a freeman.
- b

Minutes, 12 April 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a April 12th 1840 The High Council of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints of Nauvoo I^{ll} met in council at the house of J. Smith j^r.
- 1 A charge was preferred against Alonson [Alanson] Ripley by Alva Keller for taking rails from his lot. After the matter had been explained by Pres^t Joseph Smith j^r, the charge was withdrawn.
- 2nd President Joseph Smith j^r spoke relative to Elder Oliver Gran[g]ler's going to the East to settle some business transactions for the church, recommending that the Council should appoint some one to go with him.—
- b 3rd On motion it was voted that Hyrum Smith go with O. Granger to assist him in the aforesaid business transaction.
- 4th Voted that Pres^t Joseph Smith j^r make the necessary credentials for Oliver Granger and Hyrum Smith, concerning their business transactions in the East.—
- Adjourned.

Hosea Stout Clerk Pro tem.—

Recorded on the 14th February 1842 by Hosea Stout Clerk

Letter to Orson Hyde and John E. Page, 14 May 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a

Nauvoo Hancock Co. Ills May 14th 1840

Dear Bretheren

I am happy in being informed by your letter that your mission swells “larger and larger”; it is a great and important mission, and one that is worthy of those inteligen¹ces¹ who surround the throne of Jehovah to be ingaged in; Altho it appears great at present, yet you have but just begun to realize the greatness, the extent and glory of the same. If there is any thing calculated to interest the mind of the saints, to awaken in them the finest sensibilities; and arouse them to enterprise, and exertion, surely it is the great and precious promises, made by our heavenly Father to the children of Abraham; and those engaged in seeking the outcasts of Israel, and the dispersed of Judah, cannot fail to enjoy the Spirit of the Lord, and have the choisests blessings of Heaven rest upon them in copious effusions, Bretheren you are in the path way to Eternal Fame! and immortal Glory; and inasmuch as you feel interested for the covenant people of the Lord, the God of their Father shall bless

b you. Do not be discouraged on accou[n]t of the greatness of the work; only be humble, and faithful, and then you can say, “what art thou, O, great mountain, “before Zerubbable shalt thou be brought down” He who scattered Israel has promised to gather them; therefore, inasmuch as you are to be instrumental in this great work, he will endow you with power, wisdom, might, and inteligen¹ce; and every qualification necessary; while your minds will expand wider and wider, untill you can circumscribe the Earth, & the Heavens, and reach forth into eternity; contemplate the mighty acts of Jehovah, in all their variety & glory

c In answer to your inquiries, respecting the translation and publication, of the Book of Mormon, Hymn Book, History of the church, &c, &c; I would say, that I entirely approve of the same; and give my consent, with the exception of the Hymn Book, as a new edition, containing a greater variety of Hymns, will be shortly published or printed in this place; which, I think will be a standard work

As soon as it is printed, you shall have some to you, which you may get translated, and printed into any language you please. Should we not be able to send some to you, and there should be a great call for Hymns where you are may be; then I should have no objections to your publishing the present one. Were you to publish the Book of Mormon, Doctrine & Covenants, or Hymn Book; I desire the copy rights of the same to be secured in my name.

d With respect to publishing any other work, either original, or those which have been published before, you will be governed by circumstances; if you think necessary to do so I shall have no objections whatever— It will be well to study plainness and simplicity in whatever you may publish “for my soul delighteth in pla[i]nness”.
I feel much pleased with the spirit of your letter, and be assured, Dear Bretheren, of my hearty co-operation, and my prayers for your welfare and sucess.

e In answer to your enquiry in a former letter, relative to the duty of the seventies in regulating churches &c; I say that the duties of the seventies is, more particularly to preach the Gospel, & build up churches, rather than regulate them.— that a high priest may take charge of them.
If a high priest should be remiss in his duty, & should lead, or suffer the church to be led astray; depart from the ordinances of the Lord, then it is the duty of one of the seventies, acting under the special direction of the twelve—being duly commissioned by them with their delegated authority, to go that church and if agreeable to a majority of the members of said church to proceed to regulate and put in order the same— otherwise he can have no authority to act

Memorial to Nauvoo High Council, 18 June 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

¹JSP note: “An 1833 revelation described the eternal nature of ‘inteligen¹ces,’ teaching that ‘man was also in the begining with God, inteligen¹ce or the Light of truth was not created or made neith[er] indeed can be.’ (Revelation, 6 May 1833 [D&C 93:29].)”

Original Source

There is another version of this document which has important changes, especially in the part about translating the documents; see the notes in JSP. I should track this down and get the changes.

Text

- a To the Honorable the High Council of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints
The memorial of Joseph Smith Jr. respectfully represents.
That after the Church of Jesus Christ had been inhumanly as well as unconstitutionally expelled from their homes which they had secured to themselves in the State of Missouri, ~~and having~~ <they> found a resting place in the State of Illinois altho very much scattered and at considerable distances from each other.
That after the escape of your Memorialist from his enemies, he, (under the direction of the Authorities of the Church) took such Steps as has secured to the church the present Locations viz the Town plat of Nauvoo and lands in the Iowa Territory
- b That in order to secure said locations your Memorialist had to become responsible for the payments of the same and had to use considerable exertion in order to commence a settlement and a place of gathering for the Saints, but knowing that from the genius of the constitution of the church and for the well being of the saints that it was necessary so that the Constituted Authorities of the Church might assemble together to act as to legislate for the good of the whole society and that the saints might enjoy those priviledges which they could not by being scattered so wide apart, induced your Memorialist, to exert himself to the utmost, in order to bring about an object so necessary and so desireable to the Saints at large
- c That under the then existing circumstances Your Memorialist had necessarily to engage in the temporalities of the Church— which he has had to attend to the present time which has greatly engaged his mind and taken up much of his time.
That your Memorialist feels it a duty which he owes to God as well as to the Church to give his attention more particularly to those things connected with the Spiritual welfare of the Saints, (which have now become a great people) so that they may be built up in their most holy faith and be enenabled to go on to perfection——
- d That the church having erected an office where he can attend to the affairs of the church without distraction, he thinks and very verily believes that in the time has now come when he should devote himself exclusively to those things which relate to Spiritualities of the church and commence the work of translating the egyptian Records— the Bible— and wait upon the Lord for Such revelations as may be suited to the condition and circumstances of the church and in order to attend to those things, prays that your honorable body will relieve him from the anxiety and trouble necessarily attendant on business transactions by appointing some ~~one of the~~ Bishops to take charge of the City Plot and attend to the business transactions which have heretofore rested upon your Memorialists
- e That should your Honors deem it, propper to do so, your memorialist would respectfully suggest, that he would have no means for of support whatever and therefore would request that some one might be appointed to see that all his necessary wants be provided for as well as sufficient means or appropriations for a Clerk or Clerks which he may require to aid him in his important work
Your Memorialist would further represent that as Elder H[enry] G. Sherwood is conversant with the affairs of the city plot, he thinks that he would be a suitable person to act as Clerk in that business and attend to the disposing of the remaining lots &c &c
- f Your Memorialist would take this oppertunity of congratulating your Honorable body on the peace and Harmony which exists in the Church and for the good feelings which Seem to be manifest by all the Saints— and hopes that inasmuch as every one devotes themselves for the good of the church and the spread of the Kingdom that the Choisest blessings of Heaven will be poured upon us, and that the Glory of the Lord will overshadow the inheritances of the Saints

Joseph Smith Jr

Nauvoo June 18th. 1840

To the Hon

The High Council of the Church of Jesus Christ Of Latter Day Saints

Minutes, 20 June 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a June 20th 1840. The High Council of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Saints of Nauvoo Illinois met in council at the office [of] Joseph Smith jr.—
1. A memmorial was presented to the council, by Elder R[obert] B. Thompson, from President Joseph Smith j^r praying that the Council would relieve him from the temporalities of the Church which he necessarily had to engage in. In order that a location might be effected for the geathering of the saints.—
- That he felt it his duty to engage, more particularly, in the spiritual welfare of the Saints & also, to the translating of the Egyptian Records— the Bible— & wait upon the Lord for such revelations as may be suited to the condition & circumstances of the Church.
- b That in order to relieve him from the anxiety and troubles necessarily attendant on buisness— transactions, they would appoint some one to take charge of the City Plot & attend to the buisness transactions which have heretofore rested upon him.
- That when he is relieved from such temporal— duties he would have no means of support whatever & requested that some one might be appointed to see that all his necessary wants are provided for as well as sufficient means or appropriations for a clerk or clerks which <he> may require to aid him in his important work.
- The council relieved Presdent Joseph Smith jr according to ~~this~~ the request of the memorial and appointed Elder H[enry] G. Sherwood to take charge of the City Plot and act as clerk in that buisness and also to attend to the disposing of the remaining lots and the buisness transactions which have heretofore rested upon him...¹

Minutes, 3 July 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a July 3rd 1842 <1840>. The High Council of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints of Nauvoo Illinois met in Council at the office of Joseph Smith jr.
- 1 The subject of the memmorial of Pres^t Joseph Smith j^r was again taken up for a rehearing, according to the decision of the last Council (June 27) and the following resolutions were passed unanimously.
- b 1st Resolved— that we feel perfectly satisfied with the course taken by Joseph Smith j^r & feel a disposition as far as it is in our power to assist him so as to relieve him from the temporalities of the Church in order that he may devote his time more particularly to the spiritualities of the same, believeing by so doing we shall promote the good of the whole Church. But as he (Joseph Smith j^r) is held responsible for the payment of the City <Plot> and knowing no way to relieve him from that responsibility at present, we would request of him to act as treasurer for the City Plot and to whom those persons whom we may appoint to make sales of Lots and attend to the buisness affairs of the Church may at all times be responsible and make true and correct returns of all their proceedings as well as to account for all monies, properties &c which may come into their hands.

¹The JSP introduction to minutes at a 27 June 1840 conference: "On 27 June 1840, Alanson Ripley, acting on behalf of JS, informed the Nauvoo high council that JS had vetoed actions the council took in its 20 June 1840 meeting, which JS apparently did not attend. At that meeting, the high council considered a memorial from JS requesting that he be relieved from his duties relating to temporal affairs in Nauvoo, Illinois, especially those involving land sales. Pursuant to JS's request, the high council appointed Henry G. Sherwood as a clerk for the sale of Nauvoo town lots and also directed Ripley to ensure that the temporal needs of JS and his counselors in the First Presidency were met. Although the high council's actions seem to meet the requests in JS's memorial, JS objected to these decisions. Minutes of a subsequent meeting suggest JS may have believed that the high council members had not sufficiently considered the heavy financial responsibility he bore from purchasing land in the Nauvoo area on behalf of the church or that they had not addressed pressing questions, such as how much Sherwood should be compensated for his service. JS also may have wanted the high council to specify where funding would come from to support him, his family, and the other members of the First Presidency. Whatever the case, Ripley relayed JS's veto, and the high council decided to rehear JS's memorial on 3 July 1840."

- c Therefore Resolved. That Elder Henry G Sherwood act as clerk for the same. That Bishop Alonson [Alanson] Ripley be appointed to provide for the wants of the Presidency and make such appropriations to them and to their Clerk or Clerks which they may require.
- Resolved. that the funds of the City Plot shall not be taken to provide for the Presidency or Clerks but that the Bishops be instructed to raise funds from other sources to meet the calls made on them.
- And mon[i]es recieved for lots shall be deposited in the hands of the treasurer to liquidate the debts of the City Plot.
- d Resolved that the clerk shall have a stipulated sum for his services for transacting the buisness of the City Plot and that he recieve the sum of twenty-six dollars p^t month for said services.—
- Resolved— that the remaining items of buisness relative to the memmorial before the Council shall be laid over to be taken up again at the next Council.
- Adjourned

Hosea Stout Clerk pro tem

Minutes, 11 July 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a July 11th ~~1842~~ 1840. High Council of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints of Nauvoo Illinois met in Council at the office of Joseph Smith jr.
- There was no buisness before the council President Joseph Smith j^r was present, who taught the Councillors things relative to their duty in Council. and give the ~~following~~ following precedent for the Council to be guided by and ordered the same to be recorded to. wit—
- b That the Council should try no case without both parties being present or having had an opportunity to be present. neither should they hear one parties complaint before his case is brought up for trial— neither should they suffer the character of any one to be exposed before the High Council without the person being present and ready to defend him or herself—that the minds of the Councillors be not prejudiced for or against any one whose case they may possibly have to act upon. Adjourned
- Hosea Stout Clk pro tem

Discourse, circa 19 July 1840

As Reported by Martha Jane Knowlton Coray–A

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a it is wisdom in God that the saints as fast as ~~for~~ convenient should come up and we should enter into as compact a city as possible. we are not grea[t]ly distressed nor ever will be— a stake appointed— this is the principle place of gathering The[r]efore as many as can come let the Brethren begin to roll in like clouds we will sell you lots and if you cant pay for them you shall [have] them whosoever will come let them come and partake of the poverty of Nauvoo freely and those ~~who~~ who partake of our poverty shall [be?] greatly blessed yea exceedingly for if they come in times of prosperity will put on their
- b long faced pharisaical visages and blow us up and this proclamation goes forth from this hour bring every thing you can bring and build the house of God and we will have a tremendous City which shall reverberate afar— afar— and we will have a great observatory great great high wacth tower then comes all the ancient records dig them up thus shall the poor be fed by the curious who where the Saints g[ather] is Zion which <the> ene [rig]hteous will build u[p] a place of safety for the[i]r [c]hildren and those who [do] not come in due season shall scarce escape wi[t]h <their lives> those that cease to <be> saviours of men they shall be troden under the feet of their enemies for their transgression instance Reed peck The
- c redemption of Zion is the salvation of ~~Zion~~ this country which is north and south America some consider the olive trees to be Jackson Co but one is not 12 six some have a temple begun 12 olive T<rees> are 12 Stakes [illegible] the seed of 12 olive [tree]s are scattered it [illegible] wake up the na[tio]ns— The nations will [wa]r with each other [w]hile the Saints are [b]uilding the 12 I had [a] vision on the other side of the river that my armies were about ne [me] and I ran from brethren— who were shooting at me swan [swam] the river and found safety on this side Go tell all my servants who are the Strength of my house &c this time this wil nation will be trembling then shall foreign Saints come and all the saints shall come [an]d fight for God.
- d they [s]hall come to the land [of] my vinyard [T]hen will Kings queens [r]ulers come and help buil[d] up Zion reason[in]g cant [he]lp themselves— therefore go to with your might build build and you shall inherit it long and be blessed and the rising generation shall awake the nations make k[i]ngdoms tremble and the earth shake to the centre and God will bless the great rulers and cast a vot[e] against van buren before Jerusalem must be built up Zion also [b]efore the Coming of Christ this will take nea[r] 60 years. all who can coolly and deliberately dispose of their property and come and give their property
- e to the poor an[d] worship God O bretheren come— I prophcy [prophesy] this state shall become greate and  mighty mountain— and this will be the greatest city in the world. curse the man who says you are a mean man because you do not believe as I do— all libe[r]al men o come up [t]o nauvoo and help us to build up the City of God— Gø the oposition from without does not compare with that within Moses led the children of Israel. the calamatiyes which happened to them is was in consequence of rebeling against moses— rbelious [rebellious] here also— when I disbelheve in Joseph I will ask God for another is God a monarch if you disbelieve an honorable way is to say I would rather be damned than to follow self exaltation first cause of sin— prayer— first <thy kingdom come— thy will> be done on earth as in the H[e]aven— what would we do
- f singing forever an[d] ever ans.— starve to death the Kingdom— O[f]— G[od]— is like purified Elements— like 2 1000ds and 1000ds Of worlds have been to effect the purif[y]ing is to pray for the Kingdom come &c forgive as we are forgiven God had no hand in put[t]ing men in prison for debt but devils incarnate— were the flame to roll as fast as we want it to it would crush half the church before it touched the world— righteous principles— instanse— a man that has the Kingdom and its righteousness knows how to manage property what the bishops do is by d[i]rection of the presidency sectarians worship
- g the 12 apostles— I don't think that a man who says he will [illegible] shall come forom [from] all parts of the world and I prophecy that pleasure parties come from england to see ther mamoth and like Sheba— and schools houses and great men's sons shall board here and crave the privelidges of educating there children here and then I prophecy shall the Saints chink
- h the money in their pockets, which they shall give And obligate myself to build as great a house as ever Solomen did and if the church will back me up— and it shall impov[e]rish no one but enrich thousands The time comes when these Saints shall ride proudly over the mountains of Mis[so]uri and no gentile ~~dog~~ dog shall dare lift a tongue but shall l[i]ck up the dust of their feet in the name of Jesus May many here realised this and see it with their eyes I myself also is my prayer— Amen—

As Reported by Martha Jane Knowlton Coray-B

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a A few Item from a discourse delivered by Joseph Smith July 19— 1840
 Read a chap in [Ezekiel] ed concluding with this saying and when all these things come to pass and Lo they will come then shall you know that a Prophet hath been among you
 Afterwards read the parable of the 12 olive trees and said speaking of the Land of Zion ~~that~~ It ~~consisted~~ consists of all N. & S America but that any place where the Saints gather is Zion which every righteous man will build up for a place of safety for his children ~~that~~ The olive trees are 12 stakes which are yet to be built not the Temple in Jackson as some suppose for while the 12 olive stakes are being built we will be at peace but the Nations of the Earth will be at war:
- b our cry from the 1st has been for peace and we will continue pleading like the Widow at the feet of the unjust judge but we may plead at the feet of Majistrates and at the feet of Judges At the feet of Governors and at the feet of senotors & at the feet of the Pre[s]idents for 8 years it will be of no avail we shall find no favor in any <of the> courts of this government
- c The redemption of Zion is the redemption of all N & S America and those 12 stake must be built up before the redemption of Zion can take place and those who refuse to gather and build when they are comanded to do so cease to be Saviours of men and are thenceforth good for nothing but shall be cast out and trodden underfeet of men for their transgression as Reed Peck was when he aplied in the name of an apostate for buisness in a store in Quincy They told him that they wanted no apostates round them and showed him the door At this same store the Authorities of this Churc

d *We shall build the Zion of the Lord in peace untill the servants of that Lord shall begin to lay the found[a]tion of a great and high watch Tower and then shall they begin to say within themselves what need hath my Lord of this tower seeing this is a time of peace &c—e Then the Enemy shall come as a thief in the night and [one blank line] scatter the servants abroad when the seed of these 12 Olive trees are scattered abroad they will wake up the Nations of the whole Earth Eeven this Nation will be on the very verge of crumbling to peices and tumbling to the ground and when the constitution is upon the brink of ruin this people will be the Staff up[on] which the Nation shall lean and they shall bear away the constitution away from the <very> verge of destruction— Then shall the Lord say Go tell all my servants who are the strength of mine house my young men and middle

f aged &c Come to the Land of my vineyard and fight the battle of the Lord— Then the Kings & Queens shall come then the rulers of the Earth shall come then shall all saints come yea the Foreign saints shall come to fight for the Land of my vineyard for in this thing Shall be their safety and they will have no power to choose but will come as a man fleeeth from a sudden des destruction— But before this the time shall be ~~when~~ these who are now my friends shall become my enemies and shall seek to take my life and ~~shall be in~~ there are those now before me who will more furiously pursue me and more dilligently seek to my life and be more b[l]ood thirsty upon my track ~~thus~~ <than> ever were the Misourian Mobbers you say among yourselves as did them of old time is it I & is it I but I know these things by the visions of the Almighty—

g But brethren come ye yea come all of you who can come and go to with your mights and build up the cities of the Lord and whosoever will let him come and partake of the poverty of Nauvoo freely for those who partake of her poverty shall also ~~shall also~~ partake of her prosperity and it is now wisdom in God that we should enter into as compact a city as posible For Zion and Jerusalem ~~and~~ must both be built up before the coming of Christ This will near a half of a century How long will it take to do this 10 years yes more than 40 years will pass before this work will be accomplished and when these cities are built then shall the coming of the son of man be

h Now let all who can coolly and deliberately dispose of their property come up and give of their substance to the [poor?] that the hearts of the poor may be comforted and all may worship god together in holiness of heart come brethren come all of you— And I prophecy in the name of the Lord that the state of Illinois shall become a great ~~mountain~~ and mighty mountain as [a] city set upon a hill that cannot be hid and a great [candle?] that giveth light to the world ~~and~~ The city of Nauvoo als[o] shall become the Greatest city in the whole world—

i curse that man who says to his neighbor you are a mean man because you do not believe as I do I now invite all liberrall minded men to come up to Nauvoo and help to build up the city of our God We are not greatly distressed ~~No~~ no nor ever will be This is the principle place of gathering therefore let the brethren begin to roll in like clouds and we will sell you lots if you are able to pay for them and ~~of~~ if not you shall have them without money and without price

j The greater blessing is unto those who come in times of adversity. For many will come to us in times of prosperity that will stand at the corners of the streets saying with long pharisaical faces to those that come after thems dont go near Bro Joseph dont go near the authorities of the church for they will pick your pockets they will rob you of all your money Thus will they breed in our midst a spirit of dissatisfaction and distrust that will end in persecution and distress—

k Now from this hour bring every thing you can bring and build a Temble [Temple] unto the Lord a house into the mighty God of Jacob. We will build upon the top of this Temple a great observatory a great and high watch tower and in the top thereof we will Suspend a tremendous bell that when it is rung shall rouse the inhabitants of [Fort] Madison ~~and~~ wake up the people of Warsaw and sound in the ears of men [in] carthage Then comes the ancient records yea all of them dig them yes bring them forth speedily

l Then shall the poor be fed by the curious who shall come from all parts of the world to see this wonderful temple Yea I I prophecy that pleasure parties shall come from England to see the Mamoth and like the Queen of Sheba shall say the half never was told them. School houses shall be built here and High schools shall be established and the great men of the [earth] shall send their sons here to board while they are receiving their education among us and even Noblemen shall crave the privilege of educating their children with us and these poor saints shall chink in their pockets the money of these proud men received from such as come and dwell with us

m Now brethren I obligate myself to build as great a temple as ever solomon did if the church will back me up. moreover it shall not impoverish any man but enrich thousands and I prophecy that the time shall be when these saints shall ride proudly over the mountains of Missouri and no Gentile dog nor Missouri dog Shall dare lift a tongue against them but will lick up the dust from beneath their feet and I pray the father that many here may realize this and see it with their eyes and And if it should be (Stretching his hand towards the place and in a melancholly tone that made all hearts tremble) will of God that I might live to behold that temple completed and finished from the foundation to the top stone I will say Oh Lord it is enough Lord let thy servant depart in peace which is my earnest prayer in the name of the L Jesus Amen

Letter to William W. Phelps, 22 July 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

Nauvoo Hancock Co Ills
July 22nd 1840

Dear Brother [William W.] Phelps

I must say that it is with no ordinary feelings I endeavour to write a few lines to you in answer to yours of the 29th. Ultimo, at the same time I am rejoiced at the priveledge granted me. You may in some measure realise what my feelings, as well as Elder [Sidney] Rigdon's & Bro Hyrum [Smith]'s were when we read your letter, truly our hearts were melted into tenderness and compassion when we ascertained your resolves &c

b

I can assure you I feel a disposition to act on your case in a manner that will meet the approbation of Jehovah (whose servant I am) and agreeably to the principles of truth and righteousness which have been revealed and inasmuch as long-suffering patience and mercy have ever characterized the dealings of our heavenly Father towards the humble and penitent, I feel disposed, to copy the example and cherish the same principles, by so doing be a savior of my fellow men

c

It is true, that we have suffered much in consequence of your behavior—the cup of gall already full enough for mortals to drink, was indeed filled to overflowing when you turned against us: One with whom we had oft taken sweet council together, and enjoyed many refreshing seasons from the Lord “Had it been an enemy we could have borne it” [“]In the day that thou stoodest on the other side, in the day when Strangers carried away captive his forces, and foreigners entered into his gates and cast lots upon Far West even thou wast as one of them. But thou shouldst not have looked on the day of thy brother, in the day that he became a stranger neither shouldst thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress”

d

However the cup has been drunk, the will of our heavenly Father has been done, and we are yet alive for which we thank the Lord. And having been delivered from the hands of wicked men by the mercy of our God, we say it is your priviledge to be delivered from the power of the Adversary— be brought into the liberty of God's dear children, and again take your stand among the saints of the Most High, and by diligence humility and love unfeigned, commend yourself to our God and your God and to the church of Jesus Christ

e

Believing your confession to be real and your repentance genuine, I shall be happy once again to give you the right hand of fellowship, and rejoice over the returning prodigal.

Your letter was read to the saints last sunday and an expression of their feeling was taken, when it was unanimously resolved that W. W. Phelps should be received into fellowship.

“Come on dear Brother since the war is past,
For friends at first are friends again at last.”

Yours as Ever
Joseph Smith Jr

Letter to Oliver Granger, between circa 22 and circa 28 July 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Brother [Oliver] Granger
D^r Sir

It was with great pleasure I received your's and Bro Richards [Levi Richards's] Letter dated New york June 23rd. 1840 and was very happy to be informed of your safe arrival in that place and your probability of success, and I do hope that your anticipations will be realized and that you will be able to free the Lords House from all incumbrances, and be prospered in all your undertakings for the benefit of the Church, and pray that while you are exerting your influence to bring about an object so desireable, that the choicest blessings of heaven may rest down upon you. While you are endeavoring to do so and attending to the duties laid upon you by the Authorities of the Church in this place, I am sorry to be informed not only in your letter but from other respectable sources of the strange conduct pursued in Kirtland by Elder Alman Babbitt [Almon Babbitt]; I am indeed Surprised that a man having the experience which Bro Babbitt has had should take any steps whatever calculated to destroy the confidence of the brethren in the presidency or any of the Authorities of the church. In order to conduct the affairs of the kingdom in righteousness it is all important, that the most perfect harmony kind feeling, good understanding and confidence should exist in the hearts of all the brethren. and that true Charity—love one towards another, should characterize all their proceedings. If there are any uncharitable feelings, any lack of confidence, then pride and arrogancy and envy will soon be manifested and confusion must inevitably prevail and the Authorities of the Church set at nought; and under such circumstances Kirtland cannot rise and free herself from <the> captivity in which she is held and become a place of safety for the saints nor can the blessings of Jehovah rest upon her. If the saints in Kirtland deem me unworthy of their prayers when they assemble together, and neglect to bear me up at a throne of heavenly grace, it is a strong and convincing proof to me that they have not the spirit of God.

- d If the revelations we have received are true, who is to lead the people? If the keys of the kingdom have been committed to my hands, who shall open out the mysteries thereof. As long as my brethren stand by me and encourage me I can combat the prejudices of the world and can bear the contumely and abuse of the world with joy but when my brethren stand aloof—when they begin to faint and endeavour to retard my progress and enterprise then I feel to mourn but am no less determined to prosecute my task, being confident that altho my earthly friends may fail and even turn against me, yet my heavenly father will bear me off triumphant. However I hope that even in Kirtland, their are some who do not make a man an [“]offender for a word” but are disposed to stand forth in defence of righteousness and truth and attend to every duty enjoined upon them and who will have wisdom to direct them against any movement or influence calculated to bring confusion and disorder into the camp of Israel, and to discern between the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

- f It would be gratifying to my mind to see the saints in Kirtland flourish, but think the time has not yet come and I assure you it never will until a different order of things be established and a different spirit be manifested. When confidence is restored, when pride shall fall and every aspiring mind be clothed with humility as with a garment and selfishness give place to benevolence and charity, and a united determination to live by every word which proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lord is observable, then and not till then can peace and order, and love prevail

- g It is in consequence of aspiring men that Kirtland has been forsaken. How frequently has your humble servant been envied in his office by such characters who endeavoured to raise themselves to power at my expense, and seeing it impossible to do so, resorted to foul slander and abuse and other means to effect my overthrow; such characters have ever been the first to cry out against the presidency, and publish their faults and foibles to four winds of heaven.

- h I cannot forget the treatment I received in the house of my friends, these things continually roll across my mind and cause me much sorrow of heart, and when I think that others who have lately come into the church should be led to Kirtland instead of to this place by Elder Babbitt, and having their confidence in the Authorities lessened by such observations as he (Elder Babbitt) has thought proper to make, as well as hearing all the false reports and exaggerated accounts of our enemies, I must say that I feel grieved in spirit, and cannot tolerate such proceedings neither will I, but will endeavour to disabuse the minds of the saints and break down all such unhallowed proceedings.

- i It was something new to me when I heard there had been secret meetings held in the Lords house, and that some of my friends—faithful brethren, men enjoying the confidence of the church should be locked out. Such like proceedings are not calculated to promote union or peace but to engender strife and will be a curse instead of a blessing: To those who are young in the work I know they are calculated to and must be injurious to them. Those who have had experience and who should know better, than to reflect on their brethren, there is no excuse for them. If Bro Babbit and the other brethren wish to reform the Church and come out and make a stand against sin & speculation &c &c; they must use other weapons than lies, or their object can never be effected, and their labors will be given to the house of the stranger rather than to the house of the Lord
- j The proceedings of Bro Babbit were taken into consideration at a meeting of the Church at this place, when it was unanimously resolved that fellowship should be withdrawn from him until he make satisfaction for the conduct he has pursued of which circumstance I wish you to apprize him of without delay and demand his license.
- D^r Sir I wish you to stand in your lot and keep the station which was given you by revelation and the authorities of the Church; attend to the affairs of the Church with diligence and then rest assured on the blessings of heaven: It is binding on you to act as president of the Church in Kirtland until you are removed by the same Authority which put you in, and I do hope, their will be no cause for opposition. but that good feelin[g]s will be manifested in future by all the brethren
- k Bro Burdicks [Thomas Burdick's] letter to Bro Hyrum [Smith] was duly received for which he has our best thanks, It was indeed an admirable letter and worthy of its author the sentiments express'd were in accordance with the spirit of the gospel and the principles correct. I am glad that Bro Richards has continued with you and hope he has been of some service to you,—give my love to him
- Our prospects in this place continue good. considerable numbers have come in this spring.— There were some bickerings respecting your conduct soon after your departure but they have all blown over, and I hope there will never be any occasion for any more, but that you will commend yourself to God and to the saints by a virtuous walk and holy conversation
- I had a letter from W[illiam] W. Phelps a few days ago informing me of his desire to come back to the Church if we would accept of him, he appears very humble and is willing to make every satisfaction that Saints or God may require.
- We expect to have an edition of the book of Mormon printed by the first of September it has is now being sterotyped in Cincinnati

I rem[ain] &c &c
Joseph Smith Jr

Discourse, 30 July 1840, as Reported by John Smith

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Joseph said that inasmuch as the Saints will leave of speaking Evil of one another and not speake Evil of the Seer which <is> Speaking Evil of the ar[c]hangel or the holy Kees which he held and the Archangel and if the church would ceace from these Bickerings and murmuring and be of one mind the Lord would Visiting them with health and Every needed good for said he this is the Voice of the Spirit. furthermore <if> the Saints are sick or have Sickness in their Families and the Elders do not prevail every family should [get] Power by fasting and prayer and anointing with oil and continue So to Do their ~~their~~ sick shall all be healed this also is the voice of the Spirit [p. [3]]

Letter to John C. Bennett, 8 August 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Background

Original Source

Text

a

Nauvoo Hancock Co Ill
Aug 8th. 1840

Dear Sir

Yours of the 25th. Ultimo addressed to Elder [Sidney] Rigdon & myself is received for which you have our thanks and to which I shall feel great pleasure in replying. Although I have not the pleasure of your acquaintance, yet from the kindness manifested towards our people when in bondage and oppression, and from the the frank and noble mindedness br[e]athed in your letter, I am brot, to the conclusion that you are a friend to suffering humanity & Truth.

To those who have suffered so much abuse and borne the cruelties and insults of wicked men so long on account of those principles which we have been instructed to teach to the world a feeling of sympathy and kindness is something like the refreshing breese and cooling stream at the present season of the year and are I assure you duly appreciated by us

b

It would afford me much pleasure to see you at this ~~time~~ place, and from the desire you express in your letter to move to this place I hope I shall soon have that satisfaction.

I have no doubt but you would be of great service to this community in practicing your profession as well as those other abilities of which you are in possession. Since to devote your time and abilities in the cause of truth and a suffering people may not be the means of exalting you in the eyes of this generation or securing you the riches of the world yet, by so doing you may rely on the approval of Jehovah "That blessing which maketh rich and addeth not sorrow"

c

Through the tender mercies of our God we have escaped the hands of those who sought our overthrow and have secured locations in this state and in the Territory of Iowa. Our principle location is at this place, Nauvoo (formerly Commerce[])] which is beautifully situated on the banks of the Mississippi, immediately above the lower rapids and is probably the best & most beautiful site for a city on the River— It has a gradual ascent from the river nearly a mile, then a fine level & fertile Prairie, a situation in every respect adapted to commercial & agricultural purposes; but like all other places on the river, is

d

Sickly in summer. The number of inhabitants are nearly three thousand & a is fast increasing; if we are suffered to remain there is every prospect of its becoming one of the largest cities on the river if not in the western world, numbers have moved in from the Sea board and a few from the Islands of the Sea (Gr^t. Britain). It is our intention to commence the erection of some publick buildings next spring. We have purchased twenty thousand acres of land in the Iowa Territory oposite this place which is fast filling up with our people. ~~It I is my desire that~~ all the Saints as well as all lovers of truth & correct principles to come to this place as fast as possible as their circumstances will permit and endeavor by energy of action and a concentration of talent &c &c to effect those objects that are so dear to us. Therefore my general invitation is "Let all that will, come" and take of the poverty of Nauvoo freely. I should be disposed to give you a special invitation to come as early as possible believing you will be of great service to us, however you must make arrangements according to your circumstances &c. Were it possible for you to come here this season to suffer affliction with the people of God no one will be more pleased or give you a more cordial welcome than myself

e

f

A charter has been obtained from the Legislature for a Rail road from Warsaw being immediately below the rapids of the Mississippi to this place a distance of about Tewenty miles which if carried into operation will be of incalculable advantage to this place as steam Boats can only asscend the rapids at a high stage of water. The soil is good and I should think not inferior to any in the state. Cropps are abundant in this section of the Country, and I think provisions will be reasonable. I should be very happy could I make arrangements to meet you in Springfield at the time you mention but cannot promise myself that pleasure; if I should not, probably you could make it convenient to come and pay us a visit here prior to your removal.

g

Elder Rigdon is very sick, and has been for nearly twelve months with the fever and Ague which disease is very prevalent here at this time; at present he is not able to leave his room

Yours &c,
Joseph Smith Jr

J[ohn] C. Bennett M.D.

P.S. Yours of the 30th. is just received in which I am glad to learn of your increasing desire to unite yourself with a people "that are every way spoken against" and the anxiety you feel for our welfare for which you have my best feelings and I pray that my Heavenly Father will pour out his choicest blessings in this world and enable you by his grace to overcome the evils which are in the world that you may secure a blissful immortality in the world that is to come.

J. S. Jr

Minutes, 17 August 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

I need to include some of the background here.

Original Source

Text

...After the evidences were heard, Presidents John Smith, Milliam [William] Marks, Hyrum Smith spoke on the subject— President Joseph Smith jr then spok[e] at some length showing the situation of the contending parties— that there was in reality no cause of difference— that they had better be reconciled without an action or vote of the Councils and hence forth live as brethren and never more mention their former difficulties &c upon which John Patten replied that his hand was ready— E. Fordham quickly responded to the same the parties then affectionately gave each other their hands in brotherly fellowship according to the council of President J. Smith j^r without an action of the Council...

Discourse, 30 August 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

It's from John Smith's journal, and I transcribed it myself on 12/10/22.
The link above goes to a PDF file on my Drive, and the text is near the bottom of PDF 6.

Text

30 sabbath Joseph Smith Jr continued his Discourse on Eternal Judgement and the Eternal Duration of matter

Minutes, 5–6 September 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

I need to include some of the background here.

Original Source

Text

- a September 5th 1840 High Council met in council at the office of Joseph Smith j^r Resolved. That Austin Cowles be appointed a member of this High Council, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Elder Seymour Brunson.
Joseph Smith j^r against Almon Bab[b]itt.
The charge was predicated upon the authority of two letters, one from Thomas Burdock [Burdick], the other from Levi Richards and Oliver Granger accusing him (Babitt) with the following charges.
- b 1st For stating that Joseph j^r had extravagantly purchased three suits of cloths, while he was at Washington City and that Sidney Rigdon had purchased four suits at the same place, besides dresses and cloths for their families in profusion.
2nd For having stated that Joseph Smith j^r— Sidney Rigdon, and Elias Higbee had stated that they were worth $100.000 each while they were at Washington & that Joseph Smith j^r had ~~reported~~ <repeated> the same ~~thing~~ statement while at Philadelphia and for stating that Oliver Granger had stated that he also, was worth as much as they (iE) 100,000
3nd For holding secret Council in the Lord's house, in Kirtland, and for locking the doors of the house, for the purpose of prohibiting certain brethren, in good standing, in the Church, from being in the Council. thereby depriving them the use of the house.
- c Two were appointed to speak on the case, namely (7) Tho^s Grover (8) A. Cowles.
Council adjourned till the 6th of Sep^t at 2' o'clock
Sept. 6th 1840. Council met according to adjournment. When the evidences were all heard on the case pending and the council closed on both sides the parties spoke at length after which Pres^t J. Smith jr withdrew the the charge and both parties were reconciled together things being adjusted to the satisfaction of both parties.
Adjourned.

Hosea Stout Clerk pro tem.

Letter to Saints Scattered Abroad, September 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

I need to include some of the background here.

Original Source

Text

- a TO THE SAINTS SCATTERED ABROAD.
- BELOVED BRETHREN:
- We address a few lines to the church of Jesus Christ, who have obeyed from the heart, that form of doctrine which has been delivered to them by the servants of the Lord, and who are desirous to go forward in the ways of truth and righteousness, and by obedience to the heavenly command, escape the things which are coming on the earth and secure to themselves an inheritance among the sanctified in the world to come.
- Having been placed in a very responsible situation in the church, we at all times feel interested in the welfare of the Saints and make mention of them continually in our prayers to our heavenly Father, that they may be kept from the evils which are in the world and ever be found walking in the path of truth.
- b The work of the Lord in these last days, is one of vast magnitude and almost beyond the comprehension of mortals: its glories are past description and its grandeur insurpassable. It has been the theme which has animated the bosom of prophets and righteous men from the creation of this world down through every succeeding generation to the present time; and it is truly the dispensation of the fulness of times, when all things which are in Christ Jesus, whether in heaven or on the earth, shall be gathered together in him, and when all things shall be restored, as spoken of by all the holy prophets since the world began: for in it will take place the glorious fulfillment of the promises made to the fathers, while the displays of the power of the Most High will be great, glorious, and sublime.

- c The purposes of our God are great, his love unfathomable, his wisdom infinite, and his power unlimited; therefore, the Saints have cause to rejoice and be glad, knowing that “this God is our God forever and ever and he will be our guide unto death.”
- Having confidence in the power, wisdom and love of God, the Saints have been enabled to go forward through the most adverse circumstances, and frequently when to all human appearances nothing but death presented itself, and destruction, inevitable, has the power of God been manifest, his glory revealed, and deliverance effected; and the Saints, like the children of Israel who came out of the land of Egypt, and through the Red Sea, have sung an anthem of praise to his holy name: this has not only been the case in former ages, but in our own days, and within a few months, have we seen this fully verified.
- d Having, through the kindness of our God, been delivered from destruction, and secured a location upon which we have again commenced operations for the good of his people, we feel disposed to go forward and unite our energies for the upbuilding of the kingdom, and establishing the Priesthood in their fulness and glory.
- The work which has to be accomplished in the last days is one of vast importance, and will call into action the energy, skill, talent, and ability of the Saints, so that it may roll forth with that glory and majesty described by the prophets: and will consequently require the concentration of the Saints, to accomplish works of such magnitude and grandeur.
- e The work of the gathering spoken of in the scriptures, will be necessary to bring about the glories of the last dispensation: It is probably unnecessary to press this subject on the Saints, as we believe the spirit of it is manifest, and its necessity obvious to every considerate mind; and every one zealous for the promotion of truth and righteousness, is equally so for the gathering of the Saints.
- f Dear brethren feeling desirous to carry out the purposes of God, to which we have been called; and to be co-workers with him in this last dispensation: we feel the necessity of having the hearty co-operation of the Saints throughout this land, and upon the Islands of the sea; and it will be necessary for them to hearken to council, and turn their attention to the church, the establishment of the kingdom, and lay aside every selfish principle, every thing low, and groveling; and stand forward in the cause of truth, and assist to the utmost of their power, those to whom has been given the pattern and design; and like those who held up the hands of Moses, hold up the hands of those who are appointed to direct the affairs of the kingdom, so that they may be strengthened, and be enabled to prosecute their great designs and be instrumental in effecting the great work of the last days.
- g Believing the time has now come when it is necessary to erect a house of prayer, a house of order, a house for the worship of our God; where the ordinances can be attended to agreeably to his divine will, in this region of country; to accomplish which, considerable exertion must be made, means will be required; and as the work must be hastened in righteousness, it behooves the Saints, to weigh the importance of these things, in their minds, in all their bearings, and then take such steps as are necessary to carry them into operation; and arm themselves with courage, resolve to do all they can, and feel themselves as much interested, as though the whole labor depended on themselves alone; by so doing they will emulate the glorious deeds of the Fathers, and secure the blessing of heaven upon themselves and their posterity to the latest generation.
- h To those who feel thus interested, and can assist in this great work, we say let them come to this place, by so doing they will not only assist in the rolling of the kingdom, but be in a situation where they can have the advantages of instruction from the presidency and other authorities of the church, and rise higher and higher in the scale of intelligence, until they “can comprehend with all Saints the length and breadth and depth and height, and know the love of God which passeth knowledge.”
- i Connected with the building up of the kingdom, is the printing and circulation of the Book of Mormon, Doctrine and Covenants, Hymn book and the new translation of Scriptures, It is unnecessary to say any thing respecting these works; those who have read them, and who have drank of the stream of knowledge, which they convey, know how to appreciate them, and although fools may have them in derision, yet they are calculated to make men wise unto salvation, and sweep away the cobwebs of superstition of ages, throw a light on the proceedings of Jehovah which have already been accomplished and mark out the future in all its dreadful and glorious realities; those who have tasted the benefit derived from a study of those works, will undoubtedly vie with each other in their zeal for sending them abroad throughout the world, that every son of Adam may enjoy the same privileges and rejoice in the same truths.
- j Here then, beloved brethren is a work to engage in worthy of arch-angels; a work which will cast into the shade the things which have heretofore been accomplished; a work which kings and prophets and righteous men, in former ages have sought, expected, and earnestly desired to see, but died without the sight: and well, will it be for those who shall aid in carrying into effect the mighty operations of Jehovah.

By order of the first Presidency,
 R[obert] B. THOMPSON,
 Scribe.

Nauvoo, Sept. 1840.

Minutes and Discourse, 3–5 October 1840

As Reported by Robert B. Thompson

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

I need to include some of the background here, and I need to check the JSP footnotes carefully. It is possible that there is other material that I can get and include.

Original Source

Text

- a ...The president arose and stated that there had been several depredations committed on the citizens of Nauvoo, and thought it expedient that a committee be appointed, to search out the offenders, and bring them to justice...
The president then rose, and stated that it was necessary that something, should be done with regard to Kirtland, so that it might be built up; and gave it as his opinion, that the brethren from the east might gather there, and also, that it was necessary that some one should be appointed from this conference to preside over that stake...
- b The president then spoke of the necessity of building a “House of the Lord” in this place.
Whereupon it was resolved, that the saints build a house for the worship of God, and that Reynolds Cahoon, Elias Higbee, and Alpheus Cutler, be appointed a committee to build the same.
On motion. Resolved, that a commencement be made ten days from this date, and that every tenth day be appropriated for the building of said house...
The clerk was then called upon to read the report of the presidency, in relation to the city plot. after which the president made some observations on the situation of the debts on the city plot and advised that a committee be appointed to raise funds to liquidate the same...
- c President Joseph Smith jr. then arose and delivered a discourse on the subject of baptism for the dead. which was listened to with considerable interest, by the vast multitude assembled...¹
Elder R. B. Thompson after a few preliminary remarks, read an article on the priesthood, composed by president Joseph Smith jr, after which,
Elder Babbitt delivered an excellent discourse on the same subject at some considerable length...
The president then made some observations, and pronounced his benediction on the assembly...

As Reported by Vilate Murray Kimball

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access

Original Here
Transcription Here

Background

Original Source

PDF 3 of the original, PDF 53 of the transcription.

¹See the accounts of this discourse below by Vilate Murray Kimball and Phebe Carter Woodruff.

Text

- a I had written to you a short time before, so I thought I would delay writing again until after conference, which closed last Monday. We had the largest and most interesting conference that ever has been since the Church was organised. The people that attended it, were estimated at four thousand. Some thought there was more. Much business was done and many good instructions given. President Smith has opened a new and glorious subject of late which has caused quite a revival in the Church. That is being baptised for the dead. Paul speaks of it in first Corinthians 15th Chapter 29th vers. Joseph has
- b received a more full explanation of it by Revelation. He says it is the privilege of this church to be baptised for all their kinsfolks that have died before this Gospel came forth; even back to their great Grandfather and Mother if they have been personally acquainted with them. By so doing we act as agents for them, and give them the privilege of coming forth in the first resurrection. He says they will have the Gospel preached to them in Prison but there is no such things as spirits being baptised. He does not wholly discard sisters Booths Vision; says it was to show her the necessity of being Baptised. Since this order has been preached here, the waters have been continually troubled. During conference there were sometimes from
- c eight to ten Elders in the river at a time baptising. There is a particular order that the Elders have to administer in, and to preserve this order it was President Smiths advise that it should not be attended to only in this place. I want to be baptised for my Mother. I calculated to wait until you come home but the last time Joseph spoke upon the subject he advised every one to be up and a doing and liberate their friends from bondage as quick as possible. So I think I shall go forward this week,
- d as there is a number of the neighbors going forward. Some have already been baptised a number of times over. They have to be baptised and confirmed for one person before they can be baptised for another. Those that have no friends on the earth to be baptised for them can send ministering spirits to whom so ever they will and make known their request. Thus you see there is a chance for all. Is not this a glorious doctrine? Surely the Gentiles will mock but we will rejoice in it

As Reported by Phebe Carter Woodruff

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access

Original Here
Transcription Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a brother Joseph was expected to preach today on the Priest hood but his health would not admit of it so A. Babbitt took the stand and delivered an interesting discourse upon the same subject.— yesterday brother Joseph spoke a short time from 29 verse of the 15 chap. of first Cor. of which I will here after speak & this afternoon brother L. White spoke on the same subject
- b which was very interesting...Now a few words from Brother Joseph sermon on the living's being baptized for the dead that they may be judged according to men in the flesh; he has learned by revelation that those in this church may be baptized for any of their relatives who are dead and had not a privilege of hearing it this gospel even for their children, parents, brothers, sisters, grandparents, uncles, & aunts,— but not for acquaintances unless they send a ministering spirit to their friends on earth,— as soon as they are baptized for their friends they are released from prison and they can claim
- c them in the resurrection and bring them into the celestial kingdom— this doctrine is cordially received by the church and they are going forward in multitudes, some are going to be baptized as many as 16 times— they have to be baptized and confirmed separately for every friend— once in one day— How many can a spirit be baptized with— why not deputize a friend on earth to do it for them— John Wesley can receive this work but how can his spirit be baptized in water— It is the privilege of the oldest one in a family to be baptized for their friends if they desire it but they can give it to another if they
- d choose Brother Joseph makes this doctrine look very plain and consistent— he has been bringing strange things forward to the church this season— strong meat— he has delivered a course of lectures this season which were very interesting— I could not attend only a part of the time but often wished you could be present— he says that the throne of God stands on the earth like this earth only it is cleansed &c &c— says that this earth is the wickedest planet that ever God made and that its
- e inhabitants are will have the greatest glory if they overcome evil— and that it was the largest when made but at different times there has been parts taken from it, for instance when the ten tribes were lost and says they will all be restored again.—

Paul says I die daly brother Joseph says that he actually died and was raised to life again— says the beasts that he fought with at Epesus often killed him and he came to life again— if so Willford why may not our little Sarah be raised to life again— He, brother Joseph has brought forth many new things this season...

- f 19th Yesterday Sunday, we had an interesting sermon ~~we had an interesting subje~~ upon the living's being baptized for the dead it was made so plain that none could dispute it reasonably and I should be glad to be baptized for my grandparents and some others but want to wait for you to do it would it not be best, I had ra ther you would do it than any person living.

Report of the First Presidency, 4 October 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

I need to include some of the background here, and I need to check the JSP footnotes carefully. It is possible that there is other material that I can get and include.

Original Source

Text

- a REPORT FROM THE PRESIDENCY.

The Presidency of the church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, would respectfully report; that they feel rejoicing to meet the saints at another general conference and under circumstances as favorable as the present. Since our settlement in Illinois, we have for the most part been treated with courtesy and respect, and a feeling of kindness and of sympathy, has generally been manifested by all cfasses [classes] of the community, who with us, deprecate the conduct of those men, whose dark and blackning deeds, are stamped with everlasting infamy and disgrace.

- b The contrast between our past and present situation is great. Two years ago, mobs were threatening, plundering, driving and murdering the saints. Our burning houses enlightened the canopy of heaven. Our women and children houseless and destitute, had to wander from place to place, to seek a shelter from the rage of persecuting foes.— Now we enjoy peace, and can worship the God of heaven and earth without molestation. And expect to be able to go forward and accomplish the great and glorious work to which we have been called. Under these circumstances we feel to congratulate the saints of the Most High, on the happy and pleasing change in our circumstances, condition and prospects, and which those who shared in the
- c perils and distresses, undoubtedly appreciate. While prayers and thanksgivings daily ascend to that God, who looked upon our distresses and delivered us from danger and death, and whose hand is over us for good. From the unpropitious nature of the weather, we hardly expected to behold so many of our friends on this occasion, in this however, we are agreeably disappointed, which gives us strong assurance that the saints are as zealous, untiring and energetic as ever in the great work of the last days; and gives us joy and consolation, and greatly encourages us, while contending with the difficulties which necessarily lie in our way.

- d Let the brethren ever manifest such a spirit, and hold up our hands, and WE MUST, WE WILL go forward, the work of the Lord shall roll forth, the Temple of the Lord be reared, the Elders of Israel be encouraged; Zion be built up. And become the praise, the joy, and the glory of the whole earth; and the song of praise, glory, honor and majesty to him that setteth upon the throne, and to the Lamb forever and ever, shall reverberate from hill to hill, from mountain to mountain, from Island to Island and from continent to continent, and the kingdoms of this world become the kingdom of our God and his Christ.

- e We are glad indeed to know that there is such a spirit of union existing throughout the churches, and at home and abroad; on this continent, as well as on the Islands of the sea, for by this principle and by a concentration of action shall we be able to carry into effect the purposes of our God.

From the Elders abroad we receive the most cheering accounts; wherever the faithful laborer has gone forth reaping, sowing the seed of truth, he has returned with joy, bringing his sheaves with him; and the information we receive from all quarters is, that the laborers are few and that the harvest is great. Many wealthy and influential characters have embraced the gospel, so that not only will the poor rejoice in that they are exalted, but the rich in that they are made low.

- f The calls to the southern states are indeed great, many places which a short time ago would think it a disgrace to give shelter to a Mormon, on account of the many false misrepresentations which were abroad, now desire to hear an Elder of the church of Latter Day Saints.

On the Islands of the sea, viz. great Britain, there continues to be a steady flow of souls into the church— branches have been organized in many large and populous cities and the whole land appears to be thirsting for the pure streams of knowledge and salvation. The Twelve have already printed a new edition of the Hymn book, and issue a monthly periodical in that land. Several families have already arrived here from England and a number more are on their way to this place, and are expected this fall.

g If the work roll forth with the same rapidity it has heretofore done, we may soon expect to see flocking to this place, people from every land and from every nation, the polished European, the degraded Hottentot, and the shivering Laplander. Persons of all languages, and of every tongue, and of every color; who shall with us worship the Lord of Hosts in his holy temple, and offer up their orisons in his sanctuary. It was in consideration of these things, and that a home might be provided for the saints, that induced us to purchase the present city for a place of gathering for the saints. and the extensive tract of land on the opposite side of the Mississippi. Although, the purchase at that time and under the peculiar conditions and circumstances of the church, appeared to many to be large and uncalled for; yet from what we now see, it is apparent to all, that we shall soon have to say. “The place is too strait give us room that we may dwell.”

h We therefore hope that the brethren, who feel interested in the cause of truth, and desire to see the work of the gathering of Israel roll forth with power will aid us in liquidating the debts which are now owing, so that the inheritances may be secured to the church, and which eventually will be of great value. From the good spirit which is manifested on this occasion, the desire to do good, and the zeal for the honor of the church, inspires us with confidence that we shall not appeal in vain, but that funds will be forthcoming on this occasion, sufficient to meet the necessities of the case.

It is with great pleasure that we have to inform the church that, another edition of the book of Mormon has been printed, and which is expected on from Cincinnatti, in a short time. And that arrangements are making for printing the book of Doctrine and Covenants Hymn book, etc. etc. So that the demand which may exist, for those works will soon be supplied.

i In conclusion we would say. Brethren and Sisters be faithful, be diligent, contend earnestly for the faith once delivered to the saints—let every man, woman and child realize the importance of the work, and act as if its success depended on their individual exertion alone, let them feel an interest in it, and then consider they live in a day, the contemplation of which animated the bosom of Kings, Prophets and Righteous men, thousands of years ago the prospect of which inspired their sweetest notes and most exalted lays’ and caused them to break out in such rapturous strains as are recorded in the scriptures; and by and by, we shall have to exclaim in the language of Inspiration,

“The Lord has brought again Zion—

The Lord hath redeemed his people, Israel.”

Instruction on Priesthood, circa 5 October 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a In order to investigate the subject <of the Priesthood> so important to this as well as every succeeding generation, I shall proceed to trace the subject as far as I possibly can from the Old and new Testaments.

b There are two priesthoods spoken of in the scriptures, viz, the Melchisadeck and the Aaronic or Levitical Altho there are two priesthoods, yet the Melchisadeck priesthood comprehends the Aaronic or Levitical priesthood and is the Grand head and holds the hig[h]est Authority which pertains to the priesthood— the keys of the Kingdom of God in all ages of the world to the latest posterity on the earth— and is the channel through which all knowledge, doctrine, the plan of salvation

c and every important ~~matter~~ truth is revealed from heaven. Its institution was prior to “the foundation of this earth or the morning stars sang together or the sons of God shouted for joy,” ~~and~~ it is the highest and holiest priesthood and is after the order of the Son [of] God, and all other priesthoods are only parts, ramifications, powers and blessings belonging to the same

d and are held controlled and directed by it. It is the Channel through which the Almighty commenced revealing his glory at the beginning of the creation of this earth and through which he has continued to reveal himself to the children of men ~~and~~ to the present time and through which he will make known his purposes to the end of time—

e Commencing with Adam who was the first man of whom it is spoken of in Daniel as being “the Antient of days” or in other words the first and oldest of all, the great grand progenitor of whom it is said in another place he is Michael because he was the first and father of all, not only by progeny, but he was the first to hold the spiritual blessings, the plan to whom was made known the plan of ordinances for the Salvation of his posterity unto the end, and to whom Christ was first revealed, f and through whom Christ has been revealed from heaven and will continue to be revealed from henceforth. Adam holds the keys of the dispensation of the fulness of times, i.e. the dispensation of all the times have been and will be revealed through him from the beginning to Christ and from Christ to the end of ~~the~~ all world the dispensations that have to be revealed g Ephesians 1st chap 9 & 10 verses. [“]Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he has purposed in himself that in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ both which are in heaven and which are on earth in him” Now the purpose in himself in the winding up scene of the last dispensation is, that all things pertaining to that dispensation should be conducted precisely in accordance with h the preceeding dispensations, And again, God purposed in himself that there should not be an eternal fulness until every dispensation should be fulfilled and gathered together in one and that all things whatsoever that should be gathered together in one in those dispensations, unto the same fulness and eternal glory should be in Christ Jesus; therefore he set the ordinances to be the same for Ever and ever and set Adam to watch over them to reveal them from heaven to man or to send Angels to reveal them Heb 1 Chap. 16 verse. [“]Are they not all ministering spirits sent forth to minister to those who shall be heirs of salvation.” These angels are under the direction of Michael or Adam who acts under the direction of Christ i From the above quotation we learn that Paul perfectly understood the purpose of God in relation <to> his connexion with man, and that glorious and perfect order which he established in himself whereby he sent forth power revelations and glory.
God will not acknowledge that which he has not called, ordained, and chosen.
j In the beginning God called Adam by his own voice See Genesis 3 Chap 9 & 10 verses. [“]And the Lord called unto Adam and said unto him where art thou, and he said I heard thy voice in the garden and I was afraid because I was naked and hid myself.[“] Adam received commandments and instruction from God, this was the order from the begining: that he received revelations, Commandments, and ordinances at the begining is beyond the power of controversy, else, how did they begin to to offer sacrifices to God in an acceptable manner? [p. 3] k And if they offered sacrifices they must be authorized by ordination. We read in Gen 4th chap. V.4 that [“]Abel brought of the firstlings of the flock and the fat thereof and the Lord had respect to Abel and to his offering.[“] And again Heb 11 chap 4 verse. [“]By Faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent Sacrifice than Cain by which he obtained witness that he was l righteous God testifying of his gifts and by it he being dead yet speaketh.[“] How doth he yet speak? Why he magnified the priesthood which was conferred [conferred] upon him and died a righteous man, and therefore has become a righteous man an angel of God by receiving his body from the dead, therefore holding still the keys of held his dispensation and was sent down from heaven unto Paul to minister consoling words & to comin [communicate?] unto him a knowledge of the m mysteries of Godliness and if this was not the case I would ask how did Paul know so much about able Abel and why should he talk about his speaking after he was dead. now that he spoke after he was dead must be, by being sent down out of heaven, to administer. This then is the nature of the priesthood, every man holding the presidency of his dispensation and one man holding the presidency of them all even Adam. and Adam receiving his Presidency and Authority from Christ, but cannot receive a fulness, untill Christ shall present, the Kingdom to the Father which shall be at the end of the last dispensation—n The power, Glory, and blessings of the Priesthood could not continue with those who received ordination only as their righteousness continued, for Cain also being Authorized to offer sacrifice but not offering it in righteousness, therefore he was cursed. It signifies then, that the ordinances must be kept in the very way God has appointed, otherwise their priesthood will prove a cursing instead of a blessing. If Cain had fulfilled the law of righteousness as did Enoch he could have walked o with God all the days of his life and never failed of a blessing. Gen [blank] [“]And Enoch walked with God after he begat Methuselah 300 years and begat Sons and Daughters and all the days of Enoch were 365 years and Enoch walked with God and he was not for God took him.[“]15 Now this Enoch God reserved unto himself that he should not die <at> and that time and appointed unto him a ministry unto terrestrial bodies of whom there has been but little revealed, He is reserved also unto a the presidency of a dispensation— of and more shall be said of him and terrestrial bodies in another treatise [treatise] p He is a ministering Angel to minister for to those who shall be heirs of salvation and appeared unto Jude as Abel did unto Paul. therefore Jude spoke of him 14 & 15 verses in Jude. [“]and Enoch the Seventh revealed these sayings. Behold the Lord cometh with ten thousand of his saints[“] Paul was also acquainted with this Character and received instructions from him.
Heb 11 Chap. 5 ver. [“]By Faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death, and was not found because God had translated him for before his translation he had this testimony that he pleased God. But without faith it is impossible to please God, for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a revealer to those who diligently seek him,[“]—
q Now the doctrine of translation is a power which belongs to this priesthood, there are many things which belong to the powers of the priesthood and the keys thereof that have been kept hid from before the foundation of the world. they are hid from the wise and prudent to be revealed in the last times. many may have supposed, that the— doctrine of translation was a doctrine whereby men were taken immediately into the presence of God and into an Eternal fulness but this is a mistaken
r idea. There place of habitation is that of the terrestrial order and a place prepared for such characters, he held in reserve to be ministring Angels Unto many planets, and who as yet have not entered into so great a fulness as those who are resurrected from the dead, See Heb 11 Chap part of the 35 verse "others were tortured not accepting deliverance that they might obtain a better resurrection["] Now it was evident, that there was a better resurrection or else God would not have revealed it unto paul wherein then can it be said a better ressurection? This distinction is made between the doctrine of the actual ressurection and the doctrine of translation, the doctrine of translation obtains deliverance from the tortures and sufferings of the body but their existance will prolong as to their labors and toils of the ministry before they can enter in to so great a rest and glory, but on the other hand those who were tortured not accepting deliverance received an immediate rest from their labors, See Rev [blank] ["]And I heard a voice from heaven saying blessed are the dead who die in the Lord for from henceforth they do rest from their labors and their works do follow them["]—23 They rest from their labors for a long time and yet their work is held in reserve for them, that they are permitted to do the same works after they receive a ressurection for their bodies, but we shall leave this subject and the subject of the terrestrial bodies for another time in order to treat upon them more fully u The next great grand patriarch who held the keys of the priesthood was Lamech See Gen 5 Chap 28 & 29 verses— ["]And Lamech lived 182 years and begat a Son and he called his name Noah saying this same shall comfort us concerning our work and the toil of our hands because of the ground which the Lord has Curst.["] The priesthood continued from Lamech to Noah Gen 6 Chap 13 verse. ["]And God said unto Noah the end of all flesh is before me, for the earth is filled with violence through them, and behold I will destroy them with the earth," thus we behold the keys of this priesthood consisted in obtaining the voice of Jehovah that he talked with him in a familiare and friendly manner, that he continued to him the keys, the covenants, the power and the glory with which he blessed Adam at the beginning and the offering of sacrifice which also shall be continued at the last time. for all the ordinances and duties that ever have been required by the priesthood under the directions and commandments of the Almighty ~~in the last dispensation at the end thereof~~ in any of the dispensations, shall all be had in the last dispensations— Therefore all things had under the Authority of the Priesthood At any former period shall be had again— bringing to pass the restoration spoken of by the mouth of all the Holy prophets— ~~then <Malach 3—3> shall the Sons of Levi offer unto the Lord an acceptable offering~~ then shall the sons of Levi offer an acceptable sacrifice to the Lord Se[e] Malichi 3 Chap— 3 & 4 ["]And he shall sit as a refiners fire and purifier of silver; and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the Lord["]

w It will be necessary here to make a few observations on the doctrine, set forth in the above quotation, As it is generally supposed that sacrifice was entirely done away, <when the great sacrific[ic]e was offered up—> and that there will be no necessity for the ordinance of sacrifice in future; but those who assert this, are certainly not aquainted with the duties, privileges and authority of the priesthood. <or with the prophets> The offering of sacrifice is has ever been connected, and forms a part of the <duties of the> priesthood. It began ~~which~~ with the priesthood and will be continued untill after the coming of christ from generation to generation—— x We frequently have mention made of the offering of Sacrifice by the servants of the most high in antient days prior to the law of moses, See [blank] which ordinances will be continued when the priesthood is restored with all its Authority power and blessings. Elijah was the last Prophet that held the keys of this priesthood, and who will, before the last dispensation, restore the Authority and delive[r] the keys of this priesthood in order that all the ordinan[c]es may be attended to in righteousness. <It is true that the Savior had authority and power to bestow this blessing <but the sons of Levi were too predjudi[ced]>

And I will send Elijah the prophet before the great and terrible day of the Lord &c &c.

Why send Elijah because he holds the keys of the Authority to administer in all the ordinances of the priesthood and without the Authority is given the ordinances could not be administered in righteousness.

y It is a very prevalent opinion that ~~in the sacrifices~~ <sacrifices> of <which> were offered were entirely consumed, this was not the case if you read Leviticus [blank] Chap [blank] Verses you will observe that the priests took a part as a memorial and offered it up before the Lord, while the remainder was kept for the benefit <maintenance> of the priests— So that the offerings and sacrifices are not all consumed upon the Alter, but the blood is sprinkled and the fat and certain other portions are consumed These sacrifices as well as every ordinance belonging to the priesthood will when the temple of the Lord shall be built <and the sons [of] Levi be purified> be fully restored and attended to ~~then the Sons of Levi shall be purified~~. all their powers raniffications [ramifications], and blessings— this ever was did and will be exist when the powers of the Melchisadc Priesthood are sufficiently manifest. else how can the restitution of all things spoken of by all the Holy prophets be brought to pass ~~be brought to pass~~, It is not to be understood that, the law of Moses will be fully established again with all its rights and <variety of ceremonies> ceremonies <this has never been spoken off by the prophets> but those things which existed prior to Mose's day viz sacrifice, will be continued— It may be asked by some what necesssity for Sacrifice since the great Sacrifice was offered? In answer to which if Repentance Baptism and faith ~~were necessary to Salvation~~ <existed> prior to the days of christ what necessity for them since that time——

The priesthood has descended in a regular line from Father to Son through their succeeding generations
See Book of Doctrine & Covenants

Letter to the Saints in Kirtland, Ohio, 19 October 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

Nauvoo Hancock County, Ills
Oct 19th 1840

To the Saints in Kirtland Ohio

Dearly beloved brethren in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ.

We take this opportunity of informing you that we yet remember the saints scattered about in the regions of Kirtland & feel interested in their welfare as well as in that of the Saints at large.

We have beheld with feelings peculiar to ourselves the situation of things in Kirtland and the numerous difficulties to which the Saints have been subjected by false friends as well as open enemies. All these circumstances have more or less engaged our attention from time to time.

b

We likewise must complain of the ~~stake of Kirtland for not writing to us~~ the brethren who are in office and authority in the Stake of Kirtland for not writing to us and making known their difficulties and their affairs from time to time so that they might be advised in matters of importance to the well being of said stake; but above all for not sending one word of consolation to us while we were in the hands of our enemies— and thrust into dungeons.

Some of our friends from various sections sent us letters which breathed a kind and sympathetick spirit, and which made our afflictions and sufferings [en]durable. All was silent as the grave no feelings of sorrow sympathy or affection to cheer the heart under the gloomy shades of affliction and trouble through which we had to pass.

c

Dear bretheren could you realize that your bretheren were thus circumstantial and were to bear up under the weight of affliction and woe which was heaped upon them by their enemies and you stand unmoved and unconcerned!!! Where were the bowels of compassion, Where was the love which ought to characterize the Saints of the most high, did those high born and noble feelings lie dormant, or were you insensible of the treatment we received.

However, we are disposed to leave these things to God and to futurity. and feel disposed to forget this coldness on the part of the Saints in Kirtland, and to look to the future with more pleasure than were while we contemplate the past; and shall by the assistance of our Heavenly Father, take such steps as we think best calculated to promote the interest of the saints and for the promotion of truth & righteousness, and the building up of the kingdom in these last days.

d

The situation of Kirtland was brought before the general Conference holden at this place on the 3^d. instant, when it was resolved that Elder Almon Babbit[t] should be appointed to preside over the Stake of Kirtland and that he be privileged to choose his own counselors; We therefore hope that the Saints will hold up the hands of our beloved brother, and unite with him in endeavoring to promote the interest of the kingdom.

It has been deemed prudent to advise the Eastern bretheren who desire to locate in Kirtland, to do so, consequently you may expect an increase of members in your stake, who probably will be but young in the faith and who will require kind treatment. We therefore hope the bretheren will feel interested in the welfare of the saints, and will use all their endeavors to promote the welfare of the bretheren who may think proper to take up their residence in that place.

e

If you should put away from your midst all evil speaking, backbiting & unge[ne]rous thoughts and feelings; humble yourselves and cultivate every principle of virtue & Love then will the blessings of Jehovah rest upon you and you will yet see good and glorious days, peace will be within your gates, and prosperity in your borders which may our heavenly Father grant in the name of Jesus Christ is the prayer of your. in the bonds of the Covenant,

Joseph Smith Jr.
Hyrum Smith

P.S. Elder Almon Babbit is instructed to hold the keys of the ~~Lords~~ House of the Lord. We therefore hope that they will be put into his hands as he will hold them for the benefit of the Church and subject to our instructions

J Smith Jr.
H. Smith

Bill to Incorporate the Church, 14 December 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a A Bill to incorporate the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints
- Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Joseph Smith, Hyrum Smith, Sidney Rigdon, William Marks, William Law, Elias Higbee, R[obert] B. Thompson, A[lanson] Ripley, Orson Pratt, D. C. [Don Carlos] Smith, Thomas Grover, D[imick B.] Huntington, A[rthur] Morrison, Charles [C.] Rich, T[heodore] Turley, H[enry] G. Sherwood, E[benezzer] Robinson, G[eorge] W. Robinson, V[inson] Knight, and their associates and successors, the officers and members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, commonly called Mormons, are hereby created, constituted and declared to be, a body corporate and politic, with perpetual succession, with all and singular the powers, privileges, and prerogatives, of a corporation, by the name of the “Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints,” the First Presidency of which, in conjunction with the General Assembly of said church, or the General Conference of said church, shall constitute the law-making department of the corporation for all secular purposes, with full power and authority to do all such acts as they may consider necessary for the welfare and prosperity of said church, and the said First Presidency, and their successors in office, shall be trustees in trust for the church, for the acquisition, regulation, or disposal, of all property, real, personal, or mixed, belonging to said church, or which may arise or accrue to the same; Provided, That no act shall be done repugnant to, or inconsistent with, the Constitution of the United States, or <the> of this state <constitution and laws of this state>
- b
- c Sec. 2. The corporators herein named shall meet, at the City of Nauvoo, on the 4th day of July next for the purpose of organization, and this act shall take effect, and be in force from, and after said day. [1/2 page blank]
[page 3 blank]

<to be Engrossed as amended
M[eritt] L Covell Secty—strike out all after the Enacti[n]g clause and insert the following—>

Letter to Quorum of the Twelve, 15 December 1840

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Check footnotes on the baptism for the dead stuff—there are other sources to look at.

Text

- a Nauvoo Hancock Co, Ills. Dec^r. 15. 1840

Beloved Brethren.

May Grace, Mercy, and Peace rest upon you, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Having several communications laying before me, from my Brethren the "Twelve" some of which have ere this merited a reply, but <from> the multiplicity of business which necessarily engages my attention I have delayed communicating to them, to the present time. Be assured, my beloved brethren, that I am no disinterested observer of the things which are transpiring on the face of the whole earth and amidst the general movements which are in progress, none is of more importance, than the glorious work in which you are now engaged, and consequently, I feel some anxiety on your account, that you may, by your virtue, faith, diligence, and charity, commend yourselves to one another, <to the Church of Christ> and <to> your Father which is in heaven, by whose grace you have been called to so holy a calling, and be enabled to perform the great and responsible duties which rest upon you. And I can assure you, that from the information I have received, I feel satisfied, that you have not been remiss, <in your duty> but that your diligence and faithfulness have been such, as must secure you the smiles of that God, whose servants you are, and the good will of the saints throughout the world.

The spread of truth throughout England is certainly pleasing; the contemplation of which, cannot but afford feelings of no ordinary kind in the bosoms of those who have had to bear the heat and burthen of the day, and who were its firm supporters, and strenuous advocates, in infancy, while surrounded with circumstances the most unpropitious, and its destruction threatened on all hands. But like the gallant Bark, that has braved the storm unhurt, spreads her canvass to the breeze, and nobly cuts her way through the yielding wave, more conscious than ever of the strength of her timbers and the experience and capabilities of her Captain, Pilate and crew.

It is likewise very satisfactory to <my> mind, that there has been such a good understanding existing between you, and that the saints have <so> cheerfully, hearkened to council and vied with each other in their labors of love; and in the promotion of truth and righteousness; this is as it should be in the church of Jesus Christ. Unity is strength. "How pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in Unity &c" Let the saints of the most high, ever cultivate this principle, and the most glorious blessings must result, not only to them individually but to the whole church— The order of the Kingdom will be maintained,— Its officers respected, and its requirements readily and cheerfully obeyed. Love is one of the leading characteristics of Deity, and ou[gh]t to be manifested by those who aspire to be the Sons of God. A man filled with the love of God, is not content with blessing his family alone, but ranges through the world, anxious to bless the whole of the human family. This has been your feelings and caused you to forego the pleasures of home, that you might be a blessing to others, who are candidates for immortality but and who were strangers to the principals of truth and for so doing I pray that Heaven's choicest blessings may rest upon you.

Being requested to give my advice respecting the propriety of your returning in the spring, I will do so willingly. I have reflected on the subject some time and am of the opinion that it would be wisdom in you to make preparations to leave the scene of your labors in the spring. Having carried the testimony to that land, and numbers having received it, consequently the leaven can now spread, without your being obliged to stay. Another thing, there has been some whisperings of the spirit; that there will be some agitation, some excitement, and some trouble in the land in which you are now laboring. I would therefore say in the mean time be diligent, organize the churches and let every one stand in his proper place, so that those who cannot come with you in the spring may not be left as sheep without shepherds.

I would likewise observe that inasmuch as this place has been appointed for the gathering of the saints, it is necessary that it should be attended to, in the order which the Lord intended it should; to this end I would say that as there are great numbers of the saints in England, who are extremely poor and not accustomed to the farming business, who must have certain preparations made for them before they can support themselves in this country, therefore to prevent confusion and disappointment when they arrive here, let those men who are accustomed to making machinery and those who can command a capital even if it be but small, come here as soon as convenient and put up machinery and make such other preparations as may be necessary, so, that when the poor come on they may have employment to come to. This place has advantages for a manufacturing and commercial purposes which but very few can boast of; and by establishing Cotton Factories, Foundries, Potteries &c &c would be the means of bringing in wealth and raising it to a very important elevation. I need not occupy more space on this subject as its reasonableness must be obvious to every mind. In my former epistle I told you my mind respecting the printing of the Book of Mormon. Hymn Book &c &c— I have been favored by receiving a Hymn Book from you and as far as I have examined it I highly approve of it and think it to be a very valuable collection. I am informed that the Book of Mormon is likewise printed, which I am glad to hear, and should be pleased to hear that it was printed in all the different Languages of the earth. You can use your own pleasure respecting printing the Book of Doctrine & Covenants, if there is a great demand for them, I have not any objections, but would rather encourage it.

I am happy to say, that as far as I have been made acquainted with your movements, I have been perfectly satisfied that they have been in wisdom, and I have no doubt but the spirit of the Lord has directed you. and this proves to my mind that you have been humble, and your desires have been, for the salvation of your fellow man, and not your own aggrandizement and selfish interest. As long as the saints manifest such a disposition their councils will be approved of, and their exertions crowned with success. There are many things of minor importance, on which you ask council, but which I think you will be perfectly able to decide upon as I you are more conversant with the peculiar circumstances than I can am, and I feel great confidence in your united wisdom, therefore you will excuse me for not entering into detail. If I should see any thing that was wrong, I should take the privilege of making known my mind to you and pointing out the evil.

j If Elder Parley P Pratt should wish to remain in England, for some time longer than the rest of the Twelve, he will feel himself at liberty to do so; as he his family are with him Consequently his circumstances are somewhat different to the rest, and likewise it is necessary that some one should remain who is conversant with the rules, regulations &c & of the church And continue the paper which is published; consequently taking all these things into consideration I would not press upon Brother Pratt to return in the spring.

I am happy to inform you that we are prospering in this place, and that the saints are more healthy than formerly, and from the decrease of sickness this season, when compared with the last, I am led to the conclusion that this, must eventually become a healthy place.

k There are at present about 3000 inhabitants in Nauvoo, and numbers are flocking in daily; several stakes have been set off in different parts of the county, which are in prospering circumstances. Provisions are much lower than when you left. Flour is worth about four dollars per barrel, corn 25 20 cents per bushel; Potatoes about 20 cents. and other things in about the same proportion. There has been a very plentiful harvest indeed, throughout the Union.

You will observe by the "Times & Season" that we are about building a Temple for the worship of our God in this place; preparations are now making, every tenth day is devoted by the brethren here, for quarrying rock &c &c. we have secured one of the most lovely sites for it that there is in this region of Country. It is expected to be considerably larger and on a more magnificent scale than the one in Kirtland and which will undoubtedly attract the attention of the great men of the earth We have a bill before the Legislature for the incorporation of the City of Nauvoo for the establishment of a Seminary and other purposes, which I expect will pass in a short time.

l You will also have received intelligence of the death of my Father, which event altho painful to the family and to the church generally, yet the sealing testimony of the truth of the work of the Lord was indeed satisfactory; the particulars of his death &c you will find in the Sept^r number of the "Times and seasons" Brother Hyrum [Smith] succeeds him as patriarch of the Church, according to his last directions and benedictions.

Several persons of eminence [eminence] and distinction in society, have joined the Church, and become obedient to the faith, and I am happy to inform you that the work is spreading very fast on this continent, some of the Brethren are now in New Orleans, and we expect to have a gathering from the South.

m I have had the pleasure of wel[c]oming about One hundred of the Brethren from England, who came with Elder [Theodore] Turley, the remainder I am informed stop[p]ed in Kirtland, not having means to get any further. I think ~~they can~~ those that came here did not take the best possible rout, or the least expensive. Most of the brethren have obtained employment of one kind or another and appear tolerably well contented and seem disposed to hearken to council. Brothers Robinson & Smith lately had a letter from Elders [Heber C.] Kimball, [George A.] Smith & [Wilford] Woodruff in London which gave us information of the commencement of the work of the Lord in that City, which I was glad to hear. I am likewise informed the Elders have gone to Australia & to the East Indies I feel desirous that every providential opening of that kind should be filled, and that you should prior to your leaving England, send the gospel into as many parts as you possibly can.

n Beloved brethren, you must be aware in some measure of my feelings when I contemplate the great work which is now rolling on, and the relationship which I sustain to it; while it is extending to distant lands, and islands, and thousands are embracing it, I realize in some measure my responsibility and the need I have of support from above, and wisdom from on high; that I may be able to teach this people, which have now become a great people, the principles of righteousness, and lead them agreeably to the will of heaven so that they may be perfected and prepared to meet the Lord Jesus Christ, when he shall appear. in great glory. Can I rely on your prayers to your heavenly Father in my behalf? and on the prayers of all my brethren & sisters in England? (whom having not seen yet I love) that I may be enabled to escape every snare of satan, surmount every difficulty, and bring this people, to the enjoyment of those blessings, which are reserved for the righteous I ask this at your and their hands in the name of Jesus Christ.

o Let the saints remember that great things depend on their individual exertion, and that they are called to be co-workers with us and the holy spirit in accomplishing the great works of the last days, and in consideration of the extent, the blessings, and the glories of the same let every selfish feeling be not only buried, but annihilated, and let love to God and man, predominate and reign triumphant in every mind, that their hearts may become like unto Enoch's of old so that they may comprehend all things, present, past, and future, and "come behind in no gift waiting for the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ". The work in which we are unitedly engaged in, is one of no ordinary kind, the enemies we have to contend against are subtle and well skilled in maneuvering, it behoves us then to be on the alert, to concentrate our energies, and that the best feelings should exist in our midst, and then by the help of the Almighty we shall go on from victory to victory and from conquest unto conquest, our evil passions will be subdued, our prejudices depart, we shall find no room in our bosoms for hatred, vice will hide its deformed head, and we shall stand approved in the sight of heaven and be acknowledged "the Sons of God" Let us realize that we are not to live to ourselves but to God by so doing the greatest blessings will rest upon us both in time and in Eternity.

q I presume the doctrine of "Baptism for the dead" has ere this reached your ears, and may have raised some inquiries in your mind respecting the same. I cannot in this letter give you all the information you may desire on the subject, but aside from my knowledg[e] independant of the Bible, I would say, that this was certainly practized by the antient churches And. St Paul endeavors to prove the doctrine of the ressurection from the same, and says “else what shall they do who are baptized for the dead[”] &c &c. I first mentioned the doctrine in public while preaching the funeral sermon of Bro [Seymour] Brunson, and have since then given general instructions to the Church on the subject. The saints have the priviledge of being baptized for those of their relatives who are dead, who they feel to believe would have embraced the gospel if they had been priviledged with hearing it, and who have received the gospel in the spirit through the instrumentality of those who may have been commissioned to preach to them while in the prison. Without enlarging on the subject you will undoubtedly see its consistancy, and reasonableness, and presents the the gospel of Christ in probably a more enlarged scale than some have received it. But as the performance of this right is more particularly confined to this place it will not be necessary to enter into particulars, at the same time I allways feel glad to give all the information in my power, but my space will not allow me to do it.

s We had a letter from Elder [Orson] Hyde a few days ago, who is in New Jersey, and is expecting to leave for England as soon as Elder [John E.] Page reaches him. He requested to know in his letter if converted Jews are to go to Jerusalem or to come to Zion. I therefore wish you to inform him that converted Jews must come here. If Elder Hydes & Pages testimony to the Jews at Jerusalem should be received then they may know “that the set time hath come”: I will write more particular instructions to them afterwards. Your

Your families are well and generally in good spirits, and bear their privations with christian fortitude and patience.

Brother [Willard] Richards’ question respecting arriving in the spring is answered I shall be very happy to see him & his family & likewise Brother [Joseph] Fielding, tell him that Bro [Robert B.] Thompson is making preparations for his coming.

t With respect to the rout best to be taken I think you will be better able to <give> advise than myself. But I would not advise coming round by the lakes. And it would not be prudent to come via New Orleans in the sickly season. but in the spring or fall or winter it might do. Give my kind love to all the brethren, and sisters, and tell them I should have been pleased to have come over to England to see them, but am afraid that I shall be under the necessity of remaining here for some time, therefore I give them a pressing invitation to come and see me.

I am D^r Brethren Yours, Affectionately Joseph Smith
 To the Travelling High Council and Elders of the Church of Jesus Christ of L.D.S. in Great Britain
 Do not understand me to say that all the Elders are to come with you, as it will be necessary for some to stay. J.
 To the “Twelve”

Discourse, December 1840, as Reported by William Clayton

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

A key by Joseph Smith Dec^m 1840—W. C. [William Clayton]

If an Angel or spirit appears offer him your hand; if he is a spirit from God he will stand still and not offer you his hand. If from the Devil he will either shrink back from you or offer his hand, which if he does you will feel nothing, but be deceived.
A good Spirit will not deceive.
 Angels are beings who have bodies and appear to men in the form of man.

1841

Joseph Smith

Introduction to 1841

sdf

Discourse, 5 January 1841

As Reported by William P. McIntire

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a a short minute of the subjects & the most promonent matter as brought fourth from those subjects at Joseph's office Jan.— 8th [5th] 1840 [1841]
subject first.— Discused by D. C. [Don Carlos] Smith; also this preciple [principle] practized by man; the blessings & results of the same he said the pri[n]ciple would bind the H[e]arts of man togather & give them confidence in each other & as John says thy word is truth; so he says if we keep his word— we shall all be actuated by the same principle & be as one man; & as angels are obedient to the same word we shall have Concorse to them & also to all the Heavenly throng; Joseph said to D. C. Smith that to be free <from> the Coruption of the Earth that man the speaker should all ways speak in his natureal tone of voice; & not to keep in one loud strain, but to act without affectation
- b Next subject was— did the Lord God <make> the Earth out of nothing;— By D. Ells— says he God did not make th[e] earth out of nothing— for it is contrary to  rashanal [rational] mind & reason. that a something could be brought from— a nothing;— also it is contrary to the principle & means by witch God does work; for instance; when God fo[r]med man, he made him of something; the dust of the Earth, & he allways took a somthing to afect a something Else; oft he takes man <to> scorge his fellow man, or watter to destroy man— or fire to distroy man or angels for i[n]stance the angel that went
- c forth to distroyed a hundred thousand one knight [night] Joseph Smith said to D Ells, & to the Congragetion that he for a len[g]th of time, thought on phreknoledgee [phrenology]; & that he had a revalation. the Lord rebukeing him sharply on Creating such a thing; & further said there was no reality in such a science but was the workes of the Devil; he also said the Lord had told him that bro.— Law would do well; he would go & preach the gospel he also said as for his own knowledge the Earth was ~~make~~ made out of sumthng for it was imposible for samthng to be made out of nothing fire,— air, & watter are eternal existant principles which are the Composition of which the earth— has been Composed; also this, earth has been organized owt of portions of other globes that has be disorganized; in testimony that this earth was not the first of Gods
- d work; he quoted a pasage from the testament where Jesus said all things that he had saw the father do he had done & that he done nothing but what he saw the father do John the 5th he also siad in testimony of the situation the saints in the presence of God. that they had flesh & bones & that was the agreement in eter[n]ity to come here & take on them tabernicles & the differance between us & satin [Satan] in that respect is that he fell— & had not opertunity to come in the flesh— & that he allways is striving to get others as miserable as himself—

As Reported by William Clayton

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a By Joseph, Jany. 5th, 1841, at the organization of a school of instruction.
- Description of Paul— He is about 5 foot high; very dark hair; dark complexion; dark skin; large Roman nose; sharp face; small black eyes, penetrating as eternity; round shoulders; a whining voice, exept when elevated and then it almost resembles the roaring of a Lion. He was a good orator, but Doctor [John C.] Bennett is a superior orator, and like Paul is active and diligent, always, employing himself in doing good to his fellow men.
- b By Joseph, January 5th, 1841. Answer to the question, was the Priesthood of Melchizedeck taken away when Moses died. All priesthood is Melchizedeck; but there are different portions or degrees of it. That portion which brought Moses to speak with God face to face was taken away; but that which brought the ministry of angels remained. All the Prophets had the Melchizedeck Priesthood and was ordained by God himself.
- c The world and earth are not synonymous terms. The world¹ is the human family. This earth was organized or formed out of other planets which were broke up and remodelled and made into the one on which we live. The elements are eternal. That which has a beginning will surely have an end.
- d Take a ring, it is without beginning or end; cut it for a beginning place, and at the same time you ~~will~~ have an ending place.
- e A key, every principle proceeding from God is eternal, and any principle which is not eternal is of the Devil. The sun has no beginning or end, the rays which proceed from himself have no bounds, consequently are eternal. So it is with God. If the soul of man had a beginning it will surely have an end. In the translation; “without form and void” it should read “empty and desolate” The word “created” should be formed or organized.
- f Observations on the Sectarian God.
- That which is without body or parts is nothing. There is no other God in heaven but that God who has flesh and bones. John 5— 26, “As the father hath life in himself, even so hath he given the son to have life in himself.” God the father took life unto himself precisely as Jesus did. The first step in the salvation of men is the laws of eternal and self-existent principles.
- g Spirits are eternal. At the first organization in heaven we were all present and saw the Savior chosen and appointed, and the plan of salvation made and we sanctioned it. We came to this earth that we might have a body and present it pure before God in the Celestial Kingdom. The great principle of happiness consists in having a body. The Devil has no body, and herein is his punishment. He is pleased when he can obtain the tabernacle of man and when cast out by the Savior he asked to go into the herd of swine showing that he would prefer a swines body to having none. All beings who have bodies have power over those who have not. The devil has no power over us only as we permit him; the moment we revolt at anything which comes from God the Devil takes power.
- h This earth will be rolled back into the presence of God and crowned with Celestial Glory.

As Reported by Unidentified Scribe

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

¹Compare Christ’s remarks about the world in John 15:18ff.

Original Source

Text

- a [previous page(s) missing] have an ending place, A. key. Every principle proceeding from God is eternal; and any principle which is not etenal is of the Devil. The sun has no beginning or end, the rays which proceed from himself have no bounds; consequently are eternal; so it is with God, If the soul of man had a beginning it will sureley have an end. In the translation, "without form and void" it should read "empty & desolate, The word created should be formed or organized.—
- b Observations on the sectarian God—
- That which is without body or parts is nothing. There is no other God in heaven but that God who has flesh & bones. John 5— 26 as the Father hath lives <life> in himself even so hath he given the son to have life in himself. God the Father took life unto himself, precisely as Jesus did. The first step in the salvation of man, is the laws of eternal and selfexistent principles. Spirits are eternal. At the first organization in heaven we were all present & saw the Saivior, chosen & appointed, and the place of salvation made and we san[c]tioned it. We came to this earth that we might have a body, & present it pure before before God in the celestial kingdom. The great principle of happiness consists in having a body. The Devil has no body, & herein is his punishment he is pleased when he can obtain the tabernacle of man; & when cast out by the saivour he asked to go into the herd of swine, showing that he would prefer a swines body to haveing none All beings who have bodies have power over these who have not. The Devil has no power over those us only as we permit him. The moment we
- d revolt at any thing which comes from God, the Devil takes power.— This earth will be roled back into the presence of God & crowned with celestial glory—

Account of Meeting, 12 January 1841

As Reported by William P. McIntire

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Tuesday the 19 <12>th at M^r. Davises—
1st. subject education by M^r. [blank] he said a people whose minds were Culavated [cultivated] & Man[n]ers Refined By Education that they had Great & precious E[n]joyment that Ignorant had Not
2^d. subject was Vice by Mr. stout [Hosea Stout] he said Murder theft & the Like come from indulgances in this principle—
- b Joseph— said that some things ware Eavils that did not come under the Head of vise; for instance one Nation would Come against [an]other it would be an Eavil on the Nation was Come aganst yet it would not be a vice for them to Repell—
Virtue was 3^d subject
- c 4th. subject the Gospel by M^r. Badlam [Alexander Badlam Sr.] he lectors on it till he Comes the Laying on the hands for the Holy Ghost— then Joseph— takes it up & ad[d]s the Resurection & Eternal Judgment in the Eternal Judgment there is many things to know & to under stand in Gods Judging for instance Peter said Davidd had not yet ascend to heaven & that he was a Murderer— & that his soul was in Hell is plainly told By Peter in acts— 2^d. ch— Petter shews plainer [i]t in the 3^d of acts that a Murderer could Not be Red [ee]med intill he would send Jesus Christ which before was preached unto you &c— that is that faith Repentance & Baptism would not save them untill the[y] ware scourged in hell or paid the Last farthing—

Proclamation, 15 January 1841

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a A PROCLAMATION, TO THE SAINTS SCATTERED ABROAD;
- GREETING:
Beloved Brethren:—
- The relationship which we sustain to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, renders it necessary that we should make known from time to time, the circumstances, situation, and prospects of the church, and give such instructions as may be necessary for the well being of the Saints. and for the promotion of those objects, calculated to further their present and everlasting happiness.
- We have to congratulate the Saints on the progress of the great work of the “last days;” for not only has it spread through the length and breadth of this vast continent; but on the continent of Europe, and on the Islands of the sea, it is spreading in a manner entirely unprecedented in the annals of time.
- b This appears the more pleasing when we consider, that but a short time has elapsed, since we were unmercifully driven from the State of Missouri, after suffering cruelties and persecutions in their various, and horrid forms.— Then our overthrow, to many, seemed inevitable, while the enemies of truth triumphed over us, and by their cruel reproaches endeavored to aggravate our sufferings. But “the Lord of Hosts was with us, the God of Jacob was our refuge!” and we were delivered from the hands of bloody and deceitful men; and in the State of Illinois we found an asylum, and were kindly welcomed by
- c persons worthy the characters of FREEMEN. It would be impossible to enumerate all those who in our time of deep distress, nobly came forward to our relief, and like the good Samaritan poured oil into our wounds, and contributed liberally to our necessities, as the citizens of Quincy en masse and the people of Illinois, generally, seemed to emulate each other in this labor of love. We would, however, make honorable mention of Governor [Thomas] Carlin, Judge [Richard M.] Young, General [Samuel] Leech, Judge [James] Ralston, Rev. Mr. Young, Col. Henry, N[ehemiah] Bushnell, John Wood, I[saac] N. Morris, S[yvester] M. Bartlett, Samuel Holmes, and J[oseph] T. Holmes, Esquires, who will long be remembered by a grateful community for their philanthropy to a suffering people, and whose kindness on that occasion is indelibly engraven on the tablet of our hearts, in golden letters of love.
- d We would, likewise, make mention of the Legislature of this State, who, without respect of parties, without reluctance, freely, openly, boldly, and nobly, have come forth to our assistance, owned us as citizens and friends, and took us by the hand, and extended to us all the blessings of civil, political, and religious liberty, by granting us, under date of Dec. 16, 1840, one of the most liberal charters, with the most plenary powers, ever conferred by a legislative assembly on free citizens, for the “City of Nauvoo,” the “Nauvoo Legion” and the “University of the City of Nauvoo.” The first of these charters, (that for the “City of Nauvoo,”) secures to us in all time to come, irrevocably, all those great blessings of civil liberty, which of right appertain to all
- e the free citizens of a great civilized republic—’tis all we ever claimed. What a contrast does the proceedings of the legislature of this State present, when compared with those of Missouri, whose bigotry, jealousy, and superstition, prevailed to such an extent, as to deny us our liberty and our sacred rights—Illinois has set a glorious example, to the whole United States and to the world at large, and has nobly carried out the principles of her constitution, and the constitution of these United States, and while she requires of us implicit obedience to the laws, (which we hope ever to see observed) she affords us the protection of law—the security of life, liberty, and the peaceable pursuit of happiness.
- f The name of our city (Nauvoo,) is of Hebrew origin, and signifies a beautiful situation, or place, carrying with it, also, the idea of rest; and is truly descriptive of this most delightful situation. It is situated on the eastern bank of the Mississippi river, at the head of the Des Moines Rapids, in Hancock County; bounded on the east by an extensive prairie of surpassing beauty, and on the north, west, and south, by the Mississippi. This place has been objected to by some, on account of the sickness which has prevailed in the summer months, but it is the opinion of Doctor [John C.] Bennett, a physician of great experience and medical knowledge, that Hancock Co., and all the eastern and southern portions of the City of Nauvoo, are as healthy as any other portions of the western country, (or the world, to acclimated citizens,) whilst the northwestern portion of the city has experienced much affliction from ague and fever, which, however, he thinks can be easily remedied by draining the sloughs on the adjacent islands in the Mississippi.
- g The population of our city is increasing with unparralled [unparalleled] rapidity, numbering more than three thousand inhabitants. Every facility is afforded in the city and adjacent country, in Hancock County, for the successful prosecution of the mechanical arts, and the pleasing pursuits of agriculture. The waters of the Mississippi can be successfully used for manufacturing purposes, to an almost unlimited extent.

h Having been instrumental in the hands of our heavenly Father in laying a foundation for the gathering of Zion, we would say, let all those who appreciate the blessings of the gospel, and realize the importance of obeying the commandments of heaven, who have been blessed of heaven with the possession of this world's goods, first prepare for the general gathering—let them dispose of their effects as fast as circumstances will possibly admit, without making too great sacrifices, and remove to our city and county—establish and build up manufactories in the city, purchase and cultivate farms in the county—this i will secure our permanent inheritance, and prepare the way for the gathering of the poor. This is agreeable to the order of heaven, and the only principal on which the gathering can be effected—let the rich, then, and all who can assist in establishing this place, make every preparation to come on without delay, and strengthen our hands, and assist in promoting the happiness of the Saints. This cannot be too forcibly impressed on the minds of all, and the elders are hereby instructed to proclaim this word in all places where the Saints reside, in their public administrations, for this is according to the instructions we have received from the Lord.

j The Temple of the Lord is in progress of erection here, where the Saints will come to worship the God of their fathers, according to the order of his house, and the powers of the holy priesthood, and will be so constructed as to enable all the functions of the priesthood to be duly exercised, and where instructions from the Most High will be received, and from this place go forth to distant lands.

Let us then concentrate all our powers, under the provisions of our magna charta granted by the Illinois Legislature, at the “City of Nauvoo,” and surrounding country, and strive to emulate the actions of the ancient covenant fathers, and patriarchs, in those things, which are of such vast importance to this and every succeeding generation.

k The “Nauvoo Legion,” embraces all our military power, and will enable us to perform our military duty by ourselves, and thus afford us the power, and privilege, of avoiding one of the most fruitful sources of strife, oppression, and collision with the world. It will enable us to show our attachment to the state and nation as a people, whenever the public service requires our aid—thus proving ourselves obedient to the paramount laws of the land, and ready at all times to sustain and execute them.

l The “University of the City of Nauvoo,” will enable us to teach our children wisdom—to instruct them in all knowledge, and learning, in the Arts, Sciences and Learned Professions. We hope to make this institution one of the great lights of the world, and by and through it, to diffuse that kind of knowledge which will be of practical utility, and for the public good, and also for private and individual happiness. The Regents of the University will take the general supervision of all mat[t]ers appertaining to education from common schools up to the highest branches of a most liberal collegiate course. They will establish a regular system of education, and hand over the pupil from teacher to professor, until the regular gradation is consummated, and the education finished. This corporation contains all the powers and prerogatives of any other college or university in this state. The charters for the University and Legion are addenda to the city charter, making the whole perfect and complete.

m Not only has the Lord given us favor in the eyes of the community, who are happy to see us in the enjoyment of all the rights and privileges of freemen, but we are happy to state that several of the principal men of Illinois, who have listened to the doctrines we promulge, have become obedient to the faith and are rejoicing in the same; among whom is John C. Bennett, M. D., Quarter Master General of Illinois. We mention this gentleman first, because, that during our persecutions in Missouri, he became acquainted with the violence we were suffering, while in that State, on account of our religion—his sympathies for us were aroused, and his indignation kindled against our persecutors for the cruelties practised upon us, and their flagrant n violation of both the law and the constitution. Amidst their heated zeal to put down the truth, he addressed us a letter, tendering to us his assistance in delivering us out of the hands of our enemies, and restoring us again to our privileges, and only required at our hands to point out the way, and he would be forthcoming, with all the forces he could raise for that purpose—He has been one of the principal instruments, in effecting our safety and deliverance from the unjust persecutions and demands of the authorities of Missouri, and also in procuring the city charter—He is a man of enterprize, extensive acquirements, and of independant mind, and is calculated to be a great blessing to our community.

o Dr. Isaac Galland, also, who is one of our benefactors, having under his control, a large quantity of land in the immediate vicinity of our city, and a considerable portion of the city plot opened both his heart and his hands, and “when we were strangers—took us in,” and bade us welcome to share with him in his abundance; leaving his dwelling house, the most splendid edifice in the vicinity, for our accommodation, and betook himself to a small, uncomfortable dwelling—He sold us his large estates, on very reasonable terms, and on long credit, so that we might have an opportunity of paying for them, without being distressed, and has since taken our lands in Missouri in payment for the whole amount, and has given us p a clear and indisputable title for the same. And in addition to the first purchase, we have exchanged lands with him in Missouri to the amonnt of eighty thousand dollars. He is the honored instrument the Lord used, to prepare a home for us, when we were driven from our inheritances, having given him control of vast bodies of land, and prepared his heart to make the use of it the Lord intended he should. Being a man of extensive information, great talents, and high literary fame, he devoted all his powers and influence to give us a character.

q After having thus exerted himself for our salvation and comfort, and formed an intimate acquaintance with many of our people, his mind became wrought up to the greatest feelings, being convinced that our persecutions, were like those of the ancient Saints, and after investigating the doctrines we proclaimed, he became convinced of the truth and of the necessity of obedience thereto, and to the great joy and satisfaction of the church he yielded himself to the waters of baptism, and became a partaker with us in our sufferings. “choosing rather to suffer afflictions with the people of God than enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season.” In connexion with these, we would mention the names of Gen. James Adams, Judge of Probate, of Sangamon County, Dr. Green, of Shelby County, R[obert] D. Foster, M. D., a gentleman of great energy of character, late of Adams Co., Sidney Knowlton, of Hancock Co., Dr. [Lenox] Knight, of Putnam County, Indiana, with many others of respectability and high standing in society, with nearly all the old settlers in our immediate neighborhood. We make mention of this, that the Saints may be encouraged, and also that they may see the persecutions we suffered in Missouri, were but the prelude to a far more glorious display of the power of truth, and of the religion we have espoused.

s From the kind, uniform, and consistent course pursued by the citizens of Illinois, and the great success which has attended us while here, the natural advantages of this place for every purpose we require, and the necessity of the gathering of the Saints of the Most High, we would say, let the brethren who love the prosperity of Zion, who are anxious that her stakes should be strengthened, and her cords lengthened, and who prefer her prosperity to their chief joy, come, and cast in their lots with us, and cheerfully engage in a work so glorious and sublime, and say with Nehemiah, “we his servants will arise and build.”

t It probably would hardly be necessary to enforce this important subject on the attention of the Saints, as its necessity is obvious, and is a subject of paramount importance; but as watchmen to the house of Israel, as Shepherds over the flock which is now scattered over a vast extent of country, and the anxiety we feel for their prosperity and everlasting welfare, and for the carrying out the great and glorious purposes of our God, to which we have been called, we feel to urge its necessity, and say, let the Saints come here—THIS IS THE WORD OF THE LORD, and in accordance with the great work of the last days.

u It is true the idea of a general gathering has heretofore been associated with most cruel and oppressing scenes, owing to our unrelenting persecutions at the hands of wicked and unjust men; but we hope that those days of darkness and gloom have gone by, and from the liberal policy of our State government, we may expect a scene of peace and prosperity, we have never before witnessed since the rise of our church, and the happiness and prosperity which now await us, is, in all human probability, incalculably great. By a concentration of action, and a unity of effort, we can only accomplish the great work of the last days, which we could not do in our remote and scattered condition, while our interests both spiritual and temporal will be greatly enhanced, and the blessings of heaven must flow unto us in an uninterrupted stream; of this, we think there can be no question. The great profusion of temporal and spiritual blessings, which always flow from faithfulness and concerted effort, never attend individual exertion or enterprize. The history of all past ages abundantly attests this fact.

w In addition to all temporal blessings, there is no other way for the Saints to be saved in these last days, as the concurrent testimony of all the holy prophets clearly proves, for it is written—“They shall come from the east and be gathered the west; the north shall give up, and the south shall keep not back”—“the sons of God shall be gathered from far, and his daughters from the ends of the earth:” it is also the concurrent testimony of all the prophets, that this gathering together of all the Saints, must take place before the Lord comes to “take vengeance upon the ungodly,” and “to be glorified and admired by all those who obey his gospel.” The 50 Psalm from the first to the fifth verses, inclusive, describes the glory and majesty of that event. “The mighty God even the Lord hath spoken and called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.—Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined.

x Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: a fire shall devour before him and it shall be very tempestous round about him.

He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, (that he may judge his people.)

Gather my Saints together unto me; those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.”

We might offer many other quotations from the scriptures, but believing them to be familiar to the Saints we forbear.

y We would wish the Saints to understand that, when they come here they must not expect to find perfection, or that all will be harmony, peace and love; if they indulge these ideas, they will undoubtedly be deceived for here there are persons, not only from different States, but from different nations, who, although they feel a great attachment to the cause of truth, have their prejudices of ed[u]cation, and consequently it requires some time before these things can be overcome: again, there are many that creep in unawares, and endeavor to sow discord, strife and animosity, in our midst, and by so doing bring evil upon the Saints; these things we have to bear with, and these things will prevail either to a greater or lesser extent until “the floor be thoroughly purged” and “the chaff be burnt up.” Therefore let those who come up to this place, be determined to keep the commandments of God, and not be discouraged by those things we have enumerated, and then they will be prospered, the intelligence of heaven will be communicated to them, and they will eventually see eye to eye, and rejoice in the full fruition of that glory, which is reserved for the righteous.

aa In order to erect the Temple of the Lord, great exertions will be required on the part of the Saints, so that they may build a house which shall be accepted of by the Almighty, and in which his power and glory shall be manifested. Therefore let those who can, freely make a sacrifice of their time, their talents, and their property, for the prosperity of the kingdom, and for the love they have to the cause of truth, bid adieu to their homes and pleasant places of abode, and unite with us in the great work of the last days, and share in the tribulation, that they may ultimately share in the glory and triumph.

bb We wish it, likewise, to be distinctly understood that we claim no privilege but what we feel cheerfully disposed to share with our fellow citizens of every denomination, and every sentiment of religion; and therefore say, that, so far from being restricted to our own faith, let all those who desire to locate themselves in this place, or the vicinity, come, and we will hail them as citizens and friends, and shall feel it not only a duty, but a privilege, to reciprocate the kindness we have received from the benevolent and kind hearted citizens of the State of Illinois.

JOSEPH SMITH,
SIDNEY RIGDON,
HYRUM SMITH,
Presidents of the Church.

Nauvoo, January 15, 1841.

Account of Meeting, circa 19 January 1841

As Reported by William P. McIntire

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Next Meeting— Joseph said that before foundation of the Earth in the Grand-Counsel that the spirits of all men were subject to oppression & the express purpose of God in Giveing it a tabernicle was to arm it against the power of Darkness—for instance Jesus said get behind me Satan also the apostle said Resist the Devil & he will flee from you

Revelation, 19 January 1841 [D&C 124]

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

A revelation given to Joseph Smith, January 19th. 1841

Verily thus saith the Lord unto you my Servant Joseph Smith, I am well pleased with your offering, and acknowledgements which you have made; for unto this end have I raised you up, that I might shew forth my wisdom through the weak things of the earth.

Your prayers are acceptable before me, and in answer to them, I say unto you, that you are now called, immediately to make a solemn proclamation of my gospel, and of this stake, which I have planted to be a corner stone of Zion, which shall be polished with that refinement which is after the similitude of a palace. This proclamation shall be made to all the Kings of the world, to the four corners thereof; to the Honorable President Elect, and the high minded Governors of the nation in which you live, and to all the nations of the earth, scattered abroad. Let it be written in the spirit of meekness and by the power of the holy ghost, which shall be in you, at the time of the writing of the same; for it shall be given you by the holy ghost to know my will concerning those Kings and Authorities, even what shall befall them in a time to come. For behold I am about to call upon them to give heed to the light ~~of~~ ^{<and>} glory of Zion, for the set time has come, to favor her.

Call ye, therefore, upon them with loud proclamation and with your testimony, fearing them not, for they are as grass, and all their glory as the flower thereof, which soon falleth away; that they may be left also without excuse, and that I may visit them in the day of visitation when I shall unveil the face of my covering, to appoint the portion of the oppressor, among hypocrites, where there is gnashing of teeth; if they reject my servants, and my testimony, which I have revealed unto them. And again, I will visit and soften their hearts— many of them for your good, that ye may find grace in their eyes, that they may come to the light of truth, and the gentiles to the exaltation or lifting up of Zion; for the day of my visitation cometh speedily, in an hour when you think not of; and where shall be the safety of my people? and refuge for those who shall be left of them?

Awake! O Kings of the earth! Come ye, O! come ye with your gold and your silver, to the help of my people, to the house of the daughter of Zion.

And, again, verily I say unto you, let my servant, Robert Blashel Thompson, help you to write this proclamation, for I am well pleased with him, and that he should be with you, let him therefore hearken to your ~~council~~ counsel and I will bless him with a multiplicity of blessings, let him be faithful and true in all things from henceforth and he shall be great in mine eyes; but let him remember that his stewardship will I require at his hands.

And again, verily, I say unto you, blessed is my servant Hyrum Smith, for I the Lord loveth him, because of the integrity of his heart, and because, he loveth that which is right before me saith the Lord.

Again, let my servant John C. Bennett help you in your labor, in sending my word to the Kings and peoples of the Earth, and stand by you, even you, my servant Joseph Smith in the hour of affliction, and his reward shall not fail, if he receive ~~council~~ counsel, and for his love, he shall be great, for he shall be mine if he do this, saith the Lord. I have seen the work he hath done, which I accept, if he continue, and will crown him with blessings and great glory.

And, again, I say unto you, that it is my will that my servant Lyman Wight, should continue in preaching for Zion, in the spirit of meekness, confessing me before the world, and I will bear him up, as on eagle's wings, and he shall beget glory and honor to himself, and unto my name, that when he shall finish his work, that I may receive him unto myself, even as I did my servant David [W.] Patten, who is with me at this time, and also my servant Edward Partridge, and also, my aged servant Joseph Smith Sen^r, who sitteth with Abraham at his right hand, and blessed and holy is he, for he is mine.

And, again, verily I say unto you, my servant George Miller is without guile, he may be trusted because of the integrity of his heart; and ~~<for>~~ the love he has to my testimony, I the Lord loveth him. I therefore say unto you I seal upon his head the office of a "bishoprick" like unto my servant Edward Partridge, that he may receive the consecrations of mine house, that he may administer blessings upon the heads of the poor of my people saith the Lord; let no man despise my servant George for he shall honor me. Let my servant George, and my servant Lyman, and my servant John Snider, and others, build a house unto my name, such an one as my servant Joseph shall shew unto them, upon the place which he shall shew unto them also; and it shall be for a house for boarding; a house that strangers may come from afar to lodge therein— therefore let it be a good house, worthy of all acceptation, that the weary traveller may find health and safety, while he shall contemplate the word of the Lord, and the corner stone I have appointed for Zion. This house shall be a healthy habitation, if it be built unto my name, and if the Governor which shall be appointed unto it, shall not suffer any pollution to come upon it— It shall be holy, or the Lord your God will not dwell therein.

And, again, verily I say unto you, let all my saints, from afar; 'And send ye swift messengers, yea, chosen messengers and say unto them, Come ye, with all your gold, and your silver, and your preceious stones, and with all your antiquities, and with all who have knowledge of antiquities, that will come, may come, and bring the box tree, and the fir tree, and the pine tree, together with all the precious trees of the earth, and with iron, with copper and with brass, and with zink ^{<and with>} all your precious things of the earth, and build a house unto ~~mine~~ my name, for the Most High to dwell therein, for there is not place found on the earth; that he may come and restore again that which was lost unto you, or which he hath taken away, even the fulness of the Priesthood; for a baptismal font there is not upon the earth; that they, my saints may be baptized for those who are dead, for this ordinance belongeth to my house, and cannot be acceptable to me, only in the days of your poverty, wherein ye are not able to build a house unto me; but I command you, all ye my saints to build a house unto me, and I grant unto you a sufficien[t] time to build a house unto me; and during this time your baptisms, shall be acceptable unto me. But behold, at the end of this appointment, your baptisms for your dead, shall not be acceptable unto me, and if you do not these things, at the end of the appointment, ye shall be rejected as a church, with your dead, saith the Lord your God. For verily I say unto you, that after you have had sufficient time to build a house unto me, wherein the ordinance of baptizing for the dead belongeth, and for which the same was instituted from before the foundation of the world, your baptisms for your dead cannot be acceptable unto me, for therein are the keys of the Holy Priesthood ordained, that you may receive honor and glory. And after this time, your baptisms for the dead, by those who are scattered abroad are not acceptable unto me, saith the Lord; for it is ordained that in Zion and in her stakes, and in Jerusalem those places which I have appointed ^{<for refuge>} shall be the places for ~~your~~ the baptisms for your dead.

And, again, verily I say unto you, how shall your washings be acceptable unto me, except, ye perform them in a house which you have built to my name<?>, for, for this cause I commanded Moses that he should build a tabernacle, that they should bear it with them in the wilderness, and to build a house in the land of promise, that those ordinances might be revealed, which had been hid from before the world was; therefore, verily I say unto you, that your anointings and your washings, and your babtisms for the dead and your solemn assemblys, and your memorials for your sacrifices, by the sons of Levi, and for your oracles in your most holy places, wherein you receive conversations, and your statutes, and judgements, for the beginning of the revelations and foundation of Zion, and for the glory and honor and endowment of all her municipalities, are ordained by the ordinance of my holy house, which my people are allways Commanded to build unto my holy name.

And verily I say unto you, let this house be built unto my name, that I may reveal ~~my~~ <mine> ordinances therein, unto my people, for I deign to reveal unto my church, things which have been kept hid from before the foundation of the world, things that pertain to the dispensation of the fulness of times, and I will shew unto my servant Joseph all things pertaining to this house and the priesthood thereof, and the place whereon it shall be built, and ye shall build it on the place where you have contemplated building <it,> for that is the spot which I have chosen for you to build it. If ye labor with all your mights I will consecrate that spot, that it shall be made holy; and if my people will hearken unto my voice and unto the voice of my servants whom I have appointed to lead my people, behold, verily I say unto you, they shall not be moved out of their place, but if they will not hearken to my voice, nor unto the voice of these men whom I have appointed, they shall not be blest, because they pollute ~~my~~ mine holy grounds, and mine holy ordinances, and charters, and my holy words which I give unto them; And it shall come to pass, that if you build a house unto my name, and do not do the things that I say, I will not perform the oath which I make unto you, neither fulfill the promises which ye expect at my hands saith the Lord, for instead of blessings, ye, by your own works, bring cursings, wrath, indignation, and judgments upon your own heads by your follies and by all your abominations which you practise before me saith the Lord. Verily, verily, I say unto you, that when I give a commandment unto any of the sons of men, to do a work unto my name, and those sons of men, go with all their mights, and with all they have, to perform that work and cease not their diligence and their enemies come upon them, and hinder them from performing that work, behold, it behoveth me to require that work no more at the hands of those sons of men; but to accept of their offering. and the iniquity, and transgression of my holy laws and commandments I will visit upon <the heads of> those who hindered my work unto the third and fourth generation, so long; as they <repent not> & hate me, saith the Lord. God. Therefore for this cause have I accepted of the offerings of those whom I commanded to build up a city, and an house unto my name in Jackson County, Missouri and were hind[e]red by their enemies saith the Lord your God. And I will answer judgment, wrath and i[n]dignation; wailing and anguish, and gnashing of teeth upon ~~them~~ their heads unto the third and fourth generation, so long as they repent not, and hate me saith the Lord your God. And this, I make an ensample unto you, for your consolation concerning all those who have been commanded to do a work, and have been hindered by the hands of their enemies, and by oppression, saith the Lord your God; for I am the Lord your God and will save all those <of your brethren> who have been pure in heart, and have been slain in the land of Missouri saith the Lord.

And again, verily I say unto you, I command you again, to build an house to my name even in this place, that ye may prove yourself unto me, that ye are faithful in all things whatsoever I command you, that I may bless you, and crown you with honor, immortality, and eternal life.

And now I say unto you, as pertaining to my boarding house, which I have commanded you to build for the boarding of strangers, let it be built unto my name, and let my name, and be named upon it, and let my servant Joseph and his house have place therein from generation to generation. For this anointing have I put upon his head, that his blessings shall also be put upon the heads of his posterity after him; and as I said unto Abraham, concerning the kindreds of the earth, even so, I say unto my servant Joseph, in thee, and in thy seed shall the Kindreds of the earth be blessed

Therefore let my servant Joseph and his seed after him, have place in that house from generation to generation, for ever and ever, saith the Lord, and let the name of that house be called the Nauvoo House, and let it be a delightful habitation for man, and a resting place for the weary traveller, that he may comtemplate the glory of Zion, and the glory of this, the corner stone thereof; that he may receive also, the council from those whom I have set to be as plants of renown, and as watchmen upon her walls.

Behold, verily I say unto you, let my servant George Miller, and my servant Lyman Wight, and my servant John Snider, and my servant Peter Hawes [Haws], organize themselves, and appoint one of them to be a president over their quorum for the purpose of building that house, and they shall form a constitution whereby they may receive stock, for the building of that house. And they shall not receive less than fifty dollars for a share of stock in that house, and they shall be permitted to receive fifteen thousand dollars from any one man for stock in that house; but they shall not be permitted to receive over fifteen thousand dollars stock, from any one man; and they shall not be permitted to receive under fifty dollars for a share of stock from any one man in that house, and they shall not be permitted to receive any man as a stockholder in that house, except the same shall pay his stock into their hands at the time he receives stock, and in proportion ~~to the amount~~ to the amount of stock he pays into their hands, he shall receive stock in that house; but if he pay nothing into their hands, he shall not receive any stock in that house, and if any man pay stock into their hands it shall be for stock in that house, for himself and for his generation after him, from generation to generation, so long as he, and his heirs shall hold that stock, and do not sell, or convey that stock away out of their hands by their own free will and act— if you will do my will saith the Lord your God.

And again verily I say unto you if my servant George Miller, and my servant Lyman Wight, and my servant John Snider and my servant Peter Hawes, receive any stock into their hands, in monies or in ~~property~~ properties wherein they receive the real value of monies, they shall not appropriate any portion of that stock to any other purpose only in that house, and if they do appropriate any portion of that stock any where else, only in that house, without the consent of the stockholder, and do not repay four fold for the stock which they appropriate any where else, only in that house, they shall be accursed, and shall be moved out of their place saith the Lord God, for I the Lord am God and cannot be mocked in any of these things.

Verily: I say unto you let my servant Joseph pay stock into their hands for the building of that house as seemeth him good but my servant Joseph cannot pay over fifteen thousand dollars stock in that house, nor under fifty dollars, neither can any other man saith the Lord.

And there are others also, who wish to know my will concerning them, for they have asked it at my hands. Therefore I say unto you concerning my servant Vinson Knight, if he will do my will let him put stock into that house for himself and for his generation after him, from generation <to generation> and let him lift up his voice long and loud in the midst of the people to plead the cause of the poor and the needy, and let him not fail neither let his heart faint, and I will accept of his offerings, for they shall not be unto me as the offerings of Cain, for he shall be mine saith the Lord; let his family rejoice and turn away their hearts from affliction, for I have chosen him, and anointed him, and he shall be honored in the midst of his house, for I will forgive all his sins saith the Lord. Amen.

Verily I say unto you, let my servant Hyrum put stock into that house as seemeth him good for himself and his generation after him, from generation to generation ~~after him from generation to generation~~.

Let my servant Isaac Galland put stock into that house for I the Lord loveth him for the work he hath done and will forgive all his sins, therefore, let him be remembered for an interest in that house from generation to generation: Let my servant ~~William Marks~~ <Isaac Galland> be appointed among you and be ordained by my servant William Marks, and be blest of him to go with my servant Hyrum to accomplish the work that my servant Joseph shall point out unto them and they shall be greatly blessed.

Let my servant William Marks pay stock into that house as seemeth him good for himself and his generation from generation to generation.

Let my servant Henry G. Sherwood pay stock into that house as seemeth him good for himself and his seed after him from generation to generation.

Let my servant William Law pay stock into that house for himself and his seed after him from generation to generation; If he will do my will let him not take his family unto the eastern lands, even unto Kirtland: nevertheless I the Lord will build up Kirtland, but I the Lord have a scourge prepared for the inhabitants thereof; and with my servant Alman Babbitt [Almon Babbitt] there are many things with which I am not well pleased; behold he aspireth to establish his ~~council~~ counsel instead of the ~~council~~ counsel which I have ordained, even the presidency of my Church, and he setteth up a golden calf, for the worship of my people. Let no man go from this place who ~~hath~~ has come here, assaying to keep my commandments; if they live here let them live unto me, and if they die here let them die unto me, for they shall rest from all their labors here, and shall continue their works. Therefore let my servant William put his trust in me, and cease to fear concerning his family because of the sickness of the land, If ye love me Keep my commandments and the sickness of the land shall redound to your glory.

Let my Servant William go and proclaim mine everlasting gospel with a loud voice and with great joy as he shall be moved upon by my spirit unto the inhabitants of Warsaw and also unto the inhabitants of Carthage, and also unto the inhabitants of Madison [Fort Madison, Iowa Territory], and also unto the inhabitants of Burlington and await patiently and diligently for further instructions at my general conference saith the Lord. <If he will do my will> let him from henceforth hearken to the ~~council~~ counsel of my servant Joseph and with his interest support the cause of the poor and publish the new translation of my holy word unto the inhabitants of the earth, and if he will do this I will bless him with a multiplicity of blessings, that he shall not be forsaken, nor his seed be found begging bread.

And, again, verily I say unto you that my servant William, be appointed, ordained, and anointed as a ~~councillor~~ counsellor unto my servant Joseph in the room of my servant Hyrum, that my servant Hyrum may take the office of priesthood and patriarch, which was appointed unto him by his father by blessing and also by right, that from henceforth he shall hold the keys of the patriarchal blessings upon the heads of all my people, that who ever he blesses shall be blessed, and who ever he curseth shall be cursed, that whatsoever he shall bind on the earth shall be bound in heaven, and, that whatsoever he shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven, and from this time forth I appoint unto him, that he may be a prophet and a seer and a revelator unto my church as well as my servant Joseph, that he may act in concert also, with my servant Joseph, and that he shall receive ~~council~~ counsel from my servant Joseph, who shall shew unto him the keys whereby he may ask and receive, and be crowned with the same blessings. I crown upon his head, the bishoprick and blessing and glory, and honor and priesthood and gifts of the priesthood, that once ~~was~~ were put upon him that was my servant Oliver Cowdery; that my servant Hyrum may bear record of the things which I shall shew unto him, that his name may be had in honorable remembrance from generation to generation for ever and ever. Let my servant William <Law> also receive the Keys by which he may ask and receive blessings, let him be humble before me and be without guile and he shall receive of my spirit, even the comforter, which shall manifest unto him the truth of all things, and shall give him in the very hour, what he shall say, and these signs shall follow him, he shall heal the sick, he shall cast out Devils, and shall be delivered from those who would administer unto him deadly poison, and shall be led in paths where the poisonous serpents cannot lay hold upon his heel; and he shall mount up in the imagination of his thoughts as upon eagles wings, and what if I will that he should raise the dead, let him not withhold his voice, therefore let my servant William cry aloud and spare not, with joy and rejoicing, and with hosannas to him that sitteth upon the throne for ever and ever saith the Lord your God.

Behold I say unto you I have a mission in store for my servant William and my servant Hyrum and for them alone, and let my servant Joseph tarry at home, for he is needed, the remainder I will shew <unto> you hereafter, even so, Amen.

And, again, verily I say unto you, if my servant Sidney [Rigdon] will serve me and be a ~~counsellor~~ counsellor unto my servant Joseph, let him arise and come up and stand in the office of his calling, and humble himself before me and if he will offer unto me an acceptable offering and acknowledgements and remain with my people, behold I the Lord your God will heal him that he shall be healed and shall lift up his voice again on the mountains, and be a spokesman before my face; let him come and locate his family in the neighbourhood in which my servant Joseph resides; and in all his journeyings let him lift up his voice as with the sound of a trump and warn the inhabitants of the earth to flee the wrath to come; let him assist my servant Joseph, and also let my servant William Law assist my servant Joseph in making a solemn proclamation unto the kings of the earth even as I have before said unto you.

If my servant Sidney will do my will, let him not move his family unto the eastern lands, but let him change their habitation even as I have said: Behold, it is not my will that he should seek to find safety and refuge out of the city which I have appointed unto you, even the city of Nauvoo. Verily I say unto you, even now, that if he will hearken unto my voice it shall be well with him, even so, Amen.

And again verily I say unto you, let my servant Amos Davis pay stock into the hands of those whom I have appointed to build a house for boarding, even the Nauvoo House, this let him do if he will have an interest and let him hearken unto the ~~council~~ counsel of my servant Joseph, and labor with his own hands that he may obtain the confidence of men, and when he shall prove himself faithful in all things that shall be entrusted unto his care, yea even a few things, he shall be made ruler over many; let him therefore abase himself, that he may be exalted, even so, Amen.

And again, verily I say unto you if my servant Robert D. Foster will obey my voice, let him build a house for my servant Joseph according to the contract which <he> has made with him, as the door shall be open to him from time to time, and let him repent of all his folly and clothe himself with charity, and cease to do evil and lay aside all his hard speeches, and pay stock also into the hands of the quorum of the Nauvoo House for himself and for his generation after him, from generation to generation and hearken unto the ~~council~~ counsel of my servant Joseph and Hyrum and William Law, and unto the authorities which I have called to lay the foundation of Zion, and it shall be well with him, forever and ever, even so Amen.

And again, verily I say unto you let ~~my~~ no man pay stock to the quorum of the Nauvoo House, unless he shall be a believer in the Book of Mormon and the revelations I have given unto you saith the Lord your God for that which is more or less than this cometh of evil, and shall be attended with cursings and not blessing saith the Lord your God, even so Amen

And again, verily I say unto you let the quorum of the Nauvoo House, have a just recompence of wages, for all their labors which they do in building the Nauvoo House, and let their wages be as shall be agreed among themselves as pertaining to the price thereof, and let every man who pays stock bear his proportion of their wages, if it must needs be, for their support saith the Lord, otherwise their labors shall be accounted unto them for stock in that house even so, Amen.

Verily I say unto you, I now give unto you the offices belonging to my priesthood that ye may hold the keys thereof even the Priesthood which is after the order of Melchisadeck, which is after the order of my only begotten son. First, I give unto you Hyrum Smith to be a patriarch unto you to hold the sealing blessings of my church, even the holy spirit of promise, whereby ye are sealed up unto the day of redemption, that ye may not fall, notwithstanding the hour of temptation that may come upon you.

I give unto you my servant Joseph to be a presiding Elder over all my Church, to be a Translator, a Revelator, a Seer, and Prophet; I give unto him for ~~Councillors~~ Counsellors my servant Sidney Rigdon and my servant William Law that these may constitute a quorum and first presidency to receive the oracles for the whole church.

I give unto you my servant Brigham Young to be a president over the twelve travelling council which twelve hold the keys to open up the authority of my kingdom upon the four corners of the earth and after that to send my word to every creature, they are Heber C Kimbal[I], Parley P. Pratt, Orson Pratt, Orson Hyde, William Smith, John Taylor, John E. Page Wilford Woodruff, Willard Richards, George A. Smith; David Patten I have taken unto myself, behold his priesthood no man taketh from him, but verily I say unto you, another may be appointed unto the same calling.

And, again, I say unto you, I give unto you I give unto you a a High Council for the corner stone of Zion viz Samuel Bent, H. G. Sherwood, George W Harris, Charles C. Rich, Thomas Grover, Newel Knight, David Dort, [Lewis] Dunbar Wilson, Seymour Brunson I have taken unto myself, no man taketh his priesthood, but another may be appointed unto the same priesthood in his stead (and verily I say unto <you> let my servant Aaron Johnson be ordained unto this calling in his stead) David Ful[l]mer, Alpheus Cutler, William Huntington.

And again I give unto you Don C[arlos] Smith to be a president over a quorum of high priests, which ordinance is instituted for the prupose of qualifying those who shall be appointed as standing presidents or servants of over different stakes scattered abroad and they may travel also if they choose, but rather be ordained for standing presidents, this is the office of their calling sath the Lord your God, I give unto him Amasa Lyman and Noah Packard for councillors that they may preside over the quorum of high priests of my church saith the Lord.

And again I say unto you I give unto you I give unto you John A Hicks, Samuel Williams, and over the <Jesse Baker> which priesthood is to preside over the quorum of Elders, which quorum is instituted for standing ministers, nevertheless they may travel, yet they are ordained to be standing ministers to my church saith the Lord.

And, again, I give unto you Joseph Young Josiah Butterfield, Daniel Miles, Henry Herriman [Harriman] Zera Pulsipher, Levi Hancock, James Foster to preside over the quorum of seventies, which quorum is instituted for travelling Elders to bear record of my name in all the world, wherever the travelling high council, my apostles shall send them to prepare an way before my face, the difference between this quorum and the quorum of Elders is, that one is to travel continually and the other is to preside over the churches from time to time, the one has the responsibility of presiding from time to time, but the other has no responsibilitiy of presiding from time to time saith the Lord your God

And, again, I say unto you, I give unto you Vinson Knight, Samuel H. Smith and Shadrick [Shadrach] Roundy if he will receive it, to preside over the Bishoprick, a knowledge of said bishoprick is given unto you in the Book of Doctrine and Covenants.

And, again, I say give unto you, Samuel Rolfe and his councillors for priests, and the president of the Teachers and his councillors and also the president of the Deacons and his councillors, and also the president of the stake and his councillors the above offices I have given unto you and the keys thereof for helps and for governments for the work of the ministry, and the perfecting of my saints and a commandment I give unto you that you should fill all these offices and approve of those names which I have mentioned, or else disapprove of them at my general conference; and that ye should prepare rooms for all these offices in my house when you build it unto my name saith the Lord your God. even so. Amen.

Letter to Oliver Granger, 26 January 1841

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDHC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a

City of Nauvoo Jan^y: 26, 1841

Dear Brother [Oliver] Granger,
I wrote you a few days ago in answer to a letter recently received from you, expressing my surprise that I had not received the letters you mentioned; Since that time, I have to inform you that I have received two letters giving me an account of the proceeding of the Church in Kirtland and some of your business transactions. I am extremely sorry that the person by whom you sent those letters did not hand them over to me sooner, however, I assure you, I was glad to pe◊◊◊◊ <read> them and felt very much satisfied with the perusal. I was likewise very much pleased with the spirit which was manifest by the saints in Kirtland and for their desire to promote the interests of the Kingdom.
- b

If those letters had been received in their propper time, the probably might have acted differently at the last conference, but not having the information we desired, we acted to the best of our understanding, which I hope will prove advantageous to all parties. I hope you will not let any of the proceeding of last Conference disturb your mind, for we understood you were intending to come here last fall, and consequently thought it advisable to appoint some one to preside in Kirtland. I should be glad if you would co-opperate with Elder Babbit [Almon Babbitt] and both lay your Shoulders to the work, and if you do so I think you will be a blessing to the Church, and prosperity will Smile upon you.
- c

I should be much pleased to receive a letter from you as oft as you can make it convenient, and give me all the intelligence in your power. I am yet in the dark respecting the New York debts I should be much pleased to hear that they were settled.

Since writing the above I received yours of the 9th inst, and I assure you I was very much gratified to hear of your success in redeeming the "Lords House" &c I hope Dear Brother that success will attend all your efforts for the prosperity of the cause, so dear to the saints and that you will be abundantly rewarded by that God whose has called us to be co-workers with him and his holy spirit in these last days

d Be assured of my continued regard for your welfare and for the prosperity of the Saints in Kirtland, and I pray that they may prosper in every good word and work and after the afflictions and tribulations of mortality be crowned with everlasting joy in the celestial kingdom of our God.

We continue to prosper in this place and expect to have a large increase of inhabitants the next Season, we are making preparation for some large and extensive buildings which we intend to build Erect soon.

With sentiments of respect, I am very respectfully yours Affectionately

Joseph Smith

e P.S With respect to giving advise to the Saints moving to Kirtland I would say, that I feel desirous that the Eastern brethren should come to this place, but at the same time, those who had rather move to Kirtland than to this place are at liberty to do so.

I am pleased you have secured the keys of the Lords House and should advise you and you are hereby requested to hold them until I ~~home~~ come, ~~wh~~e I cannot say when I shall pay you a visit but I think not before the New York debts be settled. So if you are desirous to see me, you will have to exert yourselves to get the debts settled.

Please to write me all the p[ar]ticulars of your transactions and let me know when we shall have the pleasu[re] of Seeing you here

J. S.

f D^r [Isaac] Galland accompanied by some one of the brethren (perhaps Hyrum [Smith]) intend to leave this place in a few days for the East, on business for the church, they will call at Kirtland and will be glad to see you as you may possibly give them such information as ~~may~~ will be necessary for them in their business transactions.

J. S.

<NAUVOO ILL

Ja. 29

<25>

M^r Oliver Granger
Kirtland
Lake Co
Ohio

Account of Meeting and Discourse, circa 2 February 1841

As Reported by William P. McIntire

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Next Meeting— Joseph said the Lord said that we should build our house to his Name that we might be Baptized for the Dead— But if we Did it Not we should be Rejected & our Dead with us & this Church should Not be excepted [accepted]

Bro [William] Law Lectured on the 11th of Rom of the powers that be ordained of God the Law of Order in the heavenly Bodys as also in all animal Creation

Account of Meeting and Discourse, circa 9 February 1841

As Reported by William P. McIntire

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Next Meeting
I Hicks on prejedice & its Results first he Referred to the Maner of Mothers prejudeicing their Children in Infancy By telling faulseties & Cheating them—
Next Lorenzo the Benefits of such a Meeting or Schools— he treated on the Bumps also—
- b Next father Cole on the fullness of the Gospel— Born Benette [John C. Bennett] on Cretecizms said the Body aught to be perfect Easy in a Natureal way free from being Cramped By Clinching the hands, & Gestures suitable aught to accompany, so that it May be More pleasing & of Wait— the speaker aught to give time between sentences tell his hearers Comprehends— & if they do not, Repeat it again— the Speaker aught to have that Much decernment, to know by the Countenances of his hearers when the do Comprehend his word or sentance— he says the eye aught to follow all apropreate Gestures By the hand or hands, highth width or Depth—
- c Joseph said in answer to <M^r.> [Hosea] stout that adam Did Not Comit sin in [e]ating the fruit, for God had Dec[r]eed that he should Eat & fall— But in compliance with the Decree he should Die— only he should Die was the saying of the Lord therefore the Lord apointed us to fall & also Redeemed us— for where sin abounded Grace did Much More abound— for Paul says Rom.— 5— 10 for if— when were Enemys we were Reconciled to God by <the Death of> his Son, much more, being Reconciled, we shall be saved by his Life—

Account of Meeting and Discourse, circa 16 February 1841

As Reported by William P. McIntire

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Next Meetting Badlam [Alexander Badlam Sr.] on Mechanical Powers & utility— S[amuel] H. Smith on Virtue— T[heodore] Turley on the Results of Eivel—
- b Joseph said Concerning the God-head it was Not as many imagined— three Heads & but one body; he said the three were separate bodys, God the first & Jesus the Mediator the 2^d & the Holy Ghost & these three agree in one & this is the man[n]er we should approach God in order to get his blessings & he also said Every man ware is stimulated by a certain motive, ~~to act~~ motive preceeds action & if we want to know ourselves this is the key to Examine the motive what it is, & the fact will be manifest

Account of Meeting and Discourse, circa 23 February 1841

As Reported by William P. McIntire

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Next Metting first Shearwood [Henry G. Sherwood] on the Authantisitty of the book of Mormon 2 V Night [Vinson Knight] on Education—^d Davis on Charity— 4 [George] Miller on Man[n]ers—

Joseph said he Never wanted to hear a man snore Louder than he coul[d] shout in battle— he Did Not want a man say O Joseph how I Love you &cc & when the time of Danger come forsake him

Letter to Vilate Murray Kimball, 2 March 1841

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

City of Nauvoo March 2, 1841

Dear Sister [Vilate Murray] Kimball.

I can in some measure enter into your feelings respecting the occurrence which has lately taken place in the church, which is indeed painful to every lover of Truth and Holiness, and probably to none more so than myself. I am indeed sorry that any thing should have transpired which should have caused such a stir in the Church, and bro't [brought] disgrace upon persons who are otherwise respectable. The course I have taken in the matter was such as I felt warranted to take from the testimony which was adduced. Whether they were guilty of crime or not I do not say, but this I must say that their imprudence was carried to an unwarrantable extent.

b

I do not desire that you should turn the young woman out of doors, far be it from me to advise any such course I think it would be well for her to remain with you at least until Bro [Heber C.] Kimball comes home, because I think that your advise ~~to her~~, may be a blessi[n]g to her, and your council and advise such as will tend to her future welfare and happiness. I have no doubt but you will act in wisdom in this matter & remain ~~very~~ Yours in the Gospel

Joseph Smith

[page [2] blank]

Account of Meeting and Discourse, circa 2 March 1841

As Reported by William P. McIntire

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Next Meeting W Soby on true friendship— he said true Friendship was such as a man Laying Down his Life for his Friend. Joseph said there was a diferance Between the veng[e]ance that Belongeth to the Lord, & a man Defending himself or friend— of the Mamon of unrighteousness Joseph said the majority of man king [mankind] was ◇◇ist & true a must Lavish his Goods on all around him & out of them he will find freinds in the hour of Distress for those that have been made Ritch By the Benevalance of their Rich friend of them there will be some that will do you Good in affliction—

Account of Meeting and Discourses, circa 9 March 1841

As Reported by William P. McIntire

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Subject 1st on the Gospel By father Cole he said that ~~th~~ Some thought that He difered from president Smith Concerning the time of the Giving of the Holy Ghost— as teach that all men Receive the Holy Ghost before Baptizem— Joseph said men do not take Notice of things as they Read them— or they might know things as they Read them— he quotes Petter 2^d. Repent & be Baptized &c— & ye shall Receive the Gift of the Holly Ghost— Now said he (taking up his Cap & presenting to Pre^d
- b [William] Law) in Giveing you this Gift is not Giving myself— However there is a peistHood [priesthood] in With <the> Holy Ghost & Key— the Holy Ghost over shadows you & witness unto you of the authority & the Gifts of the Holy Ghost— he said was the provence of the Father to preside as the Chief or president— Jesus as the Mediator & Holy Ghost as the testator or witness— the Son Had a Tabernicle & so had the father But the Holly Ghost is a personage of spirit without tabernicle the Great God has a Name By wich he will be Called Which is Ahman— also in asking have Referance to a personage Like Adam for God made Adam Just in his own Image Now this a key for you to know how to ask & obtain
- Next was Robinson on the Gospel he spoke of adam pertaking of the forbidden fruit & so-on—
- c Joseph said a person ought always take his subject along— for instance Jesus in all his Doctrines & pariables set it forth Like a tree or mustard stock Comencing at the foundation & Root thence up to the first Branch & out along it then back to the body of the tree or subject & thence to the Next Branch & so-on Now as to Adam the Lord said in the day thou shalt Eat there of thou shalt shurely Die Now the Day the Lord has Refferance too is spoken of By Petter a thousand of our years is with the Lord as one Day &c at the time the Lord said this to adam there was No mode of Counting time By man, as man Now Counts time
- Next was Bron Benet [John C. Bennett] on Phisickal Education for the Health & preservation of the Lungs—

Revelation, circa Early March 1841 [D&C 125]

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

A Revelation given in the City of Nauvoo in answer to the following interrogatory.

What is the will of the Lord concerning the Saints in the Territory of Iowa?

Verily thus saith the Lord, I say unto you if those who call themselves by <my> name, and are assaying to be my saints, if they will do my will and keep my commandments concerning them; let them gather themselves together unto the places which I shall appoint unto them by my servant Joseph, and build up cities unto my name, that they may be prepared for that which is in store for a time to come. Let them build up a city unto my name upon the land opposite to the city of Nauvoo and let the name of Zarahemla be named upon it. And let all those who come from the east and the west, and the north and the south that have desires to dwell therein, take up their inheritances in the same, as well as in the City of Nashville or in the City of Nauvoo, and in all the stakes which I have appointed saith the Lord.

Account of Meeting and Discourse, circa 16 March 1841

As Reported by William P. McIntire

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Next Meeting— first Bishop [Vinson] Knight on Kno[w]ledge— 2 [Elisha] Groves on Punctuality 3 wilson [Law] on Phlathrep 4 on the melenium— Joseph Said that they wi[c]ked will Not all be Destroyed at the Coming of Christ & also there will be wiked During the Melenum [Millennium]— for instance Isaiah says the Days of an infant shall be as the age of a tree also Zaich. [Zechariah] says all who Does Not Come up year by year with their Gifts to the feasts of the tabernicle that No Rain shall fall upon them— & that Jesus will be a Resident on the Earth a thousand [years] with the Saints is Not the Case
- b but will Raign over the saints & come Down & instruct as he Did the 5 hundred Brethern (1st Cor.— 15) & those of the first Resurerection will also Raign with him over the saints— then after the Little season is expired & the Earth underGoes its Last Change & is Gloryfyed then will all the meek inherit the Earth wherein Dwelleth Righteous— he says satan cannot seduce us By his enticements unless we in our h[e]arts Consent & yeald [yield]— our organization such that we can Resist the Devil If we were Not organized so we would Not be free agents,

Revelation, 20 March 1841

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a City of Nauvoo March [blank] 1841
Brother William Allred, Bishop of the Stake at Pleasant Vale, and also Brother Henry W. Miller President of the Stake at Freedom, desire President Joseph Smith to enquire of the Lord, his will concerning them.
- b City of Nauvoo March 20th 1841
Let my servants William Allred, and Henry W Miller have an agency for the selling of stock for the Nauvoo House, and assist my servants Lyman Wight, Peter Hawes [Haws], George Miller and John Snider in building said house, and let my servants William Allred and Henry W. Miller take stock in the house, that the poor of my people may have employment, and that accomodations may be made for the strangers who shall come to visit this place, and for this purpose let them devote all their properties saith the Lord.

Discourse, circa 21 March 1841

As Reported by William P. McIntire

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Sabath Meeting— Joseph Read the 2 & 3^d Chapters of Malichi & stated that there was a priestHood Confered upon all the sons of Levi throughout the Jeneration of the Jews & he also said they beCome heirs to that pristHood By Linage or Decent [descent] & held the Keys of the first principles of the Gospel— for this— he quoted concerning Jesus coming to John to be Baptized of John that he (Jesus) might Enter into the Kingdom as John held the Keys suffer it to be so now &c he also Brought up Zacharias pleading with the Lord in the temple that he might have seed so that the preistHood might be presurved
- b he also prophesied that all those that made Light of the Revelations that was Given and him & his words— would are [ere] Long Cry & Lement (when the servent of God would be imprizened) say O!! that we had harkened to the words of God & the Revelattions Given But all opertunity is Cut of[f] from them

As Reported by Martha Jane Knowlton Coray

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

Sermon 2nd

on the death of Judge [Elias] Higbee delivered in the latter part of the winter about just before he took Laws store at the House of Bishop [Vinson] Knight year 1841

Joseph Smith read the 3 chap Malachi dwelt <with emphasis> upon the Levitical priesthood and the promise concerning them

b

Took up Jhon [John] shewed him to be a Levite and proceeded The voice of one crying in the wilderness prepare ye the way of the Lord and make his paths strait Now it was written that the priests lips should keep know[~~l~~]edge, and to them should the people seek for understanding and above al[~~l~~] the law binds them and us to receive the word of the Lord at the hands of the Levites therefore Jhon being Lawful heir to the Levitical Priesthood the people were bound to receive his

b testimony. Hence the saying the Kingdom of heaven suffereth violence and the violent take it by force after Jhon had been testifying of Jesus for some time Jesus came unto him for baptism Jhon felt that the honor of baptizing his master was too great a thing grater than he could claim and said I have need to be baptized of thee and comest thou to me Jesus repl[~~i~~]ed thus it behooveth us to fulfill all righteousness thus signifying to Jhon the claim of the Aronic priesthood which holds the

c

keys of enterance into the Kingdom. Then the three signs which were given were conclusive The dove which sat upon his shoulder was a sure testimony that he was of God Brethren be not deceived an nor doubtful of this fact a spirit of a good man or an angel from heaven who has not a body will never undertake to shake hands with you for he knows you cannot peceive his touch and never will extend his hand but any spirit or body that is attended by a dove you may know to be a pure spirit thus you may is [in] some measure detect them the spirits who may come unto you

d

Jhon was great in that he baptized Jesus an[d] for this cause Jesus saith “Among them that are born of woman <women> there hath not risen a greater than Jhon the baptist— But again he says the from the coming days of Jhon the Batist [John the Baptist] till the Kingdom of Heaven suffereth violence and the violent taketh it by force

e

Jesus as I said could not enter except to <by> the administration of Jhon. Although Jhon was not a restorer but a forerunner It was not the Lawful priests who rejected jesus but the self made priests Those who were preests lawfully received the Saviour in his station which was given him by the Law

e

All the Authority that we have is from Jhon The Law is not changed nor the ordinances The keys of ushering into the Kingdom were given to Peter James & Jhon.

f

Malachi 4th chap And he shall purify the sons of Levi &c yes brethren the Lord will purify the sons of Levi good or bad for it is through them that blessings flow to Israel and as Israel once was baptized in the cloud and in the sea so shall <God> as a refiners fire and a fullers soap Purge purify the sons of Levi and purge them as Gold and as silver & then and not till then shall the offering of Judah & Jerusalem be pleasant into <unto> the Lord as in days of old and as in former years

g

And he shall witness against all iniquity as saith Malachi and shall sorely chastize those who are gone astray, but still he saith I am God I change not therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed return thou unto me and I will return unto thee. The Lord will begin by revealing the House of Israel among the gentiles and those who have gone from the ordinances of God shall return unto the keeping of all the law and observing his judgement and statutes to do them Then shall the Law of the Lord go forth from Zion and the word of the Lord to the priests and through them from Jerusalem

h

And I prophecy that the day will come when you will say Oh that we had given heed but look now upon our public works the <stone> school house for instance the Simoon [simoom] of the Desert has passed over it the people will not hearken nor hear And bondage Death and destruction are close at our heels The Kingdom will not be broken up but judgements awaits man we shall be scattered and driven gathered again & then dispersed reestablished & driven abroad and so on until the Ancient of days shall sit and the Kingom and power thereof shall be given to the saints and they shall possess the it forever and ever²⁸ which may God hasten for Christs sake Amen

Discourse, circa 28 March 1841

As Reported by William P. McIntire

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Next Meeting Meeting on sunday Joseph Reads the 38th. Ch— of Job. in the book he says is a great Display of human Nature— it is very Natureal for a man when he sees his fellow man afflicted his Natureal conclusion is that he is suffering the Rath of an angry God & turn from him in haste not knowing the purposes of God
- b he says the spirit or the intelligence of men are self Existant principles before the foundation this Earth— & quotes the Lords question to Job “where wast thou when I Laid the foundation of the Earth” Evedencing that Job was <in> Existing
- c somewhere at that time he says God is Good & all his acts is for the benefit of infereir [inferior] intelligences— God saw that those intelligences had Not power to Defend themselves against those that had a tabernicle therefore the Lord Calls them together in Counsel & agrees to form them tabernicles so that he might Gender the spirit & the tabernicle togather so as to create sympathy for their fellow man— for it is a Natureal thing with those spirits that has the most power to bore down on
- d those of Lesser power so we see the Devil is without a tabernicle & the Lord has set bands to all Spirits.— & hence came the saying Jesus thou son of David why art thou come to torment us before the time, & Jesus Comanded him to Come out of the Man & the Devil besought him that he might enter in a herd of swine Near by (for the Devil knew they were a Coveitous people & if he could Kill their Hogs that would Drive Jesus out of their coasts & he then <would> have tabernicle enough) & Jesus permitted him to Enter into the swine

Account of Meeting, circa 30 March 1841

As Reported by William P. McIntire

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Next Meeting Lecyum 1st.—st[e]ward an Equality in property & in knoledge Joseph said that an Equality would Not answer for he says if we would equal in property at present in six months we would be worse than ever for there is too many dis[h]onest men amongst us who has more injenity [ingenuity] to cheat the Rest &c
- b E[benezer] Robinson spoke on the other Co[m]forter in the 14 & 16 of John & that to all man kind for he shall prove the world of sin & Righteou[s] & of Judgment &c Joseph said he would corect in the translation it ought to Read thus & he shall Remind the world of sin & of Righteous & of Judgmen[t] & this Comforter Reminds of the these things through the servents of the Lord— But the other Comforter spoken of By John is Jesus himself that is to come & take up his aboad with them

Benediction, 6 April 1841

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

This principal corner stone, in representation of the First Presidency, is now duly laid in honor of the great God; and may it there remain until the whole fabric is completed; and may the same be accomplished speedily; that the Saints may have a place to worship God, and the Son of Man have where to lay his head.

Report of the First Presidency to the Church, circa 7 April 1841

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a The Presidency of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, feel great pleasure in assembling with the Saints at another general conference, under circumstances so auspicious and cheering; and with grateful hearts to Almighty God for his providential regard, they cordially unite with the Saints, on this occasion, in ascribing honor, and glory, and blessing to his holy name.
 It is with unfeigned pleasure that they have to make known, the steady and rapid increase of the church in this State, the United States, and in Europe. The anxiety to become acquainted with the principles of the gospel, on every hand, is intense, and the cry of, "come over and help us," is reaching the elders on the wings of every wind, while thousands who have heard the gospel, have become obedient thereto, and are rejoicing in its gifts and blessings.— Prejudice with its attendant train of evils, is giving way before the force of truth, whose benign rays are penetrating the nations afar off.
- b The reports from the Twelve in Europe are very satisfactory, and state that the work continues to progress with unparalleled rapidity and that the harvest is truly great.
 In the eastern states, the faithful laborers are successful, and many are flocking to the standard of truth. Nor is the south keeping back—churches have been raised up in the southern and western states, and a very pressing invitation has been received from New Orleans for some of the elders to visit that city, which has been complied with.
 In our own State and immediate neighborhood, many are avowing their attachment to the principles of our holy religion, and have become obedient to the faith.
 Peace and prosperity attend us; and we have favor in the sight of God and virtuous men.
- c The time was, when we were looked upon as deceivers, and that Mormonism would soon pass away, come to nought, and be forgotten. But the time has gone by when it was looked upon as a transient matter, or a bubble on the wave, and it is now taking a deep hold in the hearts and affections of all those who are noble minded enough to lay aside the prejudice of education, and investigate the subject with candor and honesty.
- d The truth, like the sturdy oak, has stood unhurt amid the contending elements, which have beat upon it with tremendous force. The floods have rolled, wave after wave, in quick succession; and have not swallowed it up. "They have lifted up their voice, O Lord, the floods have lifted up their voice; but the Lord of Hosts is mightier than the mighty waves of the sea." Nor, have the flames of persecution, with all the influence of mobs, been able to destroy it; but like Moses' bush it has stood unconsumed, and now at this moment presents an important spectacle both to men and angels.— Where can we turn our eyes to behold such another? We contemplate a people who have embraced a system of religion unpopular, and the adherence to which has brought upon them repeated persecutions—a people who for their love to God and attachment to his cause, have suffered hunger, nakedness, perils, and almost every privation—a people, who, for the sake of their religion, have had to mour[n] the premature deaths of parents, husbands, wives, and children—a people who have preferred death to slavery and hypocrisy, and have honorably maintained their characters, and stood firm and immovable, in times that have tried men's souls.
- e

- f Stand fast, ye Saints of God, hold on a little while longer, and the storms of life will be past, and you will be rewarded by that God whose servants you are, and who will duly appreciate all your toils and afflictions for Christ's sake and the gospel's. Your names will be handed down to posterity as saints of God, and virtuous men.
- But we hope that those scenes of blood and gore will never more occur, but that many, very many such scenes as the present will be witnessed by the saints, and that in the Temple, the foundation of which has been so happily laid, will the saints of the Most High continue to congregate from year to year, in peace and safety.
- g From the kind and generous feelings manifest, by the citizens of this State, since our sojourn among them, we may continue to expect the enjoyment of all the blessings of civil and religious liberty, guaranteed by the constitution. The citizens of Illinois have done themselves honor in throwing the mantle of the constitution over a persecuted and afflicted people; and have given evident proof, that they are not only in the enjoyment of the privileges of freemen themselves, but, that they willingly and cheerfully extend that invaluable blessing to others, and that they freely award to faithfulness and virtue their due.
- h The proceedings of the Legislature in regard to the citizens of this place have been marked with philanthropy and benevolence; and they have laid us under great and lasting obligations, in granting us the several liberal charters we now enjoy, and by which we hope to prosper, until our City becomes the most splendid, our University the most learned, and our Legion the most effective, of any in the Union. In the language of one of our own poets, we would say,
- i In Illinois we've found a safe retreat,
A home, a shelter from oppressions dire;
Where we can worship God as we think right,
And mobbers come not to disturb our peace;
Where we can live and hope for better days,
Enjoy again our liberty, our rights:
That social intercourse which freedom grants,
And charity requires of man to man.
And long may charity pervade each breast,
And long may ILLINOIS remain the scene
Of rich prosperity by peace secured!
- j In consequence of the impoverished condition of the saints, the buildings which are in progress of erection do not progress as fast as could be desired; but from the interest which is generally manifested by the saints at large, we hope to accomplish much by a combination of effort, and a concentration of action, and erect the Temple and other buildings, which we so much need for our mutual instruction and the education of our children.
- From the reports which have been received, we may expect a large emigration this season. The proclamation which was sent some time ago to the churches abroad, has been responded to, and great numbers are making preparations to come and locate themselves in this city and vicinity.
- k From what we now witness, we are led to look forward with pleasing anticipation to the future, and soon expect to see the thousands of Israel flocking to this region, in obedience to the heavenly command; numerous habitations of the saints thickly studding the flowery and wide spread prairies of Illinois; temples for the worship of our God erecting in various parts; and great peace resting upon Israel.
- We would call the attention of the saints more particularly to the erection of the Temple, for on its speedy erection great blessings depend. The zeal which is manifested by the saints in this city is indeed praise worthy, and we hope will be imitated by the saints in the various stakes and branches of the church, and that those who cannot contribute labor, will bring their gold and their silver, their brass, and their iron, with the pine tree and box tree, to beautify the same.
- l We are glad to hear of the organization of the different quorums in this city, and hope that the organization will be attended to in every stake and branch of the church, for the Almighty is a lover of order and good government.
- From the faith and enterprise of the saints generally, we feel greatly encouraged, and cheerfully attend to the important duties devolving upon us, knowing that we not only have the approval of Heaven, but that our efforts for the establishing of Zion and the spread of truth, are cheerfully seconded by the thousands of Israel.
- In conclusion we would say, brethren, be faithful; let your love and moderation be known unto all men; be patient; be mindful to observe all the commandments of your heavenly Father; and the God of all grace shall bless you, even so, Amen.
- R[obert] B. THOMPSON, Clerk.

Minutes, 7–11 April 1841

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a ...Pres. Jos. Smith rose and made some observations in explanation of the same, and likewise of the necessity which existed of building the Temple, that the saints might have a suitable place for worshiping the Almighty, and also the building of the Nauvoo Boarding House, that suitable accommodations might be afforded for the strangers who might visit this city...
Pres't. J. Smith declared the rule of voting, to be a majority in each quorum, exhorted them to deliberation, faith and prayer, and that they should be strict, and impartial in their examinations. He then told them that the presidents of the different quorums would be presented before them for their acceptance or rejection...
- b Pres't. Joseph Smith presented the building Committee of the "House of the Lord," to the several quorums collectively, who were unanimously received.
Pres't. Smith observed, that it was necessary that some one should be appointed to fill the quorum of the twelve, in the room of the late Elder David W. Patten, whereupon, Pres't. Rigdon nominated Elder Lyman Wight to that office, which was unanimously accepted. Elder Wight stated, that it was an office of great honor and responsibility, and he felt inadequate to the task, but inasmuch as it was the wish of the authorities of the church, that he should take that office, he would endeavor to magnify it...
- c Pres't. Smith likewise followed on the same subject, threw considerable light on the doctrine which had been investigated...
Pres'r. J. Smith made some observations respecting the duty of the several quorums, in sending their members into the vineyard, and also stated, that labor on the Temple would be as acceptable to the Lord as preaching in the world.
Pres't. Smith then stated that it was necessary that some one should be appointed to collect funds for building the Temple...
- d Pres't. Joseph Smith then addressed the assembly and stated, that in consequence of the severity of the weather, the saints had not received as much instruction as he desired and that some things would have to be laid over until the next conference—as there were many who wished to be baptized, they would now go to the water and give opportunity to any who wished to be baptized of doing so. The procession was then organized and proceeded down to the water.

Discourse, between 6 and 9 April 1841

As Reported by William P. McIntire

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Conference April the 6th. 1841 Joseph said to the presidents of the quorums that they should see that No man go out to preach unless their Family, was amply Provided for; and if not provided for stay untill they are, this is Done to put up the Borrs against those that, nearly Join the church & Get ordained to Get their familys struck in her & Go out & Glut themselves while the Church has their familys to Keep.

Letter to John M. Bernhisel, 13 April 1841

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

...The Brethren in New York wrote to me sometime ago on the subject of Babtizm [baptism] for the dead please to inform them I well attend to it as soon as I possibly can...

Letter to Editors, 6 May 1841

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a City of Nauvoo. May 6, 1841.
- TO THE EDITORS OF THE TIMES & SEASONS, Gentlemen:—
- I wish, through the medium of your paper, to make known, that on Sunday last, I had the honor of receiving a visit from the Hon. Stephen A. Douglass [Douglas], Justice of the Supreme Court and Judge of the fifth Judicial Circuit of the State of Illinois, and Cyrus Walker Esq. of Macomb, who expressed great pleasure in visiting our city, and were astonished at the improvements which were made. They were officially introduced to the congregation who had assembled on the meeting ground, by the Mayor; and they severally addressed the assembly. Judge Douglass, expressed his satisfaction of what he had seen and heard respecting our people and took that opportunity of returning thanks to the citizens of Nauvoo, for conferring upon him the freedom of the city, stating that he was not aware of rendering us any service, sufficiently important to deserve such marked honor; and likewise spoke in high terms of our location and the improvements we had made, and that our enterprise and industry were highly creditable to us indeed.
- c Mr. Walker spoke much in favor of the place, the industry of the citizens &c. and hoped they would continue to enjoy all the blessings and priveleges of our free and glorious Constitution, and as a patriot and a freeman he was willing at all times to stand boldly in defence of liberty and law.
- It must indeed be satisfactory to this community to know, that kind and generous feelings exist in the hearts of men of such high reputation and moral and intellectual worth.
- d Judge Douglass has ever proved himself friendly to this people; and interested himself to obtain for us our several charters, holding at that time the office of Secretary of State. Mr. Walker also ranks high, and has long held a standing at the bar, which few attain, and is considered one of the most able and profound jurists in the state.
- The sentiments they expressed on the occasion, were highly honorable to them as American citizens, and as gentlemen.
- e How different their conduct, from that of the official characters in the state of Missouri, whose minds were prejudiced to such an extent, that instead of mingling in our midst and ascertaining for themselves our character, kept entirely aloof, but were ready at all times to listen to those who had the “poison of adders under their tongues,” and who sought our overthrow.

Let every person who may have inbibed sentiments prejudicial to us, imitate the honorable example of our distinguished visitors, (Douglass & Walker) and I believe they will find much less to condemn then they anticipated, and probably a great deal to commend.

- f What makes the late visit more pleasing, is the fact, that Messrs. Douglass & Walker, have long been held in high estimation as politicians, being champions of the two great parties that exist in the State; but laying aside all party strife, like brothers, citizens, and friends, they mingle with us, mutually disposed to extend to us courtesy, respect and friendship, which I hope, we shall ever be proud to reciprocate.

I am, very respectfully, yours &c.

JOSEPH SMITH.

Discourse, 16 May 1841

As Published in Times and Seasons

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a He commenced his observations by remarking that the kindness of our Heavenly Father, called for our heartfelt gratitude. He then observed that satan was generally blamed for the evils which we did, but if he was the cause of all our wickedness, men could not be condemned. The devil cannot compel mankind to evil, all was voluntary.— Those who resist the spirit of God, are liable to be led into temptation, and then the association of heaven is withdrawn from those who refuse to be made partakers of such great glory—God would not exert any compulsory means and the Devil could not; and such ideas as were
- b entertained by many were absurd. The creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but Christ subjected the same in hope—we are all subject to vanity while we travel through the crooked paths, and difficulties which surround us. Where is the man that is free from vanity? None ever were perfect but Jesus, and why was he perfect? because he was the son of God, and had the fulness of the Spirit, and greater power than any man.— But, notwithstanding our vanity, we look forward with hope, (because “we are subjected in hope,”) to the time of our deliverance.
- c He then made some observations on the first principles of the gospel, observing that many of the saints who had come from different States and Nations, had only a very superficial knowledge of these principles, not having heard them fully investigated. He then briefly stated the principles of faith, repentance, and baptism for the remission of sins, which were believed by some of the religious societies of the day, but the doctrine of laying on of hands for the gift of the holy ghost, was discarded by them.
- d The speaker then referred them to the 6th chap. of Heb. 1. and 2. verses, “not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works &c., but of the doctrines of baptism, laying on of hands, the resurrection and eternal judgment &c.” The doctrine of eternal judgment was perfectly understood by the apostle, is evident from several passages of scripture. Peter preached repentance and baptism for the remission of sins to the Jews, who had been led to acts of violence and blood, by their leaders, but to the Rulers he said, “I would that through ignorance ye did it, as did also those ye ruled.”— Repent, therefore, and be converted that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing (redemption) shall come from the
- e presence of the Lord, for he shall send Jesus Christ, who before was preached unto you &c.” The time of redemption here had reference to the time, when Christ should come; then and not till then would their sins be blotted out. Why? Because they were murderers, and no murderer hath eternal life. Even David, must wait for those times of refreshing, before he can come forth and his sins be blotted out; for Peter speaking of him says, “David hath not yet ascended into Heaven, for his sepulchre is with us to this day:’ his remains were then in the tomb. Now we read that many bodies of the saints arose, at Christ’s resurrection, probably all the saints, but it seems that David did not. Why? because he had been a murderer.
- f If the ministers of religion had a proper understanding of the doctrine of eternal judgment, they would not be found attending the man who had forfeited his life to the injured laws of his country by shedding innocent blood; for such characters cannot be forgiven, until they have paid the last farthing. The prayers of all the ministers in the world could never close the gates of hell against a murderer.

g The speaker then spoke on the subject of election, and read the 9th chap. in Romans, from which it was evident that the election there spoken of was pertaining to the flesh, and had reference to the seed of Abraham, according to the promise God made to Abraham, saying, "In thee and in thy seed all the families of the earth shall be blessed." To them belonged the adoption, and the covenants &c. Paul said; when he saw their unbelief I wish myself accursed—according to the flesh—not according to the spirit.

h Why did God say to Pharoah, "for this cause have I raised thee up?" Because Pharoah was a fit instrument—a wicked man, and had committed acts of cruelty of the most atrocious nature.

The election of the promised seed still continues, and in the last days, they shall have the priesthood restored unto them, and they shall be the "Saviors on mount Zion" the "ministers of our God," if it were not for the remnant which was left, then might we be as Sodom and as Gomorah.

i The whole of the chapter had reference to the priesthood and the house of Israel; and unconditional election of individuals to eternal life was not taught by the apostles.

God did elect or predestinate, that all those who would be saved, should be saved in Christ Jesus, and through obedience to the gospel; but he passes over no man's sins, but visits them with correction, and if his children will not repent of their sins, he will discard them.

As Reported by Unidentified Scribe

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a Remarks by Joseph May 16th 1841

There are three independant principles; the spirit of God. the spirit of Man. & the spirit of the Devil. All men have power to resist the Devil. They who have Taber[n]acles have power over those who have not. The docterine of eternal judgement acts 2— 41 Peter preached repent & be baptised in the name of jesus Christ for the remision of sins &c but in act 3 12 he says repent and be converted that your sins my be forgiven blotted out when the times of refreshing <redemption> shall come & he shall send jesus &c remission of sins by baptisom was not to be preached to murderers. all the preasts in crisendom might pray for a murderer on the scaffold forever but could not avail so much as a gnat towards their forgiveness; there is no forgiveness for murderers they will have to wait untill the times of redemtion shall come and that in hell. Peter had the Keys of eternal Judgement & he saw David in hell & knew for what reason. & that David would have to remain there untill the reserrection, at the coming of Christ. Rommans 9 All election that can be found in the scriptures is according to the flesh and pertaining to the Preasthood

As Reported by William Clayton

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

Remarks by Joseph, May 16th, 1841.

There are three independent principles— the spirit of God, the spirit of man, and the spirit of the devil. All men have power to resist the devil. They who have tabernacles have power over those who have not. The doctrine of eternal judgment Acts 2— 41 Peter preached repent and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, &c; but in Acts 3— 19 he says “Repent and be converted that your sins may be blotted out when the time of redemption shall come and he shall send Jesus,” &c. Remission of sins by baptism was not to be preached to murderers. All the priests in Christendom might pray for a murderer on the scaffold forever, but could not avail so much as a gnat towards their forgiveness. There is no forgiveness for murderers. They will have to wait until the time of redemption shall come and that in hell. Peter had the keys of eternal judgment and he saw David in hell and knew for what reason, and that David would have to remain there until the resurrection at the coming of Christ. Romans 9.— all election that can be found in the scripture is according to the flesh and pertaining to the priesthood.

b

Letter to the Saints Abroad, 24 May 1841

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

TOvTHE SAINTS ABROAD.

The First Presidency of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, anxious to promote the prosperity of said church, feel it their duty to call upon the saints who reside out of this county, to make preparations to come in, without delay. This is important, and should be attended to by all who feel an interest in the prosperity of this the corner stone of Zion. Here the Temple must be raised, the University be built, and other edifices erected which are necessary for the great work of the last days; and which can only be done by a concentration of energy, and enterprise. Let it therefore be understood, that all the stakes, excepting those in this county, and in Lee county, Iowa, are discontinued, and the saints instructed to settle in this county as soon as circumstances will permit.

JOSEPH SMITH.

City of Nauvoo, Hancock co., Ill.,
May 24th 1841.

Letter to Thomas Sharp, 26 May 1841

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

NAUVOO, Ill, May 26, 1841.

Mr. [Thomas] Sharp, Editor of the Warsaw Signal:

SIR—You will discontinue my paper—its contents are calculated to pollute me, and to patronize the filthy sheet—that tissue of lies—that sink of iniquity—is disgraceful to any moral man.

Yours, with utter contempt,
JOSEPH SMITH.

P. S. Please publish the above in your contemptible paper.
J.S.

Discourse, circa May 1841

As Reported By Unidentified Scribe

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

By Joseph

Everlasting covenant was made between 3 personages before the organization of this earth; & relates to their dispensation of things <to men> on the earth. Theses personages according to Abrahams record are called God the first, the creator God the second, the redeemer, & God the third, the witness or Testator.—

As Reported By William Clayton

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

By Joseph.

Everlasting covenant was made between three personages before the organization of this earth and relates to their dispensation of things to men on the earth. These personages according to Abrahams record are <called> God the first, the Creator; God the second, the Redeemer; and God the third, the Witness or Testator.

Account of Meeting, 3 July 1841

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

On the the 3rd day of July 1841 the Legion was called out to celebrate our National Independance <the 4th being Sunday>, and was reviewed by Lieutenant-General Joseph Smith. Who made an Eloquent and patriotic Speech to the troops and strongly testified of his regard for our national welfare and his willingness to lay down his life ~~for his~~ in defence of his country if ~~need be~~ and closed with these <remarkable> words ~~emphatically spoken~~. "I would ask no greater boon than to lay down my life for my country."

Revelation, 9 July 1841 [D&C 126]

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

"Nauvoo City. July 9th. 1841.

Dear & well beloved Brother, Brigham Young, Verily thus saith the Lord unto you my servant Brigham it is no more required at your hand to leave your family as in times past for your offering is acceptable to me I have seen your labor and toil in journeyings for my name. I therefore command you to send my word abroad and take special care of your family from this time henceforth and forever, Amen. Given to Joseph Smith this day."

Minutes, 16 August 1841

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a ...Met at 2 P.M. When the conference ~~were~~ was address'd by Elders Lorenzo Barnes and H. G. Sherwood on the subject of preaching the gospel and building up of the kingdom of God in theese last days

President Joseph Smith (who had been absent in consequence of the death of his child during the former part of the Day) ~~being present~~ <on his arrival> then addressed the conference on the objects of <calling> ~~the~~ a conference at this time and in addition to what had been stated by president Young said that ~~some~~ the twelve should be authorized <wh> to assist in managing the affairs of th[e] kingdom in this place. which he said was ~~their~~ duties of their office &c.

b Motioned seconded and Carried ~~the~~ that the quorum of the twelve be authorized to act in ~~building the~~ accordance with the instructions given by president Joseph Smith in regulating and superintending the affairs <of the Church.>

Motioned, seconded & carried unanimou[s]ly that every individual who shall hereafter be found trying to influence any emigrants coming b[e]longing to the Church to either buy or sell property of them or to them (except the agent) such person shall be immediately tried for fellowship and dealt with as offenders and unless they repent they shall be cut off from the Chu[rc]h

- c President [Sidney] Rigdon then made some appropriate remarks on speculation &c
Resolved on Motion of ~~President Joseph Smith~~ Res. that the twelve be authorised to make the selection of elders independent of the conference and present them to the first Pres. him to President Joseph Smith for <his> approval
Resolved that this conference be adjourned to the time of the general Conference in Oct next
Closed by singing and prayer by President You[n]g

Discourse, 16 August 1841

As Published in Times and Seasons

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a President Joseph Smith now arriving proceeded to state to the conference at considerable length, the object of their present meeting, and in addition to what President [Brigham] Young had stated in the morning, said that the time had come when the twelve should be called upon to stand in their place next to the first presidency, and attend to the settling of emigrants
- b and the business of the church at the stakes, and assist to bear off the kingdom victorious to the nations; and as they had been faithful and had borne the burden in the heat of the day that it was right that they should have an opportunity of providing something for themselves and families, and at the same time relieve him so that he might attend to the business of translating.

Discourse, 22 August 1841

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a My purpose was to have given you a few extracts, or rather specimens, of Jo's sermon; but my brief space will scarcely admit of it in this epistle. It would be a perfect curiosity, I'll assure you. He disclaimed all ambition or vain glory; but I think it evident he possesses a sufficiency. In attempting to exhibit to the 'brethren' how much more ready the world is to believe error than truth, 'Jo' often made himself the 'hero' of the text, with not a little self-complacency either, notwithstanding his
- b professed humility. 'Brethren,' says he, 'when Moses lived, that we read about, there was not half so many rascally lying editors as there is now-a-days. Old Moses was commanded of God to slay a man, but no such requirement is made of 'Old Jo Smith, O no, not as long as the lying editors continue their abuse, the world is ready to swallow it.'—

- c He then entertained his hearers by relating an anecdote, a case in point. At the time he was traveling in the stage from Missouri to Kirkland [Kirtland], Ohio, how a young upstart of a lawyer told a 'long yarn' about the death of 'Jo Smith'—dead, buried—having got shot; and how the 'brethren' held a pow wow over the dead body; but it availed not; Joe would die
- d because he was not strong in the faith. This was his own version. In concluding this story, which was quite ingenious, he says 'Well brethren,' what do you think? Do you suppose the passengers in that stage believed me, or do you suppose they believed the lying language? Well, I'll tell you they believed—they thought and said I was a gross impostor! and for three days
- e continuous traveling, I could not make them believe that I was the veritable Jo Smith;—thus it is 'brethren,' says he, mankind are prone to receive error rather than truth, and so they believe the thousands of falsehoods circulated about our religion, without coming to see and examine for themselves. Well, lie away, ye editors, I see ye are determined to make a big man of me anyhow, but I will leave the Prophet's sermon.

Letter to Horace Hotchkiss, 25 August 1841

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Nauvoo August 25th 1841
- Horace R Hotchkiss Esqr
- Dr Sir
- Yours of the 24th ult^o, came to hand this day, The contents of which I duly appreciate I presume you are well aware of the difficulties that occurred before, and at, The execution of the writings in regard of the landed transactions between us, touching the annual payments of the interest, If you have forgotten I will here remind you; You verbally agreed, on our refusal, and hesitancy to execute the notes for the payment of the Land, That you would not exact the payment, of the
- b interest that would accrue on them under five years, and that you would not coerce the payment even then, To all this you pledged your honor, and upon an after arrangement, you verbally agreed, to take Land in some one of the Atlantic States that would yield Six per cent interest (to you,) both for the principal and interest, and in view of that matter I deligated my Bro. Hyrum [Smith] & Doctor Isaac Galland to go east and negotiate for Lands, with our friends, and pay you off for the whole purchase that we made of you, But upon an interview with you they learned that you were unwilling to enter into an arrangement according to the powers that I had deligated to them, That you would not receive any of the principal at all, but the interest alone, which we never considered ourselves, in honor or in justice bound to pay under the expiration of
- c five years, I presumed you are no stranger, to the part of the City plat we bought of you, it being a deathly sickly hole, and that we have not been able in consequence to realize any valuable consideration from it, although we have been keeping up appearances, and holding out inducements, to encourage emigration that we scarcely think justifiable in consequence of the mortality, that almost invariably awaits those who come from far distant parts, <and> at that with a view to enable us to meet our engagements, And now to be goaded by you for a breach of good faith and neglect, and dishonorable conduct seems to me to be almost beyond endurance, you are aware that we came from Missouri destitute of every thing but physical form, and had nothing but our energies and perseverance to rely upon to meet the payment of the extortionate sum, that you
- d exacted for the Land that we had of you, Have you no feelings of commiseration, or is it your design to crush us, with a ponderous load before we are able to walk, or can you better dispose of the property than we are doing it. for your interest? If so, to the alternative; I therefore propose in order to avoid the perplexity and annoyance that has hitherto attended the transaction, that you come and take the premises and make the best you can of it. Or stand off and give us an opportunity, that we may manage the concern, and enable ourselves by the management thereof to meet our engagement as was originally contemplated. We have taken a city plat at Warsaw at the head of navigation for vessels of heavy towage on the most
- e advantagious terms, The proprietors waiting on us for the payment of the plat until we can realize the money from the Sales, leaving to ourselves, a large and liberal net proffit. We have been making every exertion and used all the means at our command [to lay] a foundation that will now begin to enable us to meet our pecuniary engagements, and no doubt in our minds, to the entire satisfaction of all those concerned, if they will but exercise a small degree of patience, and stay a resort to Coersive Measures, which would kill us in the germ, even before we can (by reason of the season) begin to bud and blossom, in order to bring forth a plentiful yield of fruit.

f

I am with considerations of high respect your Ob^t. Serv^t.
Joseph Smith

P.S. Since writing the above, I have had a conference with my Bro. Hyrum, who informs me that when he left Pennsylvania that he left with Do^c. Galland nearly enough of real estate (in the hands of the Doctor) to liquidate the am^t due you, my Bro. having been compelled to return, in consequence of ill heal[t]h, expecting that the doctor would have the matter arranged long before this. Therefore so soon as we learn the particulars from D^r Galland we will take such measures, as will most likely meet your approval, We have learned that Doctor Galland has been partially blind, which may be the reason why the business has not been arranged as stipulated between you and them. as, he, was to remain, with a view to accomplish that object, after my Bro. returned.— I will now give you an account of some recent deaths that have taken place here, My Brother D. C. [Don Carlos] Smith, Robert B Thompson. and one of my sons, together with many other valuable citizens— In fact we are in the midst of death— yours

JS—
<25>

<NAUVOO III AUG 28>
Horace R. Hotchkiss Esqr
New Haven
Con.

Proclamation, between 19 January and 27 August 1841

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

A Religious Proclamation

From Joseph Smith, President of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, and Prophet, Seer, and Revelator of the Most High God, to the President of the United States of North America— the Governors of the several States— the Emperors, Kings, and Princes of the earth— the Executives of all nations— the Chiefs of all tribes— and all occupying high places in the administration of governments.

b

“Thus saith the Lord God, Behold I will lift up mine hand to the Gentiles, and set up my standard to the people: and they shall bring thy sons in their arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders. And kings shall be thy nursing-fathers, and their queens thy nursing-mothers: they shall bow down to thee with their face toward the earth, and lick up the dust of thy feet: and thou shalt know that I am the Lord: for they shall not be ashamed that wait for me.”
(Isaiah— LX, LXI, LXII.)

c

Now in obedience to a revelation given January 19th, [A]D. 1841, I proceed to call upon you to yield yourselves as obedient subjects to the requisitions of heaven, in ~~fulfilling~~ contributing to the fulfilment of the predictions of the prophets—to believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, repent of and abandon your sins, be immersed for the remission of your sins, receive to

d

imposition of hands for the gift of the Holy Ghost, and, in fine, to embrace the gospel in its beauty & fulness. “And now, why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptised, and wash away thy sins, calling on th[e] name of the Lord.” This is more honorable than the diadems of kings. or th[e] pearls of princes— it will confer upon you an excellence unsurpassed, a glory which you never knew. “God came from Teman, and the Holy one from mount Paran;” and, as his glory covered the heavens, so now will it environ the earth, and illumine the holy city, until all the obedient shall ~~bask in the~~ rejoice in the brightness of his coming,

e

and bask in the sun-shine of God’s benignity. Hasten then to Zion! and contribute to the erection of temples, sanctuaries, and palaces, such as this world never saw— ~~decorated with gold and pearls, and precious stones~~, with their walls finished with th[e] pencil of Raphael, decorated with gold, and pearls, and precious stones, beautified by the finger of God. Tho’ your

f minds are yet darkened, and your eyes dim of sight, by the traditions, superstitions, and follies of the age, imposed upon you by the Papal See, and hierarchy, of Rome; th[e] Patriarch, and ~~council~~ ecclesiastical council, of Constantinople; and th[e] priesthood of th[e] protestant sects; the God of heaven addresses you as intelligent beings, and directs you to come out from among them, that you may become the elite of the kingdom— bright, and shining lights in your Father’s house.

[page [3] blank]

[page [4] blank]

Letter to Oliver Granger, 30 August 1841

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Nauvoo Agust 30th 1841
- Brother O[liver] Granger Dear Sir
- We was cal[le]d upon a few Days since by a Gentleman from Newyork Citty by the Name of Devenport with a Judgement In favor of [Ray] Boynton & [Harry] Hyde of that Place & as I Had no recollection of the Debt I cited him to you beleiving you would understand all a bout it for the Judgement was rendered at Shardon [Chardon]
- b Mr Devenport appeared to be qite a Gentleman & said he would call, on you & If there is any means Possible to Settle it we wish you to do so if the debt is a Just one he will be willing to take any Kind of property in a most any place on the Earth— all things Prosper in this Place Except the Loss we have sustained in the death of two of our most valuable men Brother D C
- c Smth [Don Carlos Smith] & Robert B Thompson Both have recently Died of what I call a qick Consumption theyr Desease was upon theyr Lungs they wasted a way in one week & Spit up theyr verry vitals— they are gone. theyr Loss is Irreparable but we must be submisive to the will of god & try to Stand in our Lot bothe ~~wow~~ <now> & at this End we have not heard from you of Late we would be glad to hear from you often Let us Know how you Prosper in all yours affairs & ours also
- d I Saw Sister Agness [Agnes Coolbrith Smith] Carloss widow <this morning> She wished me to say to you She hoped you would remember the widow & fartherless & be shure to deed the House & Lot in Kirtland to her for it is all She has it is like the widows Mite She is Left qite dest[i]tute we wish you to do so if you have not. we will be responsible for the moneys you have Expended for the Place we have recently received a letter from Brother [William W.] Phelps requesting Council I gave
- e him Council when I was there Last March I think that if he had had as ~~mall~~ mutch faith in my Council as he had in Brother A Babbits [Almon Babbitt’s] when he came home from Pheladelphia he would not have wanted any further information on the Subject the commandments & revelations are before him the Proclamation to the Church to gether with the request of the first Presidency & the word of the Lord saying there remained a ~~Stourge~~ Scourge for the People øf or for the in hab[i]tants of Kirtland & C
- f Hiram Kimball is qite sick at this time we think he is some better on the mend Sarah [Granger Kimball] is qite smart the general health of <the> Place <is> as good as can be Expectedt considering the Long <spell of> Dry weather there has been no rain here for three month to wit wet the ground in two Inches the Inglish grain & corn crops are good but the Potatoes are good for nothing the Lords House & the Nauvoo House Prospers beyond Expectation
- My family & Brother Josephs are well at Present there is but a verry few Sick in this Place at this time
- g Brother Granger this Is an Eventful Period a Day of Darkness & of thick darkness & Mourning & weeping & Lemantation & what Ever the saints find to do Let them do it qickly & above all things Else Let them strive to be Prepard to die—
- Please write to us on the receipt of this & Let us Know all the Particulars of all the affairs Brother Joseph sends his Love to you & famaly My Love to all & C.
- yours in the Bonds of the Everlasting Covenant

Hyrum Smith
Joseph Smith

[page [3] blank]

Minutes and Discourse, 1–5 October 1841

As Published in Times and Seasons

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a ...P. M. Pres. Joseph Smith opened by calling on the choir to sing a Hymn—sung 18th Hymn. The President then read a letter from Br. O[rson] Hyde giving an account of his journeys and success in his mission, which was listened to with intense interest; and the cenfERENCE, by vote, expressed their approbation of the style and spirit of said letter. The President then made remarks on the inclemency of the weather and the uncomfortable situation of the saints with regard to a place of worship, and a place of public entertainment...
- b Pres. Joseph Smith then made some corrections of doctrine in quoting a passage from 1 Cor. 12, 28, showing it to be a principle of order or gradation in rising from one office to another in the Priesthood...
- c President Joseph Smith, by request of some of the Twelve, gave instructions on the doctrine of Baptism for the Dead; which was listened to with intense interest by the large assembly. The speaker presented “Baptism for the Dead” as the only way that men can appear as saviors on mount Zion. The proclamation of the first principles of the gospel was a means of salvation to men individually, and it was the truth, not men that saved them; but men, by actively engaging in rites of
- d salvation substitutionally, became instrumental in bringing multitudes of their kin into the kingdom of God. He explained a difference between an angel and a ministering spirit; the one a resurrected or translated body, with its spirit, ministering to embodied spirits—the other a disembodied spirit, visiting and ministering to disembodied spirits. Jesus Christ became a minestering spirit, while his body laying in the sepulchre, to the spirits in prison; to fulfil an important part of his mission, without which he could not have perfected his work or entered into his rest. After his resurrection, he appeared as an angel to his disciples &c. Translated bodies cannot enter into rest until they have undergone a change equivalent to death. Translated bodies are designed for future missions. The angel that appeared to John on the Isle of Patmos was a translated or resurrected
- e body.— Jesus Christ went in body, after his resurrection, to minister to translated and resurrected bodies. There has been a chain of authority and power from Adam down to the present time. The only way to obtain truth and wisdom, is not to ask it from books, but to go to God in prayer and obtain divine teaching. It is no more incredible that God should save the dead,
- f than that he should raise the dead. There is never a time when the spirit is too old to approach God. All are within the reach of pardoning mercy, who have not committed the unpardonable sin, which hath no forgiveness, neither in this world, nor in the world to come. There is a way to release the spirit of the dead; that is, by the power and authority of the Priest[h]ood—by binding and loosing on earth
- g This doctrine appears glorious, inasmuch as it exhibits the greatness of divine compassion and benevolence in the extent of the plan of human salvation. This glorious truth is well calculated to enlarge the understanding, and to sustain the soul under troubles, difficulties, and distresses.
- h For illustration the speaker presented, by supposition, the case of too men, brothers, equally intelligent, learned, virtuous and lovely, walking in uprightness and in all good conscience, so far as they had been able to discern duty from the muddy stream of tradition, or from the blotted page of the book of nature. One dies, and is buried, having never heard the gospel of reconciliation; to the other the message of salvation is sent, he hears and embraces it, and is made the heir of eternal life. Shall the one become a partaker of glory, and the other be consigned to hopeless perdition? Is there no chance for his escape?
- i Sectarianism answers, “none! none!! none!!!” Such an idea is worse than atheism. The truth shall break down and dash in pieces all such bigoted Pharisaism; the sects shall be sifted, the honest in heart brought out and their priests left in the

- j midst of their corruption. The speaker then answered the objections urged against the Latter Day Saints for not admitting the validity of sectarian baptism, and for withholding fellowship from sectarian churches[.] It was like putting new wine into old bottles and putting old wine into new bottles. What, new revelations in the old churches! New revelations knock out the bottom of their bottomless pit. New wine into old bottles!—the bottles burst and the wine runs out. What, Sadducees in the new church! Old wine in new leathern bottles will leak through the pores and escape; so the Sadducee saints mock at authority, kick out of the traces, and run to the mountains of perdition, leaving the long echo of their braying behind them.
- k The speaker then contrasted the charity of the sects, in denouncing all who disagree with them in opinion, and in joining in persecuting t[h]e saints, with the faith of the saints, who believe that even such may be saved in this world and in the world to come, (murderers and apostates excepted.)
- l This doctrine, he said, presented in a clear light, the wisdom and mercy of God, in preparing an ordinance for the salvation of the dead, being baptised by proxy, their names recorded in heaven, and they judged according to the deeds done in the body. This doctrine was the burden of the scriptures. Those saints who neglect it, in behalf of their deceased relatives, do it at the peril of their own salvation.
- The dispensation of the fulness of times will bring to light the things that have been revealed in all former dispensations, also other things that have not been before revealed. He shall send Elijah the prophe[t] &c., and restore all things in Christ.
- m The speaker then announced, "There shall be no more baptisms for the dead, until the ordinance can be attended to in the font of the Lord's House; and the church shall not hold another general conference, until they can meet in said house. For thus saith the Lord!"...
- Pres't. Joseph Smith made a lengthy exposition of the condition of the temporal affairs of the church, the agency of which had been committed to him at a general conference in Quincy—explaining the manner that he had discharged the duties involved in that agency, and the condition of the lands and other property of the church...

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Saviors shall come up on Mt Zion &c.— what is it. &&— To preach only? No. In every dispensation something else to do beside pr◊◊ do all— neglect the Baptism for the dead.— Cant that man enter into the fullness of his rest? [illegible] cannot be saviors of man upon any any other principle than by re'ving revelation of all the things To trace our family by geneoloy [genealogy] & Rev— 1st principles of the Gospel no more to the B[aptism] for the Dead. then the dimist [dimmet]
- b Star is to the Glo[r]y of Yonder Son. All the kindred from the days of Adam dow[n] upon that princple, Universalism is nothing. Jesus contemplated &c.— Jesus went as minstering angel Spirits— according to what men do fame in the flesh & live &c— Jesus could not have eneterd & if he had not done this work. Paul— not be made perfeect.— Jesus ministry spirit & angel— Spirits of Just men made perfect & command a co of angels— spirits & bodies translated— spirits— minister to spirits— angels to angels— translated bodies cannot enter into rest— till instructed <by them who had the Key> John you shall instruct or prophecy.— prophets rose at the Resurrection—
- c Jesus went with his body & Spirit—
Dispensation of fulness &c— all dispensations— things before since the world.—
go to Books [illegible] Almighty god rend the vails Said Doctrine incredible— why any more incredible that God should save the Dead after the [illegible]? men never is to ad living or Dead to service the Gospel.— in or out of the world. unpardonable sin— sin this world or the world
- d Spirits after the dissolution of the body— God is bound to fall of that Soul.— Seal on Earth &c— seal of Baptism for my father.— sealed in heaven.— Books opened— of I get my father name Entered. seal him though. &c— 2. Sons born alike— one dies character alike— tomorrow Gospel come.— M. Brunstons Negros Generation where did Sectarians get their Doctrine.— from heathen refuse— brayed common sense out of the world.— Mahomet, Juyomet, Toroyes Doctrines.— Old Joe— [illegible] of this thesis— Blasphemy— voice of God from heavens.— creeds of men.— why so tenacous are the mormons? old wine, mend bottles &. New Rev in old churches— old Sadness Presbytrian— into a new church— drawn ga◊◊ for charity— man gone to flames of hell

[Text in top third portion of page 3 is illegible]

- e born of water by proxy— A man is judged according to [2 words illegible]
Pulling them out of the fire—
Martin Luther & Alexander Campbell.
2^d. acts— no Holy Ghost

- f Dispensation of the fullness of times which reveals in that dispensations all those dispensat[ions] all things not before revealed— Adam did not attend to his progenitors <partriarchal>— Eligah [illegible] Israel out of the groves. by the Keys what Paul did not.— hearts of the children to their fathers &c— ordinances &— all things attended to from Adam down— every genten [generation] that have rejected the children fathers must be denied. with [2 words illegible] fathers— Baptismal font Geneoly the Dead neglected their dead. doc◊◊◊ed [3 words illegible]

- g [illegible] days [illegible] attend to [illegible] just men Spirit of [3 words illegible] of angels— [illegible] the reaping [illegible] of angels— false spirits.— [illegible] of just men made perfect— Angels [illegible].— [2 words illegible] death [2 words illegible]—

- h [4 words illegible] prepare your temple [illegible].— Do [2 words illegible] a man has a perfect Right to be [illegible] by any man who is a kin to him [4 words illegible] if he can [illegible] to Adam [4 words illegible] 144 [illegible]— pray God send spirits & angels to inform them Pray God <for others> [illegible] of your hands [illegible] you.— Be baptized. not without [4 words illegible].— angels [4 words illegible] seek out [4 words illegible] general conference [p. 4] [illegible] held here until ye hold it in my house [3/4 page blank]

Memorandum, 2 October 1841

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a The following was copied from a memorandum which was made upon the accasion of which it treats.
“The Corner Stone of the Nauvoo House, in which the following records, were deposited, was laid by Joseph Smith, the President of the Church, to wit:—
A Printed copy of the ‘Book of Mormon’
A Revelation, given January 19th 1841
The “Times & Seasons”, containing the charter of the Nauvoo House—
A Journal of Heber [C.] Kimball.
The Memorial of Lyman Wight to the Senate of the United States.
A Book of Covenants
No. 35 of the “Times & Seasons”
The original Manuscript of the “Book of Mormon”.
- b The Persecution of the Church, in the State of Missouri, published in the Times & Seasons.
The Holy Bible—
Silver Coin, to wit
1 Half Dollar
1 Quarter Dollar
2 Dimes— 2 Half Dimes—and
1 Cop[p]er Coin.

Deposited on the 2nd October 1841

Letter to Smith Tuttle, 9 October 1841

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Nauvoo, Ill. October 9th 1841
Smith Tuttle Esqr.

Dear Sir, Your kind letter of Sept. last was rec'd. during our Conference which is just over, containing a full & particular explanation of every thing which gave rise to some feelings of disappointment in relation to our business transactions; and I will assure you, it has allayed, on our part, every prejudice. It breath[e]s the spirit of kindness & truth. I will assure you that we exceedingly regret that there have been any grounds for hardness and disappointment. But so far as I am concerned, I must plead innocence; and you will consider me so, when you come to know all the facts— I have done all that I could on my part. I will still do all that I can. I will not leave one stone unturned.—

- b Now the facts are these. I sent my Brother Hyrum Smith & Dr. [Isaac] Galland with means in their hands.— say, not money, but with power to obtain every property or money which was necessary to enable them to fulfil the contract I made with Mr. [Horace] Hotchkiss. My brother was under the necessity of returning, in consequence of ill health, to this place, leaving the business in the hands of Dr. Galland, with the fullest expectation that he would make over the property or money to Mr. Hotchkiss, and make every thing square, so far as the interest is concerned, if not the principal. He was instructed to
- c pay the interest that had accrued & would accrue up to the fall of 1842, so as to be in advance of our indebtedness. I had also made arrangements with the eastern churches, & had it in my power to fork over land for the whole debt; & had expected that an arrangement of that kind would have been entered into. I am well assured that Dr. Galland did not lack <any> means whatever, to pay the interest, at any rate, if not the principal; & why he has not done according to my instructions, God only knows. I do not feel to charge him with having done wrong, until I can investigate the matter, and ascertain for a certainty where the fault lies. It may be, that through sickness or disaster, this strange neglect has happened, I would to God the thing
- d had not happened, When I read Mr. Hotchkiss' letter, I learned that he was dissatisfied. I thought he meant to oppress me, & felt exceedingly mortified & sorrowful in the midst of affliction, to think that he should distrust me for a moment, that I would not do all that was within my power. But upon hearing an explanation of the whole matter, my feelings are changed; and I think you all have had cause for complaining; but you will in the magnanimity of yr. good feelings, certainly not blame me when you find I have discharged an honorable duty on my part. I regret exceedingly that I did not know some months since, what I now know, so that I could have made another exertion before it got so late.
- e Cold weather is now rolling in upon us. I have been confined here this season by sickness & various other things that were beyond my control; such as having been demanded by the Governor of Mo. of the Governor of this State, & he not having moral courage enough to resist the demand, although it was founded in injustice & cruelty. I accordingly was taken prisoner, & they put me to some ten or eleven hundred dollars expense & trouble before I could be redeemed from under the difficulty; lawyers fees, witnesses— &c. &c.— But I am now clear from them once more, & now in contemplating the face of the whole subject, I find that I am under the necessity of asking a little farther indulgence, <say> until next spring so that I may be enabled to recover myself; and then if God spares my life, & gives me power to do so, I will come in person to yr. country, & will never cease my labors until the whole matter is completely adjusted to the fullest satisfaction of all
- f of you. The subject of your debt was presented fairly before our general Conference, on the first of the month, of some ten thousand people for their decision for the wisest & best course, in relation to meeting your demands. The Twelve, as they are denominated in the "Times and Seasons," were ordered by the Conference to make arrangements in the eastern branches of the church, ordering them to go to you & turn over their property as you & they could agree, & take up our obligations & bring them here, & receive property here for them. & I have been ordered by the Gen^l. Conference to write this letter to you, informing you of the measures which are about being taken to make all things right. I would inform you that Dr. Galland
- g has not returned to the Western Country as yet. He has a considerable amt. of our money in his hands, which was to have been paid to you as was intended. He is on his way for aught we know, & is retarded in his journey by some misfortune or other He may return, however, as yet, & give a just and honorable account of himself. We hope this may be the case. I am sorrowful on account of yr. disappointments. It is a great disappointment to me as well as to yourselves. As to the growth

- of our place, it is very rapid; & it would be more so, were it not for sickness & death. There have been many deaths which leaves a melancholly reflection, but we can not help it. When God speaks from the heavens to call us home, we must submit to his mandate.— And for your sincerity & friendship, gentlemen, we have not the most distant doubt. We will not harbour any. We know it is for your interest to do us good, & for our happiness & welfare, to be punctual in the fulfilment of all our
- h vows. And we think for the future you will have no cause of complaint. We intend to struggle with all the misfortunes of life, & shoulder them all up handsomely & honorably, even like men. We ask nothing, therefore, but what ought to be ~~granted~~ <required> between man & man, & by those principles which bind man to man by kindred blood, in bearing our own part in every thing which duty calls us to do or not inferior to any of the human race, & will be treated as such, although differing with some in matters of opinion in things, (viz:— religious matters,) for which we only feel ourselves amenable to the Eternal God. And may God forbid that pride, ambition, a want of humility or any degree of importance, unjustly should have any
- i dominion in our bosoms. We are the sons of Adam. We are the free born sons of America, and as having been trampled upon, & our constitutional rights taken from us, by a great many who boast themselves of being valiant in freedom's cause, while their hearts possess not a spark of its benign & enlivening influence. This will afford a sufficient excuse, we hope, for any harsh remarks that may have been dropped by us, when we thought there was an assumption of superiority designed to gall our feelings. We are very sensative, as a people; we confess it, but we want to be pardoned for our sins, if any we have committed.
- j With regard to the time when the first payment of interest should be made, it appears we did not understand each other, but it is a matter, which I hope we can amicably adjust when we see each other. I do not intend that it shall prevent our making an arrangement concerning the whole matter, for unless we can accomplish this, it will be useless for us to think of profitting by the purchase.

With sentiments of respect, I remain as ever Yours &c.— Joseph Smith <NAUVOO Ills. OCT 12>

<Paid 25>

Smith Tuttle Esqr.
New Haven
C.t.

Interview, 3 November 1841

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a A. "You have the beginning of a great city here, Mr. Smith."
-[Here came in the more prominent objects of the city. The expense of the temple, Mr. Smith thought, would be $200,000 or $300,000. The temple is 127 feet side, by 88 feet front; and by its plan, which was kindly shown us, will fall short of some of our public buildings. As yet, only the foundations are laid. Mr. Smith then spoke of the "false" reports current about himself, and "supposed we had heard enough of them."
- b A. "You know, sir, persecution sometimes drives 'the wise man mad.'"⁵
Mr. S. (laughing.) "Ah, sir, you must not put me among the wise men; my place is not there. I make no pretensions to piety, either. If you give me credit for any thing, let it be for being a good manager. A good manager I do claim to be."
- c A. "You have great influence here, Mr. Smith."
Mr. S. "Yes; I have. I bought 900 acres here, a few years ago, and they all have their lands of me. My influence, however, is ecclesiastical only; in civil affairs, I am but a common citizen. To be sure, I am a member of the City Council, and Lieutenant General of the Nauvoo Legion. I can command a thousand men to the field, at any moment, to support the laws. I had hard
- d work to make them turn out and form the 'Legion,' until I shouldered my musket, and entered the ranks myself. Now, they have nearly all provided themselves with a good uniform, poor as they are. By the way, we had a regular 'set to' up here, a day or two since. The City Council ordered a liquor seller to leave the place, when his time was up; and, as he still remained, they directed that his house should be pulled down about his ears. They gave me a hand in the scrape; and I had occasion to knock a man down more than once. They mustered so strong an opposition, that it was either 'knock down,' or 'be knocked down.' We beat him off, at last; and are determined to have no grog shops in or about our grounds."

-[The conversation flowed on pleasantly, until my friend, to fill a pause that occurred, referred to my calling as a preacher.]-

e Mr. S. "Well I suppose (turning from me) he is one of the craft trained to his creed."

A. "My creed, sir, is the New Testament."

Mr. S. "Then, sir, we shall see truth just alike; for the scripture says, 'They shall see, eye to eye.' All who are true men, must read the bible alike, must they not?"

A. "True, Mr. Smith; and yet I doubt if they will see it precisely alike. If no two blades of grass are precisely alike, for a higher reason, it seems that no two intellects are."

Mr. S. (getting warm.) "There—I told you so. You don't come here to seek truth. You begin with taking the place of opposition. Now, say what I may, you have but to answer, 'No two men can see alike.'"

f A. "Mr. Smith, I said not that no two could see alike; but that no two could see, on the whole, precisely alike."

Mr. S. "Does not the scripture say, 'They shall see, eye to eye?'"

A. "Granted, sir; but be good enough to take a case; The words 'all' and 'all things' were brought up as meaning, at one time, universal creation. And again: 'One believeth that he may eat all things,' i.e. any thing, or, as we say, every thing."

Mr. S. "You may explain away the bible, sir, as much as you please. I ask you, have you ever been baptized?"

A. "Yes, sir; I think I have."

g Mr. S. "Can you prophesy?"

A. "Well, sir, that depends on the meaning you give the word. I grant that it generally means to foretell; but I believe that it often means, to preach the gospel. In this sense, sir, I can prophesy."

Mr. S. "You lie, sir; and you know it."

A. "It is as easy for me to impugn your motives, Mr. Smith, as for you to impugn mine."

Mr. S. "I tell you, you don't seek to know the truth. You are a hypocrite: I saw it when you first began to speak."

h A. "It is plain, Mr. Smith, that we differ in opinion. Now, one man's opinion is as good as another's, until some third party comes in to strike a balance between them."

Mr. S. "I want no third party, sir. You are a fool, sir, to talk as you do. Have I not seen twice the years that you have? -[Joseph Smith is 36 years old; the speaker, A., was 10 years younger.]- I say, sir, you are no gentleman. I wouldn't trust you with my purse across the street."

i -[Here my friend interposed, saying: "I don't believe, Mr. Smith, that this gentleman came to your house to insult you. He had heard all sorts of accounts of your people, and came simply to see with his own eyes."]-

Mr. S. "I have no ill feelings towards the gentleman. He is welcome to my house; but what I see to be the truth, I must speak out; I flatter no man. I tell you, sir, that man is a hypocrite. You'll find him out, if you're long enough with him. I tell you, I wouldn't trust him as far as I could see him. What right has he to speak so to me? Am I not the leader of a great people? He, himself, will not blame me for speaking the truth plainly."

Discourse, 7 November 1841

As Reported by Wilford Woodruff

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a Elder W^m Clark preached about 2 hours when Br Joseph arose & reproved him as pharisaical & hypocritical & not edifying the people Br Joseph then deliverd unto us an edifying adress showing us what temperance faith virtue, charity & truth was he also said if we did not accuse one another God would not accuse us & if we had no accuser we should enter heaven he b would take us there as his backload if we would not accuse him he would not accuse us & if we would throw a cloak of charity over his sins he would over ours for charity covered a multitude of sins & what many people called sin was not sin & he did many things to break down superstition & he would break it down he spoke of the curse of ham for laughing at Noah while in his wine but doing his harm.

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a In my last I believe, I gave you some sketches of Joseph's Sermon on baptism for the dead. I heard him last Sabbath, on Superstition &c.—highly interesting.
- Brother Wm. O. Clark had been preaching to the congregation to persuade them to Charity, temperance and every thing that is good and lovely, &c. and without telling them what was good and lovely, &c. and Brother Joseph shewed that this was the sectarian method of preaching and by such preaching no one could learn the principles of righteousness, and the
- b world is ignorant of those principles; and to do the people good we ought to tell them what those principles are instead of trying continually to enforce something they know nothing about. And he would tell them what virtue was, viz. to keep all the commandments of God without doubting or querying about it. God gives laws to suit the circumstances of his creatures. Laws in themselves contradictory; "Thou shalt not kill;" then to Abraham "Slay thy son Isaac." Abraham rendered obedience,
- c nothing doubting. This was virtue, perfecting his faith by works. Men got up and pretended to preach by the power of the Holy Ghost, and tell nothing new nothing but what the people understood. This is false. When men preach by the power of the Holy Ghost they will tell something new, and if a man has nothing new to tell let him sit down to give room to others (this was in Nauvoo) lest he should come under some condemnation he would till something new.
- d "No man will be condemned before God who has no accuser." Like the woman who was taken in the very act and they came accusing &c. "Let him without sin cast the first stone." "Where are thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee? No man Lord. Neither do I." Where two or three are agreed— suppose it to be to take a glass of wine in the secret chamber and enjoy themselves for an hour and harm no one. They are agreed; who shall condemn them? No one; but one of the company
- e in not agreed; he turns accuser. Condemnation follows. Drunkenness is not good; but in such a case God might take no notice of it, if no one entered a complaint or accused the parties. Spirit of accusing is a spirit of evil and many may be condemned by it which otherwise might go clear. Our actions are between us and God if we infringe not on the rights of others. If the brethren would not accuse him he would not accuse them, but would take them all on his back and bear them safe through the gates into the kingdom, &c. &c. &c.

Letter to John M. Bernhisel, 16 November 1841

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

Nauvoo November 16, 1841

Dear Sir

I received your kind present by the hand of E^L [Wilford] Woodruff & feel myself under many obligations for this mark of your esteem & friendship which to me is the more interesting as it unfolds & developes many things that are of great importance to this generation & corresponds with & supports the testimony of the Book of Mormon; I have read the volumes with the greatest interest & pleasure & must say that of all histories that have been written pertaining to the antiquities of this country it is the most correct luminous & comprihensive.—

- b In regard to the land referred to by you I would simply state that I have lands both in and out of the City some of which I hold deeds for and others bonds for deeds when you come which I hope will be as soon as convenient you can make such a selection from among those as shall best meet with your veiws & feelings. In gratefull remembrance of your kindness I remain your affectionate Brother in the bonds of the

Everlasting Covenant
Joseph Smith

To D^E [John M.] Bernhisel

[page [2] blank]

[page [3] blank]

<Nauvoo Ill>

<Nov 23^d>

<25>

D^E Bernhisel care of Lucian R. Foster

No 13 Oliver St

New York

<left by Elder [James] Divine at the bequest of Eldr Foster>

Remarks, 28 November 1841

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

28^[th] Sunday I spent the day at B[righam] Young in company with Joseph & the Twelve in conversing upon a variety of subjects it was an interesting day Elder Joseph Fielding was present he had been in England four years we also saw a number of english Brethren Joseph said the Book of Mormon was the most correct of any Book on earth & the keystone of our religion & a man would get nearer to God by abiding by its precepts than any other Book

Affidavit, 29 November 1841

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

City of Nauvoo, Ill., Nov. 29th A. D. 1841.

TO THE PUBLIC:—

The transpiration of recent events makes it criminal for me to remain longer silent. The tongue of the vile yet speaks, and sends forth the poison of asps—the ears of the spoiler yet hear, and he puts forth his hands to iniquity. It has been proclaimed upon the house-top and in the secret chamber, in the public walks and private circle, throughout the length and breadth of this vast continent, that stealing by the Latter Day Saints has received my approval; nay, that I have taught the doctrine, encouraged them in plunder, and led on the van—than which nothing is more foreign from my heart. I disfellowship the perpetrators of all such abominations—they are devils and not saints, totally unfit for the society of Christians, or men. It is true that some professing to be Latter Day Saints have taught such vile heresies, but all are not Israel that are of Israel;¹⁰ and I wish it to be distinctly understood in all coming time, that the church over which I have the honor of presiding will ever set its brows like brass, and its face like steel, against all such abominable acts of villany and crime; and to this end I append my affidavit of disavowal taken this day before General [John C.] Bennett, that there may be no mistake here after as to my real sentiments, or those of the leaders of the church, in relation to this important matter,—

STATE OF ILLINOIS,) ss Hancock County.)

Before me, John C. Bennett, Mayor of the City of Nauvoo, personally came Joseph Smith, President of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, (commonly called Mormons,) who being duly sworn according to law, deposeth and saith, that he has never directly or indirectly encouraged the purloining of property, or taught the doctrine of stealing, or any other evil practice, and that all such vile and unlawful acts will ever receive his unqualified and unreserved disapproval, and the most vigorous opposition of the church over which he presides, and further this deponent saith not.

JOSEPH SMITH, President of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

Sworn to, and subscribed before me, at my office, in the City of Nauvoo, this twenty ninth day of November, Anno Domini 1841.

-[L. S.]- JOHN C. BENNETT,
Mayor of the City of Nauvoo.

Now it is to be hoped that none will hereafter be so reckless as to state that I, or the church to which I belong, approve of thieving—but that all the friends of law and order will join in ferreting out thieves wherever, and whenever, they may be found, and assist in bringing them to that condign punishment which such infamous crimes so richly merit.

JOSEPH SMITH, President of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

Revelation, 2 December 1841

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

A. Revelation Given Dec^r. 2^d. 1842 1841. N. M. Hyde [Marinda Nancy Johnson Hyde]
Verily thus saith the Lord unto you my servant Joseph. that in as much as you have called upon me to know my will concerning my handmaid Nancy Marinda Hyde Behold it is my will that she should have a better place prepared for her than that in which she now lives, in order that her life may be spared unto her; Therefore go and say unto my servant Ebenezer Robinson. & To my handmaid his wife, Let them open their doors and take her and her children into their house. and take care of them faithfully and kindly until my Servant Orson Hyde returns from his mission or until some other provision can be made for her welfare & safety: Let them do these things and spare not. and I the Lord will bless them & heal them. if they do it not grudgingly saith the Lord God. and she shall be a blessing unto them,— and let my handmaid Nancy Marinda Hyde hearken to the counsel of my servant Joseph in all things whatsoever he shall teach unto her, and it shall be a blessing upon her and upon her children after her. unto her Justification saith the Lord. [6 lines blank]

Letter to Church Leaders in Kirtland, Ohio, 15 December 1841

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a “It remains for Almon Babbitt to offer satisfaction. if he wishes so to do, according to the minutes of the Conference, You are doubtless all well aware that all the stakes except those in Hancock, Co.— Illinois, & Lee county Iowa. were discontinued some time Since by the First Presidency, as published in the Times and Season; but as it appears that there are many in
- b Kirtland who desire to remain there. and build up that place, and as you have made great exertions, according to your letter, to establish a printing press, & take care of the poor, &^c since that period, you may as well continue operations according to your designs, & go on with your printing, & do what you can in Righteousness to build up Kirtland but do not suffer yourselves to harbor the Idea that Kirtland will rise on the ruins of Nauvoo. It is the privilege of brethren emigrating from any quarter To come to this place, and it is not right to attempt to persuade those who desire it, to stop short,” (Extract from the letter of the presidents in reply— Decr 15th] 1841.)

Discourse, 19 December 1841

As Reported by Wilford Woodruff

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Joseph the Seer arose & read a chapter in the New Testament containing the parable of the vine & its branches & explained it much to our edification & said “if we kept the commandments of God we should bring forth fruit & be the friends of God & know what our Lord did, “Some say Joseph is a fallen Prophet because he does not bring forth more of the word of the Lord”
- b “Why does he not do it” are we able to receive it No (says he) not one in this room, He then chastized us for our wickedness & unbelief knowing that whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth & scourgeth evry son & daughter whom He receiveth & if we do
- c not receive chastizements then are we Bastards & not Sons. On Revelation He said “A man would command his son to dig potatoes, saddle his horse but before he had done either tell him to do something els, this is all consider[ed] right “But as soon as the Lord gives a commandment & revokes that decree & commands something els then the prophet is considerd fallen &^c” Because we will not receive chastizement at the hand of the Prophet & Apostles the Lord chastizeth us with sickness & death
- d “Let not any man publish his own righteousness for others can do that for him.” sooner let him confess his sins & then he will be forgiven & he will bring forth more fruit when A man is chastized he gets angry & will not endure it. The reason we do not have the secrets of the Lord revealed unto us is because we do not keep them but reveal them, we do not keep our own secrets but reveal our difficulties to the world even to our enemies then how would we keep the secrets of the Lord Joseph says I can keep a secret till dooms day
- e He spoke of love what greater love hath any man than that he lay down his life for his friend then why not fight for our friend untill we die & many other things of interest was spoken.

Revelation, circa 22 December 1841–A

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Verily thus saith the Lord. unto my serva[n]ts the 12 let them appoint unto my servat A[mos] Fuller a mission to preach my gospel. unto the children of man. as it shall be manifested unto them by my Holy Spi[ri]t, Amen.—

Revelation, circa 22 December 1841–B

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

And the word of the Lord came say verily thus Saith the Lord. Let my Serv[a]nt John Snider take a mission. To the Eastern Continent. unto all the confernces that are now sitting in that region & let him carry a package of Epistles, that shall be writtn by my Servants the 12, making known unto them th[e]ir duties concer[n]ing the buidig [building] of my houses which I have appoi[n]ted unto you saith the Lord. that they may bri[n]g their Go[ld] & their Si[lver] & their precious Stones. & the box tree & th[e] Fir tree. & all fine wood. & beautify the place of [m]y sanctuary saith the Lord. & let him return with all means speedily which shall be put into his hands even so Amen.

Discourse, 26 December 1841

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

President Joseph read the 13th chap of 1st corinthians and a part of the 14 chap, and remarked that the gift of Tongues was necessary in the church; <but> That if satan could not speak in tongues he could not tempt a Dutchman, or any other nation, but the English, for he can tempt the Englishman, for he has tempted me, & I am an Englishman; but the Gift of Tongues, by the power of the Holy Ghost, in the church, is for the benefit of the servants of God to preach to unbelievers, as on the days of Pentecost, when devout men from evry nation shall assemble to hear of the things of God. let the <elders> preach to them in their own Mother tongue. whither it is German, French, Spanish or Irish. or any other. & let those interpret who understand the ~~tongue~~ <Language> spoken. by in their mother tongue. & this is what the Apostle meant. in 1s[t] corinthians 14:27.

1842

Joseph Smith

Introduction to 1842

sdf

Letter to Edward Hunter, 5 January 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

Nauvoo January 5^[th] 1842

Mr Edward Hunter.

Beloved Brother,

I wrote you on the 21 ultimo, in reply to yours of the 27^[th] of october, but lest by any means the letter should fail to reach you I will recapitulate very briefly some important items therein contained,

The power of Attorney was duly executed by Mrs [Margaret] Smith. & forwarded to the clerks office for seal of state. to be sent. from thence direct to you.

The Goods are accepted and <will be> applied according to you[r] request,

b

I have purchased 90 acres of woodland, a little up the River; have made proposals to [Hugh] McFall. but am yet waiting his answer, from his eastern correspondent.

Steam Engines & mills of any description will do well here, the more of such things you can bring, the better.— for particulars on the foregoing I would refer you to my letter of the 21. ult which I hope you have received ere this—

The

c

I am happy that it is my privilege to say to you that the large New. Building. which I had commenced when you were here, is now completed, and the doors are opened this day. for the sale of goods for the first time. The foundations of the building is somewhat spacio[u]s, (as you will doubtless recollect,) for a country store, The principal part of the building below, which is nearly 10 feet high is devoted ~~to~~ exclusively to Shelves. <&> drawers, Except 1 door opening back into the space, on the left of which is are the cellar & chamber Stairs. & on the Right the Counting Room;— from the space at the top of the chamber stairs, opens a door into the Large front room, of the same size with the one below.— the walls lined with counters. covered with reserve goods.— in front of the stairs opens the door to my Private Office, or where I keep the sacred writings. with a window to the south. overlooking the River below. & the opposite shore for a great distance, <which> together with the passage of boats in the season thereof, constitutes a peculiarly interesting situation, in prospect & no less interesting from its retirement from the bustle & confusion of the neighborhood & city. and altogether is a place the Lord is pleased to bless.—

e

The painting of the store has been ex[e]cuted by some of our English bethen [brethren].— & the counters, drawers— & pillars present a very respectable representation of Oak. Mahogany & Marble— for a back woods establishment,—

f

The Lord has blessed our exertions in a wonderful manner, and although some individuals have succeeded in detain[in]g goods. to a considerable amount for the time being, yet we have been enabled to s[e]cure goods in the building Sufficient to fill all the shelves. <& soon as they were completed> & have some in reserve, both in loft. & cellar. Our assortment, is tolerably good— very good considering the different purchases made by different individuals,— at different times, and under circumstances which controuled their choice to some extent, but, I rejoice that we have been enabled to do as well as we have, for the hearts of many of the poor brethren & sisters will be made glad, with those comforts which are now within

- g their reach. The store has been filled to overflowing all day, & I have stood behind the counter dealing out goods as steady as any clerk you ever Saw to oblige those who were compelled to go without their <usual> christmas & New year, dinners. for the want of a little Sugar, Molasses, Rasions &c. &c,— & to please myself also for I love to wait upon the Saints, and be a servant to all hoping that I may be exalted in the due time of the Lord.
- h It is highly necessary that the store be well supplied with merchandise from this time forward, both for the interest of the church generally— & the comfort of the brethren individually and as expenses have been incurred already to a great amount in building the Store, Temple, “Nauvoo house” &c &c— a great many of the goods on hand will have to pass away on orders previous contracts, &c. & we shall be obliged to lean upon other resources, <to a great extent> rather than the profits of goods, this winter, to supply a new stock in the spring, & for this reason as well as those before stated, & also, for
- i your gratification in learning of our prosperity. I write you this early. to disire you to have the money you are to get on the power of Attorney, of Mrs Smith ready for disposal in Philadelphia, as soon as the rivers shall open, & I sincerely hope & trust that nothing will prevent your getting the money as you expect, so that it may be ready in depositee at Philadelphia, or ~~or~~ so that you can meet Mr Whitney [Newel K. Whitney] <at Phil^a.> or someone who may go for the goods, at a time which may
- j be appointed hereafter.— &c that we may have an early supply, of a spring selection, as you are aware that the first opening of a new assortment would be much to the advantage of the establishment, and I wish you to give me the earliest information possible, of any thing new, in relation to this, matter, With Sentiments of high consideration I remain your Brother in Christ,

Joseph Smith
pr. W[illard] Richards, Scribe

<NAUVOO Ills. JAN 11>

<25>

Edward Hunter Esq^r
West Nantmeal
Chester County
Pensylvania

Revelation, 28 January 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

1842
January 28.

A Revelation of <to> the twelve conerning the Times and Seasons.

Verily thus saith the Lord unto you my servant Joseph. go and say unto the Twelve That it is my will to have them take in hand the Editorial department of the Times and Seasons according to that manifestation. which Shall be given unto them by the Power of My Holy Spirit in the midst of their counsel Saith the Lord. Amen

Discourse, 30 January 1842

As Reported by Wilford Woodruff

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a
- Jan 30^[th] [1842] Joseph the Seer taught the following principles that the God & father of our Lord Jesus Christ was once
- b
- the same as the Son or Holy Ghost bothaving [both having] redeemed a world became the eternal God of that world he had a son Jesus Christ who redeemed this earth the same as his father had a world which made them equal & the Holy Ghost would do the same in his turn & so would all the Saints who inherited a Celestial glory so their would be Gods many &
- c
- Lords many their were many mansions even 12 from the abode of Devils to the Celestial glory All Spirits that have bodies have power over those that have not hence men have power over Devils &c

“Church History,” 1 March 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a
- CHURCH HISTORY.
- At the request of Mr. John Wentworth, Editor, and Proprietor of the “Chicago Democrat,” I have written the following sketch of the rise, progress, persecution, and faith of the Latter-Day Saints, of which I have the honor, under God, of being the founder. Mr. Wentworth says, that he wishes to furnish Mr. Bastow [George Barstow], a friend of his, who is writing the history of New Hampshire, with this document. As Mr. Bastow has taken the proper steps to obtain correct information all that I shall ask at his hands, is, that he publish the account entire, ungarnished, and without misrepresentation.
- b
- I was born in the town of Sharon Windsor co., Vermont, on the 23d of December, A. D. 1805. When ten years old my parents removed to Palmyra New York, where we resided about four years, and from thence we removed to the town of Manchester.
- c
- My father was a farmer and taught me the art of husbandry. When about fourteen years of age I began to reflect upon the importance of being prepared for a future state, and upon enquiring the plan of salvation I found that there was a great clash in religious sentiment; if I went to one society they referred me to one plan, and another to another; each one pointing to his own particular creed as the summum bonum of perfection: considering that all could not be right, and that God could not be the author of so much confusion I determined to investigate the subject more fully, believing that if God had a church it would not be split up into factions, and that if he taught one society to worship one way, and administer in one set of ordinances,
- d
- he would not teach another principles which were diametrically opposed. Believing the word of God I had confidence in the declaration of James; “If any man lack wisdom let him ask of God who giveth to all men liberally and upbraideth not and it shall be given him,” I retired to a secret place in a grove and began to call upon the Lord, while fervently engaged in supplication my mind was taken away from the objects with which I was surrounded, and I was enwrapped in a heavenly vision and saw two glorious personages who exactly resembled each other in features, and likeness, surrounded with a
- e
- brilliant light which eclipsed the sun at noon-day. They told me that all religious denominations were believing in incorrect doctrines, and that none of them was acknowledged of God as his church and kingdom. And I was expressly commanded to “go not after them,” at the same time receiving a promise that the fulness of the gospel should at some future time be made known unto me.
- f
- On the evening of the 21st of September, A. D. 1823, while I was praying unto God, and endeavoring to exercise faith in the precious promises of scripture on a sudden a light like that of day, only of a far purer and more glorious appearance, and brightness burst into the room, indeed the first sight was as though the house was filled with consuming fire; the appearance produced a shock that affected the whole body; in a moment a personage stood before me surrounded with a glory yet greater

g than that with which I was already surrounded. This messenger proclaimed himself to be an angel of God sent to bring the joyful tidings, that the covenant which God made with ancient Israel was at hand to be fulfilled, that the preparatory work for the second coming of the Messiah was speedily to commence; that the time was at hand for the gospel, in all its fulness to be preached in power, unto all nations that a people might be prepared for the millennial reign.

I was informed that I was chosen to be an instrument in the hands of God to bring about some of his purposes in this glorious dispensation.

h I was also informed concerning the aboriginal inhabitants of this country, and shown who they were, and from whence they came; a brief sketch of their origin, progress, civilization, laws, governments, of their righteousness and iniquity, and the blessings of God being finally withdrawn from them as a people was made known unto me: I was also told where there was deposited some plates on which were engraven an abridgement of the records of the ancient prophets that had existed on i this continent. The angel appeared to me three times the same night and unfolded the same things. After having received many visits from the angels of God unfolding the majesty, and glory of the events that should transpire in the last days, on the morning of the 22d of September A. D. 1827, the angel of the Lord delivered the records into my hands.

j These records were engraven on plates which had the appearance of gold, each plate was six inches wide and eight inches long and not quite so thick as common tin. They were filled with engravings, in Egyptian characters and bound together in a volume, as the leaves of a book with three rings running through the whole. The volume was something near six inches in k thickness, a part of which was sealed. The characters on the unsealed part were small, and beautifully engraved. The whole book exhibited many marks of antiquity in its construction and much skill in the art of engraving. With the records was found a curious instrument which the ancients called "Urim and Thummim," which consisted of two transparent stones set in the rim of a bow fastened to a breastplate.

Through the medium of the Urim and Thummim I translated the record by the gift, and power of God.

l In this important and interesting book the history of ancient America is unfolded, from its first settlement by a colony that came from the tower of Babel, at the confusion of languages to the beginning of the fifth century of the Christian era. We are informed by these records that America in ancient times has been inhabited by two distinct races of people. The first were called Jaredites and came directly from the tower of Babel. The second race came directly from the city of Jerusalem, m about six hundred years before Christ. They were principally Israelites, of the descendants of Joseph. The Jaredites were destroyed about the time that the Israelites came from Jerusalem, who succeeded them in the inheritance of the country. The principal nation of the second race fell in battle towards the close of the fourth century. The remnant are the Indians that now inhabit this country. This book also tells us that our Saviour made his appearance upon this continent after his resurrection, that he planted the gospel here in all its fulness, and richness, and power, and blessing; that they had apostles, prophets, n pastors, teachers and evangelists; the same order, the same priesthood, the same ordinances, gifts, powers, and blessing, as was enjoyed on the eastern continent, that the people were cut off in consequence of their transgressions, that the last of their prophets who existed among them was commanded to write an abridgement of their prophesies, history &c., and to hide it up in the earth, and that it should come forth and be united with the bible for the accomplishment of the purposes of God in the last days. For a more particular account I would refer to the Book of Mormon, which can be purchased at Nauvoo, or from any of our travelling elders.

o As soon as the news of this discovery was made known, false reports, misrepresentation and slander flew as on the wings of the wind in every direction, the house was frequently beset by mobs, and evil designing persons, several times I was shot at, and very narrowly escaped, and every device was made use of to get the plates away from me, but the power and blessing of God attended me, and several began to believe my testimony.

p On the 6th of April, 1830, the "Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints," was first organized in the town of Manchester, Ontario co., state of New York. Some few were called and ordained by the spirit of revelation, and prophesy, and began to preach as the spirit gave them utterance, and though weak, yet were they strengthened by the power of God, and many were brought to repentance, were immersed in the water, and were filled with the Holy Ghost by the laying on of hands. They saw visions and prophesied, devils were cast out and the sick healed by the laying on of hands. From that time the work rolled forth with astonishing rapidity, and churches were soon formed in the states of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, q Indiana, Illinois and Missouri; in the last named state a considerable settlement was formed in Jackson co.; numbers joined the church and we were increasing rapidly; we made large purchases of land, our farms teemed with plenty, and peace and happiness was enjoyed in our domestic circle and throughout our neighborhood; but as we could not associate with our neighbors who were many of them of the basest of men and had fled from the face of civilized society, to the frontier country to escape the hand of justice, in their midnight revels, their sabbath breaking, horseracing, and gambling, they commenced at first ridicule, then to persecute, and finally an organized mob assembled and burned our houses, tarred, and feathered, and r whipped many of our brethren and finally drove them from their habitations; who houseless, and homeless, contrary to law, justice and humanity, had to wander on the bleak prairies till the children left the tracks of their blood on the prairie, this took place in the month of November, and they had no other covering but the canopy of heaven, in this inclement season of the year; this proceeding was winked at by the government and although we had warrantee deeds for our land, and had violated no law we could obtain no redress.

- s There were many sick, who were thus inhumanly driven from their houses, and had to endure all this abuse and to seek homes where they could be found. The result was, that a great many of them being deprived of the comforts of life, and the necessary attendances, died; many children were left orphans; wives, widows; and husbands widowers.—Our farms were taken possession of by the mob, many thousands of cattle, sheep, horses, and hogs, were taken and our household goods, store goods, and printing press, and type were broken, taken, or otherwise destroyed.
- t Many of our brethren removed to Clay where they continued until 1836, three years; there was no violence offered but there were threatnings of violence. But in the summer of 1836, these threatnings began to assume a more serious form; from threats, public meetings were called, resolutions were passed, vengeance and destruction were threatened, and affairs again assumed a fearful attitude, Jackson county was a sufficient precedent, and as the authorities in that county did not interfere, they boasted that they would not in this, which on application to the authorities we found to be too true, and after much violence, privation and loss of property we were again driven from our homes.
- u We next settled in Caldwell, and Davies[s] counties, where we made large and extensive settlements, thinking to free ourselves from the power of oppression, by settling in new counties, with very few inhabitants in them; but here we were not allowed to live in peace, but in 1838 we were again attacked by mobs an exterminating order was issued by Gov. [Lilburn W.] Boggs, and under the sanction of law an organized banditti ranged through the country, robbed us of our cattle, sheep, horses, hogs &c., many of our people were murdered in cold blood, the chastity of our women was violated, and we were
- v forced to sign away our property at the point of the sword, and after enduring every indignity that could be heaped upon us by an inhuman, ungodly band of mauraunders, from twelve to fifteen thousand souls men, women, and children were driven from their own fire sides, and from lands that they had warrantee deeds of, houseless, friendless, and homeless (in the depth of winter,) to wander as exiles on the earth or to seek an asylum in a more genial clime, and among a less barbarous people.
- w Many sickened and died, in consequence of the cold, and hardships they had to endure; many wives were left widows, and children orphans, and destitute. It would take more time than is allotted me here to describe the injustice, the wrongs, the murders, the bloodshed, the theft, misery and woe that has been caused by the barbarous, inhuman, and lawless, proceedings of the state of Missouri.
- x In the situation before alluded to we arrived in the state of Illinois in 1839, where we found a hospitable people and a friendly home; a people who were willing to be governed by the principles of law and humanity. We have commenced to build a city called “Nauvoo” in Hancock co., we number from six to eight thousand here besides vast numbers in the county around and in almost every county of the state. We have a city charter granted us and a charter for a legion the troops of which now number 1500. We have also a charter for a university, for an agricultural and manufacturing society, have our own laws and administrators, and possess all the privileges that other free and enlightened citizens enjoy.
- y Persecution has not stopped the progress of truth, but has only added fuel to the flame, it has spread with increasing rapidity, proud of the cause which they have espoused and conscious of their innocence and of the truth of their system amidst calumny and reproach have the elders of this church gone forth, and planted the gospel in almost every state in the Union; it has penetrated our cities, it has spread over our villages, and has caused thousands of our intelligent, noble, and patriotic citizens to obey its divine mandates, and be governed by its sacred truths. It has also spread into England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales: in the year of 1839 where a few of our missionaries were sent over five thousand joined the standard of truth, there are numbers now joining in every land.
- z Our missionaries are going forth to different nations, and in Germany, Palestine, New Holland, the East Indies, and other places, the standard of truth has been erected: no unhallowed hand can stop the work from progressing, persecutions may rage, mobs may combine, armies may assemble, calumny may defame, but the truth of God will go forth boldly, nobly, and independent till it has penetrated every continent, visited every clime, swept every country, and sounded in every ear, till the purposes of God shall be accomplished and the great Jehovah shall say the work is done.
- aa We believe in God the Eternal Father, and in his son Jesus Christ, and in the Holy Ghost.
We believe that men will be punished for their own sins and not for Adam’s transgression.
We believe that through the atonement of Christ all mankind may be saved by obedience to the laws and ordinances of the Gospel.
We believe that these ordinances are 1st, Faith in the Lord Jesus Christ; 2d, Repentance; 3d, Baptism by immersion for the remission of sins; 4th, Laying on of hands for the gift of the Holy Ghost.
- bb We believe that a man must be called of God by “prophesy, and by laying on of hands” by those who are in authority to preach the gospel and administer in the ordinances thereof.
We believe in the same organization that existed in the primitive church, viz: apostles, prophets, pastors, teachers, evangelists &c.
We believe in the gift of tongues, prophesy, revelation, visions, healing, interpretation of tongues &c.
We believe the bible to be the word of God as far as it is translated correctly; we also believe the Book of Mormon to be the word of God.
We believe all that God has revealed, all that he does now reveal, and we believe that he will yet reveal many great and important things pertaining to the kingdom of God.

- cc We believe in the literal gathering of Israel and in the restoration of the Ten Tribes. That Zion will be built upon this continent. That Christ will reign personally upon the earth, and that the earth will be renewed and receive its paradisaic glory.
- We claim the privilege of worshipping Almighty God according to the dictates of our conscience, and allow all men the same privilege let them worship how, where, or what they may.
- dd We believe in being subject to kings, presidents, rulers, and magistrates, in obeying, honoring and sustaining the law.
- We believe in being honest, true, chaste, benevolent, virtuous, and in doing good to all men; indeed we may say that we follow the admonition of Paul “we believe all things we hope all things,” we have endured many things and hope to be able to endure all things. If there is any thing virtuous, lovely, or of good report or praise worthy we seek after these things. Respectfully &c.,
- JOSEPH SMITH.

Notice, circa 1 March 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a TO THE BRETHREN IN NAUVOO CITY, GREETING:—
- It is highly important, for the forwarding of the Temple, that an equal distribution of labor should be made, in relation to time; as a superabundance of hands one week, and none the next, tends to retard the progress of the work; therefore, every brother is requested to be particular to labor on the day set apart for the same, in his ward; and to remember that he that sows sparingly shall also reap sparingly,—so that if the brethren want a plentiful harvest, they will do well to be at the place of labor in good season in the morning, bringing all necessary tools, according to their occupation; and those who have teams bring them also, unless otherwise advised by the temple committee.
- b Should any one be detained from his labor by unavoidable circumstances, on the day appointed, let him labor the next day, or the first day possible.
- N. B.—The captains of the respective wards are particularly requested to be at the place of labor on their respective days, and keep an accurate account of each man’s work, and be ready to exhibit a list of the same when called for.
- The heart of the trustee is daily made to rejoice in the good feelings of the brethren, made manifest in their exertion to carry forward the work of the Lord, and rear his temple; and it is hoped that neither planting, sowing or reaping will hereafter be made to interfere with the regulations hinted at above.
- JOSEPH SMITH.
Trustee in Trust.

Editorial, circa 1 March 1842, Draft

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

Times & Seasons

A. considerable quantity of the matter in the last paper. was in type, before the establishment come into ~~our~~ <My> hands,— Some of which went to press. without ~~our~~ <my> recived. ~~or~~ knowledge The and a multiplicity of business— while enteri[n]g on the additional care of the editorial departmet of the Times & Seasons. mu[s]t be my apology for what is past.

b

In future. I design to furnish much original matter, which will be found of enestimable adventage to the saints,— & to all who— desire a knowledge of the kingdom of God.— and as it is not practicable to bring forth the new translation. of the Scriptures. & varioes records of ancint date. & great worth to this gen[e]ration in ~~book~~ <the usual> form. by books. I shall prenit [print] specimens of the same in the Times & Seasons as fast. as time & space will admit. so that the honest in heart may be cheerd & comforted and go on their way rejoici[ng].— as their souls become exp[an]ded.— & their undestandig [understanding] enlightend, by a knowledg of ~~what~~ Gods work through the fathers. in former days, as well as what He is about to do in Latter Days— To fulfil the words of the fathers.—

c

In the penst [present] no. will be found the Commencmet of the Records discoverd in Egypt. some time since. as penend by the hand. of Father Abraham. which I shall contin[u]e to translate & publish as fast as possible till the whole is completed.— and as the saints have long been anxious to obtain a copy of these re[c]ords, those are now taking this times & Seasons. will confer a sp[e]cial favor on their brethren, who do not take the paper, by infor[m]ing them that. they can now obtain their hearts [3/4 page blank]

Letter to John C. Bennett, 7 March 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Editor's Office, Nauvoo, Ill.,
March 7th, 1842.

GENERAL [John C.] BENNETT;

Respected Brother:—I have just been perusing your correspondence with Doctor [Charles V.] Dyer on the subject of American Slavery, and the students of the Quincy Mission Institute, and it makes my blood boil within me to reflect upon the injustice, cruelty, and oppression, of the rulers of the people—when will these things cease to be, and the Constitution and the Laws again bear rule? I fear for my beloved country—mob violence, injustice, and cruelty, appear to be the darling attributes of Missouri, and no man taketh it to heart! O, tempora! O, mores! What think you should be done?

Your friend,
JOSEPH SMITH.

Letter to Edward Hunter, 9 and 11 March 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

...I am now very busily engaged in Translating, and therefore cannot give as much time to Public matters as I could wish, but will nevertheless do what I Can to forward your affairs...

Minutes, 15–16 March 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a Tuesday, March 15th, A. L. 5842,¹ AD. 1842,
9 o'clock, A. M.

Special Communication, by order of Grand Master [Abraham] Jonas. Lodge met pursuant to previous notice. Present—
W. M. [Worshipful Master] A. Jonas, G. M. of the G. L. [Grand Lodge] of Illinois; W. D. McCann, D. G. S. [Deputy Grand
Secretary]; Asahel Perry, W. M. p. t. [pro tem]; Hyrum Smith, S. W. [Senior Warden]; L[ucius] N. Scovil, J. W. [Junior Warden];
N[jewel] K. Whitney, T[reasurer]; John C. Bennett, S[ecretary]; Charles Allen, S. D. [Senior Deacon]; Heber C. Kimball, J.
D. [Junior Deacon]; S[amuel] Rolfe, T[yler]; Wm. Felshaw, and Hiram Clark, S[tewards]; Hezekiah Peck, Josiah Arnold, Joshua Smith, Lyman Leonard, David Pettegrew, Christopher Williams, John Patten, Noah Rogers, Elijah Fordham, Samuel
b Henderson, Benjamin Brown, Stephen Chase, George Montague, Noble Rogers, and Daniel S. Miles, Members and L. B.
Adams, Franklin, 22, Ill.; M. Plumb, Franklin, 22, Ill.; Henry King, Sylvan, 229, N.Y.; A. C. Graves, Harmony, 11, Ia.; J. Rose,
St. Johns, 21, N.Y.; A. Lambert, Sciota, 28, O[hio]; G. Heberling, La Fayette, Pa.; D. Hibbard, New England, , O.; James
Cummings, Maine, Me.; E. Jennings, Mt. Moriah, N.Y.; Samuel Miles, Rainbow, Vt.; Thomas C. King, Bodley, 1, Ill.; Caleb
Baldwin, Concord, O.; S. Comer, Urbanna, O.; & L. Evans, Urbanna, O.; visiting brethren. The M. W. [Most Worshipful]
Grand Master presided, and opened the lodge in due form, in the 3rd degree of masonry.² He, likewise, organised, and opened a Grand Lodge according to ancient usage, in the 3rd degree. The Grand and Subordinate Lodges then called off from labor to refreshment, until 1 o'clock, P. M.

c 1 o'clock, P. M.

The Lodges called to labor. Present as before. The Grand Master then directed the Grand Marshal, John C. Bennett, to form a procession according to ancient usage, in order to proceed to the grove, near the Temple, for installation, which was accordingly done. At the grove, after the ceremonies of installation, the Grand Master delivered a highly creditable and finished address on the subject of Ancient York Masonry, after which the lodges returned to the lodge room in masonic orders.
The Grand Lodge then closed in due form, without day. The subordinate Lodge then adopted the by-laws which they had informally prepared on the 30th of December, as amended at the suggestion of the Grand Master. On motion, the Lodges requested a copy of the address of the Grand Master for publication— carried unanimously, and a copy promised. The Lodge then closed to meet again at early candle lighting.

d 7 o'clock, P. M.

Lodge met pursuant to adjournment, and opened in the 1st degree of masonry. Present as before. A special dispensation from the Grand Master was then presented in the words following; to wit:

³City of Nauvoo, March 15— 5842.

Know all ye brethren to whom come these presents— That I, Abraham Jonas, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois— in virtue of the power and authority in me vested as Grand Master aforesaid do hereby, by these letters of Dispensation, authorize the Brethren of Nauvoo Lodge under dispensation, to receive the petitions of Joseph Smith, and Sidney Rigdon— and act on the same instantly— and should the ballot be unanimous in e favor of said Smith and Rigdon at a full meeting of said Nauvoo Lodge— then in that case— the said Lodge is authorized to confer the three several degrees of Ancient York Masonry on the said Joseph Smith and Sidney ¹JSP note: "'5842' refers to the year in the Masonic dating system, representing the Gregorian year plus 4,000. Dates in the Masonic system are often preceded by Anno Lucis, Latin for 'year of light.' ('Masonic Computation of Time,' 129–131.)." The source is : "'Masonic Computation of Time.' Freemasons' Monthly Magazine 9, no. 5 (1 Mar. 1850): 129–131."

²Here the JSP gives a note to this source: "Reynolds, John C. History of the M. W. Grand Lodge of Illinois, Ancient, Free, and Accepted Masons, From the Organization of the First Lodge Within the Present Limits of the State, Up to and Including 1850. Springfield, IL: H. G. Reynolds, 1869."

³Beginning here and proceeding to Jonas's signature a few paragraphs below, this is a copy of an authorization created by Abraham Jonas, to begin the Nauvoo Lodge. See the original copy of the authorization here.

Rigdon— as speedily as the nature of the case will admit— Provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed as authority by the said Nauvoo Lodge for violating any of the ancient landmarks of the order, or of acting contrary to the provisions of their By-Laws— except in the cases herein authorized—

Given under my hand— as Grand Master, the day and date above named—

A. Jonas, G. M. G. L. Ill.

Petitions were then presented from Joseph Smith, and Sidney Rigdon, the persons above named, and on motion the Lodge proceeded to the ballot in each case separately, in order of record— the ballot was found clear, and they were duly initiated— Entered Apprentice Masons. The Lodge was then closed, to stand closed until to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

John C. Bennett, Secretary.

Wednesday, March 16th, A.L. 5842, AD. 1842.

9 o'clock, A. M.

Lodge met pursuant to adjournment. Present— W. M. A. Jonas, G. M. presiding; W. D. McCann, D. G. S.; H. Smith, S. W.; L. N. Scovil, J. W.; J. C. Bennett, S.; N. K. Whitney, T.; C. Allen, S. D.; H. C. Kimball, J. D.; Lyman Leonard, T. p. t.; W. Felshaw, & H. Clark, S.; H. Peck, J. Arnold, Joshua Smith, A[ustin] Cowles, D. Pettegrew, S. Rolfe, J. Patten, Noah Rogers, E. Fordham, S. Henderson, S. Chase, Noble Rogers, Ormond Butler, Members; J. Smith & S. Rigdon, E. A. Masons,— and L. B. Adams, M. Plum, H. King, A. C. Graves, J. Rose, A. Lambert, D. Hibbard, & S. Miles, visiting brethren. An E. A. Lodge was then opened in due form, and the minutes of the preceding meeting meeting read. No further business appearing in this degree, the E. A. were requested to withdraw, and a F. C. [Fellow Craft] Lodge was then opened. Joseph Smith, and Sidney Rigdon, signified their desire to be advanced in masonry, and their proficiency in the preceding degree was vouched for— after which they were balloted for, the ballot found clear, and they duly received and passed to the degree of F. C. Masons. The Lodge then called off until 2 o'clock, P.M.

2 o'clock, P.M.

Lodge called to labor. Present as before. A Master's Lodge was then opened and Joseph Smith applied for the third and sublime degree of M. M. [Master Mason]— the ballot was found clear, and he was duly raised to said degree, and signed the By-Laws. Lodge called off until 7 o'clock, P.M.

7 o'clock, P.M.

Lodge called to labor. Present as before. Sidney Rigdon applied for the sublime degree of Master Mason— the ballot was found clear, and he was accordingly raised. The S. W. was then called to the chair, and the following resolutions unanimously adopted; to wit:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Lodge be presented to G. M. Jonas, & D. G. S. McCann, for their attendance with us, and the instructions given in the various degrees of masonry.

Resolved, That they be requested to visit the Lodge whenever their circumstances will permit, at the expense of the Lodge.

Resolved, That G. M. Jonas be requested to deliver an oration on masonry, in this city, on the 24th of June next; but, if not possible so to do, to give the lodge timely notice.

Resolved, That Columbus Lodge, No. 6., & Bodley Lodge, No. 1., be requested to meet with Nauvoo Lodge on the 24th of June— and that all brethren in the vicinity be solicited to participate.

G. M. Jonas, & D. G. S. McCann, then made very neat speeches, expressive of their entire satisfaction with the proceedings of this lodge, and the kind treatment they had received at the hands of our citizens generally. The lodge then closed, in great cordiality of feelings, to stand closed until to-morrow evening.

John C. Bennett, Secretary.

Minutes and Discourses, 17 March 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Present— President Joseph Smith, John Taylor, Willard Richards, Emma Smith and others.

Elder John Taylor was call'd to the chair by Pres^t Smith, and elder W. Richards appointed Secretary, Meeting commenced by singing "The spirit of God like a fire is burning" &c.— Prayer by elder Taylor.

- b When it was mov'd by Pres^t Smith and seconded by Mrs. [Sarah Kingsley] Cleveland, that a vote be taken to know if all are satisfied with each female present; and are willing to acknowledge them in full fellowship, and admit them to the privileges of the Institution about to be formed.

The names of those present were then taken as follows

Mrs Emma Smith

Mrs. Sarah M. Cleveland

Phebe Ann [Baldwin] Hawkes

Elizabeth [Hughes] Jones

Sophia [Bundy] Packard

Philinda [Eldredge] Merrick

Martha Knights [Martha McBride Knight]

Desdemona Fu[ll]mer

Elizabeth Ann [Smith] Whitney

Leonora [Cannon] Taylor

Bathsheba W. [Bigler] Smith

Phebe M. [Bartholomew] Wheeler

Elvira A. Co[w]les

Margaret A [Norris] Cook

Athalia [Rigdon] Robinson

Sarah M. [Granger] Kimball

Eliza R. Snow

Sophia Robinson

Nancy Rigdon

Sophia R. Marks

- c Pres^t Smith, & Elders Taylor and Richa[r]ds withdrew while the females went into an investigation of the motion, and decided that all present, be admitted according to the motion, and that

Mrs. Sarah [Ward] Higbee

Thirza [Stiles] Cahoon

Kezia A. [Voorhees] Morrison

Miranda N. [Marinda Nancy Johnson] Hyde

Abigail [McMurtrey] Allred

Mary [Heron] Snider

Sarah [Stiles] Granger [4 lines blank]

should be admitted; whose names were presented by Pres^t Smith.

- d Pres^t Smith, & Elders Taylor & Richards return'd and the meeting was address'd by Prest. Smith, to illustrate the object of the Society— that the Society of Sisters might provoke the brethren to good works in looking to the wants of the poor— searching after objects of charity, and in administering to their wants— to assist; by correcting the morals and strengthening the virtues of the female community, and save the Elders the trouble of rebuking; that they may give their time to other duties &c. in their public teaching.

- e Pres^t Smith further remark'd that an organization to show them how to go to work would be sufficient. He propos'd that the Sisters elect a presiding officer to preside over them, and let that presiding officer choose two Counsellors to assist in the duties of her Office— that he would ordain them to preside over the Society— and let them preside just as the Presidency, preside over the church; and if they need his instruction— ask him, he will give it from time to time.

- f Let this Presidency serve as a constitution— all their decisions be considered law; and acted upon as such.

If any Officers are wanted to carry out the designs of the Institution, let them be appointed and set apart, as Deacons, Teachers &c. are among us.

The minutes of your meetings will be precedents for you to act upon— your Constitutio[n] and law.

He then suggested the propriety of electing a Presidency to continue in office during good behavior, or so long as they shall continue to fill the office with dignity &c. like the first Presidency of the church.—

- g Motioned by Sister Whitney and seconded by Sister Packard that Mrs. Emma Smith be chosen President— passed unanimously—

Mov'd by Pres^t Smith, that Mrs. Smith proceed to choose her Counsellors, that they may be ordain'd to preside over this Society, in taking care of the poor— administering to their wants, and attending to the various affairs of this Institution.

The Presidentess Elect, then made choice of Mrs. Sarah M. Cleveland and Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Whitney for Counsellors—

- h President Smith read the Revelation to Emma Smith, from the book of Doctrine and Covenants; and stated that she was ordain'd at the time, the Revelation was given, to expound the scriptures to all; and to teach the female part of community; and that not she alone, but others, may attain to the same blessings.—

The 2^d Epistle of John, 1st verse, was then read to show that respect was then had to the same thing; and that why she was called an Elect lady is because, elected to preside.

- i Elder Taylor was then appointed to ordain the Counsellors— he laid his hands on the head of Mrs Cleveland and ordain'd her to be a Counsellor to the Elect Lady, even Mrs. Emma Smith, to counsel, and assist her in all things pertaining to her office &c.
- Elder T. then laid his hands on the head of Mrs. Whitney and ordain'd her to be a Counsellor to Mrs. Smith, the Prest. of the Institutio[n]— with all the privileges pertaining to the office &c.
- j He then laid his hands on the head of Mrs. Smith and blessed her, and confirm'd upon her all the blessings which have been confer'd on her, that she might be a mother in Israel and look to the wants of the needy, and be a pattern of virtue; and possess all the qualifications necessary for her to stand and preside and dignify her Office, to teach the females those principles requisite for their future usefulness.
- k Pres^t Smith then resumed his remarks and gave instruction how to govern themselves in their meetings— when one wishes to speak, address the chair— and the chairman responds to the address.
- Should two speak at once, the Chair shall decide who speaks first, if any one is dissatisfied, she appeals to the house— When one has the floor, occupies as long as she pleases.
- Proper manner of address is Mrs. Chairman or President and not Mr. Chairman &c.
- A question can never be put until it has a second
- When the subject for discussion has been fairly investigated; the Chairman will say, are you ready for the question? &c.
- Whatever the majority of the house decide upon becomes a law to the Society.
- l Pres^t Smith proceeded to give counsel— do not injure the character of any one— if members of the Society shall conduct improperly, deal with them, and keep all your doings within your own bosoms, and hold all characters sacred—
- It was then propos'd that Elder Taylor vacate the chair.
- Pres^t Emma Smith and her Counsellors took the chair, and
- Elder Taylor mov'd— sec^d by Pres^t J. Smith that we go into an investigation respecting what this Society shall be call'd— which was
- carried unanimously
- m Pres^t Smith continued instructions to the Chair to suggest to the members anything the chair might wish, and which it might not be proper for the chair to put, or move &c.
- Mov'd by Counsellor Cleveland, and secon'd by Counsellor Whitney, that this Society be called The Nauvoo Female Relief Society.
- Elder Taylor offered an amendment, that it be called The Nauvoo Female Benevolent Society which would give a more definite and extended idea of the Institution— that Relief be struck out and Benevolent inserted.
- n Pres^t Smith offer'd instruction on votes—
- The motion was seconded by Counsellor Cleveland and unanimously carried, on the amendment by Elder Taylor.
- The Pres^t then suggested that she would like an argument with Elder Taylor on the words Relief and Benevolence.
- Pres^t J. Smith mov'd that the vote for amendment, be rescinded, which was carried—
- Motion for adjournment by Elder Richards and objected by Pres^t J. Smith.—
- o Pres^t J. Smith— Benevolent is a popular term— and the term Relief is not known among popular Societies— Relief is more extended in its signification than Benevolent and might extend to the liberation of the culprit— and might be wrongly construed by our enemies to say that the Society was to relieve criminals from punishment &c. &c— to relieve a murderer, which would not be a benevolent act—
- p Pres^t Emma Smith, said the popularity of the word benevolent is one great objection— no person can think of the word as associated with public Institutions, without thinking of the Washingtonian Benevolent Society which was one of the most corrupt Institutions of the day— do not wish to have it call'd after other Societies in the world—
- Pres^t J. Smith arose to state that he had no objection to the word Relief— that on question they ought to deliberate candidly and investigate all subjects.
- q Counsellor Cleveland arose to remark concerning the question before the house, that we should not regard the idle speech of our enemies— we design to act in the name of the Lord— to relieve the wants of the distressed, and do all the good we can.—
- r Eliza R. Snow arose and said that she felt to concur with the President, with regard to the word Benevolent, that many Societies with which it had been associated, were corrupt,— that the popular Institutions of the day should not be our guide— that as daughters of Zion, we should set an example for all the world, rather than confine ourselves to the course which had been heretofore pursued— one objection to the word Relief is, that the idea associated with it is that of some great calamity— that we intend appropriating on some extraordinary occasions instead of meeting the common occurrences—
- s Pres^t Emma Smith remark'd— we are going to do something extraordinary— when a boat is stuck on the rapids with a multitude of Mormons on board we shall consider that a loud call for relief— we expect extraordinary occasions and pressing calls—
- Elder Taylor arose and said— I shall have to concede the point— your arguments are so potent I cannot stand before them— I shall have to give way—

- Pres^t J. S. said I also shall have to concede the point, all I shall have to give to the poor, I shall give to this Society—
- t Counsellor Whitney mov'd, that this Society be call'd The Nauvoo Female Relief Society— secon^d. by Counsellor Cleveland—
- E. R. Snow offer'd an amendment by way of transposition of words, instead of The Nauvoo Female Relief Society, it shall be call'd The Female Relief Society of Nauvoo— Seconded by Pres^t J. Smith and carried—
- The previous question was then put— Shall this Society be call'd The Female Relief Society of Nauvoo?— carried unanimously.—
- u Pres^t J. Smith— I now declare this Society organiz'd with President and Counsellors &c. according to Parliamentary usages— and all who shall hereafter be admitted into this Society must be free from censure and receiv'd by vote—
- Pres^t J. Smith offered $5.00
- in gold piece to commence the funds of the Institution.
- Pres^t Emma Smith requested that the gentlemen withdraw before they proceed to the choice of Secretary and Treasurer, as was mov'd by Pres^t J. Smith—
- Willard Richards. Sec^{ty}.
- v The gentlemen withdrew when it was Motioned and secon^d. and unanimously pass'd that Eliza R. Snow be appointed Secretary, and Phebe M. Wheeler, Assistant Secretary—
- Motioned, secon^d. and carried unanim^{ly}. that Elvira A. Coles be appointed Treasurer—
- Pres^t E. Smith then arose and proceeded to make appropriate remarks on the object of the Society— its duties to others also its relative duties to each other Viz. to seek out and relieve the distressed— that each member should be ambitious to do good— that the members should deal frankly with each other— to watch over the morals— and be very careful <of> the character and reputation— of the members of the Institution &c.
- w P. A. Hawkes— Question— What shall we reply to interrogatories relative to the object of this Society?
- Pres^t E. Smith replied— for charitable purposes.
- Mov'd and pass'd that Cynthia Ann [Howlett] Eldridge be admitted as a member of this Society—
- Cou^{lr}. Sarah M. Cleveland donated to the fund of the Society \$12 $\frac{1}{2}$
- Sarah M. Kimball d[itt]o 1.00
- Pres^t Emma Smith do 1.00
- Coun^{lr}. E. A. Whitney do 50
- x Pres^t E. Smith said that Mrs. Merrick is a widow— is industrious— performs her work well, therefore recommend her to the patronage of such as wish to hire needlework— those who hire widows must be prompt to pay and inasmuch as some have defrauded the laboring widow of her wages, we must be upright and deal justly—
- The business of the Society concluded— the gentlemen before mentioned return'd—,
- Elder Richards appropriated to the fund of the Society, the sum of $1,00
- Elder Taylor do 2.00
- y Elder T. then arose and address'd the Society by saying that he is much gratified in seeing a meeting of this kind in Nauvoo— his heart rejoices when he sees the most distinguished characters, stepping forth in such a cause, which is calculated to bring into exercise every virtue and give scope to the benevolent feelings of the female heart— he rejoices to see this Institution organiz'd according to the law of Heaven— according to a revelation previously given to Mrs E. Smith appointing her to this important calling— and to see all things moving forward in such a glorious manner— his prayer is that the blessings of God and the peace of heaven may rest on this Institution henceforth—
- z The Choir then sang "Come let us rejoice in the day of salvation["] &c.
- Motion'd, that this meeting adjourn to next week, thursday, ten o'clock— A M.
- The meeting then arose and was dismiss'd by prayer by Elder Taylor.—

Discourse, 20 March 1842

As Reported by Wilford Woodruff

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a The Speaker read the 14th Revelations. And says "we have again the warning voice sounded in our midst which shows the uncertainty of human life. And in my leasure moments I have meditated upon the subject, & asked the question Why is it that, infant innocent children are taken away from us, especially those that seem to be most intelligent beings" Answer "This world is a vary wicked world & it is a proverb that the world grow weaker & wiser, but if it is the case the world grows more
- b wicke[d] & corrupt. In the early ages of the world A richeos [righteous] man & a man of God & intell[i]gence had a better chance to do good to be received & believed than at the present day, but in ~~this~~ these days such a man is much opposed & persecuted by most of the inhabitants of the earth & he has much sorrow to pass through, hence the Lord takes many away even in infancy that they may escape the envy of man, the sorrows & evils of this present world & they were two pure &
- c to[o] lov[e]lly to live on Earth, Therefore if rightly considerd ~~we have~~, instead of mo[u]rning we have reason to rejoice, as they are deliverd from evil & we shall soon have them again, What chanc[e] is their for infidelity when we are parting with our friends almost daily none at all The infidel will grasp at evry straw for help untill death stares him in the face & then his infidelity takes its flight for the realities of the eternal world are resting upon him in mighty power & when evry earthly
- d support & prop fails him, he then sensibly feels the eternal truths of the immortality of the soul. Also the doctrin of Baptizing Children or sprinkling them or they must welter in Hell is a doctrin not true not supported in Holy writ & is not consistant with the character of god The moment that children leave this world they are taken to the bosom of Abraham The ownly difference between the old & young dying is one lives longer in heaven & Eternal light & glory than the other & was freed a little sooner from this miserable wicked world Notwithstanding all this glory we for a moment loose sight of it & mourn the
- e loss but we do not mourn as those without hope. (We should take warning & not wait for the deathbed to repent) As we se[e] the infant taken away by death, so may the youth & middle as well as the infant suddenly be called into  eternity, Let this then proove as a warning to all not to procrastinate repentance or wait till a death bed, for it is the will of God that man should repent & serve him in health & in the strength & power of his mind in order to secure his blessings & not wait untill he is called to die.
- f "My intention (says the speaker) was to have treated upon the subject of Baptism, But having a case of death before, us I thought it proper to refer to that subject, I will now however say a few words upon ~~that subject~~ <Baptism> as intended God has made certain decreas which are fixed & unalterable for instance God [has] set the sun, the moon, the stars in the heavens, & gi[v]en them their laws conditions, & bounds which they cannot pass except by his command, they all move in perfect
- g harmony in there sphere & order & are as wonders, lights & signs unto us, The sea also has its bounds which it cannot pass God has set many signs in the earth as well as in heaven for instance the oaks of the forest, the fruit of the tree, the herd of the field all bear a sign that seed hath been planted there, for it is a decree of the Lord that evry tree fruit or herb bearing seed,
- h should bring forth after its kind & cannot come forth after any other law or principle. upon the same principle do I contend that Baptism is a sign, ordained of God for the believer in Christ to take upon himself in order to enter into the kingdom of God, "for except you are born of the water & the spirit you cannot enter into the kingdom of God,["] Saith the Savior, as It is a sign of command which God hath set for man to enter into ~~the this Kingdom of God~~¹ those who seek to enter in any other
- i will way will seek in vain, for God will not receive those neither will the angels acknowledge their works as accepted, for they have not taken upon themselves those ordinances & signs which God ordained for man to receive in order to receive a
- j celestial glory, & God had decreed that all ~~that~~ <who> will not obey his voice shall not escape the damnation of hell, what is the damnation of hell, to go with that society who have not obeyed his commands Baptism is a sign to God to Angels to heaven that we do the will of God & their is no other way beneath the heavens whareby God hath ordained for man to come ~~to God~~ & any other cource is in vain. God hath decreed & ordained that man should repent of all his sins & Be Baptized for the remission of his sins then he can come to God in the name of Jesus Christ in faith then we have the promise of the Holy Ghost
- k What is the sign of the healing of the sick? the laying on of hands, is the sign or way marked out by James & the custom of the ancient saints as ordered by the Lord & we should not obtain the blessing by persuing any other course except the way which God has markd out.
- l What if we should attempt to get the Holy Ghost through any other means except the sign or way which God hath appointed, should we obtain it certainly not all other means would fail The Lord says do so & so & I will bless so & so their is certain key words & signs belonging to the priesthood which much be observed in order to obtaine the Blessings
- m The sign of Peter was, to repent & be baptized for the remission of Sins, ~~in it~~ with the promise of the gift of the Holy Ghost & in no other way is the gift of the Holy Ghost obtained, Their is a difference between the Holy Ghost & the gift of the Holy Ghost, Cornelius received the Holy Ghost before he was Baptized which was the convincing power of God unto him of
- n the truth of the gospel, but he could not receive the gift of the Holy Ghost untill after he was Baptized, & had he not taken this sign or [or]dinances upon him the Holy Ghost which convinced him of the truth of God would have left him, untill he

¹JSP note: "'of God' is circled."

obeyed these ordinances & received the gift of the Holy Ghost by the laying on of hands according to the order of God he could not have healed the sick or command[ed] an evil spirit to come out of a man & it obey him for the spirit might say to him as he did to the sons of Scava[,] Peter I know & Christ I know but who are ye

o It mat[t]ereth not whither we live long or short after we come to a knowled[g]e of the<se> principles & obey them, I know that all men will be damned if they do not come in the way which God has appointed

p As concerning the resurrection I will mer[e]ly say that all men will come from the grave as they lay lie down, whether old or young their will not be added unto the[i]r stature one cubit neither taken from it, All being raised by the power of God
q having the Spirit of God in their bodies & not Blood children will be enthroned in the presence of God & the Lamb with bodies of the same stature that were on earth, Having been redeemed by the Blood of the Lamb they will there enjoy a fulness of that light Glory & intelligence which is received in the celestial kingdom of God "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, for they rest from their labours & their works do follow them["]

r The Speaker before closing, called upon the vast assembly before him to humble themselves in faith before God, & in mighty Prayer & fasting to call upon his Holy name, untill the elements were purified over our heads & the earth sanctified under our feet that the inhabitants of this city may escape the power of the disease, pestilences & destroyer that rideth upon the face of the earth & that the holy spirit of God may rest upon this vast multitude

As Published in Times and Seasons

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a President Smith read the 14th chap. of Rev. and said,

"We have again the warning voice sounded in our midst which shows the uncertainty of human life; and in my leisure moments I have meditated upon the subject, and asked the question, Why it is that infants, innocent children are taken away from us? especially those that seem to be the most intelligent and interesting? and the strongest reasons that present themselves to my mind are these;—This world is a very wicked world; and it is a proverb that the 'world grows weaker and wiser' if it is the case, the world grows more wicked and corrupt.

b In the early ages of the world, a righteous man, and a man of God, and of intelligence had a better chance to do good, to be believed and received, than at the present day; but in these days such a man is much opposed and persecuted by most of the inhabitants of the earth; and he has much sorrow to pass through here, the Lord takes many away even in infancy that they may escape the envy of man, and the sorrows and evils of this present c world; they were too pure, too lovely, to live on earth; therefore if rightly considered instead of mourning we have reason to rejoice as they are delivered from evil, and we shall soon have them again.

"What chance is there for infidelity when we are parting with our friends almost daily? None at all. The infidel will grasp at every straw for help until death stares him in the face, and then his infidelity takes its flight, for the realities of the eternal world are resting upon him in mighty power; and when every earthly support and prop fails him, he then sensibly feels the eternal truths of the immortality of the soul. We should take warning and not wait for the death bed to repent, as we see the infant taken away by death, so may the youth and middle aged, as well as the infant suddenly be called into eternity. Let this then prove as a warning to all, not to procrastinate repentance, or wait till a death bed; for it is the will of God that man should repent, and serve him in health, and in the strength, and power of his mind, in order to secure his blessing; and not wait until he is called to die.

d Also the doctrine of Baptizing children, or sprinkling them, or they must welter in hell is a doctrine not true, not supported in Holy writ, and is not consistent with the character of God. All children are redeemed by the blood of Jesus Christ, and the moment that children leave this world they are taken to the bosom of Abraham. The only difference between the old and young dying, is, one lives longer in heaven, and eternal light and glory than the other, and is freed a little sooner from this miserable wicked world.—Notwithstanding all this glory, we for a moment lose sight of it, and mourn the loss; but we do not mourn as those without hope.

e "My intention was, to have spoken upon the subject of baptism, but having a case of death before us I thought proper to refer to that subject. I will now however say a few words upon baptism, as I intended. God has made certain decrees which are fixed, and immovable, for instance; God set the sun, the moon, and the stars in the f heavens; and gave them their laws, conditions, and bounds which they cannot pass, except by his commandments;
they all move in perfect harmony in their sphere, and order, and are as lights, wonders, and signs unto us. The g sea also has its bounds which it cannot pass. God has set many signs on the earth, as well as in the heavens, for instance; the oak of the forest, the fruit of the tree, the herb of the field; all bear a sign that seed hath been planted there; for it is a decree of the Lord that every tree, plant, and herb, bearing seed, should bring forth of its kind, and cannot come forth after any other law, or principle. Upon the same principle do I contend that baptism is a sign ordained of God, for the believer in Christ to take upon himself in order to enter into the kingdom of God, h "for except ye are born of water, and of the spirit ye cannot enter into the kingdom of God," saith the Saviour.
It is a sign, and commandment which God has set for man to enter into his Kingdom. Those who seek to enter in any other way will seek in vain; and God will not receive them, neither will the angels acknowledge their works as accepted: for they have not obeyed the ordinances, nor attended to the signs which God ordained for the salvation of man, to prepare him for; and give him a title to a celestial glory; and God has decreed that all i who will not obey his voice shall not escape the damnation of hell. What is the damnation of hell? to go with that society who have not obeyed his commands. Baptism is a sign to God, to Angels, and to heaven that we do the will of God: and there is no other way beneath the heavens whereby God hath ordained for man to come to him, to be saved, and enter into the kingdom of God, except faith in Jesus Christ; repentance, and baptism for the remission of sins, and any other course is in vain; then you have the promise of the gift of the Holy Ghost. What j is the sign of the healing of the sick? the laying on of hands is the sign, or way marked out by James; and the custom of the ancient Saints as ordered by the Lord; and we can not obtain the blessing by pursuing any other course, except the way marked out by the Lord.

k What if we should attempt to get the gift of the Holy Ghost through any other means, except the signs, or way which God hath appointed? should we obtain it? certainly not; all other means would fail. The Lord says do so, and so, and I will bless, so, and so.

l There are certain key-words, and signs belonging to the priesthood, which must be observed in order to obtain the blessing, the sign of Peter was to repent, and be baptized for the remission of sins, with the promise of the gift of the Holy Ghost: and in no other way is the gift of the Holy Ghost obtained. There is a difference between the Holy Ghost, and the gift of the Holy Ghost. Cornelius received the Holy Ghost before he was baptized; which m was the convincing power of God unto him of the truth of the gospel; but he could not receive the gift of the Holy Ghost until after he was baptized. Had he not taken this sign, or ordinance upon him, the Holy Ghost which convinced him of the truth of God, would have left him. Until he obeyed these ordinances and received the gift of the Holy Ghost, by the laying on of hands, according to the order of God, he could not have healed the sick, or commanded an evil spirit to come out of a man, and it obey him; for the spirits might say unto him, as they did to n the sons of Sceva;—"Paul we know; and Jesus we know, but who are ye!" It mattereth not whether we live long or short on the earth after we come to a knowledge of these principles and obey them unto the end. I know that all men will be damned if they do not come in the way which he hath opened; and this is the way marked out by the word of the Lord.

o "As concerning the resurrection I will merely say that all men will come from the grave as they lie down, whether old or young, there will not be 'added unto their stature one cubit;' neither taken from it; all will be raised by the p power of God, having spirit in their bodies, and not blood. Children will be enthroned in the presence of God, and the Lamb; with bodies of the same stature that they had on earth; having been redeemed by the blood of the Lamb, they will there enjoy the fulness of that light glory, and intelligence which is prepared in the Celestial kingdom: 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord; for they rest from their labors and their works do follow them.'

q The speaker before closing called upon the assembly before him, to humble themselves in faith before God, and in mighty prayer and fasting to call upon the name of the Lord, until the elements were purified over our heads, and the earth sanctified under our feet; that the inhabitants of this city may escape the power of disease and pestilence, and the destroyer that rideth upon the face of the earth; and that the Holy Spirit of God may rest upon this vast multitude.

Discourse, 27 March 1842

As Reported by Wilford Woodruff

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a He [Amasa Lyman] was followed by Joseph the Seer who made some edifying remarks concerning Baptism for the dead, He said the Bible supported the doctrin, “why are ye Baptized for the dead if the dead rise not &c” if their is one word of the
- b Lord that supports the doctrin it is enough to mik [make] it a true doctrin Again if we can baptize a man in the Name of the Father of the Son & of the Holy Ghost for the remission of sins it is Just as much our privilege to act as an agent & be baptized for the remission of sins for & in behalf of our dead kindred who have not herd the gospel or fulness of it

Letter to Emma Smith and the Relief Society, 31 March 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a To the President of the F R So N [Female Relief Society of Nauvoo] Greeting
- Can the “Female Releif Society of Nauvoo” be Trusted with some important matters that ought actually to belong to them to see to which men have been under the necessity of seeing to to their chagrin & Mortification in order to prevent iniquitous characters from carrying their iniquity into effect such as, for instance a man who may be aspiring after power & authority and yet without principle; regardles[s] of god, man or the Devil or the interest or welfare of men, or the virtue or innocence of women? Shall the credulity, good faith, & steadfast feelings of our Sisters for the cause of God or truth be imposed upon by believing such men because they say they have authority from Joseph or the first Presidency or any other Presidency of the church and thus with a lie in their mouth deceive & debauch the innocent under the assumption that they are authorized from these sources! May God forbid!
- c A knowledge of some such thing having come to our ears we imp[r]ove this favorable opportunity wherein so goodly number of you may be informed that no such authority ever has, ever can, or ever will be given to any man & if any man has been guilty of any such thing let him be treated with utter contempt & let the curse of God fall on his head, & let him be turned out of Society as unworthy of a place among men, & ~~renouned~~ denounced as the blackest & the most unprincipled wretch & finally let him be damned.
- d We have been informed that some unprincipled men whose names we will not mention at present have been guilty of such crimes: we do not mention their names, not knowing but what there may be some among you who are not sufficiently skilled in Masonry as to keep a secret, therefore suffice it to say there are those & we therefore warn you & forewarn you in
- e the name of the Lord to check and destroy any faith that any innocent person may have in any such character for we don’t want any body to believe any thing as coming from us contrary to the old established morals & virtues & scriptural laws

f regulating the habits customs & conduct of Society unless it be by message del[iv]ered to you by our own mouth, by actual revelation & commandment. and all persons pretending to be authorized by us or having any permit or sanction from us are & will be liars & base imposters & you are authorized on the very first intimation of the kind to denounce them as such & fly from <shun> them as the fiery flying serpents, whether they are prophets, seers, or Revelators, patriarchs, Twelve apostles, Elders, Priests. ~~or what not~~, Mayors, Generals, ~~or what not~~, city council alderman, Marshall, Police, Lord Mayor or the Devil, are alike culpable. & shall be damned for such evil practices; & if you yourself yourselves hear adhere to any thing of the kind you, also shall be damned.

g Now beloved Sisters do not believe for a moment that we wish to impose upon you, we actually do know that such things have existed in the church & <are> sorry that we are obliged to make mention of any such thing & we want a stop put to them, & we want you to do your part & we will do ours part for we wish to to keep the commandments of God in all things <as> given <directly from heaven> to us ~~from heaven~~, living by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lord.—

h May God add his blessings upon your head & lead you in all the paths of virtue piety and peace that you may be an ornament unto those to whom you belong & arise up and crown them with power & by so doing you shall be crowned with honor in heaven & shall sit upon throne jud[g]ing them whom you are placed in authority of over in the world and shall be judged of God for all the responsibilitys that are conferred upon you

i At a more convenient & appropriate season we will give you further information upon this subject

We are your humble servants in the bonds of the new & Everlasting covenant

Let that epistle be had as a private matter in your society & then we shall learn whether you are good masons—

Joseph Smith P. C. J. C. L.
B[riham] Young Prst Twelve.

P.S. if the Lord be God serve him & if Baal [2 words illegible]

Minutes and Discourse, 31 March 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

See the Relief Society documents book important notes.

Original Source

Text

a Lodge Room March 30th [31st] 1842.

Meeting opened with Singing—

Prayer by Pres^t Joseph Smith—

The house full to overflowing.

b Prest. J. Smith arose— spoke of the organization of the Society— said he was deeply interested that it might be built up to the Most High in an acceptable manner— that its rules must be observed— that none should be received into the Society but those who were worthy— propos'd that the Society go into a close examination of every candidate— that they were going too fast— that the Society should grow up by degrees— should commence with a few individuals— thus have a select Society of the virtuous and those who will walk circumspectly— commended them for their zeal but said sometimes their zeal was not according to knowledge— One principal object of the Institution, was to purge out iniquity— said they must be extremely careful in all their examinations or the consequences would be serious

d Said all difficulties which might & would cross our way must be surmounted, though the soul be tried, the heart faint, and hands hang down— must not retrace our steps— that there must be decision of character aside from sympathy— that when instructed we must obey that voice, observe the Constitution that the blessings of heaven may rest down upon us— all must act in concert or nothing can be done— that the Society should move according to the ancient Priesthood, hence there should be a select Society separate from all the evils of the world, choice, virtuou[s] and holy— Said he was going to make of this Society a kingdom of priests an in Enoch's day— as in Pauls day— that it is the privilege of each member to live long and enjoy health— Pres^t Smith propos'd that the ladies [gentlemen] withdraw, that the Society might proceed to business—that those wishing to join should have their names presented at the next meeting.—

f Pres^t J. Smith withdrew—...

Pres^t E. S. said we were going to learn new things— our way was straight— said we wanted none in this society but those who could and would walk straight and were determined to do good and not evil—...

After appropriate remarks Pres^t E. Smith, said she had an Article to read which would test the ability of the members in keeping secrets; as it was for the benefit of the Society, and that alone—

Read the Article.— Then gave strictures on female propriety and dignity &c. &c.

g Mother [Lucy Mack] Smith rose and said she was glad the time had come that iniquity could be detected and reproach thrown off from the heads of the church— We come into the church to be sav'd— that we may live in peace and sit down in the kingdom of heaven— If we listen to, and circulate every evil report we shall idly spend the time which should be appropriated to the reading the Scriptures, the Book of Mormon— we must remember the words of Alma— pray much at morning, noon and night— feed the poor &c.— She said she was old— could not meet with the Society but few times more— and wish'd to leave her testimony that the Book of Mormon is the book of God— that Joseph is a man of God, a prophet of the Lord set apart to lead the people— If we observe his words it will be well with us; if we live righteously on earth, it will be well with us in Eternity—...

Discourses, 6–8 April 1842

As Reported in Times and Seasons

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a ...Conference met, Pres't. Joseph Smith had the several quorums put in order, and seated: he then made some very appropriate remarks concerning the duties of the church, the necessity of unity of purpose in regard to the building of the houses, and the blessings connected with doing the will of God; and the inconsistency folly and danger of murmuring against the dispensations of Jehovah.

b He said that the principal object of the meeting was to bring the case of Elder Page before them, and that another object was to choose young men, and ordain them, and send them out to preach, that they may have an opportunity of proving themselves, and of enduring the tarring and feathering and such things as those of us who have gone before them, have had to endure...

c Pres't. J. Smith then arose and stated that it was wrong to make the covenant referred to by him; that it created a lack of confidence for two men to covenant to reveal all acts of secrecy or otherwise to each other—and Elder Page showed a little grannyism. He said that no two men when they agreed to go together ought to separate, that the prophets of old would not and quoted the circumstance of Elijah and Elisha iii Kings 2 chap. when about to go to Gilgal, also when about to go to Jericho, and to Jordan, that Elisha could not get clear of Elijah, that he clung to his garment until he was taken to heaven and that Elder Page should have stuck by Elder Hyde, and he might have gone to Jerusalem, that there is nothing very bad in it, but by the experience let us profit; again, the Lord made use of Elder Page as a scape-goat to procure funds for Elder Hyde.

e When Elder Hyde returns we will reconsider the matter, and perhaps send them back to Jerusalem, we will fellowship Elder Page until Elder Hyde comes, and we will then weld them together and make them one. A vote was then put, and carried that we hold Elder Page in full fellowship...

f Pres't. J. Smith spoke upon the subject of the stories respecting Elder Kimball and others, showing the folly and inconsistency of spending any time in conversing about such stories or hearkening to them, for there is no person that is acquainted with our principles would believe such lies, except [Thomas] Sharp the editor of the "Warsaw Signal." Baptisms for the dead, and for the healing of the body must be in the font, those coming into the church and those rebaptized may be done in the river.

g A box should be prepared for the use of the font, that the clerk may be paid, and a book procured by the monies to be put therein by those baptized' the remainder to go to the use of the Temple.—Sung a hymn. Ordinations to take place to-morrow morning—Baptisms in the font also—There were 275 ordained to the office of Elder under the hands of the Twelve during the Conference...

Pres't. J. Smith said the baptisms would be attended to, also the ordinations...

Discourse, 9 April 1842

As Reported by Wilford Woodruff

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a President Joseph Smith spoke upon the occasion with much feelings & interest among his remarks he said it is a vary solomn & awful time I never felt more solomn it calles to mind the death of my oldest Brother who died in New York & my Youngest Brother Carloss [Don Carlos] Smith who died in Nauvoo It has been hard for me to live on earth & see those young
- b men upon whome we have leaned upon as a support & comfort taken from us in the midst of their youth, yes it has been hard to be reconciled to these things I have sometimes felt that I should have felt more reconciled to have been called myself if it could have been the will of God, yet I know we ought to be still & know it is of God & be reconciled all is right it will be but a short time before we shall all in like manner be called, It may be the case with me as well as you Some has supposed
- c that Br Joseph could not die but this is a mistake it is true their has been times when I have had the promise of my life to accomplish such & such things, but having accomplish[ed] those things I have not at present any lease of my life & am as liable to die as other men I can say in my heart that I have not done any thing against Ephraim Marks that I am sorry for & I
- d would ask any of his Companions if they have done any thing against him that they are sorry for. or that they would not like to meet at the bar of God if so let it prove as a warning to all men to deal justly before God & with all men then we shall be clear in the day of judgment When we loose a near & dear friend upon whom we have set our hearts we can never feel the same afterwards Knowing that if we set our hearts upon others they may in like manner be taken from us President Smith made many other interesting remarks[.]

Discourse, 10 April 1842

As Reported by Wilford Woodruff

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Then Joseph the Seer arose in the power of God reproved & rebuked wickedness in before the people in the name of the Lord God He wished to say a few words to suit the condition of the general mass And I shall speak with authority of the priesthood in the name of the Lord God, which shall prove a savior of life unto life or of death unto death,
- b Notwithstanding this congregation profess to be Saints yet I stand in the midst of all characters and classes of men If you wish to go whare God is you must be like God or possess the principles which God possesses for if we are not drawing towards God in principle we are going from him & drawing towards the devil, yes I am standing in the midst of all kinds of
- c people search your hearts & see if you are like God, I have searched mine & feel to repent of all my sins, We have theives among us Adulterers, liars, hypocritts, if God should speak from Heaven he would Command us you not to steal, not to
- d commit Adultery, nor to covet, nor deceive but be faithful over a few things As far as we degenerate from God we desend to the devil & looses knowledge ' & without Knowledge we cannot be saved & while our hearts are filled with evil & we are studying evil their is no room in our hearts for good or studying good, is not God good, Yea then you be good, if he is faithful then you be faithful Add to your faith virtue to virtue knowledge. & seek for evry good thing' the Church must be cleansed
- f & I proclaim against all iniquity. A man is saved no faster than he gets knowledge for if he does not get knowledge he will be brought into Captivity by some evil power in the other world as evil spirits will have more knowled[g]e & consequently more power than many men who are on the earth. hence it needs Revelation to assist us & give us knowledge of the things of
- f God. What is the reason that the Priest[s] of the day do not get Revelation They ask ownly to consume it upon their lust their hearts are corrupt & they cloke their iniquity by saying that their is no more Revelations But if any revelations are given of God they are universally opposed by the priest & christendon at large for it reveals their wickedmess & abominations

Letter to Nancy Rigdon, circa Mid-April 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

UNCERTAIN AUTHORSHIP—NOT KNOWN IF JS WROTE THIS. See the JSP historical introduction. See Dirkmaat's 2016 article, "Searching for 'Happiness': Joseph Smith's Alleged Authorship of the 1842 Letter to Nancy Rigdon," for more discussion. From 98–100 of that article:

Despite its popularity, however, it presents special problems of provenance and authenticity to historians. These problems compound the difficulty with which the document can be contextually understood. In effect, historians cannot demonstrate with certainty that Joseph Smith wrote the letter, as they can with other Joseph Smith documents. The only "original" text is found in the pages of the Sangamo Journal. Even if Smith's authorship is assumed, however, Bennett's claim placing it in the context of a failed proposal to Nancy Rigdon also cannot be demonstrated with certainty, as there are competing accounts of the interactions between the two of them. It is not the intent of this article to make a definitive claim that Joseph Smith did not author the "Happiness Letter" nor that he did not make a polygamous proposal to Nancy Rigdon. Smith was already engaged in Nauvoo-era polygamy, and these marriages were kept secret from the general membership of the Church and the community at large. Marinda Hyde, who factored prominently in Bennett's account of the proposal, eventually became a polyandrous wife of Smith, and she had already been approached by him with an explanation of "the doctrine of Celestial marriage" in the fall of 1841. Given these factors, a proposal by Smith to Nancy Rigdon would certainly not be extraordinary. Still, the purpose of this article is to illustrate the difficulties involved in any attempt to gain a clear understanding of this document and to outline the reasons to both doubt and to impute Smith's authorship of the document. The ultimate determination of authorship hinges on the reasons why it was first excluded and then later included in the Manuscript History of the Church. As those reasons can only be met with speculation, a measure of caution should be employed when assigning authorship. Rather than attributing it casually and definitively to Joseph Smith, historians and theologians, Mormons and non-Mormons alike, should be aware of the questioned provenance when using the document and draw measured rather than expansive conclusions. Simply put, if this were any other document, historians would greatly question the claims of authorship for the reasons that will follow.

Dirkmaat's article also includes a discussion of how the letter ended up in the manuscript history, since its presence there is the reason why almost everyone has taken it as genuine.

Then, again from Dirkmaat, page, 119:

The examination of the problematic provenance and questionable context of this document should in no way lead to the definitive conclusion that the letter was not authored or dictated by Joseph Smith. As stated before, the history of Joseph Smith's practice of polygamy in Nauvoo provides a context in which both the proposal to Nancy may have occurred and the subsequent letter indeed may have been produced. And the letter does seem to resemble Joseph Smith's language more readily than Bennett's other forgeries, but this has not been proven in a quantitative, academic way. Nevertheless, all users of this document should be aware of its questioned provenance, the inscrutable circumstances surrounding its inclusion and placement in the Manuscript History of the Church, and how it came to be regarded as unquestionably Joseph Smith's. It is simply not responsible to assert that the "Happiness Letter" was definitively authored by Smith when no original letter exists nor do any contemporary Mormons attribute it to him. Historical inertia has caused the document to be regarded as definitively Joseph Smith's rather than careful evaluation. Responsible historians should, after weighing the evidence, treat the letter, its contents, and its purported context very carefully. They should draw very measured and qualified conclusions when using the document either as a representation of Joseph Smith's doctrinal teachings or as context for Joseph Smith's practice of plural marriage in Nauvoo rather than relying on the presuppositions of an earlier age of writers, historians, apostates, or apologists.

If it's genuine, it's extremely important for many reasons; but it's doubtful. Best not to use this as a primary reason to establish any particular point of view.

Text

- a Happiness is the object and design of our existence, and will be the end thereof if we pursue the path that leads to it; and b this path is virtue, uprightness, faithfulness, holiness, and keeping ALL the commandments of God. But we cannot keep all
c the commandments without first knowing them, and we cannot expect to know all, or more than we now know, unless we d comply with or keep those we have already received. That which is wrong under one circumstance, may be, and often is, right e under another. God said thou shalt not kill,— at another time he said thou shalt utterly destroy. This is the principle on which f the government of heaven is conducted—by revelation adapted to the circumstances in which the children of the kingdom are g placed. Whatever God requires is right, NO MATTER WHAT IT IS, although we may not see the reason thereof till long after the h events transpire. If we seek first the kingdom of God, all good things will be added. So with Solomon—first he asked wisdom, i and God gave it him, and with it every DESIRE of his heart, even things which might be considered abominable to all who do j not understand the order of heaven only in part, but which, in reality, were right, because God gave and sanctioned by special k revelation. A parent may whip a child, and justly too, because he stole an apple; whereas, if the child had asked for the apple, l and the parent had given it, the child would have eaten it with a better appetite, there would have been no stripes—all the pleasures of the apple would have been received, all the misery of stealing lost. This principle will justly apply to all of God's dealings with his children. Every thing that God gives us is lawful and right, and 'tis proper that we should enjoy his gifts and blessings whenever and wherever he is disposed to bestow; but if we should seize upon these same blessings and enjoyments without law, without revelation, without commandment, those blessings and enjoyments would prove cursings and vexations in the end, and we should have to lie down in sorrow and wailings of everlasting regret. But in obedience there is joy and peace unspotted, unalloyed, and as God has designed our happiness, the happiness of all his creatures, he never has, he never will, institute an ordinance, or give a commandment to his people that is not calculated in its nature to promote that happiness which he has designed, and which will not end in the greatest amount of good and glory to those who become the recipients of his laws and ordinances. Blessings offered, but rejected, are no longer blessings, but become like the talent hid in the earth by the wicked and slothful servant—the proffered good returns to the giver, the blessing is bestowed on those who will receive, and occupy; for unto him that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundantly; but unto him that hath not, or will not receive, shall be taken away that which he hath, or might have had.
- i "Be wise TO-DAY, 'tis MADNESS to defer.
Next day the fatal precedent may plead:
Thus on till wisdom is pushed out of time"
Into eternity.
- j Our heavenly father is more liberal in his views, and boundless in his mercies and blessings, than we are ready to believe or receive, and at the same time is more terrible to the workers of iniquity, more awful in the executions of his punishments, k and more ready to detect every false way than we are apt to suppose him to be. He will be enquired of by his children—he l says ask and YE SHALL RECEIVE, seek and ye SHALL find, but if ye will take that which is not your own, or which I have not given you, you shall be rewarded according to your deeds, but no good thing will I withhold from them who walk uprightly before me, and do my will in all things, who will listen to my voice, and to TO THE VOICE OF MY SERVANT WHOM I HAVE SENT, for I delight in those who seek diligently to know my precepts, and abide by the laws of my kingdom, for all things shall be made known unto them in mine own due time, and in the end they shall have joy.

Minutes and Discourse, 28 April 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

See notes in the RS volume.

Text

- a The Meeting ~~meet~~ met according to adjournment, present Pres^t. Joseph Smith and Elder W[illard] Richards—
President Smith arose and said that the purport of his being present on the occasion was, to make observations respecting the Priesthood, and give instructions for the benefit of the Society That as his instructions were intended only for the Society; he requested that a vote should be taken on those present who were not members, to ascertain whether they should be admitted— he exhorted the meeting to act honestly and uprightly in all their proceedings— inasmuch as they would be call'd to give an account to Jehovah. All hearts must repent— be pure and God will regard them and bless them in a manner that they could not be bless'd in any other way—
A vote was then taken on the following names, to wit...
- c Committee retir'd— and Prest. J. Smith arose and call'd the attention of the meeting to the 12th Chap. of 1st Cor. "Now concerning spiritual gifts" &c.— Said that the passage which reads "no man can say that Jesus is the the ~~Christ~~ <Lord> but by the holy ghost," should be translated, no man can know &c
- d He continued to read the Chap. and give instructions respecting the different offices, and the necessity of every individual acting in the sphere allotted him or her; and filling the several offices to which they were appointed— Spoke of the disposition of man, to consider the lower offices in the church dishonorable and to look with jealous eyes upon the standing of others— that it was the nonsense of the human heart, for a person to be aspiring to other stations than appointed of God— that it was better for individuals to magnify their respective callings, and wait patiently till God shall say to them come up higher. He said the reason of these remarks being made, was, that some little thing was circulating in the Society, that some persons were not going right in laying hands on the sick &c. Said if he had common sympathies, would rejoice that the sick could be heal'd: that the time had not been before, that these things could be in their proper order— that the church is not now organiz'd
- e in its proper order, and cannot be until the Temple is completed— Pres^t. Smith continued the subject by adverting to the commission given to the ancient apostles "Go ye into all the world" &c.— no matter who believeth; these signs, such as healing the sick, casting out devils &c. should follow all that believe whether male or female. He ask'd the Society if they could not see by this sweeping stroke, that wherein they are ordaind, it is the privilege of those set apart to administer in that authority which is confer'd on them— and if the sisters should have faith to heal the sick, let all hold their tongues, and let every thing roll on.
- f He said, if God has appointed him, and chosen him as an instrument to lead the church, why not let him lead it through? Why stand in the way, when he is appointed to do a thing? Who knows the mind of God? Does he not reveal things differently from what we expect?— He remark'd that he was continually rising— altho' he had every thing bearing him down— standing in his way and opposing— after all he always comes out right in the end.
- g Respecting the female laying on hands, he further remark'd, there could be no devil in it if God gave his sanction by healing— that there could be no more sin in any female laying hands on the sick than in wetting the face with water— that it is no sin for any body to do it that has faith, or if the sick has faith to be heal'd by the administration.
- i He reprov'd those that were dispos'd to find fault with the management of concerns— saying if he undertook to lead the church he would lead it right— that he calculates to organize the church in proper order &c.
- j President Smith continued by speaking of the difficulties he had to surmount ever since the commencement of the work in consequence of aspiring men, "great big Elders" as he call'd them, who had caused him much trouble, whom he had taught in the private counsel; and they would go forth into the world and proclaim [proclaim] the things he had taught them; as their own revelations— said the same aspiring disposition will be in this Society, and must be guarded against— that every person should stand and act in the place appointed, and thus sanctify the Society and get it pure—

k He said he had been trampled underfoot by aspiring Elders, for all were infected with that spirit, for instance P[arley P.] Pratt O[rson] Pratt, O[rson] Hyde and J[ohn E.] Page had been aspiring— they could not be exalted but must run away as tho' the care and authority of the church were vested with them— he said we had a subtle devil to deal with, and could only curb him by being humble.

l He said as he had this opportunity, he was going to instruct the Society and point out the way for them to conduct, that they might act according to the will of God— that he did not know as he should have many opportunities of teaching them— that they were going to be left to themselves,— they would not long have him to instruct them— that the church would not have his instruction long, and the world would not be troubled with him a great while, and would not have his teachings— He spoke of delivering the keys to this Society and to the church— that according to his prayers God had appointed him elsewhere

m He exhorted the sisters always to concentrate their faith and prayers for, and place confidence, in those whom God has appointed to honor, whom God has plac'd at the head to lead— that we should arm them with our prayers.— that the keys of the kingdom are about to be given to them, that they may be able to detect every thing false— as well as to the Elders n He said if one member becomes corrupt and you know it; you must immediately put it away. The sympathies of the heads of the church have induc'd them to bear with those that were corrupt; in consequence of which all become contaminated—o you must put down iniquity and by your good example provoke the Elders to good works— if you do right, no danger of going too fast: he said he did not care how fast we run in the path of virtue. Resist evil and there is no danger. God, men, angels, and devils can't condemn those that resist every thing that is evil— as well might the devil seek to dethrone Jehovah, as that soul that resists every thing that is evil.

p The charitable Society— this is according to your natures— it is natural for females to have feelings of charity— you are now plac'd in a situatio[n] where you can act according to those sympathies which God has planted in your bosoms. If you live up to these principles how great and glorious!— if you live up to your privilege, the angels cannot be restrain'd from being your associates— females, if they are pure and innocent can come into the presence of God; for what is more pleasing to God than innocence; you must be innocent or you cannot come up before God. If ye <we> would come before God let us
q be pure ourselves. The devil has great power— he will so transform things as to make one gape at those who are doing the will of God— You need not be tearing men for their deeds, but let the weight of innocence be felt; which is more mighty than a millstone hung about the neck. Not war, not jangle, not contradiction, but meekness, love, purity, these are the things that should magnify us.— Achan must be brought to light— iniquity must be purged out— then the vail will be rent and r the blessings of heaven will flow down — they will roll down like the Mississippi river. This Society shall have power to command Queens in their midst— I now deliver it as a prophecy that before ten years shall roll round, the queens of the earth shall come and pay their respects to this Society— they shall come with their millions and shall contribute of their abundance for the relief of the poor— If you will be pure, nothing can hinder.

s After this instruction, you will be responsible for your own sins. It is an honor to save yourself yourselves— all are responsible to save themselves.

Pres^t Smith, after reading from the above mentioned Chapter, continued to give instruction respecting the order of God, as established in the church; saying every one should aspire only to magnify his own office &c.—

t He then commenc'd reading the 13th chapter, "Though I speak with the tongues of men" &c; and said don't be limited in your views with regard to your neighbors' virtues, but be limited towards your own virtues; and not think yourselves more righteous than others; you must enlarge your souls toward others if you'd [you would?] do like Jesus, and carry your fellow creatures to Abram's bosom.

u He said he had manifested long suffering and we must do so too— Pres^t Smith then read, "Though I have the gift of prophecy" &c. He then said, though one should become mighty— do great things— overturn mountains &c and should then turn to eat and drink with the drunken; all former deeds would not save him— but he would go to destruction!

v As you increase in innocence and virtue, as you increase in goodness, let your hearts expand— let them be enlarged towards others— you must be longsuff'ring and bear with the faults and errors of mankind. How precious are the souls of men!— The female part of community are apt to be contracted in their views. You must not be contracted, but you must be liberal in your feelings.

w Let this Society teach how to act towards husbands to treat them with mildness and affection. When a man is borne down with trouble— when he is perplex'd; if he can meet a smile, an argument— if he can meet with mildness, it will calm down his soul and soothe his feelings. When the mind is going to despair, it needs a solace.

x This Society is to get instruction thro' the order which God has established— thro' the medium of those appointed to lead— and I now turn the key to you in the name of God and this Society shall rejoice and knowledge and intelligence shall flow down from this time— this is the beginning of better days, to this Society

y When you go home never give a cross word, but let kindness, charity and love, crown your works henceforward. Don't envy sinners— have mercy on them, God will destroy them.— Let your labors be confin'd mostly to those around you in your own circle; as far as knowledge is concerned, it may extend to all the world, but your administrations, should be confin'd to the circle of your immediate acquaintance, and more especially to the members of the Society.

Those ordain'd to lead the Society, are authoriz'd to appoint to different offices as the circumstances shall require.

z If any have a matter to reveal, let it be in your own tongue. Do not indulge too much in the gift of tongues, or the devil will take advantage of the innocent. You may speak in tongues for your comfort but I lay this down for a rule that if any thing is taught by the gift of tongues, it is not to be received for doctrine.

aa Pres^t S. then offered instruction respecting the propriety of females administering to the sick by the laying on of hands— said it was according to revelation &c. said he never was plac'd in similar circumstances, and never had given the same instruction.

He clos'd his instructions by expressing his satisfaction in improving the opportunity.

The spirit of the Lord was pour'd out in a very powerful manner, never to be forgotten by those present on that interesting occasion...

Discourse, 1 May 1842

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a preached in the grove on the keys of the kingdom charity &c.— The keys are certain signs & words by which false spirits
b & personages may be detected from true.— which cannot be revealed to the Elders till the Temple is completed.— The rich can only get them in the Temple. The poor may get them on the Mountain top as did moyses. The rich cannot be saved without cha[r]lity. giving to feed the poor. when & how God requires as well as building. There are signs in heaven earth & hell. the c elders must know them all to be endued with power. to finish their work & prevent imposition. The devil knows many signs.
but does not know the sign of the son of man. or Jesus. No one can truly say he knows God until he has handled something.
& these this can only be in the holiest of Holies.

Revelation, 19 May 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Verily thus saith the Lord unto you my servant Joseph by the voice of my Spirit, Hiram Kimball has been insinuating evil.
& forming evil opinions against you with. others. & if he continue in them he & they shall be accursed. for I am the Lord thy God & will stand by thee & bless thee. Amen.

Minutes and Discourse, 26 May 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

See notes in the RS volume.

Text

a ...Prest. J. Smith & wife then entered.

Prest. J. Smith rose, read the 14th Chap. of Ezekiel— said the Lord had declar'd by the prophet that the people should each one stand for himself and depend on no man or men in that state of corruption of the Jewish church— that righteous persons could only deliver their own souls— app[li]ed it to the present state of the church of Latter-Day Saints— said if the people departed from the Lord, they must fall— that they were depending on the prophet hence were darkened in their minds from neglect of themselves— envious toward the innocent, while they afflict the virtuous with their shafts of envy.

c There is another error which opens a door for the adversary to enter. As females possess refin'd feelings and sensitivenes[s], they are also subject to an overmuch zeal which must ever prove dangerous, and cause them to be rigid in a religious capacity— should be arm'd with mercy notwithstanding the iniquity among us. Said he had been instrumental in bringing it to light— melancholy and awful that so many are under the condemnation of the devil & going to perdition.

d With deep feeling said that they are our fellows— we lov'd them once. Shall we not encourage them to reformation?

We have not forgivn them seventy times— perhaps we have not forgiven them once. There is now a day of salvation to such as repent and reform— they should be cast out from this Society, yet we should woo them to return to God lest they escape not the damnation of hell!

e When there is a mountain top there also is a vally— we should act in all things an a proper medium— to every immortal spirit. Notwithstanding the unworthy are among us, the virtuous should not from self-importance grieve and oppress needlessly those unfortunate ones, even these should be encourag'd to hereafter live to be honored by this Society who are the best portions of community. Said he had two things to recommend to the Society, to put a double watch over the tongue. No organiz'd body can exist without this at all. All organiz'd bodies have their peculiar evils, weaknesses and difficulties— the object is to make those not so good, equal with the good and ever hold the keys of pow'r which will influence to virtue and goodness. Should chasten and reprove and keep in it all in silence, not even mention them again, then you will be established in power, virtue and holiness and the wrath of God will be turn'd away. One request to the Prest. and Society, that you search yourselves— the tongue is an unruly member— hold your tongues about things of no moment,— a little tale will set the world on fire. At this time the truth on the guilty should not be told openly— Strange as this may seem, yet this is policy. We must use precaution in bringing sinners to justice lest in exposing these heinous sins, we draw the indignation of a gentile world upon us (and to their imaginatio[n] justly too)

It is necessary to hold an influence in the world and thus spare ourselves an extermination; and also accomplish our end in spreading the gospel or holiness in the earth.

i If we were brought to desolation, the disobedient would find no help. There are some who are obedient yet men cannot steady the ark— my arm can not do it— God must steady it. To the iniquitous show yourselves merciful. I am advis'd by some of the heads of the church to tell the Relief Society to be virtuous— but to save the church from desolation and the sword beware, be still, be prudent. Repent, reform but do it in a way to not destroy all around you. I do not want to cloak iniquity— all things contrary to the will of God, should be cast from us, but dont do more hurt than good with your tongues— be pure in heart— Jesus designs to save the people out of their sins. Said Jesus ye shall do the work which ye see me do— These are the grand key words for the Society to act upon.

k If I were not in your midst to aid and council you, the devil would overcome you. I want the innocent to go free— rather spare ten iniquitous among you than than condemn one innocent one. "Fret not thyself because of evil doers." God will see to it.

[1 line blank]

l Mrs. Prest. rose and said all idle rumor and idle talk must be laid aside yet sin must not be covered, especially those sins which are against the law of God and the laws of the country— all who walk disorderly must reform, and any knowing of heinous sins against the law of God, and refuse to expose them, becomes the offender— said she wanted none in this Society who had violated the laws of virtue...

Discourse, 5 June 1842

As Reported by The Wasp

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a The Prophet, Joseph Smith, delivered a powerful discourse, last Sabbath, to an attentive audience of about 8000, in this city. The subject matter was drawn from the 32nd and 33rd chapters of Ezekiel, wherein it was shown that Old Pharaoh was comforted, and greatly rejoiced, that he was honored as a kind of King Devil over those uncircumcised nations, that go down
- b to hell for rejecting the word of the Lord, withstanding his mighty miracles, and fighting the saints:—The whole exhibited as a pattern to this generation, and the nations now rolling in splendor over the globe, if they do not repent, that they shall go down to the pit also, and be rejoiced over, and ruled over by Old Pharaoh. King Devil of mobocrats, miracle rejecters, saint killers, hypocritical priests, and all other fit subjects to fester in their own infamy.— Spring water tastes best right from the fountain.

As Reported by John D. Lee

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Revelation. Given to J. Simth [Smith] Nauvoo.
June 5th. A. D. 1842.
- b As the word of the Lord. was unto pharaoh— King of Egypt— by the mouth of Ezikiel. the prophet. E.Z. 32. <&> 33.— so— is the word of the Lord: unto this— generation. by the mouth of. Joseph Smith. if they Repent not. they shall be herld [hurled] down to Hell. Also— to you Latter days saints Repent & forsake your sins— or you shall likewise suffer— verily thus saith the Lord— to those that encourage Mobs. to opose &— distress the Mormons. (remember) the same. Mobs that you encourage— shall return to your own houses— & Bosom & shall distress you— & shall spread death & distruction in your midst— yea there be some here to day who shall witness the same & acknowledge this to— be the word of the
- c Lord— others to their shame & everlasting condemnation— Remember. o. ye L.D. saints & perish not. Repent of your <evil> doeings— lest ye be herld down to Hell with pharaoh & his hosts— but if you will turn to the Lord & remember to give him glory & you shall live this shall be a sign unto you when it shall come to Pass—

Minutes and Discourse, 9 June 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

See notes in the RS volume.

Text

a

Grove, June 9th.

Prest J. Smith opened the meeting by pray'r and proceeded to address the congregation on the design of the Institution— said it is no matter how fast the Society increases if all are virtuous— that we must be as particular with regard to the character of members, as when the Society first started— that sometimes persons wish to put themselves into a Society of this kind, when they do not intend to pursue the ways of purity and righteousness, as if the Society would be a shelter to them in their iniquity.

b

Prest. S. said that henceforth no person shall be admitted but by presenting regular petition signed by two or three members in good standing in the Society— whoever comes in must be of good report.

Harriet Luce and Mary Luce were receiv'd into the Society by recommend.

c

Objections previously made against Mahala Overton were remov'd— after which Prest Smith continued his address— said he was going to preach mercy Supposing that Jesus Christ and angels should object to us on frivolous things, what would become of us? We must be merciful and overlook small things.

d

Respecting the reception of Sis. Overton, Prest. Smith It grieves me that there is no fuller fellowship— if one member suffer all feel it— by union of feeling we obtain pow'r with God. Christ said he came to call sinners to repentance and save them. Christ was condemn'd by the righteous jews because he took sinners into his society— he took them <up>on the principle that they repented of their sins. It is the object of this Society to reform persons, not to take those that are corrupt, but if they repent we are bound to take them and by kindness sanctify and cleanse from all unrighteousness, by our influence in watching over them— nothing will have such influence over people, as the fear of being disfellowship'd by so goodly a Society as this. Then take Sis. O. as Jesus received sinners into his bosom.

e

Sis. O. In the name of the Lord I now make you free, and from this hour if any thing should be found against you

f

Nothing is so much calculated to lead people to forsake sin as to take them by the hand and watch over them with tenderness. When persons manifest the least kindness and love to me, O what pow'r it has over my mind, while the opposite course has a tendency to harrow up all the harsh feelings and depress the human mind.

g

It is one evidence that men are unacquainted with the principle of godliness, to behold the contraction of feeling and lack of charity. The pow'r and glory of Godliness is spread out on a broad principle to throw out the mantle of charity. God does not look on sin with allowance, but when men have sin'd there must be allowance made for them.

h

All the religious world is boasting of righteousness— tis the doctrine of the devil to retard the human mind and retard our progress, by filling us with selfrighteousness— The nearer we get to our heavenly Father, the more are we dispos'd to look with compassion on perishing souls— to take them upon our shoulders and cast their sins behind our back. [blank] I am going to talk to all this Society— if you would have God have mercy on you, have mercy on one another.

i

Prest. S. then refer'd them to the conduct of the Savior when he was taken and crucified &c.

He then made a promise in the name of the Lord saying, that soul that has righteousness enough to ask God in the secret place for life, every day of their lives shall live to three score years & ten— We must walk uprightly all day long— How glorious are the principles of righteousness! We are full of selfishness— the devil flatters us that we are very righteous, while we are feeding on the faults of others— We can only live by worshipping our God— all must do it for themselves— none can do it for another. How mild the Savior dealt with Peter, saying "when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren"— at an other time he said to him "lovest thou me? "Feed my sheep"— If the sisters love the Lord let them feed the sheep and not destroy them. How oft have wise men & women sought to dictate br. Joseph by saying "O if I were br. Joseph I would do this and that." But if they were in br. Joseph's shoes, they would find that men could not be compel'd into the kingdom of God,

k

but must be dealt with in long suff'ring— and at last we shall save them. The way to keep all the saints together and keep the work rolling, is to wait with all long suff'ring till God shall bring such character to justice. There should be no license for sin, but mercy should go hand in hand with reproof.

l Sisters of this Society, shall there be strife among you? I will not have it— you must repent and get the love of God. Away with selfrighteousness. The best measure or principle to bring the poor to repentance is to administer to their wants— the Society is not only to relieve the poor, but to save souls.

m Prest. S. then said that he would give a lot of land to the Society by deeding it to the Treasurer, that the Society may build houses for the poor. He also said he would give a house— frame not finished— said that br.

Letter to Parley P. Pratt and Others, 12 June 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

See notes in the RS volume.

Text

- a Nauvoo June 12th. 1842.
- To our well-beloved <brother> Parley P. Pratt, and to the Elders of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, in England and scattered abroad throughout all Europe, and to the saints, Greeting, Whereas in times past, persons have been permitted to gather with the Saints with at Nauvoo in North America; such as husbands leaving their wives and children behind; also, such as wives leaving their husbands and children behind; and such as women leaving their husbands, and such as husbands leaving their wives who have no children, and some because their companions are unbelievers, All this kind of proceedings we consider [to] be an error and for the want of proper information and the same should be taught to all the Saints; and not suffer families to be broken up on no account whatever, if it is possible to avoid it. Suffer no man to leave his wife because she is an unbeliever; nor no woman to leave her husband, because he is an unbeliever. These things are an evil, and must be forbidden by the authorities of the church, or they will come under condemnation; for the gathering is not in haste, nor by flight; but to prepare all things before you, and you know not but the unbeliever may be converted, and the Lord heal him: but let the believers exercise faith in God, and the unbelieving husband, shall be sanctified by the believing wife; and the unbelieving wife, by the believing husband; and families are preserved, and saved from a great evil;
- b which we have seen verified before our eyes. Behold this is a wicked generation, full of lyings, and deceit, and craftiness. and the children of [t]he wicked are wiser than the children of light, <i.e. they are more crafty> and it seems that it has been the case in all ages of the world, and the man, when he leaves his wife and travels to a foreign nation; while on his way, darkness overpowers his mind, and Satan deceives him, and flatters him with the graces of the harlot; and before he is aware he is disgraced forever: and greater is the danger, for the woman that leaves her husband. And their are several instances where women have left their husbands, and come to this place, & in a few weeks, or months, they have found themselves
- c new husbands, and they are living in adultery; and we are obliged to cut them off from the church. I ~~presume~~. There are men also that are guilty of the same crime, as we are credibly informed. We are knowing to their having taken wives here and are credibly informed that they have wives in England. There is another evil which does exist There are poor men who come here and leave their families behind in a destitute situation, and beg for assistan[c]e to send back after the[i]r families. Every man should tarry with his family untill Providence provides for the whole, for there is no means here to be obtained to send back. Money is scarce and hard to be obtained. The people that gather to this place are generally poor, the gathering being attended with a great sacrifice; and money cannot be obtained by labor; but all kinds of produce is plentiful, and can be
- d obtained by labor. Therefore, the poor man that leaves his family in England, cannot get means—which must be silver and Gold—to send for his family, but must remain under the painful sensation, that his family must be cast upon the mercy of the people and separated and put into the Poorhouse. Therefore, to remedy the evil, we forbid a man's leaving his family behind, because he has no means to bring them. If the Church is not able to bring them, and the Parrish will not send them let the man tarry with his family—live with them—and die with them, and not leave them untill providence [s]hall open a way for
- e the[m] to all come together, and we also forbid that a woman shall leave her husband, because he is an unbeliever. We also
- f

forbid that a man shall leave his wife, because she is an unbeliever. If he is a bad man (i.e. the unbeliever) there is a law to remedy that evil. and if she is a bad woman, there is a law to remedy that evil: And if the law will divorce them, then they are at liberty. Otherwise they are bound, as long as they two shall live, and it is not our prerogative to go beyond this; if we do it, it will be at the expense of our reputation.

These are the things in plainness, which we desire should be publicly known; and you can publish them in the Millennial Star, in full, or extract, as you please.

g It is a general time of health in Nauvoo. Every thing begins to flouri[s]h and look prosperous. Crops of grain have the appea[ra]nce of a rich harvest. Em[i]gration continues to increase, so does also the City. We expect to see brother P. P. Pratt probably as soon as next spring. Brother Amos Fielding will be the bearer of this, he will start from here in a few days.

May the Lord bestow his blessings upon you richly, and hasten the gathering, and bring abou[t] the fulness of the everlasting Covenant are the prayers of your brethren.

Written by Hyrum Smith, Patriarch, by the order of Joseph Smith, president over the whole Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Sai[n]ts.

Hyrum Smith

h N. B. Brother P. P. Pratt will send over 3 families namely brother John Allabys, John Farrars, & David Claytons, with <by> the donation m[o]ney that shall be given in for the building of the Temple[.] They are now at work on [t]he Temple, under th[at] sp[e]cial contract, that their families shall be forwarded to this place by monies donated for the Temple. Brother John Allabys family lives in No 33 Brownlow Hill, Liverpool. John Farrar & David Claytons families live at Messrs Bashale and Boardmans Mill Farrington [Farrington], near Preston, Lancashire. Direct Ann Farrar care of Mr Thomas Beardwood, Shopkeeper Messors Bashale & Boardmans Mill. Also Elizabeth Clayton care of Mr Thomas Beardwood, Shopkeeper Messrs Bashale & Boardmans Mill, Farrington, near Preston, Lancashire. Brother Amos Fielding will understand the particulars. This is a precedent, that we cannot establish, therefore you will be particular and keep this to yourself.

Joseph Smith
<Trustee in Trust>
Hyrum Smith

<We wish to have these families sent, this fall if possible, or they must, suffer.—>

<J. S.>

<H. S.>

i We assure you that you have our best feelings, and our prayers, and have no fault to find. Believing every man has done the best he could, that is— the Elders, such as have remained in England. And we desire your prayers, even all the Saints— &c. &c.

H. S.
J. S.

M^r Parley P. Pratt
Liverpool
England
Care of bro Amos Fielding

Account of Meeting and Discourse, 18 June 1842

As Reported by Wilford Woodruff

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a June 18th Saturday The Citizens of Nauvoo Both Male & female assembled near the Temple for a general meeting many thousands were assembled Joseph the seer arose & spoke upon several subjects.
- Among other subjects he spoke his mind in great plainness concerning the iniquity & wickedness of Gen John Cook Bennet[t], & exposed him before the public. He also prophesied in the Name of the Lord Concerning the merchants in the City that if they with the rich did not open their hearts & contribute to the poor that they would be cursed by the hand of
- b God & be cut off from the land of the living, The main part of the day was taken up upon the business of the agricultural & manufacturing society ie we have a Charter granted us by the Legislator of the state for that purpose & the time has come for us to make use of that Charter it is divided into stock of $50. dollars each share, any person owning one share became a member of the society a stockholder, each share is entitled to one vote this is esestablished with a view of helping the poor arangments were entered into to commence operations immediately
- c Also Joseph commmanded the Twelve to organize the Church more according to the Law of God that is to require of those that come in to be setteled according to their council & also to appoint a committee to wait upon all who arive & make them welcome & council them what to do B[righam] Young. H[eber] C. Kimball G[eorge] A. Smith & Hyrum Smith was the committee appointed to wait upon emigrants & settle them.

Letter to Jennetta Richards Richards, 23 June 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Nauvoo June 23rd 1842
- Sister Jennetta [Richards] Richards;
- Agreably to your request, in the Midst of all the bustle, and buisness of the day, and the care of all the Churches boath at home and abroad. I now imbrace a moment to adress a few words to you thinking peradventure it may be a consolation to you to know that you too are remembered by me as well as all the saints. my hearts desire and prayr to God is all the day long for all the saints and in an especial and poticular [particular] manner for those whom he hath chosen and anointed to bear the heaviest burthens in the heat of the day among which number is your husband ~~raised~~ received a man in whom I have the most implicit confidence and trust you say I have got him so I have in the which I rejoice, for he has done me great good and taken a great ~~burthen~~ burden off my shoulders since his arrival in Nauvoo never did I have greater intimacy with any man
- b than with him may the blessings of Elijah crown his head forever and ever. we are about to send him in a few days after his dear family he shall have our pray'rs fervently for his safe arrival to their imbraces and may God speed his Journey and return him quickly to our society. and I want you beloved Sister, to be a Genral in this matter, in helping him along. which I know you will he will be able to teach you many things which you never have heard you may have implicit confidence in the same. I have heard much about you by the twelve and in consequence of the great friendship that exists between your husband and me and the information they all have given me of your virtue and strong attachment to the truth of the work of God in the Last Days I have formed a very strong Brotherly friendship and attachment for you in the bonds of the Gosple,
- c Although I never saw you I shall be exceedingly glad to see you face to face and be able to administer in the name of the Lord some of the words of Life to your consolation and I hope that you may be kept steadfast in the faith even unto the end, I want you should give my love and tender regard to B^r Richards [Willard Richards's] familey and those who are friendly enough to me to enquire after me: in that region of Country, not having but little time to apportion to anyone & have <having> stolen this oppertunity I therefore subscribe myself in haste your most Obedient Brother in the fulness of the Gosple Joseph Smith
- P.S. B^{ro} Richards having been with me for a long time can give you any information which you need and will tell you all about me. I shall be very anxious for his return he is a grate prop to me in my Labours.—
- Mrs. Jennetta Richards
Richmond
Massachusetts

Letter to the Church, 23 June 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a TO THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER DAY SAINTS, AND TO ALL THE HONORABLE PART OF COMMUNITY.

It becomes my duty to lay before the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, and the public generally, some important facts relative to the conduct and character of Dr. JOHN C. BENNETT, who has lately been expelled from the aforesaid church; that the honorable part of community may be aware of his proceedings, and be ready to treat him and regard him as he ought to be regarded, viz: as an imposter and base adulterer.

b It is a matter of notoriety that said Dr. J. C. Bennett, became favorable to the doctrines taught by the elders of the church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, and located himself in the city of Nauvoo, about the month of August 1840, and soon after joined the church. Soon after it was known that he had become a member of said church, a communication was received c at Nauvoo, from a person of respectable character, and residing in the vicinity where Bennett had lived. This letter cautioned us against him, setting forth that he was a very mean man, and had a wife, and two or three children in McConnelsville, Morgan county, Ohio; but knowing that it is no uncommon thing for good men to be evil spoken against, the above letter was kept quiet, but held in reserve.

d He had not been long in Nauvoo before he began to keep company with a young lady, one of our citizens; and she being ignorant of his having a wife living, gave way to his addresses, and became confident, from his behavior towards her, that he intended to marry her; and this he gave her to understand he would do. I, seeing the folly of such an acquaintance, persuaded him to desist; and, on account of his continuing his course, finally threatened to expose him if he did not desist. This, to outward appearance, had the desired effect, and the acquaintance beneonate them was broken off.

e But, like one of the most abominable and depraved beings which could possibly exist, he only broke off his publicly wicked actions, to sink deeper into iniquity and hypocrisy. When he saw that I would not submit to any such conduct, he went to some of the females in the city, who knew nothing of him but as an honorable man, & began to teach them that promiscuous intercourse between the sexes, was a doctrine believed in by the Latter-Day Saints, and that there was no harm in f it; but this failing, he had recourse to a more influential and desperately wicked course; and that was, to persuade them that myself and others of the authorities of the church not only sanctioned, but practiced the same wicked acts; and when asked why I publicly preached so much against it, said that it was because of the prejudice of the public, and that it would cause trouble in my own house. He was well aware of the consequence of such wilful and base falsehoods, if they should come to g my knowledge; and consequently endeavored to persuade his dupes to keep it a matter of secrecy, persuading them there would be no harm if they should not make it known. This proceeding on his part, answered the desired end; he accomplished his wicked purposes; he seduced an innocent female by his lying, and subjected her character to public disgrace, should it ever be known.

h But his depraved heart would not suffer him to stop here. Not being contented with having disgraced one female, he made an attempt upon others; and, by the same plausible tale, overcame them also; evidently not caring whose character was ruined, so that his wicked, lustful appetities might be gratified.

i Sometime about the early part of July 1841, I received a letter from Elder H[yrum] Smith and Wm. Law, who were then at Pittsburgh, Penn. This letter was dated June 15th, and contained the particulars of a conversation betwixt them and a respectable gentleman from the neighborhood where Bennett's wife and children resided. He stated to them that it was a fact that Bennett had a wife and children living, and that she had left him because of his ill-treatment towards her. This letter was read to Bennett, which he did not attempt to deny; but candidly acknowledged the fact.

j Soon after this information reached our ears, Dr. Bennett made an attempt at suicide, by taking poison; but he being discovered before it had taken effect, and the proper antidotes being administered, he again recovered; but he very much resisted when an attempt was made to save him. The public impression was, that he was so much ashamed of his base and wicked conduct, that he had recourse to the above deed to escape the censures of an indignant community.

k It might have been supposed that these circumstances transpiring in the manner they did, would have produced a thorough reformation in his conduct; but, alas! like a being totally destitute of common decency, and without any government over his passions, he was soon busily engaged in the same wicked career, and continued until a knowledge of the same L reached my ears. I immediately charged him with it, and he admitted that it was true; but in order to put a stop to all such proceedings for the future, I publicly proclaimed against it, and had those females notified to appear before the proper officers that the whole subject might be investigated and thoroughly exposed.

m During the course of investigation, the foregoing facts were proved by credible witnesses, and were sworn and subscribed to before an alderman of the city, on the 15 ult. The documents containing the evidence are now in my possession.

n We also ascertained by the above investigation, that others had been led by his conduct to pursue the same adulterous practice, and in order to accomplish their detestable designs made use of the same language insinuated by Bennett, with this difference, that they did not hear me say any thing of the kind, but Bennett was one of the heads of the church, and he had informed them that such was the fact, and they credited his testimony.

o The public will perceive the aggravating nature of this case; and will see the propriety of this exposure. Had he only been guilty of adultery, that was sufficient to stamp disgrace upon him because he is a man of better information, and has been held high in the estimation of many. But when it is considered that his mind was so intent upon his cruel, and abominable deeds, and his own reputation not being sufficient to enable him to do it, he must make use of my name in order to effect his purposes, an enlightened public will not be astonished at the course I have pursued.

p In order that it may be distinctly understood that he wilfully and knowingly lied, in the above insinuations, I will lay before my readers an affidavit taken before an alderman of the city, after I had charged him with these things:

STATE OF ILLINOIS,)

City of Nauvoo.)

Personally appeared before me, Daniel H. Wells, an Alderman of said city of Nauvoo, John C. Bennett, who being duly sworn according to law, depose and saith: that he never was taught anything in the least contrary to the strictest principles of the Gospel, or of virtue, or of the laws of God, or man, under any circumstances, or upon q any occasion either directly or indirectly, in word or deed, by Joseph Smith; and that he never knew the said
Smith to countenance any improper conduct whatever, either in public or private; and that he never did teach to me in private that an illegal illicit intercourse with females was, under any circumstances, justifiable; and that I never knew him so to teach others.

JOHN C. BENNETT.

Sworn to, and subscribed, before me, this 17th day of May, A. D. 1842.

DANIEL H. WELLS, Alderman.

r The following conversation took place in the City Council, and was elicited in consequence of its being reported that the Doctor had stated that I had acted in an indecorous manner, and given countenance to vices practised by the Doctor, and others:

s Dr. John C. Bennett, ex-Mayor, was then called upon by the Mayor to state if he knew aught against him; when Mr.
Bennett replied: "I know what I am about, and the heads of the Church know what they are about. I expect I have no difficulty with the heads of the church. I publicly avow that any one who has said that I have stated that General Joseph Smith has given me authority to hold illicit intercourse with women is a liar in the face of God, t those who have said it are damned liars; they are infernal liars. He never, either in public or private, gave me any such authority or license, and any person who states it is a scoundrel and a liar. I have heard it said that I should become a second [Sampson] Avar by withdrawing from the church, and that I was at variance with the heads u and should use an influence against them because I resigned the office of Mayor; this is false. I have no difficulty with the heads of the church, and I intend to continue with you, and hope the time may come when I may be restored to full confidence, and fellowship, and my former standing in the church; and that my conduct may be such as to warrant my restoration—and should the time ever come that I may have the opportunity to test my faith it will then be known whether I am a traitor or a true man."

v Joseph Smith then asked: "Will you please state definitely whether you know any thing against my character either in public or private?"

Gen. Bennett answered: "I do not; in all my intercourse with Gen. Smith, in public and in private, he has been strictly virtuous.

Aldermen.
N[jewel] K. WHITNEY,
HIRAM KIMBALL,
ORSON SPENCER,
GUST[avus] HILLS,
G[eorge] W. HARRIS,
Counsellors.
WILLARD RICHARDS,

GEO. A. SMITH,
WILSON LAW,
B[righam] YOUNG,
JOHN TAYLOR,
H[eber] C. KIMBALL,
W[ilford] WOODRUFF,
JOHN P. GREEN[E],

JAMES SLOAN, City Recorder.

May 19, 1842.

w After I had done all in my power to persuade him to amend his conduct, and these facts were fully established, (not only by testimony, but by his own concessions,) he having acknowledged that they were true, and seeing no prospects of any satisfaction from his future life, the hand of fellowship was withdrawn from him as a member of the church, by the officers; but on account of his earnestly requesting that we would not publish him to the world, we concluded not to do so at that time, but would let the matter rest until we saw the effect of what we had already done.

x It appears evident, that as soon as he perceived that he could no longer maintain his standing as a member of the church, nor his respectability as a citizen, he came to the conclusion to leave the place; which he has done; and that very abruptly; and had he done so quietly, and not attempted to deceive the people around him, his case would not have excited the indignation y of the citizens, so much as his real conduct has done. In order to make his case look plausible, he has reported, "that he had withdrawn from the church because we were not worthy of his society;" thus instead of manifesting a spirit of repentance, he has to the last, proved himself to be unworthy the confidence or regard of any upright person, by lying, to deceive the innocent, and committing adultery in the most abominable and degraded manner.

z We are credibly informed that he has colleagueed with some of our former wicked persecutors, the Missourians, and has threatened destruction upon us; but we should naturally suppose, that he would be so much ashamed of himself at the injury he has already done to those who never injured, but befriended him in every possible manner, that he could never dare aa to lift up his head before an enlightened public, with the design either to misrepresent or persecute; but be that as it may, we neither dread him nor his influence; but this much we believe, that unless he is determined to fill up the measure of his iniquity, and bring sudden destruction upon himself from the hand of the Almighty; he will be silent, and never more attempt to injure those concerning whom he has testified upon oath he knows nothing but that which is good and virtuous.

bb Thus I have laid before the Church of Latter Day Saints, and before the public, the character and conduct of a man who has stood high in the estimation of many; but from the foregoing facts it will be seen that he is not entitled to any credit, but cc rather to be stamped with indignity and disgrace so far as he may be known. What I have stated I am prepared to prove, having all the documents concerning the matter in my possession, but I think that to say further is unnecessary, as the subject is so plain that no one can mistake the true nature of the case.

I remain yours, respectfully,

JOSEPH SMITH.

Nauvoo, June 23, 1842.

Letter to Thomas Carlin, 24 June 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

Nauvoo June 24th 1842

Thomas Carlin Governor of the State of Ill,
D^r. Sir,

It becomes my duty to lay before you some facts relative to the conduct of our Major, General John C. Bennett; which have been proven beyond the possibility of dispute, and which he himself has admitted to be true, in my presence.

b It is evident that his general character is that of an adulterer of the worst kind, and although he has a wife and Children living, circumstances which have transpired in Nauvoo, have proven to a demonstration that he cares not whose character is disgraced whose honor is destroyed nor who suffers so that his lustful appetite may be gratified and further he cares not how many, nor how abominable the falsehood he has to make use of to accomplish his wicked purposes, even should it be that he brings disgrace upon a whole community.

c Some time ago, it having been reported to me that some of the most aggravating cases of adultery had been committed upon some previously respectable females in our City, I took proper measures to ascertain the truth of the report, and was
d soon enabled to bring sufficient witnesses before proper Authority to establish the following facts, More than twelve months ago Bennett went to a Lady in the City and began to teach her that promiscuous intercourse between the sexes was lawful and no harm in it, and requested the privilege of gratifying his passions but she refused in the strongest terms saying that it was very wrong to do so, and it would bring a disgrace on the church Finding this argument ineffectual he told her that e men in higher standing in the church than himself not only sanctioned but practised the same deeds, and in order to finish the controversy said and affirmed that I both taught and acted in the same manner, but publicly proclaimed against it in consequence of the prejudice of the people and fear of trouble in my own house. By this means he accomplished his designs, he seduced a respectable female with lying and subjected her to public infamy and disgrace.

f Not contented with what he had already done he made the attempt on others and by using the same language seduced them also.

about the early part of July 1841 I received a letter from Pittsburgh Pa In it was contained information setting forth that said Bennett had a wife and two or three children then living. This I re[a]d to him and he acknowledged it was true

g A very short time after this he attempted to destroy himself by taking poison but being discovered before it had taken sufficient affect, and proper antidotes administered he again recovered.

The impression made on the minds of the public by this event was; that he was so ashamed of his base conduct that he
h took this course to escape the censures of a justly indignant community. It might have been supposed that after this he would have broke off his adulterous proceedings but to the contrary the public consternation had scarcely ceased before he was again deeply involved in the same wicked proceedings, and continued untill a knowledge of the fact reached my ears. I immediately charged him with the whole circumstance and he candidly acknowledged the truth of the whole.

i The foregoing facts were established on oath before an alderman of the City.— the affidavits are now in my possession. In order that the truth might be fully established I asked Bennett to testify before an alderman wether I had given him any cause for such aggravating conduct He testified that I never taught to him that illicit intercourses with females was under any circumstances justifiable neither did he ever hear me teach any thing but the strictest principles of righteousness and virtue. This affidavit is also in my possession.

j I have also a similar affidavit taken before the city council and signed by the members of the council.

after these things transpired, and finding that I should resist all such wicked conduct, and knowing that he could no longer maintain himself as a respectable citizen he has seen fit to leave Nauvoo, and that very abruptly

I have been credibly informed that he is colleaguig with some of our former cruel persecuters the missourians and that he is threatening destruction upon us; and under these circumstances I consider it my duty to give you information on the subject that a knowledge of his proceedings may be before you, in due season

k It can be proven by hundreds of witnesses that he is one of the basest of liars that his whole routine of proceedings whilst amongst us has been of the basest kind.

He also stated here that he had resigned his commission as Major General to the Governor weither this be true or not I have no knowledge, I wish to be informed on the subject that we may know how to act in relation to the Legion.

l A. short time ago I was told by a friend of mine (not a member of the Church) that some of the missourians were conspiring to come up to Nauvoo and Kidnap me, and not doubting but that it might be true I consulted with General Bennett upon the most proper course to be pursued, we concluded to write to you on the subject, and I requested him to do so. I understand he has wrote to you but I know not in what manner, and I should be very much pleased if you would write to me on reciept of this giving me the contents of his communication.

m I have also heard that yourself has entertained of late very unfavourable feelings towards us as a People, and espically so with regard to myself and that you have said I ought to be shot &c. If this be true I should be pleased to know from your self the reason of such hostile feelings, for I know of no cause which can possibly exist that might produce such feelings in your breast, n It is rumoured and strong evidence exists that Bennett and David [Kilbourne] and Edward Kilbourn[e] have posted Bills in Galena calling upon the people to hold meetings and have themselves in readiness at a moments warning to assemble and come here and mob us out of the place and try to Kidnap me we know not as to the truth of this report but we have conversed with some transient persons who had the report from a Gentleman who lately came from there and had seen those hand Bills posted in Galena—

- o In case of a mob coming upon us I wish to be informed by the Governor what will be the best course for us to pursue, and how he wishes us to act in regard to this matter

Joseph Smith Le^{ut}. General
Nauvoo. Legion.

Letter to James Arlington Bennet, 30 June 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Nauvoo June 30th. 1842
- Gen^l. James Arlington Bennett [Bennet] Esqr
Dr Sir / Permit me to introduce to your kindness and attention, Dr Willard Richards, my private secretary, and General Business Agent. Any attention or favors conferred upon him, I shall esteem in the same degree as though conferred upon myself.
- b We have been under the necessity of publishing the character and conduct; of our major General Dr John Cook Bennett, a circumstance which has been to us truly unpleasant; but his conduct whilst amongst us at Nauvoo, and up to the present time, has been such as to make it a matter of duty, which I consider we owe to the public generally, and could not be
- c dispensed with. As Dr Richards is conversant with all the facts relative to his case, it would be superfluous to state them in this brief communication. Any information you may desire on the subject; or concerning the Legion, the prog[r]ess of the City, prospects of business, or any other matter he will cheerfully give, and to greater satisfaction than could be done with pen.
- d I should be highly pleased if you should see proper to open a correspondence with me as soon as convenient; and also to receive a visit from you whenever circumstances shall render it consistent.
- You will please accept of my kind thanks for the several instances of remembrance from your pen, both as poetic effusions, and in defence of the glorious principles of truth, and I pray my heavenly Father that his spirit may continue to rest upon you forever.
- e I am Sir.— Yours resp[ectfull]^y
- Joseph Smith
Mayor
- Gen^l. Ja^s Arlington Bennett Esqr
[blank]
[blank]
- Gen^l. Ja^s. Arlington Bennett
Arlington House
L. I. [Long Island]
New York
- Per Dr Richards
<From the Prophet at Nauvoo Illinois.>
<Aug. 6th. left the 8 1842>

Letter to the Citizens of Hancock County, circa 2 July 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

For the Wasp.

TO THE CITIZENS OF HANCOCK CO.

As a people, the church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints are found “more sinned against, than sinning.”—In political affairs we are ever ready to yield to our fellow citizens of [t]he county, equal participation in the selection of candidates for office—we have been disappointed in our hopes of being met with the same disposition on the part of some of the old citizens of the county—they indeed seem to manifest a spirit of intolerance and exclusion, incompatible with the liberal doctrines of true republicanism. At the late Anti-Mormon convention, a complete set of candidates, pledged to a man to receive no support from, and to yield no quarters to, Mormons, are commended to all the citizens of this county for their suffrages! As a portion of said citizens of Hancock we embrace the occasion to decline this ticket for the want of reciprocity in its term, [a]nd honesty and intelligence in the character of some of its candidates.

b

c

d

If the old citizens of the county are still desirous of equal participations with us in the choice of candidates, we are ready to co-operate with them—If independent gentlemen will announce themselves, and possess the requisite qualities, capacity and integrity, they will receive the united support of our people in the county—The time for holding a convention seems to have already gone by—there is time enough for the friends of justice and fair play to elect a ticket, to be announced in the independent manner we have suggested. Let the gentlemen who have the courage to oppose the spirit of dictation which governed the Anti-Mormon convention candidates, show themselves, and we will exercise enough, on the terms proposed in this article, to ensure complete success.

JOSEPH SMITH.

Account of Meeting, 15 July 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

b

c

d

e

After considerable search had been made but to no effect a meeting was called at the Grove where Joseph stated before the public a general outline of J[ohn] C. Bennetts conduct and especially with regard to Sis P [Sarah Marinda Bates Pratt] Met again in the P.M. when Hyrum [Smith] & H[eber] C. Kimball spake on the same subject after which Joseph arose and said that he would state to those present some things which he had heard respecting Edward & D Kilbourn [David Kilbourne] being conspiring with J. C. Bennett in endeavoring to bring a Mob upon us, and as Mr E. Kilbourn was then present he would have the privilege of either admitting or denying it. Question by E. Kilbourn “Who did Bennett tell that I and my brother were conspiring to bring a mob upon you” Answer by Joseph “He told me and he told [blank] Allred and Orson Pratts wife & others”. Q by E Kilboun “Where did he say we were going to bring a mob from”. Ans. by Joseph. “From Galena”. Mr. Kilbourn then arose and said, “I was conversing with my brother this morning and he said he had never seen Bennett since he had us before him last year for conspiracy. I have only seen him twice since last fall, I saw <him> once then. I was going to Galena about 2 weeks ago. The Boat I was on stopped at the upper Landing place and I came ashore a little while. The first person I saw was Bennett; we entered into conversation, but there was no mention made of mobs. I have not seen him since. I always regarded Bennett the same as I regard you (Joseph) and thought you were pretty well matched. If any one says that I have conspired to bring a Mob upon you it is false”. The meeting was then peaceably dismissed.

Editorial, 15 July 1842—A

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a THE GOVERNMENT OF GOD.
- The government of the Almighty, has always been very dissimilar to the government of men; whether we refer to his religious government, or to the government of nations. The government of God has always tended to promote peace, unity, harmony, strength and happiness; while that of man has been productive of confusion, disorder, weakness and misery. The greatest acts of the mighty men have been to depopulate nations, and to overthrow kingdoms; and whilst they have exalted themselves and become glorious, it has been at the expense of the lives of the innocent—the blood of the oppressed—the moans of the widow, and the tears of the orphan. Egypt, Babylon, Greece, Persia, Carthage, Rome—each were raised to dignity amid the clash of arms, and the din of war; and whilst their triumphant leaders led forth their victorious armies to glory and victory, their ears were saluted with the groans of the dying, and the misery and distress of the human family;—before them the earth was a paradise, and behind them a desolate wilderness; their kingdoms were founded in carnage and bloodshed, and sustained by oppression, tyranny, and despotism. The designs of God, on the other hand, have been to promote the universal good, of the universal world;—to establish peace and good will among men;—to promote the principles of eternal truth;—to bring about a state of things that shall unite man to his fellow man—cause the world to “beat their swords into plow-shares, and their spears into pruning-hooks”—make the nations of the earth dwell in peace; and to bring about the millennial glory—when “the earth shall yield its increase, resume its paradisaean glory, and become as the garden of the Lord.”
- e The great and wise of ancient days have failed in all their attempts to promote eternal power, peace, and happiness. Their nations have crumbled to pieces; their thrones have been cast down in their turn; and their cities, and their mightiest works of art have been annihilated; or their dilapidated towers, or time worn monuments have left us but feeble traits of their former magnificence, and ancient grandeur. They proclaim as with a voice of thunder, those imperishable truths—that man’s strength is weakness, his wisdom is folly, his glory is his shame.
- f Monarchical, aristocratic, and republican forms of government, of their various kinds and grades, have in their turn been raised to dignity and prostrated in the dust. The plans of the greatest politicians, the wisest senators, and most profound statesmen have been exploded; and the proceedings of the greatest chieftains, the bravest generals, and the wisest kings have fallen to the ground. Nation has succeeded nation, and we have inherited nothing but their folly. History records their puerile plans, their short lived glory, their feeble intellect, and their ignoble deeds.
- g Have we increased in knowledge or intelligence? where is there a man that can step forth and alter the destiny of nations, and promote the happiness of the world? Or where is there a kingdom or nation, that can promote the universal happiness of its own subjects, or even their general well being? Our nation, which possesses greater resources than any other, is rent from center to circumference, with party strife, political intrigue, and sectional interest; our counsellors are panic struck, our legislators are astonished, and our senators are confounded; our merchants are paralyzed, our tradesmen are disheartened, our mechanics out of employ, our farmers distressed, and our poor crying for bread. Our banks are broken, our credit ruined, and our states overwhelmed in debt;—yet we are, and have been in peace.—What is the matter? Are we alone in this thing? Verily, no. With all our evils we are better situated than any other nations. Let Egypt, Turkey, Spain, France, Italy, Portugal, Germany, England, China, or any other nation speak, and tell the tale of their trouble—their perplexity, and distress, and we should find that their cup was full, and that they were preparing to drink the dregs of sorrow. England, that boasts of her literature, her science, commerce, &c., has her hands reeking with the blood of the innocent, abroad; and she is saluted with the cries of the oppressed, at home.—Chartism, O’Connellism, and Radicalism are gnawing her vitals at home; and Ireland, Scotland, Canada, and the East, are threatening her destruction abroad. France is rent to the core—intrigue, treachery, and treason lurk in the dark; and murder, and assassination stalk forth at noonday. Turkey, once the glory of European nations, has been shorn of her strength—has dwindled into her dotage, and has been obliged to ask her allies to propose to her tributary terms of peace: and Russia, and Egypt are each of [t]hem opening their jaws to devour her. Spain has been the theatre of bloodshed, of misery and woe, for years past. Syria is now convulsed with war and bloodshed. The great and powerful empire of China, which has for centuries resisted the attacks of barbarians, has become tributary to a foreign foe; her batteries thrown down; many of her cities destroyed, and her villages deserted. We might mention the Eastern rajahs; the miseries and oppressions of the Irish; the convulsed state of Central America; the situation of Texas and Mexico; the state of Greece, Switzerland, and Poland—nay, the world itself presents one great theatre of misery, woe, and “distress of nations with perplexity.” All, all speak with a voice of thunder, that man is not able to govern himself—to legislate for himself—to protect himself—to promote his own good, nor the good of the world.
- k

l It has been the design of Jehovah, from the commencement of the world, and is his purpose now, to regulate the affairs of the world in his own time; to stand as head of the universe, and take the reigns of government into his own hand. When that is done judgment will be administered in righteousness; anarchy and confusion will be destroyed, and “nations will learn war no more.” It is for want of this great governing principle that all this confusion has existed; “for it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps;” this we have fully shewn.

m If there was any thing great or good in the world it came from God. The construction of the first vessel was given to Noah, by revelation. The design of the ark was given by God “a pattern of heavenly things.” The learning of the Egyptians, and their knowledge of astronomy was no doubt taught them by Abraham and Joseph, as their records testify, who received it from the Lord. The art of working in brass, silver, gold, and precious stones, was taught by revelation, in the wilderness. n The architectural designs of the Temple at Jerusalem, together with its ornament and beauty was given of God. Wisdom to govern the house of Israel was given to Solomon, and to the judges of Israel; and if he had always been their king, and they subject to his mandate, and obedient to his laws, they would still have been a great and mighty people; the rulers of the universe—and the wonder of the world. If Nebuchadnezzar, or Darius, or Cyrus, or any other king possessed knowledge or o power it was from the same source, as the scriptures abundantly testify. If then, God puts up one, and sets down another, at his pleasure—and made instruments of kings, unknown to themselves, to fulfill his prophesies, how much more was he able, if man would have been subject to his mandate, to regulate the affairs of this world, and promote peace and happiness among the human family.

p The Lord has at various times commenced this kind of government, and tendered his services to the human family. He selected Enoch, whom he directed, and gave his law unto, and to the people who were with him; and when the world in general would not obey the commands of God, after walking with God, he translated Enoch and his church, and the priesthood or government of heaven, was taken away.

q Abraham was guided in all his family affairs by the Lord; was told where to go, and when to stop; was conversed with by angels, and by the Lord; and prospered exceedingly in all that he put his hand unto; it was because he and his family obeyed the counsel of the Lord.— When Egypt was under the superintendence of Joseph, it prospered, because he was taught of God; r when they oppressed the Israelites destruction came upon them. When the children of Israel were chosen with Moses at their head, they were to be a peculiar people, among whom God should place his name: their motto was “The Lord is our lawgiver; the Lord is our judge; the Lord is our king, and he shall reign over us.” While in this state they might truly say “happy is that people whose God is the Lord.” Their government was a theocracy; they had God to make their laws, and men chosen by s him to administer them; he was their God, and they were his people. Moses received the word of the Lord from God himself; he was the mouth of God to Aaron, and Aaron taught the people in both civil and ecclesiastical affairs; they were both one; there was no distinction; so will it be when the purposes of God shall be accomplished; when “the Lord shall be king over the whole earth” and “Jerusalem his throne.” “The law shall go forth from Zion and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.”

t This is the only thing that can bring about the “restitution of all things, spoken of by all the holy prophets since the world was”—“the dispensation of the fulness of times, when GOD shall gather together all things in one.” Other attempts to promote universal peace and happiness in the human family have proven abortive; every effort has failed; every plan and design has fallen to the ground; it needs the wisdom of God, the intelligence of God, and the power of God to accomplish u this. The world has had a fair trial for six thousand years; the Lord will try the seventh thousand himself; “he whose right it is will possess the kingdom, and reign until he has put all things under his feet;” iniquity will hide its hoary head, Satan will be bound, and the works of darkness destroyed; righteousness will be put to the line, and judgment to the plummet, and “he that fears the Lord will alone be exalted in that day.” To bring about this state of things there must of necessity be v present distress? I would answer: “Shall there be evil in a city and the Lord hath not done it.” The earth is groaning under corruption, oppression, tyranny, and bloodshed; and God is coming out of his hiding place, as he said that he would do, to vex the nations of the earth. Daniel, in his vision, saw convulsion upon convulsion; he “saw till thrones were cast down, and the ancient of days did sit; and one was brought before him like unto the Son of man; and all nations, kindreds, tongues, and people, did serve and obey him.” It is for us to be righteous that we may be wise and understand, for “none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand, and they that turn many to righteousness, as the stars for ever and ever.”

w As a church, and a people it beho[o]ves us to be wise, and to seek to know the will of God, and then be willing to do it; for “blessed is he that heareth the word of the Lord and keepeth it,” says the scriptures. “Watch and pray always,” says our Savior, “that ye may be accounted worthy to escape the things that are coming on the earth, and to stand before the Son of man.” If Enoch, Abraham, Moses, the children of Israel, and all God’s people were saved by keeping the commandments of

- x God, we, if saved at all, shall be saved upon the same principle. As God governed Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, as families, and the children of Israel as a nation, so we, as a church, must be under his guidance if we are prospered, preserved, and sustained. Our only confidence can be in God; our only wisdom obtained from him; and he alone must be our protector and safeguard, spiritually and temporally, or we fall.
- y We have been chastened by the hand of God heretofore for not obeying his commands, although we never violated any human law, or transgressed any human precept: yet we have treated lightly his commands, and departed from his ordinances, and the Lord has chastened us sore, and we have felt his arm, and kissed the rod: let us we [be] wise in time to come, and ever
- z remember that “to obey is better than sacrifice; and to hearken than the fat of rams.” The Lord has told us to build the temple, and the Nauvoo House, and that command is as binding upon us as any other; and that man who engages not in these things is as much a transgressor as though he broke any other command—he is not a doer of God’s will, nor a fulfiller of his laws.
- aa In regard to the building up of Zion it has to be done by the counsel of Jehovah; by the revelations of heaven, and we should feel to say “if the Lord go not with us, carry us not up hence.” We would say to the saints that come here, we have laid the foundation for the gathering of God’s people to this place, and expect that when the saints do come they will be under
- bb the counsel of those that God has appointed. The Twelve are set apart to counsel the saints pertaining to this matter: and we expect that those who come here will send before them their wise men according to revelation; or if not practicable, be subject to the counsel that God has given or they cannot receive an inheritance among the saints, or be considered as God’s people; and they will be dealt with as transgressors of the laws of God; we are trying here to gird up our loins, and purge from our
- cc midst the workers of iniquity; and we hope that when our brethren arrive from abroad, they will assist us to roll forth this good work, and to accomplish this great design; that “Zion may be built up in righteousness; and all nations flock to her stan[d]ard;” that as God’s people, under his direction, and obedient to his law, we may grow up in righteousness, and truth; that when his purposes shall be accomplished, we may receive an inheritance among those that are sanctified.—ED.

Editorial, 15 July 1842–B

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a AMERICAN ANTIQUITIES.
Some have supposed that all the great works of the west, of which we have been treating, belong to our present race of Indians; but from continued wars with each other, have driven themselves from agricultural pursuits, and thinned away their numbers, to that degree, that the wild animals and fishes of the rivers, and wild fruit of the forests, were found sufficient to give them abundant support: on which account, they were reduced to savagism.
- b But this is answered by the Antiquarian Society, as follows: “Have our present race of Indians ever buried their dead in mounds by thousands? Were they acquainted with the uses of silver or copper? These metals curiously wrought have been found. Did the ancients of our Indians burn the bodies of distinguished chiefs, on funeral piles, and then raise a lofty tumulus over the urn containing their ashes? Did the Indians erect any thing like the “walled towns,” on Paint Creek? Did they ever dig such wells as are found at Marietta, Portsmouth, and above all, such as those in Paint Creek? Did they manufacture vessels from calcareous breccia, equal to any now made in Italy?
- c To this we respond, they never have: no, not even their traditions afford a glimpse of the existence of such things, as forts, tumuli, roads, wells, mounds, walls enclosing between one and two hundred, and even five hundred acres of land; some of them of stone, and others of earth, twenty feet in thickness, and exceeding high, are works requiring too much labor for Indians ever to have performed.
- d An idol found in a tumulus near Nashville, Tennessee, and now in the Museum of Mr. Clifford, of Lexington, is made of clay, peculiar for its fineness. With this clay was mixed a small portion of gypsum or plaster of Paris. This Idol was made to represent a man, in a state of nudity or nakedness, whose arms had been cut off close to the body, and whose nose and chin have been mutilated, with a fillet and cake upon its head.

- e Some years since a clay vessel was discovered, about twenty feet below the surface, in alluvial earth, in digging a well near Nashville, Tennessee, and was found standing on a rock, from whence a spring of water issued. This vessel was taken to Peale's Museum, at Philadelphia. It contains about one gallon; was circular in its shape, with a flat bottom, from which it rises in a somewhat globose form, terminating at the summit with the figure of a female head; the place where the water was introduced, or poured out, was on the one side of it, nearly at the top of the globose part.
- f Another idol was, a few years since, dug up in Natchez, on the Mississippi, on a piece of ground where, according to tradition, long before Europeans visited this country, stood an Indian temple.— This idol is of stone, and is nineteen inches in height, nine inches in width, and seven inches thick at the extremities.— On its breast, as represented on the plate of the idol, were five marks, which were evidently characters of some kind, resembling as supposed, the Persian; probably expressing, in the language of its authors, the name and supposed attributes of the senseless god of stone.
- g One of the arts known to the builders of Babel, was that of brick making; this art was also known to the people who built the works in the west. The knowledge of copper was known to the people of the plains of Shinar, for Noah must have communicated it, as he lived an hundred and fifty years among them after the flood; also, copper was known to the antediluvians. Copper was also known to the authors of the western monuments. Iron was known to the antediluvians; it was also known to the ancients of the west; however, it is evident that very little iron was among them, as very few instances of its discovery in their works have occurred; and for this very reason we draw a conclusion that they came to this country very soon after the dispersion, and brought with them such few articles of iron as have been found in their works in an oxydized state.
- h Copper ore is very abundant in many places of the west; and therefore, as they had a knowledge of it, when they first came here they knew how to work it, and form it into tools and ornaments. This is the reason why so many articles of this metal are found in their works; and even if they had a knowledge of iron ore, and knew how to work it, all articles made of it must have become oxydized as appears from what few specimens have been found, while those of copper are more imperishable. Gold ornaments are said to have been found in several tumuli. Silver very well plated on copper, has been found in several mounds, besides those at Circleville and Marietta. An ornament of copper was found in a stone mound near Chilicothe; it was a bracelet for the ancle or wrist.
- i The ancients of Asia, immediately after the dispersion, were acquainted with ornaments made of the various metals; for the family of Terah, who was the father of Abraham and Nahor, we find these ornaments in use for the beautifying of females. See the servant of Abraham, at the well of Bethuel in the country of "Ur of the Chaldeans," or Mesopotamia, which is not very far from the place where Babel stood—putting a jewell of gold upon the face or forehead of Rebecca, weighing half a shekel, and two bracelets for her wrists, or arms. Bracelets for the same use have been found in the west; all of which circumstances go to establish the acquaintance of those who made those ornaments of silver and copper found in the mounds of the west, equal with those of Ur in Chaldea. The families of Peleg, Reu, Serug, and Nahor, who were the immediate progenitors of Abraham, lived at an era but little after the flood; and yet we find them in the possession of ornaments of this kind; from which we conclude a knowledge both of the metals, and how to make ornaments, as above described, was brought by Noah and his family from beyond the flood.
- j On the shores of the Mississippi, some miles below Lake Pepin, on a fine plain, exists an artificial elevation of about four feet high, extending a full mile, in somewhat of a circular form. It is sufficiently capacious to have covered 5000 men. Every angle of the breast work is yet traceable, though much defaced by time. Here, it is likely, conflicting realms as great as those of the ancient Greeks and Persians, decided the fate of ambitious Monarchs, of the Chinese, Mongol descent.
- k Weapons of brass have been found in many parts of America, as in the Canadas, Florida, &c., with curiously sculptured stones, all of which go to prove that this country was once peopled with civilized, industrious nations,—now traversed the greater part by savage hunters.— Priests American Antiquities.
- l The Book of Mormon speaks of ores, swords, cities, armies, &c., and we extract the following:—
- m And it came to pass that we did find upon the land of promise, as we journeyed in the wilderness, that there were beasts in the forests of every kind, both the cow and the ox, and the ass, and the horse, and the goat, and the wild goat, and all manner of wild animals, which were for the use of men. And we did find all manner of ore, both of gold, and of silver, and of copper.
- o And it came to pass that the Lord commanded me, wherefore I did make plates of ore, that I might engraven upon them the record of my people. * * *
- o And it came to pass that we began to prosper exceedingly, and to multiply in the land. And I, Nephi, did take the sword of Laban, and after the manner of it did make many swords, lest by any means the people who were now called Lamanites, should come upon us and destroy us: for I knew their hatred towards me and my children, and those who were called my people. And I did teach my people to build buildings; and to work in all manner of wood, and of iron, and of copper, and of brass, and of steel, and of gold, and of silver, and of precious ores, which were in great abundance. And I, Nephi, did build a temple; and I did construct it after the manner of the temple of Solomon, save it were not built of so many precious things: for they were not to be found upon the land; wherefore it could not be built like unto Solomon's temple. But the manner of the construction was like unto the temple of Solomon; and the workmanship thereof was exceeding fine.

p In regard to there being great wars, the following will shew:—

And it came to pass when Coriantumr had recovered of his wounds, he began to remember the words which Ether had spoken unto him...he saw that there had been slain by the sword already nearly two millions of his people, and he began to sorrow in his heart; yea, there had been slain two millions of mighty men, and also their wives and their children. He began to repent of the evil which he had done; he began to remember the words which had been spoken by the mouth of all the prophets, and he saw them that they were fulfilled, thus far, every whit; and his soul mourned, and refused to be comforted....

q And it came to pass that they did gather together all the people, upon all the face of the land, who had not been slain, save it was Ether. And it came to pass that Ether did behold all the doings of the people; and he beheld that the people who were for Coriantumr, were gathered together for the army of Coriantumr; and the people who were for Shiz, were gathered together to the army of Shiz; wherefore they were for the space of four years gathering together the people, that they might get all who were upon the face of the land, and that they might receive all the strength which it was profitable that they could receive. And it came to pass that when they were all gathering together, every one to the army which he would with their wives and their children; both men, women, and children being armed with weapons of war, having shields and breast plates, and head plates, and being clothed after the manner of war, they did march forth one against another, to battle; and they fought all that day, and conquered not. And it came to pass that when it was night they were weary, and retired to their camps; and after they had retired to their camps, they took up a howling and a lamentation for the loss of the slain of their people; and so great were their cries, their howlings and lamentations, that it did rend the air exceedingly.

r If men, in their researches into the history of this country, in noticing the mounds, fortifications, statues, architecture, implements of war, of husbandry, and ornaments of silver, brass, &c.—were to examine the Book of Mormon, their conjectures would be removed, and their opinions altered; uncertainty and doubt would be changed into certainty and facts; and they would find that those things that they are anxiously prying into were matters of history, unfolded in that book. They would find their conjectures were more than realized—that a great and a mighty people had inhabited this continent—that the arts sciences and religion, had prevailed to a very great extent, and that there was as great and mighty cities on this s continent as on the continent of Asia. Babylon, Ninevah, nor any of the ruins of the Levant could boast of more perfect sculpture, better architectural designs, and more imperishable ruins, than what are found on this continent. Stephens and Catherwood's researches in Central America abundantly testify of this thing. The stupendous ruins, the elegant sculpture, and the magnificence of the ruins of Guatamala, and other cities, corroborate this statement, and show that a great and mighty people—men of great minds, clear intellect, bright genius, and comprehensive designs inhabited this continent. Their ruins speak of their greatness; the Book of Mormon unfolds their history.—ED.

Minutes, 22 July 1842, as Published by Times and Seasons

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a At a meeting of the citizens of the city of Nauvoo held in said city at the meeting ground, July 22d 1842.

Orson Spencer Esq. was called to the chair, and Gustavus Hills was appointed clerk.

The meeting was called to order by the chairman, who stated the object of the meeting to be to obtain an expression of the public mind in reference to the reports gone abroad, calumniating the character of Pres. Joseph Smith. Gen. Wilson Law then rose and presented the following resolution.

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Head Quarters of Nauvoo Legion
Aug^t 15 [14]— 1842
- Major Gen. Law
Dr General—
- I take this opportunity to give you some instructions how I wish you to act in case our persecutors should carry their pursuits so far as to tread upon our rights as free-born American Citizens. The orders which I am about to give you is the result of a long series of contemplation since I saw you.— I have come fully to the conclusion both since this last difficulty commenced, as before, that I never would suffer myself to go into the hands of the Missourians alive; and to go into the hands of the Officers of this state is nothing more nor less, than to go into the hands of the Missourians; for the whole farce has been gotten up, unlawfully and unconstitutionally, as well on the part of the Governor as others; by a mob spirit for the purpose of carrying out mob violence, to carry on mob tolerance in a religious persecution. I am determined therefore, to keep out of their hands, and thwart their designs if possible, that perhaps they may not urge the necessity of force and blood against their own fellow-citizens and loyal subjects; and become ashamed and withdraw their pursuits. But if they should not do this and shall urge the necessity of force; and if I by any means should be taken, these are therefore to command you forthwith, without delay, regardless of life or death to rescue me out of their hands. And further, to treat any pretensions to the contrary, unlawful and unconstitutional and as a mob got up for the purpose as religious persecution to take away the rights of men. And further, that our chartered rights and privileges shall be considered by us as holding the supremacy in the premises and shall be maintained; nothing short of the supreme court of this State, having authority to dis-annul them; and the Municipal Court having jurisdiction in my case. You will see therefore that the peace of the City of Nauvoo is kept, let who will endeavor to disturb it. You will see also that whenever any mob force or violence is used, on any citizen thereof, or that belongeth thereunto, you will see that that force or violence is immediately dispersed and brought to punishment; or meet it, and contest it at the point of the sword with firm and undaunted and unyielding valor; and let them know that the spirit of old seventysix; and of George Washington yet lives, and is contained in the bosoms and blood of the children of the fathers thereof. If there are any threats in the city let legal steps be taken on the part of those that make the threats: and let no man, woman or child be intimidated nor suffer it to be done. Nevertheless as I said in the first place we will take every measure that lays in our power and make every sacrifice that God or man could require at our hands to preserve the peace and safety of the people without colition [collision?]. And if sacrificing my own liberty for months and years without stooping to the disgrace of Missouri persecution and violence, and [Thomas] Carlins mis-rule and corruption I bow to my fate with cheerfulness and all due deference in the consideration of the lives, safety and welfare of others. But if this policy cannot accomplish the desired object; let our charter, and our Municipality; free trade and Sailors rights be our motto, and go a-head David Crockett like, and lay down our lives like men, and defend ourselves to the best advantage we can to the very last. You are therefore, hereby authorised and commanded, by virtue of the authority which I hold, and commission granted me by the Executive of this State, to maintain the very letter and spirit of the above contents of this letter to the very best of your ability; to the extent of our lives, and our fortunes; and to the lives and the fortunes of the [Nauvoo] Legion; as also all those who may volunteer their lives and their fortunes with ours; for the defence of our wives, our children, our fathers and our mothers; our homes; our grave yards, and our tombs; and our dead and their tombstones, and our dear bought American liberties with the blood of our fathers, and all that is dear and sacred to man. Shall we shrink at the onset? No, let every mans brow be as the face of a Lion; let his heart be unshaken as the mighty oak, and his knee confirmed as the sappline [sapling] of the forrest; and by the voice and loud roar of the cannon; and the loud peals and thundering of Artillery; and by the voice of the thunderings of heaven as upon mount Sinai; and by the voice of the Heavenly Hosts; and by the voice of the Eternal God; and by the voice of innocent blood; and by the voice of innocence; and by the voice of all that is sacred and dear to man, let us plead the justice of our cause; trusting in the arm of Jehovah the Eloheem who sits enthroned in the heavens: that peradventure he may give us the victory; and if we bleed we shall bleed in a good cause— in the cause of innocence and truth: and from henceforth will their not be a crown of glory for us? And will not those who come after us, hold our names in sacred remembrance? and will our enemies dare to brand us with cowardly reproach? With these considerations, I subscribe myself Yours most faithfully and respectfully with acknowledgements of your high and honored trusts as Major Gen. of the Nauvoo Legion

Wilson Law.

h Major Gen. of the Nauvoo Legion.—

P.S. I want you to communicate all the information to me of all the transactions, as they are going on daily, in writing by the hand of my aidecamps. As I am not willing that any thing that goes from my hands to you should be made a public matter, I enjoin upon you to keep all things in your own bosom; and I want every thing that comes from you to come through my Aids. The bearer of this will be able to pilot them in a way that will not be prejudicial to my safety—

Joseph Smith.—

Letter to Emma Smith, 16 August 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

Nauvoo August 16th 1842

My Dear Emma

I embrace this opportunity to express to you some of my feelings this morning. First of all, I take the liberty to tender you my sincere thanks for the two interesting and consoling visits that you have made me during my almost exiled situation. Tongue can not express the gratitude of my heart, for the warm and true-hearted friendship you have manifested in these things toward me. The time has passed away since you left me, very agreeably; thus far, my mind being perfectly reconciled to my fate, let it be what it may. I have been kept from melancholy and dumps, by the kind-heartedness of brother [Erastus] Derby, and his interesting chit-chat from time to time, which has called my mind from the more strong contemplations of things, and subjects that would have preyed more earnestly upon my feelings. Last night—in the night—brother Hyrum [Smith], [George] Miller, [William] Law & others came to see us. They seemed much agitated, and expressed some fears in consequence of some manouverings and some flying reports which they had heard in relation to our safety; but after relating what it was, I was able to comprehend the whole matter to my entire satisfaction, and did not feel at all alarmed or uneasy. They think, however, that the Militia will be called out to search the city, and if this should be the case I would be much safer for the time being at a little distance off, untill Governor [Thomas] Carlin could get weary and be made ashamed of his corrupt and unhallowed pro-ceedings. I had supposed, however, that if there were any serious operations taking by the Governor; that Judge [James] Ralston or brother [David S.] Hollister would have notified us; and cannot believe that any thing very serious is to be apprehended, untill we obtain information from a source that can be relied on. I have consulted wether it is best for you to go to Quincy, and see the Governor; but on the whole, he is a fool; and the impressions that are suggested to my mind, are, that it will be of no use; and the more we notice him, and flatter him, the more eager he will be for our destruction. You may write to him, whatever you see proper, but to go and see him, I do not give my consent at present. Brother Miller again suggested to me the propriety of my accompanying him to the Pine woods, and then he return, and bring you and the children. My mind will eternally revolt at every suggestion of that kind. More especially since the dream and vision that was manifested to me on the last night. My safety is with you, if you want to have it so. Any thing more or less than this cometh of evil. My feelings and council I think ought to be abided. If I go to the Pine country, you shall go along with me, and the children; and if you and the children go not with me, I dont go. I do not wish to exile myself for the sake of my own life, I would rather fight it out. It is for your sakes, therefore, that I would do such a thing. I will go with you then, in the same carriage and on Horse back, from time to time, as occasion may require; for I am not willing to trust you, in the hands of those who cannot feel the same interest for you, that I feel; to be subject to the caprice, temptations, or notions of any-body whatever. And I must say that I am pre-possessed somewhat, with the notion of going to the Pine Country any how; for I am tired of the mean, low, and unhallowed vulgarity, of some portions of the society in which we live; and I think if I could have a respite of about six months with my family, it would be a savor of life unto life, with my house. Nevertheless if it were possible I would like to live here in peace and wind up my business; but if it should be ascertained

b

c

d

e

f

g to a dead certainty that there is no other remedy, then we will round up our shoulders and cheerfully endure it; and this will be the plan. Let my horse, saddle, saddle-bags, and valice to put some shirts and clothing in, be sent to me. Let brother Derby and Miller take a horse and put it into my Buggy with a trunk containing my heavier cloths, shoes and Boots &c and let brother [John] Taylor accompany us to his fathers, and there we will tarry, taking every precaution to keep out of the hands of the enemy, untill you can arrive with the children. Let brother Hyrum bring you. Let Lorain [Lorin Walker] and brother [William] Clayton come along and bring all the writings and papers, books and histories, for we shall want a scribe h in order that we may pour upon the world the truth like the Lava of Mount Vesuvius. Then, let all the goods, household furniture, cloths and Store Goods that can be procured be put on to the Boat, and let 20 or 30 of the best men that we can find be put on board to man it, and let them meet us at Prairie Du Chien; and from thence, we will wend our way like larks up the Mississippi untill the touring [towering?] mountains and rocks, shall reminds us of the places of our nativity, and shall look like safety and home; and then we will bid defiance to the world, to Carlin, [Lilburn W.] Boggs, [John C.] Bennett, and all their whorish whores, and motly clan, that follow in their wake, Missouri not excepted; and until the damnation of hell rolls upon them, by the voice, and dread thunders, and trump of the eternal God; then, in that day will we not shout in the victory and be crowned with eternal joys, for the battles we have fought, having kept the faith and overcome the world. Tell i the children that it is well with their father, as yet; and that he remains in fervent prayer to Almighty God for the safety of himself, and for you, and for them. Tell Mother [Lucy Mack] Smith that it shall be well with her son, wether in life or in death; for thus saith the Lord God. Tell her that I remember her all the while, as well as Lucy [Smith Millikin] and all the rest; they all must be of good cheer. Tell Hyrum to be sure and not fail to carry out my instructions, but at the same time if the Militia does not come, and we should get any favorable information all may be well yet. Yours in haste, Your affectionate husband untill death, through all eternity forevermore

Joseph Smith

j P.S. I want you to write to Lorenzo [D.] Wasson, and get him to make affidavit to all he knows about Bennett and forward it. I also want you to ascertain from Hyrum wether he will conform to what I have requested. And you must write me an answer per bearer, giving me all the news you have, and what is the appearance of things this morning

J.S.—

Letter to Wilson Law, 16 August 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a Head Quarters of Nauvoo Legion
August 16 1842
Major Gen. [Wilson] Law.
Beloved brother and friend

Those few lines which I received from you written on the 15th was to me like apples of Gold in pictures of Silver. I rejoice with exceeding great joy to be associated in the high and responsible stations which we hold, whose mind and feelings and b heart is so congenial with my own. I love that soul that is so nobly entabernacled in that clay of yours, may God Almighty grant, that it may be satiated with seeing a fuffilment of every virtuous desire and manly desire that you possess. May we be c able to triumph gloriously over those who seek our destruction and overthrow, which I believe we shall. The news you wrote me was more favorable than that which was communicated by the brethren. They seemed a little agitated for my safety and advise me for the Pine Woods. But I succeeded admirably in calming all their fears. But nevertheless as I said in my former d letter, I was willing to exile myself for months and years, if it would be for the safety and welfare of the people; and I do not know but it would be as well for me to take a trip to the Pine Countries and remain untill arrangements can be made for my most perfect safety when I return. These are therefore to confer with you on this subject as I want to have a concert of action
e in every thing that I do. If I [k]new that they would oppress me alone, and let the rest of you dwell peaceably and quietly, I think I<t> be the wisest plan to absent myself for a little season if by that means we can prevent the profusion of blood Please write and give me your mind on that subject and all other information that has come to hand today and what are the signs of the times.

f I have no news for I am where I cannot get much all is quiet and peaceable around. I therefore wait with earnest expectation for your advices. I am anxious to know your opinions on any course that I may see proper to take, for in the multitude of council there is safety.

I add no more, but subscribe myself your faithful and most obedient servant friend and brother

Joseph Smith

Lieu^t Gen. of Nauvoo Legion of Illinois Militia [5 lines blank]

<Copy>

<Maj Gen Law Aug^t. 16th. 1842>

Reflections and Blessings, 16 and 23 August 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a “Blessed is Brother Erastus H. Derby, and he shall be blessed of the Lord; he possesses a sober mind, and a faithful heart; the snares therefore that are subsequent to befall other men, who are treacherous and rotten-hearted, shall not come nigh unto his doors, but shall be far from the path of his feet. He loveth wisdom, and shall be found possessed of her. Let their be b a crown of glory, and a diadem upon his head. Let the light of eternal Truth shine forth upon his understanding; let his name be had in everlasting remembrance; let the blessings of Jehovah be crowned upon his posterity after him, for he rendered me consolation, in the lonely places of my retreat: How good, and glorious, it has seemed unto me, to find pure and holy friends, who are faithful, just and true, and whose hearts fail not; and whose knees are confirmed and do not falter; while

c they wait upon the Lord, in administering to my necessities; <See Page 164> [p. 135] <From Page 135> in the day when the wrath of mine enemies was poured out upon me. In the name of the Lord, I feel in my heart to bless them, and to say in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth that these are the ones that shall inherit eternal life. I say it by virtue of the Holy

d Priesthood, and by the ministering of Holy Angels, and by the gift and power of the Holy Ghost. How glorious were my feelings when I met that faithful and friendly band, on the night of the eleventh on thursday, on the Island, at the mouth of the slough, between Zarahemla and Nauvoo. With what unspeakable delight, and what transports of joy swelled my bosom, when I took by the hand on that night, my beloved Emma, she that was my wife, even the wife of my youth; and the choice

e of my heart. Many were the re-vibrations of my mind when I contemplated for a moment the many ~~passt~~ scenes we had been called to pass through. The fatigues, and the toils, the sorrows, and sufferings, and the joys and consolations from time to time had strewed our paths and crowned our board. Oh! what a co-mingling of thought filled my mind for the moment, Again she <is> here, even in the seventh trouble, undaunted, firm and unwavering, unchangeable, affectionate Emma. There f was brother Hyrum [Smith] who next took me by the hand, a natural brother; thought I to myself, brother Hyrum, what a faithful heart you have got. Oh, may the eternal Jehovah crown eternal blessings upon your head, as a reward for the care you have had for my soul. O how many are the sorrows have we shared together, and again we find ourselves shackled with the unrelenting hand of oppression. Hyrum, thy name shall be written in the Book of the Law of the Lord, for those who

g come after thee to look upon, that they may pattern after thy works. Said I to myself here is brother Newel K. Whitney also, how many scenes of sorrow, have strewed our paths together; and yet we meet once more to share again. Thou art a faithful friend in whom the afflicted sons of men can confide, with the most perfect safety. Let the blessings of the eternal be crowned also upon his head; how warm that heart! how anxious that soul! for the welfare of one who has been cast out, and hated of h almost all men. Brother Whitney, thou knowest not how strong those ties are, that bind my soul and heart to thee. My heart was overjoyed, as I took the faithful band by hand, that stood upon the shore one by one. W^m. Law, W^m. Clayton, Dimick B. Huntington, George Miller were there. The above names constituted the little group. I do not think to mention the particulars

i of the history of that sacred night, which shall forever be remembered by me. But the names of the faithful are what I wish to record in this place. These I have met in prosperity and they were my friends, I now meet them in adversity, and they are still my warmer friends. These love the God that I serve; they love the truths that I promulge; they love those virtuous, and those holy doctrines that I cherish in my bosom with the warmest feelings of my heart; and with that zeal which cannot be denied.

j I love friendship and truth; I love virtue [p. 164] and Law; I love the God of Abraham and of Isaac and of Jacob, and they are my brethren, and I shall live; and because I live, they shall live also. These are not the only ones, who have administered to my necessity; whom the Lord will bless. There is brother John D Parker, and brother Amasa Lyman, and brother Wilson Law, and brother Henry G. Sherwood, my heart feels to reciprocate the unweried kindnesses that have been bestowed upon me by k these men. They are men of noble stature, of noble hands, and of noble deeds; possessing noble and daring, and giant hearts and souls. There is brother Joseph B. Nobles [Noble] also, I would call up in remembrance before the Lord. There is brother Samuel Smith, a natural brother; he is, even as Hyrum. There is brother Arthur Millikin also, who married my youngest l sister, Lucy. He is a faithful, an honest, and an upright man. While I call up in remembrance before the Lord these men, I would be doing injustice to those who rowed me in the skiff up the river that night, after I parted with the lovely group; who brought me to this my safe and lonely and private retreat; brother Jonathon [Jonathan] Dunham and the other whose name I do not know. Many were the thoughts that swelled my aching heart, while they were toiling faithfully with their oars.

m The<y> complained not at hardship and fatigue to secure my safety. My heart would have been harder than an adamant stone, if I had not have prayed for them, with anxious and fervent desire. I did so, and the still small voice whispered to my soul, these that share your toils with such faithful hearts, shall reign with you in the kingdom of their God; but I parted with n them in silence and came to my retreat. I hope I shall see them again that I may toil for them and administer to their comfort also. They shall not want a friend while I live. My heart shall love those; and my hands shall toil for those, who love and toil for me, and shall ever be found faithful to my friends. Shall I be ungrateful? verily no! God forbid!["]

[. . .] [p. 165] [. . .]

o "While I contemplate the virtues and the good qualifications and characterestics of the faithful few, which I am now recording in the Book of the Law of the Lord, of such as have stood by me in every hour of peril, for these fifteen long years past; say for instance; my aged and beloved brother Joseph Knights [Knight] Sen^r, who was among the number of the first to administer to my necessities, while I was laboring, in the commencement of the bringing forth of the work of the Lord, and p of laying the foundation of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints: for fifteen years has he been faithful and true, and even handed, and exemplary and virtuous, and kind; never deviating to the right hand nor to the left. Behold he is a righteous man. May God Almighty lengthen out the old mans days; and may his trembling, tortured and broken body be renewed, and the vigor of health turn upon him; if it can be thy will, consistently, O God; and it shall be said of him by the sons of Zion, while there is one of them remaining; that this man, was a faithful man in Israel; therefore his name shall never q be forgotten. There is his son Newel Knight and Joseph Knight [Jr.] whose names I record in the Book of the Law of the Lord, with unspeakable delight, for they are my friends. There are a numerous host of faithful souls, whose names I could wish to record in the Book of the Law of the Lord; but time and chance would fail. I will mention therefore only a few of them

r as emblematical of those who are to numerous to be written. But there is one man I would mention namely [Orrin] Porter Rockwell, who is now a fellow-wanderer with myself— an exile from his home because of the murderous deeds and infernal fiendish disposition of the indefatigable and unrelenting hand of the Missourians. He is an innocent and a noble boy; may God Almighty deliver him from the hands of his pursuers. He was an innocent and a noble child, and my soul loves him;

s Let this be recorded for ever and ever. Let the blessings of Salvation and honor be his portion. But as I said before, so say I again while I remember the faithful few who are now living, I would remember also the faithful of my friends who are dead, for they are many; and many are the acts of kindness, and paternal, and brotherly kindnesses which they have bestowed upon me. And since I have been hunted by the Missourians many are the scenes which have been called to my mind. Many t thoughts have rolled through my head, and across my breast. I have remembered the scenes of my child-hood I have thought of my father who is dead; who died by disease which was brought upon him through suffering by the hands of ruthless mobs. He was a great and a good man. The envy of knaves and fools was heaped upon him, and this was his lot and portion u all the days of his life. He was of noble stature, and possessed a high, and holy, and exalted, and a virtuous mind. His soul soared above all those mean [p. 179] and grovelling principles that are so subsequent to the human heart. I now say, that he never did a mean act that might be said was ungenerous, in his life, to my knowledge. I loved my father and his memory; and the memory of his noble deeds, rest with ponderous weight upon my mind; and many of his kind and parental words to v me, are written on the tablet of my heart. Sacred to me, are the thoughts which I cherish of the history of his life, that have rolled through my mind and has been implanted there, by my own observation since I was born. Sacred to me is his dust, and the spot where he is laid. Sacred to me is the tomb I have made to encircle o'er his head. ~~that~~ <Let> the memory of my

w father eternally live. ~~Let the faults, and the follies~~ Let his soul, or the Spirit my follies forgive. With him may I reign one day, in the mansions above; and tune up the Lyre of Anthems, of the eternal Jove. May the God that I love look down from above, and save me from my enemies here, and take me by the hand; that on Mount Zion I may stand and with my father crown me eternally there. Words and language, is inadequate to express the gratitude that I owe to God for having given me x so honorable a parentage. My mother also is one of the noblest, and the best of all women. May God grant to prolong her days, and mine; that we may live to enjoy each others society long yet in the enjoyment of liberty, and to breath the free air. Alvin my oldest brother, I remember well the pangs of sorrow that swelled my youthful bosom and almost burst my aching y <tender> heart, when he died. He was the oldest, and the noblest of my fathers family. He was one of the noblest of the sons of men: Shall his name not be recorded in this Book? Yes, Alvin; let it be had here, and be handed down upon these sacred pages, forever and ever. In him there was no guile. He lived without spot from the time he was a child. From the time of his birth, he never knew mirth. He was candid and sober and never would play; and minded his father, and mother, in toiling all day. He was one of the soberest of men and when he died the Angel of the Lord visited him in his last moments.

z These childish lines I record in remembrance of my child-hood scenes. My Brother Don Carloss [Carlos] Smith, whose name I desire to record also, was a noble boy. I never knew any fault in him. I never saw the first immoral act; or the first irreligious, or ignoble disposition in the child. From the time that he was born, till the time of his death; he was a lovely, a good natured, and a kind-hearted, and a virtuous and a faithful upright child. And where his soul goes let mine go also. He lays by the side aa of my father. Let my father, Don Carlos, and Alvin, and children that I have buried be brought and laid in the Tomb I have built. Let my mother, and my brethren, and my sisters be laid there also; and let it be called the Tomb of Joseph, a descendant bb of Jacob; and when I die, let me be gathered to the Tomb of my father. here are many souls, whom I have loved stronger than death; to them I have proved faithful; to them I [p. 180] am determined to prove faithful, untill God calls me to resign up my breath. O, thou who seeeth, and knoweth the hearts of all men; thou eternal, omnipotent, omniscient, and omnipresent Jehovah, God; thou Eloheem, that sitteth, as sayeth the psalmist, enthroned in heaven; look down upon thy servant Joseph, at this time; and let faith on the name of thy Son Jesus Christ, to a greater degree than thy servant ever yet has enjoyed, be conferred upon him; even the faith of Elijah; and let the Lamp of eternal life, be lit up in his heart, never to be taken away; and let the words of eternal life, be poured upon the soul of thy servant; that he may know thy will, thy statutes, and thy

cc commandments, and thy judgements to do them. As the dews upon Mount Hermon may the distillations of thy divine grace, glory and honor in the plenitude of thy mercy, and power and goodness be poured down upon the head of thy servant. O dd Lord God, my heavenly Father, shall it be in vain, that thy servant must needs be exiled from the midst of his friends; or be dragged from their bosoms, to clank in cold and iron chains; to be thrust within the dreary prison walls; to spend days of sorrow, and of grief and misery their [there], by the hand of an infuriated, insensed and infatuated foe; to glut their infernal and insatiable desire upon innocent blood; and for no other cause on the part of thy servant, than for the defence of innocence, ee and thou a just God will not hear his cry? O, no, thou wilt hear me; a child of woe, pertaining to this mortal life; because of sufferings here, but not for condemnation that shall come upon him in eternity; for thou knowest O God, the integrity of his heart. Thou hearest me, and I knew that thou wouldst hear me, and mine enemies shall not prevail; they all shall melt ff like wax before thy face; and as the mighty floods, and waters roar; so shall or as the billowing earth-quake's, devouring gulf; or rolling Thunders loudest peal; or vivid, forked lightnings flash; or sound of the Arch-Angels trump; or voice of the Eternal God, shall the souls of my enemies be made to feel in an instant, suddenly; and shall be taken, and ensnared; and fall back-wards, and stumble in the ditch they have dug for my feet, and the feet of my friends; and perish in their own infamy and shame,— be thrust down to an eternal hell, for their murderous and hellish deeds." [. .] [p. 181]

Letter to Newel K., Elizabeth Ann Smith, and Sarah Ann Whitney, 18 August 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a <Nauvoo August 18th. 1842>
 Dear, and Beloved, Brother [Newel K. Whitney] and Sister, [Elizabeth Ann Smith] Whitney, and &c. [Sarah Ann Whitney]—
 I take this oppertunity to communi[c]ate, some of my feelings, privetely at this time, which I want you three Eternaly to keep in your own bosams; for my feelings are so strong for you since what has pased lately between us, that the time of my absence from you seems so long, and dreary, that it seems, as if I could not live long in this way: and <if you> three would come and see me in this my lonely retreat, it would afford me great relief, of mind, if those with whom I am

- alied, do love me, now is the time to afford me succour, in the days of exile, for you know I foretold you of these things.
- b I am now at Carlos Graingers [Granger's], Just back of Brother Hyrams [Hyrum Smith's] farm, it is only one mile from town, the nights are very pleasant indeed, all three of <you> come <can> come and see me in the fore part of the night, let Brother Whitney come a little a head, and nock at the south East corner of the house at <the> window; it <is> next to the cornfield; I have a room intirely by myself, the whole matter can be attended to with most perfect saf[e]ty, I <know> it is the will of God that you should comfort <me> now in this time of affliction, or not all at all now is the time or never, but I hav[e] no kneed of saying any such thing, to you, for I know the goodness of your hearts, and that you will do the will
- c of the Lord, when it is made known to you; the only thing to be careful of; is to find out when Emma comes then you cannot be safe, but when she is not here, there is the most perfect safty: only be careful to escape observation, as much as possible, I know it is a heroick undertakeing; but so much the greater frendship, and the more Joy, when I see you I <will> tell you all my plans, I cannot write them on paper, burn this letter as soon as you read it, keep all locked up in your breasts, my life depends upon it, one thing I want to see you for is <to> get the fulness of my blessings sealed upon
- d our heads, &c. you will pardon me for my earnestness on <this subject> when you consider how lonesome I must be, your good feelings know how to <make> every allowance for me, I close my letter, I think Emma wont come to night if she dont dont fail to come to night, I subscribe myself your most obedient, <and> affectionate, companion, and friend.

Joseph Smith

Discourse, 29 August 1842

As Reported by William Clayton

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a "He had told them formerly about fighting the Missourians, and about fighting alone. He had not fought them with the sword nor by carnal weapons; he had done it by stratagem or by outwitting them, and there had been no lives lost, and there
- b would be no lives lost if they would hearken to his council. Up to this day God had given him wisdom to save the people who took council. None had ever been killed who abode by his council. At Hauns Mill the brethren went contrary to his council, if they had not there lives would have been spared. He has been in Nauvoo all the while, and outwitted Bennetts
- c associates and attended to his own business in the City all the time. We want to whip the world mentally and they will whip themselves physically. The brethren cant have the tricks played upon them that were done at Kirtland and Far-west, they have seen enough of the tricks of their enemies and know better". Orson Pratt has attempted to destroy himself,— caused
- d all the City almost to go in search of him. Is it not enough to put down all the infernal influence of the Devil what we have felt and seen, handled and evidenced of this work of God? But the Devil had influence among the Jews to cause the death of Jesus Christ by hanging between heaven and earth. O. P [Orson Pratt] and others of the same class caused trouble by telling stories to people who would betray me and 'they must believe these stories because his wife told him so'! I will live to
- e trample on their ashes with the soles of my feet. I prophecy in the name of Jesus Christ that such shall not prosper, they shall be cut down in their own plans. They would deliver me up Judas like, but a small band of us shall overcome. We dont want or mean to fight with the sword of the flesh but we will fight with the broad Sword of the spirit. Our enemies say our Charter and Writs of Habeus Corpus are worth nothing. We say they came from the highest authority in the States, and we will hold to them. They cannot be disannulled or taken away."
- f He then told the brethren what he was going to do, viz; to send all the Elders away and when the mob came there would only be women and children to fight and they would be ashamed, He said
- "I dont want you to fight but to go and gather tens, hundreds and thousands to fight for you. If oppression comes I will then shew them that there is a Moses and a Joshua amongst us; and I will fight them if they dont take off oppression from me,
- g I will do as I have done this time, I will run into the woods. I will fight them in my own way. I will send bro. Hyrum [Smith] to call conferences every where through-out the States, and let documents be taken along and show to the world the corrupt

h and oppressive <conduct> of [Lilburn W.] Boggs. [Thomas] Carlin and others, that the public may have the truth laid before i them. Let the Twelve send all who will support the character of the Prophet— the Lords anointed. And if all who go will support my character I prophecy in the name of the Lord Jesus whose servant I am, that you will prosper in your missions. I have the whole plan of the kingdom before me, and no other person has. And as to all that Orson Pratt, Sidney Rigdon or George W. Robinson can do to prevent me I can kick them off my heels, as many as you can name, I know what will become of them”. He concluded his remarks by saying “I have the best of feelings towards my brethren since this last trouble began, but to the apostates and enemies I will give a lashing every opportunity and I will curse them.”

Discourse, 31 August 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Grove, August 31st
- Pres^t Joseph Smith opened the meeting by addressing the Society. He commenced by expressing his happiness and thankfulness for the privilege of being present on the occasion. He said that great exertions had been made on the part of our enemies, but they had not accomplished their purpose— God had enabled him to keep out of their hands— he had war’d a good warfare inasmuch as he had whip’d out all of [John C.] Bennett’s host— his feelings at the present time were, that inasmuch as the Lord Almighty had preserv’d him today. He said it reminded him of the Savior, when he said to the pharisees, “Go ye and tell that fox, Behold I cast out devils, and I do cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I shall be perfected.” &c.
- He said he expected the heavenly Father had decreed that the Missourians shall not get him— if they do, it will be because he does not keep out of the way.
- c Pres^t S. continued by saying, I shall triumph over my enemies— I have begun to triumph over them at home and I shall do it abroad— all those that rise up against me will feel the weight of their iniquity upon their own heads— those that speak evil are abominable characters— and full of iniquity— All the fuss and all the stir against me, is like the jack in the lantern, it d cannot be found. Altho’ I do wrong, I do not the wrongs that I am charg’d with doing— the wrong that I do is thro’ the frailty of human nature like other men. No man lives without fault. Do you think that even Jesus, if he were here would be without fault in your eyes? Th[e]y said all manner of evil against him— they all watch’d for iniquity.
- e How easy it was for Jesus to call out all the iniquity of the hearts of those whom he was among? The servants of the Lord are required to guard against those thing[s] that are calculated to do the most evil— the little foxes spoil the vines— little evils do the most injury to the church. If you have evil feelings and speak of them to one another, it has a tendency to do mischievous— these things result in those evils which are calculated to cut the throats of the heads of the church.
- f When I do the best I can— when I am accomplishing the greatest good, then the most evils are got up against me. I would to God that you would be wise. I now counsel you, if you know any thing, hold your tongues, and the least harm will be done.
- g The Female Relief Society has taken the the most active part in my welfare— against my enemies— in petitioning to the Governor— These measures were all necessary— Do you not see that I foresaw what was coming beforehand, by the spirit of prophecy?— All had an influence in my redemption from the hand of my enemies.
- If these measures had not been taken, more serious consequences would have resulted.
- h I have come here to bless you. The Society has done well— their principles are to practice holiness— God loves you and your prayers in my behalf shall avail much— Let them not cease to ascend to God in my behalf. The enemy will never get weary— I expect he will array every thing against me— I expect a tremendous warfare. He that will war the christian i warfare will have the angels of devils and all the infernal powers of darkness continually array’d against him. When wicked and corrupt men oppose, it is a criterion to judge if a man is warring the christian warfare. When all men speak evil of you, blessed are ye &c. Shall a man be considered bad, when men speak evil of him? No: If a man stands and opposes the world of sin, he may expect all things array’d against him.

- j But it will be but a little season and all these afflictions will be turn'd away from us inasmuch as we are faithful and are not overcome by these evils. By seeing the blessings of the endowment rolling on, and the kingdom increasing and spreading from sea to sea; we will rejoice that we were not overcome by these foolish things.
- Pres^t. S. then remark'd that a few things had been manifested to him in his absence, respecting the baptisms for the dead, which he should communicate next sabbath if nothing should occur to prevent.
- k Pres^t. S. then address'd the throne of Grace.
- Pres^t. Emma Smith then rose and presented the following names, which were unanimously receiv'd to wit...
- Pres^t. J. S. remark'd that sis. Repshar had long since been advised to return to her husband— has been ascertain'd by good evidence that she left her husband without cause— that he is a moral man and a gentleman— she has got into a way of having revelations, but not the rev. of God— if she will go home we will pray for her, but if not our prayers will do no good.
- l Pres^t. S. said he had one remark to make respecting the baptism for the dead— to suffice for the time being, until he has opportunity to discuss the subject to greater length— that is, all persons baptiz'd for the dead must have a Recorder present, that he may be an eye-witness to testify of it. It will be necessary in the grand Council, that these things be testified— let it be attended to from this time, but if there is any lack it may be at the expense of our friends— they may not come forth &c.
- Prayer by br. [Erastus] Derby.
- Meeting adjourn'd...

Letter to “All the Saints in Nauvoo,” 1 September 1842 [D&C 127]

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

September 1st 1842

To all the saints in Nauvoo

Forasmuch as the Lord has revealed unto me that my enemies both of Mo [Missouri] & this State were again on the pursuit of me, and inasmuch as they pursue me without cause and have not the least shadow or coloring of justice or right on their side in the getting up of their prosecutions against me; and inasmuch as their pretensions are all founded in falsehood of the blackest die. I have thought it expedient and wisdom in me to leave the place for a short season for my own safety and the safety of this people. I would say to all those with whom I have business that I have left my affairs with agents and clerks who will transact all business in a prompt and proper manner and will see that all my debts are cancelled in due time, by turning out property or otherwise as the case may require, or as the circumstances may admit of. When I learn that the storm is fully blown over then I will return to you again. And as for the perils which I am called to pass through they seem but a small thing to me, as the envy and wrath of man has been my common lot all the days of my life and for what cause it seems mysterious, unless I was ordained from before the foundation of the world for some good end, or bad as you may choose to call it. Judge ye for yourselves, God knoweth all these things wether it be good or bad, but nevertheless deep water is what I am wont to swim in, it all has become a second nature to me and I feel like Paul to glory in tribulation for unto this day has the God of my fathers delivered me out of them all and will deliver me from henceforth for behold and lo I shall triumph over all my enemies for the Lord God hath spoken it.

Let all the saints rejoice therefore and be exceeding glad for Israels God is their God and he will meet [mete] out a just recompense of reward upon the heads of all your oppressors. And again verily thus saith the Lord let the work of my Temple and all the works which I have appointed unto you be continued on and not cease; and let your diligence and your perseverance and patience and your works be redoubled, and you shall in no wise lose your reward saith the Lord of Hosts. And if they persecute you so persecuted they the prophets and righteous men that were before you; for all this there is a reward in heaven.

And again I give unto you a word in relation to the Baptism for your dead. Verily thus saith the Lord unto you concerning your dead when any of you are baptised for your dead let there be a recorder, and let him be eyewitness of your baptisms; let him hear with his ears that he may testify of a truth, saith the Lord; that in all your recordings it may be recorded in Heaven, that whatsoever you bind on earth may be bound in heaven; whatsoever you loose on earth may be loosed in heaven; for I am about to restore many things to the Earth, pertaining to the Priesthood saith the Lord of Hosts. And again let all the Records be had in order, that they may be put in the archives of my Holy Temple to be held in remembrance from generation to generation saith the Lord of Hosts

I will say to all the saints that I desired with exceeding great desire to have addressed them from the stand on the subject of Baptism for the dead on the following sabbath but inasmuch as it is out of my power to do so I will write the word of the Lord from time to time on that subject and send it you by mail as well as many other things.—

I now close my letter for the present for the want of more time, for the enemy is on the alert and as the saviour said the prince of this world cometh but he hath nothing in me. Behold my prayer to God is that you all may be saved and I subscribe myself your servant in the Lord, prophet and seer of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints

Joseph Smith [1/2 page blank]

Mr W[illiam] Clayton

Nauvoo

Hancock Co

Ill

In Favor

Proverbs, between circa 11 August and circa 4 September 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a

Proverbs of Joseph

1st Never exact of a friend in adversity what you would requirre in prosperity

2d If a man prove himselfe to be honest in his deal, & an ememy come upon him wickedly, through fraud or false pretences and because he is Stronger than he maketh him his prisener and Spoil him with his Goods never Say unto that man in the day of his adversity pay him what thou owest, for if though [thou] doest it though [thou] addest a deeper wound and condemnation Shall come upon the[e]. and the richus [riches] shall be Justified in the days of thine adversity if they mock at the[e]

b

3rd Never afflict thy Soul for what an Enemy hath put it out of thy power to do, if thy Desieres are ever so Just

4th. Let thy hand never fale to hand out that that though [thou] owest which it is yet within thy Grasp to do So, but when thy Stock fails say to thy heart— be Strong and to thine anxieties cease. for Man what is he, he is but dong [dung] upon the Earth and all though he demand of the the cattle of an thousan[d] hills he cannot posess himselfe of his own Life God made him and thee and gave all things in common

c

5th. There is one thing under the Sun which I have learned and that is that the ritcheousness of man is Sinn, be cause it exacteth over Much neverless <nevertheless> the ritcheousness of God is Just because it exacteth nothing at all, but Sendeth the rain on the Just and the unjust Sead [seed] time and harvest for all of which Man is ungreatefull [1/2 page blank]

Letter to the Church, 7 September 1842 [D&C 128]

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Journeying Sep^r. 6th. [7th] 1842

To the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints Sendeth Greeting— As I stated to you in my letter before I left my place that I would write to you from time to time and give you information in relation to many subjects. I now resume the subject of the Baptism for the dead as that subject seems to occupy my mind and press itself upon my feelings the strongest since I have been pursued by my enemies. I wrote a few words of Revelation to you, concerning a Recorder. a I have received <had> a few additional feelings <views> in relation to this matter which I now Certify. i.e It was declared in my former letter that there should be a Recorder who should be eye-witness, and also to hear with his ears, that he might, make a Record of a truth before the Lord. Now in relation to this matter, it would be very difficult for one Recorder to be present at all times and to do all the business. To obviate this difficulty there can be a Recorder appointed in each ward of the City who is well qualified for taking accurate minutes and let him be very particular and precise in making his Record, in taking the whole proceeding certifying in his Record that he saw with his eyes, and heard with his ears, giving the date, and names &c, and the history of the whole transaction, nameing also some three individuals that are present if there be any present who can at any time when called upon certify to the same that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. Then let there be a general Recorder to whom these other records can be handed being attended with certificates over their own signatures Certifying that the Record which they have made is true Then the General Church Recorder can enter the Record on the general Church Book with the certificates and all the attending witnesses, with his own statement that he verily believes the above statement and records to be true from his knowledge of the general characters and appointment of those men by the Church. And when this is done on the general Church Book the Record shall be just as Holy and shall answer the ordinance just the same as if he had seen with his eyes and heard with his ears and made a record of the same on the general Book You may think this order of things to be very particular but let me tell you, that they are only to answer the will of God by conforming to the ordinance and preparation that the Lord ordained and prepared before the foundation of the world for the salvation of the dead who should die without a knowledge of the Gospel. And further, I want you to remember that John the Revelator was contemplating this very subject in relation to the dead when he declared as you will find recorded in Revelations Chap 20 v 12 And I saw the dead, small and great, ~~small an~~ stand before God: and the books were opened: and another Book was opened, which is the book of life; and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works You will discover in this quotation that the books were opened and another book was opened which was the book of life but the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books according to their works, consequently the books spoken off must be the books which contained the record of their ~~worht~~ works and refers to the records which are kept on the earth. And the book which was the book of life is the record which is kept in heaven; the principal agreeing precisely with the doctrine which is commanded you in the revelation contained in the letters which I wrote you previous to my leaving my place “that in all your recordings it may be recorded in Heaven”. Now the nature of this ordinance consists in the power of the priesthood by the Revelations of Jesus Christ wherein it is granted that whatsoever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatsoever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven: or in other words, taking a different view of the translation; whatsoever you record on earth shall be recorded in Heaven; and whatsoever you do not record on earth, shall not be recorded in Heaven, for out of the books shall ~~they be~~ <your dead be> judged according to their works ~~wither~~ whether they themselves have attended to the ordinances in their own propria persona, or by the means of their own agents according to the ordinance which God has prepared for their salvation from before the foundation of the world, according to the records which they have kept concerning their dead. It may seem to some to be a very bold doctrine that we talk of; a power which records, or binds on earth, and binds in heaven. Nevertheless, in all ages of the world whenever the Lord has given a dispensatin of the priesthood to any man, by actual Revelation or any set of men this power has always been given; hence, whatsoever those men did, in authority in the name of the Lord, and did, it truly, and faithfully, and kept a proper and faithful record of the same, it became a law on earth and in Heaven and could not be annulled according to the decrees of the great Jehovah. This is a faithful saying!., who can hear it? And again for a precedent Matthew chapter 16 verses 18 & 19 And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter: and upon this rock I will build my Church; and the Gates of Hell shall not prevail against it. And I will give unto thee the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven; and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in Heaven. Now the great and grand secret of the whole matter and the sum and bonnum of the whole subject that is lying before us consists in obtaining the powers of the Holy priesthood. For him, to whom these keys are given there is no difficulty in obtaining a knowledge of facts in relation to the salvation of the children of men, both as well for the ~~death~~ dead as for the living. Herein is glory, and honor, and immortality and eternal life. The ordinance of Baptism by water, to be immersed therein in order to answer to the likeness of the dead, that one principal might accord with the others. To be immersed in the water and come forth out of the water is in the likeness of the Resurrection of the dead in coming forth out of their graves; hence, this ordinance was instituted to form a relationship with the ordinance of Baptism for the dead, being in likeness of the dead. Consequently the Baptismal Font was instituted as a simile of the grave, and was commanded to be in a place underneath where the living are wont to assemble to shew forth the living and the dead; and that all things may have their likeness, and that they may accord one with another; that which is earthly, conforming to that which is heavenly as Paul hath declared 1 Corinthians Chapter 15 verses 46, 47 & 48 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural, and afterward that which is spiritual. The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven. As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. And as are the records on the earth in relation to your dead which are truly made out so also are the records in Heaven This therefore is the sealing and binding power, and in one sense of the word the keys of the kingdom which consists in the key of knowledge. And now my dearly and beloved brethren and sisters, let me assure you that there are principals in relation to the dead and the living that cannot be lightly passed over, as pertaining to our salvation; For their salvation is necessary and essential to our salvation see as Paul says concerning the fathers "That they without us can not be made perfect"; Neither can we without our dead be made perfect. And now in relation, to the baptism for the dead I will give you another quotation of Paul 1 Corinthians 15 chap— verses 29 "Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? Why are they then baptized for the dead." And again in connexion with this quotation I will give you a quotation from one of the Prophets which had his eye fixed on the restoration of the priesthood the glories to be revealed in the last days, and in an especial manner this most glorious of all subjects belonging to the everlasting gospel viz the baptism for the dead, for Malachi says last Chapter verses 5th & 6. ["Behold I will send you Elijah the Prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord: and he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse". I might have rendered a plainer translation to this, but it is sufficiently plain, to suit my purpose as it stands. It is sufficient to know in this case that the earth will be smitten with a curse, unless there is a welding link of some kind or other, between the fathers and the children, upon some subject or other. And behold, what is that subject. It is the baptism for the dead. For we without them cannot be made perfect; neither can they without us be made perfect. Neither can they, or us, be made perfect without those who have died in the gospel also; for it is necessary in the ushering in of the dispensation of the fulness of times; which dispensation is now beginning to usher in that a whole, and compleat, and perfect union, and welding together of dispensations and keys and powers and glories should take place, and be revealed from the days of Adam even to the present time; and not only this, but that those things which never have been revealed from the foundation of the world but have been kept hid from the wise and prudent shall be revealed unto babes and sucklings in this the dispensation of the fulness of times. Now what do we hear in the gospel which we have received? a voice of gladness! a voice of mercy from heaven! & a voice of truth out of the earth, glad tidings for the dead; A voice of gladness for the living and the dead; glad tidings of great joy; How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of those that bring glad tidings of good things; and that say unto Zion, behold! thy God reigneth as the dews of Carmel so shall the knowledge of God descend upon them. And again, what do we hear? Glad tidings from Cumorah! Moroni, An Angel from heaven, declaring the fulfilment of the prophets— the book to be revealed. A voice of the Lord in the wilderness of Fayette, Seneca County, declaring the three witnesses to bear record of the book. ~~A voice~~ The voice of Michael on the banks of the Susquehanna detecting the devil when he appeared as an Angel of light. The voice of Peter, James, and John in the wilderness between <Harmony> Susquehanna <County> and Colesville, Broom County; on the Susquehanna river, declaring themselves as possessing the keys of the kingdom, and of the dispensation of the fulness of times. And again, the voice of God in the chamber of old Father Whitmerss [Peter Whitmer Sr.'s] in Fayette, Seneca County and at sundry times, and in ~~sundry~~ <divers> places, through[ou]t all the travels, and tribulations, of this Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. And the voice of Michael the Archangel, the voice of Gabriel, and of Raphael, and of divers Angels from Michael or Adam, down to the present time; all declaring each one their dispensation, their rights, their keys, their honors, their majesty & glory, and the power of their priesthood; giving line upon line; precept upon precept; here a little and there a little. Giving us consolation by holding forth that which is to come and confirming our hope.

Brethren, shall we not go on in so great a cause Go forward and not backward. Courage brethren; and on—on to the victory. Let your hearts rejoice and be exceeding glad. Let the earth break forth into singing. Let the dead speak forth anthems of eternal praise to the king Immanuel; who hath ordained before the world was that which would enable us to redeem them out of their prisons; for the prisoner shall go free. Let the mountains shout for joy and all ye valleys cry aloud; and all ye Seas and dry lands tell the wonders of your eternal king. And ye rivers, and brooks, and rills, flow down with gladness. Let the woods, and all the trees of the field praise the Lord; and ye solid rocks, ~~leap~~ weep for joy. ~~And let all creation~~ And let the Sun, Moon and <the morning> Stars, ~~strike hands~~ <sing> together and let all the sons of God shout for joy. And let the eternal creations declare his name for-ever and ever. And again I say, how glorious is the voice we hear, from heaven proclaiming in our ears, glory, and salvation, and honor, and immortality and eternal life; kingdoms, principalities and powers. Behold, the great day of the Lord is at hand, and who can abide the day of his coming and who can stand when he appeareth for he is like a refiners fire and like fullers soap; and he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he shall purify the sons of Levi and purge them as Gold & silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness Let us therefore, as a church and a people, and as Latter Day saints, offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness. And let us, present in his Holy Temple when it is finished, a book, containing the Records of our dead, which shall be worthy of all acceptance.

Brethren, I have many things to say to you on the subject; but shall now close for the present and continue on the subject another time

I am as ever your <humble> servant and never deviating friend

Joseph Smith [3/4 page blank]

Will^m. Clayton
Nauvoo
Hancock Co
Ill—

Letter to James Arlington Bennet, 8 September 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

a <Nauvoo Sep. 2^d 1842>

Nauvoo Sep^r. 8th. 1842

Dear Sir—

b I have just received your very consoling letter dated August 16th. 1842; which, I think, is the first letter you ever addressed to me. In which you speak of the arrival of Dr W[illard] Richards, and of his person, very respectfully. In this, I rejoice for I am as warm a friend to D^r. Richards, as he possibly can be to me. And in relation to his almost making a Mormon of yourself, it puts me in mind of the saying of Paul in his reply to Agrippa Acts chapter 26 verse 29 “I would to God that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.” And I will here remark, my Dear Sir; that Mormonism, is the pure doctrine of Jesus Christ, of which I myself am not ashamed. You speak also, of Elder [Lucian R.] Foster, president of the Church in New York, in high terms; and of D^r. [John M.] Bernhisel of New York.

c These men I am acquainted, with, by information, and it warms my heart to know that you speak well of them; and as you say could be willing to associate with them forever, if you never join [illegible] their church, or acknowledged their faith. This,

d is a good principle for when we see virtuous qualities in men, we should always acknowledge them, let their understanding be what it may, in relation to creeds and doctrine; for all men are, or ought to be, free; possessing inalienable rights, and the high and noble qualifications of the laws of nature, and of self preservation; to think, and act, and say as they please while

e they maintain a due respect, to the rights, and privileges of all other creatures; infringing upon none. This doctrine, I do most heartily subscribe to, and practise; the testimony of mean men to the contrary, notwithstanding. But Sir, I will assure you, that my soul, soars far above all the mean, and grovelling dispositions of men, that are disposed to abuse me and my

f character; I therefore shall not dwell upon that subject. In relation to those men ~~the~~ you speak of, referred to above; I will only say, that there are thousands of such men in this church; who, ~~to be~~ <if a man is> found worthy to associate with, will call down the envy of a mean world, because of their high and noble demeanor; and it is with unspeakable delight, that I contemplate them as my friends and brethren. I love them with a perfect love; and I hope they love me, and have no reason to doubt but they do.

g The next in consideration, is John C. Bennett. I was, his friend, I am yet, his friend, as I feel myself bound to be a friend to all the sons of Adam, wether they are just or unjust; they have a degree of my compassion & sympathy. If he is my enemy, it is his own fault; and the responsibility rests upon his own head, and instead of ~~railing~~ <reigning> his character before h you; suffice it to say that his own conduct wherever he goes, will be sufficient to recommend him to an enlightened public, wether for a bad man, or a good man. Therefore, whosoever will associate themselves with him, may be assured that I will not persecute them; but I do not wish their association; and what I have said may suffice on that subject, so far as his character is concerned.

i Now in relation to his book, that he may write, I will venture a prophecy, that whoever has any hand in the matter, will find themselves in a poor fix, in relation to the money matters. And as to my having any fears of the influence that he may

j have against me, or any other man, or set of men may have is the most foreign from my heart; for I never knew what it was, as yet, to fear the face of clay, or the influence of man. My fear, Sir, is before God. I fear to offend him, and strive to keep his commandments. I am really glad that you did not join John C. in relation to his book; from the assurances which I have, that it will prove a curse to all those who touch it.

k In relation to the honors that you speak of, both for yourself, and for Mr J. G. [James Gordon] Bennett of the Herald, you are <both> strangers to me; and as John C. Bennett kept all his letters which he received from you, entirely to himself; and there was no correspondence between you and me that I knew of, I had no opportunity to share very largely, in the getting up of l any of those matters. I could not, as I had not sufficient knowledge to enable me to do so. The whole therefore, was at the instigation of John C. Bennett, and a quiet submission on the part of the rest, out of the best of feelings. But as for myself it was all done at a time when I was overwhelmed with a great many business cares, as well as the care of all the churches. I must be excused therefore for any wrongs that may have taken place, in relation to this matter. And so far as I obtain a m knowledge of that which is right, shall meet with my hearty approval. I feel to tender you my most hearty & sincere thanks for every expression of kindness you have tendered toward me or my brethren, and would beg the privilege of obtruding myself a little while upon your patience in offering a short relation of my circumstances. I am at this time persecuted the worst of any man on the earth; as well as this people, here in this place; and all our sacred rights, are trampled under the feet of the mob. I am now hunted as an hart by the mob, under the pretense, or shadow of law, to cover their abominable deeds.

n An unhallowed demand has been made from the Governor of Missouri on oath of Governor [Lilburn W.] Boggs, that I made an attempt to assassinate him, on the night of the sixth of May, when on that day <and on the seventh> it is well known <that I was attending the officers drill and answered to my name when the roll was called> by the thousands that assembled here in Nauvoo, that I was at my post in reviewing the Nauvoo Legion in the presence of twelve thousand people; and the Gov. of the State of Illinois <notwithstanding his being> knowing to all these facts, <yet he> immediately granted a writ, o and by an unhallowed usurpation, has taken away our chartered rights, and denied the right of Habeus Corpus; and <I am informed> has now about thirty of the most blood-thirsty kind of men <from Missouri now on their way to> in this place in search for me, threatening death, and destruction, and extermination upon all the Mormons; and searching my house almost continually from day to day, menacing, and threatening, and intimidating an innocent wife and children; and insulting them in a most diabolical manner, threatening their lives &c, if I am not to be found; with a gang of Missourians with them, saying, they will have me dead or alive, and if alive, they will carry me to Missouri in chains; and when there, they will kill me at all p hazards. And all this is backt up, and urged on, by the Gov. of this State, with all the rage of a demon, putting at defiance the constitution of this State— our chartered rights, and the constitution of the United States; for not as yet, have they done one thing that was in accordance to them; while all the citizens of this city, en masse, have petitioned the Governor with

q remonstrances, and overtures, that would have melted the heart of an adamant, to no effect. And at the same time, if any of us open our mouths, to plead our own cause, in the defence of law and justice, with <we> are instantly threatened with Militia & extermination Great God! When shall the oppressor cease to prey and glut itself upon innocent blood. Where is patriotism? Where is liberty? Where is the boast of this proud, and haughty nation? O humanity! where hast thou fled? hast thou fled <forever.>

r I now appeal to you, sir, inasmuch as you have subscribed yourself our friend; will you lift your voice, and your arm, with indignation, against such unhallowed oppression? I must say sir, that my bosom swells, with unutterable anguish, when I contemplate the scenes of horror that we have passed through in the State of Missouri and then look, and behold, and see the storm, and cloud, gathering ten times blacker— ready to burst upon the heads of this innocent people. Would to s God that I were able to throw off the yoke. Shall we bow down and be slaves? Is there no friends of humanity, in a nation that boasts itself so much? Will not the Nation rise up and defend us? If they will not defend us, will they not grant, to lend a voice of indignation, against such unhallowed oppression? Must the tens of thousands bow down to slavery and degradation? Let the pride of the nation arise, and wrench these shackles from the feet of their fellow citizens; and their quiet

t and peaceable, and innocent and loyal subjects. But I must forbear, for I cannot express my feelings. The Legion, would all willingly die in the defence of their rights; but what would this accomplish? I have kept down their indignation, and kept a quiet submission on all hands, and am determined to do so, at all hazards. Our enemies shall not have it to say, that we rebel against government, or commit treason; however much they may lift their hands in oppression, and tyranny, when it comes u in the form of Government. We tamely submit, although it lead us to the slaughter, and to beggary; but our blood be upon their garments, and those who look tamely on, and boast of patriotism shall not without their condemnation. And if men are such fools, as to let once, the precedent be established, and through their prejudices, give assent, to such abomination, then let the oppressors hand lay heavily throughout the world, untill all flesh shall feel it together; and untill they may know, that

v the Almighty takes cognizance of such things; and then shall church rise up against church; and party against party; mob against mob; oppressor against oppressor; army against army; and kingdom against kingdom; and people against people; and kindred against kindred. And where, sir, will be your safety, or the safety of your children. If my children can be led to the slaughter with impunity, by the hands of murderous rebels; will they not lead yours to the slaughter, with the same w impunity? Ought not then, this oppression Sir, to be checked in the bud; and to be look'd down, with just indignation by an enlightened world; before the ~~flame~~ <fire> become unextinguishable, and, the fire devours the stubble. But again I say, I x must forbear; and leave this painful subject. I wish you would write to me in answer to this and let me know your views. On my part, I am ready to be offered up a sacrifice, in that way that can bring to pass, the greatest benefit, and good, to those who must necessarily be interested, in this important matter. ~~I have dictated this letter, while my clerk is writing for me;~~ and I would to God that you could know all my feelings on this subject and the real facts in relation to this people, and their unrelenting persecution. And if any man, feels an interest in the welfare of their fellow-beings, and would think of saying or doing any thing in this matter, I would suggest the propriety of a committee of wise men being sent, to ascertain the justice or injustice of our cause to get in possession of all the facts; and then make report to an enlightened world, whether we individually, or collectively, are deserving such high-handed treatment.

y In relation to the books that you sent here, John C. Bennett put them into my store, to be sold on commission saying, that when I were able, the money must be remitted to yourself. Nothing was said about any consecration to the Temple.

z Another calamity has befallen us; our Post Office in this place is exceedingly corrupt. It is with great difficulty that we can get our letters to or from our friends. Our letters are broken open and robbed of their contents— Our papers that we send to our subscribers, are embezzled, and burned or wasted. We get no money from our subscribers, and very little information from abroad; and what little we do get, we get by private means, in consequence of these things. And I am sorry to say, that this robbing of the Post Office— of money was carried on by John C. Bennett, and since he left here, it is carried on by the means of his confederate

I now subscribe myself your friend, and a patriot and lover of my country, pleading at their feet for protection, and deliverance by the justice of their constitutions. I add no more. Your most obedient servant.

Joseph Smith.

P. S. I have dictated this letter while my clerk is writing for me

Discourse, 25 September 1842

As Reported by David Moore

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Meeting being now open he [Joseph Smith] arose and said that he felt to prophesy some this morning as he had of late been obliged to keep out of sight on account of his unrelenting persecutors, he therefore felt to say to the people, that inasmuch as they would keep the Commandment of God, they should never be drove from their habitations in Nauvoo, but that he would not promise that they would not be coaxed to leave.

Notice, 15 November 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

VALEDICTORY.

I beg leave to inform the subscribers of the Times and Seasons that it is impossible for me to fulfil the arduous duties of the editorial department any longer. The multiplicity of other business that daily devolves upon me, renders it impossible for me to do justice to a paper so widely circulated as the Times and Seasons. I have appointed Elder John Taylor, who is less encumbered and fully competent to assume the responsibilities of that office, and I doubt not but that he will give satisfaction to the patrons of the paper. As this number commences a new volume, it also commences his editorial career.

JOSEPH SMITH.

Letter to “Hands in the Stone Shop,” 21 December 1842

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a

Nauvoo Dec^r. 21— 1842

To the hands in the Stone Shop.
Whereas, an appeal has been made to me as Sole Trustee in Trust for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints for a decision in relation to sundry matters in regulating the stone cutting &c. &c. by the Temple Committee. I have duly considered their complaints, and heard all their arguments in relation to the matter, and am satisfied that a proper deference has not been paid to their high standing by some or many of the hands in the stone Shop. And further, that their policy in relation to the Pork, and Beef, and Provisions, is for the furtherance of the building of the Temple, in the ultimatum thereof.
- b

These are therefore to advise you, to submit patiently to their economy, and instructions; and that we, with one accord—with united feelings, submit patiently to the yoke that is laid upon us, and thereby secure the best interests, to the Temple of the most High God, that our limited circumstances can possibly admit of; and then having done all on our part, that great Eloheem, who has commanded us to build an house shall abundantly bless us, and reward us for all our pains.
I am sirs, your sincere friend and brother and fellow sufferer in the bonds of the great work.
Joseph Smith, Sole Trustee in Trust for the church

1843

Orson Pratt

Introduction to 1843

sdf

Discourse, 6–8 April 1843

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a ...Elder O[rson] Pratt. read 7 chapter Daniel. ~~from~~ 9^[th] verse.— &^c,
The 2^d advent of the Son of God is a subject which occupies the attention of the people. of this day. the Latter day Saints belive he will come at least 1000 years before the final consummation.— Millerit[e]s belive he will make his 2^d advent in a few months, but they will find themselves mistaken. . . .
- b mistaken as they are good will coome out of the investigation. it will arouse the attention of multitudes to an the faccts as they exist or will open the minds of the people to the truth when it shall be proclaimed by the elders of Israel. . . . They belive that the stone is not to strike the image on his feet till the 2^d advent. & a kingdom will come direct from heaven.— we belive god will not destroy the kingdoms of the earth till. he has set <up> his own kingdom.
- c Do Millerites look for more revalation? No! they raise the midnight cry but does not tell the people what to do. Latter D[ay] S[aints] <are the> most reasonable.— & the most inteletet [intelligent] of any people on the face of the whole earth.— I have tried <them> 13 years.— <I had as> lives worship a horrs [horse] or a stump as a God who gives no instruction to his people.
- d Ancient of Days.— one came to the Ancient of Days— Many suppose this was the son. after jud[g]ment. sat son of man comes to Ancient of Days. the most Ancient man of God that lived in days. else he could not have been the Ancient of Days. Father Adam is to come, and organize a great Council to prepare for the coming of the 2^d advent— Jesus comes to the Ancient of Days
- e <we beleive in. . . .> Miracl[s]. & they do not.— Angels— <will come <a[nd]> the> heavens <will be> opened send fo[r]th Angels.— to prepare the earth for Christs 2^d Coming one man thinks he is authorizd to call on men to repent. &c— I defy any one to scan the errors of any genraations. without revelations.
- f Resurrection. . . . <of the body is denyed> by many because it is contrary to the law<s> of nature. because. flesh & bones are constantly changing— completely oncee in 7 or 10 years. . . . if this is true a man in 70 years would have matter enough for 10 diffint [different] bodies. objectors says this resurrection cannot be true. for if so. men would be quarreling which body belong[s] to himself & othe[r]s.—
- g who shall have the best right to it. I do not beleive that more than $\frac{3}{4}$ of our bodies is composed of animal organizati[o]n. but is purely vegetable, hence through all the 70 years a man will have one or two parts. which will be the same original.— if he receives the matter if of the is <was> in possession of 50 years before he died— he is has the same bady [body].—
- h the people living in  the house. are the occupants of the house. & the house though repaired all though [through?] its diff[er]ent parts & from time to time even to new timbers throughout, yet. it is said to be the same house still—...

Joseph Smith

Introduction to 1843

sdf

Discourse, 17 January 1843

As Reported by Wilford Woodruff

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Br Joseph spoke to some length on the kingdom of God & the Baptism of John, he said the kingdom of God was set upon the earth in all ages from the days of Adam to the presant time whenever there was a man on earth who had authority to Administar the ordinances of the gospel or a priest of God & unto such a man God did reveal his will concerning the
- b Baptism of John it was the Baptism of repentance unto remission of sins for the receiving of the Holy Ghost & it was the gospel Baptism, These were questions which had been in debate for many years & in some degree among the Saints, He also spoke upon the subject of honor & dishonor &c

Discourse, 22 January 1843

As Reported by Wilford Woodruff

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a some say the kingdom of God was not set up on earth untill the day of pentecost & that John did not preach the Baptism of repentance for the remission of sins But I say in the name of the Lord that the kingdom of God was set upon the earth from the days of Adam to the present time whenever there has beein a righteous man on earth unto whom God revealed his
- b word & gave power & authority to administer in his name: And whare there is a Priest of God, a minister who has power & authority from God to administer in the ordinances of the gospel & officiate in the Priesthood of God, there is the kingdom of God & in consequence of rejecting the gospel of Jesus Christ & the Prophets whom God hath sent, the judgments of God hath rested upon people cities & nations in various ages of the world, which was the case with the cities of Sodom & gomoroah who were destroyed for rejecting the Prophets. Now I will give my testimony I care not for man I speak boldly & faithfully & with authority. How is it with the kingdom of God, whare did the kingdom of God begin, whare their is no kingdom of God there is no salvation. What constitutes the kingdom of God

Whare there is a prophet a priest, or a righteous man unto whom God gives his oracles there is the kingdom of God, & whare the oracles of God are not there the kingdom of God is not, In these remarks I have no allusion to the kingdoms of the earth, we will keep the Laws of the Land, we do not speak against them we never have, & we can hardly make mention of the State of Missouri of our persecutions there &c but what the cry goes forth that we are guilty of larceny Bur[g]lary, arson treason & murder &c &c which is fals, we speak of the kingdom of God on the earth not the kingdoms of mem [men], The plea of many in this day is that we have no right to receive revelations, But if we do not get revelations we do not have the oracles of God & if they have not the oracles of God they are not the people of God But say you what will become of the world or the various professors of religion who do not believe in revelation & the oracles of God as continued to his Church in all ages of the world when he has a people on earth, I tell you in the name of Jesus Christ they will be damned & whan you get into the eternal world you will find it to be so thay cannot escape the damnation of hell

As touching the gospel & Baptism that John preached I would say that John came preaching the gospel for the remission of Sins he had his authority from God & the oricles of God were with him & the kingdom of [God?] for a season seemed to rest <be> with John alone. The Lord promised Zecheriah that he should have a son, which was a desendant of Aaron & the Lord promised that the priesthood should continue with Aaron & his seed throughout their generations, Let no man take this honour upon himself except he be called of God as was Aaron, & Aaron received his call by Revelation. An angel of God Also appeared unto Zecheriah while in the Temple that he should have a son whose name should be John & he should be filled with the Holy Ghost Zechoriah was a priest of God & officiating in the Temple & John was a priest after his fathe[r] & held the keys of the aronic priesthood & was Called of God to preache the Gospel & the kingdom of God & the Jews as a nation having departed from the Law of God & the gospel the Lord prepared the way for transfering it to the gentiles

But says one the kingdom of God could not be set up in the days of John for John said the kingdom was at hand But I would ask if it could be any nearer to them than to be in the hands of John, the people need not wait for the days of Pentecost to find the kingdom of God for John had it with him, & he came forth from the wilderness crying out repent ye for the kingdom of heaven is at hand as much as to baul out here I have got the kingdom of God & I am coming after you, Ive got the kingdom of God & you can get it & I am coming after you & if you dont receive it you will be damned & the scriptures represant that all Jerrusalem went out unto Johns Baptism Here was a legal administrator, & those there that were baptized were subjects for a king & also the laws & oracles of God were there therefore the kingdom of God was there, for no man could have better authority to Administer than John & our Savior submitted to that authority himself by being Baptized By John therefore the kingdom of God was set up upon the earth even in the days of John their is a differance between the kingdom of God & the fruits & blessings that flow from that kingdom becaus their was more miracles gifts visions healings, tongues &c in the days of Jesus Christ & the Apostles & on the day of pentecost that under Johns Administration, it does not prove by any means that John had not the kingdom of God; any more than it would that a woman had not a milk pan because she had not a pan of milk, for while the pan might be compared to the kingdom the milk might to be compared to the blessings of the kingdom. John was a priest after the order of Aaron & had the keys of that priesthood & came forth preaching repentance & Baptism for the remission of sins but at the same time crys out there cometh one after me more might[i]er than I the latches of whose shoes I am not worthy to unlo[o]se, & Christ came according to the words of John, & he was greater than John because he held the keys of the Melchisedic Priesthood & the kingdom of God & had before revealed the priesthood to Moses, yet Christ was baptisd by John to fulfill all righteousness & Jesus in his teaching says upon this rock I will build my Church & th[e] gatas [gates] of hell shall not prevail against it what rock, Revelation Again he says except ye are born of the water & the spirit ye cannot inter into the kingdom of God, And though the heavens & earth should pass away my words shall not pass away If a man is born of the water & the spirit he can get into the kingdom of God it is evident the kingdom of God was on the earth & John prepared subject for kingdom by preaching the gospel to them & Baptising them & he prepared the way to before the Savior or came as a forerunner & prepared subject for the preaching of Christ, & &c Christ preached through Jerrosalem on the same ground whare John had preached & when the Apostles were raised up they worked in Jerrusalem & Jesus commanded them to tarry there untill they were endowed with power from on high had thay not work to do in Jerrusalem, they did work & prepared a people for the pentecost The kingdom of God was with them before the day of pentecost as well as afterwords & it was all also with John & he preached the same gospel & Baptism that Jesus & the Apostles preachng after him The endowment was to prepare the desiples for their mission into the world. Whenever man can find out the will of God & find an Administrator legally authorized from God there is the kingdom of God but whare those are not, the kingdom of God is not All the ordinances systems, & Administrations on the earth is of no use to the Children of men unless they are ordained & authorized of God for nothing will save a man but a leger [legal] Administrator for none others will be acknowledge either by God or Angels

I know what I say, I understand my mishion & business God Almighty is my shield & what can man do if God is my

s friend I shall not be sacrafised untill my time comes then I shall be offered freely, all flesh is as grass & a governor is no better than other men when he dies he is but a bag of dung I thank God for preservi[n]g me from my enemies I have no en[e]mies I have no desire but to do all men good I feel to pray for all men we dont ask any people to throw away any good they have got we ownly ask them to come & get more what if all the world should embrace this gospel they would then see eye to eye & the blessings of God would be poured out upon the people which is my whol soul Amen.

As Reported by William Clayton

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Sunday 22 This A. M. Joseph preached in the Temple. subject arose from two questions proposed from <at> a Lyceum. 1st. Did John Baptize for remission of sins? 2nd. Wether the kingdom of God was set up before the day of Pentecost or not till then?
To the 1st. Q. he <I> answered, “he did”
- b It is acknowledged of all men that John preached the gospel— & must have preached the 1st. principle, if so he must have preached the doctrine of Baptism for the remission of sins for that is the first principal of the Gospel and was ordained before the foundation of the world. I next give my own testimony because I know it from God.
- c On the 2nd. question. He <I> said [“]Where the oracles of God are revealed there is the kingdom of God Wherever the oracles of God are & subjects to obey those oracles there is the Kingdom of God What constitutes the Kingdom of God?— an administrator who has the power of calling down the oracles of God, and subjects to recieve those Oracles no matter if there are but 3— 4 or 6 there is the kingdom of God &c.”

As Reported by Franklin D. Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

Joseph’s words <1843> No Generation was ever saved or destroyed upon dead testimony neither can be; but by Living Wherever the Oracles of God are recieved & found there is the Kingdom of God
The Kingdom of Heaven was set up before the days of Christ

Letter to Editor, 23 January 1843

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

To the Editor of The Wasp:—

Dear Sir: I have, of late, had repeated solicitations to have something to do in relation to the political farce about dividing the county; but as my feelings revolt at the idea of having any thing to do with politics, I have declined in every instance in having any thing to do on the subject. I think it would be well for politicians to regulate their own affairs. I wish to be let alone, that I may attend strictly to the spiritual welfare of the church.

Please insert the above and oblige

JOSEPH SMITH.

Nauvoo, Jan. 23, 1843.

Discourse, 29 January 1843

As Reported by Willard Richards—A

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a I feel thankful to Almighty God. for the privilege of stanndig [standing] before you this mor[n]ing it is necessary that the hearers should have good & honest heart as well as the speakers I rise to address you on the important subjct. of the Prodagal Son
- 2 Items I wish— to notice Last sabbath.— 2 questions saying of Jesus concerning John. a greater prophet. than Jonh [John].
- b 2,— least in the kingdom of God Greater than he.— some so blind they wont see. I dont expect I can wo[r]k mira[c]les enough to open greatest propht. what constitudd him.— no prop[h]et, if do no miracles John did no miracles.—
- c How is it John was considerd one of the Greatest of Prophe[t]s? 3 things
1st. he was trusted with a divine missoin [mission] of preparing the way before the face of the Lord.— [blank] Trust before or since? no man!—
2^d. He was trusted & it was reqird at his ha[n]ds to baptize the son of Man. who evr did that? who had so gr[e]at a privelige & glory?—

d son of God into the waters of baptism & beholding the Holy Ghost.— in <in the sign> the form of a dove.— [blank]— [blank] with the sign of the dove. institutd before the creation Devil could not come in sign of a dove.— Holy Gh[o]st is a personage in the form of a personage.— does not confine itself to form of a dove.— but in sign of a dove.— No man holds the book more sacred than I do.—

e 3^d. John at that time was the only legal admini[s]trator holding the keys of Power thr [there] was on Earth.
the keys the kingdm the power the glory from the Jews son of Zachari[a]h by the holy anoi[n]ting decree of heaven these 3 constitud him the greatest born of woman.
He that is least. in the Kingdom is gre[a]ter than he? who did the Jesus have refere[n]ce to?— Jesus. was looked up[o]n as the having the least claim in all gods kingdom.—
He that is considered the least among you. is greater than John! that is myself.—

f anothr qestin [question], Law. & prophts were until John. since which time the kingdom of heaven is preaching preached & all men pass into it.—
additional proof— to what I offered you on the last sabbath. that that was the beginn[in]g of the Kingdom Prodigal Son.— when you have heard go & read your bible. if the things are not verily true.—

g great deal of speculation. Subject I never dwelt upon.— understood by many— to to one of the intricate subjects.—
Elders in this church preach.— no rule of interpretation.— what is the rule of interpretati[o]n? Just no interpretati[o]n at all.
understand precisely as it read.— I have Key by whi[c]h I understa[n]d the scripture— I enquire [inquire] what was the question whi[c]h drew out the answer.—

h nati[o]nal. Ab[r]aham. &^c as some suppose 1st. place dig up the root— what drew out the saying out of Jesus? Pharises & scribes murmured? this man recevess [receives] sinners & eatheth with them. this is the key word.— to answer the murmuring & qustioning of Saducees & Pharisee how is it this man <is> as great as he pretends to be. & eat with publican
i & sinners.— Jesus not put to it so but he could have found something if he had discerned it for nations.— Men in an individaul capacity. all straining on this point is a bubblee.— Boy <Boyy> say ought to be hanged can tell it to you.
big folks Presbyterins. Methodists. Baptists &c. [blank] despise the ignorance & abomination of this world.—

j this man reciveth sinners— he spoke this parable.— what man of you having an hundrd. sheep <&^c> 100 saducees & Pharisees If you pharisees & saduces [Saducees] are in the sheepfold. I have no mission for you sent to look up sheep that are lost will back him up.— & make joy in heaven— hunting after a few individuals Laying it on his Shoulder— one publican k you despise.— [blank] one piece of Silver— the piece which was lost.— Joy in presence of the angels over one sinner that repe[n]teth so righteous they will be damned any how you cannot save them. rain off f[r]om a gooses back— G[r]eat I. little you—certain man had two sons.— &^c l am a poor publican a sinner— humble themselves. spending their bread. & living— &^c Ill return to my fathrs house. to Jesus you pharises so righteous you cannot be touched.— I will arise &^c— claim not be a pharisee or saducee. I claim not to be a son do not let me starve— nothing about. Eph[r]aim Abraham— is not mentind [mentioned]. all that is meet. is brought m to bear upon the pharisee. saducee. the publican & sinner, Eldst son, pharisees & Saducees murmuring & complaini[n]g.—

because Jesus sat with publicns & Sinners— father came out & entreated when John came baptizd all. when Jesus came they were angry & would not go in. [blank] dealing of God with individuals men always Righteous always have access to throne of God— eats in his fathers house If we interpret this to nationl. view. where is the eldest son?—

n likend the kingdom to an old womans milkpan— how could Jesus take the kingdom f[r]om them who bore no fruit & give it to another.— is an apple tree no longer a tree because it has no apples? parable of Prodigal son spoken to illustrate the sinner in— from the mome[n]t John's voice was fir[s]t heard. he was the person on the earth entitld to salvation. on the earth.

o Servants of God of the last day, my[s]elf & them I have ordaind. have the pristhood & a mission— to the publicans. & sinners.— & if the Presbyterins & [blank] are in the kingdom if they are not righteous— what is the result. they are sinners & if they rej[e]ct our voice they shall be damnded.

p If a man was going to hell I would not let any man disturb him.—
while we will be the last to oppress. we will be the last to be driven from our post.— peace. be still. bury the hatchet & the sword.— the sound of war is dredfull in my ear. any man who will not fight for his wife & childrn is a coward & a bastard Mahometans. Presbyteria[n]s. &^c if ye will not embrace our religion embrace our hospitalities.— [15 lines blank]

As Reported by Franklin D. Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a the next sabbath he (Joseph) asked and answered
 - 1st How was John the greatest prophet ever born of a woman
 - 2nd How ~~was~~ Christ is the least in the Kingdom greater than he
- b Ans to 1st His greatness consisted in 3 things
 - 1st His appointment to prepare the way before the Lord Jesus Christ
 - 2nd His privilege to Baptise him or induct him into his Kingdom
- c 3^d His being the only legal administrator in the affairs of the Kingdom that was then on the Earth consequently the Jews had to obey his instruction or be damned by their own Law & Christ fulfilled all righteousness in becoming obedient to the Law which himself had given to Moses on the mount and thereby magnified it and made it honorable instead of destroying it
- d Ans to 2nd Query Christ was least in the Kingdom in their estimation or least entitled to their credulity as a Prophet but was in Truth greater than John
The Holy Ghost cannot be transformed into a Dove but the sign of a Dove was given to John to signify the Truth of the Deed as the Dove was an emblem or Token of Truth—

As Reported by Willard Richards–B

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a ...On one of these occasions I heard him preach concerning the prodigal son. After naming his text, the prophet remnrked, that some one had asked him the meaning of the expression of Jesus, “among those born of woman there has not arisen a greater than John,” and said he had promised to answer it in public, and he would do it then.
- b “It could not have been on account of the miracles John performed, for he did no mirracles; but it was, first, because he was trusted with a divine mission, of preparing the way before the face of the Lord. Who was trusted with such a mission, before or since? No man.
- c Second, He was trusted, and it was required at his hands, to baptise the son of man. Who ever did that? Who ever had so great a privilege or glory? Who ever led the Son of God into the waters of baptism, beholding the Holy Ghost descend upon him in the sign of the Dove? No man.
- d Third, John, at that time, was the only legal administrator, holding the keys of power, there was on earth: The keys, the kingdom, the power, the glory, had departed from the Jews; and John, the son of Zachariah, by the holy anointing, and decree of heaven, held the keys of power at the time.”

V.

Instruction, 9 February 1843 [D&C 129]

As Reported by William Clayton

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

Thursday 9 . . . P. M At Josephs with O[rson] & P[arley] P. Pratt & others. Pres^t Joseph related some of his history and gave us a key whereby we might know wether any administration was from God.

“There are two kinds of beings in heaven viz. <1^{s[t]}> Angels who are resurrected personages having bodies of flesh and bones, for instances Jesus said ‘handle me and see for a spirit hath not flesh and bones as ye see me have[’] 2nd. The spirits of just men made perfect, they who are not resurrected but inherit the same glory. When a messenger comes saying he has a message from God offer him your hand and request him to shake hands with you. If he be an Angel he will do so and you will feel his hand. If he be the spirit of a just man made perfect he will come in his glory for that is the only way he can appear. Ask him to shake hands with you, but he will not move, because it is contrary to the order of Heaven for a just man to deceive but he will still deliver his message
If it be the devil as an angel of light when you ask him to shake hands he will offer you his hand and you will not feel any thing, you may there fore detect him. These are the three grand keys whereby you may know wether any administration is from God.”

pres. Joseph also shewed from various circumstances that any man who would seek after a sign was an adulterer and mentioned several instances wherein he had detected men.

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Thursday Feb 9. 1843 . . . Parley [P.] Pratt & othe[r]s came in & Joseph explai[ne]d the followi[n]g there are 3 adminitater [administrators] Angels. Spirits Devils— one class in heaven Angels the spir[i]ts of Ju[s]t men made perfect.— innumerable co[mpany] of angels & Spirits of Ju[s]t Men made perf[e]ct.

An angel appears to you how will you prove him. ask him to shake hands if he has flesh & bones— he is an Angel. “spirit hath not fl[e]sh & bones”

- b spirit of a Ju[s]t man made perf[e]ct. person in its tabernacle could hide its glory.
if David [W.] Patten or the Devil came. how would you determi[n]e should you take hold of his hand you would not feel it. if it were a false administrtin he would not do it.
true spirit will not give his hand
the Devil will. 3 Keys—
- c a man came to me in Kirtland & told me he had seen an angel dressed so & so. I told him he had seen no angel there was no such dress in heaven he got mad & went out in the street & commanded fire to come down out of heaven & consume me I laughed at him & told him he was one of Baals prophets his God did not not hear him. Jump up & cut yourself— & he comma[n]de[d] fire f[r]om heaven to consume my house.—
- d when I was preaching in Philadelphia a quaker wanted a sign— I told him to be still. after sermon he wanted a sign. I told the congregati[o]n the man was an adulterer, “A wicked & adulterous geneatin [generation].” & the Lord to me in a revelation that any man who. wantd a sign was adulteros person.— “It is true[”] said one for I caught him in the very act.— which he afterwards confessed when he was baptized

Discourse, 11 February 1843

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Mayor Made his Inaugural Address— & <in which he> urged the necessity of the city council acting upon the principle of liberality & of relievi[n]g the city f[r]om all unnecessary expences & burthens. Not to attempt to improve the city but enact such laws as will promote peace & good order. & the people will improve the city, capitalist will come in from all quarters &
- b mills factories. & machinery of all kinds & buildings will arise on every hand this will become a great city. & prophecid that if the council would be liberal in their proceedings they would become rich.— & spoke at considerable length again[s]t the principle of pay for every little service rendered and espec[i]ally that of committe[e]s having extra pay.— for services— & reproved the Judges of the late Election for not holding the poll open after 6 o clock when there were many wishing to vote.—

Letter to Editor, circa 15 February 1843

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

a Mr. Editor,—Sir, ever since I gave up the editorial department of the “Times and Seasons,” I have thought of writing a piece for publication, by way of valedictory, as is usual when editors resign the chair editorial. My principal remarks I intended to apply to the gentlemen of the quill, or, if you please, that numerous body of respectable gentlemen who profess to regulate the tone of the public mind, in regard to politics, morality, religion, literature, the arts and sciences, &c. &c. viz.
b the editors of the public journals; or, if you please, I will designate them, the lions of the forest. This latter cognomen sir, I consider to be more appropriate, because of the dignity of their office, their lofty bearing and mein, their ascendancy and influence over all others, and because of the tremendous noise that they make when they utter their voice.

c It came to pass that as I went forth like a young fawn, one day, to feed upon the green grass in my pasture, an ass saw me, and brayed, and made a great noise; which a neighboring lion hearing roared, even as a lion roareth when he beholds his prey: at the sound of his voice the beasts of the field were alarmed, and the lions in the adjoining jungles pricked their ears and roared in their turn; and behold all the lions of the forest, alarmed by the noise, opened their mouths and uttered forth their voice which was as the roaring of a cataract, or as the voice of thunder; so tremendous was their roaring that the trees of the forest shook, as if they were shaken by a mighty wind; and all the beasts of the forest trembled, as if a whirlwind were d passing. I lifted up mine eyes with astonishment when I heard the voice of the lions, and saw the fury of their rage. I asked, is it possible that so many lords of the forest, such noble beasts, should condescend to notice one solitary fawn, that is feeding alone upon his pasture; without attempting to excite either their jealousy or anger? I have not strayed from the fold, nor injured the trees of the forest, nor hurt the beasts of the field, nor trampled upon their pasture, nor drunk of their streams;
e why then their rage against me? When lo! and behold! they again uttered their voices, as the voice of great thunderings, and there was given unto them the voice of men; but it was difficult for me to distinguish what was said, among so many voices; but ever and anon I heard a few broken, incoherent sentences, like the following:—Murder! Desolation!! Bloodshed!!!
Arson!!! Treason!!! Joe Smith and the Mormons!!! Our nation will be overturned!!! The imposter should be drove from the State!!! The fawn will be metamorphosed into a lion; will devour all the beasts of the field, destroy all the trees of the f forest, and tread underfoot all the rest of the lions. I then lifted up my voice and said, hear me, ye beasts of the forest! and all ye great lions pay attention! I am innocent of the things whereof ye accuse me. I have not been guilty of violating your laws, nor of trespassing upon your rights. My hands are clean from the blood of all men, and I am at the defiance of the world to substantiate the crimes whereof I am accused; wherefore, then, should animals of your noble mein stoop to such g little jealousies, such vulgar language, and lay such unfounded charges at the door of the innocent? It is true that I once suffered an ass to feed in my pasture: he ate at my crib and drank at my waters, but possessing the true nature of an ass, he began to foul the water with his feet, and to trample under foot the green grass, and destroy it. I therefore put him out of my pasture, and he began to bray. Many of the lions in the adjoining jungles mistaking his braying for the roaring of a lion, commenced roaring. When I proclaimed this abroad many of the lions began to enquire into the matter; a few possessing a more noble nature than many of their fellows, drew near, and viewing the animal found that he was nothing more than a h decrepid, broken-down, worn-out ass that had scarcely anything left but his ears and his voice. Whereupon many of the lions felt indignant; at the lion of Warsaw; the lion of Quincy; the lion of Sangamo; the lion of Alton, and several other lions, for giving a false alarm, for dishonouring their race, and for responding to the voice of so base an animal as an ass. And they felt ashamed of themselves for being decoyed into such base ribaldry, and foul-mouthed slander. But there were many that lost sight of their dignity, and continued to roar, although they knew full well that they were following the braying of so i dispicable a creature. Among these was a great lion, whose den was on the borders of the eastern sea; he had waxed great in strength; he had terrible teeth, and his eyes were like balls of fire; his head was large and terrific, and his shaggy mane rolled with majestic grandeur over his terrible neck; his claws were like the claws of the dragon; and his ribs were like those of the leviathan; when he lifted himself up all the beasts of the field bowed with respectful deference; and when he spake the whole universe listened, and the cinders of his power cover creation. His might, his influence were felt to the ends of the earth; when he lashed his tail the beasts of the forest trembled; and when he roared all the great lions and the young lions crouched down at his feet.

j This great lion lifting up himself and beholding the fawn afar off, he opened his mouth, and joining in the common roar, uttered the following great swelling yelp:—

Joe Smith in Trouble.—By a letter which we published on Sunday, from Springfield, Illinois, it appears that Joe Smith, the great Mormon Prophet, has at last given himself up to the authorities of Illinois. He is charged with fomenting or conspiring to assassinate Governor [Lilburn W.] Boggs, of Missouri, and is demanded by the functionary of that State, of the Governor of Illinois. Joe has taken out a writ of habeas corpus, denying the fact, and is now waiting the decision of the court at Springfield. This will bring Joe’s troubles to a crisis.

k In the mean time, why does not Joe try his power at working a miracle or two? Now’s the time to prove his mission—besides being very convenient for himself.

When I heard it, I said poor fellow! How has thy dignity fallen! and how has thy glory departed! Thou that once ranked amongst the foremost of the beasts of the field, as the lord of the forest! Even thou hast condescended to degrade thyself by uniting with the basest of animals, and to join in with the braying of an ass.

1 And now, friend B. [James Gordon Bennett] allow me to whisper a word in thine ear. Dost thou not know that there is a God in the heavens that judgeth? that setteth up one and putteth down another according to the counsel of his own will? That if thou possessest any influence, wisdom, dominion, or power, it comes from God, and to him thou art indebted for it? That he holds the destinies of men in his power, and can as easily put down as he has raised up? Tell me when hast thou treated a subject of religious and eternal truth with that seriousness and candor that the importance of the subject demands

m from a man in thy standing, possessing thy calling and influence? As you seem to be quite a theologian, allow me to ask a few questions. why did not God deliver Micaiah from the hands of his persecutors? Why did not Jeremiah not “work a miracle or two,” to help him out of the dungeon? It would have been “very convenient.” Why did not Zachariah, by a miracle prevent the people from slaying him? Why did not our Saviour come down from the cross? The people asked him to do it; and besides he had “saved others,” and could not save himself, so said the people. Why did he not prove his mission by working a miracle and coming down? Why did not Paul by a miracle prevent the people from stoning and whipping him? It would have been n “very convenient.” Or why did the saints of God, in every age, have to wander about in sheep skins and goat skins? Being tempted, tried, and sawn asunder; of whom the world was not worthy. I would here advise my worthy friend, before he talks of ‘proving missions,’ “working miracles,” or any “convenience” of that kind, to read his Bible a little more, and the garbled stories of political demagogues less.

o I listened and lo! I heard a voice, and it was the voice of my shepherd, saying, listen all ye lions of the forest; and all the beasts of the field give ear; ye have sought to injure the innocent; and your hands have been lifted against the weak, the injured and the oppressed. Ye have pampered the libertine, the calumniator, and the base. Ye have winked at vice, and p trodden under foot the virtuous and the pure. Therefore hear, all ye lions of the forest. The Lord God will take from you your teeth, so that you shall no longer devour. He will pluck out your claws, so that you can no longer seize upon you[r] prey. Your strength will fail you in the day of trouble, and your voice will fail, and not be heard afar off; but mine elect will I uphold with mine arm, and my chosen shall be supported by my power. And when mine annointed shall be exalted, and all the lions of the forest shall have lost their strength, then shall they remember that the Lord he is God.

JOSEPH SMITH.

Poem to William W. Phelps, between circa 1 and circa 15 February 1843

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Somewhat doubtful that JS is the author.

Text

This is the “poetic paraphrase” of DC 76; for background, notes, and text, see [here.]

Discourse, 21 February 1843

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Joseph says well the pagan prophet has preached us a pretty good sermon thiss morni[n]g— to break off the yoke of oppresession <I dont know as I can better it much—> and say what he is a mind to.
- b for that the pagans and the pagan prophetts to feel more our prosperity is curious. I am almost converted to his doctrine, “he has prophecied if these buildings go down it will curse the place.” I verily know it is true. Let us build the templ. there may be some speculatins about Nauvoo house. say some— some say because we live on the hill we must build up this part on the hill. does that coat fit you D^r [Robert D.] Foster? pretty well! put it on then. this is the way people swell like the ox or toad.
- c They’l come down under the hill among little folks brother Joseph how I love you— and get up opposition. & sing names to strangers & scoundrels &c
I want all men to feel for me. when I have shook the bush— & bore the burdn and if they do not—, I speak in authority in the name the Lord <god> he shall be damnd,— people on the flats are aggrandiz[i]ng themselves. by the Nauvoo house.
who laid the foundation of the Temple. Bro Joseph in the name of the Lord. not for his aggrandizement but for the good of the whole
- d Our speculators say our poor folk on the flat are down & keep them down. How the Nauvoo house cheats this man & that man— say the speculators. they are fools ought to hide their heads in a hollow punkin & never take it out.—
the fir[s]t principle brought into consideratio[n] is aggrandizement. some think it unlawful— but it is lawful while he has a disposition to aggrandize all around him. false principle, to aggrandize at the expence of another. every thing God does is to aggrandize his kingdom how does he lay the foundation? build a temple to my great name. and call the attention of the great. but where shall we lay our heads an old log cabin
- e I will whip Hiram Kimball & Esqr [Daniel H.] Wells and every body else over D^r Fosters head, instead of building the Nauvoo house build a great many little skeletons see Dr Fosters mammoth skeletons of D^r Foster rising all over town but
- f there is no flesh on them. personal aggrandizement. dont care how many bones— somebody may come along & clothe them.— elephants. crocodiles &c eaters. such as grog shop &c— card shops &c— those who live in glass houses should not throw stones. The building of N[auvoo] House is just as sacred in my view as the Temple.
- g I want the Nauvo[o] House bui[l]t it must be built, our salvation depends upon it. When men have done what they can or will for the temple. let them do what they can for the Nauvoo House. We never can accomplish our work at the expence of
- h another. There is a great deal of murmuring in the church— about me, but I dont care any thing about it. I like to hear it thunder. to hear the saints grumbling.— the growling dog get the sorest head. If any man is poor and afflicted. let him come and tell of it.— & not complain— or grumble
- i finishing Nauvoo House like a man finihig [finishing] a fight. if he gives up he is killd— if he holds out a little longer he may live— a story. a man who will whip his wife is a coward. & fought with a man who had whippd wife.— still
- j remembrd he was whipped his wife. & whipped him till he cried enough.— hang on to the Nauvoo house thus & you will build it. & you will be on Pisagah [Pisgah] & the gr[e]at men who come will pile their gold & silver till you are weary of receivng them. & if you are not careful will be lifted up & fall and they will cover up & cloak all your former sins— & hide a multitude of sins. & shine forth fair as the sun &c
- k those who have labord & cannot get your pay be patient, if you take the means which are set apart let him he will destroy themselves, if any man is hungry let him come to me & I will feed him at my table.
if any are hungry or naked dont take away the brick &c but come & tell. I will divide. & then if he is not satisfied I will ~~kill~~ kick his back side
- l there cannot be some fire without some smoke. well if the stories about Jose[ph] Smith are true. then the stories of J. C. Bennet. [John C. Bennett] are true about the Ladies of Nauvoo. Ladies that the Releif society was organized of those who are to be wives to Jos Smith. Ladies you know whithr it is true. no use of living among hogs without a snout. this biting an[d] devouri[n]g each other. for Gods sake stop it.
- m one thing more, political economy. our duty to concentrate ~~that~~ all our influence to make popular that which is sound & good. & unpopular that which is unsou[n]d Tis right <politically> for a man who has influe[n]ce to use it as well as for a man ~~to~~ who has no influ[en]ce to use his. from henceforth I will maintain all the influe[n]ce I can get. in relation to politics I will
- n speak as a man in religion in authority. if a man lifts a dagger to kill me, I will lift my tongue.— when I last preached. heard

- such a groani[n]g I thought of the paddy's. ell [eel] when he tried to kill him could not contrive any way so he put it [in] the water to drown him. and as he began to came to— see said he what pain he is in how he wigles his tail.— the banks are failing & it is the privileg to say what a curenry we want. gold & silver to build the Temple & Nauvoo house. we want your
- o old nose rings & finger rings & brass ket[t]les no longer. if you have old raggs— watches. guns go & peddle them. & bring the hard metal. if we will do this by popular opinion you will have a sound currency. send home banks notes.— & take no paper money. & let every man write his neighbor before he starts to get gold and Silver.— I have contemplated these things a long time, but the time has not come till now. to speak till now.
- p I would not do as the Nauvoo House committee has done. sell stock for an old stone house where all the people who live die. & put that stock into a mans ha[n]ds to go east and purchase goods Rags to come here & build up Mamoth bones with.
- q as a political Man in the name of Old Joe Smith I command the Nauvoo committee not to sell a share in the N[auvoo] House without the Gold or Silver, excuse bro [John] Snider he was in England. when they sold stock for stone house.— I leave it
- r the meeting was got up by N. Committe [Nauvoo House committee] the pagans. Roman Catholics. & Methodist & Baptist shall have peace in Nauvoo only they must be grou[n]d in Joe smiths mill.— I have been in their mill I was grou[n]d in Ohio. & [New] York States a presbyteri[a]n smut machine— & last machine was in Missouri & last of all I have been th[r]ough Illinois smut machine & those who come here must go th[r]ough my smut machine & that is my tongue,
[. . .] [p. [214]] [. . .]
- s Joseph[:] I thought I would make a coat. it dont fit the D^r <only in the P[ost] office> if if it does fit any one let them put it on.
The bones are skeletons and as old Ezekiel said I command the flesh & the sinnews to come upon them. <that they may be clothed.—>

As Reported by Wilford Woodruff

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a President Joseph Smith arose & Addressed the meeting as a Christian Prophet & addressed for about an hour much to our edefycation, many remarks he made were plain & pointed some vary applicable to Dr [Robert D.] Foster which he afterwards
- b acknowledged to be true Joseph said the pagan Prophet had prophesied one thing that was true viz that if we did not build the temple & Nauvoo house it would proove the ruin of the place that if we did not build those buildings we might as well leave the place & that it was as necessary to build one as the other, & many other things were said much to the purpose

Discourse, 25 February 1843

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a I have read the Constitution. & find my doubts. removed.— the constitution is not a law. but empowers the people to make laws.— constitution govern the lands of Iowa but is not a law for the people. constitution tells what shall not be lawful tender— Constitution section 10 this is not saying gold & silver shall be lawful tender— it only provid[e]s the states may
- b make a law— to make gold and silver— lawful Tender. the Ligislature have ceded up to us the privilege of enacting laws we stand in the same relation as the state.— This clause is for the Legislature, is not a law— for the people. diametrically contra[r]ly to the constitution. this state have passed a stay law. making it lawful <to> tender to property. and if we creat[e] no law. we must be govend [governed] by them.— shall we be such fools as to abide their laws. which are unconstitutional?
- c No. we will make a law for Gold & Silver then their law ceases & we can collect our debts.— “Powers not delegated to the states— or reservd fr[o]m the states” is constituti[o]nal, congress. or constitution acknowledgd that the people have all power not reserved to itself) <I am a Lawyer> I am big Lawyer. & comprehnd heavn earth & hell— to bring forth knowledge which shall cover up all Lawyers & doctors—) this is the doctrine of the constitution so help me God.— the constitution is not Law to us— but provision to make laws, Where it provides that no one shall not be hinderd from worshipping God according to his own conscenc [conscience] is a law.— No legislatu[r]e can enact a law,— to prohibit constitution provid[e]s to regulate bodies of men not individuals

Letter to Editor, 28 February 1843

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a To the EDITOR of the TIMES & SEASONS.
- Sir,—Among the many signs of the times, and other strange things, which are continually agitating the minds of men, I notice a small speculation in the Chicago Express, upon the certificate of one Hiram Redding, of Ogle co. stating that he has seen the sign of the son of man in heaven, as foretold in the 24th of Matt. The slanderous allusion of a “seraglio,” like the Grand Turk, which the editor applies to me, he may take to himself, for “out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.” Every honest man, who has visited the city of Nauvoo, since it existed, can bear record of better things, and place me in the front ranks of those who are known to do good for the sake of goodness, and show all liars, hypocrites, and abominable creatures, that while vice sinks them down to darkness and wo, virtue exalts me and the saints to light and immortality.
- b
- c The editor, as well as some others, “thinks that Jo Smith has his match at last,” because Mr. Redding certifies that he has seen the sign of the son of man. But I shall use my right, and declare, that. notwithstanding Mr. Redding may have seen a wonderful appearance in the clouds, one morning about sun-rise, (which is nothing very uncommon in the winter season) he
- d has not seen the sign of the son of man, as foretold by Jesus; neither has any man, nor will any man, till after the sun shall have been darkened and the moon bathed in blood, for the Lord hath not shown me any such sign, and, as the prophet saith, so it must be: Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets. (See Amos 3: 7). Therefore, hear this, O earth, the Lord will not come to reign over the righteous, in this world, in 1843, nor until every thing for the bridegroom is ready.

Your’s respectfully,

JOSEPH SMITH.

Proverb, circa 10 March 1843

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

Josephs Proverb 1843

The finest steel doth show a brighter polish The more you rub the same
Even so in love rebuke will neer demolish A wise mans goodly name

Discourse, circa Early March 1843

As Reported in Times and Seasons

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a He expressed his gratitude to elder [Heber C.] Kimball in the strongest terms, for having commenced and carried on in so masterly a manner the good and glorious work he had undertaken. He said it would be the means of doing a great
- b deal of good, and of benefitting his young friends more than they were aware of: that the gratitude of all good men, and of the young people whom he had so much benefitted, would follow him through life; and “when gray hairs should his temples adorn,” he could look back with pleasure upon the winter of 1843, when he was engaged in promoting the cause of benevolence, and preparing his young friends for the glorious career which awaited them.
- c He said that he stood before them with more embarrassment, than he would before kings, nobles, and great men of the earth, for he knew the crimes of which they were guilty, and knew precisely how to address them; but his young friends before whom he now stood were guilty of none of these crimes, and he hardly knew what to say. He said he had never in his life seen such a large company of young people assembled together, pay such strict attention, listen with such profound silence, and keep such good order, as the assembly now before him. He praised their good conduct, and taught them how to behave in all places, explained to them their duty, and advised them to organize themselves into a society for the relief
- d of the poor. As a commencement to their benevolent efforts, he offered a petition from an English brother by the name of Modesley [Sutcliffe Maudsley], who was lame, and who wished them to build him a house, that he might have a home among the saints: he had gathered together a few materials for this purpose, but was unable to use them; and, now, relying upon the active benevolence of the young people of Nauvoo, he sends in this petition that you may act upon it as you deem
- e proper. He advised them to choose a committee to collect funds for this purpose, and perform this charitable work as soon as the weather became suitable.— He gave them much good advice, to guide their conduct through life and prepare them for a glorious eternity. He said he was very much pleased with the course elder Kimball had taken, and hoped he would continue his meetings and that the young people would follow his teachings.

Letter to James Arlington Bennet, 17 March 1843

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a City of Nauvoo, Ill. March 17, 1843.
- Maj. Gen. [James Arlington] Bennet
- Dear Sir,— I was not a little gratified at the reception of your favor of the 20th. ult. It is true—I am free from the “unrighteous persecution” got up by [John C.] Bennett, and carried on by [Lilburn W.] Boggs, [Thomas] Reynolds and [Thomas] Carlin, that superlative trio of wickedness, abomination, and national disgrace. Sooner or later, however, corruption and wickedness get their reward.
- b Our charters remain as they were, but that mobocratic influence of Missouri, which stained her broad prairies with innocent blood, crept into Illinois, and became visible in the house of Representatives of our state Legislature; but let corrupt men do what they may, “wisdom will be justified of her children.”
- c You^r have my grateful acknowledgements for your very kind interposition, in my behalf when “Executive influence,” was exerted to gratify and glut private malignance. It appears from <your> letter that Carlin paid no attention to your friendly
- d admonition. I am not surprised at this, any more than the apostles were at the conduct of Nero at Rome. But the smothered heat of a volcano, will generally burst forth and give sufficient time to escape its “drea[d]ful lava”; and so, thank God, I am liberated, from his “long reach” by the still longer arm of United States Jurisprudence. Before the United States district court my case was fairly treated, and I was justly liberated:— Always so in righteousness.
- e You mention Bennett’s book as a total failure: exactly so: No weapon formed against Zion can prosper: And he may learn, if [he] has not, that iniquity has its inconveniences, as well as greatness. Every one that has attempted to rise up and destroy me, or the church, has had the solemn opportunity and awful facts presented, that sudden and violent moves, too often bring
- f shame and disgrace, in this world, and wretchedness and ruin, hereafter. No government; no body of men, or person, can long exist, and do business in the sight of heaven without truth and virtue. You say, “well, peace be to his manes,” but permit me to declare, that while intelligence continues, there will be no peace for the wicked, according to scripture.
- g As to James Gordon Bennett, I think he will be satisfied what my opinion is of him, when he reads the story of the “lion” in the Times and Seasons of Feb, 15 1843. I have no knowledge that he holds a commission in the Nauvoo Legion: His name is ~~on~~ not on the Rank Roll. You can best account for this. Your relation of his intentions in extracting from the Times and Seasons, is all in course; the great object was too glaring upon the face of it to be mistaken, aside from the folly and vanity,—
- h and hotch potch which spotted his comments in the Herald. He and all men should know that decency, virtue, honesty sobriety and truth, are among the most precious essentials of life, and especially in matters relating to eternity. There is a quid pro quo in pure religion, by which pretensions are weighed as well as actions and words; and so the promise is that God will bring every man into judgment, with every secret thing whether it be good or whether it be evil; and it is written in another place, that they shall be rewarded according to their works.
- i Your goodly expression,— “Go ahead,” &c. will (as has been the case,) be fully verified, while God goes with me:— And if you ~~have a~~ <would only> ~~notion to join me before you die, count the cost as Jesus says;~~ and go for eternal reward in the celestial Kingdom of God, independent of mobs, persecutions, this world’s goods, or the highest honors of the Mammon of
- j unrighteousness. <Nothing could give me more joy.> Were I to labor for gold, or for conquest, or for empires like thousands that have flourished and fell, in all ages, ~~of~~ before me, I might amass means; gather hosts; extend power, and gratify ambition, like an Alexander, or a Napoleon, and the world, in its ordinary course, would soon leave a wide waste for future conjecture and desecration:— but I stand up in the midst of this crooked and perverse generation, for a general reformation of all; by the
- k voice of truth; by the accomplishments of virtue; by the blessings of pure religion, and by the holy revelations of God, and thus far, over vexatious laws suits, mobs, “spiritual wickedness in hi[g]h places,” demons, devils and dev[ilish] men[,] in the name and by the power o[f] God, [I] [a]m triumphant: And while I have knowledge of heaven to guide me, and the riches of eternity to back me, I shall continue to strive for the emancipation of all kinds of slavery, as well as the slavery of sin; yea, until I can exclaim like Caësar: Veni, vidi, vici!

Please to accept my best respects as also. t[h]ose of Mrs Smith, Dr [Willard] Richards and others. With considerations of the highest esteem, I have the honor to be your most obt. sev't.

Joseph Smith
<25>

<NAUVOO Ills. MAR 19> <(Single)>
Maj. Gen. Jas. Arlington Bennet
Arlington House
New York
N. Y.

Blessing to Sarah Ann Whitney, 23 March 1843

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

a

Nauvoo City March 23^d 1843

Oh Lord my God thou that dwellest on high bless I beseech of thee the one into whose hands this may fall and crown her with a diadem of glory in the Eternal worlds Oh let <it> be Sealed this day on high that She Shall come forth in the first reserrection to recieve the Same and verily it Shall be so Saith the Lord if She remain in the Everlasting covenant to the end as also all her Fathers house Shall be Saved in the Same Eternal glory and if any of them Shall wander from the foald of the Lord they Shall not perish but Shall return Saith the Lord and be Saived in and by repentance be crowned with all the fullness of the glory of the Everlasting gospelel these promises I Seal upon all of their heads in the name of Jesus Christ by the Law of the holy preisthood Even so Amen

b

Joseph Smith

Sarah Ann Whitney)

Blessing to Joseph Kingsbury, 23 March 1843

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Brother Joseph [Kingsbury] I Lay my hands upon thy head in the name of Jesus Christ to bestow upon the[e] a Patriarkle Blessing according to the Power and authority of the Holy Priesthood vested in me I Say unto thee thou Shalt Be Blessed with <the> Good things of this wourld abundently in thy Lifetime and I Seal the[e] up to come forth in the first reserection unto
- b Eternal Life— And thy Companion Caroline [Whitney Kingsbury] who is now dead thou Shalt have in the first Reserection for I Seal thee up for and in her behalf to Come forth in the first Reserection unto Eternal lives (and it Shall be as though She was present herself) and thou Shalt hail her and She Shall be thine and no one Shall have power to take her from thee, And you both Shall be crowned and enthroned to dwell together in a Kingdom in the Celestial Glory in the presents of God,
- c And you Shall Enjoy each other Society & Embraces in all the fulness of the Gospell of Jesus Christ wourls [worlds] without End And I Seal these blessings upon thee and for thy Companion in the Name of Jesus Christ for thou Shalt receive the holy anointing & Endewment in this Life to prepare you for all these blessings Even So Amen

Proclamation, 25 March 1843

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a PROCLAMATION,
- To the Citizens of Nauvoo.*
- Whereas it appears by the re-publication of the foregoing proceedings and declaration, that I have not altered my views on the subject of stealing: And whereas it is reported that there now exists a band of desperadoes, bound by oaths of secrecy, under severe penalties in case any member of the combination divulges their plans of stealing and conveying properties from station to station, up and down the Mississippi and other routes: And whereas it is reported that the fear of the execution of the pains and penalties of their secret oath, on their persons, prevents some of the members of said secret association, (who have, through falsehood and deceit, been drawn into their snares,) from divulging the same to the legally Constituted authorities of the land:
- b Know ye therefore, That I, Joseph Smith, Mayor of the city of Nauvoo, will grant and ensure protection against all personal mob violence, to each and every citizen of this city, who will freely and voluntarily come before me, and truly make known the names of all such abominable characters as are engaged in said secret combination for stealing, or are accessory thereto in any manner; and I would respectfully solicit the co-operation of all ministers of Justice, in this and the neighboring states, to ferret out a band of thievish outlaws from our midst.

Given under my hand at Nauvoo City, this, 25th day of March, A. D., 1843.

JOSEPH SMITH.
Mayor of the said City.

Letter to Sidney Rigdon, 27 March 1843

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

a

Nauvoo March 27, 1843

Sidney Rigdon Esq^r

Dear Sir,

b It is with sensations of deep regret and poignant grief that I sit down to dictate a few lines to you, this morning, to let you know what my feelings in are in relation to your-self, as it is against my principles to act the part of a hypocrite, or to dissemble in any wise whatever, with any man. I have tried for a long time to smother my feelings, and not let you know, that I thought, that you were secretly and underhandedly, doing all you could, to take the advantage and injure me: but, whether my feelings are right or wrong, remains for Eternity to reveal. I cannot any longer forbear throwing off[f] the mask, and let you know of the secret wranglings of my heart; that you may not be deceivd, in relation to them, and <that you may> be prepared, Sir, to take whatever cou[r]se you see proper in the premises. I am, Sir, honest, when I say that I believe, I <am> laboring under the fullest conviction that you are actually practicing deception and wickedness again[s]t me, and the chu[r]ch of Jesus Chri[s]t of Latter Day Saints. and that you are in connection with John C. Bennett, & Geo W. Robinson, in the whole of their abominble practices in seeking to destroy me and this people and that Jared Carter, is as deep, Sir, in the mud mire, as you<, Sir,> are in the mud mire, in your conspiracies, and that you are in the exerciese of a Traitious spirit aga[ins]t our lives and interest by combining with our Enemies and the murderous Missourians, my feelings, Sir, have been wrought upon to a very great extent, in relation to yourself, ever since soon after the first appearance of John C. Bennet in this place, there has been somethig dark & my[s]terious hovering over our business concerns that are not only palpable but altogether unacco[u]ntable in relation to the Post office, and Sir from the very first of the pretentions of John C. Bennet, to secure to me the Post Office, (which, by the by I have <never> desired, if I could have justice done me in that department,) <without my occupancy> I have known, Sir, that it was a fraud practiced upon me, and of the secret plottings & conniving between, him & yourself in relation to the matter the whole time, as well as many other things which I have kept locked up in my own bosom but I am constrained at this time, to make known my feelings to you. I do not write this with the intention of insulting you or of bearing down upon you or with a desire to take any advantage of you or with the intention of ever laying one straw in your way, detrimental to your character or influence, or to suffer any thing whatever that has taken place, which is within my observati[o]n, or that <has> come to my knowleidge to go abroad, betraying any confidence that has ever been placed in me but I do assure you most sincerly that what I have said I verily beleive. & this is the reason why I have said it, that you may know the real convictions of my heart. not be[c]ause I have any malice or hatred, neither would I injure one hair of your head, and I will assure you that these convictions are attended with the deepest sorrow & remorse. I wish to God it were not so, & that I could get rid of the achings of my heart on that subject, and I now notify you, that unless something should take place to restore my mind to its former confidence in you, by some acknowledgmets on your part. or some explanations, that shall do away my Jealousies, I must as a conscientius man publish my withdrawal of your my fellowship from you, to the Church, thr[o]ugh the medium of the times & Seasons, and demand of the confrence a hearing concerning your case; that if, on conviction of Justifiable grou[n]ds, they will demand your license. I could say much more but let the above suffice for the pre[se]nt, yours in haste,

Joseph Smith.—

Sidney Rigdon Esq^r

Post Office

Nauvoo

Letter to John McKee, 28 March 1843

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

...the city is located on the east bench of the Mississippi River, in a fruitful county, best of soil all around, as healthy as any of the western country; our city is free to every body, and our church to those who will believe, Repent & be baptized. & keep Gods Commandments, every man is his own steward...

Instruction, 2 April 1843

As Reported by William Clayton

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a P. M. Joseph preached on Revelations chap. 5. he called on me to open the meeting. He also preachd on the same subject in the evening. During the day president Joseph made the following remarks on doctrine.
- b I was once praying very earnestly to know to the time of the comeing of the son of man when I heard a voice repeat the following 'Joseph my son, if thou livest untill thou art 85 years old thou shalt see the face of the son of man, therefore let this suffice and trouble me no more on this matter.'
- c I was left this thus without being able to decide wether this coming referred to the beginning of the Millenium, or to some previous appearing, or wether I should die and thus see his face. I believe the coming of the son of man will not be any sooner than that time
- d In correct<ing> two points in E[lde]r Hydes [Orson Hyde's] discourse he observed as follows,
The meaning of that passage where it reads 'when he shall appear we shall be like him for we shall see him as he is' is this, When the saviour appears we shall see that he is a man like unto ourselves, and that same sociality which exists amongst us here will exist among us there only it will be coupled with eternal glory which we do not enjoy now.
- e Also The appearing of the father and the son in John c 14 v 23 is a personal appearing, and the idea that they will dwell in a mans heart is a sectarian doctrine and is false
- f In answer to a question which I proposed to him as follows, 'Is not the reckoning of Gods time, Angels time, prophets time & mans time according to the planet on which they reside he answered Yes
- g But there is no Angel ministers to this earth only what either does belong or has belonged to this earth And the Angels do not reside on a planet like our earth but they dwell with God and the planet where he dwells is like crystal, and like a sea of glass before the throne. This is the great Urim & Thummim whereon all things are manifest both things past, present & future and are continually before the Lord. The Urim & Thummim is a small representation of this globe. The earth when it is purified will be made like unto crystal and will be a Urim & Thummim whereby all things pertaining to an inferior kingdom, or all kingdoms of a lower order will be manifest to those who dwell on it. And this earth will be with Christ Then the white stone mentioned in Rev. c 2 v 17 is the Urim & Thummim whereby all things pertaining to an higher order of kingdoms even all kingdoms will be made

- known and a the white stone is given to each of those who come into this the celestial kingdom, whereon is a new name written which no man knoweth save he that receiveth it. The new name is the key word.
- j Whatever principal of intelligence we obtain in this life will rise with us in the resurrection: and if a person gains more knowledge in this life through his diligence & obedience than another, he will have so much the advantage
- k in the world to come. There is a law irrevocably decreed in heaven before the foundations of this world upon which all blessings are predicated; and when we obtain any blessing from God, it is by obedience to that law upon which it is predicated.
- l The Holy Ghost is a personage, and a person cannot have the personage of the H. G. in his heart. A man may receive the gifts of the H. G, and the H. G. may descend upon a man but not to tarry with him.
- m He also related the following dream
- I dreamed that a silver-headed old man came to me and said he was invaded by a gang of robbers, who were plundering his neighbors and threatening destruction to all his subjects. He had heard that I always sought to defend the oppressed, and he had come to see if the General would call out his Legion and protect him, and he
- n had come to hear with his own ears what answer I would give him. I answered, if you will make out the papers and shew that you are not the aggressor I will call out the Legion and defend you while I have a man to stand by me. The old man then turned to go away. When he got a little distance he turned suddenly round and said I must call out the Legion and go and he would have the papers ready when I arrived, and says he I have any amount of men which you can have under your command.
- o Er Hyde gave the this interpretation
- The old man represents the government of these United States who will be invaded by a foreign foe, probably England. The U. S. gorvernment will call on you to defend probably all this Western Territory, and will offer you any amount of men you may need for that purpose.
- p Once when pres^t Joseph was praying earnestly to know concerning the wars which are to preceed the coming of the son of man, he heard a voice proclaim that the first outbreak of general bloodshed would commence at South Carolina— see Revelation
- The sealing of the 144000 was the number of priests who should be anointed to administer in the daily sacrifice &c.
- q During pres^t Joseph's remarks he said their was a nice distinction between the vision which John saw as spoken of in Revelations & the vision which Daniel saw. the former relating only to things as they actually existed in heaven— the latter being a figure representing things on the earth. God never made use of the figure of a beast to represent the kingdom of heaven— when they were made use of it was to represent an apostate church.

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Elder [Orson] Hyde I am going to offer some corrections to you. Elder H. repli[e]d— they shall be thankfully recieved.— When he shall appear we shall see him as he is. we shall see that he is a man like ourselves.— And that same sociality. which exists amogt [amongst] us here. will exist amo[n]g us there only it will be coupled with eternl glory which glory we do not now enjoy.
- b 14 John 23.— the appearing of the father and of the Son in that verse is a personal. appearance.— to say that the father and the Son dwells in a mans heart is an old Sectarian notion. and is not correct.

- c There is are no angels who administer to this earth but who belong to or have belonged to this earth. The angels do not reside on a planet like this earth. but they reside in the presence of God— but on a Globe like a sea of glass. & fire. “sea of glass before the throne.— &c.” where all things are manif[e]st past present & to come,—
- d The place where God resides is a great Urim And Thumim.
This earth in its sanctifid & immortal state. will be a Urim & Thummim for all things below it in the scale of creation. but not above it.—
- e related the Dream. written on page 3^d Book
Interpretati[o]n By O. Hyde— old man.— Governmt of these Unitd States, who will be invaded by a foriegn foe. probably England. U. S. Government will call on Gen Smith to defend probably all this western territory and offer him any am[ou]nt of men he shall desire & put them under his command.
- f I prophecy in the Name of the Lord God that the commenceme[n]t of bloodshed as preparat[o]ry to the coming of the son of man. will commenc[e] in South Carolina.— (it probably may arise through the slave trade.)— this the a voice declar'd to me. while I was praying earne[s]tly on the subje[c]t 25 December 1832.—
- g I earnestly desird to know concern[in]g the coming of the Son of Man & prayed. when— a voice said to me, Joseph, my, son, if thou livest until thou art 85 years old thou shalt see the face of the son of man. therefore let this suffice & trouble me no more on this matter.—
- h 1. P. M. attended meeting.
Joseph read 5.th chapter of Johns revelation, referring particularly to the 6^[th] verse. shewing from that. the a[c]tual existenc[e] of beasts in heaven probable those were beasts which had lived on another planet. than our's—
God never made use of the figure of a beast to represent the kingdom of heaven.— Beasts. 7 eyes Pr[i]esthood.—
- i this is the fi[r]st time I have ever taken a text in Revelati[o]n.— and if the young elders would let such things alone it would be far better.— then corrected Elder Hyde as in private.—
- j supped at Bro [Benjamin F.] Johnson's.— expected to sta[r]t for Carthage, but bad weather prevntd [prevented] called another meeti[n]g. by bell.— read Rev[elation]— between Meeti[n]gs with Elder Hyde & expou[n]ding.— during this time several came in & expressd fear that I had come in contact with the old scripture
- k Meeting 7. eve resumd the subjct of the beast.— shewed very plainly that Johns vision was very different from Daniels Prophecy— one refering to things ex[is]ting in heaven. the other a figure of things ~~on the~~ which are on the earth.—
- l whatever principle of inteligence we attain unto in this life. it will rise with us in the revalatin [revelation], and if a person gains more knowledge and inteligence. through his obedience & diligence. than another he will have so much the advantage in the world to come—
- m There is a law irrevocably decreed in heaven. before the foundation of the world upon which all blessings are predicated and when we obtain a blessing it is by obedi[e]nce to the law upon which that blessing is predicated.
- n again revertd to Elders Hyde mistake. &c the Father has a body of flesh & bones as tangible as mans the Son also, but the Holy Ghost is a personage of spirit.— and a person cannot have the personage <of the H G. [Holy Ghost]> in his heart he may recive the gift of the holy Ghost. it may descend upon him but not to tarry with him.—
- o What is the meaning of the scriptures. he that is faithful over a few thi[n]gs shall be made ruler over many? & he that is faithful over many shall be made ruler over many more?
What is the mea[n]ing of the Parable of the 10 talents? [blank] Also [blank] conversation with Nicodemus. except a man be born of water & of the spi[ri]t.—
I shall not tell you?—
- p Closed by flagellating the audience for their fears.— & calld upon Elder Hyde to get up. & fulfil his covenant to preach 1/4 of an hour.— otherwise I will give you a good whipping.—
Elder Hyde arose & said Brothe[r]s & Sisters I feel as though all had been Said that can be said. I can say nothing but bless you.—
To B. F. Johnsons— ~~one~~ the 144000 seald are the pri[e]sts who are appointed to administer in the daily sacrifice.— [6 lines blank]

Minutes and Discourses, 6–8 April 1843

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Careful with this one too, it's sometimes hard to tell who is speaking in these notes.

Note also that this account here by Willard Richards contains both the "A" discourse and "B" discourse on the JSP website.

Text

- a ... O. Pratt gave way & Joseph. rose to state the object of the meeting. It is my object to ascertain the stanig [standing] of the first presidency. (as I have been instructed) I present myself for trial, I shall next present my councillors for trial.— 3^d to take into consideration the sending out of the twelve <or some porti[o]n of them> or some body else to get means to build the up Nauvoo. House— & temple
- b 4— Elders will have the privelige of appeals from the dfferce conferences to this if there are any such cases.— It is important that this conference give importance to the N[auvoo] House. as a prejudice exists against the Nauvoo. House in favor of the Lords House—
There is no place where men of wealth & character & influence can go to repose themselves. and it is neccessary we should have such a place.
Are you satisfied with the first presedincy, so far as I am concerned, or will you choose another? If I have done any thing to injure my character in the sight of men & angels— or men & women. come forward tell of it. & if not ever after hold your peace.
- c President B. Young arose & nominatd Joseph Smith to contin[u]e as our the Presdent. <of the church> Orson Hyde 2^{dd} it.— Voted unanimously— Such a show of hands was never seen before in the church.— Joseph retur[ne]d his thanks— to the assembly. & said he would serve them according to the best of his ability...
- d <Joseph said I do not know any thing agai[n]st the twelve, if I did I would presnt them for trial.>
It is not right that all the burden of the Nauvoo House should rest on a few individuals—and <we> will now consider the prepiety of sending the twelve to collect means for the Nauvoo House.—
there has been too great latitude in individuals for the building of the Temple to the exclusion of the Nauvoo house.
It. has been reportd that the— twelve have wages $2.00 per day for their services <I never heard— this till recently. & I do not believe I have never known their having any thing> I go in for binding up the twelve, &
- e Let this confrence institute an order to this end <&> let no man pay money or stock into the hands of the twelves except the payee payer transmit the account immediately to the Trustee's in trust. & no man else. <but the twelve> have authority to act as agents for the Temple & Nauvoo House.—
- f I will mention one case— he is a good man. that's man's name is Russel [Samuel M. Russell]. he had been East on bussines[s] for his brothe[r]. & took money belonging to the temple. & put it in the bag with his brothers money. 2 or three days after <his return> he called on his brother, for the money. but his brother thought he had paid out too much money— & he would keep the chu[r]ch money.— <to make good his own> I called to see Russel [Daniel Russell] about the money. and he treated me so politely I concluded he never meant to pay— Bro Russel [Samuel Russell]. said, <that> his brother said he should not be out of money again.— There was $20. of the chu[r]ch money, & some dried apple for the Prest.
- g I propose that you send moneys for the temple by the twelve some or all; or some agent of your choosing & if you send by others & the money is lost, tis lost to yourselves. I cannot be responsible for it.
It is wrong for the church to make a bridge of my nose in appropriati[n]g chu[r]ch funds.— The incorporation requ[ire]d of me securietis [securities].— which were lodged in the proper hands—
Temple committee have are bound to me in <the sum> $2,000— & the chu[r]ch is running to them <with funds> every day— & I am not responsible for it.
- h so long as you consider me worthy to hold this office. it is your duty to attend to the legal forms belonging— to the business.— My desire is, <that> the conference minutes go forth, to inform all bra[n]ches of the order of doing business. & the twelve be appointd to this spicial mission of collecting funds for the Nauvoo House.—
when I went to the white House at Washigtn [Washington]. <&> presented Letters from Thomas Carlin. [Martin] Van Buren. said <Tho^s Carlin. Thos Carlin> whos Thos Carlin?— I erred in spirit,— & <I> confess my mistake, in being angry with Martin Van Buren for saying Tho^s Carlin is nobody.— let it be recorded on earth and in heaven that I am clear of this sin.—
- i There has been complaints again[s]t the Temple Committee.— for appropriati[n]g the chu[r]ch funds to the benefit of their own children. to the neglect of others who need assistanc[e] more than they do.—
I have <the> complaint, by W^m Clayton. W^m. Clayton called. Says I have to say to the confrence. I am not so fully prepreded [prepared] to present substantiate the proof as I could wish—

I am able to prove that partiality used to a great extent. I am able to prove by the books that [Reynolds] Cahoon & Higby [Elias Higbee] have used property for their own families— to the exclusion of others.— <Joseph said> Let the. trial of the Committee be deferred to another day— <then let> the Lion & unicorn— come together— day after tomorrow. Mr Clayton can have the privilege of bringing his books. to the trial.—

j Voted that the Moved and Seconded & voted that the twelve be appointed a committe[e] to receive & gather funds to build the Nauvoo House. [blank] with this proviso, that the twelve and give bonds to for good delivery. to trustee in trustee.— & payee payer make immediate report to the trustee in trust.— Bro W[illiam] W. Phelps proposed that the twelve give duplicate receipt's.

President Young. remarked he should never give receipts for cash. <except such as he put in his own pocket for his own use.> but wished this speculation to stop.— & asked when if any one knew any thing against any one of the twelve, any dishonesty. I know of one who is not.—

k Joseph <And referred to muzzling the ox that treadeth out the corn.—>

Joseph Said, I will answer Bro Brigham,— let the twelve spend the time belonging to the temple for to collect funds— and the remainder of the time they may labor for their support.—

The idea of not muzzling the ox that treadeth out the corn— is a good old quaker song.— I have never taken the first farthing of church funds for my own use. till I have first consulted the proper author[i]ties.— & when there was no quorum of the twelve or high priests I have asked the temple Committee who had not no business with it.— Elder [Alpheus] Cutler said it was so.— Let this conference stop all agents in collecting funds, except the twelve.—...

l Joseph followed. I want the Elders to make hono[ra]ble proclamati[o]n abroad what the feelings of the presidency are,— I despise a thief above ground. He would betray me <if he could get the oppetinity [opportunity]> if I were the biggest rogue in the world, he would steal my horse when I wanted to run away. <then> read prloclamatin [proclamation] of the Mayor on stealing. dated 25. day March 1843.— “Wasp.” No. 48th— many observati[o]n confirmatory & said, enough Said. for this conference on this Subject.—

Elders had have a privilege to appeal from any decision of a branch. to know if they shall retain their office or membership—

m necessary I explain concerni[n]g Keokuk it is known that the Govr of Iowa has granted a writ. for me. on affidav[i]t of [Lilburn W.] Boggs.— he still holds that writ as a cudgel over my head. (U. S. Attorney told me all writs issued thus were legally dead.)— I said that is a stumper & I will shew them a trick the Devil never did. <that is> leave them. every man who wishes to out economically. with regard to futurity.— let them come over here as soon as they can settle their affairs without sacrifice let them come & we will protect them & let that governme[n]t know that we don't like to be imposed upon.—

n about the first of August 1842 Mr [Jacob] Remick came to my house. put on a long face. said he was in distress. about to loose $1400 for  300 at sheriffs sale. <said he the> sale takes place to-morrow.— I have money in St Louis . . .— next morning he called. I did not like the looks of him. <but thought I> he is a stranger. I have been a stranger, &. better loose 200 than be guilty of sin of ingratitude. took his note. on demand. <the> day I was taken I asked him from [for?] the money.—

o you ought to have it <said he but> I have not got my mony from St Louis.— I have a curious plan in my mind. I will give you a quit claim deed of the land you bought of [Isaac] Galland & <your notes to> Gallands notes which I have as his agent” I, said Joseph, have not asked you for your property. & would not give a snap. <for it.>— but I will accept your offer. but want my money— <Said he I will give you deed.> $\frac{1}{2}$ my land in the) state.) <&> he gave me deeds. & I got them recorded.— he calld for some more favors. & I let him have some cloths— <to the amount of> 6 or 7 hundrd dollars. I have offerd this land to many, who if they would go to settle there but nobody will go.— <I agre[e]d> if I found he owned as much as he pretended I would give my influence to build up Keokuk. J. G. Remick. <is his name he has got almost> most \$1100 <from me,> he looks exactly like a woodchuck, & talks like a woodchuck on a stump with a chaw of tobacco. <in his mouth.> he tried to git his hands to steal a stove from near my stove & carry it off on the boat raft, he is a thief.— My advice is, if they choose, <to> come away from Keokuk. and not go there more. I am not so much of a christian as many suppose I am. when a man undertakes to ride me. I am apt to thud <kick> him off & ride him.—

I would'nt b[u]y property in the Iowa. I considered it stooping to accept it a <as a> gift.—

q <I wish to speak of the>— $\frac{1}{2}$ breed lands opposite this. city. $\frac{1}{2}$ breed land.— $\frac{1}{2}$ breed land.— and every man there who is not $\frac{1}{2}$ breed had better come away. & in a little time we will call them all $\frac{1}{2}$ breed.— I wish we could swap some of our $\frac{1}{2}$ breeds here for <the $\frac{1}{2}$ breeds who> lives there. I will give you a key, if any <one> will growls tomorrow you will know him to be a $\frac{1}{2}$ breed.— My opinion is the Legislature have done well in giving the best tittle to settlers. & squatter.— Those who have deeds to those islands from the chancery of Iowa. have as good titles as any, but the settlers under <the> Laws of Iowa. Legislature & chancery of Iowa. <are> at variance.

r I believe it a fine of swindli[n]g from by. court of Chancery.—

Dr Galland said those Islands dont belong to any body, <they were> throon [thrown] out of U.S. survey.— hence no man had a claim, <& it was> so considerd; when I came here.—

my advice to the Mormons, who have deed & possessions, <is> fight it out. you who have no deeds or possessi[o]ns, let them alone.— touch not a stick of their timber.—

s Deeds given by court of chancery. warrents & defends again[s]t all unlawful claims.— It is a $\frac{1}{2}$ breed, it an anomaly, without form & void, a nondescript. if they have your note. let them come here & sue you then you can carry up your case to the highest court.— so long as the Laws have a shadow of tittle, it is not right for the Mormons to go & carry away the wood In the name of the Lord God, I forbid any man from using any observati[o]ns of mine, to rob— the land of wood.—

Moses Martin has had been tried & had fellowship withdrawn <by the chu[r]ch> at Keokuk. Nashville [Iowa Territory]

t <The question has been asked> can a member not belonging to the chu[r]ch bring a member before the high council, for trial? I answer No! I ask no jurisdiction. <in religious matters> I merely give my opinion when asked. If there was any feelings at Naashville because I gave my opniones [opinions], there is no occasion for it. I only advice the breth[r]en to come from Iowa, & they may do as they please. <about coming.> If I had not actually got into this work, & been called of God, I would back out . . . but I cannot back out,— I have no doubt of the truth. were I going to prophecy. I would procpesy [prophecy] the end will not come in 1844. or 5— or 6. or 40 years more there are those of the rising generation who shall not taste death till christ come.

u <I was once praying earnestly upon this subject. and a voice said unto me.> My son, if thou livest till thou art 85 years of age, thou shalt see the face of the son of man. . . . <I was left to draw my own conclusions concerni[n]g this &,> I took the liberty to conclude that if I did live till that time Jesus <he> would make his appearance.— <but I do not say whether he will make his appeara[n]ce, or I shall go where he is.—>

I prophecy in the name of the Lord God.— & let it be written. <that the> Son of Man will not come in the heavns till I am 85. years old

48 years hence or about 1890.—

v <then Red> 14 Rev— 6 verse another angel fly in the midst of heaven; for the hour of his Judgmnt is come.— to exterminati[o]n— from the commenceme[n]t. commence when angel commences preachi[n]g this. gospel <1 day— 1000 years—>. 1000 year as 1 day.— 41. yrs 8 months.— only 6 years from the voice, saying, if thou live till thou art 85,— <years old &c>

Hosea 6th chapter after 2 days &c, 2520 years which— bri[n]gs it to 1890.— [John] Taylor says 45 years according <to>— bible recokoning.

the coming of the Son of man never will be, never can be till the judgm[en]ts spoken of for this <hour> are poured out, <which Jud[g]ments are commenced.—>

w Paul says ye are th[e] children of the light & not of the darkness, that that day should not overtake us as a thief in the night.— it is not the design of the Almighty to come upon the Earth & crush it, & grind it to powder.— he will reveal it to his servants the prophets. <O what wondrous wise men there are going about & braying like> (other[s] talk like an ass. cry

<O, lord, where—> Joe Smith.— Joe Smith.— &e <whare—> <O.> away up on the top of the top less throne aha. <&c—>

x Jerusalem— <must be> rebuilt. <Judah return. must return> & the timple— water come out from under the temple— the <waters of the> dead sea be heald.— <it will take> some time to build the walls & the temple. &c & all <this must be done before—>

y Son of Man <will make his appence [appearance]>. wars & rumours of wars. signs in the heavens above on the earth beneath— sun turnd into darkness. moon to blood. earthquakes in divers places, oceans heaving beyond their bounds.— <then> one grand sign of the Son of the son of man in heaven.— but what will the world. do? they will say it is a planet. a comet. &c— conseq[u]ently the son of man will come as the sign of coming of the son of man. <is> as the light of the morni[n]g cometh out of the East.— 10. minutes before 6th—...

z President Joseph. statd that the business of the confrence had closed. & the rem[ai]nder of the confrence would be devoted to instruction— it is an insult to the meeting to have people run out of meeting <Just> before we close. if they must go let them go $\frac{1}{2}$ an hour before. No Gentleman will go out of meeting Just at close...

while the choir was singing— Prest. Joseph remarked. to Elder [Sidney] Rigdon this day is a Millinium. it as is a millenium within these walls there is nothing but peace <nothing to be seen from the stand, but the heads & bodies of the congregation, as they stood on the walls. & covered the walls & the floor it was one mass. of Saints or people. to speak was literally speaking to the people. for there was nothing else to be seen,>...

aa $\frac{1}{4}$ [to] 5. <P.> Joseph said to complete the subject of Bro Pratts.¹ I thought it a glorious subject with one additional-idea <addition> their is no fundamental principle belonging to a human System that never goes into another— <in this world. or the world to come.—> the principle of Mr Pratt was correct. I care not what the theories of men <man> are—we have the testimony that God will raise us up & he has power to do it.— If any one supposes— that any part of our bodies. that is the fundame[n]tal parts thereof, ever goes into another body the is mistaken...

bb 3 requ[e]sts.

1st that all who have faith will pray Lord to calm the wind. for as it is now. I can not speak.

2 that the Lord will strength<en> my Lungs—

3^d that I may have the Holy Ghost.

¹Orson Pratt spoke about the resurrection earlier in the conference; see here.

- The subject which I shall speak from <is> the, beasts spoken of by John.— I have seldom spoken from <the revelati[o]ns> & I do it now to do away division & not that the knowledge is so much needed.—
- cc knowledge is necessary to prevent division although it may puff up it does away suspence [suspense]— in knowledge is power, hence God knows how to subject all beings he has power— over all.
should not have called up this subject if it had not been for this old white head before. Father [Pelatiah] Brown.— I did not like the old man being called up. <before the High council.>— for erring in doctrine.— why I feel so good to have the privilege of thinki[n]g & believing as I please.
- dd they undertook to correct him there Whether they did or not I dont care
Rev— 5 chap. 8 verse.—
Father Brown had been to work & confounded all christendom, that these were figure John saw in heavn to represent the different kingdoms of God on earth. he put down sectarianism, & so far so good.— but I could not help laughing that God should take a figure of a beast to repr[e]sent his kingdom consisting of <Men>. . . . To take a lesser figure to represnt a gr[e]ater, old white head you missed it that time. By figure of Beasts God represented the kingdoms of the world.— Bear. Lion &c represe[n]ted the kingdoms. of the world, Says Daniel. <for>
I refer to the prophets, to qualify my observations. to keep out of the wasp nests or young elders,
- ee The things John say saw had no allusion to the day of Adam Enoch Abraham or Jesus— only as clearly specified & set forth to John. I saw that that which was lying in futurity. Rev 1.1.— read <is> key to the whole subject
4. beasts. & 24 Elders which was out of every nation— <it is> great stuffing, to stuff all nations into 4 beasts & 24 Elders things which <he> saw had no allusions to what had been.— but what must shortly come to pass.— Rev is one of the plain[e]st. books god ever caused to be written—
- ff what John saw he saw in heaven— <that which the> the prophet Saw, in vision, <was> on earth, <and> in Hebrew, <it> is a Latitude & Longitude compar[e]d with English version they saw figurs of beasts.— ~~they~~ why, Dani[e]l did not say <see> a lion & a bear. he saw an image like unto a bear:— in every place.— John saw. the actual beast itself. <it was> to let John know that beasts existed there & not to represent figurs of things on the Earth.— <The> prophets always had interpretati[o]ns of the[i]r visions &c
God always holds himself respons[i]ble to give revelati[o]ns of his visions & <if> he does it not. we are not responsible.— speculators need not fear they shall be condemnd. if God has given no Rev[elation]
- gg How do you prove John saw ~~visions~~ Beasts in heaven? 5 <C[hapter]> 11 <v—> Revelation.— 13 verse every creature. which was in heaven and on the Earth
I John saw all beasts &c in heaven. for I expect he saw the beasts of  1000 forms <from> 10,000 worlds like this.— the grand secret was to tell what was in heaven.— God will gratify himself with all these animals. . . .
says one I cannot beleive in salvati[o]n of bea[s]ts.— I suppose God could underst[a]nd the beasts &c, in certain worlds—the 4 beasts, were angels there. dont know where they came from; <they were intelligent> intelligent.—
<but my> Darling religion, says, <they> meant something beside beast.— then the 24 elders must mean something else:— 4 beasts meant Buonpart [Bonaparte] & Cyrus. &c— then the 24 elders ment the kingdoms of the Beasts.— It is all as flat as a pancake
- hh what do <you> use such flat & vulger <expressions. for> being a prophet? because the old women understa[n]d it, they make pancakes.— the whole argument is flat, & I dont know of any thing bette[r] to repr[e]sent.— the argument.—
there is no revelation any where to shew that the beasts meant any thing but beasts
O ye Elders of Israel hearken to my voice & when ye are sent into the world to preach. tell those things you are sent to tell. declare the first principles, & let mysteries alone lest you be overthrown.—
- ii Father Brown when you go to palmyrar [Palmyra] say nothi[n]g about the 4 B[e]asts Dan^l. 42 13 . . . <C.> 2. verse— <some say> Deadly wound.— <means> Nebuchadnezzar.— Constantine.— & the catholic now for the wasp nest.— priests. & Dragon for Devil they have translated beast in heaven— it was not to rep[re]sent beast on heaven— it was an angel in heaven. who has power in the last days to do a work.— all the world wonderd after the beast:— <&> if the beast was all the world. how could the world wonderd after the beast? When the old devil shall give power to the beast to do all his mighty work all the wo[r]ld will wonder—
- jj who is able to make war with the beast? says the inhabita[n]ts of the earth.— if it means the kin[g]doms of the world it dont mean the kingdoms of the Saints.— who is able to make war with my gr[e]at big self.— The Dragon.— we may interpret it.— & it is sometimes Apolyel.— 9 verse 12 chap— key word.— independent beasts. abstract from the human family.— (25 minutes past 11. lungs faild— the wind blew briskly.)— I said more than I <ever> did before except once at Ramus. & then the little <upstarts <fellows> stufferd me like a coek>. cock turkey— <with the prop[h]ecies of Daniels—> and crammed it down my throat. with their fingers—...

As Reported by William Clayton

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

The next business was appointing the Twelve on their mission &c. He showed the injustice of Ers collecting funds for the Temple inasmuch as they rarely brought them here. The conference must contrive some measures to put the Twelve under bonds, for a true return of monies received by them &c.

As Reported by William Clayton—A

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Have 3 requests— all who have faith exercise. that the Lord may be willing to came [calm] the wind.— Next. have your prayers strengt[h]en my lungs— next I may have the H. G. [Holy Ghost] to enable me to declare such things that are true— subject that I seldom have touched upon since I commenced— subj— of great spec[ulation] as well among the E[lde]rs & the divin[e]s— sub of beast in Rev. Reason why is in consequence of a division of sentiment amongst the Ers my object is
- b to do away div[ision] the knowledge of this thing is not very essential in relation to beasts heads figures &c— if we get to much puffed up— k[nowledge] is nec to do away cont—¹ the k of being puffed up is not so great as the evil of contention if they were to climb to the top of Mt Pisgah the Lord would hear knowledge does away darkness suspense, doubt— for where k is there is no doubt &c, no pain so awful as the pain of suspense— this is the condemnation of the wicked— doubt
- c anxiety causes wailing in k there is power— God has more power than all other beings because he has more k. he knows how to subject other beings Instruct you in relation to the beasts— Er [Pelatiah] Brown has been the cause one of the wisest old heads we have among us has been called up before the high c[ouncil] on account of the beast— The old man preached about the beast &c & was hauled up— never thought it was right to called up a man for erring in doctrines— to[o] much like methodism not Latter Dayism— Methodists has creed— kicked out— want the liberty of believing as I please— feels so
- d good— Dont prove that a man is not a good man because he errs in doctrine— the H. C undertook to correct him— Er B came to me. Rev 5.— four beasts & four & twenty Ers (8 verse) he had confounded all christend[om] by making out the the 4 beasts rep^d k [kingdoms?] wise men could not do any thing with him— any thing to whip sectarian & put down priestcraft— a club as is better than none for a poor man to firht [fight] could not help laughing at the idea of God making use of the figure of a beast to represent the kingdoms of God on the earth— when he could have used a more noble figure what? make use of the figure of a meaner creature to rep a much glorious one— you mist it old man but the sec. did not know enough to detect him,
- e When God made use of the figure of a beast to the prophets he did it to rep. that portion, who had degenerated— the k's of the [[world]]. Daniel says when he saw bear— angel interpreted— had no allusion to the k. of God— all the figure of beast rep. the k of the [[world]] beastly & abominable charcters— they were murderous corrupt carnivorous in their dispositions. Make mention of the prophets to qualify any declaration I am about to make— that the young Ers may not choke me like ¹Probably “k[nowledge] is nec[essary] to do away cont[ention].”

- f hornets— dif between the prophets & the Rev of John— none of the things John saw had any allusion the days of Adam, Enock Ab[raham] or Jesus— only as represented to John & clearly set forth— John saw that which was shortly to come to pass futurity read Rev c 1 v 1— declaration— those things that John saw in h[heaven] had no allusion to any thing that had been on the earth because John saw what was to shortly come to pass— John saw beasts that had to do with things on
- g the earth— but not in past ages The beast had to devour the inhabitants, The Rev. do not give us to understand any thing past in relation of the k of God— what John saw was in heaven— prophets on the earth— going to take exceptions to the translation— distinction pro[phets] do not declare the[y] saw beast but that they saw the image or figure of a beast. they did not see an actual bear or lion— should have been rendered image instead of beast in every instance— John saw the actual beast in heaven, to shew that that being did exist there. when p saw they were images types to represent & they received
- h an interpretation. I set it forth by this broad dec— where God ever gives a vision of an image &c he always holds himself responsible to give a Rev. or interpretation. otherwise we are not responsible— dont be afraid of being damned for not knowing this where God has not given a Rev. read Rev 5— 11— particularly verse 13, John saw curious looking beasts in heaven— saw every creature that was in heaven &c— all the beast foul fish in heaven— actually their giving glory to God. I suppose John saw beings there that had been saved from 10000 times 10000 earths like this— strange beasts— might be seen
- i them in heaven.— John learned that God glorified himself by saving all that his hands made— a man who would tell you that this could not be would tell you that the Revelation John heard the words they said. God could understand every language they talked— the beasts were intelligent being[s] giving glory. Darling religion says that the beasts represent kingdoms very well on the same principle the 24 Er represent beast— said the earth <arg[ument]> was flat as a pan-cake— calculate to
- j overthrow the technicalities of the world. Again— there is no Rev. to prove (& we never can comprehend) without Rev.) if we spiritualise no authority) Ye Ers of Israel hearken to my voice and when ye are sent into the world to preach repent ye for the k. of h is at hand— never meddle with the beasts & subjects you do not understand. Er Brown when you go to Palmyra dont say any thing about the beast the Lord read Rev. c 13 verse 2— they say the beast that received the wound was nebuchadnezer— What John saw in relation to this beast they have used the term Devil for dragon— it was a beast that John
- k saw in heaven— what was shortly to come to pass. the beast was an actual b to which power was to be given an intelligent being in heaven— to have power given— John saw it had been wounded— All the world wondered after the b and if the beast was the world how could the world wonder after the beast— nebucha & constantine not excepted— it must have been
- l a been [beast] that the human beings wondered after. When God gives power to a beast to destroy all will wonder. read verse 4— the inhabitants declared who is able to make war & they worshiped the dragon— some say it means the k's of the [[world]] dont mean the k of the saints— suppose it means the k's of the [[world]] what propriety is there in saying who is able to make war with myself— If these interpretations are true the book contradicts itself in almost every verse— but they are not true.
- m There is a mistranslation— the original word means the devil instead of the dragon— verse 9 ch 12— That old serpent called the devil every thing that we have not a key word to we will take it as it reads. The beasts were being[s] in h that were to have power I give this as a key to the Ers—
- [page [4] blank]

As Reported by William Clayton–B

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

a

<per about April 8 <1843>

<reported by W^m. Clayton>

Pres^t Joseph called upon the choir to sing a him [hymn] and remarked that “tenor charms the ear— bass the heart.” After singing the president spoke in substance as follows.

- b I have three requests to make of the congregation The first is that all who have faith ~~may~~ <will> exercise it that the Lord may be willing to calm the wind. The next is, that I may have your prayers that the Lord may strengthen my lungs so that I may be able to make you all hear. And the next is, that I may have the Holy Ghost to rest upon me so as to enable me to declare those things that are true.
- c The subject I intend to speak upon this morning is one that I have seldom touched upon since I commenced as an Elder of the Church. It is a subject of great speculation as well amongst the Elders of the church as amongst the divines of the day; it is in relation to the beast spoken of in Revelations. The reason why it has been a subject of speculation amongst the Elders, is in consequence of a division of sentiment and opinion in relation to it. ~~may~~ My object is to do away with this difference of opinion. ~~The knowledge of this subject is not very essential to the Elders.~~ To have knowledge in relation to the meaning of beasts with ~~seven~~ <and> heads and ~~ten~~ horns and <other> figure made use of in the revelations is not very essential to the Elders. If we get puffed up by thinking that we have much knowledge, and <we are apt to> get a contentious spirit, and knowledge is necessary to do away contention. The evil of being puffed up is not so great as the evil of contention.
- e Knowledge does away darkness, suspense and doubt, for where Knowledge is there is no doubt nor suspense nor darkness. There is no pain so awful as the pain of suspense. This is the condemnation of the wicked; Their doubt and anxiety and suspense causes weeping, wailing and gnashing of teeth. In knowledge there is power. God has more power than all other beings, because he has greater knowledge, and hence he knows how to subject all other beings to him.
- f I will endeavour to instruct you in relation to the meaning of the beasts and figures spoken of. Er (Pelatiah) Brown has been the cause of ~~the~~ <this> subject being now presented before you. He, ~~is~~ one of the wisest old heads we have among us, has been called up before the High Council on account of the beast. The old man has preached concerning the beast which
- g was full of eyes before and behind and for this he was hauled up for trial. I never thought it was right to call up a man and try him because he erred in doctrine, it looks too much like methodism and not like Latter day Saintism. Methodists have creeds which a man must believe or be kicked out of their church. I want the liberty of believing as I please, it feels so good
- h not to be trammelled. It dont prove that a man is not a good man, because he errs in doctrine. The High Council undertook to censure and correct Er Brown because of his teachings in relation to the beasts, and he came to me to know what he should do about it. The subject ~~was~~ particularly referred to, was the four beasts and four and twenty Elders mentioned in Rev. ch. 5 v. 8. The old man has confounded all christendom ~~that the~~ by making out that the four beasts represented the kingdom of God; the wise men of the day could not do any thing with him, and why should we find fault, anything to whip sectarianism
- i and put down priestcraft; a club is better than no weapon for a poor man to fight with, but I could not help laughing at the idea of God making use of the figure of a beast to represent the kingdom of God on the earth, when he could as well have used a far more noble and consistent figure. What? The Lord make use of the figure of a creature of the brute creation to represent that which is much more ~~and~~ noble and important,— The glories of his kingdom? You missed it that time, old man, but the sectarians did not know enough to detect you.
- j When God made use of the figure of a beast in visions to the prophets, he did it to represent those kingdoms who had degenerated and become corrupt— the kingdoms of the world, but he never made use of the figure of a beast nor any of the brute kind to represent his kingdom. Daniel says when he saw the vision of the four beasts “he <I> came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this”. The Angel interpreted the vision to Daniel, but we find <by> the interpretation <that the figures of beasts> had no allusion to the kingdom of God: You there see that the beasts ~~are~~ <are> spoken of to represent the kingdoms of the world the inhabitants whereof ~~are~~ <were> beastly and abominable characters,
- l they were murderous, corrupt, carnivorous <and brutal> in their dispositions. I make mention of the prophets to qualify my declaration which I am about to make so that the young Elders who know so much may not rise up and choke me like hornets. There is a grand difference and distinction between the visions and figures spoken of by the prophets and those spoken of in the Revelations of John. None of the things John saw had any allusion to the scenes of the days of Adam or of
- m Enoch or of Abraham or Jesus, only as far as is plainly represented by John and clearly set forth. John only saw that which was “shortly to come to pass” and that which was yet in futurity (He read Rev. ch 1 v. 1) Now I make this declaration, that those things which John saw in heaven, had no allusion to any thing that had been on the earth, because John says “he saw what was shortly to come to pass” and not what had <already> transpired. John saw beasts that had to do with things on the earth, but not in past ages; the beasts which ~~John~~ <he> saw had to devour the inhabitants of the earth in days to come. The
- n revelations do not give us to understand any thing of the past in relation to the kingdom of God. What John saw and speaks of were things which were in heaven, what the prophets saw and speak of where [were] things pertaining to the earth. I am now going to take exceptions to the present translation of the bible in relation to these matters. There is a grand distinction
- o between the actual meaning of the prophets and the present translation. The prophets do not declare that the[y] saw a beast or beasts, but that the[y] saw the image or figure of a beast. They ~~do~~ did not see an actual bear or a Lion, but the images or figures of those beasts. The translation should have been rendered “image” instead of “beast” in every instance where beasts are mentioned by the prophets. But John saw the actual beast in heaven, to show to John ~~and to those~~ [2 words illegible]
- p that that being did actually exist there. When the prophets speak of seeing beasts in their visions, they saw the images; the types to represent certain things and at the same time they received the interpretation as to what those images or types were designed to represent. I make this broad declaration, that where God ever gives a vision of an image, or beast or figure of any kind he always holds himself responsible to give a revelation or interpretation of the meaning thereof, otherwise we are not responsible or accountable for our belief in them <it>. Dont be afraid of being damned for not knowing the meaning of a vision or figure where God has not given a revelation or interpretation on the subject (He here read Rev. ch 5 v 11 to 13) John saw curious looking beasts in heaven, he saw every creature that was in heaven, all the beasts, fowls, & fish in heaven, actually there, giving glory to God. I suppose John saw beings there, that had been saved from ten thousand times ten thousand earths like this, strange beasts of which we have no conception <all> might be seen in heaven. John learned that God glorified himself by saving all that his hands had made whether beasts, fowl fishes or man. Any man who would tell you that this could not be, would tell you that the revelations are not true. John heard the words ~~did they~~ <of the> beasts giving glory to God and understood them. God who made the beasts could understand every language spoken by them. The ~~beings~~ beasts were intelligent beings and were seen <and heard> by John praising and glorifying God.

The popular religionists of the day say that the beasts spoken of in the revelations represent kingdoms! Very well, on the same principle we can say that the twenty four Elders spoken of represent beasts, for they are all spoken of at the same time and represented as all ~~joining~~ <uniting> in the same acts of praise and devotion. [blank] <Deacon Hornespun—> said the earth was flat as a pan cake, but science has proved to the contrary. The world is full of, technicalities and misrepresentation, but I calculate to overthrow the technicalities of the world and speak of things as they actually exist. Again there is no revelation to prove that things do not exist, in heaven as I have set forth, and we never can comprehend the things of God and of heaven but by revelation. We may spiritualize and express opinions to all eternity but that is no authority.

Ye Elders of Israel hearken to my voice and when ye are sent into the world to preach, preach and cry aloud “repent ye for the kingdom of heaven is at hand repent and believe the gospel”. Never meddle with the visions of beasts and subjects you do not understand. Er Brown when you go to Palmyra dont say any thing about the beast, but preach those things the Lord has told you to preach about, ~~baptism~~ repentance and baptism for the remission of sins.

(He here read Rev. ch 13 v 2 1 to 8) The spiritualizers say the beast that received the wound was Nebuchadnezzar, but we will look at what John saw in relation to this beast. The translators have used the term “dragon” for “devil”. Now it was a beast that John saw in heaven, and he was then speaking of “things that were shortly to come to pass”. The <And> consequently the beast John saw could not be Nebuchadnezzar The beast John saw <as spoken of in the 13th chapter> was an actual beast to whom power was to be given. An actual intelligent being in heaven and this beast was to have power given him. John saw “one of the heads of the beast as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed; and all the world wondered after the beast,” Nebuchadnezzar and Constantine the great not excepted; it must have been a wonderful beast that all ~~man~~ human beings wondered after it, and I will venture to say that, when God gives power to the beast to destroy the inhabitants of the earth, all will wonder. Verse 4 reads “And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast; and they worshipped the beast saying, who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?[]” Some say it means the kingdoms of the world. One thing is sure, it dont mean the kingdom of the saints. Suppose we admit that it means the kingdoms of the world, what propriety would there be in saying, who is able to make war with myself. If these ~~spiritualizing~~ <spiritualizers> interpretations are true, the book contradicts itself in almost every verse, but they are not true. There is a mistranslation of the word dragon in the second verse. The original hebrew word signifies the devil ~~not~~ <and> not dragon as translated. Read ch 12 v 9 it there reads “that old serpent called the devil,[]” and it ought to be translated devil in this case and not dragon.

Every thing that we have not a key word to, we will take it as it reads. The beasts ~~that~~ <which> John saw and speaks of as being in heaven were actually living in heaven, and were actually to have power given to them over the inhabitants of the earth precisely according to the plain reading of the revelations. I give this as a key to the Elders of Israel.

April 8th. 1843

W^m. Clayton’s report of Joseph’s sermon of this date; which report has been amalgamated with D^r Willard Richards’ report in his journal.

As Reported in Times and Seasons

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here and here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a President Joseph returned his thanks to the assembly for the manifestation of their confidence, and said he would serve them according to the best ability God should give him.
- The first presidency being disposed of, President Joseph said he did not know any thing against the Twelve if he did he would present them for trial. It is not right that all the burden of the Nauvoo House, should rest on a few individuals; and we will now consider the propriety of sending the Twelve to collect means for the Nauvoo House. There has been too great a solicitude, in individuals, for the building of the temple, to the exclusion of the Nauvoo House. The agents have had too great latitude to practice fraud, by receiving donations and never making report. The church has suffered loss, and I am opposed to that system of collecting funds when any elder may receive moneys.
- I am opposed to any man's handling the public funds of the church who is not duly authorized.
- I advise that some means be devised for transacting business on a sure foundation. The Twelve are the most suitable persons to perform this business; and I want the conference to devise some means to bind them as firm as the pillars of heaven, if possible. The Twelve were always honest, and it will do them no hurt to bind them.
- c It has been reported that they receive wages at two dollars per day for their services. I have never heard this till recently, and I do not believe it. I know the Twelve have never had any wages at all. They have fulfilled their duty— they have always gone where they were sent, and have labored with their hands for their support, when at home. If we send them into the world to collect funds, we want them to return those funds to this place, that they may be appropriated to the very purpose for which they were designed. I go in for binding up the Twelve, solid, putting them under bonds; and let this conference institute an order to this end, and that the travelling expenses of the agents shall not be borne out of the funds collected for building these houses, and let no man pay money or stock into the hands of the Twelve, except he transmit an account of the same immediately to the Trustee in Trust; and let no man but the Twelve have authority to act as agent for the temple and Nauvoo House.
- d I would suggest the propriety of your saying that no money should ever be sent by any man except it be some one whom you have appointed as agent, and stop every other man from receiving moneys. It has been customary for any elder to receive moneys for the Temple when he is travelling, but this system of things opens a wide field for every kind of imposition, as any man can assume the name of a Mormon elder, and gather his pockets full of money and go to Texas. Many complaints have come to me of money being sent that I have never received. I will mention one case. He is a good man; his name is Russell, from Akron, New York. His brother had been east on business for him, and there received twenty or twenty-five dollars, as a donation to the Temple, which he put in Russel's bag, with his money, and forgot to take it out before he returned the bag.
- g Two or three days after his return, he called on his brother for the money belonging to the church; but Russell thought his brother had paid out too much of his money, and he would keep the church's money to make good his own. I called to see Russell about the money, and he treated me very politely, but did not give me to understand he ever meant to pay it. He said he did not know at the time, that there was any church money in the bag; that he had paid it out, and he had none now.
- h -[The brother who brought the money from the east, stated to the conference, that he did not think it was because his brother was short of funds, that he kept it, for he had money enough. He had told him that he should not be out of funds again; that his brother had twenty dollars of the church funds, and some dried fruit for the president.]-
- i President Joseph resumed. I give this as a sample of a thousand instances. We cannot give an account to satisfy the people, on the church books, unless something is done. I propose that you send your moneys for the Temple by the Twelve, some one or all; or some agent of your own choosing, and if you send by others, and the money is lost, 'tis lost to yourselves; I cannot be responsible for it.— Every thing that falls into my hands shall be appropriated to the very thing it was designed for.
- j Next, it is wrong for the church to make a bridge of my nose, in appropriating church funds. The incorporation required of me securities, which were lodged in the proper hands as the law directs; and I am responsible for all that comes into my hands.
- Next, the Temple Committee are bound to me in the sum of $2000, with good securities. If they appropriate any property where they ought not, they are liable to me for it; and the church are running to them, with funds every day, and thus make a bridge over my nose. I am not responsible for it. If you put it into the hands of the Temple Committee, I, nor my clerk, know nothing of it.
- k So long as you consider me worthy to hold this office, it is your duty to attend to the legal forms belonging to the business; and if not, put some other one in my place. My desire is that the conference minutes may go forth in such form, as those abroad may learn the order of doing business; and that the Twelve be appointed to this special mission, of collecting funds for the Nauvoo House; so that all may know how to send their funds safe, or bring them themselves, and deliver them to the Trustee in Trust, or my clerk, who can always be found in my office. Who are the Temple Committee that they should receive the funds? They are nobody.
- l When I went to the White House, at Washington, and presented letters of introduction, from Thomas Carlin, Governor of Illinois, to Martin Van Buren, he looked at it very insignificantly and said, 'Governor Carlin! Governor Carlin!! who's Governor Carlin? Governor Carlin's nobody.' I erred in spirit. I confess my mistake; and I here make my apology to all the world, and let it be recorded on earth and in heaven, that I am clear of the sin of being angry with Martin Van Buren for saying that "Governor Carlin's nobody." I have been sorry for it ever since. All property ought to go through the hands of the Trustee in Trust.

There have been complaints against the Temple Committee for appropriating church funds more freely for the benefit of their own children, than to others, who need assistance more than they do; and the parties may have till Saturday to prepare for trial...

President Joseph Smith said, I think it best to continue this subject. I want the elders to make honorable proclamation abroad concerning what the feelings of the first presidency is, for stealing has never been tolerated by them. I despise a thief above ground. He would betray me if he could get the opportunity. I would know that he would be a detriment to my cause, and if I were the biggest rogue in the world, he would steal my house when I wanted to run away.

It has been said that some were afraid to disclose what they know of these secret combinations, consequently I issued a proclamation which you may read in the Wasp, No. 48, which the president read,

PROCLAMTION,

To the Citizens of Nauvoo.

Whereas it appears by the re-publication of the foregoing proceedings and declaration, that I have not altered my views on the subject of stealing: And whereas it is reported that there now exists a band of desperadoes, bound by oaths of secrecy, under severe penalties in case any member of the combination divulges their plans of stealing and conveying properties from station to station, up and down the Mississippi and other routes: And whereas it is reported that the fear of the execution of the pains and penalties of their secret oaths, on their persons, prevents some of the members of said secret association, (who have, through falsehood and deceit, been drawn into their snares,) from divulging the same to the legally Constituted authorities of the land:

Know ye, therefore, That I, Joseph Smith, Mayor of the city of Nauvoo, will grant and ensure protection against all personal mob violence, to each and every citizen of this city, who will freely and voluntarily come before me, and truly make known the names of all such abominable characters as are engaged in said secret combination for stealing, or are accessory thereto in any manner; and I would respectfully solicit the co-operation of all ministers of Justice, in this and the neighboring states, to ferret out a band of thievish outlaws from our midst.

Given under my hand at Nauvoo City, this 25th day of March, A. D. 1843.

JOSEPH SMITH,
Mayor of said City.

If any man is afraid to disclose what he knows about this gang of thieves let him come to me, and tell me the truth, and I will protect him from violence. Thieving must be stopped.

Opportunity was then offered to the elders to bring forward their appeals from other conferences, but no case was presented.

President Joseph continued his remarks and said; it is necessary that I make a proclamation, concerning Keokuk; and also in relation to the economy of the church on that side of the river.

It has been supposed that I made a great bargain with a certain great man at Keokuk. He came to my house about the 1st of August 1842, a stranger, and put on a long face, and said he was "a stranger in the place, and he was in distress; and having understood that I was very benevolent, he had come to me for help. He said that he was about to loose $1400 at Sheriff's sale for $300 cash. I have money in St. Louis, which I expect in two or three days; but the sale takes place to-morrow, and I want to hire money for two or three days." I thought of this subject over night. I did not like the looks of the man, but thought I, he is a stranger. I have been a stranger in a strange land, and whenever I have asked for assistance I have obtained it. It may be he is an honest man, and if I turn him away I shall be guilty of the sin of ingratitude, and I had better loose $200 in good faith, than be guilty of ingratitude. So I let him have the money and he gave me his note payable on demand, saying "whenever you call on me you shall have the money."

When I was taken with [Thomas] Carlin's writ, I asked him for the money. "You ought to have it," said he, "but I have not got my money from St. Louis, I shall have it in a few days." He then stated, I have a curious plan in my mind which I think may be profitable both for you and me. It is this, "I will give you a quit claim deed of all the land you bought of [Isaac] Galland; which is 20,000 acres: you paid Galland the notes, and ought to have them; they are in my hands as his agent, and I will give them up." I also propose deeding to you one half of my right to all my land in the Iowa Territory; and all I ask in return, is for you to give your influence to help to build up Keokuk."

I replied I have not asked for your property, and do not want it. I would not give a snap of my finger for it; but I will receive the papers, and if I find things as you say I will use my influence to build up Keokuk; but I will give you nothing for the land, and I want the $200 which is due me. He made out the deeds and gave them to me, and I got them recorded. He also gave up the most of the notes. I then said to Uncle John [Smith], if you will go there, with the brethren, I will give you the property; but he would not accept it.

- w This man called for some more favors, and I let him have some cloth, &c. to the amount of six or seven hundred dollars. I have offered this land to many if they would go and settle there; but nobody will go. He began soon after to say to the brethren what obligations I was under to him. I wrote him a letter on the subject, but I have since found he is swindling, and there is no prospect of getting any thing from him.
- x He is owing me about $1100, and I thought it my duty to publish his rascality, that the elders might do the same in that Territory, and prevent the brethren from being imposed upon.— He has got a writing to this effect, that if he owned as much as he pretended, and would do as he said, I would give my influence to build up Keokuk, and on other terms.
- y His name is J[acob] G. Remick, he took this plan to swindle me out of money, cloth, boards, &c. I want all the congregation to know it. I was not going to use any influence to have the brethren to go to be swindled. My advice is, if they choose, that they come away from Keokuk and not go there more; it is not a good location.
- z I am not so much a christian as many suppose I am, when a man undertakes to ride me for a horse, I feel disposed to kick up and throw him off, and ride him. David did so, and so did Joshua. My only weapon is my tongue. I would not buy property in the Iowa Territory: I considered it stooping to accept it as a gift...

As Reported by James Burgess

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Christ says no man knoweth the day or the hour when the Son of man cometh.
This is a sweeping argument for sectarianism against Latterdayism Did Christ speak this as a general principle throughout all generations Oh no he spake in the present tense no man that was then liveing upon the footstool of God knew the day or the hour But he did not say that there was no man throughout all generations that should not know the day or the hour No
- b for this would be in flat contradecton with other scripture for the prophet says that God will do nothing but what he will reveal unto his Servants the prophets consequently if it is not made known to the Prophets it will not come to pass; again we find Paul 1rst of Thessilonians 5th chapter expressly points out the characters who shall not know the day nor the hour
- c the when the Son of Man cometh for says he it will come upon them as the theif or unawares. Who are they they are the children of darkness or night. But to the Saints he says yea are not of the night nor of darkness that that day should come upon you unawares. John the revelator says 14 chap 7th verse that the hour of his judgements is come they are precursors or
- d forerunners of the comeing of Christ. Read Mathew 24 Chap and all the Prophets. He says then shall they see the sign of the coming of the Son of Man in the clouds of Heaven. How are we to see it ans[wer], As the lighting up of the morning or the dawning of the morning cometh from the east and Shineth unto the west— So also is the comeing of the Son of Man. The dawning of the morning makes its appearance in the east and moves along gradually s[o] also will the comeing of the
- e Son of Man be. it will be small at its first appearance and gradually becomes large<r> untill every eye shall see it. Shall the Saints understand it Oh yes, Paul says so. Shall the wicked understand Oh no they attribute it to a natural cause. They will probably suppose it is too great Comets comeing in contact with each other
- It will be small at first and will grow larger and larger untill it will be all in a blaze so that every eye shall see it.

As Reported by Franklin D. Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here and here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Joseph said
- When he was asking to know of the time of Christs second Coming he obtained for answer ~~thy~~ <my> son if thou shalt live untill thou art Eighty five years old thou shalt see the son of man on Earth Joseph was born in Sharon Windsor County Vermont Dec 23 1805 He is therefore now 37 years old last Dec which leaves 48 years yet to transpire untill the tim[e] of Promise that Joseph should see Christ...
- b The reason why God is greater than all others IS He knows how to subject all things to himself Knowledge is Power
A beast is never used to represent the Church BUT man in his degenerate state having become like brute Beasts
None of Johns beasts refer or apply to any thing previous to Christ except it is specified (Quoted Rev 4-1)
- c The Revelator John saw THINGS in Heaven <Beasts women &c> The Prophets on Earth, in vision saw (as the Hebrew says) the images of Beasts Rev 5 13th Proves that John saw Beasts in Heaven and heard them speak praise to God do not know what Language they speak.

Discourse, 13 April 1843

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a I most heartily congratulate you on your safe arrival— at Nauvoo. & your safe deliverance from all the dangers & difficultis you have had to encou[n]ter but you must not think your tribulations. are ended.—
I shall not address you on doctrin but concerni[n]g your temporal welfare
- b inasmuch as you have come up here assaying to keep the Comma[n]dments <of God> I pronou[n]ce the blessings of heaven <& earth> upon you. & inasmuch as will <follow> counsel. & act wisely. & do right these blessings shall rest upon you so far as I have power of <with> God to seal them up[o]n you
- c I am you[r] servnt. & it is only through the Holy Ghost. that I can do you good. God is able to do his own work.
we do not present ourselves <before you> as any thing but your humble servnts. willing to ~~be spent~~ spend & be spent in your ~~servant~~ services.
- d we shall dwell on your temperal welware [welfare]. on this occasion. In the 1st place. where a crowd is flocking from all parts of the world of diffrt [different] minds; religion; &c, <there will be some> who do not live up to the Commandm[en]ts. <there will be>— & designing characters, who would turn you aside & lead you astray.— speculators who would get away your property. therefore it is necessary we should have an order here, <&> when emigra[n]ts arrive to instruct. them concerning these things.
- e If the heads of the church had have laid the foundati[o]ns <of this place, & have had the trouble of> & of doing what has been done— are they not better qualifid to tell you how to lay out your money & than those who have had no interest— &c

Some start on the revelati[o]ns to come here. & get turned away & loose [lose] all, & then come, and enter their complaints, <to us> when it is too late to do any thing for them

f the object of this meeting is to tell you these things & then if you <will pursue the same cou[r]ses you must bear the consequence. There are sev[er]al objects in your coming here—> one objct has been to bring you from. Sectarian bondage another. from National bondage. where you can be planted in a fertile soil, We have brought you into a free government. not that you are to consider yourselves outlaws. by free governme[n]t, we do not mean that a man has a right to steal <rob>. &c <but free> from Bondage. taxation— oppression. free in every thing if he conduct himself hone[s]tly & circumspe[c]tly with his n[e]ighbor, free in a spiritual capacity.—

g This is the place that is appointed for the oracles of God to be revealed. If you have any darkness you have only to ask & the dar[k]ness is removed. tis not necessary that miracles should be <wrought> to remove darkness Miracles are the fruits of faith. “how shall we believe on him ~~on~~ <of> whom <&c> ~~&c~~ we have not heard.

I.E. inasmuch as I have received knowledge before I God may correct <the scriptur by me if he choose>

g faith comes by hearing the word of God. <& not faith by hearing & hearing by the word &c> If a man has not faith enough to do one thing he may do another, <if he cannot remove a Mountain he may heal the Sick.> where faith is there will be some of the fruits. all gift & powed <which were> ~~out~~ <poured> out from heaven were poured out on the heads of those who had faith. You must have a oneness of heart in all things, You shall be satisfied one way or the other with us before you have done
i with us.— <there are a> great many old huts here <but they> are all new. our city is not 6 or 700 years <old> as <those> you come from, it is only a 4 year old not  4 year old ~~not~~ <but> 3 year old. <we> comncd [commenced] building 3 years last fall. <there> few old settlers— I got away fro[m] my keepers <in Missouri> & ran & came on these shore[s], & found 4 or j 500 families & <I> went to work to get meat & flour folks were not afraid to trust. me. I went to work & bought all this region of country:— <& I cried> Lord what will thou have me to do? <& the answr was> build up a city <&> call my saints to this place: & our hea[r]ts leaped with joy to see you coming here. We have been praying for you all winter, from the bottom of hearts, We are glad to see you—

k we are poor— & cannot do by you as we would. but will do all we can.—

’Tis not to be expected that all can locate in the city.— there are ~~are~~ some who have money & will <build— &> hire. others, those who cannot purchase. lots can go out in the country.— the farmers wants your labors.— no industrious man need suffer in this land.—

l the claims of the poor <on us> are such that we have claim of <on> your good feelings for your money. to help the poor. & the chu[r]ch debts <also have their dem[a]nds to>— save the credit of the church. this credit has been obtained to help the poor. & keep them from starvation. &c— those who purchase church lands. & pay for it, this shall be their sacrifice,

m Men of 50. & 100.000 dollars, who were robbed <of every thing> in the State of Mo. are laboring in this city for a morsel <of bread.>. <& there are those> who must have starved but for the providence of God through me. If any man say here is land. or there is land. beleive it— not.— we can beat all our competitors in lands. price. & every think [thing], <we have the> high[e]st pricees. best lands. & do the most good with. th[e] money. <we get.> <our system> it is a real smut machine a bolting machine.— & all the <shorts> brann & smut. runs away & all the flour remains with us.—

n suppose I sell you land for $10. per acre & I gave 3. 4. 5 per acre . . . then you are speculating <says one,> yes, I will tell you how. I buy others lands & give them to the widow & the fatherless,—

If they these <the> speculators run again[s]t me they run again[s]t the buckler of Jehovah.— God did not send me up as he did Joshua, in former days God sent his servnts to fight, but in the last days he has promised to fight the battle himself.

o God will deal with you himself. & will bless or curse you as you do behave your selves. I speak to you as one having authority. that you may know when it come & that you may have faith. & know that God has sent me.

<The lower part of the town is the most healt[h]y,> In <th[e]> upper part of the town the Merchants will say I am partial— &c but The lower part of the town is much the most healthy. I tell you in the name of the Lord.— I have been out in all parts of the city. att all times of night to learn these thi[n]gs.

p The Doctors in this region dont know much; & the lawyers, <when I spoke about them—> began to say we will ~~known~~ renounce you. on the stand.— but they dont come up & I take the libe[r]ty to say what I ~~care~~ have a mind to about. them.

Doctors wont tell you where to go to be well. they want to kill. or cure you to get Your money.—

Calomel Doctor will give you calomel to cure a sliver in the big toe

& does not stop to know if whether the stomach is empty or not.— <& calomel on an empty stomach will kill the patient.>

& the Lobelia doctors will do the same.

q point me out a patient & I will tell you whether calomel or Lobelia will kill ~~kill~~ <him> or not. if you give it, The river Mississippi is healthy. unless they drink, it. & it is more healthy then the spring water— dig wells from 15 to 30 feet. and it will be healthy.

There are many sloughs on th[e] Islands. f[r]om <whence> Miasma arises in the summer, and is blown over the upper part of the city.— but it does not extend over the lower part of the city.—

r all those pers[o]ns who are not used to liv[i]ng on a river, or lake or large pond of water— I do not want you should stay on the banks of the river. get away to the lower part of the city. back on the hill . . . where you can get. good— well water.—

if you feel any inconvenience take some mild physic. 2 or 3 times & then some good bitters— if you cant get any thing else take a little salts. & Cyanne [cayenne] pepper— if you cant get salt take pecoria.— or gnaw down a butternut tree, <eat some> boneset, <or> hoarhound.

- s Those who have ~~may~~ money come to me & I will let you have lands & those who have not money if they look as well as I do I will give you advice that will do you good 12 $\frac{1}{4}$ — I bless you in the name of Jesus Chit [Christ] Amen

Discourse, 16 April 1843

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Joseph read Bro Pratts [Parley P. Pratt's] letters to the Editor of "T[imes] & Seasons" conerning the death of Lorenzo Barn[e]s. <& remarked he read it because it was so appropriate to all who had died in the faith.—> Almost all who have fallen in these last days, in the church, have fallen in a strange land, this is a strange land. to tho[s]e who have come from a distance.
- b we should cultivate sympathy for the afflicted. among us.
If there is a place on earth. where men should cultivate this spirit & pour in the oil & wine <in the bosom of the afflicted> it is this place.
<and this spirit is manifest here—> and although he is a stranger <& afflicted.> when he arrives, he finds. a brother— & friend ready to administer to his necessities.—
- c another remark, I would esteem it one of the greatest blessings, if I am to be afflicted in this world, to have my lot cast where I can find brethen & friends all arou[n]d me, <but> this is not. <thing. I referred to is <it> is> to have the privilege of having our dead buri[e]d on the land where god has appointd to gather his saints together,— & where there will be nothing
- d but saints, where they may have the privelige of laying their bodies where <the> Son will make his appearance. & where they may hear the. sound of the trump that shall call them forth, to behold him, that in the morn of the resurrecti[o]n, they may come forth in a body. & come right up out of their graves. & strike hands <immediately> in eternal glory. <& felicity
- e rather> than to be scattered thousands of miles apart. There is something good. & sacred to me— <in this thing.> the place where a man is buried has been sacred to me.— <this subjct is made mention of—> In Book of Mormon & Scripturs. & <to> the aborigines <regard> the burying places of the<ir> fathers as <is> more sacred ~~that~~ than any thing else.
- f When I. heard of the death of our beloved bro <Barns it would not have affected me so much> if I had the opp[o]rtunity of burying him in the land of Zion. I beleive, those who have buried their friends here their condition is enviable. Look at Joseph in Egypt how he required his friends to bury him in the tomb of his fathers,— see the expence & ~~great company~~—& <which attended the> embalming. <&e <and> the going up of the great company. to his burial.>
- g It has always been considird a g[r]eat curse not to obtain an honorable buryal. <& one of the gratest curses the anci[e]nt prophets could put on any one was. that he man should go without a burial.>
I have said, father, I desire to be burid here, & before I go home, but if <this is not thy will> ~~not~~ may I return, or find Some kind friend to bring me back, & gather my friends, who have fallen in foreign lands, & bring them up hither, that we may may all lie together.—
- h I will tell you what I want. if tomorrow I shall be calld to lay in yonder tombs. in the morning of the resurrecti[o]n, let me strike hand<s> with my father, & cry, my father, & he will say my son, my Son,— as soon as the rock rends. & before we come out of our graves.
- i & may we contemplate these things so? yes, if we learn how to live & how to die [blank]. when we lie down we contemplat how we may rise up in the morni[n]g and <it is> pleasing for friends to lie down together locked in the arms of love, to sleep, & wake in each others embrace <& renew their conversation.>

- i would you think it strange that I relate what I have seen in vision in relation.— this intere[s]ting theme.
Those who have died in Jesus christ, may expect to enter in to all that fruition of Joy when they come forth. which they have possessed here,
- k so plain was the vision I actually saw men, before they had ascend[e]d from the tomb, as though they were getti[n]g up slowly, they tooke each othe[r] by the hand & it was my father & my Son. my mother & my daughter. <my brother & my sister> & when the voice calls, suppose I am laid by the side of my fathe[r].— what would be the first Joy of my heart? where is my fathr. my mother. my sister. they are by my side <I embrace them. & they me.>
It is my meditati[o]n all the day & more than my meat & drink to know how I shall make the saints of God to comprehe[n]d the visions that roll like <an> overflowing surge; ~~to~~ <before> my vision <mind>.
- l O how I wo[u]ld delight to bring before you things which you never thought of. but poverty. & the cares of the world prevent. but I am glad I have the privilege of communicati[n]g to you some things, which if grasped closely a will be a help to you when the clouds <are> gath[er]ing. & the storms <are> ready—— to bu[r]st up[o]n you like peals of thunder, lay hold of these things & let not you[r] knees tremble, <nor your hearts faint.> what can Earthequakes ~~do~~. wars. & tornados do? nothing.— all your losses will be made up to you in the resurrecti[o]n provi[d]ed you continue faithful
- m by the vision of the almighty I have seen it.— more painful to me the thoughts of annihilation & than death. if I had no expectation of seeing my mother Broth[ers] & Sisters & fri[e]nds again my heart would burst in a moment. & I should go down to my grave. The expectati[o]n of seeing my f[r]iends in the morni[n]g of the resurrection cheers my soul. and make be bear up against the evils of life. it ~~it~~ is like their taking a long journey. & on their return we meet them with increasd joy.
- n God has reveald his son from the heavens. & the doctrine of the resurrection also. & we have a knowledge that those we bury here. God bring them up again. clothed upon, & quckend [quickened] by the spirit of the great god. & what mattereth it whether we lay them down, or we lay down with them. when we can ~~live~~ keep them no longer
- o then let them sink down; like a ship in the storm. the mighty anchor holds the storm so let those thuths [truths] sink down in our hearts. that we may even here begin to enjoy. that which shall be in full hereafter.
Hosanna. Hosanna. Hosanna, to Almighty god that rays of light begin to bu[r]st fo[r]th upon us even now.
- p I cannot find words to express myself I am not learnd. but I have as good feelings as any man. O that I had the the language of the archangel to express my feelings once to my frends. but I never expect to when othe[r]s regoice I regoice. when I they mourn I would mourn—
- q to Marcellus Bates. let me admi[ni]ster comfort, you shall soon have the company of your companion in a wo[r]ld of glory— & the frends of Bro. Barns.— & all the saints who are mourning, this has been a warning voice to us all. to be sober— & diligent— & lay aside mirth & vanity. & folly.— & be preparad to die tomorrow

As Reported by Wilford Woodruff

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a he said he should have been more reconciled to the death of Elder [Lorenzo] barnes could his bodey have been laid in the grave in Nauvoo or among the saints, he said he had vary peculiar feelings relative to recieving an honorable burial with his fathers he considered Nauvoo would be a burying place of the saints & should he die he considered it would be a great
- b Blessing to be buried with the saints & esspecially to be buried with his father yes he wanted to lie by the side of his father that when the trump of God should sound & the voice of God should say ye Saints arise that when the tomb should birst he could arise from the grave & first salute his father & say O my father; & his father say O my Son!! as they took each other
- c by the hand he wished next to salute his brothers & sisters & then the saints & he said it was upon this principle that the ancients were so particular to have an honorable burial with their fathers as in the case of Joseph, before his death he made his kindred promise to carry his bones to the land of Canann & they did so they embalmed his body took it to the land of
- d Canaan & buried it with his fathers their is a glory in this that many do not comprehend, it is true that in the resurrection that the bodies will be caught up to meet the Lord & the saints will all be brought together though they were scattered upon the face of the whole earth yet they would not as readily salute each other as though they lay down & rose up together from the same bed, To bring it to the understanding it would be upon the same principle as though two who were vary friends indeed should lie down upon the same bed at night locked in each other embrace talking of their love & should awake in the morning together they could immediately renew their conversation of love even while rising, from their bed but if ~~their~~ <they> were alone & in seperate apartments they could not as readily salute each other as though they were together He remarked that should he live & have an opportunity of gathering his friends who had died together he intended to do it but is <if> he should not live to do it himself he hoped that some of his friends would. He wished all of the saints to be comforted with the victory they were to gain by the resurrection it is sufficient to encorage the saints to overcome in the midst of evry trial trouble & tribulation though thunders roar & earthquakes bellow, lightnings flash & wars are upon evry hand yet suffer not a joint to tremble nor let not your heart faint for the great Eloheem will deliver you & if not before the resurrection will set you eternally free from all these things from pain sorrow & death. I have labored hard & sought evry way to try to prepare this people to comprehend the things that God is unfolding to me In speaking of the resurrection I would say that God hath shown unto me a vission of the resurrection of the dead & I saw the graves open & the saints as they arose took each other by the hand even before they got up or while getting up & great joy & glory rested upon them [12 lines blank]

As Reported by William Clayton

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

Sund 16 Heard pres. J preach on the resurrection. shewing the importance of being buried with the saints & their relatives inasmuch as we shall want to see our relatives first & shall rejoice to strike hands with our parents, children &c when rising from the tomb,

Discourse, 6 May 1843

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

In my remark told the Legion. when we have petitiond those in power to for assistance they have always told us they had no power to help us, damn such power.— when they give me power to protect the innocent <I will never say I can do nothing>. I will ex[er]cise that power <for their good.—>— So help me God.

As Reported by Levi Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

speaking of power in relation to our country & the innocent,— he said that those who held power when applied to by those who were suffering <had> received in answer “We cant do any thing for you,”— “damn such power”,— If I have power, & am called on by the innocent sufferer ” I swear ~~I will use~~ by the great God I will use that power for them— & not say I cant do any thing for you— I can do something— & I will! [10 lines blank]

Discourse, 14 May 1843–A

As Reported by Wilford Woodruff

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a It is not wisdom that we should have all knowledge at once presented before us but that we should have a little then we can comprehend it. He then read the second Epistle of Peter 1st ch 16 to last vers & dwelt upon the 19: vers with som remarks Ad[d] to your faith knowledge &c The principl of knowledge is the principle of Salvation the Principle can be comprehended,
- b for any one that cannot get knowledge to be Saved will be damned. The Principl of Salvation is given to us through the knowledge of Jesus Christ Salvation is nothing more or less than to triumph over all our enemies & put them under our feet & when we have power to put all enemies under our feet in this world & a knowledge to triumph over all evil spirits in the world to come then we are saved as in the case of Jesus he was to reign untill he had put all enemies under his feet & the last enemy was death
- Perhaps there are principle here that few men have thought of. No power <person> can have this Salvation except through a tabernacle
- c Now in this world mankind are naturly selfish, ambitious & striving to excell one above another so while yet some are
- d willing to build up others as well as themselves so in the other world their is a variety of spirits some who seek to excell, & this was the case with the devil when he fell he sought for things which were unlawful hence he was cast down & it is said he drew away many with him & the greatness of his punishment is that he shall not have a tabernacle this is his punishment
- e So the devil thinking to thwart the decree of God by going up & down in the earth seeking whome he may destroy any person that he can find that will yield to him he will bind <him> & take possession of the body & reign there glorying in it
- f mightily not thinking that he had got a stolen tabernacle & by & by someone of Authority will come along & cast him out & restore the tabernacle to his rightful owner but the devil steals a tabernacle because he is has not one of his own but if he steals one he is liable to be turned out of doors

- g Now their is some grand secrett here & keys to unlock the subject Notwithstanding the Apostle Exhorts them to ~~make their Calling~~ Add to their faith virtue knowledge temperan[c]e &c yet he Exhorts them to make their calling & election shure & though they had he[a]rd the audible voice from heaven bearing testinoy [testimony] that Jesus was the son of God yet he says we have a more sure word of Prophecy whare unto ye do well that ye take heed as unto a light shining in a dark place.
- h Now wharein could they have a more sure word of prophecy than to hear the voice of God saying this is my Beloved son &c Now for the secret & grand [drawing of a key] key. though they might hear the voice of God & know that Jesus was the son of God this would be no evidence that their election & calling & ~~election~~ was made shure that they had part with Christ & was a Joint heir with him, they then would want that more sure word of prophecy that they were sealed in the heavens & had
- i the promise of eternal live in the kingdom of God— then having this promise sealed unto them it was as an anchor to the soul sure & steadfast though the thunders might roll; & lightnings flash & earthquakes Bellow & war gather thick around yet this hope & knowledge would support the soul in evry hour of trial trouble & tribulation Then knowledge through our Lord & Savior Jesus Christ— is the grand key [drawing of a key] that unlocks the glories & misteries of the kingdom of heaven
- j Compar this principle once with Christendom at the present day & whare are they with all their boasted religion piety & sacredness while at the same time they are crying out against Prophets Apostles Angels Revelations Propheesyings, & visions
- k &c. why they are Just ripening for the damnation of hell, they will be damned for they reject the most glorious principle of the gospel of Jesus Christ & treat with disdain & trample under foot the main key that unlocks the heavens & puts in our possession the glories of the celestial world. yes I say such will be damned with all their professed godliness
- l Then I would exhort you to go on & continue to call upon God untill you make your calling & election sure for yourselves by obtaining this more sure word of Prophescy & wait patiently for the promise untill you obtain it

Discourse, 14 May 1843–B

As Reported by Wilford Woodruff

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a The way to get along in any important matters was to gather unto yourself wise men, experienced & aged men to assist in council in all times of trouble handsome men are not off wise & strongminded men, but the Strength of a strong minded man will create corse features like the rough & strong bough of the oak. You will always discover in the first glance of a man in the outlines of his features Somthing of the mind of the man.
- b Excitement has almost become the essens of my life when that dies away I feel almost lost when a man is reigned up continually by excitement he becomes strong & gains power & knowledge but when he relaxes for a season he looses much of his power & knowledge But in all matters temporal or spiritual Preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ or in leading an army
- c to Battle victory almost entirely depends upon good order & moderation (in going to Battle moove slow dress up into a line & though your enemy rush upon you with fury meet them slow but firmly let not confusion or terror seize your Breast But meet them firmly & strike a heavy blow & Conquer. A man can bear a heavy ~~Burthen~~ Burden by practice & Continueing to
- d increase it The inhabitants of this Continant anciently were so constituted & were so determined & persevering either in righteousness or wickedness that God visited them immediately either with great judgments or Blessings But the present generation if they were going to Battle if they ~~God~~ Got any assistance from God would have to obtain it it By faith

Letter to Editor, circa 20 May 1843

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a To the EDITOR of the TIMES & SEASONS.
- Sir;—Through the medium of your paper, I wish to correct an error among men that profess to be learned, liberal and wise; and I do it the more cheerfully, because I hope sober-thinking and sound-reasoning people will sooner listen to the voice of truth, than be led astray by the vain pretensions of the self-wise. The error I speak of, is the definition of the word “mormon.” It has been stated that this word was derived from the Greek word mormo. This is not the case. There was no Greek or Latin upon the plates from which I, through the grace of God, translated the Book of Mormon. Let the language of that book speak for itself. On the 523d page, of the fourth edition, it reads:
- c “And now behold we have written this record according to our knowledge in the characters, which are called among us the Reformed Egyptian, being handed down and altered by us, according to our manner of speech; and if our plates had been sufficiently large, we should have written in Hebrew: but the Hebrew hath been altered by us, also; and if we could have written in Hebrew, behold ye would have had no imperfection in our record, but the Lord knoweth the things which we have written, and also, that none other people knoweth our language; therefore he hath prepared means for the interpretation thereof.”
- d Here then the subject is put to silence, for “none other people knoweth our language,” therefore the Lord, and not man, had to interpret, after the people were all dead. And, as Paul said, “the world by wisdom know not God,” so the world by speculation are destitute of revelation; and as God in his superior wisdom, has always given his saints, wherever he had any on the earth, the same spirit, and that spirit, as John says, is the true spirit of prophesy, which is the testimony of Jesus, I may safely say that the word Mormon stands independent of the learning and wisdom of this generation.— Before I give a definition, however, to the word, let me say that the Bible in its widest sense, means good; for the Savior says according to the gospel of John, “I am the good shepherd;” and it will not be beyond the common use of terms, to say that good is among the most important in use, and though known by various names in different languages, still its meaning is the same, and is ever in opposition to bad. We say from the Saxon, good; the Dane, god; the Goth, goda; the German, gut; the Dutch, goed; the Latin, bonus; the Greek, kalos; the Hebrew, tob; and the Egyptian, mon. Hence, with the addition of more, or the contraction, mor, we have the word mormon; which means, literally, *more*¹ good.²

Yours,

JOSEPH SMITH.

Instruction, 16 May 1843

As Reported by William Clayton

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

¹It's pretty clear he means “more good (in addition to the Bible, which means “good”).” He’s saying that the Book of Mormon provides additional good on top of what the Bible provides.

²For discussion of this letter and the term “Mormon,” see this extended study.

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Before we retired the prest. gave bro Johnson & wife some instructions on the priesthood. He put his hand on my knee and says "your life is hid with Christ in God." and so is many others". Addressing Benjamin [F. Johnson] says he "nothing but the unpardonable sin can prevent him (me) from inheriting eternal glory for he is sealed up by the power of the priesthood
- b unto eternal life having taken the step which is necessary for that purpose." He said that except a man and his wife enter into an everlasting covenant and be married for eternity while in this probation by the power and authority of the Holy priesthood they will cease to increase when they die (i e) they will not have any children in the resurrection, but those who are married by the power & authority of the priesthood in this life & continue without committing the sin against the Holy
- c Ghost will continue to increase & have children in the celestial glory. The unpardonable sin is to shed innocent blood or be accessory thereto. All other sins will be visited with judgement in the flesh and the spirit being delivered to the buffetings of Satan untill the day of the Lord Jesus." I feel desirous to be united in an everlasting covenant to my wife and pray that it may soon be.
- d pres^t J. said that they way he knew in whom to confide. God told him in whom he might place confidence. He also said that in the celestial glory there was three heavens or degrees, and in order to obtain the highest a man must enter into this order of the priesthood and if he dont he cant obtain it. He may enter into the other but that is the end of his kingdom he cannot have an increase.

Discourse, 17 May 1843–A

As Reported by William Clayton

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a He shewed that knowledge is power & the man who has the most knowledge has the greatest power. Also that Salvation
- b means a mans being placed beyond the power of all his enemies. He said the more sure word of prophecy meant, a mans knowing that he was sealed up unto eternal life by revelation & the spirit of prophecy, through the power of the Holy
- c priesthood. He also showed that it was impossible for a man to be saved in ignorance. Paul had seen the third heavens and I more. Peter penned the most sublime language of any of the apostles.

Discourse, 17 May 1843–B

As Reported by William Clayton

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a The 7th verse of c 2 of Genesis ought to read God breathed into Adam ~~the~~ his spirit or breath of life. but when the word “ruach” applies to Eve it should be translated lives.
- b Speaking of eternal duration of matter he said. There is no such thing as immaterial matter. All spirit is matter but is more fine or pure and can only be discerned by purer eyes We cant see it but when our bodies are purified we shall see that it is all matter.

Discourse, 21 May 1843

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a when I shall have the opportunity of speaki[n]g in a house I know not. I find my lungs failing— it has always been my fortune almost. to speak in the open air to large assemblies.
- b I have not an idea there has been a great many very good men since Adam. There is was one good— man Jesus.— <many think a propht must be a gre[a]t deal better than any body else.—> suppose I would condesc[e]nd. yes I will <call it.> condesce[n]d, to be a great deal better than any of you. I would be raised up to the highe[s]t heaven and who should I have to accompany me.
I love that man better who swears a stream as long as my arm. and administ[er]ing to the poor & dividi[n]g his substance. than the long smoothed faced hypo[c]rites
I dont want you to think I am very righteous. for I am not very righteous.—
- c God judgeth men according to the light he gives them.
we have a more sure word of prophecy. whereunto you do well to take heed— as unto a light that shineth in a dark place we were eyewitnesses of his maje[s]ty and heard the voice of his excellent glory— &. what could be more sure? transfigu[re]d on the mou[n]t &c what could be more sure?— Divines have been quarreelig [quarreling] for ages about the meaning. of this.
rough stone roling down hill.
- d 3 grand secrets lying in this chapter which no man can dig out. which unlocks the whole chapter.
what is written are only hints of things which ex[is]ted in the prophts mind. which are not written. concer[n]ing eternal glory.
I am going to take up this subj[e]ct by virtue of the knowledge of God in me.— which I have received fr[o]m heaven.

- e the opinions of men. so far as I am possessed concerned. are to me as the crackling of the thorns under the pot. or the whistling of the wind,
Columbus and the eggs.—
Ladder and rainbow.
- f like precious faith with us . . . — add to your faith virtue &c . . . another point after having all these qualifictins [qualifications] he lays this injutin [injunction].— but rather make your calling & election sure— after adding all. this. virtue knowledge &. make your cal[l]ing. &c Sure.— what is the secret, the starting point. according as his divine power which hath given unto all things that pertain to life & godliness.
- how did he obtain all things?— th[r]ough the knowledge of him who hath calld him.— there could not any be given pertain[ing] to life & knowledge & godliness without knowledge wo wo wo to the Ch[r]istendom.— the divine & priests; &c— if this be true.
- g salvation. is for a man to be seved from all his enemies.— until a man can triumph over death. he is not saved. knowldge will do this.
- h organization of spirits in the eternal world.— spirits in the eternal wo[r]ld are like spir[i]ts in this world. when those spirits have come into this visi[o]n & received grolifed [glorified] bodies. they will have an ascndeny [ascendency] over i spir[i]ts who have no bodi[e]s. or kept not their fi[r]st state like the devil. Devils puni[s]hment. should not have a habitati[o]n. like othr men.— D[e]vils retaliation— come into this w[o]rld bind up mens bod[i]es. & occupy himself.— authorities come along and eject him from a stolen habitation
- j design of the great God. in sending us into this world. and organizi[n]g us to prepare us for the Eternal world.— I shall keep in my own bosom. we have no claim in our eternal compact. in relation to Eternal thi[n]gs unless our actions. & contracts & all thi[n]gs tend to this end.—
- k after all this make your calling and election sure. if this injuncti[o]n would lay lageley [largely] on those to whom it was spoken. how much more those to w~~ho~~ th[e]m of the 19. century.—
- l <1 Key> Knowledge in the power of Salvati[o]n.
<2 Key> Make his calling and Election Sure.
3^d— it is one thing to be on the mount. & hear the excellent voice &c &c. and another <to hear the> voice de[c]lare to you you have a part & lot in that kingdom.— [4 lines blank]

As Reported by Howard Coray

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Every man goes to his own place 2 Peter 1. Ch.— Judas by transgression fell that he might go to his own place. there is one glory of the Sun another of the moon & another of the stars as one Star differetheth &c, so also is the reserection of the
- b dead, brethren I am not a very pious man. I do not wish to be a great deal better than any body else. If a Prophet was so much better than any body else was he would inherit a glory far beyond what any one else would inherit and behold he would be alone, for who would be his company in heaven. ~~for~~ If I should Condesend to be so righteouse as the brethren would wish
- c me to be. lo I should be taken from your midst and be translated as was Elijah. Righteousness is not that which men esteem holiness. That which the world call righteousness I have not any regard for. To be righteous is to be just and merciful. if a man fails in kindness justice and mercy he will be damed for many will say in that day Lord. have we not Prophesied in
- d thy name and in thy name done many wonderful works but he will say unto them ye workers of iniquity &c we were Eye witnesses of his Majesty we have also a more sure word of Prophecy. now brethren who can explain this no man be he that has obtained these things in the same way that Peter did. Yet it is so plain & so simple & easy to be understood that when I have shown you the interpretation thereof you will think you have always known it yourselves— These are but hints at those things that were revealed to Peter, and verily brethren there are things in the bosom of the Father, that have been hid from the e foundation of the world. that are not known neither can be except by direct Revelation The Apostle says, unto them who have obtained like precious faith with us <the apostles> through the righteousness of God & our Savior Jesus Christ. through knowledge of him that has called us to glory & virtue add to faith virtue &c &c to godliness brotherli Kindness— Charity— ye <shall> neither be barren or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

he that lacketh these things is blind— wherefore the rather brethren <after all this> give diligence to make your Calling & Election sure

e Knowledge is necessary to life and Godliness. wo unto you Priest & divines, who preach that knowledge is not necessary unto life & Salvation. take away Apostles &c take away knowledge and you will find yourselves worthy of the damnation of hell. Knowledge is revelation hear <all> ye brethren, this grand Key Knowledge is the power of God unto Salvation.

f What is Salvation. Salvation is for a man to be Saved from all his enemies even our last enemy which is death and for David Saith, “and the Lord Said unto my Lord ‘Sit thou on my right hand until I make thine enemies thy footstool’”

g The design of God before the <foundation of the> world, was that we should take tabernacles that through faithfulness we should over come & <thereby> obtain a reserection from the dead, in this wise obtain glory honor, power and dominion for this thing is needful inasmuch as the Spirits in the Eternal world, glory in bringing other Spirits in Subjection unto them, Striving continually for the mastery, He who rules in the heavens when he has a certain work to do calls the Spirits before him to organize them. they present themselves and offer their services—

h When Lucifer was hurled from Heaven the decree was that he Should not obtain a tabernacle not those that were him, but go abroad upon the earth exposed to the anger of the elements naked & bare, but ofttimes he lays hold upon men binds up their Spirits enters their habitations laughfs at the decree of God, and rejoices in that he hath a house to dwell in, by & by he is expelled by Authority & goes abroad mourning naked upon the earth like a man without a house exposed to the tempest & the storm—

i There are ~~are~~ Some things in my own bosom that must remain there. If Paul could say I knew a man who ascended to the third heaven & saw things unlawful for man to utter, I more. There are only certain things that can be done by the Spirits and that which is done by us that is not done with a view to eternity is not binding in eternity. Oh Peter if they who were of like precious faith with thee were injoined to make their Calling & Election sure, how much more all we, There are two Keys, one Key knowledge, the other, make your Calling & election sure, for if you do these things you shall never fall for so an entrance shall be adminestere unto you abundently unto the everlasting Kingdom of our Lord & Savior Jesus Christ, we made known unto you the power & coming of our Lord & S. J. Christ were Eye witnesses of his majesty he received from God the Father honor & Glory when there came such a voice to him from the icellent glory this is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased. this voice which came from heaven we heard when we were with him in the holy Mount. we have also m a more sure word of Prophecy whereunto give heed until the day Star arise in your hearts ~~this is~~ It is one thing to receive knowledge by the voice of God, (this is my beloved Son &c), & another to Know that you yourself will be Saved. to have a positive promise of your own Salvation is making your calling & election Sure, Viz the voice of Jesus Saying my beloved thou shalt have eternal life. Brethren never cease struggling until you get this evidence, &

Take heed both before and after obtaining the more sure word of Prop[h]ecy [11 lines blank]

As Reported by Franklin D. Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

a Salvation is for a man to be saved from all his enemies The 1st chap of 2nd Peter is hints of things which are nowhere written There are things which pertain to the Glory of God & heirship of God with Christ which are ~~no where~~ <not> written in the Bible spirits of the eternal world are diverse from each other as here in their dispositions—

b Aspiring Ambitions &c As man is liable to enemies there as well as here it is nessessary for him to be placed beyond their power in order to be saved This is done by our taking bodies (keeping our first estate) and having the Power of the Resurrection pass upon us whereby we are enabled to gain the ascendancy over the disembodied spirits

- c The mortification of satan consists in his not being permitted to take a body He sometimes gets possession of a body but when the proven authorities turn him out of Doors he finds it was not his but a stolen one
- d Our covenants here are of no force one with another except made in view of eternity

As Reported by James Burgess

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a First chapter second Epistle of Peter. The first four verses are the preface to the whole subject. There are three grand Keys to unlock the whole subject. First what is the knowledge of God, second what is it to make our calling and election sure Third and last is how to make our calling and election sure. Ans[wer], it is to obtain a promise from God for myself that I shall have Eternal life, that is the more sure word of prophcy. Peter was writeing to those of like precious faith with them the Apostles First to be sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise that is the testimony of Jesus Second how is he to get that Holy Spirit; Ans. c except a man be born again he cannot See the Kingdom of God; second except a man be born of water and the spirit he d cannot enter into the Kingdom of God. Ques. What is it for a man to obtain salvation Ans. It is to triumph over everey foe or ascend far above all enemies for the last enimy to conquer is death and untill that is done you have not obtained salvation

As Reported by Levi Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Sunday May 21— 1843 10¹/₂ Joseph arrived at the Temple and after pushing his way though the crowd, & getting on the stand,— said there were some people who thought it a terrible thing that any body should exercise a little power;— and said he thought it a pity that any body should give occasion to have power exercised,— & requested the people to get out of the alleys, & if they did not keep them clear he might some time run up & down & might hit some of them,— and called on Br b [George] Morey the constable to keep the alleys clear— After singing Joseph read the 1st Chap 2^d. Peter, prayer by W^m Law, singing again— Joseph commenced by saying,— when I shall have the opportunity of speaking in a house I know not, I find c my lungs failing,— it has always been my fortune, almost to speak in the open air to large assemblies.— I have not an idea that there has been a great many very good men since Adam, There was one good man, Jesus.— Many think A prophet must be a great deal better than any body else, suppose I would condescend,— yes I will call it condescend,— to be a great deal better than any of you I would be raised up to the highest heaven, & who should I have to accompany me,— d I love that man better who swears a stream as long as My arm & administering to the poor— & dividing his substance than the long smooth faced hypocrite, I dont want you to think I am very righteous, for I am not very righteous, God judges

- e man according to the light he give them— We have a more sure word of prophecy &c. We were eyewitnesses of his majesty & heard the voice of his excelent Glory,— & what could be more sure?— transfigured on the mount &C— & what could be more sure? Divines have been quarreling for ages about the meaning of this,— Rough stone rolling down hill
- f 3 grand Secrets lying in this chapter which no man can dig out which unlocks the whole Chap. What is written are only hints of things which existed in the prophets mind which are not written, concerning eternal glory. I am going to take up this subject by virtue of the knowledge of God in me, which I have received from heaven.— The opinions of men so far as
- g I am concerned, are to me as the crackling of thorns under the pot or the whistling of the wind— Columbus & the egg— Ladder & the raindow like precious faith with us &c— add to your faith virtues &c. . . another point after having all these qualifications he lays this injunction but rather make your calling & election sure— after adding all this virtue knowledge
- h &c Make your calling sure— what is the secret the starting point— according as his divine power which hath given us all things that pertain to life & Godliness, how did he obtain all things? through the knowledge of him who hath called him.— there could not any be given pertaining to life & godliness without knowledge— Wo, wo, wo, to Christendom the divines & priests; &c if this be the ease true

Remarks, 27 May 1843

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a ..."J. Smith said that ~~there~~ it was a bag of nonsense to sit here without witnesses & hear one story [after?] another. Prest, J. Smith, it has been the character of B Wincheste from the beginning to contredict every body & evey thing, and I have been under the ire of his tongue.— he introduced me into several familyes & I had to have a contention with him at every house. I
- b disgraced him before the confrence. & to be revenged he told one of the most damnable lies about me. visited Sister Smith sister [Hannah Dubois] Dibble. small hat shop.— told her to come to Nauvoo with me. & I would protect hers & B Winchester set up a howl a howl that I was guilty of impoper conducte. If Isabella Armstrong, is ever so bad so much the worse.
- c The patriarchal office is the highest office in the church. and father Smith [Joseph Smith Sr.] conferred this office, on Hyrum Smith, on his death bed.—
A baptist minister this morning said sir I am wrong you are right—
Prest Joseph said, he should not act on the case but should reserve himself for a an appeal.—...

As Reported by Wilford Woodruff

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Br Joseph then addressed the Twelve & said that in all our councils especially while on trial of any one we should see & observe all things appertaining to the subject & discern the spirit by which either party was governed we should be in a situation to understand every spirit & Judge righteous judgment & not be asleep we should keep order & not let the
- b council be imposed upon by unruly Conduct, The Saints need not think because I am familiar with them & am playful & cheerful that I am ignorant of what is going on iniquity cannot be retained in the Church of any kind & it will not fare well where I am for I am determined while I do lead the Church to lead them right

As Reported by Levi Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a attended council of the twelve on Benj Winchesters case— letters were read, & testimony given to some extent against his course to which he replied, & some altercation ensued between him & George J Adams— when Pres J Smith arose & stated what he knew about Benj. Winchester— spoke of the treatment he received from him, when he visited Philadelphia— instead
- b of upholding him & honoring his office contended concerning Scripture &c— in every place they visited— he said Benj. had lied about him, & others & he was given to tattling— & <it> was time it was stopped— said he (B) would reply & confront & would always have the last word— he said he should not reply to him (nor any of the rest of the elders) he had borne it as long as he could— & they should not confront him! he would not be contradicted by them!
- c He said, the highcouncil of this place had not jurisdiction over the case— the twelve had over all places but this in all the world— he spoke of the dignified station of the twelve & wished them to arise & magnify their calling— reproved them in some degree for their [illegible] &c said they might learn from the brute,— the cattle the sentinal goose <would give> the alarm when on watch would quack & attend to their business, &c recommended them to take licence from B Winchester & suspend him 3 or 4 months till the Philadelphia church came up here— done accordingly

Discourse, 11 June 1843

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Matt. 23.37.
Subject presented me since I came in this house.—
I a rough stone. the sound of the hammer & chisel was never hea[r]d on me. nor never will be. I desire the learning & wisdom of heaven alone.
- b Have not the least idea but if Christ should come and preach such rough thi[n]gs as he preahd [preached] to the Jews. but this generati[o]n would reject ~~reject~~ him for b[e]ing so rough. I never can find much to say in expou[n]ding a text.
never is half so much fuss to unlock a door if you have a key an[d] wh[e]n you have not. or have to cut it out with a jack knife.—
- c O. Jerusalem &c.— whenc[e] arises the curse of Almighty God that was to be poured out up[o]n the heads of the jews? That they would not be gathe[r]ed! beca[u]se they would not let Ch[r]ist gather them. It was the design in the cou[n]cils of heaven before the world was. that the pri[n]ciple & law of that pri[e]sthood was predicated up[o]n the gathe[r]ing of the people in every age of the world. Jesus did every thing possible to gather the people. & th[e]y would not be gathered and he poured out curses up[o]n the[m] Ordinances were instituted in hevan before the f[o]undation of the world of in the pri[e]sthood. for the salvati[o]n of man. not be alterd. not to be changed.— all must be saved upon the same principle.
- d that is only your opin[i]on sir— say sectarians.— when a man will go to hell. it is more than my meat & drink to help them to do as they want to.
where there is no change of pri[e]sthood there is no change of ordina[n]ces says peter Paul, If God has not changed the ordinances & pri[e]sthood. howl ye sectarians. if he has where has he revealed it. have ye turnd revelators? then why deny it?
- e men have thought many things insutabl [inscrutable] in the last days. that he should raise the dead.
Things have been hid from before the foundation of the [world] to be reveald in to babes in the last days.—
there are a great ma[n]y wise men & women to[o] in our midst to[o] wise to be taught. & they mu[s]t die in their ignoranc[e] and in the resurrection they will find their mistake.
- f many seal up tō the door of heaven by saying so far god may reveal I & I will believe.— heirs of God. &c. upon the same laws ordinance &c of Jesus Ch[r]ist. & he who will not have it all will come short. of that glory if not of the whole.
ordinnc [ordinance] of the baptism. god decreed before the fundatin [foundation] of the wo[r]ld that this baptism sho[u]ld be perfm[d] [performed] in a house prepar[d] for the purpose.—
- g Spirits of prison. the Holy Gho[s]t rev[e]als it. Spi[r]its in the wo[r]ld of prison Spi[ri]ts.— which Jesus went to preach to.
- i God ordaind that he who would save his dead should do it by gath[er]ing togethr as with the jews . . . — . . . It always has been when a man was sent of good [God] with the Prethood [priesthood]. & he began to preach the fulness of the gospel. that was thut [thrust] out by his fri[e]nds.— and they are ready to but[c]her him if he teach things which th[e]y had imagind to be wrong.— Jesus was crucifil[e]d upon this principle—
- j I will turn linguist. ma[n]y things in the bible. whi[c]h do not. as th[e]y now stand. accord with the revelati[o]n of th[e] holy Gho[s]t to me.—
Par[a]dise. “this day thou sha[l]t be with me in paradise.” Paradise. Modern word.— dont answer to the original word used by Jesus.—
- k find the origin of Paradise. find a needle in a hay mow.— here is a chance for a battle ye lear[n]ed man,— Said Jesus. for there is not time to invstigat [investigate] this m[a]tter. for this day I <You> will be with yōu me in the wor[l]d of Spi[ri]ts. & there I will teach you all about it.— & Peter says he went & preahd to the wo[r]ld of spi[r]its. so that they wo[u]ld receive it could have it answerd by proxig [proxy] by those who live on the earth &c—
- l gathe[r]ed you for baptism for the dead washing anoitigs [anointings] &c.— say said. Jesus to Jews. At one time God obtaind a hou[s]e where Peter was endowd. &c on th[e] day of pentecost.— [blank] criticese [criticize] a little further Hell.—
- m modern term. bur[n]ing lake of fire and Brimstone. I wou[l]d make you think I was climbing a ladder when I I was climbing a rainbow.— who ever reveald it. God never did.— Hades. I will hunt after Hades as pat did for woodchu[c]k. Shaol— who are you? God reveals. means a world of spi[r]its.— I dont they thi[n]k so says one. go to my hous[e]— I will take my lexi[c]on— &c—
- n a world of departed spir[i]ts. disembodi[e]d spir[i]ts all go.— good bad & indif[fer]ent— ” [spirits] misery in a world of spi[ri]ts is to know th[e]y came short of the glory othe[r]s enjoy— th[e]y are their own accusers one universal heaven— & hell— &c says one, honorable & virtuo[u]s. & whoremonger— all hudld together.— judged according to deeds done in the body— shame— shame— thus we can [tithe] mint & annice & cumin and [make] long praye[r]s. but touch not the law, as Peter tells us.—
- o Paul says caught up to 3^d heaven, what tell that Lie for Paul.— sun moon & stars—
many mansions—
all one say Sectarians.—

- p They build hay wood & stubble, build on the old revelati[o]ns— with[o]ut the spi[r]it of Revelati[o]n or Pr[i]esthood. if I had time I would dig into Hell. Hades. Shaol.— & tell what exists.—
 Heaven of Heavens could not contain. him.— he took the liberty to go into other heavens.— I thought—
- q Fathe[r]— Son & H. Gho[s]t. all stuck into one person.— I pray for them. fathr that we may be one— all stuffed into one God— a big God.
 Peter— Steph[e]n— saw the Son of Man saw the son of man standi[n]g on the right hand of God.— 3 personages— in heaven who hold the keys.— one to preside over all.
- r If any mans attempt to refute. what I am about to say after I have made it plain let him be accursd. As the fathr hath power in himself so hath the son power in hims[e]lf to lay down his life.—
 the son doeth what he hath seen the fath[er] do.— &c— take his body & stuff it into the fathr.
- s gods have ~~over~~ an ascenden[c]y over the angels angels remain angels.— some are resurrected to become gods by such revelations as god gives in the mo[s]t holy place.— in his temple. let them who are owing tythig [tithing] pay it up.— & bring stone.—
 what did Judge Higby [Elias Higbee] [say?]— [“]if those who are owing would bring stone we could get the walls to the roof this fall as easy as to let it down—”

As Reported by Wilford Woodruff

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a He then asked what was the object of gathering the Jews together or the people of God in any age of the world, the main object was to build unto the Lord an house whereby he could reveal unto his people the ordinances of his house and glories of his kingdom & teach the peopl the ways of salvation for their are certain ordinances & principles that when they are taught
- b and practized, must be done in a place or house built for that purpose this was purposed in the mind of God before the world was & it was for this purpose that God designed to gather together the Jews oft but they would not it is for the same purpose that God gathers together the people in the last <days> to build unto the Lord an house to prepare them for the ordinances &
- c endowments washings & anointings &c. one of the ordinances of the house of the Lord is Baptism for the dead, God decreed before the foundation of the world that that ordinance should be administered in a house prepared for that purpose. If a man gets the fulness of God he has to get in the same way that Jesus Christ obtained it & that was by keeping all the ordinances of the house of the Lord. Men will say I will never forsake you but will stand by you at all times but the moment you teach
- d them some of the mysteries of God that are retained in the heavens and are to be revealed to the chidren of men when they are prepared, They will be the first to stone you & put you to death. It was the same principle that crusified the Lord— Jesus
- e Christ,— I will say somthing about the spirits in prision, ~~their~~ there has been much said about the sayings of Jesus on the cross to the thief saying this day thou shalt be with me in paradise, The commentators ~~make~~ or translators make it out to say Paradise but what is Paradise it is a modern word it does not answer at all to the original that Jesus made use of, their is nothing in the original in any language that signifies Paradise, But it was this day I will be with thee in the world of spirits & will teach thee or answer thy inquiries. The thief on the Cross was to be with Jesus Christ in the world of spirits he did not
- f say Paradise or heaven. The doctrin of Baptism for the dead is clearly shown in the new testament & if the doctrin is not good then throw away the new testament but if it is the word of God then let the doctrin be acknowledged & it was one reason why Jesus said how oft would I have gathered you (the Jews) together that they might attend to the ordinance of the baptism for the dead as well as the other ordinances the Priesthood Revelations &c. This was the case on the day of Pentecost these Blessings were poured out upon the deciples on that occasion,
- g Their has been Also much said about the word Hell & the sectarian world have preached much about it but what is hell, it is annother modern term it is takan from hades the greek or shaole, the (hebrew) & the true signification is a world of spirits,

Hades shaole paradise, spirits in prision is all one it is a world of spirits, the righteous & the wicked all go to the same world of spirits

- h but says one I believe in one hell & one heaven all are equally miserable or equally happy, but St Paul informs us of three glories & three heavens he knew a man caught up to the third heavens, & Jesus said there were many mansions in my Fathers Kingdom Any man may believe Jesus Christ is good & be happy in it & yet not obey his commands & at last be cut down by his righteous commandment's A man of God should be endowed with all wisdom knowledge & understanding in order to teach & lead people, The blind may lead the blind & both fall into the death [ditch] together;
- j Their is much said concerning God the Godhead &c the scripture says there is Gods many & Lords many, the teachers of the day say that the father is God the Son is God & the Holy Ghost is God & that ~~their~~ they are all in one body & one God Jesus says or prays that those that the fathar had given him out of the world might be made one in us as we, are one, but if
- k they were to be stuffed in to one person ~~that~~ they would make a great God, If I were to testify that the world was wrong on this point it would be true Peter says that Jesus Christ sat on the right hand of God any person that has seen the heavens opened knows that there is three personages in the heavens holding the keys of power As the father hath power in himself so the Son hath power, in himself then the father has some day laid down his body & taken it again <so he has a body of his own—> so has his son a body of his own so each one will be in their own body,—
- l Many of the sects cry out O I have the testimony of Jesus, I have the spirit of God But away with Jo Smith he says he is a Prophet But there is to be no Prophets nor revelations in the last days; But stop sir the Revelator says that the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of Prophecy so by your own mouth you are condemned.
- m But to the text why gather the people together in this place for the same purpose that Jesus wanted to gather the Jews, to receive the ordinances the blessings the glories that God has in store for his saints And I would now ask this assembly and all the Saints if they will now build this house & receive the ordinances & Blessings which God has in store for you or will you not build unto the Lord this house & let him pass by & bestow these blessings upon another I pause for a reply

As Reported by Franklin D. Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a The reason why the Jews were scattered and their House left unto them Desolate was because they refused to be gathered that the fulness of the Priesthood might be recded [received] among them which never can be done but by the gathering of the People also also The Order & Ordinances of the Kingdom were instituted by the Priesthood in the council of Heaven
- b before the world was The words, Prison Paradise & Hell are different translations of the Greek Hades which answers to the Hebrew Shaole the true translation of which is "The world of spirits where the righteous & the wicked dwell together["]

As Reported by Eliza R. Snow

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a Tues 13th Last sunday I had the privilege of attending meeting and in the forenoon listening to a very interesting discourse by Pres^t J. Smith He took for his subject the words of the Savior to wit. “O Jerusalem thou that killest the prophets and stonest them that are sent unto you! How oft would I have gathered you as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings and
- b you would not!” He beautifully and in a most powerful manner, illustrated the necessity of the gathering and the building of the Temple that those ordinances may be administered which are necessary preparations for the world to come: he exhorted the people in impressive terms to be diligent— to be up and doing lest the tabernacle pass over to another people and we lose the blessings.

As Reported by Levi Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Pres. J. Smith bore testimony to the same— saying that when he was a youth he began to think about these ~~these~~ things but could not find out which of all the sects were right— he went into the grove & enquired of the Lord which of all the sects were right— he received for answer that none of them were right, that they were all wrong, & that the Everlasting convenat
- b was broken— he said he understood the fulness of the Gospel from beginning to end— & could Teach it & also the order of the priesthood in all its ramifications— Earth & hell had opposed him & tryed to destroy him but they had not done it— & they <never would>.

Discourse, 30 June 1843

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a By how do you do.— I meet you with a he[a]rt full of gratitude to almi[g]h[t]y god. I am well. hearty. strong as a giant.— while I was on the road I pulled up the st[r]ongest man. then they got 2 men & th[e]y could not pull me up. I have pulled mentalley till I have pulld missouri here.—
There has been a great excitemnt in the country.— I have been cool & dispassionate through all. thank god I am now a prisoner in the hands of the Municipal court. & not of a Missourian
- b It was not so much my object to tell my afflictions &c & as to speak of the Habeus Corpus. so that the mi[n]ds of all may be corr[e]cted & know & publish that we have all power.— there is a secret. the city has all power that the courts have. given by the same authority the Legislature . . . I want you to hear o Israel this day. if this power is not suffi[cie]nt we will claim the higher power. the constituti[o]n of the state & the United [States].— I have dragged him here by our hand. & will do it again but I will Swear I will never deal so mildly again.
- c Be cool be deliberate.— be wise, and when you pull do it with sweepstakes.— my lot has alwasy [always] be[e]n cast among the warm[e]st kind of people
The time has come when the viel [veil] is torn off[f] from this state. & let us mingle with the people of Ill[inoi]s I. should have been torn <from> with the expen[s]e of life & blood if I had asked
I brought them prisoners. and committed them as prisoners not of chai[n]s but of kindness to her from whom I was torn
- d There no doubt I shall be discharged. by the cou[r]t the writs are good for nothing. without form & void.— before I will be dragged again away among my enemies. for trial I will spill the la[s]t drop of blood in my veins. see all my enemies to hell.— shall we bear it any longer— & one Universal NO. ran through all th[e] va[s]t assembly like on[e] vast peal of thunder
I wish all the lawyer who says we have no powers in Nauvoo may be choked to death with his own words dont employ my Lawye[r]s for their knowledge for I know more than y[ou] all.
- e Go ye into all the wor[l]d preach the gospel. & he that bel[i]eveth in our chartered right may come here & be saved. & he does not shall remain in ignoranc[e].
one spindle shanked circu[i]t Judg[e]— & several fat men—
Esqr. [Cyrus] Walker I have converted to the truth of Habeus Corpus.
I got here by law write writ that Just as it should be.
- f in the midst of all you[r] indignati[o]n. use not the hand of violince. for I have pledgd my honor.— will you all support my honor. YES. <universal,> by the audinc [audience]. I have proof of your attachment.
when oppressi[o]n arises again I have lear[n]ed. we ne[e]d [not] suffer as we have. we can call othe[r]s to our aid. Shall the prophecy of of our enemies. “we will establish our religin by the sword” be true? No.
- g If the Missouin [Missourians] opp[r]ess us more I this day turn the key by au[tho]rity of the Holy Pri[e]sthood. turn the Key unlock the door & restr[a]in you not rise up and defend yourselves—always act up[o]n the defenc[e] but if your enemies oppiress you the 2^d & 3. time. let it come. & roar like thunder. & you shall stand forth. clear before the tribunal if any citize[n]s of Illinois deny our right— let them go to hell and be damnd.— I give up my charte[re]d right at the sword and bayonets.
- h Legislatur like the. boy dad[d]y Daddy I have sold my Jackknife got che[a]ted. & want to get it back again.
what can mobocrats do in the midst of Kirkpatrickites.— no better. than a hu[n]ter being in a bears claw. What could we do with them. dung our Garden with them. we dont want any excitement. but after we have done all.— rise up & break off the hellish yoke.— like Washington. day before I was taken I rode th[r]ough Dixon & I said to my wife. I said good people here <I was their prisoner ne[x]t day> Harmon G. Wilson [Harmon T. Wilson].— said By God we have got the prophet. now.
- i I am prisnr [prisoner] to a hig[h]er court than circuit court, defen[d] yoursefs [yourselves]— says a law in our Charter. powe[r]s.— same charter says. eity Municipal cou[r]t. has power to enact all laws— &c dangerous power. because it will protect, the innocent, & put down Moboc[r]rats,— constituti[o]n of U.S. say[s] “Habeus Corbus [habeas corpus] shall not be denied.” Deny me the right of H. Corpus & I will. fight with gu[n]s swo[r]d cann[on] behind & thunder till I am used up. like the Killkeny [Kilkenny] Cats. we have more power becau[s]e we have power to go behind the writ. & try th[e] merits of the case.
- j I ask in the name of J. Crist [Jesus Christ] and all that is sacred that I may have your lives & all to carry out the freedom wh[i]ch is chated [chartered] to us.— will you all help me all ha[n]ds were up.—
Mr Walker shall be persecutd for the nam[e]’s sake—when at Dixon. refu[s]ed an intevew [interview] with a lawyer. <tur[ne]d. Markm [Stephen Markham] out door threatnd my life,> old gray he[a]ded man— ri◊◊d his in ri◊◊d his [illegible]. came with Mr Walker.— & I had Lawyrs &c. en[o]ugh— <writ for Harmn Wilsn> damge [damages]— assut [assault] & Battery.—
- k <Wasp> Habus corpus got up to go to ottawa 32. miles Pawpaw grove. thut [thrust] out all but Hirmn Wilson. Esq Walker— sent. Mr [James] Campbell— to my rescue— & came & slept by me.
Morning certain men w[a]nted to see Mr Smith. they would not let me an old man come to talk. Missourian, interupted. stand off you puke. Mr Smith we have a committe[e] in Pawpaw grove.— a cou[r]t from whence there is no appeal.—
- l my libert[i]es began fr[o]m that hour they lost their pistols.— came came d[i]rect to Nauvoo.—

when th[e]y began to susp[e]ct we wer comi[n]g th[e]y remonstratd Bro Grover came. [pages [286]–[287] blank]
 Hosanna. D[itt]o. Do. to Almig[h]ty God who hath delive[re]d us thus fr[o]m out of th[e] 7 troubl[e]s. 6.25 [p.m.]— (Esqr Walker. was introduced as a body of people. the greatest dupes that ever were.— or he is not as big a rouge [rogue] as he is supposed to be.— 1/4 to 7) m Joseph. I told Mr [Calvin A.] Warren I would not discuss the subj[e]ct of religin with you. I understa[n]d the gospel. & you do not. you undestad [understand] Law I do not if the Legislatur have g[r]anted Nauvoo. the right of Habeus corpus &c— it is no more than they ought to have done.— or more than our fathers fought for.
 I swear in the name of Almig[h]ty God. with uplifted hand the Legislatur shall never take away our rights I[']ll spill my hea[r]ts blood fi[r]st.—

As Reported by Wilford Woodruff

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

a I require attention. I discoverd what the emotions of the people were on my arival to this City, & I have come here to say, how do you do to all parties & I do now say How do you do at this time. I meet you with a heart full of gratitude to Almighty God & I presume you all feel the same I hardly know how to express my feelings I feel as strong as a giant I pulled sticks with the men coming along & I pulled up the strongest man there was on the road with one hand & two could not pull me up b & I continued to pull untill I pulled them to Nauvoo I will pass from that subject then There has been great excitement in the country & since those men took me I have been cool & dispassionate through the whole: thank God I am now in the hands of the Municipal Court of Nauvoo & not in the hands of Missourians, It has been discussed by the great, & wise men lawyiers &c O your Powers & legal tribunals are not to be sanctioned & here we will make it lawful to drag away inocent men from,
 c their families & friends & have them unlawfully put to death by ungodly men for ther religion. Relative to our Charter, Courts right of Habeas Corpus &c we have all power: and if any man from this time forth says any thing contrary; cast it into his teeth Their is a secret in this; if their is not power in our Charter, and Courts, then there is not power in the State of Illinois, nor in the Congress <or Constitution> of the United States for the United States gave unto Illinois her constitution & Charter & Illinois gave unto Nauvoo her Charters which have ceded unto unto us our vested rights & has no right or power to take d them from us all the power their was in Illinois she gave to Nauvoo And any man that says to the contrary is a fool. I want you to learn O Israel what is for the happiness & peace of this city & people. If our enemies are determined to oppress us & deprive us of our rights & privileges as they have done & if the Authorities that be on the earth will not assist us in our rights nor give us that protection which the Laws & Constitution of the United States & of this State garrentees unto us: then we e will claim them from higher power from heaven & from God Almighty & the Constitution &c I SWEAR I will not deal so mildly with them again for the time has come when forbearance is no longer a virtue, And if you are again taken unlawfully as <you> are at liberty to give loose to Blood and Thunder But act with Almighty Power. But good luck for me as it always has been in evry time of trouble friends though strangers were raised up unto me & assisted me, The time has come when the g veil is torn off[f] from the State of Illinois & they have deliverd me from the State of Missouri: friends that were raised up unto me would have spilt their Blood for me to have delivered me then I told them not I would be deliverd By the power of God & generalship & I have brought them to Nauvoo & treated them kindly I have had the privilege of rewarding them good for evil, they took me unlawfully treated me rigorously, strove to deprive me of my rights & would have run me to g Missouri to have been murdered if providence had not interposed: but now they are in my hands, I took them to my house set them at the head of my table & set the best before them my house afforded & they were waited upon by my wife whom they deprived of seeing me when I was taken. I shall be discharged by the Municipal Court of Nauvoo, were I before any good tribunal I should be discharged, But Befor I will bear this unhallowed persecution any longer I will spill my blood their is a time when bearing it longer is a sin, I will not bear it longer I will spil the last drop of Blood I have and all that will

h not bear it longer say AH And, the cry of AH rung throughout the Congregation we must stop paying the lawyers money for I have learned they dont know any thing for I know more than they all. Whosoever believeth that there is power in the Charters of Nauvoo shall be saved he that believeth not shall not come here. If a lawyer shall say their is more power in other places & charters than in Nauvoo believeth it not I have converted this Candidate for Congres Mr [Cyrus] Walker I suppose i when I see him Converted I will vote for him & not before I have been with these Lawyers & they have treated me well But I am here in Nauvoo & the Missourian to[o] & when they will get out I dont know perhaps when some others may, However you may feel about the high hand of oppression, I wish you to restrain your hand from violence. <against those men who

j arestd me> My word is at stake a hair of their heads shall not be harmed, My life is pledged to carry out this great work I know how readily you are to do right you have done great things & manifested your love in flying to my assistance on this occasion I could not have done better myself, And I Bless you in the name of the Lord with all Blessings may you not have to suffer as you have heretofore. I know the Almighty will bless all good men he will bless you: and the time has come when k their shall be such a flocking to the standard of Liberty as never has been, Nor never shall be here after. what an erie [era?] of things has commenced Shall the Prophecys be esstablished by the Sword; Shall we allways bear, No. Will not the State of Missouri Stay her hand in her unhallowed persecutions against the Saints; if not, I restrain you not any longer; I say in the name of Jesus Christ I this day turn the key [drawing of a key] that opens the heavens to restrain you no longer from this time forth. I will lead you to battle & if you are not afraid to die & feel disposed to spill your Blood in your own defence you will not offend me, Be not the aggressor bear untill they strike on the one cheek offer the other & they will be sure to strike

l that, then defend yourselves & God shall bear you off. Will any part of Illinois say we shall not have our rights treat them as strangers & not friends & let them go to Hell say some we will mob you, mob & be damed, if I under the ne[c]essity of giving up our charted rights, privileges & freedom which our fathers fought bled & died for & which the constitution of the United States & & this State garrentee unto us, I will do it at the point of the Bayonet & sword, Many Lawyers contend for those thing which are against the rights of men & I can ownly excuse them because of their ignorance, Go forth & Advocate m the laws & rights of the people ye lawyers if not dont get into my hands or under the lash of my tongue Lawyers say the powers of the Nauvoo Charters are dangerous, But I ask is the Constitution of the United States or of this State dangerous, No neither are the Charters granted unto Nauvoo by the legislator of Illinois dangerous, & those that say they are are fools: We have not our rights those which the Constitution of the U. S. A grant, & which our Charters grant we have not enjoyed n unmolested, Missouri & all wicked men will raise the hugh & Cry against us and are not Satisfied, But how are you going to help yourselves what will mobocrats do in the midst of this people, If mobs come upon you anymore here, dung your gardings with them, But says one you will get up excitement we will get up no excitemen[t] Except what we can find an escape from We will rise up Washington like & break off[f] the wait that bears us down & we will not be mob[b]ed To give you

o an account of my Journey, I will give you an anecdote that may be pleasing A few days before I was take[n] I rode with my wife through a Neighborhood to visit some friends & I said to Mrs Smith here is a good people I felt this by the spirit of God the next day I was in their hands a prisioner with [Harmon T.] Wilson who said as he drove up ha, ha ha By God we have the prophet, he gloried much in it, But he is now our prisioner When [Joseph H.] Reynolds of Missouri & Wilson of Carthage Came to take me the first salutation was (instead of tap[p]ing me on the sholder & saying you are my prisioner) with two Cocked pistols to my head God damn you I will shoot you I will Shoot you God damn you I will shoot you nearly 50 times first & last I asked them what they wanted to shoot me for, if you make any resistance O vary well says I I have no resistance

p to make they then dragged me away & while on the road I asked them by what authority they did these things they said by a writ from the Governors of Missouri & Illinois I then told them I wanted a writ o[f] Habeas Corpus, the reply was God damn you you shant have it; I told a man to go to Dixon & get me a writ of Habeas Corpus the reply was by Willson God dam you you shant have it I will shoot you I sent for a lawyer to come one came & Reynolds shut the door in his face & would not let me speak to him & said again God damn you I will shoot you I turned to him opened my bosom & told him to shoot away &

q I did it freequently, I told Mr Reynolds that I would have Council to speak to & the Lawyers came to me & I got a writ of Habeas Corpus for mysel & got a writ for Reynolds & Wilson for unlawful pro[c]eedings towards me & cruel treatment they could not get out of town that night, I pledged my honor to my counci[l] that the Nauvoo Charter had power to investigate the subject & we came to Nauvoo by common consent & I am now a prisioner of higher authority yes higher Authority before yourselves The Charter expressly says that the City Council shall have power to enact all laws for the benefit & convenience of said City not contrary to the Constitutions of the United States or of this State & the City ordinance says the Municipal

r Court shall have power to give writs of Habeas Corpus arising under the ordinanc[e]s of the City; Their is nothing but what we have power over excepted restricted by the Constitution of the United States or of this state, It is in accordance with the constitution of the U. S, A But says the mob what dangerous powers, But the constitution of the United nor of this State is not dangerous against good men but bad men the breakers of the law so with the laws of the country & so with the laws of Nauvoo they are dangerous to mobs but not good men that wish to keep the law We do not go out of Nauvoo to disturb any body or any city towon or place why need they be troubled about us let them not meddle with our affairs but let us

s alone After we have been deprived of our rights & privileges as Citizenship driven from town to town place to place state to state with the sacrifice of our homes & lands & our Blood been shed & many murdered & all this becaus of our religion because we worship Almighty God according to the dictates of our own consience shall we longer bear these cruelties which have been heaped upon us for the last ten years in the face of heaven & in open open violation of the Constitution & laws of these United States & of this State May God forbid, I will not bear it if they take away my rights I will fight, for my rights. t manfully & righteously untill I am used up with Blood & thunder sword & pistol. We have done nothing against law or right As touching our City Charter & laws their is a secret in it, what is it our laws go behind the writ & investigate the subject ie of Habeas Corpus while other laws do not go behind the writ you speak of Lawyiers, I am a Lawyier to But the Almighty God has taught me the principle of law & the true meaning of the writ of Habeas Corpus is to defend the Innocent & investigat the subject go behind the writ & if the form of a writ is wright that is issued against an innocent man He should not be dragged u to another State & there put to death or in jeopordy life or limb because of prejudice when he is innoce[n]t the benefits of the Constitution & law is for all alike & the great loheem [Elohim] God has given me the privilege of having the benefits of the Constitution & the writ of Habeas Corpus & I am bold to ask for this privilege this day & to ask you to carry out this privilege principle And all who are in favor of carrying out this great principle make it manifest by raising the right hand & their was a sea of hands A universal vote, here is truly a Committy of the whole [blank] In speaking of my Journey to Nauvoo I will relate a circomstance when Mr Cyrus Walker first came to me they said I should not speak to any man & they would v shoot any man that should speak to me An old man came up & said I should have council & said he was not afraid of their pistols & they took me from him, & had an opportunity to have killed him but I had no temptation to do it to him nor any other man, my worst enemy not even [Lilburn W.] Boggs in fact he would have more hell to live in the reflection of his past life than to die. My freedom commenced from that time the old man came to me & would talk to me we came direct from Papa [Paw Paw] Grove to Nauvoo we got our writ directed to the nearest Court having authority to try try the case & we came to Nauvoo It did my soul good to see your feelings & love manifest towards me

w I thank God that I have the honor to lead so virtuous & honest a people to be your leader & lawyier as Moses to the children of Israel Hosannah Hosannah Hosannah Hosannah to the name of the Most Hight God I commend you to his grace & may the Blessings of heaven rest upon you in the name of Jesus Christ Amen

x Furthermore if Missouri continues her warfare & continues to Issue her writs against me & this peopl unlawfully & unjustly as they have done & our rights are trampled upon & they ~~under take~~ to take away my rights I swaire with uplifted hands to Heaven I will spill my Blood in its defence they shall not take away our rights & if they dont stop leading me by the y nose I will lead them by the nose & if they dont let me alone I will turn up the world I will make war, when we shake our own bushes we want to ketch our own fruit The Lawyiers themselves acknowledge that we have all power granted us in our Charters that we could ask for, that we had more power than any other Court in the State for all other Courts were restricted while ours was not & I thank God Almighty for it & I will not be rode down to Hell by the Missourians any longer, & it is my privilege to speak in my own defence & appeal to your honor

As Reported by William Clayton

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

The general theme of his discourse tended to enlighten the minds of the public concerning the powers of the Municipal Court in relation to Habeas Corpus as granted in the Nauvoo Charter, plainly proving that the municipal Court had more power than the Circuit courts inasmuch as the latter's power was limited while that of the former was unlimited

He also said that he had restrained the saints from using violence in self defense but from henceforth he restrained them no more.

Remarks, 2 July 1843

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Not sure about this source; could be a lot later, not contemporaneous.

Text

- a <July 2> About 6 p.m. The Maid of Iowa returned to here landing at the Nauvoo house, the Company who had been on the expedition on board of her, formed in a procession and walked up to my office, where they formed a hollow square and sent in a deputation to me, as soon as I had bid them welcome. I opened the window of my office and requested that no man would leave the ground until I had spoken to them. My Brother Hyrum [Smith] and I went into the hollow square and
- b directed them not to allow their ranks to be broken. I then shook hands with each man, blessing them and welcoming them home. I then took off my hat and related to them how I was brought home to the midst of my friends, and how I regained my liberty. I feel by the Spirit of the Lord that if I had fallen into your hands that you would either have brought me safe home, or that we should all have died in a heap together; at this time, a well dressed man, a Stranger, who had a Cloak around him broke through the South line of the ranks, when the orderly Sergeant took the strange man by the nape of the neck and kicked
- c him outside the ranks telling him not to come in again; as soon as quiet was resumed, I continued my address to the company. ~~and had scarce spoken 15 minutes, when the same stranger again broke the ranks, which annoyed me, and I stopt speaking; the first Lieutenant then marched out of the ranks and struck at him with the barrel of his gun, but he retired escaping the blow.~~

About dusk I dismissed the company, blessing them in the name of the Lord

Discourse, 4 July 1843

As Reported by Wilford Woodruff

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a If the people will give ear a momen[t] I will address them, with few words in my own defence as touching my arrest. In the first place I will state to those that can hear me that I never spent more than six months in Missouri except while in prison, while I was there I was at work for the suppor[t] of my family, I never was a prisoner of war during my stay for I had not made war, I never took a pistol, a gun, or sword & the much that has been said on this subject is false I have been willing
- b to go before any governor Judge or tribunal where justice could be done & have the subject investigated. I could not have committed treason in that State while there I had no controll any where in temporal things while there but in spiritual I was driven from that state by force of arms under the exterminating order of Governor [Lilburn W.] Boggs. I have never committed treason the people know vary well I have Been a peaceable Citizen but their has been a great hugh & cry about Jo Smith Govornor Bogs being shot, No crime can be done but what it is laid to Jo Smith Here I was again dragged to the United States Court, & was cleared & now it comes again, But as often as God sees fit for me to suffer I am ready But I am
- c as innocent of these crimes as the Angels in heaven. I am not an enemy to mankind I am a friend to Mankind. I <am> not an enemy to Missouri nor any any governors or people As to the military station I hold & the cause of my holding it is as follows. When we came here the State required us to bear arms & do military duty according to law, & as the Church had just been driven from the State of Missouri & rob[b]ed of all their property & arms they were poor & destitute of armes: they were liable to be fined for not doing duty when they had not arms to do it with, they came to me for advice I advised them to d organize themselves into independant companies, & demand arms of the State, this they did, Again their were many Elders having licence to preach which by law exhonored them from Military duty but the officers would not release them on this ground I then told the Saints that though I was clear from Military duty by law in consequence of lameness in one of my legs, yet I would set them the example & would do duty myself, they then said they were willing to do duty if they could be formed into an independant company & I could be at their head & upon this ground came the Nauvoo Legion & I holding e the office of Lieutenant General not that I seek for power. & with regard to elections some say we all vote together & vote as I say: But I never tell any man how to vote or who to vote for, But I will show you how we have been situated by bringing a comparison Should their be a Methodist society here & two candidates running for office: one says if you will vote for me & put me in governor I will exterminate the Methodist take away their Charters &c. The other candidate says if I am Governor I will give all an equal privilege, which would the Methodist vote for, of course they would vote in mass for the f candidate that would give them their rights; thus it has Been with us Joseph Duncan said if the people would elect him he would exterminate the mormons & take away their charters As to Mr [Thomas] Ford he made no such threats, but manifested a spirit in his speeches to give every man their rights; hence the Church universally voted for Mr Ford & he was elected Governor; But he has issued writs against me the first time the Missourians made a demand for me & this is the second one he has issued for me which has caused me much trouble & expense.

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Joseph said. arrested— writ Gov. [Thomas] Ford,— on Habeas Corpus fri[e]nds petitioned a writ— stood clear— those officers to carthage made false reprsntatin [representation]; I have legally discharged.— I testify I did submit myself quietly. proof [Cyrus] Walker [Shepherd] Patrick Southwith [Edward Southwick] Sangers [Lucien Sanger].— various others . . . did transcend their power. or intimated that they were intimidated & brought here by fraud. honstly & uprightly— in all things in relation to this Subject.
- b Public mind. has been agitated. Language of Paul happy that I have this opportunity I never dwelt in Mo over 6 mo— 5 6. years ago to Mo from Ohio.— prisonr of war as I said but I never was a worriur [warrior]— buldg home and our farms disburtances [disturbances] by Mob Mormons greatly distressed eastern peoples.— purhsying [purchasing?] land. war murder war. bloodshed no sword pistol. musket I defy the man or woman to testify to my faces Sought opportunities
c before the highest tribunal.— later arresst could not commit treason. had no comamed [command]— ministers of Ch[r]ist bear & suffer long.— arrest under [Thomas] Carlin,— tried before Douglass [Stephen A. Douglas]— Nol— presesque [nolle prosequi] previous in Missouri . . . Nol presesque filed on the records of this State. hue & cry about [Lilburn W.] Boggs. no crime ~~but~~ <by> by Jo Smith.— assissination of Booggs. United States States Court.—
- d Another charge— on the old affairs— to get me to Missouri— then try me for Boggs.— I was arres “arrested” commanded the no men in Mo.— nothing aganst Mo— had nothing to do with civil govern-ment, have accepted an office at request of the people here— military office many brethrn distitute [destitute], of arms— organize youself in indepedent, company—e armed by the state, Licen[s]es— Mormons Licence from regular churchers.— Same man, have certificates from surgen. I tried as humble citizen. I have served, them in a humble capacity mormons all vote on one side # # 2 candidates 1 meth[o]dist would kill. other support all in equal rights. Dunklins [Joseph Duncan]— said I will exterminatee.— Ford.— Bro who shall we vote for? I dont know nor care.— Ford granted this writ.— I . . . did not demand me it was another name officers fell on me pistols in hand— God dam you I will shoot God dam. you. heres by brest.— shoot.— if <im> not afraid I opend

f my brest 4 or 5 time— told them to shoot. no tim[e] kiss my children.— 1/2 miles— by what authority. by W. from Ford—from Missouri Habeas Corpus.— no God Dam it you shall shall not have— private room, cant have a lawyer—  bring me a lawyer— <if you say another word I blow> fire away.— fire away. thrust him back— sent out a message for— carraige— citizen of Dixon.— would string.— served for my damages— false imprisonment.— attorney— Judge Cayten [John Caton] went to pawpaw [Paw Paw Grove] 32 miles— Judge gave another writ of Habeas corpus.— they g pledges their property.— Nauvoo, Quincy. &c.— day after I started for nauvoo.— may I not get on to the horse my horse.
 [Joseph H.] Reynolds git of[f] this horse in peril,— I shall not get off. he drove my lawyers out of seat, extra coach. Lawyer interfered I write to Nau[voo] set at head of my table. family introduced 8,10, Lawyers agreed to writ hab[e]as proved an h alibi, did not commit treason.— defective & void in ma[n]y parts, discharge. away went to carthage to raise an insurrection greater love hath no man than this— that a man lay down for his frind.— 6 mo 6 days— in Jackson & Liberty cold— sleep on boards— jury drunk— all but 2 for a watch watch. through the night, great crim[in]al I am . . . his son holy angels gift and blessings of the holy ghost & gospel where is the differec [difference].— misunderstood each other.

Discourse, 9 July 1843

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Joseph remarced [remarked] that all was well between him and the heavens that he had no emnity against any one. and as the prayer of Jesus. or his pattern so prayed Joseph. Father forgive me my trespasses. as I forgive those who trespass.
 against me. for I freely forgive all men.— if we would s[e]cure & cultivate the love of others we must love others. even our enemies— as well as friends “why is it this babler gains so many followers. & retains them”? because I possess the principle of love, All I can offer the world a good heart & a good hand. Mormons can testify whether I am willing to lay down my life for a mormon;
- b If it has been demonstrated that I am have been willing to die for a mormon I am bold to declare <befo[r]e heaven> that I <am> just as ready to die for a presbytiran. a baptist or any other denomination.— It is a love of libe[r]ty which inspires my soul. civil and religious liberty— were diffused into my soul by my grandfathers. while they dandld me on their knees.—
 and shall I want friends? no!—
- c “Where in do you differ from other[s] in your religious. views?”— In reality & essencce we do not differ so far in our religio[us] v[i]ews but that we could all dring [drink] into one principle of love
- d one [of] the grand fundamental principles of Mormonism <is> to receivee thruth [truth] let it come from where it may.— we beli[e]ve in the great Eloheem. who— sits enthroned in yonder heavens.— so do the presbyterian. If as a skillful mechanic In taking a weldi[n]g heat I use a borax & allum. &c— an[d] succe[e]d in welding you all together shall I not have attained a good object.
- e if I esteem mankind to be in error shall I bear them down? no! I will will lift them up.— & in his own way if I cannot persuade him my way is better? & I will ask no man to believe as I do.
 Do you believe in Jesus christ &c? So do I. christians should cultivate the frie[n]dship of each other. & will do it.
- f “Do you believe in the baptism of infants”? says the presby[t]erian.— No.— “why”. because it is no where written in the book circumcision is not Baptism. Baptism is for remission of sins.— childrn have no sins— he <Jesus> blessed them— do what you have seen me do— all made alive in christ. faith & repentance.— we are agreed.— baptism. yes by imme[r]sion.
 the Hebrew is the root. to by bury immerse— Do you believe this no.— I believe in b[e]ing ~~convertd~~ converted.— I believe in this tinaceously [tenaciously]
- g Holy Ghost by laying on of hands

Evidance. Peter on days of Pentecost; might as well be baptism baptise a bag of sand as a man if not done in view of the getting of the Holy ghost.— baptism by water is but 1/2 a baptism.— & is good for nothi[n]g with[out] the other. the Holy Gho[s]t.— <I> am free to day—

- h messenger has retur[n]ed with offers of peace. from the governor except a man be born again. of water <& of the spir[i]t> can in no wise enter into the Kingdom—
Though we or an angel f[r]om heaven preach any othe[r] gospel

Revelation, 12 July 1843 [D&C 132]

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

No 1

Nauvoo July 12th 1843

Verily thus Saith the Lord, unto you my Servent Joseph, that inasmuch as you have enquired of my hand to know and understand wherein I the Lord justified my Servents Abraham, Isaac and Jacob; as also Moses, David and Solomon my Servents as touching the principle and doctrin of their having many wives, and concubines. Behold, and lo, I am the Lord thy God, and will answer thee as t[o]uching this matter Therefore prepare thy heart to receive and obey the instructions which I am about to give unto you, for all those, who have this law revealed unto them, must obey the Same, for behold, I reveal unto you a new and an everlasting covenant, and if ye abide not that covenant, then are ye damned; for no one can reject this covenant, and be permitted to enter into my glory; for all who will have a blessing at my hands, Shall abide the law which was appointed for that blessing and the conditions thereof, as was instituted from before the foundation of the world◊ and as pertaining, to the new and everlasting covenant, it was instituted for the fulness of my glory; and he that receiveth a fulness thereof must and Shall abide the law or he Shall be damned Saith the Lord God. And verily I Say unto you, that the conditions of this law are these, all covnants, contracts, bonds, obligations, oaths, vows, performances, connexions, associations or expectations that are not made and entered into and Sealed by the Holy Spirit of promise of him who is anointed both as well for time and for all eternity and that too most holy by Revelation and commandment through the medium of mine anointed whom I have appointed on the earth to hold the this power (and I have appointed unto my Servant Joseph to hold this power in the last days and there is never but one on the earth at a time, on whom this power and the Keys of this priesthood is confered) are of no effect efficacy, virtue or force in and after the resurrection from the dead for all contracts that are not made unto this end, have an end when men are dead. Behold, mine house is a house of order Saith the Lord God, and not a house of confusion. Will I accept of an offering, Saith the Lord that is not made in my name or will I receive at your hands, that which I have not appointed, and will I appoint unto you, Saith the Lord, except it be by law, even as I and my Father ordained unto you, before the world was? I am the Lord thy God and I Give unto you this commandment that no man Shall Come unto the Father but by me, or by my word, which is my law Saith the Lord, and every thing that is in the world, whether in it be ordained of men by thrones, or principalities or powers or things of name whatsoever they may be that are not by me or by my word Saith the Lord, Shall be thrown down and Shall not remain after men are dead, neither in nor after the resurrection, Saith the Lord your God. For whatsoever things remaineth are by me; and whatsoever things are not by me, shall be shaken and destroyed. Therefore if a man marry him a wife, in the world, and he marry her not by me, nor by <my> word; and he covenant with her, So long as he is in the world, and She with him, their covenant and marriage is not of force when they are dead, and when they are out of the world therefore they are not bound by any law when they are out of the world therefore, when they are out of the world, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are appointed angels in heaven, which angels are ministering Servents to minister for those, who are worthy of a far more and an exceding and an eternal weight of Glory, for these angels did not abide my law, therefore they cannot be enlarged, but remain separately and Singly without exaltation in their Saved Condition to all eternity and from henceforth are not Gods, but are angels of God for ever and ever.

And again verily I Say unto you, if a man Marry a wife and make a covenant with her for time and for all Eternity, if that Covenant is not by me or by my word which is my law and is not Sealed by the Holy Spririt of promise, through him whom I have anointed and appointed unto this power then it is not Valid, neither of force when they are out of the world because they are not joined by me Saith the Lord, neither by my word when they are out of the world it cannot be received ~~their~~ there because the angels and the Gods are appointed there, by whom they Cannot pass, they Cannot therefore inherit my glory for my house is a house of order Saith the Lord God, And again verily I Say unto you, if a man marry a wife by my word which is my law, and by the new and everlasting Covenant and it is Sealed unto them by the Holy Spirit of promise by him who is anointed unto whom I have appointed this power and the keys of this priesthood and it Shall be Said unto them ye Shall Come forth in the first resurrection and if it be after the first resurrection in the next resurection and Shall inherit thrones Kingdoms principalities and powers dominions all heighth and depths then Shall it be written in the Lambs book of life that he Shall Commit no murder whereby to Shed ~~blood~~ innocent blood and if ye abide in my Covenant and Commit no murder whereby to Shed innocent blood it Shall be done unto them in all things whatsoever my Servent hath put upon them, in time and through all Eternity, and Shall be of full force when they are out of the world and they Shall pass by the angels and the Gods which are Set there to their exaltation and Glory in all things as hath been Sealed upon their heads which glory Shall be a fullness and a Continuation of the Seeds for ever and ever. Then Shall they be Gods, because they have no End. Therefore, Shall they be from everlasting to Everlasting because they Continue Then Shall they be above all because all things are Subject unto them. Then Shall they be Gods because they have all power and the angels are Subject unto them Verily verily, I Say unto you except ye abide my Law ye Cannot attain to this Glory for Strait is the Gate and narrow the way, that leadeth unto the exaltation and continuation of the lives and few there be that find it because ye receive me not in the world neither do ye know me. But if ye Receive me in the world, then Shalt ye know me, and Shall receive your exaltation, that where I am, ye Shall be also. This is Eternal lives to <know> the onley wise and true God, and Jesus Christ whom he hath Sent, I am he Receive ye therefore my law. Broad is the gate, and wide the way that leadeth to the deaths, and many there are that go in thereat because they receive me not, neither do they abide my law— Verily verily I Say unto you, if  man marry a wife according to my word, and they are Sealed by the Holy Spirit of promise, according to ~~my~~ mine appointment, and he or She Shall Commit any Sin or transgression of the new and everlasting covenant whatever, and all manner of blasphemies and if they commit no murder, wherein they Shed innocent blood, yet they Shall Come forth in the first resurrection and enter into their— exaltation, but they Shall be destroyed in in the flesh and Shall be deliverd unto the buffetin[g]s of Satan unto the day of redemption, Saith the Lord God. The blasphemy against the Holy Ghost, which Shall not be forgiven in the world nor out of the world, is in that ye Commit murder, wherein ye Shed innocent blood and assent unto my death, after ye have received my new and Everlasting covenant Saith the Lord God and he that abideth not this law can in no wise enter into my glory but Shall be damned Saith the Lord, I am the Lord thy God, and will give unto thee the Law of my Holy priesthood as was ordained by me and my Father before the world was, Abraham receiveth all things, whatsoever he received by Revelation and Commandment by my word Saith the Lord, and hath entered in to his exaltation and Setteth upon his throne, Abraham received promises concerning his Seed, and of the fruit of his loins, from whose loins ye are viz; my Servant Joseph which were to continue So long as they were in the world, and as touching Abraham and his Seed out of the world they Should continue both in the world and out of the wourld Should they Continue as innumerable as the Stars or if ye ware to count the Sand upon the Sea Shore ye Could not number them. This promis is yours also because ye are of Abraham, and the promise was made unto Abraham and by this law are the Continuation of the works of my Father where in he gloryfieth himself, Go ye therefore and do the works of Abraham, enter ye into my law and ye Shall be Saved, But if ye enter not into my law ye Cannot receive the promises of my Father which he made unto N^o. 2

Abraham, God commanded Abraham, and Sarah gave Hagar to Abraham to wife. and why did She do it? Because this was the law, and from Hagar Sprang many people. This Therefore was fulfilling, among other things, the promises Was Abraham therefore under condemnation? Verily I Say unto you nay for I the Lorde Commanded it. Abraham was Commanded to offer his Son Isaac; nevertheless it was written thou Shalt not kill, Abraham however did not refuse, and it was accounted unto him for righteousness, Abraham received Concubines, and they bare him Children, and it was accounted unto him for righteousness because they ware Given unto him. and he abode in my law, as Isaac also, and Jacob did none other things, than that which they were commanded and because they did none other things than that which they were commanded they have entered into there exaltation according to the promises, and Set Sit upon thrones; and are not angels but are Gods. David also ~~receiveth~~ received many wives and Concubines and as also Solomon and Moses my Servents; as also many others of my Servents from the begining of creation untill this time and in nothing did they Sin Save in those things which they received not of me. David<s> wives and Concubines were given unto him of me by the hand of Nathan my Servent and others of the prophets who had the Keys of this power; and in none of these things did he Sin against me Save in the case of Uriah and his wife and therefore he hath fallen from his exaltation and received his portion and he Shall not inherit them out of the world for I gave them unto another Saith the Lord, I am the Lord, thy God and I gave unto thee my Servent Joseph an appointment and restore all things ask what ye will and it Shall be given unto you according to my word and as ye have asked Concerning adultery, Verily verily I Say unto you if a man receiveth a wife in the new and Everlasting covenant and if She be with another man and I have not appointed unto her by the holy anointing, She hath Committed adultery and Shall be destroyed. If She be not in the new and Everlasting Covenant, and She be with another <man> She has Committed adultery; and if her husband be with another woman and he was under a vow, he hath broken his vow and hath committed adultery and if She hath not committed adultery but <is> innocent and hath not broken her vow and She knoweth it and I reveal it unto you my Servant Joseph then Shall you have power by the power of my Holy priesthood to take her and give her unto him that hath not Committed adultery but hath been faithful for he Shall be made ruler over many for I have conferred upon you the keys and power of the priesthood wherein I restore all things and make known unto you all things in due time— And Verily verily I Say unto you, as whatsoever you Seal on Earth ~~Shall~~ Shall be Sealed in heaven, and whatsoever you bind on earth in my name and by my word Saith the Lord it Shall be eternally bound in the heavens; and ~~whosoever~~ whosoever Sins you remit on earth Shall be remitted eternally in the heavens and whosoever Sins you retain on earth Shall be retained in heaven

And again Verily I Say, whomsoever you bless I will bless and whomsoever you Curse I will Curse Saith the Lord, for I the Lord am thy God

And again Verily I Say unto you my Servant Joseph that whatsoever you give on earth and to whomsoever you give any one on earth by my word, and according to my law, it Shall be visited with blessings and not cursings and with my power Saith the Lord, and Shall be without Condemnation on earth and in heaven; for I am the Lord thy God, and will be with thee even unto the end of the world, and through all Eternity. For verily I seal upon you your exaltation and prepare a throne for you in the Kingdom of my Father, with Abraham Your Father. Behold I have seen your Sacrifices and will forgive all your Sins I have seen your Sacrifices in obedience to that which I have told you, Go therefore and I make a way for your escape, as I accepted the offering of Abraham of his Son Isaac. Verily I Say unto you a commandment I give unto mine handmaid Emma Smith your wife whom I have given unto you, that She Stay herself and partake not of that which I Commanded you to offer unto her, For I did it Saith the Lord to prove you all as I did Abraham, and that I might require an offering at your hand by covenant and Sacrifice and let mine handmaid Emma Smith receive all those that have been given unto my Servent Joseph, and who are Virtuous and pure before me; And those who are not pure <and have Said they ware pure> Shall be destroyed saith the Lord God, For I am the Lord thy God and ye Shall obey my Voice; and I give unto my Servent Joseph that he Shall be made ruler over many things for he hath been faithfull over a few things, and from henceforth I will Strengthen him, and I command mine handmaid Emma Smith to abide and Cleave unto my Servent Joseph; and to none else, But if She will not abide this Commandment She Shall be destroyed Saith the Lord, for I am the Lord thy God, and will distroy her if She abide not in my law, but if She will not abide this Commandment, ~~there~~ then Shall my Servent Joseph do all things for her even as he hath Said, and I will bless him and multiply him and give unto him an hundred fold in this world of ~~futhers~~, and fathers and mothers brothers and Sisters houses and lands wives and children, and crowns of eternal lifes in the eternal worlds. And again Verily I Say ~~unto you~~ let mine handmaid forgive my Servent Joseph his trespasses and ~~there~~ than Shall She be forgiven her trespasses wherein she hath ~~trespaseth~~ trespassed against me and I the Lord thy God will bless her and multiply her, and make her heart to rejoice. and again I Say let not my Servant Joseph put his property out of his hands, list an enemy come and distroy him for Satan Seeketh to distroy, For I am the Lord thy God, and he is my, Servent and behold and lo, I am with him as I was with Abraham thy Father, even unto his exaltation and Glory, Now as t[o]uching the law of the priesthood there are many things pertaning thereunto. Verily if a man be Called of my Father as was aaron by mine own Voice and by the voice of him that Sent me, and I have endowed him with the Keys of the power of ~~the~~ this priesthood if he do any thing in my name and according to my law and by my word. he will not Commit Sin and I will justify him, Let no one therefore Set on my servant Joseph for I will justify him for he Shall do the sacrifices which I require at his hands, for his transgressions Saith the Lord your God & again, as pertaining to the Law of the priesthood if any man espouse a virgin, & desire to espouse another & the first give her osen [consent] & if he espous< > [espouse] the secon [second] & they are virgins & have vowed to no other man, then is he justified, he Cannot Commit adultery for they are given unto him for he Cannot Commit adultery with that, that belongeth unto him & to none else & if he have ten virgins given <unto> him by ~~thee~~ this Law, he Cannot Commit adultery for they belong to him, & they are given unto him therefore, <is he justified> But if one or either of the ten Virgins, after She is espoused Shall be with another man She has Committed adultery & Shall be distroyed for they are given unto him to multiply & replenish the Earth according to my Commandment & to fulfill the promise which was given by my father before the foundation of the world & for thine exaltation in the eternal worlds, that they may ~~have~~ <bear> the Souls of men, for herein is the work of my father Continued that he may be Glorified— And again verily verily I Say unto you if any man have a wife who holds the Keys of this power & he teaches unto her the Law of my priesthood as pertaining to these things, ~~they~~ then Shall She believe & administer unto him or She Shall be distroyed Saith the Lord your God, for I will distroy her for I will magnify my name upon all ~~those~~ these who receive & abide in my law Therefore if it Shall be lawful in me if She receive not this law for him to receive all things whatsoever. I the lord his God will give unto him because She did not believe & administer unto him according to my word, & She then becomes the transgressor & he is exempt from the law of Sarah who adminesterd unto Abraham according to the law, when I Commanded Abraham to take Hagar to wife & now as pertain[in]g to this law Verily verily I Say unto you I will reveal more unto you hereafter, therefore let this Suffice for the present Behold I am Alpha & Omiga Amen

Discourse, 16 July 1843

As Reported by Willard Richards–A

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

Sunday July 16th. 1843 preached all day. or A.M. & P.M. at the stand. in the grove. near & west of the temple concerning a mans foes being they of his own house. such as having secret enemies in the city— intermingling with the saints &c— and proposing Hyrum [Smith] as a prophet— that he might be (a priest)— so the hearers tell the story [4 lines blank]

As Reported by Willard Richards–B

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Sunday 16 Joseph preached all day.— A M. 27th Matthew,— &c.— did not hear him— mans foes they of his own house:— the spirit that crucified christ, same spirit in Nauvoo, refered particularly to— I wont say who— was it Bro [William] Marks?— ~~did~~ <do> not say.— bro Cole—? ~~or bro P. P. P. [Parley P. Pratt]~~? did not hear the sermon, why ask me, <nothing new, same as
- b when you left.>— the spirit was against christ because of his innocence.— So in the present case.— said he would not prophecy any more.— Hyrum [Smith] should be the prophet— (did not tell them he was going to be a priest now nor a King by and by)— told the elders not to prophecy when they went out preaching—

As Reported by William Clayton

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a P.M. went to the Grove and heard pres. J. preach on the law of the priesthood. He stated that Hyrum [Smith] held the office of prophet to the church by birth-right & he was going to have a reformation and the saints must regard Hyrum for he
- b has authority. He showed that a man must enter into an everlasting covenant with his wife in this world or he will have no claim on her in the next. He said that he could not reveal the fulness of these things until the Temple is completed &c.

As Reported by Franklin D. Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a All Blessings that were ordained for man by the Council of Heaven were on conditions of obedience to the Law thereof. No man can obtain an eternal Blessing unless the contract or covenant be made in view of Eternity All contracts in view of this Life only terminate with this Life. Case of the woman & 7 husbands Luke 20–29 &c
- b Those who keep no eternal Law in this life or make no eternal contract are single & alone in the eternal world (Luke 20–35) and are only made Angels to minister to those who shall be heirs of Salvation never becoming Sons of God having never kept
- c the Law of God ie eternal Law The earthly is the image of the Heavenly shows that is by the multiplication of Lives that the eternal worlds are created and occupied that which is born of the flesh is flesh that which is born of the spirit is spirit

Discourse, 23 July 1843

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Law and prophets were until John &c 15 16 luke. 16 v— Joseph preac[h]ed— introduction— It has gone ab[r]oad that I was no longer a prophet.— I said it Ironically. I supposd you would all understand. I was not that I would renounce the idea of being a prophet. but that I would renou[n]ce the idea of procla[i]ming myself such. and saying. that I bear the testimony of Jesus.
- b No greater love than that a man lay down his life for his finds [friends]. I discover 100^s & 1000^s ready to do it for me In the midst of business— &— find the spirit willing but the flesh is weak subject to like passions with other men.— although I am under the necessity of bearing the infirmities of other men. &c——
- c on the other hand the same characters when th[e]y discover a weakness in brothr Joseph. blast his character. &c— all that law. &c th[r]ough him to the church.— he cannot be borne with a moment. men mouth my troubles. wh[e]n <I> have trouble they forget it all
- d I beli[e]ve in a principle of reciprocity [reciprocity]— if we live in a devilish world— &c— I see no faults in the chิร์ch.— let me be resurrected with the saints whethr to heaven or helll or any other good place— good society. what do we care if the soc[i]ety is good?——
- e dont care what a character is if he's my frie[n]d.— a fri[e]nd a true friend. & I will be a f[r]iend to him frie[n]dship is the grand fundamental prin[c]iple of Mormonism. to revolutin [revolutionize?] civilize the world.— pour forth love.
- f fredship [friendship] like Bro Tulys [Theodore Turley's] Blacksmith shop.— I do not dwell upon you[r] faults. you shall not upon mine— after you have covered up all the faults among you— the prettyest thing is have no faults at all— meek. qui[e]t. &c— Presbyteri[a]n or any truth. emb[ra]ce that. Baptist. Methodist. &c— get all the good in the world. come out a pure mormon.
- g Last monday morni[n]g cert[a]in men cam[e] to me— Bro Joseph Hyrm [Hyrum Smith] is no propht. he cant lead the chu[r]ch— you must lead the Chu[rc]h— if you resign I. felt curious— & said— here we lea[r]n in a priesthood after th[e] order of Melchisedek— Propht priest & king— & I will adva[n]ce f[ro]m prophet to pri[e]st & then to King not to the kingdoms of this earth but of the most high god. If I should would there be a great many disappoitd [disappointed] in MO [Missouri]?
- h Law & prop[h]ets. &c— suffereth violenc[e] & the viol[e]nt taketh it by force— heavens and earth shall pass away. &c says christ. he was the rock &c— gave the law 30 Ex. 30.31.— and thou shalt anoint A[a]ron &c. last chap Ex 15.— and thou shalt anoint. them &c.— a tittle of law which must be fulfilled.— provend hereditary.— fixed on the head of aron— down to Zachariahe— the father of John.— Zachariah had no child— <had not> god gave him a son? sent his angel to declare a son henc[e] John. with the keys.—
- i John king and— lawgiver The Kingdom of heavn suffereth volenc [violence] &— The kingdm of heavn continuith in auth[o]rity. beareth suffereth violenc. until John. the authority taketh it by absolute power. John having the power— took the kingdom by authority.—
- j How do you know all this g[rea]t knowledge—? by the gift of the H.G. [Holy Ghost] arrested the kingdom fr[o]m the Jews of these stony Gentil[e]s these dogs to raise up childrn unto Abraham John I must be baptized by you. why to answer my decreess.— John refusees— Jesus had no legal admin[is]trator before John.
- k No Salvation between the two lids of the bible without a legal administrator Tis contrary to a Governors oath to send a man to MO. where he is prescribed in his religious opinions.— Jesus was then the legal administrator.— & ordaind his apostles. I will resume the subject at some futur[e] time.—

As Reported by James Burgess

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Luke 16 chap 16 verse. The Laws and the Prophets were untill John since then the Kingdom of Heaven is preached and all men press into it.— We will go back to Mount Scinia [Sinai] where Jesus gave the Law to Moses Exodus 30 chap 30 verse
- b also the last chap 15 verse. The preisthood was given to Aron and his posterity throughout all generations we can trace the leanage [lineage] down to Zachariah he being the only Lawfull administrator in his day and the Jews knew it well for
- c they always acknowledged the preisthood. and Zachariah having no children, knew that the promise of God must fail, consequently he went into the Temple to wrestle with God according to the order of the preisthood to obtain a promise of a
- d son, and when the Angel told him that his promise was granted he because of unbelief was struck dumb. And when the set time was come John came forth and when he took up his preisthood, he came bounding out of the wilderness saying repent ye for the kingdom of heaven is at hand, he having received the holy anointing was the only lawful administrator and the jews all knew it— for the law and the prophets was untill John since then the kingdom of heaven is preached and all men
- e press into it! Why! Why ~~John~~ because John was the only lawful administrator and they the Jews well knew it. consequently the only alternative was for them to yeild obedience to mandates of this wild man of the woods, namely John or be damned
- f For all Jerusalam and all Judea came out to be babtised of John, sadusees, pharasees, Essenees &c For untill John was the law and the prophets, since then the kingdom of heaven is preached and all men press into it. The kingdom of heaven suffereth violence and the violent take it by forse. Now I will translate a little, the kingdom of heaven hath power and authourity and by that they take or enter legally and lawfully the kingdom of heaven

As Reported by Franklin D .Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Joseph said after reading Matt 11–12 & Luke 16–16 Heaven & Earth might pass but not a jot or tittle of the Law should read Exodus 40–45 Anointing of Aaron & his sons and shewed that all the Power & Authority & Anointing descended upon
- b the head of John the Baptist or “The government shall be upon his shoulders” This was virtually acknowledged by all Judea & they of Jerusalem coming out to be baptized of him & the rendering the Texts is “The Kingdom continueth in authority or Law & the Authority or legality (which belonged to John) took it by force or wrested it from the Jews to be delivered to a Nation bringing forth the fruits thereof

Discourse, 6 August 1843

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

- a P[arley] P. Pratt preached. on testimony. after Sermon. Joseph (for he came to the stand soon after Parly commencd.) said he would preach his sermon next sunday he was not able to day.— would speak of another subject.— the Election he was above the kingdoms— of the world for he broke no laws.—
I have not come to tell <you> to vote this way. that way. or the other.
- b in relation to national matters I want it to [go] abr[o]ad to the whole wo[r]ld. that every man should stand on his own merits. the Lord has not given me Revelati[o]n conc[e]rning politics.— I have not asked the Lord for it.— I am a third party stand independnt and alone— I desire to see all parties protected in their rights.— ~~as I have to save~~ in relation to Mr [Cyrus] Walker. he is a whig candidate a high minded man.
- c Mr Walker has not hung on to my coat tail to gain his electi[o]n as some have said. I am going to give a testimony but not for electioneering p♦♦♦p♦♦ri♦s [purposes?].—
before Mr Walker came to Nauvoo. rumor came up that he might become a candidate for congress.” — says I he is an old fri[e]nd I will vote for him.— when Mr Walker came to my house. I voluntar[il]y told him I was going to vote for me him
- d When I dictated to him the laws of Nauvoo, he rec[e]ived them on my testimony.— the rascals took Walkers. & Montgomery [Nelson Montgomery’s] security <when I was arr[e]sted> Walker made [Joseph H.] Reynolds come to me & beg my pardon. for abuse <he gave me> & <th[r]ough his means> took the pistols from the rascals. & withdrew all claim to your vote & influenc[e] if it will be detrimental to your inter[e]st as a peoplee—
- e Bro Hiram [Hyrum Smith] tells me this morn[i]ng that he has had a testimo[n]y that it will be better for this people to vote for [Joseph] hoge. & I never never kn[e]w Hiram say he ever had a revelation & it faild.— <(Let God speak and all men hold their peace.)> Never told Bro [William] Law to tell my private feeli[n]gs. ~~(Let God speak and all men hold their peace.)~~ and I utterly forbid these polotical [political] demagog[u]es from using my name hecefoth [henceforth]. forever.—
- f It is my settled feeling that if gov [Thomas] Ford erred in granting a writ ag[a]inst me it is of the head and not of the heart. and I authorize all men to say I am a personal friend of gov ford.
a cap to Parlys Serm[o]n
- g eve[r]ly word that procedeeth from the mouth of Jehovah has such an influenc[e] over the hum[a]n mind the logical mind. that it is convinc[i]ng without <othr> testimo[n]y.
faith cometh by hearing.
- h If 10000 men testify to a truth you know would it add to you[r] faith? no, or will 1000 testimon[i]es destroy your knowledge— of a fact? no.—
I do not want any one to tell I am a propht or attempt to prove my word <I> Propecy [prophecy] in the name of God Almgty [Almighty] th[e]y shall bear off the palm

Discourse, 13 August 1843–A

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a d Peter 3.^d C[hapter]. 11. v—— Text said he was not like other men his mind was continually occ[u]pied with the business of the day. and he had to depend entirely upon the living god for evrey thing he said on such occasions.
- b The great thing for us to know is to comprehe[n]d what. God did institute before the fou[n]dation of the world.— Who knows it?

- It is the constitutional disposition of mankind to set up stakes & set bou[n]ds to the works and ways of the Almighty. we are calld this mourn thies mo[r]ning the death of a good man a great man & a m[i]ghty man—
- c It is a Sol[e]mn idea that man has no hope of seeing a frie[n]d after he has lost him. but I will give you a more painful thought— the thought is simple and I never design to communicate no ideas but what are simple for to this end I am sent.—
- d suppose we have an idea of a resurrection. &c &c and yet know nothiing at all of the gospel and could not comprehend one principle of the order of heavn. but found yourselves disappo[i]nted. yes. at last find yourselves disappointed in evrey hope or antiicipation when decis[i]on goes forth from the lips of the Almighty at last. would not this be a gre[a]ter disappointmt [disappointment]. a more painful thought than annihilat[i]on
- e had I inspiartion [inspiration], Revelation & lungs to communicate what my soul has contemplated in times <past> there is not a soul in this congregation but would go to their hom[e]s & shut their mouths in everlasting silnece [silence] on religion, till. they had learnd somethi[n]g.
- f why be so certain that you comprehend the things of God. when all things with you are so uncertain. you are welcome to all the knowledge & I do not grudge the world of all the religion— the[y] have got.— they are welc[o]me to all the knowledge th[e]y possess— the sound saluted my ears. we are come unto Mt. Zion. &c.
- g what could propet [profit] us to come unto the spirits of Just met [men] but to learn. and come to the knowledge of spi[ri]ts of the Just. where has Judge Higby gone?— who is there that would not give all his goods to feed the poor— & pour out his gold & silver. to the four winds. to come where Judge Higby has gone.—
- h that which hath been hid from before the fo[u]ndations of the w[o]rld. [illegible] reveald to babes and sucklings in the last days.— The wo[r]ld is reserved unto burni[n]g in the last days— he shall send Elijah the prophet . . . and he shall reveal the covenants of the fathrs <in relation> to the childrn,— ~~<originally written>~~ and the childrn and the covenan[ts] of th[e] childr[en] in relati[o]n to the fathrs.—
- i 4 destroying angels holding power ove[r] the 4 qua[r]ters of the earth— u[n]til the the se[r]vants of God are seald in their foreheads.— what is that seal. shall I tell you? ~~knew~~ No.—
- j Doctrine Election.— sealing. <of the sevats [servants] of our god> on ~~their~~ the top of their heads.— tis the not the cross as the catholi[c]s would have it. doctrine of Electi[o]n to Abraham was in the relation to the Lord.— A man wishes to be embraced in the covenan[t] of Abraham— a man Judge. Higby— in world.— of spir[i]ts—
- k is sealed unto the throne, & doctrine of Electi[o]n sealing the father & childrn together. to the mou[r]ner. do as the husband and the father would inst[r]uct you. & you shall be reunited.— I have been acquited [acquainted] with Judge Higby a long time & I Never knew a more tender heartd man.

As Reported by Martha Jane Knowlton Coray

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a sermon 3th
on the death of Judge [Elias] Higbee
- There is a thought more dreadful than that of total annihilation, That Thought is the an assurance <thought> that we shall never again meet with those we loved here on earth suppose I had died beleiving that when having some Idea of a resurection and Glory beyond the grave which God and angels had secured and yet had not any knowledge <intelligence> of any Law or any order by which it is to be obtained Well you lose a friend you come up in the resurection hoping to [see] him again but find yourself separated from them to all eternity and become aware of the fact that through ignorance of the principles of the resurection <and reunion> you will never behold that dear friend nor ever enjoy his society this thought <I say> of being disappointed in meeting my friend in the resurrection is to me more dreadful than of ceasing to suffer by a cessation of being

d Were I Could I tell the fact as it is all that heard me would go home and never say one word more about God or Christ or religion untill they had received that assurance from Heaven which would set their souls at rest by placing all beyond a doubt

What consolation have we what power what reason to expect one thing more than another in eternity

e Hebrews 12 ch 22 ~~illegible~~ 22 v You <you> have come to an inn[u]merable company of angels to the general assembly and church of the first born And for have were they brought thus far— I answer you that they came to these personages to learn of the things of God and to hear revealed through them the order and glory of the kingdoms of God.

f I would ask again Is there a word on record that was revealed by those angels and spirits if there is where is it to be found found

Again I enquire what is the order and organization of the spirits of the just made perfect Let me tell you brethren That which is to be revealed which was kept hid from the foundation of the world will be revealed to sucklings and babes

g Malachi 4th ch Behold the day cometh that shall burn as an oven and all the proud and they that do wickedly Shall be as stubble and they that cometh shall burn them up But although in the begining God created the Earth standing in the water and out of the water Still in the End it shall be burned and few men left— But before that God shall send unto them Elijah the prophet and he shall reveal unto them the covenants of the fathers with relation to the children and the covenants of the children in relation to the Fathers that they may have the priviledge of entering into the same in order to effect their mutual h Salvation And I saw another angel ascending from the east having the Seal of the living God and he cried &c. sayin[g] Hurt not the Earth nor sea nor trees till we have sealed the servants of our Go[d] in their foreheads—

Now I would ask who know the seal of the living God Behold the ignorance of the World

j A measure of this sealing is to confirm upon their head in common with Elijah the doctrine of Election or the covenant with Abraham— which which when a Father & Mother of a family have entered into their children who have not transgressed are secured by the seal wherewith the Parents have been sealed— And this is the Oath of God unto our Father Abraham and this doctrine shall stand forever—

k Mourners: I exhort you to do as your Father and husband would direct— be sealed by the by the servants of God— Eternal life is to know the only true God and his son Jesus without which there is no salvation

As Reported by William Clayton

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

a Sunday 13 Went to meeting. heard J. preach on 2 Peter 3— 10 & 11— being a funeral sermon on the death of E[lia]s b Higbee— When speaking of the passage “I will send Elijah the prophet &c” he said it should read and he shall turn the hearts of the children to the covenant made with their fathers Also where it says and they shall seal the servants of God in their foreheads &c it means to seal the blessing on their heads meaning the everlasting covenant thereby making their calling & election sure When a seal is put upon the father and mother it secures their posterity so that they cannot be lost but will be saved by virtue of the covenant of their father.

As Reported by Franklin D. Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Joseph Translation of Mal 4th— 5, 6
I will send Elijah the Prophet and he shall reveal the covenants of the Fathers to the children and of the Children to the Fathers that they may enter into Covenant with each other lest I come & smite the whole Earth with a curse——
- b What is the seal spoken of in Rev 7— 3 find it out if you can I will not reveal it now but will drop an idea that I have never revealed concerning Election connected with the sealing of the servants of God in the fore or top of the head
- c Judge [Elias] Higbee would say that covenants either there or here must be made in view of eternity and that covenant sealed on the foreheads of the Parents secured the children from falling that they shall all sit upon thrones as one with the God-head Joint Heirs of God with Jesus Christ
- d This principle is revealed aslo through the covenant of Abraham and his children This is also the blessing and consolation of the mourners——

Discourse, 13 August 1843–B

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Joseph. as Mayor inst[r]ucted the marshall. to keep the Ladies camp ground clear of young men.
the city is enlarging. very fast. we have so many learned men in this city. & the height of knowledge is not to know enough to keep out out of the way. I have been feretted feretting out Grog. shops. groceries & beer barrels
- b Mr [Walter] Bagby. of Carthage [Carthage]. who has exercised more despotic power over the inhbitants [inhabitants] of this city & than any despot of the Eastern country. I met. he gave me some abusive language took up a stone to throw at me I siezd him by the throat to choke him off—at the Election. <on the hill th[e]y> got a constable name of King— I dnt [don't] know what need there was of a constable.
- c old Father Perry said why you cant vote in this precinct. King took me by ~~that~~ the collar ~~to march~~ and told me to go away.
All our ~~wronged~~ wrongs have arisen under the power and authority of democra[c]y and I have swron [sworn] that I ~~will~~ this arm shall fall from my shoulder and. this tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth. before I will vote for them. unless they make me satisfacti[o]n I & I feel it sensibly.—
- d I was abused and neglected at the ground. <and there was not a man in the crowd to say— this is Bro Joseph this is th[e] Mayor—> then spoke of the grog shops and the disturbance of the crowd in the street by Messoer's [Moeser's] grocery.
Warned the grog shops to be scarce after this time and the peace officers to take notice of the grog shops and give him seasonable notice.
closed 20 mi[nutes]— 3 [p.m.]—
- e returnd and said he had forgottn one thing. we have had certain traders in this city who have been writing falsehoods to Missouri. . . . there is a certain man in this city who has made a covenan[n]t to bretray and give me up. and that too before

Govr [Thomas] Carlin commenced his persecution. <this testim[on]y I have from gentlemn from abroad—— and I do not wish to give their names.— Sidn[e]y Rigdon—>

f I most solmny proclaim the withdrawal of my fellowship from this man, <on the conditi[o]n that the foregoi[n]g be true—>— and let the Saints procla[i]m it abroad.

that he may no longer be ~~acknowledges~~ acknowledged as my counselor and that all who feel to sanction my proceedings— & views will manife[s]t it by uplifted hands & it was a unanimous vote that Sidney Rigdon be disfellowed and his Licen[s]e dimanded.—

As Reported by William Clayton

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a P. M. Pres^t. J. offered some complaints of the citizens of Nauvoo 1st. because some young men sat on the ladies camp ground and laughed & mocked during meeting he next spake of Walter Bagby & the little skirmish he had with him about a week ago he spoke of Esq [Daniel H.] Wells interfering when he had no business. He then spake of the abuses he received at
- b the election by King & the board of Judges. Also of the Grog & Beer shops & said he should rip them up. He then showed that Sidney Rigdon had bound himself by an Oath to Governor [Thomas] Carlin to deliver J into the hands of the Missourians if he could & finally in the name of the Lord withdrew the hand of fellowship from him & put it to the vote of the people. He was cut off by a unamous vote & orders to demand his licence.

Discourse, 27 August 1843

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Joseph said 2 weeks to day somethi[n]g said about Elder [Sidney] Rigdon—vote taken to take away his licenses. on account. of a report brought by Elder [Orson] Hyde from Quincy.—
The letter is one of the most evasive things. —and carries with it a design to hide the truth.
- b Qu[i]ncy Ill. Aug—18. 1843 in answer to S. Rigney [Sidney Rigdon] —of the 15. —inst Thom[as] Carlin. —Has any man been concerned in a conspiracy—to delivr Joseph Smith to Mo [Missouri]? —if so who? —

- c Read 7th. Hebrews.
Salem is designed for a hebrew term. it should be Shiloam . . . which signifies Righteousness & peace. as it is, it is nothing, neither Hebrew. Greek. Latin french. or any other
- d To all those who are dis-posd to say to set up stakes for the almighty— will come short of the glory of god.
To becom[e] a joint heir of the h[e]irship of the son he must put away all his tradition
- e I bear record this morning that all the combined powers of ea[r]th & hell shall not over come this ~~by~~ boy—
If I have sinned I have sinned outwardly— but surely I have contemplated the things of God.
- f told an anecdote of the Episcopali[a]n pri[e]st— who said he had the pr[i]esthood of A[a]ron— but not of Melichsedch [Melchizedek]— and bore this testimony that I never have found the man who claimed the pri[e]sthood of Melchisideck.
- g The law was given under Aaron for the purpose of pouring out Jud[g]ments— and destructi[o]ns.
The sectarian world are going to hell.— by. 100? 1000? 1000 000?
- h 3 grand orders of pri[e]sthood referred to there . . .
1st. King of Shiloam.— power & authority over that of Abraham holding the key of the power of endless life.— angels desire to loock into it. but they have set up to many stakes. god cursed the chldrn [children] of Israel because they would not receive the last law from Moses.
- i by the offering of Isaac.— if a man would attain— he must sacrific[e] all to attain. to the keys of the kingdom of an endless life
- j what was the power of Melchisedick twas not. P[riesthood] of Aaron— &c— a king and a pri[e]st to the most high Good [God]. a perfect law of Theocracy— <holding keys of powe[r] & bless[in]gs> stood as God to give laws to the people. administer[i]ng endless lives to the sons and daughte[r]s of Adam, kingly powe[r]s. of ano[i]nting.— Abram says Melchsidek.— away I have a pr[i]esthood.—
- k Salvation could not come to the world without the mediati[o]n of Jesus Christ.
how shall god come to the rescue of this generati[o]n. he shall send Elijah law reveald to moses in Horeb— never was reveald to th[e] C[hildren] of Israel
- l and he shall reveal the coven[an]ts to seal the hea[r]ts of the fath[er]s to the chldrn and teh [the] chldrn to the fathe[r]s.— <anointing & sealing.—> calld elected and made sure without father &c. a priesthood which holds the pr[i]esthood by right from the Eternal Gods.— and not by des[c]ent from father and mother
- m 2^d Pri[e]sthood. patriarchal authority f[i]nish that temple. and god will fill it with power.
- n 3^d Priesthood. Levitical Prest
- o Pri[e]sts made without an oath but the Pr[i]esthood of Melchisedek is by oath and cov[e]nant.
Holy Ghost.
- p jesus christ— men have to suffer that th[e]y might come up on Mt. Zion.
exalted above the heavens——
I know a man— that has been caught up to the 3^d heavns— &

As Reported by William Clayton

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Sunday 27th. A. M. at the Grove. Pres^t. J. preached on Hebrews c 7— after reading a letter from Tho^s. Carlin to S[idney] Rigdon and making some remarks about it.— He shewed that the word “Salem” is a wrong translation, it should be “shalome”
- b signifying peace. He prophecied that “not all the powers of hell, or earth combined can ever overthrow this boy” for he had a promise from the eternal God. He spake concerning the priesthood of Melchisedek shewing that the sectarians never professed to have it consequently never could save any one and would all be damned together

- c He showed that the power of the Melchisek p'd [priesthood] was to have the power of an "endless lives[""] he showed that the everlasting covenant could not be broken, and by the sacrifice required of Abraham the fact that when God offers a
- d blessing or knowledge to a man and he refuses to receive it he will be damned— mentioning the case of the Israelites praying that God would speak to Moses & not to them— in consequence of which he curse[d] them with a carnal law.

As Reported by Franklin D. Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a A sermon of Josephs Heb 7 chap
- Salem is shiloam
- b Those who limit the designs of God as concerted by the grand council [of heaven] ~~of of~~ cannot obtain the Knowledge of God & I do not know but I may say they will drink in the Damnation of their souls——
- c I Prophecy that all the powers of Earth & Hell shall <never> be able to overthrow this Boy for I have obtained it by promise——
- d There are 3 grand principles or orders of Priesthood portrayed in this chapter 1st Levitical which was neve[r] able to administer a Blessing but only to bind heavy burdens which neither they nor their fath wer[e] able to bear.
- e 2 Abrahams Patriarchal power which is the greatest yet experienced in this church
- f 3^d That of melchisedec who had still greater power even power of endless Life of which was our Lord Jesus Christ which also Abraham obtained by the offering of his son Isaac which was not the power of a Prophet nor apostle nor Patriarc[h] only but of King or Priest to God to open the windows of Heaven and pour out the peace & Law of endless Life to man & No man can attain to the Joint heirship with Jesus Christ with out bein[g] administered to by one having the same power & Authority of Melchisede[c]
- g Joseph also said that the Holy Ghost is now in a state of Probation which if he should perform in righteousness he may pass through the same on a similar course of things that the son has

As Reported by James Burgess

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

a Hebrewes 7 chapr. Paul is here treating of three different priesthoods, namely the priesthood of Aron, Abraham, and b Melchisedeck, Abrahams's priesthood was of greater power than Levi's and Melchisedeck's was of greater power than that c of Abraham. The priesthood of Levi consisted of cursings and blessings carnal e commandments and not of blessings and if d the priesthood of this generation has no more power than that of Levi or Aron or of a bishoprick it administers no blessings
 e but cursings for it was an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. I ask was there any sealing power attending this priesthood f Oh no that would admit a man into the presence of God. Oh no, but Abraham's was a more exalted power or priesthood he g could talk and walk with God and yet consider how great this man was when even this patriarch Abraham gave a tenth part h of all his spoils and then received a blessing under the hands of Melchiesideck even the last law or a fulness of the law or i priesthood which constituted him a king and priest after the order of Melchiesideck or an endless life. Now if Abraham had j been like the sectarian world and would not have received any more revelation, what would have been the consequence it k would have damned him. Book of Covenants. The levitical priesthood was an appendage to the Melchiesideck— priesthood l or the whole law of God when in full force or power in all its parts and bearings on the earth. It is understood by many by m reading this chapter that Melchisedech was king of some country or nation on the earth, but it was not so. In the original it reads king of Shaloam which signifies king of peace or righteousness and not of any country or nation.
 Malachi says that the sons of Levi shall in the last days offer an offering in righteousness.
 Men will set up stakes and say thus far will we go and no farther, did Abraham when called upon to offer his Son, did the saviour, no, view him fulfilling all righteousness, again on the banks of jordon, also on the Mount transfigured before Peter and John there receiving the fulness of priesthood or the law of God, setting up no stake but coming right up to the mark in all things here him after he returned from the Mount, did ever language of such magnitude fall from the lips of any man, hearken him. All power is given is given unto me both in heaven and the earth. Offering's sacrifice's and carnal commandments, was added in consequence of transgression and they that did them should live by them. View him the son of God at saying it behoveth me to fulfil all righteousness also in the garden saying if it be possible let this cup pass from me.
 nevertheless thy will be done. What was the design of the almighty in making man, it was to exalt him to be as God, the scripture says ye are Gods and it cannot be broken, heirs of God and joint heirs I with Jesus Christ equal with him possessing all power &c. The mystery power and glory of the priesthood is so great and glorious that the angels desired to understand it and cannot! why, because of the tradition of them and their fathers in setting up stakes and not coming up to the mark in their probationary state.

Letter to Paicouchaiby and Other Potawatomis, 28 August 1843

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

a Nauvoo August 28— 1843
 Dear children:—
 I have received and read your kind words and agreeable to your wishes I now send you an answer. In regard to parting with your lands and selling them I do not think it is best for you to let them go but to keep them to live upon for yourselves and your children. And in regard to my giving you council and being your father, I have to say that I shall be happy to render you any assistance in my power in giving instructions and advice as well as to do any other business for you which lays in my power at any time if it be not contrary to the laws of the United States, which laws I am always obedient and subject to. I b feel interested in the welfare and prosperity of all my red children and will most cheerfully do them all the good in my power as to do good is what I always delight in.— Should the United States appoint me as your agent to transact your business for you I shall cheerfully comply; and will always do the best I can for you, but you know I cannot do any thing in this matter except it be appointed me by the authorites of our land.
 The bearer will bring you a map shewing the boundaries of your land which I hope you will be able to understand; he will also be able to tell you more about this business.

c The Mormons are your friends and they are the friends of all men, and have the very best of feelings to all men and especially towards you my children. I wish you well, and hope the great God will bless you and abundantly supply you with every good thing, and that peace and prosperity may forever attend you and your children And now my children be friendly to each other and be at peace with each other and with all men for peace is what I seek for all my friends; and may the great Spirit bless you all my children is the sincer wish of your father

Your Father [3/4 page blank]

<Aug^t. 28th 1843
Letter to Pottawatamie Indians>
<Copy of a letter to the Pottowattomies
August 28– 1843>

Discourse, 14 September 1843

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

2. P.M. At the temple stand.
John Finch— spoke on the 3^d principle mentioned yeste[r]day 10 past. 3.— Joseph spoke 5 minutes. told an anecdote of Sidney Rigdon. and A. Cambell [Alexander Campbell] got up a community. at Kirtland. big fish eat up the little. did not beleive the doctrine.— &c. Finch replied— a few minuts.— said he.— “I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness. & I am the Spir[i]tual prophet. Mr Smith the Temporal Prophet.[”]

Discourse, 17 September 1843

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Sunday 17th— Septmbr was at meeting. gave some directions. & while almon Babbitt preachd I took my part as Mayor outside of the assembly. to keep order. & set patte[r]n for the under office[r]s.— after prechig [preaching] gave some instuctin [instruction] ab[o]ut order in the congregation— men among women & wom[e]n among men. horess [horses] in the assembly
- b men & boys on the stand &c P.M. Mr Blodget th[e] unitarian min[i]ster p[r]eached was gratifi[e]d with his serm[o]n in gene[r]al— but differd in opini[o]n on some po[i]nts— on which I freely ixpressed myself to his gre[a]t satisfacti[o]n on perscutin [persecution] making the work spread.— by rooting up a fl[o]wer garden or kicking back the sun. [10 lines blank]

As Reported by Levi Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a P. M. heard the Rev Mr Blodget from Mass. Unitarian Preached good discourse of religious Liberty Text “what is Truth” followed by Pres Smith disproving the Idea that persecution causes a good work to prosper— continued his discours about 1½ hours speaking of the practice of Medicine— & of Medicine— of Quacks & qualified Doctors— of the use of Med & of the
- a abuse of Med.— also Spoke decidedly agains[t] D^r Brinks [William Brink’s] practice— spoke in favor of Doc. [John M.] Bernhisel— declared that he— (J Smith Jr) never lost a patient where he had been the first & only one employed & challenged the congregation to bring instance— they brough[t] none spoke of Lobelia when the patient was too weak to bear it— as being destructive— & said calomel would corrode the stomach when it was empty— said it was a poison— still said it was a med. & useful if used skilfully!

Letter to Thomas Ford, 20 September 1843

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Nauvoo, Sept 21 <20>, 1843,
- Dear Sir:— your favor of ~~this~~ the 13th instant, is at hand: and for the courtesy, and honorable intended expression there in contained, your excellency has my best wishes, as well as my most grateful acknowledgements.
- b To show your excellency to what an unjustifiable pitch, disappointed ambition, malignance, and ungoverned persecution, may be carried, I have thought it advisable to forward to you, a paper containing the “Carthaginian Resolves.” The mind sickens at the picture! The patriot, the lover of his country, and his country’s friends, like the honored sires who won the freedom we enjoy, will stand against such heathen invasion and mobocratic insurrection, like a Rock of Adamant for his God, his country, and his rights!
- c The false statements in those “Resolves” could never have resulted, from any but the abandoned, the desperate, the wicked even “unto the death.”
- I am a law abiding man, and so is the society, of which I have the honor to be a member, a law abiding society; and as a people we hold constitutional rights, and consttutional friends as sacred as the blessings of heaven, or servants of god; and a as friend of law liberty and life, your excellency may depend upon me: your enemies are my enemies: and in all honorable requirements, your have only to command, to elicit my co-operation.

Respectfully I am your most obt sert
Joseph Smith

Ex. Thomas Ford

Gov.

Ill.

(By W W P [William W. Phelps].)

Additions to “Church History,” September 1843, Draft

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Messrs Editors:— The church of Jesus Christ of Latter day saints was founded upon direct revelation, as the true church of God has ever been, according to the scriptures: -[Amo[s] 3:7. and acts 1:2]- and through the will of Gøð <and> blessings of God, I have been an instrument, in his hand, thus far, to move forward the cause of Zion: Therefore, in order to fulfill the solicitations of your letter of July last, I shall commence with my life.
[blank]
- b After <From> this awful, bloody, and inhuman expulsion from <by> the government, and people of <from> Missouri, we found an asylum and friends in the state of Illinois. Here, in the fall of 1839, we commenced a city called Nauvoo, in Hancock County, which, in 1840, recei in December 1840, recived an act of incorporation from the legislature of Illinois, and is endowed with as liberal powers as any city in the United States Nauvoo, upon every point connected with increase and
- c prosperity, has exceeded the most sanguine expectations of thousands. It now contains near 1500 houses and more than 15,000 inhabitants: The charter contains, besides among its important powers, privileges or immunities, the <A> grant for “the University of Nauvoo,” with the same liberal powers of the city; where all the arts and sciences will grow with the growth, and strengthen the strength of this beloved city of the saints of the last days. Another very commendatory pr[o]vision of the charter, is that that portion of the citizens subject to Military duty, are organized into a body of independent military men, styled the “Nauvoo Legion,” whose highest officer had <has> the rank, and is commissioned Lieutenant General. This Legion, like other independant bodies of troops in this Republican government, is at the disposal of the Govern
[blank]
- d or and presid of the state, and president of the United States. There is also an act of incorporation <for> an agricultural and manufacturing association, as well as the Nauvoo house association.
<x2>
Since the organization of this church its progress has been rapid, and its gain in members regular. Besides, these United States, where nearly every place of notoriety has heard the glad tidings of the gospel of the son of God, England Ireland and Scotland have shared largely in the fulness of the everlasting a Gospel, and many hundreds thousands have come into the new and everlasting Covenant, and some have already gathered with there kindred saints in <to> this the corner stone of
- e Zion. Missionary Missionaries of this church have gone to <the> East Indies, to Australia, <Germany, Constantine, Egypt Palestine,> the Islands of the Pacific, and are now preparing for the <to Open> the door in the extensive dominions of Russia. There is no correct data by which the exact number of members composing this now extensive, and still extending church of Jesus Christ of Latter day saints can be known. Should it be supposed at 150,000 it might still be short of the truth.
- f Believing the bible to say what it means and mean what it says: and guided by the revelation, according to the Ancient order of the fathers, to whom <came> what little light from we enjoy; came, and circumscribed only by the eternal limits of the truth, this church must continue the even tenors Additions to an article in the Times & Seasons. Sent to Clyde Williams And Co. Publishe[r]s—Harrisburgh—
September— 1843
Phelps says he can hunt up the whole document ask for it?
T. S. Vol 3 p 706 I was born -[to 709— Missouri

Remarks, 3 October 1843

As Reported by Robert D. Foster

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Gen. Smith then arose and in a very touching and suitable manner, tendered his thanks to the company, for the encomiums and honors conferred on him. He recited the many woes through which he had passed, the persecutions he had suffered and the love he had for the brethren and citizens of Nauvoo. He tendered his gratitude for the pleasing prospects that surrounded
- b him, to the great giver of all good. He said he thought that his case was similar to that of old Job's; that after he had suffered and drank the very dregs of affliction the Lord had remembered him in mercy and was about to bless him abundan[t]ly.

Minutes and Discourse, 6–9 October 1843

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Joseph preached funeral sermon of Gen James Adams.— All men know that all men must die.— What is the object of our coming into existence. then dying and falling away to be here no more? This is a subject we ought to study more than
- b any other, which we ought to study day and night.— If we have any claim on our heavenly father for any thing it is for knowledge on this important subject— could we read and comprehend all that has been writtn from the days of Adam on the relation of man to God & angels. ~~and the spirits of just men~~ in a future state. we should know very little about it. could
- c you gaze in heaven 5 minute. you would know more— than you possibly would ~~can know~~ by read[ing] all that ever was writtn on the subject. We are one only capable of comprehedig [comprehending] that certain things exist. which we may
- d acquire by certain fixed principles— If men would acquire salvation they have got to be subj[e]ct to certain rules. & principle which were fixed by an unalterable dercee [decree] before the world was. before they leave this wo[r]ld. what did they learn by coming to the spirits of just men made perfect? is it written. No!
- e The spir[i]ts of just men are made ministering servants to those who are sealed unto life eternal. & it is through them that the sealing power comes down— The spirit of Patriarch adams now is <now of> the spirits of the just men made
- f [perfect?]~~—~~ and if revealed now. must be revealed in fire. And the glory could not be endured— Jesus. shewed himself to his disciples and they thought it was his a his spirit. & they were afr[a]id to approach his spirit. Angels have advanced higher in knowledge & power than Spirits
- g Judge Adams had some enemies, but such a man ought not to have had an enemy. I saw him first at springfield. when on my way from Mo [Missouri] to Washington. he sought me out when a stranger. took me to his house. encoura[ge]d & cheered me & give me money— when men are prepared. they are better off to go hence.— Bro Adams has gone to open up a more effectual door for the dead.—
- h Flesh and blood cannot go there but flesh and bones quickened by the Spirit of God can
- If we would be sober. & watch in fasting and prayer. God would tu[r]n away sickness from our midst. Hasten the work of the temple. and all the work of the Last Days. Let the elders & sai[n]ts do away light mi[n]dedness and be sober.—

As Reported in Times and Seasons

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a ...President Joseph Smith was called to the chair, and Gustavus Hills chosen clerk.
Opened with singing by the choir, and prayer by elder Almon Babbitt.
The president stated the items of business to be brought before the Conference, to be,
- b 1st. The case and standing of elder Sidney Rigdon, counsellor to the First Presidency.
2d. The further progress of the Temple; after which, any miscellaneous business.
Elder Sidney Rigdon addressed the conference on the subject of his situation and circumstances among the saints.
- c President Joseph Smith addressed the conference, inviting an expression of any charges or complaints which the Conference had to make. He stated his dissatisfaction with elder Sidney Rigdon as a counsellor, not having received any
- d material benefit from his labors or counsels since their escape from Missouri. Several complaints were then brought forward in reference to his management in the Post Office; a supposed correspondence and connection with John C. Bennett, with Ex-Governor [Thomas] Carlin, and with the Missourians, of a treacherous character: also his leaguings with dishonest persons in endeavoring to defraud the innocent.
- e President Joseph Smith related to the Conference the detention of documents from J[ustin] Butterfield, Esq., which were designed for the benefit of himself, (President Smith,) but was not handed over for some three or four weeks, greatly to his disadvantage. Also, an indirect testimony from Missouri, through the mother of Orin P. [Orrin Porter] Rockwell, that said Rigdon and others had given information, by letter, of President Smiths' visit to Dixon, advising them to proceed to that place
- f and arrest him there. He stated that in consequence of those, and other circumstances, and his unprofitableness to him as a counsellor, he did not wish to retain him in that station, unless those difficulties could be removed; but desired his salvation, and expressed his willingness that he should retain a place among the saints.
- g Elder Almon Babbitt suggested the propriety of limiting the complaints and proofs to circumstances that had transpired since the last Conference.
President Joseph Smith replied, and showed the legality and propriety of a thorough investigation, without such limitation.
- h Elder Sidney Rigdon plead, concerning the documents from J. Butterfield, Esq., that he received it in answer to some inquiries which he had transmitted to him—that he received it at a time when he was sick, and unable to examine it—did not know that it was designed for the perusal and benefit of President Joseph Smith—that he had, consequently, ordered it to be laid aside, where it remained until inquired for by Joseph Smith. He had never written to Missouri concerning the
- i visit of Joseph Smith to Dixon, and knew of no other person having done so. That, concerning certain rumors of belligerent operations under Governor Carlin's administration, he had related them, not to alarm or disturb any one, but that he had the rumors from good authorities, and supposed them well founded. That he had never received but one communication from John C. Bennett, and that of a business character, except one addressed to him conjointly with Elder Orson Pratt, which he handed over to President Smith—that he had never written any letters to John C. Bennett...
- j Elder Sidney Rigdon resumed his plea of defence. He related the circumstances of his reception in the city of Quincy, after his escape from Missouri—the cause of his delay in not going to the city of Washington, on an express to which he had been appointed—and closed with a moving appeal to President Joseph Smith concerning their former friendship, associations and sufferings, and expressed his willingness to resign his place, though with sorrowful and indescribable feelings. During this address, the sympathies of the congregation were highly excited.
- k Elder Almon Babbitt related a conversation he had had with Esq. Johnson, in which he exonerated elder Sidney Rigdon from the charge or suspicion of having had a treacherous correspondence with Ex-Governor Carlin.
- l President Joseph Smith arose and satisfactorily explained to the congregation the supposed treacherous correspondence with Ex-Governor Carlin, which wholly removed suspicion from elder Sidney Rigdon, and from every other person. He expressed entire willingness to have elder Sidney Rigdon retain his station, provided he would magnify his office, and walk and conduct himself in all honesty, righteousness, and integrity; but signified his lack of confidence in his integrity and steadfastness, judging from their past intercourse.

m President Hyrum Smith followed with appropriate and expressive remarks on the attribute of mercy in God, as that by which He influences, controls, and conquers—and the propriety and importance of the saint’s exercising the same attribute towards their fellows; and especially towards their aged companion and fellow servant in the cause of truth and righteousness.

Elder Almon Babbitt and pres’t. Wm. Law followed with remarks in defence of elder Sidney Rigdon...

n Conference reassembled, and listened with profound attention, to an impressive discourse from President Joseph Smith, commemorative of the decease of James Adams, Esq., late of this city, and an honorable, worthy, useful, and esteemed member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. He spoke of the importance of our understanding the reasons and causes of our exposure to the vicissitudes of life, and of death; and the designs and purposes of God, in our coming into the world, our sufferings here, and our departure hence—that it is but reasonable to suppose that God would reveal something in reference to the matter—the ignorance of the world in reference to their true condition, and relation. Reading the experience of others, or the revelations given to them, can never give us a comprehensive view of our condition and true relation to God. Knowledge of these things, can only be obtained by experience in these things, through the ordinance of God set forth for that purpose. He remarked that the disappointment of hopes and expectations at the resurrection, would be indescribably dreadful. That the organization of the spiritual and heavenly worlds, and of spiritual and heavenly beings, was agreeably to the most perfect order and harmony—that their limits and bounds were fixed irrevocably, and voluntarily subscribed to by themselves—subscribed to upon the earth—hence the importance of embracing and subscribing to principles of eternal truth. r He assured the saints that truth in reference to these matters, can, and may be known, through the revelations of God in the way of his ordinances, and in answer to prayer. The Hebrew church “came unto the spirits of just men made perfect, and unto an innumerable company of angels, unto God the Father of all, and to Jesus Christ the Mediator of the New Covenant;” s but what they learned, has not been, and could not have been written. What object was gained by this communication with the spirits of the just, &c.? It was the established order of the kingdom of God—the keys of power and knowledge were with them to communicate to the saints—hence the importance of understanding the distinction between the spirits of the just, and angels. Spirits can only be revealed in flaming fire, or glory. Angels have advanced farther—their light and glory being tabernacled, and hence appear in bodily shape.

t Concerning brother James Adams, he remarked, that it should appear strange that so good and so great a man was hated. The deceased ought never to have had an enemy. But so it was, wherever light shone, it stirred up darkness. Truth and error, u good and evil, cannot be reconciled. Judge Adams had been a most intimate friend. He had anointed him to the Patriarchal power—to receive the keys of knowledge, and power, by revelation to himself. He had had revelations concerning his v departure, and had gone to a more important work—of opening up a more effectual door for the dead. The spirits of the just are exalted to a greater and more glorious work—hence they are blessed in departing hence. Enveloped in flaming fire, they are not far from us, and know and understand our thoughts, feelings and motions, and are often pained therewith.

w President Smith concluded with exhortations to the church to renew their exertions to forward the work of the Temple, and in walking before the Lord in soberness and righteousness.

x Such a faint outline of the discourse of President Joseph Smith, which was delivered with his usual feeling and pathos; and was listened to with the most profound and eager attention by the multitude, who hung upon his instructions, anxious to learn and pursue the path of eternal life.

After singing by the choir, and prayer by the President, Conference adjourned sine die, with the benediction of the President.

As Reported by James Burgess

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a A great many men suppose there is no difference between a spirit an angel and a spirit of a just man made perfect but Paul makes a distinction in the 12 chap of Hebrews he tells us that the hebrew church had came into the presence of God and
- b Angels and to the spirits of just men made perfect The spirit of a just man made perfect if he made his appearance he would appear or be enveloped in flaming fire and no man in this mortal state could endure it, but an angel could come and appear
- c as an other man for Paul says be careful to entertain an strangers for some have entertained Angels unawares. But to prove spirits view the Saviour after his resurrection when he appeared unto his disciples they were afraid and thought they had seen a spirit but he convinces them of their mistake by teling them to handle him for says he a spirit has not flesh and bones as ye see me have.

Discourse, 15 October 1843

As Reported by Willard Richards

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a It is one of the first principles of my life. & one that I have cultivated from my childhood. having been taught it of my father. to allow eve[r]ly one the libe[r]ty of conscience. I am the greatest advocate of the C[onstitution] of U.S. there is there on the earth. in my feeling <the> only fault I can find with it is it is not broad enough to cover the whole ground.
- b I cannot beleive in any of the creeds of the diffe[re]nt denominati[o]n. because they all have some things in th[e]m I cannot subscribe to though all of them have some thuth [truth]. but I want to come up into the presence of Good [God] & learn all things. but the creeds set up stakes & say hitherto shalt thou come & no further.— which I cannot subscribe to.
- c I beli[e]ve the bible, as it ought to be, as it came from the pen of the original writers. as it reads it repented the Lord that he had made man. and. also God is <not> a man that he should repent.— which I do not believe.— but it repented Noah. that God made man.— this I beli[e]ve. & then the other quotation stands fair.— if any man will prove to me by one passage of Holy writ. one item I beli[e]ve, to be false. I will renounc[e] it disclaim it far as I have promulged it.—
- d The first principles of the gospel as I believe. first Faith. Repentance. Baptism for the remission of sins. with the promise of the Holy Ghost.
- Heb 6th contradictions “Leaving the principles of the doctrine. of c[h]rist.[’] if a man leave the principles of the doctrin of C[hrist] how can he be saved in the principles? a contradiction. I dont beli[e]ve it. I will render it. therefore not leaving the P[rinciples] of the doctrin of c[h]rist. &c. Resurrection of the dead & Eternal judgme[n]t.
- e one thing to see the kingdom. & another to be in it. must have a change of heart. to see the kingdom of Good [God]. & subs[c]ribe the articles of adoption to enter therein.
- no man can <not> r[e]ceive the Holy Ghost without r[e]ceiving re[v]elations, The H. G. is a revelator.
- f I propecy [prophecy] in the name of the Lord God anguish & wrath & trembulity & tribulati[o]n and the withdrawi[n]g of the spi[r]it of God await this genratin [generation]. until they are visited with utter dissolation. this generation is as corrupt
- g as the geneatin [generation] of the Jews that crucified Christ. and if he were here to day. & should preach the same doctrin he did then they <why> they would crufing [crucify] him. I defy all the world. & I prophecy they never will overthrow me till I get ready
- h on. the economy of this city.— I think there is to[o] ma[n]y mercha[n]ts among you more wool and raw materials. & the money be brought him to pay the poor for manufutuing [manufacturing]— set our women to work & stop th[e]ir spinni[n]g street yarn and talking about spiritual wives.— Send <your mon[e]y> out in the country. get grain cattle flax.— &c
- i I proclaim in the name of the Lord god. that I will have nothing but virtue & integrity & uprightness.—
- we cannot build up a city on merchadize [merchandise]. I would not run after the mercha[n]ts. I would sow a little flax if I had but a garden and.— lot.

the temporal economy of this peop[l]es should be to establish— manufating [manufacturing] and. not to take usurry. for his mony

j I do not wa[n]t to bind the poor here and starve. go out in the county and get food. & <in> cities— and gird up your loins— &c— be sober.

when you— get food retu[r]n if you have.— a mind. to.—

<some say> It is better, say some, to give the poor than build the temple.— the building of the temple. has kept the poor who were driven from Missou[r]i from starving. as has been the best means for this obj[e]ct which could be devised

k all ye rich men. of the Latter Day Saints.— from abroad I would invite to br[i]ng up some of their money. <and give to the temple.> we want Iron steell powdr[s].— &c—a good plan to get up a forge. bring in raw materials. & manuutig [manufacturing] establishi[n]g establishme[n]t of all kinds.— surround the rapids—

I never ~~stene~~ stole the value of a pins head or a picayune in my life. & when you are hungry dont steal.— come to me & I will feed you.—

l the secrets of masonry. is to keep a secret. it is good economy to entertain stager [strangers?]. to entertain sectarians. come up ye sectarian pri[e]sts.— of the eve[r]lasting gospel, as th[e]y call. it & they shall have my pulpit all day.

m wo to ye rich men. give to the poor. & then come and ask me for bread. away with all your meanness & be liberal wee need purging. purif[y]ing & cleansing you have— little faith in your elders get some little simple remedy in the fi[r]st stages— if you send for a Dr at all send in the first stages

n all ye Drs.— who are fools not well read do not understand the human constitution. stop your practice.—

Lawyers who have no business only as you hatch up. would to God you would go to work & <or> run away.

Letter to Presidential Candidates, 4 November 1843, Draft

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Note the other two letters that actually get sent/published.

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

a <Hon> Martin Van Buren— ex prest.) Hon Lewis Cass)
 Hon Richard M. Johnson)
 <Hon> John C. Calhoun
 Honorable Henry Clay.

Nauvoo, Ill. Nov 4th 1843.

Dear Sir,

b As we understand that you are a candidate for the Presidency at the ensuing Election; and as the Latter Day Saints, (some times called Mormons, who now constitute a numerous class in the school politic of this vast republic,) have been robbed of an immense amou[n]t of property, and endured nameless sufferings by the State of Missouri, and from her borders

c have been driven by force of arms, contrary to our National Covenants; and as in vain, we have have sought redress by all Constitutional, legal and honorable means, in her Courts, of her Executive councils, and her Legislativ[e] Halls; and as we have petitioned Congress to take cognizance of our sufferings without effect; we have judged it wisdom to address you this communication, and Respectfully solicit an immediate, specific & candid reply To what will be your rule of action relative to us, as a people, should fortune favor your ascension to the Chief Magisterey,

d

Most Respectfully, Sir,
 Your Friend's, and The Fri[en]d of peace, & good order and constitutional Rights
 Joseph Smith— In behalf of the church of Jesus christ of Latter Day Saints

Hon. H. Clay & the others as above) the following was added to Martin Van Buren as above)

- e Also whether your views or feelings have changed, since the subject matter of this communication was presented you, in your then official capacity, at Washington, in the year— 41. & by you treated with a coldness, indeferece [indifference] and neglect boding [bordering] on contempt.

Nov— 4, 1843
Original

Joseph Smith to (Van Buren (Calhoun—(Johnson (Cass.— (Clay.—

Circular To the candidates for the Presidency

Letter to James Arlington Bennet, 13 November 1843

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Note that this gets published in the Nauvoo Neighbor, and it's a response to an earlier letter from this man, which is important.

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Nauvoo, Ill. Nov. <13> 1843.
- b Dear Sir: your letter of the 24th ult. has been regularly received; its contents duly appreciated; and its whole tenor candidly considered; and, according to my manner of judging all things in righteousness, I proceed to answer you; and shall leave you to meditate whether mathematical problems founded upon the truth of revelation, or religion as promulgated by me or Moses can be solved by rules and principles existing in the system of common knowledge.
- c How far you are capable of being “a most undeviating friend, without being governed by the smallest religious influence,” will best be decided by your survivors, as all past experience most assuredly proves: without controversy, that friendship while intelligent beings would accept as sincere, must arise from love, and that love, grow out of virtue which is as much a part of religion, as light is a part of Jehovah. Hence the saying of Jesus: greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.
- d You observe; “as I have proved myself to be a philosophical divine, I must excuse you, when you say that we must leave these influences to the mass.” The meani[n]g of “philosophical divine” may be taken in various ways: If, as the learned world apply the term, you infer that I have acheived a victory, and been strengthened by a scientific religion as as practised by the ~~sects~~ popular sects of the age, through <the> aid of Colleges seminar Bible societies, Mission<ary> boards, financial organozations, and gospel money ~~then~~ schemes, then you are wrong: such a combination of men and means, shows a form of Godliness without the power: for it is written “I will destroy the wisdom of the wise. Beware lest any man spoil you
- e through philosophy and vain deceit. after the rudiments of the world and not after doctrines of Christ. But if the inference is, that, by more love more light, more virtue, and more truth from the Lord, I have succeeded as an man of God, then you reason truly: though the weight of the sentiment is lost, when the “influnce <is left> to the mass,” ~~rather than hazard your opinion upon matter~~
- f Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?
- g Of course you follow out the figure, and say “The boldness of my plans and measures, together with their unparalleled success; so far, are calculated to throw a charm over my whole being; and to point me out as the most extraordinary man of h the present age." The boldness of my plans and measures, can readily be tested by the touch-stone of all schemes, systems, projects, and adventures,— truth, for truth is a matter of fact— and the fact is, that by the power of God I translated the book of Mormon hieroglyphics from hieroglyphics; the knowledge of which was lost to the world. In which wonderful event, I stood alone, an unlearned youth, to combat the worldly wisdom and multiplied ignorance of eighteen centuries. with a new revelation; which, (if they would receive <it>) (the fulness of the everlasting gospel) would open the eyes of more than eight hundred millions of people, and make plain the "old paths," wherein if a man walk in all the ordinances of God blameless, he shall inherit eternal life: And Jesus Christ, who was, and is, and is to come, has borne me safely over every snare and plan laid in secret, or openly, through priestly hypocrisy, sectarian prejudice, popular philosophy, executive power, or law defying mobocracy, to destroy me.

k If, then, the hand of God, in all things that I have accomplished towards the salvation of a priest ridden generation, in the short space of twelve years, through the "boldness of the plan of preaching <the gospel> and <the boldness of the means [of]> declaring repentance and baptism for the remission of sins: and a reception of the Holy Ghost, by laying on <of the> hands agreeably to the authority of the priesthood; and the still more bold measures of receiving direct revelation from God, through the Comforter, as promised, and by which means all holy men, from ancient times till now, have spoken and revealed the will of God to men, with the consequent "success" of the gathering of the Saints throws any "charm" around <over> my being and "points me out as the most extraordinary man of the age," it demonstrates the fact that fact truth is mighty and will prevail; and that one man empowered from Jehovah, has <more> influence with the children of the Kingdom, than eight hundred millions lead by the precepts of men. God exalts the humble and debases the haughty.

n But let me assure <you> in the name of Jesus who spoke as never man spake, that the "boldness of the plans and measures," as you term them, but which should be denominated the righteousness of the cause, the truth of the system and power of God, which "so far," has born me and the church, in which I glory in having the privilege of being a member, successfully through the storm of reproach, folly, ignorance, malice, persecution, falsehood, sacerdotal wrath, newspaper satire, pamphlet libels, and the combined influence of the powers of earth and hell, I say these powers of righteousness and truth, are not the decrees or rules of an ambitions [ambitious] and aspiring Nimrod; Pharoah; Nebuchadnezzar; Alexander; <Mahomet> Buonaparte; <Mahamet> or other great sounding heroes, that dazzled forth with  trail of pomp and circumstances for  little season, like a comet, and then disappeared, leaving a wide waste where such an existence once was, with only a name: nor were are the glorious results of what you term "boldness of plans and measures," with the attendant "success," matured by the self aggrandising wisdom of the priests of Baal; the scribes and Pharisees; <of the Jews> Popes and bishops <of Christendom> <or pagans of Jg>; nor <were they> extended by the divisions and subdivisions of a Luther, a Calvin, a Wesley, or even a Campbell; supported by a galaxy of Clergymen and churchmen, of whatever name or nature, bound apart by cast Iron Creeds; and to set stakes; fastened to set stakes by chain cable opinions, without revelation; nor are they the lions of the land or the leviathans of the sea, moving among the elements, as distant chimeras to fatten the fancy of the infidel: but they are as the stone cut out of the mountain without hands, and will become a great mountain and fill the whole earth:

r <♦>Was Were I an Egyptian I would exclaim= Floeese Floeese: <Jah oh=eh> Enish-go=on=dosh, Jah=oh=eh <Flo-ees-Floisis> a Hebrew: [2 Hebrew words]:—. ¹ a Greek [4 Greek words]:. ² a Roman: Dominus regit me. a German: Gott gebe uns das licht: a Portugee: Senhor Jesu Christo e liberdade: a Frenchman: Dieu defend le droit.

s but as I am I give God the glory, and say in in the beautiful figure of the poet:

"Could we with ink the Ocean fill;
Was the whole earth of parchment made;
And ev'ry single stick a quill;
And every man a scribe by trade:
To write the love, of God above,
Would drain the ocean dry;
Nor could the whole upon a scroll,
Be spread from sky to sky."

t It seems that your mind is of such "a mathematical, and philosophical a cast, that the divinity of Moses makes no impression upon you; and that I will not be offended when you say, that you rate me higher, as a Legislator, than you do Moses, because you have me present with you for examination;" <that> a Moses derives his chief authority from prescription and the lapse of time: you can not however say, but we are both right: it being out of the power of man to prove us wrong. It is no mathematical problem, and can therefore get no mathematical solution."

u Now, Sir, to cut the matter short, and not da[il]ly with your learned ideas, for fashion's sake, you have here given your opinion, without reserve, that revelation, the knowledge of God, prophetic visions, the truth of eternity can not be solved as a mathematical problem. The first question, then, is:— what is a mathematical problem? And the natural answer is, a statement, proposition, or question, that can be solved ascertained unfolded or demonstrated, by knowledge, facts, or figures:

¹הָאֱלֹהִים יָרָא

²ο θεος φῶς εστι, which should probably be ο θεος φῶς εσστιν.

for “mathematical” is an adjective derived from [1 Greek word]¹ (gr.) meaning in English, learning or knowledge: “Problem” is derived from probleme, French; or problema Latin, Italian and <or> Spanish, and in each language, means a question or proposition, whether true or false. “Solve” is derived from the Latin verb solvo, to explain or answer: one thing more, in order to prove the work as we proceed; it is necessary to have witnesses, two or three of whose testimonies, according to the laws or rules of God and man, are sufficient to establish any one point.

w Now, ~~two~~ for the questions: How much are one and one? Two. How much is one from two? one. very well one question, or problem is solved by figures. Now let me ask one for facts: was there ever such a place on the earth, as Egypt? Geography x says, yes; ancient history says, yes, and the bible says, yes, so three witnesses have solved that question. Again: lived there ever such a man as Moses in Egypt? The same witnesses reply, certainly. And was he a prophet? The same witnesses <or a part,> have left an record, that Moses predicted in Leviticus, that if Israel broke the covenant they had made, the Lord would scatter thence among the nations till the land enjoyed her sabbaths: and subsequently <these witnesses> have testified of y their captivity in Babylon and other places in fulfilment. But to make assurance doubly sure, Moses prays that the ground might open and swallow up Korah and his company for transgression, and it was so: And he endorses the prophecy of Balaam, which said, Out of Jacob shall come, he that shall have dominion and shall destroy him that remaineth of the city; And Jude the Apostle of Jesus Christ ~~fifteen hundred years after~~, as “as him that had dominion,” came about fifteen hundred years after, in accordance of <with this and> the prediction of Moses, David, Isaiah and many others, came, saying Moses wrote of <me;> declaring the dispersion of the Jews and the utter destruction of “the city” and the Apostles were his witness <unimpeached> especially Jude, who not only endorses the facts of Moses “divinity,” but <also the> events of Balaam and z Korah with many others, as true!* <“Besides these tangible facts so easible proven and demonstrated by simple rules and testimony unimpeached, the art <(now lost)> of embalming (now lost) human bodies and preserving them in the catacombs of Egypt, whereby men, women, and children, or mummies, after a lapse of near 3500 years, came forth among the living and although Dead the papyrus which has lived unharmed in their bosoms, speaks for them in language like the sound of an earthquake—— Ecce veritas! Ecce cadaveros! Behold the truth! Behold mummies!> Oh my dear sir, the sunken Tyre and aa Sidon, the melancholly dust of <where> <“the City” of> Jerusalem, <on[c]e was> and the mourn[i]ng of the Jews among the nations, together with such a “cloud of witness”, if you had been as well acquainted with your god and bible as with your purse and pence table, the “divinity” of Moses would have dispelled the fog of five thousand years and filled you with light: for facts, like diamonds, not only cut glass, but they are the most pricious jewels on earth. <The spirit of the prophecy, is the testimony of Jesus.>

bb The world at large, is every ready to credit the writings of Homer, Hesiod [Hesiod], Pluturch [Plutarch], Socrates, Pythagoras, Virgil Josephus <Mahomet> and an hundred others but where, tell me where, have they left a line, that a simple method of solving the the truth of this place of eternal <life>? Says the Saviour “If any man will do his (the Father’s) will,
cc he shall know of the doctrine, whither it be of God, or whither I speak of myself.” Here, <then>, is a ~~problem that <or more properly>~~ a method of solving the “divinity” of men, by the divinity in yourself, that as far exceeds the calculation by numbers, as the sun excels a candle well might Jesus would to god that all men understood <it>, and were willing to dd be governed by it— that when We one had filled the measure of his days <he> could exclaim like Jesus: “Veni mori, et revivescere!” Your good wishes to “go ahead coupled with Mahomet and a ‘right hand man’,” are rather more vain than virtuous. Why, sir, Caesar had his right hand Brutus, who was his “left hand” assassin. <not however applying the allusion to you>

ee As to the private seal you mention, if sent to me, I shall receive it with the gratitude of a servant of God, and pray that the donor may receive a reward in the the resurrection of the just.

ff The summit of your ~~fame~~ future fame seems to be hid in the political policy of a “mathematical problem for the chief majestarcy of this state, which, if I suppose might be solved by “double position” where the errors of the ~~supposition~~ are used to produce a ~~true~~ answer: But, sir, when I leave the dignity and honor I received from heaven, to boost a man into power through the aid of my friends, where the evil and designing, after the object has been accomplished, can back up the gg clemency intended as a reciprocation for such favors; and where the wicked and principled, as a matter of course, would sieze the opportunity, to flintify the heart of the nation against <me> for dabbling at a sly game in politics; verily, I say, when I leave <the> dignity and honor of heaven, to gratify the ambition and vanity of man or men, may my power cease, like the Strenth of Samsan, when he was shorn of his locks while asleep in the lap of Delilah. Truly said the Savior, Cast not your your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet and turn again and rend you.

hh Shall I, who have witnessed the visions of eternity; and beheld the glories of the mansions of bliss; and the regions and misery of the damned; shall I turn <to be> a Judas? Shall I, who have heard the voice of God, and communed with angels; and spake as moved by the Holy Ghost for the renewal of the everlasting covenant, and for the gathering of Israel in the ii last days; Shall I worm myself into a political hypocrite? Shall I, who hold the keys of the last kingdom, in which is the dispensation of the fulness of all things spoken by the mouths of all the <holy> prophets since the world began; under the ~~authority~~ <sealing power> of the Melchizedek priesthood; shall I stoop from the sublime authority of Almighty God, to jj be handled as a monkey’s cat’s paw,— and pettify myself into a clown to act the farce of political demagoguery? No, ~~no~~

¹Μάθησις

<verily>; no! The whole earth shall bear me witness that I <like the towering Rock, in the midst of the ocean, which has withstood the mighty surges of the warring waves, for centuries, am impregnable,> <and> am a faithful friend to virtue, and a fearless <foe> to vice; no odds whether the former was sold as a pearl in Asia, or hid as a gem in America; and the latter dazzles in palaces or glimmers among the tombs.

kk I combat the errors of ages; ~~and~~ <I> meet the violence of mobs; ~~and~~ <I> cope with illegal proceedings from executive authority; I ~~and~~ cut the Gordian knot of powers; and I solve mathematical problems of Universities; with truth, diamond truth, and God is my "right hand man."

ll And to close, let me say in the name of Jesus Christ, to you, and to presidents, Emperors, Kings, Queens, Governors, rulers, nobles, and men in authority every where, do the works of righteousness; ex[e]cute justice and judgement in the earth that God may bless you and her inhabitants, and mm The laurel that grows on the top of the mountain shall green for your fame while the sun sheds a ray; and the lily that blows by the side of the fountain, ~~shall~~ <will> bloom for your virtue, till earth melts away.

With due consideration and respect I have the honor to be your most obt Sev^t
Joseph Smith

Gen Jas Arlington Bennett [Bennet]) Arlington House)
New York)

<P. S. The <court> Martial will attend to your case in the Nauvoo Legion.—>

<Nov. 13th 1843

Joseph Smith to Jas. Arlington Bennet> [1/2 page blank]

Revelation, 25 November 1843

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

Let ~~Let~~ my servant John E. Page take his departure speedily from the City of Boston, and go directly to the city of Washington, and there labor diligently in proclaiming my gospel to the inhabitants thereof, and if he is humble and faithful, lo! I will be with him, and will give him the hearts of the people that he may do them good, and build up a church unto my name in that City.

Remarks, 25 November 1843

As Reported by Wilford Woodruff

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- President Joseph Smith made an address upon the Subject which was highly interesting & its tendency was to do away with evry evil & practice virtue & Holiness before the Lord that the church had not received any license from him to commit adultery fornication or any such thing but to the contrary if any man commit adultery He could not received the celestial kingdom of God even if he was saved in any kingdom it could not be the celestial kingdom He said he thought the many examples that had been manifest John C Bennet[t] & others was sufficient to show the fallacy of such a course of conduct, He condemned the principle in toto & warned those present against going into those evils, for they would shurely bring a ~~course~~ <Curse> upon their heads

General Joseph Smith's Appeal to the Green Mountain Boys, December 1843

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a
-[TIMES AND SEASONS—extra.]-
GENERAL JOSEPH SMITH'S APPEAL TO THE
GREEN MOUNTAIN BOYS,
DECEMBER, 1843.
NAUVOO, ILL.
TAYLOR AND WOODRUFF, PRINTERS.
1843.
AN APPEAL,

To the Freemen of the State of Vermont, "the brave Green Mountain Boys," and honest men.

- b I was born in Sharon, Vermont, in 1805,— where the first quarter of my life, grew with the growth, and strengthened with the strength of that "first born" State of the "United Thirteen." From the old "French War" to the final consummation of American Independence, my fathers, heart to heart, and shoulder to shoulder, with the noble fathers of our liberty, fought and bled; and, with the most of that venerable band of patriots, they have gone to rest,— bequeathing a glorious country with all her inherent rights to millions of posterity. Like other honest citizens, I not only, (when manhood came,) sought my own peace, prosperity, and happiness, but also the peace, prosperity, and happiness of my friends; and, with all the rights and realm before me, and the revelations of Jesus Christ, to guide me into all truth, I had good reason to enter into the blessings and privileges of an American citizen;— the rights of a Green Mountain Boy, unmolested, and enjoy life and religion according to the most virtuous and enlightened, customs, rules, and etiqet of the nineteenth century. But to the disgrace of the United States, it is not so. These rights and privileges, together with a large amount of property, have been wrested from me and thousands of my friends, by lawless mobs in Missouri, supported by executive authority; and the crime of plundering our property; and the unconstitutional and barbarous act of our expulsion; and even the inhumanity of murdering men, women, and children, have received the pass-word of "justifiable" by legislative enactments, and the horrid deeds, doleful and disgraceful as they are, have been paid for by government.

- e In vain have we sought for redress of grievances and a restoration to our rights in the Courts and Legislature of Missouri. In vain have we sought for our rights and the remuneration for our property in the halls of Congress, and at the hands of the President. The only consolation yet experienced from these highest tribunals, and mercy seats of our bleeding country, is, that "our cause is just, but the government has no power to redress us."
- f Our arms were forcibly taken from us by those Missouri marauders;— and in spite of every effort to have them returned, the State of Missouri still retains them; and the United States' militia law, with this fact before the government, still compells us to do military duty, and for a lack of said arms the law forces us to pay our fines. As Shakspeare would say; "thereby hangs a tale."
- g Several hundred thousand dollars worth of land in Missouri, was purchased at the United States' Land Offices in that district of country; and the money without doubt, has been appropriated to strengthen the army and navy, or increase the power and glory of the nation in some other way: and notwithstanding Missouri has robbed and mob[b]ed me and twelve or fifteen thousand innocent inhabitants, murdered hundreds, and expelled the residue, at the point of the bayonet, without law, contrary to the express language of the Constitution of the United States, and every State in the Union; and contrary to
- h the custom and usage of civilized nations; and especially, one holding up the motto: "The asylum of the oppressed;" yet the comfort we receive, to raise our wounded bodies, and invigorate our troubled spirits, on account of such immense sacrifices of life, property, patience, and right; and as an equivalent for the enormous taxes we are compelled to pay to support these functionaries in a dignified manner, after we have petitioned, and plead with tears, and been showed like a caravan of foreign animals, for the peculiar gratification, of connoisseurs in humanity, that flare along in public life, like lamps upon lamp posts, because they are better calculated for the schemes of the night than for the scenes of the day, is, as President [Martin] Van Buren said, your cause is just, but government has no power to redress you!
- i No wonder, after the Pharisee's prayer, the Publican smote his breast and said, Lord be merciful to me a sinner! What must the manacled nations think of freemen's rights in the land of liberty?
- Were I a Chaldean I would exclaim: Keed'nauh ta-meroon le-hoam elauhayauh dey-shemayauh veh aur'kau lau gnaubadoo yabadoo ma-ar'gnau oomeen tehoat shemayauh alah. (Thus shall ye say unto them: The gods that have not made the heavens and earth, they shall perish from the earth, and from under these heavens.)
- j An Egyptian: Su-e-eh-ni: (What other persons are those?) A Grecian: Diabolos bassileuei: (The Devil reigns.) A Frenchman: Messieurs sans Dieu, (Gentlemen without God:) A Turk. Ain shems: (The fountain of light.) A German: sie sind unferstandig. (What consummat ignorance!) A Syrian: Zaubol. (Sacrifice!) A Spaniard: Il sabio muda conscio, il nescio no. (A wise man reflects, a fool does not.) A Samaritan: Saunau! (O Stranger!) An Italian: Oh tempa! oh diffidanza! (O the times! o the diffidence!) A Hebrew: Ahtauh ail rauey. (Thou God seest me.) A Dane: Hyad tidende! (What tidings!) A Saxon: Hwaet riht! (What right!) A Sweede: Hyad skilia: (What skill!) A Polander: Nav-yen-shoo bah pon na Jesu Christus; (Blessed be the name of Jesus Christ.) A Western Indian: She-mo-kah she-mo-keh teh ough-negah. (The white man, O the white man, he very uncertain.) A Roman: Procul, o procul este profani! (Be off, be off ye profane!) But as I am I will only add: when the wicked rule the people mourn.
- k Now, therefore, having failed in every attempt to obtain satisfaction at the tribunals where all men seek for it, according to the rules of right:—I am compelled to appeal to the honor and patriotism of my native State; to the clemency and valor of "Green Mountain Boys;" for, throughout the various periods of the world, whenever a nation, kingdom, state, family or individual has received an insult, or an injury, from a superior force, (unless satisfaction was made) it has been the custom to
- l call in the aid of friends to assist in obtaining redress. For proof we have only to refer to the recovery of Lot and his effects, by Abraham, in the days of Sodom and Gomorrah; or, to turn to the relief afforded by France and Holland, for the achievement of the Independence of these United States: Without bringing up the great bulk of historical facts, rules, laws, decrees, and treaties, and bible records, by which nations have been governed, to show that mutual alliance, for the general benefit of mankind, to retaliate and repel foreign aggressions; to punish and prevent home wrongs, when the conservitors of justice and the laws have failed to afford a remedy, are not only common and in the highest sense justifiable and wise, but, they are also, proper expedients to promote the enjoyment of equal rights, the pursuit of happiness, the preservation of life, and the benefit of posterity.
- m With all these facts before me, and a pure desire to ameliorate the condition of the poor and unfortunate among men, and if possible to entice all men from evil to good; and with a firm reliance that God will reward the just, I have been stimulated to call upon my native State, for a "union of all honest men;" and to appeal to the valor of the "Green Mountain Boys" by all honorable methods and means to assist me in obtaining justice from Missouri: not only for the property she has stolen and confiscated, the murders she has committed among my friends, and for our expulsion from the State, but also to humble and chastise, or abase her for the disgrace she has brought upon constitutional liberty, until she atones for her sins.
- n I appeal also, to the fraternity of brethren, who are bound by kindred ties. to assist a brother in distress, in all cases where it can de done according to the rules of the order, to extend the boon of benevolence and protection, in avenging the Lord of his enemies, as if a Solomon, a Hiram, a St. John, or a Washington raised his hands before a wondering world, and exclaimed:—"My life for his!" Light, liberty and virtue forever!
- o I bring this appeal before my native State for the solemn reason that an injury has been done, and crimes have been p committed, which a sovereign State, of the Federal compact, one of the great family of "E pluribus unum," refuses to compensate, by consent of parties, rules of law, customs of nations, or in any other way: I bring it also, because the national Government has fallen short of affording the necessary relief as before stated for want of power, leaving a large body of her own free citizens, whose wealth went freely into her treasury for lands, and whose gold and silver for taxes, still fills the pockets of her dignitaries, "in ermine and lace," defrauded, robbed, mobed, plundered, ravished, driven, exiled and banished from the "Independent Republic of Missouri!"

q And in this appeal let me say: raise your towers; pile your monuments to the skies; build your steam frigates; spread yourselves far and wide, and open the iron eyes of your bulwarks by sea and land; and let the towering church steeples, marshal the country like the "dreadful splendor" of an army with bayonets: but remember the flood of Noah; remember the r fate of Sodam and Gomorrah; remember the dispersion and confusion at the Tower of Babel; remember the destruction of Pharoah and his hosts; remember the hand writing upon the wall, mene, mene, tekel, upharsin; remember the angels visit to Sennacherib and the 185,000 Assyrians; remember the end of the Jews and Jerusalem; and remember the Lord Almighty will avenge the blood of his Saints that now crimson the skirts of Missouri! Shall wisdom cry aloud and not her speech be heard?

s Has the majesty of American liberty sunk into such vile servitude and oppression, that justice has fled? Has the glory and influence of a Washington, an Adams, a Jefferson, a Lafayette, and a host of others forever departed,—and the wrath of a Cain, a Judas, and a Nero whirled forth in the heraldry of hell, to sprinkle our garments with blood; and lighten the darkness of midnight, with the blaze of our dwellings? Where is the patriotism of '76? Where is the virtue of our forefathers? and where is the sacred honor of freemen?

t Must we, because we believe in the fulness of the gospel of Jesus Christ; the administration of angels, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, like the prophets and apostles of old,—must we be mobed with impunity—be exiled from our habitations and property without remedy; murdered without mercy,—and government find the weapons, and pay the vagabonds for u doing the jobs, and give them the plunder into the bargain? Must we, because we believe in enjoying the constitutional privilege and right of worshipping Almighty God according to the dictates of our own consciences; and because we believe in repentance, and baptism for the remission of sins; the gift of the Holy Ghost by the laying on of the hands; the resurrection of the dead; the millenium; the day of judgment; and the Book of Mormon as the history of the aborigines of this continent,— must we be expelled from the institutions of our country; the rights of citizenship, and the graves of our friends and brethren, v and the government lock the gate of humanity, and shut the door of redress against us?—If so, fare well freedom; adieu to personal safety,—and let the red hot wrath of an offended God purify the nation of such sinks of corruption! For that realm is hurrying to ruin where vice has the power to expel virtue.

w My father, who stood, several times in the battles of the American Revolution, till his companions, in arms, had been shot dead, at his feet, was forced from his home in Far West, Missouri, by those civilized, or satanized savages, in the dreary season of winter, to seek a shelter in another State; and the vicissitudes and sufferings consequent to his flight, brought his honored grey head to the grave, a few months after. And my youngest brother, also, in the vigor and bloom of youth, from x his great exposure and fatigue in endeavoring to assist his parents on their journey, (I and my brother Hyrum [Smith] being in chains, in dungeons—where they tried to feed us upon human flesh—in Missouri,) was likewise so debilitated that he found a premature grave shortly after my father. And my mother, too, though she yet lingers among us, from her extreme exposure in that dreadful tragedy, was filled with rheumatic affections and other diseases, which leaves her no enjoyment of health.
She is sinking in grief and pain, broken hearted, from Missouri persecution.

y O death! wilt thou not give to every honest man, a heated dart to sting those wretches while they pollute the land? and O grave! wilt thou not open the trap door to the pit of ungodly men, that they may stumble in?

z I appeal to the "Green Mountain Boys" of my native State, to rise in the majesty of virtuous freemen, and by all honorable means help bring Missouri to the bar of justice. If there is one whisper from the spirit of an Ethan Allen; or a gleam from the shade of a Gen. Stark, let it mingle with our sense of honor, and fire our bosoms for the cause of suffering innocence,—for the reputation of our disgraced country, and for the glory of God: and may all the earth bear me witness, if Missouri, blood stained Missouri;—escapes the due demerit of her crimes, the vengeance she so justly deserves, that Vermont is a hypocrite—a coward—and this nation the hot bed of political demagogues!

aa I make this appeal to the sons of liberty of my native State for help, to frustrate the wicked designs of sinful men; I make it to hush the violence of mobs; I make it to cope with the unhallowed influence of wicked men in high places; I make it to resent the insult and injury made to an innocent, unoffending people, by a lawless ruffian State; I make it to obtain justice bb where law is put at defiance; I make it to wipe off the stain of blood from our nation's escutcheon; I make it to show presidents, governors and rulers, prudence; I make it to fill honorable men with discretion; I make it teach senators wisdom; I make it to learn judges justice; I make it to point clergymen to the path of virtue;—and I make it to turn the hearts of this nation to the truth and realities of pure and undefiled religion, that they may escape the perdition of ungodly men; and Jesus Christ, the son of God, is my Great Counsellor.

cc Wherefore let the rich and the learned, the wise and the noble, the poor and the needy, the bond and the free, both black and white, take heed to their ways, and cleave to the knowledge of God; and execute justice and judgment upon the earth in righteousness; and prepare to meet the judge of the quick and the dead, for the hour of his coming is nigh.

And I must go on as the herald of grace,
Till the wide-spreading conflict is over,
And burst through the curtains of tyrannic night.
Yea, I must go on to gather our race,
Till the high blazing flame of Jehovah,
Illumines the globe as a triumph of right.

As a friend of equal rights to all men, and a messenger of the everlasting gospel of Jesus Christ,
I have the honor to be, Your devoted servant,

JOSEPH SMITH.

Nauvoo, Ill.)
December, 1843.)

Remarks, 4 December 1843

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Monday evening December 4.— 1843. 6 oclock P. M. Meeting assembled according to adjourn met, house filled to overflowing.
The mayor made some observations at the opening of the meeting stating the object & its origin, be requested the assembly be calm and cool, but let the spirit of 76 burn in their bosoms, and when occasion requires say little, but act,— and when the mob comes mow a hole through them,
- b Moved by the mayor, that his appeal to the Freemen of the State of Vt should be read with by W[illiam] W. Phelps Esqr carried, & read, Moved by the mayor & voted that P[arley] P. Pratt read his appeal to the state of New York,— and read accordingly, Moved by the mayer & voted to have the clerk read the Memorial to Congress,— & read
- c By vote, the assembly expressed their unanimous approbation of the memorial General Jos. Smith followed with remarks relating circumstances in Missouri, not mentioned in the Memorial.
vexatious Lawsuits 38 time Paid Missouri $150,000 for land out of my own pocket Borrowed $500 gold of Judge [Richard M.] Young at Washington...

Discourse, 9 December 1843

As Reported by Nauvoo Neighbor

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a After some pertinent remarks by Mr. [John] Taylor, General Joseph Smith briefly addressed the meeting; he dissented entirely from the opinion of the Attorney General, and observed that it was stated in the charter that the Legion was a part of the militia of Illinois, and that his commission declared that he (General Smith) was the Lieutenant General of the Nauvoo
- b Legion, and if [of] the militia of the State of Illinois, and as such, it was not only his duty to enforce the city ordinances, but the laws of the State when called on by the Governor. He also stated that he had been informed that the Chief Magistrate of Missouri had it in contemplation to make another requisition on the Governor of Illinois for him, Joseph Smith.

Letter to John Taylor and Wilford Woodruff, between circa November and circa 20 December 1843

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a MESSRS. [John] TAYLOR & [Wilford] WOODRUFF:—
- It has been so long since I addressed the saints through the medium of the Times and Seasons, that I feel confident that a few words from my pen, by way of advice, will be well received, as well as a ‘way mark’ to guide the ‘faithful’ in future. I was sorry to learn, by your remarks upon the resolutions of the ‘Twelve’ concerning your papers, which appeared not
- b long since, that any of the saints abroad were more apt to patronize the common newspapers of the day, than yours: For the important reason, that the church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, has the words of eternal life, and your paper, as it has hitherto done, must continue to publish such portions of them for the benefit of the saints, and the salvation of mankind, as wisdom shall, from time to time, direct.
- c Freedom is a sweet blessing; men have a right to take and read what papers they please: But do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? It certainly is no more than just to suppose that ‘charity begins at home,’ and if so, what must such as profess to be saints think, when they patronize the splendor of Babylon, and leave the virtue of Zion to linger for want of bread?
- d Beside which, if virtue is justified rather than vanity: the best of every thing, calculated to happify man, and dignify society, will, yea, must be in Nauvoo: and as the new commandment, given anciently was, to love one another; even so, the works of the saints, at home and abroad, will bear its own testimony; whether they love the brethren.
- e In all the world, the Times and Seasons]- is the only paper that virtually sustains, according to the forms of Scripture and prophecy, ‘apostles, prophets, evangelists and revelations—and what shall be said of him that is like the ‘Levite’ passes on
- f the other side of the way. When we behold men who ‘have borne the heat and the burden of the day;’ struggled against the popular opinions of a vain world, the burlesque of a giddy throng; the vulgarity of a self-wise multitude, and the falsehoods of what may justly be termed the ‘civilized meanness of the age,’ and not lend a helping hand? The 25th chapter of Matthew contains the simple answer.
- g Now let me say once for all, like the psalmist of old: ‘How good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity.’
- As the precious ointment upon the head, that run down upon Aaron’s beard, that went down to the skirts of his garments, as the dew of Hermon, that descended upon the mountains of Zion, is such unity—for there the Lord commanded the blessing—life forever more! Unity is power, and when the brethren as one man, sustain the ‘Times and Seasons,’ they sustain h me, by giving a spread to the revelations, faith, works, history, and progress of the church.— The brethren who conduct the paper have been appointed to that important station because they are worthy and well qualified, and what a blessed sign of a faithful friend to God and man is it, to see the charity of a brother support his brethren as an evidence that he means to pass from death into life?

i Many of the articles which appear in the Times and Seasons, are extracts of revelations, translations, or are the united voice of conferences, which like ‘apples of gold in baskets of silver,’ are treasures more than meet for the called, chosen, and faithful among the saints; and should be more than drink to those that hunger and thirst after righteousness. As Nauvoo is rising in glory and greatness, so shall I expect to see the Times and Seasons increase in circulation by the vigilance of the elders and saints—so as to be a herald of truth, and a standard of pure and undefiled religion. Finally, men and brethren, when you support my friends, you support me.

In the bonds of the new and everlasting covenant, I am your humble servant,

JOSEPH SMITH.

Minutes and Discourse, 29 December 1843

Print Sources

JSP	—	JSR	—
DC	—	HC	—
HDDC	—	TCHC	—

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

INTERIM CONTENT

Text

- a Spe[c]ial Session, Dec 29, 1843, 4 oclock P. M.
- Names of members called, Prayer by W[illiam] W Phelps minutes of last council read and approved,
- Capt [Jonathan] Dunham & 40 policemen were sworn into office, to support the constitution of the U. S. & the State of Illinois and obey the ordinance of this city and the Mayor according to the best of their ability,— by the <Counsellor> W. W. Phelps clerk of the Mayors Court.— Names <of police> are called by Capt Dunham
- A[lderman] G[eorge] W. Harris admonishd the police to do their duty.
- b The mayor ~~spoke~~. said that it was expected that a part would be on duty while othess rest,— that it might be expected that thieves had crept into the church, that it would be an abominable thing to set a theif to catch a thief, & would look upon men in their situati[o]n, guilty of a mean or cowardly act with the utmost contempt,— Capt <Dunham> to <be> called High policeman, men have strange Ears, transformed,— altogether different from what they were, <we will> be forbearing, until
- c we are compelled to strike, then do it decently and in good order, & break the yoke so that it cannot be mended, the mob mob has been so repulsed they stand in fear, <Let us> <we will> be at peace with all men so long as they will let us alone “shall be the Motto of the C. of J. C. o Latter D. Saints from this time forth, in relation to Missosouri, Let it them alone”— they stink in the nose of the Almighty, Let them alone.— [Orrin] Porter Rockwell has gone clear and that proves me clear of being accessory of shooting [Lilburn W.] Boggs that our difficulties from the State of Mo are hurled on us through the influ[en]ce of
- d our neighbors around us.— the Gov has boasted of being a law abiding man. it is our best policy to acquaint the Gov by affidavits &c so that when the onset comes he will be obliged to send the militia to our support. [blank] Let us keep cool, as a cucumber in a frosty morning, [blank] say nothing about Mo. Soft words turn away wrath “in the heart of a fool,” therefore <we will> Poor pussey this generation. [blank] keep time,— have the ordinances in possession and study them, & ferret out
- e all brothels and disorderly conduct, and if a transgressor resists cuff his ears,— if any one lifts a weapon presents a pistol &c take its his life if need<s> be, ~~take care of~~ <to save your> yourselves <own lives>, Let no horse be taken away,— or any thing stolen.— Let Mo alone, stay at home, if any man attempts to bribe you tell me, Let us have a reformation, [blank] the spe[c]ulators are in this state & wanting to sell revolving pistols, to us to fight the Mo [Missourians] <and the Mo’ to fight us,> I think my life more in danger from some little doe head of a fool in this <the> city than from all the volobulory [volubility?]
- f of enemies abroad, and <if> I can escape the <the hand of an as> assassin of a Brutus I can live as <like> as <might> Caesar, <have lived if he had not the been for a Brutus>— I have <have had> pretended friends who have betrayed me as I am informed. Then Blessed the police,— it may be said in time to come where is our <if> old policemen— <if you m[a]gnify

~~your office;~~> Let us have one of our policemen <if you will magnify you[r] office> shall be the blessing that shall be conforrd on you in time to come. ~~if you wi~~

- g Counseller Hyrum Smith, spoke,— of the importance of the Police office,
The mayor said that if any one offerd a bribe to a poli[c]eman the city will pay that Policeman twice the amount offered for the info[r]mation to be repo[r]ted to the mayor.
Petition of Pulaski S. Cahoon to have Licenc to retail Spirits read & ordered to be laid on the table.
- h Petition of B[enjamin] Warrington & others, for openi[n]g a part of the street called Mulholland St— as far east as the corporations line & petition ordered to be granted
Petition of R[euben] H Loomis for a Licence to Retail Spiritous Liqors read and, and ordered to be laid upon the table,
Council Adjourned to next regular Meeting

Hyrum Smith

Introduction to 1843

sdf

Remarks, 1 August 1843

Print Sources

— —

Background

Original Source

Franklin D. Richards, “Scriptural Items” notebook, PDF 36, bottom

Text

- a Hiram said Aug 1st—43
Those of the Terrestrial Glory either advance to the {e}Celestial or recede to the Telestial else the moon could not be a type
“It waxes & wanes”
- b Also that be George will be quickened by celestial Glory having been ministered to by one of that Kingdom

1852

Orson Pratt

Introduction to 1852

sdf

Discourse, 28 August 1852

Print Sources

— —

Online Access

Background

Original Source

Deseret News Extra, 14 September 1852

Text

1854

Brigham Young

Introduction to 1854

sdf

Instruction, 12 February 1854

Print Sources

CDBY

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Longhand report by George Watt, in Church History Library, CR 100 317 (Historian's Office reports of speeches, 1845–1885), Brigham Young, 12 February 1854, transcribed by Bryce Gessell; view online here

Text

When I contemplate the subject of salvation, and rise up before a congregation to speak upon that <all important matter,> subject it has been but a few times in my life that I could see a bigining point to it, or a stoping place. There is such a multiplicity of principles, and sercumstances all interwoven so closely that it seems to be one eternity. I supose this is the case in reality. To be saved;—to be redeemed, and to have a right to the Celestial kingdom of God is to be intimately connected with the principles of eternity.

I recolect once when I was preaching a question was asked me, “What is the Preisthood.” The answer was ready, and perfectly simple in its nature, and plain to be understood, <and> & is couched in a a short sentence (viz) Preisthood is a perfect system of Government that rules and reigns in eternity.

A question at once arises in the mind; “where is eternity.” The answer is at hand, Eternity is here;—we are in eternity just as much so as any other created beings in heaven or on earth, Heavenly beings are no more in eternity than we are. We are in the midst of eternity; and when we become acquainted with the system of Gov^t. and the laws that rule in eternity, we shall then know it callculated to endure; to govern and control all things which are in heaven, and on the earth.

The eternal preisthood of God,—the Gov^t of God,—the laws of eternity, <is> are a pure and perfect system of Gov^t.

Instruction, 27 June 1854

Print Sources

CDBY

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Church History Library, CR 100 318 (Historian's Office general Church minutes, 1839–1877), Brigham Young, 27 June 1854; view online here

Text

The Priesthood is a pure system of government which governs the world and a small portion has come down to earth. It is the constitutional laws and pure system by which men are to be governed.

Instruction, 19 November 1854

Print Sources

CDBY

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Church History Library, CR 100 317 (Historian's Office reports of speeches, 1845–1885), Brigham Young, 19 November 1854, transcribed by Bryce Gessell; view online here

Text

There is no kingdom without a space, and there is no space without a kingdom says the prophet Joseph. Now let me tell you there is no world made without that world has motion, and it is governed and controled by the law of the eternal preisthood; and if you want to know what preisthood is, it is a perfect system of Government by which planets and all creations are governed. Philosephers sit down, and tell us how the Gods came into existance, and how the first creation was made, and the planetts, it proves to me they expose their poor ignorance before all intelligence, and plants themselves in the pages of forgetfulness. There is no plannets nor kingdom, that mortal man can ~~find out~~ decipher and find out without the revelations of the Almighty. But I am not an asstronomer nor a philosopher, nor do I pofess any learning; I have none only what the Lord taught me, and what I got while I was in the woods rolling logs, and while I was in the willderness; but there is knowledge and truth; and it is just as easy for the Lord to reveal to a person a mystery with regard to the plannets motion on their axes, that they can tell it to a congregation or to the world in one minute, as to be six monnths about it; just exactly, I want something that will do us ~~some~~ good.

Instruction, 3 December 1854

Print Sources

CDBY

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

I haven't been able to find any better source for this sermon than the JD account.

Text

The Spirit of the Lord, in teaching the people, in opening their minds to the principles of truth, does not infringe upon the laws God has given to mankind for their government; consequently, when the Lord made man, He made him an agent accountable to his God, with liberty to act and to do as he pleases, to a certain extent, in order to prove himself. There is a law that governs man thus far; but the law of the celestial kingdom, as I have frequently told you, is, and always will be, the same to all the children of Adam. When we talk of the celestial law which is revealed from heaven, that is, the Priesthood, we are talking about the principle of salvation, a perfect system of government, of laws and ordinances, by which we can be prepared to pass from one gate to another, and from one sentinel to another, until we go into the presence of our Father and God. This law has not always been upon the earth; and in its absence, other laws have been given to the children of men for their improvement, for their education, for their government, and to prove what they would do when left to control themselves; and what we now call tradition has grown out of these circumstances.

There is so much of this, that I hardly dare to commence talking about it. It would require a lengthy discourse upon this particular point. Suffice it to say, the Lord has not established laws by which I am compelled to have my shoes made in a certain style. He has never given a law to determine whether I shall have a square-toed boot or a peaked-toed boot; whether I shall have a coat with the waist just under my arms, and the skirts down to my heels; or whether I shall have a coat like the one I have on. Intelligence, to a certain extent, was bestowed both upon Saint and sinner, to use independently, aside from whether they have the law of the Priesthood or not, or whether they have ever heard of it or not. "I put into you intelligence," saith the Lord, "that you may know how to govern and control yourselves, and make yourselves comfortable and happy on the earth; and give unto you certain privileges to act upon as independently in your sphere as I do in the government of heaven."

No matter whether we are Jew or Gentile, as the two classes of people are called; though Gentile signifies disobedient people; no matter whether we believe in the Koran as firmly as we now believe in the Bible; no matter whether we have been educated by the Jews, the Gentiles, or the Hottentots; whether we serve the true and the living God, or a lifeless image, if we are honest before the God we serve.

1856

Brigham Young

Introduction to 1856

sdf

Instruction, 17 February 1856

Print Sources

CDBY 2:1052

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Church History Library, CR 100 318 (Historian's Office general Church minutes, 1839–1877), Brigham Young, 17 February 1856; view online here

From "B.Y. You never learnt..." to "...they [will] find feed" was transcribed for me by Silvia (?) Ghosh, reading from Thomas Bullock's handwriting. There is more transcription in what she sent me; see an email to me from LaJean Carruth on 6 October 2021.

Text

B. Y. You never learnt that in this Church but ask¹ of the Church when a person apostatizes, he continues to decrease until they r wittled next to nothing
My spirit in me was not a particle contaminated by the fall of Adam But in consequence [of] [being] connected with [the] body it must continue until it is released [the] Devil ad not [a] particle [of] power over [the] Spirit But if [I] die in my Sins then he continues [his] power he will destroy Sin [and he] that hath [the] power [of it] [he will] decompose it into element but not annihilated [the] individuality [is] annihilated
The Earth [and the] Air [is] full [of the] properties [of the] grape
I want some [of the] brethren [to] study chemistry it [will be a] help [to] bro Lauber who [is] about [as] good [a] chemist [as the] world produces
[he is] born [in] France reared [in] Germany [and] came here from Switzerland [he] can instruct [the] bren [to] make turpentine tar sulphur how [to] extract [the] alkali from [the] Salt we want men [to be] instructed it [is the] <shovelled> salt that eats like [the] canker called [the] bitterings
[he] knows how [to] make our own olum sulphur soap [I] would like [to] get up [the] class for him]
[page 30]
B. Y he can make any amount [of] gas from this sage brush
I am seriously thinking will our Cattle [be] able [to] perform [the] journey [to the] States [and] come back again
The grass [in the] mountains [is the] best [in the] Spring [and in the] Fall [and the] Prairie grass [is the] best [in] June July [and] August it [is] not [the] distance or [the] roads that kills [the] Cattle but [the] teamsters our teamsters know how [to] drive [and] how far [to] drive [and] they [will] find feed ¹Possibly "out"?

1859

Brigham Young

Introduction to 1859

sdf

Instruction, 31 July 1859

Print Sources

CDBY

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

I haven't been able to find a better source for this sermon than the JD account.

Text

I rejoice in the privilege of making a few remarks this morning, by way of explanation and exhortation.

If the Latter-day Saints assemble to worship merely because our fathers did, or because we have been so taught by our schoolmasters, we have not a correct view of the subject. The Being who organized us did so upon principles which pleased him, and can please us only through obedience to his laws. That Being placed within us a principle that has been among all the nations of men from the beginning—the principle of reverence, of worship, of seeking after something superior to what we possess. Every person possesses more or less of this principle; we all acknowledge it more or less, and all are seeking something not in our possession.

We are on this earth for an express purpose. The body is organized, the spirit takes possession of it, and here we are as finite beings in a world of sin, of darkness, and of the thralldom of iniquity; and that, too, for an express purpose that cannot be accomplished upon any other principle or plan.

Eternal existence depends solely upon adopting and carrying out in our lives the principles couched in the term “holy Priesthood,” which alone tend to life and eternal duration and exaltation. We are seeking for something that we are not now in possession of; and every individual wishes to understand those true principles which will put him in possession of the right plan by which to obtain what we are seeking.

Mankind are prone to seeking after perishable things, though we in reality, if we did but realize it, are by no means doing so exclusively. The spirit and intelligence that God has placed within us prompt us to seek more or less after imperishable things. Had we worlds to command and dictate in our finite state, with the authority and power we now possess, it would not satisfy the mind.

The holy Priesthood is a system of laws and government that is pure and holy; and if it is adhered to by intelligent man, whom God has created a little lower than angels, it is calculated to preserve our tabernacles in eternal being; otherwise they will be resolved into native element. Nothing is calculated to satisfy the mind of an intelligent being, only to obtain principles that will preserve him in his identity, to enable him to increase in wisdom, power, knowledge, and perfection. And when we meet to worship, we do or should meet to speak of those principles and to strengthen our faith. But should it please the Almighty to place us in circumstances that would preclude our assembling to worship, if we understand these principles, they are as dear to us in our closets, in our homes, and when we are laboring in our fields, our shops, or in the canyons, as when we are in this Tabernacle.

We are searching for these principles, and we are laboring continually to obtain—What? You see mankind running to and fro, like ants upon an anthill—now forward, now wheeling and taking the back track; then to the right and to the left, seemingly in a perfect state of excitement and confusion. They are seeking they know not what. They possess the foundation for eternal intelligence, and they do not know how to obtain that which will satisfy their minds. Nothing can satisfy, except being perfectly subject to the law that will preserve them in their identity to all eternity, and that is the holy Priesthood.

And yet, so long as we have lived, and as much as the wisest of us have seen and learned, we are still comparatively as infants. It is by the law of the Priesthood that men are, and by that law they may maintain their eternal identity. A strict observance of those laws will secure an inheritance in that kingdom where death never enters, and all else will sooner or later pass away as a night vision.

When we undertake to worship the Lord, it is eternal principles that we desire to learn. They are taught here from Sabbath to Sabbath, a little here and a little there, pertaining to the doctrines of salvation, like explaining the civil laws of the land. Lawyers are called upon to explain the civil law, and we must be lawyers in the law of the Priesthood, to read, comprehend, and correctly teach the writings of Moses, of the Psalmist, of the Prophets and Apostles, or to tell the truth as it comes fresh from heaven, independent of reading from any book.

No one can correctly dispute that mankind are possessed of intelligence. Reflect upon the intelligence they possess in mechanism, in astronomy, &c. Did they produce that? No. I obtained the principles of intelligence that I am in possession of from the same source that they obtained theirs, and which I attribute to the Author of our existence. But they cannot tell from whence those principles came. They are searching and researching with an inherent principle that never can be satisfied without true knowledge; and that true knowledge flows through the Priesthood, to enable us to know how to order our lives, to overcome every principle that tends to the death, and to embrace every principle that tends to the life, that we may preserve our identity to all eternity, which is the greatest blessing bestowed upon man, and which we now have the privilege to place ourselves in the way to secure.

The laws given by the Almighty to the children of men, by which we can preserve our spirits and our bodies to all eternity, are what the world call "Mormonism." Those laws are what this people believe and are in possession of. And are we obliged to falter here and falter there? If I am presented with unwholesome food, or with poison that would destroy my life, am I obliged to eat it? No, though I may be obliged to have it presented to me. If a man hands you a dose of arsenic, saying that you need it and that it will do you good, are you obliged to swallow it? Or if those who prefer sin, and roll it under their tongues as a sweet morsel, present to you principles that tend to the death, are you obliged to receive them—to join in and commit sin? Some who profess to be Latter-day Saints do so, and continue to do so.

What a pity it is! How strange it is that mankind do not better understand and conduct themselves! True, as is written, sin was introduced to the human family by the transgression of our first parents, and thereby the Adversary of all righteousness gained great power over our bodies, as we can daily see exhibited—the flesh, as the Apostle has written, warring against the spirit. So in a garden, the weeds spring up spontaneously; and if you wish to produce certain fruits and vegetables, you must carefully till the soil, because the ground is cursed to produce thorns and thistles and obnoxious weeds. The original transgression subjected the flesh to weakness and infirmities, but not the spirit; which explains how much easier it is for a person to sin than to work righteousness, by the power sin has obtained over earthly tabernacles, notwithstanding the promptings to do right, and that a person feels better in doing right than wrong.

We must have our day of trial—an opportunity to become acquainted with the bitter and the sweet. We are so organized as to be able to choose or to refuse. We can take the downward road that leads to destruction, or the road that leads to life. We can constantly act upon the principles that tend to death, or refuse them and act upon the principles that pertain to life and salvation. This is a day of trial; our faith and patience can now be tried: now is the time for your fortitude and integrity to be tried. Let the trials come; for if we should be so unspeakably happy as to obtain a crown of eternal life, we shall be like gold tried seven times in the fire. Let the fiery furnace burn, and the afflictions come, and the temptations be presented—if we wish to be crowned with crowns of glory and exalted to dwell with our elder brother Jesus Christ, we must choose the good and refuse the evil.

According to our faith, we must strive to live our religion when in the canyons getting wood and lumber, when laboring in our fields, and wherever we may be. We have to learn and practice eternal principles, to obtain eternal life; and they are the principles of the holy Priesthood. God has given man an agency, and it behooves us to understand and practice the principles of life—to live our religion and walk humbly with our God, living according to the laws and regulations of the holy Priesthood so far as it is revealed.

The principles of eternal life that are set before us are calculated to exalt us to power and preserve us from decay. If we choose to take the opposite course and to imbibe and practice the principles that tend to death, the fault is with ourselves. If we fail to obtain the salvation we are seeking for, we shall acknowledge that we have secured to ourselves every reward that is due to us by our acts, and that we have acted in accordance with the independent agency given us, and we shall be judged out of our own mouths whether we are justified or condemned.

When meditating upon matters as they are passing, I am happy and rejoice that things are as they are. You do not often see me in this building, neither do I often address you, neither do I wish at present; but I want everything to be shaken that can be shaken, that those who remain will be steadfastly determined to serve their God. As I have often said, I would rather be associated with a dozen men who would live their religion than to have the whole world for my companions to bear off the kingdom to all nations. I would rather see the people leave, until there are not ten men left in the mountains, than to see what I see and hear what mine ears have to hear—the blasphemy, corruption, wickedness, dishonesty one with another, and running after the Devil, and ready to strike hands wherever they meet him. I want to see those who will not live their religion sifted out. Let them float off, and let the few who will live their religion—who will live for God, remain until they are like the gold that is tried in the furnace seven times.

I understand that some of the people are remiss in coming to meeting. Do they stay at home to weigh themselves in the balance, to know whether they are actually in possession of the religion that we profess? Or are their eyes, like the fool's, in the ends of the earth, looking for a good job here, and a bargain there, and a speculation yonder? You will know, by-and-by, whether you possess the religion you profess. The Lord will sift the people, and the time is not far distant when he will sift the nations with a sieve of vanity, and the time is at your doors when he will hold a controversy with the nations and will plead with all flesh, and it will be known who is for God, and who is not.

I often ask the Father to hasten his work—do you?—to hasten his Zion upon the earth, and his work upon all nations. Have you any idea what that work is? I am at times checked in my feelings, and make the inquiry, Am I prepared, with this people, to receive what will come?

Every time that my mind stretches forth to discern what the Lord is doing, to contemplate upon his goings forth among the nations, and what he is bringing about, according to all the sayings of the Prophets and the designs of his Son Jesus Christ, and to reflect upon the nations of the earth as they now are and will be, I ask myself, Am I prepared for all this? Are the people called Latter-day Saints prepared for all this? I am checked in my feelings in a moment. Are you? Or do you think that you are ready? Suppose that the Lord should make his appearance in his glory, how many in this Tabernacle could abide the day of his coming? Is there an individual in the valleys of the mountains, or upon the face of the earth, that could abide the appearance of the Son of Man in his glory—that could look upon him?

Are you prepared for the distress that is coming upon the nations? Many of you frequently think that your lot is very hard—that your trials are numerous and severe, and imagine this and that; and there is a great disposition with many of you, as well as with the rest of the world, to pity yourselves. You had better continue to pity yourselves, each and every one, lest we should not be right in all the things of God as fast as he is rolling them along. I have been driven from my home five times; I have left my houses and lands and everything I had. Do I wish evil to come upon my enemies? Every time I think of it, and when my mind is opened by the visions of the Lord to see the weeping, the wailing, and distress of the nations, that many who now live will see, there is not a person in this room that could bear it. There are no eyes looking upon me that could bear to see the awful distress that the nations are bringing upon themselves—to look upon the judgments of the Almighty that they are bringing upon themselves.

You think that you see distress. I have seen poverty; I have seen the grayheaded father and mother bowed to their graves with starvation; I have seen the middle-aged, the youth, and young children going to their graves through starvation: but I have seen nothing to compare with what I shall yet see, if I live. I shall see the distress that will be upon the nations. Look a little further and reflect upon what the Lord will do when he has revolutionized the nations and cleansed and purged this earth with fire. Are we prepared to sit down with Jesus when he comes? We had better be careful to know whether we are prepared.

We think that we have great occasion for sorrow; but how should we feel, after all our preparations, faith, labors, and looking forth for the coming of the Son of Man, to be consumed by the brightness of his appearance? We had better be purifying our hearts: that is the best occupation I can recommend to the Saints. I would recommend such a course, far beyond taking their neighbor's cattle, breaking down their neighbor's fences, spending their Sabbaths in the canyons getting wood, or doing anything that they should not do. Ask such persons whether they pray. "No." A man in the Eleventh Ward said, "I prayed daily over my crops last year, and my harvest was very light: this year I have not prayed, and my crops look first-rate." Those who think that they can succeed without praying, try it, and I will promise them eternal destruction, if they persist in that course. Some think that they can prosper by lying a little, breaking the Sabbath, and doing almost everything that they ought not to do. In the end they will learn that they have trod the path that leads to the first and second death, which will have power over them; and the time will come when they will be as though they had not been.

It is recorded that Job clung to the Lord and proved his integrity to his Father and God. The Lord, to try him, suffered his crops to be laid waste, his property to be plundered, his sons to be destroyed, and sorely afflicted him in divers ways; and so it has been and will be with thousands of other persons. And though their property, families, and friends be taken from them, yet they should trust in their God, even though he should slay them. And you will learn, by-and-by, what reward he has prepared for them.

I am striving for the crown that awaits the end of the faithful race—not alone for the potatoes and corn. Many come to me and say, "Brother Brigham, are we going to have any potatoes this year?" "I neither know nor care." "Have you planted any?" "Yes, a great many." "Have you looked to see whether there are any sets upon them?" "No: but it is my business to keep out the weeds, to water and till, and wait until the harvest." I have not power to make potatoes set. If I should plant and hoe, and raise nothing, it is the same to me as though I obtained a good crop. God gives or withholds the increase.

We are all organized to seek after something that will be durable—that will not pass away like a dream. Then do not seek too much after that which will perish. Such things belong to the world. They are to be changed, and are not to be relied upon.

Seek for the principles that pertain to eternal life—the principles of the holy Priesthood. Let us prove ourselves to be friends of God, whether we raise potatoes or not, whether our pigs and calves live or not, whether we are blessed with much or little, or have nothing—trust in God and be his friends, and by-and-by he will put us in possession of that which will be perfectly satisfactory. Our spirits and bodies will be preserved before the Lord, and we shall be prepared to see him in his glory—to live with him in his kingdom—to associate with him. That is what we are seeking, if we did but know it.

If any wish to apostatize, they have and always have had perfect liberty to do so. Life and death are before you. You have had the words of life sounded in your ears, year after year, in these valleys, and we have been blessed with days of peace and pleasantness—days of joy and days of comfort. Have all the people served God? No. Some have been and are wicked, sinful, dishonest, and unfaithful; and the Lord wants to prove us—to prepare the righteous for his glory, and the wicked for their doom.

I exhort you all to reflect whether you are ready for what is coming, and are prepared to receive what you anticipate. Amen.

1864

Brigham Young

Introduction to 1864

sdf

Discourse, 31 July 1864

Print Sources

CDBY 4:2211–2218 JD 10:318–327

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Church History Library, CR 100 912 (Church History Department Pitman Shorthand transcriptions, 2013–2020), Brigham Young, 31 July 1864, transcribed by LaJean Carruth; view online at the CHL here (this sermon appears in Journal of Discourses, but with significant alterations, including in the passage quoted below)

Text

...our religion is the priesthood of the Son of God incorporated within the pale¹ of this holy priesthood we frequently hear people inquire what the priesthood is it is a pure holy system of government the priesthood is the law that governs and controls the heavenly bodies the priesthood is the power and the principle that holds all things in existence by the word of him who is the author of all things this priesthood is made manifest in the last days the Lord saw fit to speak from the heavens reveal his will to the children of men it is well known without my taking the time to notify this congregation that the Lord spoke to Joseph Smith it is well known and understood that the Latter-day Saints believe the revelations that the Lord gave through his servant Joseph consequently it does not require any delineation upon this to show to this congregation that we are brethren to Joseph believers in him as a prophet and that we subscribe to the doctrine God revealed through him this is the truth and where we are known this is known this priesthood which God has revealed is for the salvation of the children of man. This priesthood which is a perfect system of government is calculated to govern and control eventually the earth the inhabitants of the earth and all things pertaining to the earth well I might talk of liberty to refer to something that was said this morning that the enemy the opposer of Jesus the accuser of the brethren that we call Satan never did own the earth he never made a particle of it] we might take occasion to see and if you want to see the works of the enemy whenever you wish to know the design of the opposer of this you will see the result of his labor is to destroy the labor of the Son of God [illegible] to make preserve purify build up and bring up to his standard all his brethren beautify the earth purify it cleanse it take curse from it bring it to paradisaical state restore all things make all things glorious and when you wish to know the work of the enemy it is dismember opposed to defy one is to create preserve build up sanctify glorify the other is to to consume destroy waste away and bring to night this is the difference I take the liberty to say so much with regard to the work of the enemy and the time will come when it will be known] that he is a usurper and all governments that is on the face of this earth that is opposed to the government of the Son of God is a usurpation by and by it will be known I am well aware that many thinking men inquiring hearts and spirits and dispositions would ask if it is necessary for the government of God on the earth at the present day most assuredly never a time when more needed than now why because men do not know how to govern themselves without it would it be treason were we in any government there is upon the face of the earth to profess to believe in the Lord Jesus Christ to say that it is his right his inalienable right his indisputable right and prerogative to reign over the children of men and all things pertaining to the earth...

¹See the 1828 dictionary for “pale”:

3 An inclosure; properly, that which incloses, like fence, limit; hence, the space inclosed. He was born within the pale of the church; within the pale of christianity.

4 District; limited territory.

Discourse, 7 September 1864

Print Sources

CDBY 4:2220 JD —

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Part of “The Lost Sermons” publishing project, in Church History Library, CR 100 912 (Church History Department Pitman Shorthand transcriptions, 2013–2020), Brigham Young, 7 September 1864, transcribed by LaJean Carruth

Text

I say to these Latter-day Saints some things I can tell you some things I can't tell you those things that you can't understand and will not use prudently I had better keep them myself the saints have got to be taught according to them they receive and improve upon but tell them a great many things that yet will be told the saints would be like casting pearls before swine this I don't like to do but we want the people who have received the gospel and wish to become saints indeed to receive a little here a little there and improve upon themselves little until they are perfection that is what we want and this is our labor as to the circular and what is in it it is right and still there is things in it that people don't understand [space] there is some things were not written they should understand [space] and I say to you as I can to the whole world there has not yet been a revelation given to this people from the time Joseph commenced to receive revelation but what would be [altered/ltrd?] provided the people were capable of receiving more [space] the Lord has to speak to the people according to their capacity not according to his capacity we are not prepared to receive all the heavens has for us the Lord gives revelation upon revelation here a little and there a little [space] those precepts he gives we should improve upon them as for selling of grain we take measures inasmuch as we can to have the people keep the grain still a great deal will be sold and the men that doesn't feel to sustain what the convention dictated they will sooner or later manifest their folly by going to the dark more and more more and more [sic] until they [love/lv?] the world and every project that is proposed by the leaders of this people and every plan adopted for the benefit of the people those that doesn't hear it will dwindle away sooner or later and finally will apostatize [space] I tell you some things in the circular meant to be in there that I understand you don't [space] I shall not tell it

1865

Brigham Young

Introduction to 1865

sdf

Discourse, 6 June 1865

Print Sources

CDBY — JD —

Online Access here

Background

Original Source

Deseret News 14:37, 293 (14 June 1865)

Text

Prest. Young occupied some time instructing the Saints in the principles of government, showing that men wielding authority and power can rule so tyrannically that the feelings, affections and love of those whom they govern will be turned from them. Parents who rule their children with iron severity estrange those children from them, when an opposite course would draw them closer and bind their affections to them. So in the various organizations in the kingdom of God. The priesthood is the power of God; it rules in the eternal world, and should be recognized by all the inhabitants of the earth.

Discourse, 7 September 1865

Print Sources

CDBY — JD —

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

Discourse, 8 October 1865

Print Sources

CDBY — JD —

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Text

1866

Brigham Young

Introduction to 1866

sdf

Discourse, 17 June 1866

Print Sources

CDBY ??? JD ???

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Church History Library, CR 100 912 (Church History Department Pitman Shorthand transcriptions, 2013–2020), Brigham Young, 17 June 1866, transcribed by LaJean Carruth; view online here

Text

I suppose that the same variety of understanding in the minds of the people pertaining to the kingdom the same as it is on other subjects [space] we frequently here the elders refer to the kingdom of God to this people possessing it as having the ordinances of the house of God or the kingdom of God [space] I wish to inform all the elders of Israel [–?] with[?] their wives and their children and then all those that stand and look on those whose eyes are upon this kingdom or upon the results of the kingdom in the midst of the people [space] that when the kingdom of God is established upon the earth that each individual singly do his or her duty the kingdom of God always takes care of itself] it is a living moving thing [space] the priesthood of the Son of God comprises in its operations the kingdom of God if we were to ask what the priesthood of the Son of God is I know of no better language used what has been conveyed to me by the Spirit that is to say to the people it is a pure system of government] those let[?] those that are governed live according to this system of laws of this pure government don't you see that all harmonizes and each and every part of this kingdom or the members of the kingdom remains one with the other and he moves right along without any difficulty this is the fact with regard to what we see this great truth Brother Spencer referred [crossed out: to greater] this is a great truth a great fact that now exists and is before the eyes of the nations of the earth kings and rulers princes potentates presidents magistrates governor and officers with all the people in masses is a living living [sic] thing [space] besides this that we see to the acts of Joseph Smith [space] to any other man that ever lived or ever will to attribute any great power government power to any individual is a wrong conclusion in the minds of each and every individual that come to this conclusion it is not one man two a score a 100 nor a thousand that carries on this work the great architect and manager the superintendent the controller dictator the one that guides is out of sight of our natural eyes] he lives on another planet, [crossed out: he] is in another state of existence, he has passed the ordeals we are passing through he has received an experience, suffered enjoyed and knows all that you and I can know and just as we are passing through the whole of it he is crowned exalted and he holds the keys of power of this kingdom and sways his scepter to do his pleasure and does his will among the children of men saint or sinner and brings forth the results of kingdoms and kings of nations emperor and all redound to his glory and to the perfection of his work [space] it is not any man that sits[?] upon this earth that carries on this work it guides itself it directs itself by the great machinist whose work and workmanship we are whose kingdom this is it is all governed and controlled by him who knows all things] and he will bring forth the and he will bring forth the righteous and the just [inserted above line: and] humble [inserted above line: the meek of the earth all] those that love to serve him and keep his commandments and enjoy the fullness of his glory [space] these ordinances this kingdom and work is proffered to the whole human family all who desire may accept all the kingdom upon the terms of strict obedience not matter whether they are prophets apostles whether they have the gift of seeing[?] of faith whether they have the gift of tongues or an interpretation of tongues those power or that power no matter what it is they receive the kingdom the glory

and the benefits of this kingdom upon the simple[?] terms of strict obedience to the laws and requirements of it and when all every body the kingdom moves along the old ship Zion won't stop and you and I may be satisfied we see the hopes and the providences of men we see them run to the west to the east to the north to the south and here and there [space] those that have received the gospel and rejoice in it and yet the trials of the world they are thrown upon the ocean with their little bark without compasses rudder pilot anything to dictate and they are like the fowls aye/eye[?] to the ends of the have no wind whither to go to seek for that joy and peace their heart seeks for this is what brings on that confusion and a destruction the people that understand this and the cause of men's and women's becoming confused with regard to this kingdom here it is a living miracle to all its beholders

1867

Brigham Young

Introduction to 1867

sdf

Discourse, 27 August 1867

Print Sources

CDBY ????

JD ????

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Church History Library, CR 100 912 (Church History Department Pitman Shorthand transcriptions, 2013–2020), Brigham Young, 27 August 1867, transcribed by LaJean Carruth; view online here

Text

I suppose that the same variety of understanding in the minds of the people pertaining to the kingdom the same as it is on other subjects [space] we frequently here the elders refer to the kingdom of God to this people possessing it as having the ordinances of the house of God or the kingdom of God [space] I wish to inform all the elders of Israel [–?] with[?] their wives and their children and then all those that stand and look on those whose eyes are upon this kingdom or upon the results of the kingdom in the midst of the people [space] that when the kingdom of God is established upon the earth that each individual singly do his or her duty the kingdom of God always takes care of itself] it is a living moving thing [space] the priesthood of the Son of God comprises in its operations the kingdom of God if we were to ask what the priesthood of the Son of God is I know of no better language used what has been conveyed to me by the Spirit that is to say to the people it is a pure system of government] those let[?] those that are governed live according to this system of laws of this pure government don't you see that all harmonizes and each and every part of this kingdom or the members of the kingdom remains one with the other and he moves right along without any difficulty this is the fact with regard to what we see this great truth Brother Spencer referred [crossed out: to greater] this is a great truth a great fact that now exists and is before the eyes of the nations of the earth kings and rulers princes potentates presidents magistrates governor and officers with all the people in masses is a living living [sic] thing [space] besides this that we see to the acts of Joseph Smith [space] to any other man that ever lived or ever will to attribute any great power government power to any individual is a wrong conclusion in the minds of each and every individual that come to this conclusion it is not one man two a score a 100 nor a thousand that carries on this work the great architect and manager the superintendent the controller dictator the one that guides is out of sight of our natural eyes] he lives on another planet, [crossed out: he] is in another state of existence, he has passed the ordeals we are passing through he has received an experience, suffered enjoyed and knows all that you and I can know and just as we are passing through the whole of it he is crowned exalted and he holds the keys of power of this kingdom and sways his scepter to do his pleasure and does his will among the children of men saint or sinner and brings forth the results of kingdoms and kings of nations emperor and all redound to his glory and to the perfection of his work [space] it is not any man that sits[?] upon this earth that carries on this work it guides itself it directs itself by the great machinist whose work and workmanship we are whose kingdom this is it is all governed and controlled by him who knows all things] and he will bring forth the and he will bring forth the righteous and the just [inserted above line: and] humble [inserted above line: the meek of the earth all] those that love to serve him and keep his commandments and enjoy the fullness of his glory [space] these ordinances this kingdom and work is proffered to the whole human family all who desire may accept all the kingdom upon the terms of strict obedience not matter whether they are prophets apostles whether they have the gift of seeing[?] of faith whether they have the gift of tongues or an interpretation of tongues those power or that power no matter what it is they receive the kingdom the glory

and the benefits of this kingdom upon the simple[?] terms of strict obedience to the laws and requirements of it and when all every body the kingdom moves along the old ship Zion won't stop and you and I may be satisfied we see the hopes and the providences of men we see them run to the west to the east to the north to the south and here and there [space] those that have received the gospel and rejoice in it and yet the trials of the world they are thrown upon the ocean with their little bark without compasses rudder pilot anything to dictate and they are like the fowls aye/eye[?] to the ends of the have no wind whither to go to seek for that joy and peace their heart seeks for this is what brings on that confusion and a destruction the people that understand this and the cause of men's and women's becoming confused with regard to this kingdom here it is a living miracle to all its beholders

1873

Brigham Young

Introduction to 1873

sdf

Discussion, 9 June 1873

Print Sources

CDBY ????

JD ????

Online Access

Background

Original Source

Salt Lake School of the Prophets 1867–1883, edited by Devery S. Anderson, Signature Books, 2018, 377–378

Text

The School of the Prophets met in the Old Tabernacle at 4 o'clock p.m. Present Prest Brigham Young, Presiding. Prayer by William Hickenlooper. Roll called.

Prest D[aniel] H. Wells remarked that Prest Young touched on certain principles and doctrine yesterday, and particularly that doctrine pertaining to Adam being our Father & our God, and thought this was a proper place to call for the minds of the brethren and learn whether we as a school endorse the doctrine.

He bore a powerful testimony to the truth of the doctrine, remarking that if ever he had received a testimony of any doctrine in this Church he had of the truth of this. The Endowments plainly teach it and the Bible & other revelations are fully of it.

The principle doctrine was approved or endorsed by Henry Grow, D[aniel] B. Huntingdon, & Joseph F. Smith. The latter read a portion of a revelation given to the Church, ^page 2[01] Doc. & Cov.^ affirming that Michael or Adam is the Father of all—the Prince of all, and stated that the enunciation of that doctrine, gave him great joy. A[lonzo] H. Raleigh said he had never heard any one dispute the doctrine, to him it was perfectly natural, as was every other principle of the Gospel when understood.

Prest Young queried whether the brethren thought he was too liberal in launching out on this doctrine before the Gentiles. He was positive on the truth of the doctrine, but thought we should be cautious about preaching on doctrines unless we fully understand them by the power of the Spirit, then they commend themselves to the hearts of our hearers. Spoke of the vain theories of men with regard to the Great first Cause. Said there were many revelations given to him that he did not receive from the Prophet Joseph [Smith]. He did not receive them through the Urim and Thummim as Joseph did but when he did receive them he knew of their truth as much as it was possible for ~~them~~ him to do of any truth. He thought it advisable to adjourn the School, as it was a busy time and only about one third of the brethren present.

John Lyon fully endorsed the principle doctrine, but asked explanation why the Scriptures seemed to put Jesus Christ on an equal footing with the Father.

Prest Young replied that the writers of those scriptures wrote according to their best language and understanding.

Geo B. Wallace endorsed the doctrine—and narrated a dream he received in answer to prayer, shewing that many worlds were made to God because he had many wives.

Joseph F. Smith said ~~he did not believe~~ “a man could enter ^not attain^ unto the ^a^ fullness of ^the^ glory ^of the Father^, who did not take to himself more than one wife.”

1877

Philo Dibble

Introduction to 1877

sdf

Sermon, 7 January 1877

Print Sources

— — — —

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

Payson Ward general minutes; this is the complete transcript of what Dibble said that day.

Text

Elder Philo Dibble of Springville next addressed the Congregation: Said he was a stranger to most of this congregation, but was not a stranger to the gospel, He had been in the church over 47 years. He was among the first 50 that embraced the gospel in this dispensation. He was present when Jos. Smith and Sidney Rigdon when they had that glorious vision of the creation &c. It was shown unto them that a hundred and forty four thousand should stand on the earth in the last days as Saviors of men. We all agreed in the heavens to come onto this earth and pass through this probation having forgotten all that we knew before. We are here for trial and they who hold out faithful will receive the crown. He was familiar with the Prophet Joseph from boyhood and knew him to be a man of God. Never loved any one as he loved Joseph. The Lord told the prophet when this church was organized with six members, that he was laying the foundation of a great work. It has already grown to greater dimensions than man could have dreamed of. He was present when the heavens were opened and men saw within the veil and saw the man of sin revealed and many other great and glorious things.

Related many other things that transpired in the Kirtland temple at its dedication. Testified that all that had been predicted by Joseph Smith would be literally fulfilled. The speaker prophesied that more would transpire this year than had in the three last, and the same in proportion every succeeding year until the winding up scene.

Referred to the persecutions that the Saints have passed through and the refusal of our enemies to redress our wrongs, how even rulers and men in high places turned a deaf ear to our cries. He enlisted in the cause of Christ as a soldier during the war. He hoped never to turn his back on his brethren: that he would be a valiant soldier to the end, No man who has the spirit of this work ever murmurs. As great and as many miracles had been worked in favor of Israel in our day as ever were in any former day or dispensation. Related some of these miracles and showed how the Lord had favored this people from the begining. The signs of the times that are now being made manifest should cause the Saints to lift up their hearts and rejoice. The return of the lost tribes is near at hand—the time to favor Zion. All the signs of the last days foretold by the Savior are before us. This is a great work and the laborers in the field are few. Let out hearts be glad that we live here in peace while the judgments of God are stalking through the earth. Related a dream he had three years ago. From this dream did not believe that either Tilden or Hayes would dare to be inaugurated. — Said he had been into the spirit world twice and he knew something about it. He saw no children in that world. Believed that spirits of little children do not go into the spirit world, but that being pure and spotless that they go back immediately into the presence of the Father and Son. He saw there that if a man here offend a brother without a cause and do not make it right here in the flesh that sin follows after the perpetrator and he has it to settle there; but that if we settle our difficulties here and make things right, it remains right and does not pursue us beyond this life.

Said he was traveling again with his paintings illustration of the early history of the Church and would exhibit them here some evening for the benefit of the people. He had been called to this workd; it is his mission to keep these things before the saints, that they may not be forgotten.

Brigham Young

Introduction to 1877

sdf

Instructions, 7 February 1877

Print Sources

CDBY ????

JD ????

Online Access Here

Background

Original Source

L. John Nuttall's typescript diary, volume 1, pages 18–21 (starting at PDF 137)

Text

At Temple...Prest Young was filled with the spirit of God & revelation & said when we got our washings and anointings under the hands of the Prophet Joseph at Nauvoo we had only one room to work in with the exception of a little side room or office where we were washed and anointed had our garments placed upon us and received our New Name. and after he had performed these ceremonies. he gave the Key Words signs, tokens [sic] and penalties. then after we went into the large room over the store in Nauvoo. Joseph divided up the room the best that he could hung up the veil, marked it gave us our instructions as we passed along from one department to another giving us signs. tokens. penalties with the Key words pertaining to those signs and after we had got through. Bro Joseph turned to me (Prest B Young) and said Bro Brigham this is not arranged right but we have done the best we could under the circumstances in which we are placed, and I...wish you to take this matter in hand and organize and systematize all these ceremonies with the signs. tokens penalties and Key words I did so and each time I got something more so that when we went through the Temple at Nauvoo I understood and Knew how to place them there. we had our ceremonies pretty correct —

In the creation the Gods entered into an agreement about forming this earth. & putting Michael or Adam upon it. these things of which I have been speaking are what are termed the mysteries of godliness but they will enable you to understand the expression of Jesus made while in Jerusalem. This is life eternal that they might know thee the only true God and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent. We were once acquainted [acquainted] with the Gods & lived with them but we had the privilege of taking upon us flesh that the spirit might have a house to dwell in. we did so and forgot all and came into the world not recollecting anything of which we had previously learned. We have heard a great deal about Adam and Eve. how they were formed &c some think he was made like an adobie and the Lord breathed into him the breath of life. for we read "from dust thou art and unto dust shalt thou return" Well he was made of the dust of the earth but not of this earth. he was made just the same way you and I are made but on another earth. Adam was an immortal being when he came. on this earth he had lived on an earth similar to ours he had received the Priesthood and the Keys thereof. and had been faithful in all things and gained his resurrection and his exaltation and was crowned with glory immortality and eternal lives and was numbered with the Gods for such he became through his faithfulness. and had begotten all the spirit that was to come to this earth. and Eve our common Mother who is the mother of all living bore those spirits in the celestial world. and when this earth was organized by Elohim, Jehovah & Michael who is Adam our common Father. Adam & Eve had the privilege to continue the work of Progression. consequently came to this earth and commenced the great work of forming tabernacles for those spirits to dwell in. and when Adam and those that assisted him had completed this Kingdom our earth he came to it. and slept and forgot all and became like an Infant child. it is said by Moses the historian that the Lord caused a deep sleep to come upon Adam and took from his side a rib and formed the woman that Adam called Eve—this should be interpreted that the Man Adam like all other Men had the seed within him to propagate his species. but not the Woman. she conceives the seed but she does not produce it. consequently she was taken from the side or bowels of her father. this explains the mystery of Mose's dark sayings in regard to Adam and Eve. Adam & Eve when they were placed on this earth were immortal beings with flesh. bones and sinews. but upon partaking of the fruits of the earth while in the garden and cultivating the ground their bodies became changed from immortal to mortal beings with the blood coursing through their veins as the action of life—Adam was not under transgression until affter he partook of the forbidden fruit this was necessary that they might be together that mian might be. the woman was found in transgression not the Man— Now in the law of Sacrifice we have the promise of a Savior and man had the privilege and showed forth his obedience by offering of the first fruits of the earth and the firstlings of the flocks— this as a showing that Jesus would come and shed his blood.

Father Adam's oldest son (Jesus the Saviour) who is the heir of the family is Father Adams first begotten in the spirit World. who according to the flesh is the only begotten as it is written. (In his divinity he having gone back into the spirit World. and come in the spirit to Mary and she conceived for when Adam and Eve got through with their Work in this earth. they did not lay their bodies down in the dust, but returned to the spirit World from whence they came.

I felt myself much blessed in being ~~peraitted~~ [sic] permitted to Associate with such men and hear such instructions as they savored of life to me—

DOCUMENTS AND STUDY PROJECTS

Correlated Accounts of Joseph Smith's First Vision

What is this?

The First Vision accounts

(1832) History, circa Summer 1832 sdf Link

(1835) Journal, 1835–1836 Link

(1838/9) History, circa June 1839–circa 1841 (Draft 2) Link

(1842) “Church History,” 1 March 1842 Link

(OP1840) Orson Pratt, A[n] Interesting Account of Several Remarkable Visions Link

(OH1842) Orson Hyde, Ein Ruf aus der Wüste Link

(LR1843) Levi Richards, Journal, 11 June 1843 Link

(DNW1843) Interview, JS by David Nye White, Nauvoo, IL, 29 Aug. 1843 Link

(AN1844) Alexander Neibaur, Journal, 24 May 1844 Link

Correlated accounts of the vision

Introduction

1832	1835	1839	1840	1842A	1842B	1843	1844	1850
A History of the life of Joseph Smith Jr. an account of his marvilous experience and of all the mighty acts which he doeth in the name of Jesus Chist the son of the living God of whom he beareth record and also an account of the rise of the church of Christ in the eve of time according as the Lord brough<t> forth and established by his hand <firstly> he receiving the testamony from on high secondly the ministering of Angels thirdly the reception of the holy Priesthood by the ministring of Aangels to adminster the letter of the Gospel— <— the Law and commandments as they were given unto him—> and the ordinences, forthly a confirmation and reception of the high Priesthood after the holy order of the son of the living God power and ordinance from on high to preach the Gospel in the administration and demonstration of the spirit the Kees of the Kingdom of God conferred upon him and the continuation of the blessings of God to him &c—	While sitting in his house this morning between the hours of ten and eleven, a man came in and introduced himself to him calling himself Joshua, the Jewish Minister, His appearance was something singular, having a beard about three inches in length which is quite grey. his hair was also long and considerably silvered with age. He had the appearance of a man about 50 or 55 years old. He was tall and straight, slender frame, blue eyes, thin visage, and fair complexion. He wore a green frock coat and pantaloons of the same color. He had on a black fur hat with a narrow brim. When speaking he frequently shuts his eyes and exhibits a kind of scowl upon his countenance. He (Joseph) made some inquiry after his name, but, received no definite answer. The conversation soon turned upon the subject of Religion, and after the subject of this narrative had made some remarks concerning the bible, he commenced giving him a relation of the circumstances, connected with the coming forth of the Book of Mormon, which were nearly as follows.	Owing to the many reports which have been put in circulation by evil-disposed and designing persons, in relation to the rise and progress of the Church of <Jesus Christ of> Latter day Saints, all of which have been designed by the authors thereof to militate against its character as a church and its progress in the world; I have been induced to write this history to disabuse the publick mind, and put all inquirers after truth in possession of the facts, as they have transpired, in relation both to myself and the Church as far as I have such facts in my possession. In this history I shall present the various events in relation to this Church, in truth and righteousness as they have transpired, or as they at present exist, being now the eighth year since the organization of the said Church.	—	At the request of Mr. John Wentworth, Editor, and Proprietor of the “Chicago Democrat,” I have written the following sketch of the rise, progress, persecution, and faith of the Latter-Day Saints, of which I have the honor, under God, of being the founder. Mr. Wentworth says, that he wishes to furnish Mr. Bastow, a friend of his, who is writing the history of New Hampshire, with this document. As Mr. Bastow has taken the proper steps to obtain correct information all that I shall ask at his hands, is, that he publish the account entire, ungarnished, and without misrepresentation	—	The Lord does reveal himself to me. I will tell you about it.	—	The church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was first organized in the Town of Manchester, Ontario County, State of New York, U.S.A., 6th April 1830. Previous to this an holy angel appeared unto a young man about fifteen years of age, a farmer’s son, named Joseph Smith, and communicated unto him many things pertaining to the situation of the religious world, the necessity of a correct church organization, and unfolded many events that should transpire in the last days, as spoken of by the Prophets. As near as possible I will give the words as he related them to me.

CONCEPTS

ACCOUNTABILITY

See also

Agency,

Scriptural Usage

New Testament

KJV

Luke 12:47–48

John 9:39–41

Romans 4:15

Romans 7

Book of Mormon

Mosiah 3:22

- There are other relevant verses in this chapter before this, I think.

Alma 9:14–24

3 Nephi 6:18

3 Nephi 20:28

3 Nephi 28:34–35

Moroni 8:8–

Doctrine and Covenants

DC 42:32

DC 45:54

DC 68:25–28

DC 70:3–4

DC 70:9 • Need to look carefully at the verses around here to see exactly what the Lord has in mind.

DC 72:3

DC 72:16–19

DC 72:22

DC 78:22

DC 88:82

DC 98:39–48 • These verses, especially 45–47, look like the children of certain people are being punished for the sins of their predecessors.

DC 124:49–53

DC 124:111–114

DC 137:7–10

Commentary and Studies

“Years of accountability”

See John Locke’s second treatise on government, chapter 6, §59–§60, §63.

Relevant scripture references:

- DC 18:42
- DC 20:71
- DC 29:46–47
- DC 68:25–28
- DC 137:7–10

ADAM

Doctrine and Covenants

DC 84:16

Key Phrases

transgression of Adam See this phrase here.
curse of Adam

Commentary and Studies

Adam as Michael

See the historical introduction to DC 27 for some notes on this; see also the extended study from JSR.

ADAM-GOD

See also

Condescension, Adam,

Scriptural Usage

New Testament

Greek New Testament

Matthew 10:24–25

Luke 2:34

- I'm thinking specifically of the “rising and falling” part.

Luke 3:38

Luke 9:31

- See notes at the phrase “one eternal round.”

Luke 10:22

- Admittedly a stretch to go with Adam-God stuff.

Luke 15:11–32

- The prodigal son, which is so rich that it can definitely be taken along Adam-God lines, in particular with the eternal lives and multiple resurrections.¹

John 3:13–15 καὶ οὐδεὶς ἀναβέβηκεν εἰς τὸν οὐρανὸν εἰ μὴ ὁ ἐκ τοῦ οὐρανοῦ καταβάς, ὁ υἱὸς τοῦ ἀνθρώπου. 14 καὶ καθὼς Μωϋσῆς ὑψώσεν τὸν ὄφιν ἐν τῇ ἐρήμῳ, οὕτως ὑψωθῆναι δεῖ τὸν υἱὸν τοῦ ἀνθρώπου, 15 ἵνα πᾶς ὁ πιστεύων ἐν αὐτῷ ἔχῃ ζωὴν αἰώνιον.

- This verse may apply to Adam-God with the idea that a god must lose exaltation in order to re-enter a non-celestial world, do some activity there, and then be exalted again.

1 Corinthians 15

- Especially the second half of this chapter; notice the connections of certain Greek words to each other, which are obscured in the English translation.

Ephesians 3:14–15 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, 15 Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named,

- If Adam is the Father, then Paul is bowing to Adam, “of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named.” Then see 2 Nephi 9:21: “And he cometh into the world that he may save all men, if they will hearken unto his voice. For behold, he suffereth the pains of all men, yea, the pains of every living creature, both men women and children, which belong to the family of Adam”; and Mormon 3:20: “And these things do the Spirit manifest unto me. Therefore I write unto you all; and for this cause I write unto you, that ye may know that ye must all stand before the judgment seat of Christ, yea, every soul which belongeth to the whole human family of Adam—and ye must stand to be judged of your works, whether they be good or evil—”.
- There’s a possible dual meaning in Eph 3:15 though. It could refer to Christ, after whom we are named when we become his sons and daughters through the new birth; but it seems also to refer to the Father, after whom all families are named.
- See Ephesians 3:15 for a comment on the Greek text.

Book of Mormon

1 Nephi 5:11 And he beheld that they did contain the five books of Moses, which gave an account of the creation of the world and also of Adam and Eve, which was our first parents,

1 Nephi 11:18 And he said unto me: Behold, the virgin which thou seest is the mother of God after the manner of the flesh.

2 Nephi 2 (Read this entire chapter with Adam-God in mind and see how you can make it work. Especially verse 25, which comes to be very beautiful.)

2 Nephi 2:25 Adam fell that men might be, and men are that they might have joy. (Think especially in the first half of this verse, of Adam giving up his exaltation and thereby “falling” in order to create material bodies for the offspring which he had already had spiritually.)

2 Nephi 9:21 And he cometh into the world that he may save all men, if they will hearken unto his voice. For behold, he suffereth the pains of all men, yea, the pains of every living creature, both men women and children, which belong to the family of Adam.

3 Nephi 15:5 Behold, I am he that gave the law, and I am he which covenanted with my people Israel. Therefore the law in me is fulfilled, for I have come to fulfill the law. Therefore it hath an end. (I don't quite know how the Adam-godders interpret scriptures like these, where it seems like Christ is saying that he's Jehovah, or the God that the people associated with in the OT. As I understand Adam-God, there's a hierarchy going from Elohim to Jehovah and then to Michael (our Father) and Christ. So Jehovah and Christ have to be different people on this account.)

Doctrine and Covenants

DC 27:11

DC 29:34

DC 78:16

DC 132:22–25 • I'm thinking specifically of the “lives” and “deaths” language of these verses.

DC 137:5 (See notes at this verse as well, it's the original source that's important; this is in the list of JS quotes below.)

Restoration Usage

Joseph Smith

Visions, 21 January 1836 [D&C 137] ...I saw the beautiful streets of that kingdom, which had the appearance of being paved with gold—I saw father Adam, and Abraham and Michael and my father and mother, my brother Alvin that has long since slept...

Commentary After “Michael” in the above quote, the JSP gives the following footnote. It's a good reminder that, although this quote has clear relevance for Adam-God, we have to also think about everything else JS said as well: “Although Adam and Michael, the archangel, are designated here as separate persons, the previous year JS approved publication of the Doctrine and Covenants, which described them as the same person: ‘Michael, or Adam, the father of all, the prince of all, the ancient of days.’ Likewise, in a 1 January 1834 letter to John Whitmer, Oliver Cowdery wrote that he had ‘been informed from a proper source that the Angel Michael is no less than our father Adam.’ (Doctrine and Covenants 50:2, 1835 ed. [D&C 27:11]; Oliver Cowdery, Kirtland, OH, to John Whitmer, Missouri, 1 Jan. 1834, in Cowdery, Letterbook, 15; see also Richards, ‘Pocket Companion,’ 74–75; and Robert B. Thompson, Sermon Notes, 5 Oct. 1840, JS Collection, CHL.)”

Temple Ordinances

The creation of Adam and Eve (See this note about a possible earlier version of the endowment, and the way it describes Elohim and Jehovah.)

Adam as Lord We give you dominion over all these things and make you, Adam, lord over the whole earth and all things on the face thereof. (Would this include Christ?)

Apostles of the Lord Jesus Christ (After Peter, James, and John make their first visit, Elohim tells Jehovah, “Jehovah, instruct Peter, James, and John to go down in their true character, as apostles of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the man Adam and his posterity in the telestial world and to cast Satan out of their midst.” Jehovah then gives them this instruction: “Peter, James, and John, go down in your true character, as apostles of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the man Adam and his posterity in the telestial world. Cast Satan out of their midst.” If Jehovah is Christ, then it's a little awkward for him to speak to his apostles in this way, but it's still possible to interpret it that way.)

Newer lecture at the veil The 1990 revision eliminated the lecture at the veil, which was not the same as BY's original lecture but was kind of long and much more substantial than what happens now. That lecture describes what happens in the endowment in quite a bit of detail. Part of it says, speaking of the temple visitors: “you heard the voices of persons representing a council of the Gods—Elohim, Jehovah, and Michael.” So they are told that the voices represent a council of the Gods—that all in the council are Gods, and Michael is one of them. Soon after the lecture also says, “Michael, one of the council of the Gods, became the man Adam, to whom was given the woman Eve. However, as Adam he did not remember his life and labors in the council,” again affirming that Michael belonged to the council of Gods.

Lorenzo Snow

14 October 1882, WWJ 8:126 President Taylor told what Joseph Smith said to him upon that subject & said if we do not Embrace that principle soon the Keys will be turned against us for if we do not keep the same law that Our Heavenly Father has we Cannot go with him. The word of the Lord to us was that if we did not obey that Law we Could not go where our Heavenly Father dwells. A man obeying a lower Law is not qualified to preside over those who keep a higher Law.

Commentary and Studies

Key Points

- See this thought on Eve, from here: “In the temple, Eve is called ‘the mother of all living’ before she gives birth to a child or does anything else, really.” One way of understanding this is that she had already been a mother, because she was already exalted.

Thoughts on Adam-God

1. There is a really simple way of seeing Adam-God in the basic, canonical account of the fall—Adam and Eve were already resurrected, and had perfected, spiritual bodies, and so couldn’t die. Until something changed, they were immortal, so the fall had to happen in order for them to provide mortal bodies for their offspring. They couldn’t have done so before that time.
2. Tay Reynolds once wrote the following for an assignment in the JS class in fall 2022, after doing the readings about the soul:
 - “I am fascinated by Adam’s position in this system. It seems that he is the highest angel, which also means that before the world began, he had already advanced farther than the typical spirit of a human (‘Spirits can only be revealed in flaming fire, or glory. Angels have advanced farther—their light and glory being tabernacled, and hence appear in bodily shape’). If it is Adam’s authority that is needed to bring the keys from heaven, wouldn’t that mean that part of Christ’s journey as a man required Adam’s— higher—authority? This is not meant to be incendiary, but is there a chance Adam’s soul was in in a more advanced position than Christ’s when this all started, at least in some ways? He is father of the human family and presides over the spirit of all men, and one of the most important parts of Christ’s mission was the fact that he lived a mortal, human life, with a human spirit and body. Does that put him in Adam’s stewardship? Furthermore, Christ had the keys on Earth...must He then stand before Adam in the Grand Council?
 - “This brings up so many questions, namely, what was Christ’s soul at the beginning of all this? Was He an angel whose glory was embodied, or was Him being a less-advanced spirit a necessary condition for His ability to volunteer as Savior? How many lives/stages/reorganizations had Adam been through before He helped build the world and then became the first man? What I find confusing, in addition to everything else I’ve just said, is that Adam’s sins as a man absolutely required Christ’s redeeming power. And yet he was also this presiding archangel Michael. How can that be? It makes me think that the way position and advancement in the plan works isn’t perfectly linear... like, you’re a human, you’re a savior, you’re a god. Maybe the progression looks different for different spirits, or is simply different than we’re imagining.”

ADAMIC LANGUAGE

Restoration Usage

Joseph Smith

Between 4 and 20 March 1832 See here.

Brigham Young

8 November 1832, CDBY 3 In the evening, a few of the brethren came in, and we conversed upon the things of the kingdom. He called upon me to pray; in my prayer I spoke in tongues. As soon as we arose from our knees, the brethren flocked around him, and asked his opinion concerning the gift of tongues that was upon me. He told them it was the pure Adamic language. Some said to him they expected he would condemn the gift Brother Brigham had, but he said, “No, it is of God.” (Be careful with both the date and source here—this needs to be checked because there are mistakes around here in CDBY.)

ADOPTION (LAW OF)

ADULTERY

Scriptural Usage

New Testament

KJV

Matthew 5:28 But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

Greek New Testament

μοιχεύω

BDAG 582a

1 commit adultery

1a of both sexes, with reference to the Ten Commandments

1b of the man only

1bα absolute

1bβ with object τινα (γυναῖκα) commit adultery with someone

LSJ 1141b, PDF 1212

I.1 commit adultery with a woman, debauch her, with accusative

I.2 metaphorical, worship idolatrously

II intransitive, commit adultery

III (A special use of the future middle of this verb.)

Some NT uses

Matthew 5:28 ἐγὼ δὲ λέγω ὑμῖν ὅτι πᾶς ὁ βλέπων γυναῖκα πρὸς τὸ ἐπιθυμῆσαι αὐτήν ἤδη ἐμοίχευσεν αὐτήν ἐν τῇ καρδίᾳ αὐτοῦ.

Doctrine and Covenants

DC 42:22–26

DC 63:16 And verily I say unto you, as I have said before, he that looketh on a woman to lust after her, or if any shall commit adultery in their hearts, they shall not have the Spirit, but shall deny the faith and shall fear.

ADVOCATE

Scriptural Usage

Old Testament

KJV

Total occurrences in the OT 0

New Testament

KJV

Total occurrences in the NT 1

1 John 2:1 MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

Greek New Testament

(The word translated as “advocate” in 1 John 2:1 is παράκλητος, discussed at Comforter.)

Book of Mormon

Total occurrences in the BOM 1

Moroni 7:28 For he hath answered the ends of the law, and he claimeth all those that hath faith in him. And they that have faith in him will cleave unto every good thing. Wherefore he advocateth the cause of the children of men, and he dwelleth eternally in the heavens.

Doctrine and Covenants

Total occurrences in the DC 5

DC 29:5 Lift up your hearts and be glad, for I am in your midst, and am your advocate with the Father; and it is his good will to give you the kingdom.

DC 32:3 And Ziba Peterson also shall go with them; and I myself will go with them and be in their midst; and I am their advocate with the Father, and nothing shall prevail against them.

DC 45:3 Listen to him who is the advocate with the Father, who is pleading your cause before him—

DC 62:1 BEHOLD, and hearken, O ye elders of my church, saith the Lord your God, even Jesus Christ, your advocate, who knoweth the weakness of man and how to succor them who are tempted.

DC 110:4 I am the first and the last; I am he who liveth, I am he who was slain; I am your advocate with the Father.

Pearl of Great Price

Total occurrences in the PGP 0

AFFIX

1828 American Dictionary of the English Language

- 1 To unite at the end; to subjoin, annex, or add at the close; as, to affix a syllable to a word; to affix a seal to an instrument.
- 2 To attach, unite, or connect with, as names affixed to ideas, or ideas affixed to things.
- 3 To fix or fasten in any manner. In this sense, fix is more generally used.

Scriptural Usage

Old Testament

KJV

Total occurrences in the OT 0

New Testament

KJV

Total occurrences in the NT 0

Book of Mormon

Total occurrences in the BOM 6

2 Nephi 2:10 And because of the intercession for all, all men cometh unto God. Wherefore they stand in the presence of him to be judged of him according to the truth and holiness which is in him; wherefore the ends of the law which the Holy One hath given unto the inflicting of the punishment which is affixed, which punishment that is affixed is in opposition to that of the happiness which is affixed, to answer the ends of the atonement—

Alma 42:16 Now repentance could not come unto men except there were a punishment, which also was as eternal as the life of the soul, should be affixed opposite to the plan of happiness, which was as eternal also as the life of the soul.

Alma 42:18 Now there was a punishment affixed and a just law given, which brought remorse of conscience unto man.

Alma 42:22 But there is a law given and a punishment affixed and repentance granted, which repentance mercy claimeth. Otherwise justice claimeth the creature and executeth the law, and the law inflicteth the punishment. If not so, the works of justice would be destroyed; and God would cease to be God.

Doctrine and Covenants

Total occurrences in the DC 2

DC 82:4 Ye call upon my name for revelations, and I give them unto you; and inasmuch as ye keep not my sayings, which I give unto you, ye become transgressors; and justice and judgment are the penalty which is affixed unto my law.

DC 135:7 ...and their innocent blood on the floor of Carthage jail is a broad seal affixed to “Mormonism” that cannot be rejected by any court on earth...

AGAIN

Scriptural Usage

New Testament

Greek New Testament

ἀνωθεν

BDAG 80b

- 1 in extension from a source that is above, from above
- 2 from a point of time marking the beginning of something, from the beginning
- 3 for a relatively long period in the past, for a long time
- 4 at a subsequent point of time involving repetition, again, anew (John 3:3 and 3:7 are listed here, with the note that ἀνωθεν in these verses “is designedly ambiguous and suggests also a transcendent experience born from above.”)

LSJ, PDF

•

Some NT uses

AGENCY, AGENT

1828 American Dictionary of the English Language

Agency

- 1 The quality of moving or of exerting power; the state of being in action; action; operation; instrumentality; as, the agency of providence in the natural world.
- 2 The office of an agent, or factor; business of an agent entrusted with the concerns of another; as, the principal pays the charges of agency

Agent

- 1 An actor; one that exerts power, or has the power to act; as, a moral agent
- 2 An active power or cause; that which has the power to produce an effect; as, heat is a powerful agent
- 3 A substitute, deputy, or factor; one entrusted with the business of another; and attorney; a minister.

Buck's Theological Dictionary (1833)

- 26 AGENT, that which acts: opposed to patient, or that which is acted upon.¹
- Note the relationship between this understanding of an “agent” and 2 Nephi 2:13–14 and 26.
- 644 A moral agent is a being that is capable of those actions that have a moral quality and which can properly be denominated good or evil in a moral sense.

Scriptural Usage

Old Testament

KJV

Total occurrences in the OT 0

New Testament

KJV

Total occurrences in the NT 0

Book of Mormon

Total occurrences in the BOM 0

¹NCDAS PDF 51: “AGENT and patient, in law, is said of a person who is the doer of a thing, and also the party to whom it is done. Thus, if a man who is indebted to another, makes his creditor his executor, and dies, the executor may retain so much of the goods of the deceased, as will satisfy his debt; by which means he becomes agent and patient; that is, the person to whom the debt is due, and the person who pays it.”

Doctrine and Covenants

Agent

Total occurrences in the DC 21

- DC 29:35 Behold, I gave unto him that he should be an agent unto himself; and I gave unto him commandment, but no temporal commandment gave I unto him, for my commandments are spiritual; they are not natural nor temporal, neither carnal nor sensual.
- DC 29:39 And it must needs be that the devil should tempt the children of men, or they could not be agents unto themselves; for if they never should have bitter they could not know the sweet—
- DC 51:8 And the money which is left unto this people—let there be an agent appointed unto this people, to take the money to provide food and raiment, according to the wants of this people.
- DC 51:12 And this shall be done through the bishop or the agent, which shall be appointed by the voice of the church.
- DC 53:4 And also to be an agent unto this church in the place which shall be appointed by the bishop, according to commandments which shall be given hereafter.
- DC 57:6 And let my servant Sidney Gilbert stand in the office to which I have appointed him, to receive moneys, to be an agent unto the church, to buy land in all the regions round about, inasmuch as can be done in righteousness, and as wisdom shall direct.
- DC 57:15 And now concerning the gathering—Let the bishop and the agent make preparations for those families which have been commanded to come to this land, as soon as possible, and plant them in their inheritance.
- DC 58:28 For the power is in them, wherein they are agents unto themselves. And inasmuch as men do good they shall in nowise lose their reward.
- See verses 26–33 really, which are all relevant. Also see my notes at these verses.
- DC 58:49 And let there be an agent appointed by the voice of the church, unto the church in Ohio, to receive moneys to purchase lands in Zion.
- DC 58:51 And an epistle and subscription, to be presented unto all the churches to obtain moneys, to be put into the hands of the bishop, of himself or the agent, as seemeth him good or as he shall direct, to purchase lands for an inheritance for the children of God.
- DC 58:55 Let all these things be done in order; and let the privileges of the lands be made known from time to time, by the bishop or the agent of the church.
- DC 60:11 And he that is able, let him return it by the way of the agent; and he that is not, of him it is not required.
- DC 63:45 Verily I say, let him be ordained as an agent unto the disciples that shall tarry, and let him be ordained unto this power;
- DC 64:29 Wherefore, as ye are agents, ye are on the Lord's errand; and whatever ye do according to the will of the Lord is the Lord's business.
- DC 70:11 Yea, neither the bishop, neither the agent who keepeth the Lord's storehouse, neither he who is appointed in a stewardship over temporal things.
- DC 84:113 He should also employ an agent to take charge and to do his secular business as he shall direct.
- DC 90:22 And let the bishop search diligently to obtain an agent, and let him be a man who has got riches in store—a man of God, and of strong faith—
- DC 104:17 For the earth is full, and there is enough and to spare; yea, I prepared all things, and have given unto the children of men to be agents unto themselves.
- DC 104:41 Yea, verily, this is the stewardship which I have appointed unto my servant N. K. Whitney, even this whole mercantile establishment, him and his agent, and his seed after him.
- DC 127:1 ...I would say to all those with whom I have business, that I have left my affairs with agents and clerks who will transact all business in a prompt and proper manner..
- DC 128:8 ...for out of the books shall your dead be judged, according to their own works, whether they themselves have attended to the ordinances in their own propria persona, or by the means of their own agents, according to the ordinance which God has prepared for their salvation from before the foundation of the world, according to the records which they have kept concerning their dead.

Agency

Total occurrences in the DC 4

- DC 29:36 And it came to pass that Adam, being tempted of the devil—for, behold, the devil was before Adam, for he rebelled against me, saying, Give me thine honor, which is my power; and also a third part of the hosts of heaven turned he away from me because of their agency;

DC 64:18 And now, verily I say that it is expedient in me that my servant Sidney Gilbert, after a few weeks, shall return upon his business, and to his agency in the land of Zion;

DC 93:31 All truth is independent in that sphere in which God has placed it, to act for itself, as all intelligence also; otherwise there is no existence. 31 Behold, here is the agency of man, and here is the condemnation of man; because that which was from the beginning is plainly manifest unto them, and they receive not the light.

DC 101:78 That every man may act in doctrine and principle pertaining to futurity, according to the moral agency which I have given unto him, that every man may be accountable for his own sins in the day of judgment.

Pearl of Great Price

Agent

Total occurrences in the PGP 1

Moses 6:56 And it is given unto them to know good from evil; wherefore they are agents unto themselves, and I have given unto you another law and commandment.

Agency

Total occurrences in the PGP 2

Moses 4:3 Wherefore, because that Satan rebelled against me, and sought to destroy the agency of man, which I, the Lord God, had given him, and also, that I should give unto him mine own power; by the power of mine Only Begotten, I caused that he should be cast down;

Moses 7:32 The Lord said unto Enoch: Behold these thy brethren; they are the workmanship of mine own hands, and I gave unto them their knowledge, in the day I created them; and in the Garden of Eden, gave I unto man his agency;

Restoration Usage

Joseph Smith

Letter, 8 December 1839

Commentary and Studies

What is “agency,” and what is it to be an “agent,” in the gospel?

The most important scriptures to look at (though note that the gospel understanding of “agency” must include the way that “agents” are sometimes spoken of in the DC, as part of definition #3 in the 1828 dictionary):

- 2 Nephi 2:16
- 2 Nephi 2:26
- DC 29:35
- DC 29:36
- DC 29:39
- DC 58:28
- DC 63:45
- DC 64:29
- DC 93:31
- DC 101:78
- DC 104:17
- DC 128:8
- Moses 4:1

- Moses 4:3
- Moses 6:56
- Moses 7:32

There are other relevant scriptures as well—because there is a close relationship in the gospel between being an “agent” and knowing good from evil, you also have to look at occurrences of “good” and “evil” together, with a search something like “good* &6 evil*”. There are probably other relevant searches as well. See: 2 Nephi 2:5; Moses 6:55; DC 98:8;

Other scriptures:

- DC 29:49–50
 - Those who have knowledge are commanded to repent—not necessarily others.

Dreyfuss and Kelly, All Things Shining

Whereas in Luther the source of my existential certainty about how to act is my experience of Jesus’ unfailing love for me, in Kant I alone take responsibility for all my acts. And indeed, according to Kant, this is a sign of my maturity.

There are lots of details in Kant about what features this self-given law ought to have, but the essential point here is that the moral law must be given to us by ourselves. In Kant’s terminology, we are self-law-givers—“autonomous” agents who ought to act in accordance with the principles we set for ourselves. Nothing outside of us—no God or other force, no impulse, no revered text, no parental demand, custom, or state decree—can be that upon which we base our actions when we are acting at our best. All external forces are denigrated by Kant as “heteronomous determinations of the will.” That is, other-given causes of our actions. If we allow these external forces to influence us in our actions, then we are failing to live up to the demands placed upon us as the kind of free, self-sufficient beings we essentially are (PDF 170–171).

ANOINTING, ANOINT

Scriptural Usage

Doctrine and Covenants

DC 109:35

DC 109:53

DC 109:80

ANGEL

Scriptural Usage

Book of Mormon

3 Nephi 28:30

Commentary and Studies

What is an “angel”?

One definition comes from Moroni 7:31. Speaking about angels, it reads,

And the office of their ministry is to call men unto repentance and to fulfill and to do the work of the covenants of the Father which he hath made unto the children of men, to prepare the way among the children of men by declaring the word of Christ unto the chosen vessels of the Lord, that they may bear testimony of him.

So on this understanding, an angel is someone who has received the “office” or duty to call people to repentance. See also DC 29:42,

ANSWER (VERB)

See also

End,

1828 American Dictionary of the English Language

- 1 To speak in return to a call or question, or to a speech, declaration or argument of another person.
- 2 To be equivalent to; to be adequate to, or sufficient to accomplish the object.
- 3 To comply with, fulfill, pay or satisfy.
- 4 To act in return, or opposition.
- 5 To bear a due proportion to; to be equal or adequate; to suit.
- 6 To perform what was intended; to accomplish; as, the measure does not answer its end; it does not answer the purpose.
- 7 To be opposite to; to face.
- 8 To write in reply; to reply to another writing, by way of explanation, refutation or justification.
- 9 To solve, as a proposition or problem in mathematics.

ANTICHRIST

Scriptural Usage

New Testament

KJV

Total occurrences in the NT 4

1 John 2:18

1 John 2:22

1 John 4:3

2 John 1:7

Greek New Testament

ἀντί

For “grace for grace,” see here.

BDAG 76b

- 1 indicating that one person or thing is, or is to be, replaced by another, instead of, in place of
 - Hebrews 12:2 is glossed under this meaning.
- 2 indicating that one thing is equivalent to another, for, as, in place of...differently to be understood is χάριν ἀντί χάριτος grace after or upon grace (i.e. God’s favor comes in ever new streams)
 - After some references they then list John 1:16 under this meaning.
- 3 indicating a process of intervention. Genesis 44:33 shows how the sense of ‘in place of’ can develop into in behalf of, for someone
- 4 indicating the reason for something, because of, for the purpose of
- 5 indicating result, with implication of being a replacement for something, wherefore, therefore, so then

ASK, ASKING

Commentary and Studies

Versions of the promise about asking and receiving

John 16:23–24

3 Nephi 18:20

3 Nephi 27:28–29

Mormon 9:21

– Also 27–28.

Ether 3:26

Moroni 7:26

Moroni 7:33

Moroni 10:23

DC 50:29

ATONEMENT, ATONE

See also

Intercession, Reconciliation, Sacrifice,

1828 American Dictionary of the English Language

Atonement

1. Agreement; concord; reconciliation, after enmity or controversy.
2. Expiation; satisfaction or reparation made by giving an equivalent for an injury, or by doing or suffering that which is received in satisfaction for an offense or injury; with for.
3. In theology, the expiation of sin made by the obedience and personal sufferings of Christ.

Atone

Intransitive

1. To agree; to be in accordance; to accord. [This sense is obsolete.]
2. To stand as an equivalent; to make reparation, amends or satisfaction for an offense or a crime, by which reconciliation is procured between the offended and offending parties.
3. To atone for, to make compensation or amends.

Transitive

